PREMIER DRURY IN FAVOR OF GREAT ELECTORAL REFORM

Proportional Representation Will End Party Government and Give Electors Chance to Vote in Order of Their Preference.

TORONTO, Nov. 18.—The relegation to history in Ontario of party government—no less a vision holds a place in the mind of Premier F. C. Drury and no less a purpose will activate some of the activities of the Drury government according to a statement by Premier Drury.

"Will the voters of Ontario at the next election be called upon to vote under the proportional representation system?" The Premier smiled, obviously debating whether any pronouncement on the subject would be premature. Then he said: "I should say that it is altogether probable that at the next Ontario Elections the present system will be superseded by the one you have mentioned. There is most certainly room for this electoral reform in this province. No reasonable man in my opinion would oppose such a move."

"Why should there be a government and an opposition what is the necessity of such a system as that of party government? Proportional representation would ensure some measure of representation to the minorities of the province and who can reasonably object to that? It is not the ideal form of government. It is but a modification of the party form of administration but there seems to be justification for further progress towards what must be conceded to be a more perfect system."

"In this connection the extension of the use of the referendum must be considered. I am certainly committed to the policy of extension of the referendum as well as to that of proportional representation. If the two are properly developed, I can see in the near future the almost total elimination of the party system in this province."

"Does the system suggested include the enlargement of the present provincial constituencies?"

"Yes, it would involve the grouping of constituencies as they are at present constituted. Under the new system there would probably be four or five candidates to be elected from each group of ridings. The voters would not vote with the traditional X, but would vote for the men in the order of their preference. The vote would be registered in figures the elector writing the figures 1, 2, 3, 4 etc. opposite the names of the candidates. The ones would be counted first the two second and in this way the successful candidate would be determined. It would then be possible for an elector to vote for several of the candidates, indicating his preference by the figure opposite the names. He could select the most outstanding men from all parties."

HYDRO RESOLUTION UNANIMOUSLY ENDORSED

The City Council last evening unanimously endorsed the resolution passed on October 29th at Toronto by the Hydro Radial Railway Association asking for the putting of the Hydro Electric Power Commission on a permanent basis with Sir Adam Beck as chairman. The request of the Association to forward a copy to the Ontario Premier will also be granted.

FARMERS WILL HAVE TO MAKE IMPROVEMENTS

TORONTO, Nov. 18.—Premier Drury will not find it easy to reduce expenditures in every particular. The Parliament Buildings are too small even now, and the congestion will become worse when a new portfolio of Labor and Health is created and the Department of Lands, Forests and Mines is divided. New departments mean additional office space, more secretaries, stenographers and clerks and an increase in "overhead" expenses generally.

The Province is at present using buildings at Nos. 5, 15 and 17 Queen's Park, on the east side of the crescent, and also a building at 46 Richmond street west.

The Government was planning for a new Departmental building on the east side of the Queen's Park Crescent.

Although the farmers have heard much talk about extravagance at Queen's Park, Mr. Drury will find that the hardwood floor of the main hall-way of the building is very shabby. It is never oiled and is a mass of splinters. The greenhouses on the north side also have become an eyesore from lack of paint.

JIMMY AND MRS. WILDE PHOTOGRAPHED ON THEIR ARRIVAL IN NEW YORK ON THE S. S. ATLANTIC. Jimmy Wilde, flyweight champion of England, is considered the greatest little fighting man in Europe. He has come to America to meet the best men here. Wilde saw Benny Leonard fight Soldier Bartfield, and he was greatly impressed with the light-weight champion's skill. Wilde has met Pat Moore and Joe Lynch, and has earned decisions over both of them. He hopes to repeat over here.

SECOND MURDER TRIAL HAS AS YET NOT SHOWN NEW FEATURES

A Number of Additional Witnesses Re Watch Involved In The Case. Boyeff, Crown Witness, and One of Accused on Stand This Afternoon.

The second trial of Ivan Petroff, one of two defendants on the charge of the murder of John Sorokaty at Galt, May 25, opened yesterday afternoon before Mr. Justice Logie. The jury impaneled for the hearing is as follows: Henry K. Klinek, Woolwich Township; Samuel Letson, Woolwich; John Fraser, Kitchener; Philip Gramm, Wellesley; George M. Debus, Kitchener; George DeKleinhaus, Kitchener; J. S. Campbell, Wellesley; Elmer McIntyre, Wilmet; David Reid, Ayr; Harvey Devitt, Kitchener; Ephraim Ferris, Kitchener; Robert VonDran, Preston.

The evidence taken has not developed any new features and coincided with that of the first trial. One incident during the hearing of the case was the ruling by the court that evidence at the inquest of the coroner in Galt, by Mrs. James White, who is still in England and who was not able to give evidence, but whose evidence at the inquest was read at the first trial, is not admissible.

Yesterday afternoon the following witnesses were examined:

Dr. Wardlaw, of Galt; Dr. Charlton, of the same city; Harry Harrison, an alleged relative of the deceased; John Sorokaty, of Stratford; Mike Gassanoff, of Stratford; A. Edwards, of Galt; James White, of the same city; Mrs. Jessie Lockie, William Lockie, Mrs. Jackson, John Jackson, Simon Gilbert, all of the same city.

Owing to the illness of Mrs. Stewart who cannot attend her evidence at the first trial was read.

Lucan Walko, a friend and a former room mate of the deceased man, again gave evidence on the watch he had left in Sorokaty's care, which the Crown alleges was found on Petroff when he was arrested.

Crown Pins More Evidence on Watch

New witnesses, who testified on having frequently seen Sorokaty in possession of a watch, Mr. and Mrs. Saragizi, of Italian nationality, for whom Mr. Leo Longo acted as interpreter, testified to this but they would not swear the watch in the possession of the Crown was Sorokaty's.

Mr. Williams, jeweller of Sarnia, repeated his evidence, as to having sold the works in this particular watch to a foreigner and as to having repaired different works in the same case previously.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Malier, of Hamilton, also new witnesses, at whose boarding house Walko stayed in Hamilton, identified the watch as Walko's. Paul Tscharik, also a new witness and a former fellow boarder with Walko at this house, could identify the watch only by the dint in the case.

Detective Brogley, of Stratford, who arrested Petroff, again testified.

The Court adjourned at 12:35 p.m. until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

One of the accused, Boyeff, a Crown witness, re the charge against Petroff, was placed on the stand this afternoon.

Mr. George Bray is again counsel for the defence while Mr. J. C. McKinnis, K. C. of Stratford, is the Crown Examiner for Mr. D. S. Bowly, Crown Attorney.

ELMIRA - HAMILTON RADIAL RY. BY-LAW GIVEN FIRST READING

Finance Committee Will Consider Details of By-law. By-law Appointing City Solicitor and Fixing Salary Went Back to Committee.

PETITION FOR VOTE ON WATER COMMISSION

The first reading was given the Elmira-Hamilton radial railway bylaw by the City Council last evening. A special meeting of the Finance Committee will be held to consider the by-law in detail and to make a recommendation on its merits to the Council.

It is the intention of the Hydro Commission acting for the municipalities to have the bylaw submitted at the election at New Year's.

The city is asked to guarantee its proportionate share of the bonds to be issued to cover the cost of the road. Its share will be $1,053,080. The period of the bonds and guarantee will be forty years. The cost of the road will be $6,530,080.

The bylaw is framed along lines similar to that of the proposed Toronto-London radial railway which the city passed several years ago. The bonds for this railway were, according to the bylaw, to be deposited at Toronto, but the city has never been called upon to deposit them.

The first reading was given on the motion of Aldermen Zettell and Asmusen and was unanimous. Mayor Gross and several of the aldermen alluded to the advisability of considering the bylaw at a Finance Committee meeting. The mayor added that he believed the great majority of the people would support the bylaw, which would provide something for the public good. "However there is one clause in it which I think should be carefully considered. As it stands, it would take all power away from the city and give it all over to the Commission which could do as it liked. I think this should be considered before we finally pass on it."

Re the Water Commission

A petition of ratepayers asks for a vote on the question of the abolition of the Water Commission. It asks that the vote be taken at New Year's. The Council also referred this to the Finance Committee.

This Petition Also to Finance

The petition from several hundred ratepayers to have another plebiscite on the name of the city as between the present and former name, the vote of the ratepayers to be held at New Year's also was referred to the Finance Committee on the suggestion of the mayor.

City Solicitor and Duties

Clause of the Finance report was struck out on the motion of Aldermen Asmusen and Reid, the matter being referred back to the Committee. This clause recommended the appointment of Mr. H. J. Sims to the office of city solicitor at a salary of $1500.

"The reason we make this amendment is that it seems at the last meeting of the Committee the decision was a little hasty. There is one thing I would like to know, is the solicitor

NOT FOR O. B. U.

