LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Mr. Editor:—At the request of the Town Council last evening we address a few explanations to the ratepayers of Wolffville to correct a number of wrong impressions sought to be made upon their minds by E. W. Sawyer in your issue of last week.

The Council is charged with being faithful and unscrupulous because the Eastern sewer outlet was not made in accordance with the literal reading of the resolution passed by the public meeting.

This resolution arose from the fact that Engineer Doane had recommended and planned the Sewer to empty into Mud Creek near the railway bridge.

A few of the ratepayers objected to this. Others contended that sewage at the railway would be harmless. To satisfy those objecting a resolution was offered and passed for an outlet into the Cornwallia River at or near the public pier. The spirit of this resolution was to avoid possible offensive odors from an outlet too near the town.

When Engineer Galt came, the outlet question was taken up here, and after examination of the locality, frequent conferences with Mr. Galt and full and careful discussion, the Council unanimously in view of the Engineer's recommendation, that they would best serve the interests of the town by making the outlet into an inlet of Mud Creek so near its mouth as to be almost into the Cornwallia river.

The following reasons influenced this decision: 1st. A wooden flume of 2ft. x 3ft. dimensions would be a larger reservoir for holding sewage between tides than would an 18 inch pipe through the dry dyke land to the public pier.

2nd. Mr. Galt estimated the wooden flume to cost $1,000 less than the expense of the longer pipe, and would last at least 10 years.

3rd. The flume could be cleaned of silt deposit by hand work, whereas the long pipe line, with very little fall, would be almost impossible to keep clean, receiving as it would more than three-fourths of the whole silt and sewage of the town.

4th. By discharging so near the mouth of the Creek the Council believe they were carrying out the spirit of the resolution referred to.

2. The Council is accused of suggesting a bill through the Local House. This amendment of the Sewage Act was recommended and framed by the town Recorder, was discussed in detail at the Council meeting open to every ratepayer of the town. It was more advertised in one or more of the Halifax daily papers, requesting any of the ratepayers, if he had any, to the proposed bill. It consisted of six resolutions and all in all.

Other than the coincidence that they at the same time were discussing three women, each of whom were members of the same church, we have no connection with the Local House.

3. That a bill was made during 1903 for interest on the sewerage bonds. The Council deemed it advisable not to make this assessment till the total cost for sewerage was determined. This could not be done till a settlement had been effected with the contractors. As a consequence of disputed items, the Council could not have effected a settlement earlier than it did in September without sacrificing the town's interests. After this settlement had determined the total cost of the sewerage, the interest of which forms the basis of assessment. Two assessments in the same year being illegal, and the regular assessment having been made before the amount of interest could be determined, the only thing to do was to wait and include the two years' interest in next year's assessment. This was certainly better than to have surrendered to the claims of the contractors and thus increased the sewerage cost and interest as well.

4. Mr. Sawyer's contention about frontage having been due and payable Dec. 31, 1902, is all wrong. The first frontage tax is payable during the year 1903 and for that and succeeding years up to fifteen, if the ratepayer so elects. The notices of frontage tax were issued as early as July, a little later than the regular assessment in May. Surely this was early enough. It is true that the date from which the interest on frontage tax should begin was not determined by the Council till October 7th, but this does not, as contended, in any way jeopardize the right to vote at town elections by the nonpayment of this interest. For if it be not paid even after January 16th it will be seen that the ratepayers are at no greater disadvantage in qualifying to vote this year than they have been in past years.

In behalf and by order of the Town Council, I. B. OAKES, Sewerage Committee, W. H. CHASE, C. S. FITCH, F. J. PORTER.

Mr. Editor:—I would like to call to the attention of each real property owner in the town the fact, as generally understood, that previous to the 15th inst. all who have not paid their two years, viz. 1902 and 1903, instalments upon frontage tax, with full interest due upon same will be unable to vote at the ensuing civic election, which is early in February.

In view of the extraordinary bungling that has occurred in the matter of installing sewerage in the town by the present board of Councillors—the employment of Mr. Fair as plumbing inspector, at a salary of $175—the deplorable condition of our streets after the expenditure of some $1600 upon the same—the overdraws Bank account of the town to the extent of some $4000 as reported—it would appear positively necessary that every owner of property in the town be qualified to vote at the ensuing election.

We have not heard if any of the present retiring board of Councillors intend offering for re-election, but for the town's good, and in all modesty, we sincerely hope that they will quietly retire and make room for better men.

Every man who has real property in the town should, if he has the interests of the town at heart, see to it that previous to Jan. 15th, ensuring, his name is properly qualified for voting at the ensuing civic election, and also that he does not wait until a bill for frontage indebtedness is presented, but to go to the town hall during office hours and demand a memo. of such indebtedness.

Yours truly, ONE QUALIFIED, Jan. 2th, 1904.

Editor ACADIAN, Wolffville: I have come across here, stored away in the Genealogical Library, the valuable MS history of Kings Co., N. S., on which considerable work was done by the late Mr. Pitt Brechin, M. D., containing the details of the founding and founder's families of the county. He intended publishing it with the aid promised him by the leading people of the country, when he died. I am gathering additional material to complete this valuable work and would like the co-operation of all those interested in this banner county of Nova Scotia. The historical labor of this work is possible only from Boston, as all the colonial records of the various historical collections. Correspondence is solicited with all interested and especially with United Empire Loyalists' families, the families of the Barons of N. S., if there be any in the county, and of the French Seigneur, Grand Pre, for example, was a seignior belonging to the noble family of Boucher de Boucherville.

