SECTION OF GERMAN PRESS HAS FOND HOPES OF PEACE

TEUTON OPTIMISTS LOOK TO WAR'S END

Several German Newspapers, Some of Which Express Views of Official Berlin, Express Opinion That Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg's Speech Opens Way To Peace.

FRENCH CAPTURE GERMAN TRENCHES NORTH-EAST OF LESBOEUF AND IN REGION OF SAILLISEL—NO CHANGE ON BRITISH FRONT—THE ITALIANS GAIN GROUND.

Amsterdam, Nov. 10, via London.—Several German newspapers in commenting on Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg's speech express the opinion that it opens the way for peace. The Tageblatt says the ideas for the future which the chancellor discussed are more important than the question who is guilty of having caused the war, and refers to the chancellor's remark that after the war humanity will demand measures to prevent recurrence of such conflicts.

"Whoever is convinced," the Tageblatt continues, "that the cry will go through humanity for a peaceful arrangement will not fail to make preparation for a response to this great cry."

Desires Lasting Peace. The Freisinnige Zeitung says that the chancellor in all seriousness declares his readiness to collaborate in efforts to obtain international guarantees for lasting peace, adding: "Now is the time for the Entente Powers, especially Great Britain, to come forward with a programme."

The Vorwaerts, the Socialist organ, says that what the German government now desires is tolerably clear, that the chancellor expressed it in different words than Philip Scheidemann, a Socialist leader in the Reichstag, who in a speech last month asserted the brilliant nations desired peace, but that the views of Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg are no less clear than are those of Herr Scheidemann.

"In the chancellor's speech," the Vorwaerts continues, "one hears the first sound of the future rustling which will signalize the end of war's horrors."

Press Expresses Regret. Berlin, Nov. 10, via London.—The morning newspapers treat the speech of Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg in the Reichstag yesterday as a document of the utmost importance in throwing light upon the responsibility for the war, the character of peace and the subsequent political status of the world, and of Belgium in particular. What the imperial chancellor said concerning the Russian imperial order announcing mobilization as equivalent to war against Germany, and the chancellor's own communications to Austria-Hungary, are considered convincing proofs of the justice of Germany's course in the critical week preceding the break, but the newspapers generally express regret that these matters were not published earlier.

Endorse World Peace. What Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg has said about Germany's willingness to enter a world union for compelling peace is endorsed generally, except by some conservative newspapers. The Kreuz Zeitung, however, endorses it. The Vorwaerts (Socialist) points out that in favoring the settlement of difficulties by arbitration, the chancellor takes up an old Socialist plank, and hopes also that the chancellor's speech will tend to disperse the clouds of distrust in enemy countries. The Vorwaerts adds: "In the chancellor's speech we hear the rustle of the wings of the future which will bring these horrors to an end."

May Give Up Belgium. The imperial chancellor's remark that he never demanded the annexation of Belgium is generally treated as equivalent to a definite denunciation of annexation. The Kreuz Zeitung says it understands his words in this sense and regrets them along with the other conservative organs like Die Post, Tages Zeitung and the Tagliche Rundschau. These papers also regret that the chancellor did not define more clearly his position regarding Belgium. The papers generally say that Viscount Grey, the British foreign minister, has been answered effectively.

PROMOTERS OF STEEL MERGER STRIKE SNAG

Sir Henry Pellatt Denies He was Given Option on 30,000 Shares of Dominion Iron to Scotia Interests.

Special to The Standard. Montreal, Nov. 10.—Although it is semi-officially acknowledged now that interests close to the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Company have approached large holders of the Dominion-Steel Corporation, it was stated today in well informed circles that up to the present time they had met with relatively little success, and the possibility of a merger of the two steel companies was still a considerable distance away.

Scotia interests have probably bought in the vicinity of 10,000 shares in the open market of late, but that is given as the outside figure, and they now realize that the holdings of some of the big interests will be necessary in order to acquire control. The name of Sir Henry Pellatt has been mentioned as a possible seller for some time past, but his denial today to the story crediting him with giving an option on his holdings at $9, places the deal in a different light.

Interests close to Dominion Iron believe that this was the only big block of stock that suggested possibilities of dislodgment, and it is further believed that Mark Workman, president of the steel corporation, and the largest individual owner of the common stock, would have to be negotiated with before any change was possible in the control.

Sir Henry Pellatt authorizes a denial of the report given currency both in the street and the press to the effect that he had given an option on 30,000 shares of Dominion Iron which had been exercised in the interests of the Scotia syndicate.

Sir Henry affirms that no such option could be exercised because he never gave one.

The story evidently started in brokerage circles which are bullish on iron, and some significance was attached to the fact that W. D. Ross and N. B. Mackelvie, both Nova Scotia directors, alleged to be primarily interested in the Scotia Iron proposals, were in the city yesterday.

The option was said to have been exercised at $9 as against a current market price of approximately 75. Had this been true it would of course have been a great bull card on the stock and practically suggested that the big men in the deal regarded it as bound for that price eventually, but to which they were taking a short cut in order to get the required block.

Alas and alack, Sir Henry spelt the bull broth by declaring a market alibi.

PRESIDENT WILSON HAS A PLURALITY OF 403,312

Carries at Least 28 States to 16 for Judge Hughes—Lower House of Congress Will be Practically a Deadlock—Senate will Continue to be Democratic.

New York, Nov. 10.—The total popular vote received in each of the states by President Wilson and Charles E. Hughes, but based on incomplete reports and estimates, indicated that the president received 403,312 more votes than Mr. Hughes. Wilson carried 23 states and Hughes 16, with four still in the doubtful column. There is no question of Wilson's re-election.

Lower House Tied. New York, Nov. 10.—With returns missing tonight from only one congressional district in the United States, the Republicans and Democrats each have elected 215 representatives. The vote in New Mexico, which is still in doubt, probably will determine which party is to have a plurality of one over the other. The present member from New Mexico is a Republican.

The balance of power in the next house will be held by four men, one a Progressive protectionist from Louisiana; one an Independent from Massachusetts; one a Progressive from Minnesota, and the other a Socialist from New York. Their action apparently will determine the choice of a speaker, as well as the fate of legislation which is supported or opposed upon purely party lines.

The senate remains unchanged, 54 Democrats to 42 Republicans, a Democratic majority of 12.

Will Greet Wilson. Washington, Nov. 10.—Democratic leaders and officials of the American Federation of Labor made plans today for a big demonstration when President Wilson gets back to Washington Sunday.

They estimated twenty thousand persons would be in line to greet the president and march behind him to the White House.

Wilson Talks. Williamstown, Mass., Nov. 10.—In a speech here tonight before several thousand persons who came from near by towns to congratulate him on his re-election, President Wilson said: "I want to say that now the campaign is over we must think of only one thing, and that is not of parties but of the interest of the great country we all love. Let us forget all our differences and unite for common service."

$8,000,000 FOR SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

University of Chicago to Receive More Rockefeller Money—N. B. Man Professor at Rush School.

New York, Nov. 10.—The general education board in co-operation with the Rockefeller Foundation has appropriated $2,000,000 for the University of Chicago for the establishment of a high-grade medical school. It was announced here tonight. The new medical school will start with an initial endowment of almost $8,000,000, which, according to Dr. Abraham Flexner, who made the announcement, is the largest ever provided for any college of medicine in the world.

The announcement is of particular interest in New Brunswick inasmuch as Prof. John Clarence Webster, F. R. C. P. E., F. R. S. E., of Shediac, is one of the most prominent members of the faculty of Rush Medical School, affiliated with the University of Chicago. Dr. Webster is professor of obstetrics and gynecology at Rush. He is a native of Shediac and has a

FIERCE FIGHTING ON THE EASTERN FRONT

Russians Meet Severe Reverse in District of Skrobowa, Twelve Miles Northeast of Baranovich—Battle in Dobrudja.

GERMANY EVIDENTLY PREPARED TO RESTORE BELGIUM SHOULD SHE BE ABLE TO MAKE PEACE TREATY WITH ENTENTE ALLIES—ADDRESSES OF CHANCELLOR AND PREMIER ASQUITH STARTS WORLD THINKING.

