

GLADSTONE'S AGREEMENT

A PROOF THAT IT WAS MADE IN GOOD FAITH.

A Government Motion to Expedite Business Carried by a Large Majority—The Bills that will be Put Through.

LONDON, July 7.—In the common belief, Michael Hicks-Beach moved that the government have precedence in the business of the house Tuesday and Wednesday. He deprecated the idea of the motion being regarded as one of confidence in the government. It was simply proposed and submitted for the convenience of the house. The government did not desire to screen their policy and actions from criticism, but the main business now should be the subject of supply and ways and means, which business was very backward. In addition to the budget the government intended to proceed with the consideration of the bill for the Australia and East India loan bill, the Irish educational endowment bill, the purchase bill, but the government was not so anxious to deal with the very important Irish land purchase bill, but the government intended to pass the measure at this period of the session if it met with opposition. The government did not intend to pass the bill leaving the policy of Mr. Gladstone had said that the liberal government had intended to renew certain statutory provisions, but the speaker was unaware of the nature of these provisions, because he had found no trace whatever of any bill having been prepared by the late government. (Cheers). The government, the speaker continued, did not propose to proceed with the conference bill, but the speaker said that it was the medical relief disqualification bill ought to be dealt with soon. Portions of the criminal amendment would also become law this session if the house granted time for their discussion.

Mr. Gladstone supported the motion because he thought it was desirable to speedily wind up the business of the session. In regard to the conference bill, Mr. Gladstone said he believed it was the duty of the late government to support the present government in the prosecution of important national affairs. The statement was in the main correct that England had promised the Zulu king to the annexation. The Standard's correspondent asserts that the annexation of Afghanistan attaches little value to the friendship of either England or Russia. The speaker said that the Egyptian question, and ought to be allowed time in which to obtain the consent and best advice. Gladstone in connection with Irish affairs said he regretted that controversial matters had been introduced into this debate. As a matter of justice he mentioned that at the very time the Liberal party proposed a coercive measure, that the government was also making the opposition to wish the motion to fall. If Government could protect property by means of common law he wished it to be done.

Lord Churchill thanked Mr. Gladstone for his charitable reception of the motion. He disclaimed the order for the motion, and said that it was not intended to be reversed.

Mr. W. Hart-Dyke, chief secretary for Ireland, replied to Mr. Lewis, who disapproved of the abandonment of the coercion act, said that Ireland had been brought into a much better position than could be compared between its present state and that existing when the crimes act passed.

Mr. Michael Hicks-Beach's motion was adopted by 165 to 2.

THE MOBILITY OF ENGLAND.

Continuation of the Pall Mall Gazette's exposure. The Standard's correspondent says that the article as the vilest obscenity ever issued from the public press or seen in public print.

The book stalls controlled by the firm of which Wm. H. Smith, secretary for war, is the head, refused to sell the Standard's day's or today's issue of the Pall Mall Gazette. The street sales of the paper have been enormous, and copies command a premium.

In the common's evening Sir Richard Assheton Cross, in reply to Mr. Bonickhoff's question, said that the Pall Mall Gazette could be criminally prosecuted for seditious publications, said the Gazette could be prosecuted by indictment in the usual way.

Satisfied With Lord Carnarvon. LONDON, July 7.—The Irish Times expresses itself as highly satisfied with the policy of the Earl of Carnarvon, as indicated in his speech in the house of commons last evening.

The Freeman's Journal says the contraband program, as far as it goes, is satisfactory at first sight.

The contest of the Duke of Cumberland for the throne of the Kingdom of Brunswick has led Prince Bismarck to make a bill which will provide for the exclusion of foreign-born heirs in the right of succession to the German throne.

The English daily papers generally approve Lord Salisbury's statement in the house of commons on Monday. The Times especially praises the statement relating to the Egyptian policy of the government.

Lord John Manners said it was not the intention of the government to propose a resolution in the house of commons because of the contention the introduction of the measure would give rise to.

The Earl of Carnarvon arrived at Dublin yesterday to formally assume the duties of lord lieutenant. He was received with great honours, and a crowd of people lined the whole route to the castle. No demonstration of a hostile character was attempted.

HE WAS A PERFECT GENTLEMAN.

How Maggie Smith was Cruelly Duped by a Married Man.

