TEN PAGES—ONE CENT

ALL READY TO ARREST CRIPPEN AND THE GIRL

Father Point, P. Q., July 30—Inspector Dew, of Scotland Yard, arrived here yesterday on the steamer Laurentide. With his arrival rumors have been cleared as to the positive identity of the two suspects on the steamer Montrose, traveling as Rev. Mr. Robinson and son, but who are in reality Dr. Hawley Crippen and Miss Le-Neve, fugitives from justice, in connection with the murder of Crippen's wife.

These two are becoming more nervous as the boat nears land, according to the wireless despatches, but are as yet unaware of their impending arrest, which will take place when the steamer docks, expected to be Sunday morning.

BIG FAIR OPENS IN FIVE WEEKS

It Will Not be Long Now Before the Dominion Exhibition is Under Way

Over Twenty Acres of Ground Utilized and Nearly 300 Exhibitors—Many Changes Made and There Will be a Great Array of Amusement Features—A Bigger "Pike" and Great Out-Door Attractions

The big dominion exhibition looked forward to for so many months is now only five weeks distant, for on Saturday, September 3, it will be declared open and the great event for which so much has been planned and such an enormous amount of work has been done and is still being done, will be an accomplished fact. Ready for more than a decade past the Exhibition Association has been adding to its group of buildings, and improving the old ones, also the grounds. This year with an exposition truly national in character, sweeping changes have been in order. A third main industrial building has been added to the group, a modern and larger grand stand 200 feet by 60 feet, a complete new equipment for the accommodation of live stock, and agreed upon by breeding experts to be the most modern in the dominion, and up-to-date horse barns are now ready for occupancy. There will be new dairy accommodations, a new art gallery, a new museum gallery, new poultry accommodations, transportation building, new "Pike" or "Avenue of Amusement" and so many radical improvements in and about the buildings and grounds that those who have been in the habit of attending St. John shows will hardly recognize the re-constructed exhibition equipment.

Over Twenty Acres
The grounds and floor space upon which the Dominion Exhibition for 1910 will be held aggregate more than 20 acres, and place this magnificent group of facilities in the forefront in all Canada west of the Over $25,000 to be distributed in awards for live stock, agricultural and horticultural products, and educational exhibits.

275 Exhibitors
Already over 275 exhibitors have been granted space, making a comprehensive ensemble of the manufacturing, agricultural, fruit growing, live stock, mineral and forestry resources of the Dominion. The national character of the show will be pronounced as the list of exhibitors will show. There will be manufacturing displays from the Pacific slope and the eastern extremity, Halifax. In the intervening space the leading industries and occupations will be represented. To convey some adequate idea of the displays to be made by concerns in large cities, the following table may be quoted: Montreal, 14; Toronto, 12; New York, 8; Boston, 8; Hamilton, Windsor, and London, Ont., 8; Winnipeg, 2; Western, general, 14; the Maritime Provinces, 2; Eastern section, 2; smaller cities and towns across the continent will contribute the remaining number of exhibitors, all of which will contain some special element of interest.

Comprehensive Display
Aside from the live stock, agricultural and horticultural products, educational competitions, art loan gallery, and numerous other special displays, the industrial section will contain the following lines of goods: Baked goods, chocolate, solid and liquid forms, tea, coffee, jelly, culinary requisites, confectionery, flowers, meats, fish, fruits, table delicacies, machinery supplies, engines, milling supplies, lumbermen's supplies, tools, motors, stores and farm implements, tinware and tin ware, dairy supplies and machinery, farm machinery, carriages, automobiles, boats and power craft, pianos, mechanical musical instruments, talking machines, sewing machines, electrical appliances and supplies, lighting plants, rubber goods.

WANT THE I. C. R.
Wm. MacKenzie of the Canadian Northern Says They Want Possession of the Intercolonial

Montreal, July 29—Wm. MacKenzie, announced last evening, probably the first time for publication, that the Canadian Northern Railway wanted to get possession of the Intercolonial Railway from Montreal to Halifax and Sydney. The president of the C. N. R. spent the day in the city and stated that they had laid 200 miles of track already this year in the province of Alberta and Saskatchewan. Besides the sixty miles of track from the Pacific coast eastward, he stated that they had also given a contract for the construction of 140 miles of road east of Edmonton, and that they would now push the main line vigorously from both sides till the track layers, say three years hence meet somewhere in the mountains, thus completing their connection between the waters of the Pacific ocean and Lake Superior, if not the St. Lawrence.

During four and a half years Mr. MacKenzie said that the Canadian Northern had done nothing on the main line, but during that time they have built no less than twelve hundred miles of branches, and from this policy of keeping the branch lines well along, comes the success attending the Canadian Northern as a freight carrier on the plains and from Lake Superior westward. Being asked what his company intended doing in the east Mr. MacKenzie said: "We want the Intercolonial which will be the natural extension of the Canadian Northern from here to the Atlantic seaboard." "Are you not afraid some of the other fellows will get it away from you?" the president of the Canadian Northern was asked. "There is not the slightest danger of that," and President MacKenzie left to catch his Toronto train.

President Taft and Ex-President Roosevelt to be Among Speakers—Forty Stenographers Sending Out Invitations All Over the Country

St. Paul, Minn., July 30—Three executive secretaries, a carefully organized bureau co-operating with the newspaper press, a joint St. Paul-Minneapolis board of local managers and forty stenographers are working overtime on preparations for the immense national conservation congress which meets in St. Paul September 5-9.

