MYSTERIOUS CIGAR BOX IN MCGARRY OFFICE WAS CYNOSURE OF ALL EYES

Chas. Matthews, Jr., in Evidence Before Public Accounts Committee, Tells of Rumors.

HEARD CASH ACCEPTED

Peter Smith Denies He Ever Received $15,000 Bribe
From Col. Mason.

Special to The Advertiser
by a Staff Correspondent.
Toronto, April 7.—Two points of outstanding significance in connection with the "toll gate" issue were brought to light in Kingston penitentiary yesterday, during the examination of Peter Smith and Charles A. Matthews, Jun., by a sub-committee of the public accounts committee of the legislature.

The first was the testimony of Matthews, that he had been told by an unnamed person whom he identified as "part of the government" that certain sums of money had "come" to Hon. T. W. McGarry during the latter's term as provincial treasurer.

The second was the statement by Peter Smith that the late Col. Cooper
Mason, general manager of the Home Bank, had offered him the sum of $15,000 as a rebate on the McGarry loan, but that he (Smith) had refused to accept it when he learned that it was intended as a personal bribe and not as a rebate to the province.

Smith absolutely denied that he had ever received the $15,000 in question, explaining that it had been only in the hope of avoiding the expense and publicity of a second trial. He explained that the sum of $7,000 in large legal bills which had deposited in his Stratford bank account about the same time that the check was drawn from the Home Bank was in payment for certain personal bonds of his, which he had sold to the bond department of the bank.

Object to Rumors.
The examination of Matthews, which consumed the greater part of the sub-committee's session in Kingston yesterday, was interspersed with frequent arguments as to what should be admissible as evidence.
Conservative members of the committee objected to the admission of rumors which Matthews might have heard from other persons.

The former deputy treasurer stated that he had no personal knowledge of Mr. McGarry's having received money, although he had heard of such a thing—not in connection with Home Bank transactions, he explained. He told of having heard of a mysterious cigar box in McGarry's office and of a sum of money—"some thousands of dollars"—which had been left there.
He himself had not seen the money and could not swear as to its having been there.

Messrs. Raney and Sinclair, the Progressive and Liberal leaders, vigorously demanded that Matthews give the name of the person who had told him of the cigar box, but the majority of the committee voted otherwise and adjourned the one time.

Is Going Way of Other Idols.

GETS GRAVE WARNING

Associated Press Despatch.
Moscow, April 7.—Karl Radek, who has exercised an influence in the Bolshevik world second only to the influence of Trotsky, appears to be destined to follow the former soviet war minister into political oblivion.

The all-powerful central controlling committee of the communist party passed resolutions yesterday roundly condemning Radek's attempts to create factional strife within the German communist party, and he is warned that if he continues to oppose the present central committee of the German communist party he will be dismissed from membership in the Russian communist party.

BOY BURGLAR IS ON BAIL TO APPEAR NEXT MONDAY

No formal charge has yet been made against a 14-year-old South London boy, who admitted yesterday, after being placed under arrest by Detective George E. Walsh, that he had entered and robbed at least seven South London homes within the past three weeks.

The boy was brought to juvenile court. Police were unable to proceed with the case, and asked for a week's adjournment. Meanwhile, the boy has been bailed in the sum of $100 in his father's custody. He will appear before Juvenile Judge Warner next

WHEABLE GAINING SUPPORT

Vice-Chairman Cairncross Says Matter Settled So Far As He Is Concerned.

HOPED FOR GREER

Deputation to Toronto Yesterday Wanted Greer To Be Left Here.

It is almost a foregone conclusion that Inspector Geoffrey A. Wheable, B.A., M.C., will be appointed inspector-administrator of the London school system.

Success did not attend the efforts of the board of education yesterday for consultation and to secure the permission of the department to have V. Kenneth Greer, M.A., continue in his position here.

As a result Trustee A. Roy Cairncross, vice-chairman of the board, now favors Mr. Wheable for the post,
as does Trustee Rev. R. D. Mess,
M.M., making practically certain Mr.
Wheable's appointment to the administration.

"We have had one race," a Mr.
Cairncross, succinctly put it to the Advertiser this morning. "Mr. Hoag was first and Mr. Wheable second. I do not think it would be fair to have another race."

Dr. P. W. Merchant, director of education for the department, whom the deputation saw yesterday noon, held out no encouragement whatever to the possibility of Mr. Greer being permitted by the department to relinquish the chief inspectorship of public and separate schools for the province and remain in London. Mr.
Greer stated this morning that he was an official of the department after May 1 and that therefore he could not at this juncture consider any request by the board to remain here.

No Other, Says Cairncross.

NINE INDIANS ARE HELD ON ABDUCTION CHARGE

Bombay, India, April 7.—The nine

January, to abduct the Nautch girl, Mumtaz Begum, former favorite of the Maharajah of Indore, were com-

the conclusion of the preliminary hearing for trial in the Bombay high

It is understood the defense is cir-

the viceroy, asking that the case be transferred to another jurisdiction on the ground that it would be impossible to obtain a fair trial before a Bombay jury.

WATCHFUL WAITING IS MOTTO

Majority of Aldermen Willing To Let City Solicitor Find Solution.

LET AGREEMENT STAND

Ald. Smith's Demands For Action on Street Railway Issue Halted.

With his name and the mayor associated in a lonely way with a resolution to start negotiations for a new agreement with the street railway company, Ald. Smith this morning declared that he had nothing in common with the road. He wants to see good transportation assured and was actuated by that desire alone in moving last night, unsuccessfully, to start work on a new agreement.

"Will you wait, now that definite action within two weeks has been promised from the solicitor?" he was asked.

"We've been waiting six weeks now, for years, as a matter of fact, and have no definite action," Ald. Smith asserted. "There's no use shelving the issue. We've got to face it sooner or later. I have much to suggest regarding a new agreement. I may bring it up in No. 1 committee. If there's no definite action soon."

Satisfied To Wait.
Ald. Smith last night introduced a motion to appoint a committee to meet the street railway. He wanted Ald. Neeley and Ald. McCormick on the committee. But the latterly-named aldermen had no wish to take up cudgels for the street railway.

"I am satisfied to wait," says Ald.
McCormick. "The matter has been put into the solicitor's hands, and I'm ready to wait until he has something to report."

"There is no reason why we should be worried over the situation," comments Ald. Neeley. "We've been going to the street railway for years. If they want to make any proposals, it is up to them to bring them in. It is not our place to go to them now."

Premier Ferguson's Attitude on

Toronto University Appears To

Somerville Explains.

Officials of the University of Western Ontario are not disposed to make much comment on the announcement of Premier Ferguson that that institution must make preparations to assume a greater proportion of its own financing in future.

The intimation does not come as a welcome piece of news to Western at the present moment, when it has not fully recovered from the expenses of its building program, and when it has not yet reached the stage where any endowment fund has come into existence.

Lieut.-Col. Brown, executive secretary of the university, stated that the school had three sources of income at present, and for the year 1924-25 they are approximately as follows:

City of London $ 55,000

Student fees 45,000

Government grant 250,000

Total $350,000

The expenses of the university for the current year, which runs from June, 1924 to June, 1925, are estimated at $425,000, and in this is included an expenditure of $30,000 on equipment, which should have been charged to capital account, but there being no capital account it must be taken from current revenue.

COUNCIL SILENT ON SCHOOL FIGHT

Westminster Members Await Settlement in Lambeth Battle.

Judging by their attitude this morning, members of the Westminster township council will take no action in the Lambeth school battle until both sides can agree on a settlement. In the meantime no action will be considered, pending a report from T. G. Meredith, K. C., on the powers of the council in the matter.

The village being more numerous than the farmers in the section can outvote the latter at every turn. The farmers do not like this state of affairs and want to pull away into a section of their own. This would be a very complicated matter, and no action was taken at the meeting. The council is now in a position to cover the question, in the opinion of Reeve J. S. Cousins.

"All we want is British justice and fair play," declared A. H. Sadler, leader of the farm element. "Yes, I remember hearing that before," replied Reeve Cousins. "A man in my district asked my opinion as to what kind of a vote he would poll in a township election. I asked him what his platform was and he replied 'British justice, law and equal rights to all.' He was properly licked."

Deputy Reeve Boler stated that T. G. Meredith, K. C., had a very complicated matter, but he would look into it. The opinion of Fraser and Moore, township solicitors, was to the effect that the council had no jurisdiction over the continuation school project as far as dividing the section was concerned. The report of James Johnston, road superintendent, showed that $322.42 had been expended on township roads from March 3 to April 7.

deputy treasurer in his refusal to answer.

Read to Committee.

The witness stated that M. J. Haney, then president of the Home Bank, had paid several private visits to McGarry's office, shortly before the issuing of the loan. He did not recall any occasion, however, on which a visit of this nature had been followed by "anything serious." It had been suggested by him to "take care of" McGarry.

The report of the evidence taken before the sub-committee was read to the public accounts body at today's session.

According to the report of the evidence submitted to the committee this morning, there was a great deal of discussion as to what could be expected of Mr. Matthews when he was brought before the committee.

Remembered Loan.

His counsel, H. G. Gordon, asked protection for his client. There was a long discussion among members of the committee as to what form the evidence should take, and the committee eventually agreed that there should be no hearsay or rumor evidence. After deciding to give nothing to the press until today, the committee started examination of Mr. Matthews.

Matthews said he remembered a little about a loan which was made in September, 1919, a few weeks before the defeat of the Hearst government. He had been told about the loan by Thomas W. Murray, treasurer. He said that Mr. Haney of the Home Bank had come several times to see Mr. McGarry before the loan was made. Mason met McGarry in his private office. He did not remember anyone else from the Home Bank ever being present.

"Have you any personal knowledge of any money coming to Mr. McGarry?"

"No, sir."

"Have you heard from any person that money came to Mr. McGarry?"

"The chairman broke in and the question was not answered directly. From where?" asked Mr. McGarry.

Mr. Sinclair, who asked the question.

"From the Home Bank," replied Mr. Sinclair. Mr. McGarry said that before the question was answered the committee should confine itself to what the witness actually knew.

Sinclair Presses Question.

"We should not in fairness to men in public life, and this man is in public life, as this man is in public life," said Mr. McGarry. "We have heard," said Mr. McGarry, "that the question was asked of Mr. Sinclair, who would press the question."

"What was the money in connection with which you heard about?" asked Mr. Sinclair. There was a great deal of discussion by members of the committee after this question as to the allowing of hearsay evidence, and the question was lost. Mr. Sinclair then asked the witness, "From where?"

Mr. McGarry then asked Mr. Matthews—"Did anybody tell you that he had knowledge that Mr. McGarry got money from the Home Bank?"

CAPE BRETON VETERANS GOING TO ARGENTINA

Largest Single Migration in Years Is Being Planned.

PARTY IS LIMITED

Leader of Proposed Expedition Says Returned Men "Fed Up."

Special to The Advertiser.

Sydney, N.S., April 7.—The largest single migration from Cape Breton to another land, since the settlers of St. Anne's transplanted themselves to New Zealand about the middle of the last century, is now being planned by a committee of ex-service men made up of representatives from the various mining towns who are negotiating with the government of the Argentine republic with a view to taking up land and establishing themselves in that country. A tentative offer has been received from the Argentine sources which bespeaks a favorable attitude on the part of that government.

This migration will be confined to single men and men with small families to the number of 1,000 persons, and the move is to be made under the auspices and at the expense of the Argentine government.

A Gloucester Bay war veteran, A. R. MacDonald, who up to 1914, when he returned home to join the C. E. F., had spent several years in the Argentine, is one of the movers of the scheme, which is open to returned men only. Single men must be below a certain age limit, while no stipulation is made as to married men except as to the size of their families.

Interviewed last night, Mr. MacDonald stated that already there were 100 men who had accepted the Canadian expeditionary force offered in the United States, where they had practically lost their identity in the confusion of the "three G's" government we now have in Canada, the chances are that this number will be augmented considerably more before the move.

More would leave if they had the price to get out, and would prefer founding a community of their own in the Argentine in preference to the scattering of them among strangers in the United States.

Asked what he meant by the remark "three G's," Mr. MacDonald replied: "Grits, graft and graft," and remarked that the average returned soldier had had enough of it.

I. O. D. E. AID LIONS IN BANDSTAND FUND

Chapters Lending a Helping Hand to London Club—To Hold Euchre Party.

