Palmer, of Sackville, presiding. There were thirty present. A letter was read from Rev. J. H. Armp of Toronto, secretary of the laymen's movement of Canada, enclosing a resolution setting out that the time has arrived for a definite and permanent plan of appointment to membership in the dominion committee of the Methodist laymen's missionary movement, so that the Methodist church may secure the best possible results from the work of the movement.

To this end it would recommend that the dominion committee be hereafter composed of officers of the missionary society, of members elected by the laymen's associations of the various annual conferences, one from each and such other laymen not exceeding twenty as the general board may nominate. The resolution was passed unanimously. The following officers were elected: President, Dr. J. M. Palmer, of Sackville; vice-president, J. M. Lamont, of Fredericton; secy-treasurer R. D. BERLIN GAY IN KAISER'S HONOR

Brilliant Gathering on Monday When Princes Bring Anniversary Congratulations

Berlin, June 12.—Berlin has begun to don festive garments for the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the coming to the Kaiser to the throne. The city is filling rapidly with visitors. The princes of the German states, excepting the Duke of Saxe-Meiningen, who is too old to travel, will come to Berlin to congratulate the Kaiser. He will receive in person the representatives of the numerous German foreign representatives who will be present at the most brilliant gatherings ever seen in Berlin.

The Emperor and Empress today rode to the stadium erected for the Olympic games to witness a jubilee equestrian tournament. Seven thousand school children gathered in the castle court this morning and cheered songs which they will sing "Their Majesties on Monday." The city of Berlin has appropriated 25,000 for the decorations of the streets. In Sunday, the real silver jubilee, it will occur as it marks the date of the Emperor's father. The Emperor will attend church in the morning and will lay a wreath on his father's tomb. The rest of the day he will spend with his family.

Scandal-Hunting Tories Must Produce the Proofs

British Leaders to Force Them To Make Good Their Charges

Bonar Law's Campaign to Be Allowed to go no Further on Unsupported Generalities — May Be Shown There Was Deliberate Plot Against Lloyd George

(Times' Special Cable)

London, June 12.—There is a distinct recovery of optimism in Liberal circles in consequence of the Marconi committee having at last concluded the persons part of their long fishing inquiry. Lord Murray's cable materially contributes to the Liberal revival by disposing of the mystery and with it the fog of suspicion which surrounded the later disclosures. The Liberals are anxious that the government shall find the earliest possible date for the debate on the committee report, hoping then to bring the Conservatives effectively to book for the persistent campaign of slander which has proceeded since Bonar Law assumed the leadership.

Bonar Law As Scandal Hunter

The Marconi rumors are only the latest phase of the movement which began with a Tory mare nest about the Indian silver contract. Chapter two was Bonar Law's famous Albert Hall speech, "revolutionary governments are always corrupt," in which he charged the government with creating jobs for supporters. This was supplied six months ago in a special return of all government appointments. Since then not one word either of substantiation or withdrawal has been heard. The Liberals intend to force their opponents to either justify or stand convicted of making charges without evidence. The Tories will not be allowed to ride off on generalities concerning ministerial indiscretion. They will be faced with grave, damaging charges which have been scattered broadcast and asked what apology they have to offer. Some of the more fervent radicals declare that the debate will disclose that a deliberate conspiracy to drive Lloyd George from political life had been engineered.

BRITISH MINISTERS ENTIRELY FREE FROM BLAME IN MARCONI SHARES MATTER; COMMITTEE REPORT IN

(Canadian Press)

London, June 12.—British cabinet ministers were today absolved by the parliamentary committee from all blame in connection with the alleged wireless scandals. The report of the parliamentary committee which investigated the affair, was issued today and declares that there is no foundation for any of the charges made against Attorney-General Sir Rufus Isaacs, Chancellor of the Exchequer David Lloyd George or Postmaster General Herbert L. Samuel. The committee finds that all the ministers concerned acted in the sincere belief that there was nothing in their affairs which would conflict with their duty as ministers of the crown.

Does Not Look as If Mr. Asquith Was Worrying Matter of Poet Laureate Brought up in Commons and Members Enjoy a Bit of Fun

(Canadian Press)

London, June 12.—The House of Commons was entertained last night with a question in regard to the poet laureate, which is vacant owing to the death of Alfred Austin. Arthur Lynch, the Irish member for West Clare, wanted to know the salary, perquisites and privileges which attached to the office and the nature of the duties required. The premier said the salary was $250 a year with an allowance of $135 in lieu of "a butt of sack." He did not know the exact duties of the office. Mr. Swinch, member for St. Helens, and Mr. McNeil suggested a revival of the post of king's jester, whereupon another member drew roars of laughter by asking the premier to consider the claims of Messrs Swinch and McNeil for the post. The captain Lynch wound up the discussion by asking whether a butt of sack was not an intolerable deal of sack for a "bopth of poetry."

Barry left last evening for Boston to conduct the defence of R. D. Isaacs. W. J. Poupore, ex-M. P. of Montreal, arrived in the city yesterday to await the arrival of his dredge which has completed a large contract in the Miramichi.

ANOTHER BRITISH NOBLEMAN GOES TO THE FOOTLIGHTS FOR BRIDE

London, June 12.—Another matrimonial alliance between the peerage and the stage was consummated yesterday. Sir Miles Talbot Stapleton, who is but twenty-two, was married to Dorris Ludford, who made a brief appearance in "The Arcadianne."

URGES METHODIST CHURCH TO HAVE IMMIGRATION DEPARTMENT

London, Ont., June 12.—Rev. Dr. Graham, secretary of education in the Methodist church, has suggested the establishment of an immigration department by the Methodist Church to solve the problem of selection and care of newcomers in Canada. He declares that the opening of the gates of Canada to the nations of the world under present conditions will develop grave causes for dissatisfaction, and the problem can best be met by the creation of an immigration department by the Methodist church.

