Veterans Decide For Amalgamation ∴ Britain to Assist Men to Emigrate to Dominions

G.W.V. VOTE FOR MERGER OF SOLDIERS

Unanimously in Favor of Federation of Returned Men for Whole Country
INSTRUCTIONS GIVEN
Committee Will Draft Suggestions to Present Convention as to Procedure

PORT ARTHUR, Oct. 19.—The Great War Veterans today unanimously adopted a resolution introduced by Comrade J. Cameron, of Saskatoon, favoring the formation of a federation of returned soldiers' organizations in Canada, with a view to ultimate amalgamation.

The Dominion Command was instructed to take part in any conference which may be legitimately arranged with such amalgamation in view.

A committee will draft a suggestion to the convention of the best method by which this federation could be brought about.

With the housing and unemployment resolutions disposed of, the delegates to the fifth annual convention of the Great War Veterans' Association soon commenced discussion of the most important matter before the "Soldiers' Parliament," namely, unification on some form. The fraternal delegates of the Imperial Veterans in Canada and the Grand Army of the Republic were invited to attend.

The discussion was precipitated by the introduction of a resolution recommending that the convention place itself on record as being in favor of federation under the constitution and by-laws of the British Empire Service League, as the first step towards unity. The convention had also before it the resolution adopted at Sunday's conference, which was intended as the foundation of combined action after the governing bodies concerned had ratified it. W. J. Irwin, Edmonton, was appointed chairman at this stage in order that President R. B. Maxwell might take part in the discussion.

President Maxwell recounted the proceedings of Sunday's conference, and was followed by Secretary C. G. MacNeill. Mr. Maxwell advocated federation because it seemed to be the only best thing. It was better to try that first before embarking upon anything of a larger scale. The G.W.V.A. had always believed in unity, but the thing could not be rushed.

Mr. MacNeill gave a resume of the negotiations which led up to Sunday's conference. Later the Cameron resolution was put and approved.

MAYOR MARTIN WINS.

MONTREAL, Oct. 19.—According to polls received Mederic Martin has 63,024 votes and Rochefort 22,900 in the mayoralty contest.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. W. Bailey, Moira St., announce the engagement of their only daughter Rose Mary, to Officer William T. Evans of the Belleville Police Force, third son of Mr. and Mrs. John Evans of Stafford Eng., the marriage to take place early in November.

BACK BROKEN BY BEAM

ST. JOHN, N. B., Oct. 19.—A fatal accident occurred here when Eugene Durant, superintendent of the Currie Construction Co., was killed when a thirty-five foot beam fell and hit him, breaking his back. He was rushed to the General Hospital, but died about half an hour after his arrival there.

SHOCK IN PANAMA AREA

Balboa, Oct. 19.—An earthquake shock, lasting four minutes, was felt throughout the isthmus of Panama. No damage was done to the canal.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT

SYDNEY MINES, N. S., Oct. 19.—Duncan Carmichael was shot in the thigh here, presumably when Policeman Tom MacDonald stumbled as he was about to discharge his revolver into the air. MacDonald and Canadian National Railway Policemen Gilhe were attempting to disperse a gang who had attacked them. Carmichael was said to be an innocent bystander.

RUSSIAN PRINCES AS FARM HANDS.

Mail Carrier Is Ambushed: Bag Taken After He is Shot

PORT ARTHUR, Ont., Oct. 19.—F. B. Benton, a mail carrier for the Hydro-Electric Power Commission at Cameron Falls, was found dead yesterday afternoon in a lonely shack two miles from Cameron Falls. He had been shot through the head. A mail sack was found a short distance away. It had been rifled and the contents were strewn about, but officials of the Hydro state that no valuables were contained in the sack. Benton, it is suspected, was murdered as he was on his way from Hydro to Nipigon, on the main line. Benton made a great record in carrying the mail between Cameron Falls and Nipigon, being never late and covering the lonely road without company and carrying valuable property time after time, until he was, apparently shot from ambush and robbed of his charge. Even during the exciting days of the hunt for the five bandits who had held up Paymaster May early last Summer, he continued his service without asking for protection. Benton was well known among the employees of the Hydro camp and was a great favorite, though there was always an air of mystery about him, occasioned by the fact that he was a professional man coming from great opportunities in England to take up such a humble occupation as mail carrier in an out-post of civilization.

MOUNTAIN VIEW CHEESE TAKES FIRST PRIZE AT BRITAIN'S DAIRY SHOW

Mountain View Cheese Factory has the honor of showing the highest grade Colonial Cheddar cheese at the Dairy Show in the Agricultural Hall in London, England, according to a cable message. The dairy exhibition opened yesterday.

The first three places fell to Canada, the second to Ayr & Company, Montreal and the third to the Dominion Cheese Factory, Ontario. Mr. J. A. Beckwith, of Rosemore is the maker of the champion cheese, turned out of Mountain View Factory.

Germans Said to Have Perfected Triple-Barrelled Machine Gun

LONDON, Oct. 19.—The Munich correspondent of the London Times is informed by an unnamed expert that the Germans have perfected a triple-barrelled machine gun, electrically operated, weighing some twenty-two pounds and capable of spreading 2,000 rounds per minute in a complete circle. The three barrels could be operated by a gunner on land a half mile distant. This is called an instantiating how German industries are devising engines of war, and the correspondent further declares that Germany is concealing her armies under civilian guise and that chemists are conducting researches into poisonous gases and bacteriological possibilities of destruction.

ANGLO-AMERICAN WAR UNTHINKABLE, SAYS HARDING

YORKTOWN, Va., Oct. 19.—The doctrine of enduring friendship between the United States and Britain was pronounced by President Harding today at the ceremony commemorating the final surrender of the British expeditionary forces here, to the revolutionary army of Gen. Washington. In deliberately chosen words he declared the sentiment of peaceful relationship between the two nations for all time. That either would ever lift the sword against each other, he said, was unthinkable.

ULSTER TO USE FORCE IS RETORT

Any Attempt to Belittle Power or Authority of Belfast will be Fought
COMMONS TO DEBATE IT
Ulster's Position Likely a Topic for House Next Tuesday
Leaders Say

BELFAST, Oct. 19.—Any attempt to belittle the power and authority of the Ulster Parliament would be resisted to the last ditch, declared Hugh M. Poldock, Ulster Finance Minister here yesterday.

But when wiser elements in the south rid their country of those who were working for its undoing, an opportunity for the discussion of closer unity might arise. At present they must learn that force will be met with force.

Up Next Tuesday.
LONDON, Oct. 19.—Irish affairs will probably be discussed in House of Commons next Tuesday. Charles Craig, South Antrim, declared yesterday that the Ulster premier and the Ulster ministers had asked him to press the government to give an opportunity to consider the position of Ulster.

Groups in Ireland?
LONDON, Oct. 19.—Irish conferences will not meet again before Thursday and possibly not until Friday or Saturday but in the meantime the members are busy in committees thrashing out the various problems connected with the future relations between Ireland and Britain.

The most important meeting was held at the Colonial Office where the whole Irish delegation conferred with Winston Churchill, Minister of Colonies; Sir L. Worthington Evans, Minister for War; Captain Guest, Air Minister; Sir Hugh Trenchard, Air Marshal and Sir Gordon Howard, Attorney-General.

One of the subjects discussed was the British claim to maintain troops and air forces in Ireland. The Ulster question was also discussed and several experts on Ulster called in, but no official Ulsterites were present and it is not thought the progress of the Ulster division will warrant summoning Sir James Craig to London before the middle of next week.

Y. M. C. A. to Ask For Ten Thousand In Next Campaign

A campaign to raise ten thousand dollars by subscriptions and memberships was decided upon at a meeting of the Y. executive last night. The canvas will take place in about five weeks.

This amount is considered necessary to make up a deficit and carry the institution through until April 30th next, the end of the fiscal year.

BOY HIDDEN UNDER LEAVES

ALMOST RUN OVER BY TRUCK
Hamilton, Oct. 19.—J. Sedge, a truck driver was started last night when upon stopping his truck near a curb he saw a boy come from under a pile of leaves when about two feet in front of him. He would have crushed the lad had he not a few feet farther with the truck.

HUNDREDS YEARS OLD

WILL CAST HER VOTE
KINGSTON, Ont., Oct. 19.—Mrs. Darius Smith, Collins Bay, yesterday celebrated the one hundredth anniversary of her birth. Mrs. Smith has been a lifelong resident of the neighborhood and many good friends gathered at her home to wish her more years of health and happiness. She is bright and hearty, in full possession of her faculties, and says she will cast her vote at the coming election.

Lone Bandit Loots Train

MOOSEJAW, Sask., Oct. 19.—A Dominion Express messenger on the train number four, Vancouver-Toronto, was held up this morning at a spot between Moosejaw and Swift Current by a lone bandit, and the safe in the car rifled.

SEEKING MEANS TO HALT STRIKE OF RAILWAYMEN

Five Chief Executives of Unions Will Again Confer with Labor Board
BY HARDING'S REQUEST

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Before President Harding left today for Yorktown, Va., it was announced that the Labor Board will be given the full support of Federal authority in its endeavor to avert the railway strike and will be expected through the results attained to justify its creation.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 19.—The scene of action in the threatened general progressive railroad strike to begin October 30 shifted back to Chicago today with the announcement that the three local members of the "Big Five" railroad brotherhoods had accepted a request from the Railroad Labor Board that the five Chief Executives confer with the board in Chicago Thursday afternoon.

The telegrams requesting the conference were sent to Warren S. Stone, President of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers; W. G. Lee, President of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, and W. S. Carter, President of the Brotherhood of Firemen and Enginemen, all with headquarters in this city. After a telephone conference, Mr. Stone announced that the three Chief Executives had accepted the invitation and would leave for Chicago Wednesday night. Similar requests, Mr. Stone said, were sent to L. E. Sheppard, President of the Order of Railway Conductors, and T. C. Cashen, President of the Switchmen's Union of North America, with headquarters in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and Buffalo, respectively.

EFFORTS BY SEVERAL AGENCIES
CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Efforts to avert the general rail strike scheduled for October 30, found governmental agencies, representatives of the public and some railway labor unions taking action simultaneously, which all hoped would prevent a tie-up of the country's transportation system.

Foremost among the moves being made by the different groups was a meeting between the United States Railroad Labor Board and the heads of the five unions, which have already authorized their men to strike, called for Thursday by the Board and at the request of President Harding, it was said by Board members.

The first move on the part of a public organization to avert a strike came when the American Farm Bureau Federation, representing 1,350,000 farmers, sent petitions to the Interstate Commerce Commission asking an immediate 10 to 20 per cent reduction in freight rates on necessities and announced that it also would appeal to the Labor Board not to grant a new 10 per cent wage reduction which the roads have announced they will seek, but rather to generally revise wages in accordance with the cost of living in various sections. Concurrence in these requests should avert the strike, the Federation said in its announcement through which it volunteered to meet with union and rail representatives as a mediator.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—A philanthropic hen in upper New York has set about solving the high cost of living by laying double eggs. She fools the profane by smuggling two eggs at a time into existence, artfully disguised as one. The second is concealed within the shell of the first.

TO WORK ON HIGHWAYS TILL FREEZE-UP COMES

Mayor Hanna today received word from the Highways Department that work on the Provincial Highway would be continued until weather conditions made operations impossible. This was in answer to a letter of the mayor, urging department to continue the work as long as possible for the sake of the men engaged.

REDNER'S HALL CROWDED TO HEAR FARMERS TELL THEIR SIDE OF POLITICS

LADY BECK'S FUNERAL
Hydro Electric power went off in Belleville at 11.30 today for five minutes. This was done by the H.E.P. Commission as a mark of respect for Lady Beck, wife of Sir Adam Beck. Her funeral took place at that time in Hamilton today.

PAYS TRIBUTE TO LADY BECK

Toronto's Big Ben Tolls at Three-Minute Intervals as Service Starts
TO HAMILTON BY MOTOR
Sir Adam Says Late Wife Loved Two Words: Honesty, and Truth

TORONTO, Oct. 19.—While Big Ben in the City Hall tolled out at intervals of three minutes this morning, indicating in solemn tones the sorrow and sympathy of half a million people in the city, the remains of Lady Beck were carried in their last resting place to her home city, Hamilton.

At nine o'clock a little company of mourners stood in Miles' funeral chapel in silent sympathy when Sir Adam and Miss Marion Beck entered. Tears fell from the cheeks of the Hydro knight as he paid a beautiful tribute to his dead wife.

"She loved two words," he said, "honesty and truth."
The chapel was literally filled with floral tributes.

Shortly after nine the cortege started for Hamilton by motor.
The staff of the power department of the Hydro in Belleville did not work today out of respect to the memory of Lady Beck.

Ex-Service Men Go to Dominions, Lloyd George Plan

Organization Meetings.
These are but organization meetings," explained Mr. Anderson. "We have not started to hold regular ones yet." The chairman was Mr. Richard Tripp who employed a considerable amount of banter at the expense of the old parties.

"I feel proud to stand on the platform of the United Farmers and of the National Progressive Party under the leadership of the Hon. T. A. Cramer," declared Mr. Clarence Mallory, head of the Agrarians of Prince Edward, who opened the speaking.

"The National Progressive Party stands for a principle, not yet put into practice by any political party, equal rights to all, and special privileges to none."

It stood for the total prohibition of the liquor traffic, alone among the parties. "I am not going to throw down one political party for another that will not carry out its principles. I believe the vote of the women will raise politics out of the rut into which it has been allowed to drift."

Mr. Mallory, speaking of the attacks on the farmers' group, declared that the government of the country for forty years had been group government.

LOYD GEORGE WINS CRITICISM ON LATEST PLANS

"Bluff" Shows Daily Herald (Labor) and Others Pick Flaws in Scheme

HOUSE LISTENS CLOSELY

Worst Situation in Last Hundred Years as Dealt With by Premier

LONDON, Oct. 20.—Today's newspapers in general praise the Premier's announcement of the Government's policy regarding unemployment and trade revival...

The Times comments upon the extension of the export credit scheme to Empire and expresses the view that the most serious defect in the scheme is that it tends to increase taxation...

The Herald brands the proposals as "bluff" and adds, "You cannot feed the unemployed on bluff," while the Daily News regards the scheme as an attempt to evade the coming storm.

The Telegraph and Chronicle support the scheme. MUST BE GOOD UNDERSTANDING

In outlining the Government's proposals to alleviate unemployment, Mr. Lloyd George made the following striking declaration: "Peace and a good understanding among nations is vital. Let us get out of the atmosphere where, if you talk about a German without a frown on your brow, you are no patriot. Trade cannot start in such an atmosphere. If you intervene to make peace your motives are misunderstood; but if Great Britain will not do it, who will? We stand for stability. We want to see the nations begin again the tasks of peace."

The entire speech of the Prime Minister was a plea that the country is suffering from the results of the war and a declaration that restoration rests upon the revival of industry and the rehabilitation of the purchasing power of the world.

PLAN FOR RELIEF Mr. Lloyd George spiritily justified the steps the Government already had taken to meet the unemployment problem. He contended that the British plan of imposing heavy taxation was much better than the means adopted by some countries of creating an artificial credit and producing a feverish boom, to be speedily followed by serious reaction.

IN TWO CATEGORIES In a speech lasting an hour and a half, the Prime Minister outlined the Government's scheme for the relief of unemployment and a revival of British trade. He was listened to sympathetically, and even the Labor party forbore from interruptions after one or two mild attempts were received cordily by the House.

The Prime Minister was in excellent voice, and it was evident that he had benefited by his vacation in Scotland, even though the greater part of it was devoted to work.

The Government's plans naturally fall into two parts: the relief of existing distress and provisions for work. The latter category is again subdivided into provisions for immediate relief and the restoration of trade, which alone is the permanent cure.

NEW YORK THROWS SLUR

"Herald" Says "Bluenose" Built for Racing Not Fishing

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Commenting on the international fishing schooner race, The Herald today says that the "Bluenose" was especially designed in the hope that she would win back the trophy which Capt. Welch won with "Esperanto" last November. The "Elise" was built solely with a view to commercial deep sea fishing.

POTATOES STILL GROWING

Little Ones Still in Ground are Becoming Bigger Ones

Most of the fall or late potatoes are not out of the ground yet and the "spuds" are still growing, a farmer told The Ontario today. The wet weather has made the ground so wet that it is at present difficult to get the crop out. But there are indications of a change in the weather with a spell of dry to succeed. Potatoes reached the lowest figure for some time this week, when they brought one fifty per bag.

TRENTON O. T. A. FINES $10,745 FOR ONE YEAR

Chief Bailm, of Trenton, at the request of Chief Officer Morvat, of the License Department, has sent in his returns of the fines received by the municipality of Trenton, under the Ontario Temperance Act, from May 1st, 1920, to April 30th, 1921, inclusive. The fines received under the Ontario Temperance Act, both dates inclusive, amounted to the sum of $10,745. This does not include the costs of the above cases.

The total amount of fines and costs received by the Police Department of Trenton, during the above specified time, in all cases amounted to the sum of $12,007.

WATER IS GOOD REPORTS ASSERT

Supply for Belleville Now Much Improved Over Conditions in Summer

SAMPLES TAKEN DAILY Reports Coming From Toronto All Satisfactory—Chlorine is Advised

The water which the people of Belleville are now using is much better than in the summer months when there is a certain weed growth. Inspector Willis told The Ontario today that almost every day he sends a sample of the city tap water to the Department of the Provincial Board of Health at Toronto. It is only rarely that a report of the finding of the test is sent back, this indicating that conditions are quite satisfactory. When reports are received they state that conditions are good.

Control of the water supply here by the use of chlorine is usually advised by the Department.

"BUNNY" LEAVES TOWN

Sub-normal Lad of Five Taken to Orillia Hospital

"Bunny" went away today. The little chap, alleged to be subject to epileptic fits, and to be sub-normal, was taken in charge by Captain Ruston, Inspector for the Children's Aid Society. He spent the night at the Shelter and went with Captain Ruston today to Orillia, where he will get treatment in the Hospital for the Insane.

"Bunny" is not yet six but he has had a remarkable career. He is deaf, and hard to manage. Captain Ruston says the lad may become more normal under proper treatment.

Owing to the boy's age it has been impossible, Captain Ruston says, to place him in any institution, but after correspondence and personal interviews with the Provincial Secretary and other authorities and officials it has been decided to make a special case of "Bunny" and he will be placed in the Orillia hospital as a special case.

DISCOVERY OF SMALLPOX GERM

South American Bacteriologist Says He's Found It

SANTIAGO, Chile, Oct. 20.—Discovery of the long-sought germ of smallpox has been claimed here by Dr. Arturo Atria, a leading South American bacteriologist, who has been working for some time among the victims of the epidemic here. Other prominent South American physicians believe in Dr. Atria's discovery. They think that it will help them to wipe out the plague in Chile. The discoverer expected to have his microbe culture ready to send to the United States and Europe within thirty days.

