Sir Wilfrid Surrenders And the Manitoba Lists Are to Go Untouched

After Two Hours' Conference With Prime Minister, Premier Roblin is Able to Announce That Everything is Satisfactory.

Science of Obstruction

How the Opposition Is Enabled to Starve Out the Government by Refusing Supplies.

OTTAWA, May 19.—(Special.)—During to-day Premier Roblin of Manitoba was closeted with Sir Wilfrid Laurier for two hours. He left for Toronto tonight accompanied by Attorney-General Rogers, and the fight which has continued for three weeks and which has created a condition of affairs unparalleled in the history of Canada is at an end. Mr. Roblin told The World that a satisfactory arrangement has been arrived at, to be discussed in detail.

CONSERVATIVE CAUCUS HAD DECIDED ON FIGHT

OTTAWA, May 19.—(Special.)—During to-day Premier Roblin of Manitoba was closeted with Sir Wilfrid Laurier for two hours. He left for Toronto tonight accompanied by Attorney-General Rogers, and the fight which has continued for three weeks and which has created a condition of affairs unparalleled in the history of Canada is at an end.

CONGRESS TOO NOISY.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—The reduction of the floor size of the hall of the house of representatives by cutting off one-third of its length and the substitution of cushioned benches for revolving chairs, are changes recommended in a report submitted to the house to-day. This would make the hall a duplicate of the house of commons in England.

CHINAMEN FOR REVENUE.

OTTAWA, May 19.—The poll tax of $500 on each Chinese immigrant into Canada brought the federal treasury last year no less a sum than $690,000. The total arrivals of Chinese were 128, each paying $500 on entry.

DR. BAIN VERY LOW.

It was said last night that Dr. Bain, the librarian, was not expected to live more than a day or two. His venerable father, James Bain, sr., passed away on Monday.

TORONTO GRADUATE'S SUCCESS.

WINNIPEG, May 19.—Dr. H. E. Mustard, who recently graduated from Ontario Veterinary College, winning gold medal, has been appointed government inspector of contagious diseases for the Province of Saskatchewan.

TERMS OF THE RECENT TREATY

Control of the Fisheries and Demarcation of the Boundary Are Now Settled.

OTTAWA, May 19.—(Special.)—Copies of treaties between Great Britain and United States providing for demarcation of the international boundary between Canada and the United States and also concerning fisheries in contiguous waters were brought down to-day.

The latter provides for uniform regulations as to times, seasons and appliances for the catching of fish to be determined by an international commission consisting of one representative of each government.

It is provided by the treaty that the regulation as agreed upon shall be enforced simultaneously and that each government shall exercise the jurisdiction over citizens of either country in case of violations of the joint regulations.

It is further provided that these regulations shall remain in force for one year's notice by either of the contracting parties.

The waters to which the treaty is to apply are Passamaquoddy Bay, Lake Memphremagog, Lake Champlain, the Niagara River, Lake Erie, Lake St. Clair, Lake Huron (excluding Georgian Bay, including the North Channel), St. Mary's River, Rainy River and Lake of the Woods Straits of San Juan De Fuca and contiguous waters of the Pacific.

The treaty regarding the boundary deals first with the demarcation of the line thru Passamaquoddy Bay in New Brunswick, from the mouth of the St. Croix River to the Bay of Fundy, the line to follow as closely as possible that laid down under the treaty of 1852.

In regard to the boundaries of the intersection of the international line with the St. Lawrence River to the mouth of Pigeon River, it is agreed the location shall be made by the existing international waterways commission.

Both gentlemen, when seen by a World reporter, confessed that they were acquainted with the World's campaign for a suburban railway service in and about Toronto, but neither was ready to promise that such a service would be established.

"The service in Montreal is the growth of years. Then the big grades all around Toronto are in themselves a great reason why such a service has not been established here.

"If some one will guarantee the business, any railway will establish the service, but no one seems ready to give the guarantee," was Mr. McNeill's gentle jibe.

"I think that we know more about running a railway than you do about running a newspaper," was Mr. McNeill's gentle jibe.

G.T.R. Manager Says Grades Are Too Costly—Claim Insufficient Demand for Service.

C. M. Hays, general manager of the G.T.R., and D. McNeill, general manager of the Canadian Pacific, are both in the city, to attend the session of the railway commission to-day, when the subject of a suburban railway service will be discussed.

6264 NEW VOTERS ADDED TO LISTS IN FIRST TWO DAYS

Official Figures of the Registration Indicate That Polling Day Will Result in a Very Big Vote.

The official registration returns show the substantial total for the two days of 6264.

South Toronto is far in the lead with 2325, North Toronto second with 1695, West next with 1247 and East last with only 593.

The second day's registration increased over Monday in the south by 183, in the east 157, west 233 and in the north 228.

Only one division reported the same number each day, that one being No. 10 in South Toronto.

Indications point to a much larger total for the next two days, Friday and Saturday, and the vote polled at the provincial elections on June 8, should be the largest on record.

The young men are getting in line as never before, and the large, new foreign element is being interested to a truly remarkable degree.

SEE A G.T.P. SCHEME TO FOIST ON GOVT NON-PAYING LINES

Objection is Taken to Hon. Mr. Graham's Proposition as to the Taking Over of Branches.

OTTAWA, May 19.—(Special.)—While the bill of the Grand Trunk branch lines company was before the house in the first hour to-night, Hon. Mr. Graham submitted an amendment providing that on the expiration of the fifty year lease of the National Transcontinental Railway to the Grand Trunk Pacific if the government takes over the eastern section of the main line such of the branch lines as the company does not elect to retain shall be taken over at a valuation.

He proposed that the amount of subsidies paid to the branch lines company shall be deducted from the price to be paid by the government, or that it be fixed by arbitration.

When the bill was before the house a week ago, Houghton Lennox moved to insert a provision that the government "may" take over any of the branch lines at a valuation.

Mr. Graham's proposal, observed Dr. Sproule, was unfair to the people. It would compel the government to take over any of the branch lines that do not pay.

Hon. Mr. Pugsley said the objection to Mr. Lennox's amendment was that the government could take over the paying lines, leaving the unprofitable branches in the hands of the company.

