MONEY WANTED

Not to pay our trade liabilities, because we have none—but in order that we might be enabled to continue our policy of paying for all goods the day they are received. Our Christmas goods are coming in, stocks in every department are far heavier than they should be and the unloading must take place at once. This store buys for cash and sells for cash. Its prices are always below the average, yet with these reductions the savings will be considerable. Look for bargains throughout the whole store.

URGENT GENERAL ELECTION IN GREAT BRITAIN

(Canadian Press Despatch.) London, Nov. 1.—The principal editorials in the leading newspapers discuss the possibility of a general election. When the coal strike was first looming up, the common speculation was that Premier Lloyd George would make a dramatic appeal to the country, staking renewal of office on whether the parliament, or the trades unions should hold the reins of government. This talk died down with the possibility of a settlement of the dispute. The present newspaper discussion started yesterday in the Sunday Observer, which is by no means unfriendly to the government, and now urges the premier to call a general election in the spring. The Times editorial on the subject is mainly devoted to declaring its own impartiality of public matters which some of tonight's critics assume is meant as a sort of defense of its old-time hostility to the prime minister. The anti-Coalitionist Star proposes of the election that even if it gave a coalitionist majority, it would also give a larger preponderance to the Unionist section of the coalition than they now hold, "and Premier Lloyd George would have to appear openly as what he is now secretly, namely, the agent of the Tory Party."

SHOOTING AND REPRISALS ARE CONTINUING

(Canadian Press Despatch.) Dublin, Nov. 1.—Reports of shooting and reprisals over the week-end continue to be received here from various parts of the country. District Inspector of Police Killighey was shot and killed last night at Granard. At Tullamore a police sergeant was mortally wounded by an unknown man and died. Two constables were shot dead at Killorglin last night. A police patrol was attacked in Abbey Dorney, a constable being killed and two others wounded. A constable was also wounded at Causeway. Armed civilians captured and destroyed the Littleton police barracks, yesterday, taking all the arms and ammunition. In Tralee a naval driver was wounded and reprisals followed, the city hall and a shop being burned.

DENY RUMOR. Montreal, Nov. 1.—Denial is given today to the rumor circulated over the week-end that the clothing factories of Montreal are to close down in a body unless the workers accepted a twenty per cent. reduction in wages.

DR. GRENFELL FUND. Quebec, Nov. 2.—In a campaign started here to raise subscriptions for Dr. Grenfell's endowment fund in connection with hospital work in Labrador a sum of $2,266 has been raised so far.

NEAT HORSE RACE AND IRENE CASTLE

Imperial's Show Wonderfully Entertaining With Man O' War—Sir Barton Event and Society Play.

Probably no sporting motion picture ever brought to St. John has created so much surprise and enthusiasm as the horse race between "Man O' War" and "Sir Barton" shown at the Imperial yesterday and which will be concluded today. Most people know that this race took place over two weeks ago in Windsor (Ont.), on the famous track of the Kenilworth Club and that the race for this top-notch event was 5,000 and a gold cup costing $5,000. The event was a classic—record breaking in speed, the horses running the mile and quarter in 2:03, and possibly the most spectacular and wonderful event of its kind ever held on this continent. The picture at the Imperial shows the horses before and after the race and the picture of the struggle itself is a triumph in movie-making. The picture being shown much better than any person could see it with the naked eye on the spot, as the telescopes of the camera were swivelled round and round after the horses. The photography was faultless, the details absolutely complete. It was a picture no lover of clean sport and especially of the horseflesh should miss. Irene Castle, internationally famous dancer and motion picture star, was also seen for the first time as a Famous Player-Lasky star in an adaptation of Robert W. Chambers' popular novel, "The Firing Line," in the Imperial's bill. Mrs. Castle recently returned from England where for seven months she worked in American and British hospitals. During her stay in England she appeared by command before the King and Queen on one occasion and on

"MOW YOUR OWN" CLUB TO FIGHT $1 HAIR CUTS

Chicago, Nov. 2.—The "Mow Your Own" Club has been organized here to fight $1 hair cuts. Application blanks for membership were circulated. The club came into existence when barbers announced that after January 1 they will boost the cost of hair cuts from 60 cents to $1. Sponsors of the club still remember the days when a hair cut cost 25 cents. They watched the price climb to 60 cents, but beyond that they say they will not go. They say self-inflicted hair cuts will be as common pretty soon as safety razors. What if a fellow does clip off an ear now and then, it will only be a part of the protest.

