LONDON FIRM WILL SUPPLY SEATS FOR THE CITY SCHOOLS

One Small Order For Chairs Given To Cobourg Factory.

At the regular meeting of No. 2 committee of the board of education, held yesterday afternoon, the first business dealt with was the awarding of an order for 24 seats, the necessary number for the use of a Cobourg-made chair against those of a London-made chair. The trustees decided the price being the same to award the order to the Cobourg factory. The local firm, the London Art Woodwork, Ltd., in recognition of the trouble and expense incurred by the trustees, an order for 42 chairs, the equipment for one room, was awarded to them.

Of the order given it was decided that three rooms, one in each school, should be supplied with lifting top seats, while the balance was to be the standard chair desks. The price to be paid for the lifting desks is $15 each, and for the other chairs $11.50 each.

Trustee Collette, chairman of the board, asked if some chair had recently been purchased for city schools at an excessively high price, but was assured by the trustees that it was not so. Mr. Hayman stated that he had been told that a chair had been purchased for $10 a ton. He intimated that efforts had been made to put over higher figures, but the order passed by the trustees for the committee for payment before it was put to the board. He also mentioned for additions to the Victoria and Tecumseh schools.

Town Planning Resolutions

At the town planning conference held in Toronto on February 17 and 18, a delegation representing the various municipalities presented the following resolutions to the conference, represented by the attorney-general and provincial treasurer:

1. That whereas economy in civic expenditures is directly dependent upon foresight in respect to urban development, and as such provided an effective check against unwise and uneconomical expenditures and a valuable stimulus for the establishment and development of commercial and industrial enterprises, and whereas the comfort and attractiveness of home and industrial life can be secured only by foresight applied to transportation, provision of public utilities, waste development, subdivision of the land and adequate restrictions.
2. Therefore be it resolved that the Government of Ontario be memorialized to extend the scope of the present planning act to include the principles and powers set forth in the town planning bills of Ottawa and Niagara Falls, in the present act, and that the act be amended to include the principles and powers set forth in the town planning bills of Ottawa and Niagara Falls, in the present act, and that the act be amended to include the principles and powers set forth in the town planning bills of Ottawa and Niagara Falls, in the present act.
3. That in the opinion of this conference, town planning powers should be extended to all municipalities.
4. That in the opinion of this conference, municipal or town planning is the basis factor in the solution of the housing problem.
5. That having regard to the efficient administration and proper co-ordination of all measures affecting municipalities, it is the opinion of this conference that a new department of the Ontario Government should be created, to be headed by a minister of municipal affairs, one of whose duties shall be to organize and develop effective municipal or town planning and housing within the province.
6. The ministers promised favorable consideration of the matters outlined and a meeting with representatives of the conference was arranged for the week.

These resolutions are embodied in the report referred to No. 1 committee of the city council.

There was much rivalry due to the prize money. Cup was to be won three times before becoming permanent property of the winner.

Enthusiasm amongst the members of the association is strongly in evidence this year. The establishment of more normal conditions is encouraging the fanciers to produce more and better chickens. At the next meeting of the association on March 23 there will be a Plymouth Rock show.

SCOTTISH RITERS TO HOLD BIG REUNION

Five Hundred Will Attend the Ceremonies at Masonic Temple, March 1, 2 and 3.

A reunion of the London Lodge of Perfection and the Sovereign Chapter of Rose Croix of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, is to be held in the Masonic Temple on March 1, 2 and 3, when 150 candidates will be initiated. From 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning the ceremonies will be continued, the day being divided into two sessions. ## HYDRO PROBABLE FOR BRICK ST. RESIDENTS

City Water, However, Will Not Find Way Into Dwellings.

Efforts of the residents of Brick street to secure electric light and water supply in their homes will apparently be rewarded with success so far as the installation of electric lighting is concerned, but in regard to the supply of city water for which they are asking, they are likely to meet with disappointment, absolute and sure.

The waterworks committee of the P. C. C. is practically equally divided on the question of according to the request for the installation of water supply along this line. The available for the street, the opponents of the granting of the request point to the fact that London has a greater area than Hamilton, and that there are in the city a very large number of vacant lots, and that if these people want city water, they do not want to come into the city to receive the burden of securing adequate water supply for the city cannot be justly used to supply people who do not share the burden of the city ratepayers.

Work in connection with the installation of electric light in the homes of the petitioners is now under way.

HYDRO LINEMEN

Kept Busy as Result of Storm Tuesday Night.

Street and heavy wet snow which accumulated over the home streets of the city, kept the hydro line men busy during the night and the early hours of this morning. The sudden accession of weight on the wires caused a large number of breaks and a considerable disorganization of services.

