BRITISH ADVANCE POSTS; THE FRENCH BEAT BACK THE ENEMY

Men in Khaki Improve Positions Gained on Sunday—Heavy Attacks on Joffre's Troops Fail—Another Russian General Becomes Famous

London, July 31.—A British statement says: "Last night was spent in improving the positions gained yesterday. There were no further developments in the situation. "As the result of local encounters we advanced our posts at some points on the plateau north of Bazentin-Le-Petit." Paris, July 31.—North of the Somme last evening and last night the Germans redoubled their counter-attacks between Ham Wood and Monaca Farm, says an official statement issued this afternoon by the French war department. The struggle was especially severe round Monaca Farm, where the Germans got a footing for a moment, but were immediately driven back. At Ham Wood all the German assaults were repulsed by French counter-attacks. At the same time the French batteries on the left bank of the Somme enfiladed the German troops, inflicting great losses. On the left bank of the Meuse, in the Verdun sector, a German attack on the northern side of Hill 304 failed. On the right bank of the Meuse the French progressed slightly in the region south of Fleury.

RUSSIAN SUCCESS. Petrograd, July 31.—In the region of Brody, on the Volynian and Galician frontier, Russian troops are repulsing the Austro-German armies. This was officially announced here today. They have reached the Rivers Graberki and Serch.

ANOTHER RUSSIAN GENERAL FAMOUS. London, July 31.—In a summary of the work done by the Russian army of General Kaledin during the last few weeks, the Times' Latak correspondent declares that the achievements of this army of Russian forces are "the most important performed by a single army since the beginning of the war."

A few weeks after taking command of this force, General Kaledin advanced forty-seven miles, and then, against the heaviest concentrations of German troops, he held the line. "The enemy," the writer concludes, "is concentrating troops at Kovle, and battle is developing into one of the fiercest of the war. The Russian losses thus far have been incredibly small."

TURKS ARE ON WAY TO GALICIA. Sofia, July 31.—The first train-load of Turkish soldiers passed through the Bulgarian capital today, bound for the Galician front. Despatches from Switzerland on Saturday said that a Turkish army, estimated at 70,000 strong, was being concentrated on the Hungarian plains for the defense of Hungary against a Russian invasion.

SERBIANS ARE WINNING. London, July 31.—Special despatches from Saloniki say that Serbian successes on the Greek frontier continue and that the Serbians are encroaching on a line only 800 yards from the frontier. On Thursday a large force of Bulgarians attacked the Serbian positions to the north of Strupits but a powerful counter-attack routed them and the Bulgarians fled in disorder, leaving many dead, together with considerable quantities of material.

One correspondent says: "All the Bulgarians who had come down into the plain from the mountains along which the frontier lies have been driven up into the hills again, and most of the ridges are now occupied by Serbians. It is expected that the Serbians in a few days will be in possession of all the positions they need along the whole line. Moreover, they have gained what they sought in small cost."

GETTING MONEY BY FALSE PRETENCES IS CHARGED. To have an individual call at his place of business and after looking over his stock, give him the impression that he was going to purchase a silver tea set and suddenly ask for the change of a dollar and have it politely handed him, and then have this same individual insult him and finally leave the store, taking the dollar with him, was the experience of John Begg on Saturday afternoon.

Donald Sharp called at his place of business in Brussels street, St. John, N. B., when in the act of purchasing a silver tea set, worth in the vicinity of $15, asked the shopkeeper to change a dollar. The police were called and Sgt. Rankine arrested Sharp and laid the charge of getting money under false pretences against him. This morning in the police court Sharp pleaded guilty to drunkenness, but said he never saw the complainant in his life. Evidence was taken and the prisoner was remanded.

FUNERALS. The funeral of Mrs. Catherine Saunders of Gondola Point, took place on Saturday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. Porter and interment was made in the family lot in the Baptist burying ground at Gondola Point. The funeral of Harry S. Anthony, who was drowned at Leduc and whose body was brought here for burial, took place this morning from the mortuary chambers of N. W. Brennan. Services were conducted by Rev. G. N. Somers and interment was made in Fernhill.

C.P.R. PASSENGER STATION WHERE LONG WHARF STANDS

This One of Several Bits of News at Council Meeting

ANOTHER HARBOR WHARF

Matters Come Out at Conference With I. C. R. Officers Over Elevator Site—Board of Trade Council Now Favors Water Street

The proposed plans for the grain elevator to be built here by the Canadian Government Railways were discussed at length at a committee meeting of the common council at noon today. Mayor Hayes presided and all the commissioners were present. J. K. McNeill, general superintendent, and W. A. Duff, bridge engineer, of the government railways, were present to explain the plans and answer questions, in an effort to secure the consent of the council. No decision was reached this morning, only Commissioners Russell and Wigmore expressing their approval of the plans, and the commissioners and the railway men are to inspect the various sites this afternoon. An interesting development was the receipt of a resolution from the council of the Board of Trade expressing their approval of the plans and urging immediate construction of the elevator.

The plans submitted today showed the elevator located so as not to encroach on Water street, this requiring the return tracks to be run underneath the pier. Reference to the future of the elevator would cut across the R. S. S. Company wharf and, when this was brought into question, Commissioner Russell said he understood that both the R. S. S. Company and the D. A. R. would be using the Long Wharf at the head of the harbor before the elevator was built.

Reference to the possibility of using the Long Wharf site for the elevator elicited the information that this would conflict with C. P. R. plans for a new passenger station at the place. The plans presented to the council also showed a new wharf which is to be built some time in the future from Reed's Point, southward, in front of the old I. C. R. trestle at the mouth of Lower Cove slip.

The railway men were firm in their stand that the Water street site was the only one available for the elevator. The mayor reported on a conference which had been held on last Thursday by himself, the commissioner of harbors, representatives of the Board of Trade, I. C. R. officials and Hon. J. D. Hazen. He said that the plans for the new I. C. R. elevator had been discussed and the council and the Board of Trade had been asked to give further consideration to their opposition to the Water street site.

Plans showing the proposed elevator rail connections were laid on the table and Mr. McNeill and Mr. Duff were introduced to the council to explain the proposition. If this call for the use of the Water street site, there is no way of looking at the plans," said Commissioner McNeill. "Why don't you use the Long Wharf site?"

Mr. McNeill—"Other railway plans make it impossible to build at that site, and this is the only one available." Commissioner McLellan—"I would have to be satisfied that the Long wharf is not being held merely as a terminus for the C. P. R. by service." Nobody is backing us harder than the C. P. R.," Mr. McNeill—"In other words, we have no collusion between the C. P. R. and the government railways."

Commissioner McLellan explained his objections to the Water street site, chiefly on the grounds that it might lead eventually to closing Water street to vehicular traffic, and also to the bad effect on the rest of the peninsula on which the bulk of the city's residential and business properties are located.

Mr. McNeill—"This is a business proposition. You need an elevator here and there is none. All the apparent sites have been investigated and all the others rejected as unavailable. We come to the city for your permission and co-operation. The city is growing and sacrifices must be made in some ways to permit development in others. The same thing must be faced in all growing cities. We must keep in mind the big idea, the need of an elevator." The mayor—"It seems a peculiar place for an elevator which would look for its traffic to the transcontinental railway which is to enter the city from the west side. The traffic will have to cross the bridge and make a complete circuit of the city before reaching the terminal facilities to be limited as much as possible to their present districts and operation. The city is growing and sacrifices must be made in some ways to permit development in others. The same thing must be faced in all growing cities. We must keep in mind the big idea, the need of an elevator." Commissioner Fisher added that no adequate explanation has been given of the reasons for not making use of Courtney Bay. Mr. Gutelius seemed to treat Courtney Bay very lightly. (Continued on page 2, sixth column)

Like Battle In New York Harbor

Blazing Ammunition Barges Bombard Statue of Liberty and Immigration Station—Loss High in Millions, Perhaps Many Lives

New York, July 31.—Two men are under arrest on warrants charging them with manslaughter in indirectly causing the death of one of the victims of a terrible battle of ammunition on Black Tom pier early yesterday morning. Several investigations were commenced today, to discover the origin of the fire, which caused the awful explosion that destroyed $2,000,000 worth of ammunition, eighty-five freight cars, set blazing ammunition barges adrift to bombard the Statue of Liberty and the Ellis Island immigration station with shells and shrapnel, and shattered windows all over New York and Jersey City.

New York, July 31.—The Jersey City police have added to the list of dead, Cornelius J. Lescault, chief of the Lehigh Valley Railroad police. He had been missing since the explosion occurred.

THE IRISH SITUATION

London, July 31.—The Irish situation was again brought to the front in parliament today by a motion introduced by John Dillon, urging the government to disclose its plans for the government of Ireland during the war. It is expected that Premier Asquith will announce his plans for a temporary Irish executive. He has promised Timothy Healy that he would deal with the question of the recent offices of the lord lieutenant and chief secretary's motion. There is a report that Lord Wimborne, a Unionist appointed as temporary chief secretary, will resign his office. A member of parliament, is mentioned for the latter office.

EXPLOSION IN THE PLANT OF "THE MENACE"

Springfield, Mo., July 30.—Three bombs exploded beneath the floor of the Menace Publishing Company plant at Aurora, Mo., at 1:45 o'clock yesterday morning, slightly damaged the plant and set fire to a mass of copies of the Menace, an anti-Catholic publication, just off the press. The flames were soon extinguished.

BRITISH CHARGE IN SWELTERING HEAT

Rush to Attack to Avenge Murder of Capt. Fryatt—Fearful Carnage Among the Enemy

With the British army in the field, July 30.—(Via London, July 31.)—French and British soldiers made today's attack in sweltering mid-summer heat. The first real hot wave of the season struck northern France last night and this morning, British and French infantry co-operated in an action north of the Somme, in front of Guillemont and Maurepas. For the last few days the one word on everybody's tongue has been visibility, which has come into universal use since Admiral Jellicoe's first fleet despatch. Formerly artillery men spoke of good and bad light. Persistent bad light or low visibility, which did not permit the gunners to register the targets, had delayed any important infantry action. Yesterday the light became better as the heat, great tropic and offensive operations were renewed.

