

THE CAMPAIGN.

The "On the Make" Policy with Examples.

While the country has been suffering from hard times and national deficits, the Government has been "on the make" on the campaign days. In that dark hour in 1872 when, with victory all but assured, the Party bribers found that they had exhausted their funds in "aiding and abetting" the Ontario Bank...

SENATOR SIMPSON.

Senator Simpson, of Bowmanville, President of the Ontario Bank, was one of the upstarts of the Party of Purify in its Opposition days. In that dark hour in 1872 when, with victory all but assured, the Party bribers found that they had exhausted their funds...

DEAR SIR.

Although I am not disposed to oppose Mr. Gibbs on personal grounds, I have long and hard to promote the interests of Canada, I now ask my friends to support me who support the present Government, for the following reasons: 1. For the country's good, and to show to England that we are still as a nation...

THE CARTWRIGHT-SIMPSON BARGAIN.

Q. Had you an interview with the Finance Minister before the Ontario Bank was written? A. I had an interview on the 25th December, 1873.

Q. Who was it?

Q. Who was it? A. By Mr. Cartwright. Q. What did he tell you? A. He told me that the Government was sustained by the Ontario banks...

Q. What did he say?

Q. What did he say? A. He said if they were sustained the Ontario banks would have a fair proportion of the Government surplus until required.

deposited $400,000 with us to be sent to Winnipeg. Mr. Cartwright—I asked you a question, please to answer it.

Q. How many? A. One hundred. Q. Where? A. In South Ontario. Q. What is the means of getting gentlemen who had sufficient influence to secure 100 votes that night?

Q. On what night? A. The night you were speaking of. Q. The night you did not go to bed? A. Oh, I did not go to bed till very late one night.

Q. Where was this? A. At Glen's house. Q. How many were present? A. Some twenty-three or six or eight.

Q. Then you had a committee meeting? A. It was not a committee meeting; it was just a gathering. Q. Was there any chairman? A. No.

Q. But they came in and passed out? A. Yes, they passed in and out. Q. What was the influence you brought with you that night? A. An eloquent man!

Q. You are not alone; then what influence did you bring to bear? A. It was not money, any way. Q. Well, what was it? A. Oh, a sort of mesmerism. (Laughter).

The effect of his official circular and his own personal exertions was that Mr. Gibbs, the Vice-President of the bank, was defeated in South Ontario, and Government triumph was secured also in North Ontario and East and West Durham. Mr. Simpson acted up to his part of the agreement, and Mr. Cartwright, on behalf of the Government, fulfilled his, as the following figures will show:

Table with 2 columns: Deposits in Ontario, Ontario Bank, 1873-31st Dec. $770,000; 1874-31st Dec. $1,024,000; 1875-31st Dec. $1,200,000; 1876-31st Dec. $1,400,000; 1877-31st Dec. $1,600,000.

The Ontario Bank has a capital of $3,000,000. The other banks in Ontario have a capital of $13,000,000. So that Mr. Simpson's bank's share of the Government deposits would be in a legitimate proportion of 20 per cent. of the whole.

Q. At that time? A. I saw him a dozen times. Q. Did you see Mr. McGill? A. I did. [Here it may be well to say that Mr. F. W. GLEN is now the Government candidate in South Ontario, and Dr. McGILL the gentleman who quarrelled with Mr. GIBBS in 1873.]

Q. Did you see Mr. McGill? A. I did. [Here it may be well to say that Mr. F. W. GLEN is now the Government candidate in South Ontario, and Dr. McGILL the gentleman who quarrelled with Mr. GIBBS in 1873.]

given in the Public Accounts and Marine and Fisheries reports for 1877: Pierre A. Tremblay, 763; J. A. Gagne, 690; H. J. Tremblay, 378; Thomas Tremblay, 621; William Tremblay, 298; John Gony, 143; S. J. Tremblay, 655; and Fisheries Department, aggregating $4,710.

ROBERT JAFFRAY & CO.

