CONSERVATIVES ARE FIGHTING AGAINST UNBRITISH METHODS

Pulpit Politics Are Roundly Condemned at Big Rally.

Mr. Cockshutt Issues Challenge to Expositor Editor.

Militant Conservatism, the fighting kind, which fights and wins, was revealed at the big rally held Saturday evening in the Borden Club rooms in behalf of Mr. W. S. Brewster, the Whitney candidate for Good Government in the south riding of Brant.

Naturally attention was turned and the guns directed towards clerical interference in matters which pertain solely to party advantage. While the right was freely accorded to every minister as a citizen to hold and express what political views he desired, yet the right to use the pulpit, to which no man could reply, in behalf of a party which only nine years ago had betrayed the people of Ontario to the point of ignominy and shame, was deemed un-British and having no semblance of British fair play, for which the boundary that who believes in the square deal holds up both hands.

That the above is the feeling of this community there can be no question. The pulpits which have manufactured capital for party have defeated themselves. It was plainly set forth by Conservative speakers Saturday night, and has been all during the campaign, that the issue was not temperance vs. temperance, but temperance vs. temperance. On the one hand stands the record of the Whitney Government for every man to read, an honest record of achievement. Ontario had only 27 municipalities dry when Whitney went into office, and these were the legacy of the former Liberal Government. To-day, after nine years, Ontario has 347 dry municipalities, and progress in temperance is being made at every annual municipal election. On the other hand, the Rowell of 1905, who, in face of an enraged electorate, which drove the temperance faith-breakers from office and power, the Rowell of 1905 stands out for a whiskey-and-water policy of abolish the bar and leave the shops open. Abolish the bar to catch the sentiment of honest temperance people; leave the shops to catch the vote of the whiskey drinker, the black-lister, and all the rest of them.

The above is why the Conservatives of Brantford have put on their fighting togs to fight. And fight they will. Such a campaign of sentimental hypocrisy has never before been witnessed in this riding. Temperance Conservatives who know the issue have not hesitated at all to array themselves with Brewster. Old-time Liberals whose fundamental principles have always been that church and state should be separate have arrayed themselves with Brewster. Pulpit politics has never followed by a reaction, all in favor of continued honest and good government for Ontario, rather than a return to the days of Ross, when the liquor licenses were political pawns used to defeat the expressed will of the electorate at the ballot box.

No wonder Conservatives cheered the telling arraignment of W. F. Cockshutt and W. S. Brewster as delivered Saturday night. The principles for which Conservatives, and even Liberals, stood were never more ably espoused. The despicable tactics of the Grit organ, the Expositor, were exposed. It was the editor of the Expositor who in 1905 ran for Rossism and intemperance against W. S. Brewster. What a change a few short years make! Out of office, hungry and lean, the candidate of Rossism and intemperance in 1905 becomes in 1914

He, with other Conservative speakers, will tell the story of Good Government in Ontario, and why, in the interests of the people, such Good Government should be retained.

LITTLE NEW BROUGHT OUT AT ENQUIRY AT QUEBEC

Minor Officers Are Being Examined by the Court - Result will Not Be Known For Some Days Yet.

QUEBEC, June 22.—The Empress of Ireland wreck commission, sitting in the court house here, heard more evidence this morning from members of the crew of the Collier Stordstad, which rammed the liner the St. Lawrence on May 29. The point particularly emphasized by G. S. Haight, acting for the Stordstad's owners in his questions was his contention that the collier's engines were working astern at the time of the collision, while the evidence given this morning corroborated this, it also seemed to be an explanation why the Stordstad drew away from the liner, so that the water immediately rushing into the wound made and caused the vessel to sink in a short time. The other reason given by the Stordstad legal-battery for the withdrawal of the ship—the alleged speed of the Empress—found apparent confirmation in a statement of Einar Reintz, second officer of the Collier Stordstad, who said he saw the liner's lights travelling fast from port to starboard. He held in by the engine of the wreck commission this morning Lord Mersey announced that there would be an adjournment this morning at eleven. This enabled its members to attend a reception to be given in the first instance by the district judges of Quebec, headed by Chief Justice Lemieux to the Duke of Connaught. Another adjournment was taken this afternoon in order that the commissioners could be present at a luncheon in honor of the governor-general. He held in by the court would sit to-morrow the court would sit only till 1.30 so that those desirous of doing so, could pay homage to His Eminence Cardinal Beugin, who returns to Quebec after his visit to Rome where he received the red cap. The first witness this morning was Einar Reintz, second officer of the Stordstad. He told of what he saw after the collision, which happened while he was asleep. He said there was a jar, but not a heavy one. He saw the Empress lights cross from port to starboard. She was going fast when the collision occurred. He himself took charge of one of them. The Stordstad was moving astern, when the boat struck the water and in about two minutes he reached the people in the water and saved fifty of them on the first trip. The Empress had not gone down at that time. People cried out to take more, but the boat was only supposed to carry thirty. On the second trip he rescued fifteen. The Empress had gone down when he got back to the scene. He picked up some survivors and bodies on his third trip.

In cross-examination by Mr. Aspinall, the witness claimed that he was sure the Empress was moving fast. "You think you really saw much about the Empress?" "I saw her and saw she was moving fast."

He repeated his story that after he ran out of his cabin to the after deck the captain ordered him to get the boats ready for dropping into the water. "Was the Empress then at right angles to your boat?" "I could not tell you. I could not tell you what part I saw of the ship. He saw her cabin lights."

"When you did put your boats into the water to save life, did you find the people quite close?" "Yes, not far off."

Lord Mersey: "All you remember is that you saw the lights of the Empress and that she was moving quickly forward?"

THRILLING ESCAPE OF BRANTFORD MAN FROM ESSEX JAIL

Leaps From a Fifteen-Foot Wall at Sandwich and is at Large.

SANDWICH, June 22.—Assisted over a 15-foot wall, which surrounds the county jail, by a fellow-prisoner, Ellwood Oles, aged 20, of Brantford, made a successful getaway Saturday, and is still at liberty. County officials are searching the vicinity, and the police at every point in the county have been notified to watch out for the prisoner.

Olds was arrested last week on suspicion of stealing five watches and a quantity of jewelry from a local dealer. He was arraigned in the police court and remanded to the county jail for trial.

According to the other prisoners in the jail, who gave the alarm, Olds retired to a corner in the exercise yard out of sight of Turnkey Iler.

