CONSTITUTION
OF
THE NORTH BRITISH SOCIETY
IN HALIFAX, NOVA SCOTIA.

SECTION I.

DESIGNATION OF THE SOCIETY—ITS SEAL.

The Society shall retain its present name, that is,—THE NORTH BRITISH SOCIETY, in Halifax, Nova Scotia.

The Seal shall be a silver Seal, with a Thistle and Crown engraved thereon, with this motto, "Nemo me impune lacessit."

SECTION II.

MEMBERSHIP.

1. As the existence and usefulness of the Society depend upon its ordinary members, what relates to them deserves first consideration.

(1) Persons desiring admittance into the Society shall consist of Scotsmen and their descendants.

(2) They shall be proposed by one or more members of the Society submitting their names, addresses and qualifications for membership under the preceding rule, at a meeting of the officers of the Society to be held ten days previously to the quarterly meeting and, if approved, their names shall be inserted in the notice convening the said meeting as candidates for membership, and their election shall be determined by a majority of votes by ballot at such meeting.

2. Every person thus elected an ordinary member shall, at the time of his admission, subscribe to the rules of the Society, and pay into the hands of the Treasurer a sum not less than four dollars.

3. When a new member has been elected by the Society, he shall be introduced to the President and others holding office, as soon as convenient by the member who proposed him.

4. Every ordinary member resident in the City of Halifax, shall pay quarterly into the hands of the Treasurer the sum of $1.00, or such other sums as shall from time to time be judged sufficient for promoting the general purposes of the Society.

5. Perpetual members shall consist of those persons eligible for admission into the Society who deposit in the funds of charity a sum of forty dollars, they shall always have a right to take part in the business of the Society, and shall, with their own consent, be always eligible for election to its offices.

6. Honorary Members shall consist of those persons eligible for membership:

- (1) Those who are passengers and sojourners rather than residents in the City.
They shall on their election contribute to the funds of the Society a sum not less than six dollars and, if such members shall subsequently become residents in the City, they shall be transferred to the list of ordinary members, and contribute as such.
- (2) Those whom the members for good reasons may decide to add to this list, or ordinary members removing from the City.
- (3) Those ordinary members who, having paid quarterly dues for twenty years, in succession, may at their own request be added to this list.

7. At the annual meeting in November the Secretary shall present a list of all members three years or more in arrears of dues. Any member thus reported shall be specially notified to pay the same, and, failing to do so, may be suspended. Any member thus suspended may be reinstated on the payment of dues owing at the time of his suspension, by a majority vote of the Society.

8. Should any member, not in arrears, resign from the Society, he shall have the privilege of again submitting his name for membership, and if elected, he shall be admitted free from payment of entry fee.

SECTION III.

MEETINGS: ELECTION OF OFFICERS: ORDER OF BUSINESS.

1. For cultivating a mutual good understanding among the members, and for conducting the business of charity, the Society shall be assembled four times in the year, in addition to its Anniversary Meetings, namely, on the first Thursday of the months of February, May, August and November.

2. The President, or in his absence, the officer highest in rank who may be in the City, shall, when any emergency occurs which, in his opinion, may render it expedient, or upon the written requisition of ten members, call a special meeting of the Society. Fifteen members shall be necessary to form a quorum at a special meeting, and no resolution shall be declared carried at such special meeting unless at least ten members shall vote in favor of such resolution. Whenever such meetings are called, each member shall be notified, in writing, as to the time and place of meeting.

3. At all meetings of the Society, after the President or Vice-President has taken the chair, the rules shall be laid on the table for the perusal and direction of the members.

4. Every member speaking on business shall stand up and address himself to the Chair, and no member shall speak more than once on the same subject, except by leave from the Chair, or to explain something already offered.

5. When the subject before the Society is stated and discussed, the President shall propose the same for the decision of the members, which shall be determined by a majority vote by show of hands, or, if five members present shall so require, by ballot.

6. At the meeting in November the members present shall, by ballot by a majority of those present, elect the officers for the ensuing year, to wit, a President, a Vice-President, two Assistants, a Treasurer, an Historian, a Secretary, an Assistant Secretary, a Committee of Charity, a Chaplain, two Auditors, and a Marshall or Messenger, who shall enter on their duties at the meeting to be held for celebrating the Festival of St. Andrew.

7. Candidates for office shall be first nominated in writing, and the ballot shall be restricted to those nominated. Should the first ballot not show a clear majority the second shall be taken for the two having the highest number of votes.

8. The order of business of meetings shall be:

- (1) Reading records of previous meeting.
- (2) Consideration of the reports of officers.
- (3) Consideration of the report of the Charity Committee.
- (4) Applications for membership.
- (5) Balloting for members.
- (6) Introduction of new members to the Society.
- (7) Communications.
- (8) Report of Committee on the celebration of the Festival and on dues and membership, at February meeting.
- (9) Unfinished business.
- (10) New business.
- (11) Election of officers (November meeting).

