A LAWYER'S SUICIDE.

E. A. McGeer, of Vancouver, Fires a Revolver Bullet Through His Head.

It Was Done With Deliberate Intent to End His Unhappy Life.

VANCOUVER, April 20. (Special)—A terrible tragedy occurred in Vancouver today. E. A. McGeer shot himself. He walked into Tisdall's store on Hastings street at 8:30 in the afternoon and asked to be shown the mechanism of a thirty-eight Smith and Wesson revolver. This Mr. Tisdall did, placing a cartridge in the chamber to more effectively explain. Mr. McGeer took the loaded revolver very quietly out of Mr. Tisdall's hand and quickly as a flash stepped back and fired his shot. The ball went through his head and he fell dead. The city solicitor and others were standing near by, but were not quick enough to prevent the excitement as the revolver was passed to a crowd of spectators who swarmed into the store. For a few minutes the excitement was intense, but the ambulance moved away with the lifeless form of one of Vancouver's best known citizens was the large crowd dispersed, and even then many struggled to look through the window of the ambulance to see the ghastly blood-covered face of the unfortunate suicide. The dead man had not been supplied with his wife. A bitter quarrel was the result of a separation, and Mrs. McGeer left to live in Portland with her mother, and resigning her position of post-mistress of Hastings. The deceased grieved very much over the separation, and plunged into an abandoned life, drinking heavily. The awakening came today. As he sobbered up from a long spree, and felt the horror of his position, he decided to kill himself, and did so. He was a native of Wolfville, N. S., being educated for the bar at Acadia college.

WILL SOON TELL.

Government to Make an Announcement on the Crow's Nest Negotiations Soon.

Two Men Only From the Fifth for the Jubilee Regiment Trip.

OTTAWA, April 20. (Special)—T. G. Shaughnessy, vice-president of the C.P.R., was in town all day together with F. L. Beique, Q.C., and Joseph Brunet, of Montreal. They had an important conference to-night with several ministers respecting the construction of the Crow's Nest Pass railway. It is expected a formal announcement will be made in a few days as to the conditions upon which the company will build the road. Dr. H. Walton Jones, of Montreal, has been appointed immigrant agent for Canada in Scandinavia. Dr. Jones lived in Sweden some years and speaks the language perfectly. Toronto men are seeking incorporation to build a line from the Mackenzie river to the Forth of York. Six municipalities in Manitoba have protested against the school settlement and two have declared in its favor. The franchise bill was under discussion all day. Owing to the great expense of transport, the Fifth Regiment can only send two men to England, commissioners officers cannot be included. Those chosen must be certificated non-commissioned officers or privates. Adjt. Genl. Aylmer will command the regiment.

NEWS OF THE PROVINCE.

Harrison Lake Mines Will Soon Add Their Quota to Provincial Output.

English Capital Likely to Erect a Smelter at the Slocan Claims Bonded.

VANCOUVER, April 21. (Special)—This morning at 2:30 o'clock a gang of wood laborers on the Red Mountain railway, asleep in a tent, eight miles down the line from Rossland, were overwhelmed by a slide. Six of the men were killed, one dying and others will recover. The tent was on a gentle slope, and no expectation of a slide was entertained. One of the men was awakened by a noise which he took to be a car on the track, and got up to investigate. He went down the track and had only proceeded a few feet when the slide came down, catching the man. There was some snow in the slide, but the main mass was composed of rocks, dirt and trees. The survivor at once left for Rossland on an engine of the work train which happened to be on the slide track near by. Dr. Bowers at once left for the scene and in an hour a big force was at work trying to locate the men. It seems a miracle that any escaped. One man was found pinned down by trees but practically unharmed. Another who had been under a kitchen table was saved by that piece of furniture. The killed are Foreman Ohas, Olsen, laborers Thomas King, Dan McCallery, Dan Bennett and Robert Whitney, and John Oonlin. Only two bodies have been recovered so far. On Desmond's body was found over $700 in cash and checks. Max Engelhardt was fatally injured and has been taken to Northport, where he is dying.

