"I Avoided an Operation - Appendicitis Disappeared"

Mrs. James Wells, Udon, Ont., writes:

"I took a severe pain in my right side. It was very bad at times. I tried oils and tablets without gaining any relief. The doctor pronounced it chronic appendicitis. I decided on an operation and a friend advised Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I used them and not only obtained relief from pain, but I believe it has completely freed me of appendicitis, as it is now over a year since I have had any of the old symptoms."

LADY LAURAS' RELEASE

THE STORY OF A SPOILED BEAUTY.

CHAPTER XLIV.

"I have mismanaged the whole matter most fearfully," he said to himself, with darkening brows; "I should have been more prompt in action. There is no one to blame but myself."

If Angela did not return, if she never fell into his power again, even the loss of his wife would not bring him one step nearer to Gladys Rane, the insurmountable barrier of poverty would still be between them. It was such a complete downfall, such a complete crushing of all his plans, that he could not recover himself.

Notwithstanding all that had happened, he would have gone up to town, but that Lady Laura fell ill of a slow fever, one of those subtle fevers that seem to wear the very life away, but yet cause very little outward show of illness. He was careless enough of the opinion of the world in general, still even he did not like to leave his wife ill at Rood while he went up to town for a round of society.

He was not the most pleasant of companions during those days, and the few ignorant people who talked about the captain's devotion to his wife little dreamed how she trembled at the very sound of his footsteps, how she shuddered at the sound of his voice. Outwardly his manner was negligently kind; but he knew how to make her heart ache with a veiled sarcasm, how, with a few careless words, to give her unutterable pain.

"If I am to suffer," he said to himself, "let her suffer too;" and he was wise enough, mean enough to feel some relief when he could inflict pain on her. He had forgotten, or rather he chose to forget, that he owed everything to her—money, luxury, magnificence—that all the ease he enjoyed, the splendor that surrounded him, came from her hands. In the earlier days of their married life he had at times said a few grateful words to her, had alluded to the money as hers, had asked for her approval and advice. Now he took entire possession of the estate, as though it had always been his own, managing everything after a lordly fashion and consulting only his own interest.

When the fever had somewhat some degree; but the change of scene did not entirely eradicate them.

Angela had been most kindly received by the housekeeper, Mrs. Bowen, as a friend of her cousin's who required rest and wished to be alone as much as possible. Mrs. Bowen's practiced eye detected the fact that Angela was a lady, and, although she marveled just a little how such a one could be the friend of Jane Felspar, she was a sensible woman, and did not allow her curiosity to interfere with her desire to please her cousin Jane. She saw there was some mystery, but, as it did not concern her in any way, she was well content to leave it alone. Her mistress had given her permission to have a friend to stay with her when she wished, and she was but taking advantage of her offer.

The old housekeeper set apart for Angela's use a charming little room overlooking the greenward that led down to the river—a room in which the shadows of green bougias made rich tracery on the floor and walls, a room filled with flowers, and the hangings of which were pale sea-green and gold. A few pictures in gilt frames, some books, a piano, a couple of easy-chairs, two large windows that opened on the grass, helped to make the apartment, if not luxurious, at least some comfortable.

"This room, Miss Charles, is called the green room," the housekeeper explained. "Even when the family are at home it is seldom used; and I thought you would be more comfortable here than in the larger rooms. You can use it just as you will; and your sleeping-room is the one above it. My cousin informed me that you wished to be alone as much as possible."

"You are very good to me," said Angela, gratefully.

Angela took possession of the green room, and made herself as happy as possible. At her will she wandered over the great rooms of the house; but she took especial delight in the library, which contained many rare books. But for the books, her life would have been a lonely one. The servants never intruded upon her; Mrs. Bowen came at rare intervals, but never remained long.

Cohen's Good Goods

CONSIGNED ABROAD, TURN UP ON BROADWAY.

Elegant Taupe Twills, Vanished en Route to Newfoundland, Found Here, Proving That Dark Clouds Often Have Silver, If Not Silk, Linings.

Business was good with Abraham Cohen last January. Cohen, who operates a garment jobbing business at 280 West 117th Street, found his elegant spring suits and dresses in misses' and women's sizes moving easily. The taupe twills with the Peter Pan collars were a knockout and the orders poured in.

At one swoop the jobber disposed of $3,000 worth of misses' and women's costumes to the Broadway House of Fashions at St. John's, Newfoundland. This was a deal for you—All at once, $3,000 to one store, away up there next to the north pole, from Abraham Cohen, jobber in garments, of New York. Fifth Avenue styles brought right to the outposts of civilization.

The Broadway House of Fashions was well pleased with the deal, too. No use talking, those taupe twills with the Peter Pan collars would knock 'em cold in Newfoundland. The Broadway House of Fashions got ready to increase its advertising space in the St. John's, Newfoundland, newspapers and prepared for a big rush. Abraham Cohen got the stuff all well packed in three cases for its long journey. The cases he sent to a North River pier for transport to Newfoundland by the next steamship. Then he wrote up $2,000 on the credit side of his ledger and went smiling about his other affairs.

The Broadway House of Fashions, in St. John's, N.F., received the three cases with cries of joy. The messenger boy was rushed off to the newspaper office to get a local item about the arrival of the three cases of taupe twills with Peter Pan collars in the next issue. But when the cases were opened nothing but bricks and wrapping paper were found where the $3,000 worth of real swell garments should have been.

This made a sad piece of news for Abraham Cohen, as well as for the Broadway House of Fashions, of St. John's, N.F. But, such things happen in business where there are crooks all the time, 'y'understand, and Cohen sought forgetfulness, searching for new bargains.

Yesterday's mail brought him an invitation to attend a special sale, wholesale only, being conducted at 589 Broadway. Cohen hurried over, because, 'y'know 'y'never, can tell in the clothing business when a good deal will come right into your hand, almost. Cohen came near to fainting when he was shown, at 589 Broadway, the taupe twills with the Peter Pan collars that he had shipped to the Broadway House of Fashions at St. John's, N.F., last January. Just two words, he said it—"Goniff! Police!"

David Lerner, of 735 Forest Avenue, Brooklyn; his brother, Benjamin, of 351 East 16th Street, the Bronx; Samuel Harowitz, of 63 East 118th Street, and Max Schlein, of 244 Roehling Street, Brooklyn, were locked up at Police Headquarters last night charged with grand larceny on Cohen's complaint. Cohen says they had his cloaks and suits. The prisoners say they came by them in a strictly business way, 'y'understand.—New York Tribune, March 31, 1923.

THE DAILY MARVEL.

The autos ramble to and fro, before the village kirk, I wonder, as I watch them go, what fellow does the work. It seems a constant holiday in this glad world of ours, and all my friends are out at play, like birds among the flowers. No higher purpose may be seen, no more devout desires, than just to burn up gasoline, and wear out rubber tires.

Joyriding is the only plan that seems to stick and stay; yet somewhere there must be a man, who works eight hours a day. Men ride beneath the glowing stars in costly limousines, or else in small synthetic cars that cost three hundred beans; they're driving in the garish noon and in the gloaming gray, but where is he, the lonesome loon, who works eight hours a day? Sad is his fate, where'er he is; he bends to useful toil, while countless autos past him whiz, and use up gas and oil. Like Tubal Cain he makes a raft of things the people need, and nobly, by his toilsome craft he earns his chickenfeed. And as he drives his weary feet he cries, in ringing note, "I'll just keep up this wretched stunt till I can buy a boat!"

beige jacket and a coral crepe blouse. A frock of dull green lace is interwoven with gold threads in such a way that they produce a tapestry effect. A street frock of navy crepe moroccan simulates and bolero and uses striped crepe for its sash and inside sleeve. An evening gown of turquoise blue crepe Rome has its bodice beaded in crystal and a tiered effect in the skirt. A suit of navy twill cord embroidered in soutache shows the best treatment. Girdle and blouses are of printed silk. Colored embroidery outlines the raglan shoulders and is used about the waist of a frock of white crepe cut on peasant lines. Layers of unbound brown mull with a jet centre make the huge bow used on the plicated brim of a hat of black silk tulle. Exquisite hand-drawn work is used on a simple crepe frock in sand or worn with a leghorn hat having a green damask in crepe.

TROUBLESOME DAYS FOR LAW GOVERNMENT.
LONDON, April 8.
Troublesome days are in prospect for Bonar Law's tranquillity government on the re-opening of Parliament which will re-assemble to-morrow. The session will not be concluded until August with a brief rest at Whitstable. Even supporters of the Government do not deny that the cabinet with the delicate Ruhr situation hanging like the sword of Damocles over their heads and faced at home with Budget difficulties and outward housing and agriculture problems, are in uncomfortable seats.

SMALLPOX OUTBREAK AT INGO-NISH.
NORTH SYDNEY, April 9.
Smallpox has stricken thirty people in Ingonish, a fishing and farming village in North Victoria County. Fifteen houses are quarantined and the disease is spreading rapidly because proper medicines and other supplies are lacking. North Victoria County is practically isolated. Heavy ice lines the shore while on land the roads are blocked and vehicle traffic is impossible. Somewhere in the mists are vaccines and other drugs which contain the hope of an early stamping out of the epidemic. Children apparently are the greatest sufferers and the situation is hopeful from the belief that the disease is of a comparatively mild type. No deaths are known to have occurred.