The accumulation of snow and ice not only adds greatly to the weight of the wires, but by the greatly increased surface which the mass offers to the wind, especially when high winds prevail, cause such excessive strain on the poles that the same are frequently torn off, and occasionally the pole itself gives way under the strain, and the greater the resultant strain and increased liability of breakage.

Owing to the much larger number of wires carried upon the telephone company's poles the tendency to breakage on their lines are greater, and the company's line men are frequently kept busy for days after such a storm as last night's in restoring the service to normal conditions.

WITNESS DECLARES

pell House to give assistance to Ernest Deslippe, who was lying on the lawn. Dr. Carl Fisher, physician in charge of the witness stand, stated that he could not identify Deslippe as the man who was shot on November 8, and declared that he did not see him at Hotel Dieu the morning of 7 o'clock.

Was Mrs. Deslippe at the hospital this morning? queried Mr. Griet.

"Yes."

"What hospital is that?"

"Hotel Dieu."

"What time did you last see Mrs. Deslippe?"

"I saw her at the hospital this morning."

"What time would you say it was when you saw her there?"

"At 7:05."

Evidence given by Ernest Deslippe at the inquest was then placed before the jury by Mr. Griet.

Deslippe's testimony outlined events at the Chappell House prior to the shooting on the morning of November 8. He stated that he was outside the house when he saw Mrs. Deslippe being carried into the house by two men. He stated that he saw Mrs. Deslippe being carried into the house by two men. ## LADIES FIRST Special Street Cars for Females Advocated by Tired Workmen.

Chivalry is not dead. The busy males who applied the principle of "equal rights" in regard to street car seats have come forward with a suggestion which they believe will assure comfort and convenience for the women who are crowded into the cars at rush hours, and will also give workmen at least a hope of getting a seat.

In effect it is just a reversal of the previous proposal that cars for "workmen only" be provided during the "rush" hour. They suggest now that a few cars for "women only" be put into service. The chief objection to the previous plan was that on one conductor would be unable to keep a land of determined females from climbing into the car reserved for the tired workmen.

This difficulty would not be experienced if the policy were reversed, the workmen claim. The women could be able to board their special cars without any interference from the tired male workers, because they would have the assurance of some hope of seating accommodation in the next car, and would be willing to wait.

One other objection to the first plan was that the street railway already has every car in service, and has no capital to buy more. It is likely this would apply with equal force to the new one.

WIFE'S CONDITION STILL SERIOUS

The condition of Mrs. Moorhead, wife of J. C. Moorhead, who died early Tuesday morning, was reported at Victoria Hospital this afternoon to be still causing considerable anxiety. Mrs. Moorhead has been in the hospital several days before her husband.

London, Ont., Wednesday, Feb. 23.

THE WESTERN HAS EARNED IT.
Friends of the Western University
—and that includes every man and woman in Western Ontario interested in the increase of facilities for higher education—are greatly pleased at the recognition given the university by the royal commission appointed to consider the question of adequate state provision for the university of Ontario, in its recommendation that a grant of $500,000 for "The Western," and annual grants of $200,000 for two years, followed by three annual grants of $250, 000.

Public opinion in London and throughout Western Ontario is that the university has fully earned the somewhat tardy recognition which the report of the commission gives it, and, with the approval of the Government practically assured, the rapid expansion of its educational facilities and influence upon the rising generations of Western Ontario holds out great promise.

That the university is at the present time the most progressive of the universities of Ontario is asserted with justifiable pride, and as proof thereof the recent action of the faculty in making provision for the addition of courses in agriculture and journalism to the curriculum are pointed out. In the former case the university recognizes the basic industry of the country, and the importance of giving to the young men in whose hands its future lies every facility for securing a thorough grounding in modern scientific agricultural production.

In the provision for educational
aid to the profession of journalism, Dean Sherwood Fox and the faculty of the university have taken the lead amongst the universities of the Dominion in the recognition of a calling which in its importance to the modern life of the community is second to no other. On the work of the journalist, or newswriter, to a greater or lesser degree, every man and woman, to say nothing of the children, to whom special attention is given, depends for information as to the news of great events occurring in all parts of the world, for education in the protection of life, the latest advances in all other forms of activity, and last, but not least, for amusement.

The progressive step taken by the faculty of the Western in making provision for a course of training for the men and women who have made or who will make journalism their life calling, not only assures a continuance of the high standard of ethics which have ever ruled the production of newspapers, but will be an added incentive to a still higher standard, which will fully justify the journalist in his claim that in modern life his calling leads all others.

AN EXCELLENT MOVEMENT.
Mayor Little and the city council are to be commended for the cordial way in which they received
"Mayor" Milton Walker and other members of the boys' council, organized by the Y. M. C. A., when they attended the city council meeting this week.