Some of the "Theaters"
They come high, but we must have them. That's what says a big city exhibition manager or park promoter and he is right. Theaters are a part of the city and they are a part of the city's life. They are a part of the city's life and they are a part of the city's life.

Treat for Miss's Lovers
Madame Belle Yvonne Renfrew's Ladies' Orchestra of twenty-five players will give a concert twice daily beneath the new musical gallery in the main building. The organization is one of the finest of its kind in existence, and is a favorite at important musical events, being killed in the same programme with the famous United States Marine Band of Washington, Crockett's Italian Band, Sousa's Band, and Arthur Pryor's Band. In Pittsburg last year the orchestra made a sensational hit, and after the big exhibition was closed in that city, played a successful week's engagement in one of the leading theatres at the request of a discriminating public.

MARRIED DESPITE MOTHER'S PROTEST
Miss Dorothy Deacon became the bride of Prince Antoine Albert Radziwili on July 28, despite the protests of her mother. The Princess Radziwili, mother of the prince, did all in her power to prevent the prince from marrying Miss Deacon. The tragedy that darkened the life of Mrs. Baldwin, the mother of the prince, had followed the killing and the death later of Mr. Deacon in an insane asylum. Her arguments were that the prince was not fit to marry, and that she was not fit to be his mother. The ceremony was performed in St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church in London.

HALIFAX NAVAL COLLEGE WILL OPEN IN JANUARY
Halifax, July 29—Owing to the Naval Academy now in progress in Great Britain, the departure of the cruiser Niobe for Halifax has been delayed, but she will have the other side about the middle of September," said G. J. Desbarats, Deputy Minister and Director of Naval Affairs, to a Morning Chronicle reporter.

RAILWAY MEN GET INCREASE
Pittsburg, Pa., July 30—All differences between the Pennsylvania railroad company and its men on lines west of Pittsburg have been satisfactorily adjusted. This statement was made by Gen. Mer. G. La. Peck, of the lines west, last night, following the concluding conference today of nearly three weeks' negotiation. The basis of adjustment is practically the same as the New York Central, and wages slightly higher, according to G. W. Sines, vice-president of the order of railway trainmen.

REVIVAL OF BASE-BALL IN ST. JOHN

Interest Has Greatly Increased This Year Both in Senior and Junior Games

Thirty-Six Teams Playing in Various Leagues Besides Many Independent Teams Among the Younger Element—Games Every Night on the Every Day Club Grounds—Clippers and St. John Draw Big Crowds

With nine ball leagues St. John this year has had an unprecedented season of it, and it is doubtful if in the palm days of the grand old game here, there has been such interest shown, or enthusiasm manifested. What is probably the largest crop of youngsters on the district, which should furnish an almost inexhaustible supply of material for the future. St. John has had some talent that rated among the very best in the big American and Upper Canadian leagues and back in the days of the Shamrocks and Nationals, and even more recently the Roses and Alerts, the locals could go forth in search of the biggest game. For a time, however, interest lagged and baseball seemed to die a natural death until gradually as the new blood was worked in a new life has been given the game and this year it has jumped back to the times of yore.

Good Timber
The local players of the present day are of the timber that makes chiseled material and it is a safe assertion that a team could be picked from among the number here that would compare favorably with some that are receiving high salaries in the larger league. There are all too often instances where a town has gone "West End" as the result usually of the performance of a high-salaried aggregation gathered from the uttermost parts of the globe. It is that kind of a "crazy" giving birth to thirty-six teams, that indicates the state of the sport in this locality. And that are the "rains" that compose the nine ball leagues as no account could be taken of the number of "independents" teams that are performing in vacant lots or any other place where there is room to mark a diamond; and this is a lot of the latter class this year.

HON. MR. FIELDING GOES TO BRUSSELS
Members of Oversea's Parliaments Probably Guests of Lord's and Commons at Coronation—Milder Pessimistic Over Preference—Blue Book on Imperial Conference—The Hague

Times' Special Cable
London, July 30—Hon. Mr. Fielding has gone to Brussels.

Comment on Laurier
The Saturday Review, referring to the delegation of western farmers, says we all know Sir Wilfrid Laurier was a free trader in heart, and also that his imperialism was suspected. He was always ready to praise the trade policy of Britain and to work as far as he dared towards a similar policy in Canada. Commenting on Laurier's reference to a commission and going as far as justifiable towards the trade policy of England, in his speech at Langan, the premier, says: "We commend the declaration to the careful consideration of all those who have been haggled into toying with fiscal reform in the notion that it would bind closer the different parts of the empire."

Imperial Conference
A Blue Book published contains the correspondence since the imperial conference of 1907, and shows that the home office advocates discussion of measures preventing the arrival in Britain of undesirable expelled from the dominion. Between 1907 and 1909, 516 aliens were deported from Canada, whereas 664 were removed from Britain to the country of their origin. In reference to the imperial conference secretary it is pointed out that Canada and New Zealand expressed no opinion concerning its establishment. Mr. Deakin declared the secretary did not

DENTIST AND WIFE CHARGED WITH FRAUD

New York, July 30—Policemen Roddy and Murray, of Brooklyn Headquarters, have been detailed to investigate the source of two anonymous letters which have been received by the department in connection with the case of Dr. Henry Bradley Keeler and Emma Keeler, who have been arrested on the charge of swindling Mrs. Wilhelmina Lynch, of No. 24 Vernon avenue, Brooklyn, out of $14,000. The police are working to ascertain if Keeler has been involved in other similar cases.