CARGO OF ALE AND EIGHT LIVES LOST.
VINEYARD HAVEN, April 8.
The steamer John Dwight, of New York, carrying a cargo of bottled ale, believed to be intended for that port, went down in Vineyard Sound yesterday with the loss of at least eight lives. The waters are reported strewn with barrels of bottled ale. It is believed the John Dwight had obtained the cargo from some other ship and was resuming her voyage to New York when damaged with collision with another vessel.

CONANITES.
NEW YORK, April 7.
Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, in a lecture on Friday night brought gasps and cries from an audience in Carnegie Hall, when he flashed on the screen a picture, which, he said, was taken during the two minutes silence period before the Cenotaph of the Unknown Soldier in London. Over the heads of the crowd the picture shows several hundred of spectral faces, faces that Sir Arthur said were soldiers dead. He explained that a group of mediums had been planted in the crowd, and they had drawn the dead to the ceremony. The photograph was taken by Mrs. Dean, an English medium. He also showed a cast of a hand dipped in a bucket of paraffin, and then plunged into cold water. The cast was obtained at a seance conducted under the most rigorous conditions. The spirit having been materialized, they had it plunge its hand into paraffin, as a proof to the outside world of its existence, he said. Sir Arthur called attention to the unbroken outline of the cast as a proof that no human hand could have been withdrawn without damaging the thin tissue of the paraffin cast. He said it was one of the best proofs of the existence of materialized spirits.

BUT THE MEN WERE MURDERED.
MARION, Ill., April 7.
All six defendants in the Herrin riots trial were found guilty after the jury had deliberated for six hours and forty-five minutes to-day.

Political Paragraphs.

The Humber Deal is not an issue at this election because both parties are in favor of it.

The only difference is that the Bennett party want the people to know the terms of the deal, while the Squires Government want to keep the people in the dark.

The flowing tide of victory is with the Opposition. It will be a glorious victory.

The people have suffered too much the past three years to risk four years more of Squires and Coaker. They will vote for Bennett and Better Times.

The Fish Nationalization scheme in the mind of W. F. Coaker is only the Fish Regulations under a new name.

The Advocate and the Mail are crying out "Down With the Merchants" and still Coaker expects the merchants to issue to the fishermen supplies for the fishery.

He will take no risks and issue no supplies and his Union Stores will give out no "credit" to the fishermen. All he wants is the cash for goods and provisions when the fishery is over. The fishermen can see through this.

Squires said at a recent meeting in the West End that he would "borrow twelve millions more and spend it." The people know that he would if he could, but they will not give him the chance to do so. They are burdened with taxes enough already on account of his extravagance and squandering.

Three large firms are now closed up on Water Street. If Coaker and Squires get control for four more years they will all be closed and the "grass will be growing" there according to the threat he made some years ago.

The feeling against the Government in the Northern Districts is rising every day. Practically the whole North side of Bonavista Bay from Salvage to Cape Freels has gone back on Coaker. He has the fight of his life to save his own seat.

News from Placentia District is very cheering. The people there regard Hon. Thomas Bonis in the same way as the people of St. John's.

There was never so much poverty in Newfoundland as there is to-day. No wonder the people are chafing under the delay in getting to the polling booths.

It was all brought about by the misrule of the present Government. They squandered thirty million dollars and did nothing to help the people to earn a manly and independent living.

The man who votes for Squires and Coaker will give a vote to complete the ruin and destruction of this unfortunate country.

The fishery on the South West Coast will be commencing in a few weeks. If Coaker gets control again his new Fish Nationalization scheme will again keep the West Coast fish back till the Northern fish controlled by Mr. Coaker is ready. The West Coast and South West Coast voters will do well to bear this in mind on Polling Day.

What a high old time the Squires-Coaker candidates are having at the expense of the country.

It must be galling to the taxpayers to find their hard-earned money being squandered by Squires and Coaker.

If the Humber Deal is to be carried

Out to Replace Race Boat.

BLUE PETER.

Ladies and Gentlemen.—You are all aware that at the end of last season it was considered that the "Blue Peter" had served her purpose, and was no longer effective as a raceboat. She was removed from Quidi Vid, and is now housed in the C.L.B. Armoury. Her removal has left a vacancy in the number of boats fit and suitable for racing, which already are few enough, and it would appear to be advisable to replace her with a new boat. This Association is not sufficiently strong in funds to purchase a new boat, and it now seeks to find out if the public generally are prepared to purchase one. The Association feels that, although it assumes annually the trouble and expense of keeping practice boats and race boats on the Lake, it is, in a sense, but the custodian of public property. It is the public, as well as the volunteer crews, who get the pleasure and enjoyment from the boats, and it would seem fitting that the public should contribute in full for the purchase of boats, when necessary. The members of this Association fully appreciate that the times are not too prosperous, but they are also aware that many thousands of dollars are being spent on amusements of different sorts, whereas a little over one thousand would enable them to contribute to have this sport also. Furthermore, it is an investment in sport, because, barring accidents, the boat will be there for use for many years. If 2,500 people who attend the Regatta are prepared to subscribe fifty cents each for the purchase of a new boat, sufficient funds would then be raised to get it. Suppose the boat was in use only ten years, it would cost such subscribers only five cents a year. As has been already stated, this Association is not in a financial position to replace the "Blue Peter," and it is up to the public to say whether they are willing to subscribe for a new boat. The Association does not intend to collect money now, but would appreciate any assurances, either to them privately or through the press, of subscriptions in the event of a decision in favor of a new boat. They will be glad to publish amounts received in the papers, and also all costs in connection with the purchase. If the necessary amount should be over subscribed, it would be willing to place the unused balance in a Trust Fund until another boat is required by any Club having raceboats on the Lake. Of course, it would greatly appreciate permission of the subscribing public to retain the unused balance, as running expense of a boat club house, practice boats, etc., are very high. The public will, perhaps, be good enough to state their views on that point, either publicly or to the Association. As this is a matter that requires an early decision, and one which affects so many people, it is hoped that the views of the public may be conveyed to us without delay. The Association is indebted to the Editors of the local press for so kindly giving us space, particularly at this season, for so long a letter.

We beg to remain, Ladies and Gentlemen,
Your obedient servants,
C.L.B. OLD COMRADES ASSN.

Harbor Grace Notes.

Mr. Collis' Concert, which went off on Easter Monday night at St. Paul's Hall, was most enjoyable to the large number present. The programme consisted of solos, duets, quartets and some comic readings, also an exhibition of Swedish Drill was given by a squad of the Boy Scouts. The performers were:—Misses L. Joy and M. Chafe; Mesdames Jones, Anonson, Ross, Watts; Messrs. Collis, Whitman, Power; accompanist, Mesdames Anonson, Davis, Miss M. Pugh.

Mr. R. T. Parsons, who was operated on at the General Hospital, St. John's some weeks ago, came to town again yesterday, and is now well on the road to his former health, his many friends are pleased to note.

Miss Flora Parsons went to St. John's last week to spend Easter with relatives and friends there.

The death of Mr. John Hickey, an aged resident of the town, occurred last night. He had been ill for some weeks and death was not unexpected. The funeral takes place to-morrow, Friday, from his late residence, Cottage Road. Interment will be made in the Roman Catholic Cemetery. To the bereaved family we offer condolences.

Mr. A. Holiday, of the Bank of Nova Scotia here, went out to the city on Tuesday, on a three week holiday to his parents and friends there.

Miss Madge Oke, Church of England Teacher at Spauldard's Bay, is here spending Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Oke.

Quite an agreeable change has taken place in the weather, and after such a severe winter, we are favoured with a mild spring. The streets in spots are getting quite bare, and there is every indication of approaching Spring.

The Opposition team for this District, viz: Messrs. J. R. Bennett, A. E. Hickman and F. C. Archibald opened their campaign on Wednesday evening, with a committee meeting held at the British Hall.

The Political Campaigns have commenced in this District, and both parties are getting ready for the coming fight.

Miss Lulu Thompson left on Monday for St. John's to connect with the S.S. Digby for Boston on a visit to friends there and in Canada.

BILLY'S UNCLE

By BEN BATSFORD

Greenspond for Bennett and Clean Government.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir—It is very little known in your paper from this place, and I now think that a few words will not be out of place. There have been several articles appearing in the Government organ the Advocate, which are as near the truth as Greenspond is to Brazil. I may say that we have had a very fine but very frosty winter, which indeed was a blessing to our men who were cutting pit props for the British North American Trading Co. A very singular thing occurred here on the 8th of February last when Mr. William Barry, aged 82 years, and his wife Dinah, aged 78 years, died within the space of four hours. Mr. Barry dying at 2.30 and his wife at 6.00; they were both laid in the one grave. Rev. I. W. Upward performed the last sad rites. We have passed away the winter months very well, with concerts, teas and dances and public meetings in reference to pit props, and last but not least our meetings of the F.P.U. Council on Saturday nights. I did not intend to say anything about our meetings, but seeing some scribbles in the Advocate writing falsehoods, I am compelled to write truth.