Stooping so that Olds could climb on his shoulder, George Babbage lifted him sufficiently high to reach the ledge of a window in the southeast corner of the jail building. Olds then pulled himself to the top and jumped to freedom.

Olds is rather small and wore a black hat and dark clothes.

Terrible Death Of Young Cornell Man

Eaten to Death by Six Big Lions In Large Cage at Chicago—Story as Given by An Eye-witness.

CHICAGO, June 22.—Emerson D. Dietrich, 26, a graduate of Cornell university, was torn to shreds and practically eaten alive last night by five or six lions, whose cage he had entered for the purpose of feeding them.

There were ten lions in the freight car located on the side track at 10th street and Indiana avenue, in the heart of the city. During the excitement thousands of people were thrown into a panic by the information that some of the lions had escaped and were being pursued by rifle squads from all nearly police stations and the Union Stock Yards.

The ten lions are the property of Mme. Adzine Castillo, who is to open an engagement in a local theatre in July. Keeper McCord, who witnessed the tragedy, said: "Dietrich went into the den, where six big lions are kept, and I followed him. 'Teddy' the leader of the attack upon Dietrich, started to play with him, Dietrich ordered the beast to lie down. Four of the lions were facing him at the time, including 'Teddy.' Almost immediately 'Teddy'

VER INDELICACY IN WOMEN'S DRESS

Print Columns of Interviews and try to Hear Who Denounces Petticoats of Fashion.

Indelicacy of it is nearly standardized, for we must all accept the fact that Nature punishes the dressed woman as well as men with lower living a dress. Some people seem to be as sensitized to changes of fashion as others are. It is to change of weather. If I were half so sensitive I should certainly not wear a dress. The manner of wearing it is known to be a matter of life or death. But the dress is not used to one style of dress or another, and it might be well to establish training and dress colleges for prudish people, so that their and his eyes could be trained to become trained to find of one without discounting the occasional pining his sight of a woman's foot or leg peeping below the hem of the dress of a dainty sister. But of all the comments on the Rev. man who Richard Freese's scathing denunciation of a dress to the indignity of modern women's dress, either for or against, has tried to find a reason for the eccentricities of fashion. A movement, however, advances the dress of a woman should be fitted and not a woman, blamed for her follies of vanity, for a daughter, are the outcome of heredity and the professed, duty instincts of primeval man. "Here I see her before mankind has been greatly puzzled and elders by these eccentric follies and peculiarities of the fair sex," says Professor Schlessinger, the well known German church or scientific writer and psychological investigator. "Sometimes they have given rise to hilarious mirth, and too often to even in the more unpleasant condemnation. But the to throw poor things really can't help it, for scientifically, if we investigate has proved that all return these peculiarities are connected with the brain, the origin of the human race, when we lived in caves and men acquired their wives by capture, while women did all the work, and fashions. The ideal of small women, for example, came from the fact that the small and weak woman was much easier to manage and so in primitive times, when the swiftest men and the strongest women, escaped the most men. That naturally bred a race from slow and weak women.

Paid Liquor Agents Chosen By Rowell Man Who Fought Temperance For Years in Ontario and Quebec, Now Hands Out Rowell Temperance Literature.

TORONTO, June 22.—It was reluctantly admitted to-day by Liberal campaign officials that the W. F. Summerhayes, appointed by Mr. N. W. Rowell to the office of acting general secretary of the Ontario Reform association is the same W. F. Summerhayes who for the past number of years, has been in the employ of such liquor interests of Ontario in selling local option and other temperance contests. Mr. Summerhayes is the actual director of Mr. Rowell's campaign, appoints speakers, issues "abolish the bar" literature and is otherwise the executive machine serving the Liberal leaders' ambitions. Summerhayes was a paid agent of the liquor men recently in Peterboro and other places and gained his living for years from the contributions of distillers and brewers. Mr. Rowell knows these facts chose Summerhayes as the best man to push forward a campaign designed to hoodwink the temperance people of the province. Summerhayes was at his post of duty as usual this morning and will continue there. Summerhayes conducted the campaign for the distillers in the province of Quebec against the Canada Temperance act.

Labor Man Speaks

Mr. James Withers, who issued a challenge to Joseph H. Ham, capitalist, to speak on social reform, which challenge is still unanswered, delivered a most convincing address. Mr. Withers made a plea for independence of thought among workers. If they thought independently they would act independently, and any such social reform platform as Rowell proposed which put limitations on the rights and privileges of workers would mighty soon be relegated to the grave of shattered ideas. SUNDAY IN THE LOCAL CHURCHES

Inspiring Services Throughout City—Helpful Sermons.

AT ALEXANDRA CHURCH
The Rev. W. H. Johnston, B.A., of Chesterfield occupied the pulpit of Alexandra church yesterday at the morning service. The Rev. Mr. Lochead at the evening service in a most delightful and intelligent manner, gave an account of the work in Honan, China. In the anthem, The Lord is my Shepherd, the solo parts were pleasingly sung by Miss Josephine Waldron.

Golf Notes

The competition for the June cup took place on Saturday afternoon and resulted in a very creditable win for one of the younger members Mr. G. Cockshutt who returned a card of 69 and 54 for the two rounds which deducting his handicap of 21, made a net of 9 strokes for the 18 holes. Mr. Shell beat Mr. Large in the semi-finals for the Fitton Cup and he will now play the winner of the McKay Wedding match. Galt played Brantford here on Thursday afternoon.

LADIES! LOOK YOUNG, DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody can tell! Brush It Through Hair!

Gray hair, however handsome, notes advancing age. We all know the advantage of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It frames or mars the face. When it turns gray and looks dry, weak, scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhance its appearance a hundred-fold. Don't stay gray! Look younger! Either prepare the tonic at home, get from any drug store a 50 cent tin of "Vivella's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." Thousands of women recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling out, besides, no one can possibly tell it dakens so naturally and you moisten a sponge or wash cloth with it drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time, morning the gray hair, and after another application the natural color is restored and it comes thick, glossy and lusty, you appear years younger. Much Achievement and Many Issues --Reasons Why Whitney Government Is Certain to be Retained in Ontario

Rowellite papers and Rowellite speakers are working overtime, and resorting to every possible dodge, in order to try and fasten the attention of the people on the one subject, "Abolish the Bar."