HAMILTON, Nov. 18.—Rev. Dr. Ernest Thomas at the meeting of the Hamilton Ministerial Association declared the article in a Toronto paper stating he had praised the O. B. U. in an address at Convocation Hall in Toronto on Sunday morning was a preposterous fabrication. "I am reported as having spoken for more than an hour," stated Dr. Thomas. "The meeting lasted one hour and seventeen minutes and it consisted entirely of questions and conference."

"With reference to my having said that the time was coming in Canada when men would have to be prepared to face or lose everything, it's an absolute fabrication. I said that the time had come when intellectual leaders must be ready to face even death at the hands of the mob or authorities rather than abandon Christian ideas."

COMPANY TO BUILD IN EAST WARD IMMEDIATELY

Eight To Ten Will Be Built Immediately. Will Build Next Year In Various Parts of City.

WATER AND OTHER CONNECTIONS ASKED FOR

The plans of the new housing company are maturing. Immediately eight to ten model houses are to be erected. They are to be completed before the first winter weather sets in.

The location of these houses will be on Samuel street commencing at the corner of Sterling avenue, a trifle over two blocks from the east end street car line.

Last evening members of the company, which is called the Waterloo County Housing Company, appeared before the City Council and presented a request for immediate sewer and water connections. In the deputation were the following:

Messrs. Walter Hartung, Oscar Rumpel, C. A. Ahrens, George Ahrens, W. H. Hamblin, Oliver Kinsie, all of the city; Mr. Roy McEachern and Superintendent Martin, of Messrs. W. N. McEachern and Sons, community builders, all members of the Waterloo County Housing Company.

The company was given an encouragement and the work of laying a sewer will be undertaken provided the requisite number of property owners are found to be on the petition and provided the necessary help is available, which last evening was not in the required form, being made verbally by Mr. Hartung and Mr. Roy McEachern.

The request for water and gas connections, the delegation was informed, would have to be made to the commissions.

Mr. McEachern informed the council men that it is the intention to erect eight to ten model houses this fall and to start immediately. In order to do so they had to have the necessary water connection. During the winter the company will complete its organization for building next year.

This morning it was learned the company had placed an office on the land on which these houses are to be commenced immediately and the work rushed to completion. It was also learned that the company will not confine its building operations next year to any one section of the city. It is proposed to erect houses in various parts of the city, which will number at least fifty.

FOUR CANADIAN NURSES KILLED ON N.Y. CENTRAL

Train Crushes Auto at Grade Crossing Near Buffalo and Kills Seven People; Canadian Victims are Natives of Galt, Tavistock, Fenwick and St. Catharines.—Train Carries Auto Quarter Mile

FATHER OF ONE VICTIM EMPLOYED IN THIS CITY.

BUFFALO, Nov. 18.—Seven persons were killed when a New York Central passenger train struck an automobile at a grade crossing on the eastern outskirts of Buffalo early to-day.

The dead are: William Mummery, his daughter, Mrs. Mummery, a wife, Fannie Breeze of Buffalo; Myrtle Hodgins of St. Catharines, Ont.; Jessie McMillan, of Tavistock, Ont.; Myrtle Nunn, Fenwick, Ont., and Jean Scott, of Galt.

The six women were nurses at a homeopathic hospital. Last night they attended a party at Lancaster, a western suburb, and were returning to Buffalo in Mummery's car when the accident occurred.

An eastbound freight train held the crossing when the crossing of the main line of the New York Central and Harlem Ave., Cheektowaga. As soon as the last car of the freight cleared the crossing Mummery sent his machine ahead, unaware that a passenger train was approaching on the next track.

Mummery attempted to clear the crossing when he realized the danger, but it was too late. The pilot of the engine caught the auto between the front and rear wheels and carried it down track a quarter of a mile, spilling out the occupants and crushing them to death. All seven were dead when the members of the train crew found them.

Goom in Tavistock

TAVISTOCK, Ont., Nov. 18.—Jessie McMillan was the daughter of Mrs. John McMillan, of Tavistock, and John McMillan, the father, is a returned Kitchener man. Louis, of Kitchener, and Henry, of Tavistock, are brothers. Deceased was a graduate of Tavistock Public and High Schools. Her father saw service in France. She was popular and had a winning disposition. The village is plunged in gloom at the ghastly news. She was also a graduate of the Central Business College, Stratford.

Miss McMillan, one of the victims, is the daughter of Mr. J. A. McMillan, a tailor in the employ of the Robe and Clothing Co., Ltd., Foundry Street, South.

The family home is in Tavistock, and all but father and daughter still reside there. The above press despatch was the first intimation to the father of the tragic death of his daughter.

Only three months ago both Miss McMillan and Miss Scott were victims of an auto accident. At that time Miss McMillan sustained injuries and spent some time at home in Tavistock until she had fully recovered.

Mr. McMillan, father of the deceased lady who received the sad message from Tavistock this morning, left for that town this afternoon.

The late lady was about twenty-four years of age. She was a nurse-in-training in Buffalo.

St. Catharines Girl Was Popular

ST. CATHARINES, Ont., Nov. 18.—This city is in sadness to-day because of the tragic death of Mabel Hodgkins, youngest daughter of Former Alderman Jos. Hodgkins, killed in an auto accident near Buffalo last night. She was one of the most popular girls in the city. Born here about twenty-four years ago and it was thought she had a brilliant future as a nurse. With her class she had graduated only last Saturday at Buffalo Hospital and was preparing to come home to St. Catharines to take a rest before entering upon her duties of trained nurse. The grief-stricken father went to Buffalo this morning to bring the body of his loved daughter home.

Case of Small Pox in City

Discovered in Home on Pequegnat Ave.

One case of smallpox has been discovered in the city and the sufferer, Mr. George H. Davis, 43 Pequegnat Ave., was removed to the Isolation Hospital. Mr. Davis, who has been ill about a week, but it was not until last evening that the case was pronounced smallpox. Mr. H. S. McMillan immediately had the home quarantined and it was deemed advisable to remove the patient with as little delay as possible.

In speaking to the medical officer of health this morning it was learned that the origin of the disease could not be learned and in view of this fact the Board of Health recommends that all those who have not been vaccinated recently to have same done at once. If the citizens adhere to this request they confidently expect the disease will be quickly stamped out.

N. B. FARMERS GETTING READY FOR THE FRAY

Lay Plans for Larger Things for Farmers and for Real Democracy.

FREDERICTON, N.B., Nov. 18.—The United Farmers of New Brunswick are getting ready to hold a provincial convention during the early winter. Woodstock has been chosen as the place for the gathering and it is now said that it will be held there either during January or early in February.

"Begin now to plan to come to Woodstock and help lay plans for larger things for the farmers and real democracy for Canada" is the conclusion of the call which C. Gordon Sharpe, secretary of the United Farmers of New Brunswick, has sent out to the various branches in which it is stated that railway fares of all delegates attending the convention will be paid.

EMBARGO WILL BRING IN COAL

Canada Wants as Much Coal Imported as it Exports.

OTTAWA, Nov. 18.—The placing of an embargo on the export of Canadian coal into the United States is an invitation of re-bilitation on the part of the latter country not only in the matter of bituminous but anthracite coal. The action of the trade commission has been taken with the purpose of securing "reciprocity" on supplies.

It is desired that for every ton Canada exports to Atlantic and Pacific states she shall receive from across the border an equal amount for her contract provinces. In order that the Canadian coal supply may be conserved to meet the double demands export to Europe has been stopped altogether. Bituminous coal stocks in Central Canada are getting low and as nothing has come in from the United States for some time past and reserves are being drawn upon the situation is critical. It was obviously necessary for Canada to take precautions in the matter.

The question of shipping Canadian bituminous coal from west coast ports to central Canada is fraught with almost insurmountable difficulties chiefly freight rates and shortage of cars.

H.C.O.L. ENDS HAREMS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Harems are going out of style in Turkey and it's all due to the high cost of living. According to recent arrivals from Constantinople only very rich Turks can afford to run over an alphabetical list of wives to see which one they will be taking to the theatre. So the harems are being doled for the day season. Life in Turkey is very expensive just now. Some Moslems hesitate taking one wife.

LIBERTY LEAGUE STILL ACTIVE

COBALT, Nov. 18.—The Citizens' Liberty League opened its campaign in Northern Ontario with a meeting here, at which a resolution was passed condemning "the unjust and pernicious" O.T.A. and stating that the people were misled during the recent referendum campaign by the "late prohibition Government" and "certain religious denominations." This resolution also declared that American money had financed a "demonstrous and unscrupulous" advertising campaign and added that prohibitory legislation would make criminals of the strong and hypocrites and degenerates of the weaklings.

PROV. SECRETARY 28 YEARS OF AGE

Hon. Mr. Nixon Born on April 1st, Has Shown Himself a Wise Man, and is Anxious to Make Good in Public Life.

CANADA'S YOUNGEST CABINET MINISTER (Special to Record.)

St. George, Nov. 18.—Twenty-eight years of age, the daddy of three children, and Provincial Secretary of Ontario.