Driving against the centre of the Russian line on the eastern front, German troops, Berlin says, have gained possession of Russian positions on a front of about 2 and a half miles. The attack, which resulted also in the capture of more than 3,000 prisoners, took place in the district of Skrobowa, twelve miles northeast of Baranovich, north of the Pinsk marshes, and where only isolated fighting has occurred lately. The Russians, Berlin also says, lost 27 machine guns and 12 mine-throwers.

The success of the Germans is admitted by the Petrograd war office, which announces that the Russians, after stubborn resistance against seven onslaughts, were finally compelled to fall back to their second line of trenches. Elsewhere on the eastern front to the Carpathians there has been little fighting, according to the official communications.

Fighting in Dobrudja. In Dobrudja the advance of the Russo-Rumanian forces southward continues and Petrograd records a battle with Field Marshal Von Mackensen's troops in the region of Tchernavoda, abandoned recently by the Rumanians. At Tchernavoda is the bridge of the railroad running between Constantza and Bucharest, and it is for this bridge the Russians and Rumanians are fighting. Petrograd also announces the occupation of several towns between Hirsova and Tchernavoda. Berlin says there has been no important change in Dobrudja.

Roumanians Fall Back. On the Transylvania-Roumanian front, Archduke Charles has assumed the offensive and pushed back the Roumanians. In the Predal sector stubborn fighting continues, with both the Austro-Germans and the Roumanians claiming progress. The Austrians have almost completely recovered the ground lost in the Georgeny mountains November 4.

Several trench elements north of the Somme, near Lesboeuvs and Saillisel, have been captured by the French. Berlin states Franco-British attacks between Guendecourt and Sailly were repulsed. There has been much aerial fighting on the western front. Berlin records the destruction of seventeen Entente airplanes and Paris asserts that ten German machines were brought down. London admits that seven British aircraft failed to return to their base after flights in the air. In one of the flights a squadron of thirty British airplanes and a German squadron of between thirty and forty were engaged.

Inclement weather continues to hamper operations on a large scale on the Macedonian and Austro-Italian fronts.

Aerial Activity. London, Nov. 10.—The British official communication issued this evening says: "There was no change today on the battle front."

"As the result of the improvement in the weather there was great aerial activity yesterday. Much useful work was done, many bombing raids being carried out on the enemy's communications, billets and stores. Air fighting was almost continuous. "One of our squadrons of thirty machines encountered a squadron of from thirty to forty machines. An aerial battle took place, and the enemy squadron was broken up and dispersed. Six of his machines were seen to commence to fall out of control, but owing to the severity of the fighting it was not possible to watch them to the ground.

"As the result of other flights nine more hostile machines were driven down in a damaged condition, three of which are known to have been destroyed. A hostile kite balloon was also attacked and sent down in flames. "Seven of our machines are missing. "Early this morning a squadron of naval airplanes attacked the harbor and submarine shelters at Ostend and Zebrugge. A great weight in bombs was dropped with satisfactory results. German Trenches Taken. Paris, via London, Nov. 10.—The war office tonight issued the following official communication: "North of the Somme we captured several trench elements northeast of Lesboeuvs and in the region of Saillisel. A German counter-attack directed against Saillisel was easily repulsed. "We took some prisoners. "South of the Somme there was a continuous bombardment, which was also violent at intervals on the Presdres and Ablaincourt sectors. "On the right bank of the Meuse there was great artillery activity by both sides at all points between the Haudromont quarry and Dampou. There was no infantry action, and the day was quiet on the remainder of the front. "Eastern army: At the bend of the Cerna river (Serbia) fresh Bulgarian attacks against the Serbian positions failed. Inclement weather continues along the whole front. "British airplanes have bombarded the Porna and Pulojvo stations. Russian Statement. Petrograd, Nov. 10.—The text of the Russian statement says: "On the Danube front our cavalry and infantry detachments occupied the station of Danareav, three versts east of Tchernavoda. "We are fighting for possession of Tchernavoda bridge. More than 200 corpses have been counted on the captured ground. A number of prisoners and machine guns also have been captured. "We have occupied the town of Hirsova and the village of Muscinda, and the heights three versts south of Delserui and five versts southwest of Fasimlja. "As the result of a German counter-attack in the region south of Dorna Watra the Russians also were compelled to give up some of the heights which they had captured on the day previous. "The battle here still is in progress. The text of the statement reads: "Russian front: In the region of Strobry the enemy several times attacked, notwithstanding the stubborn resistance of our detachments, which had repelled seven onslaughts, our troops were compelled to fall back to their second line trenches. Flame projectiles were used by the enemy. "In the region south of Dorna Watra, in the valley of the Bystritsa river, and near the village of Khollo, Toldeash and Putna, the enemy counter-attacked with the result that we were compelled to abandon some of the heights we occupied the previous day. The battle continues."

London, Nov. 10.—The Echo Belge, as quoted by Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent, says that according to the latest news the Germans have transported 21,000 citizens of Antwerp to Germany.

A great panic prevails in Antwerp and in the surrounding country, adds the newspaper which reports also that three men who tried to cross the Dutch frontier were killed by shock from the electric wire barrier on the border. "Les Nouvelles of Amsterdam prints a Maastricht despatch saying that there are persistent rumors that the deportations have provoked a revolt at Brussels in the course of which thirty Germans were killed or seriously wounded, and that there were numerous Belgian casualties. The city of Brussels is closed. "A magnificent summer home in that town.

The fame of the St. John Law School is spreading all over Canada, and this term there will be present as a student in Roman Law, a Japanese gentleman from Vancouver, who holds the degree of LL.B. from the University of Washington, Mr. Kyoishi Nakao.

Mr. Nakao came to Canada ten years ago and has resided here and in the United States ever since. Of late years he has been employed in the B. C. Immigration department as interpreter in legal matters. Mr. Nakao said that business in general was picking up in Vancouver and getting back to normal. Since the war trade with Japan had taken a jump and many articles formerly imported from Germany were now being imported from his country, such as buttons and cheap china ware. The Japanese government had appointed a special trade representative who was now in Canada looking toward securing a share of the business which Germany used to get. This representative was at the present time in Winnipeg and would in all probability visit the Maritime Provinces in the near future.

The Japanese were confident that the Entente Alliance were going to win this war and were helping all they could by supplying Russia with munitions.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR, THICK, WAVY, FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Draw a moist cloth through hair and double its beauty at once.

Save your hair! Dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

Immediate?—Yes! Certain?—That's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after an application of Danderine. Also try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful. You can surely have pretty, charming, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any store or toilet counter and try it as directed.

To Get Rid of Wrinkles and Bad Complexions

It is more important now than during the period of profuse perspiration, to keep the pores clean. All cosmetics clog the pores. In cool weather this interest greatly with elimination of waste material, inducing instead of aiding the complexion. Ordinary mercurial wax serves all the purposes of creams, powders and rouges, giving far better results. It actually peels off an offensive skin, at the same time unclogging the pores. Minute particles of scurf skin come off day by day, causing not the least discomfort. Gradually the healthy, younger skin beneath peeps out, and in less than a fortnight you have a lovelier complexion than you ever dreamed of acquiring. Mercurial wax, obtainable at any drugstore, is spread on nightly like cold cream and washed off mornings. One ounce usually suffices. For removing wrinkles, without stopping the pores with pasty stuff, here's a never-fading formula: One ounce powdered sassafras, dissolved in one-half pint witch hazel. Bathe the face in this daily for awhile; every line will vanish completely. Even the first application gives surprising results.

THE SUCCESSFUL MAN

usually is a self-controlled man.

He is moderate in his habit as well as in his speech.

He selects his food and drink with infinite care.

And his drink is very apt to be a very mild, mellow and pure whisky, such as ROBERT BROWN'S FOUR CROWN SCOTCH

SLOVEN WRECKED WHEN STREET CAR STRUCK IT

Collision Near Corner of Main and Cedar Streets Last Evening Might Have Resulted Fatally.

An accident that might have terminated fatally occurred last night on Main street near Cedar shortly after six o'clock, when street car No. 118 crashed into a sloven driven by Archie Splight and owned by White's Express Co.

