Second Reading of the Irish Bill to Close Saloons on Sunday-French Views on the Annexation of Newfoundland.

THE QUEEN AT DARMSTADT. Darmstadt, April 24.—Queen Victoria arrived here at 1:45 this afternoon.

TO AMEND THE B. N. A. ACT. London, April 24.—The House of Commons will soon be called upon to consider a bill amending the British North America Act so as to provide for a deputy Speaker in the Canadian Sen-

CANADIAN BUTTER IN ENGLAND. London, April 24.-Another consignment of butter shipped under the auspices of the Canadian Department of Agriculture has arrived in Liverpool. It is of rather high color and good quality, and brings higher prices than Australian butter.

A UNIONIST VICTORY.

London, April 24.--The Parliamentary election in the mid-division of Norfolk yesterday resulted in the return of Mr. Gurdon (Unionist) by a vote of 4,112 to 3,904 for Mr. Wilson (Radical). At the last election Mr. Higgins polled 4,069 votes, to 3,599 polled by Mr. Gur-

London, April 24.-In the House of Commons today Mr. T. W. Russell's bill providing for perpetuation of the existing temporary regulation closing the drinking saloons in Ireland on Sunday, passed its second reading by a vote

FAMINE FOLLOWS FIGHTING. London, April 24.—The Times correspondent in Newchwang says: There is a famine in Southern Manchuria owing to the badness of the harvest in 1894, the presence of the rival armies, the stoppage of transportation from the north and the paralysis of trade here.

THE 'BUSMEN'S STRIKE. Paris, April 24.—It is now believed that the strike is approaching its end. The omnibus company has consented to the point made by the men that the minimum pay shall be 3 1-2 francs a day, and the men in consideration of this concession will promptly abate some of their claims.

A MERE DREAM.

London, April 24.-In an editorial on the Pope's encyclical letter to the English people and the Roman Catholic Churches, the Times says the document Churches, the Times says the document was, doubtless, intended to convey that on doctrinal points no compromise could be thought of. Lord Halifax and his friends, the paper adds, would do well to take this salutary lesson to heart. The reunion of the churches is a mere dream, and the Pope has done his best to make this perfectly plain. perfectly plain.

THE BRIDE'S DRESS.

LONDON, April 24.—At the wedding of ex-Speaker Peel's daughter, the bride's traveling dress was of blue silk, trimmed with old lace. She wore a black velvet cape embroidered with jet, and a bisquit-colored straw hat, trimmed with sprays of roses. The music consisted of full choral service by the choir of Westminster Abbey. Mr. John choir of Westminster Abbey. Mr. John Frederick Bridge, musical director of Westminster Abbey, presided at the organ, and Sir Arthur Sullivan conducted. In the course of the service an anthem especially composed for the occasion was rendered.

TO BE TRIED ON FRIDAY. London, April 24.—Counsel for Oscar Wilde made application in the Old Bailey court this morning for a postponement of his client's trial. Taylor's counsel, however, was desirous of proceeding, and the prosecuting lawyer argued in opposition to the postponement, saying Wilde had had ample opportunity to prepare for trial. The court refused to grant a postponement, and fixed Friday as the day for trial. The sale of Oscar Wilde's effeets by auction upon the order of the sheriff is regarded as indicating that his pecuniary means are exhausted.

RUSSIA'S DEMANDS. London, April 24.-The Daily Chronicle will say tomorrow: Russia is unable to enforce her demands upon Japan. Suppose she were able immediately to concentrate 30,000 men in the east; of what use would they be against the Mikado's 100,000 veterans, better drilled and equipped in every way. Russia might as well try to invade the moon as Japan. Every Russian landed would find ten Japanese awaiting him. Moreover, the Japanese might make a descent upon Vladivostock. Russia must consider such possibilities before decidback her protest with force.

A LESSON FOR NICARAGUA. London, April 24.—The Daily Graphic will say tomorrow, under the caption, "A Martyr to Monroeism": That the soil of the republics of the two Americas is safe from the trespasses of European nowers, no matter how the subjects and interests of the latter may have been cutraged, has been Nicaragua's pride and solace throughout her tempestuous career, and even though she stand alone she will not desert so convenient a principle. Before sunset today perhaps counsels of a less heroic kind will by that time have taught Nicaragua and other states of Central and South and other states of Central and South America a lesson long needed.

The Daily Chronicle will say tomorrow: It does not appear that the United States are at all anxious to take a hand in the difficulty between Great Britain and Nicaragua. Everything is indeed well between us and the United and the necessity of Great Britain's settling the questions at issue with France. It quotes Finance Minister Foster's statement that an understanding between Newfoundland and England on a basis acceptable to France was likely, and adds: "We hope Mr. Foster's expectations will be realized, but it will be necessary to French dip-plomacy to examine closely the details of the understanding. In any event, it must be understood that the question must be solved before Newfoundland enters Canada."

London, April 24.—It is reported that a French syndicate has bought the Island of Anticosti in the St. Lawrence from the liquidator of the old company. REGARDING THE TREATY.

London, April 24.-A dispatch to the Pall Mall Gazette from Berlin says advices have been received from Tokio that the Russian, French and German Ministers today made representations to the Japanese Government opposing the clause in the Chino-Japanese treaty providing for the cession to the latter of territory upon the mainland of China. The representations were received by Minister of Foreign Affairs Mutsu. London, April 24.—The Frankfurter Zeitung's correspondent in St. Peters-burg says: During the last few days Prince Lobanoff, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, has shown a more reserved attitude towards France's representations in favor of an energetic protest in Tokio. Everything indicates that Russia will play a passive part now, owing to England's attitude. The committee of Ministers has been charged

London, April 24.—The Daily News will announce positively tomorrow that England will not act in concert with the continental powers regarding the Jap-Chinese treaty. It will say editorial-"England's refusal to co-operate with the other powers is due solely to the desire not to take part in matters which she has no immediate concern. We trust it is not the policy of any of the powers to do more than endeavor to persuade Japan. There is nothing to be gained worth even the remote risk to draw up a scheme to obviate the necessity that Russian warships use

Japanese ports in certain contingenof war." From St. Petersburg the News learns that Russia has sent a note to Japan stating the various conditions of the treaty which she cannot allow.

GETTING CRITICAL.

Britain Gives Nicaragua Three Days to Pay Up.

Failing that, British Warships Will Blockade Her Ports and Troops Will Land.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, April 24.— Great excitement exists Government, it is reported, will refuse here. The o pay the indemnity, and will abandon Corinto as a port of entry. The belief is general here that if Great Britain obtains possession of Corinto she will continue to occupy it as she has occupied territory in Egypt and other countries where she has obtained a foot-

LONDON, April 24.—At the Foreign Office it is specially stated that three British warships in the harbor of Corinto, Nicaragua, are there for the purpose of enforcing compliance with the demands of Great Britain set forth in the ultimatum.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Secretary Gresham had a long interview with Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British ambassador, this morning, and also Minister Gurzman, of Nicaragua, who com-municated to him the intelligence he had from his Government. Very short-ly afterwards members of the Cabinet drove out to Woodley, the President's country home, where a special Cabinet meeting was held.

The outcome of the informal meeting at Woodley is understood to be that the United States Administration is disposed to use its good offices between Nicaragua and Great Britain so far as t consistently can. President Cleveland feels that as matters now stand, the United States can do nothing except to request Lord Kimberley not to force a settlement of the indemnity within the next 24 hours, but to permit a sufficient time to elapse, so that Nicar-agua may not be put in the position of being compelled to pay the "smart money" at the cannon's mouth. If the British Foreign Office shall agree to this the incident will probably be closed within the next fortnight by a compliance on the part of Nicaragua with Great Britain's terms.

Those who understand the sentiment of the Nicaragua people respecting this matter predict that Nicaragua will not pay the indemnity unless Great Britain pursues a more conciliatory course. The disposition of President Zelaya and his advisers is strongly against paying the money under compulsion. To do will, it is said, result in the overthrow of the present Administration by the Nicaragua people, who would even prefer that Corinto should be occupied by the British rather than that they should be compelled to make a humiliating surrender.

In the Course of a Wrangle About a

Kalkaska, Mich., April 24.-Loon Lake, six miles from here, was the scene of a shooting affray last night, in which P. M. Lossing and his son, Milford Lossing; Oscar Long and his son, Clarence Long; Hiram Drake and Ben Jackson, all well-to-do farmers of this county, received the contents of a double-barrelled shotgun in their faces and abdomens. The farmers were pre-paring to spear fish from a boat, when Bradford Luister claimed the boat and accused the farmers of attempting to steal it. They would not give it up, and Luister retired to the woods near by and fired at the party. All six were seriously wounded, and P. M. Lossing may die. Luister has been arrested and

PARADIS' PARADISE!