To this end they have not hesitated at any device, even to the extent of seeking to get ministers to use their pulpits for hustings, and assuming the roles of dictators on behalf of one of the political parties. Many ministers, of course, have refused to adopt this form of bossism, and of those who have, the majority will, without doubt, in the long run realize that a mistake has been made and feelings aroused ill calculated to make for harmony in congregations.

To preach and work for temperance is all right, but to do so in such a way as to favor one political side, or one political candidate, at the attempted expense of the other, is a different—yes, very different—matter.

Mr. Rowell has been acclaimed as a great moral reformer in this matter, actuated solely by high ideals, and so forth, but anyone who has watched his career is well aware of the fact that he is first and foremost keen for either the retention, or acquisition, of office, no matter on what basis. He showed this at the time when an outraged and humiliated people were rising in their might to hurl a rascally Liberal administration from office. Ballots had been burned, seats stolen, pluggers proved to have been carried on the Minnie M., in order to vote for dead men and absentees, one riding had been kept disfranchised for months because it was known that the Conservative would win, there was an attempt to purchase a member of the Legislature, and altogether so much that was villainous, outrageous and criminal that even the Toronto Globe (chief Liberal organ), in a leading editorial, called for the removal of "the barnacles" and parasites with an "iron hand."

Where was Mr. Rowell through all this black period? His paper—for he was at the time a heavy stockholder in the Globe—had demanded a thorough housecleaning, but where was reformer Rowell?

On the hustings and among the people, urging that the Government under which these things had happened should be retained in office—that they were a good and a clean administration, worthy of all respect and confidence—that, too, when decent Liberals in the Ontario House had sat through session after session with their heads hung in shame.

It was office for Rowell then by any means, just as it is office for Rowell now on a like basis. He will find as the outcome that he cannot blind the eyes of the electorate to his own course of expediency in the matter of attempting to get hold of the fleshpots, or to the further fact that there is very much more than one issue involved, and many achievements for the people to the credit of the Whitney Government.

Sir James and his colleagues have a right to be judged upon their record as a whole and their proposals as a whole. That is the British fair play of the matter, and the electorate will so regard it and act accordingly.

And what a magnificent accounting they can give, and how broad the program for which they are asking endorsement!

First and foremost must be placed their inauguration of honest government and of honest methods. They found Ontario's escutcheon blackened and besmirched, but on their acquisition of power the cleaning process was so prompt and efficient that every stain was removed, and the emblem of the banner Province has not in nine years had even the suspicion of a stain placed upon it.

Their policy of Hydro-Electric power has saved hundreds of thousands of dollars to the people, and as "Beck's hired man" it is going to revolutionize life on the farm and make it more attractive.

The humanitarian scheme of Hon. Mr. Hanna in connection with prison reform has rightly challenged the admiration and the emulation of other lands.

The abolition of a grinding school book monopoly has saved the people over one million dollars, with better text-books supplied into the bargain.

The ballot has been made absolutely secret, and the laws regarding its sanctity made much more stringent.

A Workmen's Compensation Act has been carried which is the best in the world. Under it most generous provision is made for workingmen and their families, and that, too, without any law courts or lawyers' fees, for a Government commission will administer the enactments of the measure without charge. In addition, employment bureaus have been established, factory workers still further protected, child labor further restricted, and an eight-hour day inaugurated for miners underground.

Prison labor coming into competition with free labor has been absolutely stopped.

Agriculture has received much larger grants, and municipalities get very much more from railway and other taxes.

Hospitals, asylums and other institutions have had their interests thoroughly looked after in a greatly enhanced manner, and educational affairs have been put on a far sounder basis, with the pay of teachers made much more adequate.

This is only a partial record, but it must be conceded that it constitutes a list very hard for any other Legislature to parallel—certainly none other has ever done so in this Province.

So much for what has been done; now what, in the main, is further proposed?

1. The further development of Hydro-Electric in connection with the natural water-powers of Ontario.

2. The establishment of Radial Railways by municipalities.

3. The proposal to spend thirty millions of dollars to establish good highways.

4. The efficient administration of the Workmen's Compensation Act.

5. The further development of "New Ontario," to which the Whitney Government not long ago secured through the Dominion House an extension of 146,400 square miles.

6. English as the language of instruction in all Ontario schools. Because of the non-fulfillment of this the sum of $3,200 was held from grants to French schools in Prescott and Russell last year. Mr. Rowell has adopted such an attitude regarding this as to earn the thanks of French-Canadians.

The above, be it remembered, are undertakings in addition to straight and business-like methods in all directions.

It will thus be seen why Rowell and his supporters are seeking to make the pretence of only one issue. Even then they cannot, dare not, deny that under a Conservative Government there has been far more genuine and lasting temperance progress, with laws rigidly enforced, under a Conservative Government in nine years than during thirty-two years of Grit rule, when workers for that cause were constantly tricked and betrayed.

Whitney will win, and both the Brants are rightly going to stay in line on that behalf.

ROWELL TOYS WITH THE BILINGUAL QUESTION

Mr. Rowell, the Liberal leader, is following a characteristically tricky course in connection with the giving of lessons in French-Canadian schools.

The Whitney Government has said that English must be the language of instruction, and has inflicted penalties when such has not been carried out.

Rowell, on the other hand, has been flirting with the matter in order to try and curry favor in those ridings in which French-Canadians predominate. He has done this to such an extent that Le Temps of Ottawa, published in the interests of that race, recently said editorially:—

"Mr. Rowell has done better than to create an excellent impression. He has gained the esteem and support of all the French-Canadians who are truly sincere and patriotic. Whilst a heavy struggle is waged against us, whilst the Provincial Conservative party, and the ministers themselves, such as Mr. Foy, are officially declaring us against us, wishing to deprive us of all our privileges, wishing to gag and assimilate us by depriving our children of their right to learn their mother tongue, the chief of the Liberal party has recognized with pride in his program the necessity for bilingual schools, and it is with frankness and sincerity that he yesterday demonstrated to the French-Canadians that they have in him a friend and protector."

Rowell now sees that he has got himself into a hole, and at Woodstock Saturday night he made a desperate effort to wriggle out, but without success.

He made the statement that neither Premier Whitney's address nor "the Conservative campaign handbook, which devoted eight pages to education," had made any reference to the matter.

That is an untrue statement. On page eighteen of the campaign document there is the statement in connection with the school grants:

"Approximately $3,200 are withheld from English-French Separate schools in Prescott, and Russell for non-compliance with regulations."

