The Venerable Bede, in his Ecclesiaswere Pagans. Then, showing deep of a well conceived, well prepared and sighs, he exclaimed: Alas! for grief! well executed plan, some of the results that the author of darkness possesses in my next.

To make use of our Supreme Grand men of so bright countenance; and that so much grace of aspect bears a mind void of inward grace." He further inquired what was the name of that nation; the reply was: they were called Angles. "It is well," he said, "for they have an angelic appeance; and such it befits to be co-heirs of angels in heaven.

This conversation occurred a number of years before Gregory became Pope. As Tacitus transmits the moral, and Bede the physical qualities of the Angles, the world cannot help knowing what they were at that early period.

The conversation related in the foregoing was pregnant with great results to England, for it was this meeting between Gregory and the three fairhaired English boys that led up to the advent of Augustine in Kent.

The consent being given by the father and daughter, much dissatisfaction and opposition was engendered in the Frankish court, and Chilperic, whose grandfather, Clovis, had been a Frankish heathen, bitterly opposed the union of his niece with an Anglo-Saxon heathen; but, Bertha, remembering the conversion of her illustrious ancestor through the prayers and entreaties of her greatgrandmother, Clotilda, accepted the gallant Anglo-Saxon on condition that she and her followers should ever be unmolested in the exercise of their religion, which being cheerfully granted by Ethelbert, the nuptial rites were solemnized and the royal cortege started for Kent.

Here the pious queen and her friends practised their religion under Luidhard's guidance. Twenty-six years large,

OBITUARY.

We regret to have to chronicle the death of Mrs. Moore, beloved wife of Bro. N. A. Howard Moore, Secretary of Cambria Lodge, Gananoque, Ont. The sad event took place at her home on Saturday the 22nd. Mrs. Moore had been sick for some time, and after a lingering illness, borne with christian lingering illness, borne with christian resignation, passed quietly away. Mrs. Moore was a daughter of the Rev. W. H. Dean, of North Guilford, Conn. The sorrowing husband, who has left with him two small children, has the sincere sympathy of a large circle of personal friends and herthren, as well greatings. God Save the Queen.

The Dominion Parliament

The Dominion Parliament opened on swing of Parliamentary life. The adprepared document. It was hopeful in tone and reasuring to the trade interest. The debate upon the address was taken up vigorously, but no new features, beyond a few party pointers, were brought out by either side.

The most important delivery of the sion, so far, was that of Sir Mackenzie Bowell, when he explained the Gov ernment's position on the separate failed. The only one which has survived is the Anglo-Saxon." "Only the fittest survive."

Editor ANGLO-SAXON:

DEAR SIR,— As we have several Canadians in our lodge, and hope to get more—they are the right kind—I wish to call your attention to an error, is it not? Is not the Ronald Fire Engine, a Canadian one, and manufactured at Brussells, Ont.? Let us give credit where credit is due. I time Joe was not weighty enough. Hon. Thos. was prepared with the "facts of the case," and Joe had to retire with the rim of his hat squeezed. The immigration question is irritating to Joe, consequently he has been asking for returns about a half dozen. Jews who settled in Calgary. It was proven there was only a few dollars spent. There was a good deal of "Jew spent." There was a good deal of "Jew spent. There was a good deal of "Jew spent. There was a good deal of "Jew spent." The Newfoundland conference which time Joe was not weighty enough.

The Newfoundland conference, which was held in Ottawa last month, was of such a private character that it is not known by even a good political gusser. What took place is calculated to be of deep interest to the whole Dominion. No doubt when the labors of the convention are made public it will be of such a nature that we can hope for a union of the Island with Canada.

On the 10th of September he was attacked by the enemy, who had col-Alkmaar. The force under General Brune amounted to not less than 25,000 men; those under Abercrombie fell short of 16,000. The former advanced in three columns at daybreak; and in the grey light their masses were seen to loom darkly as they came on in the sombre blue uniforms now adopted by the French and Dutch.

That of the latter nation, led by General Daendels, directed its attack on the village of St. Martin; the centre, commanded by General Demonceau, marched against Crabbendam and Zuyper Sluys; while the left, which was held by the brigade of Guards under General Burrard. Met with determined courage, they were driven back by our Household Troops, and by ten o'clock began to retreat on Alkmaar, leaving many killed and wounded, their waggons, pontoons, and one gun behind them.