HAMILTON SHORT OF WATER

Hydro Plant Damaged by Fire and Western Ontario Plunged Into Darkness

Hamilton, Ont., July 31.—The explosion of a switch in the hydro's big transforming station at Dundas, a little after seven o'clock last night started a fire which destroyed a third of the plant and plunged Western Ontario into darkness at three o'clock this morning. At the local hydro-office it was said that the full service would likely be restored by tonight and it was hoped to secure a partial supply of power by noon. In the meantime factories dependent upon the Niagara juice are tied up and water-works plants had to resort to steam pumps. Hamilton's chief concern is about its water supply. The steam pumps were immediately started when the power failed, but they pump only 15,000,000 gallons as against the electric pump which pumps 25,000,000. The average daily consumption is more than 16,000,000 gallons. The city made a strong appeal to all the large industries to curtail the use of water as much as possible, and all street and lawn sprinkling has been stopped.

BRAKEMAN IS CRUSHED TO DEATH IN SHELBOURNE

Shelbourne, N. S., July 31.—A sad accident happened in this town a little before five o'clock this morning, when A. P. Freeman, a brakeman on the Shelbourne-Yarmouth freight train, was instantly killed. The train was to leave here at five o'clock for Yarmouth. The work of making the train up was about completed, and as it was about coming to a stop just to the west of the station, when Freeman stepped in between two of the cars and took hold of the air hose. When the cars came together they crushed him in his head. He leaves wife and two children in Liverpool. An inquest will be held tomorrow morning at seven o'clock, having been put off till then so that the train men who went to Yarmouth with the train can testify.

COMING BACK TO ST. JOHN

W. B. Brown, formerly assistant superintendent of the Atlantic Division of the C.P.R. with headquarters in this city, and who was transferred to a similar position in Montreal in 1915, will return to this city as city service agent. He is succeeding E. J. Worth, who has been promoted to the eastern division with headquarters in Ottawa. Mr. Brown is expected to arrive in the city in a day or two to take over his new duties.

HEAVY RAIN PUTS OUT THE ONTARIO FIRES; SO FAR 184 BODIES ARE RECOVERED

Toronto, July 31.—A message received by the department of mines and forests states that the fires in northern Ontario have been entirely quenched by heavy rains. All fires are out. Montreal, July 31.—A C. P. R. Telegraph Company dispatch from North Bay, says thirty-seven more bodies have been recovered at Nushka and six at Cochrane, making 184 bodies accounted for up to 9 a.m. The railway expects to get bridges and trains through about noon today. Relief work is reported to be well in hand. The burned area covers a wide extent on the National Transcontinental Railway and the T. & N. O. Railway, it being 115 miles from Englehart to Cochrane and 135 miles from Abitibi to Hearst. Ottawa, July 31.—The dominion government will co-operate in every way possible with the provincial authorities in relief of the fire swept districts of northern Ontario. A federal grant of aid of the sufferers may be anticipated. The range of fire has been given a supply of militia tents and equipment to meet urgent requirements. The railway department is advised that despite the heavy losses at Cochrane generally, the Transcontinental and Temiskaming Railway terminals have largely escaped save for 400 feet of bridge and that no lives have been lost there. Hon. Dr. Reid, acting minister of railways, last night wired the railway authorities at Cochrane to place all buildings, cars and similar accommodation at the disposal of the unfortunate. The internment camps at Kapuskasing and Spirit Lake have apparently escaped and the government will use the buildings to house the homeless from the fire. Montreal, July 31.—The Abitibi Power and Paper Company stated this morning that their plant and timber lands, etc., in the fire zone were safe. At Ironquits Falls, where the mills are located, twenty houses were burned and seven lives lost. The fire was checked in the range of fire's property by last night's heavy rains.

THE ARAB REBELS CAPTURE YEMBO

Another Blow to the Turks on Red Sea Coast—Grand Sheriff Moves Along

London, July 31.—An Arab force despatched to the Hejaz coast of the Red Sea after the fall of Jeddah, has charge of the Turkish town and fort of Yembo, says a despatch from Cairo to Reuters.
The Turkish garrison were made prisoners and guns and munitions were captured.

Apparently, the despatch adds, the Grand Sheriff of Mecca is putting his house in order. He is arranging for the publication of a weekly official journal, whereby news and opinions may be conveyed to the people. He has apparently an Arab to collect the customs at Jeddah has nominated doctors to study hygiene in the army and named a competent police instructor.

The Grand Sheriff of Mecca, the chief magistrate of the Holy City, proclaimed his independence of Ottoman rule early in June, and was supported by Arab tribes in the west and central parts of Arabia. The sheriff began operations about June 9, and in a short time captured the garrisons of Mecca, Jeddah, the chief seaport of Arabia, and the town of Taif.

Yembo is the Red Sea port of the city of Medina, which lies 125 miles to the west. Yembo is situated on a low, sandy and bare tract and has a sheltered harbor. It is a place of transit for pilgrims from Egypt to the holy city in Arabia.

OTTAWA FAILS TO GET WORD; SOLDIER SENDS IT HIMSELF

Telegram From Capital, Fol-

From Soldier

That Private Ernest McCollom of the Princess Pats is still alive in hospital in England and improving, was the word received this morning in a letter sent by him to his mother, Mrs. William McCollom, of 123 Erin street. Some time ago Private McCollom was reported wounded

he was again reported suffering from shell shock and was admitted to the No. 8 Hospital. A letter came from him a week or so later, but then nothing for some time. Ottawa was asked and a telegram was received this morning to the effect that there was no further information available.

On the heels of the telegram came a letter from Private McCollom himself in which he said that he was getting along nicely and asked that his folks might not worry about him. In speaking of writing he said that he does not get very good chances, and closes with the statement that he expected to be sent home again.

May Exchange Civilians.
Berlin, July 31.—There is a strong possibility that the question of interned civilians will be partially settled soon, by a decision to exchange all those over forty-five years old. It is thought that those between forty-five and fifty will be released contingent upon their usefulness for active service.

guished service at the front, is the gratifying news contained in a letter received this morning by J. T. Hays, of J. A. Wilson also of Moncton, and a member of the 26th Battalion, who now lies wounded in an English hospital. The letter, in part, is as follows:
"As one of your well-known Moncton boys has been doing such good work out here in Flanders, I thought it would be alright to drop you a line about it for your paper, which we often get here in the trenches. On June 21, Corporal H. C.
Brown, a well-known Moncton boy, was mentioned in despatches for gallant conduct under a very severe shell fire—about the worst the 26th Battalion ever was under. He had a party of twenty men who got them in an safe with the company's rations. I am from Moncton myself, but have been wounded and am now in hospital, but will soon be out again."

C. P. R. PASSENGER STATION
WHERE LONG WHARF STANDS

Commissioner McEllan said that objection the railway had to using their own harbor lot adjoining the refinery was the fact that the lot was not owned by the railway and that the railway had no right to use it for a long wharf. The proper dock facilities without encroaching on the Lower Cove ship properties, that the tracks "could not turn sharply enough to give an approach and the fact that if they altered the plan for cars.

In reply to Commissioner Fisher the officials said that the elevator would have a capacity of 500,000 bushels, that there was room to increase the capacity to 1,000,000 bushels; that the capacity would enable them to handle enough grain for two steamers at one time, but that they could work only one steamer at a time.

Commissioner Fisher said that he had asked these questions because Engineer Brown had said the reason for not using the Long Wharf site was that the elevator there could supply only two steamers at one time and more facilities were required. The officials present could not explain this.

Commissioner Fisher then remarked that the present plans showed the return tracks running through the elevator, as well as the supply tracks and said that the engineer here previously had said that this was impossible.

Mr. Duff said that this had been arranged for the elevator and the reason the plan had been changed to keep the elevator within the street lines, although it made conveyor connections more difficult.

Commissioner Wigmore said that he fully approved the plans as he could see no other way to meet the needs of this port. Regarding the Long Wharf site he said that it was an open secret that the space would be required for a new plan.

Mr. McNeill summed up the situation for the railway by saying that the government had recognized the need for an elevator in St. John, that the people here wanted it, the money had been appropriated, the matter had been given careful consideration, the old site had been rejected, the new site selected as the only one available, and they now came to the council for their consent and cooperation. There would be objections to any site, but the city was developing and new conditions must be met. All their cards were on the table and they wanted an answer as quickly as possible if the elevator was to be ready for work this winter.

Commissioner Russell expressed his approval of the site and said it had the support of the harbor master and all the prominent shipping men.

Commissioner McEllan wanted to know about the plans for Courtenay Bay, saying that there was room there for expansion for a hundred years.

Mr. McNeill could not give an estimate of when the docks there would be ready for use, but said that the opening of the transcontinental had opened up new grain routes and they wanted to be ready to handle the business.

Commissioner Wigmore remarked that another grain elevator would be required for

The local fire department were called out to attend two small fires Saturday evening. One was in the premises of P. M. O'Neil in North Wharf. The other was in the house of George Eatey, Kennedy street. A small fire was discovered in the fire—In neither case was there much damage.

It is reported that there will be an increase in fire insurance rates in the near future. The cause is attributed to the loss that all the fire insurance companies have met within the last few years. It is said that insurance losses in Canada last year reached $20,000,000, while premiums were $15,000,000. It is to meet this deficit that rates are being increased.

The provincial crown lands department reports that the lumber cut on crown lands last winter was 240,000,000 feet, $2,000,000 less than the previous year. The total stumpage paid to the government is $262,624.75. The largest payments are: Bathurst Lumber Company, $67,198.68; Richards Mfg. Company, $31,213.44; Shives Lumber Company, $25,190.97; J. THE LATE GEO. A. JOHNSON

On Sunday, July 23, friends of Geo. A. Johnson of Woodwards Cove, Grand Manan, were shocked to hear of his death. Though he had been ill for about four months, it was hoped he would be able to get round again. Complications of a very severe nature, however, set in, and though everything was done that kind hands and skilled attention could do, he passed away in the early morning to the life beyond. He was buried on Tuesday afternoon in Castalia cemetery. Service was conducted by Rev. J. Mason, rector of Grand Manan. Old friends from every part of the island gathered to pay their last tribute to one who was so well known to all. That he was held in the highest esteem was shown by the great gathering that met at the house and followed the body to the grave. The Masonic and K. P. Lodges, of both of which he was a member, marched in procession, under the direction of Grand Deak and Cole Inglis respectively. Each order held its own special memorial service at the grave. There was an abundance of flowers, beautifully put together in wreaths and the emblems. H. Bann croft arranged for some singing, which was fittingly rendered in the home and at the grave. Mr. Johnson will be much missed at the cove, where he was one of the most popular and familiar citizens, always of a bright, jovial and neighborly disposition. Much sympathy is felt for his wife, and family who are left to mourn his loss.