Mark Lloyd, foreman for the express company, was on the sloven at the time and was thrown to the ground and severely hurt about the head, receiving a bad scalp wound and cutting his throat quite badly. He was taken to the office of Dr. Hogan who took several stitches in the wounds, and afterwards removed to his home on Harrison street. The driver of the team cut his knee and one of the horses was injured.

Motorman C. Mott and Conductor R. Muir were in charge of the car at the time of the accident, and they say that the team was going toward Indiantown on the wrong side of the street and cut across in front of the car to get on the right side. The car was so close to the team at the time it crossed the street that it was impossible to stop. The sloven was badly broken up and the car sustained a broken fender.

H. C. Green, manager of White's Express Co., attributes the accident to the fact that the cars are using only one track from the car sheds down to the foot of Main street, and it being dark the driver did not realize that he was driving right into the car by turning the way he did.

The sloven was turned completely around by the car before it was brought to a standstill, and the horses ran down the hill but were caught before they had gone far.

Country Market.

There was a good supply of provisions in the market yesterday, vegetables being especially plentiful with practically no changes in the prices of last week, except that potatoes and tomatoes are a little dearer, from 46c. to 42c. per peck being about the figures for potatoes. Chickens were on hand in good quantity, commanding from 22c. to 25c. per pound. Roast beef was from 14c. to 24c.; pork, 18c. to 24c.; lamb, 16c. to 25c. Creamery butter brought from 42c. to 48c.; tub, from 34c. to 40c.; fresh eggs were from 42c. to 55c. per dozen; case were as high as from 42c. to 44c. In the fruit department apples are still of a good average quality and are being sold in fairly large quantities at good prices.

The Canadian Engineers received the majority of men yesterday. Five men made application for this unit. Lieut. McBeath stated yesterday that several men of the other units in the city had made application to him for transfer. Lieut. McBeath said that although he did not care to encourage transfers, the men were so persistent that he referred the matter to headquarters and will await their ruling.

Newcastle Recruits. The 12th Battery Artillery draft for overseas now mobilizing at Newcastle numbers 45 men. Lieut. J. L. Lawlor in command. Recent recruits are: Earl Sorensen, Nelson. Charles Killam, Campbellton. Geo. Mulse, Rosersville. Victor H. Olander, Campbellton. Adolph Scheveloff, Campbellton. John Anderson, Douglasfield.

Promotion for Lt. Cameron. Friends of Lieut. W. A. Cameron of the famous 25th Nova Scotia Battalion, will be interested in knowing that after two months spent in hospital, since which he has been doing light duty at Shorncliffe, he (though offered a staff appointment in England) has gone to rejoin his battalion at the front, where it is understood he will be given command of a company, a promotion well deserved. Lieut. Cameron speaks very highly of treatment received while at the Perkins Bull Hospital for Convalescent Canadian Officers, where everything possible is done for the comfort and enjoyment of patients. "Billy" is one of our St. John boys and has our best wishes for his continued success and a safe return.

Pte. F. McGowan.

Mrs. J. E. Fitzgerald of 121 Elliott Row received word from Ottawa to the effect that her brother, Pte. Frank McGowan had been reported missing since October 8.

Pte. McGowan is well known in the city. He was an employee of the St. John Globe as compositor, and also had worked on other papers in the province. About six years ago he went to the United States and at the time when the war broke out he returned to Canada and enlisted with the 23rd Battalion as a bandsman. After arriving in England he joined another unit with which he went to France. He is about thirty years old. Many in this city and elsewhere will trust that good news will soon come.

Died from Wounds.

Arthur Connelly, who went with the first contingent, is the latest Sussex soldier to lay down his life for the Empire. He enlisted with the 12th New Brunswick Battalion in the first contingent. Later he transferred to the Princess Pats and in July, 1915, was wounded. Later he joined the artillery. About two weeks ago he was again wounded and on Tuesday a telegram announced that he had died of his injuries.

The young soldier went to Sussex about four years ago. His parents were both dead. They were natives of the old country. The son, however, was a Canadian. He was about twenty-two years of age. He hoped to return to Sussex at the conclusion of the war and to purchase a farm in Kings Co.

Died of Wounds.

"Len" Slipp, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Slipp, of Sussex, was wounded on October 14, and has since died of wounds. He was a graduate of Acadia College, and later won his M. A., taking a post graduate course at his Alma Mater. While in Sussex he was a valued member of the Record staff, but he went west and took up a mercantile career and achieved success. When the war broke out he enlisted and went to the front. He is survived by a brother, Frank, who lives in the west.

M. H. Brooks.

Alfred Brooks, of 114 Victoria street, received official notification from Ottawa yesterday morning stating that his brother, Myles H. Brooks, was officially reported missing since October 8.

Pte. Hickson.

Private Reg. Hickson of the 29th Battalion, who was seriously wounded months ago, has fully recovered from the effects of his wounds and has been attached to headquarters staff at Epsom. Private Hickson was formerly a member of the Bank of Nova Scotia staff and with many of his associates answered the call at an early date. He was shot through the lung and for months his condition was regarded as precarious.

Pte. Chas. Stevens.

Mrs. Joseph H. Stevens of 43 Hilliard street, received official word that her son, Pte. Charles A. Stevens, was reported wounded on Oct. 1 and returned to his regimental duties Oct. 6. Some two weeks ago Mrs. Stevens received a letter from her son dated Oct. 1, saying that he had been in hospital suffering from shell shock. The fact that notification has only reached his mother now has puzzled them.

The Killies.

Lieut. Frank Meahan, who won the D.C.M. and who is a nephew of O. Turgeon, M. P., is coming home to command the Gloucester county platoon of the Killies. Sgt. Fred Wade of Penniac is coming to be platoon sergeant of the York county and Sergt. Jack McNair of Buctouche the Kent county platoon of the Killies. Sergt. Thomas McKee will have the St. John county platoon.

Joined Cyclists.

Eric Fowler, son of Col. George W. Fowler, of the 104th Battalion, has enlisted with the Cycle Corps. Young Fowler went overseas with his father as a private and recently transferred to the other unit. He will act as a despatch rider. Pte. Charles Parry, who also went over with Col. Fowler, has also joined the cyclists. He is the only son of C. H. Perry.

He was met at the station by a number of friends and the Boys Scouts who escorted him to his home.

At the meeting of the Women's Institute held in the Victoria Hall this afternoon the delegates to the St. John convention presented their report. NEWS AND COMMENT FROM THE FINANCIAL WORLD

WALL ST. CHEERFUL AFTER ELECTION

More Than Two Million Shares Traded in and Score of New High Records Made—Price of Refined Copper Bull Card.

New York, Nov. 10.—With the dwindling of the political situation in the realm of popular discussion Wall Street today saw free returns to the speculative optimism, the session being one of the most noteworthy in the history of the exchange.

Dealings aggregated 2,100,000 shares, a total only once exceeded this year. Fully half of the transactions consisted of United States Steel, Central Leather, the metals and related industrial and equipment.

The turnover embraced the largest number of stocks offered in many weeks, and was attended by about a score of new high records. Foremost among these were Central Leather, which later forfeited its advance and considerably more; the shipping issues some of which also developed reaction.

Among the more favorable developments of the day, and one that gave the market its greatest impetus, was the sale of refined copper at the record price of 32 1/2 cents per pound.

Gross gains in these diversified groups ranged from three to 22 points, but the net result was less advantageous. Selling was extensive on the advance, but made no marked impression until the last hour, when realizing profits seemed to exceed the purchasing power.

Important shares receded 1 to 3 points, and greater impairment of the more volatile issues was witnessed.

Among the more favorable developments of the day, and one that gave the market its greatest impetus, was the sale of refined copper at the record price of 32 1/2 cents per pound.

Foreign interests were again in the market for this commodity and according to reports a premium of half a cent was offered for early deliveries.

United States Steel was firm, even before the publication of the October tonnage report, which established a new record for unfilled orders.

WALL ST. NO LONGER CONTROLS POLITICS

Big Interests Apparently Surprised Because Common People of United States Vote Sometimes.

