FOR NEW CANADIANS.
"Carrying the Light to Old New Canadians" was the subject under discussion at the meeting of the W. M. S. of the German street Baptist church yesterday afternoon. Mrs. S. S. Poole, the president, was in the chair and Mrs. F. E. Holman, had charge of the program, assisted by the Misses Esley and Rose. Mrs. Holman described the work being carried on by Canadian Baptists among the foreigners from coast to coast in the Dominion. A fitting climax to her address was the introduction of eight or ten children, foreign-born residents of St. John, who gave a demonstration of the work of Canadianization being done here. The children sang patriotic airs with much zest and stories most effectively. The devotional service at the opening of the meeting began with a Bible reading on the great emigrants of the Bible, given by Mrs. Willard McIntyre.

PRESENTATIONS MADE.
The Coronet club girls had an evening of great enjoyment last night. First they had a theatre party and occupied a box at the Imperial then they returned to the recreational centre, which was gayly decorated with red and white roses, and there they gave a shower for Miss Eva Chandler, one of their number who soon is to be married. A large parcel of gifts, which when opened was found to contain linen tableware, kitchenware, china and other useful and pretty articles, was presented to her. As Miss Innes Mackenzie, the general secretary, is leaving St. John at the end of the month the girls took the opportunity to present to her a token of their appreciation of her work for them in the shape of an everday pencil. The president, Margaret Whalen, made the presentation. Refreshments were served.

BETTER THAN HARD COAL
Soft coal so free from soot that it does not make whiskers on stove covers or pipe and does not mat or cake when burning. It is far better than Hard Coal for general household use. Quicker to light, takes less to make a fire, cheaper in price and can also be used for open fires and small heating stoves. Such a coal is Broad Cove soft coal. The main thing to insist on getting the genuine article. No other soft coal burns just like Broad Cove. You will know it by the above characteristics.

THE COUNCIL AND HYDRO

The City Council yesterday, after a very full and free discussion, during which some points that were not quite clear to one member or another had been cleared up by Mr. Herbert Phillips, adopted a series of resolutions providing for application to the hydro-electric commission for ten to fifteen million kilowatt hours, construction of a civil distribution plant, and a civil commission to make the contract and construct and operate the plant.

IN IRELAND

The serious condition of affairs in Ireland was made plain yesterday by the remarks of Mr. Chamberlain in the British House of Commons. The cabinet report says: "Mr. Chamberlain admitted that a grave issue was before the house—whether the government should decide if the great experiment in Ireland had been tried long enough and whether the government, acting under a sense of horror at certain murders should declare the treaty at an end and step in and assume once more the duty of preserving law and order throughout Ireland."

Wonderful Motorcar. A profiteer was bragging about his newly-acquired motorcar. He ended his eulogy by declaring: "It runs so smoothly that you can't feel it; so quietly that you can't hear it; it has such perfect ignition that you can't smell it; and as for speed, why, my boy, you can't see it!" His friend looked startled. "Bless my soul!" he exclaimed anxiously, "how do you know the car is there at all?"

"THE BELLS" GIVEN FINE PRESENTATION

Dramatic Production in St. Vincent's in Aid of New Church at Loch Lomond—On Again Tonight.

Very seldom have the people of the city an opportunity to see such a highly dramatic production as that presented last evening by Arthur McCloskey in "The Bells" in aid of a fund for Rev. Harold Coughlan's new church at Loch Lomond. Mr. McCloskey himself enacted the leading role of Mathias, the burgomaster, and gave a faithful and interesting interpretation. The play is a difficult one, even for professionals, and has been given here two or three times by traveling companies. Those who have seen the play in the hands of seasoned artists have expressed the opinion that the production of "The Bells" is a masterpiece. The piece is essentially a "one man vehicle," but there are several characters which require careful handling to bring out the true meaning of the story of the murder of the Polish Jew. As the burgomaster's daughter, Annette, Miss Blanche O'Brien was seen to advantage while opposite her played J. Calnan in the part of Christian, a French quartermaster. The roles of Hans, a foreman, and Dr. Zimmer, village physician, were capably presented by D. J. Higgins, B. McDade and John McLaughlin respectively.

Miss Mary Sharkey had an excellent role as Catherine, wife of the burgomaster, but she gave an excellent rendition, and Miss Mary Conroy, as Suzel, a school girl, filled a minor part to advantage. William Hurley acted as president of the court during the scene in which the village notary and J. McLaughlin as the maniac were seen.

The play was particularly well staged, the lighting effects being good and the scenery, especially the interior, well done. The two transparencies, depicting the workings of the guilty conscience of the burgomaster, the play certainly deserved a better support than that accorded it last evening. It will be repeated again tonight and on Friday night.

EXPLAINS LOSS OF EXPORT BUSINESS

Secretary of Confectionery, Biscuit and Chocolate Manufacturers Replies to Hon. J. A. Robb.

Montreal, May 11.—Speaking at the fourth annual banquet of the confectionery, biscuit and chocolate manufacturers of Canada, held at the Ritz Carlton Hotel here last night, Hon. James A. Robb, minister of trade and commerce, asked why the industry was losing its export business which had for a time assumed such large proportions. He said he had noticed that there had been a considerable drop in export business since 1920, according to the records of his department, and wondered whether it was because labor costs were too high or because of supplies too arduous, or whether goods had been sent out that were not up to the mark. In 1920 export figures had been $1,000,000; in 1921, these had fallen to $350,000. On the other hand, imports, which had been $415,000 in 1920, had risen to $631,000 in 1921. C. J. Bodley, secretary of the association, said, in reply, that in 1920 Great Britain and the continent had been starved for sugar, whilst the remedying of this condition and the drop in the exchange had forced Canada out of the market in 1921. He said the industry was also heavily handicapped by adverse freight rates.

UNITED STATES MUST HAVE FOREIGN TRADE

Its People Cannot Otherwise Maintain Present Standard of Living.

Philadelphia, May 10.—Foreign trade is essential to the United States if American people are to maintain their present high standard of living, James S. Alexander, president of the National Bank of Commerce in New York, told delegates to the Ninth National Foreign Trade Convention at its afternoon session today.