Dorset, July 7.—Maggie Smith, the young girl from Hamilton, Ont., who was married one week ago last Friday to Alex. Antioch, alias Brooks, a porter at the Brunswick hotel, returned with him from a short trip to Chicago last Friday and registered at the Antioch house as "A. C. Brooks and wife, Chicago." Yesterday morning Detective P. O'Neil saw Antioch at the hotel and asked him to return the jewelry and other articles missed from the house on West Mountain street where the girl had before her marriage. Antioch said he knew nothing of the missing property, but when Detective told him that he would have him arrested if he didn't produce it the fellow weakened and said that Maggie had the stuff. He then left, and O'Neil went up in the parlor and had a talk with the girl. She admitted having the jewelry and other articles, but said she intended to return them to her husband. Antioch almost paralyzed when he learned from O'Neil that Antioch had deserted a wife and two children far from home. When news of the girl's marriage to the man who had deserted his wife reached her, she was so shocked that she fled to her father's house. She said, "I stopped at the Brunswick, where he was working, and made his acquaintance. I thought he was a single man, and he was so kind and obliging that I thought he was a perfect gentleman. We were married by Rev. Mr. Dickie, and here is the certificate. I kept it in my sash all the time. On Saturday evening I saw the notice in the hotel here said something about Brooks' first wife. I looked into it to see if he had deserted his wife. When I saw the notice I was so shocked that I fled to my father's house. He said he used to be a little wild, but that since he met me he had reform. I thought he was a perfect gentleman. The manner in which the girl had been duped by Antioch preyed on her mind, and she went to bed at night sick. This morning she was delirious, and fears are felt that her illness may prove serious.

THE AMBER DISPATCHED.

He is Ready to Fight Either England or Russia.

LONDON, July 7.—The Standard prints this morning advice from a reliable source in India in regard to recent events in connection with the Afghan frontier. The Standard's correspondent asserts that the annexation of Afghanistan attaches little value to the friendship of either England or Russia. The speaker said that the Egyptian question, and ought to be allowed time in which to obtain the consent and best advice. Gladstone in connection with Irish affairs said he regretted that controversial matters had been introduced into this debate. As a matter of justice he mentioned that at the very time the Liberal party proposed a coercive measure, that the government was also making the opposition to wish the motion to fall. If Government could protect property by means of common law he wished it to be done.

RADICALS REMIT.

Signs of Fervent Opposition to the Bill.

LONDON, July 7.—The first formal indication of radical animosity toward the present government was furnished last evening in the house of commons by Sir Wilfrid Lawson (radical) giving notice that he would move on Tuesday to refuse to grant to the government entire command of the line of the coast.

In the common's evening Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, replying to Charles McLachlan (advanced liberal), said he could see no reason why Sir Henry Drummond Wolff should not go on a special mission to Egypt.

There will be no special mission to Egypt. Mr. McLaren, thereupon, gave notice that he would bring a motion on Tuesday declaring that it was inexpedient to entrust Sir Henry with the mission in question.

Character of the circulation of a publication to no less importance than the amount of circulation. The indictment is a formidable document. The trial will commence July 15.

John W. Astley, C.E., who conducted the negotiations between General Middleton and Riel at Beaulieu, has arrived here from Prince Albert. He will be the principal witness on behalf of the Crown, and it is expected, will give damaging testimony against the rebel leader.

Mr. Astley reports that great misery and want prevail among the half-breeds around Beaulieu.

The Prisoner's Counsel. MONTREAL, July 7.—F. X. Lemieux, M.P.P., was in the city today with Jules Tessier, secretary of the Riel defence committee, who has asked J. N. Greenhalgh of this city to go to the Northwest to act as counsel for the prisoner. The necessary expenses, however, will be amply provided for at a future date. Mr. Lemieux says that he has the fullest confidence that his client will be acquitted, but until he sees the indictment he cannot say what defence will be set up. He understands that there are seven indictments. He will start for Regina from Ottawa to-morrow.

Col. Irvine's Successor. A member of the house of commons told a World reporter yesterday that though Col. Irvine was held in high respect by the government, there could be no doubt of his being largely to blame for the impunity with which the rebels were able to plan and execute their schemes. He thought that they would do some safe places for him to reside on, but that he must certainly step aside while a more vigorous man proceeded to reorganizing the mounted police on a more efficient basis.

DOMINION DABBER. The total majority against the Scott act in Hastings is 10.

Wm. O'Neil, 26, cent. Lawson, a 45-year-old bachelor, found a two-month-old baby in a box in the street. Both the mother and child, but no trace of its parents could be found.

Gen. Carmichael was attending to a five-year-old steamer, by Gen. Stanton, owned by Mr. L. Lott. The steamer was a small horse named his arm below the elbow and crushed the bone at the elbow.

Bustlers, after all, useful as well as ornamental. An illegal young man was thrown from a carriage a short time since. He was saved from serious injury by alighting on the ground. Miss Kerr, a young woman, was thrown into the river from a boat the other day. She was rescued by a fisherman who was passing by.