"TIGER" IS ILL

PARIS, Oct. 20.—Georges Clemenceau is dangerously ill at his villa at Vandoe. Three doctors are in attendance on the aged "Tiger," but no bulletins have been issued.

His condition is reported so critical that not even his most intimate friends are allowed to see him.

DENIAL GIVEN NAVAL STORY

British Admiralty Has no Pacific Concentration Scheme Officials Assert

MORE OIL STORAGE Public Feeling in Britain Favours Anglo-American-Japanese Entente

LONDON, Oct. 20.—Specific denial that the Imperial Conference drew up a comprehensive scheme for naval concentration in the Pacific during its recent deliberations, was given by the British Admiralty today.

It is admitted that the Australian and New Zealand delegations emphasized the necessity of Great Britain carefully safeguarding her interests in the Far East for the future, but no definite conclusions were arrived at. The naval policy was left entirely in the hands of the Admiralty in London.

Naval officials are concerned at the repeated reports current in the London press that the Bermudas and Singapore are to be converted into first class naval bases. They have labelled the reports as "not founded on facts."

The appropriations for Singapore for 1921-22 total only $250,000 for the erection of storage accommodation for oil. It is declared that there is no intention of further fortifying Singapore, but that attention is being directed to another base, the name of which is not divulged.

This corroborates despatches from Australia reporting the speech of Premier Hughes before the Australian Parliament. The despatches say that Hughes declared that the Empire reached a decision on the question of a Pacific base, but that Singapore was ruled out.

KING AND THE POPE EXCHANGE LETTERS

Both Fervently Hope that Peace May Come Very Soon to Emerald Isle

LONDON, Oct. 20.—Communications have been exchanged between Pope Benedict and King George on the subject of the Irish peace negotiations. The Pontiff in his message announced that he prayed for the success of the conference and the ending of the long disension. To this King George replied that with all his heart he joined in the Pontiff's prayer.

The telegram of Pope Benedict said: "We rejoice in the resumption of the Anglo-Irish negotiations and pray to the Lord with all our heart that He may bless them and grant to your Majesty great joy and the imperishable glory of bringing to an end the age-long disension."

To the Pontiff's message King George replied as follows: "I have received the message of your Holiness with much pleasure, and with all my heart I join in your prayer that the conference now sitting in London may achieve a permanent settlement of the troubles in Ireland, and may initiate a new era of peace and happiness for my people."

REVIVAL AT TABERNAACLE

The revival at the Tabernacle Methodist Church is proceeding with great satisfaction to the members of that church. The meetings are fairly well attended and keen interest is shown in the messages of the Reverend Evangelist, Barton. He does not employ the question method in his services but his appeal to the better life is one that causes a searching of human motive and is having good results.

ONTARIO FIRE LOSS

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 20.—During the past year Ontario suffered commercially from fire losses to the extent of one million dollars a month, fully one-half of which might have been prevented by adequate precautions, it was reported to the Ontario Fire Prevention League which held its annual meeting at the Parliament Buildings.

B. C. LEGISLATURE SITTING

Victoria, Oct. 20.—Lieut.-Col. W. C. Nicholl opened the second session of the fifth Parliament of British Columbia. The speech from the Throne referred to the question of tax relief for municipalities, proposed amendments to the Taxation Act, and the progress of construction of Pacific-Great Eastern Railway.

CAPT. SHEPPARD DEAD

Toronto, Oct. 20.—Captain E. C. Sheppard, son of E. E. Sheppard (Don), formerly of Toronto Saturday Night, died yesterday in Kamloops, B.C., according to a message received here by friends. He contracted tuberculosis during the war while in the Air Service.

"PURE IMAGINATION"

LONDON, Oct. 20.—Reports that Britain was planning naval bases at Bermudas or Singapore were termed "pure imagination" by a high administrative official today.

HOGS AT $8 LOWEST FIGURE IN SOME YEARS

Drop in Price of Live "Porkers" Greatest in Week for Long Time

PRE-WAR QUOTATIONS "Those Who Should Know" Say That Recovery Just Now is Doubtful

The lowest price in years in the hog market was touched here today, the figure of eight dollars per hundred was paid.

This goes back to pre-war quotations. The drop in the past week has been the greatest in a long period. Last week they were bringing $9.25 per cwt.

One time recently the price dropped heavily but stopped short of the eight dollar mark.

While no one can say what the future will bring in the hog market, there is an impression that there is little likelihood of recovery to any great extent.

HARTLEY DEWART NO LONGER LEADER

Wellington Hay, M.P.P., and Liberal Whip to Lead Party at Queen's Park

TORONTO, Oct. 20.—The Globe says today: At a caucus yesterday afternoon of the Liberal members of the Provincial Legislature the resignation of H. H. Dewart, K.C., as Provincial Liberal Leader was received and accepted. F. Wellington Hay, M.P.P. for North Perth, and Liberal Whip, was chosen as Acting Leader until such time as a selection can be made at a convention or otherwise.

As predicted yesterday in The Globe, Mr. Dewart failed to put in an appearance at the caucus, on the advice of his medical attendants. His formal act of withdrawal was tabled by Mr. Hay, the actual resignation being supplemented by a letter.

The caucus, which was attended by some fifteen or sixteen members, passed a resolution expressing sympathy with the late Leader in his affliction and deep appreciation of the services he has rendered to the party. A tangible recognition of these services will shortly be presented to Mr. Dewart by his Liberal colleagues in the Legislature.

"Mr. Dewart could not be present owing to his illness," said Mr. Hay, following the caucus. "I am to carry on in an acting capacity until the party can select its new Leader. When that will be I cannot even suggest."

NAVAL BASE NOT SINGAPORE

MELBOURNE, Australia, Oct. 20.—Premier Hughes, speaking in the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth, said the question of a British naval base in the Pacific was discussed at the recent conference of the Empire and that a decision regarding it was reached. He added, however, that the base would not be at Singapore.

OTTAWA THEATRE BURNS

OTTAWA, Oct. 20.—The Dominion Theatre, Sparks street, was destroyed by fire this morning.

CIVIC PROBE ON TONIGHT

The special probing committee to inquire into the allegations made at the Monday night meeting of the civic body will hold session tonight to hear the story of what actually did occur, on certain works, on which it is alleged there was unnecessary delay.

REVIVAL AT TABERNAACLE

The revival at the Tabernacle Methodist Church is proceeding with great satisfaction to the members of that church. The meetings are fairly well attended and keen interest is shown in the messages of the Reverend Evangelist, Barton. MURDER BOMB BRITISH-MADE REDS BLAMED

MILLS BOMB WORKED French Newspapers Voice Horror at Outrage—No Trace of Criminals

PARIS, Oct. 20.—Police investigations today show that the bomb which exploded in the house of the United States ambassador yesterday was apparently of British manufacture used during the war.

Newspapers today voiced horror at the outrage. No trace of the criminal has been found.

In the attempt made to kill Myron T. Herrick, the American Ambassador, by means of a bomb, his escape was due to a series of circumstances which seem almost miraculous.

The outrage is believed by the Paris police to have been the work of French Communists, who for the past two weeks have been conducting a campaign against the execution of Sacco and Vanzetti in Boston on November 1, and who have been deluging Herrick with letters and telegrams about the case. A warning has been sent to the American Ambassadors in London and Rome to be on their guard against similar attempts.

A package marked perfume was seen by Mr. Herrick's valet after it had been delivered to Mr. Herrick's rooms.

Having been commissioned by Mr. Herrick to buy perfume for the Embassy, Blanchard, through pardonable curiosity, examined the packages more closely and decided he would open it. He removed the outer wrapping and then, with the scissors, cut the string holding the second wrapper. As the string fell away, a spring shot out of the end of the package, and Blanchard heard a whirring noise. Giving the affair one look, the valet, who was a soldier in the British army during the war, recognized a Mills hand grenade.

He hurled it into the bathroom, where it exploded before it hit the floor. He was knocked flat, and a piece of the grenade entered his left leg. The big bathroom was torn to pieces. Bits of the grenade penetrated the bath tub and one section pierced an iron door on one side of the bathroom. The mirrors and ceilings were knocked to bits.

Mr. Herrick, just coming in the door missed injury by a narrow margin.

New Yorker Discovers $125,000 in Bills Hidden in Rooms of Dead Relatives

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—When Robert Hendry of the firm of Morrison & Company, South American contractors, at 11 Broadway, went today to the apartment of his uncle and aunt, the late Dr. Joseph Simms, lecturer and writer, and Mrs. Jimmie Sinclair Simms, who died recently, to take away some old books and trunks, he found a bundle of greenbacks and stocks and bonds beneath bunches of old rags, which he estimated as approximating in value $125,000.

Hendry deposited the fortune pending further developments.

His uncle and aunt during their later years lived in a modest apartment in the Empire Hotel, facing on Lincoln Square. Dr. Simms died in April, 1920.

Bloodless Revolution is Over; New Ministry on the Job

LONDON, Oct. 20.—Despatches received here state that after a bloodless revolution in Portugal, the new ministry has been formed and is in full control.

A military movement against the Portuguese Government broke out in Lisbon Wednesday, according to a Vigo despatch to The London Times. The troops seized strategic positions in the city and environs.

The Government has resigned as a result of a successful military movement without bloodshed, says a Renter despatch from Lisbon.

The new ministry will probably be formed with the ex-revolutionist, Manuel Maria Coelho, as Premier.

ment of the Conservative and Liberal parties, both striving for power. He defied anyone to point to a single piece of legislation of the Drury administration, that saved or class legislation.

He claimed that Premier Meighen was trying to stampede the country with the fear of free trade. "All we ask is tariff for revenue, not tariff to make millionaires," said Mr. Malory. "There is not a single plank in the platform of the Progressive Party in favor of absolute free trade."

He turned to the control of the business of the country and asked why a farmer received only one dollar and a half for a hide and when he wanted a pair of boots had to pay an exorbitant price. "The manufacturer is not willing to take the loss the farmer is. In the past year there has been a drop of fifty per cent in the prices of farm produce."

There are ten or twelve here from Bloomfield tonight, irrespective of party affiliations. We are up against the big fight and we believe there is an opportunity to elect Mr. Anderson."

The work of Hon. Nelson Parliament for the riding and for Ameliasburgh in particular was praised by Mr. Walter Clarke. He spoke of the achievement of the free bay bridge which would save thousands of dollars to the people of Prince Edward.

Farmers no Longer Slaves.

"I always voted against high protection, and I believe the U.F.O. Government is working honestly for the masses of the people."

"Some think the farmers should be only serfs and slaves. I think differently."

He likened the United Farmers to the pioneers, who cleared the forests and reared their families under great handicaps and thought that future generations would praise the men who stepped out of their party for the good of the country. "All we want as farmers is fair representation. Who thinks we want all lawyers and doctors at Ottawa?" was his parting question.

The candidate made a typical speech in advocacy of the agrarian proposals. "The parties think we are fit only to run a farm," said Mr. Anderson. "But we find that ninety per cent of the men who succeed in business, were reared on the farm. There are, it is claimed, few families that exist in the big cities for three generations without the importation of the fresh blood from the farm. There is something about the rural life that makes for virility. I stand four square for the principle of temperance in the farmers' platform. We could not have succeeded in the movement if it had not been for the vote of the country districts."

Referring to the recall principle he asked how many men would stay year after year at Ottawa if the recall was adopted.

"The prime minister is the only one talking free trade. If he had a sound platform he would not spend his time attacking us. We believe in tariff for revenue only."

"The farmers are carrying a heavy burden. The rural population has decreased over fifty per cent in the past 28 years. Today over half of the men on the farms without help are over fifty years of age. Where will this lead in time? It does not make so much difference to the farmer but it will to the country at large and to the residents of the cities."

Burden on the Farmer.

"Mr. Meighen demanded free implements in 1910. That's where we stand today. The tariff allows the collection of $750,000,000 annually of which only about $35,000,000 goes into the government treasury. The rest, $665,000,000 goes to make millionaires. This puts a burden of three hundred dollars on the farmer annually and one hundred on the workington."

Mr. Anderson said that at the next meeting he would tell why he left the old party and relate the story of the party campaign funds.

Mrs. Yarwood told of the growth of interest in politics in her case and referred to the load which the farmer is carrying. "We farmers are a proud people and so proud that we would not let one another know how poor we are."

Deeper Than Party.

There was something deeper than party that the country was up against and that was human greed.

She contended that politicians cared little about rural depopulation. "Indeed they would be satisfied to see foreigners take our places for they would be more easy to manage than we are or are going to be."

Mr. Clayton Burr pleaded for farmer representation in parliament. A farmer can represent the farmers best. The tariff is not the only issue. "There is the moral issue of prohibition and social reform."

"Newspapers always mention a man's politics and his religion in obituaries," said Mr. Halford, wondering why the same information was not engraved on the monuments in the cemeteries. "You cannot keep thought in one channel. When

Gas Up 2 Cents as Season is Ending

Now that the general motor season is drawing to a close, the motorist will not likely grumble much at the advance in the price of gasoline. It is now selling in Belleville at thirty-seven cents, which is an increase of two cents. This price is still as reasonable as that charged in almost any city in the country. "Gas" had been declining in price for the past few months until thirty-five cents was reached. Oil has not been affected.

This drive upwards is the usual occurrence at this time of the year. Around some of the "gas" stations further advances are predicted, some men hinting at forty-five cents.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Peter-in-Chains Church on Monday morning, October 10th, when Miss Gladys Long, daughter of Mr. Bernard Long, of Glen Miller, became the bride of Mr. Ernest Hill, of Trenton.

The bride looked very charming in a sand suit with hat to match. She was attended by her cousin and brother, Miss Bernadette Long and Mr. Gerald Long.

After a sumptuous wedding breakfast at the home of the bride, the happy couple left on the 10.45 train for Syracuse. On their return they will reside in Trenton.

HOUSE PROBLEM STILL UNSOLVED FOR BELLEVILLE

Local Real Estate Men Discuss Situation Here and Cannot See Answer

RENTALS SHOW MIX-UP
No Standard in Sight While Owners Claim Less than 6% is Made as Rule

The housing problem may be easing in some cities but not so in Belleville, according to local real estate men. The past year has seen few houses erected, few if any of them for investment purposes.

"Rentals at the present are in a mix-up here," he stated. "One house may be renting for $25 per month and next to it may be a house of less value bringing $35."

Very little property is being bought except by people who have to find shelter for their heads. Working men are not prominent among recent purchasers as there seems a great uncertainty as to what the winter may bring forth.

There are requests every day for houses at the offices of the real estate men, and these are not easily satisfied. There is a shortage of the small modern type of house, which is less expensive to keep up. "To rent" signs are as scarce as hen's teeth.

That certain classes of houses will still increase in rental is the view of a well known estate man. He contends that the revenue from property today is, in many cases, far below six per cent. after taxes and costs of improvements of the property are deducted.

Whether next spring will see an appreciable decline in building costs remains to be seen. Carpenters, for instance, do not expect much of a drop in wages.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.
On Monday evening, Sept. 26th, after the return of Mr. and Mrs. T. Reid from their wedding voyage, a goodly number of their friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mrs. Mosher at Spring Brook, to show their good will and respect toward them.

Mrs. Reid, having spent a number of years in the teaching profession, training the developing mind of the child, in the vicinity of her own home, has upon the name and the honor which she possesses, and which is only due her.

This was truly evidenced by the fact of the many and beautiful gifts which were received, manifesting the esteem in which they are held.

After the attention of the gathering was given, the following address was read by Mr. Frank Bateman: My Dear Mr. and Mrs. Reid:—

We, your friends, have assembled this evening to spend a few pleasant hours with you, before your departure for your new home.

We wish you, Mrs. Reid, to know how much we have appreciated your splendid work and ability as a teacher in our school. We are glad to know that you are not going so far away but that we shall see you as often as ever in our social affairs.

We all know and all feel that you will be very happy in your new home and wish you both every joy and happiness, also a long and prosperous wedded life.

(Signed) Minnie Heath, Jean Moore, Rena Scarlett, Nellie Joyce.

Mr. and Mrs. Reid both feelingly replied, expressing their appreciation of the gathering together of their friends to spend an evening with them, and of the gifts which they had bestowed upon them; thanking all and wishing one and all to visit them again in the future.

The remainder of the evening was spent in social intercourse, and enjoying the beautiful lunch provided by the ladies. All returned to their several homes, having wished the happy couple a joyous voyage through life.

Urgent Need for Redistribution of Empire's Population is Emphasized by Canadian Authority in London.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—(Canadian Press cable)—Emphasizing the urgent need for redistribution of the population of the Empire, Mr. C. E. Wade, Agent General for British Columbia, points out in the press that Australia and Canada support less than three persons to the square mile as against 618 to the square mile in England and Wales.

He suggests that Canada's position is more precarious than that of Australia, and declares that: "The same cloud of restless, ambitious, powerful people which lowers over Australia threatens Canada."

He gives figures showing the serious influx of immigrants into the United States and declares that "Western Canada is rapidly becoming Americanized."

The cure for the situation, he says, is to "pump in whites whose instincts are in accord with British or Canadian traditions."

GIRL'S PLIGHT STIRS SOCIETY

Miss Pamela Beckett is Accidentally Found by Cyclist but Refuses Aid

WANDERING, OUT OF FOOD Declined to Say Where She Lived or Allow Friends to Hear of Her

LONDON, Eng., Oct. 15.—Mystery still surrounds the case of Miss Pamela Beckett, a young society woman of this city, who was discovered Thursday almost helpless in Cuffley woods, after she had been missing for three days.

It seems that she wandered for nearly twenty miles before being found and appears that she was trying to reach a house in Barnet, where until about a year ago her family lived. She was within four miles of Barnet when discovered.

A motor cyclist named Hughes had dismounted from his machine and was walking through Cuffley woods in search of berries when he saw the girl lying on the ground shivering.

He had not seen late newspapers and was unaware of the girl's identity, but it being evident she was very ill he offered assistance. She replied she was "all right" and said she wished only to be left alone.

A local resident happened along and he and Hughes renewed the proffer to help, declaring they must tell the police if it was refused, as it was obvious she was unfit to be left alone. She seemed unconcerned and repeated her wish not to be disturbed.

After twenty minutes they succeeded in persuading her to take a seat in Hughes' side car, and she was taken to a local inn, where she was placed in charge of the landlady.

When questioned further, the girl said she had eaten nothing since she had left home and had been walking about ever since she had vanished. She refused to tell where she had been, and, although she said her name was Beckett, she declined to say where she lived or to allow word to be sent to friends.