Repatriated French-Canadian Colonists

in a State of Semi-Starvation. Marquette, Mich., April 24.-Joseph Croze, a wealthy French-Canadian business man of Houghton, who has just returned from the colony in Vernor, Ont., says he found the colonists in a state of semi-starvation. None of them had taken more than enough prothem had taken more than enough provisions for their journey, expecting to find suplies there all ready for them, which they had been told would be advanced upon credit and be repaid from the proceeds of the first crop.

There were no supplies, and markets were so remote that it would take days to procure even a small quantity. No teams were available, and railroad transportation was very expensive. The subsidy has not yet been granted by the Government, nor was there to general agriculture. Life at best would be exile, for it must be many years before that country will develop sufficiently to make Vernor other than an isolated station.

Upon hearing Mr. Croze's story and witnessing the suffering too plainly written upon the faces of the returning colonists, several French citizensamong them Peter Primeau, registrar of the United States Land Office—have decided to actively oppose the efforts that are being made to induce others to emigrate to Paradis' col-

DURING LUNCH HOUR

Crooks Robbed a New Jersey Bank of $22,765. Plainfield, N. J., April 24.-The directors of the First National Bank of this city today announced the theft of $22,765, of which the vaults were rob-bed on Monday last. Frank S. Runyon, cashier of the bank, first discovered the loss when closing the vaults Monlay evening.

Two packages, one containing $20,000 in new bills of various values from $1 o $1,000, and another of $2,765 in mutilated bills were missing.

Last Monday but two clerks remained noon lunch hour. David N. Bunyon, a a relative of the cashier, attended to the tellers' window, and Adelbert Vail, a young clerk, was at one of the wickets. A strange man with a long list of notes written upon a large sheet of paper entered and engaged Vail in conversation. Vall recalls that the paper was held in such a manner as to com-pletely shut off his view of the passage by his wicket, and it is thought that he bank thief passed under cover of the paper into the inner rooms and thence obtained access to the vault, or else that he entered by a rear hallway door which is known to have been left open. There is no clue to the thief.

OVER $500,000 SHORT.

Why Marie Wainwright's Lover Committed Suicide.

Tacoma, Wash., April 24.—Instead of a few thousand dollars, as first sup-posed, the defalcation of the late Paul Schulz, who was land agent of the Northern Pacific Railway, will amount to $500,000, and may be $700,000, according to the report of the experts who are engaged in examining the accounts of the suicide. This shortage and disapointment in love are believed to have led to his suicide. A farewell letter to Marie Wainwright, the actress, was found on his person, and the statement is made by his friends that he had been n love with her for some time, but the collapse of her divorce proceedings placed an insuperable obstacle in the way of the marriage of the actress and Schulz, who obtained a divorce from his German wife over three years ago.

NO LEGAL STANDING.

Grand Trunk Company Couldn't Prose cute Hardiker's Case.

Detroit, April 24.—The trial of Geo. E. Hardiker was commenced in the Re-corder's Court this morning. Hardiker was brought from Mexico some months ago on a charge of having embezzled $3,878 77 from the Grand Trunk Railway while employed as an assistant cashier.

The original complaint was made by the Grand Trunk Company. When they came into court it was discovered that as the Grnd Trunk is not a company incorporated in this State they have no legal standing, and the Detroit, Grand Haven and Milwaukee Railway was substituted. The later company claim to be the collecting agents of the Grand Trunk. The defense will make all they can out of this change of

MR. SIFTON EXPLAINS

His Reference to the Action of Orangemen in Haldimdnd. Toronto, Ont., April 24.-An enthusiastic gathering of 3,000 people was held in Massey Music Hall this evening, the occasion being a public reception tendecasion being a public reception tendered Hon. Clifford Sifton, Attorney-General of Manitoba. The chair was taken by Rev. Chancellor Burwash. Mr. Sifton, in reply to the address presented to him, explained that he had intended in his reference the other day to the part played by Orangemen in the Haldimand election to say that the Orangemen had all supported the Government. What he had said was that many of them had not kept their promise of voting for McCarthy.

Mi. Sifton then gave a history of the school question from the Manitoba stand point, and once more plainly stated that Manitoba would not accept a remedial order, and that the Dominion would have to use coercion if it attempted to re-establish separate schools in that Province.

Mr. Dalton McCarthy said he was there because he wanted to show he was not downhearted because of the Haldimand defeat, and did not intend, as suggested by the paid newspaper press of Toronto, to abandon his position.

WORK AND WAGES.

The Detroit Railway Has a Strike on Its Hands. Detroit, April 24.—The Detroit Railway has a full-fledged strike on its hands today, which threatens to assume serious propor This morning about 80 employes, who were engaged in excavating for the new power house at the foot of Riopelle street, refused to proceed with the work unless their wages were raised from $1 25 to $1 50 per day.

The Citizen's Company, who are building a power house in close proximity, are paying laborers $1 50 per day, and the unfavorable comparison caused the dissatisfaction. As soon as the strike occurred the manager ordered the men paid off. The strikers refused to allow a couple of dozen who were willing to go ahead to resume work.

Toronto, April 24.—At the meetings of the Bricklayers' Union and the Builders' Laborers' Union last evening the question was discussed what action should be taken them in consequence of the fact that agreement with the employers, by which the bricklayers have been paid 36 cents per hour, and the builders' laborers 21 cents an hour during the past five years, expires on May 1. The employers refuse to renew the old agreement on the old terms, and the men are desirous that some understanding should be arrived at at once. The discussion at both meetings was quite lengthy, but nothing definite was arrived at.

Mortgage Sale

Valuable Suburban Property.

Under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in a mortgage, which will be produced at the time of sale, there will be offered for sale at public auction on Saturday, April 27, 1895, at 12 o'clock noon, by J. W. Jones, Esq., auctioneer, at his auction rooms on Dundas street, in the city of London, the following very valuable property just outside the limits of the city of London, namely:

In the Gore in the township of I ondon, and containing by admessurement about 19% acres In the Gore in the township of I ondon, and containing by admeasurement about 19½ acres of land more or less, and being lots Nos. I to 104 inclusive, according to the plan registered in the registery office for the North and East Ridings of the county of Middlesex, on the 5.h day of November, 1891, as 427.

The property lies between the Hamilton road and Trafalgar street on the westerly side of East street.

of East street.

The land is said to be well fenced and in a good state of cultivation and is understood to be high and dry and well adapted for a market garden, and being outside the city limits is free from city taxes; the property is convenient to a school situated on the corner of the property at the junction of the Hamilton road and East street.

The property will be offered for sale en bloc and East street.

The property will be offered for sale en bloc or in parcels of one or more lots as may be determined upon at the time of sale.

The property in addition to being well adapted for market garden purposes is splendidly situated for building purposes.

Terms of sale: Ten per cent cash; sufficient to make up one-third of the purchase money within two weeks from the day of sale; balance upon terms to be agreed upon balance upon terms to be agreed upon at the time of sale. These terms may be varied on day of sale to suit purchaser. For all particulars, conditions of sale, plan of property etc., apply to GIBSON, MARTIN & OSBORNE, vendors solicitors, Hamilton, or to L. W. LONES, Esc., auctioneer, Dundes or to J. W. Jones, Esq., auctioneer, Dundas street, London.

She is getting to be very wearisome, this New England spinster, with her extraordinary dialect, and old black calico hanging in "limp folds about her angular form." I never read about her now, though there was a time when she was interesting, and that was when a little literary artist named Mary Wilkins first brought her out. But imitators have sprung up like wild mustard and sour grass all over the land. Now we have fresh crops of them every week. You can hardly pick up a paper published for women in America, cheap, mediumpriced or dear, without stumbling at once upon a story which will begin like this: "Miss Maria Horton sat at the window of her house, and looked out. It was a small house, painted white, with green shutters, set well back from the road. The sun shone in through the shining pane on her hair-faded hairher delicate, knotted old hands were working nervously in her lap, made of drab calico much worn. Some marigolds and blue gentian bloomed in the garden near the fence." I always stop here, and if possible before this bedraggled person has had time to open her lips and exclaim: "It just beats all!" or "For the land's sake!" equivalent in the New England dialect story to the bell Secretary Trustee Board which rings the curtain up for the play

In a long-established women's club there came up not long ago the question as to whether a man should be taught to sew even in later life, the text for the discourse being taken from a recent article in Harper's Bazar, opening as fol-

"A man, a needle and a thread, and a loose button! Can one well imagine a more pitiful combination! Or is it ludicrous? I have never been quite able to determine to my satisfaction which it is. When it is some other man it is always funny; when it is I it is anything but funny. But whichever it may be, wretched, indeed, is the state of that man who has no woman to rely upon to keep his stockings darned, his buttons sewed on, and his rips drawn together. I wonder if people know how wretched it really is? There seems to be an almost insurmountable difficulty that stands in the way of a man's ever learning to handle a needle properly.