Several chapters of the I. O. D. E. are lending a helping hand to the London Lions club in their efforts to build a bandstand in Victoria park. On the evening of April 30, a combined euchre and bridge tournament will be held in the Winter Garden, which will be followed by a dance in aid of the bandstand fund. The I. O. D. E. chapters have reserved tables for their own use in this huge program.

Last week a committee of the Lions club waited on the public utilities commission with their plans hoping that the commissioners would select a suitable plan. However, the committee was referred to the city council and the mayor whom they will see on Wednesday night.

Several plans have been submitted by architects to the club for a stand which will cost about $12,000, and the city council will be asked to decide on a plan that will meet their artistic requirements.

Eight hundred Rotarians will advance on London on the morning of Thursday, April 16. They will come from the four corners of the 18th Rotary district which includes Ontario and Michigan and will spend two days in the city attending the district conference here. It is the last conference of No. 18 district and both visiting Rotarians and Londoners have made arrangements to make it a worthy conclusion to the work of the district. Division of the districts owing to the rapid growth of Rotary will divide Michigan in 1926.

That the work done in advance by the London executive committee under Bill Kendall has been well done is evidenced by the remarks of Grover C. Good of Grand Rapids, the district governor. He was in the city a few weeks ago looking over the arrangements and pronounced them 100 per cent good.

He was delighted with what had been accomplished that he sent out a special suggestion to members to bring their good ladies with them, promising them a real spring holiday.

The conference sessions will be held in the Patricia theatre, the Winter Garden will be used on Thursday evening for a Rotary banquet and also on Friday for the final luncheon. The Rotary Fair will be on the same evening and the visitors will have an opportunity of seeing this show during the conference. The program naturally includes a Rotary dance and this will be held in the Winter Garden on Friday evening. Rotarians when they do anything do it in style. Many of the guests will sleep in those cars and this will relieve any suggestion that might have arisen in the way of hotel accommodation.

At the end of his message the district governor promised a successful and enthusiastic conference. He said:

"This will probably be the last district conference for the old 18th district. Let's make it the best ever had. The district has ever had, motor to London, or take the train to London, be sure to be there with a big crowd from your town. We will make a snappy party, and one that is full of Rotary inspiration for every one of us."

Believing that Clarence street, from Dundas street to Queen's avenue, has a splendid future as a business block, A. R. Cairncross has purchased the terrace opposite Patricia Theatre.

Wives of Businessmen See Husbands in Action at Y. M. C. A.

The wives of the business men's groups at the Y. M. C. A. visited the association building last night. There they saw just what happens to a man when Physical Instructor George Sinclair puts the boys through their daily dozen on the gym floor. Incidentally a chicken supper, games and an entertainment filled out an excellent program.

From time to time the business men have held "ladies' night" at the Y. M. C. A. The affair yesterday was perhaps the most successful ever held.

The guests of honor lined the bleachers in the gymnasium and saw the volleyball game as indulged in by the men each day. The women then challenged the winners and after a lively tussle trimmed the men. The men appeared for the game dressed in issue paper dresses and merry wide hats.

Eighty people sat down to supper in room six. Afterward W. R. Yendall presented a shield to the members of the Straight 8's volleyball league games. Tom Yendall, who sent the "first" team with a set of pencils as a token of the regard for the splendid work done for the team as runners up in the provincial championship games.

The games were in charge of W. E. Workman, who presented the orchestra and the Kiwanis quartet sang several selections. W. F. Sherwin led in the group singing and went around entertained with a humorous monologue.

The committee in charge was made up of: W. C. Benson, program; Harry H. Struthers, decorations; Harry Franks, invitations; Dr. J. R. Armstrong, supper; reception committee, Sheriff D. A. Graham.

NOTED WOMAN WILL VISIT CANADIAN CLUB

Mrs. R. F. McWilliams of Winnipeg To Speak Here End of April.

The Women's Canadian club is promised another interesting speaker in the person of Mrs. Margaret S. McWilliams of Winnipeg, past president of the federated university women's clubs of Canada and former president of the Winnipeg Women's Canadian club.

Mrs. McWilliams, whose home is in Winnipeg, is expected in London about the first week of April, a definite date having not yet been set. Her subject has not been arranged either, but will, undoubtedly, be an interesting one. Mrs. McWilliams addressed the Women's Canadian club about two years ago and proved a popular speaker.

FREIGHT RATE EXPERT MAY BE APPOINTED

Canadian Press Despatch.

St. John, N.B., April 7.—The appointment of a freight rate expert for the maritime provinces was discussed at a meeting of the executive of the Maritime Development Association here last night. Although the board favored the appointment it took no definite action, but suggested that if such an expert were engaged a committee of fifteen representatives of various maritime business interests should be named to co-operate with him.

DRURY BEFORE PUBLIC ACCOUNTS COMMITTEE.

Former Premier E. C. Drury gave evidence on Friday last before the public accounts committee, in which he denied any profits ever made by brokers in the sale of duty-free succession bonds had found their way into U. F. O. campaign funds. Mr. Drury further declared he had always trusted Peter Smith in his treasury dealings.

Jack Lacks Diary, But Chief Remembers All High Spots

Drugs Bring Smith Year in the Reformatory, $250 Fine—Pal Freed.

SENTENCE BOYS

"Robbing With Violence" Trial Delayed Another Week—Victim Improves.

How can one remember unimportant transactions with that annoying master, Mr. Justice, if one does not keep a diary? One cannot—if the trade is an extensive one. Jack Smith couldn't, but Chief Birrell, who was the missing diary and related the high spots of Jack's colorful career before Magistrate Graydon sent him to the Ontario reformatory for one year and fined him $250 for carrying drugs when he appeared in court today. If the fine isn't paid, six months will be added.

Walter Slaghts, who is 26, and lives at 256 Grey street, is also cosmopolitan in his leanings, but the court had to dismiss him on a similar charge as concrete evidence was lacking. Walter's indiscretions have varied from O. T. A. breaches and carrying drugs to carrying a gun, and according to Chief Birrell, he knows his way around district jail farms as well as the county bastille here.

Both were arrested last Thursday in the city hall by Constables Snell and Newman and morphine tablets, a syringe and other drug paraphernalia were taken from Smith. Slaghts carried equipment but no drugs.

A blue-coated barrier was placed between the two men and the evidence today to make sure that he would not essay another coup. The last time the diminutive prisoner appeared in court he walked away with most of the tell-tale articles.

His story of being a very sick man was interspersed with patient "Uh, uh, uh," and the chief, who wanted to know why he was walking around town while plagued with carbuncles and abscesses, Defense Counsel Frank H. McLeod, a week ago, the chief's searching examination, but the bench held that the prisoner's record was good evidence. Mrs. MacLeod pleaded guilty a week ago, strongly defended her son. She backed up his claim that the morphine was prescribed by Dr. Nelson George, and she herself saw the physician administer drugs to ally his pains.

Boy Thieves Sent Down.

The Toronto reformatory will also shelter Norman Cushman, 18, and John Calcott, 16, for the next three months, and maybe more. The Niagara reformatory also received today to making two trips to a North London barber shop and carrying away goods. The court decreed maximum sentences of two years.

Calcott would rather go to Mimico, as he was impressed with the worth of the institution when he was there before, but the magistrate thought the reformatory was better for a youth of his age.

Col. Gartshore Protests.

Col. W. M. Gartshore's electric automobile "shot past" his street car on Thursday last when it stopped to discharge passengers. Conductor Frank Scott told Magistrate Graydon when the colonel protested the charge laid against him.

"Did you get the number of the car?" the chief asked.

"Do you know who the driver was?" "Who the driver was? Why it was this here Gartshore, or whatever his name is."

Motorman Doyle got the number, however, and assured the colonel, in answer to a question, that he took it down properly.

Col. Gartshore took the box in his own behalf. He has always been most careful to observe the law, he said, and on this occasion the street car was moving when he passed it.

The verdict of the court. "The case is dismissed." was only available within a radius of six feet.

Ernest Smith, Arthur Harris and John Johnston, all colored, were re-manded for the third week on charges of carrying violence when Crown Attorney Judd told the court that Frank Uttley of Zurich, the victim, was still unable to appear. The crown thought that Uttley would be able to appear, but he was not available for two days, and he would be available as a witness next week.

The crime is alleged to have been committed at 2 Front street on a night of Monday, March 23. Louise

FIFTY FUSILIERS GATHER TONIGHT

London Veterans of 1885, Under Col. Gartshore, Have Third Reunion.

Fifty survivors of the detachment of the 7th Fusiliers, who left London in 1885 for the northwest, will celebrate the fortieth anniversary of their trip tonight in the Tecumseh House. Although it is forty years since the rebellion, this is only the third get-together dinner to be held by the veterans.

About thirty of these men are Londoners still living in the city. Col. W. M. Gartshore is president of the association, and will preside at tonight's banquet.

Since the last dinner in 1923 seven members of the association have died. They are: George M. Reid, A. E. Smith, W. J. Brown, W. McRoberts, J. Quick, all of the city, and W. G. Jones of Toronto, and H. Dignan of New York.

First Reunion in 1910.

The first reunion was held in 1910, the 25th anniversary of the rebellion. It was also held in the Tecumseh House, and Lieut.-Col. A. M. Smith presided. Almost a hundred veterans turned out on parade that night. The committee in charge consisted of Lieut.-Col. W. M. Gartshore, Major Thos. Beattie, Surgeon Jas. S. Niven, Adjutant George M. Reid, Capt. Edgar McKenzie, Lieut. A. G. Chisholm, Lieut. J. K. H. Pope, Capt. F. H. Butler, Harry Barty, Captain John Graham, Lance-Corporal W. D. Mills, and Privates W. D. I. Wright, A. E. Somerville, J. P. Moore, R. H. Dignan and C. H. Gould. Capt. F. H. Butler was the secretary of the association at that time.

The menu is interesting in the fact that it featured a Canadian dish, Port Munro schooner style. Some of the veterans say it was mighty good punch, either the O. T. A. or 4.4 was thought of.

The London Members.

London members who will be present tonight are: G. E. Dayton, R. H. Dignan, H. P. Essex, Colonel W. M. Gartshore, C. H. Gould, John Graham, E. W. Harrison, W. H. Hayden, J. Harding, J. D. Jacobs, Joe Keenan, S. Lancaster, W. D. Mills (secretary of the association), J. P. Moore, S. Somerville, W. Macdonald, J. K. H. Pope, James Smith, W. Smith, D. Steel, J. Walton, A. Amundsen, H. Barty, F. H. Butler, T. H. Bayley, H. Brainerd, A. G. Chisholm, R. Coughlin, George Chapman and Mike Cotter.

WELFARE DRIVES OPENING TODAY

Employers of Wholesale and Industrial Plants Confer on Action.

Two welfare drive meetings take place today. At 5 o'clock this afternoon the employers of the wholesale and industrial plants meet at the chamber of commerce rooms in the Tecumseh house to discuss the best methods of making the canvass of employees. T. W. McFarland is in charge.

This is one of the most important of the preliminary meetings. The employers represent another welfare division apart from the regular drive teams.

The welfare speakers will meet at the Y. M. C. A. tonight to discuss plans for ten-minute addresses, which will be delivered at all meetings between April 27 and May 3.

Every organization has a meeting during the drive week will be asked to invite the speakers to give a ten-minute talk on the necessity of helping the welfare work.

Tonight the speakers will decide the arguments they will use in their ten-minute speeches, and the most effective ways to put them across.

Dr. H. W. Hill, dean of the Institute of Public Health, is chairman of the speakers' division.

The following speakers will attend the various functions and meetings: Mayor Wenize, A. R. Ford, A. R. Kennedy, W. C. Benson, A. E. Silverwood, T. H. Hall, J. E. Malne, W. K. Yendall, Fred McAllister, Dr. H. W. Hill, Dr. A. J. Grant, Dr. W. Sherwood Fox, Walter Kelly, Floyd Marshall, Jared Vining, J. J. McLeod, R. E. Crouch, Pres. J. S. Barnard, Fred Lawson, W. NEW ARMY BUILDINGS IN LONDON DIVISION

Mount Forest and Warton To Have New Salvation Army Stations.

Salvation Army buildings are to be erected in Mount Forest and Warton on properties to be purchased in the near future, was announced by Erik. McAmmond, chief of staff of the London division today.