Later Hughes learned of the girl's disappearance and communicated with the police. Relatives of Miss Beckett went to the inn where she had been taken and brought her to her home in this city.

START AT EIGHT TO QUIT AT SIX

Hours for Voting Changed Back to Within Original Limits by Parliament

6 A.M. FOUND TOO EARLY Special Regulations Covering Polls Near Border and for Travelling Folk

OTTAWA, Oct. 15.—(By Canadian Press)—The hours of voting in rural and urban polling districts will be the same in the forthcoming general election, an amendment to the Dominion Elections Act having been passed at the last session of Parliament to provide for this.

In the 1920 amendments to the act provision was made for opening city polls at six o'clock in the morning and keeping them open until six o'clock at night. When these hours were put into effect in by-elections, however, it was found that there were practically no votes cast before eight o'clock in the morning, and also that candidates had great difficulty in getting their representatives to attend at the different polling places at six o'clock.

Standard Time Governs When the special committee of parliament met last session to consider proposed amendments to the Act objection to the earlier voting hours in cities was raised from several sources and it was decided to recommend to the House that the hour of eight o'clock be set for the opening of urban and rural polls alike.

This amendment was subsequently passed by the House, so that polls in all constituencies on the regular day of voting, will open at eight o'clock in the morning and close at six in the evening. Standard time governs in all cases.

A provision is made in Section 55 of the Act however, governing polling in municipalities near the international boundary which states: "Upon application to the Chief Electoral Officer by any municipality situated upon or near the international boundary line the Chief Electoral Officer may in his discretion authorize a change in the hours of polling for all polls in such municipality in order to accommodate electors who are resident in Canada but whose occupation renders it necessary for them to be absent from Canada during the ordinary polling hours."

"Such application for change of polling hours must be made to the Chief Electoral Officer at least ten days before the day appointed as nomination day and the Chief Electoral Officer shall notify the returning officer of any change in the hours of polling authorized by him and the same shall be duly announced."

Provision is made in the Act for the holding of advance polls for railway employees, sailors and commercial travellers whose work would take them away from their original polling division on the day of polling. The rules governing procedure at advance polls are given in the Chief Electoral Officer's instructions for the guidance of returning officers and other election officials governing these polls.

Schedule 2 of the Act provides for the holding of advance polls at practically all railway divisional points throughout the Dominion and similar towns and cities where railway men, commercial travellers and seamen would be likely to live in any considerable numbers.

Electors voting at these polls are required to take a declaration that they come within the classes for which such a poll is provided. The Chief Electoral Officer is given power under the Act to amend the schedule of towns and cities in which advance polls may be held, the requisite number of advance votes, for a poll being placed at fifty.

Advance polls, which will be offered as other polls, will be open from seven to ten o'clock in the afternoon of the three days, exclusive of Sunday, immediately preceding the regular polling day. Public notice of the holding of advance polls is to be given not later than seven days before polling day.

Military Notes

A Reception Dinner is to be held at the Windsor Hotel, Montreal, at 7 p.m. on Armistice Day, the 11th November next, to which all Canadian Officers who proceeded overseas, all Imperial Officers in Canada, and all officers of the Allied forces now in Canada, are cordially invited.

His Excellency the Governor-General has consented to be the guest of the officers on this occasion; also Sir Arthur Currie and the four Canadian Divisional Commanders.

It is also hoped that General Pershing, the American Commander, will be able to attend.

Officers desiring to attend should communicate with Lt.-Col. R. H. Webb, D.S.O., Office 11, Windsor Hotel, Montreal.

Service uniform will be worn for the occasion, or if an officer has not service uniform, evening dress with miniature decorations. Price $5.00. D. Thos. McManus, Captain.

GOOD PRICES RULE IN CITY; TRADE BRISK

Huge Amount of Produce Seen at Nine Had Disappeared at Twelve

SEE CHICKENS GALORE Eggs a 55 and Butter at 50 up—Potatoes $2.25—Other Prices

Good prices were realized by the farmers at the market today. In few, if in any of the various lines of produce, was there a decline noticeable. The large amount of produce offered found buyers, so that the mart was pretty well cleaned out before the hour of noon.

Chickens were the most plentiful of all the various lines of offerings today. The smaller birds sold at seventy-five cents to one dollar a pair. Larger fowl brought one-fifty to two dollars per pair.

Eggs generally were very firm. The top-notch figure was 55c a dozen. Butter sold at 50 to 55c a pound.

Potatoes held at $2.25 to $2.50 per bag, the tendency being slightly stronger than on Thursday. Cider sold for a quarter a gallon, the supply being smaller than usual.

The prices on the smaller lines of produce follow: cauliflower, 30c; onions, $1.00 per peck; carrots, 40c per peck; cabbage, 55, 13c; 15c ea.; celery, 10 to 15c per bunch; sage and savory, 5c.

A number of ducks were offered at $1.20 each. Honey was quoted at 15 to 20c per pound.

Hogs were held at $9 to $9.25 per hundredweight. Meats remain unchanged.

The apple market is stationary with no changes in the quotations at one dollar per bushel.

Grains were unchanged at the following prices: Wheat, $1.25; oats, 50c; buckwheat, 80c; barley, 75c. Light hides are a little tempered in price at 3 to 4c.

POLICE HALT A REVOLUTION

Reason for Such Unprecedented Preparations for London Demonstration

COMMANDER THE TUBES Unemployed Given Hints by Leaders Concerning a Probable Battle

LONDON, Oct. 15.—Information obtained by police emissaries several weeks ago that noon Thursday had been fixed for the beginning of a "revolution" under the Communist banner accounted for the unprecedented preparations for dealing with any emergency by Scotland Yard, it was learned today.

After what The Daily Herald, the Laborite organ, terms "the battle of Piccadilly", when hundreds of mounted and foot police charged into the crowds of unemployed demonstrators and bruised a few heads, all was quiet today. There were only a few riders in Trafalgar Square, which was rimmed by hundreds of police.

Scotland Yard authorities expressed the belief that there is little danger of an early recurrence of such scenes. After the clash with the police in Shaftesbury avenue a number of iron bars with sharpened ends, made into a form of pocket weapon, many bits of lead and other missiles were found on the pavement and inside of shops, where windows were smashed.

HAIRCUTS TAKE A 30 P.C. DROP

Peterboro Barbers Who Had Been Accepting 50 Cents Come Down to 40 "CUT COST OF LIVING"

Barbers Say Their Costs are Still on the Upward Climb—Shaves Still 20c (From the Peterboro Examiner)

Every barber in the city except one, who is a non-union man, and reduced his prices some time ago to 35 cents, reduced the price of haircuts to 40 cents today. Since April 2, 1920, haircuts have been 50 cents, and this is the first reduction made in seven years. Shaves are not reduced and will remain at 20 cents.

The reduction is made following three meetings of the barbers last week. It is understood there was considerable opposition to the reduction by some barbers, but the majority prevailed and the decision to reduce haircuts to 40 cents finally received the unanimous approval of the tonsorial artists.

"We are doing our best to help reduce the cost of living. We cannot afford to cut the price of haircuts; rents are going up instead of down, wages are not reduced, but the cut has been made as our contribution to bring prices down," said one of the city's prominent barbers today in announcing the cut.

The barbers expect the reduction to have a rejuvenating effect on the barber trade. Practically every one complains of poor business. "If other business is good, the barber business is too," explained a local barber.

When the Examiner asked several barbers if shaves would be reduced they held up their hands in horror. "Do you want us to starve?" exclaimed one. "We've been pretty nearly as it is. We certainly can't afford to cut shaves."

Extras are the profit-makers in the barbering business, and with so many men out of work, this paying end of the trade has fallen off. While every barber speaks of the trade having fallen upon evil days, there is some consolation in the fact they have a clientele now undreamed of in ante bellum days, due to the popularity of the "bob" and "bang."

FAMINE RELIEF $5. PER HEAD

Total Cost for Six Months' Rations Would be About $50,000,000

FODDER ALSO SCARCE Head of the U. S. Relief in Russia Discusses Sufferers' Needs

MOSCOW, Oct. 18.—"Rations for 5,000,000 people for six months will be sufficient to save all the lives endangered by the Russian famine," Col. William Haskell, head of the U. S. Relief Administration in Russia, said today upon his return from an inspection trip in the Volga region.

"The total cost of relieving the famine," he continued, "will be about $50,000,000 or about $5 for each person for the entire famine period. Five million pounds of food a day under our ration will be needed."

"Discounting possible exaggeration, there are about 15,000,000 Russians facing starvation, but they are not all without food, so that, judging from past experience, we believe our figures are correct. Conditions grow worse the further one gets from the lines of communications.

Some of the Ural Mountain villages are six weeks from a railroad and can only be reached by wagon and then by pack horse. The scarcity of fodder makes transportation by this method more than usually difficult.

"The question of adult feeding is an important problem and if it is undertaken by the United States cereals are essential. Cattle are being killed in large numbers because of the lack of fodder, so that there is enough fat."

Harry Ward, who was arrested in Coburg and taken back to Peterboro for trial charged with the theft of a car and $107 in cash, was sentenced to one year at Barwash on each charge.

EMPLOYMENT IS TOPIC IN COUNCIL

Mayor Has Undertaken to Attempt to Keep Work for Local Men

ROUTINE MATTERS UP

Aldermen Say Bell Telephone Rate Increases Should be Fought

Mayor Hanna told the City Council last night that he expected shortly a program of work in this section by the government which would relieve the unemployment situation.

Ald. Ballinger was told by Ald. Treverton that the bridge cave-in on Hambly street had not been yet repaired.

It was said by Ald. Treverton that the roads were too soft to put the steam roller over to reach McDonald Avenue, where repairs are necessary and in which the council of Thurlow would assist.

Ald. Adams moved, seconded by Ald. Wensley that the Belleville Chamber of Commerce be granted the usual remission of taxes on the C. of C. Building.

President J. Bone addressed the council explaining that the Chamber paid $75 per month and taxes. The matter was laid over for another meeting.

Council decided to call for applications for assistant assessor for a term of four months.

The Tiger Tire Company complained of the condition of Moira Street, west between Yeomans street and the city limits on the way to the works.

Ald. Treverton—"The work is completed with the exception of one or two loads of material.

The proposed increase in the Bell Telephone rates was brought to the attention of the council by the Union of Canadian Municipalities.

Alderman—"We should do everything in our power to stop the increase."

Council will take this up. Lights were authorized to be placed on King, James and Alexander streets.

The members present were: Mayor Hanna, Ald. Treverton, Bennett, Fisher, Woodley, Ballanger, Wensley and Adams.

PROHIBITION IS CONSTITUTIONAL

Judgment Handed Down at Ottawa Upholds Law as Recently Amended

OTTAWA, Oct. 18.—The appeal of Gold Seal, Limited, vs. the Dominion Express Company has been dismissed by the Supreme Court in a judgment handed out today.

Mr. Justice Ingdon dissented. The costs of the appellant were ordered to be paid by the Dominion Express.

According to legal lights, but for the legislation passed toward the close of the last session providing against possible defects in the Canada Temperance Act, the appeal would have been successful. The judgment means that prohibition under the Canada Temperance Act is constitutional.

PUBLIC LAVATORIES READY BY SATURDAY

Saturday will see the completion of the public lavatories at the southwest corner of the city hall. These accommodations will be much appreciated and have been needed for a long time. Their lack is one of the things in which the city has been very backward.

Ald. French has had the construction of these rooms in charge of the department of market and city property and is to be congratulated on seeing the work carried through. The appointments include washrooms, one for men and the other for ladies. The entrances are constructed so that it will be possible to erect coverings over the stairways for the winter months.

The work has been done with a view to permanency.

TORONTO BANDITS ESCAPE IN MOTOR WITH BANK'S MONEY

TORONTO, Oct. 18.—Five or six men armed and masked entered the Bank of Hamilton branch at the corner of Ossington Ave. and College streets here at noon today, compelled all men and women employees to lie on the floor, rifled various cages and vaults and got away in a high powered motor car.

Peevish, pale, restless and sickly children owe their condition to worms. Mother Graves' Worm Expeller will relieve them and restore health.

CRIPPLED WITH RHEUMATISM

Then She Took "FRUIT-A-LIVES" And Has Been Well Ever Since

MADAM SLOAT

FRENCH JUNCTION, N.B., Jan. 22nd, 1920 "For many years, I was a great sufferer from Indigestion, Constipation and Rheumatism. My stomach was weak and gave me constant distress, while Rheumatism in my joints made me almost a cripple. I was treated by two different doctors but their medicine did me no good.

Then I tried "Fruit-a-lives" and at once that fruit medicine helped me. Soon the Constipation and Indigestion were relieved and the Rheumatism began to go away, and in a few months entirely disappeared. For twelve years now, my health has been first class, and I attribute it to the use of "Fruit-a-lives" which I take regularly."

Mrs. CLARA SLOAT, 50c a box, 8 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At Dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

NEW COMPANY TO MAKE MATCHES

British and Canadian Capitalists Form New Canadian Match Company

PEMBROKE IS WINNER That Town Will be Location of Concern's First Big Factory in Dominion

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The Maguire Patterson and Palmer Company of Canada, which manufactures matches in England, Ireland and Canada, and the Diamond Match Company of the United States, together with Bryant and May, Limited, of Great Britain, and the British Colonies, have joined with prominent Canadian capitalists and matchmakers in the foundation of a new Canadian match company.

Sir Alexander Maguire, chairman of Maguire, Patterson and Palmer, now engaged in extensive lumber operations at Pembroke, Ont., would be the location of the company's first match factory.

"The new company," said Sir Alexander, "will be thoroughly Canadian in its spirit and augmented by the experience and backing of the world's greatest match manufacturers, will prove to be a prominent acquisition to the Canadian industry."

The Diamond Match Company, it was stated, would give the new company the benefit of its experience, processes and machinery.

THRESHING ENDS WITH THIS WEEK

Continuance of Good Weather All That is Needed in the West

POOR CROP IN SOUTH Saskatchewan Farmers on Border in Hard Plight From Drop in Wheat Price

WINNIPEG, Oct. 18.—With a continuance of the good weather which has prevailed throughout the west during the past week, all threshing in the three Prairie provinces should be completed at the end of the present week, states the Crop Report issued by the Canadian Pacific Railway today. All Fall work is proceeding with many sections reporting from 30 to 70 per cent. of the plowing finished. Many farmers, the report states, are holding their grain in storage owing to the low prices paid at the present time.

In Manitoba very little threshing remains to be done, and the next two or three days should see its completion. From sixty to seventy per cent. of the Fall plowing has been completed in this province and it is likely that the acreage plowed this fall will be much greater than last year.

Saskatchewan farmers require a week of good weather to finish up threshing. The drop in wheat prices has worked a hardship in the light crop districts in the southern portion of the province and combined with the poor grades being realized as the result of the wet weather, there will be little or nothing in return for the season's efforts.

IN MEMORIAM

LONGDEN—In loving memory of my dear son, Charles Joseph Longden, who passed away Oct. 15th, 1918.

Rest on, dear son, thy labor is o'er; Thy willing hands will toil no more. A faithful son, a father kind, No friend on earth-like thee we find. Three years have passed since that sad day

When you, dear son, were called away— Deeper to memory than words can tell. Are the thoughts of him we loved so well. The world may change from year to year,

Our friends from day to day, But never will the one we love From memory pass away. Sadly missed by his loving mother, wife, and children Evaline and Ernest.

MOTOR CAR TURNS TURTLE

Party of Shamonsville People Had Narrow Escape

Mr. Reuben Fringle and party of Shamonsville had a very narrow escape from serious injury on Saturday evening about seven o'clock when their motor turned turtle on the Provincial Highway—just east of the hospital. Among the passengers were several ladies and a child, but all escaped harm. No explanation is given of the accident.

RETURNS TO BIRTHPLACE

Mr. S. Hooley Buys Home in Cobourg Where he Will Live

Trenton—It is learned that Mr. Stuart Hooley, Trenton, recently purchased a residence in Cobourg and it is understood it is his intention to shortly make his home in Cobourg which is the place where he was born. Mr. Hooley went to Belleville in 1876, where he engaged in business until 1888 when he moved to Trenton and until 1914 conducted a large grocery business there, having in 1886 built the fine Hooley block on Dundas street, which he sold to W. C. Saylor in 1916. Mr. Hooley has been residing in Toronto since his removal from Trenton and returns to Cobourg after an absence of forty-five years. His brother is this year mayor of Cobourg.

COUNCIL WANTS IT UNANIMOUS

Property Owners Make Application to Railway Board Respecting Undertaking

COUNCIL HEARS OF IT

Mayor Hanna Takes Steps to Get Dept. of Labor to Finance One-Third

Col. W. N. Ponton, A. E. Peterson and Gordon Peterson have made application to the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board to stop the proposed work on the sewer to Albert College along Dundas street west.

Their objections are: That there are on the south side of the road but three houses, two of them small roughcast cottages, the lots are narrow and the banks precipitous and not well adapted for building purposes, that the cutting would be through solid rock, the cost practically amounting to confiscation, that the charge should not be by linear measurement, because the benefit would accrue to Albert College and other buildings on the north and that it would not have been proposed or thought possible were it not for the cry of unemployment as Albert College buildings will not be ready for some time to come; that the Council was alleged to have exceeded its appropriation.

They petition "that the said work may not be proceeded with as not being necessary or advisable at the present time, or in the alternative, that the cost thereof should be so apportioned as to relieve your petitioners from any undue burden thereof and that such apportionment should be made by the engineers of your honorable body and not by the City of Belleville; that such further or other relief as your honorable board may seem just and equitable be granted to your petitioners on the premises pursuant to the statutes on that behalf."

Col. Ponton in a communication says: "The owners of the land south of Dundas street affected by the proposed sewer, notice paragraphs in the local press that their appeal to the Railway Board (called an injunction) has delayed action on the sewer. The responsibility is not ours. The work can proceed tomorrow if those for whose benefit the sewer is created and whom alone it will benefit will undertake to pay for same. We also call your attention to the fact that the Government (Department of Labor) have undertaken to pay one-third of all municipal work undertaken for the benefit of the unemployed, if this be the object. The City Council, we venture to suggest, should secure this for the citizens."

In answer to Ald. Woodley, City Clerk Holmes said that only two had refused to sign the petition for the sewer and that over half the assessment was represented on the petition.

Ald. Woodley—If Col. Ponton's property is not benefited by the sewer he will not have to pay. That is the law.

Messrs. Ponton & Ponton drew attention in a communication to the fact that the Government would pay one-third of the cost of all public work undertaken to relieve unemployment.

It was said Mayor Hanna had already taken steps in the matter of securing aid from Ottawa.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrup. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep.