The boys' council is organized along the same lines as the city's governing body. Its members are nominated and elected in the same way as the mayor and aldermen, and business is carried on with the intention of giving the boys an idea of how the city in which they live is managed. The enthusiasm with which the boys have taken to the plan is an indication that it will be a successful means of teaching this rather prosy subject.

In spite of a pressure of other business, the boys were made welcome at a council meeting. They were treated with all the courtesy and dignity which would have been bestowed on their elders, had they come on a similar errand. A vote of the council was taken to permit the council to lay his case before the council, and when he had done so it was referred to the proper committee, where in due time it will receive attention. Mayor Little, in expressing the appreciation of the council, said that movements of this kind could not be too strongly supported.

He was right. Undoubtedly much of the inefficiency of Dominion, provincial and municipal government today is due, not to the inability or dishonesty of legislators, but to the ignorance of the electorate. A surprisingly small number of people are well informed on the vital issues affecting their country or city. If the next generation receives a training, however slight,
in the forms and methods of government, it will be bound to take a more intelligent interest in the questions of the day.

There is no reason why this method of education could not be extended. If high school classes were to spend an evening watching council proceedings they undoubtedly would learn as much as by many hours of study of textbooks. Toronto students take full advantage of opportunities of watching the Ontario Legislature in session. Although a municipal council is a relatively less important body, students could still gain valuable knowledge of parliamentary custom and procedure by watching its deliberations.

EINSTEIN AGAIN.

Prof. Einstein of relativity fame is in the limelight again, being in the very front rank as a scientific investigator and thinker. To question his conclusions seems to many like questioning the Divine oracle itself, or the truth of the moral law.
His statement of the general theory of relativity was first received by the world of science and thought, but his latest deliverance, championing the "flatness" of the universe and space, as a kind of corollary to it, makes the same world gasp, according to press reports, and even provokes ridicule in some quarters. The old jurist in the field of science used to claim that neither an infinite universe and extension of space, nor a finite one, satisfied the human mind, as the former was unthinkable to a finite consciousness, while the latter, no matter how appalling the distance we assume as a boundary or limit, only provokes us to demand what lies beyond. The new explanation is that space is not infinite, but has a small extension in the fourth dimension, and hence an "edge," and returns upon itself. All this is ingenious, and has a learned sound, and like the cherubim at the gates of Eden, will tend to guard this enchanted field of thought from vulgar intrusion. The "edge," however, seems about as bad as the
"disease," so far as it really clar-ifies the new contention. It is about as illuminating as the illustration given by an Einstein writer as to why we were not constituted so as to visualize the fourth dimension. He asserted we could do so if we had one stationary eye, and the other moving at about the speed of light!
See it now?

NONSENSE.

A speaker at the Labor Forum meeting Sunday night eliminated
the following from his system:

"We are breeding an inhuman race these days, linked with the brute creation."

That statement is unadulterated nonsense. Industrial conditions are today, and have been for years past, achieving quite the opposite result.

The "breeding" is distinctly upward, away from the "brute."
There is a stupendous advance yet to be made, but to declare that modern industry is developing an inhuman race of workers is to confess to superficial or unintelligent observance of conditions. Capitalism long ago recognized the necessity for a world of workers, mentally, morally and physically fit. Capital as a whole—no doubt sometimes from selfish motives—is endeavoring to secure efficiency by steadily improving conditions of labor.

The well-dressed, well-educated, home-owning, contented workers of this country, who number hundreds of thousands, is sufficient answer to the above charge.

What the Forum speaker would have, if correctly reported, is something like Russian sovietism. He is reported to have said:

"This state of affairs can only be rectified by getting control of the political machines, and regulating the output for the general good of the people. All moral and social problems would be handled at the same time for the welfare of all."

Well, that's what they are doing in Moscow today, and is there anything closer to the inhuman and bestial than is going on in Russia?
There the individual has no rights as such. Initiative is suppressed.
The workers are moved by arbitrary rules. There is no trades unionism, no free speech or press. Is that the social and industrial atmosphere in which to breed the best?

LETTERS

NO JUSTIFICATION FOR IT.
I must beg leave to differ with the gentleman quoted in the last paragraph, under above heading, in your
issue of yesterday. It reads:

"In regard to the expression, 'He don't' instead of 'He doesn't.' The claim of Mr. Tobin would appear to be quite justified on the grounds of uniformity. We say, 'I don't.' 'You don't.' 'We don't.' 'They don't.' Why, then, should we not say 'He don't'?"

The acceptance of the expression as correct would appear to be rather an advantage than otherwise.

