WHAT TO AVOID DURING AN ELECTRICAL STORM

Hustle for the Cellar—Keep Clear of Cows and Oak Trees

Perhaps the best advice that may be offered those who live in constant fear of lightning is—forget it! If you miss a thunderbolt at you the chances are that he will get you, no matter where you are or what you may be doing to safeguard yourself.

Experts in the weather bureau have studied the caprices and freaks, as well as the fairly regular habits of lightning, and have arrived at certain conclusions that are of value.

For instance, they will tell you that the safest place you can find when such danger threatens is in a deep, damp cellar, close to the walls, always bearing in mind not to post yourself between the furnace, if there be a furnace there, and any metallic object.

If you are caught out of doors in a storm, remember that the worst place you can find is an isolated tree. You will be safer in the heart of a woods, and safer still if you reconcile yourself to a thorough wetting in the open.

If you are with a number of people, do not huddle together in a group, for it has been ascertained that larger gatherings of men or beasts offer greater attraction to lightning than do isolated individuals.

When you are indoors, as the storm comes on, you will do well not to forget the advice as to the deep, damp cellar. But if there isn't a cellar, there are things to avoid. Keep away from open fireplaces and chimneys, for a chimney being the highest part of a house is the place that lightning is most likely to take.

An especially dangerous place is directly beneath a hanging lamp or an electric light fixture suspended from the ceiling by a chain. Wood, stone, brick and stucco houses are about equal in safety they afford, since they are all poor conductors.

THE LATE HON. MRS JOHN STORRS

The sad news has reached Mr. R. W. Storrs of the death of his sister-in-law, Hon. Mrs. John Storrs, the wife of the very Reverend John Storrs, Dean of Rochester. From "The Rochester and Chatham Observer" we call the following biographical items regarding the deceased lady. Lucy Anna Maria Storrs was the oldest daughter of the late Major Cockayne Cust and is a granddaughter of the late Lord Brownlow and a sister of the present holder of the title. From her earliest years she took a deep interest in the poor and in social work. In 1881 she married

Rev. John Storrs, well known as the popular and successful vicar of St. Peter's, Eaton Square, London. Prebendary of St. Paul's Cathedral and now Dean of Rochester. After her marriage Mrs. Storrs devoted herself to the work of this highly organized parish which was served by no less than seven assistant curates in addition to the vicar. To quote from "The Observer":

"Not only did the Rev. J. Storrs (as he was then known) have charge of the church at Eaton-square, but also those of St. John, Wilton-road, and the Chapel of St. Peter, Buckingham Gate. There were also in the parish several clubs for men, boys and girls, a hostel for the aged, a Mission House, various Guilds and a workhouse. In all these Mrs. Storrs became deeply interested. She never failed regularly to visit the workhouse and to preside at the Mothers' Union. She made a practice of visiting Stepey regularly every week, and it is a touching fact that during Mrs. Storrs' last illness, letters have been received regularly from some of the very poorest people of that locality. The Vicarage at St. Peter's was made the centre of social life and hospitality to parishioners, to preachers and to people coming from the country. Mrs. Storrs was equally at home with the people of Belgrave as with those in the poorer portions of London, though much less of her time was spent with the rich. In each of these widely dissimilar spheres her gracious and original personality created a profound and lasting impression. She had a rare gift of wit and repartee which served her equally at home and welcome on the farmhouses in the Brownlow Estates, in Belgrave-square, or in the homes of the poor. She possessed a gift of sketching and painting in water-colours, and also had a charming musical voice. In her earlier days both she and the Dean were frequently to be seen riding in the Row.

The Dean and Mrs. Storrs had six children—four sons and two daughters, the eldest, Ronald, Governor of Jerusalem since 1917; Edmund, who served in the war and died on Armistice Day, 1918; Bernard a Capt. in the Indian Army School of Education; Christopher, a clergyman, a master at Malvern College and an army Chaplain during the War; Miss Monica and Petronella, the two daughters are well known for their work among girls. During Mrs. Storrs' illness prayers for her recovery were offered in the churches of all denominations in the city and neighbourhood. To quote again from "The Observer":

"Amid every manifestation of sympathy the funeral of the Hon. Mrs. Storrs took place on Wednesday afternoon, being witnessed by a huge crowd of sympathizers; indeed it was one of the most imposing that has been seen in Rochester in recent years. The Cathedral choir and clergy, preceded by a cross-bearer, led the cortege to the Cathedral Burial Ground.