FOUR DOCTORS DISAGREED

Pains Disappeared After Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Wilmington, Del.—"I was suffering from a terrible backache and pains in my side, with bearing down pains and I was very nervous. I was always tired, always drowsy, never could get enough sleep and could not eat. I had four doctors and each told me something different. I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. I got good results and I now feel better than I have felt for years and I am gaining in weight. I can gladly recommend it to all women." Mrs. GEORGE W. SMOOTH, 1811 West 4th Street, Wilmington, Del.

Backache and bearing down pains are danger signals which every woman should heed. Remove the cause of these aches and pains by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that good old root and herb medicine. Thousands of women have testified to its virtues.

For forty years it has been making women strong, curing backache, nervousness, ulceration and inflammation, weakness, displacements, irregularity and periodic pain.

EIGHTY-THREE DAYS

This is the eighty-third day since Hon. P. G. Mahoney was appointed Minister of Public Works. He is still Minister of Public Works—the big spending department—though rejected by the people. How much longer will Lieut. Gov. Wood permit this gross violation of the principles of responsible government to continue?

THE WAR NEWS

There is still no evidence of ability on the part of the Central Powers to check the onward movement of the armies of Russia, Kovel and Lemberg are threatened, and the army of Von Bothmer is in danger of being outflanked north and south. Unless Germany has more men and guns to spare for the eastern front, the Russian advance seems likely to continue. On the other hand, the pressure on the western front is such that more men and guns are also needed there, for both British and French are steadily gaining ground, in spite of all the reinforcements the enemy has been able to bring up. A London cable tells us that the prospects of the Allies are regarded there as brighter than at any time since the war began. The most encouraging feature of the situation is that there is no cessation of the fighting on all fronts, but everywhere the enemy must put forth constant efforts to withstand the continuous pressure. The Canadians, after a period of comparative quiet, are again in the fighting and have raided some German trenches south of Ypres. German counter attacks appear to have lost force. They still keep up a show of fighting at Verdun, but each attack is repulsed. The Italians report further slight gains. At no point on the whole battle front have the Central Powers been able to score a success, and the outlook for the Allies grows steadily more bright.

THE OPPOSITION MEETING

The meeting of opponents of the provincial government, to be held in this city on Wednesday evening, will afford the opportunity to form an association which should do much for the cause of better government. St. John should take a prominent part in the work of political reform that is so much needed. The people will get as good or as bad government as they choose. They have had a very striking example of bad government at Fredericton in recent years. The reports of royal commissions have told part of the story, but not all. Everybody knows that if these investigations had been broad enough, and all the witnesses could have been placed on the stand, the record would have been much worse. The retirement of Mr. Fleming did not improve the government. It has not been improved by the retirement of Mr. Morrisey. The only remedy, and the only guarantee of better things is the retirement of the whole cabinet and the men who have supported it through thick and thin when in the interests of the province they should have voted it out of power.

The people of St. John are large contributors to provincial funds, and have a right to know that the money of the province is properly expended. They know that there has been too much graft, and that the toll paid to the grafters has weakened the public services. This city should be represented in the next legislature by men who will cut entirely loose from the political ethics and methods of the party now in power, and endeavor to restore the good name of New Brunswick, so sadly besmirched by those to whose care it was entrusted at the last general elections. No government in any province ever had a finer opportunity to make a clean record and to deserve and win a long lease of power than that led by Mr. Fleming. It had practically no opposition, and could have set its face against every form of graft and extravagance. How miserably it failed the whole country knows, and the men who first defended and then whitewashed Mr. Fleming deserve no consideration at the hands of the people of New Brunswick. The electors of St. John who desire better government should rally to the ranks of the opposition party, and aid in the nomination and election of strong men, pledged to do their utmost to reform the administration of provincial affairs. It is not a fight between Liberal and Conservative, but between the friends of good government and the upholders of the worst administration in the history of the province.

WILL THE GOVERNOR ACT?

Is it not time a petition was presented to Lieut.-Gov. Wood, asking for the dismissal of his minister of public works, or the dissolution of the legislature? Why should the fact that a certain group of gentlemen who hold cabinet positions be permitted to restrain the people of this province from demanding that the principles of responsible government be upheld by its chief executive? Lieut.-Gov. Wood does not desire his term of office to go down to history as that in which the cabinet of the day were permitted to violate those principles with impunity. Therefore he cannot afford to remain silent any longer. Hon. P. G. Mahoney is at the head of the largest spending department. He has been defeated by the people. He represents nobody. How dare the government go on in this fashion—mocking the rights of the electors? Since it does dare, it is up to the lieutenant-governor to proclaim the people's rights and demand that they be respected. If the people cheerfully bow their necks to this yoke, what next may we expect at the hands of the audacious gentlemen who apparently think that an autocracy is the proper form of government for this province?

Can anyone explain why a petition should not be presented to the lieutenant-governor?

A FEW COMMENTS

Concerning the latest Borden commission—this government is always appointing commissions—the Canadian Courier says: "Nobody knows what good this new Railway Inquiry Board is going to do for us, and there is no use pretending about it. It is another of our numberless commissions, another case where the government has deputized another large task to a group of civilians—and so got rid of it for a while." The Courier also has a word of comment on the North Perth election, as follows: "North Perth, an Ontario constituency, has just changed its habitual heavy majority for the Conservatives into a fair Liberal majority. This may not mean all that the Liberals would like to think it means, but their interpretation is not very far off. The Conservative position in the country is, for the present, not quite favorable. Nova Scotia, Quebec, Manitoba, British Columbia! These are straws of some importance." Of the Camp Borden affair the Courier says: "Two errors caused the Camp Borden unpleasantness. One was Sir Sam Hughes."

Sir Sam Hughes has not yet explained his failure to abandon the Ross rifle until the war was nearly two years old.

A Jewish company, to consist of five lieutenants, eight sergeants, two buglers, eight corporals and 232 other ranks, making a total of 255 all ranks, is being recruited in Montreal.

The whole country is shocked by the news of the havoc wrought by forest fires in northern Ontario. The great loss of life under such dreadful conditions makes the calamity the more heart-rending.

The London Sunday Pictorial describes Sir Sam Hughes as the Kitchener of Canada. The great warrior will not appreciate that compliment. He is the Sir Sam Hughes of the world, and J. Wesley Allison is his prophet.

The Toronto Telegram learns that the battalions at Niagara camp are to be concentrated in the maritime provinces before going overseas. Apparently, therefore, St. John will soon have some more men in khaki within its borders. Preparations are already being made.

Sir Sam Hughes has authorized Montreal battalions to recruit in Ontario. This has caused the Toronto Telegram to make a bitter attack on Sir Sam, and the Conservative Mail and Empire hands Sir Sam this one: "This military district has enlisted 80,000 men, thus exceeding its proportion of the 400,000 Montreal battalions, ought to be ashamed to come here, nor recruits."

The Montreal Gazette jocosely observes: "Deputy Assistant District Attorney Smith charges that $50,000 in graft was collected in eighteen months prior to July 1 from one inspection district by a coterie of officials and members of the New York Police Department. The police of the city have not been heard from in such a light since the Rosenthal murder exposures. The latest investigation comes in time to take New Yorkers' minds away from the wild Mexico, which they were growing somewhat tired of anyway."

"Meat Takes Another Jump"—a familiar headline in your daily newspaper. But why worry about the cost of something you don't need? The most expensive foods are generally the least nutritious. In Summer health and strength come from a meatless diet. Two Shredded Wheat Biscuits, heated in the oven, covered with berries or other fruits and served with milk or cream, make a complete, satisfying, nourishing meal at a cost of five or six cents. All the meat of the whole wheat. Made in Canada.

"THE GREY MOTHER"

Lo how they come to me,
Long through the night I call them—
Ah, how they turn to me.

East and South my children scatter,
North and West the world they wander,
Yet they come back to me,
Come, with their brave hearts beating,
L longing to die for me.

Me, the grey, old, weary mother,
Throned amid the Northern waters,
Where they have died for me,
Died with their songs around me,
Girding my shores for me.

Narrow was my dwelling for them,
Homes they builded o'er the ocean.

Yet they leave all for me,
Hearing their mother calling,
Bringing their lives for me.

Rise they from graves for me,
Graves where they lay forgotten,
Shades of the brave for me.

Yet my soul is veiled in sadness,
For I see them fall and perish.

Strewing the hills for me,
Claiming the world in dying,
Bought with their blood for me.

—Lauchlin Maclean Watt.

LIGHTER VEIN

Edith—I think Jack is horrid. I asked him if he had to choose between me and a million which he would take and he said the million.

Harry—That's all right. He knew if he had the million you'd be easy.

In a certain town a man went into a restaurant for his noonday meal and, it being a cold day, the door was closed. He sat down a few tables from the door. Presently another man came in, who neglected to shut the door.

The first man noticed it and yelled to him gruffly: "Shut that door! Were you raised in a barn?" After a few seconds he glanced over to where the man was sitting and noticed he was sobbing. He went over and apologized for talking in such a manner.

"I didn't mean to be so rude in asking you if you had been raised in a barn."

"That's it—that's it," the other sobbed; "I was raised in a barn, and it makes me homesick every time I hear an ass bray."

All through tea Tommy sat silent, so silent that his parents at last began to feel alarmed. But the son and heir was only doing some thinking.

"Pa," said he presently, "Do school teachers get paid?"

"Of course they do, sonny," replied the father.

"Then it ain't fair," burst out the small boy indignantly. "Why should the teachers get paid when us kids do all the work?"

