A Good Reception.

Premier Drury got a good reception from a large gathering. "I recognize that I am an outsider, but I have a definite body of support behind me. I have for an opponent one who disclaims the backing of anyone who discissins the backing of any-one in particular," he said. "That re-quires some explanation. If the gentle-man comes from Toronto without any backing there can only be one explanation, that is to satisfy a personal ambition, and the government is to be

An Unknown Opponent.

The premier said he would have welcomed opposition if it had come from someone known to the electors. Personally, he had met Mr. Stephenson this morning for the first time, and known nothing about him, altho he might be the best man in the world.

"I appeal to you, the law-abiding citizens of this country, who believe that now is the time when the government should be allowed to operate freely during the period of reconstruction, not to lend yourselves to the embarrassment Concluding, Mr. Drury said: "If it is the opinion of the people of Halton that I should not represent them I will have be hard feeling. I am not a political adventurer, and can return to private life at a moment's notice and with dignity. I will conduct a fair fight, and will have nothing to do with a campaig of slander in any shape or form."

Mr. Stephenson's Address.
"The proceedings in which we are infulging this afternoon are one of a series of political surprises that have taken place in Ontario within the last few months," said Ed. J. Stephenson, Mr. Drury's opponent. "My candidature represents a protest on the part of the people of Ontario at this selection of two ministers of the cabinet who were not elected members, and who were not intitled to prior consideration when the government was being formed. "Something has been said this afernoon of my possible connection with the Liberty League. There is nothing n that. I have never been a member of the league nor have had any connecwill establish.

Halton county."

Mr. Stephenson denied that Mr. Drury's defeat would precipitate a general election, and pointed, as a precedent, to the selection of Sir William Hearst to succeed Sir James Whitney.

Mr. Stephenson wished to see the Farmer-Labor coalition continue, but desired to end the present form of cau us government.

"I believe that Mr. Raney is far from eing acceptable to the labor group." Mr. Stephenson also criticized Nelson Parliament, prospective Speaker, who should be impartial, for expounding the merit of U. F. O. government on his visit to the States.

Replying, Premier Drury expressed surprise at the nature of the case put forth by Mr. Stephenson.

There never was a time declared Mr. There never was a time, declared Mr. Drury, when the government had been carried on with less secrecy. Wednesday afternoon.

A "square" meal for the Jews in Bessarabla, Bukowina and the Ukraine consists of a thin soup made of beans and potatoes—without bread or other "trimmings," according to Barnet Zuckerman, of New York, who has recently returned from eastern Europe where he represented Jewish relief agencies.

The report, made public by the American Jewish Relief Committee, tells of unbelievable conditions of starvation, suffering and want. The large Jewish population in these regions, states Mr. Zuckerman, is facing the winter with dread, while the under-nourished, underfed children present a sight that haunts all who have traveled thru the countries. "To my mind," asserts Mr. Zuckerman, "going to the reacte of these people ought to supersede everything else, for over hundreds of thousands of them hangs the sword of Damocles; and if we do not immediately make efforts sto save them, our conscience cannot be satisfied that we are partly responsible for the lives that will be lost."

in his resignation.

J. P. MacGregor, a lawyer, announced to the committee that he represented himself and other ratepayers of Downsview who wanted a thoroinquiry, because he had reason to believe that a fraud had been committed against the township. Reminded by Chairman Graham that his statement was pretty strong, Mr. MacGregor replied:

"We are prepared to give the council sufficient information to warrant a full inquiry, and if you refuse to put your house in order, I will go to the attorney-general and force you to do so."

Continuing, Mr. MacGregor said

do not immediately make elforts say stemm, our conscience cannot be satisfied that we are partly responsible for the lives that will be lost."

In referring to the food that is served in the public kitchen of Chernowitz—and Chernowitz is cited as fairly representing the general deplorable conditions, Mr. Zuckerman says:

"In this city of Chernowitz there are at least 15,000 to 18,000 people who must be fed daily; unless immediate assistance is forthcoming, the single public kitchen must be closed. At the time food is being distributed, splendid order is maintained—which is a cause of no little wonderment when one considers that every day hundreds of these poor geople must be turned away without food."