The above means because these school trustees have not obeyed the injunction to have the English language the medium of instruction.

Meanwhile, for a petty advantage, Rowell is angling for the French-Canadian vote.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Brewster. * * *

Westbrook. * * *

Whitney. * * *

Ontario needs four more years service by Sir James Whitney.

Pulpit politics and church union seem to be incongruous these days.

Vote for the Whitney Government, which gave the people cheap power and light.

Now, then, boys, just one more week, and there'll be one of those old-time processions.

The square deal government of Sir James gave the workmen a real Compensation Act.

John W. Westbrook is putting up a winning fight in North Brant, make no mistake about that.

All moving picture rights reserved of the editor of the Expositor chopping wood against W. F. Cockshutt.

Here we are, last week, and things in both Brants looking more certain for Brewster and Westbrook each day.

Ham, who remained under the barn when Brantford fought for Hydro, is still there as regards the people's power.

Some fifteen candidates of Rowell go to the post to-day absolutely opposed to his 'Abolish the Bar' policy.

In this case, in securing their candidature, is it principle or party for Rowell.

English or French as the one language of instruction in Ontario's schools? Sir James Whitney says English. Do you endorse that?

Is it the efficiency of John H. Spence, as Mayor of Brantford, that the Expositor loves, or is it the fact that Mayor Spence is a Conservative? At any rate, His Worship continues to deliver the goods.

Let the speakers at the Liberal meeting in Tutela Park dare attack if they will, the Workmen's Compensation Act of Ontario. Eagle Place workmen and their wives and children will hear little if anything at all about it.

Among those receiving knighthood are Premier Borden, Hon. George Foster and Hon. Adam Beck. They have each thoroughly well earned that distinction, and will no doubt continue their great services on behalf of Canada and the Empire at large.

There isn't a question but that Rowell's following in the next legislature, will be as sparse as ever and there may even be some Eaventures in it. Brantford should make sure to line up with Whitney and continued good government.

The strains of a gramophone can now be carried by wireless. By the great horn spoon, they had better stop this thing before feline courting phrases get chucked into bedroom windows from a radius of miles around.

The local Grit organ makes the cheap sneer that neither Brewster, W. F. Cockshutt, Harry Cockshutt or Mayor Spence could make $3 a week at manual labor. As to that, about half the time the editorials of the organ wouldn't be worth a dollar a week, if accuracy and fair-play in political argument stood as the test.

Leader Rowell got over $50,000 in legal fees for a trifling job under the Ross Government, and his capitalist candidate in Brantford is posing as the workingman's friend. How many workmen ever saw so much money?

Rowell does not deny the splendid achievements of Hydro-Electric, but insisted that Sir Adam Beck, the head of the movement, should be opposed tooth and nail in London instead of receiving an acclamation. That's how much he values Beck's work on behalf of the people.

Reports from Oxford are to the effect that Rowell will be extremely fortunate if he retains that seat. If he doesn't, watch some fellow step into the leadership who will abolish "the abolish the bar" plank mighty quick. Temperance people should not be gulled in this campaign.

The editor of the Expositor, who hurls cheap sneers at men in public life because they happen to be Conservatives, should accept Mr. W. F. Cockshutt's challenge to chop wood for an hour. There is $50 at stake for some charitable organization of Brantford, and the editor has a grand chance of doing something for a good cause.

Rev. W. H. Harvey, a former Brant Avenue Methodist Church pastor, and one of the most universally esteemed citizens Brantford ever had, should be excommunicated. He has wished Mr. Brewster every success in the manly fight he is conducting and for the good cause for which he stands. Apparently all the Methodist ministers do not see eye to eye in the matter of one political issue of the day.

Do you remember what a fine temperance government the Ross outfit was? The editor of the Expositor who now calls for principle before party, was the Ross candidate in those days, not the temperance candidate, but the candidate for broken pledges. Mr. Brewster was his opponent. No one heard tell of the Brantford Grit candidate spinning the liquor support he received, in that they were whipped into line for Brantford.

Atwood and bride, supposed to have been drowned in Lake Erie, while flying in an aeroplane from Sandusky to Toledo yesterday during an electrical storm, are safe at London, on the lake shore, 12 miles east of Toledo. At 5 o'clock this morning Atwood telephoned to Toledo that his airship had been beaten down by the storm to a small island, and that later he made his way to the mainland in the aeroplane, which was undamaged. Atwood did not say what island. He said he expects to continue the flight to Toledo to-day.

Returned From Camp. Physical Director G. H. Roper has just returned from a summer camp with the military men at Petewawa. He had a fine time and reports that a water famine existed for two days during his stay and things got hot and furious, but the fun of the fair reignited supreme.

Pleasant Picnic. The office staff of the Bank Street Works and their friends, a party numbering over 60, spent a very pleasant afternoon on Saturday when they held a picnic at Stratton's farm on the Paris road. Games, races and sports were held and prizes were presented, not always to the winners. Lots of good things were on hand for the refreshment of the party and all agreed that it was one of the most successful of their picnicking excursions.

75th Anniversary. Yesterday the 75th anniversary of the Methodist church at Fairfield was celebrated by special services that will long be remembered by a large number that attended. The church was crowded at both services and the sermons were preached by Dr. Griffin of Toronto, who was born in the church 61 years ago. The Griffin is now 85 years old, but his voice is as strong and clear as ever and he preached a splendid sermon in the morning at 10.30 and in the afternoon at 2.30. He made a strong plea that the old church should never be forgotten. Former members of the church were present in large numbers and many American friends attended. The graves in the church were decorated, and there was a grave that did not have a flower.

Birthdays of Note. Today is the sixty-fourth birthday of Wilmet Delour Matthews of Toronto, one of the best known of Canada's plutocratic citizens and yet one whose interests are widespread. He was born in Brantford, Ont., and has been engaged principally in the grain trade since 1873. The number of companies which he has promoted and those in which he is interested are so numerous that they list would extend to half a column. His principal association is with the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, of which he has long been a director. In private life, Mr. Matthews is a most engaging personality, genial, courteous and kind-hearted. In public, he is reserved and silent, but none the less a strong man at the counsel board.

Also born today are: John A. Auld, Amherstburg, Ont., born Warwick, Ont., 1853. Senator Beldue, born Beauve, 1846. A. Lachance, M.P., Quebec, born 1868.