"We have established upon this continent an economic society that has given to the average laboring man a higher standard of living than his fellow laborer enjoys in almost any other part of the world," he said. "The evidence of that standard constitutes one of the greatest achievements of American democracy. This standard, however, has been conditioned upon the maintenance of the productivity of the laborer and this productivity in turn has been conditioned upon the continued enlargement of the supply of highly productive land as fast as population grew. "While there still undoubtedly exists a considerable amount of land which may be cultivated more profitably than land which is cultivated in some other parts of the world, yet we must recognize the fact that we have reached the point where upon the new land the operation of the law of diminishing returns in agriculture will create a smaller and smaller yield of foodstuffs per unit of labor than has resulted in the immediate past. It is true that invention and improved methods of farming have tended to postpone to some extent the early working of the law of diminishing returns but the evidence of the last few years points clearly to the fact that we are now utilizing less fertile land and at a greater per unit cost of production than was the case in former years.

"If we are to maintain our standard of living under a condition of diminishing returns in raw production we must effect such increased cost by devoting a larger and larger proportion of effort to those lines of industry that yield increasing returns per unit, namely, to manufacturing. That we are doing this to some extent is evidenced by the comparative figures for manufacturing. It is borne in mind, however, that this process of offsetting diminishing returns by agriculture by increasing returns in manufacturing involves an ever-expanding market for our manufactures and that such an expansion points to the fact that the standard of living of the masses of the people, we must not forget, tends to an ever-increasing extent."

Mr. Alexander argued against the belief that the question of tariff reduction and the prosperity of the United States. He declared that domestic trade is in fact the greatest progress in the history of the nation, since this gives an outlet for surplus production and for industries over-expansion. He pointed out that America's foreign trade is only 10 or 15 per cent. of its total commerce, he pointed out that its importance cannot be measured by this ratio, saying that many of the most important things in financial and business life hang upon percentages of less than 10 or 15 per cent. and the average reduction in foreign trade during the entire period of a depression may be under 15 per cent. A change in foreign trade representing only 5 per cent. of total commerce may mean a 20 to 40 per cent. loss to some of our important industries. In conclusion he said: "The welfare of other nations is so closely interwoven with that of the United States that if the question of our foreign trade is to be interpreted with any degree of breadth whatever, it should be considered in the light of the welfare of these other nations. There can be no final recovery of the domestic trade in any nation until the international trade relations which alone support the great international division of labor can be re-established. "The question of the nature of both domestic and international trade in modern industrial society should present us with a reversion to the feeble selfish mercantile doctrines of the 18th century. We should strive to obtain all of the fruits of the world in a fair field with free competition we may gain through our own efficiency. I have no sympathy, however, with the notion that we should attempt to grab more than her proportionate share of the world trade.

"While the first fruits of such a policy might seem to suggest that we were the gainers in an economic sense, it is impossible for us to maintain such trade unless we are fitted to hold it in an open field. Moreover, to the extent that we should attempt to obtain a disproportionate share and to hold it, to that extent would we prevent the most efficient working of the great world machine and to that extent must our actions finally rebound to our own injury as well as to that of other people."

"In the last analysis, therefore, I should rather view this question in its broadest aspect and answer the question as to why we should have international trade by recognizing why the world must have international trade."

SOUTH AFRICA DOES WELL

Mrs. A. McMurray, an official of the Child Welfare Conference, Union of South Africa, who has completed a course of study in social service in the University of Toronto, and is about to embark on a lecture tour from Quebec to Victoria, and in the United States, before returning home, has given the Toronto Globe an interesting account of child-welfare and school work in South Africa. She quotes: "The whole of the Union is only a little larger than Ontario, yet we have eight colleges. There are three big universities—the Capetown, Stellenbosch and South Africa. Under the latter six colleges are affiliated and in medical education is recognized anywhere in Europe. We have up-to-date kindergartens, excellent elementary schools and schools for adolescents up to 18 and over. Education is compulsory, and free from six to sixteen, and for children under school age supervised play centres are held in schools and playgrounds after hours. In addition to this, we have the juvenile advisory board, which advises juveniles on the choice of occupations, and prevents boys and girls entering blind-alley occupations. In the industrial world there are stringent laws for the protection of women and children. A certificate of medical fitness is required before a junior is allowed to enter a factory, and night work is absolutely illegal for women and children. There is also a law prohibiting expectant mothers from working in a factory four weeks before and eight weeks after the birth of a child. During the period preceding childbirth the mother may be paid $8 a week out of government funds. "It is clear from this review that most parts of Canada have a good deal to learn from South Africa.

THE COST OF HYDRO

If the city takes 10,000,000 kilowatt hours of hydro-electric energy, and sells it, the average cost to the consumer would be four cents. The maximum for light would be eight cents, as compared with thirteen and a half cents at present, and the minimum for power would be one and a half cents. The Standard says that if the city sold only 5,000,000 kilowatt hours the maximum for light would be sixteen cents. The Standard might have gone further and said that if the city bought 10,000,000 kilowatt hours and sold only one kilowatt hour the cost of that one would be the price paid for the 10,000,000. Computations of this kind, however, are not impressive. Everybody knows the city could not be able to sell much current the first year, because it still has its distribution system to erect. It would increase the sale to a marked extent the second year, and still more so the third and fourth year. In computing cost and striking an average, a period of four years or so, while the market was being expanded, should be considered, and a low rate from the outset could safely be fixed. To assume that the market would not soon absorb 10,000,000 kilowatt hours is to assert that St. John cannot hope to grow or progress. Who is prepared to make that assertion? Civic distribution of the Musquash current means cheap light and power and an end of monopoly.

Trans Canada Limited.

Effective May 21 from Montreal, Toronto and Vancouver, the "Trans-Canada Limited" train service will be re-established by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company. "This splendid train, carrying standard sleeping car equipment only and making the fastest time between terminals of any transcontinental in America, leaves Montreal, Windsor street station, at 8 p.m., and Toronto, Union station, at 9 p.m., Eastern Standard Time, daily, consuming eighty-eight hours between Toronto and Vancouver, and ninety-two hours between Montreal and Vancouver, also reaching Winnipeg in forty-one, Regina in fifty-one, and Calgary in sixty-five hours.

