PUBLIC MUST EAT FAT BACON, SAYS COMMERCE BOARD

Davies Co. Has Million Pounds Which Canadians Decline to Purchase.

If W. F. O'Connor, the vice-chairman of the board of commerce, has his way the Canadian people are to have a new sport provided to amuse them on cold winter mornings—they are to be educated to eat fat bacon. This idea was developed at the opening meeting of the board of commerce at the city hall yesterday and in passing it may not be out of place to say it was about the only practical development of the whole thing. The subject was introduced when E. C. Fox, general manager of the William Davies Company, stated that his firm had one million pounds of Wilshire (fat) bacon in storage. It was originally intended for shipment to England, but the armistice came and it was left on the firm's hands. Some of the means to sell the bacon in this country, but Canadians would not eat fat bacon—90 per cent. of the bacon had the fat cut off and it added to the cost to trim it, declared Mr. Fox. He considered it would be a grand piece of economy for the public to buy this class of bacon but some one would have to educate them to eat the fat.

Try a Campaign
Mr. O'Connor: Try a campaign.
Mr. Fox: We are trying it every day, but without success.

Mr. O'Connor here suggested that this particular lot of bacon might be put on the market with the government providing the duty cost and an experiment tried on the public with a view of their eventually eating fat bacon.

There was not what could be called even by a stretch of imagination a large or enthusiastic assembly at yesterday's meeting of the board. The "audience" of the afternoon session consisted of twelve members of the public, five officials, eight reporters and some witnesses. The outstanding feature of the day was the examination of E. C. Fox of the Davies Company. Mr. Fox is a power in himself, and in addition to being a perfect master of every detail of his business operations, was undoubtedly more than the mental equal of any man in the board room. Seated easily in his chair and resting his arms on the desk in front of him, he possessed in what perhaps should be called irrelevant question would be shot at him, just a flicker of a smile would be seen on his face which said as plainly as words could speak, "how foolish." At other times he would be looking at the pictures on the wall or playing with the lock of his paper case. At times he would answer with perfect apparent candor and all every question put to him. Mr. Fox is so prompt, so precise, and possesses so much knowledge of his subject that his questioners are given little or no time for thought. He seems to anticipate questions and has his reply all ready.

FEW DESERTIONS FROM CANADA'S ARMY

Total Number Since Beginning of the War is 1733.

London, Sept. 17.—The Canadian Press is officially informed that the total number of desertions in the Canadian forces since August, 1914, and not accounted for is 1733.

When it is remembered that over 20,000 troops came overseas from Canada this is considered below the average. It must also be borne in mind that included in this number are those who deserted from the first contingent of about 33,000 men, a high proportion of whom were men born in the British Isles.

Many of these had served in the home forces. Shortly after the arrival of the first contingent in England a considerable number of these deserted, and in many cases it is understood they re-enlisted in their old British regiments. Thus at the beginning of the war in 1914 there was a much higher proportion of desertions than in any year since.

On an average about 14 deserters a month are being accounted for, so that number is likely to be considerably reduced.

The total number missing in battle, casualties and not accounted for since the beginning of the war is 181,000.

It is understood that Sir Edward Kemp, overseas minister of militia, is selling for Canada immediately.

Both Sides Remain Apparently Unmoved—Prospect of Stiff Fight on Recognition of Unions and Collective Bargaining.

Canadian Press Dispatch.
Ottawa, Sept. 17.—Whatever semblance of a "love feast" there may have been about the National Industrial Conference in the first day's proceedings, is all past and gone and it has got down now to a straight policy of advocacy and opposition—with labor doing most of the advocacy and the employers, one after another, piling up the opposition.

The recommendations of the royal commission on industrial relations for bettering labor conditions in Canada, which have been supported by the labor group, have been somewhat roughly handled at times by their opponents, and the resolution on shortening the hours of labor went to the committee at noon today with both sides apparently unmoved.

John R. Shaw of Woodstock, the last speaker in the afternoon's debate, thought the royal commission should have been composed of men with a practical knowledge of the things they were going to report upon, "instead of being composed of lawyers."

The best men in the labor and employing groups had stayed away from that commission's sittings because they did not want their time taken up by "listening to a lot of windbags."

The resolutions on the right of labor to organize, recognition of labor unions, and the right to collective bargaining were taken up tonight, and there is every prospect of a stiff fight on these questions tomorrow.

The employers concede the first right, as it has been recognized by the peace conference and the government here, but they want to protect the right of the worker not to organize. If he does not wish to join a union, he should be free to do so. In regard to recognition, if it means a closed shop principle all over the Dominion, the employers are opposed and their attitude toward collective bargaining is also unfavorable.

Minimum Wage
The minimum wage for workers provoked warm discussion. Munro Grieve, a member of the manufacturers' group, admitted the justice of granting a minimum wage to women and minors, but thought it should be applied to men in regard to male workers. Miss Helena Gutteridge of Vancouver, who replied for labor, reminded him that every woman and child who works for a minimum wage law for women had equal application in the case of men. Skilled or unskilled, the laborer was worthy of his hire. If the women were the mothers of the future generation it was equally true that the men were the fathers of that same generation and healthy children could not be expected from pauperized, weakened fathers. If unskilled labor was employed it was because it was necessary to industry and if unskilled labor was necessary it was worthy of a decent living wage whether it was male or female. There were cases of women in Ottawa working all week for $3.37 where the union scale on such work would have provided a minimum

LLOYD GEORGE SAYS HE HOLDS NO BRIEF FOR THE OLD ORDER

Looks to See New Britain Springing Up, Free From Poverty and Tyranny of Mankind Over Mankind—League to Protect Small Nations.

London, Sept. 17.—Premier Lloyd George spoke before the international representative congress this evening, and his remarks, did not touch upon many of the important questions in which the nation is deeply concerned.

The premier was given an enthusiastic reception, and began by saying that a political platform was not involved at the meeting.

"I made a political announcement," he added, "I should feel that I was outraging the hospitality of the brotherhood."

He dwelt on the passing of the old order thru the war, and alluded to General Smuts as having employed the most penetrating phrase of the war in reference to the league of nations—"humanity has struck its tent and one more is on the march."

He expressed the hope that all arguments would disappear, and that the long-drawn misunderstandings between Ireland and the rest of the kingdom would also pass.

"We must have fair play in each case on both sides," he added that

PREMIER'S CONDITION NO CAUSE FOR WORRY

Ottawa, Sept. 17.—Any alarmist reports as to the condition of Sir Robert Borden's health are officially stated to be without foundation. Sir Robert, who still confined to the house, is able to leave his room. Progress has not been as rapid as was hoped, as the prime minister was run down in health, owing to the severe strain of the last few months, before he was attacked with a mild form of grippe, but no fears are entertained of his recovery.

HURRYING CORPSES TO UNRELEASSED GRAVES

All Attempts at Identification at Corpus Christi Have Been Given Up.

Corpus Christi, Tex., Sept. 17.—Darkness fell on the storm-stricken city of Corpus Christi and environs tonight with the list of dead from Sunday's hurricane hovering around the 300 mark and with a heavy rain, which fell almost continuously through the day, hampering the work of clearing the debris and increasing the sufferings of thousands of homeless.

All attempts at identifying the bodies have been abandoned because of their condition, and burial parties sent out along the shores of Nueces Bay were carrying the corpses to nearby towns for interment.

Heavy rainfall to the east of Corpus Christi was threatening to stop relief trains hurrying here over the San Antonio Railway. The food situation is serious with the arrival of several hundred refugees from the surrounding country today. Most of these were cotton-pickers, who had been left destitute as the result of the destruction of all cotton fields in this section.