"There is the same objection to the government proposal," said Dr. Sproule.

"Exactly," assented Dr. Pugsley. "The anxiety of the government to give every advantage to the G.T.P. to the detriment of the people was the text of my address by Mr. Lancaster."

Mr. Blair said if the G.T.P. had a representative in parliament he could not put the interests of the company stronger than did the government.

MAY INVESTIGATE BOOKS TO SEE TARIFF EFFECTS

Hon. Mr. Lemieux Will Recommend the Step as Means of Ending Textile Strike.

MONTREAL, May 19.—(Special.)—The ranks of the cotton strikers were increased this morning by 1000 men from the Hochelaga Mill of the Dominion Textile Co. This makes about 6000 out altogether, as follows: Valleyfield 3000, Hochelaga 1000, St. Henri 1200, St. Ann's 600, and a few at Montmagny and Magog.

A delegation of about 300 textile workers paraded to the government offices here this morning, where a score of the number were received by Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, Hon. Mr. Brodeur and Adolphe Bergeron, M.L.A.

The cabinet the appointment of a commission to examine the books of the various cotton companies and see whether the tariff is too low, as is complained by the companies.

"The price of the business and we will show the service. Petitions do not mean anything. I could easily get up a petition for you to sell your paper for a cent a week. I could get all sorts of people to sign it."

"Even under the present conditions," The World objected, "there are already a number of people coming into the city every day."

"One swallow does not make a spring," replied the C. P. R. manager, "and an occasional passenger does not make a service. We are after the business here or any place, and we are not going to choose out of business here, in favor of Montreal, as you have said in your articles."

BULLETS WHIZZ IN CAR STRIKE

Four Men Seriously Hurt and Car Burned—Child Victim of Green Motorman.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, May 19.—Rioting became more general and serious in the street railway strike late to-day. The first death, while not a part of the strike, but incident to it, occurred when Yetta Wolkinski, 4 years of age, was run over by a car operated by an inexperienced motorman. A crowd quickly gathered and would have lynched the motorman had he not turned on full speed and escaped.

In Lakewood a car was stopped and the crew fired upon. Four persons were shot and seriously injured and the car was burned to the tracks.

The first disturbance in the downtown section also took place after dark, when a Woodland car was held up on Ontario-street and the motorman and conductor attacked. The police dispersed the rioters.

Every member of Clifton-boulevard car at Lakewood was the most serious riot of the strike, which now is four days old. The car was bound toward the western terminal when it was stopped by a log being thrown across the tracks.

Thirty Shots Fired. It was the first effort to operate a car in Lakewood and the car carried no passengers as trouble was expected when an attempt should be made to open the line. As soon as the car stopped it was surrounded by a crowd of rioters, who were hidden behind a railway bridge. Immediately the crowd began shooting at the members of the crew and guards. The latter, W. J. James and John Swank, returned the fire. All told, over 30 shots were exchanged.

While the shooting was in progress the crowd grew to nearly a thousand. Another car arrived and its crew and guards joined in the free for all fight. Gasoline was poured upon the second car and it was burned to the tracks. The Cleveland police were notified and 30 officers were sent to the scene. The first car, riddled with bullets and windows broken, proceeded to the car barn. Motorman P. C. Blahols and Gray and George Alexander, guards on the second car, were wounded, as was Mace Burlingame, who was in the crowd all the time the attack. All were taken to a hospital where they were reported to be in a serious condition.

Child Killed. Yetta Wolkinski, a little girl, who had been seen from her body. By mistake two morgue sweepers had been called. When their dead wagons arrived, one took the girl's head and another her torso. The coroner's agents, excitedly trying to obtain possession of the several parts of the body, lost the child's mother's spirit and the trouble was narrowly averted by the police.

MOUNTED POLICE ORDER AN ARREST FOR MURDER

Henry Steinburg, Caught in Cincinnati, Alleged to Have Slain Wife in Saskatchewan.

FIELDING, Sask., May 19.—Henry Steinberg, a Boston scenic artist, who came here with his young wife eighteen months ago and disappeared suddenly last year, when Mrs. Steinberg died under mysterious circumstances, is under arrest at Cincinnati, Ohio, charged with murder. His arrest followed the report made to the coroner's jury by the Regina chemists who examined the vitals removed from the body, which were exhumed three weeks ago.

The motive for the crime is thought to be some $500 possessed by the wife and the desire to be free to marry the woman he is now said to be living with.

The Steinbergs came here two years ago, and he took up a homestead in the Green Bluff district. The accused seemed to be a man of education and painter. The settlement where they lived is occupied largely by European foreigners, and the alleged crime, therefore, was revealed very slowly.

The mounted police finally heard the rumors concerning the way Mrs. Steinberg died and concluded to hold the inquest. They are said to have won a strong chain of circumstantial evidence about the fugitive.

POPULATING CANADA.

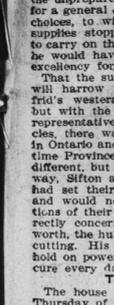

Discussion at Annual Meeting of Central Emigration Board. LONDON, May 19.—At the annual meeting of the Central Emigration Board, Sir H. Stenon Karr maintained it was their duty to help populate the colonies, otherwise the land would be developed by aliens and possibly Asiatics. Agent Vance of Toronto disapproved this with stories of the unemployed there, but added that east end Londoners beat anything in Canada for unemployed demonstrations. The Duke of Argyll pointed out the demand for farm labor in the Dominion.

The Morning Post says that everywhere Englishmen are asking whether the great dominions have really decided to close their doors against the poorer classes of the country, which not only founded the empire, but continues to furnish its main security for unique privileges enjoyed by younger nations. The Post, however, concludes that the policy of the open door must prevail.

Woman Author Claims

Just Now She is Experimenting in Four Wealthy Families—Then Publicity. NEW YORK, May 19.—The World says: Mrs. C. E. Calhoun, who claimed recently she had discovered the secret of sex, is now conducting experiments in four of the most prominent families in America, and believes male heirs will be born as a result of her services.

Mrs. Calhoun is charging nothing and is under compact with the families to keep their names secret unless male children are born. She has been making a study of the subject of sex for thirty years, and claims she can control sex in cattle and children.