A DEADLY SLIDE.

Overwhelms a Camp on the Red Mountain Railway With Awful Results.

Six Men Are Killed and Another Dying—The Work of Rescues.

ROSSLAND, April 21. The bodies of Tom King and Charles Olsen were recovered to-day from the slide on the Red Mountain railway, in which seven men lost their lives last Tuesday morning. Olsen will be buried at Northport, Washington. He has brothers in West Superior, Wisconsin. Two bodies remain undiscovered. The Kansas City Smelting Co. will build a three hundred ton plant at Five Mile Point, near Nelson on Kootenay lake. A site has been secured, and is being surveyed. The Red Mountain section of the Spokane Northern railroad is having several miles of track laid down for several weeks, and it is now expected to be freed from obstructions for a week or more.

WITH THE BAYONET.

Turks Dashed Over the Ramparts and Swept the Greeks Before Them.

Hellenes Showed Magnificent Courage, But Were Torn by Bursting Shells.

ELASSORA, Summit to the Milouna Pass, April 19.—The Turkish victory yesterday in the Milouna pass was complete. The enemy retired to the plain of Traves, leaving only a rear guard on the hill from which it was driven later by four battalions of Turkish infantry. The Turks pulled up to the top of the hill three mountain batteries, singing, laughing and weeping with joy like children. One battery opened fire on the Greeks, who were retreating on the plain of Traves, and did terrible execution. Turkish shells burst in the middle of scattered battalions of Greeks, with the result that whole groups were killed or wounded. Yesterday evening seven new Turkish battalions and several companies of artillery left for the front, and at dawn the latter were trained on the Greek blockhouses on the plain below. James Efidendi, the Turkish commander, and his men had been twenty-six hours without food or drink. When they were preparing to capture the Greek blockhouses, they made a speech to his soldiers, saying: "All those who love God must advance to the assault." This was enough. Every man with loud cheers dashed forward in the direction of the blockhouse. Even the muleteers who were bringing up the reserve ammunition joined in the attack. The blockhouses, which were held by the Greeks with magnificent courage. The Turks with splendid dash charged upon the batteries and eventually leaped over the ramparts with shouts of triumph. The Greeks waited their approach until the Turks were within thirty yards before firing. In this assault the Turks had only sixteen men killed and seventeen wounded. Every where was to be seen the effect of the Turkish artillery, their terrible shells bursting just at the calculated moment. The Greeks, on the other hand, appeared to be lacking in artillery. As the correspondent is writing this dispatch the Greeks attempted to reply to the Turkish artillery, but they were essentially forced to retire. The correspondent saw numbers of Greek bodies strewn over the ground. The Greeks, having only their swords and bayonets, were carried off by the Turks who raised the corpses of the Greeks reverently and placed them in the shadow of trees. The Turkish losses in the fighting yesterday were only 60 killed and 150 wounded. During Sunday night the Turks strengthened their positions which they captured from the Greeks. At sunrise it was seen that the Greek forces had retired, except from a hill which was occupied by the Greek's rear guard. Desultory firing took place all the morning, and first at 11 a.m. today, Harri Pasha sent four battalions to drive the enemy from the hill referred to. In twenty minutes all was over. The resistance of the Greeks was weak, and many of them surrendered to the Turks. The prisoners were mostly young and sturdy men.

the progressive unionists, urges Lord Salisbury to depart from the concert of Europe, and declares that the reclamation of Turkey to settle her quarrels with Greece by the sword should compel the British government to reconsider their position of adherence to concert of powers, which was only justified as preserving European peace, wherein it has failed. The Times, discussing editorially the Greek invitation to the powers to withdraw their forces from Crete, says that if Greece mediates the recall of Col. Vassos, the commander of the Greek army of occupation in Crete, so that they may co-operate in defence of his country, the powers might doubtless strain a point and let him out, but if they object the Greek government should say so. Until they do, the powers are not in the least likely to modify their action in Crete.

SILENT WITNESSES.