GERMAN MOVEMENT IN BALTIC PROVINCES

Posters Appeal to Fight for Kaiser and Empire Against Democracy.

Berlin, Sept. 17.—The assertion is made by The Vorwaerts correspondent that the German military movement in the Baltic provinces is rapidly growing, and that officers and men are arriving there daily from Germany. Even the smallest places in Courland are being occupied.

Posters displayed in the office of Staff Captain Stoever at Bausk, Courland, said the following: "Fight for the Kaiser and the Empire against democracy. We had rather die than be dishonored."

"Pretence is being made of the disbandment of a few units," the correspondent adds, but the troops are being transferred to Admiral Kolchak's army.

NO POSTPONEMENT OF STEEL STRIKE. MEETING DECIDES

Settled Unequivocally That It Will Take Place Monday Morning as Arranged.

Pittsburg, Sept. 17.—When the national committee for organizing iron and steel workers, which met here today to consider matters in connection with the proposed strike of steel workers, adjourned tonight until tomorrow morning, John Fitzpatrick, chairman of the committee, made the unequivocal statement that the walk-out would take place next Monday morning as already decided upon. He said no action was taken at today's meeting to postpone the strike, and that the decision reached at Washington last week would not be revoked. Mr. Fitzpatrick said a statement would be issued tomorrow afternoon, the meeting, formally called to consider the strike plans, discussed the question of postponing the walk-out until after the industrial conference in Washington, beginning October 6, as requested by President Wilson. Arguments were made against postponement on the ground that the steel workers having gone so far in their campaign for settlement of grievances by collective bargaining, cannot now turn back.

A letter from E. H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel Corporation, to the president of subsidiary companies, made public here today, gives the reasons of the corporation for refusing to meet with the union leaders to discuss the affairs of its employees. These reasons are among the line given by the corporation in New York several weeks ago, when Chairman Gary refused to meet a committee representing the union.

All attempts at identifying the bodies have been abandoned because of their condition, and burial parties sent out along the shores of Nueces Bay were carrying the corpses to nearby towns for interment.

Heavy rainfall to the east of Corpus Christi was threatening to stop relief trains hurrying here over the San Antonio Railway. The food situation is serious with the arrival of several hundred refugees from the surrounding country today. AWAIT DECISION ON GENERAL STRIKE

Voting by Boston Labor Unions Will Be Counted by Next Sunday.

Boston, Sept. 17.—Before leaving for Washington early today, Clayton K. Lyster, secretary of the American Federation of Labor, issued a statement in which he conceded the advisability of working under conditions in the police department and declared that the striking patrolmen were not to blame for the disorders in the first few days of the strike. He said that the men were being called "deserters" because they had the manhood and the courage to be forced to surrender one province for their human rights and constitutional guarantees.

Local labor leaders and their attorneys today, awaited a meeting of the central labor union next Sunday. At that time it is expected that the committee that has been counting the votes on the question will be ready to report.

IN A FIGHTING SPEECH ROWELL SAYS CHARGES OF MURPHY ARE FALSE

Tells Parliament He Never Received Salary as Ontario Opposition Leader, Never Conspired to Supplant Laurier and Never Shandered Roman Catholic Church.

Special to The Toronto World.
Ottawa, Sept. 17.—Hon. N. W. Rowell in the house this afternoon made a fighting speech in reply to the charges made against him by Hon. Charles Murphy in March, 1918. He denied that he had received any salary as leader of the provincial opposition in Ontario or that he had ever joined in a conspiracy to supplant Sir Wilfrid Laurier. He defended his course in joining the Union government and compared his action with that of Hon. George Brown in 1844. Mr. Brown, he said, had left the Liberal party to make confederation, and he had left it to save confederation. He said that he had not dealt with the charge that he had bought his seat in the house with a senatorship or with the office of a similar nature preferred by Mr. Murphy except to say that all the charges were false and were known to be false by Mr. Murphy at the time he made them. He read from his famous North Bay speech and declared that nothing in the speech justified the charge that he was an anti-French and anti-Catholic bigot. Mr. Robb and the chief Liberal whip, who followed, commented upon the fact that Mr. Rowell had waited 18 months to make his defence and had selected a time when he knew Mr. Murphy was sick and out of the country.

THREE LOSE LIVES IN BEAVERTON FIRE

Beaverton, Ont., Sept. 17.—Miss Effie McEachern, Margaret and Dorothy Lyon were burned to a crisp early this morning in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Lyon about seven miles northeast of Beaverton, Thorntons township, which was completely destroyed by fire. Their two daughters, Margaret and Dorothy, aged 11 and 5 years, and Miss Effie McEachern, sister of Mr. Lyon, were burned to death. Their eldest son, Ernest, had started a fire in the kitchen stove, then went to the barn to do the chores. The fire, supposed to have started from the stove, spread from the kitchen to the washhouse, and in a few minutes the whole house was in flames.

Mr. Lyon, her son, Norman, three daughters and sister, Miss McEachern, had been sleeping upstairs. Mrs. Lyon had managed to get them all into one room, when she threw some pillows from the upstairs window and then threw her daughter Effie, aged 5 years, out from the flames. Miss McEachern and the other two girls had backed into the smoke and flames, and are supposed to have fallen thru the burning floor and were charred to death. The bodies were not made their escape. Mrs. Lyon and Norman jumped from the upstairs window. Mrs. Lyon is in a critical condition from burns and shock, while her daughter Effie is suffering from several broken ribs.

Commission Secures Option on Toronto & Eastern Railway—Ready to Start Bowmanville-Toronto Line When Bonds Guaranteed.

The first spoke of a comprehensive radial system for Toronto and district, planned by the Hydro-Electric Power Commission, was announced by Sir Adam Beck to a large meeting in Brougham, Pickering township, yesterday. He said that the commission had secured an option on the Toronto and Eastern Railway, a Mackenzie line of the federal government, and that if the municipalities concerned would support the proposition with a bonding guarantee the road would be completed and electrified from Bowmanville to Toronto. From this trunk line it is proposed to run feeders to Stouffville and Port Perry.

Express Regret to Wheat Board Regarding Initial Payment on Wheat.

Calgary, Alta., Sept. 17.—A number of suggestions were made to the Canadian wheat board at a sitting held in Calgary this forenoon, particularly by the executive of the United Farmers of Alberta. Representatives of the milling interests also expressed their views and incidentally it transpired from the evidence of the latter that flour was selling cheaper in Calgary than in any other part of Canada, it being pointed out that a profit of only twenty cents a barrel was made here. Another point that was urged was that there should be a premium paid to farmers for good seed grain.

The members of the board present were: Mr. McWilliams, who presided, Frank Fowler, Wm. Matheson and H. W. Wood.

The chief speaker for the United Farmers of Alberta was F. Baker. Mr. Baker presented a written memorandum, drawn up by the executive of his organization, and this was discussed clause by clause. One of the statements in this memorandum was that it had been hoped that the Canadian grain board would have seen their way clear to have made the initial payment on wheat at least equal to the fixed minimum price in the United States.

NEGLECTED ACTION AGAINST COMBINES, SAYS J. CURRY, K.C.

Attacks Government and Manufacturers Before Audience of Liberals.

"I charge that the government of Ontario in power at that time knew that there were combinations in restraint of trade, in respect, as I have said, practically to every article that went into a man's house, or into his household; and that there were sufficient influences brought to bear upon them to cause them to desire that the prosecutions launched should end; that the prosecutions did end, and I resigned."

