CRITICIZES GOVERNMENT

Leicestershire M. P. on British Trade Matters—The Ship-building Programme

LONDON, Mar. 9.—In the debate which followed a statement by Andrew Bonar Law, chancellor of the exchequer in the House of Commons, during which he outlined the military situation, Percy Alfred Harris, member from Leicestershire, accused the government of placing such hindrances and restrictions on trading as to threaten after the war to deprive England of her supremacy as the world's greatest exporter. He complained that Leicestershire's staple industries were being diverted to Japan. He suspected, he said, that Japan was using her tonnage to capture trade and attack British markets instead of helping the allies.

Thomas James McNamara, financial secretary of the admiralty replied to criticisms which were voiced during a discussion on shipbuilding. He admitted the urgency of the problem and the necessity for more men to construct ships. The more parliament ventilates this subject, he said, the better the Admiralty would be pleased.

He admitted that to realize forecasts "we must turn out double the tonnage in March that we produced in February." Asked if it could be done, he replied: "We must do our best."

ST. JOHN, N. B., MARCH 9, 1918.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The speech of Hon. James A. Murray in the legislature yesterday, read in the light of his own performance as premier, is not likely to convince anybody that a mistake was made when his government was defeated.

It was to be expected that Mr. Murray would find little to commend in the policy or acts of the government. It is now his business to criticize, and healthy criticism is a good thing; but all that members of the present opposition may say or profess will be read in connection with their own performances while in power; and the record of that is spread on the reports of royal commissions.

Hon. Mr. Foster in his reply to the opposition leader put his finger with unerring accuracy upon the weak spots in the Murray armor, and also held a mirror up to the Standard in such a way as to make the organ of the Valley Railway group squirm and protest. Premier Foster is quite able to lead a counter-attack as well as to defend, and there is ample war material ready to his hand in the record of the old government.

ON THE FREDERICTON FRONT. Any reader of the Standard can see at a glance that the seat of war has been transferred to Fredericton. The Teuton in France or Italy may strike or be struck, but the Hon. James A. Murray is out after the Foster government, horse, foot and artillery, and the Standard's war correspondent will see to it that no censorship deprives the people of the thrills incident to glorious deeds upon the sanguine field, where the Fosterites waver in the face of hopeless annihilation.

ON THE FREDERICTON FRONT. Any reader of the Standard can see at a glance that the seat of war has been transferred to Fredericton. The Teuton in France or Italy may strike or be struck, but the Hon. Murray is out after the Foster government, horse, foot and artillery, and the Standard's war correspondent will see to it that no censorship deprives the people of the thrills incident to glorious deeds upon the sanguine field, where the Fosterites waver in the face of hopeless annihilation.

THE QUESTION OF FOOD.

The local food control committee, which has never been fully organized because it never learned exactly what was expected of it or what it might have power to do, is about to become an active organization. At yesterday's meeting Dr. Frink and others reviewed the situation, and it was freely conceded that in this city and province we have not yet caught the spirit that is being manifested in Ontario and the west; although, as a matter of fact, no part of Canada has yet begun to approach the Mother Country and France in the matter of real service and service along the lines of food control and food production. Helping the farmer to secure labor and cultivating vacant lots at home are more necessary than a year ago; and at the same time there is greater need of economy in food and such substitution as will release larger quantities of food for export to Europe.

It is notorious that in some houses there is still the old lavish use of luxuries, and that while some sternly deny themselves others exercise no self-denial. Sooner or later there must come a greater measure of government control, which has already come in the United States and has been loyally accepted by the people. Meanwhile let everything be done to make farming and gardening a more general subject of attention. City men with money could join up in some way with country men who have land, and by this combination largely increase production. More men should get ready to spend a little time in the country helping the farmers in the busiest season. We must have greater production as a war measure of the first importance.

OUR VERY SAD STATE.

In order that the people may more fully grasp the enormity of their folly when they defeated the Murray government and gave the Royal Commissions a chance we quote the following from today's Standard:—In the light of today's proceedings unless there is a change in the administration of affairs in the province of New Brunswick, the welfare of the people is fraught with menace. This is the finding of an impartial and charitable mind after listening to the speeches delivered by Premier Foster and Hon. J. A. Murray, leader of the opposition, who addressed the assembly this afternoon. The present condition will inevitably destroy financial prestige, if it has not already done so, and will result in the imposition of direct taxation upon the people to satisfy the obligations brought on by an incompetent, reckless group of politicians. It is not perfectly clear that we must have a change? But what will the Sunshine Club say about "knockers"? What will the American Investors say when a member of the Sunshine Club approaches him and seeks to interest him in New Brunswick as a place for investment? Will he say "rotten," and turn a broad back to the interviewer? Of course if we had union government the Standard would cheer up right away.

THE HEALTH DEPARTMENT.

There should be no politics in a matter relating to the public health. If a department were organized under a high salaried special commissioner the expense would be far greater than under a minister of health, who only gets the salary of a cabinet minister. There is the added advantage that the health department must do a great deal of work in connection with the agricultural and other departments and it would be of great advantage to have the heads of departments meeting around the table in constant close touch with each other. It is a distinct advantage that the government has as one of its members a medical man to introduce and inaugurate the new department, which when properly organized could be conducted by a layman. The government bill should receive the hearty commendation of the reform. Public sentiment is ripe for the reform.

Last night's cables convey the impression that a momentous struggle on the western front is about to begin. There was heavy fighting yesterday on the Ypres-Dixmude sector of the British front. A combined drive on the western and Italian fronts is anticipated.

There is now a report of a new revolution in Russia, to overthrow the Bolshevik regime and form a republic which would not accept the German peace terms. Trotsky is said to have resigned as foreign minister. He has been the evil genius of Russia.

When Hon. Mr. Murray read the Standard this morning he must have felt like Napoleon at the Pyramids or Grant at Appomattox.

If Hon. Mr. Murray's foresight had been equal to his hindsight what a Paradise he would have made of New Brunswick when he was premier.

Germans in Trap Blow up Ship With Chinese in Stokeloid

Melbourne, Mar. 8.—According to Captain Pearce of the Red Cross, a British gunboat surprised a German prize crew aboard the British vessel Turritella, while they were laying mines off Berlin. The Germans took to the small boats and blew up the Turritella while Chinese were in the stokehold and engine-room. The gunboat captured the Germans who were recently tried at Bombay for murder. The Turritella had been captured by the raider Wolf, it was announced by Berlin on February 26. The British Admiralty later announced that she was an unarmed merchantman.

NOBLE STORIES OF THE BRITISH NAVY

Deeds That Measure up to The Best Traditions

Heroic Tale of How the Destroyer "Mary Rose" Fought Three German Cruisers and Then Went Down With Colors Flying

(Montreal Herald.) "Oh, England! While thy sailor host can live and die like thee, By thy broad lands or won or lost, 'Thou'rt Mistress of the Sea!"

British navy traditions, such as those of the Revenge and the Birkenhead, have been added to almost daily since the war began. Within a few weeks there have been noble stories of men who went singing to death in the "Birkenhead drill"—as, for instance, the story of the Aragon in the Mediterranean and of the Tuscania in the Atlantic. And now we have another epic of the sea—admirably told of heroic deeds surpassed by the episode of the Revenge in the spacious days of Great Elizabeth. Of the Revenge have the ballad-line in the words of her commander, Sir Richard Grenville:

"Sink me the ship, Master Gunner; sink her; spill her in twain!"

In the admiralty report of the end of the Mary Rose in mid-October last, we have the no less heroic, if less poetic, words: "The first lieutenant (Lieut. Bavin), seeing one of the German light cruisers returning towards them, called the gunner (Mr. Hancock), and bade him sink the ship."

"The Mary Rose" sank at 7.15 a.m. with colors flying! Captain's Daring. Lieut-Commander Charles Fox, the captain of the Mary Rose, has a con-templation in admiralty records second to none in the long roll of the great dead in British naval history. His daring was not less than that of Sir Richard Grenville, when, with his little Revenge, he went in to the light of the one and the fifty-three.