GOOD OPENING AT QUEEN SQUARE

Mae Edwards Players in "Just Mickey," With Vaudeville and Jazz Orchestra.

Last night the Mae Edwards players opened an engagement at the Queen Theatre presenting the three act comedy drama, "Just Mickey." Miss Mae Edwards in the title role, that of an illiterate street gaining won her way straight to the hearts of her audience. She is bright, vivacious and pretty, and should prove one of the most popular leading women St. John has seen in a long time. Last night she proved herself an actress of exceptional ability. Jack Werner Corbin, in the principal supporting role was all that could be desired. His work shows finish and careful study, and patrons hope to see him later in a part of wider scope. The rest of the cast gave excellent support, special mention going to Harry Stuart in the part of "Daddy Putnam," and to Chas. T. Smith, who gave a rendition of a plain clothes man that was pleasingly different from the cut and dried type. A special feature of the evening was an eight piece jazz orchestra which kept things going every moment. Their music is genuine "jazz" and the audience liked it.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

Premier Lloyd George in the House of Commons yesterday said that a two-minute silence would be observed on Armistice Day, Nov. 11, in memory of the great dead. The observance will be as general as possible throughout the United Kingdom and the Empire.

Eight persons were killed in local clashes in the provinces of Cuba during the general elections yesterday. The followers of Gomez started a demonstration in Havana after the electoral board had closed its office without any returns having been received. The results of the election are in doubt.

Rev. F. Clarke Hartley, pastor of the First Baptist Church, at Truro, and Mrs. Hartley, received a pleasing address and purse from the congregation on Friday evening, on the eve of their departure for Holiston, Me., where he has accepted the pastorate.

HAPPY RE-UNION

A reunion of relatives and friends was held last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Townsend of Milford when Mr. and Mrs. Charles Armstrong of Butte, Montana, were guests of honor. They formerly resided in Fairville and were thus given an opportunity of renewing old acquaintances. On behalf of those present Frank W. Merrill presented to Mr. Armstrong an address and to Mrs. Armstrong a case of silver. During the evening impromptu games were played. Those participating in the programme were Miss Lena Ryan, Thatcher Townsend, Jack Stephenson and Harry Strout. Refreshments were served and the gathering broke up after singing the national anthem.

At the inquest held last evening by Coroner H. A. Porter to enquire into the death of Frederick Fisher, who was killed by a freight engine last Friday at Lawlor's Lake, the evidence of Jas. W. A. Bower was taken and the inquest postponed until next Thursday evening. The jury empanelled were William J. Knox, foreman; Isaac Mercer, Albert W. Covey, Frederick Bryden, J. A. Smyth, Kierstead, William Armstrong and David J. Stockford.

Does Anyone ever get "too much" Sleep

THE energy you can afford to spend today is just what you stored up last night in sleep—and no more.

What you need for deep, sound, restful sleep is a quiet, steady bed—a bed, spring, mattress and pillow that invite every nerve and muscle to relax.

THE Simmons Metal Bed is noiseless.

Just as the sleep-inducing Spring is a Simmons "Waldorf," of specially tempered spring coils. Fine Springs that fit the contour of the body and support the spine in a straight line, insuring perfect circulation and restoring the energy used up in the fatigue of the day.

Simmons Felt Mattresses are the result of twenty-five years' study of equipment for sound, natural sleep. Made of pure, new cotton in clean, sun-lit factories. Used in thousands of fastidious Canadian homes.

And Simmons Pillows, which rest the head and neck exactly as they need to be rested.

Simmons Limited is specializing in Twin Beds. One sleeper does not disturb the other or communicate colds and other infections.