(McDOUGALL & COWANS.) New York, Nov. 10.—Financial interests of the first magnitude are discussing as to its bearing on finance the condition at Washington regarding the final election results indicating that the next president will be unable to secure that party cooperation so essential to constructive legislation.

The large working capital accounts now accruing to the equipment companies and which are expected to expand materially during the next few months are relied upon in conservative circles to induce active investment absorption of the car and locomotive stocks on breaks in the market.

It is said investors hitherto avoided this class largely because of the vulnerable working capital which made for a "feast or famine." Attention is being directed in financial circles to the point that even in war time Great Britain is heavily increasing, notwithstanding big handicaps, her export trade.

Reference is made to show what may be expected from that direction when peace comes and all energies may be concentrated on commerce under the direction of the most experienced financial experts in the world backed by party governmental co-operation.

COPPER STOCKS STRONG YESTERDAY

Another Feature of Market was Profit Taking in United States Steel—Steel Trade More Prosperous Than Ever.

(McDOUGALL & COWANS.) New York, Nov. 10.—Copper stocks continued strong throughout the day, while irregularly was general in a good part of the rest of the list.

Profit-taking in U. S. Steel followed a favorable report of an increase of nearly 500,000 tons in unfilled orders on the books at the close of October.

This, coming on a month of record production of copper from this country next year, accounted for the strength in those issues.

The steel business is now enjoying. The Steel Corporation with orders for over 10,000,000 tons on its books November 1, is booked further ahead and at better prices than it has ever been.

The declaration by the American Express of two per cent. extra dividend from its investment holdings, placing the stock on an eight per cent. basis was followed by an advance in that issue.

ENGLISH BANK RATE MAY BE REDUCED

Money Plentiful in Old Country and Outlook Favorable for New War Loan.

Special to The Standard. London, Nov. 10.—Money rates plentiful with discounts easy and bills scarce. A strong demand is noted for short term treasury notes.

Rumor is busy concerning a probable reduction in the near future of the bank rate which is still at 6 p.c., this to facilitate the issue of the new war loan which is to come soon after Christmas so as to take advantage of the plethora of money seeking investment after the end of the year dividend disbursements.

The rumors are premature, but will probably come true later. Trade is active and prosperous with war orders and export business. Export trade is keeping up wonderfully despite the continuous drain of men into the army and the preference which has to be given to munitions work and army supplies.

SCOTIA RISES SEVEN POINTS

When Listed on New York Exchange, Stock Market Spectacular Advance—D. I. Active in Montreal.

(McDOUGALL & COWANS.) Montreal, Nov. 10.—Nova Scotia Steel had a spectacular advance. At the close of the morning session it was offered at 144; at the opening of the afternoon session, the first sale was at 151—an advance of 7 points.

It reacted to 148 at the close. This advance was caused by the listing of the stock on the New York Exchange, and an advance taking place there during the noon hour.

Domestic iron was very active. It lost a point on the day's trading, opening at 76 and closing at 75. In the Paper group, Laurentide was firm at 216 1/2.

Ridport Paper made a new high record at 140 1/2, closing strong, and Wayagmack, which sold during the early trading at 94 advanced to 102.

Cement was better at 71, and Civic strong at 83. In the unlisted department, North Ann. Paper sold at 14% and Brompton was traded in between 68 and 69 1/2.

There is still a good demand for the active securities, with recent advances well held.

SUBMITS MEMORANDA TO THE LOCAL COMMISSION

Thomas Adams, the town planning expert, has submitted to the town planning commission a memorandum of the proposed by-law in regard to the lay-out of streets and the making of new streets in sub-divisions. He proposes that the owners of a sub-division, and those who build in such sub-division, be jointly responsible for the making of the streets the city to take them over when property built and maintain them.

The streets would be built in two stages. The first stage would be partial construction before the houses were permitted to be occupied, and would consist of grading the street, making a sidewalk suitable for access to the houses, and putting in the sewer and water main.

The next stage (to be carried out at the owner's discretion) would be that, before asking the council to take over the street for maintenance by the public, the street should be constructed to the satisfaction of the council and in accordance with minimum standards previously settled by the council, the cost to be born either directly by the owner or to be incurred by the council at its discretion and recovered from the frontagers in taxes.

This would mean that the original owner would have to partially make a street suitable for light traffic, provide the sewer and water main, and construct sidewalks before he could expect to sell his lots. The purchasers of lots would know that their liability was limited to finishing the paving to conform to the minimum standard required by the city or parish before they could ask to have the street taken over for maintenance by the city, and would tend to induce the owners to finish the construction as otherwise they would have to continue the maintenance of the street.

He suggests that where it is necessary to have a street 100 feet in width the owner of the land should be permitted to make some of the streets less than 50 feet in width in order to make the average width 50 feet, and that he be only required to bear half the cost of the street 100 feet in width. In the case of widening a street the city should bear all the cost of the work, the owner providing the land.

He also suggests that the council be given the power to make a main thoroughfare at its own expense in advance of the development of any area and collect cost of same when the lots are sold from the frontagers.

He also suggests that the minimum width be 50 feet.

He asks that the commission consider these points and communicate with him as soon as they arrive at a decision.

Selects RED BALL Ale and Porter

A short time ago one of the highest officials in the United States Federal Government was ordered by a physician to procure some porter for his wife, who had undergone a serious operation. He applied at once to the Government Analyst for reports on all brands of porter.

This officer, having in mind the purpose for which the inquiry was made, and with regard to tonic qualities and nutritive value, at once recommended "Red Ball Ale and Porter" manufactured by Simeon Jones Ltd., St. John.

This recommendation was followed by a series of orders from Washington, and subsequent correspondence went to show that this local product had given every satisfaction.

GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP OF RAILWAYS.

Samuel O. Dunn, editor of the Railway Age Gazette, of Chicago, in a recent number of The Journal of Political Economy dealt rather strongly with what he termed the failure of Government ownership in Canada and drew the inspiration for his production from a comparison of conditions in the Intercolonial Railway under Government ownership and the Canadian Pacific, a company-owned system. Mr. Dunn contends that the I. C. R. can be taken as an outstanding example of the failure of Government ownership from a standpoint of business.

J. L. Payne, of the Department of Railways and Canals, who will be remembered in this province as secretary to the late Hon. A. G. Blair when Minister of Railways, answered Mr. Dunn in the current issue of the Journal of the Canadian Bankers' Association, and the conclusions he reaches differ very materially from those arrived at by the Chicago Journalist. As the people of the Maritime Provinces have a very lively interest in the I. C. R., and all things pertaining to it, Mr. Payne's article is worthy of more than passing attention.

He contends in the first place that while it is true that the Government owns and operates the Intercolonial, that railway was built for a specific purpose, and consequently cannot be judged by the same standards as the Canadian Pacific or any other privately owned railway in America. The purpose of the privately owned railways is to earn dividends for their owners; the purpose of the Intercolonial is, primarily, to afford a service to the public, profits are and always must be a secondary consideration.

The Intercolonial, Mr. Payne points out, was part of a specific bargain between the people of the Maritime Provinces and those of Ontario and Quebec at the time of confederation. It was known when it was built that it would never earn large profits except by breaking faith with the people in whose interest it was built. Consequently it was unavoidably and of necessity a public project, and must remain in that position.

Mr. Payne continues: "The only reason why the Intercolonial has not had large net earnings year by year is that its transportation charges are too low" and, to prove his assertion, he points to the operating results of the C. P. R. in its best year, 1912, and compares them with the I. C. R. figures for 1912.

The comparison shows that while the Canadian Pacific in 1912 had net earnings of $46,049,764, the Intercolonial merely succeeded in making "one hand wash the other." From the carriage of passengers the Canadian Pacific earned $34,995,156 on a per passenger per mile rate of 1.352 cents. From the same source the Government road received $3,433,447 on a passenger mile rate of 1.617 cents. The Canadian Pacific rate per passenger mile was 366 cents in excess of that obtained by the I. C. R., and an exchange of rates between the two roads would have increased the I. C. R. earnings by $777,089 and decreased the C. P. R. revenues by $6,474,104.