Why Lieut-Commander Fox, with his little destroyer the Mary Rose, faced such odds as three German cruisers will never be known. He took that secret down with him, but he left evidence in the main. As the admiralty report says: "Unhappily, there is no record of what was in the mind of the captain of the Mary Rose when he made that single-handed dash in the face of such preposterous odds. The convoy which was in his charge lay ahead of him, and, as he apparently supposed, was being attacked by the gunners of a hostile submarine."

"When on rushing to the rescue, he realized that it was to meet not a submarine, but three of Germany's newest and fastest light cruisers, it is conceivable that the original intention of rescue was not suppressed in his mind by considerations of higher strategy."

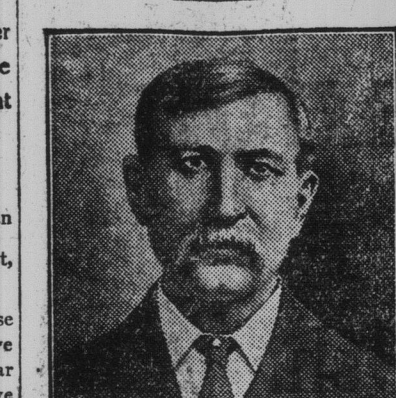

Convoy's Guardian. "He held on unflinchingly, and he died, leaving to the annals of his service legend not less glorious than that in which Sir Richard Grenville perished."

Following are the precise details of the great adventure: "H.M.S. Mary Rose left a Norwegian port in charge of a hostile submarine convoy of merchant ships in the afternoon of Oct. 16. At dawn next day, flashes of gunfire were sighted astern. "The captain of the Mary Rose, Lieut-Commander Charles Fox, who was on the bridge at the time, remarked that he supposed it was a submarine shelling the convoy and promptly turned his ship to investigate, his own men were called to action stations."

"Mary Rose had increased to full speed, and in a short time three light cruisers were sighted closing towards them at high speed out of the morning mist. Mary Rose, challenged, and, receiving no reply, opened fire with every gun that would bear, at a range of about four miles. "The German light cruisers appeared to have been non-plussed by this deter-

All Treatment Proved Useless Until He Tried "FRUIT-A-TIVES."

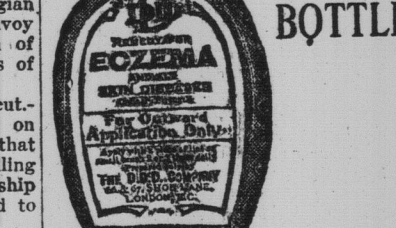

MR. JAS. S. DELGATY. R. R. No. 4, Gilbert Plains, Man. "In the year 1914, I had Nervous Prostration in its worst form; was reduced in weight from 170 pounds to 115 pounds. The doctors had no hope of my recovery, and every medicine I tried proved useless until a friend induced me to take "Fruit-a-tives." I began to mend almost at once; and after using this fruit medicine for 3 or 4 months, I was back to my normal state of health. I never had such good health for twenty years as I have enjoyed the past six years. We are never without a box of "Fruit-a-tives" in the house."

mined single-handed onslaught, as they did not return the fire until the range had closed to three miles. Then they opened fire, and the Mary Rose held gallantly on, through a barrage of bursting shells, until only a mile separated her from the enemy. "We're Not Done Yet." "Up to this point the German marksmanship was poor, but as the British destroyer turned to bring her torpedo-tubes to bear, a salvo struck her, bursting in the engine room and leaving her disabled, a log on the water. All guns, with the exception of the after one, were out of action, and her crew killed or wounded; but the after gun continued in action under the directions of Sub-Lieut. Marsh, R. N. V. B., as long as the gun would bear. "The captain came down from the wrecked bridge, and passed aft, encouraging and cheering his deadened men. He stopped beside the wrecked remains of the midget ship, and shouted to the survivors of its crew, 'God bless my heart, you're not done yet!'"

NEW GOOD BILL IS ON AT OPERA HOUSE

Programme Pleases Large Audiences — Bright and Attractive Acts and Picture Serial

The programme at the Opera House last evening pleased large audiences and drew a record for the theatre. The programme consisted of many numbers and the clever performers. Those who enjoy good dancing had an opportunity of seeing a clever novelty entitled Dance d'Art. In this several styles of dances are shown. One of the best was that entitled Dance d'Estates, in which the two members wore costumes of Great Britain, France, Russia and America.

Another comedy sketch by Ryno and Markee made quite a hit. One represented an American military officer and the other an Irishman. Some of their jokes and repartee were very funny and created hearty laughter. Their songs also made a hit, particularly one entitled "Let Us All Do Something for the A.I.E." Another comedy sketch which was presented by Glenflower and Marion was good and evoked hearty applause. The act was amusing and was cleverly handled.

Walter James has a good entertaining act called "The Billposter." He is a clever impersonator and some of his readings were greatly enjoyed. One of Robert Service's poems entitled "Blighly in the Morning" was heartily applauded. Bonner and Powers, who were here once before, sang songs which were well received. The male member sang a funny song about Christopher Columbus and received quite an ovation. His partner is a clever dancer and also a very good singer. "The Mystery Ship" contains many thrilling happenings this week and those who are following up the various episodes will enjoy it.

ton, the man in question being Charles Patrick Johnson of Dundas. According to the report received by the local headquarters Johnson was reported to them as a defaulter, with the result that a squad of military police was sent out for him. These men, joined by police officials from Dundas, went after Johnson, but it appears that Johnson learned of their arrival and made a break for freedom. The report adds that he got as far as the Dundas creek, with the police in pursuit, that he made an attempt to swim the swollen creek, in spite of the ice floes, and was half way across when the police arrived at the banks. They called to the man to return, but when he showed no disposition to do so, a few shots were fired in his direction, and the fugitive, realizing that he was under fire sooner than he expected, declared he would return. He did so, and now, according to Colonel Robertson's report, is safely in the ranks, as his subsequent medical examination placed him in Category "A."

DEFAULTER TRIED GOLD WATER SWIM

Toronto, Mar. 8.—The second week of the enforcement of the Military Service Act under the department of Capt. T. C. Flanagan saw very satisfactory results from the official standpoint, as the operations of the dominion police resulted in putting seventy men from the military district into the ranks. All the men were genuine defaulters and found themselves in khaki only after they were given every opportunity to prove they had complied with the military regulations. An interesting chase for a defaulter is reported by Colonel Robertson of Hamil-

STOLE GALLON OF RUM

Detectives Tell of Finding Liquor and of Prisoner's Confession—Got it While His Wife Was Out With Owner

William Garnett was before Magistrate Ritchie in the police court this morning on a charge of stealing a gallon of Demara rum from Mrs. M. E. Cathers of 297 Brussels street.

Mrs. Cathers gave testimony to the effect that she had ordered the liquor from Montreal a short time ago and that the defendant's wife had learned of it, knew where it was kept and knew where the key to the house was hung. On Thursday afternoon, between three and five o'clock, the liquor disappeared. In all that time, Mrs. Cathers swore, she was never once separated from Mrs. Garnett. As the husband was the only person likely to know how to get into the house, she had him arrested on suspicion.

Detectives then went on the stand and told of going to the prisoner's house in East St. John and asking him if he had stolen any liquor. "At first he said he had none," said the detective, "and said we could search the house. When we started to do this, however, he stopped us and said 'Yes, George, I did take it. It is in here in one of the rooms in bottles.' He then showed us six bottles and a half bottle in a closet."

Constable Hopkins gave corroborating testimony and the prisoner was remanded.

Mrs. W. P. Bonnell, president of the Germain street workers, was in charge of the Imperial sale and was assisted by the following convener, Mrs. Donaldson Hunt, Mrs. W. C. Cross and Mrs. A. B. Gilmore, and the following ladies:—Mrs. J. C. Earle, Mrs. Roy Fenwick, Mrs. H. P. Mott, Mrs. H. L. Rising and Mrs. A. B. Fowler.