A Few Odds and Ends Tell to the World of Another Tragedy.

Crumbling Skeleton Found in the Forest—Who Is the Victim?

Once on a time in a narrow stretch of the forest, not half a dozen miles from Victoria, a tragedy was enacted that cost a human life. A pistol shot, and there was one less in the world, yet the world went on as usual, and none were aware of the fact that a pair of unfortunate men were at an end. So little are men missed by their fellow men.

Just when and how and for what reason this man died, no one will ever say. A crumbling skeleton, found close to a wooden trail, a pair of botanist's walking boots, a few shreds and patches of mouldy cloth; a rusty and long since useless revolver; and a skull pierced by a bullet—these gruesome tokens, tumbled into a gunnysack at provincial police headquarters, are all that remind the world now of this someone who was never missed.

Yet even these few grim relics tell a circumstantial story that is not without its fascination, accuracy and interest. To the police it is a mystery. The man was evidently young, for the teeth in the bullet-pierced skull are complete, and sound, and even they show, too, that the man had been becoming careworn and aged.

Below the medium size, judging from his shoes and the size of his skull, while the hair and formation of the latter would to a phenologist indicate a person of considerable mental capacity, varied attainments, and a strong physique, he would ask himself if life were worth the living and answer his question with a pistol shot constitutes part of the mystery.

There was no hesitation about the hand that pulled the trigger—the revolver had been aimed fast between the eyes, and the death must have ensued immediately.

When Aaron Ghent, of Parson's Bridge stumbled upon the skeleton a few days ago, on an infrequently visited section of his ranch, time had completed the work which the suicide had begun. To effectually conceal his identity, it would seem that he had chosen the spot for the act in his life with care and caution—for though not a hundred yards from the railway tracks, accident alone would lead anyone thither.

It would be folly now to hold an inquest, for the contents of the gunnysack would be the only witness, and these are silent as to everything material. Summarized, these fragmentary items which are kept as evidence of possible identification, include the pair of leath boots of English manufacture, with smooth, sewn soles; a portion of the coat of rough Harris tweed, fine quality to have lasted so long; a black Derby hat; and the Bulldog pistol, with one fired chamber, found at the side of the skeleton, near where the right hand lay crumpled into dust. Only these things, and $2.65 in silver money, with a little advertising souvenir bearing on one side a griffin's head and on the other the initials of the Saulte Bros., felt and gravel boots; Tel. No. 1,066; 23 Adelaide street, E.

From the date of the silver coin it is known that the dead man was in life sometime after 1888. There the meagre information ends.

Duke of Teck's Company Want to Administer the Canadian Yukon Country.

Importers and Manufacturers Crowding to the Capital to Hear Tariff Changes.

OTTAWA, April 21. (Special)—An important petition was presented to parliament today for the incorporation of the British Yukon Chartered Company. The Duke of Teck, and the petition also includes fifteen members of the British House of Commons and many leading bankers and merchants in London. The company is asking the government for a guarantee of 3 per cent interest on a bond issue of a million and a quarter dollars to enable them to build railway from the head of Lynn canal over the mountains pass to the head waters of navigation on the Yukon river. They ask permission to admit the company under regulations to be approved by the government.

North-west matters occupied the attention of the house all the afternoon, but the proceedings were uninteresting. A number of public bills were read a second time to-night.

Brokers Excited. NEW YORK, April 19.—Nothing outside of the news of the war between Turkey and Greece had much interest in Wall street to-day, and as a result the movement of prices on the stock exchange was at times very erratic. The scene at the opening was an exciting one, and there was heavy pressure to sell through the whole list. There had been many sell orders placed before the opening in anticipation of a slump, and these were speedily uncovered, running sales of from 1,300 to 4,000 shares being made at the opening in many stocks.

Muir Wins Colchester. HALIFAX, April 20. (Special)—The Dominion bye-election for Colchester, N.S., took place to-day and resulted in the election of Muir, Conservative, by a two majority.

A PRETTY CEREMONY.