Two prisoners were arraigned before Judge Fawcett, in the County Court, and were without bail. Keeler remains absent, but the police assert that Mrs. Keeler has given some valuable information; she told the police that her maiden name was Emma Cullen, that she was born in Nevada and has lived in San Francisco the greater part of her life. She said she also has wealthy relatives in that city. One of the letters received by the police was from Montreal, addressed to the police, and was postmarked Brooklyn. The letter is in connection with a marriage in 1900 of a wealthy widow living in the Bedford section.

URGUE MORE ATTENTION TO IMMIGRATION IN MARITIME PROVINCES

Amherst, N. S., July 30—(Special)—The board of immigration last evening adopted resolutions recommending its delegate to the Maritime Board of Trade, bringing up for discussion before that body the following resolutions: "Resolved that it is necessary for greater attention to be given to the maritime provinces by the immigration department at Ottawa."

INSURANCE COMPANIES AND FEDERAL LICENSE

Ottawa, July 30—(Special)—The issue raised by the decision given last winter in a Montreal court that insurance companies were exclusively under provincial rather than federal jurisdiction will be thrashed out in a stated case to be submitted by the federal government to the supreme court. When the new insurance act was before parliament last session the point was raised that according to the Montreal decision the whole act might be ultra vires of the federal parliament and that the provincial governments might also have the right under the B. N. A. Act to issue licenses and enforce penalties.

COURT ANNULLED
"MENTAL MARRIAGE"
New York Man Freed From Boston Girl Who Sought Intellectual Confraternity

New York, July 29.—Eleanor Mauder Gerov is no longer the wife of Albert M. Gerov. Her ill-considered marriage proved such an obstacle to her happiness that Supreme Court Justice Bischoff annulled the marital contract at the request of the husband. At the expiration of three months either will be free to remarry.

The case is regarded as unique. It is the first time in the history of the New York courts, so far as is known, that the law has separated husband and wife because the woman, although willing to be married, was unwilling to be a wife. Technically, the bride was guilty of a "fraud."

The bride is the daughter of Thomas Nunn, of Malden, a Boston suburb. She is a graduate of Wellesley College and highly accomplished in music and art. Five years prior to her marriage to Gerov on April 2, 1909, she became acquainted with him. Some time in March, 1909, she promised to be his wife.

Gerov, who has an office at No. 141 Broadway, and his fiancée visited New York and looked for the home that was to be their home after the wedding. They finally selected No. 2 St. Nicholas place and Gerov leased the premises. Then they began to supply the home with furniture.

By the time the wedding day arrived the title was feathered and everything was in readiness. At the home of the bride's sister in Malden, N. B., the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Howard L. Terrett performed the wedding ceremony in the presence of the bride's and bridegroom's families.

Mr. Gerov informed the court that he brought his bride directly to New York city. They arrived at the Hotel Belmont, Park avenue and Forty-second street, about ten that night and engaged room No. 786 and 788.

His bride said: "You take No. 786 and I'll take No. 788."

On April 5 Mrs. Gerov quitted the hotel and returned to Boston. Her earnest correspondence that resulted in Mr. Gerov's going to Boston a few days later and persuading his bride to return to New York with him.

On May 20, 1909, Mrs. Gerov moved into her home. During her brief stay her husband charged their marital status remained unchanged. The bride told him, she alleged, that she never intended to permit their marriage to be other than a platonic relationship or intellectual confraternity.

Mrs. J. P. Griffith, nee McCormick, will receive her friends on Tuesday and Wednesday, Aug. 2 and 3, afternoon and evening, at 285 Main street.

CLERGYMAN'S WIFE
SUES FOR DIVORCE
Rev. Geo. T. Carter's Attention to 15-Year-Old Girl Broke Up Home, She Says

New York, July 29.—Accusations which the Rev. George T. Carter, in which the name of a fifteen-year-old girl figures, are made in a suit for divorce filed in Paterson by Mrs. Anna B. Carter. Her husband for many years pastor of the Baptist church at Old Bridge, Middlesex County, N. J., and at the present time is in charge of a church in New York State.

The incidents alleged in the suit are said to have occurred at Old Bridge two years ago, and at that time forced the Rev. Mr. Carter to abandon his pastorate. Mrs. Carter declares the attentions of her husband to Eleise Smith, a young girl, were such that she was forced to leave her home in New Jersey for some time, and engaged in the business of paper hanging, which he had learned in his youth. He travelled from town to town in Middlesex County, but is said to have been forced to abandon it.

To make a living he sold Bibles and other religious books. From this occupation he gradually had gradually taken up church work, and so re-established himself.

Eleise Smith, the girl involved by Mrs. Carter, has been lost sight of, but it is understood in Paterson that she alleged to have been married to a man who lived in New Jersey, and that she is now married. She is said to reside somewhere near her old home.

Mrs. Carter now lives with her parents at Vernon Township, Suffolk County, which is about thirty-five miles from New York. Her father is a prosperous farmer. She is about thirty-five years old.

Addison B. Rosecrant, of Paterson, N. J., is the attorney for Mrs. Carter. A referee take the testimony at her home.

They have boating, fishing and fishing, and recently they have established a tennis court which is only ten minutes' walk from the camp.

Mrs. Mittell went on to say that she had no difficulty in obtaining supplies. They purchase their groceries in Fredericton, and the farmers living in the neighborhood supply them with produce. The first order for groceries amounted to $100 and while in the city this week, Mrs. Mittell had it repeated.