"The coffin was borne to its resting place on a farm lorry from the Darritley estate at Cobham, the vehicle being drawn by two horses covered with a cloth of purple, the whole being surmounted by wreaths composed of beautiful flowers. Another lorry was utilised for the conveyance of the very large number of floral tributes, in which coloured flowers had been rather profusely used in addition to the white blooms, as the expressed wish of the family.

Mr. Ronald Storrs (Governor-General of Jerusalem), the Rev. C. Storrs and the Misses Storrs walked on each side of the first carriage, in which the Dean rode to the Borstal Arch, and then headed the solemn procession of family mourners to the Graveside. The Dean's wonderful fortitude under his sad bereavement was noticeable as a striking example of the noble Christian character. Other relatives and friends followed in a score or more of coaches and motor-cars.

The whole line of route of the funeral procession was thronged with City residents and others eager to pay their last tribute of respect to one whom they had so dearly loved. Not a few were observed to be in tears.

In addition to the Dean and his family there were also present: Lord Brownlow (brother), Mr. Brownlow Tower (brother-in-law), Mrs. Hugh Parker (niece), Miss Mary Storrs (sister-in-law), Mrs. Francis Storrs (daughter-in-law), Mrs. Harry Cust (sister-in-law), Mrs. Clowes (cousin), Mr. Lionel Cust, C. V. O. (cousin), Lord and Lady Darnley, Lady Robson, Lady Trotter, Miss Trotter, Miss Angela Trotter, Mrs. Curtis (cousin of the Dean), Misses Blanche and Eva Drury (cousins of the Dean) and Lady Dixon Harland.

The Dean and his family have received telegrams of sympathy from Lord Allenby, Sir Herbert Samuel, the Anglican Bishop and his family, the Grand Mufti of Jerusalem, the Latin, Orthodox and Armenian Patriarchs of Jerusalem, the General Assembly of the Jews, Jerusalem, and numerous other Christian, Moslem and Jewish notabilities.

It only remains for the author of the above article to add his own testimony to the gracious personality of the deceased lady, whom it was his privilege to meet some years ago at her home in London and to respectfully tender the sympathy of himself and the many friends of this honored family in the ancient parishes of Cornwallis and Histon, where the name of Storrs is still a word to conjure with.—R. F. D.

THE OLD FAVORITES

The most of the middle aged and older folk have ringing in their souls the echoes of the songs which caught their ear and charmed their heart in the days of long ago. The list is a long one but many of the present generation of young people know little of their melody. "The Old Oaken Bucket", "Silver Threads Among the Gold", "My Old Kentucky Home", "Swanee River", "Home, Sweet Home", "How when once heard can these and similar songs be forgotten. Who can believe that those frivolous airs that may well be classified as Jazz will ever take the place of the songs of long ago. And if from songs we pass to hymns the same is true. There are great hymns of the church expressive of the deepest and holiest emotions which the heart knows for which no substitute can ever be found. The Etude, a Philadelphia musical journal, published some months ago the results of a poll of its readers on their favorite hymn. Over 32,000 votes were cast and the hymn at the head of the list gave some assurance that in the realm of religion the lighter class of hymns have not yet swept the field. The ten favorites mentioned by the Etude were: Abide With Me, 7301; Nearer My God to Thee, 5490; Lead Kindly Light, 4161; Rock of Ages, 3432; Jesus, Lover of My Soul, 2709; Holy, Holy, Holy, 1444; Just as I am Without One Plea, 875; Jesus, Saviour, Pilot Me, 487; My Faith Looks Up to Thee, 236; All Hail the Power of Jesus Name, 220.

In choices such as these, giving evidence as they do of sobriety and deep sentiment, there is much that is assuring.