Mrs. Calhoun says her method of determining sex is not by medicine or surgery. It is all based on a law of nature which she discovered after she escaped the researches of scientists.

In Mrs. Calhoun's process, therefore, there will first be the law and to go with it simple rules necessary to strict observation of the law.

She learned her entire secret from nature in the first instance. She had a ranch in California and in experimenting with different varieties of fruit and vegetables came to her first knowledge of the fundamental law which is her discovery.

Carrying her discovery into the pasture she made experiments with her cattle and learned that she was able to fix the sex of her produce. Horses, cattle, sheep, swine, all responded.

Mrs. Calhoun maintains that the greatest good from her discovery will accrue to members of her own sex. There are too many women on the earth now, she says. So many that they have to take their places side by side with men and perform labor that nature never intended them to perform.

She is now at work on a book in which she will give her method of sex to the world, but the book is not to be published until after the birth of the children whose sex she is now endeavoring to control. The book, however, will be published within the month.

Mrs. Calhoun says that not all women are proper subjects for experiment by her process. Very athletic and muscular women, she asserts, do not respond to the process at all. Yet at the same time she advocated horseback riding for women and maintains that the proper way for women to ride is astride.

She asserts that part of her own family was made to order. Her first three children were girls. It was after her third daughter was born that she hit upon the process of controlling sex, and putting it to the test in the case of her next child, and a son was born to her. She had three more sons and claims she had them because she felt she already had daughters enough.

Her book when it appears will be sold, she says, at such a low price that it will be within the reach of the poorest people.

The Globe's Ottawa correspondent, referring to the opposition's fight against the Aylesworth election bill, wires: "A significant sidelight on the present situation is the arrival of Mr. D. D. Mann in the capital simultaneously with Premier Roblin and Hon. Robert Rogers. The influence of the Canadian Northern magnates with the Manitoba ministry is well known, and corridor talk here connects Mr. Mann's visit with the attempt now being made to embarrass the government and force a dissolution, failing that, the revocation of certain desired concessions."

John Gardner of McKellar will oppose Mr. John Galna as an independent in Parry Sound.

Jacob Kohler wouldn't listen to the pleadings of Haldimand Liberals to accept nomination for the federal instead of the local house.

The platform announced by Hon. Mr. McBlain, Conservative leader in Quebec, is:

Respect for our constitution. Improved methods of colonization. An immigration policy, failing that, Aids to primary education. Abolition of highway tolls. Free lands for free settlers. Protection of forests and pulpwood. Better paid teachers. Protection for dairy industry. Better administration of the license law. Decreased taxes on commercial corporations and insurance companies.

Says The Brantford Expositor (Lib.): Notwithstanding the most strenuous campaign probably ever entered into by any public man in the country in recent years the Liberal leader is in a state of good health and seems to be well able to go thru the next three weeks with just as much vigor as ever.

"Liberals all over Ontario are enthusiastic. As I have often said on the platform the party was hardly ever before in such good fighting feeling," he remarked.

"We received good reports yesterday down in Haldimand and Norfolk. Mr. Kohler will doubtless win by a big majority."

"They say we are certain of North Norfolk where Col. Aikinson is running and excellent reports are coming from the south riding, which seat has been held by Mr. Pratt, Conservative."

Last evening Hon. Mr. MacKay spoke in Paris, to-night in Guelph, Thursday in Hamilton, and Friday in Chesley. The tour for next week has not altogether been arranged as yet, but it will probably embrace several cities in Western Ontario and some of the larger towns.

Professional Mourners.

It pays to be a professional mourner. In St. Petersburg, there are agencies in that city which employ great numbers of vagrants and tramps for the purpose. These agencies supply suitable clothing and pocket handkerchiefs—everything, in fact, except boots, which the tramp must show on his feet or he will not be hired. When there is a more or less important funeral, the tramps gather at the Nikolai Market, and are selected by an employe of the agency. The wages for the occasion, with tips, generally equal about 75 cents.

Montreal Again Wins Newark Here Today

Casey's Men Trim Skeeters 6 to 1 and Newark Defeats Rochester—Baseball Notes. The waving forestry of Merry Widow hats was conspicuous by their absence at the ball game yesterday, the fair sex being doomed to disappointment on the first ladies' day of the season, rain spoiling their afternoon's outing and the prospects of seeing the Grays and the Leafs meet in the final clash of the series.

Newark Here Today

George Stallings' Newark team will commence a four-game series with Toronto at the island to-day. Stallings has infused new life into the Newark team, and he has a strong belief in his ability to lead his team to the top of the league.

Unexpected Rivalry Develops to the Seagram Stable—Supper Dance, Hillhurst and Table Bay Look Formidable—No Fastness But Plenty of Briskness

The threatening weather yesterday morning made trainers at the Woodbine get early to work. Fortunately only a few drops fell, just enough to suppress the dust; consequently the track presented a busy, brisk appearance for a good three hours. Crocker had a right good old time in keeping track of the different horses, which kept popping up here, there and everywhere, like shots from a mitrailleur. While the track was not fast, it presented a fairly sure and firm surface to the galloping steeds.

Seagram's Horses

The first division of the Seagram Stable followed, Main Chance going nine furlongs in 2:05, and Sir Galahad a mile in 1:47.5. Then the Seagram boys, under their training, and gave an excellent account of themselves, going a mile and an eighth in 2:04, with Sir Galahad, Treble on Half-Crown and Fairbrother on Dog War. The first division was covered in 1:32.5, the quarter in :28, three-eighths in :38, the half in :54, five-eighths in 1:08, three-quarters in 1:18, seven-eighths in 1:30, the mile in 1:49, and the mile and one-eighth in 2:02. It will be seen by analyzing the results that the work was capitally rated, and, as the three were in close attendance all the way it will be understood that they are little to choose between them. They are of fair average quality, and that is all that can be said for the time being.