Erik. McAmmond and Staff Capt. Thompson, property secretary of headquarters, Toronto, are going to visit the above-named corps tomorrow. They will decide on locations in each place. It is not known yet how much will be spent on the lots or buildings.

The corps are operating well in the towns, but army officials believe that the work can be handled more effectively if the army owns the sites and buildings.

At Palmerston the officers' headquarters are not satisfactory. Two officers, Capt. Dora Laird and Lieut. Christina Murray are in charge. At Warton, Archer and Mount Forest, Erik. McAmmond said that as far as he knew there would be no purchase made in London.

APPLIES FOR EXCHANGE.

Miss Annie Clark, teacher at Charles street public school, has forwarded an application to the overseas exchange to teach in an English school near Manchester. It is quite likely that the exchange may be effected since only a short time ago two English teachers from the vicinity of Manchester made application through the school to teach in Canadian schools, preferably at Hamilton or London.

Johnston, colored, and Mrs. Hazel Smith are also being held in connection with the affair on nominal charges of vagrancy.

Battle Was Not His.

Sergeant Last swore that Michael McCullough, 32, threw away a bottle of rubbing alcohol when he approached him last night, but McCullough swore that the bottle did not belong to him, and that he was walking along without a care in the world when he was arrested. The evidence was not strong enough to convict the prisoner, the court ruled, and he was freed.

James McPherson did not fare so well, though. He was held on a less severe charge. James was with McCullough, according to the police, and was so drunk he could not move from the bridge on which he was standing. He was fined $10.

Big Money Made In Beer Sales

Canadian Press Despatch.

Edmonton, Alta., April 7.—According to information given the special committee of the provincial legislature, investigating the sale price of beer in the province by Liquor Commissioner R. J. Dinning, the hotelmen operating licensed premises are making a profit of from 150 to 190 per cent.

Complaints of the water in South London being impregnated with gas yesterday were explained by acting manager A. O. Hunt of the public utilities commission.

Mr. Hunt stated that the Sunday consumption of water pumped from wells by the Horton street station has dropped so low that it is not sufficient to operate the aerating tower and filtering plant, which fact accounts for the water still containing some cases on Monday.

That the water is free from these gases and that there are no complaints at any other time, indicates, according to Mr. Hunt, that the filtering system is working most satisfactorily.

Cadet Instructors Plan Purchase After $3,000 School Item Passed.

Purchase of $3,000 worth of cadet uniforms for public school cadet corps will be proceeded with immediately.

At a meeting held yesterday afternoon of the public school cadet instructors, headed by Lieut. H. A. Secord, Simcoe street school, who is cadet brigadier, a decision was made to purchase the uniforms from the Mover Company of Toronto.

Smallman & Ingram's have guaranteed to the instructors the sum of $2,500 for the purchase of the uniforms pending the handing over of that sum by the board of education, which has been approved of in its estimates.

Lieut. Secord, Capt. T. A. Willis, Wortley road school, and Lieut. H. Banks, Boyle street school, were appointed a committee to devise ways and means of raising $3,500 in addition to an L. O. D. E. donation of $145 so that $3,000 of uniforms can be purchased at this juncture.

The uniform chosen consists of a tunic with red epaulettes and four pockets; breeches and cap similar to the old "forage cap." The boys will have to supply rolled black stockings to go with the outfit. The suits themselves are to be of non-flammable, washable khaki drill.

The price of each uniform is $5.50, which was somewhat less than expected, owing to the fact that the instructors decided to eliminate the puttees at a cost of 50 cents per pair.

EXPECT 759 PUPILS WILL TRY ENTRANCE

Board Anticipates 65 Per Cent Will Pass Examination on Principals' Certificates.

The London high school entrance board anticipates that 759 pupils will be writing on the examinations this year.

The board expects also that, as last year, between 65 and 70 per cent of the pupils now being prepared for the examination will be passed upon the certificate of the principals without having to actually write on the examination.

Those who will preside at the seven centres at which the high school entrance examinations will be held this coming June, together with the approximate number for whom the board is having preparations made, are as follows: Chesley school, David Knight, 139 pupils; Alexandra school, Inspector G. A. Wheable, B. A. M. C. 100 pupils; L. O. D. E. 95 pupils; Bishop's school, Brother Philip, 88 pupils; Victoria school, F. H. Galt, 143 pupils; Ryerson school, Inspector J. F. Sullivan, B. A., 84 pupils; St. Peter's school, Principal H. B. Beal, 110 pupils.

LARGE COMETS ONLY CALLED IMPORTANT

Prof. H. R. Kingston Comments on Reported Discovery at Krakow.

Unless a comet is large and brilliant, its discovery is not of much importance to the world, is the opinion of Dr. H. R. Kingston, F.R.S., professor in mathematics at the university.

Speaking of the new comet reported from Krakow, said to be discovered by Chert, Dr. Kingston said today that he had not heard of the location of the comet. It would likely be taken up fully in the astronomical journals. About three comets are discovered each year. They are between a hundred million and two hundred million miles from the earth.

A comet of the sixth dimension could barely be seen with the naked eye. An eighth-dimension comet, such as the present discovery, would be much fainter and could not be found without the aid of instruments.

Burdock Blood Bitters

Mr. L. A. Deibert, Allan, Sask., writes: "For several years I was troubled with boils and pimples. I tried many treatments, but could get no results. I then took Burdock Blood Bitters and became free of my trouble. It is the only medicine I ever took that did me any good."

Hand of Welcome is Given Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Slimon

Cordial Reception Held For New Pastor of Adelaide Street Church.

LARGE GATHERING
Representatives Present From Each of Baptist Churches in City.

Rev. J. H. Slimon, Mrs. Slimon and their family were welcomed to the Adelaide street Baptist church last night. Many of the congregation were present to meet their new pastor and to extend a hand of welcome, and the ceremonies of the evening were greatly appreciated by Mr. and Mrs. Slimon.

William Gurney, a senior deacon of the church, acted as spokesman for Adelaide street in receiving the new pastor. James L. Baldwin acted as chairman. From each of the other Baptist churches in the city came representatives to do honor to Mr. Slimon, including Rev. A. Burgess, Egerton street; Rev. J. Murphy, Wortley road; Rev. R. J. Murphy, Wortley road; Rev. Mr. McDonald, Maitland street and Dr. Bowley Green, Talbot street.

Mr. Slimon made a pleasant reply to the words of welcome from these other Baptist pastors of the city. Following the speeches, Mrs. Slimon was welcomed to the foreground, when Little Miss Margaret Rowley, who made a winsome flower girl, presented her with a lovely bouquet of roses. An excellent and much appreciated selection was rendered by the choir under the leadership of Mr. Gilmore.

That Mr. Slimon's own family appreciated him a great deal was proved when his three-year-old daughter, who had remained "as good as gold" all through the first part of the evening, slipped from her place and rushed to him. She was tenderly taken into daddy's arms, and there she stayed through the introductions, meeting her future friends. It was also learned that her name is Adelaide Jean, and what a coincidence that her daddy should preach in a church bearing her name. The members of the congregation who met Mr. Slimon last evening passed up one side and down the other, after the church was handsake.

The gathering then adjourned to the schoolroom, where light refreshments were served. Members of the church sat at a pretty table arranged with daffodils and narcissi, yellow streamers and slender white candles in silver holders. A color scheme of yellow and white, with pussy willows, was used on the platform.

WHEABLE IS GAINING SUPPORT FROM BOARD

The board, said Mr. Cairncross this morning, "that I am aware of."

"That means that Mr. Wheable gets the position?"

"Frankly, I can't see, under the circumstances, how the position can be given to any other man than Mr. Wheable," replied the vice-chairman, "and therefore I am supporting him for the position."

"As far as I am concerned," concluded Mr. Cairncross, "the matter is straightened out."

"We let Mr. Wheable run along," said the best man in the province, "side the best man in the province," said Mr. Mess, "and now, when the best man drops out, there can be no other man than Mr. Wheable. We can't go and pick another best man because there are no two best men."

"We could retain Mr. Hoag under pressure," replied Mr. Mess in answer to a question as to Mr. Hoag's not coming, "but no one would think of doing so."

Mr. Cairncross also expressed the opinion that "the board could do nothing else than accede to Mr. Hoag's request to withdraw on account of ill-health."

Majority Seems Certain.

With Mr. Cairncross and Mr. Mess lining up in support of Mr. Wheable for the administrative position, together with those trustees who supported him in the board before, at the time Mr. Hoag was appointed, B. N. Campbell, S. F. Milne, J. P. H. Murray, and at least a majority vote in his favor in the board is clearly seen.

Since the board holds its regular meeting next Thursday afternoon, it is quite possible that at that meeting Mr. Wheable will be appointed as administrator, and the necessary action taken to secure a man to fill the position he would vacate as assistant inspector of public schools.

FIVE ESCAPE UNINJURED AS CAR TURNS TURTLE

Five people escaped unhurt as a motor car, driven by James Butler of Detroit turned turtle in a ditch on the Sarnia gravel road east of Hyde Park this morning.

Mr. Butler was driving to London from Detroit. His car swerved from the road in striking a gravel stretch and sliding down an embankment, rolled upside down in the ditch.

Three women occupants of the car, were given a lift to the city by a passing motorist. The wrecked car was later taken to the Dodge garage to be repaired.

POLICE PROTECTION PLAN WILL BE DEMONSTRATED

The Gamewell system of police protection for cities, advocated by Chief of Police Robert Birrell, will be demonstrated to the city council members in the chamber of commerce rooms in the Tecumseh House this afternoon. Further demonstration will be given citizens this evening, tomorrow and Wednesday.

The Gamewell plan provides a means by which constables on their beats may keep in touch with headquarters through telephonic communication. Although installation of such a system in London would cost at most $50,000, Chief Birrell's plan is to obtain an average of 50 subscribers among business houses of the city at a cost of $50 a year.

M'MASTER HEADS SHIPS PROBERS

Prominent Liberal Member Will Have Charge of Inquiry Into Ocean Rates.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Ottawa, April 7.—A. R. McMaster, Liberal member for Brome, Que., was chosen chairman of the committee of 15 members of the house of commons which today began its investigation of ocean freight rates generally, with particular reference to the Petersen ship subsidy contract.

Mr. Symington, K.C., of Winnipeg, was chosen to represent the government, was invited at the opening to address the committee. A. W. Flintoff, all of Montreal represented the steamship lines.

Mr. Symington read from the report of the investigation committee, which was made. He thought a combine existed to control ocean rates.

Shipping lines should be invited to come before the committee and present their case, so that the committee will have all the facts to work on. He understood the shipping line was willing to make full and complete disclosure regarding the operation of the North Atlantic conference.

Mr. Symington was throwing a consideration of the earnings of today and the earnings when the Preston report was made. He thought Mr. Symington was throwing a consideration of the earnings of today and the earnings when the Preston report was made. He thought Mr. Preston should be first examined.

WESTERN IS GIVEN AN ADDED PROBLEM

Western. That report has been acted upon, although it has never been received from the government. We have received from the government, grants for $200,000 for three years, including one year, when, according to the commission, we were entitled to $250,000, and the amount of $200,000 for the year 1924-25 and the $50,000 which we did not receive the previous year."

The action of the government in delaying the grant until nearly a year ago has put an added burden on the finances of the university, because it has meant that they had to borrow a large amount of money for the year's work and pay interest on it at bank rates.

The point that several of those interested in the university feel rather keenly is that Toronto university has access to the succession duties or inheritance tax, whereas the other universities have not. No matter what the estates from which this revenue comes originate in this district or not, Toronto is the only university having a claim on them. This point has been argued with the government at various times, but they have not altered their position.

REDDISH BROWN STONE THOUGHT METEORITE

J. A. Little Finds Rock on Asylum Sideroad—Sent to University.

While walking along the asylum sideroad on Saturday, J. A. Little, 881 Highway avenue, stumbled upon an object, almost round, metallic, and of a reddish brown lustre which he believes is a meteorite.

The specimen resembles a rounded clinker or bit of coal that has been subjected to extreme heat which has melted rather than burned it. Little thought at first it was a clinker, but it was far from any dumps or cinder heaps. The reddish brown metallic lustre of the specimen caused him to take it to the public library where he turned it over to Librarian Richard E. Crouch for examination.