Mr. ROBERT JAFFRAY, the Party "boss" in Toronto, runs a grocery on Yonge street. His first lieutenant, Mr. HUGH MILLER, is a druggist on King street east near the market, and his second lieutenant, Mr. R. R. RAYNE, has a grocery on Wellington street.

These three gentlemen, being largely out of pocket at every election through putting their money into the Ontario Bank, on the groceries supplied the Government Works between Toronto and Winnipeg, where Mr. BANNATYNE, M.P., is a member of the House of Commons.

Mr. JAFFRAY dropped out last year. He was a member of the Ontario Government in 1873, but was defeated in the election of 1874. He is now a member of the Ontario Government in 1878.

MR. DAVID GLASS.

Mr. DAVID GLASS, a London lawyer, was elected to the Dominion Parliament in 1872 by the Conservative electors of East Middlesex. In 1873 he deserted his Party and went over to Mr. MacDONALD, the Liberal leader.

MR. DONALD A. SMITH, M.P.

MR. DONALD A. SMITH was another of the 1873 party deserters. He was elected to the House of Commons in 1873, but was defeated in the election of 1874. He is now a member of the Ontario Government in 1878.

HAMILTON, 16th April, 1875.

Sir—Nothing very important for advertisement for the Ontario Bank. The Ontario Bank is a company of 100 shareholders, each holding 100 shares of $100 each.

M. DE ST. JUST.

M. DE ST. JUST, the chief political agent of the Mackenzie Government in Ontario, is a man of high standing. He is a member of the Ontario Government in 1878.

Table with 3 columns: Name, Position, Salary. M. de St. Just, Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec, $10,000; J. M. Tett, Secretary of State, $6,750; Ernest Tett, Customs Collector, $2,925; Emile Tett, Clerk Canada Pacific Railway, $1,100.

A. G. B. BANNATYNE, M.P.

Mr. BANNATYNE, M.P., was returned for Provencher on the 31st March, 1874. He ran at the general election in 1875, but was beaten. His case has already been referred to under the head of Independence of Parliament, but he is in every way entitled to figure in the "on the make" chapter.

Q. Did they try to get the general election? A. They did. Q. Then the Ontario Bank was not a success? A. No. Q. Then the Ontario Bank was not a success? A. No.

Q. Did you attend any meeting while you were in the House of Commons? A. No. Q. Did you remember being in a room one night, and Mr. Brown wanting you to go to bed? A. I do not.

OUR NEW-YORK LETTER.

At the lower right hand corner of Fifth Avenue and Twenty-third street stands one of the three buildings which are to be erected on the site of the late granite building, as back a few feet from the street and surrounded by a tall tower.

The objects for which the building is now being erected are, to give the College an endowment of $100,000, to erect a new building at a cost of $40,000, and to erect a new building at a cost of $40,000.

The County Inspectors (Forsyth and Kilgour) have been ordered by the Mayor to inspect the buildings at a cost of $40,000, and to erect a new building at a cost of $40,000.

The Teachers' Convention for the County of York has been held at the Hotel Hamilton, and the results of the meeting are as follows: The Convention has decided to erect a new building at a cost of $40,000.

The Ontario Bank has a capital of $3,000,000. The other banks in Ontario have a capital of $13,000,000. So that Mr. Simpson's bank's share of the Government deposits would be in a legitimate proportion of 20 per cent. of the whole.

Q. At that time? A. I saw him a dozen times. Q. Did you see Mr. McGill? A. I did. [Here it may be well to say that Mr. F. W. GLEN is now the Government candidate in South Ontario, and Dr. McGILL the gentleman who quarrelled with Mr. GIBBS in 1873.]

Q. Did you see Mr. McGill? A. I did. [Here it may be well to say that Mr. F. W. GLEN is now the Government candidate in South Ontario, and Dr. McGILL the gentleman who quarrelled with Mr. GIBBS in 1873.]

Q. What did he say? A. He said if they were sustained the Ontario banks would have a fair proportion of the Government surplus until required.