Talk of Possible Change of Venue on Account of Evidence Which Came Out in Police Court This Morning—Doctor a Witness

(Canadian Press)

The standing room in the police court was taxed this morning when the preliminary examination in the case against Viola Reid, charged with the murder of her infant child, was begun. The young woman did not appear to be affected by her position, but smiled at friends who were inside the rail. Her husband was there and she shook hands with him and inquired as to her health, and on receiving a reply and took her seat beside her counsel, P. A. Guthrie, of Fredericton. B. L. Gerrow, acting on behalf of the attorney-general, conducted the prosecution. First Evidence Important. Two witnesses were examined this morning and the second was on the stand when the court adjourned. Several important facts were brought out in the evidence. That the child was alive when placed in the position in which it was found, it was thought to be borne out by the fact that both witnesses testified that when the body was found it was lying on its back, one of the little hands grasped firmly the twigg that was growing beside it. The other hand was clenched tightly over a bunch of dried leaves. The two witnesses also said that a piece of cord of both ends as well as a portion of the child's neck, and Dr. Bailey, who made an examination of the body, said that "On a cloth which was over the child's head, were contributing causes of death."

The first witness said that the place in which the body was found was frequented by the school children at that hour, and if the body had been there any length of time, it would have been discovered before. Against the fact that the evidence seems to show that the child died while it was found and it was also shown that the body was cold when discovered, and that it had been lying on its back for four hours. It is established that the child died at Fredericton Junction and not at St. John, it may mean that an application for a change of venue from St. John to Fredericton Junction will be made. It has been learned that the defendant, Viola Reid, resides near Tracy station, about three miles from Fredericton Junction. Lawrence Alexander, of Fredericton Junction, was the first witness. He said: "On April 28 about 11 minutes to eleven in the forenoon I started from the school house and in going along a path which runs back to the school house I saw something white in the bushes. I examined it and found of the body of a dead child. I called the attention of the teacher, Josiah Barnes, to it. The child was partly dressed in white clothes. The body was on its back with knees raised and head turned to one side. On the school teacher's advice I went to the junction and notified my father. Later I went back to the body and saw a string about the baby's neck. Doctor Bailey examined it and I did not think this child was very long dead. The body was left where it was found until the coroner arrived at seven o'clock, when, after examining it, he placed it in a coffin and left it in a shed near the school house. An inquest was held that night and the body was placed in a coffin and left in a shed near the school house. An inquest was held that night and the body was placed in a coffin and left in a shed near the school house. DANCE GIVEN IN HONOR OF WEDDING OF MUCH LOCAL INTEREST

Cyrus F. Inches and T. Malcolm McAvity were the hosts at a most enjoyable dance which they gave last evening at Keith's assembly rooms in honor of Miss Katie Hazen and Hugh Mackay, whose wedding will take place next week. The guests, who numbered about ninety, were presented by Mrs. P. R. Inches. The rooms received an attractive appearance with decorations of apple blossoms and white lilacs and with the walls draped with flags. Jones' orchestra furnished music for a protracted supper was served about midnight and the gathering broke up at an early hour. Admission to St. Paul's church on the occasion of the wedding of Miss Mackay and Mr. Mackay, on next Wednesday, will be by ticket only. This has been found necessary on account of the large number of invitations issued and the limited seating capacity of the church.

Presbyterian Women's Missionary Societies to Unite

Another Year As At Present Assembly Passes Resolution in Favor of Peace—Minimum Salaries of Deaconesses and Student Deaconesses Are to Be Increased

(Canadian Press)

Toronto, June 12.—At the closing of the Presbyterian General Assembly yesterday, a resolution in favor of peace was passed. Principal Gaudier said that the Women's Home Missionary Society and the Women's Foreign Missionary Society had amalgamated. This was endorsed by resolution and the hope was expressed that the Women's Missionary Society of Montreal will, at its next annual meeting, decide to become one of the provincial societies which are to constitute the Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, and that a joint meeting of the societies uniting be called for May, 1914, in Toronto, to adopt a constitution, choose a general council for the first year and, as far as possible, complete the organization of the new society, also that the work of the three societies be carried on for the year, and that the boards of the three appoint a joint committee. The report of the deaconess committee and Presbyterian Missionary and Deaconess Training Home was presented by C. S. MacDonald, the chairman, and a popular recommendation was that the minimum salary of a deaconess be $40 a month, instead of $30 as hitherto, and that of a student deaconess $30 instead of $25.

Sudbury, Ont., June 12.—The village of Biscoe on the line of the C. P. R. between Carter and Chapleau, was completely wiped out by fire last night. Among the buildings destroyed were the Catholic church, Hudson Bay store, depot and scores of dwellings, while the big lumber yards of the Booth & Shannon Lumber Company were also swept by the flames. The fire was fought by bucket brigades. The fire was caused by a spark from a train. The fire was caused by a spark from a train. The fire was caused by a spark from a train.

HIS AIRSHIP AFIRE

Plunge to Earth to Save Himself Fueler Drew is Killed

Lima, Ohio, June 12.—Andrew Drew, a Chicago aviator, fell 200 feet while making a test flight yesterday and was instantly killed. When in the air but a short time, Drew shut off his motor and the men at the aviation grounds saw a red tongue of flame dart from the machine. The flash of red at the rear of the machine increased and Drew, evidently hoping to land, in a field a half mile away made an emergency dip in an effort to save himself. The biplane, hesitated for a moment, suddenly shot downward. As the spectators ran across the fields to the wreck, there was the sound of an explosion and the machine was torn apart.

Sir Henry Kimber's two previous majorities over Liberal candidates in January and December, 1910, were 5,430 and 4,614. The issues on which the election was fought were mainly those of opposition to the home rule bill, Welsh disestablishment, and a demand for amendment of the insurance act.

CANON HAGUE AND THE POLICE DO NOT AGREE

Starting Statement About Girls Lured From Toronto—Women's Votes in Anglican Vestries

Toronto, Ont., June 12.—That two hundred girls a year, on an average, during the last few years, have been missing from Toronto and that the church organizations making a study of the matter have found that their fate has been allotment across the Niagara River, while slave victims, is the startling information given to the Anglican synod by Canon Dyon Hague, rector of St. Stephen's church. An effort was made by Rev. P. C. Plummer to secure for the women of the diocese of Toronto the right to vote in the Anglican vestries. He brought up a proposal to have the constitution changed so that the women could vote both on the business of the vestry and also at the election of the lay delegates to the synod. It was not suggested that women should be permitted to become members of synods and, as one of Canon Plummer's supporters said, this matter was "left over for some future convention."