Mr. Crouch will send it to Prof. R. C. Deane, Ph.D., of the department of physics at the university for examination.

WILL EXPLAIN REASON FOR DESTROYING SCHOOL

Education Officials To Appear Before Rectory Street Mothers' Club.

Administrators V. K. Greer, M.A., and other officials of the board of education, will be present at the meeting of the Rectory street school mothers' club tonight.

The purpose of the presence of Mr. Greer and the other officials is to explain thoroughly the reasons for the tearing down of Rectory street school to make way for the new $215,000 east and collegiate institute.

While the board will consider the plan of the school, the resolution of the city council, that the Rectory street school not be torn down, at its meeting on Thursday next, it is anticipated that there will be any change made in the board's expressed policy to demolish the school.

Feeling its position in tearing down the school to be so well taken, the board is prepared to appear before the mothers' club of Rectory school in order to explain to them the whole situation.

WELFARE FUND COLLECTOR NOT AUTHORIZED HERE

A warning is issued by the officials of the United welfare fund that no one has been authorized this year to collect for this fund in London.

Yesterday a man called on several homes on Queen's avenue with a book and pencil soliciting subscriptions for the welfare fund. The executive of the fund wishes to make it very plain that this man had no authority to collect, and to warn all citizens against any collector who appears before the week of April 27, which is the welfare week.

Has Been Recognized.

"Not only that, but the government has recognized Western by appointing four members to the board of governors; the city appoints four others, and these eight appoint another four. The size of the district is also recognized in the charter, whereby fourteen counties in Western Ontario are given the right to appoint members to the senate."

I cannot see where the policy of reverting to the idea of centralizing government support to Toronto is the best one for the province."

ISSUE WRIT FOR $1,718.74.

Winnipeg, Man.—Neely & Neely have issued a supreme court writ on behalf of the public trustees of Petrolia, against Thos. Metcalfe of Petrolia, claiming $1,718.74 received by the defendant, from Eleanor Metcalfe for her use.

LABORITES FAVOR CABINET ABOLITION

Independent Party of England Would Have Boards Rule Departments.

Canadian Press Despatch.

London April 6.—When the Independent Labor Party's convention meets in Gloucester on Easter Monday a report will be submitted by a committee which has been considering how that ancient formula "nationalization of means of production, distribution, and exchange" can be practically set up.

The committee is resolved from the first that when anything is nationalized compensation must be paid, because confiscation would unite property owners, large and small, against socialism. The committee has apparently been particularly up against the problems of the small capitalists for they confess that the small ones' possessions bulk very largely in the small one's mind, unless he is satisfied he will start out to shield the big capitalist.

The proposal is to surmount the difficulty by taking half the inherited incomes over a certain minimum. Another proposal the convention will debate is the abolition of the cabinet system of government, the suggestion being to substitute committees of the House of Commons to rule over departments in much the same manner presumably as the committees of English municipal bodies conduct local affairs.

FLEET-FOOTED BAD MAN IS CAUGHT BY MOUNTIE

Tom Currie of Muncy Reserve Now Held on Five Charges.

Tom Currie, alleged bad man of the Muncy Indian reserve, who has been a thorn in the side of provincial police and mounted police since his escape from the Ontario reformatory at Furlah last fall, was remanded till April 15 when he appeared in county court before County Magistrate Hawkshaw this morning.

Currie was captured by Constable R. E. Nelson of the R. C. M. P. Friday night and brought to the county jail last Saturday.

In addition to the charge of jail breaking, the Indian faces three charges of house-breaking and one of indecent assault.

Currie, who is a well-known character on the reserve, is a runner of note. Last fall, the county agent, having received a tip that he was back on the reserve, the posse sighted their man only once after they left their automobile for a dash across-country.

"That Indian could give an aeroplane a 100-yard start and still beat it in a mile race," declared one of the officers after his return to London last fall.

JUDGMENT RESERVED IN MINTON'S ACTION

Witness Says He Was Out of Work Through His Injuries.

Judgment was reserved by County Judge Talbot Macbeth this morning in the county court action brought by Charles Minton, 17-year-old laborer, against Noel H. Gibson, manager of the Belvoir stock farm, for $399.70.

On Nov. 20, 1923, a truck driven by Gibson on York street struck the boy, who was riding a bicycle, and hurled him to the road. Efforts at settlement having failed, the matter has now been left for Judge Macbeth to decide.

Minton, in the witness box, stated that he did not see the truck until he was three feet from it, and knew that it was turning into the Canadian National Express yard. He was cut about the head and injured to such an extent that he could not work for 23 days.

Mrs. Carson, 20 Edward street, grandmother of the plaintiff, said Minto was brought home the afternoon of the accident by Mr. Gibson, who would "right" things for her grandson.

David McEwen, Byron, who was in the front seat of the truck with Mr. Gibson, described how the accident happened in much the same manner as the defendant himself.

Gibson declared he did not see the boy until the front wheel of the truck were on the sidewalk. He stated that the boy was riding with his head down, and the bicycle crashed into the rear fender of the truck.

Witness said Minton stated: "It was awfully stupid of me. I was in a hurry to get to work."

"I took him to the office of Dr. Hoeg, and although I was not liable, I thought I would help him out. He was such a good sport," declared Mr. Gibson.

Major G. N. Werkes appeared for the plaintiff, and J. C. Elliott, K.C., and J. G. Gillanders for the defendant.

Tea Production Today

If the Chinese, who first discovered tea, had realized the possibilities of the trade and had studied the nature and requirements of the plant, China might still be the largest tea producing country. Centuries of neglect, however, stunted the growth and caused the quality to deteriorate. In the mountains of Ceylon and India, tea was found to flourish. Scientific methods of cultivation and manufacture were introduced with remarkable results. Now the finest tea grown in the world and by far the largest quantity comes from these countries. "SALADA" is mainly blended from flavoury India and Ceylon teas.

4 out of 5

These are the odds you fight in the battle against Pycorrhoea. Four out of every five over 40, as well as thousands younger, too, are afflicted with this sinister disease. Will you be a victim?

Protect your gums and save your teeth

Just as a ship needs the closest attention under the water-line, so do your teeth under the gum-line. If the gums shrink, serious dangers result.

The teeth are loosened. They are exposed to tooth-base decay. The gums themselves become tender and bleed easily. They form sacs which become the doorways of organic disease for the whole system. They often disfigure the mouth as they recede.

If used in time and used consistently, Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pycorrhoea or check its progress. Forhan's is safe, efficient and pleasant-tasting. It preserves gum health, corrects tender gum spots, hardens gum tissues so they will offer proper support to the teeth, and keeps your mouth fresh and healthy.

Forhan's is more than a tooth paste; it checks Pycorrhoea. Thousands have found it beneficial for years. For your own sake ask for and get Forhan's For the Gums. At all druggists, 35c and 60c in tubes.

French Financial Crisis.

France faces the problem of restoring the value of the franc, and there is no possibility of dodging the issue. Today's quotations place the French franc at 5.17, while its normal value is 19.33 cents. In some respects France is taking the place vacated by Germany in the matter of depreciated currency.

Premier Herriot's explanation is that his predecessors in office were responsible for a policy of borrowing money in order to balance budgets, and in this way they had deluded the public and left the solution to his government. That explanation may be satisfactory for internal political purposes, but it has little interest to the outside world. France has a total debt of 278,000,000,000 francs, without taking into account her obligations to Britain or United States.

The reasons for the present position in France are not hard to see, because for the most part they are on the surface. Following the war she started on a program of rebuilding war-wrecked properties. If a man's house had been destroyed it was replaced, and the same with factories. The cost for carrying on this work was excessive, and it was paid for by the issue of government bonds, always on the assumption that ultimately everything would be collected from Germany and the entire obligation wiped off in that way.

But Germany has not paid, and the process of securing money from Berlin is going to be fairly slow, and France finds herself in the position of being in debt to a far greater degree than after the war and having to look to her own people to assume the discharge of her obligations. This load of unpaid liabilities has been a heavy drag on her credit in the eyes of the world, and her position has not been strengthened by the views of some of her more erratic leaders, suggesting at times even the length of debt repudiation. A nation is not entirely different to an individual who, if he gives his creditors reason to believe that he is not very keen about paying his debts, will find that they prefer doing business with him on a cash basis.

France has lived beside Germany all through her mad journey with paper money that was carted around in trucks, and Paris can see the folly of moving toward a policy that leads in that direction. France has also had the advantage of watching the attitude of Britain toward debt, and cannot have failed to be impressed by the fact that the British idea of paying debts even when it hurts is the best policy. Whether France resorts to a levy on wealth or uses some other means to put real value behind her currency is a matter for her own people to settle. The recovery of her money would have a stabilizing effect on world business, but it is not going to be accomplished until her people realize that for the present the bulk of the burden must fall on their own backs.

The Late S. Frank Glass.

The passing of Frank Glass, former member for East Middlesex in the dominion parliament, marks the passing of a native son who spent his days in his own land and used his energies toward the promotion of home business. Mr. Glass was of that type with whom a difference of political opinion was not a barrier to congenial and mature friendship. In the city and county, as well as in the larger field of federal politics, he gave consistent service to the best of his ability. Possessed of a good platform appearance and able to state his case forcibly and well, he made a first-class political candidate, and when elected never forgot the interests of his constituents.

The illness preceding his death was long and painful, yet it was endured throughout with no complaint and no expression of regret. He leaves the record of effort well made and accomplishment fairly won.

This Motion Will Not Carry.

A. J. Beniot, Liberal member for St. Johns and Ithaca, Que., has a motion before the commons, that shorter speeches would cut the length of the session twenty-five per cent, and with this accomplished the sessional indemnity should be reduced to a like amount.

The fate of Mr. Beniot's motion can be judged and decided before it is debated. It will not be passed, and it is doubtful if a corporal's guard will record their votes for it in case it reaches a division.

The debates at Ottawa, particularly since the budget was brought down, have been very long and many of them very far removed from bringing definite information to the front bearing on the subject under discussion. The budget deals, primarily with matters of business, and an acceptable contribution to such a discussion should have in it some concrete reference to the way present tariff measures are affecting manufacturers and consumers. A speech of such a nature would take work to prepare; it would be necessary to investigate thoroughly in order to bring real facts to the surface, and to show the connection between existing legislation and the conditions it developed.

There have been far too few speeches that have gone well below the surface in order to present well-reasoned arguments showing why a change should be made one way or the other, and for that reason many of them have added nothing to the sum total of knowledge that would help a government take a proper course.

Mr. Beniot's resolution for less talk and less salary will probably be regarded as a flash in the pan, yet there is some pay dirt showing on his shovel.

The Benefit of Confidence.

The management of the Vauxhall collieries in North Wales announced that the mines would be closed because they were being operated at a loss. The miners were allowed to investigate the position of the company and announced themselves as satisfied that the case as stated by the management was correct.

This investigation was followed by an offer from the men to keep the pit working for three months without loss to the company. To do this necessitated a scaling down in wages for some of the better-paid workers, and a slight increase in the time that each shift would work, the idea being to bring the cost of production down to a point where it could compete in the competitive market. The miners state frankly they would rather work under these conditions than face unemployment.

The Vauxhall company is fortunate in having such employees, and it is also reaping the benefit of having made a correct statement in the first place about the condition of its business. Under such a feeling of confidence on both sides it is safe to say that when conditions improve the trend of wages will be back to their former level. It is possible to accomplish much when employees and employers are earnestly interested in the same business.

The Changes Are Not Imaginary.

A number of hotel properties have changed hands in this province in recent weeks, and changes are contemplated in the internal arrangements of many others. Hotels where the space formerly used for a bar has been turned to other purposes are arranging to make another shift, and they will revert to the days when drinks were dispensed in these places. Instead of the bar there will be, according to the law, places where patrons can sit at tables.

Reports from several furniture manufacturing centers indicate that there are large orders being placed for the supplying of tables and chairs for this purpose. Brewers are also busy getting their process of manufacture adjusted to comply with the stronger drink, and printing establishments have orders for millions of labels for the bottles.

All this activity indicates that the changes that have been made in the O. T. A. by the Ferguson government are very real—real enough to call for a very large expenditure of money on the part of those who expect to benefit by the handling of the business. They represent the answer of the government to the vote that the people recorded on October 23 for the continuation of the O. T. A.