On Saturday night, Feb. 3rd, the Chairman told us that we were to have a meeting. R. G. Winsor, Geo. Bishop, Robert Teller and others were going to give us speeches worth listening to. This meeting was terminated by the Advocate as a mass meeting, when it was nothing but a Council meeting. No one who was not in possession of the Union password was to be admitted. I find there were quite a number who had the password, but as they were not members of the Union did not attend, as it was not compulsory for them to do so. However, the meeting started, and after a few remarks by the chairman, the three worthies from Westleyville gave us their addresses. We were greatly disappointed in our M.H.A. as we certainly thought he would give us a good sound address. But instead, he gave us rot. He, however, told us how he got his pit props. He then asked us how we could have taxation reduced. He said he could not see where a reduction could be made, and asked is the Old Age Pension too high, are the widows getting too much money, and such nonsense as this? and as for the other speakers Bishop and Teller, they are not worth writing about. These men Winsor and Bishop also held a meeting at Shambler's Cove, at which meeting the Advocate says they gave splendid addresses on education. That's enough, Mr. Editor, to make a cat laugh. These two members of our F.P.U. lecturing on education. The next thing we will hear is that Simeon Harvey, of Brookfield, is lecturing on Astronomy. The Advocate says fully 75 p.c. of Greenspond is for Coaker. The writer of that article knew he was writing a lie; it was done just to deceive outside places. Had he said about 75 p.c. of the members on our Union roll (which is, I believe, 97) he would have been nearer the mark. To give your readers some idea of our strength: When the chairman started to open the meeting, he said if there are any spies here put them out. I suppose, Mr. Editor, he thought there were some there; but I know out of the number present at one meeting, there were 22 of the same opinion as the writer.

that was to listen to what was said, but had no intention of supporting Coaker. Coaker may poll 70 per cent of the number on our roll, but Winsor and Abbott not 40 per cent, and if matters continue running as they have since the Fishermen's Delegates arrived home, I fear there will not be enough left to open a Union meeting. Everything that can possibly be done to keep us together, and to bring back some who have left is being done; the chairman offering free passes to the Humber, but no one outside the Union need apply. But this bait is not good enough for Greenspond to-day. The place is fairly blocked with Advocates, Daily Mails and Coaker literature. Every mail the clerk has two back loads of papers, but in spite of all this we are daily leaving the Union and joining the Opposition Committee. The Government is also flooding the public dispatches with such lies that we would like to know if it cannot be stopped. The report of the sealers' meeting was proven to be false. In a desk in the hall of the post office the news is recorded in a book. The report of the sealers' meeting written there, was that the meeting went in favor of Coaker and Squires; tacked to the wall alongside was a telegram to a private party saying, yesterday's daily dispatch was a tissue of falsehoods. No one will believe any political news in the dispatches since. Even Coaker's strong men here will not believe it. When the dispatch came in that Coaker was having two sealing steamers for next spring, one of his strong supporters said, no one will believe that. Years ago when I first joined the Union Coaker told us he was going to have four sealing steamers, but we did not get one, and how can anyone believe this now. It is only election bait. The delegates of the Fishermen's Movement held a public meeting here on the 18th, and had a crowded hall, gave us an account of their travels around the different bays and how on returning to St. John's presented themselves to the Government. They found that the Government had cleared out and were going to have an election in the spring. They said they then waited on Mr. Bennett and some of his party, and after finding out from them their policy, they decided to cast in their lot with them for a clean, honest government and reduction of taxation. A more orderly meeting was never held in this country, not one interruption, except cheering as the different men took and left the platform. After the singing of the National Anthem a large number went forward and signed their names to act as a committee to work for Bennett and clean government. Saturday night they held a committee meeting when they had 80 voters on the committee. Owing to it being our Council meeting I was not present at the committee meeting, but I hear they have asked Mr. A. E. Hickman to come as a candidate for this district. Now, Mr. Editor this will give you and the people who may read this, a chance to see what the feeling of Greenspond is like toward Coaker. Last election you did not open your mouth to oppose Coaker; now one is afraid to say a word in his favor except behind closed doors.

Please take notice of this, voters of Bonavista District, and join with Greenspond for a clean government under the leadership of Mr. John R. Bennett.

Come along Messrs. Hickman, Crosbie, or Monroe and bring two good men with either of you, and Coakerism will be wiped out of this district.

Yours truly,
CONVERT FROM COAKERISM.
Greenspond, March 20, 1923.

West End Voter Replies to The Mail

Dear Sir,—In Wednesday's issue of the Daily Mail, its Editor asks the question "Will the voters of St. John's agree to the game rigged on them so brazenly and so arrogantly by Cashin and Morine and Crosbie?" And then it answers its fool question by the words "We think not." The voters of St. John's West will make an emphatic answer on polling day to all the questions that Mosdell of the Mail or any other of the Squires-Coaker writers wish to ask, and that will be recorded by a thundering majority for Cashin, Linegar and Hunt. With the poisoned pens of intolerance these writers have been laboring to stampede some innocent men to vote against the Opposition, but their work in that direction is only meeting with a terrible rebound on the Government. Their howlings on the Humber Deal have so sickened the voters that they are nauseated with its continued trotting out, without being told what the terms of the Deal are. Day after day this Humber business is hashed, re-hashed and boiled over and over again so much, that Dr. Mosdell, instead of being a Lunacy Commissioner, is likely to unhinge his mind in the other direction and carry his fellow scribbles with him. But none of the re-hashes is palatable to the voters of St. John's West for they are all well satisfied to trust the handling of the Humber enterprise to the Bennett Government. And now I turn to the consideration of the subject bearing on the fool question referred to in my opening remarks. That idiotic question is built around a lot of matter concerning A. B. Morine and Capt. Jessé Winsor; and the so-called smart Editor, by bringing in the names of these two citizens seems to see in their introduction a very astute plan to get the electors to look through his Squires-Coaker spectacles. Permit me to tell Dr. Mosdell that the voters of the West End are not the idiots that he imagines they are and that they are up just as early in the morning, or earlier no doubt, than he is, with their eyes of wisdom wide open and ready to manage all the cunning that Mosdell is capable of. Playing on the name of Morine has no effect upon the voters of St. John's West, not the slightest whatever, and to couple his name with that of Sir M. P. Cashin and Sir J. C. Crosbie, that they have a game rigged for some sinister purpose tends not in the slightest to diminish our confidence in Cashin, Linegar and Hunt. Mosdell says in answer to his fool question that he thinks we won't agree to this so-called game in which he drags in the name of Mr. Morine. Well, like the Polish man who laughs at his own supposedly smart sayings because no sensible person can see anything therein, Mosdell is entitled to have all of a fool's comfort from answering his own question himself. But I will answer another question if Mosdell wishes to put it and that is "Will the electors of St. John's West stand for any other game that Sir M. P. Cashin is up to?" To this I would say yes, we are all as one man to play the game of Cashin, Linegar and Hunt in winning our freedom back again from the thralldom of Coakerism; the game of opposing the worst Government that ever ruled Newfoundland, and the most incompetent and bungling political outfit that we ever have had; the game of putting asleep for ever the hireling scribbles who are endeavoring to seduce an electorate into placing back in power again the men of whom they are but the tools. All these games we help to play and the result will be announced next month in the record straight ticket majority piled up for CASHIN, LINEGAR and HUNT.

Yours truly,
WEST END LIBERAL.

THREE COAKER LIES NAILED.

THE HUMBER MUST GO THRU. BENNETT'S THE MAN TO DO IT.

Of late the Government press has been carrying on a systematic campaign of bluffing and lying about the Humber. Proprietors of this lie are Sir Richard Squires and his staff. It is too evident, and in fact a majority of these articles speak for Sir Richard's own company. The latest attempt at fooling the electorate is given publicity in last Thursday's Mail and Advocate. If ever there was an apparent case of bluff, this is the clearest. Sir R. A. Squires excels all his other attempts at lying and bare facedly makes open contradiction of what he had previously given to the public as truth. That the voters of Newfoundland realize his lying bluff, is seen by the tide of opinion that is sweeping the country against the Squires-Coaker Government. People cannot be expected to stand being lied to, and will justly show their resentment against the men, who so shamefully adopt such tactics. The people of St. John's and from other sections of the island are nailing three of the Squires lies that are contained in last Thursday's issue of the Mail and Advocate.

LIE NO. 1 NAILED.

That there is a Humber contract now signed, sealed and delivered, between the Armstrong, Whitworth Co. the British Government and the Nfld. Government is a well known fact, and has even been admitted by Sir R. A. Squires himself. And to prove this conclusively we need but remind Sir Richard, that on the authority of H. E. the Administrator Sir William Horwood, the Opposition were informed in December last, that the House of Assembly was being then prorogued because the Humber Contract was being finalized at that time and necessitated the attendance of the Prime Minister and the Attorney General in London for that purpose. Again it is known that gentlemen who know much about the Humber Proposition have declared that the Government should publish the contract in full. And yet Squires says there is no contract.

Squires hands out another bluff to the people by trying to make them believe that it will take the Bennett Party, when elected, two and a half years to bring the Humber Deal up to the stage it is in when he is defeated. Oh! What a dying man's will!

BLUFF NO. 2 NAILED.

It is well known by the public that the Humber negotiations have been going on for the past few years. It is well known that six months or more ago the Proposition was approved of, and the necessary guarantee by Great Britain was given by the Lloyd George Government, that was in power at that time. Since then Lloyd George has been defeated and the Bonar Law Government on being elected immediately approved and adopted the Humber policy as arranged by the Lloyd George Government. Well just as Bonar Law carried on the Humber Policy as arranged by Lloyd George before his defeat, so will the Bennett Government follow out the same Humber Policy of the Squires Government when it is defeated, provided that such policy is right and proper.

Squires says that the Humber guarantee is on a fifty-fifty basis by the Governments of Great Britain and Newfoundland, and that we have the preference of being first repaid.

BLUFF NO. 3 NAILED.