Supper Dance Looks the Goods

The work of the evening was done by the Woodstock Stable's Seagram-bred filly, Supper Dance, 4 years, by Morpheus and Queen's Delight, who was trained by J. H. Crocker. She was sent the full King's Plate distance in 2:17, and it was not the time so much as the impressive way in which she ran that attracted attention. Indeed, faster work was done. However, she covered the distance in 1:18, and was timed in 1:42.5, and continuing on after the mile and a quarter for another furlong, she finished the entire distance in 1:57.5. The entire distance in 1:57.5, she finished the entire distance in 1:57.5.

Watch Turney Stable

Affinity, from the Turney Stable, was given 5 furlongs in 1:07 and 4 furlongs in 1:04.5. Others out from this stable included Cleo Turney, who went a mile in 1:49; Sir, under hard pressure, 5 furlongs in 1:07.5, and Martin Doyle, who journeyed over three-quarters in 1:18 without effort. Maud Sigbee was cantered.

New Record at Belmont

King's Platers Shuffle a Bit. luma, going like a race-horse with long stride and powerful action, traveled the quarter on the back stretch in 24.5 seconds, doing the second furlong in 1:14.4. Reddick, of Toronto, by Oranmen, from the same stable, journeyed a mile in 1:37. This was little more than a pipe-reamer.

CANADIAN "LIBERALS" AND DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES.

Canadian federal politics present a melancholy picture in these early years of the twentieth century. A country which prides itself on its democratic sentiment and the excellence of its educational institutions; its respect for law and order and its religious atmosphere stands forth as admittedly unable to secure either Dominion or provincial officials who command the confidence of both political parties when entrusted with the responsibility of making up electoral rolls. That condition is not because of any lack of conscientious and self-respecting men—these can be found if and when they are wanted. It arises from the extremity of partisan feeling—from the fact that the party machines are there to win elections either honestly or dishonestly, so long as they are won. And for that purpose partisan officials are looked for and they are found.

Responsibility for the situation as it has developed at Ottawa rests on the Dominion government. Its organs are lying stress on the concessions Sir Wilfrid Laurier has offered in the direction of an impartial adjustment of the electoral lists, but the enquiry is immediately forced—Why were the necessary provisions for that desirable and not embodied in the bill as first presented? As it then stood it proposed to replace provincial officials by federal officials in two provinces that happen to have Conservative governments. This, of course, simply meant that the dominant party in parliament wanted the lists to be made out by their own friends and it was defended on the ground that provincial officials could not be trusted to act honestly. The government must have been perfectly aware that arguments of this kind would provoke opposition of the strongest character and that it could not escape the rejoinder that its own officials were open to the same charge. And its own record in the matter of securing for the electors their right to a free and pure election fully justified the suspicion that the lists of Manitoba and British Columbia would be controlled for partisan purposes.

What laid the bill introduced by the minister of justice open to even graver animadversion was the provision rendering ballot papers valid the bearing marks other than those necessary for the polling of votes. This, of course, strikes at the roots of the secret ballot, since thru such markings the identification of the ballot paper with the elector receiving it could easily be secured. A provision of this kind, absolutely unfeasible in itself, is only explainable by some sinister reason not intended for publication, but which can only be of one character. And it is all the more objectionable and reprehensible from the known methods of the party machine. The federal opposition cannot be blamed for the strenuous fight it is putting up against an alteration in the electoral law which renders it easy to bring improper influences to bear upon federal electors and to ensure that these are effectual. Ontario electors are being told just now that the Liberal slogan is and always has been, "Trust the People." If the people are to be trusted—a fundamental principle not of Canadian "Liberalism," but of Canadian democracy—and for that matter all true democracies—why legalize markings on ballot papers which can so easily be used to defeat the will of the people? The name of "Liberal" has been an asset of extraordinary value to the party now in power at Ottawa. This proposal alone suffices to reveal how far it is from representing the Reform party of Great Britain, whose name it appropriated and thus dishonored.

BETTER SUBURBAN SERVICE.

If the agitation for the establishment of a proper suburban service for Toronto is to yield results it must be vigorously and continuously prosecuted. The World has pointed the way and its efforts to rouse and direct public opinion towards the propriety and necessity of placing Toronto on a parity with Montreal in the matter of improved train arrangements and the extension of commutation tickets have received general recognition. But the cities and towns that are moving in the matter must not leave it to a newspaper or some other community or to one or two individuals to do the spade work necessary before the inertia of the railway companies can be overcome. Each must act strongly in conjunction with the other populous centres interested in the movement. Both particular and collective energy must be given if the desired result is to be accomplished.

Excellent leading was given at the meeting on Monday of the special committee of the city council appointed for the purpose of investigating the suburban railway service. An outline of the stand taken by the railway companies was furnished by the letter from the solicitor of the Grand Trunk Company to the secretary of the railway commission in connection with Captain Smith's application to have commutation tickets issued between Toronto and Whitby. It follows the usual lines of officialdom, which is always deprecatory of reforms that are suggested outside its own sacred circle. The arguments advanced against the issue of commutation tickets between Whitby and Toronto really beg the whole question besides being irrelevant to the conditions now existing in this part of Ontario. Looking to the great increase in population and the improved position of Toronto as an important commercial and industrial centre it is ridiculous to rely on an experience gained at an earlier period or to limit the case for commutation rates to those who travel daily.

In Britain there are season or commutation rates everywhere, simply because the railway companies recognize that it pays them to encourage travel. In the year 1906 more than a tenth of the passenger receipts came from holders of season and periodical tickets. Many of these commutation passengers were daily travelers, but a large proportion of these season and periodical tickets represent less frequent journeys over long distances such as London and Glasgow, Liverpool, Manchester and other business centres. United States cities enjoy excellent suburban services at reduced rates for frequent travel, and Montreal is given generous treatment by the companies that are discriminating against Toronto and neighboring cities. Canadian railroads have been so long accustomed to do as they please that they resent a call to give due consideration to the public convenience and to afford the facilities for travel which are required to meet twentieth century conditions. This agitation must not be intermitted until an improved suburban service is obtained and every city and town affected ought to join heartily and effectively in the campaign.

STERLING BANK ANNUAL.