In freight traffic there is a similar situation. The Canadian Pacific earned $88,101,523 on a rate of .784 cents per ton per mile. The Intercolonial earned $8,028,760 on a per ton per mile rate of .570. Exchange of rates would have given the Intercolonial $2,010,784 more freight revenue and the C. P. R. $24,051,716 less.

case 1.491 and in the other 12.917. "The Canadian Pacific net," Mr. Payne concludes, "would have been barely sufficient to meet fixed charges and a dividend payment on stocks would have been impossible. If the Canadian Pacific had been down to Intercolonial freight and passenger rates in 1881 it would inevitably have been in the hands of a receiver long ago."

"In the matter of aggregate profits, it must not be forgotten that the Canadian Pacific treasury has been fed with large returns from land sales and the operation of subsidiary enterprises. If the application of these tests results so favorably to the Intercolonial it is not worth while following Mr. Dunn through mazes of minor calculations, seeing that the difference in transportation charges answers them nearly all. Despite the alleged waste, mismanagement and political interference, to which Mr. Dunn has given emphasis, it still remains irrefutably true that if the Intercolonial had the rates of the Canadian Pacific it would yield even better financial results than does that prosperous road.

"To increase rates would seem the natural course, if the troubles of the road are due to low charges, but such a thing is not so easy as it appears. Whether or not they are justified in their view, the people of the Maritime Provinces hold that it was an essential part of the bargain that the road should be operated at cost, disregarding interest charges, and the practice of nearly a half century has given support to that contention.

"In the final analysis, the question as to whether or not the Intercolonial has paid cannot fairly be answered by statements of receipts and expenditures. The value of confederation rises above monetary considerations, and we could not have confederation without the Intercolonial."

MORE PEACE TALK.

It will require more eloquence than Von Bethmann-Hollweg can lay claim to, and a greater array of arguments than the German Chancellor can produce to convince the people of the Allied nations that the world desires a premature peace. It is not enough for the Germans to say they are tired of war, the men of the Allied nations are also tired of it, tired in the same sense that a man is tired when he looks upon a difficult, disagreeable, but necessary task upon which he has worked hard but has not completed. Because the man is tired does not indicate that he is willing to stop, particularly when he knows that the task must be completed and if not finished now, and by him, must be done all over again at a later date. He does not quit but works with additional vigor knowing that when the day's labor is over his rest will be the sweeter through the realization that he has done well.

Germany was not too weary to commence this war. Germany would not want to stop if there was the slightest indication that the task could be completed to her liking. But Germany realizes now more completely than ever that her pet projects have failed, that in every aggressive move she has made she has been outgeneralled and outought and that no matter how long she may continue to work the result will be ignominious defeat. That is the real thought behind Von Bethmann-Hollweg's suggestion.

The German Chancellor is right when he says that the world desires an agreement that will make it certain that never again will there be another such war. But he does not go far enough. If he pursued the same line of argument to its logical conclusion he would be forced to tell his hearers that such a guaranty of peace cannot be reached until the power to war has been taken from those who have endeavored to use it as a means to unworthy ends. That object can only be gained by the defeat of Prussianism and until that has been accomplished the war must go on.

The German Chancellor may voice his opinions as long as he can gather an audience to listen to him, but nothing he can say will change the determination of the Allies in arms, which is to fight on until the principles of defense of which they draw the sword have been abundantly vindicated and the free institutions of the British Empire that have ever stood for progress and development in its highest form shall never again be endangered through the aggressive blood lust of an armed monomaniac and his insane advisers.

The Bloody Key

(Toronto News, Oct. 30.)
 In the next two or three weeks many Liberal candidates for the House of Commons will be nominated throughout the country. There are all the signs of Liberal preparation for a general election. Apparently it is believed that public opinion is favorable to the Laurier organization.

Not long ago the Liberal leader and his organs were professing extreme distaste for a political contest during the war. Any thought of an election was described as a "crime against the country," and as "trading in the blood of Canadians for base party advantage." At the Ontario Club in Toronto Sir Wilfrid Laurier declared that "while this war is on I do not care to open the portals with that bloody key." He added: "So long as my voice counts in the councils of the Liberal party we shall not do one thing to prevent the government going on with its war policy."

We did not have much faith in these professions when they were made. From the beginning the organs of the opposition have lost no opportunity to embarrass Laurier, to create popular unrest and to misrepresent conditions in the country and the actual achievements of the government. We believed that if Sir Wilfrid Laurier should become convinced that he had any chance to carry the country he would demand immediate dissolution. We had a suspicion also that certain "neutrals" who were so angrily opposed to an election would modify their wrath when the Liberal politicians became favorable to a contest. In this we may have been unjust, but there is a way to dispel suspicion which may occur to this group of anxious patriots.

The Liberal successes in Quebec, Manitoba and British Columbia, and the rejection by parliament at the instance of the government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's mischievous racial resolution, designed chiefly to excite Quebec against Ontario, have combined to convince the Liberal managers that an election is not a crime, and that the "bloody key" is the right instrument to open the doors of office. So they are calling many conventions to nominate candidates. They will force an election if they think the result will be favorable, just as they would oppose a contest if they thought the issue would be unsatisfactory.

PIMPLES and BOILS ALL OVER FACE AND BODY

When the blood becomes impure you will find that pimples and boils will break out all over the body, and although they are not dangerous, they make you appear unsightly both to your friends and yourself.
 Burdock Blood Bitters will cleanse the blood of all the impurities and poisons which cause the skin to break out in these eruptions.
 Miss Sylvia Swanson, Theodore, Sask., writes: "I am letting you know what great value B.B.B. has been to me. A year ago I started to grow pale and weak, the cause being bad blood. I got so many pimples and boils all over my face and body that I would not let strangers see me, and I used to avoid company. I tried many remedies but all seemed a failure. I read about how good your B.B.B. had been and after I had finished the second bottle my pimples and boils had all disappeared. People thought it a miracle how well I looked.
 "Your grand old remedy sure has been as good as gold and better, to me."
 Burdock Blood Bitters has been manufactured for the past forty years by The T. Milburn Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont. See that our name appears on the wrapper.

BOY SCOUTS WILL NOT BE IN PARADE SUNDAY

Unable to Arrange to Participate in Military Church Parade — Local Scouts Making Progress.

That the St. John Boy Scouts are displaying a determination to become more efficient in scoutcraft, which will in after years help them in their business and civic life, is evidenced by the work of the different troops during the past week. In talking to The Standard last night B. C. Waring, the District Scoutmaster, said that he had visited most of the troops on their meeting nights and had found the boys engaged in most active work. On Monday four boys in the Stone church troop had passed their tenderfoot tests, and will shortly receive their badges. The Mission church and St. Paul's church scouts listened attentively to a talk on scout work given by the District Scoutmaster on Tuesday. Four boys succeeded in passing the tenderfoot tests and were handed their badges on Wednesday evening in the headquarters of St. Jude's troop. On the following night the St. James' boys had most instructive lessons.

The promotion of Scout Waring to patrol leader and patrol leader Thompson to that of troop leader, took place at the same time. Last evening boy scouts connected with the Tabernacle church enjoyed a well delivered address by the chief officer of the district. This troop which has only recently been formed, shows much progress, the boys being very anxious to learn under their capable scoutmasters. It was proposed to have the city scouts take part in the proposed military parade tomorrow, but as plans for same cannot be made at the present moment the matter has been dropped. It is, however, expected that the public will have a chance to see the whole of the troops to the best advantage in the near future.

Mr. H. S. Goddard, of Elgin, accompanied by Mrs. Goddard, visited St. John and Fredericton last week.

FAIRVILLE CHILDREN WILL HELP LITTLE BELGIANS

Union Point Scholars, Well Trained, will do Their Best in Operetta—A Little Effort Worth While.