To begin with he never threads the needle in the right way. He always doubles the thread and knots the end together. This, he is told, is all wrong; woman never does it. She simply puts the thread through the eye of the needle, pulls it out a little way, and knots one end. But how she succeeds in sewing without pulling the thread out of the needle at each stitch is, and always will

Incidentally, as part of the pathetic picture of a man's helplessness before the button, some of his methods of mending were given, and follow here with the only solution which had presented itself to the plaintiff's mind:

One man who despaired of ever accomplishing anything with a needle and thread used to tie a string around the hole, and then hammer the bunch thus raised with a stone. I hardly think the result could have been very satis-Another way, the one that most men a hard ridge in the stocking, but that can be twisted around until it does not hurt very much. Under this method, however, a stocking soon reaches the end of its usefulness, and has to be thrown away. way, the only way, I am convinced, for the average man to get control of a needle and thread. "Do you think that an artist puts his own feelings into his work?" asked the young woman. "To be sure," was the reply. "I suppose," she went on, thoughtfully, "that's why some of the poor, hungry fellows make their skies

A woman does not keep one style all her life. She starts out blonde and thin; within ten years she becomes much darker in effect and becomes broader and stouter; but ten to one she clings passionately to the colors and general character of gowns and bonnets that were always becoming to her. She is a lost woman. She is sure to look passe. It is a great thing not to fall into a rut in clothes: look with a single mind at the present effect of the things

TO FIGHT FIRE.

What the Underwriters Want London

A Chemical Engine the Chief Item-Conference With No. 3 Committee.

The differences between the Canadian Fire Underwriters' Association and the city regarding the efficiency of London's fire department may soon be settled by the demands of the association being partially acceded to. The association having sent their inspector, Mr. Howe, to confer with the city fire committee in the matter-that gentleman was present at a special meeting of No. 3. called last night. Ald. Parnell was in the chair, and Ald. Ardill, Pritchard, Skinner, Garratt and Weld, Secretary Bell and Assistant Engineer Ironsides were there. Mr. Howe wanted more than the committee were willing to give. He would have liked a chemical engine and a water tower, and he thought a second main was a necessity. The conference, however, was pleasant, and the result was that Mr. Howe received considerable en-couragement, and will likely make a favorable report to the association. Mr. Howe stated to the meeting the object of his mission—to discuss the advisability of purchasing a chemical engine or some modern fire appliances, and to see if the differences between the underwriters and the city could not be settled. He also noted that the aerial truck had been decided upon, that the pumping machinery had been increased, and that extra hose had been purchased. If a chemical engine were secured it would be of great importance to the association. The action of the council in throwing out the recommendation to purchase a chemical engine was explained, but Mr. Howe considered an engine of greater benefit than an aerial truck. The city had 60 and 75 foot extension ladders already, but the latter was useless, as it could not be hoisted. He thought the 60-foot ladder was sufficient for the city. Chief Roe, when asked to express his views in the matter, said the present hook and ladder truck was practically useless and in a fair way to collapse whenever brought out. They would certainly have to purchase a new truck. If they got a new engine then a span of horses and a building would be necessary. The city could get along without the engine. His choice was a truck.

"Does the Underwriters' Association demand a chemical engine?" asked Ald.

"Either an engine or a salvage corps," replied Mr. Howe. "In a large and growing manufacturing center like London I would suggest that a water tower be purchased. It would cost about $6,000, but it could be operated by one man and would throw a two-inch stream on any building the height of the tower. There was some talk about the Association and its powers, and whether it could increase the insurance rates on London. "It can raise rates," said the chairman. "Its powers are greater than that of the Czar of Russia, and if we do not want to take their rates we can go uninsured. Forty of the most substantial companies are represented in the association."

The conversation gradually verged to the waterworks equipments, and Mr. Howe expressed a desire to have a second main. The attitude of the people towards the proposition as shown by a recent vote was mentioned, and the matter soon dropped, although one or two of the aldermen expressed simposite Masonic Temple.

ilar views to the inspector. The con-ference was finally concluded by the passing of a resolution recommending the purchase of a truck, as already passed by the council, and also that provision for a chemical engine be made in next year's estimates.

Mr. Doupe and several other rate-payers appeared in opposition to the watering of John street, as passed in the bylaw. The matter will go to the council.

Messrs. E. W. Crouch and J. O'Neil were given a six months' license operate a merry-go-round in the city for $75.

Mr. Wallace Graham, an old Canadian newspaper man, died at Norfolk, Virginia, on April 10, aged 49. For many years he published the Parkhill Gazette, and was well known as one of the ablest writers on the Canadian country press. He at one time published the Windsor Record, but for the past few years had been a resident of the United States. Mr. Graham was a gentleman of extensive observation and reading, and much esteemed by his many friends throughout the western portion of Ontario, where he was well known. Though of gentle and unobtrusive demeanor, he was a man of power and influence, and will be long mourned by hosts of friends as well as by his widow and two grown-up sons who survive him.

The spacious residence of Wm. Barr, Mossley, was the scene on Wednesday of the marriage of his daughter Ada and Rev. John Russel, of Vancouver, British Columbia. The ceremony was performed by Rev. The bridal pair left en route for their distant home in Vancouver.

cott's arsaparilla

WHAT IT IS.

Scott's Sarsaparilla is not an old medicine nor the formula of an old physician used for years in his practice. It is not a resurrection from the dusty archives of old ideas, or a preparation of chance. It is a new medicine, composed of ingredients that are the most recent discoveries in the science of medicine. Its success in curing disease fully justifies the departure from old lines. Scott's Sarsaparilla does not yet rest its reputation on the number of doses in a bottle, nor the number of bottles in a gallon. Qualitynot quantity-governs its production.

Its most pronounced feature is its remarkable efficacy in eradicating poison and impurities from the blood, and building up the worn and debilitated parts of the system. Thus, in stubborn cases of scrofula and other diseases depending upon impure blood, quick results are obtained from its purifying and tissue-building properties. As a spring medicine Scott's Sarsaparilla has no equal for searching out health-destroying accumulations and rendering the system free from disease germs that would otherwise multiply and materialize in serious spring sickness. It is pleasant to take, dose small, and can be used by women and children with perfect confidence.

Scott's Sarsaparilla -CURES-

Spring Complaints.

Nearly everyone takes some medicine in the spring, and it is well to do so from the fact that the indoor life of the winter months tends to impregnate the system with germs and maternate the system with germs and materialize into some disease on the appearance of warm weather. Most people using a spring medicine want to obtain the best results in the shortest time, and without drenching their stomachs with huge doses. Scott's Sarsaparilla fills the bill in every respect; it purifies the blood, searches out all poison and system waste, invigorates poison and system waste, invigorates the whole system and makes you feel

Scott's Sarsaparilla -CLEANSES AND-Purifies the Blood.

Impurity of the blood, resulting in humiliating eruptions and humors, makes life miserable for many. Doctors fail, ordinary preparations have no effect, but Scott's Sarsaparilla contains in combination, the properties necessary to eradicate every trace of disfiguration. It is not prepared like other sarsaparillas, does not taste nor act like them, and the secret of its remarkable cures creates a standard of its own that could only come to a superior that could only come to a superior medicine, a present day production having the advantage of most recent

The great secret of remarkable cures produced by Scott's Sarsaparilla in stubborn rheumatic, scrofulous and syphilitic cases is owing to its far-reaching influence on the blood, in eradicating all poisonous taint and equalizing the circulation. It is THE KIND THAT CURES, because no other medicine contains such a combination of curative properties.

THE COUNTRY NEEDS A CHANGE. The following significant facts were brought out in the recent debate in the Dominion Parliament. Hard times have prevailed in the country, but the men in power have been more prodigal than Dominion net debt, March 31, 1894, $240,189,000; Dominion net debt, March 31, 1895, $248,150,000. Increase, almost $8,000,000 in a year.