The portion of food which is allowed each person at the public kitchen is a to do so."

Continuing, Mr. MacGregor said there was ample evidence to support the charge that the council of York Township had paid for work that had never been done, and that the officials, Foreman Wicks, and the commissioner, knew it was never done.

"You also accuse Mr. Snyder?" asked the chairman.

"I do," replied Mr. MacGregor.

"The angel of death is busy amongst us these days with impartiality," said Sir William, "touching with his wings all classes, whether of high or low degree, and the bench and the bar this morning have to deplore the death of Chief Justice Falconbridge, a long familiar figure in our courts, who since 1887, now about a third of a century, has been a member of the supreme court of the province, during the last 20 years of which he filled the high office of chief justice of the King's bench. He combined with his eminent legal attainments literary culture of a high order, whereby he was enabled to adorn not only his position on the bench, but the numerous high offices to which he had from time to time been called. On the bench he was courteous and patient to witnesses and to counsel, and as a trial judge won the reputation of bringing to bear sound judgment and almost unerring instinct in determining, midst the conflict of testimony, where the truth lay."

The crown contended that the property in question was never part separated from them by the river. Mr. Justice Lennox found that a 'remendous storm in September, 1878, caused the Humber river to change its course just below the Bloor street bridge, and so created "islands" which were cut off the easterly bank of the river. He adds that the land is of little intrinsic value, but that its value lies in the circumstance that the city wants it, and says that he regrets wants it, and says that the regrets the way of information for the wants it, and says that the must give that the judgment which he must give eously, but firmly, excluded, the doors eously, but firmly, excluded, the doors that the meaning took place payment of far more than the land is worth.

ROM a selection of rich velvets and brocades the woman of clothes lore can express any of her delightful moods with surprising artfulness.

The basque that portrays the grace and simplicity of youth is one of the anew decrees in Paris, and never is this type more lovely than when developed in soft velvet. The lines are slightly different from that shown a few months ago in that it drops below the waistline and fits enugly into the waist.

Wholly adorable was the frock worn by a prominent Canadian matron recently in the land of cocoanut groves and sunchine. The wearer was youthful with beautiful coloring. Oddly smart was her bodice, developed in turquoise blue velvet with skirt of tuils. The short sleeves were frilled with delicate lace. With this she wore a black hat of antelope leather, over the edge of which fell sprays of dipped ostrich feathers.

Rosedale Stadium.

When the report of the committee on parks and exhibitions was brought into the limelight the mayor seized the opportunity to rush in his neverifalling hobby, the athletic stadium in Rosedale. He got well under way in a long monolog describing the advantages of having a recreation ground situated there, and urged that the necessary $60,000 be applied for with which to fit the place for sporting events. In this he was finally brought to a halt by the chairman. Ald. Beamish, ruling him out of order. Parks Commissioner Chambers, when called upon, stated that there had been some misconception of his attitude on the question of procuring more recreation centres. That such were absolutely necessary, there was no doubt, but he stated that he was not satisfied with the Rosedale site. Cont. An Honorable Bargain.

His worship then reintroduced the Rosedale stadium, stating that the only interest he had in the matter was that of an honorable bargain with the late Mr. Suckling, that this property should be used for athletics. Controller Cameron thought that the council was not in any way responsible for any agreement between the mayor and any outside person or organization, when council was not taken into confidence. Ald. Baker supported the mayor by stating that we should have a municipal conscience and that a bargain was a bargain. Ald. Maher said, "Sentiment is a great thing, but it can be carried too far. Rosedale is not the right location for an athletic stadium. We need a place more central and nearer the car lines. The people would not go away up to Rosedale." Ald. Johnston then moved that this matter be referred back to the parks committee, with a resulting vote and back it will go for another bout.

EYES STRAINED?