The schedules are so arranged that train passes through all important points (commercial or tourist) at most convenient hours for entraining or detraining, and during the portion of the trip through the Canadian Rockies, open observation cars from Field to Revelstoke are a special feature. There is no extra charge made for this feature by Canadian Pacific. Although this is the only de-luxe train run in Canada in which sleeping car passengers only are carried, there is no special fare required to travel on same. With the resumption of the full summer transcontinental service, the Canadian Pacific will leave at 8 a.m. every day, thirty-six transcontinental trains moving on its rails at various points between Montreal and Vancouver, among which are included eight "Trans-Canada" trains—all of this vast fleet of trains the "Trans-Canada" is the "e-a-19 train."

Miss Laura Margaret Black of Sackville, was granted a diploma from McGill University in the department of physical education.

A good many misconceptions were removed at yesterday's meeting of the city council. The case for civic distribution of hydro was made clear and strong.

LOCAL NEWS

The Carpenters' and Joiners' Union, local 919, held its regular meeting last evening in the Trades and Labor Hall in Prince William street. The meeting was largely attended and John Powers, vice-president of the local, occupied the chair.

While the steamer Mina Brae was discharging oil for the Imperial Oil Company through a pipe from her stern, the hawseers holding her to the wharf parted and the pipe line became disconcerted with the result that a large quantity of oil was lost.

The May meeting of the Germain street Baptist W. M. S. was held yesterday afternoon in the parlour of the church with Mrs. S. S. Poole presiding. Mrs. F. E. Holman gave an account of the way in which mission work was being done among the foreigners in the Dominion. She was assisted in the programme by Miss Eby and Miss Ross.

Yesterday afternoon a horse owned by James McGivern, attached to an express wagon, took flight on Britain street and was stopped only when it collided with a warehouse on Red's Point. The horse's head was slightly injured and the shaft of the wagon was broken.

SOLACE ON THE SEA

"Man makes the earth with ruin," says Byron; "his control stops with the shore." But now the ocean is ruled, according to a writer quoted by the New York Tribune. What is meant is that the Atlantic voyage is no longer restful. The Marconi system has put an end to isolation, and business pursues its votaries over what was once a place of rest and quietude.

The Leviathan will have a wireless telephone in every stateroom, and those who cross the ocean may keep in constant touch with their friends and business associates. There will be no more peace for the weary traveller. His office will tell callers to try "Leviathan 9835," and he will have to spend a greater portion of the time hanging onto the receiver when he is not hanging over the rail. It is not inconceivable that seasickness may become a blessing in disguise.

Already the benefit of an ocean voyage for rest and recreation, has been impaired by so-called improvements. A voyage of five or six days is hardly enough for a holiday, and with all the luxuries of a great New York hotel, and with habits of fashionable society continued on shipboard, the tired business man might just as well stay at home.

But there is nothing to interfere with a restful time on the restless sea if it is desired. All along the Atlantic coast there are places where one may find vessels that have neither wireless apparatus, ten-course dinners, steam or gasoline, and he may sail as they did a century ago, heedless of the passage of time, forgetting business and forgotten.

Doctor at 82 Finds Mothers Prefer His Formula to New-Fangled Salts And Coal Tar Remedies for Babies

Judgment of 1892 vindicated by world's approval of Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin, a simple vegetable compound for constipation—So safe, thousands give it to babes in arms—Now has largest sale in the world.

WHEN a man is in the 82nd year of his age, as I am, there are certain things he has learned that only time can teach him. The basis of treating sickness has not changed since I left Medical College in 1876, nor since I placed on the market the laxative prescription I had used in my practice, known to druggists and the public since 1892, as Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin.

mal poisoning, impaction and rupture of the intestines. If grown people want to use them no one can deny them the privilege, but they should never be given to children. The simpler the remedy for constipation, the safer for the child and for you, and the better for the general health of all. And as you can get results in a mild and safe way by using Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin, why take chances with pills and powders and strong drugs, even if disguised in candy? My remedy, too, costs less than most others, only about a cent a dose. A bottle such as you can find in any drug store, will last a family several months, and all can use it. It is good for the babe in arms because pleasant to the taste, gentle in action, and free from narcotics. In the proper dose, given in the directions, it is equally effective at all ages. Elderly people will find it especially helpful.

$10,000 Worth of Syrup Pepsin Free

In remembrance of my 82nd birthday I have set aside the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars to be given away in half-ounce bottles of my Laxative Syrup Pepsin. Only one Free Trial bottle to a family. All are constituted now and then, and here is an opportunity for you and others to try Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin FREE OF CHARGE. Ask for your free bottle today, simply sending name and address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 21 Front Street, Bridgeburg, Ont. Do not postpone this.

BANKERS REPORT BUSINESS REVIVING

300 Assemble for Executive Council Meeting at White Sulphur Springs.

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., May 11.—More than 300 bankers, representing different sections of the country, gathered here for the annual spring meeting of the executive council of the American Bankers' Association.

Special subjects listed for consideration at the meeting include par collections, state taxation, commercial and marine problems. Between committee sessions the bankers participated in a golf tournament.

No final adjustment of the financial difficulties confronting the nation can be accomplished until railway wages and other operating expenses are lowered, making possible a reduction of transportation costs, it was declared in the report of the economic policy commission of the association. Even greater than the wage question, the report set forth, are the "onerous" working rules imposed by the labor unions upon the railroads. Clear co-ordination between the Interstate Commerce Commission and the Federal Labor Board was recommended.

The commission went on record as opposing the soldiers' bonus bill. It endorsed, however, the stand of President Harding that if such a law were enacted means of payment should be provided through a sales tax.

The report advocated a constitutional amendment permitting the taxation of securities issued by states, municipalities and other political subdivisions. As to the tariff, the commission declared that "a tariff must not be framed which will restrict imports to such an extent that it will at the same time endanger our export trade." It asserted that if an unduly protective tariff were adopted it would prove impossible to prevent a new flood of immigration.