"It is impossible for me to do full justice to the conduct of the troops," says Sir Ralph in his despatch. "The two brigades of Guards repulsed with Medicine Co., is continually trying to great vigour the column of French which had advanced to attack them, and where the slaughter of the enemy was very great."

SWAZILAND.

A proof of England's indifference to the aspirations of those colonies which still remain faithful to her in South Africa seems to be furnished by the impending events around Swaziland. Our readers will find in another column of the present issue an article from the Carlisle Patriot of 8th March, according to which there is a possibility of action by the English government to force the Swazis to submit to the rule of the Boers. Such a result, if accomplished, will be brought about not be cause it is the wish of the English people, but because the government has no persistent and permanent colonial policy. Erratic action of this sort will always be liable to recur, until Imperial Federation is adopted as the ideal of all British peoples, and until their foreign and colonial policy is dominated by it.

U. S. "CUSSEDNESS."

INTERCOLONIAL TRADE.

In no instance has England's indifference or positive hostility towards her colonies been more distinctly manifested than in the case of the West Indies. The emancipation of the negroes, the abolition of preferential duties on Colonial sugar, the refusal to impose a countervailing duty on the bounty-fed sugar of continental Europe were all carried out in utter disregard of the interests of our West Indian fellow subjects. The relation of their wrongs fills us with a just indignation and a desire to stand by them, and favour their trade as far as lies in their power.

In a former issue we ventured to suggest the present time as most opportune for reopening trade negotiations with the West Indian Governments. Advices from Jamaica go to shew that this suggestion was not by any means premature. The legislature was opened there on the 15th February, and the Governor's speech contains the following reference to the trade question:-"The withdrawal of the government of the United States from the reciprocal arrangement of this collinteresting feature of the G. L. meetony entered into in 1891, and the reim- ing. From this we learn that all the exertions of the West Indian and English governments to obtain tariff favours from the United States have resulted in disappointment, and that the agreements arrived at only three years ago have been unceremoniously put an end to by Congress. This resulted as a matter of course when the U. S. There is no doubt that this policy would obtain the approval of the larger and more vigorous colonies, but whether it would suit the West Indies to a very large extent. It is impossible to raise sufficient revenue by customs duties on these for the purposes of the governments and therefore the necessaries of life consumed mainly by the negro population have to bear a considerable amount of taxation. Under a system of Intercolonial Free Trade flour and provisions would mostly come from Canada, duty free, and a great diminution of revenue would be the consequence. We fear therefore, that the adoption of Intercolonial free trade by the West Indian governments would be a matter of considerable difficulty and believe that before certainty can be obtained on the subject it will require much patient investigation. This it will no doubt receive from the officials of the Department of Trade and Commerce who, we are informed, are already moving in the matter of increasing trade with the West Indies.

WHAT WAS DONE?

Practically very little new business was brought to the notice of Grand Lodge by the officers. The new constitution was not what might be termed new business; it was before the Grand Lodge for the past three years.

The revision of the scale of rates was matter which seemed to be the most only the plan of assessment changed, a we feel will be amended from time to tem in connection with the Sons of England.

A brother from Toronto asks why we allowed so much space to "mutual laudation." We gave what took place in as condensed a form as possible. #### The Revised Beneficiary.

Editor ANGLO-SAXON:

SIR,-Since our return from Grand Lodge the Toronto delegates have been asked so many questions as to the changes in the constitution of the Beneficiary Department, and the explanations and replies given have been so contradictory and varied, that it has occurred to me a brief summary of the situation with a plain statement of exactly what was done may be useful to your readers and assist them in understanding the new system under which we shall soon be working. The changes made have almost revolutionized the whole system, but I don't think the whole system, but I don't think the most conservative brother in our ranks will claim these amendments have been made for the sake of change, while most will, I am satisfied, either now, or after the new order of things has been tested, admit that the Beneficiary Department is on a sounder and safer basis to-day than ever it was, and that but very little more improvement along

The principal changes are three:—
(1) The assessments will be monthly and of uniform amount; (2) the insured are all in one class, A and B having been amalgamated; (3) a Reserve Fund has been constitutionally established, to which a stated and definite percentage is to be added from each call.