Many men have attained the age of 28 years; some have become fathers of families; but Canadian history offers no precedent to the career of Hon. Harry C. Nixon, who has crowned the achievements of his "Twenties" with Cabinet rank.

Hon. Mr. Nixon was born on the outskirts of the little village of St. George, some twelve miles from Brantford, on April 1, 1891. In 1914 when the U. F. O. movement began to sweep rural Ontario, he became one of the leading spirits in the Brant county organization. Soon he was appointed secretary of the local U. F. O. co-operative branch and subsequently became county director of the U. F. O. clubs.

When the youthful farmer was called upon by Hon. E. C. Drury, the new Premier, to assume the portfolio of the Provincial Secretary, he evinced considerable reluctance, particularly on the ground of his lack of years. When, however, this objection was overcome by the insistent demand of the U. F. O. chief, the Minister withdrew all others and made plans to fill the office. 'Twas not however without many keen regrets, especially as it meant the parting breaking up of his home, to the building up of which he has devoted the past five years. Even yet, Mr. Nixon holds no political ambitions and views his appointment solely in the light of a public duty, which he

SUPERINTENDENT OF GREB SHOE CO.

In the report on the expansion of the Greb Shoe Co. in yesterday's issue the name of Mr. Fred Daub, Superintendent, was inadvertently omitted. As everyone knows Mr. Daub has been with the Greb Company since its inception and the splendid success it has enjoyed is due in no small measure to his ability as a shoeman. It is regretted that his name was not inserted with the officers in yesterday's report.

Windsor is face to face with a fuel famine as a result of the natural gas supply showing signs of exhaustion.

WATERLOO NEWS RECORD

FORMER WATERLOO CITIZEN ON TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Schade, the former Waterloo boy, are making an auto trip from Sissy, Minn., to California. A week was spent with relatives in Nebraska where rain fell. Some poor roads were encountered in Southern Iowa and Nebraska. When they struck Kansas they traveled for miles without seeing a house, then the mud houses came in view and many places were placarded "For Sale". The highway here was good, it being the Pike's Peak Ocean to Ocean highway. Crossing the line into Colorado a marked change in scenery was observed. Here were real mountains. Cowboys were observed loading cars with stock. On numerous occasions they noticed covered wagons drawn by four horses with families moving onto claims or land which they had purchased with nothing but mud buildings. Stops were made at Colorado Springs, Pueblo, Walsenburg and Trinidad. Several of these cities have fine camping grounds with many accommodations for tourists. Fuel is furnished for cooking and it was an interesting experience to mingle with a bunch of jovial, happy hearted tourists in general well equipped by Mr. and Mrs. Schade was greatly admired by the many tourists. It proved to be very comfortable and convenient and whenever they let down sides of their tent they immediately had callers drawn by the desire to see the interior.

The trail around Pike's Peak where the mountains rise and fall thousands of feet on either side proved to be all it has been pictured. The grandeur of the mountains and the thrill of mountain travel must be experienced; it can not be described. Leaving Colorado they reached the town of El Paso in New Mexico where they found Americans conducting cafes and other business enterprises in a town inhabited mostly by Mexicans. The first night in New Mexico was spent on the prairie where it is very dry and it is necessary to carry a supply of water. The trail from El Paso to Las Vegas and on to Santa Fe is rocky and mountainous sometimes it seemed to be almost impassable. As Las Vegas where the altitude was 7,000 feet, Mr. Schade was feeling quite well and but for the dust which was somewhat annoying they were very comfortable. The highest price paid for gasoline has been 40 cents per gallon while at Santa Fe it is 35 cents. Eggs are 85 cents. The many attractions are holding the tourists for a time when they will resume their journey with 1,070 miles to make before reaching their objective, San Diego, California.

SUCCESSFUL NAVY LEAGUE CAMPAIGN

OVER $1000 RAISED IN RECENT CAMPAIGN

While the recent Navy League Campaign was conducted in a quiet way in Waterloo the result of the efforts of the canvassers are indeed most gratifying. There was no set objective and the fact that Waterloo citizens subscribed $1020.00 is another evidence of the patriotic spirit of the citizens of the town. As will be remembered the campaign was held on Oct. 21st, continuing for 3 days and this morning a cheque for the above amount was sent to headquarters.

Appeal for Widows and Orphans
Captain Boal of the Navy League addressed the Council on behalf of the League. He made a strong appeal on behalf of the widows and orphans of the deceased men of the merchant marine, pointing out how this city as the rest of the country is dependent upon the merchant marine. His request was that the Council make a grant of $1000. If they felt they could not grant that, vote whatever they could. Make it $500 then.

The appeal by Captain Boal struck a responsive chord among the aldermen. Mayor Gross, Aldermen Utley and Zettel gave the assurance the Council would do at least as much as the finances will permit. The matter was referred to the Finance Committee. This action was satisfactory to Captain Boal.

Ratepayers on Homewood Avenue and vicinity petitioned the Council for the extension of Homewood Avenue to Factory Road. On the motion of Aldermen Amussen and Goffin the petition was referred to the City Planning Commission for a report and if this is favorable, the engineer will be asked to make a report on the respective assessments on the properties that would be affected by the desired extension.

A bylaw to appoint Mr. Sims city solicitor was laid over owing to the fact that the Finance Committee is to again consider the question. A letter from the Canadian Oil Co., Ltd., complaining about the condition of Walnut Street from the corner on Walnut Street to their property on Wilnot Street was referred to the Board of Works.

All members of the Council except Alderman Ratz were present.

TRY THIS IF YOU HAVE DANDRUFF

This is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This dissolves it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid ardent, apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have. You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid ardent at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and for ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

CONFERS WITH BALTIC STATES

DORPAT, Nov. 18.—M. Litumoff, the former Russian ambassador to Great Britain and head of the Bolshevik delegation conferring with representatives of the Baltic states here, had his initial meeting with other delegates this afternoon, credentials being exchanged.

Although present discussions cover merely an exchange of prisoners, they are regarded as most important, as the attitude of M. Litumoff on the question will probably indicate the position of the Bolsheviks on the subject of an armistice and peace.

WIDOWED MOTHERS PENSIONS LIKELY IN THIS PROV.

Favored by Labor Members and Farmers Members Have Agreed.

TORONTO, Nov. 18.—Widowed mothers' pensions, state unemployment insurance and possibly sickness and vitality insurance will be one of the important questions to be dealt with at coming session of the Ontario legislature, Hon. W. R. Rollo, minister of labor, in a statement to-day said.

"I am strongly in favor of mothers' pensions and have every reason to believe that some action will be taken at the coming session to incorporate the necessary provisions in a bill to be passed upon by the legislature."

"This is one of the most important social measures of the hour and it is one of the main planks in the labor platform. I have every reason to believe that it will receive early consideration, as, during the conferences which led to the U.F.O. labor coalition, we discussed the various planks in our platform which were not included in the U.F.O. policy."

"On this particular question we were given the hearty assurance of the U.F.O., that they would be very sympathetic to the enactment of a measure by which widowed mothers will be able to give their children every advantage of early education and care."

"We know positively that mothers do not wish to shrink the responsibility of bringing up their children in the home, but they are compelled practically to abandon them in order that they may go out and earn a living for themselves and their children."

WIDOWS PENSIONS

(Special to Record.)

Toronto, Nov. 18.—The committee on widow allowances, of which Rev. Peter Bryce is chairman, will meet within the next few days for a discussion of the present situation. They will wait upon Premier E. C. Drury in the near future and the date of the interview will be decided upon at the committee meeting.

The committee presented to the House a report on the widow's allowances which is now at the disposal of the U. F. O. labor administration. It is in connection with the report and the government's attitude towards the subject of widow's allowances that the committee will seek an audience with the premier.

FLAVELLE DENIES CHARGES MADE

Will Continue as Head of License Board or Resign if Gov't Desires.

(Special to Record.)

Toronto, Nov. 18.—In a written communication to Premier E. C. Drury, chairman J. D. Flavell, of the License Commission, has signified his willingness to continue as head of the License Board, if that meets with the approval of the present government. It is understood that in the latter, Mr. Flavell spoke for himself and his associates as members of the license board.

Mr. Flavell refers to the charges made against the board from various sources with reference to its enforcement of the Ontario Temperance Act, and intimates that there is a possibility that the government will no longer require his services. In such a case, he will give such assistance as is possible to his successor whoever he may be when the latter takes over the work of the commission.

Mr. Flavell gives a denial to the charges made against the board during the election campaign last month and advises the premier that he himself would welcome an investigation from which he has no fear as far as the record of the license board is concerned.

At The Theatres

"LOOT" AND VAUDEVILLE FEATURE AT IMPERIAL

Two new motion picture stars take another upward step into fame in Loot the new universal mystery drama, which opened at the Imperial theatre yesterday, capacity crowds being the rule both afternoon and evening.