At Union Point school, Fairville, on Tuesday evening, at about 8 o'clock, there will be presented an operetta, under the guidance of Miss M. E. O'Brien, the teacher in charge, who has trained the young people to be in readiness to help the Belgian Children's Relief Fund, a fund that is Empire wide. The little play is called "Cinderella in Flowerland," among the characters represented being Cinderella and Daisy; Proud Sisters and Holyhook and Tiger Lily; God-mother and Nature; Bonnie Bee and Little Page, Butterflies and Charlottoes, Robin Red, Prince's Herald, Prince Sunshine, Sunbeam Castle. Guests at the ball: Poppy, buttercup, pansy, daffodil, violet, sweet brier, mignonette, lily bell, sweet pea, narcissus, six little sunbeams, six little raindrops.

The operetta will be in three acts: I, Prince Sunshine's invitation to May-Day ball; II, God-mother Nature sends Daisy to the ball; III, The May-Day ball and the shower; IV, The Princess of Sunshine Castle. As careful training has led to the probability that the young people will be able to present a good showing it is to be hoped that there will be many present to give them encouragement next Tuesday. The whole proceeds will be for the Belgian children.

CUB N GOV. GIL HEARS OF ELECTION AT HOME

President Monecal Again Heads the Cubans After a Very Close Contest.

Cuba, like the other republic to the south, has been having a nip and tuck election. Like California the province of Oriente (formerly Santiago), was the president's good angel and carried him through dark and devious paths to resplendent victory.

The Cuban consul in St. John, Senor Barranco, received word last night that President Monecal, Conservative, had been re-elected by the final count in Oriente. President Monecal carried the provinces of Pinar del Rio, Santa Clara and Oriente. The Liberals were successful in Habana, Matanzas and Camaguey provinces.

The re-election of President Monecal, according to some of the local shipping men, is regarded favorably in this section of Canada which carries on a large business with the virgin republic of the Antilles.

PRIZE WINNERS AT ST. ROSE'S FAIR

The winners in the lotteries held in connection with St. Rose's Patriotic Fair, in their hall in Fairville, are announced as follows:

Mrs. R. J. Ritchie, of South Bay, holding ticket 948, won an electric iron; a jardiner was won by H. Smith of St. John, holding ticket 944; Wm. Flemming, of Fairville, won a flash light with ticket 916; Martha Guggie, of Lancaster avenue, won a pair of shoes with ticket 42, and a fern dish was won by Blanche Bradley, of Fairville, holding ticket 1045.

In the chance lottery Mrs. Jno. Delaney, Jr., of Milford, won a cushion.

The door prize of $2.50 in gold was won by the holder of ticket 46, who can obtain same by communicating with Miss O'Brien, of 173 Main street, Fairville.

In the "Guess the Cake" contest, three persons guessed the exact weight, the cake weighing six pounds, eight ounces. These three people drew to see who would take the cake, the result being that Miss Alice Malloy, of Fairville, became the proud possessor of it.

The committee who had charge of the fair plan to send 105 boxes to their soldier friends in the trenches. They expect to send 42 boxes today and the rest in the next mail.

POLICE COURT.

In the police court yesterday Frank Garson was reported by Building Inspector Carleton for not complying with the building laws in the erection of a building on Union street, West St. John.

After Mr. Carleton, Burpee Belyea and Mr. Mott had testified, Urban J. Sweeney, who represented the defendant, asked for dismissal, but the magistrate stated while he thought there was not evidence enough for conviction, he would take the case under consideration and deliver judgment later.

Pte. Joseph Babineau was charged with being absent from military duty for fifty-nine days without leave. He was allowed to go under military escort on suspended sentence.

A dispute between David Aranoff and Louis Fader over the purchase of a bicycle was amicably settled in an ante-room of the court by the disputants themselves.

Two drunks were remanded to jail. The case against Whelpley and Annie Wright for lying and lurking in Crawford's barn, Castle street, was resumed at an afternoon session of the court.

Detective Briggs and Police Constable McLeese gave evidence of being called to the Crawford barn on October 15th to investigate a complaint made by P. H. Clarkin, whose house on White street is adjacent to the Crawford barn. Mr. Clarkin complained that a revolver had been discharged in the barn and the bullet entered a bed room in his house, going over the heads of the inmates and tearing the plaster from the ceiling.

Detective Briggs said he found a revolver under a mattress in the barn. The gun was identified by Peter Covenay as his property.

Policeman McLeese stated to the court that the barn was not a safe place.

Mr. Clarkin testified regarding the revolver shooting, and the case was adjourned until this morning.

You can be sure of being nourished if you take BOVRIL

Bovril has the peculiar power of enabling people to get from their food nourishment which they cannot obtain in any other way. Unless your system crushes the gold of nourishment out of the ore of food you cannot get strong or keep strong, however much you eat.

Until your food has become part of your muscle, flesh and bone, it cannot assist in that process of rebuilding the body which is essential to good health. If your food does not nourish, however you vary your diet; if you are not strong enough to resist illness, or if you cannot get strong after illness, you will find a magical change if you add Bovril to your diet.

Doctor Tells How To Strengthen Eyesight 50 per cent In One Week's Time In Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home. Philadelphia, Pa. Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eye strain or other eye weakness? If so, you will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope for you. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man says after trying it: "I was almost blind; could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would pain dreadfully; now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seemed clear. I can even read fine print without glasses. It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye trouble of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple rules. Here is the prescription: Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Non-Opto tablets. Drop one Non-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and allow to dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear perceptibly right from the start and inflammation will quickly disappear. If your eyes are bothering you, even a little, take steps to save them now—before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time.

AMERICAN SECURITIES REACT IN LONDON. Special to The Standard. London, Nov. 9.—The uncertainty of the result of the presidential election caused a reaction in American securities on the stock exchange today and yesterday's improvement was lost. The list closed dull pending the final decision. The other sections had a good time. The war loan was active and shipping shares and Peruvian issues were strong features. Rubber stocks and colonial bonds were steady. Little notice was taken in responsible quarters of rumors in circulation of an early reduction in the bank rate. This is considered unlikely for some time.

BAPTIST

The Gospel surpasses ethics as the superior philosophy as revelation surpasses reason. It surpasses theology as the sun surpasses a treatise on solar physics. It surpasses the law of the Jews as a blessing surpasses a curse. It surpasses culture as the eternal surpasses the temporary.

Very kindly and finely appreciative articles on Dr. Clifford appeared in The Daily Chronicle, Daily News, Manchester Guardian, and other papers in commemoration of the Doctor's eightieth birthday. Perhaps that in the Manchester Guardian was the best. It described him as "almost the last of the great Nonconformist types as he was known to us by the Victorian age."

From the beautifully illuminated address (in album form) presented to Dr. Clifford by the Rev. S. W. Hughes, the following passage as expressive of the spirit of the whole is taken: "We yield to none in our admiration of those great gifts and qualities of heart and soul, which have enabled you to be one of those who help to keep the soul of England alive and serve the cause of humanity in so many ways; but we, your people, remember you with undying affection as the minister of God to us, the breaker of the bread of life, the patient guide, the wise pastor, the inspirer of Christian service, the sympathetic friend, our counselor in sorrow, our counselor in perplexity, the sharer in our joys, and in all things an exemplar to us of the Christian life."

When Pastor William Peter built his tabernacle in Petrograd, Russia, it was 2,000 ft. long and 100 ft. wide. It was predicted that it would be filled only when he preached. But word comes from Petrograd that the building has never been empty since the pastor's exile began, and that often there is not standing room for those who wish to attend his services.

A church in Dorsetshire, Eng., has devoted the entire collection of the front Sunday to the purchase of War Savings Certificates. These certificates are to run for the full five years of their currency, and when they are redeemed at the end of that time, the whole of the sum realized is to be spent in providing a memorial within the church to those members of its congregation who have fallen in the war. The idea is a particularly good one, and other churches might well consider the example worth following.

Rev. W. T. Hart, a Baptist chaplain who was with the front line at the beginning of the great offensive on the Somme, writes an interesting letter describing his experiences. The following is an extract:

Much has been written and spoken on the bearing of the war on religion. Some affirm that it will give rise to a revival of religion, while others hope that it will, and some doubt the survival of religion as we have known it. Out here we have no time for doubting religion. We are too busy using it. One day a man was brought in wounded in right arm, side, and leg. He was with me only six days, and he died. I was with him, and just as he was about to leave he said, "Father, you are the men that are going to win in this war." "Do you think so?" I said. He replied, "I don't think so, I know. During the last forty odd years I have seen a great deal of the world, and what is called life, but I saw more during these last six days than ever I saw during the last forty years!"