TROUSERINE INSTEAD OF THE SLIT SKIRT

Substitute Has Been Designed For The Slashed Garment

Chicago, Ill., June 13.—Trousers that are not trousers, skirts that are not skirts, but a combination of both—the trouserine—will be offered by Chicago dressmakers as the "cure" for the almost but popular slashed skirts. Hereafter modern woman will pull her nether garments on over her feet, not over her head.

When the Chicago Dressmakers' Association opened warfare on the slash it struck, yet satisfying substitute.

Trousers are perfectly respectable on the man, and why not on the woman? asked W. E. House, leader of the fight against the slash. Then he designed the trouserine. It is a great flaring ankle-length pair of something so covered with drapery that on the street one never would stare at it. Trousers and drapery are all one, and there is no Mexican slash in the trousers either.

Designers who are about to offer the trouserine say it will solve the problem of permitting women to wear skirts closely bound around the ankle and still permit them to climb street car steps without embarrassment. The drapery idea, they say, is the one solution.

Trousers and drapery are all of the same material, and one scarcely can tell where either begins or ends.

Englishmen who were attending a meeting of an automobile society in Detroit, left their shoes outside the doors of their rooms in a hotel, according to the English custom. When they looked for them the next morning the shoes were gone, and they have not been found.

HAD A STROKE OF PARALYSIS

And Found a Cure in Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

It is always better to prevent serious diseases of the nerves. There are many warnings, such as sleeplessness, irritability, headaches and nervous indigestion.

Prostration, paralysis and locomotor ataxia only come when the nervous system is greatly exhausted. Even though your ailment may not yet be very serious, there is a great satisfaction in knowing that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food will cure paralysis in its earlier stages.

Mrs. R. Bright, 215 Booth avenue, Toronto, writes: "Two years ago my husband had a stroke which left him in a weak, nervous condition. He started taking Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and Kidney-Liver Pills, and we saw the good results almost immediately. They have made a new man of my husband and we cannot speak too highly of them."

MISS WYLIE DISGRUNTLED

AFTER VISIT TO CANADA. Suffragette Says it is Worse Here For Women Than in the Old Country. (Times' Special Correspondence)

London, June 8.—Miss Barbara Wylie, who went to Canada to enlist the sympathies of Canadian women in the suffrage question, has returned to this country and has lost no time in expressing her disapproval of conditions in the dominion which, in her estimation, are so bad that until they are improved she will organize a boycott.

"Until Canada has done justice to its own women," she says, "we will urge the women of England not to go there. We are told that Canada is a woman's paradise. It is nothing of the kind. A woman in Canada is extremely hard and lonely, and it is because of their loneliness that the asylums there are being filled with women, who are driven mad by the loneliness. They are caged in a 'shack' often miles from any populated district. Turn your back on Canada."

Miss Wylie denounces the apathy of the men of Canada in the making of laws "the larger politics," they are mostly concerned with the narrow limits of municipal government. In Quebec, she says, a woman was considered sensible until she married, when she was considered to have been entirely bereft of her senses. She must not enter into any business without the consent and signature of her husband, nor must she have a bank balance of more than $20 without her husband's signature. In the eyes of the laws of Quebec, the widow has no relation to the husband if he died without leaving a will, for, in such a case, the relatives of the husband, up to the twelfth degree, might claim half of the money, even though it was the product of the widow's industry. The laws are top-sidled, she declares. No woman has power over her own child, which can be taken from her when a day old, and given over to a stranger.

On the question of the vote, Miss Wylie makes equally strong remarks. She says that in the making of laws which permit foreign men entering Canada to be automatically put on the register, and the laws which give the franchise to men although they do not speak a word of the language. British women have to obey laws so made. Can one wonder that women are beginning to rebel, she asks.

Canada, she says, will continue to grow if the women do not battle themselves and set to work to get the vote, which, although it is but a preliminary step, is at this stage of the proceedings the most important thing that women can get, not only because of its material value, but because of its symbolic value.

A LITTLE FUN AT WESTMINSTER

O monstrous! but one half-penny-worth of bread to this intolerable deal of sack!

—Shaks, Henry IV, Act II, Sec. 4.

If the Germans are about to invade Britain, if a general European war is at hand, if the British government is in despair because of the action of Canada's Senate, if the Asquith administration is about to topple over, if Sir Edward Carson and his lieutenants are about to take to the trenches in Ulster—and recent cablegrams of Tory origin have assured us that all of these things are coming—how are we to account for the light-heartedness and the display of humor in the British House of Commons last night?

Perhaps here in Canada, where a certain school of alarmists is busily painting the sky with the lurid colors of coming strife and disaster, it may be well for us to observe how lightly these predicted catastrophes rest upon the honorable and right honorable gentlemen in the Imperial House of Commons.

The West Side has a building boom such as it has not experienced for a generation, and in other parts of the city more dwellings and stores are being erected than at any time within thirty years.

The Times publishes today a London cable letter on the financial situation. It tends to recall a phrase of the late J. Pierpont Morgan which became famous during another period of "full of undigested securities."

When Charles W. Morse left the federal prison at Atlanta, the doctors said he did not have a year to live. He now has an office in the Wall Street district and is at the head of an $8,000,000 corporation. Liberty appears to have worked a miraculous improvement in the financier's health. The world will hope that Mr. Morse may live long—and that his financial methods will be more healthful than they were before his physique broke down.

Discussion of the plan for a "shopping week" shows that it has strong elements of popularity and utility. With good preliminary organization it will be made a great success and of large benefit to the city. St. John is always worth seeing, and particularly so this year. It should be possible to arrange short trips around the city and suburbs in order that visitors may see for themselves the progress St. John is making.

At the peace meeting in Ottawa Mr. Borden said: "Let us hope that so long as the waters of the St. Lawrence flow we shall be at peace with each other." To which Mr. James J. Hill responded: "Whatever may be the fate of the general movement among the nations in favor of peace, those whose mother tongue is English will never again take up arms against one another." That is the way to talk. If the English-speaking peoples act on this understanding they will never have much trouble with the rest of the world, because the English-speaking peoples standing together would be too formidable to invite aggression or injustice.