Those interested in municipal affairs will be overjoyed to learn that the bylaw regulating proceedings in council which limits each speaker to only five minutes, was carried. Up to the present, fifteen minutes was the allotted time for each member, which was sometimes lived up to, but this further restriction is looked upon as a great improvement. When this amendment to bylaw No. 4294 was first brought up a vote was cast to have it struck out, but a later voting had it reinserted.

In addition the bill forbids participation by aliens in less than 729 persons died, whilst on one day, Oct. 22, there were registered 127 deaths. This one day of deaths has not been equaled in nine days of the customs transit or commission agency trade, information bureaus, this year, the total for this month being 124. Altho the outbreak is still very bad the "preparedness" of the city health department is showing splendid results so far as the death employment agencies, munition fac-tories, chemical works affecting national defence and the quarrying inrate is concerned.

Every man is a fighter, though he may not be a pugilist. His daily task is his fight—and he needs to be fit and ready for it.

Constipation to the business fighter is the "out-of-condition" of the pugilist. Constipation not only makes the business fighter dull and slow, and unfit for effort, but it is the "lowered guard" that leaves the opening for the jarring blows of serious diseases.

90% of all diseases have their origin in the intestinal canal—in constipation. Constipation not only causes the generation of poisons, which are carried through the system by the blood and attack it from within, but also by thus lowering the general stamina makes the weakened system an easier prey to harmful germs from without.

By an entirely new principle Nujol keeps the poisonous food waste moving out of the body. Every other form of treatment either irritates or forces the system. Nujol works on the waste matter instead of on the system.

Nujol prevents constipation by keeping the food waste soft, thus helping Nature establish easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals - the healthiest habit in the world.

It is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take-try it.

Nujol is sold by all druggists in sealed bottles only, bearing Nujol trade-mark. Write Nujol Laboratories, Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey), 50 Broadway, New York, for booklet "Thirty Feet of Danger."

A Reactionary Council.

That the board of control has no influence with the new city council seems to be the moral of the appointment made to the city architect's department vesterday. The aldermen evidently had combined to return to the conditions of patronage, ward influence, back-door favoritism, and all the other ills that it had been hoped the city had been escaping from. Assaults had been made on the street cleaning department and it had not been found vulnerable. The parks department is under stress at present The fire department has been regenerated, and is not susceptible to ward influences. The unanimity with which the board of control's recommendation was set aside indicates that the architect's departme : is regarded as an opportunity to re-establish something of the old laxity, which led to the changes of six years ago.

Mr. Price has his chance. wishes to serve the city he should make up his mind that he must disappoint some of those who will be pleased to hear of his promotion.

POLITICAL NOTES

Events again are marching faster than The resignation of Sir Robert Borden as prime minister, which has been hanging fire for a long time, is now all but an accomplished fact. The another, giving wide authority to the resignation will go to the governor-general at an early stage of the session, indeed, just as soon as the parliamentary caucus of Unionist supporters can agree upon naming a successor.

The World carried a despatch from Ottawa yesterday which indicated a getagainst the liberty of the citizen be- together movement in government circles ing them up for the former minister of or, if chosen, he may not accept. finance. It is more or less of a gum-

The Mail pays a glowing tribute to Sir Robert Borden and the finitely announces his retirement and the duty of the Unionist caucus to choose his successor. If Sir Robert's administration was a great success, The Mail

The Canadian who with most general acceptance, both in political circles and in the country at large, could take Sir Robert Borden's place at the head of our affairs is Sir Thomas White, one of the ablest men that Canada has produced. Without the aid of Sir Thomas White, Sir Robert Borden's leadership could not have been the wonderful success it was.