Deficit in Dominion revenue for the nine months to April 1, 1895, $5,016,000. How this deficit has been added to, Sir Richard Cartwright trenchantly pointed out in his speech on the address. In reply to Mr. Foster's plea that the deficit was caused by a reduction in taxes, Sir Richard said:

"The honorable gentleman goes on to tell us that the revenue has fallen off because last year he took off such a lot of taxes. Well, sir, with my customary generosity, I made an estimate of what he had taken off, and I gave him credit for 200 per cent more than he deserved; I credited him, after carefully examining the result of his tariff for two months, with a reduction of 3-10ths of one per cent. I observe now that the six months have been added together, and I committed the grievous error-for which I apologize-of crediting him with 20 per cent too much; the actual reduction was 1-10th of one per

Then Sir Richard exposed the plea that the shortage in revenue arose in spite of the greatest care on the part of the men in power. He said:

"The honorable gentleman's mode of delivering us from a deficit was to agree to give up $200,000 of revenue to the brewers, $200,000 and more for the French treaty, $750,000 a year for the Atlantic subsidy, $750,000 to be granted to railway subsidies. But how much more to the Trent Valley Canal? How much more to the Hudson Bay Rail-How much more to other railways gently hinted at, but not quite clearly indicated by the honorable

ELECTRIFICATION OF LONDON'S STREET RAILWAY.

It is to be presumed that the parties to the arrangement in connection with the electrification of the London street railway system are making progress, even though the preliminary settlement of pro and con goes on in committee stage, rather than in the City Council. the public is natural, though that impatience will not be allowed to hurry interest of the citizens. THE HUGE DOMINION DEFICIT. Finance Minister Foster should say plainly how he proposes to meet the huge deficit which ominously confronts the Dominion. Principal Grant, at Kingston recently, made pointed reference to the subject, and strongly condemned the proposal to devote $2,500,000, in face of such a deficit, towards building a railway to Hudson Bay. Said Principal Grant:

"Good men are more of a necessity in the Dominion Parliament than in the Local House. With an estimated deficit of $5,000,000 staring it in the face, the Government was talking of giving $2,500,000 towards building a railway to the Hudson Bay. The railway was not wanted. While the water in the St. Lawrence, the channel to Montreal, would only admit of a vessel of a draught of nine feet, they were talking of throwing away a large amount of money. The channel should be deepened to fourteen feet first, before the railway scheme was even thought of. Economy and cleanliness were needed in the House."

The American system of the supremacy of the courts is less democratic in practice as well as in theory than the English system of the supremacy of Parliament. Parliamentary government makes possible more legislation in behalf of the common people than government by the courts. The contrast between the English and American systems brings out strongly two points: first, that written constitutions, instead of being a safeguard for the common people, may be a safeguard to vested interests; and, secondly, that the fact that in England Parliament is supreme and can do almost anything facilitates the passage of progressive laws to an extent that is impossible where courts are supreme.-New York Outlook.

OTTAWA, April 24.—The chief fea-ures of this afternoon's session at the ures of this afternoon's session at the tures of this afternoon's session at the House of Commons were the speech by Mr. Charlton in favor of the repeal of the Dominion Franchise Act and the laying on the table of the long-promised report on prohibition. Thousands of pages of the evidence taken, much of it worthless, are given in the half-dozen ponderous blue books accompanying the report.

While the preliminaries were in progress, Mr. D. C. Fraser, the present Nova Scotian M. P., entered the House fresh from his triumphs in Antigonish, taking his seat on the Liberal side of the chamber amid cheers. The memberelect for Antigonish, Hon. Mr. McIsaac, sat in the Speaker's gallery, looking down upon the scene of his future labors. He will be introduced when his certificate arrives. Hon. Mr. Geoffrion, another Liberal member elected last week, is expected tomorrow. Near Mr. McIsaac sat Mr. Marter, leader of the Ontario Opposition, receiving pointers from Mr. McKay, M. P. for Hamilton.

Mr. Charlton, in introducing his bill to repeal the Franchise Act and provide for the use of the Provincial lists in the Dominion elections, said he would follow the British system of explaining the bill then. He pictured the Franchise Act as it really is—an expensive, vexatious, and altogether unnecessary measure, and wholly un-British. Three revisions had cost the country $900,000. What the last revision cost remains to be seen. Mr. Charlton said that both Dr. Goldwin Smith has been called in parties should be tired of the measure, for it cost politicians another $400,000 every revision. It was, indeed, one of a trio of political infamy, the other two being the cut-throat gerrymander and systematic boodling. By such unwarranted expedients, and not by the popularity of its taxation policy, have the men in power held office. Mr. Charlton made Sir Adolphe Caron scowl and caused a forced laugh from Mr. Haggart when he referred to "the wicked Caron and other scandals," and "the McGreevy-Connolly prosecution fiasco." If Mr. McGreevy was really elected, then he should be introduced to the House by Sir Adolphe Caron and Mr. Turcotte, Mr. Haggart in the rear.

> Mr. Foster mildly protested against adopting the British system followed by Mr. Charlton, but Mr. Laurier said to him it was a decided improvement to have a bill explained when introduced.

Mr. Edgar brought in his bill respecting frauds upon the Government. contractors subscribing to election funds apply to every director and of-ficer of all railways subsidized by or having contracts with the Government.

Turning towards his fellow-Conservatives on the treasury benches, the colonel repudiated the idea of those men being denounced as demagogues who strove to remove unnecessary class and race distinctions. With an eye on Mr. Costigan—who made a personal attack on Mr. McCarthy last night-Col. O'Brien said that men hardly fit for the position of a civil clerkship had in recent years been made Cabinet Ministers, not because they are able for the position, but because they represent certain class or religious pre-judices. "Mr. Costigan," added Col. O'Brien, "is a case in point. Sir John Macdonald made no mistake as to Mr. Costigan. It was impossible for Sir John to make a statesman out of him, but he did come to the conclusion that he would make a most admirable placeman, and a place-man he remains."

These daily scraps between different sections of the Conservative party are causing much anxiety to the leaders.

Mr. Laurier asked if the Government was now prepared to present the order in council passed in favor of the Hudson Bay Railway speculators.

Mr. Foster asked for time to bring down the papers. Mr. Laurier-You promised an explanation today. Again Mr. Foster urged delay, and delay there is.

Mr. Devlin, on motion for papers, made strong accusations against the Pontiac Pacific Junction Railway Company, which, while receiving enormous subsidies from Parliament, had failed months, leaving them in a deplorable condition.

Mr. Laurier warmly championed the cause of the workers, and pointed out that this vindicated the position he of money had been voted by this House to all sorts of speculators, and no stipuhas been subsidized to the amount of $20,000 to $30,000 a mile, and no obligations imposed upon it.

Mr. Laurier elicited the important information today that the suit instituted by the Minister of Justice against the late firm of Larkin, Connolly & Co. anywhere else her fancy prompts, with had been compromised for $100,000, to offset which there was a balance due the firm of $40,000, leaving $60.000 due by Patrick Larkin, the Connollys and Robert McGreevy. None of the defendants have paid up, and instructions have been given to collect the money. The latter caused some merriment in view of recent events.

Dr. Landerkin elicited the information that the customs collectorship at Montreal had been vacant since January, 1893, that the salary is $4,000, and that it is intended soon to fill the vacancy. The Minister of Customs re-fused to say how many applicants there are.

the work, or $82,000 a mile.

To Mr. McMullen, Mr. Ives said Mr. Larke ceased to be a World's Fair commissioner on Aug. 21, 1894; that he was appointed an agent to go to Australia on Aug. 25, 1894; that his salary is $3,000 a year, with traveling and removal expenses, and that he had received £200 advance money.

.... Mr. Perry elicited the information that $8,557 had been spent on the P. E. I. tunnel borings. There were no borings last year because there was no general election then, interpolated Mr. Davies, but there will, of course, be borings during 1895. The tunnel borings appear to be regarded as a good joke by Ministers.

Dr. Montague told Mr. Mulock that no train conductors had been appointed as Government officers to take charge of cattle trains passing through Canada in bond.

Mr. Foster promised Mr. Laurier to give explanations as to the formation of the Cabinet tomorrow. I am told there may be some unusual developments if the whole truth is told.

Today Mr. Mills explained that an order passed for details of the manufacturing census of London city, ordered two years ago, had not been brought down. Mr. Montague promised attention.