MDIARMID TELLS STORY OF PIPES AND IRISH COPS

Sent to Arrest Piper by Irate Neighbor He Made Scotty Play Again

SOME BELLEVILLE NEWS Los Angeles Writer Likes to Review Old Days in City by the Bay

Los Angeles, Oct. 8, 1921 California was originally settled by the Spaniards and Spanish customs continue to this day. It is especially noticed in music. The guitar is the most popular of all instruments in the Southland. String music is preferred to the harsher notes of the brass and silver horns that made the Oddfellows band so famous. All nationalities have their brand of music but the Scotch are in a class by themselves. The bagpipes may be considered a musical instrument but the majority of people won't believe it. They produce stirring sounds and no one can be kept still when the piper plays. The performer must keep walking. It is said that the early players had to do it to keep away from the rocks that were hurled at them. Some say that the music is better the farther away it is. There are others who are mean enough to say it can't be too far away.

Los Angeles threatened to be torn asunder by a "Bill McIntosh," who had settled in our midst and got in a duel with a boy who plays the saxophone. A saxophone is a sad sort of instrument unless it is played like a Soloist Brickman of the Oddfellows band used to play it. It is no cheerful music when operated on by an amateur. The trouble in Los Angeles started with the boy and the saxophone and the bagpipes were used to discourage him. The scene was two apartment houses in the south end of the city. The boy used all his spare time from school in tooting the pipe-shaped horn. He kept the neighbors from going to sleep at night and he woke them up in the morning when they wanted to sleep. The saxophone notes are somewhat the same as a busky throated goat. The boy lived in an apartment house that was separated only by a narrow court from the other one where the dodesst Scot resided with the bagpipes that he never played.

A few evenings ago the boy was learning to be a great musician as the expense of the neighborhood when "Bill" cut loose with the pipes. An earthquake would not have made half the commotion. Windows were rung up to see Gabriel with his trumpet announcing the end of the world. One tenant, who was the first to get wise, yelled "Hurrah for Scotland!" Then a voice rang out, "Three cheers for the kid."

Of course every father is proud of his son and the boy's father next morning made himself heard. The saxophone had been silent for its operator had no power to toot a note after the machine gun fire of the pipes started.

"Stop that racket, stop it, I say, or I'll call the police, he yelled at the top of his voice. It made no impression for "Bill" was walking up and down the length of the apartment playing "It's Nice to Get up in the Morning but it's nicer to Lie A-bed." The wind of the bag of pipes had just escaped when a wagon load of police arrived in answer to a riot call.

It may have been different if the sergeant of the corps of Los Angeles bravest had not been an Irishman from the "old sod." When he got the particulars from the delighted tenants he made "Bill" play another bunch of tunes. He also told the father of the musician boy that he was lucky he didn't have the heart to arrest him. The idea of not being able to appreciate good music when he heard it. The father was still protesting when the police went away. He shouted: "I'll have the law on him." The sergeant shot back, "Don't go to Judge McPherson or he will send you to the home for the feeble-minded. The boy plays no more and it is likely the moving van will soon back up to the apartment and take them away from the noisy Scotchman."

Former President Wilson said in unveiling a monument to an Irish General who fought in the Civil war: "He came from Ireland and brought his heart with him." No one would ever know that "Ned" La Roche was French for he came to Belleville and brought his heart with him. Any one who knows him knows it is a tall man's size. He has been a Belleville booster always and took great interest in its growth and development. Few know that gambling of any kind is abhorrent to him and the story of how he and "Bill" Biggar nipped a scheme in the embryo will be recalled. One day not many years ago, a slick-tongued American walked into the Balmoral and engaged Chief Jenkins in a general conversation. He was slick for the chief came from Massachusetts a long time ago, and no one ever sold him a gold brick and got to the door without help. Well, the stranger had a machine called "The Owl" after the wise bird. You stood it in a corner and fed nickels into it. It was an honest machine for it you plucked out the red or the black it paid you two nickels. He said it was not a gambling machine but a game of chance. That is what impressed Chief Jenkins, he always said he would take one chance. Shortly after its installation Messrs La Roche and Biggar dropped in to get a donation for the Massachusetts Indians and they saw the machine. "That looks like a gambling machine to me," said Mr. La Roche.

"No, that's a game of chance," replied Chief Jenkins, "that's what the man said that I rented it from."

The story is short. The two went to the machine, fed a few nickels into it, played the red, black, yellow and green and emptied it. They broke the bank. The next evening they repeated the performance. For a couple of evenings it rained nickels and then Owl departed. It flew away. Chief Jenkins said he did not believe in keeping a cow that gave no milk. Mr. La Roche said that if you gambled with machines or with nickels it was all the same and he believed in discouraging it at the start. That is why gambling has never flourished in the city by the bay.

Magistrate Finds Keith Harold Biggs Guilty of Attempt to Defraud

BOUGHT TIRE CASINGS Involved When he Attempted to Dispose of Them Not Having Paid Dealer

Keith Harold Biggs would not admit an attempt to defraud, when arraigned in police court today. He was charged with having between October 3rd and 18th, unlawfully, with intent to commit fraud, secured from J. T. Warren five tire casings and two inner tubes, by representing himself the owner of a Ford automobile, whereas, in fact, he was not, according to the charge, the owner of such a motor, thereby committing an offence under Section 405 of the Criminal Code.

Biggs denied intent to defraud, but admitted not having owned a motor and getting the tires and selling them for less than he agreed to pay for them. He said he had got the tires on terms of three payments, the first of which fell due tomorrow, and that he could meet the obligations if he had a chance.

"That's not the question here," said Mr. Masson. "You are charged with having represented yourself as the owner of a Ford automobile, whereas you were not."

Biggs was found guilty and the case was remanded for a month for judgment and sentence.

WELLINGTON

Rev. J. U. Robbins was at Millford, on Sunday, conducting anniversary services, and Mr. Duetta from Millford preached at Wellington Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. William Reynolds and daughter, of Caniffon, visited Mr. and Mrs. Ben Burley recently, and they all took a motor trip to Huycke's Point.

Mr. M. R. Ainsworth of Indianapolis is visiting his cousin, D. S. Ainsworth.

One of the presents to Mrs. Samuel Saylor on the occasion of the golden wedding was a broom made that day by Cory Cronk. It had a card attached with these words on it: "Across the road from where you were born. Grew a plot of very tall brown corn."

Your cousin Cory at eighty-six Has bound together some of these sticks. Each stick a wish that you may see, Fifty years more of felicity."

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pearson, of Watertown, N. Y., have been visiting Mrs. Claude Smith and return to their home this week.

Miss Gean McGill, of Toronto, who has been in Canada eight years, has recently returned from a visit to her homeland, Scotland, and came to spend a few days with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. David Murray.

Garratt Cronk, who has been employed on a lake boat during the summer, is now back home again.

After the downpour of rain during the week, people are expecting to find water in the wells that ran dry in the summer heat. One, or two wells held out good, particularly that at Joe Stewart's, as a great number of people, east part of the village, got all their drinking water there.

On Monday, October 10, the household of Wallace Garratt had a neighbor family in for tea and they celebrated a double event, the tenth anniversary of their marriage day, and the eighth birthday of their son, John.

Born to Mrs. Orval Forshay a son on October 3rd.

The remains of Walter Wannemaker, of Ameliasburg, brother of Mrs. H. P. Benson, were brought to Wellington cemetery for interment on Friday, 7th.

The Friends Minister here received an interesting letter this week from Frederick von De Hougden Skobonoff, the Russian Doukhorob, who created such an impression by his powerful preaching in Wellington and Bloomfield last February. The Russian preacher has apparently been kept busy in recent months, settling the affairs of his people, and being engaged in evangelistic service in the States. He says that most of his people, the Doukhorob, have gone to a picturesque country, near the Gulf of Mexico. Frederick returned to America where he has been having revival meetings. The letter was written at Tracey, Iowa, date, October 6th.

NO TICKETS; TEN DAYS. Harry Lawton and Michael Hanivan were taken in charge by G. T. R. GREAT GUESSERS IN NOVA SCOTIA

They Have Managed to be on the Winning Side in Elections Each Time

FIGURES TELL THE TALE

New Brunswick Has Been "Wrong" Once or Twice Since Confederation

HALIFAX, Oct. 15 (By Canadian Press).—Generally as Nova Scotia has voted in general elections so has the country as a whole voted. On only one occasion, that of the first general election in 1867 when resentment against Confederation dominated the political situation in the east, has Nova Scotia returned a majority of its members in opposition to the government of the day. Of the remaining twelve general elections Canada's easternmost province sent back a majority in support of the government on ten occasions and in the "doubtful years" of 1886 and 1911, when governments were overthrown, recorded the changing sentiment of the country by declining to commit herself either one way or the other and returning an equal number of Liberals and Conservatives.

1832 Liberals, 107 Conservatives. Disregarding the election of 1917, when a number of Liberals, pledged to support the Dominion Government of Sir Robert Borden were elected, Nova Scotia has returned a total of 132 Liberals and 107 Conservatives to Parliament since Confederation in 1867. The Liberals carried a majority of the seats in five general elections, those of 1867, 1874, 1901 and 1908, and the Conservatives a majority in like number, those of 1872, 1878, 1882, 1888, 1891. In the general elections of 1886 and 1911 there was an even split as between the two parties. The Conservative high water mark was reached in 1882, when the government of the day carried fifteen seats of a total of twenty-one, and the Liberals piled up their greatest majority in 1904 when they made a clean sweep of the eighteen seats filled by Nova Scotia in that year. The figures for Nova Scotia are as follows:

Table with 4 columns: Year, Con. Lib., Year, Con. Lib. showing election results from 1867 to 1911.

New Brunswick's record from 1867 to 1911 inclusive shows that in all seventy-nine Conservative were returned to Ottawa as against eighty-nine Liberals, the Liberals securing a majority of the seats in nine general elections, those of 1867, 1872, 1874, 1878, 1901, 1904, 1908, and 1911, and the Conservatives securing a majority of the seats in three general elections, those of 1882, 1888 and 1891. The largest majority of the seats won by the Conservatives was in 1891 when the Government of Sir John A. MacDonald took thirteen of the sixteen ridings contested on that occasion, and the largest majority of seats won by the Liberals was in 1908 when Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Government came out of New Brunswick with eleven seats to their credit as against two won by the Conservatives.

FOXBORO

Mr. and Mrs. James Stuart and family and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoard were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Davis.

Quite a number from this vicinity attended the tea meeting at Scott's Church on Monday night.

Mrs. Wilmet Ross with baby Doris spent Wednesday visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Davis.

AGED MAN LIVES ALONE

He Refused to Enter House of Providence—Limbs Deformed

Kingston—One of the landmarks of Wolfe Island is John Wall, who resides alone in a hut at Brophy's Point. This aged man is now reported to be well on to ninety years of age. He is incapacitated by a deformity of the legs, and although his ability to work is much impeded, he has many friends among the farmers residing in the vicinity. The House of Providence has offered to give him a home, but he has declined to leave his old haunts. Now, however, there is a likelihood of representations being made to the reeve of the municipality with a view to having him placed where he will be well cared for. His advanced age and infirmity demand special attention.

Dr. and Mrs. G. F. Gibson returned early in the week from a visit with friends in Concession.

Mr. Edward Hawkins, who has been for some months employed on a freighter plying between lake ports from Fort William to Port Colborne, was called home owing to the illness of his father, Mr. Chas. Hawkins.

Mrs. S. A. Little and Mrs. Portland Benson started Tuesday for the Pacific coast. Mrs. Little will visit her daughter at Portland, Oregon, before returning to her home in California, but Mrs. Benson goes direct to Redondo Beach, near Los Angeles, where she will spend the winter in their little Bungalow at 521 South Elens Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Rose of Pasadena, Cal., with their sons, Mr. Ted and Mr. Douglas Rose, and Miss Lois Davies are visiting Mrs. Mary Rose, Prospect Ave. They came by motor, Miss Elizabeth Rose accompanying them as far as New York where she remained to attend college. Mr. Ted Rose will stop off at Boston on the return trip to take up his third year in electrical engineering. In coming to town the party covered 6000 miles journeying by way of the southern states and in north through Maine and Quebec.

CARMEL

Rev. Wallace Sidney, occupied the pulpit in the absence of the Pastor on Sunday.

Mrs. E. Pitman spent a few days with friends in Belleville last week.

UNITED STATES WORRIED BECAUSE PARLEY MAY FAIL

Striving to Make Disarmament Conference go Well Despite Difficulties

JAPAN HOLDS WHIP HAND

Is U. S. to go Through With Nippon What Britain Did With Germany

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—(By Canadian Press)—With conferences beginning among the United States delegates to the arms limitation conference and with the advance guard from other nations beginning to arrive for the conference, speculation as to its outcome is heard everywhere. Talk over the prospects is the great subject in Congressional, official and diplomatic quarters and beyond a doubt the U.S. public is more keenly interested in the results of the conference today than in any other subject unless it be reduction of taxes, combined with the outlook for overcoming the depression in business.

On the whole, there is much hopefulness here as the time draws closer for the conference to begin. It is a mistake, however, to regard the official expressions of optimism as set forth what the real leaders of thought in official and Congressional circles conceive to be the truth.

What if Parley Fails? There can be no doubt of the sincerest desire of the Harding administration, Secretary of State Hughes and the U.S. delegates in general to make the conference a success. The question which is coming more and more to be discussed frankly here, in an informal way, is what will be the result if the conference fails—if the far eastern problems do not yield to treaty and if the effort to reach agreements to reduce armaments comes to nothing.

Apprehension here is real that if the conference does not succeed the situation will be worse than it is now and that after the conference is over there will be danger of drifting into another great war. Almost unthinkable as another conflict may be, there is a curious precedent for what is apprehended in this instance provided the conference fails. One has only to recall that in the years just preceding 1914, in Europe, Great Britain made real and sincere effort to get Germany to stop in the building up of armaments at sea. Germany repeatedly refused to listen seriously to proposals for halting or reducing armaments, and things grew worse instead of better.

A prominent London journalist who has just arrived to attend the conference commented on the British experience with Germany and very frankly wondered whether in the present instance the United States was to go through with Japan much the same experience Britain did with Germany. He pointed out that there was a hopeful sign in the fact that public sentiment in Japan is evidently a great deal stronger in favoring reduced armaments than it ever was in Germany before 1914. He saw in this the possibility of beneficial results coming from the conference.

Added Tax Burden. The very fact that not only the United States delegates but the delegates of other powers cannot fail to recognize that failure to agree at the conference would mean a new era of unenvied preparation and that it would spell added tax burdens for the different nations is certain to be a powerful force at the conference. It may prove sufficiently powerful to overcome the grave obstacles which none can fail to perceive ahead of the arms limitations meeting.

DEATH OF MRS. JOHNSON

Eliza Jane Johnson, widow of the late John Johnson, died today. She was born in Hope township in the year 1835, being a daughter of the late James Mulvey. Her husband had been dead for thirty-eight years. For the past eight years she had lived here at 11 Charlotte street.

The late Mrs. Johnson was for many years a resident in Murray township near the village of Stockdale and was an active worker of the Methodist Church of that village. Mourning her loss are two sons, Wm. of Rochester, and Jerome of Fort William, and three daughters, Mrs. Lucia Phillips, Miss Olive and Mrs. Jean Brown, of Virginia, Minn.

THEY EACH PAID $100.

Three men were today fined one hundred dollars and costs for drinking in a public place, a restaurant, and ten and costs for intoxication. They paid up.

CAID OF THANKS.

Mr. and Mrs. Noble, Brown and family wish to thank their many friends and neighbors for their kindness shown in their bereavement.

SEPT. TRADE VALUE OF CANADA SHOWS DECLINE

DROP HALF A BILLION

Past Six Months Compared With Corresponding Period Last Year

OTTAWA, Oct. 15.—During September, as compared with September a year ago, the total value of Canadian trade declined over ninety-two millions of dollars.

For the six months ending September, in comparison with the corresponding period of the previous year, the decline was over half a billion dollars.

For the month of September in the two years the figures are:

Table with 2 columns: Sept. 1920, Sept. 1921. Rows for Merchandise entered for consumption, Merchandise domestic, Merchandise foreign, Grand total.

Thus, as compared with September of 1920, last month showed a reduction in total Canadian trade of $92,213,531.

For the six months ending September, 1921, total trade $721,626,839 in comparison with $1,274,878,502 during the corresponding six months of 1920 or a decline of $553,251,663.

Under the head of domestic exports, wood, wood products, paper and manufactures thereof, dropped during September, as compared with September, 1920, from $30,694,355 to $15,974,941; animals and animal products from $20,387,261 to $13,326,832; iron and steel and manufactures lower from $6,811,264 to $1,199,105. Agricultural and vegetable products other than foods from $2,248,587 to $960,536 non-metallic minerals, and products from $2,890,640 to $1,638,966.

DUTIABLE IMPORTS DROP.

During the same months also, as compared with September of the year previous, dutiable imports of agricultural and vegetable products, mainly foods, dropped from $10,059,877 to $6,959,828; free imports of the same class from $2,268,819, to $1,775,600; animal and vegetable products, other than foods; dutiable from $2,734,442 to $1,873,454; free, from $4,009,546 to $2,444,040; dutiable fibres, textiles and textile products from $18,352,961 to $7,893,894; iron and steel and manufactures thereof dutiable, from $19,966,251 to $7,099,765; non-metallic minerals and products dutiable from $13,629,063 to $6,084,800.

Teamster Who Had Cart on New Park Site in Court and Gets Warning

Charged with driving a cart through the old dumping ground at the junction of the Cannifon road and Station street, after notices had been put up prohibiting the use of the grounds, a teamster faced Magistrate Masson in police court today.

The defendant admitted having been on the grounds, and was discharged with a warning.

If any more charges are prosecuted, it is evident the offenders will be severely dealt with. It is the intention of the Parks Department to work over these grounds into a park next spring.

Huns and Poles Squaring Away For Fight—May Reconsider After Threat

BERLIN, Oct. 15.—The Inter-Allied Commission in Oppeln, Upper Silesia, has again warned German and Polish factions in Silesia that force will promptly be used to suppress disorders. A state of siege has been declared in the Butcher district, where the Germans have been demonstrating. Renewed agitation has started in Upper Silesia for a general strike in protest against the decision of the Council of the League of Nations. Great crowds of Germans are taking their household goods and belongings and fleeing from the Koengshuetze, Myhlowitz and Kattowitz, fearing a clash over the partition of the region.

34TH BTY. WINS PRIZE

Further announcements respecting artillery competitions for Field, Heavy and Siege Batteries for whole of Canada, made public today, show that out of all the units competing (well over 100) the 34th Battery C.F.A., Belleville, Major R. J. E. Graham, O.C., took fifth place in the Hurdman competition for efficiency of personnel. There were eight prizes in all. The 34th Battery, Charlottetown, won first place.