Prof. Mittell, who is a native of Germany, has long been recognized as one of the leading violinists of the United States. He fills a position on the staff of Princeton University, and he also has a number of private pupils. Prof. and Mrs. Mittell have made many warm friends in Fredericton, who always extend to them a most cordial welcome.

AMERICAN COLONY
AT DAVIDSON LAKE
(Fredericton Mail)

Prof. Phillip Mittell and family, of New York, have been rusticating at Davidson Lake since early in June and will remain in the middle of September. They own a number of neat and commodious summer cottages on the lake shore, which they purchased last year from John Murray. They have a number of New York friends visiting them, and the party at the present time numbers twenty-three. Mrs. Mittell was in the city several days this week, doing some shopping. Talking to a Mail representative, she said she was convinced that Davidson Lake was one of the most restful and charming spots in America. She went on to say that she had first heard of New Brunswick through the Fredericton Tourist Association and for seven years past Davidson Lake has been the summer home of herself and family. A number of young people are spending the summer with them at the lake and are having the time of their lives.

They have boating, fishing and fishing, and recently they have established a tennis court which is only ten minutes' walk from the camp.

NOVA SCOTIA'S NEW RAILWAY
(Halifax Chronicle)

"The rapidly preliminary preparatory to the actual work of construction are being rapidly advanced and the work of building the road itself will be commenced in about a month's time," says T. B. Fogg, vice-president and general manager of the Halifax and Eastern Railway, to a Morning Chronicle reporter. Mr. Fogg, with A. W. Kirkpatrick of Kingston, the consulting engineer of the company, arrived in the city on the Ocean Liner.

Although absent from the city for some time, Mr. Fogg has kept in close touch with the advance work of the railway and expressed himself as being well satisfied with the manner in which things were progressing. The company now has its chief engineer with a corps of assistants going over the survey and making the necessary alterations. How soon the real work of construction will begin depends entirely on the advance party, but good progress is being made and the real work will be started in about a month.

Mr. Fogg and Mr. Kirkpatrick will take up the reports of the chief engineer and the final arrangements will be made once. While in the city Mr. Fogg will also look over a number of properties at Dartmouth that may be secured for the terminals, and this as well as where the road will enter Dartmouth will be settled within a few days.

Just where the first soil will be turned has not yet been determined, but the first work of construction will probably be at Dartmouth. In order to complete the road as speedily as possible the construction work will be divided up and the contracts sublet.

LANDMARK IN ROME
TO FALL BEFORE
MARCH OF PROGRESS
Hilda's Tower, Immortalized by Hawthorne, to be Pulled Down to Make Way for a New Street Interesting Legend of the Origin of the Shrine

Rome, July 29.—Another landmark, dear to the hearts of Americans is about to disappear from Rome, where it has been necessary to destroy so much on account of the tremendous growth of the city.

Even those who do not know their Hawthorne will be surprised when here, and so much as it has become an American possession that foreigners of all nationalities seek it out under that name. Here pretty Hilda lived and fed her doves and their descendants can still be seen circling about the Madonna and the tiny light in her honor which never goes out.

The tower is to be pulled down as a street must pass over the place, that part of Rome being uncomfortably crowded, so that those who wish to see Hilda's home must be quick about it. The history of the tower itself is unknown until one day, some hundreds of years ago, a monkey escaping from a man, ran up the door way and into a window where a young mother was dandling her infant. The monkey, probably out of pure mischief, seized the child and before the desperate woman could give the alarm was on the top of the building, the promised shrine, making faces and chattering at the excited crowd beneath. The poor mother snatched her child and fled, but the tower should pass to others less careless.

Got $33 a Month
"After I was ordained I decided to take up missionary work," he said. "I began in France, then went to the West Indies and finally to South and Central America. My salary as a missionary averaged $33 a month. That was enough to live on comfortably in those countries, and properly support my family."

I worked hard for 20 years converting people to the church. Then I dreamed of the United States and set my heart on coming here and becoming a part of the great missionary work I had heard this country was carrying on.

It took two years before I came here from South America. I was born in Holland, of Dutch parents, but I speak French, German, Spanish, Dutch, English and Italian. But my dreams of this country were shattered by a sudden awakening.

Overwhelmed
"I not only found that missionaries are not sought here but that the churches are overfilled with pastors. There is plenty of work to be found without recompense, and I have turned my hand to much of it but I could not go on neglecting my wife and little ones."

"A month ago I began answering advertisements to secure a commercial position, and made many opportunities were on commission, but none were lucrative. I found this out after bitter experience. Promoters urged me to go to them, and I was asked to sell questionable goods. No doubt I was considered a splendid man for each work because I was a minister.

The fact is, in order to earn an honest living I am compelled to leave the country as a watchman or timekeeper or something else of the sort. It may seem strange but what else can a poor minister do?"

Without Funds, New York Minister Advertises for Work to Feed Family

New York, July 29.—Sitting before an improvised desk in a small room of a ground floor flat of No. 231 East One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street, a stockily built man with black hair and mustache and thick lensed glasses told why he inserted the following advertisement: "MINISTER, good standing, married, wants work; watchman or timekeeper preferred."

"I am the Rev. A. H. Lambert," he said, "a clergyman of the Methodist Episcopal church. It is necessary for you to know why I want work?"

Signs of Poverty
He slowly lifted his hand and pointed to the furnishings, then to the faded and much worn frocks of two little girls, one 12 and the other 10. With their younger brother they were leaning out of a window calling to a mongrel puppy in the basement of the copy yard.

