The Results of the Steel Erector Competition

HERE are three large tables covered with the works of boys, and every one of them interesting—from the first prize, perfectly running mechanical transport, with its lathe, drill, and many belt wheels, to the swing, made by a boy of eight. And who can say what visions of the future are already seething in the minds of boys who can construct such models? Who can visualize the engineering feats that they may perform? The airships, the bridges, the buildings that shall revolutionize the life of the next generation, in a far greater degree than it has influenced the present? The prizes originally offered in the competition are as follows: 1st Prize—Order on the Store for $15.00. 2nd Prize—No. 4 Steel Erector Set with Motor. 3 Prizes of No. 3 Steel Erector Set. 12 Prizes of No. 2 Steel Erector Set. 12 Prizes of Builders' Sets for boys under 12 years of age. But in many cases the exhibits were so good that these awards have been duplicated. The Letters of "Christine"

Reviewed by "Katherine Hale."

An author, whose identity is disguised under the assumed name of Alice Cholmondeley, has published a series of letters supposedly written to her by her young daughter, who went to Germany in May, 1914, to study the violin with a great Berlin master. The English girl writes of the coming of a storm whose presence she feels about her everywhere. Reading the letters, we, too, feel the vicious intensity, the strain of the coming storm. Like Christine, we are perplexed, bewildered, cut off from clear, free thinking in the inflamed and sentimental Germany of the ante-bellum period, and with her whirled into the maelstrom. We relive the first days of August, when the Kaiser made his proclamation, and the streets of Berlin echoed and re-echoed the jubilant shouts of a nation mad for conquest. Christine, with her talent, her optimism, her shining spirit, was lost and broken by the war. The writer, who is a great artist (many people believe her the Countess von Arnim, the author of "Elizabeth and her German Garden"), has done well to make such a one the medium through which this haunting story is told. It is an unforgettable record, one which the world is discussing eagerly, and that may, in the end, have, as the writer hopes, a certain value in helping to put together a small corner of the great picture of Germany which it will be necessary to keep clear and naked before us in the future if the world is to be saved. On sale in the Book Department. Price, $1.25.

Dining-room Suites Moderately Priced

There's Quaintness and Charm of a Bygone Age About Their Beautiful Lines, Though Their Clever and Convenient Construction Mark Them as Triumphs of Modern Cabinet-making.

ABOVE ALL, they are endowed with that dignity that befits a dining-room, and though they show all the distinction of well-executed reproductions of period designs, they are of such proportions as to look well in the house of average size. Here are three distinct types: A suite of beautifully marked walnut in a Queen Anne design of elegant proportions, showing the characteristic cabriole legs and arched back. The sideboard has 3 cupboards, with the most graceful of scroll panels, and a curious incurved base, in which is a drawer. Price, $130.00. The oval table also rejoices in graceful cabriole legs and curved braces, and is $95.00. The china cabinet, with its beautifully panelled doors and arched pediment back, is a very decorative piece of furniture. Price, $100.00. Double arched backs, with a comfortable inward bend, distinguish the very typical chairs, the seats being covered with brown and black striped denim. Price, $122.50. After a graceful Sheraton style is a dining-room suite in the light shade of mahogany affected by the designer. The sideboard has a pediment back and swell front, with 3 cupboards, panelled with line and band inlay, centred by rosettes of hollyhock, and rests upon tapering brass-cupped legs. The round table is similarly inlaid, and has a 60-inch top. The china cabinet has a swell front and a drawer beneath, and the chairs are charming, with 7 inlaid bars in the back and green leather seats. This suite is reduced to $358.00.

Also extraordinarily good value is the William and Mary suite, the buffet of which appears in the illustration. This is obtainable in either walnut or mahogany, and is splendidly constructed. The side table has back, legs and curtain panelling, like the buffet, and possesses a single drawer and shelf. The china cabinet has lattice sides, the chairs have arched backs and leather-covered seats, and the extension table has a 48-inch top, with well-braced legs. 9 pieces. Special price, $217.00. —Furniture Building, James and Albert Sts.

The Colorful Charms of the Oriental Rug

As Expressed in Certain Exquisite Kermanshahs, With the Harmonious Tints of Old Stained Glass and Designs That Are Marvellously Balanced.

MORE, much more, than Art—a religion, and the age-long civilization of the East are accountable for the beauties of these surpassingly lovely rugs. Mysterious symbols—their origin half forgotten—are interwoven with the naturalistic designs of the Orient, with such consummate skill, such subtle blendings of color, that it is no wonder the Oriental rug has attained its present place in decorative art. Kermanshahs are acknowledged by the East to be among the finest products of Persia, and their silken sheen, which becomes more lustrous with wear, their light, dainty colors and feathery designs make them specially suitable for use in drawing and reception rooms, living-rooms and boudoirs. To describe a few: A large scroll-like medallion in rose and black on a camel ground gives character to a wonderful rug, the ground covered with yellowish green and blue flowers, and the border repeating the color note of the centre. Size 16 x 11 feet. Reduced price, $550.00. A study in amber and brown, with a little blue to give contrast, and a rather formal touch of soft rose, is a delightful rug. Size 14' 7" x 10' 8". Reduced price, $600.00. A small medallion within a larger one, in soft rose and blue on a camel ground, ornament the centre of an ivory-colored rug, the concentration of glowing Persian pink in the border giving an unusual and very splendid effect. Size 6 x 9 feet. Special price, $150.00. As if to show the diversity of designs is a Kermanshah with charmingly grouped sprays of rose and camel-colored flowers on a dark blue ground, accentuated by a touch of light blue, and the border enhanced with characters in Persian script. Size 11' 9" x 9' 7". Special price, $400.00. —Fourth Floor.