MEIGHEN, KING, MET IN MONCTON

Spent Morning in N. B. City; Then Both Proceeded With Campaigning

PREMIER FOR OTTAWA

Liberal Leader Will Not Come West Until Middle of Next Week

MONCTON, N.B., Oct. 15.—For the first time in their tour of the Maritime provinces, the two party leaders, Hon. Arthur Meighen, the Prime Minister, and Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, leader of the Liberal party, came together at Moncton yesterday.

The Premier and his party had returned from St. John en route to Chatham and New Castle, while Mr. King and his party had not yet left Moncton for Essex when the Premier's car pulled in.

They were both in the city practically the whole morning. The Premier's train left at two o'clock, and that of the Liberal leader at 2.30.

The only other occasion in which the two leaders came together was at a siding named Paradise, in Nova Scotia, when the Premier was hurrying along to his meeting at Digby while Mr. King was en route from Digby to Kentville.

Those accompanying the Prime Minister are Mrs. Meighen and Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, Minister of Customs and Excise. With Mr. King are Ernest Lapointe, ex-M.P., Quebec East, and Major C. G. Power, of Quebec South. Premier Foster is also expected to accompany the Liberal leader to Sussex and St. John. The Prime Minister returns to Ottawa tonight at midnight, while Mr. King will not arrive there before Wednesday of next week.

ONE MAN KILLED

FIVE MORE HURT IN PETERBORO TRAGEDY

PETERBORO, Oct. 15.—Henry Harvey, Toronto, Inspector for the Nova Scotia Power Commission, is dead and five others are injured, one seriously, as a result of the explosion of a generator in the plant of the Canadian General Electric Co. here at noon yesterday.

The generator, a 1,600 K.V.A. machine being built for the Nova Scotia Power Commission, was being tested at high speed, when a casing gave way. Pieces of the broken generator were hurled in all directions with great velocity, one penetrating a brick wall four inches thick and leaving a hole about five feet in diameter.

CRERAR ISSUES HIS MANIFESTO TO THE COUNTRY.

Supreme Issue Not the Tariff But What of Government There'll Be

DEVELOP NATURAL RICHES Revenue Got From Taxation From Those Able to Pay, Says Progressive Leader

WINNIPEG, Man., Oct. 17 (By Canadian Press)—Hon. T. A. Crerar, leader of the National Progressive party, today issued an address "To the People of Canada" dealing with the issues of the present general election campaign.

"The tariff is an issue, a very important issue," says Mr. Crerar, "but the supreme issue today is whether our government is to be free or fettered, and whether legislation in the future shall be for the few or the many."

The policy of the Progressives, it is stated, is frankly based on the principle of first developing the natural wealth of the country, and if the industries based on agriculture, mines and forests were thriving and prosperous it is held that the manufacturing industries would share in the expansion.

"Our goal," states Mr. Crerar, "is the ultimate elimination of the principle of protection in our fiscal policy. But we recognize that changes must be brought about in a manner that will give a fair opportunity to Canadian industries now enjoying protection to adjust themselves to them."

The address discusses the general question of good government, the significance of the Progressive movement, the financing of elections, the railway problem, immigration and colonization, and other issues of the contest.

New Political Movement. Mr. Crerar says: "In this election a new party makes its appeal to the Canadian people. It began in a humble way among the agricultural portion of our people. Every aspiration for purer government, every protest against public wrong in high places, has its origin in small beginnings.

What then are our proposals? Our goal is the ultimate elimination of the principle of protection in our fiscal policy. But we recognize that changes must be brought about in a manner that will give a fair opportunity to Canadian industries now enjoying protection to adjust themselves to them.

But our opponents say: "If you do this, where will you get the revenue to run the country?" Let us look at this thing squarely. A tariff that is put on goods for protective purposes is not intended primarily to produce revenue.

"The Progressive movement recognizes that while we need a new moral atmosphere in politics, any government has to meet vast problems of practical administration. A new government, then, must bring to its work not only a measure of ideals but as well sound practical business judgment, and high administrative capacity.

UNITY IS TOPIC AT CONVENTION OF VETERANS

Emphasis in President Maxwell's Speech is on the Need for one Association

KEEP CLEAR OF POLITICS Cause of Widows, Orphans, and Luckless ex-Service Men Lost Unless Free

PORT ARTHUR, Oct. 17.—At a conference which lasted until two-thirty this morning, between representatives of ex-service men's organizations, it was decided to adopt three clauses as a basis for unification of all the organized veterans in Canada.

It was resolved that governing bodies of the organizations represented be requested to render their earliest possible decision as to whether unity desired should be attempted by:

(a) Amalgamation and affiliations. (b) A federation as may be mutually agreed upon with a view to amalgamation and affiliation.

In his presidential address here today R. B. Maxwell made an appeal to all ex-service men to make a study of the economic system and to discard all antiquated and musty theories.

Mr. Maxwell's address throughout was an argument for sane and constitutional progress based on constructive lines. The law of the jungle, he said, must not be permitted to prevail against human thought.

Mr. Maxwell declared that the Dominion Command of the G.W.V.A. had promulgated a scheme which was constructive in every sense of the word. This scheme was practically assured of parliamentary support, but was impossible of realization owing to the fact that money was not available.

Only one reference to the political situation was made during the address and that was when Mr. Maxwell declared that G.W.V.A. would strenuously oppose any system of national retrenchment, advocated by any party seeking election, until that party gave sufficient assurances that the retrenchment would not affect pensions or any regulation in force for the benefit of ex-service men or their dependents.

The unemployment situation, Mr. Maxwell believed, would become worse instead of better. Ex-service men had suffered more from lack of employment than others. Mr. Maxwell had stated in 1917 that the men who fought were going to have pay for it.

But our opponents say: "If you do this, where will you get the revenue to run the country?" Let us look at this thing squarely. A tariff that is put on goods for protective purposes is not intended primarily to produce revenue.

MISS PARKER SERIOUSLY HURT

Hit by Car Belleville Lady Loses Consciousness for Time But Recovers

SOME BETTER TODAY Driver Arrested by Police Officials is Released on Bail—Hearing Later

Miss Josephine Parker, 150 George Street, was seriously injured on Saturday afternoon about five-thirty o'clock when struck by a motor car as she was crossing Pinnacle street near the Corby Public Library.

She was rendered unconscious by the fall but soon became conscious. Today she was somewhat better, after a restless night. She is suffering much from shock, however.

Mr. Harry Dingman, the driver in charge of the motor, was arrested by the police four hours after the accident and was given bail to appear next week in police court.

It is said Mr. Dingman claimed to have sounded the horn at the corner. However, Miss Parker, who was crossing the street, was knocked down and dazed. She was carried into Dr. Connor's surgery but as Dr. Connor was out, she was taken home, where she was attended.

It is not yet certain whether the left leg is fractured or not as the limb is much swollen. There are hopes that there is no break.

The number of the car was secured at the time and it was found that the owner's address was Trenton. After phoning to that town, the local police learned that the owner, the young man's father, now lived in Belleville. This led to the delay in locating the driver.

MAYOR IS SHOWN RICHARDSON BATHS

Mayor Hanna, Alderman Treverton and Capt. W. E. Schuster motored to Kingston on Sunday where they were received by Mayor Nickle who gave his Sunday to entertaining these gentlemen.

The object of their visit was to examine the public baths, and while there Mayor Nickle and Mayor Hanna had a long conversation relative to civic affairs in general.

OTTAWA, Oct. 17.—President A. R. Moher of the Brotherhood of Railway Employees states that the U.S. railway strike would not affect Canadian lines. Canadian locals of international unions would not necessarily have to go on strike.

MORRISTOWN, N.J., Oct. 17.—The volunteer crew of wealthy business men who operated the "millionaire special" on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, bringing commuters to New York during the 1920 railroad strike, are ready again for service. Every man will be at his post if the strike develops.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—More than half a million United States railroad men were Saturday night ordered to initiate a strike on October 30, while other unions whose memberships bring the total to about 2,000,000, announced that the men were preparing to follow suit.

The strike orders were issued to the Big Five Brotherhoods, oldest and most powerful of the railway unions, and they specifically included mail trains in the walkout. Their provisions instructed strikers to keep away from railroad property, with a warning that "violence of any nature will not be tolerated by the organizations."

On Saturday afternoon the women teachers of South Hastings, Belleville and Trenton, met at the Hotel Quinte, where, after a very enjoyable luncheon, Miss Stead, Provincial Organizer of the Women Teachers' Federation, gave a splendid address, setting forth the aims and possibilities of the Association.

The late Mrs. Traill, in her interesting book, "Pearls and Pebbles," gives the derivation of the Indian name, Otonabee, as being "water running swiftly flashing brightly"; Katchewanook was "lake of three islands"; Ontario, "sheet of placid water"; Pemadash-dakota, "lake of the burning plains"; the original name of Rice Lake. She says, "How many years ago it was that these plains were burned over they do not know, but that they were the scene of a great conflagration, the Indian name, as well as the half-charred blackened boots below the surface of the soil, prove. Napanee, that Indian word for flour, indicates that on the site of that now flourishing town the first flour mills in the district were erected." Bowschink means "split water."

RUSSIA A SMILELESS LAND
PLIGHT OF PEOPLE UNDER REDS
EXPOSED BY PRESS CORRESPONDENT

NOTE—The subjoined article giving a graphic description of the gloomy mental attitude of the hungry people of Russia, was written by a staff correspondent of The Associated Press who entered Russia with the American relief workers when the famine opened the doors of that country after they had been closed for more than three years.

The writer not only visited Moscow but penetrated to the famine-stricken districts of Samara and Kazan where the first American food was distributed and whence he sent by cable stirring stories of the scenes he witnessed.

Exuberance and Oratory of the First Year of Bolshevism Have Disappeared—Oil is Only Fuel—Food the Chief End of Men, Women and Children—Live in One Room.

MOSCOW, Sept. 29.—(By a staff correspondent of The Associated Press)—Russia is a smileless land. In more than 2,000 miles of travel on Central Russian railways and rivers the Associated Press correspondent hasn't heard a single hearty laugh. The exuberance and oratory of the first year of Bolshevism have disappeared.

Speakers no longer tell of the proletarian rule from the corner cottages. Red army soldiers no longer jeer at the bourgeoisie, for all have settled down together to the difficult task of getting enough to eat, and persons who have not tried existence in present-day Russia have no conception of how difficult it is to satisfy the most primitive human needs there.

Nearly every man and woman met in Moscow or Petrograd streets today is carrying some sort of food parcel or bargaining with food dealers on the street corners. There is practically no wood and coal is not dreamed of. Oil is the only fuel. Every family has a primus on which the hot water for tea and the simple meals are prepared.

Under the housing system most persons have only one room in which to cook, eat, sleep and do washing. All the talk one hears on the streets is of food. These are famines everywhere that the bread allowance isn't regular and the frequent expression of fears that the famine in the Volga districts will make the bread supply of Central Russia even worse.

Potatoes at 1,000 rubles a pound are the cheapest food on the market, but 1,000 rubles is a small fortune to most of the population and it takes a lot of oil to cook potatoes.

The days of political strife are apparently over. Russians are tired of theoretical politics. The anti-Bolsheviks no longer discuss the government. Paper decrees are shored up unnoticed upon Bolshevists and non-Bolshevists alike. They are too busy in their strife for food and clothing to worry about what is going on in the Kremlin.

Streets without food shops are practically deserted in all the cities. The search for food is at once the work and the recreation of the public. Boulevards are lined with food wagons offering fruit, vegetables, bread and eggs, and the people seem far more interested in these than in the listless pedestrians and the little bands which give occasional evening concerts.

There seems to be no spirit of play left in Russia. Even the children are sad and quiet. Recently many top shops have re-opened. The Soviet government never requisitioned Noah's Arks and Teddy bears, so dealers in that class of goods are unboxing their old stocks and dressing Santa Claus windows.

Few moving picture theatres are open, and those are given over chiefly to government propaganda pictures. The opera season has not yet opened. Dramas are offered in several less important houses. It was in these theatres and in concert halls that the correspondent saw the only persons who seemed to relax and divorce themselves from the gloomy Moscow atmosphere. Moscow newspapers and the news-

GRAIN IN STORE PILING UP FAST
For One Week in Month of October Increase Is 5,563,985 Bushels

MOST OF IT WHEAT
More Than Ten Times as Much American Grain as Last Year

OTTAWA, Oct. 17.—According to returns received at the Dominion Bureau of Statistics the quantity of grain in store at the different elevators throughout Canada has increased by 5,563,985 bushels, made up as follows: Wheat, 4,793,782 bushels; oats, 782,892 bushels; and barley 12,434 bushels. Flax and rye indicate decreases of 177,811 and 140,995 bushels respectively.

In the western country elevators increases are shown in wheat of 3,328,938 bushels; oats 869,265 bushels; barley 680,818 bushels; flax 56,878 bushels, and rye 37,924 bushels. Of the total quantity in store, viz., 17,902,958 bushels, the following were held by the different prairie provinces:

|                 |           |           |
|-----------------|-----------|-----------|
| Sask.           | Alberta   | Man.      |
| Wheat 6,032,755 | 4,610,585 | 1,997,151 |
| Oats 899,373    | 1,787,551 | 411,792   |
| Barley 191,290  | 478,454   | 807,711   |
| Flax 141,840    | 56,271    | 32,985    |
| Rye 173,076     | 177,510   | 160,920   |

The receipt of wheat at country elevators were 3,379,256 bushels and the shipments 5,419,703 bushels. The quantity of grain loaded over the loading platforms for the week ending September 30, 1921, was as follows: Wheat 322,801 bushels, and other grains 218,428 bushels. For the period from September 1 to 30, 1921, the quantity loaded was wheat, 4,446,287 bushels, and other grains 1,100,850 bushels, the total being 5,547,137 bushels.

The interior terminal elevators show increases in wheat of 84,128 bushels, barley 2,175 bushels, and flax 368 bushels. Oats indicate a decrease of 27,046 bushels.

The quantity of United States grain in store at public elevators in the east was 10,798,510 bushels compared with 1,249,130 bushels last year. The bulk of the former was made up of wheat and corn, viz., 4,690,269 and 4,773,121 bushels respectively.

The U.S. Atlantic seaboard ports show a decrease in wheat of 19,440 bushels and an increase in rye of 4,665 bushels.

Morning's Work

TORONTO, Oct. 17.—How a British sailor met an old acquaintance in the person of a German submarine officer and how he wiped off a few of his back debts is an interesting story which is in circulation among the workers of the Toronto Transportation Commission.

It is recounted how the sailor, when walking down Yonge street, stopped with others to watch the gangs of men at work. As he gazed at the army of workmen who were rapidly transforming the street his eye lit upon a face which in some way seemed familiar.

For some time he was unable to connect this employee of the Toronto Transportation Commission with anything tangible, and yet he was certain that he had seen the man before.

Still thinking, he approached the man who spoke to one of his fellows. The accent was unmistakably German and in a flash the sailor remembered who he was. A German submarine commander who had torpedoed his ship and caused death and suffering to many of his ship-mates.

It was quite enough for the husky British tar. He had been wanting to meet that submarine commander for many a long day, he had dreamed about him, spoken about him and longed to meet him.

Peeling off his coat he astonished the spectators by leaping into the demolished roadway, and having introduced himself to the elusive German in no uncertain terms, he then proceeded to wipe off the long score which he had tottered up during many a weary night at sea.

After he had finished he resumed his coat and leaving the saddy battered U-boat officer lying in the roadway, he resumed his perambulation with the air of a man who for once is thoroughly well satisfied with his morning's work.

TWEED
Miss Beth Rollins, Belleville, is visiting friends in town.

Mrs. W. H. Davis visited friends at Plainfield over the week end.

Mr. S. H. Connor, principal of the public school, is on the sick list.

Miss Grace Houston, Peterboro Normal, spent the week end at her home here.

Miss Tiney, of Bobcaygeon, formerly on the Bank of Montreal staff here, is holidaying in town.

Mrs. Wallace Mogg, Tweed, and Mrs. Steward Marsh, of Sulphide, are visiting Orillia friends this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McCallum and little Donald, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCallum, of Kingston, were week end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hicks.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. LaBarge announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Mabel, to Alexander Vincent Fieard, of Peterboro. The marriage will take place November 7th.

Mr. E. Crank, manager of the King Kirkland gold mine at Kirkland Lake, is spending a few days in this vicinity. Mrs. Craig, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rath, of Actinolite, will return with him.

FUNERAL OF MRS. JOHNSON
All that was mortal of the late Mrs. Lena Christina Johnson, wife of Mr. Arthur Johnson, was laid to rest in the Belleville cemetery on Saturday afternoon. There was a very large attendance at the obsequies which were held from the residence of Mr. J. J. Johnson, 217 Charles street. The bearers were J. Gunn, S. H. Yeomans, E. Brown, J. Hall, J. Zwick's Island is the best site for the public swimming beach and pool, says the special committee of the Belleville Trades and Labor Council who have investigated various locations.

President George E. Foster explained to the city council last night why the site was preferable. "In Zwick's Island we have an ideal place and on the strength of this we recommend," he said, "that the council expend money cautiously.

"In the first place, we do not believe in an artificial pool when so good a natural beach is going to waste;

"Secondly, the site could be utilized at half the expenditure necessary on Victoria Park;

"Thirdly, the island is large enough so that for years to come the grounds may be developed as necessary. It is not necessary that all the work should be begun at once. All that is needed is buildings for dressing, and so forth.

TO PUT SIRENS ON FIRE TRUCKS AT $50 APIECE

Recommendation to This Effect Passed on to City Council for Monday

GRANT OF $5,000 ASKED Muskoka Committee Says the Council Ought to Pay Half Belleville Share

Two hand-operated sirens for use on the city fire trucks will be purchased if the recommendation of the Fire Committee, passed last night, is approved by the City Council on Monday. The sirens are to cost $50 each at most.

A deputation headed by Mr. R. Tanhill, E. G. Porter, M.P., R. J. Graham, and Col. S. S. Laxier, appeared before the executive of the City Council and requested a grant of three thousand dollars toward the National Sanatorium campaign. This would be half of the amount expected of this city. The executive did not take any action, the matter being left over for further consideration.

The executive recommended the refund of three dollars to Mrs. A. Martin, Bridge street west, this amount being an over-payment of taxes on her assessment.

The W.C.A. were granted remission of taxes on the Home for the Aged, and the Y.M.C.A. was given the usual exemption.

Albert College was recommended for remission of taxes to the amount of $136.14, this being the levy on properties from which no revenue is derived.

The transfer of the tobacco license held by Mr. Ward, Pine street, to Mr. Answorth, was favored.