Sir Richard Cartwright was informed that the Dominion has at its credit in Canadian banks today $5,929,526, and in England, $964,172. The total unexpended subsidies voted by Parliament to date is $8,749,271 81.

On motion of Mr. Laurier for papers regarding the dispute as to Canadian sealers between Canada, the States and Britain, Mr. Langelier said it would be important to know what truth there was in the statement published in the Conservative papers to the effect that Sir C. H. Tupper had received a mere snubbing from Secretary Gresham, of he Ilnited States who a mission regarding this matter. At 6 o'clock the House adjourned. * * * *

The report of the prohibition commission is a huge document, containing jority of the commissioners, as expectcommissioners say they disagree with the churches and many witnesses, who assert that the licensing of the traffic is an immoral and national sin. They compliment the Salvation Army. A combined system of license and regulation is their idea. They assert that s prohibitory law would prove unduly coercive, and therefore would be impracticable. Then the commissioners think that some of the provinces are opposed to prohibition, and that with the frontier of the United States, where liquor is freely sold, unprotected, a general prohibitory law could not be enforced with any reasonable degree of efficiency. If prohibition were enforced, the commissioners hold that compensation ought to be given. The commissioners suggest that a Dominion tax as well as a provincial and municipal tax, be collected. They advocate better control of habitual drunkards. They report against saloon licenses, and in favor of a high license system.

Rev. Dr. McLeod dissented from the findings of his fellow-commissioners, and presents a separate report, not yet brought down. G. A. Gigault, another member of the commission, reports: "I dissent from the suggestion that liquor dealers should be required to obtain certificates from the Federal Government. I also dissent from the paragraph referring to the work of the Salvation Army, as I am not satisfied that the temperance movement has been benefited by the work of that organization."

Mr. Laurier will next week insist on having laid on the table a copy of order in council granting or promising aid to the Hudson Bay Railway speculat-

Senators Power, MacDonald and Kalbach continued the debate on the address in the Senate today, but no interest is taken in their deliberations. The House of Commons was told today that Dairy Commissioner Robertson sent 915 packages of first-class dairy butter to Great Britain this spring; 246 packages had been sold in had taken, which had been resisted by Montreal for a little over 20 cents a pound, and 224 of second quality had been taken charge of by dealers in Mon-

New Haven, Conn., April 24.—The Toronto Eastern League team played a pretty game with Yale College. Eight innings were played, the score terminating 6 to 4 in favor of the Canucks. In the fifth inning peer's muff was responsible for three runs made by the visitors. The fielding, while fair, was not good, and the errors on both sides while not numerous were costly. Ed. Crane pitched great ball for the Torontos.

A Resolution Inviting Canada to Join the United States

Is Discussed in the New York Legislature and Laid on the Table.

An Interesting Discussion-The Motion Laughed At.

Albany, N. Y., April 25.—Mr. O'Grady presented in the House a petition to Congress and a resolution favoring the annexation of Canada to the United States. The resolution was adopted. The resolution is as follows: "Whereas, we believe that the political union of the two great English-speaking communities who now occupy and control North America will deliver the continent from danger of war and securely dedicate it to peaceful industry and progress, lessen the per capita cost of government and defence, insure the rapid development of its boundless natural resources, enlarge its domestic and foreign commerce, unite all interests in creating a systematic development of its means of internal communication with the seaboard by rail and water east and west, protect and preserve its wealth, resources, privileges, and op-portunities, as the undisputed heritage of all, immensely add to its influence, prestige and power, promote, extend, and perpetuate government by the people, and remove forever the causes most likely to seriously disturb cordial relations and kindly intercourse with the motherland. "Wherefor, be it resolved, if the Senate concur, that we invite the Canadian people to cast in their lot with this continent, and assure them that they shall have all the continent can give them. We will respect their freedom of action, and welcome them when they desire it, into an equal and honorable union. In the Senate today this resolution was received with laughter. Senator O'Connor did not think it becoming for New York State to invite Canada to sever its connection with England.

Senator Pound said the resolution was backed up by thousands of prominent names, and asked its immediate consideration.
Senator O'Connor protested. He did not want to stir up discord in a neighboring country. He did not think that the names of Mr. Depew, Mayor Strong Mr. Platt and others, which go with the resolution, should carry the Senate off its feet. Senator Canter was surprised to see Senator O'Connor go back on anything favored by one of those named.

Senator O'Connor said that one name was wise and experienced, but not infallible, and he did not think that the resolution was proper, even if it was thus indorsed.

The resolution was finally laid on the table.

JAMES MANSILL'S BODY

Is Brought to His Home in London for Interment.

(UNITED PRESS ACCOUNT.) Windsor, Ont., April 24.—A man was killed on the Grand Trunk Railway one mile east of the Puce depot, twelve miles from Windsor, where he was found this morning by Conductor Bail-ey. Two letters were found in a pocketbook, one being addressed to James Mansill, 281 Wellington street, London, Ont., and was apparently his address, as it had been opened. The other was addressed to David Williams and signed by James Mansill. A dispatch from London states that James Mansill has been missing for two days from London. He is well dressed, wearing a black suit and laundried linen shirt. Mansill was a respectable young man, but rather eccentric, and got mixed up in a fight with two men and got a black The police were looking for the participants in the fight and Mansill left abruptly. When he was found this morning he was terribly bruised about the head and breast. The indications are that he was stealing a ride and fell from the train. THE INQUEST. Coroner Reaum, of Windsor, held an inquest at Puce station this afternoon on the body of James Mansill, of Lon-A letter found on him showed that he was going to Detroit to take a job which had been offered him. The evidence taken went to show that Mansill had been stealing a ride and that death must have resulted from him falling off the train. The jury brought in a verdict to that effect, and Constable Logan, of London, who was pressent, has sent a message to his relatives asking if they want the body sent home.

THE BODY ARRIVES. The body arrived at the Grand Trunk depot at 10:50 last evening on the ac-commodation train from Windsor. It was in a rough box, without a shell, a sheet being thrown over the remains. His effects were in the box with him, and the upper portion of the body was undressed and bore the marks of the post mortem. Probably 200 morbidly curious young men were at the station expecting to get a glimpse at the body. In this they were disappointed, as it was taken to Ferguson's immediately and prepared for interment. The box was brought up in a special baggage car. The injuries sustained by Man-sill were on the head and left side, the

Mr. Martin O'Meara took charge of the funeral arrangements. Mrs. Man-sill has had a great deal of trouble, and her friends are afraid this latest blow will affect her mind. They wish to state that George Mansill, another son, was not killed away from home, as has been stated, but that he died in Detroit, where his mother nursed him during his fatal illness.

A MINISTER'S CRIME.

Rev. Jonathan Bell, of England, Said to be Emily Hall's Betrayer.

Detroit, April 24.-Rev. Jonathan Bell, of Primrose Villa, Black Heath, Dudley, Eng., who visited his brother-in-law, Rev. Wm. Pease, of the Congregational Church at St. Clair, Mich., last November, and who left there on Jan. 1, is the betrayer of Emily Hall, whose death in the Lane Hospital at 630 Lincoln avenue has awakened a sensation which has spread to the other side of the ocean.

The fact was established yesterday when Mr. Pease recognized the hand-writing of the letters found on Dr. Seaman as that of his brother-in-law. This will serve to redouble the efforts of the authorities to run down Miss Hall's betrayer and administer justice to the others implicated in her death.

A Detroit dispatch of Wednesday's date says: Rev. Jonathan Bell is a Methodist minister and has a wife and four chilgard to the case, it being given out that he is away from his circuit in England on account of ill-health. Some intimation of what was coming may have reached him, and he conveniently ab-sented himself from his home. It has not yet been learned whether his family know of the trouble. That he feared exposure is shown by the discreet way in which he managed the affair. First coming to this country on a pretended visit, he found a place where he could send the girl. He then told her of the house she would find. All alone the poor girl left her home to travel over 3,000 miles to save his reputation, and little did she think that she had looked on her home and parents for the last time. Instead of a home she found a place where she was not only killed, but robbed, and her body carted away like an animal's.

New York, April 25 .- The Herald's special from Managua says: The foi-lowing is the text of the dispatch received by the Nicaraguan Government from Admiral Stephenson, of the British fleet of warships now at Corinto:
"Having received instructions from her Majesty's Government to hand you the accompanying dispatch from Lord Kimberley, her Majesty's principal Secretary of State for Foreign Amairs, have the honor to present to your Excellency, Commander Stokes, of H. M. S. the Royal Arthur, who is the bearer of this dispatch, together with a letter of proclamation from me.