NO CLEAR REASONS FOR VIADUCT DELAY

What is the reason for the lack of progress by the city in doing its share of the work on the Bloor street viaduct? Controller Foster was asked.

"The real trouble, I believe," said the controller, "is an engineering one. The money has been raised and the work of the contractors is nearly completed."

"The works commissioner realizes that it is a large undertaking and defects are liable to develop, and he does not want to begin work until the entire viaduct is handed over to the city as a completed work by the contractor."

"With the bridge being handed over at the end of December he claims it is too late to commence the work in the spring, which would make it some time after the end of June before it would be finished."

"What I wanted was for him to start work, say when two-thirds of it was finished, and to go right along and then the work would be completed soon after the bridge is turned over, but Mr. Harris does not want to do this."

"I understand that the contractors are willing to give the city a reasonable assurance that they will not hold the city liable for defects that develop on account of their work."

"I would like to see the thing opened up so the public can get the benefit of the money they have invested."

"Yes," said Mr. Foster.

Few Men at Work. "Will there be any men working on the viaduct at the present time?"

"No, there are no men working there today, unless, perhaps, a few cleaning up under the shelter of the deck," said Mr. McCarthy.

City Engineer Powell, when asked what progress was being made on the paving of the Rosedale viaduct, said that the work had been completed as well as the truck allowances.

He could not say definitely when the Rosedale viaduct would be completed, but it would be some time this month.

All of which goes to show that for some reason or other, yet assigned to the public the city commissioner, the mayor and the board of control have neglected having the street and other improvements done with the bridges constructed at the same time and now they are ready for joint use from the end of Bloor street across the whole Don valley to the head of Broadview.

"What is your opinion of the city's record on this matter?" was asked of W. F. Maclean. He said: "I know that the present situation would arrive and on several occasions urged the commissioner to get busy on his part of the work; but for some reason or other he delayed and delayed, with the fact-down now at his door."

He had noticed that the commissioner proceeds with great deliberation and finishes some of his public works in a piecemeal way. Modern engineers carry on big improvements all along the line at one and the same time, synchronously, as Sir Thomas White would remark, or as good Latinists would say, contemporaneously.

Mr. Harris has failed to synchronize the job. Whether he could get the money that is another question. But Aid. Bald, Aid. Risk and Aid. Beamish, in Ward Two, and Aid. Robins, Penwick and Hinz, of No. One Ward, tell us he has the money now in hand and had it from the start. But he is not doing this work like the way of going of the Horses of the Sun, all at once.

BROWN WANTS MONEY FROM THE FEDERALS

Chicago, Oct. 12.—Seeking to recover $8000 alleged to be due him in back salary, Mordecai Brown, the noted three-fingered pitcher, has filed suit in the United States District Court here for the appointment of a receiver for the defunct Federal League.

Louis J. Behane, counsel for Brown, said tonight that when the Federal League signed a peace agreement with organized baseball, the league's assets were distributed among the clubs of the National and American Leagues. Brown wants these assets collected and a receiver appointed for them.

Charles H. Weeghman, president of the Chicago Nationals, who owned the Chicago franchise of the Federal League, and P. D. Ball, president of the St. Louis Americans, are among the 29 persons named as defendants. Ball was president of the St. Louis Federals. Officials of all Federal League clubs also are named as defendants.

Brown deserted organized baseball and signed a three-year contract at a salary of $7500 a year, to manage the St. Louis Browns, subsequently released, and the league, it is claimed, agreed to meet the obligations of his contract.

The suit was filed in Chicago at this time, so summons could be served on a majority of the defendants, who are here attending the world's series.

Brown pitched for the Columbus Club of the American Association during last season.

COMMISSIONER AND COUNSEL DISAGREE

Gordon Waldron Objects to G. F. Henderson's Remark.

HIGH COST OF BRINE

Auditor of William Davies Company Denies Statement.

A passage-at-arms between Chairman G. F. Henderson, K.C., of the board storage commission investigating the case of Wm. Davies, Ltd., and Mr. Gordon Waldron, counsel for the private interests, was the feature of last evening's session of the committee.

The secretary-treasurer of the commission, Mr. Wm. Davies, Ltd., did not attend the meeting held last night, but Mr. Waldron, who was present, said that the company had a capital of $500,000, and $2,000,000 in preferred shares, and $1,500,000 in common shares.

Mr. Waldron: "You are saying that the price of curing has gone up 100 per cent. since August, 1916. Is that correct?"