"We cannot exclude both European goods and European labor without breaking down the whole economic system of the world," it was said in the report. "If we exclude European goods the cheap labor of Europe, which otherwise would be employed at home, will ultimately break through our immigration barriers to consume our surplus here."

Through an economic survey of conditions throughout the country, the report stated, the commission found a much greater feeling of optimism, production in most lines again stimulated and sales increasing so that manufacturers and farmers have little surplus on hand.

"In other words," it was said, "liquidation has been completed in nearly all lines of activity throughout the country, and costs have decreased except in the items of labor, transportation and taxation. Even as regards labor there has undoubtedly been a considerable lowering of prices, especially as regards agricultural labor."

Every one seemed to feel, the report continued, that the worst was over; that interest rates would continue to fall and that business failures for the rest of the year would not be unusually large.

ENTERTAINMENT BY WITANSTEDE GIRLS

The girls of Witanstede school gave a delightful entertainment last evening in Trinity school room and had a large and appreciative audience. There were three items in the programme, an opening chorus, a Dickens scene and a charming little operetta, "The Dolls' House Party."

In each number the girls took their parts with success, showing the results of careful training and also evincing considerable talent. The singing of the operetta was particularly pleasing and the costumes were quaint and attractive. Miss Jessie Lawson directed the entertainment and was highly complimented on the great success.

The opening chorus was an appealing number entitled "Beautiful Rose of England." It was nicely rendered and the children displayed red and white roses to illustrate their song. The Dickens scene was Mrs. Gamp's tea party. Leonora Belyea took the part of Mrs. Gamp and Margaret Hayes was Betsy Prig. The tea party scene was cleverly done and caused much amusement.

The Dolls' House Party cast was as follows: Dolls' house mistress, Helen Magee; children, Shuna Gilchrist, Frances Foster, Jean McAvity and Cecily Kirby; maids, Audrey Rankine and Viola McAvity; cook June Curry; niger J. L. Zoe Patterson; Japanese dolls, Jessa McAllister and Elizabeth Stead; dancing

GAME SANCTUARY OF 100,000 ACRES

New York State to Set Aside Tract in the Adirondacks—Animals and Birds Expected to Multiply Rapidly.

Albany, May 11.—A tract of more than 100,000 acres where game may find sanctuary from the hunter's bullet will be established in the Adirondacks by the State Conservation Commission. Provision for the erection of this refuge was made in one of the several amendments to the Conservation Law passed by the recent legislature. Commissioner Alexander Macdonald expects to visit the Adirondack region within the near future to select the land. The establishment of the tract will not involve any expenditure of money as state forest preserve lands are to be used for this purpose.

"A great saving in animal life as well as a better opportunity for propagation where they are not hunted. I would not be surprised if the population of game and game birds in the tract to be set aside will be largely increased within a few months after sanctuary has been created.

An elaborate posting system to warn hunters to keep off the land is to be put into effect. Game wardens will also patrol the preserve, and heavy penalties will be imposed upon hunters who trespass.

On recommendation of Commissioner Bullock, Capt. A. J. Mulcahy and James McKinney were reappointed port wardens.

General Matters.

A petition from several business people of the city, asking the city to equalize top wharves rates with other ports in Canada, was referred to Commissioner Bullock for report.

G. D. McArthur, architect, Leinster street, wrote informing the council that the building inspector had refused a permit to T. B. McInnis for the erection of a hip-roofed house in Orange street near Carmarthen. He quoted figures in connection with the proposed construction, and the matter was referred to the safety department for report.

A letter from A. Gray, federal engineer in charge of the harbor, was read in connection with assistance from the federal government for the excess cost of work carried on to relieve unemployment, and asking that a certificate be obtained showing that the provincial government had paid its share. The communication was referred to Commissioners Wigmore and Frink to report as to steps to be taken to have payments made by the provincial government.

Prince William Street.

Commissioner Frink presented plans and estimate for the paving of Prince William street, to consist of concrete base, asphalt surface, granite blocks in track section, resurfacing of old curbing, new circular curbing, asphalt sidewalks and catch-basin repairs. The report was ordered received, and a motion to have the pavement laid and paid for by bond issue was carried unanimously.

Commissioner Frink read a letter from the Currie Construction Co. per R. A. McAvilly, saying that it would cost $1,600 for the company to get its asphalt plant into operation, and asking that the city give the company consideration when bringing up the matter of the completion of the pavement of Rothesay avenue. The commissioner reported that the work was commenced on October 4 last year and was not to the full satisfaction of the engineer. As it was not completed on November 20, it was shut down. About ten per cent. of the work, estimated at $28,274, had not been finished; $16,632 had been paid the contractors, and there was still some money held back until some portions were replaced.

The company asked for a hearing, it is said, and it was decided to have them present at the committee meeting on Monday morning.

DALHOUSIE IS WELL DISPOSED

President Speaks of Amalgamation Project. Sets Forth Struggles of the Universities of Maritime Provinces and Remedy to be Found in Large Money Aid from Carnegie Foundation.

(Canadian Press) Halifax, N. S., May 11.—Speaking of the proposed union of maritime universities at Halifax, Dr. A. Stanley MacKenzie, president of Dalhousie University, addressed the annual convocation of the college here today as follows:—

The most important matter in the realm of education in this part of Canada is the renewed interest which has been aroused over the possibility of federating the colleges in the maritime provinces, so as to have one strong and efficient centre of education which would give our people educational advantages comparable with those enjoyed by all the other provinces of the Dominion.

The Carnegie Foundation of New York have completed a survey of the educational situation in these provinces, impelled thereto by the fact that most of the maritime colleges had applied to the Carnegie corporation for grants of money. The final report of the foundation, which will soon be published, contains in no feeble way the present condition of affairs.

It finds half a dozen colleges trying to give curricula in higher education six times repeated when if all their endowments and facilities were combined into one there would still not be enough to give in a thorough manner the very educational curricula which each of them is representing today with its little fraction. It says that federation at Halifax is the only sensible thing to do, and indicates the probable willingness of the corporation to assist financially in a generous way to give a federated central institution a real start in life.