GOVERNMENT MAKES GOOD ARRANGEMENT

Large Transaction in Rails Which Helps C. G. R. in War Work and Leaves Province Substantial Sum of Money

An arrangement which provides sufficient eighty-pound rails to complete the Valley Railway from Gagetown to Westfield, enables the province to aid the Canadian Government Railways in handling the war traffic of the country and incidentally leaves the province a very substantial sum of money as a result of the transaction has just been completed.

This is one of the chief results of a mission to Ottawa after which C. O. Foss and E. S. Carter, chief engineer and secretary-treasurer of the St. John & Quebec Railway Company, have returned. They reached Fredericton yesterday and Mr. Foss came to St. John on the night train.

At the last session of the legislature authority was given to permit the St. J. & Q. R. and the government of New Brunswick to lift the rails of the North-Cro. N. B. and Seaboard Railway. In January of this year Premier Foster and officials of the railway company had a conference with the directors of the Seaboard road with a view to arriving at a suitable arrangement for the use of the rails so taken.

Since then, the Canadian Government Railways, finding it impossible to secure sufficient heavy rails for relaying portions of their trunk road, which bears the heaviest traffic, asked that they be permitted to take over the Seaboard rails. Their great need, for the purposes of important transportation, led to the suggestion that the heavy eighty-pound rails on the Valley railway from Gagetown to Centreville might be exchanged for the eighty-pound relay rails which they would replace on the I. C. R. It was in connection with this exchange that Messrs. Carter and Foss have been in conference with officials of the department of railways at Ottawa.

As the C. G. R. is operating the Valley railway between Gagetown and Centreville and knows just what rails the province would require, the request made to the N. B. government and the St. J. & Q. R. will, no doubt, be readily accepted. This may be done the more readily because of the patriotic reasons advanced showing the great necessity for such rails in the government service.

The transaction will involve the exchange of about 15,000 tons of rails, sufficient for 150 miles of track and sidings.

AT THE VICTORIA ALLEYS

In a one-sided game on the Vic alleys on Friday afternoon, the C. P. R. Checkers again white-washed the office staff, defeating them by 181 pins. It was an interesting game, however, and many good plays were made. The results:

KULTUR-CURSED HUNS

"And German Sea Power Dares Assert Itself Only in Submarine Assassination"

"Real Democracy," But W. G. Smith Sounds Warning Note Against "Socialized Paternalistic System"

"The relations between Canadian and American lawyers have always been cordial," said Walter George Smith, of Philadelphia, president of the American Bar Association, to the Ontario Bar Association. His subject was "Democracy under constitutional limitations."

"But such relations have become inimic of recent years," he said. "Our traditions are much alike; we have inherited from our common mother, England, a venerable system of law, and we share the great responsibility unimpairing in any of its guarantees. While it is true that the American Republic is made up of many diverse elements, its language, its literature, the fundamental principles upon which its political and social systems are based, are the same as yours."

"The problems which are testing our statesmanship, while greater in degree, are not different in kind from those with which your young and vigorous nation grapples so bravely and so successfully. While we are a separate nationality, the logic of events has brought us into close and sympathetic relations with the British Empire. Our democracy is fighting a common battle with yours for the preservation of Christian civilization. Our political leaders are at one with yours

In the fine determination that this war shall be fought out until the whole world is purged of German treachery, and that outlaw among nations is made to pay the penalty for its crimes.

When Peace Comes. "When peace comes, we shall look out upon a changed world. Reverence for the past will have lost its force with the multitude; respect for authority has already been undermined by the continued appeals of half-educated demagogues. The danger most to be feared is that, in seeking reformation for acknowledged defects in democratic institutions, our English-speaking people may fall into the heresies which made the French revolution the preparation for despotism.

and in our day has brought the Russian people to the brink of anarchy. "Under the awful stress of this unprecedented war, the duty of the patriotic citizen is clear: With a full persuasion of the value of the checks and balances necessary for the preservation of free government, every effort must be directed toward winning the war. Failure to do so will leave us at the mercy of a ruthless power, which looks upon might as the only test of right—a power which invokes the Deity, not as incarnated in the crucified Saviour, but in the war gods of the Vikings. When the war is won, what are we to say to the vast mass of jealousy and discontent which has been bred in the very heart of our social system? We must recognize the fact that democcracy's direct foes are in her own household. We must educate the masses into an appreciation of the necessity of self-control and self-renunciation." Quotes Toronto Judge. Mr. Smith quoted Mr. Justice Ritchie's book on the Constitution of Canada, and added: "The result is that the people of the United States of America are governed in part, indeed, by the legislators elected by themselves, but in no small measure by the hand and the voice of the dead. After all, in the vexatious questions of political government, the tree must be judged by its fruit. "For more than a generation, the careless, wasteful administration in America has been contrasted with German efficiency, until the more our entire policy came Germanized, the nearer we should have come to the ideal of perfection. Since August, 1914, we have been undergoing a process of disillusionment. The German sea power dares to assert itself only in the submarine method of assassination. It needs but a little time to prove that, after all, the ideal of the German naval and military efficiency has feet of clay.

"While the emergency of a great war has made it necessary to put well-nigh dictatorial power in the hands of the executive branch of the government, it must be limited strictly to abnormal conditions, or we shall pass insensibly into a socialized paternalistic system, the very antithesis of real democracy."

MONTREAL'S POLICE PROBE

Montreal, Mar. 9.—Deputy Chief of Police Grandchamps was put in the position of being on the defensive by the counsel for Police Captain G. Savard yesterday afternoon at the board of control's investigation of charges that Captain Savard was frequently intoxicated while on duty and gave protection to houses of ill-fame. This was in connection with a luncheon at No. 4 police station on election day, Dec. 17, when liquors were served to himself, as well as to Police Chief Campeau and Controller Ross, contrary to the police regulations. The deputy chief said that he had gone to the luncheon to see what was going on, not because he wished to go.

VICE FLOURISHES IN MONTREAL

Scathing Report by Bureau of Research

BLAMES THE POLICE

Prostitution and Gambling Tolerated and System of Raids and Fines is Practically Form of Legalization

That commercialized prostitution and professional gambling are tolerated in Montreal by the police department, a report from the bureau of municipal research of New York to the Montreal city council alleges. The report announces that the system in force in Montreal of periodically raiding vicious establishments and fining people found in them really amounts to the collection of money for revenue purposes.

Efficiency Not Equal to Cost. The report states that though the force costs $1,200,000 a year, dictation of partisan political leaders and faulty organization prevent it from rendering protection to the public equal to its cost.

The department, as an agency for the prevention of crime, the apprehension of criminals and the conducting of social service work, is of no more efficiency today than many years ago, and in some respects it is less efficient, the bureau reports.

The findings of the bureau indicate that an investigation by an authority having criminal jurisdiction is desirable. Raids Severely Criticized.

On the subject of vice the report says: "The subject of vice who allows his premises to be used for vicious purposes, the bureau contends, the police department seems to have rested content with merely notifying the lessees of raided premises of the nature of the business carried on in them."

It is argued that as the premises are permitted to exist it is wholly unfair to arrest the men found in them.

The estimate as to the number of houses of commercialized prostitution given by the officers of the morality squad is that there are between 200 and 300, and they state that there are six or eight hotels operated almost exclusively as houses of assignation.

The estimate given by these officers is probably conservative, and probably does not include the very many places operated as disorderly flats, furnished rooms and call houses which are conducted throughout the city and not within the so-called "red-light district."

Dealing specifically with the existence of the gambling evil in Montreal the report says: "The attitude of the police department towards the prosecution of an alleged gambling syndicate which was said to be a well-organized institution in Montreal's best illustrated by the almost uninterrupted operation throughout the city of hundreds of gambling machines commonly termed 'slot machines.'"

The report shows that where police...

Children Had Whooping Cough

Whoooping cough, although specially a disease of childhood, is by no means confined to that period, but may occur at any time of life.

On the first sign of a "whoop" Dr. Wood's Norway Fine Syrup should be administered, as it helps to clear the bronchial tubes of the collected mucus and phlegm.

Mr. George Cooper, Bloomfield, Ont., writes: "It is with pleasure I can write and tell you that I have ever used a better cough medicine made than Dr. Wood's Norway Fine Syrup."