Q. Who was it? A. By Mr. Cartwright. Q. What did he tell you? A. He told me that the Government was sustained by the Ontario banks...

Q. What did he say? A. He said if they were sustained the Ontario banks would have a fair proportion of the Government surplus until required.

Q. Who was it? A. By Mr. Cartwright. Q. What did he tell you? A. He told me that the Government was sustained by the Ontario banks...

Q. What did he say? A. He said if they were sustained the Ontario banks would have a fair proportion of the Government surplus until required.

EDUCATIONAL NOTES.

Haltix is going to erect a $200,000 High School building. The objects for which the building is now being erected are, to give the College an endowment of $100,000, to erect a new building at a cost of $40,000, and to erect a new building at a cost of $40,000.

The County Inspectors (Forsyth and Kilgour) have been ordered by the Mayor to inspect the buildings at a cost of $40,000, and to erect a new building at a cost of $40,000.

The Teachers' Convention for the County of York has been held at the Hotel Hamilton, and the results of the meeting are as follows: The Convention has decided to erect a new building at a cost of $40,000.

The Ontario Bank has a capital of $3,000,000. The other banks in Ontario have a capital of $13,000,000. So that Mr. Simpson's bank's share of the Government deposits would be in a legitimate proportion of 20 per cent. of the whole.

Q. At that time? A. I saw him a dozen times. Q. Did you see Mr. McGill? A. I did. [Here it may be well to say that Mr. F. W. GLEN is now the Government candidate in South Ontario, and Dr. McGILL the gentleman who quarrelled with Mr. GIBBS in 1873.]

Q. Did you see Mr. McGill? A. I did. [Here it may be well to say that Mr. F. W. GLEN is now the Government candidate in South Ontario, and Dr. McGILL the gentleman who quarrelled with Mr. GIBBS in 1873.]

Q. What did he say? A. He said if they were sustained the Ontario banks would have a fair proportion of the Government surplus until required.

Q. Who was it? A. By Mr. Cartwright. Q. What did he tell you? A. He told me that the Government was sustained by the Ontario banks...

Q. What did he say? A. He said if they were sustained the Ontario banks would have a fair proportion of the Government surplus until required.

Q. Who was it? A. By Mr. Cartwright. Q. What did he tell you? A. He told me that the Government was sustained by the Ontario banks...

Q. What did he say? A. He said if they were sustained the Ontario banks would have a fair proportion of the Government surplus until required.

Q. Who was it? A. By Mr. Cartwright. Q. What did he tell you? A. He told me that the Government was sustained by the Ontario banks...

THE QUEBEC LABOUR TROUBLES.

FROM OUR QUEBEC CORRESPONDENT. I will now endeavor to give you a brief account of the duty which, though in many, will I fear, read like a romance. This consists in the strike of the mill hands in the city of Quebec.

The strike has now the appearance of terminating. The mill hands have agreed to work for a week longer, and the mill owners have agreed to pay them a bonus of $100,000.

The County Inspectors (Forsyth and Kilgour) have been ordered by the Mayor to inspect the buildings at a cost of $40,000, and to erect a new building at a cost of $40,000.

The Teachers' Convention for the County of York has been held at the Hotel Hamilton, and the results of the meeting are as follows: The Convention has decided to erect a new building at a cost of $40,000.

The Ontario Bank has a capital of $3,000,000. The other banks in Ontario have a capital of $13,000,000. So that Mr. Simpson's bank's share of the Government deposits would be in a legitimate proportion of 20 per cent. of the whole.

Q. At that time? A. I saw him a dozen times. Q. Did you see Mr. McGill? A. I did. [Here it may be well to say that Mr. F. W. GLEN is now the Government candidate in South Ontario, and Dr. McGILL the gentleman who quarrelled with Mr. GIBBS in 1873.]

Q. Did you see Mr. McGill? A. I did. [Here it may be well to say that Mr. F. W. GLEN is now the Government candidate in South Ontario, and Dr. McGILL the gentleman who quarrelled with Mr. GIBBS in 1873.]