"Their mother isn't very well," the father volunteered. "But I don't want to tell you all the reasons why I advertised," he added. "I may later. Some time I may tell what it means to be a clergyman and feed five mouths by his calling in a strange land. I well know, for I have been a missionary since a young man. I sat back in his chair and didn't want to tell why a minister should have to seek a layman's position, but as he thought of his wife, just couldn't help doing so."

Overwhelmed
"I not only found that missionaries are not sought here but that the churches are overfilled with pastors. There is plenty of work to be found without recompense, and I have turned my hand to much of it but I could not go on neglecting my wife and little ones."

"A month ago I began answering advertisements to secure a commercial position, and made many opportunities were on commission, but none were lucrative. I found this out after bitter experience. Promoters urged me to go to them, and I was asked to sell questionable goods. No doubt I was considered a splendid man for each work because I was a minister.

The fact is, in order to earn an honest living I am compelled to leave the country as a watchman or timekeeper or something else of the sort. It may seem strange but what else can a poor minister do?"

"MIKE" BEAUFORT
ON HIS HOLIDAYS
HAS A GAY TIME
"Mike" is Count de Beaufort But He is Working in a Steel Plant to Win a $100,000 Wager

New York, July 29.—"Mike" Beaufort, who earns $24.95 a day as a laborer in a steel works, and has his hands all gnarled and cut from carrying rough, heavy ingots, is enjoying a vacation in the fashionable Summer colony at Bay Head, N. J., after a short stay in an elaborate suite at the St. Regis in this city.

"Mrs. Mike" is with him, and they're having a grand time. Count took the name of the St. Regis they had no end of costly dinners and expensive taxicabs, but they're having a grand time at Bay Head. They're having yachts and the things galore. And the fashionables are treating them with open arms.

"Mike" is really Count Jacques Alexander Albert von Mouri de Beaufort, of Holland, and "Mrs. Mike" is Countess de Beaufort. But he actually is a laborer in a steel works, and his hands show it.

The Count was a idle-rich nobleman until a year ago. Then, in London, he met and fell in love with Miss Irma Kligan, daughter of an enormously wealthy Irish family. He bought her a courtship of only a few weeks, and the young Count began to take life seriously. He announced that he was going to work.

"Haha!" said his noble Dutch chum when they heard this. "Impossible for de Beaufort to be serious. To work? It's foolishness he talked!"

"Haha!" said his noble Dutch chum when they heard this. "Impossible for de Beaufort to be serious. To work? It's foolishness he talked!"

A prince offered to bet him $25,000 he couldn't get a job at hard work and hold it a year. The Count took the wager. Others liked the hard work, too, and finally he rounded up $100,000 worth of bets, which amounted to nearly $100,000. Then, last April, he came to America, looked over the field, and picked the hardest job that presented itself—laboring in the Chicago Tool Steel Company's plant, which incidentally, Papa-in-law Kligan partially owned. He bought him a dinner plate, a couple of suits of overalls and an alarm clock, and began to arise at 6 a. m. instead of going to bed at that time.

He worked himself up from $150 per day to $2.40, made himself popular with his fellow-laborers and bosses, and later was awarded a two week's vacation. He was given the opportunity to buy his time for the time he will be off. His bill at the St. Regis was considerably more than $20 a day.

The Countess is enthusiastically in favor of the hard-work-for-a-year proposition, and insists that her husband must be back on his job at 7 o'clock some morning week after next.

THE WEST SIDE LOTS Whether the resolution adopted by the board of trade yesterday, by a vote of 19 to 10, after a discussion in which only four or five persons took part, will further delay the transfer of the west side lots to the C. P. R. remains to be seen. The burden of Mr. Hatheway's speech was that other railways might want access to the property and that the C. P. R. could not be trusted. Yet for a guarantee of an expenditure of $250,000 in ten years he would abandon all those other railways and hand everything over to the C. P. R.

TELEPHONE RATES The friends of the New Brunswick Telephone Co. were not present in sufficient number to offer any effective objection to the proposition that the board of trade present the question of rates to the Public Utilities Commission. The latter body will not now be able to shelve the question by saying there is nothing before it. So far as known it has not even acknowledged receipt of the board's previous communication; but there can be no further excuse for silence. The case for the users of telephones was admirably stated by Mr. Harvey, and his resolution was adopted without a dissenting voice. Clearly, the board, having gone so far, could not afford to let the matter drop at that point.

A FRUIT SHOW The Times-Star has received a communication from the Royal Horticultural Society announcing that the president and council have included an exhibition of colonial grown fruits and vegetables in their calendar for the present year, the date fixed being Dec. 1st to 31st next. BOURASSA, GREAT ANTI-NATIONALIST Would Keep the French and English in Canada in Two Separate Masses

(Montreal Witness.) Mr. Bourassa is the most anti-nationalist, and therefore the most unpatriotic, force in Canada. He has at last defined a policy—that programme, which he Charter, finds the record of the "programme" to the Christian ideal—that is to say, to the ideal which the church, through its colleges is bound to proscribe, and which all good Catholics are bound to pursue. That policy or programme is to keep the French and English in Canada in two separate masses, each to be governed according to its own traditions. This programme is fortified by a threat. The moment he says that those traditions are interfered with—the moment the French-Canadian cease to be a separate nation, ally clinging to their own antiquities, that moment they will see nothing to choose between the British and the United States. To maintain this ideal of separatist, in which he would seem to be the champion of a power on which the Abbe Chartier has lifted a corner of the curtain, Mr. Bourassa and his apostles have devoted themselves to inspiring their people, especially the ingenious youth who devour their productions greedily, with an abhorrence of the Anglo-Saxon. To this end he is liberal with historic indictments of the Anglo-Saxon. This attitude of mind presumably throws a light on that of the professors by whom his mind was formed, and whom the Abbe Chartier represents. According to this history the record of the Anglo-Saxon has been one continuous tale of greed and oppression, while that of the Frenchman and the French-Canadian has been one of noble endurance, and on the part of the latter, a most devoted loyalty. It is not easy to blame those who thus see nothing but heroism in their own race and nothing but what is deplorable on the part of another. We do not think that history, as taught to English pupils, is free from partiality, and it is a question if the English-speaking part of our people would not be much the better of knowing better than they do that it was the French-Canadian who saved Canada to the British Crown when the handful of British residents would probably have been as well pleased to join the other