Social circles were much interested yesterday in the marriage of Mr. W. J. H. Holmes, provincial land surveyor, of Kaslo, to Miss Winnie Worlock, second daughter of Mr. F. H. Worlock.

The bride was very handsomely costumed, and with her bridesmaids and little page made a very charming sight. The wedding presents numbered 149, and many of them were particularly handsome.

The ceremony of marriage was performed by the Bishop, assisted by Rev. Canon Beauland, and as the newly joined couple left the vestry the organist played Mendelssohn's wedding march.

IS CONSUMPTION CONTAGIOUS?

The question of isolation for those afflicted with consumption is being widely discussed by the health boards of the great cities.

The means of eradication, therefore, the discovery of "Cannabis Sativa," the East Indian Consumption Cure, is the greatest step of medical science towards conquering this dread disease.

Thousands of cases, pronounced hopeless, have been entirely cured, and there is no longer any question of the remarkable efficacy of this wonderful remedy in curing all diseases of the lungs, Asthma, Catarrh, Bronchitis, and nervous diseases.

To any one suffering from any of these diseases, who will endeavor to get a stamp and mention this paper, the recipe will be mailed free.

FEROCELY FIGHTING.

Turk and Greek Have at Last Thrown Aside the Pretences of Diplomacy.
Edhem Pasha's Troops Capture the Milouna Pass After a Furi-ous Conflict.
ELASSONA, April 18.—Headquarters Turkish army, 9 p.m., delayed in transmission.—Heavy fighting has taken place between Turks and Greeks for the possession of the Milouna Pass. After a most fatiguing day with the headquarters staff in the Milouna Pass, the correspondent of the Associate Press has returned here. The battle, resulting in giving the Turks possession of Milouna Pass, was waged with the most admirable courage and determination on both sides. The pass rang with the roar of artillery and the rattle of musketry. It was however, around the two Greek blockhouses that the most furious conflict occurred. They were defended with the most valor and tenacity. The correspondent was greatly struck with the coolness and discipline of the Turks. In the midst of the hottest fighting, for instance, four Turkish soldiers advancing in skirmishing order under a deadly fire became detached from the main body. Nevertheless they continued to advance with perfect self-possession amidst a hail of bullets. One of the men was hit and fell. Then the second man was shot and the third received a bullet wound, but the fourth man calmly continued firing without regard for his personal safety until the Greeks retired.

The most important Greek blockhouses named Kritchova was strongly fortified and defended by earth-works. The Turks mostly attacked in skirmishing order, firing independently. They seldom fired volleys.
The scene, while the engagement was at its height, was exceedingly picturesque. Edhem Pasha, surrounded by brilliant staff, was the centre of striking group with the constant going and coming of orderlies. The ambulance corps was busy in every direction bringing in wounded, whose faces were black with powder and covered with blood. Edhem Pasha followed every phase of the fighting, through field glass giving orders and receiving reports with imperturbable deliberation. It was noticed that many of the reports were scribbled on scraps of paper stained with blood. The officers and men alike were black with the dust of battle, and had not slept, shaved or washed for two days and nights. Edhem Pasha, commanding the Turkish artillery, is a man of magnificent presence. He exhibited most masterly skill in placing his batteries and in directing their fire.
It is believed to-morrow's fighting must be decisive. Several additional batteries of artillery and battalions of infantry have arrived to take part in the great combat to-morrow (Monday). The hilltops on the northern side of the pass are strewn with Greek dead. The faces of many of the dead are as calm as though asleep.