"Dr. Wood's" is 25c and 50c a bottle; put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; manufactured by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

men were dismissed for cause by their chief they were invariably reinstated five times and resigned twice. Further, policemen found guilty of serious misconduct have been given a definite term in which to resign and generally never left the force.

The vice conditions of the city of Montreal are such that the attention of military officials should be directed to them, says the report. If for no other reason than as a protection to the soldiers now in the city, vigorous campaign against vice should be commenced at once by the military authorities, should relief not be had through the civic authorities.

Among the suggestions made by the report is the initiation of an official Chaperon for dance halls.

Nothing Like Internal Bathing for Constipation

If people only knew what internal bathing is doing for thousands of others there would be fewer Pills and Laxatives swallowed and very much less suffering from Constipation and the accompanying Stomach and Nervous troubles resulting therefrom.

Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell of New York, a specialist in Internal Bathing, invented and perfected the "J. B. L. Cascade," which has done more during the past 20 years in restoring health and lessening disease than all other means combined.

By the proper application of nature's warm water, by means of the "J. B. L. Cascade" the lower intestines are kept free from all poisonous waste. Druggists force Nature. Internal Bathing. Write for leaflet.

Catarrh of Glands Never Quickly Cured By Swallowing Drugs

Cough Syrup, Tablets, etc., go to the Stomach, Perforce Sicken It, But Don't Kill the Germs of Catarrh.

The Direct Breathing Cure is Best. "No one ever contracted a more obstinate attack of nasal catarrh than I suffered a month ago," writes Mr. G. E. Root, a well-known resident of Bridgeport (W. L.).

"I had a cold which would not clear up. I inhaled Catarrh-cure every three minutes, but still my nostrils were entirely closed and I could breathe through them. Ten minutes inhaling Catarrh-cure gave me a little relief, so I continued to use Catarrh-cure every hour, and before the day was out I had improved. Catarrh-cure quickly cured me. I am well ever since."

There is no remedy so certain and safe as Catarrh-cure, but being a good remedy it is initiated. Beware of the substitutes. Large Catarrh-cure lasts two months, price $1.00; smaller sizes 25c and 50c. At all druggists and health stores, or The Catarrh-cure Co., Buffalo (N. Y.), and Kingston, Canada.

TOWN PLOT PRODUCTION

Hamilton Horticultural Society will not only attend to the growing of vegetables in the city, but will give premiums to its members of vegetable seeds and vegetable plants.

At the annual meeting in Toronto of the Rose Society of Ontario the president, Mrs. G. G. Adair, announced that though the Rose Society was established primarily for the culture of roses, its members would this year plant vegetable gardens on a greater scale even than last year, when so many of them took prizes at the various vegetable shows.

Barrie Horticultural Society had vacant lots gardens last year. This year it will add a branch for the boys and girls in vegetable growing. The society will be aided in this by the churches and Sunday schools. It will further help on the vegetable growing of the society will make some of its premium options seed potatoes and vegetable seeds.

It is expected that 85 acres of vegetable will be grown within the municipality of Weston this coming season by the members of the Weston Horticultural Society. Already applications are coming in from gardeners on the outskirts of Toronto for allotments under the Weston Vegetable Growing Scheme.

The fine vegetables grown by the boys and girls of the public and separate schools in Weston last year give them a horticultural society of 600 members by the end of the season.

The Real Efficient Lamp for Factories

WHEN England first made munitions in present-day quantities, holidays were forbidden—"to increase production." Presently holidays were enforced—for the same reason! Why the reversal? Because it was found that no man can work to utmost capacity under constant strain. If your factory is inefficiently lighted your workers are under a strain that lessens their productive power to a very appreciable extent—they are laboring under a handicap that in your own interest you should remove.

Twenty-four hours of sunlight—or its closest equivalent are possible to the manufacturer who equips his plant with Laco Nitro Lamps. They represent the latest development of the tungsten bulb—a tungsten filament burning in nitrogen gas. They consume less current—possess a longer utility—yet give a greater candle-power per watt than any other type of lamp. Decide to-day with your nearest dealer that Laco Nitro Lamps shall cut your cost and increase your plant's efficiency!

tion at a time when it was proper and right to have held it, viz., during the fall months. At that time the people's minds were filled with more weighty problems connected with the government of Canada as a whole. He had no apologies to make or excuses to offer, but would tell his friends opposite that the vacancies would be filled when, in the opinion of the government, the proper time had arrived.

The Provincial Accounts.

During the debate upon the address at the last session, he had informed the house that pursuant to promise made previous to the general election, a thorough audit of the accounts would be made, in order that it might be known if the statements as published were correct, and in order to know if the surplus shown from time to time on ordinary revenue and disbursements were actual or figures gotten up and trimmed up for the occasion. Charges had been made by himself and others that the true state of affairs was not disclosed and that a large amount of unpaid bills were carried over and unpaid at the end of the fiscal year. While that investigation was in actual progress during the session, the report was tabled, later printed and distributed to the members, and when after the conclusion of the session the members had an opportunity of looking over the figures as compiled by one of the largest and most reliable firms of chartered accountants in Canada, they indeed must have been surprised to learn that instead of there being a surplus as claimed by the government of some $12,000, there were outstanding bills of the previous year amounting to upwards of $200,000. This proved the contention that the accounts as presented were false. Who was an offender in this regard? He was none other than the chief law officer of the crown, his (Foster's) opponent in the last election.

Hon. Mr. Foster produced a pamphlet, prepared by the attorney-general of the late government, and proceeded to quote from it as follows: "Little evidence can be placed in his (Foster's) statement, when one is faced with the fact that the public statement for 1907 did not include sums amounting to over $400,000 for expenditures incurred prior to October 31, 1907, and not provided for by appropriation. The particulars of this miserable condition are given on page 66 of the legislative debate of 1908."

"A Modest Bill"

Hon. Mr. Foster said surely if it was a miserable piece of business in 1907, he says, was it not miserable in 1910? He would give the late attorney-general the credit of believing that he did not know of all these bills outstanding, but he did know, notwithstanding his public statement, of some of them, for in the list of bills outstanding and unpaid was none other than one of his own amounting to the modest sum of $3,200 for the settlement of succession duties. That had been paid during the current year and yet his honorable friend in his choice words in the pamphlet said "the old gag suppressed the fact."

Complaints had been made that the report was complicated and hard to understand. The changes recommended in the report were simply that the system of bookkeeping should be changed from a single entry system to that of a double entry system. What man would be satisfied to conduct his own business upon the basis of revenue and expenditures, simply taking into account at the end of the year his cash book entries, without regard to what he might owe and what remained in the nature of liabilities unpaid. Heretofore the revenue of the province had consisted of monies actually paid during the current year without regard to the revenue accrued and unpaid, or which might possibly be paid in advance, and on the other side the expenditure consisted of the accounts

Lemons Whiten the Skin Beautifully! Make Cheap Lotion

The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quart of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold cream. Care should be taken to strain the lemon juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smoother and beautifier.

Just try it! Make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It should naturally help to whiten, soften, freshen, and bring out the hidden roses and beauty of any skin. It is wonderful for rough, red hands.

Your druggist will sell three ounces of orchard white at little cost, and any grocer will supply the lemons.

which had been paid during the fiscal year, without any reference to the accounts outstanding and unpaid at that time.

In the statement it was found that the assets were divided into two classes: first, capital assets, which are fixed in their characters and do not change very much from year to year; second, current assets, such as bills receivable, accounts due from the province, cash on hand, and upon summing these assets and liabilities and assembling them in a proper place such an accurate, concise and complete statement of the assets of the province had never before been presented. Turning to liabilities would be found: first, capital liabilities, which consist of bonds outstanding; second, current liabilities, such as accounts payable, trust funds, interest accrued on securities, and such other items for which the province is liable.

Legislative authority, authorizing the change of system from that prevailing in the accounting offices of the province would be brought down and would bring into effect a system which would present a statement of simple, frank, and straightforward character. This should eliminate much of the discussion which in past years had surrounded the presentation of the budget.

Valley Railway Expenditure.