"It is always lovely polite to change the conversation after any unpleasant remarks," explained father kindly, as the family sat round the breakfast table.

That evening he returned home to find that several of his pet flower beds had been raided, while tiny foot-prints pointed to the culprit.

"Mabel," he said sternly, to his six-year-old daughter, "did you pick my flowers?"

"Oh, daddy, was there a monkey in the city today?" came the prompt reply. "We saw one."

"Never mind that! Did you pick my flowers?"

"The little baby next door has got another flower," announced Mabel politely.

"Mabel, now I want the truth! Did you pick my flowers?"

"Yes, daddy, I did," sighed Mabel, resignedly. "But I thought I would change the subject."

In view of the attacks made on Sir Wilfrid Laurier by a section of the Tory press, the following from the Ottawa Citizen is of general interest: "Mr. Armand Lavergne is authority for the statement that the campaign of literature of the Nationalists in the Drummond-Arthabasca election was paid for and distributed by the Conservatives. He mentions Sir Herbert Ames as the financial agent of the party in this work. He says, further, that Conservative money backed the Nationalist campaign in the Dominion elections of 1911 in Quebec, and that the policy of the Nationalists in that election was the same as it was in the Drummond-Arthabasca election and as it is today—that is, no aid to the Empire under existing circumstances. Mr. Lavergne's statement is the only one dealing with the matter yet published. It has been in print now for a week without drawing a denial from any of the party implicated in its recital."

Sir Pertab Singh Bahadur, at Front at 70, Wants to Die Fighting

"I hope the time is soon coming when at the head of my men I will die fighting," said the "Great Old Man of India," Lieut.-Gen. Sir Pertab Singh Bahadur, who in his seventieth year is in the fighting line in France, to the New York Sun London correspondent.

"That is how every Rajput wants to die. If I die in bed, with a doctor looking on, I take a long time to get to God. I have not yet had my chance, but soon I hope to charge the Germans at the head of my men and die for the King-Emperor."

Sir Pertab had come from France to attend the memorial service to his old friend, Lord Kitchener at St. Paul's and the correspondent was presented to him at the Alexandra Hotel. A Grand Commander of the Star of India, a Knight Commander of the Bath, and aide-de-camp to the King-Emperor, an L.L.D. from Cambridge, he has been fighting since he could handle a sword. AGRICULTURE IN SCHOOL

Many Opportunities Available for Correlating Farming Interests With School Work.

In the public schools of most of the provinces of Canada, nature study and agriculture are included in the prescribed course of work, but the opportunity of correlating school subjects with practical life on the farm is not always fully utilized. In rural and village schools, particularly, the interest of children in their school work should be aroused and held by its intimate contact with agriculture. A few suggestions are offered herewith for impressing upon the pupils the utility value of the subjects taught. In connection with the teaching of arithmetic the following topics might be used as a basis for problems and general instruction:

Neat methods of compiling farm records, e.g., milk and egg production, receipts and expenses, time sheets, etc. These records will form the basis for numerous problems.

Cost of production, rent, labor, wear and tear of machinery; marketing of farm products, computation of profits; measurement of fields, wood-piles, lumber, ice-houses, etc., invoices, cheques, receipts and commercial forms; taxation; mortgages.

The teaching of reading and the study of literature offer exceptional opportunities for arousing the interest of the pupils. The best literature is replete with selections calculated to inspire a love of outdoor life and an interest in the plants and animals with which the country child comes in daily contact. Whittier's "The Barefoot Boy, Burns' "To a Mountain Daisy," and Lowell's description of a day in June are examples, and every teacher will be able to pick out scores of other pieces of merit.

BIG BRITISH GUN IN SOMME OFFENSIVE

One of the great British guns firing on the German trenches in the Somme district. Enemy fortification have been completely shattered by the 15-inch shells from these huge weapons.

THE PEOPLE BEHIND THE GUNS

(Toronto Mail and Empire)
No matter what may be the system of government in any belligerent country, it is by the people that the war must be sustained. In autocracies no less than in democracies the soldiers as well as the means for keeping them in the field must be drawn from the people. In this age there is no autocracy so powerful, there is no body of people so feeble, as to make it impossible for the nation to withdraw from the war when the people cease to expect victory. Constantine was able to keep Greece out of the war, notwithstanding the strong bent of popular feeling for war. But if his nation had been at war and had become thoroughly sick of it, no strength of will on his part would have prevailed to prolong its belligerency. As it was, it required a great amount of intrigue, of wholesale lying by his subsidized press, of German money, of German artfulness and of German intimidation to keep the people of Greece from plunging into the war on the side of the Allies. It was the strength of popular feeling that carried Italy into the war, despite the clever campaign conducted in the country itself by Prince Buelow in behalf of Germany, a campaign in which an enormous amount of German gold was expended and to which the sinister Giotelli lent his countenance. If Roumania now joins the Entente Powers, it will be because the rising tide of public opinion sweeps the nation on. The Bratianu government has been able to bridge the impatience of the people, but once they get into the war it will not be by the fiat of their sovereign or by the policies of politicians that the moment of quitting will be decided.

As the war goes on, the people's part becomes less and less passive and more and more compelling. On the Entente side, governments do not need to spur on the people; on the contrary, it is the people who now do the spurring. If the government of France, Italy, Britain or Russia were now to talk of peace, popular feeling would at once bring about a change of administration. The people of the Entente States are determined that the war shall be continued until the military power of the enemy is broken. On the other hand, the people of the enemy countries are turning from the war-like temper to a desire for peace. It is again, the popular will must in the end have its way, notwithstanding popular government is little more than a name in Germany and scarcely even that in Turkey. Under a severe experience of the reverses of war Germany cannot long bear up. If she lost a hundred thousand of her troops in the next fortnight she would be a far different war power in consequence. The magnitude of the military loss would be no measure of the extent of her impairment. The moral effect upon the rest of her troops would be something, but incomparably greater would be the reaction against the German people. That reaction would have to be reckoned with. If not hundred, scattered riots would soon be followed by a general outbreak. Germany is approaching its doom as a military power, and so is the side of the water that the domestic situation, which, if not wisely dealt with, might well introduce something in its way as the special speakers who will give a series of lectures to the public. At the present moment, therefore, German state-manship has to divide its attention between the war and the domestic situation. That is what von Bethmann-Hollweg appears to be doing and German critics who can think of but one thing at a time are accordingly demanding his head.

RED CROSS WORK WELL ORGANIZED

Lieut. Col. Noel Marshall Has Returned After Inspection

Equipment of the Best—French People Are Optimistic as to Outcome of the Struggle

(Toronto Mail and Empire).

"Canadians may well feel proud of the part they are taking in helping to alleviate the suffering caused by the war," declared Lieut.-Col. Noel Marshall, who returned on Saturday after a two month's trip to the hospitals in Britain and France.

"Everywhere the highest encomiums were heaped on the work we are doing for the wounded and convalescing soldiers. The hospitals are marvels as to equipment, and anyone having relatives in them may rest assured that they will receive not only expert treatment, but the greatest care that human hearts can give."

When asked as to whether the supplies sent from here were being distributed, the answer was that no request upon the Red Cross has ever been refused. Col. Hodgkiss, our commissioner, has now placed Capt. Claude Bryan in charge of all supplies in the London warehouse, with instructions to fill every demand made by the hospitals. Arrangements have also been made to supply the London Red Cross.

While in France President Poincaré gave Col. Marshall an audience and expressed the gratitude the French people felt to Canadians for their generosity. An accumulation of supplies had been found in Paris, but an arrangement has been made with the French government to have 5,000 cases of material transported from England per month. Captain Blaycock, assistant commissioner representing the society, has been instructed as to the distribution of the cases.

There is a warehouse at Boulogne, the supplies from Paris going to Verdun. The French are very optimistic as to the ultimate result of the war. Had it not been on the eve of the big drive Col. Marshall would have paid a visit to the front lines, but decided not to.

The effect of his recent visit will no doubt result in increased effort for those now engaged in Red Cross work, and it will require more money to provide for the new obligations undertaken, but with characteristic spirit Col. Marshall says he knows that a generous response will continue to be made by the Canadian people.

Lady Drummond is doing splendid work, having charge of the information department of the C. R. C. S., while Mrs. Rivers-Bulkeley looks after the prisoners of war department.

TO MEET IN MONTREAL

Convention of the Union of Canadian Municipalities

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Harcourt, of Toronto, are in charge of the Folkestone warehouse. So it will be seen that everything is splendidly organized and looked after, which will no doubt bring added assurance to workers and donors.

According to the programme prepared by the executive of the convention of the Union of Canadian Municipalities to be held in Montreal, next August, will be a memorable one, not only in the live questions chosen for discussion, but in the fact that the speakers who have been invited because of their practical knowledge of the subjects they will introduce. On Municipal Finance, Sir Frederick Williams-Taylor of the Bank of Montreal, and Thomas Bradshaw, the finance commissioner and treasurer of Toronto, will be the speakers, and what these gentlemen don't know about the financial problems of our cities and towns is not worth knowing. Sir Frederick for years has made a special study of Canadian municipal finance as many of our municipal executives who have called upon him for advice on their civic finances, have found to their advantage. He is now who is representing the Bank of Montreal in London, did more than any other man to bring Canadian municipalities to the favorable notice of the British investor. Mr. Bradshaw accepted the position of Financial Commissioner of Toronto at a sacrifice—though the salary is a big one—but as he has pointed out every man has a public duty to perform to the test of his ability—and Thomas Bradshaw's ability is great—but like all big men he is ever ready to help the small fellow, which in this case is the smaller municipalities.

It will be noted that the second session opens with "Municipal Responsibility in Canada's Preparedness." This subject is so important at the present moment, and so wide in its application as to take in such problems as Returned Soldiers; The Patriotic Fund; Immigration; Public Employment Offices; Encouragement to Industries; every one of which are very municipal in their character and working. Among the speakers of this session will be Sir Herbert Ames, the secretary of the Patriotic Fund, and who gained his public experience as an alderman of Montreal, and Dr. Page, immigration officer at Quebec, who will have something very practical to say on the subject of our foreign immigrants. A very important session will be that devoted to the different forms of municipal government. The object in taking up this very much alive problem is not for the discussion of abstract forms of idealism in civic administration, but to try and

Popular Priced Suits

From ten to fifteen dollars is not much money to pay for a suit of clothes. Most men for knock-about, every-day wear, look for a suit to cost somewhere around these figures. For a great many years our ten dollar suits have been, and still are, famous for quality, fit and wear. We have an unusually fine assortment of these suits now. It is surprising the amount of fashion and good tailoring the makers have put into this particular lot of suits at just $10.