With reference to the first it will be remembered that the Revision Committee submitted a revised scale of monthly assessment rates, which was a general all round advance on the present scale, but which they claimed was not higher than the experience of other societies and the teachings of actuarial tables demanded. The majority of the delegates however were not able to see it in the same light, and it became evident that an attempt to see the same dight, and it became evident that an attempt to see the see it in the same light, and it became evident that an attempt to see the see it in the same light, and it became evident that an attempt to see the see it in the same light, and it became evident that an attempt to see the see it in the same light, and it became evident that an attempt to see the see it in the same light, and it became evident that an attempt to see the see it in the same light, and it became evident that an attempt to see the see it in the see and the see it in the see and the see it in the see and the see it in the s dent that an attempt to carry the advanced scale would result in the whole scheme cf reform being thrown out.

"That the rates at present in force be not changed, but that the total probable assessments for the coming year, calculated upon a basis of sixteen assessments, be levied upon the members intwelve equal assessments, one of which shall be due and pay-able without further notice on the first day of each month; and ten per centum of the gross amount shall be placed in a Reserve Fund."

"placed in a Reserve Fund."

After some brief discussion this proposal was unanimously accepted, and I believe a year's experience will satisfy the members of the department, not only that the change was a wise one, but that the scale submitted by the Revision Committee was as low as prudence and safety will permit. dence and safety will permit.

As to the second important change, the amalgamation of the classes A and B, I touch upon that with diffidence, inasmuch as it has been declared, on the floor of more than one lodge room in floor of more than one lodge room in Toronto, that no such amalgamation has taken place, but that class B remains unchanged, and all the amendments affect class A only. In proof of the error of this contention I can only point out, that there is no reference in any part of the new constitution, as adopted by Grand Lodge to different classes, but on the contrary $500, $1,000 and $2,000 certificates are all dealt with together and in precisely the dealt with together and in precisely the same terms save that the cost to the insured varies in exact proportion to the amount of insurance carried. It What is generally felt should be done to push forward organization is to employ an efficient assistant to take Bro. Carter's place, and do his office work, and Bro. Carter should be come in being assessed every month. carry class B, the hardship on class B men in being assessed every month and so on. Space will not allow me to refer in detail to these statements, further than to affirm that the most simple calculation will satisfy anyone that each member is bearing his share proportionately as far as the amount of his certificate goes, and that, inasmuch as a brother's second $1,000 certificate will now realize its full face value, there is no hardship in expecting him to pay in proportion.

The cute Yankee often gets "left" by the more slow but sure Englishman, but then the Englishman does not blow about it, and the world can rest assurthere is no hardship in expecting him to pay in proportion.

Lastly, the Reserve Fund has been definitely established, and a great advance made in the direction of creating confidence in the stability of the department. True, the growth of the Reserve Fund will be very slow and years must go by before the fears of some worthy brethren will be realized and a large unwieldly surplus hamper the management, but the stant has the management, but the start has been made at last and we are thank-

Other changes of scarcely less importance have been made, as for instance the reduction of the maximum age limit from 50 to 45 years, the grantlows a brother to remain in good stand-ing in the beneficiary department after he has been suspended in his lodge and tures that will not commend themtures that will not commend themselves to every brother, but I am satisfied all are prepared to show sufficient loyalty to the decrees of the Supreme body, and respect to the decisions of the majority, to give the new constitution a fair trial and an opportunity to develop its good points.

R. PATCHING.

P.S.—Since writing the above, the Beneficiary Board has drafted the classification of risks, and the proposed arrangement was approved by the Suparrangement was approved by the Supreme Executive at the meeting on Good Friday. It is as follows:

TWENTY YEARS OLD.

The closing paragraph of the Supreme Secretary's report reads as fol-

"This is our twentieth annual gathering. We have withstood all the dangers and vicisitudes of youth, and are now about to enter upon a new epoch in our history; we are assuming large responsibilities, and if the success of our efforts in the past is any criterion, we are destined to become a power for good, and while we will by our united and undivided strength our united and undivided strength strive to maintain the integrity of the British Empire, we will, none the less, be true to the land of our adoption, and will take no second place in our devo-tion to Canada and her interests."