Ora Carew and Darrell Foss are the featured players in this well known Saturday Evening Post story from the pen of Arthur Somers Roche. The commendable work of Miss Carew in the role of Morn Light, star of New York's Follies, won her a place in the hearts of the spectators. Miss Carew has the faculty of injecting her own personality into every action on the screen. The dramatic scenes in which she, as the little comedy actress, renounces the king of New York's underworld, the notorious Shadow, to save the man she loves, stamp her as an emotional actress of unusual power.

Darrell Foss cleverly handles the part of Hildeth, the young Englishman whose life is endangered because The Shadow desires to put him out of the way in order to obtain the famous Arabian jewels. As is well known, the story itself is an exciting mystery drama that keeps the audience in suspense until the final fade-out. Director William C. Dowling has built up "Loot" so as to utilize all the splendid dramatic possibilities afforded by the original book.

A supporting cast of ample ability includes Joe Girard, Frank Thompson, Alfred Allan, Wadsworth Harris, Arthur Mackley, Gertrude Astor, Helen Gibson, and Frank MacQuarrie, go to make this Universal photoplay a most worth while picture.

The "Red Glove Serial is just as interesting and thrilling as the preceding chapters and the comedy keeps the audience in a continual war of laughter. The Imperial has gone back into vaudeville and the three beta last night were well staged and well put across. Bob and Dolly Chambers in their zanyphone act were extremely clever and their manipulation on this difficult instrument last night was truly wonderful. The act has just enough variety to please the most critical classic numbers vying with the popular for prominence. Especially good was the work of the man in the act and his little travesty on the carpenter saw was mystifying and brought down the house. The Rays put across some good singing and dancing and they have a lot of humor that is pleasing.

John R. Gordon and Co., have an excellent comedy sketch. There are five in the company, all men, and their offering was highly appreciated. The singing ensemble is good and the entire act goes with a snap and bang, that carried the entire audience along. The entire bill is one of exceptional high merit and should draw capacity houses the balance of the engagement.

SOMETHING ABOUT MILK

Mysteries and Marvels in Its Production and Life.

How Milk is Secreted—Thunder Does Not Sour Milk, But Bacteria Does the Business—Agalactia, or Absence of Milk, Occurs More Frequently With Cows Than In the Females of Other Live Stock.

(Contributed by Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.)

A CONDITION known as "agalactia," or absence of milk in the mammae at the time of parturition, probably occurs more frequently in cows than in females of other classes of stock.
It may occur in a female in any condition as regards general health, general care and surroundings. The causes, or conditions to which it is due, are not well understood. It occurs even though pregnancy has been apparently normal and has reached full term. It is probably more frequently seen in females which have not bred for a long time, or in those which have produced their first young, though themselves aged. While it may occur in an animal under any conditions, there are conditions that appear to predispose an animal to the trouble. In such cases there appears to be a want of development in the lactal apparatus, which may have been caused by previous or present chronic disease of the udder, a chronic lessening in bulk, called "atrophy" of the udder, exhaustion following disease, severe labor, insufficient food, either during or immediately after pregnancy, natural debility, emaciation, etc.

The mammae is usually small and soft, and attempts to milk produce only a few drops of a yellowish fluid, in some cases followed by a few drops of a whitish, watery fluid. Treatment is frequently unsuccessful. It consists in feeding liberally on easily digested milk-producing food, massaging the udder frequently and stripping the teats three or four times daily. Great attention should be paid to the digestive organs in order to keep them as normal as possible, and the patient should be kept so that she will take considerable exercise. The writer's experience has been that the administration of drugs is non-effective.

In many cases the gland becomes perfectly inactive, and remains so until after the next parturition, when, in most cases, it becomes normal.—J. H. R., O. A. College, Guelph.

How Milk is Secreted.

No one knows exactly how the cow secretes milk. Various theories have been put forth explaining the process, but none of these are entirely satisfactory. About all we know is that milk is a true secretion of the mammary glands located in what is known as the udder, more commonly called the "bag" of the cow. It is made from blood.

In order that the cow may have plenty of blood, out of which she may manufacture milk. She must be in a healthy condition, be supplied with plenty of pure air, and water, and have an abundance of the right kind of food.

Some cows are unable to make milk abundantly even though the owner does all he can be expected to do for his cows. In these cases, it is the fault of the cows—they have not the power within themselves of making milk from their feed. They seem to change their feed into blood which is used as a basis for manufacturing beef, instead of milk. In addition, there are cows which apparently do little or nothing with their feed—they neither give milk in paying quantity, nor do they become fat. These are classed as "boarder" cows, and are very unprofitable for a farmer to keep.

The only way to know for certain whether or not a cow is able to secrete milk in paying quantity, is to weigh the milk from each cow for at least three days in each month.
Also test the milk for fat at least twice during each lactation period.
In this way, the owner may select the good from the poor cows, and thus build up a profitable herd for dairy purposes.—Prof. H. H. Dean, Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph.

Why Milk Sours.

It is a common impression that thunder sours milk, but this is not so.
The reason that milk sours is that minute plants, known as bacteria, act on the sugar in the milk, changing it into lactic or milk acid. One scientist, however, says this explanation is not satisfactory. He regards the souring of milk as a result of feeding on milk sugar by the lactic acid germs, leaving behind them what is known as sour milk.

No matter what the true explanation may be in detail, we believe that souring of milk is caused in some way by "germs" or bacteria which are microscopic plants that fall into milk from the air, and get in from many other places.

Like all plants, they must have air, suitable temperature, and moisture, in order to grow. The common plan of preventing the milk going sour is to cool it to 50 deg. F. as soon as possible after milking and keep it cold until it is used. The reason for this is, the cold makes an unfavorable condition for these plants to grow, hence the milk remains sweet, though sometimes it takes on bad flavors, or develops disease producing germs. In order to prevent this, we "pasteurize" milk in order to kill the germs present, by means of heat. If it is cooled and kept cold after heating, the milk will keep sweet for some time and is free from disease germs. This is known as the safest kind of milk to use. "Safety First" is a good rule when buying milk.—
Prof. H. H. Dean, O. A. College,
Guelph.

The "Indemnity" Parliament has proposed, the members have gone home and what was at first known as the Indemnity Session, is a thing of the past.

Perhaps not for a long time have the members spent so much of their time at Ottawa in any one year. The two sessions lasted nearly eight months.

The session just closed was called primarily to ratify the Treaty of Peace. That was promptly done, and still two months later, peace has not been formally proclaimed, although we are supposed to be a nation. Rumor has it that the delay is caused by the Irish situation, as Home Rule was to come into force immediately after the conclusion of the war. For various reasons, creditable and otherwise, the people of Ontario in particular, desire an early proclamation that the war is over.

The Prohibition Bill amendment to the Canada Temperance Act pleases nobody. Mr. Ben Spence, the leader of the organized temperance forces, says the bill is useless; that it doesn't go far enough. In his opinion, Parliament should summarily make all Canada bone-dry without further reference to the people. The opponents of course feel that not even a vote of the majority of the people should make it possible for that majority to prohibit the minority from having liquor in their houses.

However, the bill is law. The actual situation in Ontario now appears to be this: Upon the proclamation of peace by the King, it will again be legal for Ontario citizens to import their favorite beverages from Montreal or elsewhere until such time as the amended Temperance act can be brought into force. That will take some months at least. The Ontario Legislature must first meet and must pass a resolution asking the Dominion Government to submit a bone-dry referendum to the people of Ontario. Then the vote must be taken. If it shows a majority for the bone-dry principle, then Ontario goes back to the position in which she is to-day.

The Grand Trunk The purchase of the Grand Trunk alone made the session one of the most important in the history of Canada. This Dominion now owns railways with a total mileage of 23,000 miles, the most extensive system in the world and comprising the old Intercolonial, the National Transcontinental, the Grand Trunk Pacific, the Grand Trunk and the Canadian Northern. We believe in public ownership of railways, but it must be admitted that we have bitten off that which will make strong demands upon the national digestion as well as upon a sadly-depleted treasury.

Important Legislation The session lasted seventy-one days instead of the month which was anticipated. Indeed it was very much like a regular session, except that there was no Budget.

Four chief pieces of legislation stand out as the work of this autumn meeting of Parliament. These were the approval of the Peace Treaty, the acquisition of the Grand Trunk Railway, the Soldiers' Re-establishment bill and the Prohibition bills.

The Soldiers' Bill returned soldiers probably gave rise to more calculated political speeches than any other. Not since Sir Robert Borden whipped his followers into line on the Titles resolution have Unionist members swallowed themselves so manfully as they did on the Soldiers' Bill. To speak one way and to vote another is a parliamentary weakness that grows as it is practised.

IN THE DAY'S NEWS

Count Albert Apponyi, the Magyar Nationalist leader who has been named as head of the peace commission which will go to Paris to negotiate the Hungarian peace terms, is one of the most distinguished of the European statesmen of to-day. An eloquent orator, with a singularly striking command of English, he has won the respect of the many Americans who have heard him speak during his visits to the United States. He comes of a family that traces its descent from King Bela IV. of Hungary, and has played an important part in the destinies of his native land. Count Apponyi led movements for the development of Hungarian commerce and agriculture and for the checking of Russia's ambitions in the Balkans. He is noted for his democratic ideals and practices and for his advocacy of international peace.