Dalhousie He said the cost of educational facilities today had mounted out of all belief from that of even twenty years ago and it would mount still higher and higher, and every college which looked failure even to retain its present standing. A factor was the willingness of outside agency to put money, probably millions, into the education. If we will only agree amongst ourselves to concentrate our efforts, this last factor is absolutely moved—and very compelling as I said we know it all before; but old and past prejudices have kept us apart. Let us hope that the new money may help us to do what wisdom and judgment have not hitherto made us do. It is the general public that have to keep up all these unnecessary and inefficient institutions who should come in and take a share in solving once for all this educational problem.

It is written in her charter. We have always shown our willingness to consider sympathetically any such scheme.

THREATEN TREES OF NEW BRUNSWICK

Larch Sawfly and the Larch Case Borer Make Reappearance. Fredericton, N. B., May 11.—Two species of destructive insects are making their reappearance in the forests of New Brunswick, the larch sawfly and the larch case borer. Some 40 or 50 years ago they wiped out the valuable larches in the northwestern part of the province. Colonel T. G. Loggie, deputy minister of lands and forests, is writing Dr. Graham Kelsey, his charge of dominion entomological operations, advising for immediate action to be taken and means with which to combat this new danger.

SNOW ON MAY 11

(Special to The Times) Fredericton, N. B., May 11.—May gave this section of the country a variety of weather today. There was low temperature, but it was not high. A heavy fall of snow on May 10, about six days ago, had melted. On June 5, 1914, saw a heavy fall of snow in the northern section of the province. There was nothing to be seen of it for a short time. In the Miramichi country there was heavy snow in the woods, but it did not stay long. Bird life suffered severely, and in some districts disappeared entirely. Henry Bradshaw, a guide, says that the outbreak of the spruce bud-worm dates from that storm and the destruction of bird life.

A few flakes of snow fell in St. John today. EMPRESS OF CANADA TO HONG KONG ON MAIDEN TRIP Cable advice to the C. P. R. report the sailing of the new Empress of Canada from Falmouth last Friday for Hong Kong on her maiden voyage. She will proceed to Hong Kong via the Suez Canal and leave that port for Vancouver on her return trip on June 7. With the Empress of Australia she will maintain the trans-Pacific link of the new Canadian Pacific, the trans-Atlantic portion which will be maintained by the Empress of Scotland and Empress of France.

The Empress of Canada is a twin-screw turbine passenger line of 24,000 tons. MONTREAL STOCK EXCHANGE Montreal, May 11.—(10:30)—It was a very dull market during the first half hour this morning and trading was weak and listless. Brazilian was down a quarter at 44-1/4. Atlantic Sugar 18. Laurier's registered a drop of a half point to 87-1/2. Other leaders did not appear in the early trading.

Montreal, May 11.—(12:30)—Montreal Tramways established a new high record at 168 and in the unlisted department, tramway power reached a new high level at 21 a share. Quebec Railway stock was not very active but maintained yesterday's price of 29-1/2. The bonds of Quebec Railway, however, continue to change hands in large blocks. A $400,000 lot was traded in at 70-1/4. The turnover in Quebec Railway bonds today was more than $50,000.

Brazilian traction was the most active stock in the local list but the market offered a slight reaction to 44. Profit taking was also apparent in Bell Telephone transactions in this stock today, place at 110. For the first time in a long while the paper issues were neglected. Spanish River common was entirely absent from the list and only a small lot of the preferred came out at 93-3/4. Athliss and Laurende were steady with a couple of transactions each.

YOUNG MOTHERS

More than 75 per cent. of eye defects are caused by ignorance and wilful neglect of the young and tender eyes. You and I have seen many young mothers pushing a small go-cart on the sidewalk with an infant or small child, sat on its back with the sun shining fully and directly in the child's tender eyes. No sane person can witness such a scene as that and then wonder at the enormous increase of defective eyes. The same scene is witnessed in all our streets in the hot summer, as well as in winter. When the child becomes a little older, we see it in the streets, hunched over with no protection of any kind for its eyes. When? Oh! When will the young mothers acquire sufficient common sense to take at least some care and protection for the eyes of the infant and small child? K. W. ADVERTISING

If We Want Better Business We Must Make It Better.

(By Charles Henry Mackintosh, president Associated Advertising Clubs of Canada) Advertising, as an ethical force, is not yet fully appreciated by many of those who employ it constantly, and that in its higher manifestations. The business-building power of honest advertising has been recognized by forward-looking merchants and manufacturers, but not all have come to see advertising as the creator of a new sense of the necessity for honesty in business. It was seen some years ago that advertising must be honest, and that it must be trusted if it is to be productive of profitable results—and from that thought-act has sprung the present tree of Truth-in-Advertising. Advertising, however, is merely the reflection of the thing advertised in terms of the ethics and morality of the advertiser. Back of honest advertising there must be honest business, and so the authentic advertising movement was, in reality, a re-shadowing, or mirroring, of a new conception of honesty in business, based upon a scale of ethical values never before generally applied in the processes of business.

Horrockses NAINSOOK

THE inconsistent goddess Fashion has wrought many changes since 1791, but there is one tradition which she has not molested—the choice of baby's dresses.

And not only for Baby's clothes is Nainsook the most favored fabric. Its sheer softness makes it the perfect material for the intimate lingerie of the aesthetic woman.

HORROCKSES' Nainsook may be bought at your favorite store. Perhaps you would also like their pastel-shaded "Diaphanes" for your more "fifteen" underwear and blouses, or you may wish some of their heavier Madapolams, Cambries and Longcloths.

we have a responsibility to defend the trust committed to us and to maintain the rights and privileges of the college and university unimpaired. The trust must be safeguarded. Apart from the sentiment which binds to our ancient house and from the belief that most of us hold that it was a wise choice which Charles Inglis exercised when he selected Windsor "for from the madding crowd" as the site for the college which he was about to build as "the mother of a University," the practical difficulty involved in leaving behind us all that we have now in the way of lands and buildings, and acquiring new property and erecting buildings adequate to our requirements is enormous and even when it is done a large increase in the endowment would be necessary for maintenance.