ATWOOD TURNS UP. TOLEDO, O., June 22—Aviator Harry N. Atwood and bride, supposed to have been drowned in Lake Erie, while flying in an airplane from Sandusky to Toledo yesterday during an electrical storm, are safe at Bonon, on the lake shore, 12 miles east of Toledo. At 5 o'clock this morning Atwood telephoned to Toledo that his airplane had been beaten down by the storm to a small island, and that later he made his way to the mainland in the airplane, which was undamaged. He said he expects to continue the flight to Toledo today.

SONS OF ENGLAND ATTEND CHURCH

Splendid Turn-out of Lodges at Annual Church Parade Sunday.

The annual church parade of the Sons of England Benefit Society was held last evening to Colborne street Methodist church, and was the largest and most successful church service of the order ever held in this city. There was practically a complete attendance of the members of the three Brantford lodges, Salisbury, No. 42, under W. P. C. Uden, Wolfe No. 105, under W. P. F. G. Lee and Prince Edward Juvenile No. 6, under President B. C. Hamilton. The lodges formed in parade order in front of their lodge quarters, the Temple building, Dalhousie street, and headed by the band of the Dufferin Rifles, paraded to the Colborne street church where the centre pews were reserved for them. The service was conducted in the usual manner, after which prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Holling and the Colborne St. Church quartette rendered a selection. "We have heard the joyful sound" in a most appropriate manner. The evening lesson was read by the pastor, and after the singing of the hymn Lead Kindly Light, and the anthem by the choir, Praise Ye the Lord, Rev. Mr. Holling delivered the sermon, which was indeed an eloquent and fervent patriotic address that will live long in the memory of those who heard it. Rev. Mr. Holling took his text from the 1st Epistle of Peter 2 chapter and 17th verse: "Honor all men, love the brotherhood, fear God, honor the King." He first welcomed the members of the order to the church, and he considered it most appropriate that they should attend a Methodist church, for was not the founder, Rev. John Wesley, a British born subject and one of the greatest men the English race ever produced. He indeed had saved England from the horrors that attend a revolution such as that which the French revolution. He himself could sympathize with the troubles of the English emigrant to this country, for it was just a few years ago that he had left the shores of Great Britain and sailed for Canada. There was a growing love among all Englishmen for Canada, for they found on arriving here that the same flag floated over them here that they had seen in England. He deplored any such thing as class or race hatred, as Canadians can be good Britishers and Britishers can be good Canadians. God has bound them both in one great imperial band.

Speaking directly to his text, Rev. Mr. Holling pointed out that the text implied four obligations. To be humanitarian and to be brotherly, love the brotherhood, be religious, fear God, so be patriotic honor the King.

First be humanitarian. Value all men as men because the high honor placed on men by his Creator, also by Jesus Christ, the Son of God, be brotherly, love the brotherhood, be religious, fear God, so be patriotic honor the King.

Secondly, be religious. We must honor all men regardless of color, race or creed. Before one can be a good Englishman, he must be a good Christian. God has created a great variety of temperaments, so that those born in different lands are in a brotherhood in their own land, Peter, in the text, evidently refers to the Christian brotherhood, so there is always an inner circle that we love the best.

Thirdly, we must fear God. Our whole life is not summed up in simply being humanitarian. We must walk humbly with our God. Religion is one of the deepest facts of our life. Deep down in our hearts we are all spiritual and religiously inclined. Pointing to the white banner of St. George with its red cross thrown over the pulpit, Mr. Holling said it was a religious emblem telling us that the cross has always led civilization.

Lastly, we are to honor the King.

Wounding Charge.

A charge of wounding was laid against Charles Wiley, and it was adjourned sine die. This is the case which arose out of the heaving affray at the Massey-Harris works.

London Vagrants Fined.

The three men who were arrested at the Grand Trunk station were up this morning and charged with vagrancy and also with trespassing on a right of way railroad. To each charge they pleaded guilty, and were dismissed on that of vagrancy, while a fine of $5 or one month's imprisonment was imposed upon each.

Indian Case Dismissed.

Fred Martin, a young Indian, was charged with being an Indian with liquor, and Thomas Cheevers was charged with supplying him. P.C. Blower testified that he caught both men together and Martin taking a drink. Cheevers ran away and was caught, while Martin gave himself up. After hearing the evidence of both sides, which were flatly contradictory, the magistrate said there was no evidence that Martin was an Indian, and he dismissed the charge.

John McGuiness presented a smile which said much for him and obtained his release when he was charged with vagrancy. He had come across the line with the Ringling circus, and he said he would go back if he was allowed to go. He is going back to Chicago on foot.

The usual large number of weekend drunks completed the business of the day.

WAS ELECTROCUTED

Nineteen-Year-Old Italian Paid Death Penalty at Sing Sing.

ROSSING, N. P., June 22.—Peter Rebecchi, a 19 year old Italian, a tool of a Black Hand 'murder syndicate' in Westchester County, was put to death in the electric chair at Sing Sing Prison to-day for the murder of Tony Marro, of White Plains. Rebecchi had figured in other crimes and on his promise to expose the workings of the 'murder syndicate' Governor Glynn granted him a six months' reprieve. He failed, however, to give the authorities any evidence of value.

The electrocution to-day was conducted by E. B. Currier of Massachusetts in the absence of E. F. Davis, the state electrician, who is ill at his home at Yonkers. This is the first execution by electricity in this state since Davis has missed. He has executed 111 criminals.

CIRCUS FOLLOWERS ALLOWED TO GO

There was no Evidence That They Committed Any Wrong—Other Police Cases

Quite a lengthy list of cases was presented before the bench at the police court this morning, some of them were overnight arrests, others remandments and the rest were cases which had been adjourned and included the men caught by Detective Chapman on the day of the circus, a wounding charge and one of keeping a disorderly house.

Circus Suspects

The two men suspected of being international crooks were first dealt with. They pleaded not guilty to two charges of vagrancy and of making a breach of the Immigration Act. It was alleged that they were circus crooks, and had come to Brantford to work the circus game.

Detective Chapman stated the facts of the case. He had seen both men on Colborne street when an Eagle motor car came along and both men endeavored to mingle with the rush to get upon it. When they noticed the witness and discontinued their attempt. They then adjourned to a room where the detective noticed that they had turned their hats up, having previously worn them turned down. Ringling Detective Brady made the charge, and since then they had been held.