HOW THEY DO IT

A writer in the London Times of May 24 reviews the steps taken toward manning the Australian navy. He says "when, barely two years ago, the work of organizing the Australian navy was begun, it was a frequently used argument against the whole idea of a local naval force that, although a Australian building ships, it would be impossible to man them from the ranks of the native-born. It was widely believed by those who knew Australia and Australia that the young Australian had no call of the sea in his blood. He ran away from home, or from school, he did not turn naturally to the sea, as would his English contemporary. He 'took to the bush,' and went up country—road away, instead of sailing away—in search of adventure. He was bound, of course, to submit to a compulsory military training, but it was certain that he would not elect to serve in a ship whilst there was a Light Horse Regiment in the Commonwealth."

"But young Australia has entirely silenced this argument against a local navy, and has turned the regretful and honest doubt of many of its well-wishers into delighted surprise at the ready response which has been made to the call for recruits. For the twenty-four vacancies in the Naval College temporarily located at Geelong in Victoria—there were 135 applicants, while of the whole complement of 200 boys which fills up the training ship Tingira in Sydney harbor, two-thirds are ready, in less than six months from the date of the ship's commissioning, enrolled upon her books. The depot, at Williamstown, near Melbourne, has been full almost ever since recruits have been received there, and large numbers of them are regularly drafted to sea in H. M. A. S. Encount### er for training in practical seamanship and engine-room duties."

After telling of the work done on the Tingira, The Times correspondent adds, "To anyone knowing the different States of Australia, a visit to the Tingira suggests—as a kind of side issue to the question of finding crews for the navy—a certain benefit that must accrue to the Commonwealth by the mere existence of the navy and the system of training for it which has been adopted. Parts of the continent which are thousands of miles apart are brought into closer touch with one another by such assembling of boys from each of them. It is no exaggeration to say that, to a lad from Coolgardie, Brisbane is as out of the world as the latter is to a boy from Manchester or Ottawa. The navy—as, indeed, the whole defence system—will rapidly alter this state of affairs, and Australians from the west will learn that their interests are identical with those of Australians from the east. This alone is a thing for which the Commonwealth will owe the navy thanks."

All this is most admirable and patriotic—in Australia, says the Toronto Globe. Why not in Canada?

The West Side has a building boom such as it has not experienced for a generation, and in other parts of the city more dwellings and stores are being erected than at any time within thirty years.

BIRTHDAYS OF NOTABILITIES

FRIDAY, JUNE 13.

Donald J. Armour, Hunterian professor of surgery at the Royal College of Surgeons, London, is a clever doctor, who was born on June 13. He is a son of the late Chief Justice of Ontario and has had a distinguished career in medicine in England. He celebrates his forty-fourth birthday today.

Harrison Watson, who has been representative of the government and various other bodies in London, was born on June 13, 1864, in Montreal. He entered business life and was for a time a director of the Bank of Montreal. He is London representative of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association.

LIGHTER VEIN

A wit was asked the other day whether the accident of a certain male friend was serious. "Well," he replied, "I should say it was. He married the hospital nurse!"

First Clubite—"If you steal—I don't care what it is—you'll repent it some day." Second Clubite—"Beh! Did you ever steal a kiss?" First Clubite—"Yes, and I married the girl!"

TANKS

There are two sorts of tanks. I've found, by weighty thinking, that the one kind is a swimming tank; the other kind is a drinking.

UNLIKE THE COLONEL

Lawyer—Do you mean to tell me the plaintiff was drunk?
Witness—Well, no; but you couldn't call him ostentatiously sober.

A WONDER

"He has the most wonderful self-control of any man I know."
"Indeed?"
"Yes; he saves the baseball news until he has read all the rest of the paper!"

INTERFERENCE

"Johnnie! You Johnnie! You come home this minute! I want you to go to the store right away."
"Aw, Maw! It's the seventh—it's 40 to 40 an' we only got two more innings to play!"
"Come, Johnnie! I want you to get things for supper—don't argue with me, for it won't do at all!"
"Aw, Maw! We're most done; honest! Injun we are, Maw. Besides, I can't leave, for they're waitin' my ball!"
"Now, that's enough, Johnnie. Come to me this minute—I don't want a word; you must come here to me."
"Say, folks, play slow, I'll just fix back. Play slow, now. It won't take a minute; just time me an' see!"

DINING ABOARD A PASSENGER SHIP

Wonders of Cold Storage Make Life on Wave One Long Round of Joy.

When Dickens came over to America, seventy-odd years ago there was one large table in the dining room for the passengers, says Leslie's Weekly. The first officer sat at the head, carving the turkey with all the grace he could command between lurches of the good ship, trusting to Providence that the gravy would not slop over. The passengers sent their plates along the line and waited for their helping.

Today the dining room of a large ship looks like the dining room of a fine hotel. It is just as exquisitely appointed and has every good thing to eat that can be found on land. In fact, one of the new ships has a restaurant named after a famous one in New York and the two keep in touch by wireless so that the menu, day by day, are the same. Think of having your dinner arranged by wireless—your macaroni by Marsani!

The dining room is divided into a number of small tables, so that you can have your own party, with your own waiter, instead of sitting at a long table and passing your plate as Dickens did. The development of more than any other one thing to make life on the ocean wave one long round of joy. Cold storage gives you the best in the world to eat, and every day in the year. A world traveler was telling me the other day that he had eaten grape-fruit every morning all around the world. The ship on which he sailed put in a large amount of ice cream made in New York and one hundred and ten days later, when he arrived in San Francisco he was still eating New York ice cream.

One man out of every forty in the United States is employed directly or indirectly in electrical industries, representing an invested capital of more than seven billion dollars, and earning annually more than one billion. This is the growth of thirty years.