9. At ordinary quarterly meetings ten members shall constitute a quorum.

10. At the meeting in November, a regulation shall be made for celebrating the Festival of St. Andrew. At the said Annual Festival, every member of the Society shall appear with the Cross of St. Andrew on his breast.

INSTALLATION OF PRESIDENT.

11. The President elected at the Annual Meeting for the ensuing year, shall be invested with the Collar and Badge of Office, and the Seals of the Society shall be delivered to him at noon on Saint Andrew's Day, by the retiring President, or either of the retiring Vice-Presidents, or by a Past President, and the service of investiture shall be attended by as many Past Presidents and members as may find it convenient to be present. If the 30th November, Saint Andrew's Day, fall on Sunday, the investiture shall take place on the day following. The installation charge and order shall be after the ancient Scottish formula, viz.:

At 12 o'clock noon, St. Andrew's Day,

The Marshall announces to the Company of the members present that the term of office of President of the North British Society for the past year has expired, and that the President-elect awaits Installation, at the same time handing the Badge, Collar and Seal, to the Investing Member, who thus proclaims—

By the authority of the North British Society I hereby declare and proclaim the elected Head and President of our Scottish Charitable Brotherhood for the ensuing year, and hereby invest him with the Collar and Badge of President, and deliver to him the Seals of Office. May his term be prosperous and happy, and may he deliver up his honorable charge to his successor in office with an increased roll of members, greater wealth and resources, and an augmented prestige for this Ancient and Charitable Institution. God Save the King.

12. The Committee for the purpose of celebrating the Festival of St. Andrew shall consist of the office-bearers of the Society and the officers elect for the succeeding year, together with as many of the older members of the Society as the President may deem it expedient to summon.

SECTION IV.

THE OFFICERS OF THE SOCIETY: THEIR DUTY AND BUSINESS.

1. No person shall be eligible for the office of President who has not been at least three years an ordinary or perpetual member of the Society.

2. The duty of the President, Vice-President or Chairman, is to preside at all meetings, to regulate the deliberations of the Society, to state and put questions both in the affirmative and the negative, according to the sense and intention of the meeting; to check undue warmth or irregularity, and keep all persons in order; to direct summonses for all ordinary and extraordinary general meetings; and to execute or superintend the execution of all the rules and orders of the Society.

3. The custody and use of the Seal, the power of naming the place of meeting, with all other powers vested in him by ancient usage shall, as heretofore, remain with the President, or, in his absence, with the Vice-President or Senior or Junior Assistant Vice-President.

4. All disbursements shall be submitted, for approval, to the President, Vice-President, or Chairman, who shall also sign all orders of distribution. The accounts of distribution shall be submitted to the Society for its satisfaction.

5. The Senior and Junior Assistant Vice-Presidents shall perform the duties of stewards of the Society at the quarterly meetings, and shall superintend all matters relating to the providing of refreshments, speeches, music, etc.

6. The Secretary or Assistant Secretary shall attend all meetings and Committees of the Society, with the rules and records; shall take down all minutes, particularly noting, in a regular account, all monies, received and disbursed, and shall produce the same, fairly written, in proper books, at the next meeting; shall read all letters, petitions or papers sent or communicated to the Society, and shall record such of them as may be deemed worthy of preservation; shall prepare all answers in such terms as may be directed; shall make proper indexes to the books of the Society, and allow no account thereof, under his direction, to be in arrear beyond the space of three months, and shall issue Diplomas and Certificates, duly signed by the President and Secretary, to all new members.

7. The Treasurer shall give such security as the Society may require for the trust reposed in him, and if a bond is furnished, the Society shall pay the premium thereon. He shall receive all monies belonging to the Society; he shall regularly produce his accounts signed, and shall annually produce a financial statement, duly audited, of the resources of the Society, and shall distribute copies of such statement with the notice of the November meeting.

8. He shall have no credit in his account for any sum disbursed for which he does not produce the order or approbation of the President in writing, or, in his absence, the Vice-President.

9. The Historian shall have the oversight and care of the records and archives of the Society, and shall keep, each year, a summary of the doings of the Society, and of the celebration of the Festival of St. Andrew.

10. It shall be the duty of the officers for the preceding year and the officers of the Society to meet not later than the second Tuesday of January to

- (1) Examine and authorize the payment of all accounts contracted for the celebration of the Festival of St. Andrew.
- (2) Consider means for increasing the membership of the Society.
- (3) Arrange for the collection of dues.
- (4) Revise the roll of members.
- (5) Consider means for extending the usefulness of the Society.

A report embodying the above matters shall be submitted to the Society in writing at the next quarterly meeting.