"I have the honor to inform your Excellency that unless I receive a reply within three days from today, containing the full compliance of the Nicaraguan Government with the demands contained in Lord Kimberley's dispatch, or in the event of no answer being received within the time fixed, or if the answer is unsatisfactory, I shall at once land an armed force, taking military possession of Corinto by occupying the custom house and other Government buildings, and appointing Ship Capt. Frederick Percival French, of the Royal Arthur, governor of the port. The lives, private property and trade of all foreigners will be respect-ed. In the event of any resistance or disturbance arising, I shall use the force at my disposal to maintain order. A copy of the accompanying proclama-tion will be issued to each officer in Corinto, both Nicaraguan and foreign, on my taking possession of the place."

The proclamation referred to says: "Whereas, the Nicaraguan Government having unlawfully seized the per-son of her Britannic Majesty's viceconsul at Perefields, together with some twenty British subjects, and held them in the town of Managua or expelled them from Nicaraguan territory, I have, in consequence, received orders from her Majesty's Government to occupy the town of Corinto and seize all vessels carrying the Nicar aguan flag, and hold the same until such time as the Nicaraguan Government has complied with the demands of the British Government.

"The lives, property and trade of all foreigners will be respected, and the force now landed will occupy the Government buildings. "In the event of any resistance or disturbance arising I shall be compelled to use the force at my disposal to maintain order. I have constituted Capt. Frederick French, of the Royal Arthur, governor of the port.

Stephenson, commanding the warships in the harbor of Corinto, Nicaragua, has telegraphed to the Admiralty that other war vessels are on their way to join the fleet at Corinto, and that he is prepared to land 400 blue jackets at daybreak tomorrow if the British demands are not complied with by midnight tonight. The warships are lying close to the shore, in order to protect the landing party, which the admiral says he will cover with 29 guns.

NICARAGUA'S APPEAL. New York, April 25.-A dispatch from Paris to the Sun says: Senor Medina, the agent of Salvador in Paris, has received the following letter from President Zelaya, of Nicaragua:

"I perceive with deep sorrow," writes President Zelaya, "that an evil spirit moves England against our country. We can only appeal to the reason, justice and impartiality of the civilized world. England has acted against us without hearing us, and is now massing her strength to coerce us. We shall place before all nations a statement of the British demands and of our conduct. If the civilized world refuses to help us, we can only oppose to the British display of force documents of history proving beyond a doubt that Nicaragua acted justly defending her rights and independence."

They Want to Break the Alliance Between Britain and Japan.

Britain Is Backing Up Japan and the Others Are Jealous-Startling Developments.

New York, April 25 .- A special to the Herald from London says: The real significance of the joint protest made yesterday by Russia, Germany and France against the ratification of the Chino-Japanese treaty of peace is well understood in English diplomatic circles. It is a protest against a secret British-Japanese understanding arrived at before peace was finally arranged. It is a hard and fast combination with Japan and the other great powers have joined in the late protest to prevent the possible consummation of the alliance. England and Japan have been in perfect accord since the peace negotiations began. This statement can be accepted as a fact. It is already reecognized by foreign Ministers in Berlin, Paris and St. Petersburg that the protest was aimed really at England, who after the conti-nental powers rejected her overtures at the commencement of war set to work safeguarding British interests, in view of the ultimate success of the Japanese. It is stated on good authority that Lord Kimberley has been consulted in every step during the peace negotia-tions, and that England will support Japan by every diplomatic means. Japan's concessions to England it is impossible to learn.

BACKNUMBER BUDD BURNED. New York, April 25.-The famous old newspaper and magazine depository of Edward M. Budd, better known as "Backnumber Budd," in the Ravenswood part of Long Island City, was burned last night. The depository was stored with several thousand tons of old newspapers. Mr. Budd claimed to have the greatest collection in the country, and boasted he could lay his hand on any paper or periodical from 1833 to date. The fire played sad havoc with the collection, but Mr. Budd hopes to save a good deal.

IN REGARD TO EGGS. The circular recently issued by D. Gunn, Flavelle & Co., packers and pro-vision merchants, Toronto, contains some statements well worthy of note. The circular says:

At the commencement of another egg season permit us to again call attention to the importance of handling promptly, and not holding until they become stale. In this city last summer thousands of dozens of eggs were sent to the dump, and tens of thousands of dozens were almost useless because they reached the market too old. Our chief market now for eggs is Great Britain, and it requires care and skill to overcome the distance and land the eggs is good order; but all the care and skill is vain if the egg is not fresh when it reaches the packer. We therefore would impress on farmers the importance of marketing their eggs promptly and regularly, while they are at their straw, N. Local Market.

Reported by A. M. Hamilton & Son. London, Thursday, April 25.
The attendance of sellers was very small to The attendance of sellers was very small to day. Reports from every quarter say farmers are rushing the seeding, and this explains the small attendance of farmers. One load of wheat and one of oats were the only grain deliveries. Butter and eggs came in fairly well. Add to the above an occasional small lot of potatoes, some lettuce and onions in bunches and two loads of hay and all has been said that can be of today's session. The following list show prices of the main lines:

Chicago, April 24.—There has been a better demand from millers and exporters and a considerable business is reperted to have been done here today, but the market responds feebly to the improvement. A 75,000 bulot was sold out of a Peoria warehouse to a St. Louis party at 60c, a shade better than the May price in Chicago at the time. Millers have taken a considerable quantity and it is said 490,000 but have been worked for export. Outside markets have been relatively stronger than Chicago, but the light exports, liberal primary receiptis, easier cables and liquidation have overshadowed all other influences. The dry weather is hurting wheat in some States, and unless the drought is relieved by general rains scon it is likely to affect the market.

Corn and oats easier for lack of speculative demand. The market was tired out by the excitement of Monday and is taking a rest. In provisions there was nothing but a local scalping trade. Prices somewhat lower in sympathy with other markets.

SILENTLY STOLE AWAY. Bombay, April 25.—Gen. Sir Robert Lowe, commanding the British expedition, telegraphs that Col. Kelley with his commands reached Chitral last Saturday. He found that the siege of that place had been raised, and that Sher Abzul, uncle of the late Mehtar of Chitral, who had invested the place, had hastily evacuated his position, and his whereabouts is unknown. ENGLAND AND AMERICA SHOULD UNITE. London, April 25 .- Sir Henry H. Howarth, M.P., writes a letter to the Times in which he declares that it is to the interest of England to formulate a common policy with the United States with regard to the Far East.

The Pall Mall Gazette approves the ideas expressed by Sir Henry Howarth, and says: America has received many marks of respect from China and Japan and joint diplomatic action with the United States would prevent stronger action on the part of others. Our stake upon every side of the Pacific, in China, Canada and Australia, forbids us to remain passive.

VICTORIA AT A CHRISTENING. Darmstadt, April 25.-The Queen arrived here from Nice yesterday and attended the christening of the daughter of the Grand Duchess of Hesse, form-erly Princess Victoria Melita of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, daughter of the Duke of Edinburgh, second son of her Majesty. The babe was born on March 11 last. The Princess was married to Grand Duke Ernest of Hesse at Coburg in April a year ago, in the presence of the Queen, Emperor William of Germany, and other distinguished people. The baby just christened is the 70th direct descendant of the Queen, who has had nine children, 40 grandchildren, and 21 great-grandchildren. Sixty-one of these descendants are still living. CANNOT ACT IN WARSAW.

London, April 25 .- A dispatch to the Chronicle from Vienna says that the Russian Government has expelled Mme. Modjeska, the well-known actress, from Warsaw, owing to a violent speech she made against Russia in Chicago. On Feb. 16 an order was issued by the Russian Government, forbidding Mme. Modjeska to fill an engagement at the Warsaw Theater, in consequence of a speech she had delivered before the Chicago Art Institute on the subject of Polish women. Soon after this speech Mme. Modjeska was notified that she could not again appear on the stage within the Russian jurisdiction. In the course of her speech Mme. Modjeska said: "I shall not dwell upon the developments of our political institutions. They (the Russians) have laughed to scorn the belief that there ever was a Polish nation. They have restricted, if not wholly prohibited, the use of our language. Under such conditions could there be any organized effort of women? Why, it would be considered a political crime; it would bring its punishment. I cannot tell you what the Polish women are doing, because to do so would bring punishment upon the heroic workers".