Hon. Mr. Foster drew attention to the fact that there would be laid on the table a file house a complete statement

DRINK HOT WATER BEFORE BREAKFAST

Says you really feel clean, sweet and fresh inside, and are seldom ill.

If you are accustomed to wake up with a coated tongue, foul breath or a dull, dizzy headache; or if your meals sour and turn into gas and acids, you have a real surprise awaiting you. Tomorrow morning, immediately upon arising, drink a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This is intended to first neutralize and then wash out of your stomach, liver, kidneys and thirty feet of intestines all the indigestible waste, poisons, sour bile and toxins, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal.

Those subject to sick headaches, backache, bilious attacks, constipation or any form of stomach trouble, are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store and begin enjoying this morning inside-bath. It is said that men and women who try it become enthusiastic and keep it up daily. It is a splendid health measure for it is more important to keep clean and pure on the inside than on the outside, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing disease, while the bowel pores do.

The principle of bathing inside is not new, as hot water and soap cleanse, purify and freshen the skin, so hot water and a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Limestone phosphate is an inexpensive white powder and almost tasteless.

TO RELIEVE CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES.

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or head noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmitin (double strength), and add to it hot water and just a little sugar as directed on each package. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathe and sniff in and out of the nose. Do not inhale into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Any one who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.

of the expenditure upon the St. John and Quebec railway from its commencement to the present time. In his mind, it was a remarkable fact that such a statement had not been presented before when it was considered that the work was the most gigantic ever undertaken by the province. He also would inform the members that, at the first opportunity, a statement with reference to the progress of construction work would be placed before the house.

Hon. Mr. Foster while on the discussion of this subject, stated also that a committee of the government recently was afforded an opportunity of placing the whole railway situation, as it unfortunately exists in New Brunswick, before the prime minister of Canada. The matter of branch railways in this province, together with the situation with respect to the St. John and Quebec railway, had been placed before the prime minister. All were aware of the financial burden involved in the Canadian Northern railway. New Brunswick would bear her share of the burden involved in the relief of other provinces. It therefore would seem that it was necessary for everyone to use his influence to pay only her just proportion in whatever general railway policy may be evolved. There is satisfaction in the fact that the province was laboring under a tremendous financial strain, caused partially by the construction of the St. John and Quebec railway. The people could struggle under it, but it would necessitate the levying of a national tax to pay the interest on the bonds, and unless relieved would retard development in other sections. Consideration should be given to the development of water powers and other national resources, but while the railway matter was in this condition, the other matters must remain in abeyance. He was the last one who desired relief on the government of Canada an unjust burden, but New Brunswick could be expected to pay only her just proportion. Relieved of a large interest burden, the province could advance along the lines of other directions.

The Prohibition Act.

The speech from the throne had referred to the beneficial results of the prohibition act. That act itself had been referred to the late government by the Dominion Alliance, but its success lay in its enforcement. Everyone would remember the predictions of the opposition, more especially those made by the present leader, who on nomination day at St. John had said that the prohibition act would be a failure. He had said that if the prohibition act was enforced, the province would be a better place. He had said that if the prohibition act was enforced, the province would be a better place. He had said that if the prohibition act was enforced, the province would be a better place.

The Forest Lands.

One of the most important matters mentioned in the speech from the throne was in relation to the forest lands, which every day were being bought and sold. It had become necessary to bring forward legislation under which the crown lands would be administered. It could not be said that part New Brunswick would play in the British lumber trade, but it was not many years ago that every square mile of growing timber would be in value. It could be said that the best methods for conservation and administration should be adopted. When the extent of the forest lands was realized, comprising 10,000 square miles, more than double the area of Alsace-Lorraine, the pivot point of the war, it could be seen that the house could well spend time on discussion of such a bill. His friends would be glad to see the province of all their experience and they had had some experience in connection with forest lands.

The value of timber products was daily growing and basing his policy upon the fact that the government during the past year had asked the lumbermen or distillers of stamps to pay an additional amount of $1.00 per 1,000 into the exchequer of the province. His honorable friend who was referring to the matter had wandered far afield for something to criticize, apparently being driven to do so. The cabinet, and all things were one he should have left alone, so long had he been associated with the lumbermen and distillers for political purposes—one might almost say personal purposes.

Hon. Mr. Foster said he had read the manifesto issued by the leader of the opposition, prior to the last election, and would challenge him to say if he had had any definite policy in respect to the matter. If he had succeeded in convincing the members of the issue, he would order that he might not find disfavor in certain sections of the province, at the same time saying it would not be an issue in other sections. However, when he had come to the House and found himself in the midst of his little band of followers, he found them out of tune with his instrument, for when the question of stamps had arisen last session one honorable member of the opposition rose in his place and stated that the members should make up the whole deficit. The member for St. John led the House in a short time announced the statement that he was making. The junior member from Albert made the statement that he was making. The senior member from Albert had had little to say, as may be expected. (Laughter.)

Hon. Mr. Foster said he believed the increase as put into effect was in line with the advanced price of the product. The burden could be borne by all classes. At the same time it must be remembered that the lumbermen of New Brunswick were laboring under difficulties in regard to the high price of material, increases in wages, and difficulties in transportation due to war conditions.

The Ottawa Conference.

Hon. Mr. Foster then came to the duty of the hour—increased production. He had attended the conference of provincial premiers at Ottawa, where he had been asked that the whole situation in regard to food production be laid before the legislature and the people of the province. Broadly speaking, production had been curtailed in all the countries of the Allies. Great Britain was a possible exception, on account of increased acreage. The scarcity of agricultural labor and of fertilizers was most serious. In France they had resulted in a serious

WHEN THE STOMACH IS WRONG LIFE SEEMS TO BE A BURDEN

Indigestion Comes With a Debilitated and Run-down Condition of the System and Can Be Cured Through Enriching the Blood.

There are many symptoms of indigestion, such as acute pain after eating, belching of wind, nausea and vomiting, bloating and pains in the region of the heart, a dread of food for the misery it causes. Dieting and the use of pre-digested foods may give ease, but can't cure—they only further weaken the stomach. The work of digestion depends upon the blood and the nerves, and the only way to cure indigestion is to tone up the stomach through the blood to do the work nature intended it should do. The very best way to cure indigestion is through a course of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which renew the blood, strengthen the nerves and enable the stomach to do its work with ease and comfort. Neglected indigestion means prolonged misery, and a more difficult cure. If you have any of the symptoms of this trouble try the tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at once, and you will be gratified with the results.

APPETITE FAILED.

Mr. Daniel Dexter, Liverpool, N. S., says: "For years I was a great sufferer from indigestion. I was troubled with gas on the stomach which caused disagreeable sensations. I was also frequently troubled with nausea and vomiting, which were very distressing. As a result of my trouble my appetite almost completely failed, and what I did eat caused me constant pain. I was continually doctoring, but did not get any benefit, and had about made up my mind that I would suffer for life. One day a friend asked me why I did not try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and while I had not much hope of a cure I decided to do so. I had only taken a few boxes, however, when I found they were helping me. Very gladly then I continued the use of the pills, and in less than three months I was as well as ever. I had been able to eat a hearty meal, and to feel that life was again worth living. I had also been troubled from time to time with attacks of rheumatism, and the use of the pills cured this as well as the indigestion. It is now over a year since I took the pills, and in that time I have had no return of the trouble."

FOOD TURNED SOUR.

Mrs. J. Harris, Gerrard street, Toronto, says: "About three years ago I was seized with a severe attack of indigestion and vomiting. My food seemed to turn sour as soon as I ate it, and I would turn so deathly sick that sometimes I would fall on the floor after vomiting. I tried home remedies, but they did not help me. Then I went to a doctor who gave me some powders, but they seemed to make me worse. This went on for nearly two months and by that time my stomach was in such a state that I could not keep down a drink of water and I was wasted to a skeleton and felt that life was not worth living. I was not married at this time and one Sunday evening on the way to church with my intended husband I was taken with a bad spell on the street. He took me to a drug store where the clerk fixed up something to take, and my intended got me a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. By the end of the first week I could feel some improvement from the use of the pills, and I gladly continued taking them until every symptom of the trouble was gone, and I was again enjoying the best of health. These pills are now my standby and I tell all my friends what they did for me."