The accepted abbreviations, "I don't," "You don't," "We don't,"
"They don't," are, by usage, quite correct as standing for "I do not," "You do not," "We do not," and "They do not." But, as it is incorrect to say
"He do not," it is equally incorrect to say "He don't." We say "He does not," so that to be at least consistent, the abbreviation of the third person singular should be "He doesn't."

I quite appreciate and applaud the sentiments expressed by Mr. Mooney in approval of Mr. Greer.

OTHERS' VIEWS

ALBERT HALL—A CONTRAST.
[Manchester Guardian.]

Tonight the best seat at the League of Nations' great meeting at the Albert Hall could be had for four shillings.
Tomorrow night the same seats will cost you ten or fifteen guineas. Bombardier, Wells will meet Battling Vinsky and Jimmy Wilde will meet Pete Herman in boxing matches.

There will be a 100 per cent. rise in tomorrow night's affair will differ from all the other big boxing matches if each seat is not filled. There will be none of the empty chairs that were noticeable at the League of Nations meeting tonight. The prices range from about six shillings to fifteen guineas.
The fifteen guinea seats and the cheap seats are all sold, but there are still some seats at three, five, seven and ten guineas. The ordinary man, knowing of the scarcity of money must be prepared to hear the existence of a public to whom money is apparently no object. The Prince of Wales, Lord Londonderry and a few other grandees will be there, but who make up the rest of the two or three thousand speculators odd who will be present? Although there is usually a fair proportion of the wealthy and stable figures,

THE GUEST.
[Edwin Markham.]

While the cobbler mused, there passed this pene
A beggar drunched by the driving rain.
He called him in from the stony street
And gave him shoes for his bruised feet.

The beggar went, and there came a crone.
Her face was wrinkled with sorrow A bundle of sticks she brought
And she was spent with the wrench and wreck.

He gave her his loaf and staided her head.
As she took her way on the weary road.
Then to his door came a little child,
Lost, and afraid in the dark world.
Catching it up he held it in his arms
And led it home to its mother's arms.
Out of reach of the world's alarms.

The day went down in the crimson West
And with it the hope of the Blessed Guest.
And Conrad sighted as the world turned grey.

"Why is Lord, that Your feet delay, Did you forget that this was the day?" Then soft in the silence a Voice he heard:

"Lift up your heart, for I kept My word.
Three times I came to your friendly
door:
Three times my shadow was on your floor.
I was the beggar with bruised feet:
I was the woman you gave to eat;
I was the child on the homeless street."

TWO PICTURES.
[Annie Douglas Robinson.]

An old farmhouse with meadows wide
And sweet with clover on each side
A bright-eyed boy, who looks from out
The door with woodbine wreathed about.

He wishes his one thought all day:
"Oh, if I could but fly away
From this dull spot the world to see,
How happy, happy, happy,
How happy I should be!"

Amid the city's constant din,
A man who round the world has been,
Who, mid the tumult and the throngs,
Is thinking, thinking all day long:
"Oh, could I only tread once more
The field path to the farmhouse door,
The old green meadow could I see,
How happy, happy, happy,
How happy I should be!"

THE HIGHWAYMAN'S LAMENT.
[Contributed.]

We were three gallant 'highwaymen,
A-sweeping down the street
In our little Henry Fordson, All tidied up and neat.
And we lawfed at London's constables, A-sweeping on their beat.
But the 'ydore done us in, boys,
The 'ydore done us in, boys.

We spees a little gaffer A-walking by his lone;

Are you naturally attractive?

WHERE can you find a more pleasing picture than a group of young, healthy, vigorous girls playing tennis?

Alert, quick to think, and quick to act, their faces aglow with enthusiasm and radiant with health.

How many there are, however, among our growing girls of whom this cannot be said. You see them sitting on the side benches looking on, or loitering around in a listless, careless manner, and, as a rule, irritable and nervous.

Nature intended women to be strong, and healthy and happy as the day is long. MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS have proved so beneficial in such a multitude of cases, that they can be recommended without hesitation.

They give sound, restful sleep, tone up the nerves, make the heart beat regular and strong, create new red blood corpuscles, and impart that sense of buoyancy to the spirits that is only possible when enjoying mental and physical vigor.

Mrs. Fred Lee, Almont, Ont., writes:—"My oldest daughter was so bad for over a year, with her heart and nerves, that she was compelled to give up her work. I was very discouraged about her, as I had her to two doctors, but they did not seem to do her much good. She

—and that includes every man and woman in Western Ontario interested in the increase of facilities for higher education—are greatly
pleased at the recognition given the
adequate state provision for the universities of Ontario, in its recommendation that a grant of $800,000 for building purposes be made to "The Western," and annual grants of $200,000 for two years, followed
by three annual grants of $250, 000.