The French in Madagascar. PARIS, July 7.—The news from Madagascar is of the most serious nature. Admiral Mitot, wearing reinforcements, is obliged to act strictly on the defensive. Twelve thousand Hovas besiege the French occupying the Masanga fort. The besieged are able to communicate with Admiral Mitot only by sea.

MR. MANNING'S CIRCULAR.

EFFECT OF ITS PROVISIONS ON THE G. T. R.

Points on John Enlightenment is Requested—Sir John Macdonald's Attempt to Explain.

Trade circles all along the frontier, railway men and business men generally, are much concerned over the order issued by Secretary Manning on July 3 as follows: "Circulars by notice that shipment of merchandise in transit from port or place within the territory of the United States by a route a part of which is by land carriage through the Dominion of Canada, to ports on the Canadian frontier, or from ports on the northern frontier of the United States to ports on the Canadian frontier, shall be treated in all respects as ordinary imports from the United States, and shall be subject to the same duties and regulations as such imports." The great question is, does this order interfere with the bonded traffic of the Grand Trunk, which forms a large portion of that company's business? It is thought that the matter was up in the house of commons.

Mr. Van der Polder was asked whether the attention of the premier had been directed to the recent customs order from Washington which would prohibit the importation of Canadian goods into the United States, and whether the right hon. gentleman would say what he would do in the matter.

THE RETURN OF THE TROOPS. Coming Home by Way of Prince Albert, Saskatchewan and Fort Assiniboia.

WINNIPEG, July 7.—The Winnipeg troops of cavalry under command of (Knap) Knight arrived home at an early hour this morning from the Touchwood hills, where they have been stationed since the troubles began. They have gone into camp awaiting the arrival of other troops on Monday.

A DAY IN HAMILTON.

An Ill-fated Bill—Meeting of the Knights Templar.

HAMILTON, July 7.—Michael T. Evans, charged with having an ill-fated bill, was committed for trial at the police court this morning, bail being fixed at $500.

Wm. Massey has been appointed D. D. G. C. of the Red Cross Lodge, No. 3, Knights of Pythias.

Mr. Charlton has dissolved about a ton of salt in one of the Wellington streets, Hamilton, which has now become a great nuisance to the surrounding country.

The city is crowded with Sunday school excursions from the surrounding country.

At the meeting of the Sovereign Grand Priory of Canada, Knights Templar, today, St. John's congregation, St. John, N.B., and St. Stephen's of New Brunswick were declared to be clandestine and irregular bodies, and all members were expelled from the order.

The following is taken from the allocation of the great priory and supreme council of the Sovereign Grand Priory of Canada, Knights Templar, read at the meeting held here today:

It is the duty of the great priory to maintain the purity of the order, and to see that no irregular or clandestine bodies are allowed to exist under its name.

The great priory has decided to expel from its ranks all members of irregular and clandestine bodies, and to see that no such members are allowed to re-enter the order.

A BARBERS' BROTHERHOOD.

THE TONSORIAL ARTISTS OF THE CITY FORM A TRADES UNION.

The Right 'O'clock Closing Meeting was Recently Addressed—A Representative of the Barbers' Union.

The barbers of the city last night organized themselves and set a noble example to their brothers of the razor and clippers, throughout the Dominion. Fully eighty of the tonsorial gentlemen gathered at McKays' hall, at Sherbourne and King streets, last night and duly perfected their organization. The color of the robes of the newly formed union was not drawn, and Lord Montgomery of Richmond street, arrayed in purple and fine linen, was as big a toad in the puddle as any other member of the assembly.

"Bud" Joy, the ubiquitous head of the thrifty shop in Luder lane, made an excellent presiding officer, but occasionally it required all Bud's ingenuity to suppress the noisy and boisterous demonstrations of parliamentary decorum.

Your average purveyor of soapuds, cold steel and hairbrushes, is not usually propounded to say when on his native heath, but put him in a public hall and you can bet a year's shaving, that his audience will not go to sleep for want of amusement in the shape of oratorical eloquence.

The meeting was a highly representative one, and was presided over by the Hon. Mr. Mackay, who was in the chair, looking as full of talk as a lance. He was accompanied by the Hon. Mr. "Professor" and "Mac," whom the guests of the Rosina knew well.

Professor Nisbet, who was in the chair, looked as full of talk as a lance. He was accompanied by the Hon. Mr. "Professor" and "Mac," whom the guests of the Rosina knew well.

CLIPPED FOR TEN RUNS.

THE LONDONERS GET AWAY WITH THE CLIPPERS.