J. CALDER GORDON, 1033 Old South Building, Boston, Mass.

DEAR SIR:—I would like to ask through the ACADIAN if any one knows or can give a good reason why the union week of prayer has been given up. Are we so good a town that we do not need these extra prayers? Or have we advanced so far beyond the times that we can do without neglecting the ordinary duties of life? Some may say "Yes," but I think not.

On Saturday last with the thermometer at zero, over twelve thousand barrels of apples were loaded along the line of the D. A. R., and forwarded to Halifax to catch the "Purcell," and "C. P. R." steamers, Monday, in a blizzard, and with temperature seven below zero, there were loaded nearly a thousand barrels of choice fruit to go forward by the Allan line boat on Tuesday. One would almost imagine that to handle apples in such cold weather would mean their total loss from freezing, but such is not the case. Apples ripen in transit. Experienced shippers spread a layer of snow on the car floor, then pile in straw to the depth of a foot, on top of which they load their fruit, with little fear from frost. Since January 1st there have been shipped to the English market thirteen thousand barrels of fruit.

Massacres in Persia. People who follow affairs in the East are shocked nowadays by the reports of massacres in Persia arising out of religious bigotry. These massacres, however, will soon pass into history and be forgotten. But those who look a little further East will not forget that in India and Ceylon is the source of the beautifully famous teas which, by means of the famous Morse's Tea, delight the palates of so many consumers in the Maritime Provinces.

They tell me Si Meider's son Bill has been sent to the city council. "Nope; Bill's in the penitentiary for horse stealing." "Great snakes! Why is it folks after want to make things out worse than they really is?"—Kan-amazoo Gazette.

P. S.—We ran through some cold storage country around Megantic this morning about three o'clock and a complaint in the Ethiopian as to the coldness of the cat produced an extra blanket and the weather report. "Say, boss, she's twenty below outside," with which we contented ourselves and go off to sleep.

Incidents of a Trip West. Firstly, the concentration of mentality was too much for the steam-fitter of our particular car, and at Port Williams the blow out the safety plug, which the train-heads blew the people out (rather more gently) into the other cars and we proceeded to Kentville. Making up part of this jolly train-load were Albert Boggs, Clinton Reid, Jack Hoates, Miss Jennie Robinson, formerly of Wolffville, Hal Messenger, who one time kept the "Old American," and a number of other greater or lesser lights, including the ACADIAN representative.

At Kentville we dropped the de-heated car and took on Conductor Margeson; Norris' grin smile would make any body content to sit there in a seat. We looked at the remodelled depot, and concluded that the D. A. R. had got more out of that $6,000 than the dear, deluded Kentvillians, in the way of increased accommodation.

At Bridgetown R. Hensley Stewart was added to the party. Mr. S. had been preaching on Sunday for Rev. H. S. Davidson who is absent in Europe. Bye and bye Digby and lunch came, then with a hand-shake from Al Herbert we climb up the side of the "Rupert." While the wind "she's blow," not quite like a hurricane, yet "she's blow" plenty to cause qualms among the various passengers' little insides and they do not cease quibbling till we tie up at the wharf in St. John. Nobody falls overboard while landing, so good-byes are spoken and the party breaks up. The Presbyterian portion of it making for the C. P. R. An hour later the I. C. R. hauls over the train which is in the hands of the "Rupert."

The new business to which THE ACADIAN referred some weeks ago is to be carried on by Mr. J. S. Heales, and will embrace all kinds of gentlemen's and ladies' furnishings. The store now occupied by Mr. W. S. Wallace has been engaged, and with the large additional store now under construction, will furnish ample accommodation. It is expected the building will be completed so that business may begin about the middle of February. Mr. Heales' experience as a traveler in these lines for the past five years should qualify him for doing a satisfactory business, and we wish our young townsmen abundant success.

The funeral service of Mrs. Elizabeth T. Bishop, wife of Edward R. Bishop, who died suddenly on Jan. 1st, took place on the 4th inst. at Greenwich. Rev. G. F. Johnson, pastor of the Methodist church, of which Mrs. Bishop was a lifelong member, conducted the service, assisted by Dr. Keirstead. Owing to the violent storm and the cold the attendance was not large, but the sympathy of their many friends will be given to Mr. Bishop, who has lost his faithful, loving help-met for nearly fifty-nine years. The surviving children are W. G. Bishop, of Greenwich; Rev. Truman Bishop, Tacoma, Washington Territory; Oscar Bishop, of Berlinick; and Mrs. Z. L. Fish, wife of Rev. Z. L. Fish, M. A.; of Woodstock, N. B. One daughter, wife of Rev. W. E. Boggs, died a number of years ago.

Dislocated Her Shoulder.
Mrs. Johanna Soderholm of Ferguson Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back in place as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and pained her very much. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised for sprains and sore eyes, and she asked him to buy her a bottle of it, which he did. It quickly relieved her and enabled her to sleep, which she had not done for several days. For sale by G. V. Rand.
It is rumored that a certain young man of this town got himself into serious trouble with a steamship company, in Halifax. He having signed a steamer's articles, to work his way across as steward, on the voyage from Halifax to Liverpool, Eng., afterwards told the captain that he would not go. His reasons for wanting to skip from Wolfville, and then deciding to remain, are entirely unknown. It is thought however, by some that he has become entangled with a party in Kentville.
Attention is directed to the announcement of the proprietor of "Baroncliff" orchards and nurseries in this paper. Those who wish to secure good nursery stock should have no difficulty in having their wants supplied without leaving out of the country.