The above remarks is conclusive to Englishmen that the Sons of England have a double mission to fill, and are taking hold of the national question in the proper spirit. The aims of the S.O.E. are clearly laid down, and is becoming familiar to all Englishmen. By the grasping of the national sentiment we will be doing more to uphold the interest of our cause, than can be done by uniting ourselves to party, thought or action. True, the "maintaining the integrity of the British Empire" places us within the sphere the more slow but sure Englishman, but then the Englishman does not blow about it, and the world can rest assured that the Yankee does not publish the matter to all mankind. Half of the recent United States 4 per cent. loan was sent to London Eng. The representive of the American Republic first called upon the London banking house of J. S. Morgan & Co. Mr. Morgan patiently listened to the United States agent and after much investigation and serious talk, he astonished the Yankee by offering to take the whole of the loan of $62,215,000 at the price $104.45 for every $100. The American believed he had met a philanthropist, and at once snapped at the offer the United States government receiving $65,112,943. The Englishman then put bonds upon the British market and the result was that the loan was covered thirty times, and such is the demand for good securities in England that the prices offered reached as high as $118 for each $100, the result being that the British syndicate, that had been invit he has been suspended in his lodge and until he is finally expelled for non-payment of dues or other causes.

These then are the main points of amendment in the Beneficiary Constitution, as adopted by Grand Lodge, and they will come into force on July 1st next. There will of course be feaCANADA

It is perhaps somewhat difficult to say exactly what remedy should be applied for this state of things, but it is apparent that some vigorous policy must be pursued.

In this, as well as in all other business matters, "Honesty is the best policy" and it pays, in the end, to look things squarely in the face and avoid deception of any kind.

a scaffold, falling on my back on a stone pile. I was badly hurt, and narrowly escaped death. Plasters and liniments were applied, and I seemed to get somewhat better. But the ap parent improvement was short lived. My feet began to get unusually cold, and nothing that could be done would warm them. The trouble then spread to my legs, and from the waist down I was attacked with shooting pains flying along the nerves in thousands, and causing the most terrible torture for days and nights at a time. I could get no relief save from the injections of morphine. Six physicians treated me at different times, but apppeared only to faintly understand my trouble, and could do nothing for my relief. Some of the doctors declared my trouble was rheumatism, but two of them said it was a disease of the spinal cord, that the trouble would get worse and that sooner or later my arms would become affected. This prediction proved true. My left hand dropped at the wrist joint and hung dead and cold, and I had no more control of it than if the hand were not on me. Fly blisters and electricity were restored to without avail. My stomach was next attacked with a buining, aching, nauseating pain, causing the most distressing vomiting and I often thought I would not see morning. I have vomited almost continually for thirty-six hours, and nothing but morphine or chloroform could deaden the anguish I suffered. But worse trouble was in store for me. I lost control of my bowels and water, and my condition became most horrible, necessitating constantly the greatest care and watchfulness. I was now suffering from the top of my head to the stagger and fall if I were not grasping spirit and movement of the times, has

A. T. LITTLE, M.D.

About this time I was strongly urged to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and oh how I wish I had known of this great remedy years ago! What anguish and torture I would have been spared! Soon after beginning the use of Pink Pills I found myself improving. The pains left me and I was able to discontinue the use of the morphine. I regained control of both bowels and bladder and gradually a feeling of life returned to my legs and arms. I can now walk without the aid of either crutches or sticks and can take long strides. My stomach trouble has all Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, as since then demand for gold for America has she has been able to get rest at night ceased for the moment. THE STANDARD DICTIONARY.

A Most Complete Work in One or Two Volumes.

The second volume of Funk & Wagnall's Standard Dictionary has made its appearance, the two volumes forming the most complete dictionary now in desired, several lodges not having sent the hands of the public. The work is also issued complete in one volume. In paper, printing and binding, the second volume is quite equal to the first, and make it one of the handsomest of books, the typography being perfect and the illustrations artistically

In the production of the Standard Dictionary. Mr. Funk & Wagnalls have accomplished a great work. It contains 2,338 pages; 5,000 illustrations made expressely for the work; 301,865 vocabular terms, which is nearly two and one-half the number contained in any single-volume dictionary, and about 75,000 more than any other dictionary of the English language. There were engaged upon the work 247 editors and specialists, and 500 readers for quotation, and the whole work cost nearly a million of dollars. The editors engaged upon the various departments of the dictionary were from the front rank of British and American scholars; each being representative of all that is latest and most approved in his own field of exploration and research, and each an accepted authority in his sphere. From beginning to end the Standard Dictionary is the work of men thorougly equipped in the school of science, literature and art. and experts in all benevolence, and to keep alive those point of my toes. JUVENILE DEPARTMENT.