A STORY OF D'ANNUNZIO

London, Nov. 18.—Although comparatively a young man, Gabriele d'Annunzio, the famous Italian poet, dramatist, and "hero of Fiume," is almost entirely bald. Presumably unaware of this fact, a woman admirer recently wrote to him for some personal memento, if it were "only a single hair."

D'Annunzio scribbled on the bottom of the letter: "Impossible, madam: I have already parted with three," and returned it to the writer.

Magistrate: "Where did this man strike you?"
"On the doorstep, sir."

THIN, NERVOUS PEOPLE NEED BITRO-PHOSPHATE

Weak, thin people—men or women—are nearly always nervous wrecks; thus conclusively proving that thinness, weakness, debility and neurasthenia are almost invariably due to nerve starvation. Feed your nerves and all these symptoms due to nerve starvation will disappear.

Eminent specialists state that one of the best things for the nerves is an organic phosphate known among druggists as Bitro-Phosphate, a five-grain tablet of which should be taken with each meal. Being a genuine nerve builder and not a stimulant or habit-forming drug, Bitro-Phosphate can be safely taken by the weakest and most delicate sufferer, and the results following its use are often simply astonishing.

By strengthening the nerves, weak, tired people regain energy and vigor; thinness and angustia give way to plumpness and curves; sleep returns to the sleepless; confidence and cheerfulness replace debility and gloom; dull eyes become bright, and pale, sunken cheeks regain the pink glow of health.

CAUTION—Bitro-Phosphate, the use of which is inexpensive, also wonderfully promotes the assimilation of food so much so, that many people report marked gains of weight in a few weeks. Those taking it who do not desire to put on flesh should use extra care in avoiding fat-producing foods.

"DANDERINE" STOPS HAIR FALLING OUT

Hurry! A few cents will save your hair and double its beauty.

A little "Danderine" cools, cleanses and makes the feverish, itchy scalp soft and pliable; then this stimulating tonic penetrates to the famished hair roots, revitalizing and invigorating every hair in the head, thus stopping the hair falling out, getting thin, scraggly or falling out in patches. It also makes every hair shows more life, vigor, brightness, color and thickness. A few cents buys a bottle of delightful "Danderine" at any drug or toilet counter.

AFRAID TO EAT MEALS

"Pape's Diapiesin" is the best Antacid and Stomach Regulator known

When your meals don't fit and you feel uncomfortable, when you belch gas, acids or raise sour, undigested food. When you feel lumps of indigestion pain, heartburn or headache from acidity, just eat a tablet of harmless and reliable Pape's Diapiesin and the stomach distress is gone.

Millions of people know the magic of Pape's Diapiesin as an acid. They know that most indigestion and disordered stomachs are from acidity. The relief comes quickly; no disappointment! Pape's Diapiesin helps regulate your stomach so you can eat favorite foods without fear and a box of these world-famous stomach tablets cost so little at drug stores.

NEW YORKERS TO BOYCOTT MILK HANDLERS

New York, Nov. 17.—More than 600,000 consumers in Greater New York went out on a "milk strike" to-day, according to Miss Mildred Taylor, executive secretary of the Community Council of Defense, which is directing the boycott to bring down the price of milk. Two hundred delegates from the district councils at a meeting last Friday voted to abstain from the use of milk on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday each week, until the producers reduce prices. As a health precaution a concession was granted to exempt children under seven years of age.

The Central Federated Union of Women's club, representing a membership of 500,000 promised to-day to co-operate in the boycott, Miss Taylor said. She estimated the decrease in sales caused by the "three-day abstinence" will result in a weekly loss of over $300,000 to the producers.

There still continues a decided upward tendency in most lines of hardware this week and many important changes have taken place. The continued industrial disturbances are causing serious shortages in some lines, but jobbers as a body are generally trying to steady prices by selling at the official quotation, but claim it is necessary to charge a premium where they have to buy indirectly and at a higher figure.

NEW MINISTRY IN NEW FOUNDLAND. ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Nov. 17.—A new ministry was sworn in today, headed by Richard Squires as premier and colonial secretary. Mr. Squires is leader of the forces which successfully opposed the Government party in the recent elections for the Newfoundland Legislature. His chief ally, William Coaker, head of the fishermen's union which represents the largest laboring element in the colony, was made Minister of Marine and Fisheries.

The other members of the Cabinet are: William Warren, minister of justice; Henry Brownrigg, minister of finance; Walter Halliwell, Arthur Barnes, George Shea, Alexander Campbell and Samuel E. Fookes, ministers without portfolio.

New holders of portfolios outside the Cabinet are: William Jennings, public works and William Cave, shipping. The portfolio of agriculture is still vacant.

It is understood that at the next session of the Legislature ministers of post office and education will be created to be filled by two of the present ministers without portfolio, and that the ministry of militia created for the war will be suppressed.

'IT SAVED MY HAND'

"I am a blacksmith. I contracted a sore finger, which led to blood-poisoning. After three months of doctoring, the finger had to be cut off. It was too late! The poison had spread to my hand and arm. My hand was opened and the bone scraped. No use! Doctors said hand would have to be taken off. I refused, and began to use Zam-Buk. I used it regularly and freely for a few weeks. It subdued the blood-poisoning and by the time I had used 7 boxes of Zam-Buk my hand was quite healed. I am now a blacksmith again, and I firmly believe it would have saved my finger too had I used it at first."

These facts were sworn to by Mr. John Evans of 87 Lawrence St., Halifax, N.S., before Supreme Court Commissioner O'Hearn, and the sworn statement may be seen by any person so desirous.

THE PRIDE OF LLEWELLYN

By Mrs. E. Southworth

After they had partaken of this repast they bade farewell to their hospitable entertainers, and set out on their return home.

The mountain girl was a good walker and she declared that she was not the least fatigued, and declined the carriage that Arthur would have called for her.

As they walked up Garrison street however talking gayly of the pleasant events of the day, an incident occurred that disturbed the peace of Gladys. As a carriage rolled rapidly past them, she started, turned pale and convulsively clasped the arm of Arthur.

"Why, what ails you, my dearest? Are you afraid of being run over?" inquired Arthur, drawing the trembling little hand closer within his arm.

"Oh, no, no, no, but—didn't you see?"

"What, love?"

"Mrs. Llewellyn was in that carriage!"

"Nonsense!"

"She was, indeed! I saw her! She met my glance and drew back!"

"Safe! Oh, yes, I know I am safe with you, dear Arthur. I know she cannot separate us now, but still tremble at the sight of that woman!"

"Sheer nervousness, my darling! Think no more of Mrs. Llewellyn. Her day of power over you is gone," said Arthur, drawing her arm closer to his side.

They sauntered on at a leisurely pace, and at sunset reached their suburban home, where they found the tea table set, and Father Crane, the priest of St. Peter's, there to spend the evening with his sisters.

He was a tall thin, fair faced, gray-haired man, very like his sisters, so like them that he had a humorous way of chiding himself among them as "Myself and the other old ladies."

Father Crane was presented in due form to "Colonel and Mrs. Pollard."

Arthur took the first private opportunity of correcting that chronic mistake in his name. But, as Father Crane called the young couple nothing but "sir" and "madam," Arthur had no opportunity of judging whether he profited by the correction.

She met the old ladies, however on their return from church; and very much she was surprised to see her.

"Dear me, Mrs. Colonel Pollard, my dear, is this you walking all alone by yourself at this solemn hour of the evening?" exclaimed Miss Polly, and all her sisters joined in the chorus.

"I came out to meet my husband, but he is late and I have walked farther than I intended. I cannot think what keeps him," said Gladys.

"Why child it is likely as the colonel has come the other way and it is at home now," said Miss Milly.

"Is there another way?"

"Why lor, yes, a short cut by the Eastern Branch River."

"Oh, then, I suppose he has taken that path, and is at home. I will go back with you. How fortunate it is that I met you! It would have been dreadful for me to have had to go home alone at this hour," said Gladys.

It would have been dangerous, my dear," said Miss Jenny.

They walked on rapidly, considering the age of the sisters; but it was quite dark when they reached the house.

Gladys ran in.

"Has my husband returned?" she eagerly inquired of Harriet.

"Lor, no, ma'am! I thought as you would bring him home long o' you, said the woman.

"What can keep him?" complained Gladys.

"Duty, my dear child, I reckon. You know these military and naval gentlemen's time is not their own," said Miss Polly.

"True very true! Don't wait tea for him, dear Miss Polly. You are tired, and want your tea, and he may not be home until late. Oh yes, it is alright!" said Gladys, trying to restrain her impatience, for as yet it was not anxiety that she felt.

"Well dear just as you say. We can keep the kettle over the fire and have fresh tea made for him when he comes, you know," said Miss Milly.

And as the bell almost rang immediately they all took off their bonnets and went to the table.