Relating to the recommendation of the committee on June 4th, 1919, the Public Works last night recommended the payment of $34 to Messrs. Thos. Manley & Son, in settlement of their claim on Blecker avenue sewer.

STOP SEARCH FOR LOST AS TROOPS QUIT FRANCE

Daily Mail Correspondent Urges Something be Done About Unidentified Slain

LONDON, Oct. 14.—(Canadian Press Cable)—Telegraphing from France The Daily Mail correspondent says that with the announcement of the withdrawal of British troops from France, the policy of searching for lost graves and bodies is abandoned. He says thousands of bodies lie unidentified and urges that a reward be offered for finding them.

MCCANN—MACDONALD

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Palmer, 106 Albert St., Oshawa, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, October 12th inst. The contracting parties were their daughter, Miss Retha Amandy MacDonal and Mr. Kenneth Parker McCann of Brighton, Ont.

The young couple were unattended and collected about a beautiful bank of house plants and flowers while the Wedding March was rendered by Miss Lena Palmer. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. W. Jones, B.D., a former pastor of Hampton, Ont., assisted by Rev. J. H. McBain, B.A., Oshawa, in the presence of only the immediate friends who were joined by Mrs. Rev. McBain and Mrs. Rev. Jones.

After congratulations the party was invited to partake of a sumptuous repast.

The bride's gifts were many and costly, the groom's gift being a necklace of lustrous pearls and her father gave her a cheque for $200.00. Mr. and Mrs. McCann left on the five o'clock C. P. R. train for a month's honeymoon to Buffalo and other points.

LOANS FOR QUEEN'S STUDENTS

College Permitted to Share Khaki University for this Purpose

Kingston—Queen's has recently received a share of the money left over from the administration of the Khaki College. This money is to constitute "The Khaki University and Y.M.C.A. memorial fund" and interest is to be used to establish scholarships under the title. For the present, however, the university is authorized to use the principal sum for loans to soldier students who saw service overseas and who are in actual need of money to complete their course, it being understood that, when the loans are returned, the money will be invested and the income used for scholarships as stated above.

85 Year-Old London Man Takes Out License to Wed

LONDON, Ont., Oct. 14.—City Clerk S. Baker, who since the first of the month has been the official issuer of marriage licenses in the city, is not yet doing a great business, as the old officials have until Saturday next to get out of the business.

Wednesday morning, on his arrival at the city hall, the clerk found two young swains waiting for licenses. Both were from out of the city.

The idea seems to have got abroad that the licenses granted are to be published, with the result that persons from other centres are coming here for licenses and Londoners are going elsewhere.

The other day a "gay groom" 85 years of age, hailing from down near St. Thomas, applied at the city hall for a license. His bride-to-be, he said, was 85 years old. He should have gone to St. Thomas for his license, but to escape publicity came here.

Tuesday a buxom colored miss appeared at the clerk's office and asked if her man had got a license. She was told he had, and after gathering a little information from the clerk trotted off to find him to finish up the job.

MOTORS CRASH ON BAD HILL Motor Coming East at Top of Murney's Hill Another Amidships

Two motors met in a crash at the top of Murney's Hill at noon today. A car was coming eastward along Highland Avenue and was turning west upon Bridge Street west, when a motor on that thoroughfare struck it amidships and damaged the fenders and the running board. The other car suffered damage to a fender and the bumper rail.

WOMEN WITH HOMES PREFERRED AS BRIDES Men of "Gay Paris" Show Practical Bent in Matrimony—Fortunes up to 200,000 Francs

PARIS, Oct. 14.—The woman with an apartment, preferably a furnished one, is most in demand as a fiancée, says the Excelsior in its account of an interview with the manageress of a Paris matrimonial agency characterized as one of the better sort. The war widow, if young and agreeable, remarries much more easily than a young girl making her first venture on matrimonial seas.

A physician between the ages of 30 and 40, well educated and of good physique, was called the first prize among men. Parents demanded engineers, architects, professors or lawyers for their daughters' husbands, while the girls themselves wished above all for an artist, but the cupid broker reported this home genius as extremely rare.

The fortunes offered with the French women varied from 50,000 to 250,000 francs. The directress proudly stated that she had arranged a marriage between an engineer and a country girl where the bride brought 400,000 francs to her husband. Daughters of rich peasants who have retired and wished to live in town formed the largest clientele of the bureau, in which the women applicants outnumbered the men two or three to one.

MARAKAS WANTS THAT BOU

Sporting Editor, Ontario: Dear Sir.—Some time ago I inserted in your paper a challenge to Ernie Edmunds on behalf of Theodore Marakas challenging Edmunds to a boxing bout in the near future. Now, although I put the challenge in your paper almost three weeks ago, as yet Edmunds has made no reply. Why the delay? Anybody who saw their last bout will say Marakas fought well enough to warrant a return engagement. It was about one of the best fights ever witnessed in this city and even if he did lose the boy certainly silenced the knockers around town who questioned his gameness and skill. He took a lot of punishment that night and took it with a smile. So let's hear from Edmunds.

Young Sandell also challenges any 100 lb. boy in the city, anybody up to 112 lbs. Joe Goyer has as yet received no answer to his heavyweight challenge. How about it some of you heavy men? Anybody in the city. Young Churchill, 135 lbs., also challenges "Hunk" Summers to a bout.

Yours sincerely, Fred Pantler, Manager.

He says he has a home in British Columbia but that he has not been there since he left the army.

Six Young Girls Act as Pallbearers At Chum's Funeral

Six young girls acted as pall bearers at the funeral of Norma Hester Huffman, which took place today from the family residence near Northport, Prince Edward, and bore the remains to the grave in Belleville cemetery. The services conducted by the Rev. I. Wickware were deeply impressive and were attended by a large number of mourners. There was a mass of floral tributes to the memory of the deceased young girl, whose early death was deplored by a wide circle of friends.

IRISH CONFERENCE ADJOURNS QUIETLY

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The Irish party was resumed this morning and the utmost secrecy was observed in negotiations. It was understood, however, that violations of the truce and financial arrangements between Great Britain and Ireland in case of the acceptance of the Dominion status, were taken up. The greatest optimism prevailed, but it must be recognized that most vital matters have yet to be considered. Adjournment was taken at 1.30 p.m. until Monday afternoon at 3.30.

Foiled Yesterday Returns With Gun Robs Bank Today

HAMILTON, Ont., Oct. 14.—The gunman who yesterday was foiled in an attempt to rob the Bank of Hamilton, robbed the Union Bank at the corner of Lockie and Main Streets today. He said, "They got me yesterday but they won't get me today," and covering the clerks with a gun grabbed $200 and made his escape.

DR. CHAMBERS FOUND; TORONTO MAN ALIVE; MISSING TWO WEEKS

FORT WILLIAM, Oct. 13.—Dr. Graham Chambers, Toronto, physician, who was lost in the bush near Atikokan, a divisional point of the Canadian National Railways, west of here, since September 29, was found alive, but in a weakened condition yesterday near Deer Lake, about 22 miles northwest of Atikokan.

Dr. Chambers was found by two Indians, who were members of a large search party, comprising, in addition to residents of Atikokan, several citizens from Fort William and Port Arthur, among whom were a number of Dr. Chambers' former scholars. Practically all of the searchers were with the doctor last night in camp at Deer Lake. They have made him as comfortable as possible, and will start from Atikokan today with him on the way to Fort Frances. The Canadian National Railways have despatched a special train to Atikokan, and it will be in waiting this afternoon to convey the party to Fort Frances. Details of the rescue are lacking here. Special Forest representatives leave for Atikokan on the first train.

U.S. RAIL CHIEFS FACING A STRIKE

Seek by Compromise to Avert Clash With Men Who do the Work TO SHIFT AUTHORITY Let Interstate Board Handle Dispute—Try to Revise Tariff Downward

CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—Confronted by a possible railroad strike over wage reduction and insistent demands from shippers for lower freight rates, railway executives, meeting here today, discussed a proposal to reduce transportation charges in proportion to future wage reductions. They will also consider a proposal to seek an amendment to the transportation act transferring to the Interstate Commerce Commission wage adjusting authority now vested in the Labor Railway Board.

W. M. S. IN CONVENTION

Thirty-First Annual Meeting Was Held at Caniffont

District officers were re-elected at the thirty-first annual convention of the W.M.S. of the Methodist Church held in the village of Caniffont. Mrs. McFarlane, superintendent; Mrs. Gay, assistant superintendent; and Mrs. Foster, secretary-treasurer. Reports from 24 auxiliaries, two circles and eight bands, showed a healthy growth, in interest and numbers and in the methods of work. Mrs. McFarlane conducted a conference on methods and short papers were given by Mrs. Denyes, of Belleville and Miss Prentice of Foxboro. They showed that youth is the time for preparation for missionary as well as for all other kinds of work.

SCOUTS HOLD BANQUET

1st Belleville Troop Hosts to Lads From Other Centres

The 1st Belleville Troop of Boy Scouts held their annual banquet last night in Bridge Street Methodist Church parlors and all voted it a great occasion. At least a hundred of the boys and their guests ate (and drank) to their hearts' content the excellent food (and drink) provided by mothers and big sisters. Then they pushed back cups and plates and listened to speeches by Rev. Mr. Foster, of Belleville, Rev. Mr. Cranston, of Trenton, and Rev. Mr. Gay, of Foxboro; Mr. Davies, Editor of The Intelligence, and Mr. W. C. Mikel, K.C. "Byng" Hayes, leader of the Troop, made a few remarks, also.

As guests of the 1st Belleville Troop were Scouts from Trenton and Foxboro, and the 2nd Belleville Troop. Later the Bugle Band paraded the downtown streets.

Report That Cabinet Committee Has Adopted Suggested Credit System

WORK FOR WORKLESS

Hundreds of Miles of Underground Cable Will be Laid By Post Office

LONDON, Oct. 14.—Proposals for improving Great Britain's export trade by the credit system have been approved by the Cabinet committee on unemployment, including the allocation of £12,000,000 to banks which will act as Government agents, says the Evening Standard. The Government guarantees to traders exporting to certain countries, it is said, will be raised from 50 per cent. of the value of the goods to be exported to 75 per cent. It is understood the Post Office Department is considering a plan for providing work for large numbers of unemployed and at the same time for benefiting the country. This plan includes the laying of several hundred miles of underground cables for telephone and telegraph developments.

HEIRS TO THRONE KEENLY FAVORS EMPIRE EXHIBIT

Prince of Wales Asks for Guarantee of Million Pounds for Work

ITS MEANING FOR BRITAIN

Dwells on Rapid Expansion and Possibilities of Dominions Across Seas

LONDON, Oct. 13.—The Prince of Wales made a notable addition to the discussion of unemployment by his speech at the Mansion House today on the project for holding a British Empire Exhibition in 1923 at Wembley, southwestern suburb of London. The idea was started by Lord Strathcona in 1913, with the object of bringing together an exhibition of the resources of all parts of the Empire, and it was estimated that the necessary buildings and large sports stadium connected with them would cost £1,500,000, and could not be started without a guarantee of £1,000,000. It was to get this million that the Prince made his appeal.

WANT IT SPEEDILY. "I want it guaranteed now," he said. "I cannot believe that if you are asked for a million pounds in cash for such a fine national purpose, one would ask in vain, but I am not asking for cash. I am asking only for guarantees on which the banks are prepared to lend the money, which can be spent now in constructional work."

Then the Prince referred to his own optimism in the future, and said: "But I hope there is no optimist in this room who fails to recognize the difficulty of being cheerful when you are out of work and hungry and see those who are nearest and dearest to you ailing hungry. So I want to make a practical suggestion. Here, on one hand, you have thousands of able-bodied men who in the darkest hour of trial offered their all for their country. Here, on the other hand, you have an enterprise which I hope I have proved is one solely in the interests of the Empire's future. Why delay the work?"

TO MAKE HOMES HAPPIER. The Prince spoke of his departure for India in a fortnight's time, and said:

"I cannot be entirely happy in leaving these shores when I realize the bleak outlook in so many homes for the winter. Nothing would send me on my way rejoicing more than the knowledge that you would tackle this problem of guarantees forthwith, and that before I leave England I might know that at all events there were a few thousand happier homes due to your efforts."

Referring to his recent tour of the Dominions, the Prince of Wales emphasized the "rapid expansion and sturdy development, and, perhaps most of all, the infinite possibilities of those nations whose people are our own kith and kin, and on whose continued prosperity the future of our own communities depends."

GREAT PROBLEMS OF EMPIRE. The Prince said that his recent visits to Australasia and Canada provided him with valuable experience, which enabled him to appreciate far more intimately than he otherwise could have done the great problems which are common to the statesmen and people of each portion of the Empire. He was very much struck, he said, by the unanimity with which the British Empire Exhibition project was welcomed by the Prime Ministers and other representatives of the Dominions and of India. They had not doubted the wisdom of the gospel they had preached, namely, that it was to the interest of the Empire to develop its great resources and to exploit to the utmost the possibilities of Imperial and national improvement.

BRITAIN'S UNDEVELOPED ESTATE

He shared the optimism of the Dominion Prime Ministers—also their anxiety—that Britons should be fully alive to the great possibilities of what, a quarter of a century ago, the late Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain called "our vast undeveloped estate."

REDS OFFER TO MEDIATE

PEKING, Oct. 14.—It is asserted in a statement issued by the Rosta News Agency that Bolshevik Russia intends to offer its mediation between China and the Mongolian Republic in an effort to establish amicable relations.

PENSION FOR DENISON

Toronto, Oct. 14.—The Board of Control voted a retiring allowance of $5,000 a year to Colonel George T. Denison, former police magistrate, who retired a few weeks ago owing to failing health. He served as police magistrate for 44 years.

WARSHIPS LEAVE HALIFAX

Halifax, N.S., Oct. 14.—Four units of the British North Atlantic Squadron, H.M.S. Raleigh, H.M.S. Calcutta, H.M.S. Cambrian, and H.M.S. Constance, after a week in port, sailed last night for Bermuda.

PENSIONS

OTTAWA, Oct. 13.—Canada's annual pension list in respect to the late war amounts to $80,802,406, payable to 50,287 disabled soldiers and 19,411 dependents. The figures are for June of this year.

U.S. CONFERENCE SPLIT WIDE OPEN

Employer Members of Unemployment Conference Demands Reductions

LABOR PROTESTS

Employers Declare Wages Must Come Down Hand-in-Hand With Prices

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—The national unemployment conference was split wide open today on the question of recommending wage cuts.

The split came when employer members of the conference presented a statement declaring that wages must come down hand in hand with prices. Delegates who have stood by Secretary Hoover for adoption by the conference of definite recommendations that wages must come down as prices fall, but who have been unable to get approval for such a measure in committees, were demanding that they be heard orally on the question.

Labor delegates, headed by Samuel Gompers, Matthew Wolf, John L. Lewis and Mrs. Sarah Comby, were set to defend their cause. The conference was to be opened for "a free for all" discussion today for the first time since it met more than two weeks ago.

Secretary Hoover and other officials of the conference made strong efforts to prevent a rupture over the wage question, and "other controversial" subjects.

An alarming increase in the number of criminal and minor cases for the past twelve months is shown in the report of Chief of Police Moore, of Woodstock.

EX-ALD. ROBINSON WRITES ABOUT MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

Editor Ontario:—

It appears that many of the taxpayers are very indignant at the actions of our City Council, at its last regular meeting, in connection with Ald. Bennett's resolution seeking to declare the office of Assessor vacant. When this motion was put to the Council, it was found that it was favored by only one vote, that of the mover, even the scoundrel, Alderman French, having failed to support the resolution.

Now I wish to say right here to Ald. French that I fear his standing as an Alderman has by this act been considerably weakened in the eyes of a majority of the ratepayers. This is regrettable, too, for Ald. French heretofore had been making good to a considerable extent. Of course, if it is well known, Mr. Editor, that the assessments for the last two years have been done so nauseous for the ratepayers to swallow without protesting very strenuously. And no doubt you are also aware of the fact, as Ald. Bennett also stated, when speaking to his resolution, that there were about 1,700 individual protests or appeals made against this year's assessment and nearly all these appeals were endorsed by the Court of Revision; and the Court in this way virtually said to the appellants, You did right in appealing, for in our opinion your assessments as they stood were unwarranted, uncalculated, and unjust.

Now, this overwhelming reputation of the 1921 assessment, although unprecedented, did not seem to open the eyes of the members of our Council, not even a little bit, with the exception of Ald. Bennett. Now, how can this most inconsistent vote be accounted for? If we can at all put any reliance on the sentiment of the people we hear speaking regarding this matter, these Aldermen who voted down Ald. Bennett's resolution have simply driven nails in their own municipal coffins. Can it be possible that certain leading members of the Council had instructed the Assessor to boost the assessment this year. If this were the case it would be only reasonable and fair for the Council to back up the Assessor now, which of course they have done. The Council, by their actions the other night, have not only endorsed the Assessor's course unreservedly, but have actually rewarded him as well. They have virtually said, Mr. Kerr, your arduous services to the Corporation have been so very valuable and generously given, especially for the last two years, that we feel warranted in providing for you two assistants to help you in the future and to some extent make your work carry the financial burden, as usual, less burdensome (the taxpayers will carry the financial burden as usual), trusting that you will appreciate our good will and generous actions by boosting next year's assessment higher than ever.

But, Mr. Editor, it will probably be claimed that there is another side to this question, namely, that the "assistant" assessors will be appointed for the purpose of assisting the present Assessor to arrive at correct valuations and equalizations, etc. Well, gentlemen, this scheme was well tried and tested several years ago, and if my memory serves me right it was abandoned at the end of one year. On this occasion a man well versed in Belleville real estate values, and an expert in the legal requirements of an assessor, was appointed to the position; and he was also allowed a staff of men to collect information and advise in relation to each individual assessment. But, notwithstanding this splendid effort, incurring also a considerable additional outlay of cash, council in its wisdom went back to the individual assessor, with very good results, judging from the very few appeals that were made. And I believe that, if our present Assessor was left free from all outside influence he should be quite capable of making a good assessment, for his work in former years seemed to give very fair satisfaction. Of course, it must be understood that it would be impossible to please everybody. However, let this be as it may, we are to have the same Assessor continued, with the addition of two assistants, with the result that Mr. Kerr will be the real assessor as usual, and don't you forget it. But, notwithstanding this, the ratepayers will have to put up several hundred dollars extra in their taxes to pay the two assistants their salaries, which, to my mind, is a very useless expenditure and the whole thing a great farce.

Since the foregoing was written, I have been told by a reliable member of the Council that a certain very prominent Alderman actually attempted to have a resolution passed granting Mr. Kerr $200 raise in salary, the understanding being that the vote must be unanimous, which feat could not be accomplished, there being at least one Alderman who would not listen to the scheme. Is it not high time for a change? A. ROBINSON.