Q. What did he say? A. He said if they were sustained the Ontario banks would have a fair proportion of the Government surplus until required.

Q. Who was it? A. By Mr. Cartwright. Q. What did he tell you? A. He told me that the Government was sustained by the Ontario banks...

Q. What did he say? A. He said if they were sustained the Ontario banks would have a fair proportion of the Government surplus until required.

Q. Who was it? A. By Mr. Cartwright. Q. What did he tell you? A. He told me that the Government was sustained by the Ontario banks...

Q. What did he say? A. He said if they were sustained the Ontario banks would have a fair proportion of the Government surplus until required.

OUR PARIS LETTER.

FROM OUR PARIS CORRESPONDENT. I will now endeavor to give you a brief account of the duty which, though in many, will I fear, read like a romance. This consists in the strike of the mill hands in the city of Quebec.

The strike has now the appearance of terminating. The mill hands have agreed to work for a week longer, and the mill owners have agreed to pay them a bonus of $100,000.

The County Inspectors (Forsyth and Kilgour) have been ordered by the Mayor to inspect the buildings at a cost of $40,000, and to erect a new building at a cost of $40,000.

The Teachers' Convention for the County of York has been held at the Hotel Hamilton, and the results of the meeting are as follows: The Convention has decided to erect a new building at a cost of $40,000.

The Ontario Bank has a capital of $3,000,000. The other banks in Ontario have a capital of $13,000,000. So that Mr. Simpson's bank's share of the Government deposits would be in a legitimate proportion of 20 per cent. of the whole.

Q. At that time? A. I saw him a dozen times. Q. Did you see Mr. McGill? A. I did. [Here it may be well to say that Mr. F. W. GLEN is now the Government candidate in South Ontario, and Dr. McGILL the gentleman who quarrelled with Mr. GIBBS in 1873.]

Q. Did you see Mr. McGill? A. I did. [Here it may be well to say that Mr. F. W. GLEN is now the Government candidate in South Ontario, and Dr. McGILL the gentleman who quarrelled with Mr. GIBBS in 1873.]

Q. What did he say? A. He said if they were sustained the Ontario banks would have a fair proportion of the Government surplus until required.

Q. Who was it? A. By Mr. Cartwright. Q. What did he tell you? A. He told me that the Government was sustained by the Ontario banks...

Q. What did he say? A. He said if they were sustained the Ontario banks would have a fair proportion of the Government surplus until required.

Q. Who was it? A. By Mr. Cartwright. Q. What did he tell you? A. He told me that the Government was sustained by the Ontario banks...

Q. What did he say? A. He said if they were sustained the Ontario banks would have a fair proportion of the Government surplus until required.

THE HOUSE ACROSS THE STREET

A STORY IN TWO CHAPTERS.

CHAPTER I.

It was the narrowest street imaginable, a mere flagged passage indeed, protected by high walls and chains from suspicion...

I wonder was ever a dandelion among those high-headed and noble-headed daisies of the eighteenth century, one tenth part as lovely as she who reigned in the old red room...

I was only a London straggler, a plain, middle-aged bachelor with a large coat, a big dingy house, facing the old, red brick tenement over the way...

I don't know when I first began to watch for my fair neighbour, and note her doings. You see I had not much to amuse me in my own home...

The Robertas had a custom, unlike most Londoners, of not drawing down their parlour blinds, or shutting the shutters till bedtime...

never did. I never even saw her glance across the way. At last I came to know her. They had been living nearly five years in the old red house...

By the time I came down again he was not only conscious, but declaring himself so much better that, if I had not absolutely forbidden it, he would have dressed and gone out as usual...

"I don't know—perhaps he has. He was very ill himself when he went. Doctor, did you ever see him here yesterday?"

"That evening I got a note from Mr. Robertas asking me to call on him on the following morning."

"My own doctor is away, as you know. I detest his partner, and put no faith in his big eyes. If he should catch me in the rights, I shall be very glad."