The second annual report presented to the shareholders of the Sterling Bank yesterday was accorded a gratifying reception. The net profits for the year were $50,914.47, as against $27,296.17 for the previous year. In the same period deposits increased over 30 per cent. and the total assets over 25 per cent. The reserve fund of the bank has been added to during the year by $12,598.50, the premium paid in on new stock, and now totals $183,749.88. What is contained in the statement certainly reflects an excellent management, and a cautious directorate is clearly in evidence when such results were produced during a period of financial disturbance such as occurred last year. The conservative attitude of those in control of this institution is further shown by the fact that the readily realizable assets represent 40 per cent. of the bank's liabilities to the public.

ONE YEAR'S GOOD WORK AT CENTRAL Y. M. C. A.

Review of the Season at Annual Meeting Shows That Much Progress Has Been Made.

The 44th annual meeting and dinner of the Central Y.M.C.A. was held in the hall at the corner of Yonge and McGill last night. The past year has been a very successful one. The membership has reached the high figure of 2225, an increase of 158 over last year. The revenue from fees alone this year has been $11,148, and the total receipts from all sources $22,472, against $19,917 last year. Expenditures have been $18,000, leaving a surplus of $4,472, which will be used for the purchase of a new building. The total attendance at religious meetings held thruout the year was 20,901.

Many of the members of Central will be pleased to hear of the return to Central as physical director of James McLeod, at present the director of the association at Havana, Cuba. J. H. Crocker, the present instructor, goes to England, with the Olympic team and it was rather a difficult matter to find a man fully qualified to fill the position.

West End has been granted its independence and its representative secretary, Stokes, is hoping for a highly successful year.

The president, William Garstide, in his address commented very favorably upon the good work done by the various heads of departments, and, especially on the untiring efforts of Taylor Statton, the genius presiding over the boys' department. He has made it the success of his life, and is still forging ahead.

Mr. Garstide announced that Secretary Pratt would be given a well-deserved vacation of three months' duration this fall. The various men in charge of the Y.M.C.A. railroad branches in the city at East Toronto and Mimico Messrs. Roper, Lamb and Grant, respectively, commented on the fact that the public was beginning to realize that it was perfectly safe to trust their lives to the care of the railroad men stopping at these branches. Mr. Roper mentioned the fact that the C.P.R. was contemplating branches along its lines.

The Cellar Hole and the Sewer Hole

By HERBERT KAUFMAN.

A coal cart stopped before an office building in Washington and the driver dismounted, removed the cover from a manhole, ran out his chute, and proceeded to empty the load. An old negro strolled over and stood watching him. Suddenly the black man glanced down and immediately burst into a fit of uncontrollable laughter, which continued for several minutes. The cart driver looked at him in amusement. "Say, uncle," he asked, "do you always laugh when you see coal going into a cellar?" The negro sputtered around for a few moments and then, holding his hands to his aching sides, managed to say, "No, sah, but I jest bust when I sees it goin' down a sewer."

The advertiser who displays lack of judgment in selecting the newspapers which carry his copy often confuses the cellar and the sewer. All the money that is put into newspapers isn't taken out again by any means. The fact that all dailies possess a certain physical likeness doesn't by any means signify a similarity in character, and it's character in a newspaper that brings returns. The editor who conducts a journalistic sewer finds a different class of readers than the publisher who respects himself enough to respect his readers.

What goes into a newspaper largely determines the class of homes into which the newspaper goes. An irresponsible, scandal-mongering, muck-raking sheet is logically not supported by the buying classes of people. It may be perused by thousands of readers, but such readers are seldom purchasers of advertised goods.

It's the clean-cut, steady, normal-minded citizens who form the bone and sinew and muscle of the community. It's the sane, self-respecting, dependable newspaper that enters their homes, and it's the home sale that indicates the strength of an advertising medium.

No clean-minded father of a family wishes to have his wife and children brought in contact with the most maudlin and banal phases of life. He defends them from the sensational editor and the unpleasant advertiser. He subscribes to a newspaper which he does not fear to leave about the house.

Therefore, the respectable newspaper can always be counted upon to produce more sales than one which may even own a larger circulation but whose distribution is in ten editions among unprofitable citizens.

You can no more expect to sell goods to people who haven't money than you can hope to pluck oysters from bushes.

It isn't the number of readers reached but the number of readers whose purses can be reached that constitutes the value of circulation. It's one thing to arouse their attention, but it's a far different thing to get their money. The mind may be willing, but the pocketbook is weak.

If you had the choice of a thousand acres of desert land or a hundred acres of oasis, you'd select the fertile spot, realizing that the larger tract had less value because it would be less productive.

Just so the advertiser who really understands how he is spending his money does not measure by bulk alone. He counts productivity first. He takes care that he is not putting his money into a sewer.

P.S.—Talk No. 17 will appear in The World on Saturday, May 23.

A Difficult Task

It is risky and enormously difficult work to put up the great tall steel columns of the new building of the Robert Simpson Co., Limited. The columns are in 25-foot sections and these must first be "bolted" and then "riveted." To connect the columns one upon another requires the most careful adjustment of the big 90-foot derrick. How difficult it is to make the connection may be judged from the fact that the engine which hoists the columns into position is sometimes 12 ft. away from the point of contact and that the small holes must be exactly opposite one another for the bolts to be inserted.

After the first bolt is placed, the hardest part of the work is done, for with one point fixed, the rest of the bolt can be inserted with relative ease. But the bolts are only temporary fixtures. As soon as the operators are ready to rivet, they extract one bolt at a time and replace it with a red hot rivet, which differs from a bolt in having no thread and nut. The red hot rivet is pushed thru a hole and while one man holds a heavy piece of iron against an end of the rivet, another forms a head on the rivet, another forms a head on the rivet, and the rivet is secured. For it is upon the contraction of the metal whilst cooling that the joints secure their strength and holding power. It is a certainly interesting feature about the new structure of the Robert Simpson Co., Limited.

HAYASHI IN DISFAVOR.

Viscount is Blamed for Causing the Boycott.