After tea, Gladys went and sat upon the porch to watch and listen for the beloved footsteps that she expected every moment to hear. But she heard no sound but the sighing of the wind among the trees, the patter of the falling leaves, and the strange, regular, monotonous flitting over her head for which she could not account. When however her eyes became accustomed to the gloom, and she could clearly see the starlit sky, and the tree studded ground and could even discern the distant gate she saw that the noise she produced by the flitting of innumerable bats, that came from a hole in the roof of the porch, singly and at intervals of half a minute, and flew off into the night sky.

Gladys was so amazed at the great number that came out that she began to count the remaining ones as they appeared. And she was so interested in this strange amusement that she forgot her impatience for Arthur's return.

The bats were still flitting out at the rate of two a minute, and Gladys was still counting them as they appeared when suddenly Miss Jenny opened the door and spoke to her.

"My dear Mrs. Colonel Pollard, it is half past nine, our bedtime; hadn't you better come in out of the night air?"

"Oh, no! please, Miss Jenny. The night air doesn't hurt me. It is so pleasant. You go to bed. I will sit here and wait for my husband. He will soon be here now. And when he comes he will take care to fasten up the house alright," pleaded Gladys.

"Well, my dear, just as you please. Goodnight honey."

"Good night, dear Miss Jenny." The old lady retired, and Gladys resumed her lonely watch. She gave over counting the bats, and sat watching and listening. Long, long she remained there on her dark vigil. She was rather impatient than alarmed at last, when she was worn out with watching and she fell asleep on her post, it was with these words on her lips:

"He is on duty; oh I know it is alright!"

"Why, honey! Why, child! Why have never been sitting here all night catching up your death in the night air, with the house door wide open for anybody to come in and cut all our throats and rob the house! Oh dear deary me!"

"Well, my dear, just as you please. Goodnight honey."

"Good night, dear Miss Jenny." The old lady retired, and Gladys resumed her lonely watch. She gave over counting the bats, and sat watching and listening. Long, long she remained there on her dark vigil. She was rather impatient than alarmed at last, when she was worn out with watching and she fell asleep on her post, it was with these words on her lips:

Teach the Children to Save

Habits are acquired early in life. Children, who are taught the value of money and the habit of saving, grow up into good business men and capable women.

The easiest way to teach children to save, is to start a Savings Account for each child ($1.00 each is sufficient). After a child has saved another dollar to make an additional deposit, he or she will have a better appreciation of just what a dollar stands for, and how much work and self-denial it represents.

THEDA BARA IN "A FOOL THERE WAS"

Double headers are the rule at the Star and the open bill this week is sure a winner and the large crowds at both performances yesterday were certainly delighted at the high class program provided by Manager McCutcheon. The headliner is "Theda Bara" in a most remarkable film, "A Fool There Was," and, as one followed the story from beginning to end they could not help but feel that the story in some instances was only too true. The star is seen in the role of a designing woman (Theda Bara) who being ignored by a lady of society makes up her mind to get even and the way she accomplishes her aim was touching in the extreme. In the opening chapters of the story we find the captain of a yacht in New York surrounded by a loving wife and dear little girl. He is called away to England on a commission from the Government and off the same boat embarks "the vampire." By many ruses she manages to make his acquaintance and in a short time so successfully does her scheme work out that the wife and daughter are forgotten and his life is of the lowest. He returns to New York and it is then that the trusting wife is willing to forgive all if he will only return to her but the vampire's will has such a hold on him that he cannot resist her and he dies a much disgraced man but not before regretting the fact that a fool there was and he was the fool. It's a wonderful film and one that for pathos has not been excelled in all the Star's wonderful productions. Earle Williams in "The Usurper" has a somewhat different role than what movie fans have been accustomed to see him in and it can be said that the part he is called upon to depict in the play shows him even to better advantage than in many of his other successes. The five acts of "Vod-a-Vil" movies are winners right from the drop of the hat and with a Mut and Jeff Comedy. Just as a way of variation the Star that cannot be dimmed should play to capacity "business the balance of the engagement."

EXCELLENT WESTERN FILM AT THE ALLEN

In the Westerners, which opened at the Allen Theatre yesterday and which will be shown for the last time to-night, drew an audience at both performances which were held spellbound at the thrilling situations which occurred throughout this most wonderful story with such well known stars as Roy

Stewart, Wilfred Lucas, Mildred Manning and Frankie Lee in the cast movie fans looked for something out of the ordinary and they got it. The story is a real Westerner in every respect and is worked out to a most successful conclusion. It's a story with a punch every minute and many who saw the picture yesterday intended going again to-night so satisfied were they with what they saw. The story is as follows:

Michael Lafond (Robert McKim), an Ironhorse half-breed, is driven from the caravan of a band of pioneers for insulting one of the women. Prue Welch (Mildred Manning), wife of a New England settler (Graham Pettie), who is bound for the Black Hills to study the flora and fauna of the country. To revenge himself, Lafond turns Indian and leads a band of Sioux into the hills. He murders Prue and escapes with her baby daughter, Molly (Mary Jane Irving).

Lafond is unable to complete his revenge by killing Jim Buckley (Wilfred Lucas), the scout who drove him out of the expedition. The half-breed determines to return to the ways of the white man and bides his time. He brings up Molly as his daughter, but his dark plans include the girl's eventual ruin.

Fifteen years later Lafond, now the owner of a chain of saloons and dance halls in the Black Hills, comes to Copper Creek to open a new dance hall and brings Molly (Mildred Manning) with him. Here he finds Buckley, a leading citizen of the settlement. Buckley has no recollection of the half-breed but Lafond lays plans to accomplish the former scout's ruin. Molly, as the only woman in the camp, enjoys the adoration of the male population. Cheyenne Harry (Roy Stewart), a reckless young miner, becomes her chief suitor.

Lafond succeeds in his plan to ruin Buckley in the eyes of his fellow citizens. Buckley is forced to fight his way out of the settlement. Lafond, enraged at Buckley's escape, determines to follow and avenge himself Indian fashion.

Before leaving camp in pursuit of Buckley, Lafond is recognized by the old professor, whose memory of the past is suddenly brought back by the sight of Lafond's cruel face when the professor finds the half-breed about to beat Molly with a whip for deserting the dance hall crowd the night before. Cheyenne Harry saves the professor but is wounded himself by Lafond, who escapes.

Lafond waylays Buckley on the trail and a terrific hand-to-hand fight takes place in Buckley's wagon as it is drawn at a mad gallop to the edge of a precipice. Buckley escapes and Lafond meets death in his fall from the buckboard against the jutting rocks below.

DO AWAY WITH PARTY GOV'T

Cabinet Bye-elections in December House Meets in February.

The first session of the new Legislature control will open early in February, according to Premier Drury. The bye-elections for the Cabinet Ministers will be set for about end of December. Where the three "homeless" Ministers will run is not decided on yet.

As to proportional representation, Mr. Drury declared that it was probable that at the next Ontario elections the present system would be superseded. "There is plenty of room for electoral reform in the province. No reasonable man would oppose such a move," said he. Mr. Drury could not see the necessity of party Government, and thought that proportional representation would ensure some measure of representation to the minorities of the province.

Coalition is Firm.
"The Labor party and the United Farmers have reached a very definite agreement on the subject of the eight-hour day," said the Premier. "I stand in no fear of the Government disagreeing upon any motion introduced from any source upon the matter. The Labor members have taken a most sensible and praiseworthy attitude. The Labor members, very wisely, too, have concluded that it is very much better to stand in power with a party who agree with them on 80 per cent of the matters in their political platform than to be jockeyed out of power on a question involving only a small percentage of the ideals for which they are striving.

Useful Officials to Stay.
Mr. Drury said that payment of the province's election bills would begin this week. No "cuts" will be made. And there is to be "no chopping off of the heads of useful Government servants, irrespective of how they came to be appointed. There will be no cleaning out of office holders to make room for appointees friends to the Government. But that does not mean that there is to be no reorganization. Where positions are superfluous they must be cut out and we tend to be particularly considerate of men who have grown old in the service.

For a Referendum.
The party of which I am the leader will throw its weight at the next session for an application to the Dominion for a referring to the temperance question. "We will apply without delay. It is the only way to make the present law effective."

He is determined to stop "boot-legging" in the province, and declared that the only proper way to stop that was by appealing to the Federal Government.

Mr. Drury says he is looking for a good gymnasium where his Cabinet Ministers may keep themselves physically fit.