Then we have other suits for men who desire something at a little higher price. There is extra fine appearance and a wide range of choice in these suits at $12 and $15. Come and study carefully this exhibit at the three popular prices.

RECENT DEATHS

Dr. J. C. Mott.

Dr. John C. Mott passed away on Sunday evening at his home, 86 Horsfield street. Many friends will regret his death.

Dr. Mott, son of Amos and Eleanor Clarke Mott, was born September, 1880, at Central Cambridge, Queens county (N. B.). He was educated in the public schools of the province and after graduating from Normal school taught school for a few years, after which he entered upon the study of medicine at Ann Arbor (Mich.) and in Cleveland. After graduating he practiced for a short period in Michigan. Later he entered upon professional duties at Prince William, York county (N. B.), where he built up a successful practice. After practicing there for twenty-eight years he found the duties so great that he decided to take up a city practice. To that end he spent six months at post-graduate study in New York and returning settled in St. John, about twenty-one years ago, altogether rounding out nearly half a century of work in the medical profession. The doctor was highly esteemed by all who came in contact with him and there are many who will mourn not only a particularly kind and sympathetic physician but a true and helpful friend as well.

Dr. Mott was twice married, his first wife being Miss Bessie White, daughter of S. V. White, of White's Cove, Grand Lake, who died in 1891. In 1898 he married Miss Greene of this city who died in the year 1906. He leaves one daughter by his first wife, Miss Georgie Mott of this city. He also leaves two brothers—George F. Mott, of Malden (Mass.), and H. C. Mott, of this city; and five sisters—Mrs. Mary Macdonald, of Stockton (Cal.); Mrs. Emory White, Sussex; Mrs. Charles Corson and the Misses Pauline and Augusta Mott, all of Queensbury, York county.

The funeral will take place from his late residence on Tuesday at 3 o'clock.

Robert Ewing.

Robert Ewing, one of the oldest residents of St. John, and active many years as a sparmaker, died yesterday at his home in Elliott Row. He is survived by his wife, one son, Dr. James A. Ewing, of Boston; three daughters, Miss Annie J., and Miss Lillie R. Ewing at home, and Mrs. S. C. Hoyt, St. John. Funeral services will be held at his late residence, 345 p.m., Tuesday. Rev. Mr. Wilson of the Reformed Presbyterian church will officiate. Interment will be made in Fernhill cemetery.

John P. Maloney.

John P. Maloney, a former well known resident of St. John, died at his home in Boston on Saturday. Mr. Maloney had spent the most of his long life in St. John, and for many years conducted a grocery business at the corner of Duke and Sydney street. Ten years ago he removed to Boston, where he has since resided. Mr. Maloney was formerly president of the local branch of the C. M. E. A. No. 124, and was a member of the association at the time of his death. He was particularly well known in St. John and the news of his death will be heard with regret by his many friends. He was unmarried and is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Michael Landers and Miss Agnes Maloney, both of Boston. Mrs. R. E. Fitzgerald, of this city, is a niece. Mr. Maloney was born at Oromocto about sixty-five years ago, but spent the greater part of his life in St. John. The body will be brought to Oromocto for interment, funeral being held at that place tomorrow.

Stephen McMullin of Hartland, died recently, aged 89 years. He was a son of the late Rev. Charles McMullin, a Free Baptist preacher well known in the old days. His grandfather was the first white settler in what is now Hartland. The deceased's wife, who survives him, was Miss Ruth Bradley, and two children survive, W. P. McMullin, with whom he lived, and Mrs. G. E. Boyer of Hartland.

Solomon Good, one of the oldest men in Carleton county, died at the home of his son, Henry, on July 11. He was born at Kingsclear, York county, on Nov. 28, 1824, went to Carleton county with his parents and brothers at the age of thirteen and spent the remainder of his boyhood days in Jacksonville. From the latter place he followed a spotted trail to Good Corner where he and his brothers, John and Arch, soon cleared fine farms, erected good farm buildings and laid the corner stone of a thriving settlement which today bears their name. In the autumn of 1922 Solomon Good was united in marriage to Bathsheba Parks of White Settlement, Me., and raised a family of five children, Edridge of Saco, Me.; Polissier of Good Corner; Henry of Jacksonville; Zephaniah of Presque Isle, Me.; and Mrs. C. E. Stephenson of Florenceville, all of whom survive him.

BURIED ON SUNDAY

The funeral of Thomas I. Byrne was held yesterday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from his late residence, 22 Lombard street to Holy Trinity church, where Very Rev. J. J. Walsh, V. G., conducted the funeral service. Interment was in the old Catholic cemetery.

"Ethel" was taken in to dinner by that western gentleman you introduced to me. He was quite gallant and remarked upon my birdlike appetite. Her Friend—Well, he should be a good judge of that, dear, he runs an ostrich farm in California.

BETTER LEAVE IT ALONE

Protest Against Order to Remove Old Bell of Kaskaskia.

The old bell of Kaskaskia having been ordered sent to diocesan headquarters at Belleville, residents near the site of the now vanished church of which it once formed a part—first of the five churches in the Liberty Bell of Philadelphia was to the thirteen colonies and the Bell of Dolores, which Fr. Hidalgo rang in 1910, was to the Mexicans, Boy Bell of Kaskaskia is to the Mississippi Valley. It was not the general practice of the ancient fabricators of bells to execute an order at their home foundry, and then trust to the meager transportation facilities of the time to deliver the weighty output at the place for which it was destined. They proceeded to the town from which the order had come, set up their furnaces, and cast the bell in the very locality which for long years would listen to its tones.

It was impractical, however, to ask members of this important guild to journey, in the old days, to the New World. The bells installed in colonial churches were generally of European manufacture. Perhaps that is one reason why most of the colonial bells were rather small. At any rate, when Louis XV wished to present a bell to the "Church in Illinois across the sea," he directed that one should be cast at La Rochelle. That was in 1741, and in subsequent months it reached Kaskaskia via New Orleans. It antiquated by a full ten years the arrival of the Liberty Bell at Philadelphia. It weighed 700 pounds.

No locality can assert as perfect a title to this old bell as the locality with which it has been associated for 175 years, and which has retained possession of it. Its claim, which it would seem that only the heirs of old Louis could revoke, should be surrendered only on affirmative showing of neglect and failure to appreciate the value of an asset so worthy of being magnified. Now Kaskaskia denies neglect and failure to appreciate—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

PROCLAMATION having been made by His Honor Lieutenant-Governor Wood, requiring the assembling together on August 4 of the loyal citizens of the Province of New Brunswick for the purpose of passing a resolution approved of by the Central Committee for National Patriotic Organizations, and enjoining upon them that in view of the gravity of the situation and the solemnity of the occasion, the day be also observed by holding meetings of a religious and intercessory, as well as patriotic character, I would therefore request that between the hours of 8 and 4 p. m. on August 4, the business houses of the City of Saint John be closed, and that all loyal citizens repair to King Square where the resolution above proclaimed will be passed and where the solemn occasion will be observed by patriotic addresses, and also that a mass meeting of citizens be held on King Square at 8 p. m. on the same day for the purpose of a further observance of the day.

The following is the resolution which will be submitted to the citizens at the meeting:

"That, on this the second anniversary of the declaration of a righteous war, this meeting of the citizens of Saint John records its inflexible determination to continue to a victorious end the struggle in maintenance of those ideals of liberty and justice which are the common and sacred cause of the Allies."

TWO WOMEN KILLED BY AUTO IN MAINE TOWN

Mrs. Hager and Her Mother Crushed to Death, Bride Fatally Hurt; Two Other Ladies Escape

Two Patten, Me., women, Mrs. Rida Hager and her mother, Mrs. William Hager, were crushed to death by the overturning of the Hager car in Mt. Chase street, Patten on last Friday evening, while Mrs. Francis Peavey, a bride of a few months, lies at the point of death from injuries received when the heavy car, crashing into a curb, turned completely over, pinning five women beneath. Miss Lewis of Illinois, a sister of Mrs. Peavey, and Mrs. Lizzie Collins of Massachusetts, escaped miraculously, with but few injuries.

Mrs. Hager seemed, it is understood, to lose control of her car, and leaped forward. It is presumed, to throw on the brake, instead of which she probably by a mistake started the car into high speed, sending it crashing into the granite curb.

Mrs. Hager was the wife of a druggist, and was about twenty-three years of age. They had been married two years. Mrs. Peavey, Mrs. Hager's mother, was about forty-five. Mrs. Peavey is the wife of Francis Peavey, contractor, and they had been married but four months. Miss Lewis is a sister to Mrs. Hager, Mrs. Peavey had not reached consciousness on Saturday noon, her skull being injured, and death was hourly expected. It is evident that Mrs. Hager met death instantly, the steering wheel fracturing her skull, while Mrs. Peavey was badly crushed upon one side, sustaining, it is probable, the whole force of the heavy car body.

Details of Welsh-Leonard Bout

World's Champion Outpoints Leonard—Some Reports Gave Leonard The Honors

BENNY LEONARD.

FREDDIE WELSH.

