In the House of Lords on the 5th ult, the Marquess of Norman by said in reply to a question from the Bishop of Exeter, that he die not think the Canada Clergy Reserves questien would be discussed the present session. It appears that some informality in the Colonial Bill passed on this subject had given rise to the delay.

In the House of Commons on the 9th uit, Mr. Charles Villiers brought forward a motion, that the House resolve itself into a Committee, to take into consideration the Timber duties. The motion was opposed by Alderman I hompson; and Mr. P. Thompson, the President of the Board of Trade, commented upon the inauspicious moment for agitaing such a sunmoment for agitaling such a subject, and urged Mr. Villiers to Chares Le Brun Beckwath, Esq. in the 27th with fraw his motion, which he did, year of his age. Mr B. was a young mea or with fraw his motion, which he did, and the matter ended.