Public opinion in London and
throughout Western Ontario is that
the university has fully earned the
the report of the commission gives
Government practically assured, the
rapid expansion of its educational facilities and influence upon the rising generations of Western Ontario holds out great promise.

sent time the most progressive of the
universities of Ontario is asserted
with justifiable pride, and as proof
thereof the recent action of the faculty in making provision for the ad-
journalism to the curriculum are
university recognizes the basic industry of the country, and the im-
facility for securing a thorough
grounding in modern scientific agricultural production.

In the provision for educational
aid to the profession of journalism, Dean Sherwood Fox and the faculty
of the university have taken the lead
amongst the universities of the Dominion in the recognition of a call-
modern life of the community is
second to no other. On the work
of the journalist, or news writer, to
the children, to whom special attention is given, depends for infor-
world, for education in the protection of life, the latest advances in all other forms of activity, and last,
but not least, for amusement.

faculty of the Western in making
ethics which have ever ruled the
production of newspapers, but will
higher standard, which will fully
all others.

AN EXCELLENT MOVEMENT.
Mayor Little and the city council
are to be commended for the cordial way in which they received
members of the boys' council, organized by the Y. M. C. A., when
they attended the city council meeting this week.

business is carried on with the intention of giving the boys an idea
rather prosy subject.

In spite of a pressure of other
business, the boys were made welcome at a council meeting. They
were treated with all the courtesy
come on a similar errand. A vote of
their "mayor" to lay his case before the council, and when he had done
so it was referred to the proper
receive attention. Mayor Little, in
council, said that movements of this
supported.

He was right. Undoubtedly much
of the inefficiency of Dominion,
provincial and municipal government today is due, not to the in-
ability or dishonesty of legislators,
but to the ignorance of the elector-
ate. A surprisingly small number
vital issues affecting their country
or city. If the next generation receives a training, however slight,
in the forms and methods of government, it will be bound to take
a more intelligent interest in the
questions of the day.

There is no reason why this
to spend an evening watching coun-
would learn as much as by many
hours of study of textbooks. Toronto
students take full advantage of opportunities of watching the Ontario Legislature in session. Although a municipal council is a relatively less
gain valuable knowledge of parliamentary custom and procedure by
watching its deliberations.

EINSTEIN AGAIN.
Prof. Einstein of relativity fame
the very front rank as a scientific
investigator and thinker. To ques-
like questioning the Divine oracle itself, or the truth of the moral law.
His statement of the general theory of relativity was well received by the world of science and thought,
but his latest deliverance, championing the "finiteness" of the universe and space, as a kind of corol-
lary to it, makes the same world gasping, according to press reports, and even provokes ridicule in some quarters. The old jurists in the field
space, nor a finite one, satisfied the
human mind, as the former was unthinkable to a finite consciousness, while the latter, no matter how appalling the distance we assume
as a boundary or limit, only pro-
vokes us to demand what lies be-
space is not infinite, but has a
small extension in the fourth dimension, and hence an "edge," and returns upon itself. All this is ingenious, and has a learned sound, and,
like the cherubim at the gate of Eden, will tend to guard this enchanted field of thought from mere vulgar intrusion. The "cure," however, seems about as bad as the
"disease," so far as it really clar-ifies the new contention. It is about
given by an Einstein writer as to
to visualize the fourth dimension. He
moving at about the speed of light!
See it now?

NONSENSE.
A speaker at the Labor Forum
meeting Sunday night eliminated
the following from his system:

"We are breeding an inhuman
race these days, linked with the
brute creation."

That statement is unadulterated nonsense. Industrial conditions are
today, and have been for years past,
achieving quite the opposite result.
The "breeding" is distinctly up-
ward, away from the "brute."

There is a stupendous advance yet to be made, but to declare that inhuman industry is developing an inhuman race of workers is to confess to superficial or unintelligent ob-
for a world of workers, mentally,
morally and physically fit. Capital
to secure efficiency by steadily improving conditions of labor. The well-dressed, well-educated, home-owning, contented workers of this
country, who number hundreds of
the above charge.

What the Forum speaker would
have, if correctly reported, is something like Russian socialism. He is reported to have said:

"This state of affairs can only be rectified by getting control of the political machines, and repulating
the output for the general good
problems would be handled at the

Well, that's what they are doing
in Moscow today, and is there anything closer to the inhuman and
bestial than is going on in Russia?
There the individual has no rights
as such. Initiative is suppressed.
The workers are moved by arbitrary

rules. There is no trades unionism, no free speech or press. Is that the
which to breed the best?