A dispatch from London says that the lynchscope has been so perfected that the inventor has been able to see more than 900 miles. Pretty soon the lonely wife at home can have one of these machines installed in the house and see what hubby is doing on his vacation.

Okanagan and Fruit Conservation

The view is that of a flourishing new fruit district in the Okanagan Valley near which Mrs. Smith (inset) has opened her dehydration plant (bottom left).

THE fruit products industry of Mrs. M. B. Smith of Naramata, Okanagan Valley, is a story of Canadian initiative that has assumed large proportions. After extensive research work and experimenting on a small scale, Mrs. Smith is this year opening up a large plant for the dehydration of fruit at Poplar Grove, between Naramata and Penticton, where seventy fruit products will be prepared instead of eleven as sent out by Mrs. Smith from her ranch on the benches.

The site of the new factory is a point in the very heart of the fruit district and convenient to the railway. A siding of the Kettle Valley Railway will be run into the premises.

The most important factor of the enlarged scope of the work is that the new industry will utilize much soft and perishable fruit that would otherwise go to waste as most of the fruit must be in a tree-ripened condition for dehydration and therefore much too ripe to ship.

Mrs. Smith was visiting on the prairies in the early stages of the war when conservation of food was beginning to be a vital question. She saw dried logan berries for the first time and it led her to dwell on the possibilities of the dehydration of other fruits and vegetables. Later, visiting in the Okanagan Valley, she was much concerned over the large quantity of fruit and vegetables that could not be shipped so, with broad vision and patriotic idea, she began the evaporation of fruit. Mrs. Smith made an extensive study of the work and persisted, despite the fact that men of experience declared that she could not dry fruit, other than apples. Now she is in the unique position of being the first one in Canada who has dried fruit, other than apples, on a commercial basis. Her dried peach is the only naturally peeled peach on the market, either in Canada or the United States.

Mrs. Smith, being very much interested in movements to promote the practical usefulness of women, declares that there is a large opportunity for women in this work. Having no desire to keep a monopoly of the new industry of which she may be said to be the founder, she hopes that all women in fruit growing districts may start small evaporating plants to care for their surplus fruits, not only for their own households but also for export.

By dehydration a large part of the fruit and vegetables which otherwise spoil is saved. The products are so reduced in weight and bulk that one railway-car or one ship will carry as much dehydrated fruit as ten of fresh.

Mrs. Smith, in continuing to make a study of conditions, is opening up a new field and demonstrating that women are the natural housekeepers of the race.

Cleopatra's Beauty Secret

Cleopatra knew that to have a fresh fine skin, thorough cleansing was necessary. She knew that the gentlest means must be employed. She used Palm and Olive oils.

The crude combination of these oils which was the best even royalty could command, is today brought to perfection in Palmolive.

Every girl can have the radiant healthy skin which is the foundation of all beauty. Intelligent care is the secret—thorough cleansing the basis.

Unless thoroughly cleansed with soap and water, the skin becomes sluggish and inactive. The tiny pores clog with dirt, oil secretions, perspiration, rouge and powder, and blackheads and other blemishes result.

A pure mild soap causes no irritation. Women who fear it have been using the wrong soap.

Palmolive, with its creamy mild lather is lotion-like in its action. It soothes while it cleans; it freshens, revives and stimulates and leaves the skin delightfully fresh and rosy.

You can buy Palmolive Soap at all first-class dealers.

UNITED BAPTIST CONVENTION

Opened At Baptist Church Yesterday With Large Attendance

The seventy-eighth annual convention of the United Baptist Church of the Maritime Provinces opened at the Wolfville church at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning. Over two hundred delegates are in attendance and an unusually interesting series of meetings is expected.

The first session opened with an inspiring devotional service conducted by Rev. Dr. Patterson, his subject being "The Church". Rev. G. C. Warren, of Fredericton, the president, called the convention to order at ten o'clock and prayer was made by Rev. C. R. Freeman, of St. John. After the usual routine business had been transacted Rev. Dr. Patterson gave a most cordial and appropriate address of welcome which was replied to by Rev. N. A. McNeil, of Marysville, N. B., in a felicitous address.