"When I left my office the papers were there. They are there today. They should have been there. They got today. But the combine men have from that day up to the present time grown bolder, bolder, bolder as the highwaymen always do."

In these words J. Walter Curry, K.C., last night, in Kenilworth Hall, before a large audience of Liberal electors, indicted the Ontario government for negligence in the prosecution of the combines, and for allowing combinations against whom prosecutions had been launched, by themselves to escape punishment under the law. He spoke of the years 1904-5-6; but said the government in that year acted the same and the profiteering that had been done during the war and since would not have flourished had not the combine of the Ontario government been allowed to escape prosecution and punishment.

Exact All Possible.
Mr. Curry rose at times to periods of fervid condemnation of manufacturers who pay their working men as little as they can and exact all they can as the price of the goods they manufacture. In this way, he said, some of the millionaires have risen in Toronto during the past fifteen years.

Mr. Curry began his address by saying he had retained his interest in political matters and his love for the Liberal party. He would not limit his remarks upon the high cost of living to the cost of food alone, but extend his observation to the things that enter into the house and the household. That was the scope of his official connection twelve or thirteen years ago with the prosecutions of combines in plumbers' supplies as they were then known. The information in regard to these combines had come to him in the first, and he had upon investigation found the information true. It amounted to this, that if John Jones desired certain work done for him and William Smith had been doing the work, Smith could claim Jones as his customer. His contract price went before the combine that represented his association. The members of the association sat around a table and first added twenty per cent. to the price for the benefit of the funds of the club or association. Then each member of the association had $500 added

C.N.E. PLANS FOR
NEW EXTENSIONS

Schemes Depend on Action of Harbor Board and Military Authorities.

At a meeting of the Canadian National Exhibition directorate yesterday afternoon, President T. A. Russell in the chair, considerable discussion centered around the proposed extension of grounds and buildings and an elaborate tentative scheme was laid out with the object of caring for the prospective growth and development of the next years.

The $1,000 public competition for plans and suggestions was confirmed, but some delay has occurred owing to the indefinite nature of the boulevard drive and other plans of the harbor board. Chief Engineer E. L. Cousins and

FERRY SERVICE BAD.

There is dissatisfaction at the island over the reduction in the ferry service. The last boat now is at 10 o'clock, and it is stated the best performances of 40-minute service were at certain periods more than an hour. It is pointed out that the city gets a large revenue from the householder, and it is argued that the city council should use its power to regulate the ferry service.

PETTY THEFTS OF COAL.

It appears that some petty coal thefts have been taking place. Property Commissioner Chisholm states that a number of coal deliveries are being made a bag or two short of the quantity ordered. The department warns purchasers and consumers not to accept coal that is not accompanied by bills properly made out, otherwise the customer runs a risk of receiving stolen goods.

which allowed a great deal of discus-

Notable Facts.

The two days' convention of the Bread and Cake Manufacturers' Asso-conclusion yesterday afternoon, when the 250 members from centres ranging from Vancouver to Halifax, sang "Auld Lang Syne" in the banquet hall of the King Edward Hotel, where the sessions had been held.

During the morning session an address on "How to Sell More Bread," was given by D. P. Woolley, New York, in which the speaker emphasized the value of the right kind of advertising.
Something of the wheat crop of 1919 was told by Prof. Harcourt of Guelph Agricultural College. There is, said the lecturer, a shortage of gluten to the extent of five or six per cent. in this year's wheat. The flour, however, promised to make good bread. It might want a little less fermentation and a shorter period in dough than if more gluten were present. W. H. Linn, late of the Canada food board, read a paper in which methods of retaining moisture in the bread were pointed out.

Declare Indignation Thruout
Canada Relating to Board's Sugar Order.

To Relieve Catarrh,
Catarrhal Deafness
And Head Noises

Persons suffering from catarrhal deafness, or who are growing hard of hearing and have head noises, will be glad to know that this distressing affliction can usually be successfully treated at home by an internal medicine that in many instances has effected complete relief after other treatments have failed. Sufferers who could scarcely hear have had their hearing restored to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven or eight inches away from either ear. Therefore, if you know of someone who is troubled with head noises or catarrhal deafness, cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. The prescription can be prepared at home and is made as follows:
Secure from your druggist 1 oz. Par-mint (Double Strength). Take this home and add to it 1/4 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.
Parmint is used in this way not only to reduce by tonic action the inflammation and swelling in the Eustachian Tubes, and thus to equalize the air pressure on the drum, but to correct any excess of secretions in the middle ear, and the results it gives are nearly always quick and effective.
Every person who has catarrh in any form, or distressing rumbling, hissing sounds in their ears, should give this re-

Central Ratepayers Outline Plans to Better Conditions Generally.

Matters discussed at a special meeting of the Central Council of Ratepayers, held at the city hall last night, arose for the most part out of the address of the president, George Shields, who outlined plans for the future and briefly summarized the three years' existence of the association. Starting with the nucleus of a strong organization, the council had now an affiliation of seventeen ratepayers' associations. If these were represented by five delegates or even two, at every meeting, it might be considered strong, but on an average only one representative is present, stated the speaker, who emphasized the point that support both by representation and in the shape of finance is necessary for the existence of the organization.

The speaker suggested that a remedy could be found by amending the constitution, so that any ratepayer residing in the city might become a member on payment of a fee of one dollar.

Representative Debates.
Mr. Shields also advised that recognition be given the various units by giving the president of each or his representative time for a short address, the program to be arranged beforehand, so that debate might be intelligently handled.

Opinion as to the advisability of an open door to individual ratepayers was varied, many opposing the idea and stating that the meeting, not being in the regular order, could not make any change in the constitution. The point was finally settled when Delegate Hutchinson moved that the executive be given power to amend the constitution at the times of the president's address and submit the amended form to the next meeting. This was carried.

The question of funds to pay an account of $18, which amount had been paid by the treasurer, as no funds were available, brought the question of fees well to the fore. It was decided that organizations should be notified of their indebtedness.

Mrs. MacIver corrected an impression that change had been accepted who did not represent ratepayers. She pointed out that those in membership represented the women voters and satisfied all requirements.

POWERS HAVE PLEDGED RETURN OF SHANTUNG

Wilson Says League Will Institute International Policy to Protect China.

San Francisco, Sept. 17.—Discussing at length the Shantung provision of the peace treaty, President Wilson said in an address here today that he had been assured by the great powers that under the league of nations there would be a new international policy for the protection of Chinese territory.

The powers, said Mr. Wilson, had Japan's promise to return Shantung to China and intended to see that it was fulfilled under the league. He said he had asked colleagues at Versailles specifically whether they meant under the league to inaugurate a new policy toward China and they told him they did.

Far from being detrimental to China's interests, declared Mr. Wilson, the treaty really was the first in the world's history to do anything for China's benefit. In all previous instances of acquisition of Chinese territory, he said, the United States had not even protested.

The president's declarations were received with applause and cheers by the 1,500 women present at the women's luncheon, at which he spoke. There were cries of "No, no," when he asked whether it would be wise to go to war over Shantung. There is no other way he said, to secure the immediate return of the province to China.

Mr. Wilson also discussed the Monroe doctrine, article 10, and the right of withdrawal from the league, repeating previous arguments against reservations on these points and declaring some of the changes proposed involved merely a question of literary style.