But the new leader will be chose neither by government papers nor by members of the government. Every at five million dollars. Consideration Unionist senator and member will have was promised. upon as a dangerous radical fifty years one vote, and it may take several ballots before a majority of them go to any one man. In the end Sir Thomas White may get substantially unanimous support, but in the beginning we will see hence. Hampden was a traitor, and members voting for Meighen, Rowell and Oliver Cromwell's body was dug out other candidates. Sir George Foster will undoubtedly receive a considerable vote, and Sir Henry Drayton may develop unexpected strength. Just now the talk is for Sir Thomas White, but it by no means follows that he will even be a candidate, or if one, that he will

The caucus will not necessarily determine upon the formation of a new party or the drafting of a party platform. It will probably seek to get leader who can keep the coalition gether for a session or two and let the more distant future take care of itself. The new premier will more or less have to make his own party and his own plat form. The platform, it is taken for granted, will uphold the National Policy ecause eighty per cent. of the Unionist following is Conservative. Moreover, the Farmers' party and the Liberals have come out for free trade and low tariff approximating free trade, respectively. A third party has no choice but to hoist the banner of protection.

Still no one can tell just what may happen at this caucus or in the near future. There are a good many members who want the coalition to hold together and want the general election deferred until 1922 who are none the less anxious to get rid of the Unionist label before they face their unterrified electors at the polls. A rose by some other name, they think, would smell sweeter, and Senator J. S. McLellan of Nova Scotia has issued a manifesto for the organization of the "National party."

The manifesto is a safe document. This would give them a party organization and a party loyalty not dead, tho sleeping. It will be a hard job, they say, to get up a new party organization or start up enthusiasm for a new party with a new name, or for the old Conservative party with the Unionist tag on it.

Then there are the Liberal Unionists in favor of the selection of Sir Thomas to be considered, both in and out of the White as the new leader of the Unionist cabinet. Lake Superior, giving light snowfalls Says Italy Must Evacuate over the greater portion of Ontario. Fiume if Pact of London is Accepted.

> Rome, Feb. .9-Premier Nitti discussed the Italian foreign policy in the chamber of deputies Saturday, He began his speech by asking for a suspension of the work of the chamber for a few days, as he had to be in London on Thursday at a meeting of the allied premiers. "In the critical hour of our history," said the premier, "it is indispensable to tell the entire truth, even if we have to do so with an aching heart. Foreign policy has an influence on home policy, and home policy on foreign policy, so the two must harmon-

"Those who most insisted that we enter the war render now the worst possible service to the war by saying that we obtained nothing. Must Evacuate Flume.

"In other questions where Italy is most interested, namely, the Adriatic, Constantinople and Asia Minor, Italy must be guided by the broadest principles of nationality. The spontaneous plebiscite at Flume, declaring a desire to join Italy, created a new political situation, which caused a series of difficulties. There can be only two selections—etilies the pact of London, which we claim as our right, or the solution we invoke in the name of justice, consisting of harmonizing the interests, tendencies and aspirations of the Italian people with those of the Jugo-Slav people."

The Socialist Deputy Bombacci, interrupting, asked:

"Who rules in Flume—the Italian government or d'Annunzio?"

"It would be dishonest if I accepted the pact of London without pledging myself to evacuate Flums, even by force, if necessary," said the premier.

FRENCH PREMIER EATS AN ENGLISH BREAKFAST

Paris, Feb. 9 .- Premier Millerand has caused a mild sensation at the foreign office, of which he is in charge, by taking what is known to his col-leagues as an "English breakfast" at walk and at eight o'clock enters the foreign office, where he finds before him a summary of the news appearing in the morning newspapers. After having breakfast, he sets to work, interrupting his activities only for a cup of tea and biscuits at noon. After a rest of fifteen minutes he again resumes work, continuing until eight o'clock in the evening, when he has dinner with his family. He then goes over his correspondence in his study and does not retire until mid-

CELLAR TITLE IS CAPTURED BY DONS

Argonauts Victors Over East-Enders in Senior Game at Arena.

Dons and Argonauts staged the cellar shampionship contest of their senior O. H. A. group at the Arena last night. Argonauts won the game, but Dons are disputed champions at the wrong end of the heap. The score was 7 to 3, and the play loose and uninteresting at all times.

Argonauts won the tussle by having slightly more system than the Dons on the attack. Farlow was head and shoulders over any man on the ice, and he was the leader in going right thru the defence of the east-enders.