REHEMATISM WAS MOST SEVERE

Dreadful Pains All the Time Until He Took Fruit-atives.

MR. LAMPSON

Verona, Ont., Nov. 11th, 1915.

"I suffered for a number of years with Rheumatism and severe pains in my arms and back from strains and heavy lifting."

"When I had given up hope of ever being well again, a friend recommended 'Fruit-atives' to me, and after using the first box I felt so much better that I continued to take them, and now I am enjoying the best of health, thanks to your remedy."

If you—who are reading this—have any Kidney or Bladder Trouble, or suffer with Rheumatism or Pain in the Back or Stomach—give 'Fruit-atives' a fair trial.

MUNICIPAL CHAPTER IN MONTHLY SESSION

Among Matters Discussed in Safety of Old Military Cemetery Near Old Fort at Stanley Barracks.

The monthly meeting of the Municipal Chapter, L. O. D. E., was held at the Sherbourne House clubrooms yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Bruce made an appeal for the officers' quarters at the Base Hospital, which she had visited and where she found fifty-four officers.

Some discussion arose over the list of old military cemetery near the old fort at Stanley Barracks, which had been reported as being absorbed by the railroads.

In response to a letter from the home and school council, Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. E. F. B. Johnston will attend a meeting in the interests of the appointment of women on the board of education.

Mrs. Angus MacMurchy, treasurer, gave final reports on Alexandra Rose Day, showing total receipts $18,813.57.

Sergeant Turley, of the Great War Veterans' Association, addressed the meeting, asking for co-operation in the work of looking after the dependents of soldiers.

The regent explained that the order was already doing the work in connection with visiting the families in question, but proposed still further effort thru a special committee.

The report on the meeting of the National Chapter, which was to have been given by Mrs. Bruce, was postponed until next meeting owing to press of business.

LUX

An exquisite "newness" for all woollens

Somehow, with ordinary washing, one always thinks of woollen garments coming out of the wash a little worse off than when they went in.

Far otherwise when you let LUX wash them. They come out of the wash with a soft, fleecy "new" feeling, as well as being absolutely clean—quite unshrunk, and quite unthickened.

How is it done? Allow 3 tablespoonfuls of LUX for each gallon of water, which should be near the boiling point. Put the woollens in and stir them about with a stick.

You don't like the cheap tea you are using. Do you?

Before the war so increased the cost of living, many people used to drink better tea than they are now using. Perhaps, this is true in your case?

Of course, you are not drinking poor tea because you like it, but because you think it necessary to save money. But are you really saving anything? Cheap, common teas only make about 150 cups to the pound. You are lucky if you can stretch them out to 185 or 200.

On the other hand, Red Rose Tea easily makes 250 cups. It goes further because of its fine quality, consisting chiefly of Assam teas, the richest and strongest in the world. You may almost doubt if so many cups of tea can be made from a pound of even such good tea as Red Rose, but you can readily prove the economy of Red Rose without waiting for a package to be used up. Just use a few leaves less of Red Rose for a brewing than you use of common tea—the result we are sure will please and surprise you.

How to Reduce Fat Without Dieting Or Exercise

This is the time when fat people should be thinking about reducing their weight and should stop making the fat that is such a burden to them. The best way to do this is to use the Marmola Tablets, which so much has been said and written this past year. This way is the Marmola way. The famous Marmola Prescription has been prepared in tablet form. These tablets contain nothing but the elements that go to change the best things that produce fat into good, strong blood, nerves, tissues and bone. More than this, these tablets absorb and remove the fat remaining at the rate of two, three or four pounds a week. You must not confuse Marmola Prescription Tablets with harmful patent drugs and harmful reducing methods. These tablets go into your stomach just like the food you eat. They build up the juices of your digestive organs and correct these juices so that they produce no more fat. They are harmless, yet thousands of men and women all over this land today are of firm figure and normal sizes because of these little tablets. This is why every druggist everywhere carries them in stock and will sell them to you. If you would rather send them to you, if you are in a case, to the Marmola Company, 881 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich., they will send them to you at once in a plain package, postage paid.

Re-Opening the Home-Lovers' Club

"ECONOMY SESSION"

Thousands of members of our Home-Lovers' Club in City and Province will be pleased to learn that for a few weeks between now and the holiday season the Club will hold what may rightly and modestly be called an "economy session," Simpson buyers in the departments pertaining to furnishing the home, carpets, rugs, draperies, furniture, wall paper and similar lines, have secured about three-quarters of a million dollars' worth of high-class reliable merchandise, a lot of it bought in Great Britain over a year ago, and many lines the product of Canadian factories before the recent advance in prices.

This will mean that customers will not only receive the advantage of Club terms, but will make a distinct saving on what cash prices would be today if we had not been forehanded in the matter of securing large supplies.

The Club office will re-open on the 4th floor on Monday the 15th, where full particulars regarding extended payments will be furnished by the Club Secretary.

Come and Make Your Selections, and Receive the Assistance of Experts in Draperies and Furnishings.

Watch the store news from day to day for specials in the several sections.