Turning to the objection that Great Britain has six votes in the league assembly, Mr. Wilson said it so happened that "our one vote would be able to remedy conditions that heretofore could not be reached owing to

Uncle Wiggily and Roly-Poly

BY HOWARD R. GARIS.
Copyright, 1919, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

"Dear me, Uncle Wiggily! Where have you been?" asked Nurse Jane "fuzzy wuzzy" one day, as the bunny rabbit gentleman came hopping back to his hollow stump bungalow.

"Why, is anything the matter?" Mr. Longears wanted to know. "The chimney didn't catch fire, did it? Or the gold fish fly away?"

"Oh, no, neither one!" laughed the muskrat lady bungalow keeper. "It's just about all the animal children in Woodland, near these Orange Ice mountains, have been here, one after the other, ever since you've been gone, asking when you'd be back."

"Well, I'm back now," answered Uncle Wiggily with a laugh that made his pink nose twinkle twice as fast. "What did they want?"

"I don't know. But here comes Sammie Littlefoot! You may ask him, spoke Nurse Jane.

Along this grass came hopping the little rabbit boy.

"Oh, Uncle Wiggily!" he cried. "Will you come and play with us?"

"Play what and with whom?" asked Mr. Longears.

"Play Roly-Poly," went on Sammie.

"It's a lot of fun. You have a rubber ball and you make some little holes in the ground, just big enough for the rubber ball. Then we all stand together, after we have each picked out a hole. Someone rolls the ball, and if it goes into the hole you stand near you have to run, take out the ball, and chase after the rest of us."

"That sounds nice," said Uncle Wiggily. "How long do I run?"

"Oh, you run with the ball in your paw until you get near enough to one of us to throw the ball at us. And whenever you hit has to be 'it' next time, and roll the ball, and get it in some other hole, and so on! Don't you want to play?"

"Oh, no, Uncle Wiggily doesn't want to play any such game as that!" spoke of Nurse Jane.

"Oh, yes, I guess I do," said the bunny with a laugh. "I haven't played the Roly-Poly game since I was a little rabbit like you, Sammie. I'll come and have some fun."

"Don't hit Uncle Wiggily too hard with the ball if you throw it at him, Sammie," called out Nurse Jane.

"Oh, it won't hurt to hit with a rubber ball," laughed the rabbit boy. "Will it, Uncle Wiggily?"

"Not a bit," answered the bunny rabbit gentleman, laughing. And then, so he might have more fun, he put on his old clothes, and a can instead of his tall, silk hat, and away he hopped with Sammie, over the fields and thru the woods to the Roly-Poly game.

"There they are! Hear 'em?" called Sammie, as he and his Uncle Wiggily hopped from a grassy valley to the top of a mossy hill.

The bunny rabbit gentleman could hear glad, happy shouts of the animal boys.

"It sounds like lots of fun!" said Mr. Longears, his eyes, as well as his nose, twinkling.

Sir Oliver Lodge Gives Illustration Of Atomic Energy in Ounce of Matter

Birmingham, England, Sept. 17.—Sir Oliver Lodge, the eminent scientist, in an address today at Midland Institute in connection with memorial ceremonies held on the occasion of the one hundredth anniversary of the death of James Watt, inventor of the condensing steam engine, again touched upon the subject of atomic properties of matter.

Sir Oliver declared that the first of matter was wireless telephony. He added that if the atomic energy of an ounce of matter could be utilized it would be sufficient to raise the German ships sunk in the Scapa Flow and pile them on top of the Scottish mountains. He said, however, that he hoped the human race would not discover how to use this energy until it had brains and morality enough to use it properly, because if the discovery were made before its time and by the wrong people this planet would be unsafe.

Belgian Embassy.

The Belgian legation in London has been raised to the status of an embassy. Baron Moncheur, who was appointed minister to Great Britain in 1917, has been named as ambassador. Baron Moncheur was formerly minister to the United States and was also head of the Belgian mission to the United States. His wife is the daughter of the late General Fox-Clayton, former United States ambassador to Mexico.

OYSTER CATCHES MOUSE.

A fish merchant on the marine parade at Great Yarmouth found, on opening his place of business, that an oyster had caught a mouse and was holding it tightly by the head. Apparently the oyster had opened its shell to feed when the mouse tried to eat it. The oyster closed its shell and killed the mouse.

SMOKE BARRAGE.

TORONTO MAN ARRESTED IN U.S.

Manager of Cigar Co. Held at Atlantic City on Theft Charge.

Charles R. Johnson, sales manager of the Wilson Cigar Company, Limited, of Toronto, was arrested in Atlantic City yesterday on information telegraphed from detective headquarters.

Johnson is wanted here on a charge of stealing $2000 from his employer. The theft, according to the police, covers a period of one year. The sales made by Johnson ran up to $8000, and it is alleged none of the money collected was turned into the firm.

BIG CONFERENCE HAS HOT DEBATE

of $12 per week. Waiters in big hotels were working for $7 per week and depending on charity to keep their families. That was not giving the working men and women a square deal.

The debate on the right to organize and recognition of labor unions, together with adoption of the principle of collective bargaining, will occupy most of the session tomorrow, it is expected. Many speakers on both sides are ready to take the floor.

Warning to Labor. Threats of strikes were deplored and a new warning from laboring to employers issued before the national industrial conference had proceeded very far with this morning's session.

The conference opened in a sort of fighting mood and it was not very long before things became interesting. J. S. McKinnon, of Toronto, thought labor had been going too far in using the term "conscription of wealth" and threatening to strike to enforce the 8-hour day in all industries.

J. A. Gilles, of Sydney, N. S., a delegate of the steel workers, disclaimed any attempt to force class legislation. No industry had yet been ruined by reducing hours. Every dollar invested honestly was worthy of a proper interest, he declared, but the speeding up of labor to earn profits on air and water was not legal.

Col. Thomas Cantley of New Glasgow, N.S., also admitting the desirability of an eight-hour day, expressed the view that it was an impossibility over Canada.

S. R. Parsons of Toronto said that the 48-hour day bill when introduced in the British house had been considered revolutionary. What, then could be said for the 44-hour bill before conference? It was utterly impossible in this country, with its great variety of industries, to make a fixed period for any day.

A hundred million people are starving in Europe today, said Mr. Parsons. That continent of industries on the verge of the great opportunity we have if we can only forget our little differences and work together.

There was a spirit of pessimism everywhere, said Mr. White, closing the argument for the manufacture. The economic basis should, for the present at least, come before the social conditions. The settlement of such problems as Canada is now facing.

Speaking of the international labor conference to be held in Washington next month, Mr. Butler said the laws of all nations would be working to unify the world. The important questions before that body, it was felt in Paris that some agreement on the minimum wage must be made.

The fear of foreign competition can only be removed by common action. This conference will be an innovation, things good must come of it. Canada's views would be better expressed because of the conference now under way.

Mr. Moore Greer of Toronto, who opened the afternoon session by a discharge of humor into the proceedings, said Mr. Greer, while a wage law with the minimum wage law placed too high would work against the country's export trade.

A minimum wage law for women and children was a more serious question. He was opposed to any attempt to enforce efficiency tests for men. Individual minimums must be enforced in every industrial worker by the provision for a larger wage for the competent man.

unfavorable position with manufacturers in other countries. J. A. Gilles, Sydney, N.S., said there was no attempt to introduce class legislation, but the arguments against shorter hours of labor never changed.

The operation of reducing hours had not ruined any industry which it had been tried. The object is not to stifle production, but to make labor more efficient. You cannot expect loyalty to be all one-sided.