It is well known that when the Humber Policy was being discussed in the British House of Commons that those gentlemen favouring the Proposition, stated that Great Britain had the first preference in the redemption of her mortgage guarantee. Yet Squires tells the Newfoundland voters we have the first preference. Oh! Its lies, lies, all lies. Newfoundland is in a pretty fix when she does not know when her statement is lying or telling the truth. The Prime Minister's proven record is one of deceitfulness and bluff, so how can the people place confidence in him on such an important matter as the Humber Deal. The prosperity of the country depends on the Humber Policy being properly handled and made law to the best interests of Newfoundland. The Bennett Party guarantees to see that this is done. We must see that the Bennett Party are given the power to do it. Therefore we must vote for and return Bennett candidates, and turn out of office the Squires-Coaker outfit of bluff, deceit and lies.

WE MUST HAVE A PROPER HUBBER, SO WE MUST HAVE BENNETT.

The great bulk of the independent voters in Fogo, Trinity, Twillingate, and Bonaville are anxious to make good the mistakes of the past.

They resent the idea that Mr. Coaker owns them bodily and soul to do as he pleases with.

They are going to participate in the landslide.

And a landslide it is going to be.

St. John's West is won and the Committee of one thousand are working for a record majority.

Halfyard who has been shifted around to almost every department is making his last shift now from Colonial Secretary to Minister of Posts, to Marine and Fisheries, he drops down, a defeated Coakerite.

He wasn't as cute as Jennings, Penney, Gupp, Targett, Brownrigg and Legrow to get out while the goats was good.

Now that the Government districts are filled all the civil servants are back to their desks.

Quite a few for a while had something the matter with them they would not dare venture out at the time the Premier was buying up candidates to support his cause.

If Piccott, Downey, Bonia, Hawco, and St. John only had their time over again.

Prime Minister elect, Mr. J. R. Bennett is over at Hr. Grace to-day.

With all his candidates in the field, the balance of the Campaign will be left that is required to make sure of a new sane and honest Government.

Support the fisheries, boat all the Humber Deals possible and a speedy return to conditions of 1919.

Farmers of St. John's Will Mow Down Coakerism.

AND HURL ITS CANDIDATES INTO OBLIVION.

Editor Evening Telegram

Dear Sir—Your paper deserves great credit for showing up Coakerism and the additional blight it would put on St. John's if we tolerated it much longer. Now as far as the farmers are concerned, the city voters need not worry about our votes for we are using all our influence to mow down Coakerism, and when the ballots are ready, we will use our votes to hurl Coaker candidates into oblivion, so that we won't be injured any more with the menace they represent. Rid then of such a menacing weed, we will have the ground clear for the beautiful harvest of better times that will spring therefrom by entrusting the care of our native land to the Bennett Government. Give the farmers due credit then for helping the city, because we want to be partners in the great victory now in sight for all six Bennett candidates. If only half the news we hear around St. John's is true, then we are going to see the Coaker six shoved under unmercifully, but as every nineteen men out of twenty I meet on the street and in the shops tell me everybody is for the Opposition it looks as if the Coaker or six will be snowed under altogether, whilst as for the women of St. John's I never saw the like of it. I wish I was a candidate for the Bennett party and had them talking about me as they do Coaker, Linegar and Hunt in St. John's West, and Higgins, Fox and Vincombe in St. John's East, I'd sleep every night and would not worry about the fight at all, for I am sure they would see I was elected without my troubling it whatever.

When you have the women on your side you are bound to win and the six Bennett men can be "jack easy" about their election.

Yours truly,
FRESHWATER FARMER.
St. John's, April 7th, 1923.

Sir Richard Admits Defeat.

Speaking to an acquaintance a few days ago Sir Richard Squires was greatly excited in his admission that his cause in St. John's West is not as encouraging as he would hope for. He was very pronounced in the statement that if he is defeated he will seek re-election in a safer district in the hope that the Government will be returned. Sir Richard is now satisfied that his effort to secure a personal and a split vote was a fruitless one. Truly an unenviable position for a Prime Minister to find himself in. The question now is, what would be a safe seat for Sir Richard to contest? Surely not a Coaker constituency in view of the published warnings published by the President of the F.P.U. a year or so ago, and viewing the situation even one and all of these districts are not up to Mr. Coaker's wishes much less pleasing to Sir Richard. The now defunct Premier will not have occasion to seek re-election in as much as that his now defunct Government is facing certain annihilation at the hands of an outraged, overtaxed and much bluffed people.

The Government Manifesto is Out.

At last the public is about to receive the Government Manifesto issued by Boss Coaker, and naturally adopted by Squires. It consists roughly of this: A pulp wood industry on the Humber; a sugar refinery, a flour mill, a steam fleet to the West Indies, a steam fleet to the seal fishery, and last but not least MORE SPRINGMOUNT REGULATIONS AND SALE OF LABRADOR TO CANADA. That people of Newfoundland, is the mad policy of Coaker and his satellite Squires. Look back upon the manifesto of four years ago and read the promises—not one fulfilled. Now look upon the present day picture they have painted for you, an insult to your intelligence. William Ford Coaker, the head of the Government, christened after Squires has outlined his policy to you amounting to nothing else than a wildcat election scheme to trick the people, a scheme that should be kept under cover else we become the laughing stock of our colonial neighbour.

Lecture.

THE CONQUEST OF THE ETHER.

At the Grenfell Hall, Seaman's Institute, to-night at 8 p.m., Dr. J. Sinclair Tall will lecture, taking as his subject "The Conquest of the Ether." The subject is a very interesting one, and in the hands of such an able speaker will be worth hearing. The lecture is under the distinguished patronage of His Excellency, Sir Wm. Alfordyce and Lady Alfordyce.

East Against West.

"The Love Slave," starring beautiful Lucy Doraine, based on most Popular Theme.

When the folks who "know" photographs see a picture based on a certain type of character, incident, or a particularly original theme, they want "more!"—and in some mysterious manner progressive producers seem

The Preeminent Emotional Star, Lucy Doraine, in "The Love Slave" to know what is wanted by the people and proceed to give it to them. This undoubtedly accounts for what may be called changes in the style of photographs. The very latest in the season's style will be seen when Lucy Doraine in "The Love Slave" opens at the Nickel Theatre, beginning to-night.

Would the Governor Be a Party to a Fraud?

We print this headline to arrest the attention of our readers and point out to them the kind of deception Sir Richard Squires is trying to practise upon the country in connection with the Humber deal. In his speech on Friday night and in the articles in his papers he is trying to represent that there is no contract with regard to the Humber enterprise, and that if his party is not elected next month the whole scheme will be abandoned. In order to prove the absolute falsehood of this we only need to point out that in the Humber region to-day at least a million dollars, and possibly two million dollars, of the money of the taxpayers of this country is being spent in preparatory work for this Humber paper mill, and that this money could only be spent either by His Excellency the Governor being a party to a fraud on the country or being satisfied that a binding arrangement was made between Premier Squires and the Imperial authorities. After Sir Richard Squires returned from England last December the raising of this money was authorized, it to be expended on preparatory work for the enterprise in question. That money could not be raised without the approval of His Excellency the Governor. Nobody supposes for a moment that the Governor would give his approval to an expenditure of money that wasn't based upon some binding contract. To argue otherwise implies that the Governor would and could be a party to a big fraud on this country. Nobody, not even the most hidebound supporter of the Squires Party will attempt to argue that for a moment. Therefore, the only conclusion that remains is that the Governor approved of this expenditure because the proper formalities were gone through and he was satisfied that this undertaking once set on foot would be carried through no matter what Government was in power.

here as soon as the site is ready and the buildings are erected.

Does anybody suppose for a moment that the British Government authorized an expenditure of millions of money in England and guaranteed what Sir Richard Squires pretends in his speeches and in his newspapers? Does anyone suppose that the British Government told him to go out to Newfoundland and if the people voted for him this thing would go on and if they did not it would be abandoned. Has anybody ever heard of the British Government at any time or under any circumstances committing itself to such a policy? Will any sane man believe that the British Government ever was a party to such a policy? What would the British taxpayer say to a scheme of that kind, that he would be asked to guarantee the Principal and Interest of millions of dollars to build paper-making machinery for mills in Newfoundland only if Sir Richard Squires was to be elected by the people of Newfoundland? We have only to state this proposition and to ask these questions to satisfy everybody what an monumental fraud Sir Richard Squires is trying to get off on the people of Newfoundland to-day. What do the British Government know or care about him, his party, or his political necessities? He went to England and he made this agreement and he signed a contract, not as Sir Richard Squires or the head of a political organization in Newfoundland, but as the Prime Minister of the Colony, and that agreement his political opponents are bound to carry out. If we are not greatly mistaken that agreement was made between Sir Richard Squires and the Lloyd George Government, but it is being carried out so far as England is concerned, by the Bonar Law Government. In the same way the agreement so far as Newfoundland is concerned will be carried out by the Bennett Party if elected just as well as it would be by the Squires Party.

We warn the intelligent electors all over the country not to be deceived by the sort of claptrap with which Sir Richard Squires is trying to flood the country at the present time about the Humber deal being abandoned if he and his friends are not elected. The credit of Newfoundland is pledged to this undertaking; the money of Newfoundland is being spent on the undertaking; the Government of Newfoundland however composed will carry through this undertaking.

It is too evident, and in fact a majority of these articles speak for Sir Richard's own company. The latest attempt at fooling the electorate is given publicity in last Thursday's Mail and Advocate. If ever there was an apparent case of bluff, this is the clearest. Sir R. A. Squires excels all his other attempts at lying and bare facedly makes open contradiction of what he had previously given to the public as truth. That the voters of Newfoundland realize his lying bluff, is seen by the tide of opinion that is sweeping the country against the Squires-Coaker Government. People cannot be expected to stand being lied to, and will justly show their resentment against the men, who so shamefully adopt such tactics. The people of St. John's and from other sections of the island are nailing three of the Squires lies that are contained in last Thursday's issue of the Mail and Advocate.