Mitchell told a story of having come here to sell special catch penny novelties. On this story, however, they became confused as when questioned they admitted that they had no novelties with them. The story was then converted into they claimed that they came to see how the peddlers were working in order that they might know what to do when the show visited Hamilton.

On the immigration charge, they said they came direct from Toronto and denied that they had come from Buffalo or crossed the line as they were charged with. They did not change at Hamilton but came direct from Toronto here.

The immigration inspector, D. H. Reynolds of Toronto, did not put in an appearance as he had said he would, and the magistrate said he would dismiss the case. "Thank you," immediately responded the two and they assured the Bench that they had no evil intentions. "That may be so," responded Magistrate Livingston, "but I advise you to get to some more congenial clime," and the liberated men said they would.

EIGHT CASES AT COUNTY COURT

Judge Hardy is Presiding—Grand Jury is Empanelled.

The general sessions of the County Court were opened this morning at the county court house, when Judge Hardy presided. There were eight cases to be decided, and he included one non-jury case and one assessment for damages.

The grand jury was empanelled, and it is as follows, with Frank J. Calbeck as foreman: W. W. Carr, Herbert E. Chittenden, Ranson Copeland, John Cotway, George Cartwright, John Cochran, A. W. Daniels, Russell Frayne, George Langs, R. E. Lambkins, Chas. H. Matthews, Frank J. Calbeck and Walter Briggs.

Gordon Duncan and W. J. McFarlane were not present when they were called, and F. J. Calbeck and Walter Briggs were selected to fill their places from the petty jurors.

Duly sworn, the grand jury was addressed by Judge Hardy, who instructed them in their duty of inspecting the various public buildings, which includes the jail, House of Refuge, hospitals, etc. Although there were no criminal charges to be dealt with, that did not indicate that there was no crime, or that there had been any decrease in crime in Brant county. The magistrate had dealt with a great deal, and this had relieved them to a certain extent.

He was grateful to the authorities for the excellent preservation of the court buildings, and the magnificent appointment thereof. There were few cities in Ontario that could boast of a fine county court and the citizens ought with the county neighbors be proud of it. Again exhorting the jurors to do their task faithfully and to so report, the Judge excused them.

The petty jury was then enrolled, and it is composed as follows: W. Draper, Joseph Childs, Rufus Hammingway, Thomas Chamberlain, David Hill, Walter Curley, Jas. E. Mordue, Theo. V. Grandall, Herbert Meridan, John Givens, Hugh C. Church, George M. Crooks.

The cases to be dealt with are all civil actions and include the following cases: Gold vs. Herrott, Burch vs. G. T. R. Milne and Glennie vs. Armstrong, Brantford Exportor vs. Wright & Hazard, Barton vs. Malcolm, Broughan and Malcolm vs. Glennie, Herring vs. Stewart and a non-jury case, Malcolm vs. Hamilton's Dairy.

The hearing of the first case, Gold vs. Herrott was then proceeded with, Solicitor M. F. Muir defending.

CLEANED UP BOTH GAMES BEFORE A LARGE CROWD

Brantford Gained Several Points on League Leaders Saturday by Taking Two From Peterboro.

The Red Sox made it two out of three in their week-end series with the Petes here when they captured both games of the double header...

Second Game. The second game was a much shorter one than the first, being played for only seven innings by agreement of each team. It was also an exhibition of infinitely better baseball in every respect.

The fun started when Gaby Ivers got to Sterling for a two-bagger in the 2nd. inning and scored on singles by Dolan and Fergie. The 4th, was a whirlwind session, reached when Dolan, Roth, Fergie and Lacroix crossed the plate in succession while the fans yelled and the Petes growled some more.

Courier Cup Games Played on Saturday

Tutela Team Played Great Game Defeating Cockshutt United—Sons of England and Paris Play Draw.

Table with columns: LEAGUE STANDING, P. W. L. D. F. A. P., and S.O.E. 2; Paris 2. showing team records.

The results of the first round proper of the Courier cup were very decisive and only one game was left undecided. This game gave Paris and the Sons of England another life, after four goals had been scored and divided. The contest was a hot one throughout and the result might have been carried off fairly by either team.

Tutela, as was to be expected, defeated the forces of the weakened Cockshutt brigade. Nevertheless the plowmen were not easy to get rid of, and it was only by persistency that the youths from Tutela got through. Their record of defeating both the Dufferin Rifles and Cockshutt ranks them as a team that is hard to approach, and stamps them as out for the cup.

The holders of the trophy had an fairly easy road to the second round when they met P. S. A. and gave them a dose of goals which proved too great an obstacle for the valiant Paris boys' defence and by good passing, W. Grover netted the ball for the Sons. Both teams worked hard to break the tie and secure a victory, but time resulted in a draw S.O.E. 2, Paris 2 Line up:

S.O.E.—Goal, Joe Clay; J. Smith, W. Johnson; Mitchell, H. Westlake, and J. Mathias; W. Budd, W. Smith, W. Grover, A. Baker, A. Johnson (capt.). Jack Smith played a great game for the Bull Dogs and great credit should be given to William Grover, centre forward, who scored the two goals for the Sons by clever work. Walter Budd and W. Smith played a great game.

The Paris boys have a good team and a good forward line. They are the best seen here in combination for some time. Practice Match. S.O.E. football team will hold a practice match on Tutela park on Thursday evening. Kick off at 6:45. All signed players are requested to be on hand. Tutela v. Cockshutt United. The above teams met on Saturday at Tutela Park in the first round of the Courier Cup before a large crowd of spectators. The first half was keenly contested and even two goals being scored by each team. The second half

Red Sox Satisfy The Fans For The Week

Took Four Games Out of Six—Team Looks Considerably Strengthened in All Departments.

The Red Sox satisfied Brantford fans last week by taking four out of six games, and if they continue the good work this week with the League race the way it is, the fans will be still further satisfied. Nicholls, the new "six foot five" pitcher, is expected to join the club to-day and will come in on the train which carries the Red Sox out this morning to Peterboro. With the arrival of Nicholls, Dolan, the right fielder, will draw his release and Eddie Taylor will be stationed there permanently. Taylor will also pitch when required to do so, and Deneau counts on himself to be able to go in, should necessity arise.