The following is a detailed account of the ten round bout between Champion Freddie Welsh and Benny Leonard. The majority of sport writers gave Leonard credit of winning by points, but the following account seems to give the champion the edge. After reading the article fans will be able to judge for themselves. New York, July 28.—Benny Leonard outpointed Freddie Welsh, the lightweight champion, in a ten-round bout at Brooklyn tonight. The fight by rounds: Round 1—Leonard sent two light lefts to the face and Welsh rushed him to the corner. Welsh reached Leonard with a stiff left to the eye, and they exchanged blows in a clinch. Coming out of the clinch, Leonard jarred Welsh with a short uppercut. They exchanged lefts. Welsh reached Leonard with a short right, and the New Yorker missed an upper-cut. In Leonard's own corner, Welsh rushed the New York boy to the ropes and reached him on the body with stiff right and lefts. Welsh missed a hard overhand right to the face by a small margin. He was fighting much more viciously than in their first fight. The round was even. Round 2—Leonard landed a light left and they wrestled in a neutral corner. Welsh reaching Leonard with a short left swing, but receiving several hard blows in return. Welsh was forcing the fight and Leonard was looking away. Leonard sent a terrific right to Welsh's kidneys, and the champion rushed him to a corner with a rain of rights and lefts, few of which found their mark. Leonard shot several stiff lefts to Welsh's jaw and crossed him with a mummy right. Welsh only tried the right, but could not reach Leonard cleanly. At the bell Welsh was smiling. Leonard's round. Round 3—Welsh landed a stiff left, and repeated as Leonard ducked backward. Welsh partially blocked a stiff uppercut and then Leonard reached him cleanly. Welsh rushed Leonard into the corner, and coming out of it Leonard caught Welsh a terrific right on the jaw which spun the champion half way around. Welsh recovered quickly and sent several blows to the body as Leonard's seconds called wildly for a knockout. They exchanged stiff lefts, and were tiddling at the bell. Leonard's round. Round 4—Welsh missed two short lefts, and Leonard caught him on the side of the head with a long left. The champion missed with left and right, and Leonard also was wild with a short right. They had slowed down from their terrific pace. Welsh was using his left industriously, while Leonard apparently was concentrating on Welsh's body. Leonard reached the champion with right and left to stomach, and took a left to the head in return. Leonard reached Welsh with a left, and his right had started as the bell sounded. Round 5—They tiddled. Welsh landed a light left to Leonard's face and body, while Leonard punched his wet glove into the champion's stomach. They exchanged hard lefts again, but the New Yorker nimbly ducked out of a difficult position when Welsh had him on the ropes. Leonard rushed Welsh half across the ring with rights and lefts to the body, but Welsh rushed him back again with the same treatment. Each man landed twice with his left with equal result. Round even. Round 6—Welsh crossed Leonard with a right to Leonard's face and body. The New Yorker came back at him like a tiger with rights and lefts that were mostly blocked. Welsh reached Leonard with a stiff left and bounced him to a corner with another. Welsh pushed Leonard into a neutral corner and pushed him half way across the ropes as he led for Benny's jaw. Welsh landed a left at the bell. Welsh's round. Round 7—The fans yelled to Leonard: "This is your lucky seventh," as the men advanced. The New Yorker began jabbing with rights and lefts, but Welsh cleverly blocked the blows. Leonard was wild with rights and lefts. The champion staggered him with a short overhand right to the jaw. Leonard was at him again and landed a hard right to the body. Leonard was missing badly at this period. Welsh rocked him with another left and Leonard slipped as Welsh reached him again. Welsh's round. Round 8—Leonard circled Welsh and jabbed with several straight lefts, and Welsh stopped him with a wicked right and repeated with a back-hand blow that raised Benny's chin. Welsh crossed another right to Leonard's jaw and Benny was wild on the return. They danced about each other with little damage until Welsh sent Leonard into a neutral corner with a stiff right. Coming out, Leonard pumped right and left to the top of Welsh's head, and the rally stopped in the centre of the ring. Each missed a left at the bell. Welsh's round. Round 9—Leonard came out fast, and tried to force the fight. Welsh was too fast and elusive for Leonard to reach more than once in ten times. Welsh crowded in on Leonard and brought a sharp right uppercut into play. They jumped about the ring swinging and sticking out gloves without either hitting. Welsh managed to clip Leonard on the jaw with a hard right. The champion jumped around and kept sticking lefts to the body. In a clinch Leonard whipped in three short right uppercuts. Welsh slammed Leonard several hard right hooks. They were fighting fiercely when the bell rang. Round 10—They shook hands. Welsh rocked Leonard's head with a left, and Leonard sent a right and left to the champion's head. Both men landed lefts and rights to the body. They fought fast up the bell. Leonard was getting out of the way. Welsh was forcing the fighting and seemed as fresh as at the start. Leonard crossed a stiff right to Welsh's jaw, and they clinched. Leonard pushed Welsh into his corner, and sent a series of lefts to the head. Leonard reached the champion with a hard right to the jaw. Each man was trying for a knockout. Welsh's round.

SOLDIER PRISONERS IN ST. ANDREWS BEAT JAILER AND ESCAPE

Three soldiers, who were doing an eight months' sentence for desertion, escaped from the jail at St. Andrews, N. B., on last Thursday evening, after beating up the jailer and locking him in a cell. The men are said to be on the American side of the line, and officers are on the lookout for them. According to the story one of the trio asked the jailer for water about ten o'clock on Thursday evening and when he returned with it the three pounced upon him, choking him into helplessness and then locking him into the cell. The plight of the official was not discovered for some time, and the escaped prisoners had a good start.

DID NOT NEED SLEEP.

Man Earned His Living During Three Sleepless Years.

People who complain now and then they have a sleepless night ought to read the medical reports on the case of Robert Gourley, a Scotchman, who in 1888, began to know what sleeplessness really was. In that year he went from November 9 to December 22nd, without a wink of sleep, and all drugs could not provide it. In 1887 he was five months without sleep, natural or artificial. Two years later he had another attack of insomnia which lasted for seven months. Further Progress In The West

Allies Press Back the Enemy—Prospects Brighter Now Than at Any Time Since War Began

London, July 31.—Further advances by the British are reported in the latest despatches from General Haig, in command of the French front. A heavy engagement was fought on the sector between Delville Wood and the Somme, with the result that the British moved their line forward east of Watlot and Trones Wood.

Paris, July 30, via London, 3:11 p.m.—The French in the Somme region near Hardecourt, have captured German trenches between Hardecourt and Hill 139 on a depth varying from 300 to 800 metres, according to the official communication issued this evening. Gains also were made by the French near the village of Mannepas and Hien, which were held against powerful German counter-attacks.

London, July 30.—The opening of the present week finds the prospects of the Allies perhaps brighter than at any previous period of the war, according to the views held here, and the position of the central powers more discouraging.

General Brusiloff's striking victories present the German general staff with the imperative problem of how to reinforce the eastern front, since General Von Linington, who was sent by the Germans to aid the shattered Austrians, has now been completely thrust back from the Lutsk salient.

But the same problem is presented on the western front, where, says an official correspondent, "the ceaseless battle seems steadily to gain in intensity. Doubtless the constant arrival of fresh German troops and guns," he adds, "has everything to do with this result. The enemy shows an increasing tendency to counter-attack."

These counter-attacks have failed to stem the steady Allied advance, and, although at the present moment the fighting on the Somme is mainly devoted to securing mastery of small strategic positions, which will be the keys to further progress, there is yet no sign of the German making any effective counter-offensive.

The Russians remarkable victories reveal a most interesting situation. The army of the German general, Count Von Bothmer, holding the Stripa near the Lemberg-Tarnopol railroad was a few weeks ago being outflanked on the south by General Letichitzky's further passing. This enabled Von Bothmer to hold on to the threatened positions. General Sakharoff then devoted himself to enveloping Von Bothmer's forces on the north, with what success is seen in his double victory west of Lutsk and at Brody.

Thus outflanked north and south, it is considered impossible that Count Von Bothmer can longer delay extricating himself from his precarious position, even if he can now do so without serious losses. The Russians at Brody are at present nearer Lemberg than Von Bothmer's forces, which are entrusted with Lemberg's defense, and although the country between Brody and Lemberg is very difficult, it becomes a question whether the evacuation of both Kovel and Lemberg will not soon become necessary.

inner but on all occasions has been turned down as he was not tall enough. On last Tuesday evening, Louis O. was pleasantly surprised when friends called at his home and made him the recipient of a beautiful wrist watch, which was given him by a friend.

A WISE MOTHER'S STORY

Mothers and Daughters Read Carefully and Profit by It

"I am convinced," writes Mrs. A. B. Hopwood from St. John, "that a majority of young girls who die of consumption do so because their mothers neglected their health at the critical time when carefulness insures vigor and sound health. If a girl's health is neglected from her eleventh to sixteenth year her body will be weak and she becomes a ready victim of typhoid, anemia, and in many cases consumption itself. In her sixteenth year my youngest daughter showed signs of failing strength. Some dyspeptic troubles developed, her heart became weak and palpitation frightened her dreadfully. She was irregular in the important bodily functions and rapid loss in weight and a ruddy complexion pointed to a rapid decline.

"She disliked making her troubles known to our doctor, a feeling I felt I should respect, and so by good fortune I was led to use Ferronose with most gratifying results. My neighbor next door, Mrs. Woods, had found Ferronose so good in nervousness that she persuaded me it would restore Flossie's health, and from the time the second box was commenced her improvement was constant. She is now a big, strong girl, ruddy and plump, able to study hard and to take her share of household duties. I am an earnest advocate of Ferronose. We all use it now as a tonic as it is certainly a woman's best friend."

All dealers sell Ferronose, 50 cents per box or six boxes for $2.50; procure a supply today.

ONTARIO TOWNS WIPED OUT BY FIRE; MANY LIVES ARE LOST

Englehart, Ont., July 30.—Forest fires, which for some days have threatened the northernmost towns and the outlying settlement of Northern Ontario yesterday and today culminated in a holocaust which has wiped out entire communities, hoked the fringe of larger towns, and levied a death toll which cannot at present be accurately computed, but which will range from 140 to 200. Scores of persons are suffering from injuries, many of whom are likely to die. The loss of life so far reported is as follows:

At Nushka, a French-Canadian settlement, 57.
At Cochrane, 18 dead, 34 injured.
At Matheson, 34 dead.
At Porcupine Junction, 15 dead and many injured.
Porcupine Junction, number of dead unknown, but the town was wiped out, with the exception of the station.
Ramore, 15 dead.

In addition to the known dead, there are many outlying places which will materially swell the list of victims when the rescue parties return. It is feared that at Tashota and Kowcash many prospectors may have been trapped.