The report of the Foreign Mission Board was given by Rev. H. E. Stillwell, of Toronto, who gave a most instructive address in the form of a very lucid review of the twelfth annual report of the Canadian Baptist Foreign Mission Board.

This report, copies of which were distributed among those present, is an instructive booklet of fifty-one pages containing a very complete account of the conditions in India and Bolivia and the work which has been done in those lands by Canadian Baptists during the past forty-nine years. The many names mentioned familiar to Wolfville people make the report of especial interest to delegates from this section.

At the afternoon session reports were presented from various committees and discussed, and Rev. N. A. McNeil, of Marysville, N. B., was elected president for the ensuing year.

At the evening meeting interesting addresses were given by Rev. H. E. Stillwell and other representatives of the Foreign Mission work of the church.

CHURCH WORKERS MUCH FETED AT GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. B. Witter Celebrate Fiftieth Anniversary at Grandview Home

(From a Vancouver paper)

An event of very great interest took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. B. Witter, 747 Lakewood drive, on Sunday, when they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary.

Coming to Vancouver twelve years ago from Halifax and formerly of Wolfville, Mr. and Mrs. Witter have been actively engaged in church circles, where by their earnest work they have proved themselves invaluable to a wide circle of friends. Mr. Witter for over ten years has been acting as the superintendent of the Renfrew Street Baptist Mission which he started and in which he has a large Bible class of teen age girls. Mrs. Witter has been, since its inception, treasurer of the Bible class of the First Baptist church.

A very impressive service was held at their home on Sunday afternoon conducted by Mr. P. Meyer. Among those who took part were Rev. Walter Daniels and Rev. D. G. McDonald, a life-long friend of the couple.

Mrs. Witter was at home to her many friends on Monday afternoon and during the evening a family reunion was held. Yellow golden rod, gladioli and golden glow in profusion were effectively arranged through the rooms the table being centred with the same blossom over which was suspended a large golden bell. Presiding at the urns were Mrs. E. H. Mowbray and Miss Linda Higgins. Mrs. H. B. Witter of Victoria, cut the loaves and assisting were Miss Sophie Witter, Miss Glen Mowbray and Miss Anna Mowbray, granddaughters of the couple.

A pleasing feature of the afternoon was the presentation of a wedding cake, by Miss Linda Higgins enclosed in which was a purse of gold and numerous notes of good wishes from old friends.

Mrs. Colin Grant, on behalf of the Bible class of the First Baptist church, presented Mrs. Witter with a purse of gold and Mrs. Mullard presented a bridal bouquet which was worn by the guest of honor. Another shower bouquet of sweet peas and mignonette was received from Mr. Witter's Bible class.

WOLFVILLE BOY MARRIED

An interesting wedding was solemnized on Tuesday evening when Mr. Guy Pineo, of this town, and Miss Mary O'Malley, Newcastle, N. B., were united in marriage. The ceremony took place quietly at the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. R. B. Layton, Kentville. The bride looked most becoming in her soft blue dress. Immediately after the ceremony the couple were driven to their home in Wolfville by Mr. John Pineo, who acted as best man, while Miss George Dalrymple was the bridesmaid.

On their arrival at their home they were saluted by an unusually large crowd of neighbors, after which a private party took place in the house. A dainty tea was served by Mrs. Fred Pineo, mother of the groom, and Mrs. Everett Pineo, aunt of the groom. Kind assistance was lent by Miss Ida Duncanson. The wedding party closed about 11:30, everybody wishing the happy couple many years of success and happiness.

Items Of Local Interest

Miss B. K. Saxton returned last week from the millinery openings at St. John and is now making preparations for her fall opening which promises to be of especial interest this year.

The name of Rev. R. F. Dixon was omitted, through no fault of our own, from the list of those who spoke at the Acadian celebration at Grand Pre on Thursday of last week.

Mr. Carl Farnsworth, director of Music at Acadia Conservatory, and Mrs. Farnsworth, who have been spending the summer at Cherryfield, Maine, returned to Wolfville on Wednesday.