Ontario journalism lost a clear exponent in the death of W. H. Kerr, who had conducted the Brussels Post for forty-four years. In his work Mr. Kerr gave to his community, through the medium of the Post, all he possessed. His paper was clean, readable, and had impressed upon it the conviction of its publisher. It is men of Mr. Kerr's quality that have made weekly journalism one of the bulwarks of the community.

Fred Mountjoy, a London old boy, now a successful architect in Denver, has been on a tour with Denver civic officials looking at city halls in Washington, Boston, New York and Pittsburgh, the idea being to secure ideas for the new Denver building. It is to be hoped that Mr. Mountjoy looks carefully over the city hall in his old home town, for he would certainly find architectural possibilities in it that are missing in the other places he has visited.

The Humble Chap

Wherein we sing a verse or two about a humble sort of gent, whose home is rich because therein there's simple ways and sweet content.

Most times in print we read about the folks what's made a million bones, we see the pictures of their yachts and gaze upon their brown-stone homes. Whole columns have been written about how they eat apple sauce for tea, and where they're touring off to now and just how long they likely be.

Unto the humble guy we'll sing, with blisters bulging on his palm, who never has ten bones ahead but gets along as best he can.

Hi Rikkey be a man like that, and Hi he be a friend of mine, whose table never busts in two when Hi and his sit down to dine. Hi never had much chance, I guess, he started work when he was young, he's workin' in the mornin' time, he's chorin' with the settin' sun.

I'd like sometimes to know just how his missus keeps the place in shape, and feeds the youngsters what they need upon the earnings Hi can make.

And when they hustle off to school, they're neat and clean as new-made pins, from where their head hangs on their neck to stockings wrapped upon their shins.

Hi's missus she looks clean and sweet, a credit to the settlement, and round their hut there seems to dwell a goodly sum of sweet content. Hi makes a swing, a hobby horse, and from an old and busted sash he takes his jack-knife on the porch and whittles out a baseball bat.

Yet Hi he never runs in debt, nor worries as the time speeds by, nor seems to pine because he can't go sportin' like a race-track guy.

He puts out the yard at night, and plants an onion and a beet, and twines a rosebush for the year above his humble back-porch seat.

They never seem to fuss or quarrel, the folks within Hi's humble shack, nor worry about the style of garments draped upon their back. I notice neighbors like to go and sit and talk a spell with Hi, for he discusses humble things what he has noticed passin' by.

When other folks tear out at night and seek a wild and reckless way, Hi rests his carcass in his hut for labors of the comin' day.

Yes there be many such about whose names they never get in print, they never burgle in a bank nor drill a hole into the mint. They not be worried on the styles nor keen to throw on foreign airs, they do the very best they can and mostly mind their own affairs.—ARK.

Voter Is Puzzled.

People Were To Decide For the Government, But It Turns Out That the Government Has Decided Matter For the People.

Editor of The Advertiser:

Sir,—Dr. Montleith of Stratford, M.P., for North Perth, in a speech in Toronto, and printed in the Stratford paper, says Ferguson and his government have done all they promised for the O. T. A. It has been said in Stratford that the doctor promised before the last election if Ferguson were elected he would see that the people got all the drink they wanted. Before the O. T. A. vote the premier said that the people were to decide for the government, and that the government would have to abide by that decision, and now the doctor says the government has done all it promised to do. Will you kindly let me know if that kind of work is the reason we have to pay an increased indemnity to Dr. Montleith?

About Rural Mail Boxes.

No Official Ruling That Can Force Rural Mail Boxes to Be Placed on Right Hand Side of the Road.

Editor of The Advertiser:

Sir,—Will you please tell us through The Advertiser whether we are supposed to move our mail boxes or not? All the boxholders on the left-hand side of the road received a slip of paper, written in pencil, demanding the mail boxes to be moved to the other side of the road or we would get no mail. This is just one route. The other mail carriers claim they have not received any word. We do not live on the highway and no official notice has been given, yet this carrier says he has the law on his side and can compel us to move them or not deliver our mail. He owns two routes and some have moved their boxes and some have not. Can he do this? BOXHOLDERS.

R. R. 4, Blenheim.

Answer—Officials at the London postoffice department state that there is no order for moving rural mail boxes. There are some routes on which it has been done, but it was because the boxholders agreed to help the rural carrier to that extent. It has been urged by the carriers that it is inconvenient and sometimes dangerous for them to have to cross to the left-hand side of the road, but there is no official ruling that can force a boxholder to put his box over on the right-hand side of the road.

Premier Ferguson Wants Western Ontario People To Finance the University

Declares Citizens Must Bear Larger Portion of Western's Support.

GRANT APPROVED

Asserts Toronto University Will Continue As Burden On Toronto.

Special to The Advertiser.

Toronto, April 6.—"I hope that both Western and Queen's Universities will make a special effort to take care to a larger extent of their deficits and their requirements," declared Premier Ferguson, while the further supplementary estimates were being considered in the legislature today.

The Western University would have a struggle for some time to come, he said. Its resources were very limited, and no doubt the province would have to give aid, but he wanted the Western Ontario people to realize they had to take an interest in their institution because it served Western Ontario very largely. An interest in it must be fostered in the districts to an extent to enable the university more to finance itself.

"We are going to have to face a heavy burden with Toronto University for years to come," he proceeded.

He thought it was something to reduce the requirements in connection with Toronto University and reduce the possibility of very large capital expenditures if we can take care of the first and second year students in the smaller centers.

We must relieve the concentration around this institution or we are going to build more huge structures. I think we can relieve that very considerably because I think the percentage in Toronto University of first and second year students is about 60 or 70 per cent of the attendance. If we can look after these fellows in their own home town where we can give facilities to take their first and second year they will not leave their locality," he stated the province could go on shouldering the burden to the extent it had and carrying

INDIA STATE COUNCIL DISSOLUTION IS SEEN

August-September Session of Body Will Probably Be Last.

Associated Press Despatch.

London, April 6.—The first council of state under the program for the reform of the British government in India probably will be dissolved at the conclusion of the August-September session, and general elections will follow. Keen contests are expected between the Swarajists and the Radicals; but it is not considered likely that the Radicals will obtain a majority.

As the normal life of the council of state is five years, the forthcoming elections will be the last before the appointment of a commission in 1929 to revise the constitution as provided in the reform program.

TWO ARE KILLED IN WAR ON STREET

Four Casualties in Farmers' Feud On Streets of Albany.

Associated Press Despatch.

Albany, Ky., April 6.—Two men were shot to death, two others were wounded, one probably fatally, and four more have been arrested, following a sunfight on the street here today.

Toscoe Patterson, 40, and his son Walter, 20, were found dead after more than 40 shots had been exchanged on the street within a few feet of the court house. Harvey Stears, 45, may not recover, and his companion, John D. Lowhorn, 45, was shot in the hand.

An old grudge, dating back several months, is believed to have been responsible. All of the men were farmers living south of Albany, and within a few miles of the Tennessee border. Those in custody are: Henry Cummings, 22, and his brother Clifton, 19; William Albertson, 40, and Chester Means, 29.

Both sides have been accused by their opponents of moonshining activity and bootlegging.

Pass Resolution Commending Attitude Toward Enforcement of Sabbath Laws.

An eloquent appeal by W. R. Tennant on behalf of the United Welfare Fund Association featured the regular meeting of the Methodist Ministerial Association in Wesley hall yesterday afternoon.

Rev. D. N. McCamus, representative of the London district on the Methodist church union committee, discussed and explained the policy of the United church of Canada.

The association passed unanimously a resolution endorsing the stand of Chief Robert Birrell in declaring, through the press, that he stood to uphold the law on the observance of the Sabbath. A letter is to be drafted by the president, Rev. John Garbutt, and the secretary, Rev. J. F. Chapman, and forwarded to Chief Birrell, complimenting him upon his attitude.

Arrangements were made by the association for the holding of Good Friday services for Methodist congregations of the city in Wellington street, Centennial and Robinson Memorial churches. Rev. R. J. McCormick will be the speaker in Centennial church, and Rev. D. N. McCamus the speaker in Robinson Memorial church. The collection at all services will be for the welfare fund.

Speaking on behalf of the welfare fund, Mr. Tennant declared that the reason for the difficulty in raising $100,000 for "fourteen indispensable societies" in London was "the low state of public conscience." He urged the members of the association to devote some of their energies to educating people along the lines of the proper use of wealth. Mr. Tennant asserted that the things of real concern were to be found at the point of contact in a man's life between the material and the spiritual.

E. J. Jenkins, of the Young Men's Christian Association, seconded Mr. Tennant's remarks and asked that the ministers assist the welfare association by preaching sermons on the drive and by permitting announcements regarding it in their churches.

Rev. J. Bruce Hunter, B.D., M.C., and Rev. J. E. J. Millard were appointed to represent the association on the welfare committee. The address was made by Mr. McCamus on the church union subject resolved itself into a question and answer form, the several members of the association interposing questions on numerous occasions for the purpose of discussing some point or other at greater length. Mr. McCamus' talk was most interesting, instructive and exhaustive.

FLOWERS POPPING UP UNDAID BY SHOWERS

May Buds Blossoming Out
Despite Lack of Seasonal Rains.

"March winds and April showers, bring forth May flowers." Thus runs an old-time rhyme which has invariably proved correct for many years.

So far this month no showers have aided the growth of these little harbingers of spring, but school children were seen yesterday at Port Stanley returning from the woods with large bouquets.

The children reported that large numbers of the May flowers were blooming, while others were in bud. They were found near the cliffs which border Lake Erie, for miles at the extreme end of east Orchard beach.

Another welcome sign of spring appeared at dusk last night at the port when a colony of big-eyed bullfrogs were heard testing their melodious voices in a small pond.

AW MAGGIE DARLIN' CAN TASTE IT ALREADY

Grand Old Mulligan Stew To Mark G.W.V.A. Birthday Party.

All ex-service men who want a taste of the old mulligan are invited to attend the G. W. V. A. birthday dinner in the Dugout on the evening of April 15 at 8 o'clock. Their wives are invited as well, but perhaps the wives would not be so interested in stew.

April 15 is the eighth anniversary of the formation of the G. W. V. A. in Canada. Headquarters at Ottawa is having a mulligan supper and is putting on a special soldiers' concert which will be broadcasted.

Every command in the dominion has been asked to co-operate in this celebration by serving mulligan to its members and to all ex-service men on the birthday party night.

So stew and beans will stand as the sign-manual, or more properly the sign-gastronomic, of the order of comradeship overseas for Canadians.

Mrs. Jane Tull, who died in Victoria hospital on Saturday, was held yesterday from the A. L. Outman funeral home, with interment in Cook's cemetery at Carleton Place. The services were conducted by Rev. A. Symington. Miss Alma Craig sang an impressive solo.

The pallbearers included Messrs. Price, Bateman, Brodie, Small, Anderson and Lewis.

MOTOR PATROL STARTS.
Four police motorcycle men commenced patrol duty of London streets yesterday to curb an increasing number of violations of the highway traffic act and city bylaws. The officers, who include Constables Monahan, Nollie, Aitken and Leach, will be on night and day duty throughout the summer.

COUNCIL DEFEATS MOVE TO BARGAIN WITH L.S.R.

Mayor and Ald. Linnell Only Supporters For Ald. Smith's Motion.

NO DAYLIGHT SAVING

Names For Building Inspector Are Sent Back To Committee.

The council at its meeting last night failed to appoint a new building inspector, and the report of No. 2 committee was sent back with instructions for a definite recommendation. Ald. Frank McKay declared that the council was entitled to deal with one name or else all 21 of the original applicants. The committee had sent along four names, and the report indicated a division of opinion on the choice of one of these. Ald. Douglass wanted Acting Inspector O'Connor put on the job, but the council decided to put the onus on the committee.

An attempt to hasten conciliation with the London Street Railway Company in the matter of a new agreement failed to get much support last night in the city council. A motion by Ald. Edwin Smith, calling for efforts to seek a new agreement with the company, was favored by only himself, Ald. Linnell and the mayor.

Daylight saving lost out—by a shade. Supported by the Kiwanis and Lions' clubs, the move to conserve the sunlight was backed by six of the council, the opposition having a majority of one. Daylight saviors were Douglas, Kilbourne, Doig, Bottrill, McCormick and the mayor.