Simmons Steel Beds, Brass Beds, Springs, Mattresses, Pillows and Children's Cribs are the most popular sleeping equipment in Canada today—in the stores of leading merchants right here in town, at prices little if any higher than for the ordinary.

And when you are selecting your Simmons Beds with an eye to their appearance in the room, you will see that Simmons has for the first time established beautiful and authoritative design in Metal Beds.

Sleep is a big subject! Write us for the booklet, "What Leading Medical Journals and Health Magazines Say about Separate Beds and Sound Sleep." Free of charge.

DILUTED HIS MILK.

Two Gallons of Water in Each Eight-Gallon Can.
Toronto, Nov. 2.—Every eight-gallon can of milk in three shipments from the farm of Fred Pearson, of Milliken, Ont., to a Toronto milk dealer, all of which had been seized by the Toronto Department of Health, was found to contain two gallons of water, according to evidence given at the police court. The farmer contended that he had not put a spoonful of water in the milk, and that the milk must have been watered on the way to this city, but the Health Department produced evidence to show that the cans had been sealed before being taken off the farm and were seized before being opened here. The farmer was fined $80 and costs.

GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER.

Woman Threw Acid in Husband's Face to Spoil Looks.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 2.—Mrs. Alexandra Sokolowsky, indicted for murder of her husband, Frank, by throwing acid in his face while he slept, on June 25, pleaded guilty to manslaughter, and was sentenced to state prison for seven to ten years.

Sokolowsky was a labor leader employed by the Connecticut Federation of Labor, was a linguist and a man of many accomplishments. He is said to have had an adventurous career in Russia. Mrs. Sokolowsky said, after her arrest, in New York, that she threw the acid "to spoil Frank's good looks," after finding in his pocket a letter from another woman. Her defence was looked after by Russian organizations. The exact story of her husband's career has never been divulged.

SCOTLAND AND DRINK.

Today in Scotland the balloting begins which will decide whether the country will go partially dry or continue the liquor traffic as at present. It is not a question of out and out prohibition, but of restriction, and that restriction may be very serious if one of the three choices is made by the people. The balloting will not be finished till the middle of December. The voters have three choices—namely, one, no change; two, reduction of licenses by one quarter; and, three, no licenses except for inns, restaurants and hotels in special circumstances, and for clubs and wholesale dealers. If the saloons are closed it will be a great gain for temperance. For example, there are said to be 1,614 bars and shop licenses in the city of Glasgow alone, or one to every 690 of the population. A reduction of 25 per cent in the number would still leave enough one would think, but the liquor interests are fighting with all their power to prevent any reduction at all, although many bars are concentrated in districts where, according to the Manchester Guardian, poverty flourishes by the side. Both sides express confidence in the result of the voting. If the drys should win it would be a long step toward complete prohibition in a country that has had an enormous export trade in liquor, and it would have a profound influence in England. In Canada, to which so much liquor is still sent from Scotland, the struggle will be watched with keen interest, and every prohibitionist in this country will wish that the cause may win and the third choice be made by the electors. In Canada the voice of the people has spoken in Nova Scotia and the prairie provinces; and there is no doubt as to what Ontario and New Brunswick will do. National prohibition cannot very long be deferred in the country, and the trend in America is a great inspiration to the friends of temperance in the Mother Country.