ATRENS, April 19.—In the second engagement at Crivoyalle the Greek brigade under command of General Mastropeo was able to reform after giving away before the Turkish assault. Another Greek brigade under command of General Mastropeo hurried to reinforce General Mastropeo. A despatch from Atrens filed at 11.30 this morning announced that fighting continued between the Greeks and Turks at the entrance of the Gulf of Arta and elsewhere in that vicinity. The Turkish batteries at Hamidien and Patrosteros are replying actively. The crossing of the river Arakphot by the Greek army under Col. Manos, numbering about 25,000 men was attended by severe fighting during which the Greek artillery batteries distinguished themselves. This Greek force is now in Epirus. Dispatches from the front received here this evening say the Turks in considerable force have been attacking Revenia, not far from Tyrnavos, northwest of Larissa, which would indicate that the Greeks have not advanced far into the Damazi Plain. It is added that the Turks were repulsed at Revenia. A still later dispatch from Crivoyalle admits that the Turks have recaptured that place.
CONSTANTINOPLE, April 19.—The Turkish authorities at Trevas have proclaimed the Gulf of Arta closed to all Turkish troops.
PARIS, April 19.—At a cabinet meeting this morning it was decided not to modify the policy of non-intervention in Greco-Turkish affairs previously adopted by France. At the request of the Greek minister, Prince Mavrocordat, the French ambassador was authorized to take under his protection the Greek Catholics in Turkey. At the close of the cabinet meeting M. Hanotaux, minister of foreign affairs, received the Greek minister to France.
LARISSA, April 19.—The Greeks have defeated the Turks at Revenia and two Greek brigades have entered Turkish territory in different directions and penetrated to Damazi, northeast of Zartsoo. Another division is trying to flank the Turks who are retreating in disorder. Heavy fighting is in progress at Crivoyalle; it has been going on since noon. The Greeks are trying to recapture the place.
CONSTANTINOPLE, April 19.—The Imperial Ottoman bank has offered the government to establish and maintain at Ellassona, at its own expense, a hospital for the wounded.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 19.—Referring to the mention of an alliance between Bulgaria, Serbia and Montenegro, it is semi-officially pointed out to-day that the league being formed is not only for protection of the governments named, but also for the realization of their anti-Hellenic aspirations in the Balkan peninsula. Therefore, it is added, Greece is unable to count upon any support in the present conflict from the countries indicated, and moreover the respective ministers have positively assured Russia that their governments will maintain strict neutrality.
LONDON, April 19.—The outbreak of hostilities on the Greek frontier has caused but little sensation here. The permanent officials and the Turkish ambassador have received no information

DINGLEY'S BILL.

He Will Hardly Recognize It When It Gets Out of Committee.
Picked to Pieces and Duties So Reduced That It Means a Trouble Ahead.
BUFFALO, N.Y., April 19.—A Washington despatch to the Enquirer to-day says: "It can be said on good authority that when the tariff bill is reported to the committee the bill will be in the hands of the prominent House Republican, who framed it, has never impressed Senators Aldrich and Allison, and it is understood that they quickly determined to eliminate the clause on the ground that the courts would not sustain legislation of a retroactive nature. It is now said the sub-committee will be ready on Wednesday to report the tariff bill to the full committee and the calculation is not that it will be reported on May 1, if possible. It is also learned that the bill has been cut to pieces so generally and such heavy reductions are made in rates that it is problematic whether the bill can pass the senate in the shape it is expected to assume when reported. The members of the sub-committee will hold numerous caucuses after the committee finally agrees on the schedule. While the members of the sub-committee are preparing to come and decline to discuss in detail the results of their labors, enough has leaked out to warrant the statement that the bill has been so picked to pieces and so heavily reduced that certain interests clamoring for high protection will use their influence to prevent the passage of the bill. Senator Aldrich even has admitted privately within the past few days that the outlook is not pleasing to contemplate. He, however, is prepared for a long tussle, and contends that the bill will eventually pass."

ALL GREECE'S FAULT.

LONDON, April 19.—The Times in an editorial on the war between Turkey and Greece dwells upon the provocation Turkey has received by Greece invading Crete and remaining there, and then invading Macedonia. The paper asks: "What other power in Europe could command a fine army would have carried its patience so far as Turkey has done?" It adds: "Of course there are special circumstances in this case. The high position was clearly set forth in a speech made recently in the House of Commons, and I have nothing to add or detract from what I then said."
"Mr. Davies has reversed the decision of Commissioner Smith in the matter of the wreck of the Donaldson liner, Warple, not only in Britain, but in the far distant Pacific. He finds the captain and second mate guilty of culpable negligence, and suspends the captain's certificate for six months and the mate for three."