Squires despite all his previous talk and bluff about the Humber Proposition, now comes out in public print to say that there is "no Humber Contract," but that there is a special agreement between English capitalists and the Squires-Coaker party, and that on the return of that party depends the passing of the necessary Humber Legislation.

That there is a Humber contract now signed, sealed and delivered, between the Armstrong, Whitworth Co. the British Government and the Nfld. Government is a well known fact, and has even been admitted by Sir R. A. Squires himself. And to prove this conclusively we need but remind Sir Richard, that on the authority of H. E. the Administrator Sir William Horwood, the Opposition were informed in December last, that the House of Assembly was being then prorogued because the Humber Contract was being finalized at that time and necessitated the attendance of the Prime Minister and the Attorney General in London for that purpose. Again it is known that gentlemen who know much about the Humber Proposition have declared that the Government should publish the contract in full. And yet Squires says there is no contract.

Squires hands out another bluff to the people by trying to make them believe that it will take the Bennett Party, when elected, two and a half years to bring the Humber Deal up to the stage it is in when he is defeated. Oh! What a dying man's will!

It is well known by the public that the Humber negotiations have been going on for the past few years. It is well known that six months or more ago the Proposition was approved of, and the necessary guarantee by Great Britain was given by the Lloyd George Government, that was in power at that time. Since then Lloyd George has been defeated and the Bonar Law Government on being elected immediately approved and adopted the Humber policy as arranged by the Lloyd George Government. Well just as Bonar Law carried on the Humber Policy as arranged by Lloyd George before his defeat, so will the Bennett Government follow out the same Humber Policy of the Squires Government when it is defeated, provided that such policy is right and proper.

Squires says that the Humber guarantee is on a fifty-fifty basis by the Governments of Great Britain and Newfoundland, and that we have the preference of being first repaid.

It is well known that when the Humber Policy was being discussed in the British House of Commons that those gentlemen favouring the Proposition, stated that Great Britain had the first preference in the redemption of her mortgage guarantee. Yet Squires tells the Newfoundland voters we have the first preference. Oh! Its lies, lies, all lies. Newfoundland is in a pretty fix when she does not know when her statement is lying or telling the truth. The Prime Minister's proven record is one of deceitfulness and bluff, so how can the people place confidence in him on such an important matter as the Humber Deal. The prosperity of the country depends on the Humber Policy being properly handled and made law to the best interests of Newfoundland. The Bennett Party guarantees to see that this is done. We must see that the Bennett Party are given the power to do it. Therefore we must vote for and return Bennett candidates, and turn out of office the Squires-Coaker outfit of bluff, deceit and lies.

WE MUST HAVE A PROPER HUBBER, SO WE MUST HAVE BENNETT.

The great bulk of the independent voters in Fogo, Trinity, Twillingate, and Bonaville are anxious to make good the mistakes of the past.

They resent the idea that Mr. Coaker owns them bodily and soul to do as he pleases with.

They are going to participate in the landslide.

And a landslide it is going to be.

St. John's West is won and the Committee of one thousand are working for a record majority.

Halfyard who has been shifted around to almost every department is making his last shift now from Colonial Secretary to Minister of Posts, to Marine and Fisheries, he drops down, a defeated Coakerite.

He wasn't as cute as Jennings, Penney, Gupp, Targett, Brownrigg and Legrow to get out while the goats was good.

Now that the Government districts are filled all the civil servants are back to their desks.

Quite a few for a while had something the matter with them they would not dare venture out at the time the Premier was buying up candidates to support his cause.

If Piccott, Downey, Bonia, Hawco, and St. John only had their time over again.

Prime Minister elect, Mr. J. R. Bennett is over at Hr. Grace to-day.

With all his candidates in the field, the balance of the Campaign will be left that is required to make sure of a new sane and honest Government.

Support the fisheries, boat all the Humber Deals possible and a speedy return to conditions of 1919.

MINARD'S LINIMENT FOR CORNS AND WARTS.

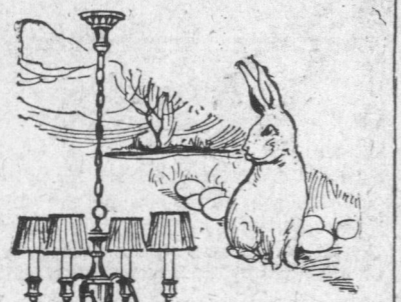

Enjoyable Time at Spaniard's Bay.

(To the Editor Evening Telegram.)
 Sir,—
 The Parish Hall was the scene of a very enjoyable time on Easter Monday night, when a dance and tea was held, under the auspices of the Church of England Assistant Association. A goodly number attended and the pleasing faces and merry laughter of both sexes, old and young was a true criterion of how all were enjoying themselves. The tea table was well supplied with good cakes, etc. but for those who preferred a bowl of good hot soup, it was quickly placed before them. Some kind ladies did the serving in their own capable style, which could not fail to please the most fastidious. The C.E.E.A. extends to one and all of the good ladies who sent cakes, etc. a most hearty vote of thanks and also those who contributed in any way to help make the affair a success, and hopes that when Easter comes around again, if not sooner, we may be all privileged to renew old friendships, and enjoy ourselves in a similar way. Poor times, no doubt, hindered many from participating but we are pleased with the proceeds, to help our lodge forward for good. Thanking you in advance, Mr. Editor for publication in the Evening Telegram, I am,
 Yours truly,
 J. F. SHEPPARD,
 Secretary C.E.E.A.

Sealing News.

OLD BEDLAMERS NUMEROUS.

The sealing fleet on the Northern Front are now working the old seals. The Neptune, Theta and Seal report that they struck a patch of old seals on Saturday and did fairly well. Yesterday the Neptune was "burnt down" in a patch all day, in company with the Seal and Ranger. The outlook is now more hopeful, and it is the earnest hope of all concerned that the respective ships will secure good voyages. The Viking in the Gulf appears to be working the seals, and it is quite possible that she will get a saving trip. The following messages were received over the week end:—

BOWING BROS., LTD.
Terra Nova, (Saturday)—Ice tight, thick fog. On board and stowed 11,000.

Ranger, (Saturday)—Position the same, ice tight. Struck a small patch at night-fall; took 500.

Viking, (Saturday)—On board and stowed 3,600, on pans 500.

No reports were received from Bowring's ships last night.

JOB BROS. & CO.
Neptune, (Saturday)—Killed and panned to-day 400. Struck a small patch late this evening.

Neptune, (Sunday)—Burnt down by patch old seals all day. Seal and Ranger in company.

Taets, (Saturday)—Killed and panned to-day 1,500 bedlamers, 1,000 still on ice.

Theta, (Sunday)—210 miles S.E. by E. Cape Star, finished picking up yesterday's pans.

BAINES JOHNSTONE & CO.
Seal, (Sunday)—Struck two fairly large patches of old seals, shot 500 old bedlamers Saturday; ice very bad.

The following is the catch to date:
 Sagona (in port) 11,882
 Eagle (in port) 10,000
 Theta 14,000
 Neptune 11,400
 Terra Nova 11,000
 Ranger 7,350
 Seal 7,000
 Viking 4,100
 Total 76,724

At the Casino.

THIS WEEK'S ATTRACTION IS "EAST IS WEST."

That the theatre goes will be treated to something out of the ordinary this week goes without saying, because a play that had a run of two years on Broadway cannot help but satisfy a St. John's audience. Miss Amy Dennis, who played the leading role in the Broadway production, will be seen at the Casino to-night and she is ably supported by the other members of the cast. You saw how perfect the stage settings were in "Adam and Eva," now see "East is West" and you will be convinced that not only is the show a good one but that the stage settings and scenery will be perfect in every detail. The tickets are on sale at Hutton's Music Store. Curtain at 8.15 sharp.

A Mothers Love.

PLUNGED INTO BURNING BUILDING AND RESCUES BABY.

The story of a mother's desperate plunge to save her baby from a blazing building is recorded in a report sent in from the Magistrate of Fogo to the Deputy Minister of Justice Summers. The heroic mother is the wife of Kenneth Ford, a fisherman of Island Harbor. The fire occurred on March 17th last. It appears that about 3 o'clock in the afternoon one of the children noticed smoke about and told his mother. Her husband was in the woods at the time. She ran upstairs to investigate and on opening the door of a bedroom found the place all ablaze. She ran and called her nearest neighbor, Mr. J. Ford, leaving a baby 18 months old asleep in its cradle in the kitchen. When the mother came back to the house with help her brother-in-law, Mr. Z. Ford, shoved open the door to rescue the baby but he was driven back by fire and smoke. The mother almost frantic when she saw his efforts were futile rushed through the flames, reached the cot and caught the baby in her arms. Whilst she was doing this a draught closed the door behind her and she was trapped. She groped her way through the smoke and at last found the knob of the door but not before one of her arms, the side of her head and neck was badly burned and the baby burned about the head. There was no doubt, but the woman risked her life to save the child but it proved all in vain as the child died and was buried at Fogo on Saturday last. The mother appears to be slowly recovering so the report says. The house was totally destroyed and Ford and his family are left destitute. It is understood that a public collection has been started in the neighbourhood.