Mr. Gilles. "We must be fair with you, but you must give up a little more of what you have termed profits." Blessed Be the Tie.

J. S. McKinnon of Toronto spoke of the excellent feeling of the assembly, and thought "Blessed be the tie that binds" might be sung by all present. The manufacturers, he thought, would cheerfully consider granting the shorter possible hours, but there were statistics on Canada's production which must not be overlooked.

"Are you really discussing an eight-hour day or are you just playing with words?" asked Mr. McKinnon. Conscription of wealth had been referred to by an earlier speaker, and Mr. McKinnon thought the term used unfairly. There had also been a threat of paralyzing the industries by a strike and turmoil to enforce the eight-hour day.

That threat, he thought, was getting a little ahead of the game. He pleaded that the spirit of fairness should prevail in all discussions of the conference. J. A. McClelland, in closing the discussion for the employees, said he rose to move that the subject matter of the discussion be referred to the proper committee.

With regard to the alleged threat that employees would force an eight-hour day, he said that at the present time 60,000 Canadian employees were working a 48-hour week. Countries to which Canada's exports were going adopted, if not the 44-hour, at any rate a 48-hour week.

France and Great Britain are adopting the eight-hour day, and all the decisions of the States labor board were based on a 48-hour week. An impossibility. Col. Thomas Cantley of New Glasgow, N.S., also admitting the desirability of an eight-hour day, expressed the view that it was an impossibility over Canada.

S. R. Parsons of Toronto said that the 48-hour day bill when introduced in the British house had been considered revolutionary. What, then could be said for the 44-hour bill before conference? FOOD IS CHEAPER IN GREAT BRITAIN

Boycott Was Weapon Full of Potentialities, Says Veteran.

William Chapman, caretaker of Playter's Hall, Danforth avenue, who has just returned on the S.S. "Minnesoda" after a 3-month visit to England, described conditions as he found them in the whole of food is cheaper in London, Manchester, Leeds and other large cities than in Canada.

Mr. Chapman says: "On the whole food is cheaper in London, Manchester, Leeds and other large cities than in Canada. Sugar and butter are rationed, but other foodstuffs are plentiful. Bacon, ham and canned goods are cheaper than in Canada, and can purchase the canned goods of the Wm. Davies Company cheaper in London than in Toronto. Canned fish, tongue and sardines are cheaper, and American chewing gum can be bought at 4 cents."

The street markets at Lord Lewis-ham and other towns, Mr. Chapman points out, have knocked out the storekeepers' prices. Effective Means. The boycott was an effective means of pulling down prices, Mr. Chapman quoted an instance where apples at 18 cents a pound were brought down to 3 cents by the combination of women. The year's fruit crop was brought down to normal prices through this means, he stated.

In connection with the housing situation, the government has commandeered 10,000 large houses and mansions around London, which are now being converted into workmen's dwellings at moderate rentals. BRITISH AND FOREIGN MAILS.

ROWELL ANSWERS MURPHY CHARGES

and to give an answer at the earliest date. Big Grecian Order. Mr. Euler asked if it was correct that Greece had placed an order for $25,000,000 worth of manufactured goods in Canada, and if so, whether the purchases were being financed by the Dominion government.

Mr. Rowell replied that the government had not hesitated in the national interest, for the period of the war, to take action antagonizing the liquor interest. And what was the attitude of the opposition? Who stood in with the liquor interest when the prohibition bill was before the house?

Again, there were the railway interlocks. The big interests did not wish the government to acquire the Grand Trunk. But the government had stood steadily by its policy, because it believed that a national system of transportation should be completed by acquiring the Grand Trunk Railway.

Packers' Profits. As a limitation of the profits of packers it was well known that the limitation applied to the year 1913, and no assessments could be made until 1914. If profits had been made by the packers in excess of the order-in-council, the packers would pay every dollar required.

Who was the friend of the profiteer? Mr. O'Connor was "an angel of light," a veritable Daniel come to judgment," so long as he made reports which provided material for the opposition. But when Mr. O'Connor sought to do something to curb the statement made by Mr. Archambault that he (Mr. Rowell) was more concerned in defending profiteers than in defending himself against the specific charges made in the house by Mr. Murphy. It had been suggested that the people of Canada, and the people of the world, were probably no single interest more powerful than that of the liquor traffic. But the government had not hesitated in the national interest, for the period of the war, to take action antagonizing the liquor interest.

WOMAN'S HAIR REACHES TO KNEES

A Year Ago Was Threatened With Baldness. Tells How She Made Her Hair Grow.

Mrs. Esther Emery, now visiting friends in the city, is the fortunate possessor of a magnificent mane of hair, which, when loosened from its coils, falls to her knees. Moreover it is of soft, silken texture and of a rich, glossy color. Yet just one year ago she was threatened with baldness.

Twelve months ago my hair, which then reached barely to my shoulders, was falling out at an alarming rate and growing very thin, and becoming bald scalp in several spots. It was dull and lifeless in color, turning grey in patches, and very dry and brittle. My head was covered with dandruff and itched like mad all the time. I tried many different hair tonics, but they never did me a bit of good. One day I changed to read in my home paper of a simple home preparation to make the hair grow that was recommended by taking ordinary Lavona de Compose and mixing with Bay Rum and Menthol Crystals and perfume.

Each night with the finger tips that were used to apply the mixture, I rubbed 2 ounces of the Lavona de Compose Menthol Crystals and Bay Rum and 1/2 dr. of oil of sandalwood and 1/2 dr. of oil of rose into my hair and scalp. I did this every night and in a few days my hair began to grow again and in a few weeks it had reached to my shoulders. I continued to use the mixture until my hair reached the floor. I might have stopped at any time, but I persisted at the end of three months. I think any woman can get long, thick, beautiful hair by using this preparation. I have recommended it to several friends and all are delighted with the results. Those who use it should be careful to get it on the face and where the hair is not desired.

Dr. Steele Blames War. Dr. Steele emphasized that the lack of supplies in many necessities of life was due to the war. He instanced the demand for leather for soldiers. The result was that there were boots for the civilian population at prices which previously obtained. The problem of the high cost of living, in his opinion, could not be solved by practicing economy. He criticized the demagogue for "stirring up every body against every body."

Mr. Prevost of Terrebonne said that the government had for years been endeavoring to control the cold storage warehouses, to limit the price of meat, and to curb the profiteer. But no effective action had been taken. Hon. N. W. Rowell referred to a

Mr. Joseph Archambault, continuing the debate on the address, referred in opening to the pleasure that the visit of the people of Canada. The people of Canada, he said, must have a voice in the government and the people of the world. He referred to the French language. He referred to the fact that the government had not hesitated in the national interest, for the period of the war, to take action antagonizing the liquor interest.

Mr. Rowell then took up the charges made against him by Hon. Chas. Murphy in the house 15 months ago. When the charges were made Mr. Rowell said he was not in the house. He was closed without his having an opportunity to reply. The view was further expressed by his colleagues that in view of the inflammatory character of the charges, had Mr. Rowell replied there would probably have been a week or more of heated debate and discussion at a time when the government was contemplating forward every effort to compensate feeling in the province of Quebec.

COL. KELLY EVANS
ADVOCATES BEER

Gives Reasons Why, at Ward Four Conservative Ridings Meeting.