The street railway question was introduced by Ald. Smith, who wanted a committee of himself, Ald. Linnell, Ald. McCormick, Ald. Neely and the mayor, appointed to try to get an agreement satisfactory to the council and the company. Ald. Frank McKay said such a question could not be introduced as the street railway question had been left in the hands of the committee. He opposed the move, and was accorded support from seven aldermen, just one short of the necessary two-thirds.

Ald. Ashton, who had introduced the motion, was excused from voting on the matter.

There's only one solution for this question, pointed out Ald. Smith. "We've got to get our feet together under the same table, and see if we

The election of directors and transaction of general business will be held in the board room of the public utilities commission at 11 o'clock.

The members will pass a resolution of sympathy for Sir Adam Beck, who is at present ill in the Johns Hopkins hospital, Baltimore. Because of his keen interest in the work at the Hygienic sanatorium, his absence is widely regretted at the annual meeting.

The officers of the London Health Association are: Sir Adam Beck, president; Gordon Ingram and Col. Ibbotson Leonard, D.S.O., vice-presidents; G. F. Pearson, honorary secretary-treasurer; and P. H. Pratten, M.B., medical superintendent.

The Men's club of St. George's Anglican church of this city held their regular weekly meeting last night in the parish room of the church with a large attendance. Several games were played by the members, and other recreations were also indulged in.

The business of the club was discussed and showed a satisfactory report. The next meeting will be held on Monday evening.

MASONIC HONORS AT GLASS FUNERAL

Kilwinning Lodge Will Conduct Ceremonies in Honor of Late Frank Glass.

Lost to the city, the whole city will join in expressions of regret at the funeral of S. Frank Glass, former member of parliament for East Middlesex, tomorrow afternoon.

Under Masonic auspices the remains of a beloved citizen and gentleman will be placed in the family plot at Mount Pleasant cemetery, where ancestors now lie, a plot held by the family for fifty years. Mr. Glass passed away in St. Joseph's hospital yesterday, after a long and painful illness.

The services will be in charge of Kilwinning lodge, No. 64, of which Mr. Glass was a past master, and will be conducted by Rev. Wm. Bro. Nelson F. Walsh, grand junior warden of the grand lodge of Canada in the province of Ontario.

The brethren will leave the lodge rooms in the Masonic temple at 2 o'clock, and proceed to the First Presbyterian church. There a service for the family will be conducted by Rev. William Beattie, D.D., at 2:30, followed by the Masonic service.

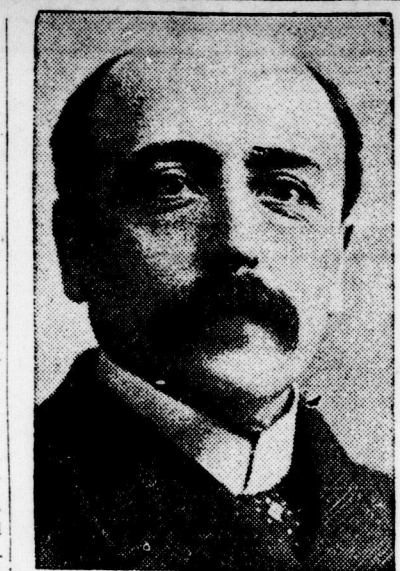

Then with W. G. Doidge, worshipful master of Kilwinning lodge, the brethren will march from the church to the corner of Dundas and Ridout streets, and cars will convey them to Mount Pleasant cemetery.

Prominent Masons from all city lodges will be present, as well as out-of-town brethren. The city and Conservative clubs will be represented with the Masonic service. The pallbearers are Very Wor. REDUCED SENTENCES MAKES THEM HAPPIER

Fox and Sansone Are Relieved by Their Success in Appeal.

Thomas Fox and Sylvadore Sansone are both pleased that the appellate court has seen fit to reduce the sentences meted out to them by Mr. Justice Kelly last October.

Fox, however, expected that the court would relieve him of all lashes. Word was conveyed to the prisoners by Governor Dawson of the county jail, where the men have been incarcerated since they were sentenced by Mr. Justice Kelly on Oct. 18 last.

Contrary to general opinion, the time served in jail will not count in the sentences, which means that their terms will not commence until Fox arrives at Portsmouth penitentiary, and Sansone at Burwash.

No official word has been received by Sheriff Graham from Toronto, but no time will be lost in transporting Fox to Kingston when the papers arrive. Bailiff Ryan will conduct Sansone to Burwash, the sheriff stated. Fox's term of fourteen years and twenty lashes was reduced to seven years and ten lashes, while Sansone will serve one year in Burwash instead of a two-year term at Portsmouth with ten lashes.

DECLARES CRITICISM OF CHURCH IS JUST

Rt. Rev. David Williams Comments on Attack of Canadian Anglican Body.

Criticism levelled at the Anglican church in Canada by Rt. Rev. A. C. Headlam, bishop of Gloucester, in an article to The Guardian, appears by no means unjust when taken as a whole, according to Rt. Rev. David Williams, bishop of Huron.

Bishop Williams was asked to comment on the bishop of Gloucester's "attack" on the Anglican church in Canada after excerpts of the article were published in newspapers. He declared that the bishop of Gloucester had formed his unjust opinion only because things were not done in Canada exactly as they were in England.

"After reading through Bishop Headlam's article, I find that it is not an attack on the Anglican church in Canada," Bishop Williams stated. "The bishop of Gloucester spent several months in this country last summer attending the general synod here and his article deals merely with his experiences."

Bishop Williams continued to state that several paragraphs of the article, picked out separately, would lead one to believe the English bishop was not in favor with the Anglican church system in this country. When the whole article is read through, however, no exception could be taken to any of Bishop Headlam's remarks.

PLAN CONCERT TO CUT HILL ST. CHURCH DEBT

Colored People of London Will Present Sacred Program
Easter Sunday.

In their efforts to reduce the debt on the Hill street Baptist church, the colored people of London are planning a sacred concert to be held in the Patricia theatre on Easter Sunday night. The program will consist of local and outside talent, and the proceeds will go towards defraying the cost of the new news recently installed. Mrs. Frank Budd, president of the church dramatic club, is in charge of the concert, and is being assisted by Mrs. Hattie Berry, club secretary, and Mrs. Pearl Kelly, treasurer. Andrew Moxley, of this city, one of Western Ontario's most prominent colored soloists, will take part in the concert, while solos will also be rendered by Madame Hunter and Mrs. Berry. Two selections will be rendered by Fred Ball, George Bartram and Andrew Moxley. A silver collection will be taken.

QUEEN'S PARK FOR TECS FINDS BOTH FAVOR AND OPPOSITION

New Manager and Club Officials Favor East-End Plant.

SODDING INFIELD

The "Mighty Mite" Baker spent his first day of actual work as London's new M.C. pilot by taking a jaunt out to Queen's Park and viewing the new baseball plant out there.

Baker was enthusiastic over the layout. To President Heard, H. B. Rutherford and others of the party who had not seen the park since last fall, Baker's preliminary work was being done and he had therefore called upon them to see what the finished product would look like. The transformation was nothing short of marvelous and exceeded the hopes of the most sanguine.

Queen's Park as the home of Mint and amateur baseball has been the subject of a good many stovage discussions. Those who favored the new plant have emphasized the vast seating accommodation afforded and have met the objection of the effect of wide open spaces given at the east end plant with comparative measurements of many big league parks and others where the fans sit still further away from the scene of action than they will be at the new stadium. It has been stated, but not confirmed, that the home plate at the new park will be some feet closer to the fence than at Queen's Park.

Those who favor Queen's Park have naturally hit upon the most impressive argument from the owners' point of view—that being situated in the heart of the industrial section of the city it will be easier of access to industrial workers than any other park in the city. On holidays and for games which start from a 9 o'clock onward, depending upon the month, they claim that this is a decided baseball advantage. Instead of forcing him to look for baseball.

To those fans who have been attending baseball games at Tecumseh park for years, one of these arguments involves a considerable trial and while it is true that Queen's Park is one of the best natural ball parks in Canada, and that baseball anywhere else will take a lot of getting used to. No amount of arguments, however, will affect the determination of the Mint League club to give the east end stadium a thorough trial and while the Mint League has been delayed, the Mint League will find things ready to go when the time for reporting comes. The city engineer and city treasurer were made a committee by the council last night to see that the working of the stadium is perfect. Other improvements will likely be made on the same order.

CINCINNATI REDS LOSE TO TYGERS

Whitehill and Daus Hurl Cobbmen To 7-3 Victory.

Special to The Advertiser. Atlanta, Ga., April 6.—The Tigers took sweet revenge on the Cincinnati Reds today for the drubbing administered to them on Saturday, and emerged victorious in an easy game by a score of 7 to 3.

Whitehill and Daus did the pitching for the Cobbmen, and were at no time in danger, although the Cincinnati's netted eight hits in the line-up and Cobbman again performed in the bench. Bobby Jones also was on the bench. Haney, who took Bobby's place, had a field day at bat, garnering four hits.

Special to The Advertiser. St. Thomas, April 6.—At the initial meeting of the St. Thomas softball league this evening it was unanimously decided to affiliate with the Ontario softball association. Last year's president, Air McIntyre, spoke encouragingly of the outlook for the season.

Among the teams which will make up this year's league will be found the Nursery Shoe, champions of 1924, Canada Iron Foundry, Orions Elks, Odellows, Sunbeam Tigers, St. Johns and the M. C. R. Other teams will likely sign up at the meeting a week from tonight. In fact, it was the general opinion that a sixteen team league would be the ultimate result.

A nominating committee was appointed to name officers for 1925, and will submit their report for approval at the next meeting.

INGERSOLL SOFTBALL LOOP TO BE FORMED TOMORROW

Special to The Advertiser. Ingersoll, April 6.—Indications point to softball being even more popular than ever during the coming season. For the past two or three years the game has flourished here. It is expected that the usual number of teams will be included in the town league this summer. A meeting to discuss the affairs of the league has been called for Wednesday evening in the council chamber, and a full attendance of all interested is urged. Some changes in the rules will be proposed.

THAMES VALLEY GOLFERS WILL MEET TODAY

Assistant Manager O. A. Hunt of the public utilities commission announced yesterday that a meeting of the members of the Thames Valley municipal golf course would be held in the board of education board room this evening.

The purpose of the meeting, to which more than 600 invitations have been sent out is that the members may organize themselves along club lines as to the appointment of club committees, club captain, club competitions and inter-club matches.

THE WHEREWITHAL. Scotland not only reigns supreme in the soccer world but also won the International rugby title this year. It's a great year for the Thistle.

Scotland has something to celebrate and something to celebrate with.

ET TU SARNIA. The Hamilton Spectator says: "A few years ago if a man came to Hamilton in search of lacrosse material, the clubhouse would have been calling him, but now a raid is being made on the team which represented this city in the senior series last year. Many of the players have departed for other climes, and now comes the announcement that Gannon is going to locate in Sarnia and play with the Tunnelites this year. He was counted on for the new team which is being organized in the east end."

If he plays in Sarnia two seasons, he'll be one of those "born and bred" Sarnians of which so much is heard in amateur baseball circles.

Gibbons has at last been assured of getting some money for fighting. There will likely be a fire in the box office or something.

Nurmi is ahead of his time.

THE SPILT MILK FUND. It will be hard rooting for either Gibbons or Tunney in their coming Milk Fund engagement. Both represent very fine types of manhood and citizenship.

There should be no derisive laughter over the idea of the winner claiming the heavyweight championship. They are better than Marvin Hart and Noah Brusso, who wore the mantle of John L. Noah Brusso or Tommy Burns was never taken seriously by the American fighting public. Burns was not by a long shot the best of the titleholders, but neither was he the worst champion to hold a title. It is suspected that Burns would have been rated much higher than he was had he been born across the line, and not in Canada.

He has never been given due credit as being a mighty good little man. Yet he gave the giant Jack Johnson as good a fight as did Stanley Ketchell, whom most of the experts place near the top when it comes to choosing the really great middleweights.

TWO HOMERS OF LITTLE AVAIL

Although Babe Ruth planted two balls among the suburbs of Chattanooga, Tennessee, Sunday, the Yankees absorbed a thorough drubbing from the Brooklyn Dodgers, 13 to 6. The result put the National League entry in the pre-season series on the long end of the test up to this time, six games to five.

ST. THOMAS SOFTBALL LEAGUE SHAPING UP

Sixteen Teams Expected To Play in Loop This Summer.