STREAM OF GAS REMAINS STEADY IN SIDNEY WELLS

Flok Shows no Sign of Diminution Declares Owner of One Well

GOING ON FOR YEARS

Rapson and Pearce Homes are Lighted—Only Trouble is W.R.H. Water at Times

The flow of gas from the wells which were sunk on the front of Sidney several years ago, continues steadily. There are two places where the earth has been tapped for illuminating gas, namely, by the farms of Mr. J. Rapson and Mr. Pearce. Both these men have used the gas for illuminating purposes.

Mr. Rapson stated today that water had got into the two wells on his property, stopping the flow of gas but that only the use of a pump was required in order to have gas for the lighting of his house.

The gas has not been fully taken advantage of for heating purposes. The Rapson wells are about six inches in diameter and there was more gas available than was utilized.

There was some talk at one time of forming a small company to develop the gas, but the proposal was dropped.

The significant fact is that there has been no diminution of the gas.

CONSECON

Miss Prichell Cadman, after six years' illness, passed away on Friday. She was the oldest citizen of Consecon, having been born here 83 years ago. Mr. Wm. Cadman, of Sault Ste. Marie, attended the funeral on Monday.

The evaporator will reopen in the near future under the management of Wm. Chase.

Norman Scriver, eleven-year-old son of John Scriver, died of heart failure on Monday. The funeral took place on Wednesday at the home in the Stinson Block, interment being in Pleasant Bay cemetery.

The big dam at Kenogamussee Lake, just completed, will greatly relieve Northern Ontario power situation.

TAXES

The second batch of delinquent poll taxes came before the court today to be dealt with for not having paid their share of the city's burdens in the present year. They paid costs and were ordered to settle with the tax collector.

Two motorists paid the price for speeding today.

LABOR-FARMER CANDIDATE WILL BE NAMED HERE

Convention to be Held in Trenton on 27th October to Select Standard Bearer

DECISION LAST NIGHT

Time Has Come to Strike Say Leaders in Debate at Springbrook Meeting

Labor and the Progressive Farmer party will run a candidate in West Hastings in the coming federal elections and a convention will be held in Trenton on October 27th to nominate the candidate.

This momentous decision was reached last evening at a joint executive meeting of the two groups, held at the village of Springbrook. The meeting was attended by representatives from all parts of the riding, some being present from as far north as Bancroft and Maynooth.

The discussion was spirited and many took part in the debate, the farmer and the labor speakers expressing the feeling that their time had come to strike. There seemed a unanimity of feeling that a candidate to carry the banner of the two parties should be nominated. When it came to a decision to enter the political field, the meeting was unanimous in all appearances.

The Trenton convention will be attended by regularly accredited delegates of both parties from the various sections of the west riding.

Used Good Stuff Back in the Eighties As Here Shows

The men who made the water mains that were laid in Belleville in the year 1888 must have been conscientious fellows. A cutting of a sixteen inch main reveals the excellent material out of which the pipes are made. A cutting of a sixteen inch main reveals the excellent material out of which the pipes are made. A cutting of a sixteen inch main reveals the excellent material out of which the pipes are made.

The Ontario was today shown a piece of one of these mains. On the outside the pipe coating was still as good as when put down the corrosion not having cut through in a third of a century beneath the surface of the ground. It looks good for a century to come. On the inside the pipe shows the same preservation, not the slightest indication of rust appearing.

An unique operation has just been performed on the water main, sixteen inches in diameter, a tapping apparatus having been loaned to Belleville waterworks department by Peterboro in order to make a connection for the Albert College service, a six inch opening being necessary.

The cutting lasted but an hour without the loss of a gallon of water and with no interruption of the water service. Without the use of this instrument, a portion of the service would have had to be interrupted for about four and a half hours. Mr. Worsencroft of the Peterboro department operated the machine.

POINT ANNE

Mrs. E. Teney is spending a few days at Kingston and other points. Mr. and Mrs. Mosher motored to Tweed recently.

Mrs. C. Godfrey and daughter are visiting friends in Tweed. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd, of Belleville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Saylor, of Ottawa, spent a few days this week in town, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Whitton.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Ketcheson, of Belleville, were callers in town on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. T. Tice, of Frankford, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Whitton.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard, a daughter, Violet. Rev. Mr. Beck held services here on Sunday evening.

The funeral of the late Wm. Kelley was held in the English church here on Saturday and was largely attended. The remains were interred in Belleville cemetery.

Unemployed Threatened to Force Way to Premier—Irish Affairs Today

BREAD OR REVOLUTION

LONDON, Oct. 13.—Thousands of England's unemployed assembled on the Embankment today for the purpose of accompanying a deputation to the Premier to demand work or maintenance at union wages and uniform scales of relief. The deputation was admitted to the Premier's residence.

Clashes occurred between the police and unemployed at Cambridge Circus this afternoon. The demonstration was the biggest of its kind ever seen in London. Banners read, "Bread or Revolution." Fourteen thousand police were engaged in containing the mob.

LONDON, Oct. 13.—Elaborate precautions were taken by the police today to cope with a monster demonstration by the unemployed who planned to force their way into Downing Street to interview the Premier.

Thousands of police were stationed within a radius of a mile from Downing Street while mounted men occupied the Mall and the approach to Buckingham Palace. There was no attempt on the part of the police to interfere with the Sinn Fein sympathizers, who gathered in Whitehall and cheered the arrival of the Sinn Fein delegates at noon, but gatherings in the streets were broken up.

90-MINUTE SESSION

After a ninety-minute session the Irish peace conference adjourned today until eleven o'clock tomorrow morning.

When the Sinn Fein delegates arrived at noon today a big crowd gave them a noisy welcome and proceeded to recite the Rosary, kneeling in the street.

Matters of the violations of the truce, kidnapping by Sinn Fein, and the treatment of Sinn Fein internees, are said to have been taken up. It is expected that the kidnapped men will be released. It is stated that Sinn Fein does not demand the release of all internees, but claims prisoner-of-war treatment for those interned, improved medical treatment for sick and peroles in the case of illness in the men's families.

THE TRUCE BROKEN

At the head of today's discussion in the conference of Sinn Fein with members of the British Cabinet is the matter of the truce signed last July. It has been violated by both the republican army and crown forces, and arrangements will be considered by which both parties will come closer to the spirit of the armistice.

JAPS IGNORE CHINESE

OVER-HAUL POLICE STATION TO MAKE IT A FIT PLACE FOR STAFF AND PRISONERS

Much remains to be done at the police station for the accommodation of prisoners, although the signs of the liquor trade have been wiped out by the removal of the seized cases and barrels of whiskey and ale, which for some months had occupied the most prominent place in the cell room.

Chief Kidd has been for some time endeavoring to get the Market and City Property Committee to make improvements in the detention quarters. There is no privacy for women prisoners and Chief Kidd is very anxious that something should be done along this line at the earliest date possible.

The interior of the station now is overhauled to make the place fit for police and prisoners.

SNOW AND ICE CAME LAST NIGHT

MONTREAL, Oct. 14.—Montreal got its first snow and ice of the season last night. For an hour beginning about 9 o'clock a wet snow fell, melting as it touched the pavements. Later it grew colder so that when early risers made their appearance this morning all standing water was covered with a covering of ice. The ground was stiff with frost.

COMMUNITY CLUB FOR PLAINFIELD

Organization Meeting Last Night in Live Village—News Notes of Week

MOURN W.M. ALLISON

Founder of Telephone Line is Laid to Rest Among Evergreen Trees he Planted

Few Plainfield citizens are seen walking down the middle of the streets of late. Everybody prefers the sidewalk. No doubt the horse will appreciate the coming days when there is asphalt on the highways instead of splashing along through the mud as in the "good old days."

Mrs. Henderson has returned home after having spent several weeks with relatives at Shannonville. Miss Myrtle Harrison was delegate from the League here to the biennial conference convened held in Peterboro. The program was unusually good and shows a real vitality in League work yet.

Evangelist and Mrs. N. R. Duetta, of Trenton, were guests at the parsonage Wednesday. Mr. Duetta is a good cornet soloist and singer as well as a splendid speaker, and Mrs. Duetta is an excellent accompanist. They will assist in the services on the circuit Sunday, 23rd inst.

The presence of Mr. and Mrs. R. Wellman here for the week end was welcome. Mrs. Wellman and little son are remaining a few days visiting old time friends.

The funeral of the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. George Reid, of Demorestville, was held at the grandfather's home here, Rev. Mr. Sharpe taking charge of the ceremonies.

A number attended Tweed exhibition Thursday and Friday last. General sympathy was heard as the news reached here that William Allison, of Rednersville had passed away. Deceased was well known about this place, having been one of the enterprising founders of the telephone line still operating hereabout.

He was also a promoter and honored shareholder of the Victoria cemetery adjacent to the village. His remains were laid to rest on Sunday afternoon in the midst of the evergreens which he helped to nurture in that beautiful last resting place of so many of his former neighbors. Rev. H. Seymour, his present pastor, conducted the services at the home in Prince Edward and an appropriate tribute was paid and burial service read by Rev. L. M. Sharpe, who was at Rednersville until the past Conference.

Mrs. Clarence Platt, who has spent several weeks on a western trip, is home again and has many good things to tell of the possibilities of that new territory.

Community Club organization for Plainfield circuit is announced for Thursday evening.

Dr. Pratt, a leader in religious education, is to have charge of the services next Sunday, Oct. 16th, at Mt. Pleasant, 11 a.m., Zion Hill 3 p.m., and Plainfield 7 p.m., while the pastor takes the anniversary at Stone Church, Sidney.

Predictions are being offered that there is to be another open winter. Plenty of ripe raspberries are to be seen along certain roadsides, which fact is considered a very good indication by some of the older observers. Nevertheless it is advisable that a reasonable amount of food be put in store.

Mrs. A. Eggleton, has been very low for a week and the doctors have no hope of her recovery. She was taken ill while visiting her daughter, Mrs. Fred Faulkner, of Sidney.

Quite a number from here attended Madoc Fair and report one of the best, and a good crowd.

CAMPAIGN HERE TO HELP REBUILD BURNED HOSPITAL

City, Chamber of Commerce, Rotary and Lions Clubs Unite in Organization

COUNCIL'S AID ASKED

Strong Committee Appointed to Wait on City Fathers—Subscriptions Expected

At a meeting in the City Hall yesterday, Mayor Hanna, representing the city, Jameson Bone for the Chamber of Commerce, J. G. Moffat for the Rotary Club, E. D. Finkle for the G.W.V.A. and G. E. Porter for the Trades and Labour Council, it was decided to put on a campaign in aid of the various homes for consumptives that are under the direction of the National Sanitarium Association. This is a very worthy object and the citizens of Belleville will no doubt go down in their pockets as they have done so often before and help the various committees to reach or even surpass their objective of $6,000. A deputation consisting of Col. Lazier, E. Guss Porter, M.P., Judge Derocha, R. J. Graham and R. Tannahill, who will appreciate the great work being done at Gravenhurst and Weston, have agreed to wait on the city fathers tonight when it is hoped, in spite of hard times, that the city will contribute a large portion of the required amount. After all this seems the fairest way of apportioning the contribution amongst all the citizens.

This association gives free treatment to consumptives if they cannot pay towards their own maintenance, and since their disastrous fire last year, over $1,000,000 is urgently required to rebuild and put the institution on a sound financial basis. In the last 25 years, largely owing to the efforts of this association, the death rate from consumption has been cut in half. Who knows but that in 25 years more it may be wiped out all together, if the people will only appreciate this wonderful institution and give them financial assistance. Besides the deputation to the City Council tonight, other committees have been appointed as under and subscriptions sent in to the Chamber of Commerce will be gladly received.

Scott's Team Fumbled Everything But Couldn't Help Winning the Game

TORONTO, Oct. 17.—The Hillcrests advanced another step towards the Ontario Championship by subjecting the highly touted Guelph Maple Leafs to a severe mauling on Saturday at Guelph, and emerged from the contest on the long end of a 16 to 5 score.

The winners, however, showed a fielding exhibition that savored strongly of the horse-and-buggy league, with the result that Ed. Scott's wonderful pitching was badly militated against.

QUEEN'S DEFEAT PARKDALE 18-13

Both Teams Without Star Backfield Players in Exhibition Game

TRICOLOR MEN CHESTY

Nothing to Beat Them They Claim and Will Prepare for Final With Argos

KINGSTON, Ont., Oct. 17.—With Leadley in Montreal, Harding not in uniform and such regulars as Veale, Carson, Adams and others not playing, Queen's put it over Parkdale Canoe Club on Saturday by the score of 18 to 13. The tri-color were undoubtedly the better team.

Queen's line turned out to be much superior to that of the visitors, both on the offensive and the defensive. Over a dozen times Queen's smashed through the paddlers' line for yards, McKeivley and Muirhead making gains almost at will.

The paddlers' advantage, if any, was in handling the ball. Campbell, Carroll and McKay, each got tries for Queen's. Green got the only try for Parkdale and Goddard converted.

THREE GAMES OF SOCCER IN CITY PROVIDE BIG AFTERNOON'S SPORT; CROWD BEST SINCE LEAGUE BEGAN

Taylor's Tigers, 4; 34th Battery, 0. Albert College, 1; Tiger Tire Co., 0. Grand Trunk, 8; Taplin-Baker, 0.

Belleville soccer league was on in full earnest on Saturday when a triple-headed event was staged at the fair grounds and at Albert College campus.

The battery turned up with a team half absent and was compelled to go into the fray with some new players.

J. Childs, Referee. The game started under ideal football weather conditions with the battery kicking towards the south goal. The Tigers at the outset showed their superiority over their opponents, quickly securing the ball and by nice combination the forwards carried the ball from wing to wing, H. Page putting the finishing touch by a stinging shot from the left wing, completely beating the goal.

The second half saw Yates lose a beautiful chance to score by waiting too long. The ball was carried to the students' territory. The Tigers were conceded a corner. The ball came down the field and a beautiful shot from centre of left just struck the Tiger bar.

The Taplin-Baker team continue had defeat on Saturday at Albert College grounds by the Grand Trunk team, but are very loud in their praise of the splendid combination and skill shown by their opponents.

The second match at the park between Albert College and The Tiger Tire and Rubber Company was a win for the students. QUEEN'S DEFEAT PARKDALE 18-13

Both Teams Without Star Backfield Players in Exhibition Game

TRICOLOR MEN CHESTY

Nothing to Beat Them They Claim and Will Prepare for Final With Argos

KINGSTON, Ont., Oct. 17.—With Leadley in Montreal, Harding not in uniform and such regulars as Veale, Carson, Adams and others not playing, Queen's put it over Parkdale Canoe Club on Saturday by the score of 18 to 13.

Queen's line turned out to be much superior to that of the visitors, both on the offensive and the defensive. Over a dozen times Queen's smashed through the paddlers' line for yards, McKeivley and Muirhead making gains almost at will.

The paddlers' advantage, if any, was in handling the ball. Campbell, Carroll and McKay, each got tries for Queen's. Green got the only try for Parkdale and Goddard converted.

ECLIPSE NOT SEEN CLOUDS IN THE WAY

Star-gazers were plentiful enough around the city last evening about the time set for the eclipse of the moon, only to be deprived of the pleasures of wholehearted absorption in the contemplation of Luna by a series of clouds which drove across the heavens shortly after the disk of the heavenly body became obscured.

The early part of the shading of the moon was evident to all, and at times through the rift of the clouds came views of the shadow. When the sky finally cleared the moon was again free from shadow of the earth.

FUNERAL AT MADOC

The funeral of the late Mrs. L. Kincaid took place from Madoc on Monday afternoon to White's cemetery, Front of Sidney. The Rev. Mr. Jobson officiated.

The T.-B. team made a splendid effort to score but without success. Great praise is due to a lot of the T.-B. team especially by the Full Backs of Roberts and Stub Barrett, and the goal keeper, J. Jackson, upon whom the majority of the work fell owing to the hard pressing of their opponents and many a goal was stopped.

The Taylor-Baker team continue in congratulating the G. T.'s on their clean, skillful playing and the friendly spirit shown by all their players throughout the game.

The Hat and Shoe team gained a lot of useful experience in this game and are quite confident of coming out very close to the top at the end of the season and can assure the Grand Trunks of a better game next time.

E. G. PORTER IS CANDIDATE

Present Member is the Unanimous Choice of Conservative Convention

EIGHT WERE NAMED

All Withdrew to Make Way for Nominee—Officers of W. Hastings Assn.

STIRLING, Oct. 18.—(By telephone 3.30 p.m.)—The opera house was packed here today for the Conservative convention. Eight gentlemen were nominated, all in speeches later with drawing their names in favor of the sitting member, E. Guss Porter. No vote was necessary. It was unanimous.

Those nominated were Messrs. E. G. Porter, M.P., Robt. Cook, M.P.P. for North Hastings, W. H. Ireland, M.P.P. for West Hastings, Dr. A. T. Embury, Warden of Hastings County, R. J. Graham, W. F. Ketcheson, James McCaw, Robt. Robinson.

Mr. Graham in his address reviewed his actions in past political contests and said he and Mr. Porter had settled their differences. Dr. Embury spoke of the rights of the North and said it should be well represented, but withdrew so that the strongest man in the field, Mr. Porter, might get the nomination.

The West Hastings Liberal Conservative Association elected the following officers: Pres., John Sergeant, Sidney; vice-presidents, Chas. Rollins, and Mrs. Geo. Reid, of Belleville; treas., C. W. Thompson, Rawdon; sec., Chas. Payne, Belleville.

ENGINEER IS KILLED

Winnipeg, Oct. 18.—F. R. Walker, Canadian National Railway engineer, was killed when two freight trains collided during a dense fog at St. Charles, Man., a short distance from this city. Walker was riding in the caboose. Very little damage was done to the rolling stock.

Small Blaze in Front Street Store Sees Loss Increased as Money Disappears

CASH BOX WAS MOVED

Proprietor Out of City on Sunday Returns to Find Premises Scorched

Fire of unknown origin on Sunday evening caused heavy damage to the business property occupied by Mr. Bert Assestine on Front Street. No one was there at the time the blaze was discovered, Mr. Assestine having been in Kingston for the day, and only arriving home at nine o'clock last night.

The interior of the confectionery shop was found to be a mass of fire, the north side, where the tobacco was stored, being the seat of the blaze. The fire was soon extinguished with water, but not before the contents had been, to all purposes, destroyed. The building itself suffered quite heavy loss although the blaze did not get a chance to break through the roof.