THE REASON WHY.

ROSELAND, April 19.—A great sensation was created the latter part of last week by the announcement that an indignation meeting was to be held here protesting against any extension of time to the Nelson and Fort Sheppard railway to complete its surveys of granted lands. The indignation meeting was held at the Nelson and Fort Sheppard railway, and the fact that the company had refused to complete its surveys of granted lands, and that the railway was not open to traffic, was one of the reasons for the meeting.

HE BEGGED FOR POISON.

LONDON, April 17.—The strange death of the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg Schwerin at Cannes on Saturday last has caused great discussion. Herr Langfeld was sent to Cannes by the minister of justice of Mecklenburg with instructions to inquire into the circumstances. He returned with the report that the Duke's death was due to an accident in falling over the parapet of a bridge in the grounds of his residence at Cannes. The following report made to the Emperor by Baron von Kapper, of the Grand Duke's suite, the financial secretary, A. J. Welch, treats the Duke's death as an accident, and says that the Duke had begged his physicians to relieve his misery by administering quick poison to him. His Majesty was greatly shocked, and ordered that the worst details be withheld from the newspapers.

NO USE FOR THEM.

BERLIN, April 19.—The Prussian minister of the interior has issued a new decree, permitting only a brief stay here of any German, naturalized in the United States, who returns to this country. They were formerly allowed to remain here permanently, provided no questions of military dereliction upon their part were involved. The Liberal press points out that this decree amounts to nullification of the treaty stipulations of 1888, whereby the permanent return of naturalized German-Americans were specially guaranteed. The Liberal leaders, Herr Richter and Bickert, and others, will question the government on the subject in the Reichstag, and that body will thoroughly discuss the decree.

I saw South American Nerve and Stomach Pills in a bottle and truthfully say it is the best medicine I ever used, and I strongly recommend it to anyone suffering as I did. FEEELING THEIR WAY.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—The members of the sub-committee of the senate finance committee having in charge the tariff bill, were on the floor to-day talking to their colleagues and preparing the way for a meeting of the full committee. The sub-committee is approaching the end of its labors and various senators who are making persistent demands for changes were called upon with a view to arriving at an understanding. Among the problems which are yet unsettled are those relating to sugar, lead ore and wool. Some senators have manifested a disposition to hold out persistently for foreign modifications of schedules referring to these and other articles. The members of the committee, while not indicating their own position or that of the committee, have thought it well to talk over these matters with the complaining senators. They are anxious to bring in a bill that will command the united support of the committee and that will be sure to become a law. One of the senators said to-day that the bill would be a revenue bill and not a protective tariff bill. The committee has practically agreed upon a modification of the retroactive clause of the Dingley bill, it is hoped, will be satisfactory. The wool men are still pressing for radical changes. Wool growers want complete change of classification, and still insist that no wool shall be admitted for less than one cent a pound. While some changes are probable in this schedule, it is quite certain that these demands will not be entirely met.

CANADA'S EAST LINE.

Mr. Dobbell is Back From England and Declares His Mission Successful.
Captain and Mate of the "Wrecked" "Warwick."