Body Found in Harbor The body of a man was found floating in the harbor about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and inquiries would seem to indicate that he is a member of the crew of the American schooner Almont H. Cruz, which sailed for Yacynard Haven shortly before the body was found. The body was seen floating in front of the Charlotte street extension by Ernest Wallace, Frank O'Brien and John Abbott, and they got a boat and brought it ashore. Corner Berryman, after viewing the body ordered its removal to the morgue. A man from the schooner Manuel R. Cruz, who was not aboard, had left the schooner with his own and another man's hat, and as two hats were found floating near the dead man this would strengthen the identity. There was nothing in the man's pockets. The body is that of a man about fifty, with grey hair and mustache. WEDDINGS Thorne-Pellen. Fashion Hints for Times Readers

THE NEW TURBANS HAVE AN AUDACIOUS LOOK. The rakish turbans, tilted over one eye and trimmed at the back with a pert feather or a pompon, are jarringly becoming to some women, but dangerously trying to others.

The Evening Chit-Chat

A MAN who signs himself "A Bachelor," has just written to ask me to settle a wager which a friend has made with him, to the effect that I am a man. Just think of it. My little letters have received the highest compliment possible from a man—he actually thinks they show sufficient intelligence to have been written by one of his own sex.

ADMIRAL MARKHAM DISCUSSES FUTURE WARFARE

New York, July 29.—In talk on naval matters and on the possible use of aircraft in future warfare, Admiral Sir Albert Markham, of the British Royal Navy retired, who arrived here on board the Adriatic, expressed the opinion that aeroplanes and dirigibles never would be practical as agents of war for other purposes than those of scouting. He also expressed the belief that the most formidable sea-battle ships were in the neighborhood of 12,000 tons and that efficiency would not be increased by building them larger.

END OF THE LOTTERY IN SIGHT IN FRANCE

Big Games in Which Prizes Sometimes Amount to as Much as $200,000 All to Come to an End This Year and Thousands of French Citizens Will Lose Their Sole Hope of Ultimate Riches

Special Correspondence of The Times
Paris, July 29.—Within a few months the lottery will be a thing of the past in France. Modern progress looks with a severe eye on institutions which once were considered entirely innocent and the lottery now is damned as pernicious gambling. With its going the hope of ultimate fortune will fade out of many gray lives but at the same time many a wage earner will be saved from the temptation to deprive his family of comforts and necessities in order to win fortune.

The lottery which began before the Christian era and Nero distributed free lottery tickets in an effort to regain his lost popularity after his persecution of the Christians.

After the dark ages we find the lottery flourishing again and in great favor at Genoa. This was in the 15th century. Venice also had a game at this period, which was identical in the same as the lottery, but in this city it went under the name of Blaqueque. The Venetians realizing the inability of the average citizen whose taste was luxurious and whose love of the beautiful was paramount, to obtain many of the treasures in the art world for his sole edification, arranged the game of Blaqueque in which for a comparatively small sum a chance of possessing some costly object that otherwise would be beyond his means offered as his way, rare lace, priceless Venetian glass, tapestries, etc., passed into the hands of a connoisseur whose limited wealth could not have purchased them otherwise.

The first knowledge we have of the lottery taking root in France is during the reign of Francis I, at the same time it was introduced into Holland and Switzerland. Francis II, realized the power of a lottery to fill a depleted exchequer, and issued an edict authorizing Jean Lascaris to get one under way. Parliament opposed this rather dubious way of raising funds but the king's will prevailed and after the game the treasury was richer by $10,000 in gold, a sum that was considered large in those days. A few years later, however, all scruples against the lottery disappeared. The extravagance at the court and the intermittent wars kept the treasury constantly drained of funds, and the lottery was called upon to replenish it. An instance of this kind was in 1693 when Louis XIV. was to be married. In honor of the event Paris was turned over to the beautifiers. New boulevards were laid out, monuments erected and it was demanded that the Pont Royal should be reconstructed.

No people in the world love their city as the Parisians, so when the order was given to a man named Tonti to organize a lottery for this purpose, the offers soon were filled. In the 18th century the lotteries were specialized, and under the guidance of the state were catalogued as the Lottery of Paris Works, The Loan Lottery, The Abandoned Children Lottery, etc., the titles explaining the purposes of each.

In June, 1893, some socialist deputies put before the Chambers a bill to abolish the lottery. The assembled members were told that an institution that had been in existence since before the Christian era, was immoral and a swindle. These assertions raised a storm of opposition and indignation, as every lottery must be authorized by the government. The socialists, however, had a strong ally in Clemenceau who was then prime minister, and he declared that he, also, was against the lottery, and now that the question had been raised, he would authorize no more and furthermore would do all in his power to liquidate those that were then in operation. Briand, the present Prime Minister, decreed the liquidation of all the lotteries in 1901.