THREE STONE TOWN QUINTETS VICTORIOUS

Ingersoll and Stratford Turned Back in Exhibition Tilt.

Special to The Advertiser. St. Marys, April 6.—Three of the best exhibition basketball tilts seen here this year were witnessed in the St. Marys arena last night. The first was the St. Marys team emerging victorious in all three. The first was a snappy affair between the Ingersoll C.I. girls and the local C.I. lassies, the visitors being noosed by the score of 24 to 21. In the second fixture the Nursery Shoe, champs of 1924, Canada Iron Foundry, Orions Elks, Odellows, Sunbeam Tigers, St. Johns and the M. C. R. Other teams will likely sign up at the meeting a week from tonight. In fact, it was the general opinion that a sixteen team league would be the ultimate result.

WOODSTOCK COLLEGIATE SHOTS MAKE GOOD SCORES

Woodstock, April 6.—The local collegiate team of shooters competing in the Western Ontario tournament for the Laura Secord trophy did some good work in their efforts to land the trophy. Each member of the team was allowed to shoot twenty rounds with a possible of 1,200 points. The ten lads made a total of 345 out of a possible thousand. The individual scores were: Ted Martin 100, Jack Bates 97, Robert Braund 97, St. Jacques 89, L. Locke 88, E. Bayly 83, C. Nutt 96, M. Grant 96, A. Lockhart 92, A. Atkinson 85.

WALTER HAGEN'S PLANS UNCERTAIN

British Open Champion May Let Title Go by Default.

Special to The Advertiser. New York, April 6.—With the return from their winter pastures of the professional golfers some light was thrown on the situation as to who is likely to affect international competition among the members of the salaried brigade. This year, Walter Hagen, two was considered to be the strongest possibility of all, now begins to loom as one of the weakest, it being said by many of the returning pros that their understanding is that last year's winner of the British open championship is more than likely to allow his honors to go by default the coming summer.

As Hagen returned to his Pasadena estates in the Florida really belt after the North and South open last there was no means of verifying the report. Unless in the meantime some announcement comes north from Hagen, it is probable that the golfers of these parts will have to wait a few weeks longer for a definite statement of the intentions of the champion. Walter is due here late next month, but whether he will arrive before that date, which is May 30, is not known.

While undoubtedly the failure of Hagen to appear will weaken the chances of the United States scoring another victory in the British open championship, there still is hope that the cup will again find its way to these shores. Leo Diegel, who arrived to pay his respects to the Glen Oaks golf and country club, the Long Island organization with which he is to be identified this year, announced that he is to make another bid for the British crown. With him will go MacDonald Smith, who performed so brilliantly this week in the North and South open, as well as Jim Barnes, another who has no northern club affiliations to curb his young ambitions.

Sarazen, it is said, is to remain at home this year. He has got off to a rather poor start in the North and South, but in the tournament held in Florida, which he holds either there or but for the even more brilliant work of the other players.

With a first in that tournament and a third in the North and South, Diegel has started off wonderfully, while the form of Smith scarcely needs comment. In addition to his Pinehurst triumph, he holds the California title, won in competition with George Duncan and Abe Mitchell among others.

The other bouts will be between "Toots" Thompson, St. Thomas, and George Virtue, 108 pounds; Orville Mason, St. Thomas, and Harry Horne, 135 pounds; Les Pinder, St. Thomas, and Verne Webster, weight 125; Lorne Pinder, St. Thomas, and J. Smith, 125 pounds; Lum Varney and H. Smith, 145 pounds.

The local city championship bouts, open to all, will be held on Wednesday, April 15, at the Y. M. C. A. This is the first time in the history of the local Y. M. C. A. that wrestling championships have been determined at the Y. A handsome cup has been given for competition.

WEST-END PARTICIPATION IN PLAYOFF UNCERTAIN

Canadian Press Despatch. Regina, April 6.—Elli Race, president of the Dominion basketball association, had no comment to make tonight when informed that the West End Y. M. C. A. had decided to drop out of the senior basketball championship of Ontario and that the "Y" team was hopeful of having an opportunity of playing in the Dominion elimination. Mr. Race said that he was waiting for a letter from the president of the Ontario association regarding the status of the Toronto team, and that until it arrived he could not give out an official statement.

RUGBY RESULTS. London, April 6.—Rugby games played in the Old Country this afternoon resulted as follows: Rugby union: Pontypool 15, Ebbw Vale 8. Newcastle 12, Llanelli 10. Porthcawl 10, Cross Keys 9. Rugby league, northern union: Widnes 5, Wigan 19. Bradford 15, Salford 2.

NEW BASEBALL COMMITTEE HAS PROBLEM AT PRESENT

Must Make Sure London Seniors Get Into a League.

MEETING SOON. London's new senior baseball committee has been chosen apparently, but so far has not met to get acquainted or tackle the many and varied problems which still remain to be solved before the season gets under way.

The committee has one very urgent problem to work on right away, and that is to make sure that London gets into a league.

Local men who attended the annual meeting of the O. B. A. claim that nothing could be done there, as inter-county representatives did not feel that they had the actual league feeling on London and St. Thomas as entrants.

However, some progress was made as a number of inter-county representatives heard the London and St. Thomas angles.

The next move will be to call a meeting, at which both inter-county league representatives and delegates from the two interested and orphaned cities, London and St. Thomas, may meet to discuss the problem.

The initiative for calling this meeting will probably come from the inter-county president at the instance of the O. B. A. A. It is possible that Second Vice-President George Martin of this city may be asked to convene a meeting of the inter-county league executive and London and St. Thomas officials.

Both cities feel that the O. B. A. is the logical solution to the present problem. There seems little chance of the Southern league being revived, owing to Brantford and Stratford objections, and the Kent league is not being considered now.

Dividing the inter-county league into sections of four teams each is an idea that might appeal to some of the clubs there, but in view of the possibility of the Kitchener Wolves being withdrawn, this might not be given serious consideration.

ST. THOMAS Y. M. C. A. WRESTLERS ARE BUSY

Hope To Take in Brantford On Trip To Hamilton.

Special to The Advertiser. St. Thomas, April 6.—St. Thomas Y. M. C. A. wrestlers have arranged to visit Hamilton Saturday, where they will take on the Ambitious City wrestlers in five decision bouts and an exhibition match. Pete Laine, who has the wrestlers in hand, is trying to arrange a Friday evening engagement with his squad either in Brantford or Buffalo.

Laine is wrestling in an exhibition match with Al Laidlaw, welterweight champion of Ontario.

The other bouts will be between "Toots" Thompson, St. Thomas, and George Virtue, 108 pounds; Orville Mason, St. Thomas, and Harry Horne, 135 pounds; Les Pinder, St. Thomas, and Verne Webster, weight 125; Lorne Pinder, St. Thomas, and J. Smith, 125 pounds; Lum Varney and H. Smith, 145 pounds.

The local city championship bouts, open to all, will be held on Wednesday, April 15, at the Y. M. C. A. This is the first time in the history of the local Y. M. C. A. that wrestling championships have been determined at the Y. A handsome cup has been given for competition.

TILBURY TENNIS CLUB FORESEES BIG YEAR

Club Reorganized and Officers Elected at Annual Meeting.

Special to The Advertiser. Tilbury, April 6.—At a well-attended meeting in Rosebush's store the Tilbury tennis club was reorganized for the year. The following officers were elected: Honorary president, Miss Mildred Clark; president, Harry Cranston; vice-president, Eltham Lumley; secretary, D. M. Mulcahy; grounds committee, E. G. Cranston; property committee, Reg. Dobson, Ralph Bulard; membership committee, Mrs. Irene Shaw, Miss Ada Vilkerman, Mr. and Mrs. Jean Lemire, A. Chevalier and Clifford Burton. Last year there were 65 members enrolled and the prospects are that the membership in this live organization this year will far exceed that number. Just as soon as weather permits the club will start operations on its four courts in the municipal park. Membership fees are $2 for men, $1.50 for women and 50c for children under 12.

WALTER HAGEN'S PLANS UNCERTAIN

British Open Champion May Let Title Go by Default.

Special to The Advertiser. New York, April 6.—With the return from their winter pastures of the professional golfers some light was thrown on the situation as to who is likely to affect international competition among the members of the salaried brigade. This year, Walter Hagen, two was considered to be the strongest possibility of all, now begins to loom as one of the weakest, it being said by many of the returning pros that their understanding is that last year's winner of the British open championship is more than likely to allow his honors to go by default the coming summer.

As Hagen returned to his Pasadena estates in the Florida really belt after the North and South open last there was no means of verifying the report. Unless in the meantime some announcement comes north from Hagen, it is probable that the golfers of these parts will have to wait a few weeks longer for a definite statement of the intentions of the champion. Walter is due here late next month, but whether he will arrive before that date, which is May 30, is not known.

While undoubtedly the failure of Hagen to appear will weaken the chances of the United States scoring another victory in the British open championship, there still is hope that the cup will again find its way to these shores. Leo Diegel, who arrived to pay his respects to the Glen Oaks golf and country club, the Long Island organization with which he is to be identified this year, announced that he is to make another bid for the British crown. With him will go MacDonald Smith, who performed so brilliantly this week in the North and South open, as well as Jim Barnes, another who has no northern club affiliations to curb his young ambitions.

Sarazen, it is said, is to remain at home this year. He has got off to a rather poor start in the North and South, but in the tournament held in Florida, which he holds either there or but for the even more brilliant work of the other players.

With a first in that tournament and a third in the North and South, Diegel has started off wonderfully, while the form of Smith scarcely needs comment. In addition to his Pinehurst triumph, he holds the California title, won in competition with George Duncan and Abe Mitchell among others.

The other bouts will be between "Toots" Thompson, St. Thomas, and George Virtue, 108 pounds; Orville Mason, St. Thomas, and Harry Horne, 135 pounds; Les Pinder, St. Thomas, and Verne Webster, weight 125; Lorne Pinder, St. Thomas, and J. Smith, 125 pounds; Lum Varney and H. Smith, 145 pounds.

The local city championship bouts, open to all, will be held on Wednesday, April 15, at the Y. M. C. A. This is the first time in the history of the local Y. M. C. A. that wrestling championships have been determined at the Y. A handsome cup has been given for competition.

WEST-END PARTICIPATION IN PLAYOFF UNCERTAIN

Canadian Press Despatch. Regina, April 6.—Elli Race, president of the Dominion basketball association, had no comment to make tonight when informed that the West End Y. M. C. A. had decided to drop out of the senior basketball championship of Ontario and that the "Y" team was hopeful of having an opportunity of playing in the Dominion elimination. Mr. Race said that he was waiting for a letter from the president of the Ontario association regarding the status of the Toronto team, and that until it arrived he could not give out an official statement.

WOODSTOCK COLLEGIATE SHOTS MAKE GOOD SCORES

Woodstock, April 6.—The local collegiate team of shooters competing in the Western Ontario tournament for the Laura Secord trophy did some good work in their efforts to land the trophy. Each member of the team was allowed to shoot twenty rounds with a possible of 1,200 points. The ten lads made a total of 345 out of a possible thousand. The individual scores were: Ted Martin 100, Jack Bates 97, Robert Braund 97, St. Jacques 89, L. Locke 88, E. Bayly 83, C. Nutt 96, M. Grant 96, A. Lockhart 92, A. Atkinson 85.

TO EXPECTANT MOTHERS

Letter From Mrs. Ayars Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her

Spring Valley, Sask.—"I took the Vegetable Compound before my last confinement, when I got to feeling so badly that I could not sleep nights my back ached so across my hips, and I could hardly do my work during the day. I never had such an easy confinement and this is my sixth baby. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the 'Farmer's Telegram' and wrote you for one of your books. We have no druggist in our town, but I saw your medicine in T. Eaton's catalogue. I am a farmer's wife, so have all kinds of work to do inside and outside the house. My baby is a nice healthy girl, who weighed nine pounds at birth. I am feeling fine after putting in a large garden since baby came. (She is as good as she can be.) Yours is the best medicine for women, and I have told about it and even written to my friends about it."—Mrs. ANNIE E. AYARS, Spring Valley, Sask.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an excellent medicine for expectant mothers, and should be taken during the entire period. It has a general effect to strengthen and tone up the entire system so that it may work in every respect as nature intends. All druggists sell this dependable medicine. Give it a trial.