ROADS AND TOURISTS

Nearly twice as many American motorists came to Quebec province this year as came in 1919. Good roads were chiefly responsible for the influx and for the expenditure of many millions of dollars. The Montreal Gazette says: "To be exact, last year 18,102 American cars visited the province of Quebec. From the opening of the motor season this year to the first week in October 30,897 American cars have been recorded—bearing registration plates from over 28 states in the Union, and many more will come before the end of the season. The average number of cars per diem from across the border is 200. In 1919 the average number of American cars visiting this province was 19 per diem. This is truly a remarkable increase. A reasonable estimate of the amount of money brought into the province by way of actual traveling expenses for the past six months is over $8,000,000, excluding probably a similar amount expended in furs, jewellery, linens, etc., and other products which are sold for medical, artistic or industrial purposes. This large increase in traffic is well in keeping with the predictions of the Automobile Club of Canada made last year, and an officer of the club predicts at least 50,000 visitors for 1921. Quebec's improved highways are mainly responsible for this large amount of business." A Vancouver paper says that 20,000 motorists visited that city this year and spent a very large amount of money. In Montreal, according to the Gazette, the Tourist Bureau is "not only going to carry on next year on a much larger scale, but has under advisement a novel plan of extending a special welcome to each visitor, in the shape of a souvenir which carries with it special privileges during the sojourn in the city." The turn of the maritime provinces is coming. The more our roads are improved the greater will be the influx of tourists from the eastern states, and they will bring into the province a large amount of money.

The following resolution has been adopted by the Ontario Women's Liberal Association: "Whereas in the present practise of law women offenders are arrested by men, tried by men, before men; and whereas in many cases disastrous results follow which easily might have been abated by contact with women officials; therefore the standing committee of the Ontario Women's Liberal Association on equal moral standard is of the opinion that the ideals for which it stands would be more quickly attained if three agencies were more generally available, namely, the woman's court, women magistrates and police-women." Can there be any reasonable objection to this demand.

Montreal dealers in butter want that article released from government control in England, so that they can get a higher price in that market. The price in Canada is certainly high enough. Some Manitoba farmers did not fill their income tax papers, and are now invited to pay a fine. There will be very little sympathy for them on the part of a citizen who did fill out the document.

THE READJUSTMENT.

It is said that clothing manufacturers in Montreal are doing little at present, and that there is about sixty per cent of unemployment among the workers. The employees of one Montreal shoe factory have agreed to a thirty hour week till the first of the year and a five per cent cut in wages, the alternative being idleness. One Fredericton footwear factory is down for a short period. These are indications of a slowing down of industry due to a lack of demand for which high prices are responsible. In Toronto warning is being sent out to persons seeking work that they are not likely to find it in that city, and would do better to take what they can get elsewhere. If prices were lower the industries would be more active, as there would be a better demand for goods. At present consumers are holding off. A similar state of affairs exists in the United States. Of conditions there the Guaranty Trust Company of New York says: "With price recessions continuing in the acceptance of orders by manufacturers and in the wholesale markets, the public is giving much attention to the question of when these reductions will be passed on to retail purchasers. A common reflection is that the retail merchants and the consumer have settled down to an endurance contest, with conditions in the wholesale markets, on the one hand, and with respect to the mild weather, favoring the consumer. Merchants on the other hand are continuing to buy only for their immediate needs, except in the case of holiday goods, which their purchases are reported to be liberal. While orders in general are fewer, collections are said to be better. The decline in raw materials and manufacturers is still broadening, but buyers are holding aloof." The whole industrial and commercial situation indicates a quiet winter, with gradual readjustment, and an improvement in the value of the dollar in terms of what it will buy.

Deserted wives with children may soon benefit from mothers' allowances in the province of Ontario. A London, Ont., despatch says: "Major T. J. Murphy, who is chairman of the local Mothers' Pensions Board, states that from all parts of western Ontario are coming appeals for allowances for mothers who have been deserted by their husbands. Major Murphy says that all the facts are being obtained, with the intention of securing an amendment to the act which will permit of such mothers receiving aid, to which they appear well entitled."

The British Columbia Provincial election, set for December 1, promises, says The Victoria Colonist, to be one of more than usual interest in view of the result of the recent plebiscite on the prohibition question, since the main issue will be on the method whereby the people's wishes can be put into effect to the general advantage.

The Standard is grieved at the spectacle of Hon. Mackenzie King seeking to gather under his leadership all and sundry who are opposed to the Meighen government. This is a grave warning to Leader Baxter, who will trifle with farmers or labor members at the risk of falling under the displeasure of the Standard.

Toronto Globe—"The Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia says that a wet British Columbia will stimulate the emigration of the 'better class' from England to the province. Opinions will differ as to whether or not the class that requires an alcoholic stimulus should be described as 'better.'"