Mr. R. L. McLatchy, Inspector of Customs and Excise, with Mrs. McLatchy were visitors in Wolfville at the end of last week, guests at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. Hardy, Acadia street.

The annual convention of the United Baptist Women's Missionary Union of the Maritime Provinces has been in session at Truro this week. The delegates attending from Wolfville were Mrs. F. H. Beale, Mrs. L. H. Eaton, Mrs. H. G. Perry, Mrs. J. L. Hardy, Mrs. H. T. DeWolfe, Mrs. D. Grant.

Mr. W. B. Davidson, of THE ACADIAN accompanied by Mrs. Davidson, left by the early train on Wednesday for Jacques River, N. B., where they will be the guests of friends until the end of next week. During their absence they expect to make a short trip to Montreal where Mrs. Davidson will take in some of the big millinery openings.

The lesson which Wolfville people should learn from last Friday night's fire is that it is dangerous to have property that is not covered by insurance. Had the fire got a better start—or had weather conditions been more unfavorable—what about your house or furniture or other property? Can you afford to take the risk? If not call on H. P. Davidson at the office of THE ACADIAN and talk the matter over with him. He can help you and will be glad to do so.

Miss B. K. Saxton has been so fortunate as to be able to secure the assistance of Mrs. W. B. Davidson in her millinery parlors this coming season. Having for some time held the position of chief designer in the largest millinery establishment in Canada—with experience in Boston and other U. S. cities—Mrs. Davidson's direction will assure the ladies of Wolfville and vicinity unusual service in the matter of artistic and fashionable headwear.

GASPEREAU

The Misses Zilpha and Flora King, of River Philip, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Williams Eagles.

Miss Ethel McNear, of Springfield, spent a few days of last week with relatives here.

School opened on Monday, August 27, with Miss Baker, of Wolfville, for the Advanced Department, and Miss Langille, of River John, for the Primary Department.

Miss Emma Schofield, of Wolfville, spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Otis Schofield.

The Misses Hope and Enid Hardy, of Wolfville, spent a few days of this week with Mrs. Watson Miner.

The August Women's Institute met with Mrs. John Miner. A goodly number were present. Two new members joined.

By special request the excellent report of the Women's Institute convention held at Truro by Mrs. Reginald Hemnigar was repeated.

Mrs. Russell Kenne and Miss Gladys Kenne left on Thursday for Boston.

Mrs. O'Brien and daughter Margaret of Canning spent Sunday, August 19, with Mrs. James Gertridge.

Miss Lily Payzant, of Kentville, spent Sunday, August 19, with Mrs. P. J. Gertridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Duncanson, of Wolfville, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Duncanson.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Westcott on the birth of a daughter on Sunday, August 26th, at Miss Wood's hospital, Port Williams.

CERTO
---Now that fresh fruits are here
Why not make the most delicious Jams and Jellies you ever tasted?
More customers every day are adopting the sure, economical, Certo method of making Jams and Jellies.
It means delicious quality, never possible the old way, and your Jams and Jellies keep perfectly.
Why boil away your fruit or risk the loss of valuable fruit and sugar by following old-fashioned methods, when the Certo method never fails? The Certo way takes a little more sugar, but the sugar does not boil away, and you get at least 50% more Jam or Jelly from same amount of fruit and your Jams or Jellies will cost less.
We supply with every bottle of Certo, a book of recipes. Everything is clearly explained—you cannot go wrong.
We heartily recommend Certo—a pure fruit product; contains no gelatine or preservative.