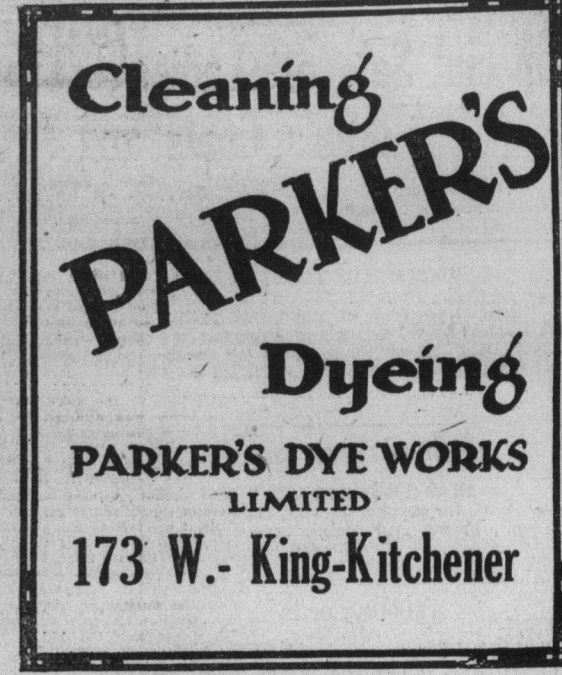

STRATFORD ELECTION POSSIBILITIES.

"I'll be there, said ex-Ald. S. L. Ireland, when a reporter asked him when he was going to declare his candidature for mayor of Stratford for 1920. Coupled with his declarations after the last municipal election that he would be in the field again this time, it looks as if at least one mayoralty candidate is assured.

Rumor is busy with the name of Ald. J. Heideman as a mayoralty possibility—on the Labor ticket, it is said. A Labor slate is not unexpected, though officials of organized labor are reticent concerning their plans. It seems assured, however, that there will be an effort made to elect several aldermen on the Labor card, and other civic offices may be invaded by the same forces. According to present indications, several members of the City Council will drop out this year, so that a general shake-up is expected.

There is quite a feeling prevalent in favor of retaining, if possible, Mayor Stevenson, in that office. Mr. Stevenson's intentions in the matter are not known.

So, too, there are many citizens who want to see Col. John L. Young M. C., in the mayor's chair in 1920. Elected last January, Col. Young was early in the war called away on military duty, and eventually had to relinquish the mayoralty. It is not known whether the colonel intends to seek the office or not.

The Merchants' Column

Edited by
Mansfield F. House

In this column, which appears every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday, will appear news and short articles of special interest to merchants, their salespeople and business men and women in general. All phases of store management—buying, accounting, advertising and retail salesmanship—will be dealt with, not too technically, but by descriptions of methods actually in use by successful merchants.

COMPLETE SATISFACTION BUILT A $150,000 GROCERY.

An annual business of $150,000 is one which many a grocery store, located in a large city, would be glad to claim for its own; but to accomplish it in a town of 7000 automatically stamps the organization as being distinctly above the average.

Maryville, Mo., is the town in question and Schumacher's is the store. Moreover, the $150,000 was attained last year without price-cutting of any kind—simply through rigid adherence to the principle of giving value received.

"We have made it our business to study the sources of supply and to get good values—even if we have to pay a higher price and charge our customers accordingly," states Edward Schumacher. "By doing this we can tell our customers exactly what to expect and we can guarantee satisfaction. Of course, we have low-priced goods as well as the high-priced lines, but that portion of our business is gradually giving way to the better class, for we tell our patrons plainly that they 'get just what they pay for.'"

"We never make a special price. We watch our stock closely and if any goods are found to be damaged through the manufacturer's fault we return them. If the damage is due to a fault of our own, we simply haul the questionable goods out to the dump heap, figuring that we cannot afford to take the slightest chance even though we gave the customer a discount."

"If a customer has any fault to find with goods purchased from us, we take them back without argument. It is always safe—for business purposes—to assume that the customer is right and, living up to this principle, we naturally do our buying from houses that make the same sweeping guarantee."

"It is a mistake to suppose that the ordinary trade does not appreciate the ultimate economy of high quality. A farmer's wife came in the other day and asked for the highest priced sardines, adding that she found them cheaper than the twenty cent ones. 'We used to throw some of the cheap ones away,' she explained, 'but these forty cent ones are so good that we eat every morsel, even down to the last drop of oil.'"

Thus, never stressing prices but always assuring complete satisfaction, the Schumachers have gradually drawn to their store the allegiance of families who trust them implicitly. Sales put on by the other groceries in Maryville do not tempt this trade away, for they have learned by experience that Schumacher's gives them what they pay for—value for every penny they spend. Which is the reason for the $150,000 business in a town of 700 people—or more than $20 a year per person.

TO REDUCE NUMBER OF CHECKS OFFERED.

The person who intends to present a check to the Coulter Dry Goods Company, Los Angeles, Calif., reads this sign at one side of the cashier's office:

"We investigate all checks before cashing them. If not agreeable, do not present them."

As about the only person who could seriously object is he or she who should not present a check, the sign does more good than harm.

"The Robert Hotel, Provo, Utah, has another plan that might well be adopted by retailers who have been 'stung' through cashing worthless checks. Along the front of the cigar case is a row of checks that have come back with notations such as 'cause cold chills to run down the back of the man who loses the money on them.' As these are in plain view of patrons they are an eloquent argument against promiscuous cashing of checks."

CHURCH USES ADVERTISING TO FIND A NEW PASTOR.

In the old days when a congregation lost its pastor they gathered together and prayerfully besought the guiding hand of another, possibly adding a letter or two, suggesting to clergymen outside the community that the opening existed.

But times have changed—at least in Phoenix, Ariz. The Rev. John Logan Macquis recently announced that he had accepted a call to another pastorate, and that he would leave the First Presbyterian Church on November 1. Not content to await his actual departure, the church authorities immediately sanctioned the publication of and payment for a series of advertisements, designed to call attention to the opening and secure the services of a successor.

The church does not, however, work on the assumption that it can secure a minister merely by publishing the fact that a vacancy exists. It makes every effort to sell the advantages of the position by calling attention to the desirability of Phoenix as a place of residence and stating that "our church has had but four pastors during the last twenty-seven years."

"Our church building is not modern," admits the announcement, "but the erection of a new structure is one of the things on our program for the near future, when conditions are favorable. We want a pastor filled with the spirit of the Lord and with energy for His work. Phoenix is a fine field for men, and a pastor should be equipped with special ability to attract and organize them."

Already the replies received indicate that the church will have but little difficulty in securing the pastor it wants, this scorecard another point for advertising in an unusual field.

Seattle, Wash., has opened an Oriental rug department on the fourth floor of the store, which has been transformed into a picturesque Turkish rug market, with the slender arches and swinging lamps of a Moorish temple as background for the rich fabrics. Panels in the temple walls are decorated with pictures of the tribes of the desert.

On the occasion of the opening of this department big newspaper advertisements carrying a sketch of the temple with its display of rugs appeared in the Seattle papers and crowds flocked to the section for days. C. W. Dolan, head of the department, has spent years getting the collection together and it is said to be one of the very best in the country. Mr. Dolan has specialized on Persian, Turkish, Turkoman, Caucasian and Chinese rugs. Prices range from $12 to $4800.

Two of the essays are being published in a box each day in the Tepper Brothers' Space, and tell the public in unusual terms and language some of the merits that the Tepper shoppers saw in the establishment.

OBITUARY.

A very sad event occurred on Mon- day, when Antoinette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Zinger, corner Elgin and Pandora sts., passed away. She quit school a month ago owing to a slight indisposition which however la- ter developed into dropsy of the heart from which she succumbed unexpectedly, aged 7 years, 10 months and 3 days. Antoinette was an unusually bright and vigorous child, a real out- door girl, who seemed to be proof against all diseases, but, alas, God willed otherwise.

The useful Article Booth at St. Louis' Sale has a big assortment of comforts for all.

EDWARDS REFUSES TO EXPLAIN

KINGSTON, Nov. 18.—Dr. J. W. Edwards M.P. in a letter to local branch of G.W.V.A. states he has no explanation to make re his statement in connection with soldiers' re-estab- lishment. He was reported as saying he was opposed giving returned men one dollar more even though the coun- try had money to give. The member for Frontenac states that the veterans have no right to ask for an explanation and that none will be given.

EUROPEAN EXPORTS STOPPED

Washington, Nov. 18.—Arguments on the validity of the War-Time Pro- hibition Act will be heard by the Su- preme Court, but a decision is not ex- pected before December 8.

Should the supreme court hold the war-time act unconstitutional, millions of gallons of whiskey and wine would be placed on the market immediately in those states which had not voted out liquor before the operation of the federal act.

Moreover, many opponents of pro- hibition expect peace to be an accom- plished fact before the end of the pre- sent special session of Congress.

The White House has announced that immediately upon the proclama- tion of peace President Wilson will de- clare the war-time prohibition at an end.

Indian Soldier Dies far from Northern Home

One of the Indians of the Hudson Bay country, who left his native life in the north to fight for his white British brothers, died in Speedwell Hospital at Guelph. He was a full- blooded Cree Indian, but had taken the name Thomas Sutherland and had been a Scottish family at a Hudson Bay post at Moose Factory, where he was born in 1882. In the winter of 1910, with other Cree Indians, he tramped on snowshoes to Cochrane to enlist in an Indian platoon in a new Ontario bat- talion.