MORNING LOCALS

A shower was given Miss Margaret Stevenson last evening at the residence of Mr. W. Horsman, 440 Main street, in view of an approaching event, and all present enjoyed a pleasant evening. The Artillery Band entertained the matrons of the Provincial Hospital last evening with a band concert. After the programme refreshments were served. A barn owned by Henry London in the rear of his home in Metcalf street, was badly damaged by fire last evening and it was with difficulty that a horse and mule that were in the barn were brought out. A large stock of hay, feed and oats was destroyed and considerable damage done to the building. The loss is estimated at about $1,000. A bicycle which was stolen the first of the week from near the Bentley street crossing, was located in Millidgeville yesterday by Policeman Garnett and returned to the owner. The thief has not yet been located. The thirtieth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Belyea, Carleton, was remembered last evening by a party of their friends who surprised them by gathering at their house to offer their congratulations and present suitable souvenirs of the occasion. The examinations for teachers licenses will be completed today. The High School entrance examinations will commence on Monday and the Normal School and matriculation examinations will commence on July 1.

DISCOURAGE BORROWING

Conditions as Applying to Canadian Securities - Decision to Make no New Issues Until Position Clears, Then Better Tone To Market

(Times' Special Correspondence)

London, June 3—Except in the case of issues which are imperative, prominent London underwriters have agreed not to encourage further borrowing until investment conditions are improved. This step has been taken under pressure and on the advice of sentinels of finance, who perceive signs of danger if the present heavy rate of borrowing is continued. After having the subject under consideration for some days, it has been decided that governments, municipalities and corporations, must be discouraged from further borrowing and raising of capital for the present. Canadian undertakings, which come to London for money in large numbers, this year have been badly disappointed and we have a great deal of discontent voiced in consequence, but there will have to be moderation in Canadian demands for the time being. If the contemplated Alberta loan is defined as in the imperative class, its prospects should be all the better for this decision, but otherwise it will have to be delayed.

In former years three Canadian events have exercised influence on the London money market, the reports of the seeding operations; the statement of the minister of finance at Ottawa, and the state of the crops in the west. If the seeding operations were favorable, there was a sympathetic movement in Canadian securities; a satisfactory budget brought a feeling of buoyancy, and the announcement of robust crops put Canadian finance here on solid ground. In this unusual year, however, the first of these two events left the market quite unresponsive, and the second prospect budget announced by Hon. W. T. White which a year ago would have sent Canadian stocks soaring has not sufficed to inspire encouragement.

Not Such Conditions in Years Men on 'change' have to go back a good many years to remember conditions such as are in force at present. Indeed, there has rarely been a time when new issues fell so flat. Nearly a year ago I recorded Lord Faber's opinion that unless Canadian issues were reduced the appeal to London for money would be made in vain. Instead of reduction there has been steadily cumulative can now be fully appreciated—save, the big result of a satisfactory budget, Victoria loans, 64 per cent and 82 per cent of which, respectively, are said to have been left in the hands of the underwriters. As a matter of fact, however, Canadian issues have not fared worse than others. Apart from a few strong issues of bonds, there was scarcely an issue during May which could be called successful. The situation may be measured by the fact that a 50 per cent subscription is considered a matter for congratulation, while 70 per cent is regarded as not particularly bad.

Watching for Bargains For more than a quarter of a century the dominion experimental farms have been carrying on experiments to find out the best kinds of crops and animals and the best ways of handling them for profit. This has been going on not only at the central farm at Ottawa, but also in the maritime provinces, and prairie provinces and in British Columbia. The benefits that have resulted to the Canadian farmer from this work are undoubtedly very great, but still thousands of earnest men are not receiving the full advantage of what is being done for them. Perhaps many do not receive the reports and bulletins containing the information while others receive these publications regularly but do not find the time to study out the lessons from them. In order to help especially this class of busy men and women there has been issued by direction of Hon. Martin Burrell, minister of agriculture, a special bulletin containing the outstanding conclusions that have been reached during the twenty-five years that the experimental farms were under the directorship of Dr. Wm. Saunders, recently retired. This review which has been prepared by J. B. Spencer, B.S.A., editor of the publications branch, tells of lessons that have been learned concerning fertilizers, cereals, fodder crops, farm field work, live stock, horticulture, arboriculture, chemistry, poultry, weeds and plant pests. In addition many of the recent developments of the farm system are enumerated. It is shown that not only have the farms and stations been increased in recent years to fourteen but great advancement is being made in all of the older farms. This review, which is tastefully gotten up, has been issued for free distribution by the Publication Branch of the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa.

PASTORAL LETTER FROM REV. WILFRED GAETZ

Charlottetown, P. E. I., June 12—A pastoral letter from Rev. Wilfred Gaetz of St. John, was read today at the conference of the N. B. and P. E. I. Methodists. He made reference to the conditions of the church in these two provinces, speaking of the many problems which must be dealt with. He referred to the success of the recent campaign for funds in the interests of Mount Allison, which, he said, was but the beginning of the plan to keep pace with the needs of the church. He spoke of denunciations of conditions, and said that these were such as to make union almost imperative. The conference passed a resolution of regret at the death of Dr. Inc. At the afternoon session today regret was expressed at the news of the death of Miss Marshall, daughter of Rev. Thomas Marshall, of Charlottetown. Rev. W. I. Watson gave an able address this afternoon on "The Minister in His Study."

MILLION DOLLAR STEEL PLANT FOR MONTREAL SUBURB

Montreal, June 12—It was officially announced tonight that the Armstrong Whitworth & Co., Limited, have purchased 250 acres of land on the south shore of the St. Lawrence river, with a water frontage of 2,000 feet, opposite the city, for the purpose of establishing a mammoth steel works. This action followed the recent visit of Sir Percy Girouard, a director in the Armstrong company. The trustees of the Armstrong company are M. J. Butler, formerly vice-president and general manager of the Dominion Steel Corporation, and George G. Foster, K. C. An expenditure of $1,000,000 will be made at once for the construction of buildings to cover seventy acres of the purchased property.

The sum of $1,000 was left to Allan H. Pirie by his father, John T. Pirie, of Chicago and New York, out of a fortune of $12,000,000, according to the will filed at Mincola, L. I. Mr. Pirie was born in Errol, Perthshire, but it is a long time since he left there.