Fans liked the way the juffed showed up Saturday, although in the first part of the second game there was some worry displayed. The team put Chase in bad for three runs and soon proceeded to get them back. The hitting of Deneau and Ivers was of the timely variety. The Rubes' terrific wallop in the sixth breaking the game up. The Peterboro pitcher expected Deneau to hunt and Deneau crossed him up. After that, some soon inside ball was pulled off, the squeeze play being worked effectively twice in one inning.

Brantford goes to Peterboro to-day for three games and then comes back to London for the week end. The team looks as if it should be able to whether the road better than on the last trip. President Nelson and Owner Brown attended a meeting of the Canadian League magnates at Toronto yesterday. The meeting was called by Shaughnessy, but Shag did not turn up, consequently little business was done. In future, however, the guarantee to visiting clubs will be $50, rain or shine. The form displayed by Chase in Saturday's game warrants the belief that he will make a great pitcher. He had a tremendous amount of zip, his fast ball having a great hop to it. Moreover, his control for a left-hander was excellent. In reality the Petes only secured two clean hits off his

NEW PITCHER HERE WORFEL IS COMING

Pitcher Fred Nicholls arrived in the city last night and accompanied the Brantford team to Peterboro. This means that Eddie Taylor will replace Dolan in right field. Manager Deneau was also greatly surprised this morning to get a telegram from Pitcher Worfel to the effect that he had not received transportation, but would re-appear when he received it. It was immediately wired to him this morning, and the much-talked-of Worfel may be here this week. Deneau is anxious to have him report as he is said to be a cracking good hurler. The Red Sox manager is at last satisfied that he has a real team. He is counting on big Nicholls to show great form and with Gero, Chase, Nicholls and Dorfel he has a staff which will take some beating.

Above is shown "Monty" Waterbury scoring for America in the first game of the series for the International Polo Cup at the Meadow Brook Club grounds at Westbury, L. I. Great Britain won the game, defeating the Americans by a score of 5-3. Forty thousand persons witnessed the unequal contest, for from the first the defenders were outclassed and outplayed. The superiority of the team work of the English players and the speed of their well trained ponies, which were in themselves a revelation, were the principal causes of the victory.

"SUWANEER RIVER" IN SONG BOOK

The popularity of "Suwaneer River" dates back to the time when Christine Nilsson, the fair haired daughter of a farmer near Wexio, Sweden, surprised all who heard her with the sweetness and compass of her voice as she sang Foster's plaintive melody. She was an accomplished player on the flute and violin and she made her debut at the early age of 17 at Stockholm. Like many of the famous prima donnas, the opera chosen for her appearance was "La Traviata." She made a concert tour of the United States and sang many years in Italian opera. At her farewell concert given in London her voice was exquisite in its purity and sweetness and evenness of tone, having a compass of three octaves, an exceptional range. In America she will be known and long remembered for her singing of "Suwaneer River" in the height of her success and operatic triumphs. She was the acknowledged incomparable artist of her times. This beautiful song, and many others sang by Nilsson, are to be found in "Heart Songs" now offered by The Courier who will find the terms given in the coupon published on another page of to-day's issue.

FORESTERS HEAR ADJT. HARGROVE

Members of Ancient Order at Victoria Hall - Large Gathering.

The various courts of the Ancient Order of Foresters assembled for prayer yesterday afternoon under the auspices of the Salvation Army at Victoria Hall. They included the four adult Courts of the city, Endeavor, Success, Enterprise, Industry and the juvenile court, Perseverance, and Court Pride of Ontario and the Knights of Sherwood Forest, Hamilton and Court Harmony of Paris, together with a number of other visiting brethren.

A state procession preceded the services and it was an imposing affair. Led by the Salvationist band who were followed by the Knights of Sherwood Forest, arrayed in their formal uniforms of black lined with gold braid and plumed hats, they made a striking and once effective and attractive appearance. They were under command of Capt. Archie Martin, High Sub-Chief Ranger of the order, and during the march they formed St. George's Cross. The bodyguard and lodges lined up at the headquarters of the Foresters in the Heyd block and proceeded to Colborne street via George, up Market street and along Wellington to the Hall, where service took place conducted by Adjutant Hargroves. Hymns of praise were sung by the City quartette composed of Messrs. Jago, Ghanville, Hills and Johnson, rendered two splendid selections, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and "The Wayside Cross."

Adjutant Hargroves said he was very pleased indeed to welcome the various courts of Ancient Forestry who were present. He knew little of Forestry, perhaps that was his misfortune and perhaps his loss, but nevertheless he respected the great order of one of the foremost of fraternal societies. He respected them in their principle of brotherhood. There was one feature of that had a great deal to do with the Christian spirit which embodied in the principles of the order. He was not going to talk things to them; that would be knowing as little of it as he had the privilege, however something of a great Saint Christ, and then the Adjutant to give an admirable address on the text of the Good Samaritan, prepared the Good Samaritan, hypocritical Pharisee and the moral, and gave it to be for use in daily life. Get people, he said; there was deal in that. Too many doing a favor or a kindness got up so high that by their their act reached you in the meaning and you were not accept their charity.

Organizations such as the had their organization in for wherever the church of these fraternal societies noble aims and high objects Forester should be a Christian their good work as an of the Foresters had the name of the Salvation Army and that with God's blessing the work would continue.

Another hymn, "Blest be the sitting in main body of the Foresters with their floral some red and some white were marshalled by P. D. Harris assisted by the Clerks and Secretaries of the various. At the conclusion of the members marched back to where votes of thanks were the visiting brethren for their fine address, to the band for their great assistance to the service. The committee of the affair was a large Mr. William Bailey of Court Success as chairman, and Mr. Ira D. Court Success as secretary.

THE RETURN OF TARZAN

By EDGAR RICE BURROUGHS

Copyright 1913 by W. G. Chapman.

CHAPTER XXV. The Fifty-Fourth Men.

HUNDREDS of times before had Tarzan been to this secluded spot, which was so densely surrounded by thorn bushes and tangled vines and creepers of huge girth that not even Sabor, the tiger, could worm his sinuous way within, nor Tantor, with his giant strength, force the barriers which protected the council chamber of the great apes from all but the harmless denizens of the savage jungle.

Fifty trips Tarzan made before he had deposited all the ingots within the precincts of the amphitheater. Then from the hollow of an ananiet, lightning blasted tree he produced the very spear with which he had uncovered the chest of Professor Archimedes Q. Porter, which he had once, apellike, buried in this selfsame spot. With this he dug a long trench, into which he laid the fortune that his blacks had carried from the forgotten treasure vaults of the city of Opar.