Both sides showed a ragged attempt at combination. It was each man for himself, with the passing poor and the checking only breaking out in spots. Considerable slashing was the order, but it was not intentional, and the penalty bench was empty for the biggest part of the evening:

Weiner Bradfield of Rugby fame made his initial appearance for Argos and made a fair fist of the job on the left boards. He is a good check and carried the puck well. Sullivan was a strong gusher, but refused to pass the puck. The rest put in the time.

rusher, but refused to pass the puck. The rest put in the time.

For Dons, McInnes was best. He worked the full hour, checking like a bee and making a bold bid to get goals. D'Arcy Smith stopped dozens of shots, but his protection was nil, and the Argos streaked in under his feet all night. Argos led, 4 to 1, at the end of the first period. Each club grabbed two in the second, and Bennett got the only goal of the third period. The teams:

These two teams were to meet on Friday afternoon, but the game has been advanced to next Monday night in order to give all the fans a chance of witnessing the battle, which should prove one of the best junior games of the year. The thrill of the evening came when Harry Freeman dropped Frankie Bull in the second round of the semi-windup. Bull smothered Freeman with that long left in the first round, and was going left in the first round, and was going along nicely in the second, when Freeman caught him with a right on the point of the jaw that sent Frankie to the mat. He got up immediately, wobbly but game, and Freeman sent him down again, Bull only took the count of three, and got to his feet almost all in, and Harry pounded him all around the ring. Bull weathered the storm and came up strong in the third, but couldn't seem to get going in his usual form, while Freeman, encouraged by his success, put up a great battle. The judges called it a draw, but the majority of the crowd thought that Freeman should have got the long end of the purse.

Scotty Lisner struck a hotsone in Kid Lewis of Montreal, but was equal to the occasion. Lewis is a busky two barded for contract in connection with the league as defendants.

During the war period football was naturally at a standstill, as far as international matches were concerned, but now that the war is over, except for the United States and Germany, the English organizations have determined that Germany and Austria must get out of football.

The proposition was first advanced last fall, coming from Baron Lavelye of Belgium, supported by Great Britain and France. It was instatily combated by the Scandinavian states under the leadership of Sweden. The joint rules committee of the National and American Leagues met this afternoon. Legislation affecting the pitcher's delivery and a remedy to inject more batting into the game, are some of the important matters to be threshed out by that body. # FALL IN STERLING NOT UNMIXED EVIL

Excess of Paper Money on Continent Which Causes Alarm, Says Times.

London. Feb. 9 .- The Times in aneditorial today on the exchange question corroborates the view given the Canadian Press on Friday by a Canadian financial authority nere.

"The stength of the British financial position is scarcely realized in the Un.ted States," says The Times, "but when it is known that without fresn taxation we shall be able to make a not inconsiderable beginning in debt redemption this year, and that our diminish, a very different value will be placed upon the worth of the pound in New York. Moreover, it must be remembered that the empire produces the largest proportion of the world's gold output. It should be clearly understood it is not the fall in sterling exchange which causes concern in the city. The fall in the pound is not an unmixed evil, since it will tend to restrict imports. It is the position on press is still working, that causes alarm and renders bankers no longer willing to lend against currencies whose values tend every day to grow

Takes a Similar Line. A writer in The Manchester Guardian takes a similar line. This writer says: "If the exchange were solely and imports, including, of course, hid-den exports and imports, the rate would have been steadily improving. It has been stated on good authority that our exports to the United States exceed all our imports, and as our investments in the United States must exceed American investments here, the state of affairs is complicated by outside influences. Otherwise the ex-change would be nearer normal. When sterling depreciates European currencies follow in sympathy, which shows the main cause for our having to pay so much more for all imports from the United States. The old cry of re-striction of imports will not prove a certain remedy, unless all Europe restricts importations, except necessities. Otherwise goods intended for this country would be diverted to the continent and the exchange would not be materially affected."