In choosing chickens observe chiefly the length of leg. The best chickens have short legs in proportion to the size of the body, the bones are small and the flesh is white. The best test of age is found at the end of the breast bone. When the bird is young the end of the bone is soft and gelatinous, and it becomes gradually harder as the age of the bird increases.

FLOUR HIGHER TODAY: The price of Manitoba flour went up twenty cents this morning in all grades. It is hardly expected that there will be a further increase, although some dealers anticipate one. No rise is looked for in Ontario patents, and the fact that the latter crop will soon be moving will have influence in keeping down the price. Potatoes have advanced slightly in the local market. Up to yesterday potatoes had been very low, but while they are still reasonable for this time of year, quotations have advanced a little. Butter is easier and better samples are being received, while eggs are higher.

A LITTLE BETTER

Montreal, June 13—The Gazette says—The advance in the New York market yesterday with the sympathetic sequel of a sharp stiffening in prices here, came as a big surprise to local brokers who heard the early London quotations over the telephone at breakfast time yesterday. The outlook was for a depressed if not a stormy day. It was this feature of the situation, as well probably as a certain amount of marginal calls which went out the night before, that accounted for the hesitating to weak opening of the local market, despite a slight rally by C. P. R. in London.

The early movement in a downward direction, bringing a done of the issues into new low ground for the day, was quickly reversed, and the market proceeded to wipe out most of the losses of the previous afternoon, and in a number of cases to establish gains over closing prices Tuesday.

The influence of the P. R. upturn provided the chief impetus, but the better feeling displayed by the general market was the result of the change in the local list even if C. P. R. had done nothing more than stand still.

The money market in New York created a good deal of interest here, and some speculation as to any reactionary effect which the change may have on money in Canada. Easy money rates in New York work in line towards greater ease of funds in Canada, but whether the influence will be at all important at this time, owing to the appreciable amount of money in the special features in Canadian money situation at the moment is doubtful.

HOUSEWORK DONE; MOTHER ENDS LIFE

Gets Supper Ready For Husband, Kisses Children Good Bye, Then Suicides

New York, June 13—Mrs. Catherine Kane, 42, killed herself in her room, at No. 42 Hope avenue, Passaic, N. J., but first looked out for the comfort of her husband, John, and her children, two girls and a boy.

She called the children in from play, washed them and dressed them in clean linen. Then she kissed each and sent them out to await the return of their father from work. When they were gone she prepared supper, setting the table and placing the vegetables to boil and the meat to cook so it would be ready to serve on the arrival of her husband at his usual time.

When these arrangements had been completed she locked herself in her bedroom and turned on the gas, which she inhaled through a tube.

When Kate and the children entered the house they found the upper ready and the table set, but Mrs. Kane did not respond to calls. Her husband broke in the door of her room and found her dead on the bed with the gas flowing. A physician said she had died a half hour before the arrival of her husband.

Kate, who is a foreman in one of the Passaic mills, said his wife had been despondent through ill health for a long time.

Vancouver, B. C., June 13—Ray Campbell gave Freddie Welsh, British light weight champion, a great argument over a fifteen round route last night. Although Welsh had a big lead then the finish, Welsh's work was disappointing, while Campbell surprised the fans against a more experienced opponent.

Welsh had all over his opponent in fighting, but Campbell showed best in the end. In the thirteenth round, a short uppercut caught Campbell on the point of the chin and dazed him for a few seconds, but he came back and was fighting strong at the finish.

VERDICT OF GUILTY IN "HEADLESS MYSTERY" MURDER IN WOONSOCKET

Jury, After Long Trial and Eight and a Half Hours of Deliberation, Convict Deslovers

Providence, R. I., June 13—A verdict of guilty of murder was returned by a jury against Henri Deslovers, charged with having killed and decapitated Mrs. Angèle Parmentier in Woonsocket on June 4 last year. The jury was out eight and a half hours.

The case has been known as the "Woonsocket headless mystery". Deslovers and Mrs. Parmentier came to Woonsocket from Roubaix, France, three years ago, and went to work in the mill. She disappeared from his house on June 4, 1912. On June 25 of last year the headless body of a woman, with arms and legs tied and weighted down with stones, was taken from the Blackstone river near the miller's home.

A few days later a bundle of clothing which was later identified as having been worn by Mrs. Parmentier, was found near the spot and Deslovers was arrested. The head was never found. Deslovers pleaded not guilty and was indicted. More than six months later he was freed on a habeas corpus writ, the state having failed to bring him to trial within the six months' limit as prescribed by law.

Before he left the court room he was arrested on a statutory charge, and a special grand jury which was immediately summoned, indicted him. The trial was begun four weeks ago.

Deslovers' defence was that the woman had left him to go back to France and the reason she had not been heard from was because she did not want him to know where she was so that he could not take her back. The defence contended that the headless body was not that of Mrs. Parmentier and sought to establish an alibi. More than 50 witnesses testified, including the defendant who was on the stand more than 20 hours.

The penalty for murder in Rhode Island is life imprisonment.

JOURNEYMEN BARBERS WANT CITY SHOPS TO BE CLOSED ON SUNDAYS

The Journeymen Barbers' Local Union No. 682 held a large and enthusiastic meeting in their rooms in Odd-fellows' Hall, Union street, last evening. A vote of thanks to Mr. Russell for his excellent work in the past was enthusiastically and the union wished him every success in his new undertaking.

The matter of hours and wages was discussed and it was decided that a committee wait on the commissioner of public safety in an effort to have all barber stores closed on Sunday.

A committee was also appointed to visit all the local unions and acquaint them with the conditions under which the Barber's Union is working and ask the matter of hours and wages to be supported. The president, secretary and recorder were appointed the committee.

Charles Stevens, Neil Comeau and J. L. Sague addressed the meeting.

The penalties for a violation of the law are severe and those who wish to avoid them can easily do so.

SKIN DISEASES ARE PAINFUL AND UNSIGHTLY.

Among the most prevalent are Salt Rheum, Eczema, Tetter, Rash, Bolls, Pimples and Itching Skin Eruptions. These troubles always arise from the blood being in a bad condition and it is absolutely impossible to eradicate them from the system unless you put your blood into good shape. This you can do without the slightest trouble by using Burdock Blood Bitters.