What St. John needs in regard to harbor improvement is to get the federal government to carry out its agreement regarding the west side, and to provide terminals for its own steamships and railways on the east side. All other action should be subordinated to that urgent need.

No man awaits the result of today's elections in the United States with keener personal interest than the sick man in the White House. He gave all he had to give for an ideal, and as yet the nation has not given the response which that ideal merits. The friends he made in St. John last summer will congratulate Sir Campbell Stuart on his appointment as managing director of the London Times. He is a young man to be called to a position so important. The Turks continue to massacre Armenians. Had the United States done its duty in regard to the League of Nations that whole eastern problem would have been far nearer a solution than it is at present. The destruction of a part of the Boys' Industrial Home paves the way for a new and really worthy institution. Why not embrace the opportunity? Purchased a Mill. Hay Brothers, prominent lumbermen, have sold their big saw mill at Millville to the Hartland Lumber Company. The sale also included lumber lands, dwelling houses and six farms.

THE DRIVE IDEA
All our lives will be more sunny, and we'll chirp a gladder song when they quit the "drives" for money, which have bothered us too long. All such schemes were gladly pardoned when the Kaiser danced his jig, and the heart was cold and hardened that neglected to up-dig. I am always prompt and willing to help out a worthy cause, but I will not place a shilling in the drivemaster's eager paws. For I'm sick of people telling me what I ought to give and where, tired of always digging, shelling, for some scheme that makes me swear. I will give to help the living and I'll give to plant the dead, but I won't be bossed in giving, and I won't be chased or led. In the war time drives were splendid, and they helped to cut our foes, but the war is ended, and the people need repose. Do not bother friends or neighbors with requests for honest dimes; leave them to their quiet labors, as we did in olden times. Do not think up worthy causes that require financial aid, for we've all been Santa Clauses till our nerves are tired and frayed.

CANADA—EAST AND WEST

Dominion Happenings of Other Days

WHERE THE LOYALISTS SLEEP.

In the heart of the city of St. John, surrounded by the noise and bustle of the biggest city in the Province of New Brunswick, sleeps a silent guard. These are the United Empire Loyalists, the men and women who loved Britain so much that after the war of independence when the United States broke away from the empire they abandoned all they possessed and founded new homes in the Canadian lands. The broad mouth of the St. John river attracted them and there they founded a colony now a city of 65,000 inhabitants. But death came to their faithful band; so a little cemetery was established behind the village. There it remained, yet, although no interments have taken place there for many years. The city has grown around it and surrounded it. The place of sleep has been converted into a park with nicely trimmed lawns and fine flower beds decorating the sloping sides of the square. In the midst are the ancient head stones and vaults that marked the sleeping places of some of the hero band. The oldest stone standing bears on its weathered face the date "1784" but there are several others only a few years later. Some of the markings have been entirely effaced with the passing of the years, while others are chipped and shattered by winds, rain, frost and snow for almost a century and a half. Others lie flat upon the ground and it is only by very close study that the visitor to the place can learn who rests beneath in his long sleep. In scores of cases, undoubtedly, all traces of graves and names have been lost. It is sacred ground now. Even when the crowd passing through the cemetery is greatest and when young people sit on the seats at night and laugh and talk of the things that are of moment to them, even at that time there is a sense of the honor due those who loved hardships and death in the wilderness, abandoning all they possessed, that they might be true to the empire of their birth.

SURVIVALS.

Cities lie buried beneath old centuries, and roads, once crowded, now are silent all. And, strolling mild life's vacant seats one sees How human glory wears Death's sable pall. And so we ask, beneath the quiet sky: "When the great tides go out, oh, what remains; In this big market where men sell and buy. When all is done, what are their real gains?" We walk where Empires leave but a stray mound. We stand where ages since war's shock was heard. We listen to Fame's fast-retreating sound. And by those awful silences are stirred— While nought is seen all human wrecks above, Save what was wrought at the behest of Love. —Alexander Louis Fraser.

Not a Gift.