Mr. Assestine had just moved his household effects to the rear of this premises last week and these were damaged by smoke and water. Mr. Assestine carried some insurance on the contents and his household furnishings. The building was insured. A peculiar feature was the loss of some money, about sixty-five dollars being in the tobacco counter, which had been left in the cash box. This was located by Fire Chief Brown in the kitchen with two U. S. dollars as the only contents.

SPEECHES AT STIRLING MEET

Mr. E. Guss Porter, M. P., the Nominee Accepts Candidature as a Compliment

AN IMPORTANT ELECTION Situation Requires the Most Steady Hand and Judgment—Other Men Speak

In his speech of acceptance of the nomination of the Liberal-Conservative party in West Hastings at Stirling on Tuesday afternoon, Mr. E. Guss Porter, K.C., addressed the convention at some length. He started to speak about ten minutes to four and closed at four-thirty. The unanimous nomination he took as a compliment to his service of over twenty years in the Parliament of Canada.

The present election he considered one of the most important in the history of Canada, the introduction of the new parties into the arena complicating the issue very materially. "It is almost impossible to tell who is who," said the candidate. This is a serious condition to be in and one that requires the most steady hand and judgment. The country is today moved by unrest and the huge war debt is alarming but not disheartening. With the co-operation of industry it is only a matter of a short time before Canada recovers her financial position. The speaker pleaded for economy, but not to such an excessive degree as would result in harm to the industry of the country.

National Policy.
 Mr. Porter claimed that Canada was in just such a state as at present in the days before the adoption of the National Policy. The Liberals, he contended, always preached free trade until they got into power and then they carried, on the National Policy with a few modifications. This policy has been the keynote of the prosperity of Canada since 1878, he declared. Today there was the same protective tariff, not as high as in 1878 by a great deal, reduction having been made to meet the changing conditions of industry.

What tariff protection had done was evident, Mr. Porter said, in the development of industry and the improvement of the condition of labor in this country.
Predicted Ruin.
 Even England was modifying her attitude on free trade and today there is the Industries' Protection Act. With all the post-war prosperity of the United States, that country has raised its tariff walls until they are almost prohibitive under the Fordney Bill.

It was claimed that all the other parties than the Conservative wanted free trade, although in every place they told a different story.
 That this would result in the flooding of the Canadian market with U.S. goods from the factory and the farm, was Mr. Porter's argument. These goods would be the product of underpaid, overworked workmen. With markets destroyed farms would be uncultivated and the people would leave the country, and the nation would be a rascal country. That, said Mr. Porter, would be the result of the "hole in the doughnut policy" of the anti-government groups.

Never Wavered in the Faith.
 The nominee of the convention spoke about a united Canada and its happiness and the elimination of all that tends to estrange the various parts of the country through differences of race and creed.
 "Whatever people may say of me," he declared in closing, "I can never be accused of wobbling in my political opinion."

One of the delegates wanted to know what the name of the association was and was told that it was "The Liberal-Conservative Association for Greater West Hastings."
 "Why was the word 'national' dropped?"
 "Never had it in West Hastings."
 "And never will."

Mr. James McCaw, of Bancroft, the first of the nominees to withdraw paid his respects to the sitting member, as did Mr. H. Freeman Ketcheson, of Belleville. Mr. Robert Robinson, who had also been nominated, did not make his appearance on the platform.
 Mr. R. J. Graham and Politics.
 "Some one has said I have not any politics. I have been a consistent Conservative all my life," claimed Mr. R. J. Graham, who spoke in his nomination. "I have voted against my party when I thought it wrong. He went on to tell how the Conservatives wrongfully forced separate schools on Manitoba and added that if Canada was ever to be a united people, it must be through the rearing of the children in national schools. He had been accused of trying to split the party at the last election, but there would not have been a split if a national or union convention had been called in West Hastings.

 The present was a time, he thought, to heal over differences in order to unite the party in the support of the Meighen administration.
 Mr. Graham spoke in favor of protection. He was not in favor of the eight-hour day as demanded by labor for agriculture. He made a veiled reference to "some future time" and then announced his withdrawal and his support of Mr. Porter.

North Wants Representation
 Warden Dr. Embury, of Bancroft, feared annexation to the United States if the country had not an adequate protective tariff. He also felt that the good things should be passed around and suggested that the north should some fine day receive attention at the hands of the convention. Still in the spirit of conciliation, he withdrew.

Mr. Robert Cooke, M.P.P. for North Hastings, detailed the story of the National Policy and spoke in support of Mr. Porter and then withdrew from the field. Mr. W. H. Ireland, of Trenton, in the course of a brief speech followed the lead of the other speakers and avoided the ballot at the convention.
 President Walter Higgins presided over the opening portion of the proceedings, Mr. John Sargent, the new president, taking the chair for the nominations and speeches.

FUNERAL OF MRS. ROBLIN.
 All that was mortal of the late Mrs. A. Roblin, widow of the late George A. Roblin, who passed away in Toronto, was held from the G.T.R. depot to Rednersville Church on Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Seymour officiating. The service was attended by a large congregation who packed the church. The interment was made in Albany cemetery, the bearers being W. Coulter, J. M. Giles, E. Spenser, D. W. Redner, W. N. Redner, and N. Parliament.

BERLIN, Oct. 19 (United Press).
 Former King Ludwig of Bavaria is dead, it was announced here today.
 Ludwig III. was deposed in Nov., 1918, following the signing of the armistice and the collapse of the German States. Ludwig then took refuge in Switzerland, while Bavaria was declared a republic.
 Ludwig was born January 7, 1845. He became Regent of Bavaria in succession to his father, Prince Luitpold, who died December 12, 1912. He was proclaimed King on Nov. 5, 1913, in succession to his cousin, King Otto, who was then declared incapable of ruling owing to insanity—the curse of the Bavarian Royal Family.
 Ludwig, in turn, fell a victim to insanity, following his flight to Switzerland. His great delusion was that Bavaria had won the war, with himself as the supreme general, and his ardent desire was to return to Munich to march his victorious troops through the capital and receive the plaudits of the multitude.
 Ludwig married, Feb. 20, 1868, Archduchess Maria Theresa of Austria.
 The ex-King's death was reported from Germany on Nov. 20, 1920.
 The death of ex-King Ludwig brings to the "throne" the present Crown Prince Rupprecht, one of Germany's war heroes, and the man the Monarchist party was believed to have in mind for emperor of Germany if they gained control of the country. Rupprecht was the eldest son of the late King Ludwig.

COUNCIL DECIDES TO SPEND MONEY WHERE REQUIRED
Long Debate on Question of Dropping at Once All Further Public Work
APPROPRIATION GONE
Ald. Fisher's Motion Topic—Public Holding Aldermen Personally Responsible
 After a debate lasting for over an hour the city council last night turned down a resolution of Ald. Fisher that would have meant the tying up of all public works activities, the rest of the council said.
 The appropriation is gone and the individual members of the civic body have been threatened with being held personally liable for overdrafts. Much emphasis was laid upon this by several of the aldermen.
 "That the public works department be asked not to spend any further money on public works as that department has spent more money up to the present than the appropriation for the year 1921," was the resolution.
 "That will tie up public works at once," said Ald. Woodley.
 "Council considered a further tax this year up to four tenths of a mill. 'I'm sorry I had to second that S. O. S. call of Ald. Fisher,'" said Mr. Ballinger, "but we have got to do something. Last year's council spent money that had to be taken care of this year."
 "There is bound to be an overdraft, your resolution is not worth that," said the mayor, snapping his finger. There will be money left over from other departments to take care of the overdraft.
 "Let the committee go cautiously," said the mayor in closing.
 "I could have brought the committees through without an overdraft," declared Ald. Treverton. "In two or three weeks money was voted out of my hands."
 "We have heard of indignation meetings. I would like to meet the indignation committee and ask them what we are going to do"—Ald. Bennett. "We hope this indignation meeting will be held in a few days, so that we can show those wise acres that people have to have bread and food."
 The resolution, lost by a vote of two to five, only the mover and seconder supporting it.

EX-EMPLOYEE OF PUBLIS WORK MAKES CHARGES
Investigation Ordered by City Council into Allegations by Mr. Duesberry
SAYS WORK WAS DELAYED
Mayor, Ald. Fishery, Ballinger and Bennett Named to Hold Probe Here
 Public works is to have a little investigation of its own on the strength of certain allegations made last evening by a former employee as to the alleged high cost of sewers.
 It all arose because Mr. Fred Duesberry was told to know why he had been "fired."
 Ald. Treverton, the chairman of the department of public works, said he could not answer that question as the hiring and dismissing of men is in the hands of the street foreman, Mr. John Henderson.
 "Why is the cost of sewers so great?" asked Mr. Duesberry, and proceeded to answer. He said that on the sewer on Ashley street he had had to drill five feet where three feet would have been sufficient, as only eighteen inches of rock was removed. The reason was that he did not have the levels, the speaker alleged. He further contended that men had been held up for eighteen days for lack of levels and material to proceed with the work.
 Mr. Duesberry argued that he had been dismissed because he told some of the Council of this and that he did not want to be blamed in the wrong if it were thought that there had been any dissatisfaction with his work.
 After spirited debate the Council, on motion of Aldermen Fisher and Ballinger, passed the following resolution calling for an investigation: "That a committee be composed of the Mayor, Aldermen Fisher, Ballinger and Bennett, to investigate the charge laid by Mr. Duesberry, to the effect that a gang of men was eighteen days without levels and material and also that five feet of rock was drilled and much money was wasted and that Mr. Duesberry be notified of the meeting."
 Useful in Camp.—Explorers, surveyors, prospectors and hunters will find Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil very useful in camp. When the feet and legs are wet and cold it is well to rub them freely with the Oil and the result will be the prevention of pains in the muscles, and should a cut, or contusion, or sprain be sustained, nothing could be better as a dressing or lotion.

PRICES ONLY LITTLE CHANGED

Decrease, Continuous Since July, 1920, Seems Checked Ottawa Says

INDEX NUMBER DOWN

Average Retail Prices of Staple Foods $11.82 in September and 11.44 in August

OTTAWA, Oct. 13.—Prices during September, both wholesale and retail, showed little change as compared with those ruling during August, those noted being largely seasonal, according to the statistical branch of the Department of Labor.

In retail prices the average cost of a list of staple foods in sixty Canadian cities was $11.82 in September, as compared with $11.44 for the same articles in August.

The chief increase for September last was in potatoes, the prices for the new crop being high as compared with old stock at the beginning of August, but about the same as for the new crop a year ago.

The Department of Labor's index number of wholesale prices, based on 100 for the 10-year period 1890-1899, was again slightly lower, standing at 232.7 for September, as compared with 236.4 for August, 326.6 for September 1920; 301.5 for September, 1919; 285.3 for September, 1918; 246.1 for September, 1917; 183.4 for September, 1916; 150.3 for September, 1915; and 141.3 for September, 1914.

NEW INDUSTRY FOR DESERONTO

Food Products Plant Will Prove Highly Beneficial to Town

NEWS OF THE WEEK

Looking Over Sites for Proposed Provincial Fish Hatchery

DESERONTO, Oct. 11 (By Mail).—On Friday afternoons of every week of High School, the Deseronto High School students give a special literary entertainment. The one given last Friday afternoon was very interesting and instructive.

Messrs Dan Sova and Joe Corby were called to Kingston yesterday to sail on the boat St. Louis as sailors. The boat is proceeding to Soda Point to load coal for Belleville.

The negotiations for a food products plant to be established in Deseronto are proceeding in a satisfactory manner. At the meeting of the Town Council, which was attended by the promoters and a banker, on Saturday afternoon, definite lines were adopted, which look to the assurance that Deseronto will secure the plant.

Mr. William Richardson, the baker on Centre street, was called to Cobourg today on account of the serious illness of his daughter, Mrs. Fred Mellow. Mr. Mellow is the nephew of Mr. W. H. Mellow, one of the blacksmiths of Deseronto.

Following up the visit of the Ministers and the M.P.P., Mr. McCloud, of Toronto, Provincial Inspector of Fisheries was in town today and inspected the different locations offered by Deseronto for a provincial fish hatchery.

AIM TO REDUCE UNEMPLOYMENT

Most Pressing National Problem Now Before the Canadian People

G.W.V.A. TO TAKE HAND

Convention Likely to Urge the Government to Re-establish Ex-Servicemen

OTTAWA, Oct. 13.—The annual convention of the Great War Veterans' Association which will be held at Port Arthur, Ont., October 17 to 22, will endeavor to find means to reduce the unemployment situation among former Canadian soldiers and sailors.

The Association is understood to regard unemployment as the most pressing national problem. It is expected that the convention will appoint a special committee composed of one member from each province to draw up resolutions on that subject.

The convention is expected to take steps to urge the Dominion Parliament to re-establish all ex-servicemen so far as possible in the economic positions which they would have obtained but for their war service.

BACKING HORSES NOT ALWAYS EVIL

Bishop of Birmingham Justifies "Harmless Backing of Formed Judgment"

DENOUNCES "GAMBLING"

Small Congregations in Church due to Lack of Advertising He Says

BIRMINGHAM, Eng., Oct. 13.—Acknowledging that he himself had bet on a horse race, the Bishop of Birmingham, opening the Church of England Congress as President, drew a nice distinction between "evil gambling" and "harmless moderate backing of a formed judgment."

"It was due no doubt," he said, "to the fact that I knew at that time, a good deal about that race animal the horse, and I still am prepared to forgive the owner of a race horse who backs in a moderate way the chances of a beautiful animal he has trained."

After denouncing "woman capable of much good in life who see the telephone dial after dial calling up stock brokers and getting agents to get money for dress and frivolity," the Bishop declared that if the church would distinguish between "a vicious profligate and the harmless backing of a formed judgment," it would accomplish more than by a crude statement which by its exaggeration tends to make people disregard its voice.

"It seems hard," he said, "to have to apply advertising to the church, but it is an advertising age and the only way to get the church's case clearly before the people is to advertise in the modern way."

NEWFOUNDLAND TO PAY TRIBUTE

Monument in Memory of the Heroism Shown at Gallipoli Campaign

AN UNIQUE CAMPAIGN

Selling Stocks at Dollar Share to Raise Funds for Adequate Memorial

On July 1st, 1916, in the Gallipoli campaign the Newfoundlanders went "over the top" eight hundred strong. Next day but sixty-five answered the roll-call.

This is but one instance of the heroism of the contingent which volunteered from our neighboring Dominion in the world's great war. Newfoundlanders did nobly in standing by the Motherland and the Allies against the forces which sought themselves and by their mothers and sisters, should be fittingly commemorated, for all time.

A novel method has been adopted to raise funds: A company has been formed, and stock certificates of the "War Memorial Company, Unlimited" are being sold by Newfoundlanders and their friends.

Lady Crosby, who is staying at the Ritz-Carlton, has succeeded in interesting Mayor Adams, president of the Montreal Newfoundland Society, and the matter is to be taken up at the first meeting of the season at the Society's headquarters, 459 Union avenue, on Tuesday evening next.

"Of course," said Lady Crosby this morning, "this company is purely a matter of sentiment; we do not pretend that buying stock in it is a cold-blooded business proposition. It is more than that. It is a matter of national patriotism. Unfortunately the matter was not taken up immediately after the Armistice. The depression which followed has made it impossible for many who would then have given a thousand dollars to give a hundred now. The days have slipped by, the war has receded and we do not visualize it as readily in all its hideousness. The monument proposals have hung fire so Colonel Rendell has launched this proposal."

Stock certificates at one dollar each are on sale for which, the certificate itself says, "the subscribers are guaranteed a suitable monument in the capital city of St. John's in memory of the gallant men who gave up their lives in the cause of Freedom and Humanity."

EMPLOY 1920 LISTS

Bulling Putting Two Year Limitation on 1919 List Means Another Registration

Of the women in Belleville between the ages of 21 and 50, British subjects, who will be entitled to a vote at the federal election in December, all but a few of them will have to look to getting their names on the voters' list if they desire to cast a ballot.

This is the information secured from good authority. The contention is based in the firm opinion that in the municipal lists of 1920 are to be used as the basis of the federal election list.

The ruling, putting the two-year limitation on the 1919 provincial election list, will kill the local list, as it has in most other centres. The only alternative left is to turn to the 1920 municipal list.

NEW ACT TESTED HERE

Deputy Provincial Officer Ruston Has First Case

Deputy Provincial Officer T. D. Ruston will bring his first case under the Women's Protection Act into the County Judge's court here on Wednesday next. This will be in the nature of a test case as the defence will, it is understood, fight the prosecution.

Mr. Ruston holds the rank of deputy officer to carry out the act under Mr. J. J. Kelso.

DIED MINUTE AFTER SHE WAS AWAKENED

Wife of Mrs. William McQuaid of Kingston in Belleville Hears Bad News

With startling suddenness, death claimed Eileen McMahon, wife of William McQuaid, yesterday at her home on Russell street, Kingston. Deceased had been in excellent health and had gone to her bed in a cheerful manner and had shown no trace of the least illness. When the family was rising, one of the members went to her room to rouse her and one minute after Mrs. McQuaid had awakened, she passed away.

Mrs. McQuaid was a Roman Catholic and attended St. Mary's Cathedral. She is survived by her husband, six sons and four daughters. Mr. Bertram McQuaid, of Belleville is a son.

Funeral will take place tomorrow to the Cathedral and thence to St. Mary's cemetery.

DISMISS WOMEN EMPLOYEES

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 13.—Highland Park, an adjacent city, has declined to strike from its payroll all women employees. Married women were recently ordered discharged from city positions and last night the council adopted a resolution prohibiting officials from hiring unmarried women in the future. The council was prompted in its action by the large number of men out of employment, it was said.

CROOKS LEAVING THE BIG TOWNS

Scatter for Winter Offensive to Smaller Cities and Start Operations

CHICAGO CHIEF KNOWS

"They Found Villages Easy Places to Work" Says Head of Windy City Force

CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—The crook who figures the world owes him a living has taken a gun and gone to the small town to collect.

Crooks and highwaymen have deserted the big cities and have started their winter offensive against villages of a few thousand population.

Reports reaching Chicago police headquarters, the clearing house for middle-western crime, show that in the last twenty-four hours activities of bandits, thugs and yeggs have centred in towns and villages.

This increased record of crime, according to Police Chief Fitzmorris, marks the opening of the winter crime season.

"The small town is to be the victim this winter instead of large cities," Fitzmorris said. "This, I believe, is due to the precautions taken by police in big cities. With squads in readiness to combat crime, the yeggs have been driven from the large cities."

"They find villages easy places to work. The small town bank seldom has squads. Usually, only the cashier is on duty."

"The outbreak in crime in the last twenty-four hours—the most startling for months—is not due to any organized band with a master mind as leader," said Fitzmorris. "The small bands of robbers are playing their own games."