It drives out all the humor from the blood, and makes it pure and rich. Thousands of people have used it during the last thirty-five years and have been cured.

Mr. Robert Gamble, Jones Falls, Ont., says—"I write with the greatest pleasure to recommend your great blood purifier, Burdock Blood Bitters. My wife and I had itching sores on our face and ears, and tried everything to help them, but found no relief. We saw your B.B.B. advertised and got a bottle, and before it was half gone we both were getting better, and when it was all gone we were cured."

Burdock Blood Bitters is manufactured only by The T. M. M. Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

TO COMMEMORATE THE DEATH OF FATHER NAISH

Moncton, June 13—Solemn high mass for Rev. Father Vincent Naish was celebrated this morning in St. Bernard's church by Rev. Father Gagnier, with the assistance of Father Roy, C. S. C., of Memramouc, as deacon, and Father Duke as sub-deacon. Other priests in the sanctuary were Fr. Cavalier, C. S. C., of St. Joseph's, Fr. Robichaud, of Fox Creek and Fr. Bourgeois of Moncton. Rev. Fr. Gagnier preached and said in part:

"I have known Father Naish about five years, that being the length of time he had been in Canada, and I knew him to be a man filled with ardent zeal and loyal regard for God, a man who did not count his steps, always ready to labor, and so he was up to the last moment. I have known him to be asked to preach five times a day, and he never said once that he could not, or to wait until some other day."

Father Duke also paid a tribute to the dead priest and referred to the absence of St. Bernard's pastor, Rev. Father Sanguin, and of how deeply he would regret to hear of the death of Father Naish.

NO SPEEDING OF AUTOS IN SUSSEX

The Warning Has Gone Forth and There is One Case Pending. Sussex Record—The town authorities are serious in their announcement that automobile drivers must not exceed the speed limit in town. They are being backed by public opinion and repeated demands have been made to enforce the law against any and all offenders. The first case is likely to be heard in court within a few days and other drivers have been given the tip to cut out fast driving, if they wish to avoid trouble. Town Marshall Ashbell has taken up the matter seriously, and other constables will assist in enforcing the law. The penalties for a violation of the law are severe and those who wish to avoid them can easily do so.

Sons of Temperance
The semi-annual session of the Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance of New Brunswick opened yesterday at Cornhill, Kings county, with G. W. Patriarch S. B. Bustin of St. John presiding. Encouraging reports were presented. Miss Kirby, grand patron, reported that the largest number of Bands of Hope in the history of the order had been organized. The committee appointed to interview the provincial government reported that they had received the same reply, namely, "no assurance that a liquor license law would be enacted in the province for the more rigid enforcement of the regulations in this connection" at the present time.

"Yes, we are thankful for our friends—the millions of Tooth Brushes.

We are grateful for the hundreds of Dentifrices. They in turn do a splendid work—so far as they go. But both together fall far short of protecting our enamel—our only weapon of tooth protection.

PEBECCO TOOTH PASTE

Is there no escape from these 'Mouth-Acids'—these ever-present mouth-fluids which unseen, unbidden, are working day-and-night to break down our armor plate—and then make the soft inside tooth structure easy prey to decay-germs?"

We answer: "There IS escape from 'Acid-Mouth,' Pebecco Tooth Paste is the one dentifrice today which prevents 'Acid-Mouth'—the direct cause of 95% of all tooth-decay."

JACK COOMBS WRITES TO OLD SCHOOL TEAM

"Jack" Coombs in a letter to the Freeport (Maine) high school Clarion, a school paper, has enlightened the public as to how he became a great ball player and among other things said: "I have reached the highest point in my profession, if you wish to call playing ball a profession, but I have always held in my memory the ball diamond in the school yard where, as a green country lad I was taught the fundamental principles of baseball by Len Patterson and Ben Coffin. To my associates and school companions of those days I owe my success. They taught me one essential point. Never say you are beaten until the last man is out in the ninth. That thought holds good in every walk in life. It matters not what vocation a man leads."

"It is the ambition of every youth to become a star ball player. Every city or town of any size supports a ball team, either amateur or professional and among all of those men playing our national game the stars are few. I will say that there are close to 100,000 men and boys playing either semi or professional ball and out of this large number there are only 40 players who hold berths in the major leagues. Of this number a high proportion would be lost to a team who have reached the goal of stardom.

It is a fact that most men can give you the batting order of the Boston team which won the World's series last fall but 9 per cent. of these men could not give you the names of the members of President Wilson's cabinet at Washington.

The business man enjoys the game as a recreation. He drops all his labors at the afternoon, goes to the ball park and sits among his friends. In former days, perhaps he played ball upon some amateur team and although he has become gotten the sport of his younger days, he enjoys the relaxation from business. He loses his dignity for the time being. He throws his bat in the air. He yells at the top of his voice and forgets that there is an office down town. He kicks but he cares not. Heated arguments from his wife are answered with enthusiastic descriptions of the game. In time his enthusiasm affects her and she too takes up the sport. She begins to read the sporting pages of the morning daily and attends the games with hubby, rejoicing with him over the victory of the home team. The daughter now becomes interested over the description of the play and players given to her by her parents and she, too, sneaks to the ball park.

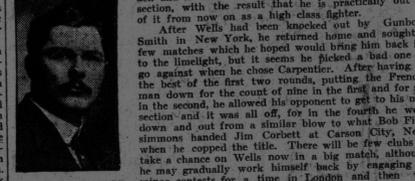

"In time she is as crazy over the sport as her parents. Thus cold lunches from the cupboards take the place of hot dinners. Discussions though friendly are always in evidence. In this way the popularity of the game increases from day to day.

"Major league players are ideals for the American boy. They rejoice at our success and are sorrowful in our disappointments. They look upon us as great heroes and are ever eager to shake our hand, carry a glove, bat or any of our belongings. These simple incidents go down in their memories as one of the greatest events in their childhood and anything we may do are examples for them. We impress upon their youthful mind that there is only one way to be successful in any business, no matter what it may be. That way is to have a clear mind and a good physical con-

Frenchman Wins European Boxing Title For First Time

By TOM ANDREWS

The victory of George Carpentier, French light heavy weight champion, over Bombardier Wells, British heavy weight champion, for while they knew Wells was a big surprise to the followers of the game, for while they knew Wells had a weak stomach, they expected his greater weight would offset any drawback of that kind against the lighter man. It seems, however, that the Englishman has a very weak stomach, and is unable to stand any punishment in that section, with the result that he is practically out of it from now on as a high class fighter.