SENDING SEALERS HOME.—Sir Michael Cashin is arranging to send his steamer, S.S. Cabot to Southern Shore to-morrow to bring to their homes a number of sealers who were to the icefields in S.S. Eagle.

Election May 3rd.

PROCLAMATION ISSUED THIS MORNING.

A Gazette Extraordinary, issued this morning announces that Monday, the 23rd day of April, inst., is set for nomination of candidates. Polling day is set for Thursday, the 3rd day of May next. Some time ago it was whispered in Government circles that the election would be held not earlier than May 15th; but apparently those who rule the roost have come to realize that their only hope of success was having the election as soon as possible. They had no idea that such antagonism to their miracle will be evidence and they had hoped that their misdeeds would be covered up by the glamor of the Humber Deal. They have had a rude awakening. The people have learned that the Humber Deal is an agreement with the British Government and its success, nor the benefit of the country will not be assured by the return of the Coaker-Squires Government. The Opposition Party, under the leadership of John R. Bennett, has enrolled under its banners the strongest agitation that ever opposed any Government. Thoughtful business men everywhere, see that a change is necessary for the country's welfare and on all sides is heard the shout BENNETT AND BETTER TIMES and without doubt May 3rd, will see the finish of the most incapable Government that ever had charge of this country's affairs.

CANDIDATES GIVEN HEARTY SEND OFF.

Mr. J. R. Bennett, Leader of the Opposition Party, accompanied by Mr. A. E. Hickman, left by train this morning for Harbor Grace to open the campaign in the district. Messrs. Bennett, Hickman and Archibald will hold a meeting to-night at Harbor Grace, and a big reception is promised the team. At the Station this morning an assembly of friends gave the candidates a hearty send off. Amongst those present were Sir John Crosbie and the members for St. John's East and West. Mr. Wm. Woodford also went out by the morning train for Harbor Main. As the train left the station hearty cheers for Bennett and Better Times were given.

Magistrate's Court.

A 21 year old laborer of Lime St., arrested for being drunk and disorderly, and secondly, damaging the mattress in the cell at the Police Station. A fine of $3 or seven days was imposed.

A 24 year old laborer of Cuddihy Street, arrested on a drunk and disorderly charge; secondly, kicking in the shop window of Miss Bride O'Reilly, and stealing therefrom cigarettes and tobacco to the value of $15.00. The accused admitted the first charge but pleaded not guilty to the second offence. Head Constable Byrne who gave evidence stated that he had received information that the defendant in company with another was implicated in the matter. The Crown was unable to proceed with the case until the second man was arrested. The accused was remanded to the penitentiary for eight days.

Five ordinary drunks received their discharge on paying the usual fine. A teamster for driving his horse and sleigh on the wrong side of the street was fined $2 or 5 days.

Sagona Discharged.

LANDED 11,882 SEALS.

The S.S. Sagona finished discharging her load of fat at 10 o'clock on Saturday night, when 11,874 seals were landed. The total number of seals discharged was quickly made known, but the unexpected happened yesterday, when several members of the crew located additional seals in the hold which had been overlooked. Mr. Kennedy, the Manager of Bowring's Southside premises was soon acquainted of the matter, and upon making a thorough inspection of the ship this morning eight more seals were accounted for, which brought the catch up to 11,882. Sweepstake holders who held the first numbers reported will, no doubt, be very much disappointed, owing to the additional find. The Sagona's official specification was made up this morning at 11 o'clock and resulted as follows:—11,664 young harps, 27 young hoods, 62 bedlamers, 90 old harps, 39 old hoods, making a total of 11,882 seals. The gross weight was 226 tons, 12cwt., 1qr., 15lbs. Nett weight, 257 tons, 12cwt., 2qrs., 17lbs. Average weight young harps 49 1/2 lbs. gross. The full cargo valued at $214,297.75. The 151 men shared $47.30 each.

Star Movie To-Night.

MISS OLIVOTTI.

This talented lady who opens at the popular Star this evening, earned for herself on her first visit last year a reputation seldom if ever made by any other performer visiting our shores, so much so that to-night she will, beyond the shadow of a doubt, be greeted by what will probably be the biggest attendance at this theatre for some time.

For her opening numbers she has selected "A Kiss in the Dark" and "Carolina," with the usual "Jazz," and Miss Olivotti who has been named the "Jazz Baby," will certainly deliver the goods in this respect.

"A Kiss in the Dark" will be rendered in a most unique way, something new in the way of singing, and will at once get the audience.

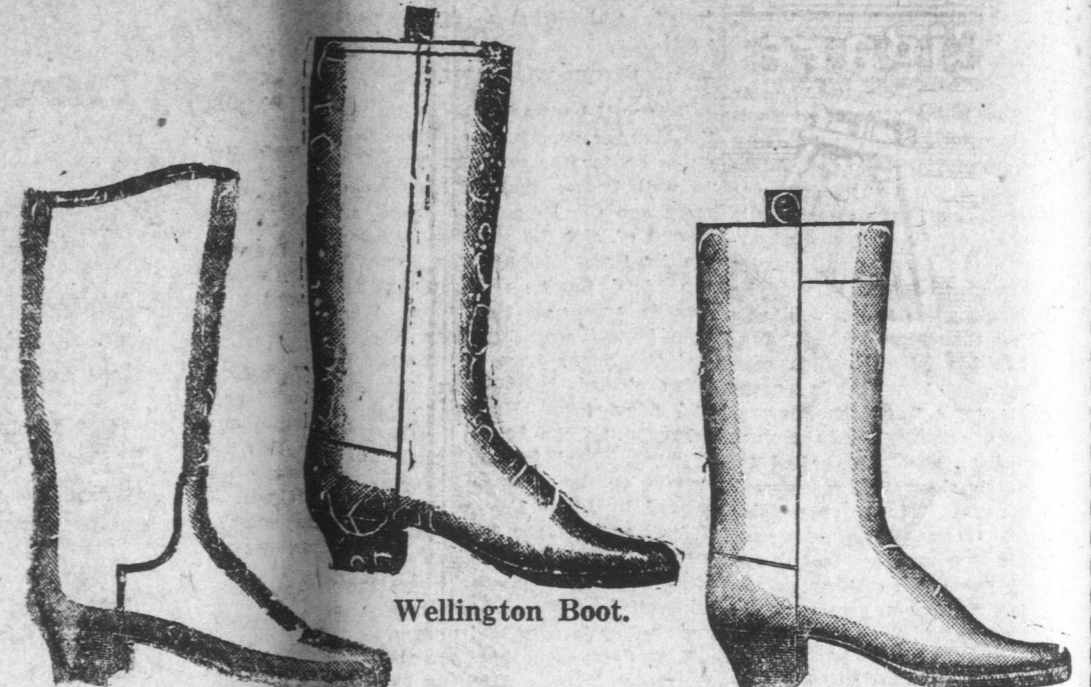

The Management wishes to announce there will be two performances, the first beginning at 7.15 and patrons are requested to come as early as possible.

To the Point.

(By WILL U B WISE.)
The election talk this winter and this spring has been a blessing in disguise. Coming as it did amidst the fierce and furious blast of winter, and hard times with their lugubrious chants, it has prevented a lot of us from developing the blues, or from getting "half-cracked" as we commonly say.

Wherever we went from the rising of the sun, or whatever portion of the sun is left after the frost of the winter, until we returned again to our homes from the clubs, the risks and the cabarets, election talk floated on the air. It was Squires this, and Coaker that, and other straws that struck my hat, eternally, when the weather was any way decent enough to use this headgear in place of the Nansen I generally wear in blizzard weather.

I like election talk for it engenders a lot of contrary opinions, but when we analyze the various comments on the probabilities, one can generally hazard a very fair opinion on what the result will be.

Perhaps it is unnecessary for me to tell the people of St. John's what the prevailing sentiment is; whether the Squires Government will snatch a snap verdict in their favor, or Bennett will be given the command of the voters to rule during the next four years.

It is mainly, therefore, that our outport friends may learn from me, your correspondent, who is one of the bone and sinew himself, and proud to acknowledge an outport as his birth-place, what the people, the real people, the people who elect or defeat candidates are saying in St. John's.

To begin at the beginning, the date of the dissolution, we here in the city were laying on our oars waiting for the House to open in order that we might see, what we could see, to enlighten us as to how the country was to be steered through its destinies in the immediate and more distant future.

Suddenly the dissolution was thrown upon us, but promptly the Opposition party met the Government call to arms by a response enthusiastic, from its whole united ranks, and placed as Commander of its attacking forces one of its hitherto chief lieutenants, JOHN R. BENNETT.

Then, as if the signal to rally to their cause had long been anxiously awaited, there arose from the crevices of the people a response the like of which was never equalled in the political history of this Island.

It was not a wave of enthusiasm from one particular quarter, from one street or section, from one class of people only, or from hide-bound partisans who would rally in any event. No! The wave surged up from all over the city, increasing in its volume day by day, with no stemming of the tide whatever till now it has developed into a monster wave unequalled hitherto in its power.

This overwhelming strength affords unmistakable proof that the Government is doomed, for it carries along with it a huge army of voters bent on the political extermination of the rulers who still remain in power, and whose term of existence now looms up as finished, should the Outports join the Opposition Party in similar force and strength.

There will be little semblance of a battle in practically the whole of St. John's, notably in St. John's East, where the Government forces are so undeniably weak that only a pretence will be made of fighting for their cause, a pretence with a purpose of heartening any Outport voters whom they still think would be partial towards them.