A Trotting Match at Woodbine Park—Results in England—Detroit's Fourth Consecutive Victory.

LONDON, Ont., July 7.—The third team, London's baseball team, which has been playing in the city since the 15th inst., took place here this afternoon, the score being 10 to 8 in favor of London. The home team found the pitching of Chamberlain of the Clippers very difficult to bat, and did not secure a run until the seventh inning. Their fielding was excellent. The Clippers also played a very fine game, but were defeated by a score of 10 to 8.

DETROIT'S FOURTH CONSECUTIVE VICTORY. BUFFALO, July 7.—Only one league game was played to-day, Boston at Detroit. The contest was remarkable for the heavy and continuous batting of the Detroit, and for the remarkably brilliant manner in which the Boston fielded and kept the runs from scoring. In the eighth inning, the Boston team failed to get a run, and the Detroit team, led by Getzen, safely and left the home club winners of their fourth consecutive game. At Detroit—Detroit, 4; Boston, 3.

AGUACITA IN BUFFALO. BUFFALO, N. Y., July 7.—The Queen City rowing club claims the championship of the middle states and challenges any club, the West Ends of Buffalo preferred, to row for $500.

LOCAL COURSE. Local courses are making strenuous efforts to raise sufficient funds from hotels, railroad and steamboat companies and business houses to warrant the opening of the Hanlan and Tesmer to row one of their series of five races here. They are confident that they will be able to raise the necessary $1000.

TRADERS AS SPORTSMEN. From the London World. The usually good natured "Mr. Panch" smears at "Mr. Maple, the upholsterer," one week for seeking a seat in Parliament the next for owning a racehorse, and a day for Mr. Walter Shoolbred for renting a dog's house. But, my good friend, why should not these worthy men have these luxuries if, as there can be no doubt, they can afford to pay for them? An upholsterer is no better and no worse than a brewer, and yet he is not all heard of the "treasures of India." Coopers are not taking any more sills for a small bar of "Roufford." There are no greater "wells" in the hunting field than the Alps; and the Right Hon. Sir Henry James is the "beast and wits," as Thackeray says of Shandon, did not disdain to be the frequent guest of Michael Bess, Esq., dear Mr. Panch, an upholsterer, is as good as a picture dealer or a printer; and I need scarcely remind you that William Agnew, who combines the duties of a contractor, has lost a duchess, gained a constituency, and efficiently represents his country and himself. Surely Mr. Panch, who has provided so many thousands of people with seats, may now look out for one for himself.

GENERAL NEWS. At Chicago yesterday George Howson sold the great racehorse Jim Douglas, an aged bay by Wildside—Yolone, by Norfolk for $7000.

ARRANGEMENTS have been made for a five mile race with a turn between Heenan and Geo. Hooper, to be rowed on Casanova lake, near Syracuse, N. Y., July 22, for $500.

THE ARGONAUTS were the lightest crew in their race at Henley, their total weight being 602 lbs. Mr. H. McKelvey, Mr. 145 lbs., A. Thompson, 165 lbs., W. Hogg, stroke, 147 lbs.

Geo. Simms has signed G. W. Bradley as pitcher for the Leafs, and S. Fitzgerald, left of the Oswegos, as infielder and relief pitcher. Both men will probably play at Hamilton to-day in the Clipperville game.

A five mile roller skating race between Snowden, the six-day champion, and Maddocks, the champion of the four-day, took place at 8 o'clock, and was won at Boston last night by Snowden in 18 minutes and 8 seconds.

F. W. Jackson, secretary of the Watkins' Rowing association, was in Rochester yesterday arranging for a regatta on Silver lake about August 1. He is negotiating with Bentley and Rose and has announced a purse of $2000.

EDITOR WORLD: You might state in your weekly paper that the Leafs baseball club would play at Toronto this week in regard to playing a game. The licensed victuallers could be accommodated with a game should they desire, or we would like to get a date from the promoters or Clippers. J. GRAHAM, Lindsay, July 7.

THE HONORABLE OPINION.

Alarmist Growth of the Vice in Leading American Cities.

The exposure of another opinion joint shows again that the vice practiced in such places is making alarming headway among young people, and especially young girls. The frequenters of the Crosby street joint seem to have been, for the most part, disreputable characters, who were ready to seek excitement and gain stimulation in any way within their reach. Curiosity, too, undoubtedly sent many of them there, and the opportunity the place afforded for riotous excess also attracted a number of them.

The two local preoccupations of Knights Templar, in full uniform and with banners, to the Hamilton Club evening, last night, at 5.55. They will return by special train at one in the morning.