Lieut.-Colonel A. Kelly Evans, who will at the provincial election, run in Northeast Toronto with the support of the Ward Four Conservative Ridings Association, a body distinct from the Ward Four Conservative Association, is not a believer in total prohibition. He defined his attitude on this question at a meeting attended by about 300, in St. Paul's Hall, last night. "I believe in some method being arrived at," he said, "whereby beer with reasonable strength can be obtained for the workmen, wine can be obtained for the home, and hard liquor under strict government regulation, which will enable people to obtain it in reasonable quantities and under reasonable restrictions." He did not see eye to eye with Premier Hearst's attitude on prohibition, but otherwise he endorsed the general policy of the Ontario government. Regarding the Conservative platform, he said, "I wish at no time to close the door to the assistance of the machine, but whether it gives that assistance or not, I propose to be a candidate. The meeting, which was under the auspices of Ward Four Conservative Ridings Association, by a standing vote supported Col. Evans as candidate.

T. R. Code, who presided, said the Ward Four Ridings Association was composed of natural-born British subjects, and no other need apply, and no other need obtain entrance. In the Ward Four Conservative Association they had a different element. "We are not independent Conservatives," he said. "We are Conservatives to the backbone. We are prepared to go thru on the Conservative platform, but we reserve the right on one point. The premier has said it is his privilege and his right to hold his own personal opinions on the referendum, and the right of the people in that regard. Personally I have my own opinions, because I believe in the inherent right of every man to have what he can pay for, so long as he uses it with moderation." Pouncing on the criticism of their attitude to Ward Four Conservative Association, the chairman said, "We appealed to those present whether they were right or not in refusing to go to that convention because it was already cooked, and the man was already nominated. We are not machine-made men, and so long as an organization exists it will not be machine-made. I maintain the electors the right to nominate their own representatives. It is not up to the machine, operating perhaps, from a celebrated club in Toronto, to dictate who shall be the candidates."

Lieut.-Col. Evans began by referring to such stalwarts in the old days as George Brown, Oliver Mowat, and men of that type, and said people must feel today that there was something lacking. The reason why important business and professional men, scientifically engaged in such a nefarious way might be of assistance to a politician, but time, I believe the people all the province and the electors of the different ridings might copy the methods employed on the British hustings of heckling a candidate and asking him to declare his position on important issues. "I feel it my duty whether I am snowed under or not to declare my personal opinion upon this question."

Just a Rubber Stamp. The candidate pointed out that in view of the vote of the people, prohibition he would if elected be nothing but a rubber stamp and his personal view would have nothing to do with it, but he conceived it his duty to give that personal view. The speaker then said how he came to his conclusions. Samuel Gompers had taken the stand that he believed in beer for the workman, and that was sufficient for the candidate. As regards wine, he could find no mandate in the Bible for total prohibition, and the first miracle of the Master was to turn water into wine. With reference to ardent spirits, he was not in favor of sale over the bar, but he could not overlook the hands of those people who require it for legitimate use. The candidate's views on prohibition were at times applauded.

LADY FOSTER DIES
IN CITY OF OTTAWA

Wife of Minister of Trade and Commerce Passes Away in Capital.

Ottawa, Sept. 17.—Lady Foster, wife of Sir George Foster, minister of trade and commerce for Canada, passed away this morning at the family residence, 125 Somerset street, following an illness of several months. Sir George Foster returned early from the peace conference at Paris because of her condition. Besides her husband, Lady Foster leaves one son by her first marriage, A. M. Chisholm of Windsor, B.C., who, with his wife, has been in Ottawa for several months during the period of Lady Foster's severe illness. Two brothers, Milton and Charles Davis of Chicago, also survive. Lady Foster was born near Hamilton, Ont., the eldest daughter of the late Milton Davis of that district. On July 2, 1859, she was married to Sir George Foster. Interment will be made in Ottawa.

COMES TO TORONTO. Galt, Sept. 17.—Wm. Carri Foster of Hespeler, who recently returned from overseas after three years' service with the military branch of the Y. M. C. A. in camps of France, Belgium, England and Canada, has been appointed social secretary of Central Y.M.C.A., Toronto.

PRINGLE PROMISES
PAPER FOR PRESSES

Controller Says Canadian Newspapers Must Be Served First.

Ottawa, Sept. 17.—The newspaper industry is on again off again, today's session before Commissioner H. A. Pringle having resulted in an adjournment to the second week in October. Today's feature was the announcement by the commissioner that Canadian papers are in a serious way for newsprint, some finding it hard to obtain the requirements of the controller. "I am going to see the Canadian press supplied with paper. There is a lot of it in this country, and the Canadian mills have been making contracts outside the country. I can't help that. It is a secondary question. I am going to ask each manufacturer," he said, "to furnish me at the earliest possible date with a statement of the amount of newspaper being exported and the amount being supplied to Canadian buyers. It is hardly fair that some companies should be called on to supply a large quantity of Canadian papers in excess of their percentage, while others supply very little." He added that the Eddy Company, working at capacity and supplying its entire product in Canada, cannot supply its own customers. George H. Montgomery, mill counsel, explained that, with permission of the federal trade commerce, most U. S. customers had chosen to make firm term contracts, and that the Canadian mills are thus tied up to contracts for their whole capacity.

Wants Sheet News. Mr. Pringle replied that he was quite aware that the Abitibi mill had even bought paper in the open market at a loss in order to fill contracts. "However," he stated in reply to a question, "the Canadian papers supplied. Also, I want to know what mills can supply sheet news. Some of the smaller papers which are badly off for it." A representative of the Booth mill confirmed a report that it has ceased to manufacture sheet news. "If we have a reasonable quantity on hand, I'll have to make an order for it," stated Mr. Pringle.

Price Reduction. The commissioner then passed on to the business for which the session was called, namely, the reduction of the paper control tribunal's reduction of the price of newsprint by $3 per ton for the five months, beginning July 1, 1914, and its effect upon the prices Mr. Pringle had fixed for other periods. He said he had hoped that the manufacturers and publishers could get together and agree on a price for subsequent periods. The other point was the price for periods earlier than that dealt with by the tribunal. He had been informed by a member of the latter body that its judgment had not made allowance for any inadequacy of price in earlier periods. There was a still earlier period, March 1 to November 20, 1917, when orders had been made not by Mr. Pringle, but by order-in-council, and it might be that the responsibility of revising prices for that period rested with the government. "I had hoped," said Mr. Pringle, "that the solution would be to have these questions referred back to the paper control tribunal by consent, which would obviate my making an order, and their order would be final. It would have to be by consent, tho'."

LABOR SITUATION
DEPRESSES CORN

Threat of Farmers to Withhold Supplies Gave Prices Early Strength.

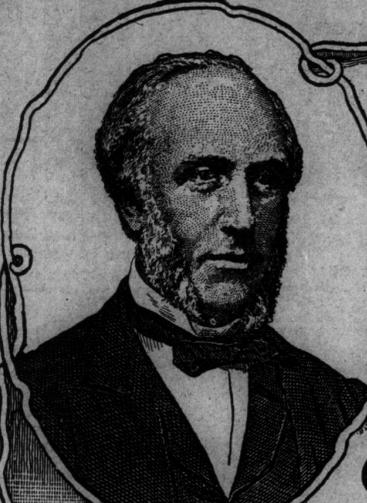

Chicago, Sept. 17.—Militant utterances of labor leaders regarding a steel strike did a good deal to stir the market today to counterbalance the bullish effect of a farmers' movement to hold higher prices for grain and livestock for the remainder of the year. Higher priced corn and livestock for the remainder of the year. Higher priced corn and livestock for the remainder of the year. Higher priced corn and livestock for the remainder of the year.