One thing is certain, our boys are all seeing "more" and deeper, and farther than ever they did before coming here, and if they are spared to return home, and if they will not be disobedient to the heavenly vision, they will be in touch with that for which the church stands, and one hopes that the church will be in touch with them.

From the Maritime Baptist:— Rev. W. B. Crowell has resigned the pastorate of the First Harvey church, Albert County, after two years of very successful labor. During that time ninety have been added to the churches on the field, sixty-four of them by baptism. He goes at once to the church at Windsor, Carleton County, where a great opportunity is offered both for evangelism and for organizing and building up the cause. It is believed that the Pastor Crowell is just the man for the task which awaits him.

Rev. N. A. McNeill, pastor of the Salisbury group of churches, is enjoying a belated holiday. This is because of his youth, on "the island." The church at Bedouque counts itself fortunate in having secured as pastor

METHODIST

A young British officer of noble ancestry, an only son, was among the honored dead in Flanders. In a notice written by his mother's hand for the obituary column of the London Morning Post, the first words were these: "In proud and loving memory, that following the name and date, 'I think that was beautiful, brave, sublime.'"

Rev. Principal Lloyd, president of the Dominion Alliance, has offered to serve as chaplain. His strength of character and conspicuous abilities have made him one of the outstanding figures in the province of Saskatchewan.

Col. K. is appealing to the Methodist church in Saskatchewan to assist in raising the battalion. He wants men. He must have men. He must have money. It costs $10,000 to recruit and organize a battalion. The Methodist church is going to do this and right at once.

Rev. I. H. McFadden of Methuen, Man., has paid the price of a richer liberty and a juster age for humanity. He was a noble devoted lovable man.

Three sons of Rev. Geo. Jewett, Springfield London conference, are in the service. Major O. V. Pte. E. W. and Pte. G. G. The two latter are in the Red Cross arm of the service.

Rev. Stanley Street a probationer in the Saskatchewan conference in the Ambulance Corps, has been wounded.

Three ministers from Kinstina, Sask., have enlisted as privates in the 243rd Batt. Mrs. Bralford, Anglican; R. Gilmore, Presbyterian and Walter H. Pavy, Methodist.

Rev. Henry G. Ives, minister of the Congregational Unitarian Society, Andover, N. H. United States, writes: "As a Unitarian minister, who takes your paper, I want to thank you for the wise article in your late issue, entitled 'Making the most of the Sunday campaign.'"

"You are perfectly right in taking the ground that, however, people may differ about Mr. Sunday's theology, or his personal temperament, now is the time to improve the occasion of his coming by joining hands to reap the greatest spiritual harvest for Boston and New England that can be secured ed, by putting religion on the map of the practical world. "I am well aware that my denomination might well gain in numbers from a worthy discussion of this critical time, but with many other Unitarians, the fact has become very clear to me, that the world is tired of denominational or doctrinal discussion, and will only respond to a spiritual outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Were John Wesley alive today he would urge all who love what the Lord Jesus stood for to forget their differences and work together during the coming weeks."

Few Methodist preachers meet with the surprise that Rev. E. E. McKay, D. D., of the Rock River conference, Chicago, met with walking on the streets of Los Angeles, Cal., recently, when, picking up a fat pocketbook, he found it contained $9,500. After a diligent search the owner was found to be the proprietor of the San Francisco Baseball Team. The owner was not only a happier, but a wiser man when the goods were delivered.

It is an interesting and meaningful story that is told by Sir Robert W. Peck, noted Wesleyan of England, concerning the preaching of a humble local preacher in one of the Wesleyan Methodist chapels, recently, and its effect upon some prominent adherents of the Church of England. Sir Robert was staying at his Banbury home the previous Sunday, and had a member of the House of Lords with him and another titled woman as guests. Sir Robert asked them if they would go to the Church of England, as they were church folk, or to the Wesleyan chapel with him, where a local preacher—a railway conductor was appointed. They all went to the chapel and the conductor who carried preached a most helpful sermon. When they returned home Sir Robert asked them how they liked the sermon, and one woman replied, "Would to God we had such preaching in our church!"

Rev. A. D. Strirling, of Scotsburn, N. S., has accepted the call to St. Matthew's church, Inverness, C. B., and closed his ministry in Scotsburn last Sabbath. This congregation is noteworthy for its generosity to missionary causes, giving twice as much to missions as to congregational support.

Rev. J. A. McGlashen, of Bridport, N. S., has been called to the pastorate of Stairs Memorial church, North Dartmouth, N. S., vacant since the going of Rev. V. G. Rae to service overseas. Mr. McGlashen has been more than twenty years in his present congregation.

Rev. David Coburn, of River John and Carleton, N. S., has been recalled to the pastorate of Upper Musquodoboit, N. S., which he resigned a few years ago.

On the last Sabbath of October the minister of St. John's church, Halifax, announced that there was but $135 in the Building Fund treasury to meet a payment of $2,000 due on their new church property the following Tuesday. A partial canvass was made next day with the result that in addition to payments made voluntarily the whole amount required was in hand in time to meet the obligation.

Tomorrow's Meeting.

The members of the Women's Canadian Club are invited to attend the meeting to be held tomorrow afternoon in the Imperial, at which Sir George Foster will speak of patriotism and the issues of the war. The meeting, which will be held at four o'clock, will disband in time for those attending to view the military manoeuvres between five and six.

Y. M. C. A.

The religious work committee of the Y. M. C. A. met last night and talked over plans for observing the association week of prayer which comes next week. It was decided to have a special meeting at some time each day in addition to the regular nine o'clock prayer service. The matter of the Sunday afternoon meetings was also considered and it was decided to make an effort to get men to address a number of these meetings during the winter.

'Prentice Boys' Fair.

The 'Prentice Boys' Fair, held in their hall on Guilford street, West End, drew a large attendance last night of interested pleasure seekers. The prizes for the various attractions were awarded as follows: Air gun, a fruit dish, won by Harry Fairweather; gent's bean toss, a silver dish, won by Philip Perry; ladies' bean toss, pair of slippers, Mrs. Wm. Tobin; nine pins, a gold ring, won by Pte. Strought, 222nd Battalion; ten pins, Gillette safety razor, won by Donald Hanson; ball toss, an umbrella, won by Bert Carleton; bagatelle, an umbrella, won by W. Waring; excelsior, water set, won by W. Harrington. A special prize for the wheel of fortune, cushion, was won by Harry Weaver. Three final door prizes will be drawn tonight, the prizes being three $5 gold pieces. The other drawings will take place Monday night, including the lotteries.

Fire in West End.

District Chief McAndrews and the firemen of the Western Division had a hard fight yesterday afternoon, when about 3:30 o'clock fire broke out in a one and a half story carpenter shop on Rodney street, owned by Henry Rowley. The building being very dry, with the contents most inflammable was soon badly gutted. At one time there was some danger of the Dufferin House, the Western House and other buildings adjoining catching but the efficient work of the firemen soon had the fire under control, but the "all out" was not sent in until the firemen had over an hour's hard work. In addition to the loss of lumber Mr. Rowley lost a planer and a saw. The damage amounted to about five hundred dollars and the owner has $600 insurance.

More Soldiers Home.

Two more fighting men returned to the city yesterday after playing a man's part in their country's war. They were Privates J. W. Woods and J. L. Whalley of the "Fighting 26th." Both boys have seen much service in France and have been invalided home. Private Woods is a native of Newcastle. He enlisted in the 4th C. M. R., went overseas with the 6th C. M. R., and was wounded in June at Ypres. Private J. L. Whalley speaking of the famous 26th Battalion stated that they were the bravest bunch of boys that he ever associated himself with. Pte. Whalley went through the battles known in history as Elid, Crafer and Ypres. It was in the last battle that the brave lad received his wounds. It occurred on the 13th of June. He will be at the convalescent home for at least six months.