For the purpose of encouraging the Juvenile Department, the Executive, with the assistance of Dr. W. L. Allen, prepared a new ritual, had the same tain cure for all diseases such as St. printed and neatly bound, and distributed to the different Lodges, calling in the old copies. The new ritual has met with great favor, and a new impetus is thus given to the Juvenile

This branch of our Society in the past seems to be sadly neglected. The boys are interested and attend the meetings but receive no encouragement from the officers and members of the adult Lodges. The Executive feel that the Juveniles should receive more recog-

The time is coming when the ranks of our membership must be filled up with Canadian born sons of Englishmen, and if they are not properly looked after, and cared for, will drift away and lose the national spirit, and become absorbed in other societies. We ask the Supreme Lodge to give all the encouragement possible to the building up of this branch.

An important question for this Supreme Lodge to decide, should the Guarantee Department embrace the

Leaving the Old Country for Canada Will find it to their advantage to keep this Paper in their possession. On page seven will be found the locality of the Lodges of the Sons of England, extended over the whole something. I could not take a single step in the dark. For nine long years I suffered all the horrors of a living death. In 1889 I was admited to the Toronto General Hospital, where I was treated for four months. I was told that m; trouble was locomotor ataxia and incurable, and I returned home no better. After returning home I had further medical treatment, but with no better result than before. Finally I was given the following certificate of incurability:—

Churchill, July 27th, 1893.

THIS IS TO CERTIFY that James McLean has a disease of the spinal cord (incurable) that renders him unfit to defend the following as being in all respects

THE MANITOBA S. O. E. HALI AND BUILDING ASSN.

Letters patent of incorporation have ing been received, the official seal of the Hall Company having arrived from Toronto, and all the legal preliminaries for putting this enterprise of such importance to the lodges in this section of the Dominion upon a proper legal basis, it was considered advisable by the Provisional Directors to call a general meeting of the stockholders and

The report of the business for the six months commencing September 4th was unanimously declared to be highly satisfactory, and although the first month was entirely lost owing to the necessary changes to be made in the premises, the first quarter showed a surplus of receipts over current expenses of some 40 per cent., while the report for the quarter ending with last March, showed without shadow of doubt that but very few more quarters need pass before the whole assets of the Society, amounting to some sixteen hundred dollars, could be fully paid up if the income from the rent alone had to be relied on, and no fresh stock issued.

It is said to be an ill wind that blows no one no good. The destruction by fire of one of the finest school buildings in the West, either in the United States or Canada, has sent the heads of the various educational departments on an exploring expedition to find suitable premises in which to continue their classes till the school can be rebuilt, and consequently Sons of England Hall has found a tenant for five days in the week, in the pupils of the Normal School, the evenings being left free for lodge purposes as heretofore. its second anniversary on the evening of March 26th, on which occasion about thirty members of the lodge assembled in the hall to enjoy the usual festivities. After the supper a programme of songs and recitations was gone through, which added to the enjoyment of the evening. The Secretary laid great stress on the fact that the lodge had paid all sick benefit claims in full; some dissatisfied members having scattered about rumours to the contrary. The usual toasts were proposed and fittingly honored and replied to, and the gathering dispersed, looking forward with anticipation to celebrating, or rather honouring, the day of our patron saint, St. George. thirty members of the lodge assembled

PREPARING FOR THE QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY.

Winnipeg, April 13th.—A meeting of delegates from the various lodges of the Sons of England, Princess Christian Lodge of the Daughters of England, with representatives of camps of the Orange lodges, and those of the Knights of Malta, assembled in Sons of England Hall to discuss the advisability and ways and means of holding a joint celebration in honour of the birthday of Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen. Bro. Rogers, of Lodge Marston Moor, had the honour of filling the chair on this most auspicious occasion, while Bro. Jos. Harrison, of Westward Ho lodge, performed, with his usual tact, the onerous duties of secretary.

A motion in favour of a demonstra-entertainment in the nature of a concert, also met with general approval.