The Morning Post gives rather hesitating support to the proposal boomed by The Daily Express, that everybody should hand gold articles to the treasury, receiving national bonds in exchange. The Post thinks voluntary efforts is a frail support, and concludes: "The only remedy against unnecessary expenditure is heavier taxaed by the rules committee, said:

"It shall be illegal for the catcher to leave his natural position immediately and directly back of the plate for the purpose of aiding the pitcher in intentionally giving a base on balls to the baseman. If the catcher shall move out of position prior to the time the ball leaves the pitcher's hand all runners who may be on bases shall be entitled to advance one base."

The rule governing the home run says that when a player knocks the ball into the stands or the crowds on fair ground, he shall be given credit for a home run if he completes the circuit and all runners shall score ahead of him. In passing this rule, the committee argued it would increase the number of home runs advantage.

The amendment dealing with the "balk" reads:

"Any motion of a pitcher to pitch while standing in his possession or regardless of whether he makes any motion to pitch or not, if the pitcher takes a legal position off the rubber and feints to deliver the ball to the bat, it shall be called a 'balk."

Several additions are also made to this rule, one of which says that the this rule, one of which said to the bat, it shall be called a 'balk."

PREPARE ESTIMATES FOR PUBLIC WORKS

Total of $21,000,000 Announced-Includes Money for Toronto Harbor.

Ottawa, Feb. 9.—(Special.)—Public works estimates to a total of approximately $21,000,000 have been prepared for submission to parliament to cover expenditures for the coming fiscal year. These estimates include both maintenance and new works, and, for appropriations already approved. All tinued, and the estimates include the work at Courtney Bay, St. John; the breakwater at Toronto, a wharf at Fort William, a breakwater at Port Arthur, a drydock at Esquimalt, and another at Vancouver, the contract for which is still being held up and has not yet been awarded, chiefly for the reason that the public works department has lacked a head for some time back. It has been generally supposed that public works expenditures were heavily curtailed during the war. Government, After Search, Peas-Grain & Seeds Finds Story of Possessions in Canada a Mistake

Ottawa, Feb. 9.-(By Canadian Press).-State department officials take issue with statements contained in a Toronto Globe editorial of Saturyears preceding really tells a different story.

Spent More During War.

During the five war years a total of $39,470,919 was expended under capital account, and a total of $53,745,853 under gether of $23,216,757. During the five years preceding the war a total of $29,470,919 was expended on capital account, and of $58,703,153 on consolidated account or a total alitogether on public works of $88,134,390. In other words over five millions more were spent during the war years than during the preceding five years of peace. Part of the increase may be accounted for in addition the new parliament buildings which have already exceeded the first estimated cost have contributed. Estimates for the coming fiscal year, as has been stated above, approximate $21,000,000. The total expenditures under capital and consolidated account for the fiscal year 1918-19 amounted to only $12,060,406.

Montreal, Feb. 9.—Liquidation was on in all grain markets on a larger scale than before and prices dropped rapidly to new low records. In sympathy with this the local market for cash grain was also weaker and prices for oats showed a decline. There were no further developments in the local flour situation today and a fair amount of business was done in spring wheat grades while the market for blended flour is fairly active, prices being firm. It is reported that American buyers are in the country paying more money for hay than can be realized in this market.

Market Sells Off Again- General Selling and No Evidence of Buying Power the Rule.

With around 1500 cattle at the Union Stock Yards market yesterday the demand for all classes was weak, and buyers showed a tendency to sell their cattle at lower prices than last week. The market was draggy and trade was decidedly slow for all classes of cattle, even with the light supply. Had there even any kind of an ordinary Monday run the prices would undoubtedly have been carried still lower.

The best demand was shown for some good steers, which gave evidence of the stock of The best demand was shown for some good steers, which gave evidence of weight and quality, one load seling as $13.85 with a few other lots seling at $13.50 and $13.10, but these were of course the exceptions.

The cow and bull trade was very slow, and the prespects for the balance of the week are not very reassuring. For the good to choice milkers and springers there was a fair demand, but the other grades were mighty hard to cash in, at lower prices.