NO JUSTIFICATION FOR IT.
I must beg leave to differ with the
issue of yesterday. It reads:

"In regard to the expression, 'He don't,' instead of 'He doesn't.' The
claim (of Mr. Tobin) would appear to be quite justified on the grounds of uniformity. We say, 'If don't.' You don't. 'We don't.' They don't. Why,
then, should we not say 'He don't'?

don't," "You don't," "We don't,"
"They don't" are, by usage, quite correct as standing for "I do not," "You do not," "We do not" and "They do not." But, as it is incorrect to say
"He do not," it is equally incorrect to say "He don't." We say "He does
the abbreviation of the third person
singular should be "He doesn't."

I quite appreciate and applaud the
sentiments expressed by Mr. Mooney in approval of W. P. REYNOLDS.

February 23, 1921.

ALBERT HALL—A CONTRAST.
(Manchester Guardian.)
Tonight the best seat at the League of Nations great meeting at the Albert Hall could be had for four shillings.
Tomorrow night the same seats will
cost you ten or fifteen guineas. Bombardier Wells will meet Battling Flat-they and Jimmy Wilde will meet Pete Herman in boxing matches. There will be over 2,000 seats, and tomorrow night's affair will differ from all the other big boxing matches if each seat is not sold. There will be
noticeable at the League of Nations
meeting tonight. The prices range
from about six shillings to fifteen guineas.
The fifteen guinea seats and the
and ten guineas. The ordinary man knowing of the scarcity of money may be perplexed to hear of the existence of a public to whom money is apparently no object. The Prince of Wales,
Lord Londonderry and a few other grandees
will be there, but who make up the rest of the two or three thousand spectators who will be present? Although there is usually a fair proportion in evening dress, the majority of men in the dear seats do not look particularly wealthy and stable figures.
Putting the question tonight to a sporting acquaintance, I was told that so strong is the passion to see these contests and to see them with that several friends of his own had sworn off drink for a month in order to buy tickets.
This method of gathering up, however, cannot be very popular, for if it were the takings of public houses would fall considerably and the publicans themselves would be unable to buy tickets, and that is notoriously not the case. There will be mystery remains. Contemplating one of these vast, crowded halls filled with these eager spectators at high prices, one is struck by the same thought that leads to which came to Layard when he beheld the stones of Stonehenge—
"However did they come there?"

A STRONG FORCE.
(Montreal Gazette.)
He gave her his loaf and steered her load.
As she took her way on the weary road.
Then to his door came a little child.
Lost, and afraid in the world so wild.
In the big, dark night, crying for help,
He took it to him, the milk in his cup.
And led it home to its mother's arms.
Out of reach of the world's alarms.

The day went down in the crimson West
And with it the hope of the Blessed Guest.
And could alighted as the world turned grey.
"Why is it Lord, that Your feet delay, Did You forget that the day is here?
Their sort in the silence a Voice he heard:
"Lift up your heart, for I kept my word.
Three times I came to your friendly
door."
Three times my shadow was on your floor.
I was the beggar with bruised feet;
I was the woman you gave to eat;
I was the child on the homeless street.

TWO PICTURES.
(Annie Douglas Robinson.)
An old farmhouse with meadows wide
And Sweet with clover on each side
A bright-eyed boy, who looked from out
The door with woodbine wreathed
about,
And wishes his one thought all day:
"Oh, if I could but fly away
From this dull spot the world to see,
How happy, happy, happy,
How happy I should be!"

Amid the city's constant din,
A man who round the world has been,
Who, 'mid the tumult and the throng,
Is thinking, thinking all day long:
"Oh, could I only tread once more
The field path to the farmhouse door,
The old green meadow under my feet,
How happy, happy, happy,
How happy I should be!"

THE HIGHWAYMAN'S LAMENT.
(Contributed.)
We were three gallant 'highwaymen,
A-sneaking down the street
In our little Henry Fordson,
All hid up and neat.
And we lawned at London's constabules, A-shivering on their beat.
But the 'ydro done us in, boys,
The 'ydro done us in.

We spies a little gaffer

THE QUEST.
(Edwin Markham.)
While the cobbler mused, there passed his pane
A beggar drenched by the driving rain.
He called him in from the stony street
And gave him shoes for his bruised
feet.
The beggar went, and there came a Her face with wrinkles of sorrow worn.
A bundle of fags bowed her back,
And she was spent with the wrench and
load.
He gave her his loaf and steered her
load.
As she took her way on the weary road.
Then to his door came a little child.
Lost, and afraid in the world so wild.