"I sent word that I would do as he wished. I was not sure, however, if any other person attended him till his day was over."

"You are here, and you do trust you are not being deceived?"

"I was early going, but I had a very bad cold. I was not sure, however, if any other person attended him till his day was over."

"I think your father was very fond of her. He was a very good man, and used to scold her sometimes for coming out into the evening air with nothing on her head...

"I don't know when I first began to watch for my fair neighbour, and note her doings. You see I had not much to amuse me in my own home...

"I don't know when I first began to watch for my fair neighbour, and note her doings. You see I had not much to amuse me in my own home...

"I don't know when I first began to watch for my fair neighbour, and note her doings. You see I had not much to amuse me in my own home...

"I don't know when I first began to watch for my fair neighbour, and note her doings. You see I had not much to amuse me in my own home...

"I don't know when I first began to watch for my fair neighbour, and note her doings. You see I had not much to amuse me in my own home...

covered herself almost at once, and there was something so sweet and gracious in the way in which she received my hanging apology...

"I suppose I did not look satisfied; for she was not only conscious, but declaring himself so much better that, if I had not absolutely forbidden it, he would have dressed and gone out as usual...

"I don't know—perhaps he has. He was very ill himself when he went. Doctor, did you ever see him here yesterday?"

"That evening I got a note from Mr. Robertas asking me to call on him on the following morning."

"My own doctor is away, as you know. I detest his partner, and put no faith in his big eyes. If he should catch me in the rights, I shall be very glad."

"I sent word that I would do as he wished. I was not sure, however, if any other person attended him till his day was over."

"You are here, and you do trust you are not being deceived?"

"I was early going, but I had a very bad cold. I was not sure, however, if any other person attended him till his day was over."

"I think your father was very fond of her. He was a very good man, and used to scold her sometimes for coming out into the evening air with nothing on her head...

"I don't know when I first began to watch for my fair neighbour, and note her doings. You see I had not much to amuse me in my own home...

"I don't know when I first began to watch for my fair neighbour, and note her doings. You see I had not much to amuse me in my own home...

"I don't know when I first began to watch for my fair neighbour, and note her doings. You see I had not much to amuse me in my own home...

"I don't know when I first began to watch for my fair neighbour, and note her doings. You see I had not much to amuse me in my own home...

"I don't know when I first began to watch for my fair neighbour, and note her doings. You see I had not much to amuse me in my own home...

Robertas laughing in his sleeve at us all the while—that I had little taste and less time of my own for such things; and so on...

"I suppose I did not look satisfied; for she was not only conscious, but declaring himself so much better that, if I had not absolutely forbidden it, he would have dressed and gone out as usual...

"I don't know—perhaps he has. He was very ill himself when he went. Doctor, did you ever see him here yesterday?"

"That evening I got a note from Mr. Robertas asking me to call on him on the following morning."

"My own doctor is away, as you know. I detest his partner, and put no faith in his big eyes. If he should catch me in the rights, I shall be very glad."

"I sent word that I would do as he wished. I was not sure, however, if any other person attended him till his day was over."

"You are here, and you do trust you are not being deceived?"

"I was early going, but I had a very bad cold. I was not sure, however, if any other person attended him till his day was over."

"I think your father was very fond of her. He was a very good man, and used to scold her sometimes for coming out into the evening air with nothing on her head...

"I don't know when I first began to watch for my fair neighbour, and note her doings. You see I had not much to amuse me in my own home...

"I don't know when I first began to watch for my fair neighbour, and note her doings. You see I had not much to amuse me in my own home...

"I don't know when I first began to watch for my fair neighbour, and note her doings. You see I had not much to amuse me in my own home...

"I don't know when I first began to watch for my fair neighbour, and note her doings. You see I had not much to amuse me in my own home...

"I don't know when I first began to watch for my fair neighbour, and note her doings. You see I had not much to amuse me in my own home...

and she was reaching out her hand to the bell when I stopped her. "Do not ring just yet," I said. I have something to say to you first."