NEW YORK, May 19.—The Herald's Tokyo cable says: Because of the growing conviction that the Japanese diplomatic attitude toward China in the Tatsu Maru affair was a blunder, the early withdrawal of Viscount Hayashi from the foreign portfolio is freely predicted in circles usually the best informed. The fact that the criticisms of Hayashi are not confined to the opponents of the present ministry, many of its supporters joining, seems to indicate the willingness of the Selyukai (Liberal party) leaders to sacrifice Hayashi in the hope of averting more sweeping changes. Premier Saionji is disgusted with the latest attack upon himself and with the general criticisms of his financial program. He has again expressed his desire to retire, but Prince Ito and other Selyukai leaders are exerting every influence to induce him to remain. Saionji is the only Selyukai leader fit for the premiership, Katsura, Yamamoto and other possibilities being of the Yamagata military faction. Saionji's retirement would precipitate the unique situation of a party endorsed at the polls being unable to furnish a premier. Viscount Hayashi is a non-party man, hence the willingness of the leaders to make him a scapegoat to enable the Selyukai to retain the reins of power. Komura is pictured as the most likely successor. The change in sentiment regarding the Tatsu Maru case is an evidence that the boycott is pinching badly. Seoul reports tell of two attacks by the newly imported Japanese troops upon the insurgents, in one of which the Koreans lost 120 of the 400 engaged. The Japanese losses are not reported.

HODGINS ON THE STAND

SAYS MONEY IS WASTED

Extravagant Classification Puts Cos of N.T.R. Up Millions—What Commissioner Told Him.

OTTAWA, May 19.—(Special.)—The special committee of enquiry into the charges made by Major Hodgins, C.E., of excessive classification on the National Transportation Railway, sat this afternoon and again to-night.

The first hour of the afternoon was consumed in a dispute between counsel, Mr. Hodgins, K. C., claiming the right of access to the files of the N. T. R. commission.

Major Hodgins was then examined and told of meeting the commissioners in Winnipeg in June last, when Commissioner Young, in the presence of Contractor McArthur, advised him to adopt the Quebec classification as being more reasonable and satisfactory to the contractors.

Commissioner Young and Commissioner Reid admitted, however, that they knew nothing about classification.

Commissioner Reid told witnesses he was "too much of a military man" and too loyal to his chief, commanding Chief Engineer Lumsden, whom he advised witness to ignore, and to be more generous in his classification.

Major Hodgins said that at the commissioner's request he visited the Quebec section and in one outing saw most extravagant classification. One of the G.T.P. engineers (Mr. Armstrong) had told witness that the classification was excessive and would add two million dollars to the cost of the Quebec section.

Grant, the supervising engineer, raised the classification, but the first he saw of Grant's report was in Ottawa when he came here at Lumsden's request last July.

SUPERVISION NECESSARY AT PUBLIC PLAYGROUNDS

Mrs. Humphry Ward Gives Toronto the Benefit of Her Experience and Study.

Mrs. Humphry Ward expressed very decided opinions concerning the merits of supervised playgrounds as compared with those not so conducted, in speaking at the Evangelia Mission, corner of Queen and River-streets, yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Ward's view, after earnest study of playgrounds, was that an unsupervised playground was worse than the condition of having no playground at all, the children falling to obtain the benefit from their pastimes when not well organized.

Mrs. Ward devoted much attention to the work of the Passmore-Edwards schools in the district, where the children of indigent parents are taken to the settlement in London, Eng.

Mrs. Ward and her daughter afterwards will return to Toronto on Friday, and will leave on Saturday for Winnipeg en route to Vancouver.

Mr. Wilson expresses surprise that Toronto, with its reputation as a centre for all kinds of athletic sports, does not do more to encourage healthful recreation by providing the needful accommodation.

Ten delegates will be sent from the Presbyterian Church in Canada to the third Ecumenical conference which will be held in Edinburgh June, 1910.

WALL ST. EXPERIENCES THE NEVITABLE DIP

Realizing Breaks the Buoyant Period at New York—Toronto Market is Influenced.

World Office, Tuesday Evening, May 19. Brokers were not embarrassed by orders from clients this morning, but offerings were quite light and quotations maintained a steady tone. After the morning board New York securities showed evidence of breaking, and this had a weakening influence on all the local speculative issues.

Wall Street Pointers

James Carstairs & Co., brokers at Pittsburgh, failed.

Indications are that steel conference this week will not change present price policy of manufacturers.

Resumption of common dividend on Federal Mining and Smelting considered likely.

Present appearances indicate general out in railway wages after July 1.

Light demand for stocks in loan crowd.

Average price of twenty active rails now advanced nearly 10 cent points in 8 weeks.

Gold amounting to $7,000,000 goes to Europe to-day, making $28,500,000 on this move.

Joseph says: all reports to the contrary there is distinct general trade improvement. Do not be without some Amalgamated copper. It will surely sell above 80. Pennsylvania is being persistently accumulated by the biggest interests, and on the impending upward movement it will sell at 120 or higher. Buy conservatively.

Chas. Head says: R. B. Bongard at the opening of the market yesterday: I think the market is going too fast and too far, and we ought to have a decided reaction, but you know, I felt the same way a number of points lower and have been wrong. I advise taking profits on long stock, but selling short is another matter. This is a bull market, and it is difficult to make money on the short side in a bull market.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 19.—Evidence of returning prosperity is furnished by the announcement that the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Railroad has ordered the Standard Steel Car Company to begin the construction of 2000 all-steel cars for that road.

The new cars will be used to handle the tonnage in excess of the coal and coke regions and the lakes.

NEW YORK, N.Y., May 19.—Crimes charges against certain members of the firm of T. A. McIntyre & Co., stock brokers, which recently failed with liabilities in excess of $1,000,000, were laid before District Attorney Jerome to-day by C. C. Burlingham, the receiver of the failed firm. Mr. Jerome at once presented the charges before a grand jury.

NEW YORK, N.Y., May 19.—After more than four months consumed in the taking of evidence, counsel began their arguments to-day before four judges of the United States Circuit Court in the government's suit to compel dissolution of the American Tobacco Company. The suit was brought under the Sherman Anti-Trust Law on an allegation that the American Tobacco Company is a monopoly and is operated in restraint of trade. It is likely that several days will be occupied by arguments of counsel, and both sides have declared that whatever the outcome the case will be carried to the supreme court of the United States for a final ruling.