Cuticura Soap
IS IDEAL
For the Hands

When a man's hands are chapped and rough, it is a sign that his system is out of order. Cuticura Soap is the ideal for the hands. It is a mild and gentle soap, and it is the only one that will not irritate the skin.
It is the only one that will not dry the skin. It is the only one that will not make the hands feel tight.
It is the only one that will not make the hands feel itchy. It is the only one that will not make the hands feel sore. It is the only one that will not make the hands feel raw. It is the only one that will not make the hands feel red. It is the only one that will not make the hands feel hot. It is the only one that will not make the hands feel cold. It is the only one that will not make the hands feel numb. It is the only one that will not make the hands feel tingling. It is the only one that will not make the hands feel prickling. It is the only one that will not make the hands feel burning. It is the only one that will not make the hands feel stinging.
It is the only one that will not make the hands feel itching. It is the

Are you naturally attractive?

WHERE can you find a more pleasing picture than a group of young, healthy, vigorous girls playing tennis?

Alert, quick to think, and quick to act, their faces aglow with enthusiasm and radiant with health.

How many there are, however, among our growing girls of whom this cannot be said. You see them sitting on the side benches looking on, or loitering around in a listless, careless manner, and, as a rule, irritable and nervous.

Nature intended women to be strong, and healthy and happy as the day is long.
MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS have proved so beneficial in such a multitude of cases, that they can be recommended without hesitation.

They give sound, restful sleep, tone up the nerves, make the heart beat regular and strong, create new red blood corpuscles, and impart that sense of buoyancy to the spirits that is only possible when enjoying mental and physical vigor.

Mrs. Fred Lee, Almonte, Ont., writes:—"My oldest daughter was so bad for over a year, with her heart and nerves, that she was compelled to give up her work. I was very discouraged about her, as I had her to two doctors, but they did not seem to do her much good. She could not sleep at night, would have to walk the floor, and felt as if she would go out of her mind. One day a friend told me to use Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and I cannot speak too highly of them. She used three boxes and is feeling fine, and started back to work again two months ago."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by

STOP CATARRH! OPEN
NOSTRILS AND HEAD
Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Relieves Head-Colds at Once.

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed and you can't breathe freely because of a cold or catarrh, just get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream into your nostrils and let it penetrate through every air passage of your head, soothing and healing the inflamed, swollen mucous membrane and you get instant relief.

How good it feels. Your nostrils are open, your head is clear, no more hawking, snuffling, blowing, no more headache, dryness or struggling for breath. Ely's Cream Balm is just what sufferers from head colds and catarrh need. It's a delight.—Advt.

Back hurt you? Can't straighten up without feeling sudden pains, sharp aches and twinges? Now listen! That's lumbago, sciatica or, maybe from a strain, and you'll get relief the moment you rub your back with soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil." Nothing else takes out soreness, lameness and stiffness so quickly. You simply rub it on your back and out comes the pain. It is harmless and doesn't burn the skin.
Linger up! Don't suffer! Get a small bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" from any drug store, and after using it just once, you'll forget that you ever had backache, lumbago or sciatica, because your back will never hurt or cause any more misery. It never disappoints and has been recommended for 60 years.

OUCH! LUMBAGO!

NEW COLD TREATMENT BRINGS QUICK RELIEF

Druggists Instructed to Refund Money in Every Instance Where Satisfactory Results Are Not Obtained After First Few Doses.

RESULTS FROM USE ALMOST IMMEDIATE

Thousands Using It With Gratifying Results—Great Superiority Over Ordinary Remedies Is Clearly Demonstrated.

Dr. Smathers' Asprolox, the new scientific cold remedy which has been accomplishing such remarkable results, probably provided the fastest, surest and quickest, as well as the most practical treatment for colds yet discovered. A doctor's prescription for it is: "Take three doses at two hour intervals until three doses are taken usually breaks up the severest cold and ends all Grippe misery. The very first dose unties the head, relieves difficult breathing and penetrates deep down into the air passages. It also checks running of the nose, relieves those dull headaches, sneezing and the feverishness which so often accompanies a cold. Don't stay stuffed up. Clear your congested head. No other remedy brings such prompt relief.

Dr. Smathers' Asprolox contains no quinine or nauseating, harmful drugs. It has a soothing effect on inflamed mucous membranes of the nose, throat and bronchial tubes and a gratifying feeling of relief takes the place of distress and discomfort. Dr. Smathers' Asprolox relieves a cold by removing the cause. It is a combination treatment and acts as an antipyretic, expectorant, laxative and antispasmodic.

The next time you have a cold go to your nearest druggist and ask for a bottle of Dr. Smathers' Asprolox. Have the clerk open it on the spot, take a teaspoonful, repeat the dose in an hour, and again in two hours. If you are not surprised and delighted with the result, go back to your druggist, and he will refund your money without question. All drug stores are now supplied with this wonderful new prescription—Adv.

GALT MEETS FALLS FRIDAY AT PRESTON

Parade of Fans, Meets Victory Special in Early Morning Hours.