"I suppose I did not look satisfied; for she was not only conscious, but declaring himself so much better that, if I had not absolutely forbidden it, he would have dressed and gone out as usual...

"I don't know—perhaps he has. He was very ill himself when he went. Doctor, did you ever see him here yesterday?"

"That evening I got a note from Mr. Robertas asking me to call on him on the following morning."

"My own doctor is away, as you know. I detest his partner, and put no faith in his big eyes. If he should catch me in the rights, I shall be very glad."

"I sent word that I would do as he wished. I was not sure, however, if any other person attended him till his day was over."

"You are here, and you do trust you are not being deceived?"

"I was early going, but I had a very bad cold. I was not sure, however, if any other person attended him till his day was over."

"I think your father was very fond of her. He was a very good man, and used to scold her sometimes for coming out into the evening air with nothing on her head...

"I don't know when I first began to watch for my fair neighbour, and note her doings. You see I had not much to amuse me in my own home...

"I don't know when I first began to watch for my fair neighbour, and note her doings. You see I had not much to amuse me in my own home...

"I don't know when I first began to watch for my fair neighbour, and note her doings. You see I had not much to amuse me in my own home...

"I don't know when I first began to watch for my fair neighbour, and note her doings. You see I had not much to amuse me in my own home...

"I don't know when I first began to watch for my fair neighbour, and note her doings. You see I had not much to amuse me in my own home...

BAKED CRISPARD.—Mix a quart of new milk with eight well-beaten eggs, strain through a fine sieve, and sweeten with the mixture through a fine sieve, and sweeten it with from five to eight ounces of sugar...

EGG CHEESECAKE.—Six eggs, boiled hard, which rub through a sieve with a quarter of a pound of butter; add a quarter of a pound of sugar, one lemon-juice and rind (grated), nutmeg and brandy to taste...

PORTUGAL CAKE.—Half a pound of butter, three eggs, leaving out one white, and lime-water, which, when well mixed together, forms a beautiful white cream...

HERBOTS PUDDING.—Half a pound of bread crumbs, half a pound of beef, six ounces of milk, six ounces of brown sugar, and a little salt...

REFRIGERATORY PROCESS.—This is a common practice in the warm season of the year to cool fluids by immersing the bottles in which they are contained in a vessel of cold water...

MISCELLANEOUS.—To REMOVE GREASE FROM CLOTH.—Take soft soap and fuller's-earth, of each half a pound, beat them well together in a mortar, and form into cakes...

TO EXTINGUISH A FIRE IN A CHIMNEY.—Throw some powdered brimstone on the fire in the grate, or ignite some on the hob, and then put a board across the front of the fire to prevent the flames from descending into the room...

TO POLISH SEA-SHELLS.—This requires much care and experience. The shells are first washed in cold water, and then rubbed with a soft brush...

TO POLISH SEA-SHELLS.—This requires much care and experience. The shells are first washed in cold water, and then rubbed with a soft brush...

TO POLISH SEA-SHELLS.—This requires much care and experience. The shells are first washed in cold water, and then rubbed with a soft brush...

TO POLISH SEA-SHELLS.—This requires much care and experience. The shells are first washed in cold water, and then rubbed with a soft brush...

TO POLISH SEA-SHELLS.—This requires much care and experience. The shells are first washed in cold water, and then rubbed with a soft brush...

TO POLISH SEA-SHELLS.—This requires much care and experience. The shells are first washed in cold water, and then rubbed with a soft brush...

TO POLISH SEA-SHELLS.—This requires much care and experience. The shells are first washed in cold water, and then rubbed with a soft brush...

CONFERENCE.—With proper regard to diet and abundant exercise in the open air, the unpleasant consequences of an accumulation of mucus in the lungs should be kept shut, and the eyes open; or, in other words, the pulmonary persons should be made to eat and drink moderately, and little food, and that of a nourishing kind...

COMMON AILMENTS OF LIVE STOCK.—OF THE DISEASES OF THE RESPIRATORY SYSTEM.—It is common to hear sad accounts of the losses which have been sustained by the owners of the stock...