It is only natural, of course, for a bit of a skirmish in St. John's West, for here are lined up, on the Government side, the Premier himself, with his leading wire-puller—Doctor Campbell, and a guileless young man named Joseph Fitzgibbon, a former camp follower in the Opposition ranks. The Opposition forces here are in charge of Sir Michael Cashin, one of the Chief Lieutenants of John R. Bennett, aided by a clever and facetious lawyer—Charles E. Hunt, with Labor's representative, William Linegar, one of the old time famous cricket players of St. John's and naturally an able tactician.

Upon the field of the political Waterloo, the Government, by all the odds apparent, will be forced to follow in the track of Napoleon. All the slogans and the signs of battle point to their retreat from St. John's West on polling day. Not a copper will one of their supporters bet upon their chances, and worse than all, the ammunition is rapidly giving out.

Obituary.

MRS. EDMUND DIDHAM.

The many friends of Mrs. Edmund Didham will regret to hear of her passing. The deceased lady had been a life long resident at Colinet and her death, which occurred on Tuesday last, came as a severe blow to the neighbourhood of the settlement. The late Mrs. Didham was stricken with a very sudden illness and died within a few hours. The deceased lady was the daughter of Capt. Emberley, Dido, Trinity Bay. She leaves to mourn, her father and mother, a husband and two children, besides three sisters; one at Bishop's Falls and two in U. S. A. The Telegram tenders its deepest sympathy to the bereaved in their hour of sorrow.

JAMES GUSHUE.

The sudden passing of Mr. James Gushue of the Postal Department, which took place at his home, Patrick Street, yesterday, will be learned with regret by a large circle of friends. For a long number of years Mr. Gushue was connected with the Post Office, and for quite a period resided at Port aux Basques. About five years ago he was transferred to the G.P.O. and placed in charge of the Dead Letter Office. A faithful, industrious and efficient official he has left his impress on the work of the Department, and his passing will be deplored by every member of the staff. To his wife and family and to his brother Mr. Geo. W. Gushue, who so recently passed through sore personal bereavement, the sympathy of their friends will go forth in this time of great sorrow. Mr. James Gushue was a good man, conscientious official and a citizen of the highest type, and leaves behind the record of a well spent life. The funeral takes place to-morrow afternoon from his late residence, Patrick Street.

Much Drunkenness in Evidence.

POLICE HAVE BUSY TIME ON SATURDAY.

Much drunkenness was in evidence on the public streets on Saturday afternoon and night, and as a result the police spent a very busy time in restoring order. Free fights were the rage along Duckworth, New Gower and Water Streets, up to 11 p.m., and many arrests were made. There appears to be no let up in the liquor traffic; it is disconcerting to see so many of our young men intoxicated in a prohibition town, and the quietude of this state of affairs is regretted by the better for the interests of the public. The Prohibition Law to-day is nothing but a farce; it has grown from bad to worse. Some very drastic measures will have to be enforced if the citizens of this city want to walk the public thoroughfare unmolested.

Eagle Arrives

HAILS FOR 10,000 SEALS.

The Eagle, Capt. Edward Bishop, the second arrival from the sealfishery, steamed into port yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, hailing for 9,000 prime young harps and 1,000 young harps and bedlamers. The Eagle was compelled to give up the voyage owing to the loss of three blades of her propeller, which happened on March 25th. It reflects greatly on the skill of the Captain and officers of the Eagle in getting such a load as 10,000 seals, when it was considered with what difficulty the ship had to be manoeuvred. The Eagle was among the first to strike the seals, and in the scramble managed to get 7,700. It was after the loss of the propeller blades that the Eagle managed to pick up another 3,000 seals. On Tuesday last, Capt. Bishop decided to abandon the voyage, and getting clear of the ice some 180 miles S.E. of Cape Spear, the ship ran into open water and made fair progress to port. Capt. Bishop and the crew are all in good health. The work of discharging the ship's seals began at Bowring's South Side premises this forenoon.

Cabot Arrives From Trepassey.

TOWNS ELIZABETH RODWAY TO PORT.

S.S. Cabot which left Trepassey at 11 a.m. yesterday arrived in port last evening, having on board some 17 passengers, mostly pupils returning to school after the Easter vacation. The Cabot towed down the schr. Elizabeth Rodway which had been held at Trepassey for the past 10 days. Members of the crew report that Messrs. Cashin and Moore are meeting a wonderful reception and predict a big majority for them as the whole Shore is anxious for BENNETT AND BETTER TIMES.

Our Great Danger.

"Governments exist in order to ensure the greatest happiness to the greatest number."

Such is the published motto adorning the left hand corner of the front page of the Advocate, and yet that paper talks of consistency. If the above is the idea of government then government is decidedly not Coakerism in Newfoundland because the actions of the Coaker combine do not spell happiness to any but the few choice friends. Quite recently we were reading an article on Sovietism, and in some respects one would think Coaker had made a special study of the subject and applied his knowledge to practice in the Union Councils of our island.

Coakerism—alias Sovietism works its good (?) among its local Councils, then carries its half-granulated theories to the Convention, and thence the Convention is thoroughly swayed by the Supreme Boss!

One could easily reconcile himself to a rule by the minority—such ruling is an everyday fact—but ruling as we see it in some of our outposts to-day is galling.

We can instance where not more than 20 per cent. of the voting population try to usurp all the powers of the country and foist their Coakerish plans—surely the term is not difficult to comprehend—on the other 80 per cent.

Too often too the minority thus self-appointed criterion of the whole comprise the most illiterate of the districts. We understand it is quite possible that Hickman and Monroe may come to Bonavista Bay. If so it is an healthy sign and they will assuredly give Coaker a race for his money, strange hold notwithstanding.

What is the use of sending out such silly dribble and dastardly hypocrisy as the Government has lately been doing in this Bay. Imagine asking a Minister to pray for the success of the Coaker candidates. What matchless gall! We can easily imagine Coaker asking Boone for such aid and tempting him thereto with Beaver skins (but they are not all Boones).

How the insane policy of Coaker is surely and not slowly ruining Newfoundland! From this bay alone during the past 12 months we believe considerable more than 100 men have gone away, and within a radius of thirty miles we know of quite a number going away in April.

Vote for Coaker! Verily Newfoundlanders, if you value your ancient birthright give Coaker and all his "lies" the nod of "coventry." If you want to rally again and make this island of ours worthy to live in, it is absolutely essential that we should denounce Coakerism and give the glad word to Bennett and his followers. Unionism swayed by such a demagogue as Coaker is as a millstone around the neck of this dear little country of ours, and when we realize it fully enough to break the galling chains then indeed will we be able to breathe the air of liberty and console ourselves in the happy thought that once again we are free from the incubations of Sovietism and all the name implies.—BONAVISTA BAY.

Victory at Hand.

The tide is turning more rapidly to the Bennett party every day, and news from the different Districts point to a big victory for the Opposition. This is not surprising in view of the political record of Squires and Coaker. The country is tired and disgusted with the present Government. Their record of extravagance and mismanagement of public affairs has no parallel in our history. The people are determined that their rule shall end on polling day. The defeat of the Government will be hailed with satisfaction by the army of unemployed, who have been left destitute through Coaker's misrule. The merchants and the fishermen will be gratified to learn that with a change of Government business will be conducted without fear of dangerous obstruction and a period of good times will follow the proper conduct of public affairs. A period of confidence is now necessary to build up the resources of the country, and that period will be with us just as soon as we are rid of the present gang of despoilers. A change from Squires to Bennett will be a beneficial change. It will mean the inauguration of a new era of confidence and prosperity.

Presentation to Magistrate Thompson.

AT BRIGUS, EASTER SUNDAY.

At the Easter service last Sunday in connection with the Brigus Methodist Sunday School a very pleasing feature was an address and presentation of a handsome Morris Chair to the Superintendent, Magistrate Thompson, who was greatly taken by surprise and much overcome with emotion at the thought of the love and good-will of his fellow-workers, expressed in such a manner. At the conclusion of the presentation and address read by Rev. Oliver Jackson, Mr. Thompson expressed his heartfelt thanks and deep appreciation to the donors for their touching address and magnificent gift, assuring them that such an act would ever remain in his memory. The address read as follows:—

Dear Mr. Thompson, You have for twenty-four years given of your strength and ability to the superintendency of this Sunday School. A generation of pupils has grown up during that time, and another generation is under your care. Your office is not one which brings with it many public honors or any material remuneration, but we assure you that the quiet influence of your faithfulness to duty has had its characteristic value in the growth of our constructive forces in their lives, place the Sunday School next to their homes. In such reflection you have a place of honor. Many of the old scholars of this school reflect with affection and gratitude on the contribution which your loyalty as Superintendent of the Sunday School has given to their lives.

Your personal advice to the many ambitious youths who are now working in Canada and the United States of America has always been the kind of advice expected from a Christian gentleman, and they have proved its value in experience.

Your generosity in the social and personal work of the school is affectionately remembered by very many in Brigus and elsewhere. Such generosity is a very practical expression of your love for the work and your passion for the souls of the youth of the community.

Your strength has been spent in our interests. Your sacrifices are only known to yourself. Your reward is in the hands of the Father who blesses sincere work a hundredfold.

We all desire to take this privilege of expressing our gratitude and admiration by presenting this chair to you. We hope you will be long spared to lead us in the work, and when age deprives you of the necessary energy or such a labour of love, may your recollections be very happy and peaceful as you use this token of the affection of past and present pupils of the Sunday-School.