After Wells had been knocked out by Gunboat Smith in New York, he returned home and sought a few matches which he hoped would bring him back into the limelight, but it seems he picked a bad one to go against when he chose Carpentier. After having all the best of the first two rounds, putting the Frenchman down for the count of nine in the first and for six in the second, he allowed his opponent to get to his mid down and out from a similar blow to what Bob Fitzsimmons handed Jim Corbett at Carson City, Nev., when he capped the title. There will be few clubs to take a chance on Wells now in a big match, although he may gradually work himself back by engaging in minor contests for a time in London and then the states.

Carpentier, who is a mere youth, has had a meteoric career in the ring. He is only nineteen years of age, but during the last three years he has fought as a feather weight, light weight, middle weight and heavy weight. He was as he had to train down to fine, and that is what caused more than one defeat for him. He was beaten by both Billy Pope and Frank Klaus in hard battles, in each case making a weight that hurt him. Then he began to get the result that he was training too much and cut out the reducing process with the result that he scored knockouts over Marcel Moreau, a tough Frenchman, and Cyclone Smith and George Gunther. At catch weights he showed up in better form and proved that he had been making too much weight. The result was a match with Wells for the heavy weight title of Europe, which he won.

Carpentier is built for a heavy weight, and with careful handling should develop into a star, for he has the hitting power and is also clever. It is the first time in history that France has ever been able to boast of a heavy weight boxing champion of Europe.

It should be the aim and ambition to lay that foundation of perfect manhood obtained only by abstaining from self-abusing amusements and alcoholic drinks. It is the business man who has taken the very best care of himself who succeeds in life. So let it be

To Remove Mispec Mill

As a result of Commissioner Wigmore's visit to Mispec yesterday it is likely that the request of the department of marine and fisheries that the Mispec dam be opened to permit salmon to ascend the stream to spawn will be complied with. All the machinery has not been removed from the mill, but as soon as this work is completed it is probable that tenders will be called for the bricks contained in the structure. The pumping station at Silver Falls was also inspected yesterday by the commissioner, who found that it is ready for use at any time if an accident should occur to the Loch Lomond system.

MARATHONS GET HIGH PINKERTON

Snappy Second Baseman Here Tomorrow—Hughes Signed on—Today's Game

Let there be joy amongst the fans. Pinkerton will be on hand for tomorrow's game. The snappy Maine player who fielded the second sack for the Marathons last season and was the premier man in the league at that position, will be seen again tomorrow in the game with Fredericton in a St. John uniform. His re-instatement was bulletined this week.

Frank Hughes, well known locally and on the N. B. and Maine circuits, will be seen in the game tomorrow, in which Shankey and Bien will be the battery for the locals, and probably Flynn and Murphy for the visitors.

The Fredericton Pets and The Marathons, Mr. Leonard's players, are clashing today on the Marathon grounds and today's and tomorrow's games will decide who will be the leaders for the present. If the Marathons win today and tomorrow's games they will be in the lead, which will be very gratifying to the St. John base ball fans. The six games played this week have been closely contested and very exciting base ball, the game especially in Fredericton showing how closely the teams are matched. It is expected that Mr. Leonard will pitch Shankey today and probably Flynn or Woodbury tomorrow, but St. John will stand a good chance of winning these games.

Those who have not seen the Marathons working this year will find the team far in advance of what they were at last year's early season games and good snappy ball is being put up.

A baseball fan, speaking of the situation today, said that everything pointed to a great season both in character of the ball played and in attendance, if the management, he said, "deserve success in every way. See what they have done to the grounds. Instead of the old management, he said, the place has all been filled in, drained and levelled off. The diamond has been skinned and is a pleasure to look at, the grass being all nicely cut, the fences all whitened and all making a very attractive appearance and all must be impressed with the way these grounds have been improved and kept up. Not only has the grand stand been improved but all necessities, such as toilets have been provided, new bleachers have been built this year and all in first class shape and order.

"Base ball today is the only sport in St. John which seems to have a foot hold and is taking with the public and as management has gone to much expense in acquiring the team and fitting up these grounds, it is to be expected that they will patronize these games liberally."

C. P. R. TO SPEND MUCH ON CENTRAL

Appropriation of $117,000 Reported—Road-bed, Bridge Work and New Rolling Stock

Great improvements are to be made on the Central Railway by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company which assumed the operation of the road on May 1. As announced in the Times at that time it is the intention of the big corporation to put the line in good working order as soon as possible and repairs and improvements will be continued until a satisfactory standard of efficiency has been reached.

The Sussex Record says it is understood that an appropriation of $117,000 has been made to cover the work which will be done this summer and which is to be started immediately.

A large share of the money will be devoted to the bridges along the line. Permanent concrete piers will be provided for the Wainwright bridge which has caused much trouble in the past, and the superstructure will be strengthened. A new first class car and a combination smoker and baggage car have been placed on the road and new locomotives will be furnished, making it possible to haul heavier trains and to keep the regular trains on schedule time.

Arrangements for the convention of the state council of the Knights of Columbus of this jurisdiction to be held in this city next week, are well advanced, and June 17 and 18 are expected to be days of interest to the local knights and their visitors. The convention will open Tuesday morning at ten o'clock and continue until one and again in the afternoon. In the evening the local council will entertain the visiting delegates to a smoker and reception in their home in Coburg street, and for this a pleasing programme is now being attended to.

The following day will be devoted to the social side of the convention and the preparations are being made by the St. John K. C's to give the outsiders a pleasant time. If the business sessions are concluded in time an automobile tour has been arranged for sight-seeing and the visitors will be shown about the city and the various points of interest with the government and other private works now under way, on the morning of that day. In the afternoon they will be taken for a sail up river on the steamer Champlain leaving Indiantown about one o'clock going to Brown's Flat for supper, and returning by moonlight.