Dyspepsia Specialist (irritably): "But madam, you must chew your food. What were your teeth given for?" Female Patient (calmly): "They weren't given to me—I bought 'em."

Some Relief.

First Listener: "Isn't Miss Squaw's top note soothing?" Second Ditto: "Oh, isn't it? When you hear that you feel you have passed the worst."

None the Less Tough.

"We won't discharge you, Mr. Perkins," said the manager. "We will allow you to tender your resignation." "Tendering it won't make it any the less tough," gloomily returned Perkins.

Liked It.

He: "How fearfully and wonderfully we are made! Think even of my arms, what a mystery they are!" She: "Yes, but it's nice to be enveloped in mystery."

MOVIES MAY BE CHOWN

IN ST. PAUL'S, LONDON
London, Nov. 2.—(United Press.)—Officials are seriously discussing the propriety of allowing St. Paul's Cathedral, next to Westminster Abbey, the most famous church in the British Empire, to be used as a motion picture theatre.

The more advanced church officials proffer the suggestion, "The Life of St. Agnes" was suggested as the first film. So far no decision has been reached, but it is not thought that the cathedral will be used as a picture theatre without a spirited fight between the dignitaries of the church.

started last week that the shortage in Ontario is about 9,000. The various reasons given for these serious facts, which are probably repeated in the other provinces, are the scarcity of suitable boarding houses, or houses to rent, the unbusinesslike methods of school boards, the many opportunities in other vocations and similar causes. Simmered down, the underlying cause is money, or the lack of it. Trustees and rate-payers should realize that they must cooperate to make the life of a teacher worth living if they wish to have their children properly educated by qualified teachers.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—It costs $1,000 to produce a proficient telephone girl in New York. This was the statement of William D. Banks, chief counsel for the Chicago Telephone Company, in his closing argument at the valuation hearing before the State Public Utilities Commission.

The company's attorney talked of "going values" which are part of the valuation of $97,002,056, placed by the commission on property that cost it $68,977,000. Among the items of "going values" there is one of $9,000,000, being the estimated cost of training 8,000 telephone operators of the Chicago district.

November Sale of Girls' Silk and Party Frock

JUST at a time when the question of a pretty frock for dress-up affairs—for the growing miss can be delayed no longer—comes the welcome news of this November Sale.

There are dozens of lively frocks to choose from. Sizes range from 2 to 13 years, and all are marked at such big reductions as will make your immediate attention worth your while. A sale of this kind is seldom offered in this city, and thrifty mothers will be quick to realize the importance of this event.

The list below will give you some little idea of what you may expect to find:

Girls' Dresses in Silk, Crepe-de-chine, Poplin, Satin, Pongee, etc., are fashioned in pretty straight line effects, or with full or pleated skirts. Some of these have new colored wool embroidery trimmings; some are fashioned with tiny frills; then there are models with smart pointed peplums, colored stitchings, panels, Empire waists, pleated skirts, and other girlish and popular style ideas. Colors are navy, sand, rose, tan, brown, Copen, king blue, and pretty plaids.

Poplins, $4.40; Taffetas, $7.70, $8.80, $9.90 up to $23.65; Pongees, $5.50 to $10.80; Satin, $13.20; Crepe-de-chines, $16.50.

Party Frocks

- Any girl would like to have one of these pretty dresses, fashioned in charming styles, in white or pale colors. The prices are remarkably low. Among others are:
 - White Wash Satin Frocks, made with surplice front and tucked skirt; 6 and 12 year sizes $7.68
 - Crepe-de-chine Bolero Dresses, in white, prettily lace trimmed; 8, 10, 12 and 14 year sizes $17.55
 - Pink and White Crepe-de-chine Dresses, trimmed with narrow frills; 6, 8, 10 and 12 year sizes $15.40
 - Regular Evening Frock for girl of 13 years. This is fashioned of pink satin with very short net sleeves, and pink shoulder straps. Trimmed with wide cream lace. $19.80
- (Sale Commences Wednesday Morning in Children's Shop—Second Floor.)