Nushka suffered worst. It consisted of a score of frame dwellings and stores, and has been threatened for some days. It was practically surrounded, walls of fire cutting off all escape to the south and north and with no river or lake at hand the inhabitants were doomed.

TWO STREETS LEFT IN COCHRANE.

Cochrane was entirely burned with the exception of Second and Third avenues. The proximity of the Fenistankam and Northern Ontario tracks and the lake saved most of the residents.

Ramore, a small settlement, was completely wiped out. Matheson is totally destroyed, with the exception of two houses, and 34 bodies are laid out on the station platform. South Porcupine suffered only the loss of the saw mill and the station. At Timmins the flames were checked on the outskirts after licking up 17 houses.

At Iroquois Falls nothing remains but part of paper mills and one store. The list of dead is likely to be largely increased from among the outlying settlements. One settler and ten children perished while his wife was absent to seek aid.

Refugees, destitute of food and clothing, are pouring into the towns to the south of the burned district. A large number have arrived here, and are being distributed to New Liskeard, Cobalt and Halesburg. Citizens of the town worked all last night to feed and clothe the victims, prior to distribution.

Tonight rain was falling at Matheson and several other points, but it will take several days of rain to quell the fires and prevent a further southward sweep.

DOCTORS AND COFFINS ON WAY.

North Bay, Ont., July 30.—(Special to the Ottawa Citizen)—Special trains with doctors have left North Bay for the north. At least eighty are known to be dead and it is feared the casualty list may be much larger. While only the most meagre information is obtainable it is known that the towns of Matheson and Cochrane have been wiped out. Coffins are being shipped from Cobalt to the scene of the disaster.

ONE OF WORST IN HISTORY.

Toronto, July 30.—One of the most disastrous fires in the history of the north country has been raging since yesterday. All wires are down north of Englehart. From meagre reports received from those who were able to get out, Nushka Station, Timmins, Cochrane and Matheson have been wiped out. Porcupine Junction and Iroquois Falls are reported to be burning.

Fifty-seven bodies are reported to have been found at Nushka station and 25 bodies at Matheson.

A relief train is now being made up at North Bay.

MILLIONS LOST IN NEW YORK, ALLIES' MUNITIONS BLOW UP

New York, July 30.—Property loss estimated at $25,000,000, was caused early today by a series of terrific explosions of ammunitions, awaiting shipment to the Entente Allies and stored on Black Tom Island, a small strip of land jutting into New York bay off Jersey City. The loss of life still was problematical tonight. It will not be determined definitely until there has been opportunity to check up the workmen employed on the island, and on boats moored nearby. Two are known to be dead, and at least two more are missing. Scores of persons were injured, some of them probably fatally. The cause of the disaster had not been determined tonight.

All Manhattan Island was shaken by the terrific explosion at 2 o'clock this morning. Windows of buildings all over the lower end of the island were shattered and streets for many blocks in the down town section were literally strewn with broken glass. Thousands of persons swarmed into the streets from all parts of the city, from buildings, subway exits and railway stations, running about in a panic. Many women became hysterical. Police whistles were blown frantically, but the police themselves did not know what it was all about.

Later it was learned that it was a terrific explosion in the plant of the National Storage Company on Black Tom Island, near Communipaw (N. J.).

In the storage company plant are said to have been enormous quantities of ammunition consigned to the Entente Allies. The entire plant is reported to have been wrecked.

Sixty-nine carloads of ammunition are said to have been stored on the railroad tracks on the island. All of them are believed to have been blown up.

The first terrific explosion which shook all of New York city and nearby New Jersey cities, was followed in half an hour by one slightly less severe. There was a continuous series of smaller explosions which resembled the roar of big guns.

The Dark Sunday.
The peculiar darkness which enveloped the city yesterday caused much speculation, and on the part of some people, a certain amount of fear. Dawn was long in coming and the street lights burned for an hour later, then unusual. As the morning progressed what light there was showed a peculiar amber color, which had a remarkable effect upon the appearance of ordinary surroundings, giving grass and trees a vivid tinge of their green and affecting other colors in a remarkable way. In most houses it was necessary to use artificial light until noon. Citizens who have lived in the west likened the darkness to the conditions which have preceded western tornadoes, but other conditions were similar. So far no scientific explanation has been given for the phenomenon.

Dorchester, N. B., July 30.—Five Austrians, prisoners of war at Springhill Mines, Nova Scotia, who escaped from there Friday, were captured here this afternoon by Jailer J. Holland, half a mile east of Dorchester station, and are confined in the county jail.

Canadians In Raid on German Trenches

London, July 30, 3:30 p.m.—Parties of Canadian infantry last night successfully raided the German trenches in two places south of Ypres, it was officially announced today by General Sir Douglas Haig, the British commander-in-Chief in France. A similar raid was carried out by the Royal Munster Fusiliers in the Loos salient. The German casualties in each case, the statement adds, were severe. The text of the British official communication follows:

"Last night we heavily bombarded the enemy's trenches and reserve areas between the Ancre and the Somme. During the bombardment a hostile ammunition depot near Courcellette was exploded by our fire.

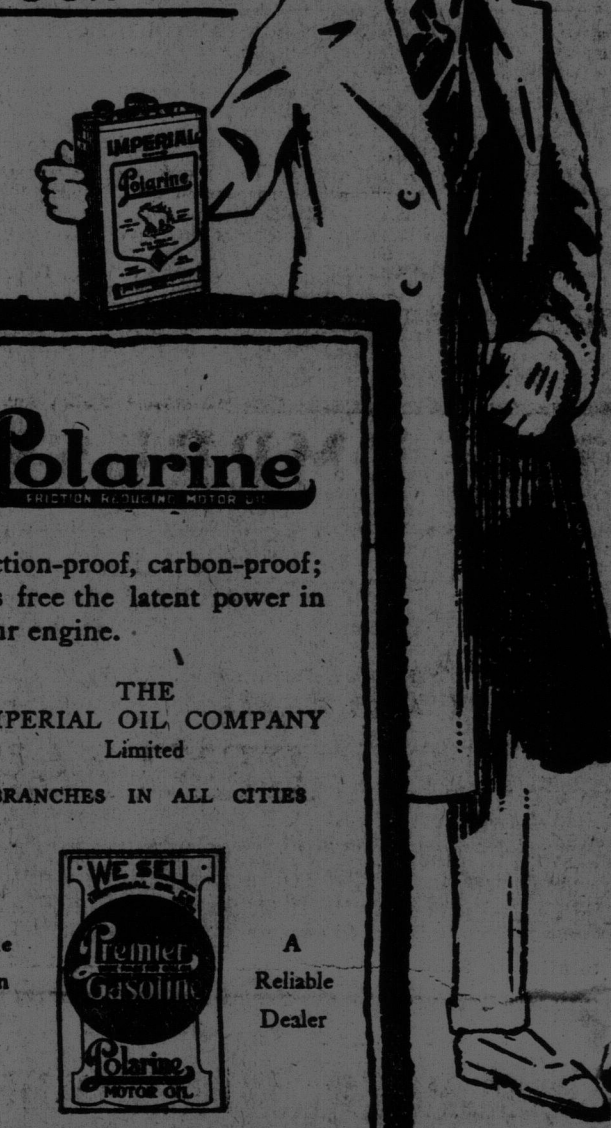

"Parties of Canadian infantry successfully raided the enemy's trenches in two places south of Ypres and the Royal Munster Fusiliers carried out a similar enterprise in the Loos salient. The enemy's casualties in each case were severe.

"Near Hohenlille the Germans attempted two raids. One of these failed to get further than our wire. The other succeeded in entering our front trenches but the enemy was immediately driven out."

was shunting on to the main line when she was struck from the rear by an extra.

A report from Lower Coverdale says that the barn of Henry Steeves was set on fire by a tramp on Saturday night, after the would-be incendiary had been refused lodging for the night at the house. With the help of neighbors the fire was extinguished and very little damage was done. The fire was burning at four different places. The Moncton police are on the look out for the suspect.

Good Tubes-Goodyear Tubes Will Make Good Tires Better

The less trouble you have with your tires and tubes, the greater is your satisfaction, the more complete is motoring pleasure, the longer mileage you receive. Good tires alone will not suffice to give this complete satisfaction. For, however good your tire may be, a leaky tube can cause endless annoyance. And leaky tubes are common! Tubes of poor rubber—rubber containing flaws or foreign matter—allow the air to seep, imperceptibly and slowly, yet none the less surely, through microscopic holes. Thus tire mileage is lost because leaky tubes mean under-inflation and tire abuse, or else the unnecessary annoyance of frequent inflation. To make tubes leakproof, to provide unqualified tire satisfaction, Goodyear invented the laminated tube.

Goodyear Tubes Are Made Leakproof By Lamination

Lamination is a process of extra safeguard, an added inspection employed by Goodyear to guard against foreign matter. Despite the extra cost this additional process Goodyear refuses to discard it. For by employing laminated construction Goodyear can offer you the really leakproof tube. Ordinary tubes are made from a single sheet of rubber of the desired thickness, where it is impossible to detect the tiny particles of foreign matter that escape the washing machine—reducing tube thickness, and so causing air-seepage. Goodyear Tubes go through an extra process. The washed rubber is passed through heavy rollers which roll it into thin sheets—thinner than the paper you hold, as transparent as tissue paper. Thus the expert is enabled to detect and remove the minutest grains of dust, sand, or wood. These perfect sheets are then laid layer on layer and rolled into a solid, inseparable sheet, of extra thickness and extra strength. Thus Goodyear Tubes are made flawless and leakproof by a costly additional process. Yet they do not cost you more than the average price. And they do measure up to Goodyear high standards.

Goodyear tubes are leakproof everywhere. If you use Goodyear Tubes you know they give more mileage at lowest

This bears out the statement made by Olding that he signed with Col. Rupert and Capt. Huston simply to help out the Yankees until their injured stars could play again. But there is no doubt that Olding will be kept in right field for the rest of the campaign.

Donovan figures that if he can have Gilhooley, High, Magee, Olding, Baker, Pipp, Peckinpaugh and Nunamaker on the daily batting order some time after the Yankees return from the west, the team will make a successful fight for the pennant.