In 1836 the rules governing the lottery were altered and it was reestablished under conditions somewhat resembling the American raffle. Besides money prizes, chances were taken on different articles of furniture, rare objects, jewels or paintings, the proceeds going to public charities. Of course, these lotteries were always under government control and this condition exists today.

The lotteries are run on a grand scale and millions of dollars are put into circulation by them. Official placards are placed all over Paris and the other cities, while small handbills are scattered broadcast. Up-to-date methods are employed in running these immense undertakings for inducements are offered to the purchaser if he will take chances on a series of lot-

Knowlton, Que., Oct. 12, 1900.
"For many years, I suffered from severe Rheumatism, and the attacks were very distressing and prevented me from doing my ordinary work. I tried many remedies and physicians' treatments, but nothing seemed to do me much good, and I was becoming very anxious and fear I would become a permanent cripple from the disease.

I tried "Fruit-a-tives" and this medicine has entirely cured me and I honestly believe it is the greatest Rheumatism cure in the world."
E. E. MILLS.

Such a statement could not be bought from a man like Mr. Mills. He thinks too much of his good name, to sell it or sign it to an untruth. Mr. Mills tried "Fruit-a-tives" after all other treatment failed. "Fruit-a-tives" cured him of Rheumatism. In the goodness of his heart, he wrote the above letter in order that sufferers in all parts of Canada should know that there is one remedy that actually does cure Rheumatism. The testimonial was entirely unsolicited on our part. We did not know that Mr. Mills was taking "Fruit-a-tives" until we received the above letter.

It is a case like Mr. Mills' that proves the marvelous powers of "Fruit-a-tives" in arresting and curing disease. It may be stated, without fear of contradiction, that "Fruit-a-tives" is the only medicine in the world made of fruit juices and is the greatest Rheumatism cure known to modern science. 50c. a box, $ for $2.50, or trial box, 25c. turn the wheel, after which he blindly puts his hand in the opening and brings forth the winning numbers for that drawing. The director's duty at the Credit Foncier is to put the numbers in the wheel which has to be done in the presence of the Minister of Commerce. After this simple ceremony, the lucky numbers are telegraphed all over France.

The sudden acquisition of wealth by people of the lower class often causes strange developments. Last year Mme. Hofer, who occupied the humble position of canteen woman in the 28th Dragons at Sedan made her monthly contribution to the lottery—a habit of years. Her faithfulness was rewarded by the big prize, $200,000. Her property gladdened the hearts of a multitude of men, 40,000 of whom offered, in the next morning's post, their heart and hand. Thirty thousand others, not caring to deal with Cupid, modestly asked for sums of money. Mme. Hofer was not dazzled by her change of fortune to such an extent that her business matters were smothered. On the contrary, she made a favorable deal with another woman, who bought out her rights as canteen woman. A persistent and ardent lieutenant of the 28th Dragons won her affections and they were married in June, 1900. Army life suddenly becoming distasteful to the lucky bridegroom he retired from the service and then started house-keeping at St. Maurice, a suburb of Paris. This wonderful transformation in the life of a canteen woman inspired a Frenchman's pen and as a result has been the outcome. It is called the "Cantine's Millions."

A short while ago three brothers in the city of Lille, put together a part of their week's wages and bought a number for the lottery. Luck came to them their

Quick and Permanent Relief from Rheumatism

It is not exposure to cold or wet that is the real cause of rheumatism—it is bad kidneys. So long as the kidneys are doing their work properly, filtering from the blood all the Uric Acid formed there from the waste products of the body, rheumatism cannot exist. It is only when the kidneys fail, and the blood becomes loaded with this Uric Acid, that the slightest exposure offends the joints and causes agony.

Father Morrisey's No. 7 Tablets

promptly relieve and permanently cure rheumatism by putting the kidneys into perfect shape for their work. Once the kidneys are in good shape, the Uric Acid cleared out of the blood, the rheumatic pains disappear. If they ever show symptoms of returning a few No. 7 Tablets will tone the kidneys up again and keep you free from the dreaded rheumatism.

Father Morrisey's No. 7 Tablets have proved their value in hundreds of cases where other remedies have failed entirely.

HACKMEN WARNED

Sitting Magistrate Henderson announces that in future Fines Will be Collected from All Offenders—Other Cases Dealt With

In the police court this morning, Sitting Magistrate Henderson issued a warning to hackmen regarding their violating the law at the stands allotted to them at the Eastern Steamship Co's pier, and also at the Union depot, saying that in future fines would be collected from those who went beyond the limits.

The fine in the case of the pier was $4, while at the depot it was $20.

Joseph McCarthy, a coachman, was fined $2 for disregarding the rules at the C. P. R. depot, and a fine of $4 was allowed to stand against James Delay against whom a report was made that he had gone beyond the railing at the pier of the Eastern Steamship Company.

Delay said he was by trade a bricklayer, and had only been driving coach for a week in the absence of the regular coachman. It then transpired that he had no license, and he was advised by the magistrate that he had better quit the hack-driving business, and return to his regular trade.

Louis Francis, a young colored boy, was before the court to answer to a report of loitering, spitting, and frequenting habitually the lobby of the Opera House. He said he had been there, watching John Nairn do a step-dance. He was allowed to go on promising to remain away from the place.

H. J. Anderson, manager of the house, said that they were greatly annoyed by boys being about the place, as they made noise and kept the place very untidy. Nairn, he thought, was worse than the other lad. Efforts will be made to have Nairn brought to court, where he should have been this morning, as he had been reported.