About Bread

A great philosopher, asked on pain or death, to name "the most perfect thing in the universe," replied, "That is simple—a loaf of bread."

Who will question his decision?

Think of a complete ration of food, capable all alone of supporting life and keeping the body fine and vigorous.

Good Bread is the one perfect food, perfect tonic and perfect delicacy the year round.

Good Bread is the one food good for all people of all ages. The one food that makes all foods better.

People who eat plenty of bread don't have to be running always to doctors for anaemia or indigestion. Bread alone keeps them well-nourished and healthy.

A pound-and-a-half loaf of bread will do the work of six pounds of sirloin steak and do it better.

Eat more Bread. Twice the amount you are now eating—and no time immediately the raise in your general health and vitality.

St. John and Fairville baked Bread is Bread at its Best—always pure, tempting and nutritious.

ST. JOHN AND FAIRVILLE BAKERS' ASSN.

SAYS CATTLE NOT CRUELLY TREATED

London, May 10.—A member of the house of commons today asked whether the attention of the minister of agriculture, Sir R. Griffith-Boscawen, had been called to the sufferings of cattle in transit from Canada and other countries for slaughter at British ports; whether, in view of these cruelties, he would direct his inspectors to investigate the matter, and if the allegations of cruelty were confirmed, would he take measures, in co-operation with the governments of Canada and the other countries concerned, to end the cruelties.

The minister replied that every possible precaution was taken to safeguard cattle sent to this country. The foreign animals order of 1910 provided protection for animals on the voyage, and he understood the vessels carrying cattle had to pass regulations laid down by the governments of the exporting countries. The inspectors of the ministry of agriculture also reported on the condition of the animals on arrival.

There was no evidence of cruelty, Sir A. Griffith-Boscawen said, but a certain amount of suffering was inevitable in heavy weather. The number of casualties since the resumption of the traffic last year was small. There was one case, however, last September, in which fifty-seven out of 285 cattle were lost in the North Atlantic in stormy weather.

CITY INSTEAD OF WIFE KEEPS HIM

St. Catharines, Ont., May 10.—One year in Central Prison was the sentence imposed today on William Zastirney, a confessed wife beater. The woman, who was married two years ago, and bore marks of brutal treatment on her face, declared she was obliged to keep seventeen boarders while her husband lay around the house and did nothing but spend the money.

He denied a charge that he forced her to get out of bed and do house work three days after the birth of her baby.

EMPIRE DAY IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

The Empire Day celebrations in the schools on May 23 will take the form of special programmes in the afternoon. There will be two sessions as usual, and in the morning the usual schedule of lessons will be carried out, all the celebrations being reserved for the afternoon. Every school will have a special programme, and in the High school the orchestra will have a prominent place in the proceedings. Dr. H. S. Bridges said yesterday that it was hoped that prominent men would give addresses to the scholars on Empire Day. In speaking of the suggestion which had been made on several occasions that the scholars should all be assembled in one central place to have the Empire Day celebrations together, Dr. Bridges pointed out that there was always an element of danger in assembling so many as 8,000 children in one place and, since such an assembly must necessarily be out-of-doors, as there is no building large enough to accommodate so many, there was also the added fatigue to the children in standing.

MINSTREL SHOW AT BROOKVILLE

A splendidly successful minstrel entertainment was given in the Brookville Hall last night and about 800 was reared for the proposed new community hall. The programme consisted of choruses, songs, banjo and mandolin solos, stump speeches, piano and vocal solos and quartettes. A great deal of amusement and much genuine pleasure was afforded the audience. The entertainment was a popular one and the hall could have been filled twice over.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Sutherland, H. G. S. Adams and Mrs. Leslie MacLean were the committee in charge. The stage setting was particularly good and showed a log cabin with a cotton field in front. The lighting effects were a special feature and the moon rose and waned most realistically. The end men were James Scott and W. G. Drake and others who took part were J. S. Skille, Miss Charlotte Willis, Mrs. Leslie MacLean, Miss Lucy Barton, Miss Myrtle Downey, Mrs. James Scott, Mrs. William Sutherland, J. F. Hopkins, Harold Hopkins, Douglas Breen, Oscar Pederson, Harold Adams and Boyd Mann. The musical director was H. G. S. Adams and the stage director was William Stone. The lighting effect were installed and regulated by William Kenney and Harold Adams.

SEND-OFF FOR HILTON BELYEA

Thousands of people turned out last evening to bid farewell and "bon voyage" to Hilton Belyea, Canadian sculling champion, who sailed today on the S. S. Manchester Importer for Philadelphia where he will compete on June 9 against the leading scullers of America for the championship of the United States.

Last night Hilton was conveyed to the dock in an automobile and escorted by the Carleton band. The procession came across on the ferry and, when the Governor Carleton slipped into her dock, she fairly crashed with the weight of Carleton people, who accompanied the champion. The band led the way up Prince William street, up Kings, down Charlotte and Duke to McLeod's wharf. The streets were lined with cheering crowds and handkerchiefs fluttered from the windows. In every block the crowd grew, until all traffic was held up. One small boy, greatly astonished, was heard to ask, "Say, mother, who is all the fuss about, anyway?" and his mother replied, "Why that's Hilton Belyea—our Hilton."

The Speeches.
At the dock the champion was borne into the shed, which was almost filled, so great was the number of admirers. J. C. Chesley acted as chairman and, in a short speech, reviewed Hilton's triumphant history. He said that Hilton was beaten at Buffalo last year by only two feet, and that on account of imperfect physical condition, but he assured the audience that this year the Canadian champion was in the pink of condition, and expressed the strong conviction that when they welcomed him back to St. John they would welcome the sculling champion of the world.

Commissioner Thornton said that he deemed it an honor to stand on the same platform with Hilton, the next world's champion. In the unavoidable absence of Mayor McEllan, he extended the good wishes of the citizens of St. John to Hilton, and ended his remarks by proposing three cheers for Belyea, which was given with a will.