Paced Mile in 2:15 1-4.

Van Buren, Me., July 29—A Game of Chances, the fast pacing stallion owned by W. Bert Lind, of Fredericksburg, didn't lower the track record here yesterday, although the little fellow went a mile in 2:15 1-4, just a second and a quarter slower than the record in his exhibition mile. He showed the fastest mile of any horse at the meeting, however, and his exhibition was a very creditable one, everything considered.

Brooklyn Fans Are Confident

Experts Are Looking For The Team to Win National League Championship

In no city in the National League is there any more confidence in the ability of the home team to travel through the season to ultimate victory than in Brooklyn. The fans of Brooklyn feel positive that the flag will fly over Loew's in many seasons here and that the team has been so hopeful of landing the bunting. If confidence is half the battle, as they say, the Superbas are on the road to the championship.

Last year this team was up in the race practically all of the season, but Superbas fell in the final drive and caused little anxiety to the Phillies. This year there is quite a reversal of feeling. The Superbas stood up well enough on their western trip to hold the lead, though not winning so many games as either the Giants or the Phillies.

The team is acknowledged to have the strongest pitching staff in the league, which is a most important item to start with. Chief Myers is catching up to the best form that he ever displayed when with the Giants; Jack Daubert is hitting them a mile, and the rest of the team is going at a fast clip. They have both offensive and defensive strength and are well fortified for all emergencies.

The team is playing more aggressive ball than it did last year. For several seasons the Brooklynans have had much latent strength, but it has never been brought out to its full extent. This year, however, Manager Robinson has installed more pep into the team and the club is actually fighting for games as it never did before. Many critics, mindful of past performance, and having little confidence in the playing powers and the battling qualities of the Superbas, have not counted them as serious factors. But in Brooklyn, such opinions are laughed at. From President Ebbets down to the bat-boy there is a supreme belief that the team is going to come through at last. Brooklyn has not had the pennant since 1900, during the regime of Ned Hanlon. They think it about time for another one and this year they think they have the goods. So good a judge of baseball as John McGraw declared the other day that the Brooklyn club is the one he fears most heartily, and the one that will beat the Giants out, if any team does.

JOE WOOD REFUSES TO SIGN WITH RED SOX

Cleveland, July 29—Joe Wood has returned home to his farm without signing a contract with the Boston Red Sox. President Lanning agreed to pay Wood at the rate of $12,000 a season for the balance of the year, this salary being what Wood's contract calls for, but refused negotiations with Wood for 1971, and it was this point that caused the split.

Before this morning's conference closed Wood offered President Lanning $10,000 for his release.

CAPT. J. H. EVANS IS PROMOTED TO BE MAJOR

Q. M. S. Groves, Advanced to Commission, Will be Assistant Adjutant of Kilts

Captain J. H. Evans of the 65th Depot Field Artillery battery at Woodstock has been promoted to be major and is continuing the command of that unit. Although it was announced that Quartermaster Sergeant Frank E. Groves of the Headquarters staff of the New Brunswick command had been promoted to be lieutenant, yet it was not until this morning that it was found that he is to be the assistant adjutant of the 28th New Brunswick Kilts battalion.

Lieutenant Groves has practically given his life in the service. Entering at the age of eighteen, he joined a Welsh regiment with which unit he served seven years, serving with them in India and Egypt. On coming to Canada he joined the R. C. R. at Halifax and since that time has been steadily climbing. When the New Brunswick command was first organized, Sergeant Groves was sent from Halifax here to take the duties as quartermaster sergeant.

Pte. Charles W. Sullivan of the 85th Battalion, who has been spending some time in the city, recovering from an injury, left for Sackville Saturday, and if pronounced physically fit, will rejoin the battalion at Aldershot.

So far the chief and his men are unable to learn about the family but are still looking into the affair.

It looks as if the revival of an old time sport was on foot judging from information that a Times' reporter received this morning, and it also looks as if there was going to be some "trouble" between the members of the police force and the motormen and conductors of the street railway in the city of St. John in the very near future. This explains the situation, in as much as the motormen and the conductors of the St. John Street Railway challenge the members of the local police force to a tug-of-war, to take place at a time to be fixed convenient to the police. An answer is requested through the Times.

COMMEMORATE THE ANNIVERSARY OF WAR

Special Service in Fairville Methodist Church

Names of Men on Honor Roll Read—
Rev. Capt. Campbell Gives Masterly Address on Conflict of Nations and Calls For More Recruits

Last evening a special service was held in Fairville Methodist church, patriotic in character, to commemorate the anniversary of the declaration of war in August, 1914.

Early in the service the names of eighteen men of the honor roll of the church were read by the pastor, Rev. Gilbert Earle, who explained that nine on the list were on the active firing line, six training in England and three still in Canada. A special prayer was offered by Captain (Rev.) G. M. Campbell on behalf of those Fairville lads as the congregation stood with bowed heads.

Capt. Campbell delivered a striking and eloquent address stating that two years ago the greatest crisis in history was perpetrated when this war was brought on by Germany. Great Britain was in the fight for a worthy and glorious purpose, the preservation of liberty, justice and right. The same attitude had characterized her action on previous occasions well known in history.

When Spain figured on world dominion that brooked no interference, she was obliged to take sides with Great Britain and the Spanish Armada was smashed by Drake and driven from the seas. Years later, Louis XIV of France dreamed of world power, but knew England stood in the way as she always had against despotism. France sent her armies, but Marlborough met them in combat and won a glorious victory.

Napoleon was the next great figure to appear as a universal dictator, but again Great Britain blocked the path and Wellington in mastery fished at Waterloo conquered him.

Again in 1914 a great military power appeared on the world's horizon with aspirations by a more extensive than any previous, only to be checkmated again by British troops and valor. Albert of Belgium called not in vain and England hoisted her flag of war in defence of her dearest principles.

The speaker emphasized the fact that we were in the fight to a finish. This war was consistent with Christ's teaching, whose kingdom is to be established on righteousness and then peace. The order could not be reversed.

The chaplain referred to what the great offensive had done, but more men were needed to add vigor to the punch. History stated that after the battle of Alma, if enough troops had been available the British could have turned the Russian retreat into rout and made unnecessary the battles of Inkerman and Balaklava and the two years siege of Sebastopol. We required more men at present to make victories effective.

High explosive shells used by the Germans late in the war dated 1897, so evidently they had the manufacture of seven more years still to work on. We were in for a long war yet but must not falter with men or treasures. We were in the fight to a finish.

Chaplain Campbell's address left a deep impression. The litany for British forces and the hymn "Bring Peace, Oh Lord, Bring Peace Again," were sung and added much to the service, which closed with the national anthem.

LIEUT. GOVERNOR OF QUEBEC REVIEWS THE TROOPS AT VALCARTIER

Fifteen Thousand Men Were on Parade

NEWS OF BATTALIONS

The 140th Now in Col. McLean's Brigade—132nd Makes Best Performance on Rifle Range—Visit by Acting Minister

Valcartier Camp, July 27—Sir Ever-este LeBlanc, Lieutenant Governor of Quebec, today reviewed the troops at Valcartier Camp. About 15,000 troops were on parade, under command of Brig. General Wilson, camp commandant.

At ten o'clock as His Honor stepped from his car at the saluting point, the division "presented arms," and the massed bands played "O Canada." The division then marched by in column of companies. As each line of khaki clad figures, with their fixed bayonets shining in the bright sunlight, passed the saluting point, around which were crowded motor cars and vehicles filled with spectators, they were heartily applauded.

After all the troops had re-formed on their original alignment, the whole division, about a mile and a half long, advanced in review order with fixed bayonets, while the bands played. The general salute was then given, after which the officers of the division gathered around the lieutenant governor, who addressed a few laudatory remarks to them. The battalions then returned to their camp lines.

Bush Fires.
The duty brigade of the camp were called out this afternoon to check fierce bush fires which broke out west of the tent lines. The men had to fight the flames for two hours.

The advance party of No. 1 Construction Corps arrived in camp yesterday. The 182nd Battalion will spend the remainder of the week on the rifle ranges. Lieut. Colonel Mercereau is on leave for a few days. Five recruits have been taken on the strength of the unit. The appointment of Lieutenant J. B. Mackay has been cancelled.

Most of the officers and men of the 140th Battalion will spend the next two days in the butts at the rifle ranges marking for the 182nd Regiment, who are firing. Lieutenant Harold Tompkinson of the 140th Battalion, C. E. F., who comes from Canoe, N. B., has been transferred by No. 2 Construction Corps. Lieutenant A. G. Pierce is acting as orderly officer to the brigadier during the absence of that officer. Lance Corporal R. R. Cove, Wm. Lebars, A. Fraser, W. Bishop have been promoted to the rank of corporal.

The 168th French-Canadian Battalion are working very hard at elementary drill and showing excellent improvement. It is understood that Henry Surette of Moncton is to be sent to the office of the paymaster of the 6th Military District to take a course in the work of the paymaster after which he will be appointed paymaster of the 168th.

Best Shooting Unit.
The 182nd Battalion has just been pronounced to be the most efficient unit which has so far visited the ranges at Valcartier Camp. The following is an extract of a letter from the adjutant of the military staff to the officer commanding the 182nd Battalion:—"I must congratulate you on your returns as well as your shooting; both are the best of any that have visited the range so far."

Now Part of Col. McLean's Brigade.
The 140th Battalion, under Lieutenant Colonel Beer has been placed in the 1st (New Brunswick) Brigade under Colonel H. H. McLean, M. P. This places all the New Brunswick units in the one brigade.

His Honor the Lieutenant Governor of Quebec, yesterday, complimented the 185th Battalion, C. E. F., under Lieut. Colonel D'Almeida, very highly on their appearance and their co-operation with their English speaking comrades. The French Canadian battalion was the only battalion singled out for special mention in his remarks.

Lieutenants R. C. Allan, S. S. McLean, J. Benn and H. Schryer, of the 182nd, have been granted leave of absence for a few days.

Acting Minister.
F. B. McCurdy, M. P., acting minister of militia, will visit Valcartier Camp tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon. A review will not be held, but he will visit the various brigades and battalions in their camp lines.