Oats finished 1-3-4 to 1-3-4 down, and provisions varying from unchanged to figures 33 cents decline. Corn ran up rapidly in value at the first opening to the stimulus which buyers found in announcements that farmers' organizations were taking definite concerted measures to keep rural commodities off the market at present. In particular, September delivery of corn made a steep upturn, nearly 3 cents in a bushel, in which some of the trade centered did not rise to any such spectacular degree. Strength nevertheless was evident, and well profit-taking sales took on large proportions and simultaneously the attention of traders focused on the steel industry. Then, with support lacking, prices crumbled in good earnest toward the last of the session. Oats paralleled the action of corn. Provisions advanced with hogs and corn but like grain finally receded.

GRANGERS FORM
POLITICAL PARTY

At Regina Meeting, Grain Growers Decide to Complete Organization Today.

Canadian Press Dispatch. Regina, Sept. 17.—With approximately 100 delegates present, the first session of the federal constituency executives of the Grain Growers' Political Movement opened in Regina today. Thomas Sales of Tantalum was in the chair when the morning session opened and he is presiding over the convention, which is expected to complete its work in a few days. Tomorrow it is expected that the first definite organization of a grain growers' political party here will be completed. The evening session was opened with an address from

George Brown's Ideal; Robert Jaffray's Ambition

THE Globe was founded for a cause—that cause was Responsible Government, the Abolition of Clergy Reserves, the overthrowing of the Family Compact. It fought for Ecclesiastical Reform, for Representation by Population, for Confederation. All through the bitter controversies of those early days, The Globe stood conscientiously to its task. It helped lead the country through many dangers and pitfalls to great nationhood.

This was George Brown's ideal. He fought for it by his personal service in public life as well as through The Globe, which he founded in 1844. He lived to see Canada emerge from the struggle a fully confederated Dominion, stepping on to the highway of great national progress and prosperity.

What The Globe Stands For

The Globe stands for Canada as a nation within the British Empire, entitled to share in the settlement of great Imperial issues—such as peace and war; for the arbitration of all disputes between nations; for the equality of all Canadian citizens—regardless of race or creed—before the law—for the right of women to vote in all elections and sit in Parliament and the Provincial Legislatures; for the national ownership and operation of railways and telegraphs; for the development under Provincial or municipal control of all available water powers and the extension of public power lines wherever practicable to the farms as well as the cities and the towns—for the prohibition by Federal law of the importation, manufacture or retail sale in Canada of intoxicating liquor for a reform in the land laws and in the system of land taxation throughout the Dominion which shall encourage use and discourage speculation; for the strengthening and enforcement of the law against combinations in restraint of trade—for a tariff based on revenue requirements; for a more equitable division between Capital and Labor of the wealth produced by their co-operation in industry; for old-age pensions and the insurance of wage workers against unemployment and sickness; for the simplification of Court procedure and the lessening of appeals so that the poor shall not remain at a disadvantage; for an educational system in all the Provinces that shall promote citizenship by the abolition of illiteracy.—Stewart Lyon, Editor, The Globe, in the 75th Anniversary edition of The Globe.

Robert Jaffray received his inspiration from George Brown, whose guide, counsellor and friend he was. The management of The Globe by Robert Jaffray, was characterized by an ambition to maintain the George Brown traditions, and The Globe's position as the Great Family Newspaper George Brown made it.

"I am not bound to win, but I am bound to be true" declared Lincoln during the darkest hours of the Civil War. As an advocate of reform and an organ of public opinion, this has been The Globe's principle. Strict adherence to and the continuance of its traditions have realized the George Brown ideal, and fulfilled the Robert Jaffray ambition.

Says the Orillia "Times": "The Globe is to-day in point of influence the foremost newspaper in Canada, and has won for itself the proud place it occupies by sheer merit. Its remarkable strength was shown during the war, no other Canadian paper approaching the excellence and detail of its cable service. The Globe was founded as a defender and exponent of the rights of the common people, and so long as it remains true to its honorable traditions, it deserves to, and will succeed."

The Globe is a Great Family Newspaper

It is rich with honorable traditions, always true to the causes which brought it into existence, always the advocate of every good cause.

Because to-morrow's Globe will be what it was to-day, what it was yesterday—because it will be what it has always been, it is worthy of a place in your home.

DR. RENNER IS SURE OF CONFIDENCE VOTE

Vienna, Sept. 17.—Dr. Karl Renner, the Austrian chancellor, is quoted as having said after a conference with members of the three principal parties that he felt a parliamentary crisis would be avoided. He added that the ministry would hand in its resignation when the assembly met in order to request a vote of confidence, but that he had no fear as to the outcome. The coalition cabinet would be maintained, Renner said, with certain changes in

MINYRE'S RISE IS GIVEN CHECK

McIntyre and Wasapika were yesterday, as on earlier days in the week, directly under the calcium rays in the mining market, by reason of the fact that they set up high record prices, but the former did not display the consistent strength hitherto shown by it since the rise from around $178, began about a month ago.

At the close of the morning session $2.08 was the ruling quotation. In the afternoon support seemed to be temporarily lacking, and on offerings of only 1900 shares, mostly in hundred share lots, the closing price of $2.04, McIntyre closing at this figure for a net loss of two points, although the final bid firmed up to $2.05. It is pointed out by those who follow the market that advance has been carried far enough for the present that, assuming the stock will be placed on a 50 cent dividend basis for the year ending Sept. 30, $2.10, the high mark to date, would be about 9-13 per cent, or at the existing rate, only about one per cent. It might be argued, however, on the other hand that the dividend on Hollinger at the present price is only about 4.80 per cent, while the assessment is doubled, as it is expected it will be before long, stock bought now would yield about 9.60 per cent. On this basis the calculation is made, and it is contended that $2.10 is justified for McIntyre as much as $5.80 is for Hollinger.

Wasapika Strong. Wasapika did not set the heater on fire with any spectacular performance, but it made a little more market history by advancing 10 points, and holding the gain in the face of the fact that the market in general was rather soft, and the price of the stock was high record price for the former $94, established on Tuesday. It is expected that members of the big party which has been following the stock since the end of last week will be returning today or tomorrow, and it would not be surprising if a fresh market demonstration were to follow, particularly if Wasapika is within striking distance of par.

Gold stocks as a rule were firmer than the silver issues. Hollinger was up 1-2, Porcupine Crown was up 1-2, and the Atlas and Kirkland Lake was unchanged at 41. Atlas and 24 was off half a point.

The irregularity in the Cobalts was in a large measure due to the fact that a large selling in the opinion of some judges the better class of silver stocks rally. Crown was up 1-2, and the Atlas and 24 was off half a point. Trethewey was up 1-2, and the Atlas and 24 was off half a point. Trethewey was up 1-2, and the Atlas and 24 was off half a point.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR PRIORY ASSEMBLES

Meets in St. John, N.B.—Elects A. Shaw, Kingston, Supreme Grand Master.

St. John, N.B., Sept. 17.—Officers were elected this morning at the 36th annual assembly of the Sovereign Grand Priory, Knights Templar, held in the Masonic Hall on Main street today. They follow: Supreme grand master, Abraham Shaw, Kingston; grand warden, Dr. E. H. Estey, Kingston; grand chancellor, W. A. Eckhardt, Montreal; grand chaplain, Rev. G. A. Woodside, Brantford; grand constable, George E. Day, St. John; grand marshal, Colonel W. Mills, Kingston; grand treasurer, W. Mansell, Toronto; grand registrar, W. M. Tobey, Ottawa.