Captain A. J. Mulcahy, in a witty speech, said that he was proud to be a citizen of St. John. He said that Hilton was all man and that he would not fall down, in this, his greatest effort. "Our side has the vessel that will carry Hilton Belyea to Philadelphia," said Captain Mulcahy, "and I can only say, God speed the vessel."

Cheers for Hilton.
Following the speeches, Hilton was deeply appreciated the cheers and good wishes of his admirers, and that it would spare him on to do his best, if any incentive were needed.

Captain Brown and his crew were on deck to receive Belyea and they appeared pleased that they were to have the opportunity of carrying to Philadelphia the man who might be the world's champion after June 8. The audience divided their attention between an examination of Hilton and of his racing abells. No doubt they will await with keen anticipation the result of the great race.

Mr. Chesley announced last night that the Women's Council had kindly agreed to conduct a tag day, to help to pay the expenses, and also called attention to the entertainments which are to be put on in the near future for the same laudable purpose. He urged the people to contribute well, for they would be contributing to a cause which meant much for St. John and for the empire. At a meeting of the Moncton Amateur Athletic Association on Tuesday night, it was decided to forward a sum of money to the secretary of the Commercial Club to aid in paying the expenses of Hilton Belyea.

LABOR BOYCOTT FAILS TO AFFECT BASEBALL

Chicago, May 11.—The organized labor boycott on organized baseball has failed to bring results. Disappointed because of the failure of their appeal to cut down the attendance in big league cities, the Chicago Burning Trades Council, through its president, Fred Mender, has sent out another plea to organized labor of the major league cities, urging all union men to boycott professional baseball as long as Judge K. M. Landis remains as the ruling head of the game.

The letter characterizes Judge Landis as a "buffoon," who, by his action as arbiter in the local building trades dispute, threw thousands of men out of work. The labor men themselves chose Landis to settle the case. Then they refused to abide by his decision.

The first appeal was sent out at the opening of the season. Labor union clubs here had visions of dwindling attendance at the parks, but reports so far indicate that the crowds have been even larger than previous seasons.

Emmett T. Flood, an official of the council, says the appeal will reach 2,500,000 union workers. "As soon as the central bodies of the major league cities receive our letter they have instructions to copy it and send it to all affiliated locals. This move is bound to be felt at the gates of the ball parks," said Flood.

CRIME TO PRISON IN 9 HOURS PLANNED

To Make Speed Records—
Malefactors Who Plead
Guilty After Swift Indictment
May Get Lunch in Sing Sing.

(New York Times.)

A man who commits a burglary, hold-up or other crime of violence any morning before sunrise may be in Sing Sing before sunset on the same day, according to an arrangement for the swift handling of criminals which was put into effect at police headquarters last night at the request of District Attorney Job H. Banton.

Under this arrangement a detective who arrests a hold-up man or murderer will not wait for a hearing at the magistrate's court, but will go at once with his prisoners and witnesses to the district attorney's office, where the case will be placed before the grand jury at once. In such cases immediate indictments have been returned recently, followed by speedy court action, especially when defendants plead guilty. A burglar caught in the act at three a. m. might easily be at Sing Sing in time for lunch at noon on the same day, under this arrangement, or within nine hours.

Although criminal cases have been handled with unprecedented swiftness in the last three weeks, it has usually required a week or ten days between the commission of the crime and action at the district attorney's office. This will now be cut down to a few hours.

Detectives Get Instructions.
Inspector John Coughlin, in charge of the Detective Bureau, issued orders yesterday that all detectives who had made arrests on Saturday or Sunday or who should make arrests early Monday morning should appear at the district attorney's office with prisoners, witnesses and evidence in the course of the morning.

A number of prisoners are already on hand to test the new high-speed arrangement, which is expected to make New York justice in the handling of major criminal cases a little swifter than the traditional Jersey justice.

"We have nearly caught up to the criminals," District Attorney Banton said yesterday, "and it is now possible to effect another saving of time in handling crimes of violence."

Hilbert the procedure has been to take such criminals before a magistrate, where frequently there have been delays, so that it often required ten days or longer before the evidence could be submitted to the grand jury. Now cases of this kind will be put before the grand jury at once. We intend to give burglary, robbery and other crimes involving violence and danger to life and limb the right of way over all other cases, so that such cases may be considered by the grand jury without loss of time.

The procedure will be that the detectives will take their prisoners and witnesses to the regular staff of the indictment bureau, who will review the evidence, and if they find it sufficient will draw the indictment and place the case before the grand jury.

"Recently indictments in such cases have only required twenty or twenty-five minutes on the average," the indictment man said. "If the grand jury would be possible for him to be taken into court at once."

"In the case of a man who pleads guilty, it might be that he would be in Sing Sing before the close of the day on which he was arrested. If he decided to fight the case he would be entitled to forty-eight hours before trial, so that the man need not be in Sing Sing for more than three days after his arrest."

Until the acceleration of methods in the courts took place recently it had been a common thing for burglars, robbers and others guilty of desperate crimes to get free on bail and go forth committing other crimes for two years or more before being brought to trial.

Mr. Banton said that while criminals suddenly had become inactive when the courts became extraordinarily active, he had noticed a "flare-up" of crime in the last few days, which showed that extreme vigilance on the part of the police department, the district attorney's office and the courts must continue.

Thinks Crime Board Unnecessary.
Mr. Banton said he doubted the value of the proposal of the Chamber of Commerce of the State of New York for the creation of a citizen commission representing all civic organizations and permanently studying and scrutinizing the work of the police, prosecutors and courts.

"I don't think that it is needed in New York," said the district attorney. "I have no objection to it, but I don't think we need it here. We have seen what can be accomplished when public sentiment is aroused in this city, and it is necessary that that interest on the part of the community in the administration of justice should continue. This should be kept up by the agencies which now exist, and our organizations and churches and especially our newspapers, which have done splendid work in arousing public sentiment in this matter."

"The trouble often with new organizations of the kind which is proposed is that they frequently lose the real purpose for which they were formed, enter into politics and try to become a super-agency for the control of government."

TAILOR THRASHES WOULDFUL ROBBER

Wrests Pistol from Hold-up
Man and His Two Confederates
Flee.