Bullish manipulation along the same specialized lines heretofore witnessed looks likely to be experienced in the stock market for the present week, with purchases on little reactions showing fair profits to daily operators who should have certain temporary setbacks, and not neglecting re-accumulation of gains. Higher prices are predicted for Pennsylvania, and a sharp reaction is to be expected in a day or two. The excited rise in Missouri Pacific will not have any beneficial effect on sentiment generally, as the reasons for it are too apparent. More attention for the time being we believe, will be paid to the poor railroad earnings, and in this connection the Baltimore & Ohio April report will be construed very unfavorably, as the number of idle cars on this system is much greater than at any former time. Statements of gross earnings for the second week of May, which are now coming in, show only a clearly that the improvement, such as it is, is rather in sentiment than actual business conditions. There will be an effort to stimulate bullish interest in the steel stocks and industrial generally on account of the meetings here this week of the important men in the steel making business, and in the manufacturing world generally. We would advise against buying stocks, however, as we have every reason to believe that almost without exception they may be purchased at considerable concessions later in the week. We look for a strong opening with higher prices to-day in Copper, Smelting and the Steels, but a downward tendency among the railroads.

Expenses Creeping Up. The Sao Paulo statement for April show that gross earnings decreased $3075, compared with March; that operating expenses were $3383 higher, and that net earnings decreased $6459. The net earnings given out are 13.25 per cent of the common stock, compared with 14.10 in March.

On Wall Street. Charles Head & Co. to R. B. Bongard: The market was somewhat undecided to-day and gave evidence, especially in the last hour, of distributive selling of stocks. The declines were fairly large, but were not especially significant in relation to the recent momentum of the upward movement. Some stocks did not react much, if any, beyond yesterday's final prices, and in a number of others the losses did not exceed one to two points. In the last few minutes of business the reactionary movement took on more momentum and Union Pacific declined to a figure making a net decline of about two points.

Smith & Stoppard wired to J. L. Mitchell: The market was broad and active, but developed a substantial reaction. London took 35,000 shares on balance, which was apparently covering shorts and attempts were made to force covering in St. Paul, Pennsylvania and elsewhere. The decline was followed by Washington advices to the effect that no currency bill will be enacted at this session of congress, reduction of Sloss-Sheffield common dividend to rate of 4 per cent and gold export engagements of $3,600,000. There was talk of possible reduction of the Smelters dividend and the investigation by the bureau of corporations of cotton exchange methods, with report of a heavy prospective Russian loan were among adverse influences. While the power interests aggressive on the bull side appear to have completed their turn for the time being, we expect the bureau of corporations and favor purchases on soft spots.

J. R. Heintz & Co. wired to R. B. Holden: The outlook for to-morrow is for a weak opening, to be followed by short covering, and on pronounced weakness during the first half hour, good stocks can be bought for a quick turn. We would not be surprised to see the steel issues, both the common and preferred, made very bullish features of the market, some time during the week.

Mr. Ames Gives Some Startling Statistics—Mr. Turriff and His Letters.

OTTAWA, May 19.—(Special.)—In the hour today Mr. Blair read a letter from a constituent strongly urging that a proportion of the rural mills be sent to Quebec for the tercentenary.

Mr. Turriff replied that owing to the difficulty of providing transportation facilities only a proportion of the permanent force would be taken.

Mr. Ames asked about "my veterans" and Mr. Turriff replied that the question had been referred to the commission.

"Were any influences than lack of transportation brought to bear on the commission?"

"Nothing unless it be the general sense of my hon. friend," replied Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

Mr. Ames asked if he could supply, G. Turriff anticipated Mr. Ames by reading a report of a speech by Mr. Ames at Halifax, which he characterized as wholly unbecomingly.

Mr. Ames referred to the leasing of some coal lands which had formerly been school lands.

There were three applicants for one section, G. H. Gilmore in 1907, J. F. Howard in 1907 and Silas Griffin in 1907.

Griffin secured the lands, which Gilmore and Howard were interested in.

attempt was made in the house to force an enquiry into the methods of Mr. Burrows in securing the timber berths, but it failed and the enquiry was undertaken in the public accounts committee.

At crucial points the mouth of the witness was stopped and the investigation brought to an abrupt end.

"Consequently," said Mr. Ames, "we can now do no more than lay the facts as far as disclosed before the house and country and leave upon the government the onus of deciding whether there shall be further enquiry or not."

Mr. Burrows Explains. Mr. Burrows quoted a number of tenders to show that it was not unusual for tenders to bid close together. His reason for putting in more than one cheque with his tender was to prevent the clerk of the bank, who marked the cheques, knowing the amount of his tender.

Mr. Burrows explained that he had a couple of private letters of his (Turriff's) that were very compromising and that if he did not get a grating lease he would use them. Turriff replied to this man that he could tell Gilmore "to go plumb."

Mr. Ames reopened the whole question of the alienation of timber resources of the Dominion within three years from 1902 to 1905. More than 3000 square miles of selected timber, or about one-half of the entire area under lease in the western provinces, fell into the hands, not of operators, but of speculators. One-half of this amount, comprising 25 per cent of the timber of Burrow, was acquired by a group, the Burrows-Fraser combination, of which a brother-in-law of Mr. Stifton, then minister of the interior, was the central figure, under circumstances so peculiar as to have excited general comment.

How the Timber Went. T. A. Burrows acquired 549 square miles, the Imperial Pulp Co. 417 square miles, the Big River Lumber Co. 250. A. W. Fraser, alias John McLean, 250. A. W. Fraser, alias John McLean, 250. A. W. Fraser, alias John McLean, 250.

LOOKING FOR HER HUBBY WITH LOVE AND CLOTHES

Mrs. Robert Rae of Detroit Thinks He Must Be Araid of Her Relatives.

If Robert Rae, 23 years of age, barber, formerly of Detroit, Mich., and a Scotchman, will speak up, he may have a new suit of clothes, some clean socks, a loving wife and a trip home to Detroit.

Robert left his home to visit his brother in Cobalt in December last. He worked there during the winter and then came on to Toronto, telling his brother that he was going back to his wife at Detroit.

Last Thursday, Mrs. Rae, who had come to Toronto looking for him, received a letter written by him from Toronto to her in Detroit. It had been forwarded to her in the hospital, where she was in the hospital, Mrs. Rae has enquired at all the hospitals and of the police, but has found no trace of him.