GALT, Feb. 22.—When the hockey club pulled in at 1:30 this morning it was greeted with a parade of auto horns, and fully a hundred citizens, headed by Mayor E. Charlton, who congratulated the boys on their well-earned victory. Headed by their band, they paraded downtown, awakening many from their peaceful slumbers, and from bedroom windows came cheers for the victors. Today the club was advised that Galt will now meet Niagara Falls in the semi-finals, with home and home games, the first game to be played at Preston Friday night, and return at Niagara Falls Monday. In all probability a special train will be run for the return game.

Milton Broke Even.

On their annual visit to local curriers today four rinks of Milton slammers broke even on the day's play, defeating Galt this morning by 21 shot, and losing to Granites by 27 shots.

STRATFORD, Feb. 22.—Stratford, playing Cameron and Mores of the visitors, barely nosed out Tillsonburg tonight by a 4 to 2 score, in a semi-final game. The ice was in poor condition, and the game was ragged throughout, neither team being able to display any real hockey. The visitors have a nifty forward, Pat Brickman, who has scored in the game through illness, and the return game should be interesting. ### ALL ENJOYING THE ADVERTISER PUZZLE CONTEST

$2,500 Competition Appeals to Financier as Well as Other People.

PROBLEMS ABSORBING

The origin of the type of puzzle, which The Advertiser is presenting to its readers, furnished rather an interesting little chapter. Desiring to ascertain whether such a puzzle as is appearing in the present contest would excite interest, a problem was constructed and offered to the president of a well-known financial institution to solve. This man had also been a judge before engaging in the banking business, and he was asked to test out the proposition because he was regarded as a puzzle solver.

When one morning a number of years ago this man, who was known and generally addressed as "Judge," arrived at his office he found the representative who had been selected to present the puzzle to him waiting for him.

"Good morning," said the judge. "What can I do for you?"

"Count that," replied the representative, "and you can," and then hurriedly left the bank president's office. The representative knew the judge didn't believe in the word "if"; he was the kind of man who had prospered in spite of it.

In an hour or two the representative's telephone rang. "Say," the judge was talking, "I've counted that thing; what's the idea?"

"But you haven't figured it correctly," countered the representative; "try again."

Two hours later the representative's telephone rang a second time. "Well, I have gone over it several times again," it was the judge, "and sure enough I have got a different result."

"Better make another count," replied the representative, without the slightest idea himself what the correct solution was, and hung up his receiver.

Along late in the afternoon, and again at night, the judge called up the representative's office to say he had gone over his figures several times more, and was finally convinced he had the right number.

"I guess you are right, Judge. I really don't know what it is myself; I merely wanted to see if I was as full of business as you are would become interested in a little proposition of that character. Since you have shown so much interest I feel sure it's a good thing for the public generally. I thank you for your assistance."

The representative was gratified.

"But, you didn't put anything over on me, after all," the judge shot back.

HORTICULTURISTS TO MEET.

The directors of the London Horticultural Society are holding an open meeting in the Public Library Thursday evening to discuss reasonable topics in horticulture. These meetings are held from time to time and are not only a source of profit, but of pleasure as well. The "get acquainted idea" is also an important feature in horticulture in order for the members to visit one another's gardens, as well as make exchanges in plants, seeds, roots and bulbs. The speakers for Thursday night's meeting are M. W. Althouse, E. M. S. Dale, Edgar Jeffery and Wm. Hartley of Seaford, and their respective topics are "Early Spring Flowers in the Garden," "Ferns," "Iris" and "Gladoli." The public are invited. The directors are desirous of obtaining 2,000 members this year. The spring premium will be given out in a few weeks and will consist of one dozen gladioli bulbs, six Prince of Wales and six Schwaben. A fall premium will also be given.

FIRE SALE OF PIANOS—PLAYERS—PHONOGRAPHS

SHEET MUSIC AND SMALL MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS

AT OUR NEW ADDRESS 121 DUNDAS STREET Two Doors West of Cowan's Hardware.

Our stock of Pianos and Player-Pianos was completely destroyed in the disastrous fire which wrecked our building recently. Since then our piano business has been at a standstill, as we have been without a wareroom or stock. As March 1st is the end of our fiscal year we must have a record business to round out our last month. Therefore we are placing on sale Thursday, for the first time ever in London, one carload of new Mason & Risch Pianos and Player-Pianos at a reduction of from 15 to 25 per cent off regular prices. Sale ends Thursday, March 3.

Our Phonographs were more fortunate than the Pianos, and as a result we have to offer a limited number of machines of different makes, both table and cabinet models, at reductions of from 15 to 40 per cent. Easy terms, if desired, on both Pianos and Phonographs. Sale Positively Ends Thursday, March 3.