- Net Frocks for tots 4 and 6 years. Trimmed with soft sashes and rows of colored baby ribbon. Silk slips included. $5.50 and $9.35
- Two only Crepe-de-chine dresses in white and sky. Trimmed with ribbons and rosettes; 2 and 4 year sizes. Only $5.50 each
- White and Pink Georgette Frocks, made with long panels, soft satin sashes and trimmings of colored stitching and French knots; 12 and 13 year sizes. $15.40
- Cream Pongee Frocks in 8, 10 and 12 year sizes. Skirts are knife pleated. $7.68
- White and Sky Pongee Frocks; also Rose and White Crepe-de-chines; 19 and 12 year sizes $10.87 each

GETS INJUNCTION AGAINST MEETING

Toronto, Nov. 2.—Justice Logie at Osgoode Hall yesterday gave an injunction to the Black Lake Asbestos and Chrome Co., Ltd., restraining J. L. Perron, W. G. Ross, Wm. McMaster, J. A. Jacobs and the Bankers Trust Co., from calling a meeting until the trial of the issue between the parties.

It is said the special action board of directors for the balance of the year 1920, and to protest against action in cancelling of $250,000. Perron, Ross, McMaster, Jacobs and the Bankers Trust Co., say that they own 74 per cent of the stock and made an investment of $500,000.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT FROM MRS. JOHN

A letter of acknowledgement of kindness and assistance has been received by the Brunswick Chapter of the I. O. O. F., from Mrs. William Ambrose John, widow of an Englishman who shot himself in St. John some time ago. The chapter opened a fund for the funeral expenses and also as a means of assistance to his wife and child. A meeting was held yesterday at the residence of Mrs. E. Cairns, West St. John, with the vice-regent, Mrs. Hetherington, in the chair. The sum of $50 was voted to the Navy League and $50 to the Last-We-Forget fund.

NEW DAM IN HOLLAND.

Wierengen, Holland, Oct. 15. (A. P. Correspondence)—The former German crown prince now has a rival attraction on this little island, the great Zuyder Zee dam which is to reclaim thousands of acres from the sea. Construction work has actually begun, with headquarters here.

MAYFLOWERS IN BLOOM.

Chatham World: S. A. Watters, of the Dominion Pulp Co.'s staff brought home a bunch of Mayflowers yesterday, picked near the mill. The flowers were in all the glory of their spring time pink and white loveliness.

SOME KANSAS FARMERS HOLD BACK WHEAT

Topeka, Kansas, Nov. 2.—Farmers in the central and south central portions of the state continue to hold their wheat off the market until a better price can be obtained, according to the weekly report issued yesterday by the state board of agriculture.

TORONTO MYSTERY MAN HAD LARGE AMOUNT OF MONEY

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 2.—Ketz Bernhart was arrested in a rooming house at 133 York street, last week, by Detectives Sullivan and McArthur on the charge of carrying a loaded revolver. Bernhart for the present is a "mystery" man to the detectives. He refuses to talk, and would not say where he got the $2,000 in money found on him. He had $1,065 in United States bills, $50 in United States gold coins, some British pound notes and several hundred dollars in foreign money, including German marks.

Sullivan and McArthur were searching the rooming house for another man when they came in contact with Bernhart. He claims to be a Roumanian and came to Toronto from the United States a few days ago.

SARGENT—RAMSAY.

In St. John's Stone church, recently, Rev. G. A. Kubring united in marriage Miss Pearl E. Ramsay, daughter of the late William and Mary Ramsay, to Ernest M. Sargent, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Sargent of Campbellton. Miss Hattie A. Deesley and E. Richards of this city attended them. Mr. and Mrs. Sargent will reside in Moncton.

AT THE REGULAR MEETING OF THE BOARD OF TRADE HELD LAST NIGHT THE QUESTION OF HARBOR DEVELOPMENT WAS TAKEN UP AND AN INTERESTING ADDRESS WAS GIVEN ON THE COURTENAY BAY PROJECT BY A. R. DUFRESNE, THE RESIDENT ENGINEER IN CHARGE OF THAT WORK.