CAVALRY MEN MAY BE SEEN IN ST. JOHN THIS WINTER

Officers From Headquarters Here Yesterday Inspecting Sites for Necessary Stables which are Likely to be Built on Exhibition Grounds—165th Route March—Other Military News.

Following the announcement made recently by the military authorities, that Colonel H. W. Arnold had been authorized to raise 4,000 cavalrymen for overseas service, preparations are being made for the immediate mobilization of the required number of men.

Yesterday Captain G. Simms, officer of the barracks, at the headquarters of Military District No. 6, was in the city making an inspection of the most likely places for the erection and construction of stables. The managing committee of the exhibition buildings will be asked permission to allow the military authorities to erect stables on the grounds.

It is not known for a certainty whether any of the troops will be stationed here, but the inference drawn from the actions of the military people is sufficient to warrant that there will be cavalrymen seen on the streets before many months.

It is felt by the military authorities that cavalry brigades will be extremely useful in covering the flat country on the western front.

Land for Trench Work.

It is probable that the city will grant the military authorities the use of the land between Manchester's field and Fairville for the purpose of carrying on instructions in the art of trench warfare.

Lieutenant Pierce, who is attached to the headquarters of the Seventh Infantry Brigade, after looking over the land decided that such a place would be admirably suited for the work.

Should the land be granted the citizens will have an opportunity of seeing the boys of the 165th under the capable instructor, Lieut. Pierce, dis-

PARADE ON SUNDAY TO BE THE LAST

In which 180th and 222nd N. B. Automobile Association Sent Resolution to Hon. B. Frank Smith.

The church parade which is to take place tomorrow will be the last in this city in which the 222nd and 180th Battalions will participate. Word was received by the officer commanding the respective battalions to make ready for a trip to Halifax, where they will resume training for overseas.

Yesterday the men were busy in packing up their belongings and making ready for their exodus. It is not known how long the units will remain in the garrison city, but according to military rumors the stay will not be long.

The 173rd at Sussex will also proceed to Halifax for further training. Before leaving the city the battalions will parade as far as the depot in full marching order. The parade will take place tomorrow evening about 6 o'clock.

The church parade in the morning promises to be one of the greatest military parades ever attempted in the city. The Kitties band arrived in the city last night and will be in the march tomorrow morning.

Since the arrival of the two battalions in our midst they have won the hearts of the citizens of St. John, and their departure will be regretted very much.

Both Lieut. Colonel James Lightfoot and Lieut. Colonel Richard Greer and the officers as well as the members of the battalions have made many warm friends who will watch them with interest during their military career on the other side.

Colonel Bruce and the officers and men of the 173rd Highland Battalion, which has been stationed at Sussex have made a hit with the people of this town.

Owing to the orders for the departure of the battalions so soon, the ladies will not have time to provide the boys with the usual cats. It is probable that several barrels of apples will be secured and distributed among the boys after they have boarded the train.

The at home which was to be tendered to the officers of the garrison, the mayor, commissioners and other public parties by the officer commanding the 222nd Battalion has been cancelled.

The N.C.O.'s and men of the 222nd will hold their dance tonight at St. Andrew's risk. The regimental band will furnish music and the ladies' executive of the Soldiers' Club will provide and serve the refreshments.

Created a Disturbance.

A sailor was given in charge yesterday afternoon by the captain of the ship Solheim lying at anchor in the harbor. The man is charged with being drunk and creating a disturbance on the vessel.

Another Bootlegger Arrested.

The police yesterday arrested John Matteson on the charge of loitering about the city and with supplying liquor to a soldier.

Memorial Service.

At St. Luke's church Sunday evening a memorial service will be held for Pte. William Ramsey, Sergeant W. Seymour, Corp. J. James and Pte. Charles D. McLaughlin. A detachment from the 165th Battalion with their bugle band will be present and the sermon will be preached by Rev. R. P. McKim.

Entertained at Partridge Island.

The officer commanding and officers of the 222nd Battalion were the guests of honor at a dinner given by Major Wetmore and the officers of No. 9 Siege Battery on Partridge Island last evening. The regimental band was also in attendance and furnished a choice programme of music. In the afternoon a baseball team from A. Company of the battalion played a game with the battery team. The score stood fifteen to one when the game was called in favor of the 222nd boys. There were no recruits for the Siege Battery yesterday.

GONDOLA PT. LAD GAVE HIS LIFE IN CAUSE

Word Received of Death of Melvin C. Harrison, in French Hospital—Enteric Fever Caused Death.

PTE. M. C. HARRISON.

The sad news has reached Mr. and Mrs. Martin Harrison, Gondola Point, Kings Co., of the death of their son, Melvin Coll, which took place on October 15th in hospital in France. Particulars following the official telegram stated that Private Harrison died of enteric fever and was laid to rest in the little cemetery at Boulogne.

The brave soldier was born at Beech Hill, Gondola Point, in 1886 and was the youngest son. Besides his parents he leaves four brothers, Ralph and Allan at home; Sergeant Roy of the 1st C. M. R., in France, and Budd of Pass, Alta., and one sister, Daisy of the University of Saskatchewan, Saskatchewan.

Private Harrison studied telegraphy with William Darling, Quispamsis, and was a successful operator in Eastern and Western Canada where he leaves many friends. At the time he enlisted he was stationed near Calgary and joined the 3rd C. M. R. in January, 1915, only a few days after his older brother Roy, who being prompted by that high sense of duty, had enlisted.

Training in Medicine Hat he went overseas in June, 1915, and went into action in September of that year. He took part in some of the heaviest fighting around Ypres and Hooge. Early in 1916 the remaining men of the 3rd C. M. R. were transferred to the 1st C. M. R. It was in the big battle of June 2nd and 3rd that Private Harrison especially distinguished himself for his splendid marksmanship, coolness and bravery under fire.

While suffering from repeated attacks of trench fever and rheumatism since reaching the front, and compelled to spend short periods in hospital he was always cheerful and hopeful.

PRESENTATION TO A MASONIC VETERAN

Members of New Brunswick Lodge F. & A. M. Honor A. R. Campbell D. G. M.

On the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of the consecration of New Brunswick Lodge, No. 22, F. and A. M., on Thursday evening there was an official visit from the Deputy Grand Master, work of the Master Mason's Degree and presentations. Alexander D. R. Campbell was accompanied by a full staff of officers of Grand Lodge and was received by a large gathering of brethren. P. M. George E. Day gave an address of an historical nature and, incidentally, congratulated the D.G.M. on his long connection with the lodge. P.G.M. Thomas Walker, in a happy speech, handed to Mr. Campbell a fine silver tea service. The tray was inscribed as follows: "Presented to Wor. Master, Wardens and Members of New Brunswick Lodge, No. 22, F. and A. M., to Right Worshipful Alex. R. Campbell, D.G.M., in recognition of his many years of valuable services to the lodge, November, 1916."

The presentation came as a complete surprise to Mr. Campbell, who, in a few happy words, expressed his thanks to those who had been so thoughtful.

RECOMMENDED PATROL SYSTEM FOR THE ROADS

In a recent discussion among the members of the New Brunswick Automobile Association, one of the chief topics was the manner in which the principal highways in the province could be kept in good condition, and the members were all in accord that a patrol system should be installed, which could be done at a most moderate cost, and would give great results. At the finish of the discussion the following resolution was adopted:

"That this association desires to recommend to the Honorable, the Minister of Public Works for the Province of New Brunswick, the advisability of instituting a series of road patrols on the principal highways of the province, believing that such work can be carried on at a moderate cost, and that if a superintendent of patrols were created, whose duty it would be to direct the patrol men, very great good would result to the principal highways of the province, both in maintaining what has been done and in creating smoother roads, which would attract visiting motorists, to the benefit of the inhabitants generally."

New Fur Coats.

Owing to the very low price at which F. A. Dykeman & Co. are selling furs, they have already had to secure a second supply this season, and have just put in stock another shipment of fur coats. These coats range in price from $75.00 up. One coat in particular should be seen and that is a Hudson Seal coat trimmed with Red Fox fur and lined with brocade silk. This coat is a good value at $300.00. Their price is $150.00. They have also received another shipment of those famous Muskrat Coats at $70.00.