Daniel Enison, 55 years old, was pressing clothes in his tailoring establishment at 220 West Twenty-fourth street, New York, the other night when a man, who later said he was Charles Gambie, 20 years old, of 4th Oak street, San Francisco, entered.

"Good evening," was the tailor's greeting. "What can I do for you?" "You can throw up your hands and let me see your hands," said the man, who then pulled a pistol from his coat pocket and held it at Enison's head.

Enison later told the police that just as he noticed two men peering through a door from the sidewalk and succeeded that they were confederates of the hold-up man. He obeyed the man's command, but told the youth that there was no need for a pistol display, as the robber was welcome to anything of value he cared to take.

This statement assured the robber that he would meet with no resistance, and he lowered his pistol a foot or more as Enison started toward him. When within two feet of the visitor, however, the tailor suddenly brought both hands down on the robber's arms and threw him to the floor.

Then the men rolled up and down. Enison trying all the time to get hold of the weapon. Eventually he managed to knock it out of the robber's hand, and despite his age, administered a good drubbing to the fellow.

Two girls who were passing heard the tailor's cries for help while the struggle was in progress. They hurried around to Policeman Krahn, who was regulating traffic at Seventh avenue and Twenty-third street. The policeman jumped onto an automobile and got to the tailor's shop to find Enison holding down his captive with his foot on his neck.

Krahn arrested and examining the pistol, found it was empty.

At the West Thirtieth street station Gamble said that he arrived a few days ago and admitted that the two men that the tailor saw in front of his place were confederates who were to go to his assistance in the event the tailor put up a fight. They ran away, however, at the beginning of the fight, Gamble was locked up on charges of robbery and carrying a pistol.

NOTE RAISING FOR BOLSHIEVIKI

Detroit Counterfeiters, Evidence Shows, Sent a Large Part of Profits to Russia—Apparatus Found in Raid.

Detroit, May 10.—United States secret service agents are satisfied that in the arrest here Saturday of seven Russians they have broken up a gang of counterfeiters that in the last eleven months has flooded the country with hundreds of thousands of dollars in raised bills. A large part of the profits is thought to have been sent to Russia to help defray the cost of Bolshievist propaganda.

Tony Kulick, who fought and reached for a gun when arrested, had 310 Federal Reserve bills which had been cleverly raised from $5 to $20, the secret service men said. They also asserted that two of the others had $1,000 in Canadian bank notes and that a complete outfit for raising the bills was found in the home of another, which they raided.

Nearly a year ago Joseph A. Palma, local chief of the secret service, was informed that the headquarters of the gang was believed to be in Detroit. Complaints that raised $5 bills were being passed had been coming in constantly from Chicago, Boston, Cleveland, Buffalo, Hammond, Ind., and Detroit, as well as other places in Michigan.

The bills were raised so skillfully that they almost baffled detection. Seventeen persons had been arrested in various parts of the country for passing them, but in every instance they accepted prison sentences rather than reveal the source of the bad money. Four months ago Palma received information that led him definitely to suspect some of the men arrested Saturday. They were shadowed for weeks and the identity of their associates was learned.

The secret service men discovered, they say, that Kupunick, one of the prisoners, received a supply of five-dollar Federal Reserve notes recently from Romnick, a restaurant keeper, also a prisoner. Two of Palma's men went to Romnick's place every day for lunch. They paid for their meals with $5 Federal Reserve bills which they had previously marked. Soon afterward these same bills, which in the meantime had been raised to $20, started to come in from victims who had accepted them.

Saturday Palma sent six men to Kulick's house. Kulick was reported to have boasted that he would never be taken alive. He was overpowered after a brief struggle. Meanwhile another group of operatives, reinforced by police, descended on Kupunick's house. They say that in addition to the bill raising outfit, they found thirty five-dollar bills whose denomination had just been increased to $20. It is alleged that Kupunick would turn over large quantities of raised bills to Kulick, who, in turn, would pass them out to other confederates.

A brother of Kulick in Russia, it is alleged, has been the recipient of the money sent there for propaganda purposes. Palma said several recent bank money order receipts for $200 each drawn in favor of this brother, were found on the prisoners.

Some of the prisoners are said to have told the operatives that their primary motive was to keep their political friends in Russia supplied with funds. They also said they desired to injure the United States government that the government would have to reimburse their victims.

THOUSANDS OF SANE LOCKED UP, HE SAYS

Former Justice Hoffman Declares the Temporarily De-ranged Often are Railroaded and Go Mad in Asylums.

Former Municipal Court Justice Herman Hoffman, of New York, who has taken an active interest in conditions confronting the feeble-minded since retiring from the bench, charged the other day that countless numbers of persons only temporarily deranged are being railroaded into insane asylums, where they become in a short time incurably insane. His contention was recorded by Public Welfare Commissioner Bird S. Cole, who decided that ever since he took public office he had waged a fight against this condition. He hoped, he said, that the state would see fit to establish an institution which might care for and attempt to cure those temporarily insane.

"Any one," said Commissioner Cole, "can be railroaded into an asylum. Up-State a Justice of the Peace, who may be a blacksmith by trade, can commit a person to an asylum if a couple of doctors, who may have had little experience, claim a person is deranged."

"There is no institution in this country that has for its object the taking care of men, women and children who are for the moment deranged in mind," said Mr. Hoffman. "I don't mean institutions for the crazy; we have all the insane asylums we need in this country. And they never been more full, despite the fact that we were told prohibition would prevent insanity."

"It has come to my knowledge that there are hundreds of thousands of persons labeled 'insane,' occupying dens and dungeons behind asylum bars, dying of insanity, who were never insane to begin with. Before leaving he threatened to have her placed in an asylum if she said anything about him. She was afraid, because he told her he had political influence and could get a doctor to say she was crazy."

A week later, Mr. Hoffman said, the girl was in the Kings County Hospital psychopathic ward, her former attraction gone, and now a physical wreck. Before commitment, he said, she was aggravated and disgusted. When he next saw her she was strutting up and down the corridors a "raving maniac."

Mr. Hoffman said the first hospital to attempt to cure the temporarily insane