SUFFERED GREAT DISTRESS.

Mrs. Albert Hall, Sonya, Ont., says: "I have used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills with wonderful results. For two years I was a great sufferer from indigestion, which almost made me a physical wreck. At times my sufferings were so great that I was unable to attend to my household duties. I had smothering spells at times and was afraid to lie down to rest. After every meal, no matter how sparingly I ate, I suffered great distress. I tried several doctors but their medicines did not seem to help me in the least. I saw Dr. Williams' Pink Pills advertised to cure this trouble and decided to try them. I had not been taking them long when I felt some improvement. This improvement continued and after taking ten boxes I could eat and digest all kinds of food and felt better than I had done for years. You may be sure I am very grateful for the wonderful relief these pills have given me. I know they are also a cure for all those who suffer from indigestion, as my case was badly affected with this trouble and after taking several boxes she was entirely cured."

If you are suffering from any form of stomach trouble, or any of the many ailments due to weak, watery blood, do not waste time and money experimenting with other remedies, but begin Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at once. These Pills have proved a cure in thousands of cases, and should do so in yours. reduction in wheat production. In stock-raising the situation was similar. It was estimated that since the beginning of the war there had been a diminution of 11,000,000 head of cattle in 1918. Great Britain and France and Italy must have 250,000,000 bushels more of wheat than they had in 1917. The only possible sources of supply are North America, the Argentine Republic and Australia. North America will be called upon to furnish the bulk of this, on account of shipping conditions. The United States and Canada must give the rest.

To do this ten acres must be cultivated which seven were before. Some consider this impossible. But he believed the people would rise to the situation as they did in the Victory Loan campaign.

The methods to be adopted by the provincial governments to bring about increased production were: Seed distribution, increased acreage, the provision of farm tractors, the employment of boys on farms through the education department, the education of the boys of farm tractors, and the provision of labor by voluntary enlistment.

Hon. Mr. Foster said he could not let the occasion pass without referring to one of New Brunswick's honored sons, the late Hon. H. C. Brewster, premier of British Columbia. He had been one of the outstanding figures at the conference of provincial premiers. As Hon. Mr. Brewster had said in his speech: "Take care of good old New Brunswick." Great had been his sorrow upon reading the news soon afterwards that this distinguished son of this province had passed away.

Mr. Murray (Kings) said he would offer no objection, but explained that he possibly would not be present. The house adjourned at 8:30 p. m. on Monday at 8:30.

Thunder Eagle Seen By Indians

Fort William, Ont., March 8.—The "Thunder Eagle" sacred among the Ojibway Indians as personifying the spirit of the wind, supposed to have its nest on the Sleeping Giant, 1,400 feet above Thunder Bay, was seen depicted in fire in the brilliant display of aurora borealis last night. The Ojibways say the Thunder Eagle has not been seen for many years and that its appearance portends wonderful happenings in the world. The figure of the eagle traveled swiftly southward over the bay, accompanied by huge splashing of red and green fire, which shot about it like meteors. A Duluth dispatch told of the appearance of an eagle in the aurora borealis there last night.

WASHINGTON CONFERENCE BRINGS IMPORTANT FISHING AGREEMENT

Ottawa, March 8.—The new international fisheries regulations affecting a practical war-time reciprocity and pooling interests in fish catching and marketing on the Atlantic coast deep into the three-mile limit have been agreed to by Canada and the United States and will be promulgated forthwith. The new regulations are made as a war measure and will continue in effect until normal conditions are restored after peace is declared. They are the outcome of the international commission which met recently in Boston and on which Canada was represented by Hon. J. D. Hagen, Deputy Minister Fisheries and Superintendent of the Dominion fisheries department. Under the new modus vivendi maritime province fishermen gain the right to land their catch in American ports and clear from there directly for the fishing grounds. United States fishing vessels, whether sailing, steam or gasoline, are to be allowed to enter Canadian ports with out extra tonnage tax and ship their catch in bond to American ports. They may also take on crews and supplies in Canadian ports and clear direct for the fishing grounds.

After the publication of his Receipt Book Dr. Chase found himself overwhelmed by the demand for his services and his medicines. Not only did patients come from many miles to throng his office, but the mails were filled with letters ordering medicines. Rather than disappoint his patients and admirers, and always anxious to relieve suffering, the doctor decided to give to the people the great prescriptions which had been so thoroughly tested and so remarkably successful in his private practice. And so it came that Dr. Chase's Medicines were placed on public sale at nominal prices. To-day you can scarcely find a drug store that is not stocked with a full line of these medicines, and that home is the exception where there is not one or more of them in use. Like most articles of exceptional merit and large sales Dr. Chase's Medicines are frequently offered in their place. On this account it is very important that you should see the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., the famous Receipt Book author, on the box you buy. BASEBALL STORIES OF THIRTY YEARS AGO

BY JOE PAGE

E. J. Lanigan, baseball dopest and general all round sport writer and good fellow, in an article on old time sport writers, comes out and says that so far as he is aware, there is possibly one today in harness that was on the firing line when Lanigan started in 1889 and that is Sam Carrick. Hugh Fullerton, who is still in the game, Lanigan goes on to say, started a year later.

JOE PAGE

While not in the regular newspaper game, I have been connected with one or more baseball and sporting sheets for a number of years. In delving back among old time credentials, I ran across several issued by the New York Sporting Times and signed by DeWitt Ray and O. P. Caylor. This was for the years 1889 and 90. Consequently, if Lanigan has a year the best of me, one can still cry fifty-fifty at least with Hugh Fullerton. This set me thinking of some of the real old time writers who have gone over to the silent majority. What they didn't know about the game, you can gamble the brightest of the brilliant baseball writers of today could not tell them.

In Boston, among the best were Foley Beal and Miramne, the latter being well known to the present followers of the game, having died only this last year. In New York there was Harris; Brooklyn had Chadwick, known to the world over as the father of the base ball game, and a monument erected by the National League with that inscription stands above his last resting place in Brooklyn. Henry Chadwick was for years, until death claimed him, the editor of Spalding's Baseball Guide. McDougall was another bright, clear, merry Brooklyn

This puts me in mind of a story, which, while it is not on baseball, had to do with two writers, the late O.P. Caylor and James E. Sullivan, editor and business manager of the New York Sporting Times, two men who spent their lives in writing and uplifting base ball and athletic sports in general. "No fiction about this story?"

One day a gentleman wearing a seal-skin McIntosh, a diamond stud, a faded look and several other attic articles of apparel, came into the office with a sort of cautious and guarded step, just as though he expected the dog to jump out and flush him at any moment.

He wanted to see the business manager. As soon as he stood in the presence of Sullivan II, his agitation seemed to increase, until one could plainly see the fur stand straight up on his overcoat collar. His voice was shaky when he began to unfold his mission. Said he, in a semi-quavering tone—

"I have heard, Sir, that it is a rule of your paper never to publish an advertisement when accompanied by a cut (not for any price)." While he hesitated to note the effect this skittish expression might have upon his auditor, I could plainly see the business manager think. But when Mr. Sullivan thinks he never speaks, Jim has never been able to do both at one time, a characteristic trait you will find with all men who live in New Jersey and cross the North River on the ferries twice a day.

"But I have come prepared to win you over," said the unfamiliar stranger, as he pulled a hand out of the starboard pocket of the Sir John Franklin coat. In the hand was a roll of bank bills about the circumference of Dave Fout's leg. The outside wrapper had a figure one and triplet noughts on it. There must have been three more like it on the inside as billings.

TROUBLED WITH CONSTIPATION From 16 to 20

Constipation is one of the commonest ills of mankind, and one too often allowed to go unlooked after until some serious complication sets in.