DEAD KING TUT.
Old King Tut has a robe of costly stuff,
A diamond-studded box for his cigarettes and snuff,
A silver jar of honey and a mantle trimmed with gold,
And all the costly trinkets that a regal tomb can hold;
But I'd rather see the springtime with the blue skies overhead,
Than to live in a museum as a regal Pharaoh dead.

Old King Tut has acquired a world renown,
To his dark and gloomy chamber Belgium's queen went tripping down,
And an English lord attends him, and in just a little while
He will take him out of Egypt and the Valley of the Nile,
And he'll carry him to England as a royal Pharaoh dead,
Where he'll lie in a museum with no pillow for his head.

Now the robin sings at morning and the grass is green once more,
And the tulips come to blossom, and I'm standing at my door,
Seeing beauty all around me, and I hear the children shout,
And I revel in the sunshine that is dancing all about;
Oh, I'd rather walk the roadways where the living people tread,
Than to lie in a museum as a regal Pharaoh, dead.

Genuine Beaver Board

Genuine Beaver Board

Genuine Beaver Board is the quality wallboard, because it best meets all the requirements of actual use. It is made to do just that. Every characteristic is considered carefully and with the right appreciation of its importance. Genuine Beaver Board fails in no requirement and excels in those that really mean better service. That's quality.

Built of Unadulterated New Spruce Fibre

One of the chief reasons for the superior quality of genuine Beaver Board is the material that goes into its manufacture. It is the only wallboard built entirely of new spruce fibre as it comes from the log, a more costly material, but the best. An examination of a sample cut from stock throughout, the only difference in physical appearance found in the surface liners being due to sizing and calandaring. Genuine Beaver Board has no news stock or other reworked fibre, nor any of inferior pulp woods. It is pure, clean, new spruce.

Manufacturers with largest, Most Complete Equipment

The manufacturing facilities of genuine Beaver Board are the most extensive and most complete of those of all fibre wallboard producers. They include vast holdings of the finest white spruce and mills whose combined capacity exceeds by far that of any competitive manufacturer. Beaver Board factories are complete and perfected as a result of longer experience and greater production. Every operation from the cutting of the spruce logs to the making of the patented "Sealtite" size is done within the Beaver Board organization.

Rigid Without Being Brittle

The fibres of new spruce are long and tough. They mesh thoroughly within each ply itself and make certain a firm bond of the four plys into a strong, practically homogeneous board that does not crack off or split between plys as does the board built of short and broken fibres of inferior woods or reworked material. Beaver Board is not pressed hard to give apparent rigidity nor is it soft and spongy. Just the right density is secured to result in the maximum of flexible strength to make easy working, to prevent breaking out at the nails, and to provide an attractive mat surface for decoration. Pure, new spruce fibre plus careful manufacture make this possible.

Works Easily—Decorates Splendidly—Lasts Indefinitely

Genuine Beaver Board saws cleanly and easily. It nails in place smoothly, conforming perfectly to any unevenness of the wall without strain or injury to any finished result. And a big advantage to genuine Beaver Board is the ease and economy of its decoration.

Its pure spruce fibre content produces a clean mat surface which is not hardened to produce a semblance of stiffness to the board. It is perfectly sized by the patented "Sealtite" process, a process of such unusual merit as to warrant the government issuing a patent on it. It takes the minimum of paint necessary to give even coverage and absolutely eliminates difficulty with brush marks.

And once up, Beaver Board is up to stay. It improves with age. It will never crack or fall. Its high quality content and careful manufacture insure years and years of dependable service.

SIDE TALKS.

By Ruth Cameron.

YOU'LL BE OLD SOME DAY.

"Father is quite a care to me," a woman I know said to me the other day, in regard to her father, who lives with her. "He simply won't take proper care of himself. I have to keep after him all the time to see that he exercises enough, and I have to be very strict about his diet. The doctor says it will certainly shorten his life if I let him eat the way he wants to."

Her father is 75. Her mother, to whom he was devoted, has been dead three years. He is very lonely without her. Because of lameness he cannot get out a great deal, because of trouble with his eyes he cannot read much.

Doubtless his daughter feels that she is doing the greatest possible kindness in being strict with him in order to prolong his life. But is she? I have my doubts.

Father's Training.

She is a very efficient woman. She is exceedingly conscientious about training her children, and evidently regards her father as needing the same kind of attention, since he is not far from his second childhood.

Second childhood is a term that leads many people astray in their attitude toward old age.

I think it is really too bad it was ever invented, since it confirms the willingness many middle-aged people have to guide and direct the old in the way they should go.

They forget that, while the old may have the bodily weakness and perhaps some of the mental inconspicuousness of a child, they haven't childhood's most distinctive characteristic—its plasticity.

As the twig is bent so the tree is inclined. But if you try to bend the tree you are apt to break it.

You Cannot Train Them.

There is no use trying to train old people. It can't be done. You will simply wear yourself out and make them unhappy if you try it. Even if you are doing it for their own good it isn't necessarily worth while.

own inclinations occasionally has disastrous effects," says the American Red Cross Text Book on Home Nursing. "Few persons would wish to prolong their lives in every desire, and sometimes real kindness consists in allowing old people to do certain things that are not good for them."

The text book goes on to say that old people desire for warmth, which young people are apt to think is just a notion. It is an inevitable part of their condition. They should be kept just as warm as they want to be, but the room should also be well ventilated.

Give Them Their Own Way.

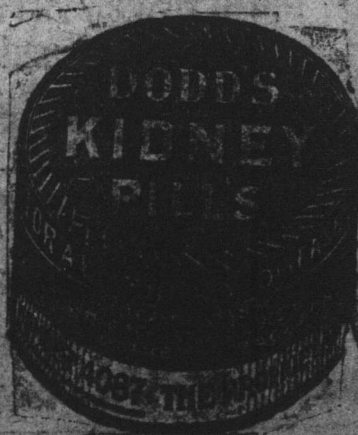

To thus give them plenty of warmth and allow them, as far as possible their own way is the most you can do for old folks—that is the final conclusion of this well-qualified writer.

I wish everyone who has anything to do with the care of the elderly would read that chapter. I wish every young person in a home where there is a grandfather or grandmother might read it.

It is hard enough for any age to sympathize with the problems of another, even when it has memory to help out, as in the case of the middle-aged and the young. But for the young and the middle-aged to sympathize with old age without even memory to help is doubly hard.

Only a sympathetic imagination, a tender heart and the willingness to listen to what those who know have to say is going to keep them from the tragedy of thinking some day, when they, too, are old and feeble, "So this is the way mother, or father, or grand father felt. If I had only been kinder."

A fellow with money to bury seldom has to go begging for a light.

French Scheme Collapses

The French Government concludes that it has a white elephant on its hands in the big cold storage plant it built at St. Pierre. There has been an agitation to throw over absolutely but the French colonial recently made a visit to the island and, it is said, will recommend turning the plant over to private interests as a fish drying station. The French government had ambitious schemes when it erected the tremendous plant at Lorient and the other at St. Pierre and built two special steamers to carry frozen fish from the North American station to supply the French markets. How the mighty have fallen! These steamers are now employed at some other work. The St. Pierre plant will likely degenerate to a curing station and the Lorient plant will likely disappear in a little time. The people of France are surprised at the failure, but practical fish men throughout the world foresaw it when the scheme was evolved. The fishing game is one that theory and practice do not follow parallel courses—Canadian Fisherman.

How Dark Blues Beat Cambridge Out by one Length.

PUTNEY, England.—(Can. Press)—Oxford triumphed Saturday, in the 75th Oxford-Cambridge race over the four and one-quarter mile course from Putney to Mort Lake.

The Dark Blue eight pulled ahead of Cambridge at the start of the upstream grind and held in front all the way.

W. P. Mellen, of New York, a student of Brasenose College, stroked the Oxford crew.

The sun shone with a brightness rare to London and the banks of the river were packed early with eager spectators along the entire course. The crews started with a stroke of 28.

Oxford on the Surrey side of the river, having won the toss, took advantage of the inside bank of the river, most of the course being shaped in the form of a huge letter "U."

Until half way to the end, no daylight showed between the shells, but shortly after passing the mile mark, Oxford spurred two lengths ahead and thereafter Cambridge trailed, being unable to reduce the lead until just a few hundred yards from the finish, when the second shell began drawing up.

Mellen, however, seemingly lengthened his strokes without increasing the number, so as to hold the gap between the shells until it was so close to the finish that it did not matter.

The Oxford men rowed smoothly and evenly all the way. At times the rhythm of the Cambridge oarsmen seemed prettier, but it was blades that counted most, and while on occasions Cambridge splashed considerably, Oxford never did.

It was the Dark Blues' first victory since before the war and ended the sequence of four Cambridge triumphs.

"RIM LAC"

THE LATEST THING IN OPTICAL SCIENCE.

Rim Lac on the edge of a lense greatly improves its appearance, leaving a smooth glossy finish which is most attractive, and prevents chipping of the edge, also cutting out the usual reflection of light from the edge of lenses.

MAY WE SHOW YOU THE ADVANTAGES OF RIM LAC?

Wallace Silverware.

Is your Table Silver as good to-day as when you bought it?

Have you noticed that at the parts most exposed to wear, the plate has become worn?

Do you think this condition of your Silver is in keeping with your idea of a well appointed table?

Then why not, when you decide on replacing your old ware, give place to it with the "Wallace" Brand, the Silver that refuses to wear and is guaranteed without time limit.

Start with the Tea Spoons and gradually complete your Set with the one pattern—there are several for you to choose from and the price is very moderate.

Tea Spoons cost $3.00 for a Dozen.