"The poor lad is likely down on his luck and I think my family will not be able to see him. But I want that lad to get back. I have brought him a new suit and some clean shirts and socks and will take him home with me. My little girl is asking for him all the time."

"I feel more like a mother to him all the time," said Mrs. Rae, who was married before her venture with Robert. "If he will call at The World Office or notify his wife at the Y.W.C.A. on Elm-street he will set her mind at rest. There is also mail for him at the post-office."

MERGING INSURANCE COS.

MONTREAL, May 19.—(Special)—William Wallace, general manager of the Crown Life Insurance Co. of Toronto, is in the city conferring, it is understood, with H. Markland Molson, director of the Crown Life, and R. Forgett, M.P., relative to matters in connection with a proposed merging of the Crown Life with the Royal Victoria Insurance Co. of this city.

Mr. Wallace is not in favor of the merger, but leading shareholders of the Crown Life are to be determined to take action in the near future.

Riot at Windsor.

WINDSOR, May 19.—Upwards of two hundred men employed on the Michigan Central tunnel went on strike to-day for increased wages. Some of the men who kept their jobs were attacked, resulting in a small riot.

Sergeant Nash, chief of police of the tunnel patrol, was assaulted by a forerunner. He was struck on the head by a club, but was not seriously injured. The assault was later arrested.

Epidemic of Dysentery

It affects many people more in winter than in summer—in the one case it is due to improper eating—in the other to congestion excited by cold. A very small dose of Nervine repeated every hour or two removes the trouble thoroughly. If there is pain, relief is immediate—if merely relaxation, the result is just as certain. You can't find a treatment for bowel troubles, indigestion and stomach disorders half so good as Polson's Nervine; thousands say so.

HOSSACK OPENS FIGHT WITH A FINE MEETING

Broadway Hall Was Crowded and the Candidate Was Among Friends.

Donald C. Hossack had the best campaign meeting of the present election so far last night in Broadway Hall. The place was full and the platform was robbed of chairs to accommodate the audience. Before the close Mr. Hossack had warmed them up to great enthusiasm on the abolition of the bar, which he claimed to be a non-partisan plank, and in favor of which he cited two utterances of Premier Whitney.

"Not as a clergyman; but as a plain and simple citizen like one of yourselves," was Mr. Hossack's exposition of his standing in the present contest. He had voted for John Shaw for several years for municipal positions and expected to do so again next January. (Laughter.)

If elected to the legislature he did not intend to practice a merely captious opposition, as a mere machine to register vote after vote irrespective of the merits of a question. He would support Mr. Whitney on matters worthy of support. (Applause.)

Law reform was one thing that he would insist upon. The courts should be so regulated that the common man would be able to go there without difficulty, and he would stress for the abolition of harassing appeals.

If it was socialism to take every dollar that came out of a great natural resource like Niagara and give it to the common people then he was a socialist. (Applause.) There were many men in the country who would be willing to serve the public for the benefit of their fellows. Public ownership would give an opportunity for such service.

His Socialism.

He opposed the three-fifths clause and government by commission because these were against the great principles laid down in Magna Charta. The principle of responsible government should not be frittered away by unnecessary commissions. Premier Whitney had stated that some churches believed in a three-fifths vote, but Mr. Whitney knew very well that scarcely any of the churches were democratic. He had recently married a man, and as there were no fixed fees in the church for this service, the bridegroom told Mr. Hossack that some day soon he would come up and give him a hearing. (Laughter.) Mr. Whitney would not like to conduct his government on this principle, and he must see that he could not run the province like a church. (Laughter.)

Mr. Hossack reviewed the prohibitory act and he considered Mr. Ross had made the mistake of his life in ignoring it. (Applause.)

"The Ross government has been defeated once and we are not going on defeating it forever. Let the dead past bury its dead. It is a mistake for the Whitney government to try to excuse their shortcomings by pointing to the delinquencies of the Ross government," said Mr. Hossack.

His Supporters and Why.

Dr. John Ferguson occupied the chair, and was admirably brief in his introduction. Controller Harrison endorsed Rev. Mr. Hossack as one who would have the interests of the electors and of humanity at heart. (Applause.) He took it that Mr. Hossack represented a principle and not a party or a section.

Ald. James Hales stated he was not an opponent of the Whitney government, and he was breaking away from his party affiliations to support Mr. Hossack on account of his temperance views.

W. F. Raney will vote for Mr. Hossack as a man who stands for independence in politics. No such high-minded partisanship could be found anywhere as existed in Canada. Dalton McCarthy was an instance of the influence exerted by an independent politician.

Ald. Eredin as an independent Liberal was prepared to support the party as long as they were right, but his sympathies would not carry him to support them when they were wrong. (Applause.) Mr. Hossack had pledged himself to the temperance question, and that was a stronger position than if he had been asked to do so.

John Scully called for cheers for A. C. Mackay, the candidate and the chairman, and the meeting dispersed before 10 o'clock.

Mr. Hossack and other prominent speakers will address a meeting to-night at Prospect Rink, corner of Prospect and Ontario-streets.

Crushed to Death.

ST. JOHN, N.B., May 19.—(Special)—The second man to be crushed to death on the Donaldson liner Indramet died this afternoon when Alex Anders, a Norwegian, was caught between the heavy cargo stage and the ship and smashed to a pulp. The body dropped to the water but was recovered.

With Clank of Iron and Steel

WHEN somewhere in the network of steel a man strikes a blow with his sledge on a girder in the new Simpson building it rings. The deep reverberations resound through the mighty frame of steel as though a thousand beams and columns were as one. And so they are. The vibrations of sound play on the great structure as on a huge complex tuning fork. It's thousand and one parts are welded practically into one. Each part fits in exact line with its fellows, each angle is exactly a right angle. The strain and stress is distributed equally throughout the fabric as a whole. On no one part depends the safety or stability of the structure. Each joint is riveted with red hot bolts, which cooling weld with the beams. The building is just as self sufficient as an iron cage would be if it were braced through and through with partitions, horizontally and perpendicularly. And when a man beats on a member of this vast system of steel caging—it rings like one piece.