WILL RECOMMEND BRICK.

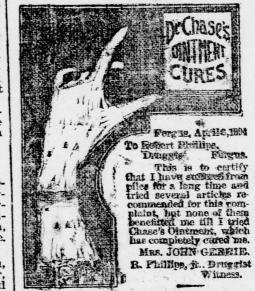

The Pavement Deputation Find Ashphalt Unsatisfactory,

And American Engineers Prefer Brick in Preference.

The report of the recent pavement deputation which will be presented at tonight's meeting of the board of works practically recommends brick as a pavement, in preference to asphalt. The latter has not been found to give as good satisfaction as the former in many American cities, and in New York recently several miles of asphalt were tern up to make way for brick, owing to the extreme slipperyness of the glasslike pavement. At Detroit the deputation was kindly received by Mr. S. R. Break and shown over the eighteen miles of asphalt pavement that that city possesses. They found numerous pitch-holes within a foot of the car track, and it was noticed that where water collected the asphalt rotted. The Detroit city engineer recommended English Scoria brick, for pavement, but it is too expensive to allow it to be generally used. Asphalt was also found to be in bad shape at Toledo, and most of the brick pavement had been laid on a sand foundation, which shifted and made an uneven surface. There were the same objections to asphalt to be found with Cincinnati's 90 miles of asphalt pavement as with those of other cities. It was noticed, however, that where brick pavements had been laid on the top of former stone pavements they lasted longer, showing that after all it was only a matter of foundation. The city engineer of Cincinnati recommended Mack block, Canton & Hallwood brick. Since returning from the deputation Ald. Wm. Heaman visited Buffalo on private business and also lcoked at the pavements there. He found Buffalo's asphalt to be in a more satisfactory condition than in any of the other cities.

HAS BELL BOLTED? London, April 25.-Mrs. Jonathan Bell was seen by a United Press re-porter at her home in Primrose Villa, Blackheath, this morning. She said she had not seen her husband since Tuesday, when he bade her good-bye. It is learned that he told some friends that they would not see him again in England. The supposition is that he drove to a railway station on the other side of Birmingham, from where he was accustomed to take trains. Mr. Hall, Emily's father, will probably go to America to inquire into the circumstances of his daughter's death.

Inspect H. Overmeyer's livery, formerly Tripp's, before you engage a conveyance for pleasure driving.

"It's an old acquaintance of mine, Mrs. Moncrieff; I might say an old friend, only I don't think that his actions have been particularly friendly. That's why I don't like to go much further in my revelations. No, I won't tell you his name. I shall leave you to make your own inquiries. You will easily learn the truth now that you have a supicion of it. Good-bye, and believe me, I'm very sorry to be the bearer of such disagreeable news."

"I ought to be obliged to you—"
"But you're not; and I don't expect you to be obliged to me just yet. You will be, by and by, and I can wait. Why, you're all in a tremble, poor little woman. Don't be afraid; Molly's skittish, but she's got no vice in her, as we say of horses. Good-bye, and don't forget Tomgarrow."

She hurried away, divining that Stella would like to be alone; but she did not guess the action upon which Mrs. Mon-crieff instantly resolved as soon as her visitor was gone. Indeed, Lady Val had not yet formed a just estimate of Stella's character. She thought ther amiable, engaging, kind; but she did not give her credit for much energy of will or keen perception of mind, She would have been amazed, indeed, if she had seen the rapidly with which Stella arrived that afternoon at a conclusion, and the decisiveness with which she acted upon it.

In five minutes after Lady Val's de-parture, Stella was walking quickly up the road which led to the tiny and half-deserted hamlet of which her visitor had spoken. It did not lie close to the road, but was reached either by a steep and 'narrow lane running at right angles to the highway, or by the fields which surrounded it. The inhabitants had for the most part deserted it: many of them had emigrated and left their houses empty, some of the buildings had been devastated by fire, and the broken walls only remained to show where once had been a home. The site of the place was very beautiful, and the women who lived there were distinguished by the Highland softness of speech and courtliness of manner which are eminently characteristic of their race. Hitherto it had been always a vey little gifts to them either by her own hands or by those of her stepdaughter. She remembered with dismay that she had that very afternoon asked Molly to take some tea to an old woman, and Molly had replied very readily that she wanted a walk and would be glad to go. Stella remembered, too, that a quick glance of mutual understanding had then passed between the eyes of Molly and of her nucle Ralph-and that Bertie also had given his sister a quick significant look. She had scarcely noticed this at the momnet, but, seen by the light of Lady Val's subsequent warning, it assumed large proportions in her eyes. Were Mr. Kingscot and Bertie in the secret-if secret there was-of Moliy's clandestine meetings with her lover? And who could this lover

As Stella toiled up the lane that led her to Tomgarrow, she could not but remember, however, the warning that her husband had given her respecting Molly's tendencies. She had not believed that he was right; she had almost forgotten what he said. She had trusted Molly entirely-foolish, weak, careless guardian of Molly's youth, she called aerself as she thought of it. Ch, why had he not done her duty better?

innocent as a baby. Molly-so young, so pretty, apparently so frank! It could not

Thus reproaching herself, she reached Tomgarrow, and there a full sense of the difficulty of her errand rushed upon her. After all, why had she come? It was not likely that Molly would be in the village now. But she might as well ask at one of the cottages if Miss Moncrieff had been there that afternoon. And even as she thought of this, and hesitated for a moment as to the course that she had better take, the sound of voices-of a laugh-fell oddly upon her ear. She turned instinctively in the direction of the sound.

A high wall that had once belonged to a house stood before her, blocking up the view. She skinted it slowly, still listening for the voices which now were still. Coming out on the other side, she saw two figures leaning against the wall as if sheltered from the cold east wind. A wide sunshiny tract of country lay before them; their backs were to the other habitations, and not another living creature was in sight. Molly Moncrieff was smiling up into the face of a tall, dark man, who had put his arm round her, and was holding her to his breast. No wonder that he was startled. No wonder, perhaps, that she was even more startled than himself, for in the person of Molly's lover she saw the man whom she had once dreamed of marrying, the man who had cast her off because she was not rich enough for him to marry, the unscrupulous fortune-hunter-John Hannington.

CHAPTER XIX.

Molly, who did not see Stella at once-not indeed, until Hannington's sudden change of expression showed her that there was something wrong-turned sharply round and uttered a cry of positive rage.

"There! I told you so!" she exclaimed. "She is always spying after me—watching me—prying into all my affairs! And now she has followed me here. Oh, what shall I do? Jack, dcar Jack, save me from her. I know that she'll betray us." And the girl hid her face on Hamnington's shoulder, and clung to tim, as if she feared that Stella would drag her away by force would drag her away by force.

"Don's be afraid, my darling," said Hannington. Was it Stella's fancy, or did his eyes light up with a gleam of triumph, his lips curl with a vindictive smile? "Mrs. Moncriefi is the last person to do us an injury; you may depend upon that." And he calmly raised his hat from his head with an assumption of elaborate courtesy and a serenity which could scarcely, under the circumstances, have been genuine.

Stella came forward, her face pale, but "Molly," she said, quietly; "you know very well that I wish only for your good. Come away with me, and you can explain to me afterwards what all this means Hannington will also, no doubt, explain it to Mr. Moncrieff-if he can." She looked at Hannington with defiance and mistrust in her eyes, which he could not fail to understand.

"I shall explain it when necessary," said he, coolly; "but I shall probably take my own time for doing so, Mrs. Moncrieff."

"My husband will be back to-night. I shall of course tell him what I have seen and heard.' John Hannington smiled a little, but did not speak. Molly tore herself away from his encircling arm, and faced her stepmother valiantly.

"You won't really do that, will you?" she said. "It isn't fair of you! There's no harm in my meeting John-Mr. Hannington—and I don't see why anybody need—need—make a fuss about it." "If there is no harm in it, Molly, then there is no reason why your father should not hear.'