OF THE DISEASES OF THE RESPIRATORY SYSTEM.—It is common to hear sad accounts of the losses which have been sustained by the owners of the stock...

OF THE DISEASES OF THE RESPIRATORY SYSTEM.—It is common to hear sad accounts of the losses which have been sustained by the owners of the stock...

OF THE DISEASES OF THE RESPIRATORY SYSTEM.—It is common to hear sad accounts of the losses which have been sustained by the owners of the stock...

OF THE DISEASES OF THE RESPIRATORY SYSTEM.—It is common to hear sad accounts of the losses which have been sustained by the owners of the stock...

OF THE DISEASES OF THE RESPIRATORY SYSTEM.—It is common to hear sad accounts of the losses which have been sustained by the owners of the stock...

OF THE DISEASES OF THE RESPIRATORY SYSTEM.—It is common to hear sad accounts of the losses which have been sustained by the owners of the stock...

OF THE DISEASES OF THE RESPIRATORY SYSTEM.—It is common to hear sad accounts of the losses which have been sustained by the owners of the stock...

OF THE DISEASES OF THE RESPIRATORY SYSTEM.—It is common to hear sad accounts of the losses which have been sustained by the owners of the stock...

OF THE DISEASES OF THE RESPIRATORY SYSTEM.—It is common to hear sad accounts of the losses which have been sustained by the owners of the stock...

OF THE DISEASES OF THE RESPIRATORY SYSTEM.—It is common to hear sad accounts of the losses which have been sustained by the owners of the stock...

OF THE DISEASES OF THE RESPIRATORY SYSTEM.—It is common to hear sad accounts of the losses which have been sustained by the owners of the stock...

OF THE DISEASES OF THE RESPIRATORY SYSTEM.—It is common to hear sad accounts of the losses which have been sustained by the owners of the stock...

OF THE DISEASES OF THE RESPIRATORY SYSTEM.—It is common to hear sad accounts of the losses which have been sustained by the owners of the stock...

OF THE DISEASES OF THE RESPIRATORY SYSTEM.—It is common to hear sad accounts of the losses which have been sustained by the owners of the stock...

OF THE DISEASES OF THE RESPIRATORY SYSTEM.—It is common to hear sad accounts of the losses which have been sustained by the owners of the stock...

OF THE DISEASES OF THE RESPIRATORY SYSTEM.—It is common to hear sad accounts of the losses which have been sustained by the owners of the stock...

OF THE DISEASES OF THE RESPIRATORY SYSTEM.—It is common to hear sad accounts of the losses which have been sustained by the owners of the stock...

OF THE DISEASES OF THE RESPIRATORY SYSTEM.—It is common to hear sad accounts of the losses which have been sustained by the owners of the stock...

OF THE DISEASES OF THE RESPIRATORY SYSTEM.—It is common to hear sad accounts of the losses which have been sustained by the owners of the stock...

OF THE DISEASES OF THE RESPIRATORY SYSTEM.—It is common to hear sad accounts of the losses which have been sustained by the owners of the stock...

OF THE DISEASES OF THE RESPIRATORY SYSTEM.—It is common to hear sad accounts of the losses which have been sustained by the owners of the stock...

OF THE DISEASES OF THE RESPIRATORY SYSTEM.—It is common to hear sad accounts of the losses which have been sustained by the owners of the stock...

OF THE DISEASES OF THE RESPIRATORY SYSTEM.—It is common to hear sad accounts of the losses which have been sustained by the owners of the stock...

OF THE DISEASES OF THE RESPIRATORY SYSTEM.—It is common to hear sad accounts of the losses which have been sustained by the owners of the stock...

OF THE DISEASES OF THE RESPIRATORY SYSTEM.—It is common to hear sad accounts of the losses which have been sustained by the owners of the stock...

OF THE DISEASES OF THE RESPIRATORY SYSTEM.—It is common to hear sad accounts of the losses which have been sustained by the owners of the stock...