Advices from the outset. General selling and no evidence of buying power formed the rule. Asside from difficulties of the financial situation, dominating influence was the virtual cutting off of any eastern outlet for Chicago shippers of feed-stuffs. Cars on eastern roads were wanted for wheat, and there were orders that equipment from eastern roads must be returned to the country for new supplies of corn. Under the circumstances, breaks in corn prices were not checked until gossip became prevalent that farm-

It appears that it would be not only feasible, but advisable, to increase the gold reserves by placing an embargo here upon the expertation of gold from the United States, because these cannot be increased as long as gold may be experted to the countries we owe, and embargoes continue against its being imported from countries that owe us. liquidation.

Foreign exchange and local money conditions were unmistakably better, the London rate retaining most of its recent recovery, while call money was freely offered at eight per cent, after opening at 14 per cent.

Last week's clearing house statement showed further material reduction of loans and discounts, but reports submitted by the principal reserve centres of the country disclosed additional impairment of cash holdings.

Efforts made in certain quarters to translate prospective action by the senate on the peace treaty into a bull argument met with scant success. Traders evinced little interest in a market which seemed so devold of leadership or recuperative power.

Some stocks were carried under last week's lowest quotations, shippings displaying conspicuous weakness as a result of selling impelled by the belief that they are likely to suffer severely in any further curtailment of foreign trade.

HOLLY STRONGER ON DIVIDEND NEWS

Mining Market Dull as Whole, But Prices Generally Steady.

Trading was quiet on the Standard Exchange yesterday with total sales less than 8.000. New York was not in a bullish frame of mind, and little as-sistance came from that centre in aid of prices. There was no outstanding feature to the market, except perhaps, the steady undertone. Holly was firm on another dividend declaration. Dome Extension was the weakest of the gold issues with sales down to 29. Kirkland Lake and Beaver were steady, but without the snap of a few days ago. In the minor issues, Hargreaves showed a little activity in an advance to 4. ed a little activity in an advance to 4.
Timiskaming and Trethewey were easier and McIntyre sold down to 205.
The market closed decidedly dull, but without pressure and appeared to require few orders to take care of immediate offerings,

BETTER FEELING ON CURB.

New York, Feb. 9.—There was a slightly better feeling all around on the carb today. The improvement did not take the form of an advance of anything like substantial proportion, but taking the list as a whole fractional advances were registered. Call money after opening at 14 per cent. eased off to 8 per cent. This possibly accounted for the better undertone.

The industrials were steady. Asphalt registered a low of 93½ for the day from which it climbed to 96, Marconi was fractionally higher as was Retail Candy. Pulp and Paper and Perfection Tire were a b.t lower.

The Oils were fractionally better. International Prie was up a point. White Oil closed strady around 31. Simms and Guffey Gillespie was also a bit lower. Ryan Pete was steady at 3%. The mines were quiet outside of a flurry in Boston & Montana which moved up to 69c.

Rug Treasures From the East

Finest Rug Products in a Gorgeous Display and Priced Phenomenally Low

So choice and attractive are they that a Toronto -woman the other day, speaking of Simpson's display, declared: "I go to see them and I cannot leave the place; I want to buy them all."

Bokharas, Afghans, Pergams, Mosouls and Kazaks all in array. The view will be a delight to you, and the prices are phenomenally low.

Luggage Which Defies Hard Wear

Strength Quality and Convenience Are Built Into Our Goods

Many pieces of Simpson luggage are world tourists of long standing. Their trans-Atlantic voyages cannot be numbered on one hand. The labels of American and European hotels where they have sequestered for nights and days would make an imposing collection.

And yet this luggage is as good as on the first trip from the Sixth Floor to the customer's home. Why? Because Simpson quality is in it.

Note the big sturdy corners on the trunks, corners that will dent a concrete platform; the sturdy built-to-wear suitcases, and the smooth, smartly-finished elegant club bag, betokening the fine taste of the owner, and his excellent judgment in travelling goods.

On Simpson's Sixth Floor your train or boat requirements for the southern trip will be most satisfactorily arranged. Here for example is the Excelsior model in the wardrobe trunk. Specially designed in mechanical perfection, simplicity and complete arrangement.