Molly suddenly burst into tears. Mr. Hannington caught her hand and drew her towards him. "Don't cry, little one," he said, there's nothing to be afraid about. I don't think you need fear Mrs. Moncrieff, even. When she recollects some little episodes in her own life, she may not feel inclined to be so hard upon you. "I have nothing to be ashamed of, Mr. Hannington," said Stella, flushing to the very roots of her golden hair. But her old lover only laughed slightly and turned

"Run away home, Molly," he said, kissing the girl's forehead lightly, and giving her hand a squeeze. "I want to have a little chat with Mrs. Moncrieff and I think we shall manage to arrange the matter." "Yes, Molly, go home," said Stella. "I want a little conversation with Mr. Hannington, too." "Why should I go?" Molly murmured, rebelliously; but a look and a word from Hannington sent her off without delay. He had evidently found a way of ruling her mutinous spirit. She turned and took the path across the fields—it was the nearest way home, but also the least frequented. Stella looked after her with doubtful eyes. The afternoon was tolerably far advanced, and she scarcely knew whether to let the girl go home alone. Mr. Hannington inter preted-You need not be afraid for her. She has and escort at hand. Some one is waiting for her at the stile.'

"Some one? Bertie?" "I believe so." "Then he is implicated too. He has been deceiving us, as well as Molly! Oh! what will their father say?" and a look of such real distress came into Stella's eyes that Hannington exerted himself not to let her think matters worse than they really were. "No," he said, "I don't think you need disturb yourself about Bertie. I don't think he knew I was here. He let Molly come up to the cottages alone, because he said that he was not fond of old women. No, it is on Molly alone, Mrs. Moncrieff, and my unworthy self, that your anger

FAGGED OUT .- None but those who have become fagged out know what a depressed, miserable feeling it is. All strength is gone, and despondency has taken hold of the sufferers. They feel as though there was nothing to live for. There, however, is a cure—one box of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will do wonders in restoring health and strength. Mandrake and Dandelion are two of the articles entering into the composition of Parmelee's Pills.

PITIFUL STORY.

A Lad Kidnapped by a Tramp and Now Dying from Effects of Ill-Treatment.

TORONTO, April 24.—Charlie Glover, the 14-year-old boy who is now lying at St. Michael's Hospital at the point of death in consequence of long continued ill-usage, is in the same condition as he has been for the past three days but his cose the dectors say is days, but his case, the doctors say, is a hopeless one. The story in connec-tion with the boy's presence here and the terrible state of his injuries is a most depierable one. His father was Capt. Russell, of St. John, N. B., who died when the boy was very young. his mother subsequently married Mr. Wm. Glover, of Campbellton, N. B., whose name the boy assumed. Five years ago the mother deserted Mr. Glover, leaving the boy with him. Mr. Glove kept the boy, cared for him, and treated him as he would have done his own child. Last June Charlie was kidnapped by two tramps, one of whom is supposed to be Peter McDermid, a man who is accused of taking part in the murder at Moncton of Constable Steadman. These men took the boy to Montreal, and subsequently to this city, making him beg for them wherever they went, and treating him in the most barbarous and brutal manner. Some weeks ago he was taken to St. Michael's Hospital, and it was found that owing to horrible bruises, the results of kicks and blows, one of his legs was in a state of decomposition. About a week and a half ago the boy told his story to Dr. Dwyer, who immediately notified the police, and wrote to Mr. Glover at Campbellton. Miss Sarah Glover, sister of the boy's stepfather, has since arrived and identified the boy. The police are making strenuous efforts to locate McDermid. County Crown Attorney Curry will probably take the boy's ante-mortem statement today.

mends Paine's Celery Compound.

He Declares It To Be the Best Spring Medicine.

IT BUILDS UP RUN-DOWN MEN AND WOMEN.

The Only Remedy That Makes Pure, Bright and Red Blood.

Cleansing and purifying the blood, and putting the human organism in proper working order, is a work that demands very special attention in the spring season. Many of the ablest and most experienced physicians are of the opinion that Paine's Celery Compound does the best and most thorough work in the way of blood cleansing, nerve strengthening and tissue building. No other medicine can impart to weak and run down men and women the grand vigorous strength, robustness and general good health that Paine's Celery Compound gives.

Dr. A. W. K. Newton, the eminent physician and surgeon of Boston, says: "Paine's Celery Compound is not a patent medicine, and it must not be onfounded with the ordinary nervines, bitters and sarsaparillas. It is as much superior to them in formula and results as the diamond is superior to glass. It purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves, and is nature's food for the

"I had some trouble myself, from blood poisoning, received in a very delicate surgical operation. The formula of Paine's Celery Compound led me to try it, and I was much pleased with the result. I prescribe it for men and women who have no appetite, cannot sleep, and are weak and run-down. For this condition, and for disorders of the blood and nerves, it has no equal. "When a man or woman has lost appetite, lost sleep, and feels that life is burden, that person is in a serious condition. I prescribe Paine's Celery Compound for my patients who have these common and dangerous symtoms, with invariably satisfactory reresults. It is the best possible remedy to keep up one's strength and energy during the spring and summer months.

made their reports, which were acted upon. The inspector's report of several cases was referred to the executive. The cases of several children were dealt with, and a great deal of sympathy is required in dealing with them, for in some cases the sins of the parents fall upon them, and the bad training they receive in their homes is enough to blight their young lives and make paupers or criminals of them. A number have been placed out in good Christian homes, that will counteract what they have already gone through, and their chances of growing up useful citizens are greatly increased. We cannot think of any better work people can do that have no children of their own than adopt one of these and train them up for the Lord. The experience of nearly all that have adopted a child s that they have been amply repaid for their trouble, and they are the means of making their homes more cheerful and happy. We have two small boys—a baby boy month old, also a baby girl 3 months old—ready for adoption. Application to the president or secretary will have mmediate attention. The sincere thanks of the society are

For a time Mrs. Barrett's house and the adjoining hotel were in danger, but Springbank water proved too much for the flames. The barn, which contained only a small quantity of hay, was damaged to the extent of $150. The fire is supposed to have been the work of a tramp, who was seen hanging around the vicinity.

-Representative Methodists of the city have decided to ask the Rev. C. H. Yatman, of New York, to come to London and conduct a series of evangelistic services for a couple of weeks. Dr. Yatman has signified his willingness to come if satisfactory ar rangements could be made as to the place of meeting. Princess rink will be secured and afternoon and evening meetings held. Mr. John M. Whyte, of the famous Whyte brothers, will conduct the music, assisted by a large choir of 100 or more voices. The Whyte brothers are the most popular Gospel singers in Canada today. The first meeting of the series will be held in the Grand Opera House on Sunday morning, May 12. While these services are unde the direction of the Methodist Churches of the city, ministers and members of other congregations are cordially invited to at-

MRS. BARNEY'S WORK. There was a fair-sized audience at St. Andrew's Church last night to hear Mrs. Barney, of Rhode Island, speak. The lady is thoroughly wrapped up in her work, any by her pathetic stories of the conversion of men and women in all quarters of the globe she at times holds her audience spell-bound. She will be here all week, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. and W. C. T. U. After the meeting had been opened by prayer Miss Gilmore sang two solos in her effective style. Mrs. Barney took for her theme the first three verses of the 54th Psalm, and made a very powerful address. After the meeting was closed an inquiry meeting was held, to which a good number remained. In the absence of the Rev. Mr. Johnston, the pastor, Mr. Chas. R. Sayer, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., took the chair. Among those on the platform were Mrs. M. Thornley, Mrs. Darch and Miss Cosford. Mrs. Barney speaks tonight again in St. Andrew's Church on "A Modern Macedonian Cry." The lady has had nearly 30 years' experience in prison work, and all who go to hear her may be assured of a treat.

THE BEEF BOOM. Washington, D. C., April 24.—It is understood that the developments thus far made in the investigation of the beef question has about convinced Secretary Morton that a combination has heen formed to keep the price down to the producer and force it up for the consumer. THREAT TO BOYCOTT CANADA. OTTAWA, April 24.-Mr. Samuel Thall, advance agent of the "Trilby" company, who is at present here, says that managers of theatrical companies in the United States will next year boycott Canada altogether if the Canadian Government does not do something towards making it easier for the companies to get into Canada. The duty on all theatrical effects at present is so heavy, he says, as to take away all the profit in the business.

STYLISH METHODIST WEDDING. Toronto, April 24.-A stylish Methodist wedding took place at 98 Madison avenue this afternoon when Margaret, daughter of Rev. Dr. Griffin, and R. D. Kay, of Detroit, were joined in the holy bonds. The bride was dressed in white silk, with point lace, while the bridesmaids were attired in cream and mauve crepon. The bridesmaids were Misses Jean McCallum, Clara Biggar Ethel Matthews and Miss McKeough. Will Kay, brother of the groom, was best man. The ceremony was performed by the father of the bride, and at the conclusion a reception was held. In addition to presents of solid silver and costly china was a piano from the bride's parents and several checks from members of the family. The young couple left for Detroit tonight.