In order to have everything on a thoroughly business basis, it was resolved that the delegates should recommend to their various lodges that certain charges should be made the public for the privilege of participating in the entertainment, and that any surplus of expenditure over expenditure should be divided at a per capita rate per lodge, and that a deficiency, if such an unfortunate result could occur, should be distributed in like manner.

But one desire appeared to animate the members assembled, which was to do honour to our beloved Queen in this, one of her remote provinces, on an anentertainment in the nature of a con eral meeting of the stockholders and report progress, also to give an epportunity for the election of a new directorate, if such action should be deemed advisable.

NOVA SCOTIA.

FIFTH WINTER SOCIAL OF HAL IFAX LODGE, NO. 150.

The above lodge held their fifth social of the winter in their hall, Maling's building, on the 27th of March. The tains had to be relied on, and no fresh stock issued.

It is said to be an ill wind that blows no one no good. The destruction by fire of one of the finest school buildings in the West, either in the United States or Canada, has sent the heads of the various educational departments on an exploring expedition to find suitable premises in which to continue their classes till the school can be rebuilt, and consequently Sons of England Hall has found a tenant for five days in the week, in the pupils of the Normal School, the evenings being left free for lodge purposes as heretofore.

OBITUABY.

Winnupes, April 20th.—Westward Ho Lodge, S.O.E., has to lament the loss by death of its President, Bro. Jos. Corbett.

The last illness of this efficient officer and lamented member was, in its later and more acute stages, of short duration, and proceeded from what appeared at the time, apparently a trivial linjury to his arm, in the region of the elbow, some time during the winter. An absess formed however a few weeks ago, operating on which the doctors found the bone was itself diseased and advised amputation. There was naturally some hesitancy on the part of the deceased, and friends in giving consent to this extreme measure, and finally, when that consent had been obtained and acted upon, matters had gone to far, mortification had set in, bringing about the melanoboly result before named. Bro. Jos. Corbett was the discassed and advised amputation. There was naturated to the Order.

The cortege left Sons of England Hall at 1.30 p.m., hence to the residence of the deceased, where the preliminary service was read by the Rev. Mr. Hogg. Presbyterian Clergyman. The following brethren and friends acted as pall-bearers, Bro. W. Marden. Press. New R.D.; Mr. H. L. Deacon and Mr. E. The interment took place at Kildonan cemetery, a site redolent of names and content of the pressure of the stage of the sta hall was filled to its utmost capacity. The socials of this lodge having became very popular, it is no difficulty to get a of the 1st March.

In the first place the idea of a convention which must ever be identified with the earlier history of British settlement in Manitoba.

It is simply superfluous to say that the most protound and heart-felt sympathy of all the brethren here, is extended to the widow, and relations of the deceased in their unlooked for between the convention of the much talked of event. This I did with the result that, as Bro. Critchley says, "circumstances prevented" the Alexander brethren being with us, as also those of the Pride of the Island.

The Convention was duly held while I failed to observe any "kickers present who wanted to band themselves" In the first place the idea of a con-

I failed to observe any "kickers present who wanted to band themselves together to punch each other," nor did they, either by their speech or conduct, convey, to my mind at least, that they wanted the Sons of England generally "to pay for such under the name of district grand lodges."

Obviously enough the first convention was of a preliminary character, but its object was purely upon the lines of Bro. Critchley's much needed reunion. It did not seek in any way to agitate for a District or Provincial Grand Lodge at all, but succeeded in getting a full and free discussion upon the unification of initiation fees, sick dues, etc.

Westward Ho lodge, performed, with his usual tact, the onerous duties of secretary.

A motion in favour of a demonstration of some kind was carried unanimously. Another, that an uniformed procession of the various orders beforenamed, together with a programme of sports, etc., concluding with an evening out from the Grand Lodge itself.

Bro. Critchley's letter, I fear, is not calculated to set at rest the demand for "local self-government," especially in so distant a part as British Columbia is from Toronto. I would not be in a hurry to vote for a Provincial Grand Lodge myself, although this would be preferable to saying that "we are pleased with our condition, and we only ask to be let alone."

That not a few of the B. C. brethren see with their Eastern brothers the need of better representation is proved by their experiences as members of other societies. Our relations existing between the Supreme officers and ourselves are, doubtless, cordial to a degree, but these gentlemen must see the need spoken of, and be prepared to take cognizance of it, otherwise other orders will be better able to satisfy our fellow countrymen.