He served with the First Pioneer Battalion in France, and was so- bly gassed that he was returned to Canada. He was first taken to Gravenhurst and later transferred to Guelph.

DENTS HAT IS IN THE RING

Most of Old Players in Line.

Under new auspices, but without losing their identity, and with as good a team or a better one than represented them last season, the Dents tossed their chapeaux into the hockey ring at night. The tooth carpenters will have an O.H.A. senior team and will get right down to work on Monday afternoon next at five o'clock at the Arena Gardens.

"Dick" Carroll will coach and train the team again. Most of the players of last season will be in line, together with a flock of newcomers with reputations as high as St. James' spire, and not, but not least, "Mack" Sheldon, star of the team two years ago.

Among the members of last season's team who will be out again are Charley Stewart, Vern Forbes, Stan Brown, Rod Smylie, Louis Hudson, Leroy Rennie and Willard Box.

The new material includes a number of players of established ability. John Langtry, former goalkeeper of the famous Winnipeg Victorias in 1915-16, went overseas with the 101st Battalion and transferred to the 16th Battalion. He is a Dental student. Miller, a defense player, was with the University of Manitoba team in the Winnipeg League for two seasons. He is also a student at the Dental College. From Sydney, Cape Breton, comes Leo Kay, a forward, who is also registered at the college. "Bill" Carson, the sensational young forward of the Woodstock Juniors last season, is studying dentistry here and will be a candidate for the forward line. His place is assured. George Wight of the Canadian Soo was with the 227th Battalion at Hamilton and went overseas with the machine guns, later transferring to the Royal Air Force. Hogarth, of Aura Lee's champion O.H.A. Juniors, and Westman, the Argonaut football player, who hails from Ottawa, are also in quest of berths.

Owing to the recent O.H.A. regulation with regard to club affiliations the Dents will operate this season under the auspices of the Toronto Dental Society. The officers are: Patrons, Mayor Church, Dr. A. E. Webster, Dr. Wallace Secombe, Capt. R. D. Thornton, Dr. C. A. Kennedy; Honorary President, Col. W. G. Thompson; President, Dr. Arnold Mason; Vice-President, Dr. E. O. Fife; Secretary-Treasurer, Dr. Leo Leonard; Manager, Willard Box; Coach and Trainer, "Dick" Carroll.

PATSEY CLINE VS. RITCHIE MITCHELL

A unique demonstration of the possibilities of aerial travel was given on Saturday when R. C. Keys, University of Toronto, 1915, left New York by the air route and went to Montreal to see his alma mater battle for gridiron honors against McGill. Owing to a stiff headwind the flyers did not see the game, although they passed over the McGill stadium at about 3,200 feet, being forced to land in a vacant field in St. Leonard de Port Maurice, after Mr. Keys, however, was in time to join some of the Varsity men at dinner.

The machine in which the trip was made was piloted by W. H. McMullen. The flyers returned yesterday afternoon. The trip was made in 5 hours and 18 minutes.

Officials of the Galt A.A.A. are smiling these days in appreciation for the support lent by all classes of citizens for the coming boxing show to be staged at Scott's November 27. Close followers of the game are not backward in stating that the program already announced is by far the classiest card ever attempted in Galt, and that a real night's sport is assured.

Manager "Doc" Cutch, of Patsey Wallace, flyweight champion of America, claims that his boxer is Jimmy Wilde's logical opponent.

Junior Meds. won the Mullock cup at Toronto yesterday when they defeated Ontario Agricultural College by 11 to 7. The winners gained a long lead in the first period when they rushed the visitors off their feet and tallied all their points. The Aggies fought back with determination in the second period and boosted their total to seven. In the last half neither side tallied.

Little Bobby Eber, pride of Hamilton, now a resident of Detroit, and Carl Tremaine, bantam weight champion of the State of Michigan, will provide the main bout on next Friday night's G. A. C. card in Loew's Theatre. The Grand Army of Canada officials are to be complimented on their fine choice. They couldn't have selected a better headliner if given a month's time to work in.

With Fingers! Corns Lift Off

Doesn't hurt a bit to lift any corn or callus right off. Try it!

For a few cents you can get a small bottle of the magic drug freezons recently discovered by a Cincinnati man.

Just ask at any drug store for a small bottle of freezons. Apply a few drops upon, a tender, aching corn or callus and instantly all soreness disappears and shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you lift it off with the fingers. Just think! Not one bit of pain before applying freezons or afterwards. It doesn't even irritate the surrounding skin.

Hard corns, soft corns or corns between the toes, also hardened calluses on the bottom of feet, shrivel up and fall off without hurting a particle. It is almost magical. Ladies! Keep a tiny bottle on the dresser; never let a corn or callus ache twice.

MEMBER OF THE AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS

FORTY-FIRST YEAR

A VERDICT BY THE JURY IS EXPECTED BY

Evidence All In At 12.35 p.m. To-day. Petcoff Agrees With Story at First Trial, Although Differs in Details.

NEW WITNESSES CALLED FOR DEFENSE

The evidence for the defense is being heard in the murder trial of Ivan Petcoff at 5.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. All the Crown witnesses had been examined and cross-examined. Another hour was put in by the Court and jury receiving the evidence of several defense witnesses and adjournment was made until 10.15 o'clock this morning.

One of the two accused men, Boyeff, a Crown witness in the case of the charge against Petcoff, took the stand shortly after two o'clock and for nearly three hours was subject to a severe examination and cross-examination. His story about the affair coincided in the main with his former story. He again denied getting money off the body of Sobeloff.

The two men are the only money he saw was that in a purse taken by Petcoff. The defense counsel devoted a considerable part of his cross-examination to ascertaining where Boyeff got the $1240, he had on his person. Boyeff claimed he had been carrying this for nine or ten months. He said that he had cashed a cheque in the Bank of Montreal, Stratford nine months before, for $500 which was signed by the Stratford postmaster for Christo Petcoff of Niagara Falls for a partnership in his cheese business. He did not know whether this man was a relative of Ivan Petcoff.

The witness further during the course of the cross-examination said two days after the alleged murder he paid $100 in cash to an agent in Brantford for life insurance, which he was told would cost him $58 to $60 a year. He wanted to pay in advance. He again admitted having told different stories after the alleged murder, but when pressed as to whether he didn't want to make it worse for Petcoff he denied that he had any such intention but his actions were simply the result of his excitement.

As to the watch in the Court which was found on Petcoff, the witness thought Petcoff's watch was bigger than this, and was plain and not engraved. Chief Gorman, of Galt, again submitted his evidence and he was the last Crown witness.

New Witnesses for Defence Mr. Harry Stein, jeweller, of Hamilton, again testified that he sold the works of the watch, before the court. Charles Cummings, Stratford, manager of his brother's clothing store, also gave evidence that case when he was told of a gold filled watch in Petcoff, the accused took the stand at 10.15 o'clock this morning. He was counsel for an hour by the Crown. He was closely questioned about several prisoners' story at Galt Sunday after his story at the other things he had to say. He was counsel for an hour by the Crown. He was closely questioned about several prisoners' story at Galt Sunday after his story at the other things he had to say.

Verdict Probable At 12.35 p.m. the trial was adjourned. The add Counsel began at evening it is expected that a verdict will be reached by the jury.

Hamilton, Nov. 18.—No doubt exists in the minds of Toronto's health authorities that the present epidemic is smallpox and not chickenpox, as many people still seem to believe. About a month ago many of the present cases of smallpox were diagnosed as chickenpox and later were declared to be smallpox.

The difference between the two in the early stages is very slight. Scientific tests have recently been made upon the lower animals (it is unlawful to make tests of human beings) and the results prove conclusively that it is smallpox that is prevalent in the city today.

To prove beyond doubt that these mild cases were smallpox, the health authorities took the contents of a vesicle of a doubtful case and injected into the shaved skin of rabbits which had previously been vaccinated against smallpox. Twelve days being required to produce immunity in a rabbit by vaccination this period was allowed to elapse before the test was made. The result showed an average of redness at the site of injection. This is taken as proof that the material taken from the vesicle of the doubtful case was smallpox virus.

London, Nov. 18.—Great Britain and France are considering whether they are not compelled to proceed with the carrying out of the German peace treaty and the operation of the League of Nations independently of the United States, pending the decision of American government on its course. It is pointed out that matters are continually arising under the treaty which need immediate attention, such as the operation of various plebiscite commissions and it is considered that because of this fact it is no longer possible to delay making past operative.

TRIUMPH OF LAW AND ORDER. Again, Nov. 18.—All the newspapers regard the recent elections as a triumph of law and order over Bolshevism, excepting the Socialist papers, which adopt a sullen and bitter tone.

OTTAWA. No cases of chickenpox have been reported in the Ottawa, Quebec, and St. John's, Ontario, and it had been a long time since the Dominion Express had been cured. An action will be taken by the Canadian Express and the Dominion order. Women may not join Council of National Church.