OTTAWA, April 19.—(Special)—Dobbell, who returned from England to-day declined to talk about his trip for a day or two, except to say that he had found the little island just as he left it in January, and that he was confident his mission would result in benefit to Canada. He was on his previous trip, and that they will rebound to the advantage of the Dominion and Empire.
Mr. Couston was spoken to to-day concerning the statement in a Montreal dispatch, that he was about to throw in his lot with the liberal party. "I have little to say," was his answer. "My position was clearly set forth in a speech made recently in the House of Commons, and I have nothing to add or detract from what I then said."
"Mr. Davies has reversed the decision of Commissioner Smith in the matter of the wreck of the Donaldson liner, Warple, not only in Britain, but in the far distant Pacific. ONE HAPPY FEATURE OF THIS YEAR'S PARLIAMENT will be the presence of over 30 bishops from the Episcopal church in the United States, and according to the latest details the details of the great banquet service to be held at St. Paul's cathedral, London, in June, when Her Majesty the Queen will herself be present in state, it is expected that the whole of the bishops attending the conference will be present in their robes. This will give a fairly good idea of the intended solemnity and impressiveness of what will truly be, in its broadest sense, a service of national thanksgiving. At the same time the following are some of the questions which will receive the most careful deliberation of the assembled divines:
1. The organization of the Anglican Church in the relation of religious communities within the church to the episcopate; foreign missions; church unity in its respects to industrial problems; the book of Common Prayer; the duties of the church to the colonies; degrees in divinity.
The growth of this communion in modern times is attested to by the fact that at the first conference, in 1867, only 76 bishops were present, and it is also interesting to Canadian churchmen to know that the present Archbishop of Ontario may be styled the father of the Lambeth conferences, for it was from his master mind, in 1863, that the idea originated, and he has been happily spared to see them an established body of his church.—Cont.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East Indian missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, having tested and having witnessed curative power in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-creatures by this medium, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this medicine, in respect to industrial problems, the book of Common Prayer, the duties of the church to the colonies; degrees in divinity.

LAMBETH CONFERENCE.

Bishop Perrin leaves for England next week, to attend the great meeting of Anglican bishops and other prelates in communion with the historic Anglican church, known as the Lambeth conference, to be held in London from June 30 to August 2, inclusive.
The president of the conference, Dr. Temple, Archbishop of Canterbury, has issued 247 invitations to his brother bishops throughout the world. The high distinction, power and splendid history of this arch-see with its broken line of arch-prelates, stretching over thirteen centuries, and the only, nodus, unbroken supremacy they have exercised over the Anglican church has been a most important factor in her history, and Canterbury to-day, holds, as it ever has done, the unique position as the mother church of the Anglo-Saxon peoples, not only in Britain, but in the far distant Pacific. THE GOVERNMENT AND THE SUBSIDIZED RAILWAYS.

It was suggested that there ought to be some provision in the railway subsidy bill to provide for the acquisition of the subsidized lines by the Provincial government...

AN EXPLODED SCANDAL.

Very much has been said in the House in regard to a grant of some land on Kettle river to Miss Davis...

entitled to the land sold to Miss Davis. The closest scrutiny of the Land office shows that the transaction was wholly regular on the part of the department...

A MATTER OF BUSINESS.

The total mileage contemplated by the railway subsidy bill may, for convenience, be put at 500 miles. The hope is that the Dominion government will ask parliament to subsidize these railways by an amount double that given by the Province...

Ms. Sword objects to the creation of a sinking fund in the case of provincial loans. Mr. Sword aspires to the position of minister to Canadians...

ground. Yet Mr. Cotton thought it to refuse to accept the statement of these gentlemen. The government could not accept an amendment to the subsidy bill proposed by the opposition...

Receipts. From 30,000 people at $18.50 per head. $555,000. Interest and sinking fund. $160,000. Cost of government $7.50 per head of 30,000 people. $225,000.

We print a letter from the master of the ship Alice A. Leigh. It can hardly be claimed that the treatment accorded to him has been right. Great injury will be done this port if matters of this kind are permitted to occur.

It is worthy of mention in connection with the Queen's diamond jubilee record that the most high Princess and illustrious Prince Albert Edward, Prince of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland...

The Nova Scotia Conservatives hardly saved enough of yesterday's local election crop for seed, and to add insult to injury they ran away with Colechester in the House of Commons election by a small majority.

We do not want to be understood as interfering in somebody else's quarrel, but it strikes us somewhat forcibly that the Toronto Globe is devoting a good deal of space in re McInnes to proving what it claims is evident on the face of it.

Mr. Cotton would no doubt be very indignant if any one would question his word solemnly given, yet this did not prevent him from saying in the legislature that he was satisfied that some arrangement had been made with the Ontario & Western for the construction of the Penitentiary-Boundary railway.