Mr. Rufus Jess made an efficient auctioneer. The splendid sum of sixty-five dollars was realized. The ice cream booth, which was in charge of Mrs. Nahum Carr, of Portland assisted by Miss Laura Thorpe and Mr. Thomas Fraser, was attractively decorated. Much credit is due Mrs. Carr and her assistants, Mrs. Elizabeth Munroe and Miss Hilda Corkum, for the success of the evening and to Mr. and Mrs. Manson Huntley for opening their home. The proceeds will be devoted to the cemetery fund. Mrs. Carr wishes to express her appreciation to those friends who kindly donated and assisted in any way. PROPER WAY TO OPEN ANY CANNED GOODS

Did you ever try to open a can of food? Did you punch a hole in the top of the can and wiggle the can-opener around, leaving a jagged edge like a buzzsaw? Did you cut your hand and lose your temper over the poor inoffensive can? If so, you will be interested to know, once and for all, that there is no need for all this extra effort and annoyance. Just remove the label from the side of the can, until you can see the seam which was made in forming the body of the can. Lay the can on its side and puncture the can next to the seam with the point of the can-opener, and next to the top of can. Then set the can in an upright position, insert the can-opener in the hole already made on the "side" of the can—working away from the seam until you have cut around the can. You will then be able to turn back the entire top (or bottom). If the can be held firmly, any ordinary can-opener will answer. By this method there is no risk of cutting the hand and you will have a smooth edge, over which the entire contents will pass without being cut or broken. The crook will get straightened out sooner or later.

MOTURING INCREASE IN NOVA SCOTIA

16,159 Cars For Population of 523,837—One Car For Every 32 People. It seems but a few years ago when bicycling was introduced and became in a short time a favorite mode of locomotion. Gradually a type of horseless carriage was developed and then they began to appear frequently on our streets. Great was the cry against them as it was not safe for women and children to drive the horses on our roadways. There was quite an energetic fight to keep motors off the streets but gradually they obtained rights to travel certain days and soon had full privileges of the road the same as any other vehicle. The rapid and remarkable increase in these motor cars in Canada, in a very few years, is shown by the registration figures recently published. In 1907, or only sixteen years ago, there were only 254 cars registered in the Province of Quebec. There were none it appears at that time in New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island or Manitoba, and only 2,130 in all Canada, of which Ontario claimed 1,530. The remaining provinces boasted of the following registrations: Nova Scotia 62; Alberta, 55; British Columbia, 157; Saskatchewan, 74. In 1922

THE WAR OVER LIQUOR

We have now reached the stage of guerrilla war. America is in the first grips of a combat as full of murderous revolution and red-handed assassination as the struggle that has nearly ruined Ireland. The wets are no longer merely criminals; they are insurrectionists, armed rebels. Their "last" resort and argument is the gun. On December 26 last, Charles Blinn, enforcement officer of Ohio, was assassinated in Steubenville, O., by an imported gunman brought for that special purpose. This murder quickly followed that of two officers in Kentucky. In all Chief Haynes reports, 255 enforcement officers have lost their lives in loyalty to the Government of the United States. There have been less casualties in some battles that our army has fought in what we were pleased to call "war on the flag of our country".

A Federal grand jury in New York has recently indicted thirteen prominent clubmen of that city caught in the act of disbursing the illicit drink that the rum-runners and bootleggers slyly bring, in defiance of the law and Constitution to the extent of shooting down sworn officers of the Federal government. Every drink of such liquor that silt-lined lawbreakers sip in their clubs and homes is mixed with the blood of American defenders of law. Federal Judge Knox was right when he commended the jurymen for their verdict, with the words: "You have rendered the public a great service if by these indictments you bring people in high walks in life to a realization that they cannot trample the Constitution of the United States underfoot".

But in Philadelphia in two days eight "respected citizens" were found guilty, and one hundred other offenders, realizing that Federal jurors would not hesitate to convict, entered pleas of guilty, and were fined to the tune of $20,000. And in Cleveland, Louis and Abraham Auerbach, who pleaded guilty to a "million-dollar" alcohol conspiracy, were sentenced to serve terms in the Federal prison. And these silk-glove violators, when they complete a two-year term in Atlanta, will have to serve a term in the Warrensville workhouse. If the "intensive and comprehensive wet campaign", as the Toledo Times calls it, isn't "losing its grip", it will when it gets a few more blisters. The Times says: "There are a few sections where sentiment for modification of the law is strong; but, as time demonstrates the economic value of prohibition, the opposition will lose its grip. There is less reason today than there was a year ago for believing that the American people will countenance any attempt to revive the old order."—Rev. John P. Cowan, in Christian Endeavor World.