After five years experience of the Sons of England, I am free to admit fellow countrymen.

After five years experience of the Sons of England, I am free to admit that it is a well organized society in many ways, but there is much to be done in this part of the world at least in keeping touch with Toronto ideas and sentiment, and perhaps more to be done in welding the lodges we have got together in one system—call it what you will—for concerted action when needed, and the proper carrying out of the obligations and business by which we ought to be held together.

Thos. H. Robson.

HONORING THE DEAD SOLDIERS.

D. Mackintosh & Sons of Toronto have the contract for the erection of a monument at Chrysler's Farm, Stormont county. The monument is to be a plain obelisk of Quebec granite, 18 feet high, with base and appropriate extensions for holding mounted canon and shot piles. The same firm has the contracts for the erection of monuments' at Lundy's Lane and Chateauquay.

We had the pleasure a few weeks we had the pleasure a rew weeks ago of calling upon Messrs. Mackintosh & Sons. The monuments are close on completion, and they hope to have them placed in the places designated upon the historic battle grounds by Dominion Day.

of the Benehciary.

The last entertainment to be given this season by St. George's lodge will be held on Monday, May 6th, in their lodge-room, Forum Hall, Yonge St., when a "smoker" will take place with refreshments. A rare array of talent has already been secured. Tickets, 10c. each, can be had from the Secretary, W. C. Fidge, 263 Yonge St., or any member of the lodge.

A special W. R. meeting will be held.

A special W. R. meeting wi'l be held by Commercial lodge, in their lodge-room, Shaftesbury Hall, on Saturday the 20th inst., when it is hoped a large number of visiting brethren will be

The lodges have had no meetings of any special nature during the last fort-night. There appears to be quite a reaction now that the various Grand Lodge delegates have given in their reports, in which great interest was evinced, many members travelling from one lodge to another to hear the re-ports.

CHELTENHAM LODGE, No. 178.

CHELTENHAM LODGE, No. 178.

First Official Vist by Geo. Clatworthy, as Supreme Grand President.

When Bro. C. J. H. Winstanley, W. P., sounded the gavel he had before him one of the largest gatherings ever held by the lodge, and when the S. G. P., accompanied by Bro. J. W. Oarter, S. G. S., was introduced to the lodge by the P. P., Bro. Smallpiece, the applause was loud and long. One member was initiated. After the reading of the delegates' G. L. report, Bro. G. Clatworthy, S. G. P., was called to his feet, and said: "although he had visited several other lodges this visit to his lodge was his first official visit. He felt sure it was a great honour for a young lodge like Cheltenham to have the distinction of numbering amongst its members the Supreme Grand President. I feel, personally, that it is a great honour to have conferred upon one the high office of Supreme President of the Sons of England Society. I am fully sensible of my inability to fill the position. I feel that there are a large number in our Society could fill it better than I can. The fact of my being elected by acclamation will be an incentive to every effort I can make on behalf of the Society. The legislation of the late Grand Lodge will make a radical change in our working of the Society, but I believe it is a change for on behalf of the Society. The legislation of the late Grand Lodge will make a radical change in our working of the Society, but I believe it is a change for the better, I am glad to say that the Beneficiary Dept. is now on a sound basis. It should be our endeavour to influence all the members we can to join the Beneficiary; by so doing we shall have a greater hold upon our members, and have a greater certainty of retaining their membership. I will now conclude by assuring you that all my thoughts, all my efforts, shall be given to forward the interests of the members and the lodges of our beloved Society, and I trust that when I have completed my term of office my efforts will have met your app robation."

Bro. J. W. Carter, S. G. S., was the next speaker, and made a very eloquent speech, in the course of which he stated that he thought a great misapprehension existed respecting the recent legislation of Grand Lodge, in reference to the offspring of an Englishwoman. In my mind we are not changing our policy. The son of an Englishwoman is as good as the son of a German, or French father, who, having been born in England, claims to be an Englishman, and I feel confident that the legislation mentioned will be for the benefit of our Order.

Bro. G. H. Evans, D.D., in his remarks thought it was not a wise thing, in his mind, to open the doors so wide. He was open to conviction, but at present he could not acquiesce in the admission of the Sons of English women.

A most successful meeting was brought to a close at a very late hour.