The grand council was also elected as follows: Alderman John A. Cowan, Toronto; Col. A. F. Laford, Belleville; A. M. Rowan, St. John; A. A. Bittues, Montreal; and Horace A. Porter, St. John.

Meet in Calgary Next. Calgary was selected as the next place of meeting. Alderman Cowan presented an invitation from the mayor of Toronto asking the grand priory to meet in that city at any time. There were 18 delegates in attendance this morning.

Provincial priors were elected as follows: Alberta, Lieut.-Col. George McLeod, Edmonton; Ontario, A. B. Barr, Hamilton; R. S. Hamilton, Toronto; W. H. Kerr, Kingston and Ottawa; N. Allison, Quebec; H. A. Bittues, Montreal; Nova Scotia, C. Munro, Amherst; New Brunswick, A. R. Campbell, Moncton; Manitoba, N. B. McTaggart, Winnipeg; British Columbia, J. S. Grant, Vancouver; Saskatchewan, G. Croch, Hallowbury; Saskatchewan, N. C. Stacey, Prince Albert.

A proposal to hold semi-annual instead of annual assemblies was decided against.

J. P. Morgan and Co. Appointed Agents of Belgian Treasury Brussels, Sept. 17.—Premier Delcroix announced today that the Belgian Government had concluded an agreement with J. P. Morgan & Co. and the Guaranty Trust Company of New York by which they become the financial agents of the Belgian treasury in the United States.

At the head of a strong group of banks they are charged with placing all Belgian loans in the United States, and will assist the Belgian treasury in all other operations, the premier said.

VETERAN INJURED. Special to The Toronto World. Woodstock, Sept. 17.—William Chapman, a well-known local painter and veteran of the 34th Battalion, was badly injured when, while working on a house at Glen Farm, owned by E. W. Nesbitt, M.P., he lost his hand and fell eighteen feet to the ground, striking on his shoulders and neck. He has a good chance for recovery.

NISSIPING IN JULY

Cobalt, Sept. 17.—According to the regular monthly statement by the Park manager, to the president and directors, the Nipissing Mine Company has produced 2386,287 during July. Operations were suspended on July 23 at noon, and for the first 2-1-2 days of the month the output apparently was nil. The Nipissing mine is a silver producer in Cobalt, remained idle during August, but the second week of September it is expected to resume production under a new management.

MILLER-LAKE O'BRIEN'S WATER TROUBLES OVER

Elk Lake, Sept. 17.—Because of low water, which meant insufficient power, operations of M. J. O'Brien Limited, on the Miller Lake-O'Brien property in Gowganda, were curtailed during the past few weeks. The mine was operated on a shift only, and the mill on two shifts. As there is now plenty of water the operations are again at capacity.

ACTIVITY AT LA ROSE

A Cobalt vint to Howard, Graham & Co. yesterday said: It is reported here by informed circles that the La Rose mines management is about to commence the active development of the University property, which it has owned since the early days of the camp. Considerable very high grade ore was taken from this property, but very little work has been done on it now for some years. Pumping is progressing at the old La Rose, and work will be started at once on the first level to take out the section of the main vein discovered just previous to the strike. The Violet will again be producing before the end of the week, and work has been resumed on the Princeton, while shipments from the Lawson dump are continuing, preparatory to starting under the new management. Property in an endeavor to cut veins recently opened up on the Foster. Thus, the active development of the University property in the Cobalt camp, four of which are already producing at profit, while the other three are considered one of the best operating prospects in the Cobalt camp.

HOPE CONFERENCE WILL END KIRKLAND STRIKE

Kirkland Lake, Sept. 17.—Arrangements have been made for the meeting of the business men of the Kirkland Lake camp and Wasapika for this evening to meet a committee of the miners and management, with a view to settling the strike. Hopes are expressed of a speedy settlement and resumption of work at the mines.

CHURCH AS MEMORIAL. The historic church of St. John, Perth, is to be restored as a memorial to the city war memorial at a cost of $250,000.

of Treasury Stock No Commissions No Brokerage

BALDWIN GOLD MINE

Every dollar from this sale goes direct into the treasury.

15c a Share to Sept. 24th Only

The Directors of the Baldwin Gold Mining Co., Ltd., have authorized an issue of 200,000 shares of Treasury Stock at 15c a share TO SEPTEMBER 24th only.

15c a Share to Sept. 24th Only

After that date price goes up to 20 cents a share, and on October 1st price will be 25 cents a share.

REMEMBER—All these subscriptions go direct to the treasury of the Company, without one cent commission to anyone. This offer closes on the 24th, and all orders must be in or post-marked this date.

The BALDWIN Mine is situated in the famous Kirkland Lake district, and is owned outright by the Company. The property, plant and machinery are all paid for and free of encumbrance. The Company has done a considerable amount of development work—the shaft is down 245 feet—cross-cutting 150 feet, drifting about 70 feet—all in ore bodies. The location is exceptional, with the railway running clear across the north end of the property, and trains stopping at the mine. The Blanche River runs through the property, which is thickly wooded, thus providing fuel, building material and water in abundance.

Terms: Half cash—balance 30 days on all purchases of 1,000 shares or over. Send in your order AT ONCE.

NEW CAMP'S FAME GROWING SWIFTLY

Recent Finds on Wasapika and Atlas Have Made Deep Impression. Reports of recent finds on the Wasapika and the Atlas of West Shining Tree camp have focussed the attention of mining men and the trading public more closely on the development of properties in this rapidly growing camp, and it is expected that after the publication of reports by prominent geologists and engineers who are now in the camp inspecting the discoveries the possibilities of West Shining Tree camp as a prolific gold producing centre will be even more forcibly brought home than heretofore. The manner in which the various properties in this section are standing up under development is the best refutation of the pessimistic utterances made from time to time by those who are slow to appreciate the rise of new mining camps.

News of the most favorable character relating to the development under way at West Tree mine is to hand. All reports indicate that the high hopes which have been entertained for the property are being borne out by the work in progress. Manager Geo. R. Rogers has reported very optimistically on the showings made to date, and as shaft sinking continues excellent values are being opened up. The shaft at the West Tree has now been extended downwards to 120 feet, and will be continued to 150 feet, and will be connected up with the other shaft, a distance of some six hundred feet. Samples of the ore being taken out of the shaft have been brought down by vein matter to be highly impregnated with rich free gold. Estimates of the average value of these specimens are considered to be placed at $1,000 to the ton. A series of small quartz veins, interspersed with schist, is being developed, which gives a width of some seven feet, and average values over the full width are estimated to be $20 to the ton. It is stated that conditions have visibly improved in the shaft, as compared to the surface outcrop, and it is believed that as the shaft goes lower this betterment will become more and more pronounced. The property is now thoroughly equipped for mining, the shaft has been enlarged and re-timbered, power house installed, and a big headframe and hoist set up. West Tree is shaping up better every day under the development in progress, and from the statements of Mr. Rogers, bigger things are in store, if indications count for anything.

BIG LOW-GRADE BODY.

The result of the assays made of the first 150 feet of core run thru the ore body of the Associated Gold Fields in accordance with the plan outlined in the prospectus, has resulted in a tonnage of low grade, a very considerable property consists of a would account of $100,000 to the ton. This would indicate that the company's property consists of a would account of $100,000 to the ton. This would indicate that the company's property consists of a would account of $100,000 to the ton.

PRICE OF SILVER.

London, Sept. 17.—Bar silver, 61 3/4 per ounce. New York, Sept. 17.—Bar silver, 61 1/2.