CONSIDER THE EDITOR

Consider the Editor. He weareth purple and fine linen. His abode is among the mansions of the rich. His wife hath her limousine and his first-born sporteth a racing car that can hit her up at sixty fathoms. Lo! All the people breaketh their necks to hand him money. A child is born unto the wife of a merchant in a bazaar. The physician getteth twenty-five golden plunks. The editor writeth a stick and half and telleth the multitude that the child tippeth the beam at nine pounds. Yes, he lieth even as a centurion. And the happy father giveth him a cigar. Behold the young one groweth up and graduateth. And the editor putteth in his paper a swell notice. Yea, a peach of a notice. He telleth of the wisdom of the young woman and of her exceeding comeliness. Like unto the roses of Sharon is she and her gown is played up to beat the band. And the dressmaker getteth a note of thanks from the S. G. G. The daughter goeth on a journey and the Editor throweth himself into the story of the farewell party. It runneth a column solid. And the fair one remembereth him afar with a picture post card that cost six for a jiney.

Behold she returneth and the youth of the place fall down and worship. She picketh one, and lo, she picketh a lemon. But the Editor calleth him one of the most promising young men and getteth away with it. And they send to him a bid to the wedding feast and behold the bids are printed by a Toronto mail order house. Flowery and long is the wedding notice the Editor printeth. The minister getteth ten bones. The groom standeth the Editor off with a twelve-month's subscription.

All flesh is grass and in time the wife is gathered into the silo. The Minister getteth his bit. The Editor printeth a death notice, two columns of obituary, three lodge notices, a cubit of poetry and a card of thanks. He forgetteth to read the proof and the head of the playgeth unthine cometh out "Gone to Her Last Roasting Place".

And all that are akin to the deceased jumped on the Editor with exceeding great jumps. And they pulleth out their ads, and cancelleth their subscriptions and they swing the hammer unto the third and fourth generations. Can you beat it?

REAL CHURCH UNION

"Dr. Grenfell, after amputating the leg of a Roman Catholic, wrote an appeal for a wooden leg to enable the man to move himself about. This was published in the Congregationalist, and read by a Baptist woman, whose husband, a Methodist, who had worn a wooden leg, had just died. Instead of buying the leg with the rest of the corpse, she shipped it to Dr. Grenfell. So the Methodist leg, given by a Baptist woman in answer to a Congregational appeal in behalf of a Roman Catholic, is now being used as a perfectly satisfactory interdenominational understanding."—Christian Advocate.

Miss Hamilton, of Halifax, is the guest of her friend, Mrs. Capt. Faulkner.

A disastrous fire occurred on Monday night when the house, shed and barn belonging to Mr. Joe Parks and son were totally destroyed. This fire removed one of the old landmarks, as the house had for many years occupied a prominent site on Church Street. Several members from here attended the special meeting called by Miss MacDougall, of Truro, at Town Hall, Kentville, relative to the dismissal of a county nurse. All feel that this step is greatly to the detriment of health work in this county.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Rice, of North Sydney, were the guests last week of Miss Dorothy Hisley at Oak Heights.

Mrs. B. R. Rice, of North Sydney, is now a guest of Mrs. G. H. Hisley.

The alarm of the fire siren in Wolfville awakened a few of our residents at one o'clock Friday night, when Mr. Hutchinson's barn was burned.

The high wind of Tuesday night and all day Wednesday blew off a large quantity of apples in orchards here, also broke large limbs off the trees.

Miss Jessie Bishop went to Evangeline Beach on Sunday to join the party of young ladies from here, who all returned home Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Singleton, with daughter and son, of Brockton, Mass., are guests at the home of their uncle, Mr. G. I. Fraser. They motored all the way going to Prince Edward Island en route, enjoying the trip all through. They were accompanied by Mrs. Minto and Miss Eatop, R. N., mother and sister of Mrs. Singleton, who are guests of Mrs. George Gates, Port Williams.

Our school reopened for the new term on Monday with a large attendance of pupils and Miss Freda Ritcey, of Riverport, Lunenburg county, in charge.