11. If any officers of the Society are, by sickness or otherwise, necessarily absent from a regular meeting, others shall be called, for the time being, to act in their room; and if any of the officers happen to remove out of the province or to die during the year for which they were elected, the members assembled at the next quarterly meeting shall, as upon the meeting in November, choose others to serve in their stead for the remainder of the year.

THE APPOINTMENT, POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE COMMITTEE OF CHARITY.

12. A Committee of Charity, consisting of five members, shall be elected annually by the Society for the following purposes:—

- (1) To enquire into the claims, characters and circumstances of all such as apply for the ordinary or extraordinary aid of the Society, to prevent the charity of the Society from being improperly or fruitlessly applied.
- (2) To deliver their opinion candidly and freely with respect to the general merit of claimants, and to the extent of the relief it may be necessary to afford them.
- (3) To report to the Society any accident that may befall members, and such as stand in need of aid, or any sickness they may labor under, and to describe the nature and extent of the assistance it behooves the Society to give them, while in such circumstances.

SECTION V.

FUNDS OF THE SOCIETY AND APPROPRIATION THEREOF.

1. All the money collected from the members, or received by donation or otherwise, shall be applied to the best advantage for promoting the ends of the Society, as determined by the members at its regularly appointed meetings; and if, at any time, there shall be more money in the funds than present exigencies require, the Treasurer and President for the time being shall invest the same in securities available for Trustees.

2. The charity of the Society shall be applied in the following manner, viz.:—The President and Vice-President, with the other officers of the Society or the Committee of Charity, shall have the power to draw orders on the Treasurer for the time being in favor of such poor or distressed persons as they shall judge fit objects of the Society's bounty, which orders the Treasurer shall immediately pay, PROVIDED ALWAYS, that none but those who have the same qualifications in regard to country and parentage as is stated in the rule respecting admission of members, their widows and children, shall ever be entitled to any part of this charity; PROVIDED ALSO, that the sum so drawn does not exceed $20 in the case of any one person, and when $20 are drawn by order on the Treasurer, the said order shall be signed by every member of the Committee of Charity. All orders on the Treasurer shall be signed by at least three of the said Committee of Charity, when under $20.

3. As a stated provision is made for the resident poor by municipal laws of the City, to which the members of this Society contribute their portion in their private capacity as citizens, the fund of charity shall be rather applied to the relief and assistance of persons who have met with sudden misfortune, or who suffer by occasional distress, than to continued allowance for the settled poor; but as no adequate regulation suitable to all times and all circumstances can be devised on this subject, the Society shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this rule, be always free to exercise its own discretion and humanity with regard to it.

SECTION VI.

PROVISION IN CASE OF DEATH OF MEMBERS: GUESTS.

1. When the attendance of the Society is requested at the funeral of one of its members, or of a countryman, a stranger in the place, the President shall issue orders for that purpose; and the customs of Scotland, as far as expedient, shall be adhered to in the procession on such occasions.

2. For the purpose of extending the usefulness of the Society, and for making the objects of it more generally known, each member shall have the privilege of introducing, at the respective quarterly suppers, a guest, eligible to become a member of the Society. A member introducing a guest shall notify the Stewards, and pay a sum of fifty cents for each guest.

CERTIFICATES TO BE GRANTED TO RESIDENT,
PERPETUAL OR HONORARY MEMBERS.

All resident, perpetual, or honorary members, removing from the province, shall, upon application, be furnished with a certificate of their admission and attendance, under the Society's seal, and signed by the President or Vice-President, and Secretary, the form of which shall be as follows:—

"These are to certify that was regularly admitted a Member of the North British Society of the City of Halifax, in the Province of Nova Scotia, at a meeting of the Society, the..... day of, A. D. 19....."

Given under our hands and seal of the Society the day and year above written."

But as it may be expedient for members of this Society to remove in quest of settlement to other parts of this Continent, where similar institutions exist, whose countenance and direction might be of great assistance to them, a second form of certificate shall be granted, upon application, to such members of this description as the Society shall think worthy of the same, the form whereof shall be as follows:—

"These certify that Mr. was regularly admitted a member of the North British Society of Halifax, in Nova Scotia, on the day of, and having duly conformed to all its rules and regulations during his residence here, he is, therefore, recommended to the countenance and protection of any and all similar Societies."

The foregoing rules shall be deemed the fundamental articles and regulations of the NORTH BRITISH SOCIETY in Halifax, Nova Scotia, and shall not hereafter be altered or abrogated, on any pretence whatever, otherwise than by consent of at least two-thirds of the members regularly met at any quarterly meeting in November; provided, also, that a Committee has been previously appointed, to consist of at least five members, and to have reported such alteration to be necessary.

Voted unanimously, and agreed to at a quarterly meeting at the Halifax Hotel, in the City of Halifax, in the Province of Nova Scotia, the 28th day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and five.