Albert Long, arrested last night on a charge of drunkenness by Policeman Semple, said this morning that he had not been drunk, but had fallen and struck his head, not long after his arrival from the country, where he had been rusticated. His story was not effective, and a fine of $4 or ten days' jail was imposed on him, as well as on Henry Addison, Bernard Barry, and Frank McGuire on the same charge.

GOT TWO MONTHS FOR STEALING FLOWERS

There is frequent complaint about the stealing of flowers from Fernhill and other cemeteries. In Halifax vigorous action has been taken to suppress the flower thieves. The Chronicle says:—Complaints of flower stealing from Camp Hill cemetery and the Public Gardens have been made lately, and yesterday Policeman Barrett, on duty in the Gardens, arrested Richard Baxter, aged 62, with flowers in his possession. In the police court the accused admitted the theft and was sentenced to two months' in the City Prison with hard labor.

A USELESS COMMISSION

D. R. JACK POINTS OUT THAT HE MADE A DEFINITE CHARGE BUT NO ACTION WAS TAKEN

In a letter to the Telegraph this morning on telephone rates and the Public Utilities Commission, D. R. Jack says:—To the statement that no complaints had been laid before the commission, the writer again reiterates that he appeared with counsel before the commission at its first session and made several specific charges against the New Brunswick Telephone Company, one of which was that the tax for the use of an eight party line to Duck Cove had been increased from $2.25 for the three summer months of 1909, to $16 for the corresponding period of the present year, and that such increase was an arbitrary, oppressive and out of proportion to the service rendered.

It is true that the direct and expensive results of following up the telephone company were so graphically pointed out to the writer by members of the commission that he considered to him that it was better to bear the evils of overcharge and extortion than fly to those of a protracted and expensive fight with a weak and carefully entrenched corporation. This counsel maintained, however, and still maintains that the commission was a body appointed for the relief of private individuals as against corporations, and that it was the duty of the Public Utilities Commission to hunt out and follow up cases of wrong doing without requiring private individuals to bear the cost of such enquiry.

What is the commission for? What have they accomplished and what do they expect to accomplish by following out their present policy of masterly inactivity?

Mr. Jack in the same letter very forcibly refers to some other matters the Commission should deal with instead of mere meetings, adjourning, and drawing its pay.

MRS. B. A. DENNISON DIES SUDDENLY

Stricken With Heart Failure This Morning and Lived Only a Few Minutes

Friends of Mrs. Dennison, wife of B. A. Dennison, painter, of Crown street, were shocked this morning at the news of her death, which occurred suddenly about 9:30 o'clock, caused by attack of heart failure. She had gone to the bathroom in her house and been there but a few minutes, when she was heard to fall against the bath-tub, by her daughter, Mrs. F. A. Job, who immediately rushed to the spot, calling for assistance, as soon as she saw her mother's condition.

With the aid of a neighbor Mrs. Job removed the body of her mother to her bed, and in a very few minutes she had breathed her last. Dr. S. H. McDonald was sent for, but medical aid was of little use as her life was already extinct. Mrs. Dennison had been in failing health for some time, and troubled with heart disease. She survived by her husband and one daughter, Mrs. Job.

SERIOUS CHARGES PREFERRED AGAINST REV. F. S. BAMFORD

Former St. John Preacher is Dismissed from Church on Charges of Immorality

On June 16, an ecclesiastical council convened at Bedeque, P. E. I., at the call of the Summerside and Bedeque churches, to investigate charges of immorality made against the pastor, Rev. F. S. Bamford. Witnesses were heard and after full consideration, the council decided that the charges were proven, and advised that the Summerside and Bedeque churches sever pastoral relations with Mr. Bamford, and that the Lewisville N. B. church, of which he is a member, withdraw church fellowship from him. Mr. Bamford is no longer a minister of the Baptist denomination.

This black sheep is an Englishman by birth, and has a wife and seven children. He has left Summerside for parts unknown.

MELBA HERE SEPT. 3

Supported by a Company of Five Great Artists—Their Names

Not only will St. John be privileged to hear the great Melba September 3rd, the day of the exhibition opening, but with her will be heard five great artists, whose reputation has earned them the right to associate with the wonderful prima donna. These are:

Mlle. Ada Sasson, harpist; Albert Quessel, tenor; John Lemmon, pianist, and Maurice La Farge, pianist.

Such an aggregation of celebrities, in conjunction with Melba, is quite sufficient to warrant the attention which is already felt concerning the great event in the entertainment history of eastern Canada.

BOAT IDENTIFIED

Captain O'Donnell of the Schooner Ruby Says Boat Stolen by Young Reid is His Property

Captain O'Donnell of the schooner Ruby, from which a boat was stolen while in the harbor last Wednesday, came to the city in a gasoline boat yesterday and inspected the boat which Rupert Giesey says he traded with Arnold Reid, for a watch. Patrolman J. H. Ross, who has the boat under lock and chain at Indian town, took O'Donnell there and the captain identified the boat as his. He says the boat was taken early in the morning, and the oats taken from the schooner's deck.

The advisability of holding a convention during exhibition week in this city is being considered by the Commercial Travellers' Association, and it is looked upon favorably by a great many of them, so that it is quite probable that one will take place. At any rate, if a convention is not held, the commercial men will probably have what will be known as a "Travellers' day" at the big fair, such as was held at the Toronto exhibition last year, and proved very successful.