If the bowels are properly looked after there will be no constipation, jaundice, sick or bilious headaches, heartburn, coated tongue, sour stomach, floating specks before the eyes, etc.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills will keep your bowels so regulated that in no time the constipation will disappear entirely. Miss Emma E. Melanson, Halifax, N. S., writes: "I am now 20 years of age, and since I was 16 I have been troubled with constipation, so much so that at times I would be in bed 3 or 4 days a month. I tried all the old-fashioned remedies, castor oil, cascara, etc., with only temporary relief until my sister-in-law gave me some of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. From the first they seemed beneficial and I gave them a fair trial. This was two years ago, and with an occasional dose I have kept entirely free from constipation for the period mentioned."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c. a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

the provincial lawmakers for consideration. In all probability, when the proposed act does finally reach the bar of the house, it will contain provisions providing that all business men, heads of large spheres of activity, will be required to declare their net incomes. It is not likely that the machinery of the act will be added to, so as to make it necessary for any business man to recite by what activity or set of activities he realized the net income which he declares, all required is that he state his net income and from that fact the assessor may carry on his work.

AUSTRALIA WANTS TO SEND WHEAT HERE

Ottawa, Mar. 9.—According to advices received here from Australia there are immense accumulations of wheat in that country awaiting shipment. A committee appointed to advise the New South Wales government with reference to these accumulations has decided to ask the Commonwealth government to make representations to the imperial authorities to approach the United States for all available shipping space for the despatch of Australian wheat to the United States and Canada.

The idea is to send 150,000,000 bushels of Australian wheat to this continent, thereby releasing an equal quantity of Canadian and United States wheat for Great Britain and the allies. It is said that, owing to the wheat glut, millions of acres in Australia, more particularly in New South Wales, are going out of cultivation, and a vast quantity of valuable machinery is lying idle.

Noting the strange look on the face of the Sullivan—a look he had never seen before in a long life of adventurous travel the visitor became anxious and asked in a rather helpless tone:

"Is it a go?"

"No, my mighty effort Sullivan swallowed his big Irish heart, sopped the perspiring pools from his forehead with the blotter and thus he spoke:

"It is a go, I might say it is a go-go. Where did you get in? We've been looking for you."

A proud light, of the arc variety, shone from the stranger's eyes as he began to unroll his wad.

"And you'll put in the cut, too?" asked he, with just the least shake of doubt in his question.

"Well put in the cut, depend upon it," said Sullivan in a slobbering sort of way, for his mouth was watering by this time like that of a horse eating sour apples.

"No matter what it is," asked the stranger.

"No matter what it is," asserted Jim. "Don't care if it is a fine one, an upper cut, a cross cut, a deep cut, or 12 per cent cut. That cut goes in if everything else goes out."

"And you'll not even consult with Mr. Howland?"

The shadow of an awful disappointment began to settle slowly upon the No. 8 head of our business manager until it looked like the East River fog. Once more moisture began to soften the hard surface of his cheeks and brow. A suspicious glint of his avaricious soul as a devil fish would embrace its victim. "Where do you think you are?" he managed to gasp. They always gasp on occasions of the kind.

"Isn't this the Herald office?" inquired the strange stranger, as he in turn began to sweat pearl beads.

Then the great Farnell heart of the business manager broke with a crack that was heard at High Bridge. The man with a cut went downstairs reading this paragraph, which was pasted in, his hat:

"A story is told of an advertiser who presented himself at the New York Herald counter with a $3,000 roll as an offer for a half column advertisement with a good sized cut accompanying it. The 'ad.' was refused without even consulting Mr. Howland. There is a standing rule in the Herald office never to insert advertising cuts.—Exchange."

As at that time no advertising cut had appeared in the Herald, the man's visit to the building at Broadway and Ann street must have been as disappointing to him as his visit to Caylor and Sullivan was irritating. Should he have come back O. P. and Jim said they would have inserted the advertisement with a cut clean into the marrow for the outside wrapper of the roll.

And I believe them.

SCOTTISH FIRM READY TO ESTABLISH SHIPBUILDING YARD AT HALIFAX

Shipbuilding Commission Report Discloses Negotiations With Wm. Beardmore Co.

FOUR MILLION PLANT PROPOSED

But War Exigencies and Demands of Builders at Home Prevented Consumption of Plan—Vital Importance of Plant for Ship Plates—30,000 Tons Building in Nova Scotia

In the House of Assembly, Halifax, a few days ago, as already reported, Hon. G. H. Murray tabled a report of a shipbuilding commission which showed that shipbuilding in Nova Scotia was progressing and nearly 30,000 tons of ships were now under construction, exclusive of fishing schooners.

The Ship Commission's Report.

The report of the commission states that the commission met for organization on May 30. From information then in possession of the members, it was seen that the wood shipbuilding industry in the province of Nova Scotia had developed during the preceding two or three years from a condition of general dullness and neglect to one of much activity and gratifying prosperity. This revival was, of course, stimulated by war conditions and the abnormal demand for every class of ocean tonnage, and, with true maritime instinct, the Nova Scotia builders were quick to see and seize the opportunity to restore the industry, and at the same time make well earned profits from their enterprise. Accurate statistics were not available, but a careful estimate of the completed vessels throughout the province in 1916 would bring the number to about sixty, aggregating 12,000 registered tons, and a total cost of $1,200,000.

Skill of Our Workmen.

"At the time of the formation of the commission, reports received from the different shipbuilding districts indicated that the resources of the province, in suitable yards and labor, were pretty fully employed. Subsequent visits by the commission to several districts in various parts of Nova Scotia confirmed this information, and also afforded a first hand opportunity for observing the superior skill of the workmen, and for inspecting well designed vessels in different stages of completion. These tours afforded the commission a very great pleasure indeed, and it would here desire to record its appreciation of the high value, both in an industrial and patriotic sense, which it attaches to the services of all those who are engaged in building ships. It is estimated that the vessels completed in Nova Scotia in 1917 reached 20,000 registered tons, at a cost of $2,000,000. This quite considerable production was carried out on the resources of the builders themselves, save where, in rare cases, banking accommodation was temporarily required, but in no instance was it represented to the commission that any financial assistance was either desired or required from the province. On the date of this report, according to our best information, the complete shipbuilding programme, exclusive of fishing schooners, now being carried out in the province of Nova Scotia reaches nearly 30,000 tons and is a very creditable showing. It is an honor roll worthy of a high place among the records of Canadian industry and patriotism.

Steel Shipbuilding.

The inquiries and efforts of the commission have, therefore, been chiefly taken up with steel shipbuilding, and at the outset its members were in general agreement that the policy it should recommend was the establishment of one large, well-equipped yard in preference to several small ones. The best advice obtainable was also in the same direction and was, moreover, in full agreement with the commission's own views that every effort should be made to encourage the participation of established shipbuilding firms of undoubted standing in any project which might be started in the province. This, in due time, led to negotiations with Wm. Beardmore & Co. Ltd., of Dalnair, Scotland, which is one of the largest and most reputable firms on the Clyde. That company contemplated associating with it in the Nova Scotia enterprise two other British shipbuilding firms, and one of the largest Canadian corporations. These negotiations were carried out until the end of August, when, on behalf of the syndicate, T. S. N. Dickson, representing Wm. Beardmore & Co. Ltd., stated to the commission that the associated companies had arrived at an agreement, if the subsidies to be offered by the province and municipalities were satisfactory, to establish a steel shipbuilding plant in Halifax harbor at an initial cost of $4,000,000.

Offered a Subsidy.

"The time had thus arrived for the commission to decide on its financial policy, and, after full consideration of the measure of assistance which it could recommend for this proposal, or for any other bona fide proposition which might thereafter be made to it for building steel ships in any part of Nova Scotia, the commission, after consultation with the government, finally embodied its policy in the following telegram which was dispatched to Mr. Dickson on Aug. 3, 1917:

"On the understanding that the principals you represent will make an initial investment of $4,000,000 in a steel shipbuilding plant in this province, the Nova Scotia Shipbuilding Commission will recommend to the provincial government that a subsidy at the rate of 10 per cent of that investment, or $400,000, shall be offered to the Steel Shipbuilding Company which will be organized by your principals, the said subsidy to be paid to the company on completion of each vessel, at the rate of $4 per ton gross register until the total subsidy shall have been exhausted. It will therefore follow that if the initial investment falls short of $4,000,000, the subsidy which this commission will recommend that the provincial government shall then offer will continue to be at the rate of 10 per cent of that actual investment. The object of this offer on the part of the commission is to promptly assist the prevailing acute situation in shipping, and it is understood that we will receive a reply from your principals within thirty days and that bona fide operations in the construction of the shipbuilding plant will commence promptly, with a view of producing tonnage within twelve months from this date.