Stomach Distress

MRS. CHAS. TRIMPER

Bear River, N. S.—"It is a pleasure to me to write a few lines about Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. In August, 1923, I was taken sick and a doctor was called. He pronounced my case inflammation of the stomach and attended me for about a week, but I was getting worse. My son advised me to try Dr. Pierce's Discovery. I did so, and am glad to say in twenty-four hours I was out of bed. I am still taking Dr. Pierce's medicine. I have not had a doctor since. I am feeling well for a woman past sixty. I would highly recommend Dr. Pierce's Discovery to any similar sufferer."—Mrs. Charles Trimper, Route 1, Golden Medical Discovery is put up in Dr. Pierce's Laboratory in Bridgeburg, Ont., and sold by all druggists in both tablets and liquid. Send Dr. Pierce 10c for trial package.—Advt.

Woman Employee Offers To Give Blood To Sir Adam

Loyalty To Hydro Chief Seen in Offer of Sacrifice.

F. A. GABY RETURNS

Canadian Press Despatch. Toronto, April 6.—F. A. Gaby, chief engineer of the hydro-electric power commission of Ontario, who has just returned from a visit to Sir Adam Beck at Baltimore, today issued the following statement in connection with the physical condition of the hydro knight.

"It was necessary to visit Sir Adam in view of the final legislation and other important matters affecting the hydro-electric power commission. I found Sir Adam's condition somewhat improved with the treatment. Sir Adam is to have further transfusions and the physician in charge hopes in the course of another week or two to finally determine the time of Sir Adam's possible return to Canada. "Sir Adam showed me a letter he had received from a female member of the commission's staff in which she expresses her preparedness to assist in the restoration of his health, and which states as follows: "Dear Sir Adam—If your physician deems it necessary to make further blood transfusions, and requires a subject, will you bear in mind that

Wilson Predicts Beer In 3 Weeks

Special To The Advertiser. Chatham, April 6.—Frank Wilson, M.L.A. for Windsor, interviewed here, expressed the opinion that the new 4-1 beer will be on sale within three weeks. The delay, he said, was due to the fact that the regulations have yet to be worked out by the government department.

I am quite willing to be of service to you in this respect should I measure up to the standard needed by the doctor? I believe I am in excellent physical condition and would be glad indeed to assist in this small way toward the complete return of your strength and good health."

COUNTIES TO LOSE REPRESENTATIVES

Western Ontario Ridings To Disappear Under Redistribution.

Toronto, April 6.—The redistribution committee of the legislature today got near a final draft of some of the ridings throughout the province. It has been decided, as announced, that the counties of Bruce, Huron, Middlesex, Grey and Wellington will have two members instead of three; that the counties of Norfolk and Durham will have one member instead of two; that Simcoe county will have three members instead of four; that the counties of Frontenac, Lennox and Addington will have two members instead of three. The surprise today is that Northumberland county shall include the towns of Southampton, Port Elgin, Warton, Paisley and Chesley; the new riding will be the same as the federal riding, except that instead of having Kincaid town and Kincaid township as in the federal riding, it will have Paisley town and Chesley town and Elderslie township. The Huron boundaries are practically the same as in the federal riding.

ing for that county. The townships of Gray and Colborne and the village of Brussels are added to the north riding, and to the south riding are added to townships of McKillop and Hallock and the towns of Goderich, Seaforth and Clinton. Lennox constituency disappears, three townships going to Addington and the remainder to Frontenac.

Back Proposal Or Refuse Higher Pay When Passed Ferguson Tells Members

Premier Takes Steps To Insure Adoption of Increased Indemnities.

SOME OPPOSITION
Medical Act Amendments Affecting Drugless Healers Get Second Reading.

Special to The Advertiser.
Parliament Buildings, Toronto, April 6.—Premier Ferguson took steps today to insure passage of his bill providing a $600 increase in salary for its members, and a $2,000 increase for each of his cabinet members when it came up for third reading.

He declared that those who voted against the bill should not accept the extra pay. Nevertheless, there was some opposition from the Progressives, but they did not force an issue.

Second reading was given a bill to provide for township boards of education instead of sectional boards.

This bill will be withdrawn as the premier intends that the country should have a chance to discuss the matter. If there is a popular demand it will come up at some future session as a permanent piece of legislation.

No Roll-Nets Allowed In Kent

Special to The Advertiser.
Chatham, April 6.—William Kellar, fish and game overseer, has issued a statement that no roll-net fishing licenses will be granted this year. During April and May, people will be allowed to fish in the river with spears and dip-nets, but no fish may be sold.

Amend Medical Act.
Second reading was also given the bill amending the medical act whereby drugless healers come under a board for regulation and providing that physicians and surgeons are the only ones entitled to the title
"Doctor."

The premier stated just before the opening of the house that it was not yet time to make any announcement on the extension of the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario railway into Rouyn and the misunderstanding with the province of Quebec.

In moving second reading of the bill to increase the salaries of cabinet ministers from $6,000 to $8,000, the premier referred to the salaries paid cabinet ministers in other provinces and said that the work of an Ontario minister was much more difficult.
He added that a minister must give his whole time to the work, and asserted that the members of the cabinet were making a sacrifice in their personal professions or business.

Manning Doherty (Progressive) said he believed that here was a case where the government was doing the right thing at the wrong time. He thought that the present, when money was scarce and there was business depression and much unemployment, was no time to increase governmental salaries.

"I believe that it is unwise at the present time, although it can be justified in argument," said Mr.
Doherty.

Peter Heenan (Labor) said he would support the bill, and would move in committee that the prime minister also be given an increase.

Sam Clark (Liberal) said he had no doubt that the move would appeal to some people as a steal or a raid on the treasury.

"If a man is worth being in legislature at all, he is worth $2,000 a year," said Mr. Clark. There should be no politics played in this matter, and every member of the House should be above it. If anybody takes it, he is a coward. I think it is a good investment. There is no member ahead on his indemnity at the end of four years."

J. G. Lethbridge (Progressive, Middlesex) said he had opposed the bonuses given under the Drury government. He opposed this measure but said he would take the extra $600 if the House passed it.

The premier agreed that those who voted against the bill should not take the extra. He pointed out that members of Alberta, Quebec and British Columbia got $2,000 a year.

Mr. Doherty thought that if it passed the house members should obey the legislation as they obeyed other laws which passed, even if they disapproved.

Sam Clark pointed out that no member would ever be brought to court for refusing to accept the extra $600. "I think there are some who will oppose it, knowing that it will pass the house," said Mr. Clark.
"Then they can talk about opposing it, but they are taking it, nevertheless."

F. C. Biggs said he had thought the increase should have been made permanent when bonuses were passed.

D. M. Ross (Progressive, North Oxford) said members might be making sacrifices, but they should be willing to make a sacrifice for the honor of being members.

In introducing his amendment to the education act, providing that township school boards take the piece of many sectional boards, the premier said the suggestion was that there should be a larger unit of rural education administration. In 177 schools of Ontario there were fewer than five pupils, and the average cost was $250 per pupil per annum. In 1921 schools there were fewer than ten pupils at an average cost of $156 per pupil. He wanted the bill to get to the public so that it would receive consideration.

Hon. W. F. Nickle explained the amendments to the medical act contained in two bills, which were given second reading without debate. The bills provided for the regulation of drugless healers, and to determine their academic qualifications. The other defines whom shall be called
"doctor."

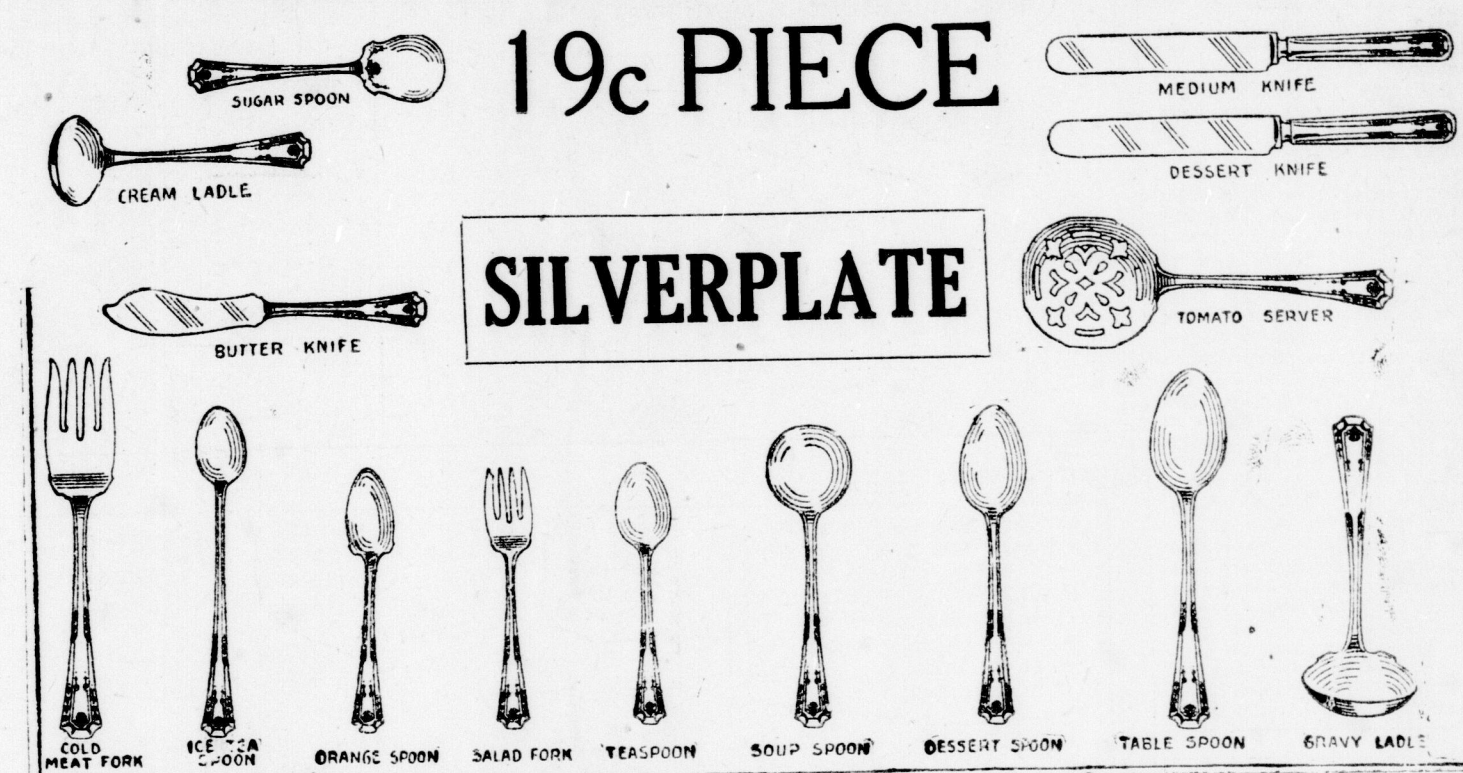

MERCURY WAS FOUND IN ORGANS OF BODIES

Judge Olson Says No Prescriptions For Either Contained Mercury.

Associated Press Despatch.
Chicago, April 5.—Prescriptions written for Dr. Oscar Olson and Mrs.
Emma Nelson McClintock, physician and mother of the late William N.
McClintock, called for nothing which appeared to be mercury. Justice Harry Olson, the doctor's brother, said today. The bodies of Dr. Olson and Mrs. McClintock were exhumed last week, and it was learned yesterday that mercury was found in the organs of both. The amount has not been determined.

Meanwhile Herschel Hewitt, a former teacher at the school of C. C.
Faiman, indicted with William D.
Shepherd on a charge of murder in connection with young McClintock's death, was brought from Hammond,
Ind., for questioning by Judge Olson.
He was to be examined relative to a report that Faiman and Shepherd have attacked Faiman's story on the ground that Faiman said no third person was present during the alleged plotting with Shepherd.

WESTERN AUSTRALIA VOTES TO REMAIN "WET"

Associated Press Despatch.
Perth, Australia, April 6.—The prohibitionists of Western Australia were badly beaten on Saturday when a poll was taken to decide whether the state should remain "wet" or go "dry."
The prohibition leaders required 30 per cent of the votes on the roll, and a three-fifths majority of the votes cast to win, but out of the votes cast, about half of the qualified number,
they obtained barely half the votes secured by the anti-prohibitionists,