That night he slept within the amphitheater, and early the next morning set out to revisit his cabin before returning to his Waziri. Finding things as he had left them, he went forth into the jungle to hunt, intending to bring his prey to the cabin where he might feast in comfort, spending the night upon a comfortable couch.

For five miles toward the south he roamed, toward the banks of a fair sized river that flowed into the sea about six miles from his cabin. He had gone inland about half a mile, when there came suddenly to his trained nostrils the one scent that sets the whole savage jungle a-quake—Tarzan smelled man.

The wind was blowing off the ocean, so Tarzan knew that the authors of the scent were west of him. Mixed with the man scent was the scent of Numa. Man and lion! "I had better hasten," thought the ape-man, for he had recognized the scent of whites.

"Numa may be a-hunting," he thought. When he came through the trees to the edge of the jungle he saw a woman kneeling in prayer, and before her stood a wild, primitive looking white man, his face buried in his arms. Behind the man a mangy lion was advancing slowly toward this easy prey. The man's face was averted; the woman bowed in prayer. He could not see the features of either.

Already Numa was about to spring. There was not a second to spare. Tarzan could not even unslung his bow and fit an arrow in time to send one of his deadly poisoned shafts into the yellow hide. He was too far away to reach the beast in time with his knife. There was but a single hope—a lone alternative. And with the quickness of thought the ape-man acted.

A brassy arm flew back—for the briefest fraction of an instant a huge spear poised above the giant's shoulder—and then the mighty arm shot out, and swift death tore through the intervening leaves, to bury itself in the heart of the leaping lion. Without a sound he rolled over at the very feet of his intended victims—dead.

For a moment neither the man nor the woman moved. Then the latter opened her eyes to look with wonder upon the dead beast behind her companion. As that beautiful head went up Tarzan of the Apes gave a gasp of incredulous astonishment. Was he mad? It could not be the woman he loved! But, indeed, it was none other.

And the woman rose and the man took her in his arms to kiss her, and of a sudden the ape-man saw red through a bloody mist of murder, and the old scar upon his forehead burned scarlet against his brown hide.

This was a terrible expression upon his savage face as he fitted a poisoned shaft to his bow, an ugly light gleamed in those gray eyes as he sighted full at the back of the unsuspecting man beneath him.

For an instant he glanced along the polished shaft, drawing the bowstring far back, that the arrow might pierce through the heart for which it was aimed.

But he did not release the fatal messenger. Slowly the point of the arrow drooped, the scar upon the brown forehead faded, the bowstring relaxed and Tarzan of the Apes with bowed head turned sadly into the jungle toward the village of the Waziri.

For several long minutes Jane Porter and William Cecil Clayton stood silently looking at the dead body of the beast whose prey they had so narrowly escaped becoming.

"The girl was the first to speak again after her outbreak of impulsive avowal. "Who could it have been?" she whispered. "God knows!" was the man's only reply.

wound her words had caused. "You have done the best you could. You have been noble and self-sacrificing and brave. It is no fault of yours that you are not a superman. There is only one other man I have ever known who could have done more than you. My words were ill chosen in the excitement of the reaction. I do not wish to wound you. All that I wish is that we may both understand once and for all that I can never marry you—that such a marriage would be wicked."

"I think I understand," he replied. "Let us not speak of it again—at least until we are back in civilization."

The next day Thurau was worse. Almost constantly he was in a state of delirium. They could do nothing to relieve him, nor was Clayton over-anxious to attempt anything. On the girl's account he feared the Russian—in the bottom of his heart he hoped the man would die. The thought that something might befall him that would leave her entirely at the mercy of this beast caused him greater anxiety than the probability that almost certain death awaited her should she be left entirely alone upon the outskirts of the cruel forest.

The Englishman had extracted the heavy spear from the body of the lion, so that when he went into the forest to hunt that morning he had a feeling of much greater security than at any time since they had been cast upon the savage shore. The result was that he penetrated farther from the shelter than ever before.

To escape as far as possible from the mad ravings of the fever-stricken Russian, Jane Porter had descended from the shelter to the foot of the tree—she dared not venture farther. Here, beside the crude ladder Clayton had constructed for her, she sat looking out to sea, in the always surviving hope that a vessel might be sighted.

Her back was toward the jungle, and so she did not see the grasses part and the savage face that peered from between. Little, bloodshot, close set eyes scanned her intently, roving from time to time about the open beach for indications of the presence of others.

Presently another head appeared and then another and another. The man in the shelter commenced to rave again, and the heads disappeared as silently and as suddenly as they had come. But soon they were thrust forth once more as the girl gave no sign of perturbation at the continued wailing of the man above.

One by one grotesque forms emerged from the jungle to creep stealthily upon the unsuspecting woman. A faint rustling of the grasses attracted her attention. She turned and at the sight that confronted her staggered to her feet, with a little shriek of fear. Then they closed upon her with a rush. Lifting her bodily in his long, gorilla-like arms, one of the creatures turned and bore her into the jungle. A filthy paw covered her mouth to stifle her screams.

Added to the weeks of torture she had already undergone the shock was more than she could withstand. Shattered nerves collapsed, and she lost consciousness.

518 Pages of Sweet Music. 400 Songs

HEART SONGS is not a mere collection of music and words! It is a book compiled directly by more than 20,000 people, who in sending their favorite songs, told why they sent them.

From the lone cabin on the trackless prairie—from the snowy wastes of Alaska—from the mining camp amidst the pines of the lofty Sierras—from the coral strand of an island in the far Pacific, so remote that the ships come only once a year (if they do not forget)—from the garrets of London and Paris, with only the stars above—from the sandy deserts of the Orient, somehow seemingly forgotten by even God Himself—came these outpourings of the human heart—from the men and women who loved them—and the singing of which oftentimes saved their sanity and faith in Heaven.

Every song in this wonderful book has had some sacred memory—some touching experience—some sweet and hallowed association—connected with it in the hearts of thousands. It is their song of joy—of sorrow—of thanksgiving—of love—of bereavement—of home-coming—of re-union—of all the tender sentiments that lift the human heart in worship to its Maker. It is for this—by inspiration—that this unique volume is entitled "HEART SONGS!"