Couldn't Complete Agreement.

"The chairman of the commission, who was in England on private business, visited the works of Wm. Beardmore & Co., Limited, in the end of August when he learned that circumstances of pressing importance, then arising from war exigencies, rendered it impossible for the time being at least, for that firm's British associates to complete the agreement to establish in Nova Scotia. This failure at the last moment was a great disappointment to the commission, as it was also to Sir William Beardmore who throughout enjoyed a deep personal interest in the project. His company, however, stands ready to consider any fresh proposals which may hereafter be made to it, provided the restrictions imposed by the British government on operations or investments outside of the United Kingdom, on the part of British subjects, will not render this impossible.

"During all this time numerous inquiries came to the commission from parties in Canada and the United States, but, as a general thing when traced back, these inquiries were not of a character of which the commission could approve. Even in Nova Scotia itself we did not discover that there was any capital awaiting investment in this industry, and the outsiders who came with us, or who visited Nova Scotia, with but only a few exceptions, were apparently only willing to embark on the enterprise if the province and municipalities furnished the capital."

"The fact of the matter was, that although Premier Lloyd George declared that, 'in shipping lies victory for the Allies,' all the conditions were against laying down a new steel shipyard in Nova Scotia. The Old Country yards were constantly employed with force contracts, and were therefore large importers of plates. The entrance of the United States into the war launched a stupendous shipbuilding programme in that country, and only with great difficulty was the Imperial Munitions Board able to arrange for a limited supply of American plates for the existing Canadian shipyards.

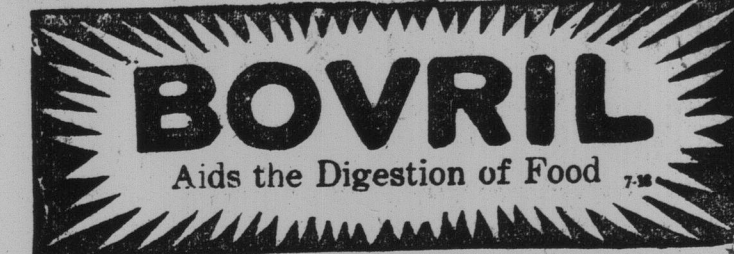

"The key to the Canadian situation recommended for this proposal, or for any other bona fide proposition which might thereafter be made to it for building steel ships in any part of Nova Scotia, the commission, after consultation with the government, finally embodied its policy in the following telegram which was dispatched to Mr. Dickson on Aug. 3, 1917:

"On the understanding that the principals you represent will make an initial investment of $4,000,000 in a steel shipbuilding plant in this province, the Nova Scotia Shipbuilding Commission will recommend to the provincial government that a subsidy at the rate of 10 per cent of that investment, or $400,000, shall be offered to the Steel Shipbuilding Company which will be organized by your principals, the said subsidy to be paid to the company on completion of each vessel, at the rate of $4 per ton gross register until the total subsidy shall have been exhausted. It will therefore follow that if the initial investment falls short of $4,000,000, the subsidy which this commission will recommend that the provincial government shall then offer will continue to be at the rate of 10 per cent of that actual investment. The object of this offer on the part of the commission is to promptly assist the prevailing acute situation in shipping, and it is understood that we will receive a reply from undertaken a fresh programme of building steel ships in the various existing yards. This, it is reported, will involve an expenditure of $4,000,000, but we are of opinion that this programme is inadequate, in as much as no provision is made for starting the industry on the Atlantic coast. It is there we submit that at all times, particularly while the war lasts, and during the period of demobilization, that the maritime interests of Canada will mainly centre, and we would therefore respectfully urge the claims of Nova Scotia in this regard upon the attention of the government at Ottawa.

Nova Scotia Resources.

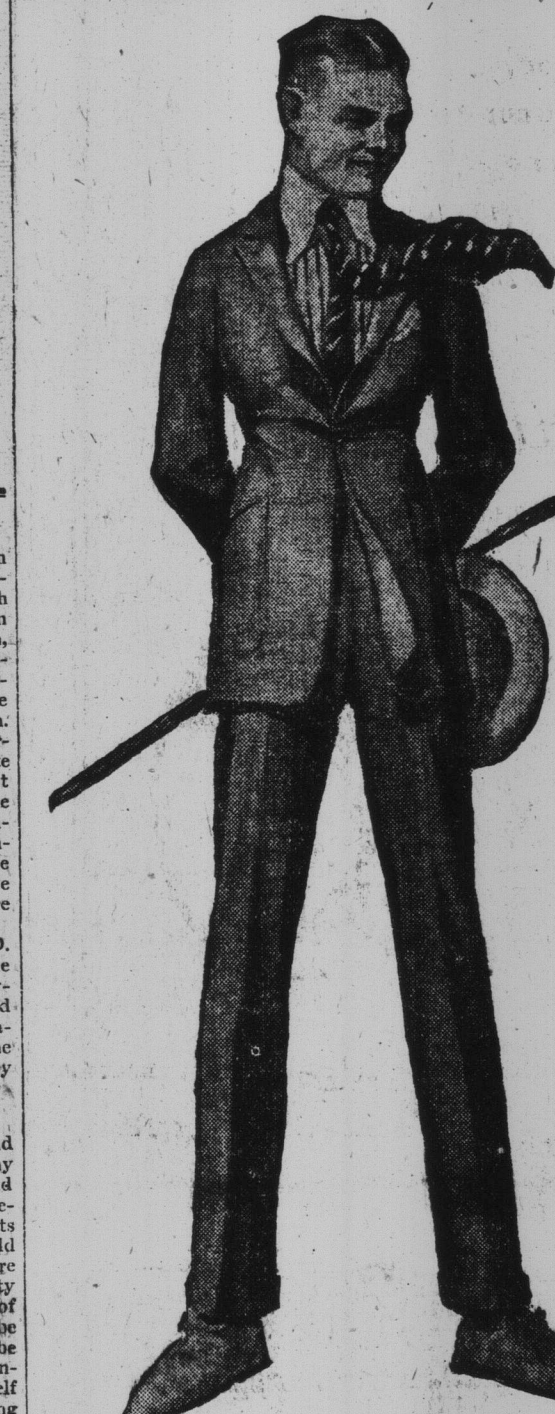

"Many obvious difficulties will surround a permanent steel shipbuilding industry, but these will be less on the Atlantic than in any other part of Canada. Nova Scotia is rich in raw materials, can easily be equipped to furnish fabricated parts and offers a choice of more than one excellent location for a shipyard. The workmen of the province who have shown such well tested skill in building wooden ships, can, we are confident, also build ships of steel. This, if proof were needed, has been demonstrated at New Glasgow, where, under the enthusiastic direction of Colonel Thomas Cantley, the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Company, Limited, has completed and placed in commission one fine vessel, will soon be ready to launch a second and larger one, and a third of the same class is under way. We would observe in conclusion, that, while in our judgment, under present industrial and financial conditions, nothing less than co-operation on the part of the Dominion government will be adequate to establish a steel shipbuilding industry on a permanent basis in Nova Scotia, yet, the commission's firm conviction is that the action of the government of this province in setting on foot this enquiry cannot but result in much good."

Why Semi-ready Clothes and why not?

Quite apart from a personal interest in Semi-ready Tailored Clothes is the big fact that country-wide, where men have them for choice, they consider them so far ahead that the question of whose clothes come next is of little interest.

Good clothes keep on looking good—grow old gracefully, and not with the sheen of the run-down never-was.

If we could take a thousand men through the tailoring workrooms and the designing rooms and inspecting rooms of the Semi-ready Shops, we would have all the worth-while clothes trade in a short time—for a thousand men who had seen would be so many enthusiastic boosters for the better tailored clothes.

With wool so high in price, it will be the best investment for any man to buy from makers who weave the actual worth into garments and print the price in the pocket where every man can see.