The speaker in referring to the work said that the excavation of the natural location for the deep water berth, a viaduct connecting East St. John with the city at Union street was also advocated but this would cost about $1,500,000 and more than 4,000,000 yards of material would be needed.

A vote of thanks was moved by J. H. White and extended to the speaker by President H. B. Emerson. Mayor Schofield said that he thought the board of trade should take up the Dufresne plan with other boards in the province for the development of Courtenay Bay. W. F. Burditt gave an interesting talk on the development of Toronto harbor. Mayor Schofield spoke of work at this port that was being considered by the C. N. R. board. Mayor Schofield also acknowledged an appreciation by R. B. Emerson of the paving work done in Prince William street.

When Ontario's Law Clerk Speaks the Dead Live Again

Mr. Allan M. Dymond Has Watched Legislators for Over Thirty Years.

TELLS RACY STORIES If He Would Only Write His Reminiscences, But Says He Never Will.

By F. G. G. FROM the quiet vantage point of the Law Clerk's office, Allan M. Dymond, for the past thirty years, has watched several generations of Ontario legislators come and go.

Living as he has done for years and years in the dry atmosphere of legal lore and political lawmaking, Mr. Dymond might be forgiven if he were to say that he has seen the best of books. But he has not. Endowed with a fine memory and a capacity for humor, he has collected a number of lighter side of Parliamentary life which he deems great play amusing.

He may have spent all day, and most of the night, too, wrestling with the drafting of an involved piece of legislation. He will take down a volume of "rooms" history. He will be finding rest and refreshment in the relaxation of beautiful lines in the story of the past. A poem of poetic fancy read the night before something to roll round the tongue on his work across the Park in the moonlight from his home to his office and something to repeat during the day when a break in the grind makes possible a moment's relaxation.

He finds time for devotion to his own province and General Dymond has given much thought to the cultivation of the spiritual and the unseen. But this is not so much an analysis of his make-up as a sketchy record of some of his memories and words.

His First Session WHEN I entered the employment of the Government of Ontario in November, 1887, the secretary of the Commission for the revision of the Statutes were engaged in making the index for the Revised Statutes of 1887 and preparing the usual tables tracing the disposition of the Act and parts of Acts consolidated.

A BISHOP'S WIT THE Rev. W. C. Money, in his new book, "Humors of a Parish," tells an amusing story concerning Bishop Thorold. He was (says the author) very fond of writing terse postcards. On one occasion a person in the diocese had some curtains for the sanctuary presented to him. He was very much pleased in his mind as to whether he should buy them or not, and like a goose, he wrote to the bishop about it.

ish dialects with which I was unfamiliar and I remember having great difficulty in understanding what was intended by their instructions about a "award sometimes wally in a municipality and some times wally in another municipality." Some of the honorable members' colleagues in the House may still recall their identity. Another member showed great signs of distress one day in trying to enlighten me as to "tuber-colousus in coos."

A Beautiful Character I HAD as my assistant Mr. Frank Joseph who had had long experience as Clerk of the Private Bills Committee. I should like here to pay some slight tribute to one of the most beautiful characters I have ever had the good fortune to know.

THE Prime Minister, King, who I received from Mr. Joseph the most loyal and zealous support. No one could have been kinder or more considerate. He did everything in his power to smooth my way and help me to make a success of work in the Legislative Library. The incoming Government refused to recognize this appointment and from that time until the year 1897 he has been acting as Clerk of Committees and had been engaged during the recess in either legal or literary work. He had hoped to succeed Mr. Cartwright as Law Clerk, and it must have been very galling to him to see a man only half his age and with whom, so far as opinions went, he might be supposed to have very little in common.

Another vicar wrote to him asking for leave of absence for three months to travel in the Holy Land. He came the postcard: "My dear Vicar, you may go to Jericho."

DR. CAMERON GIVES UP PROFESSORSHIP

Famous Toronto Surgeon Has Been an Outstanding Figure for Many Years.

By W. L. EDMONDS DR. IRVING HEWARD CAMERON, who has recently resigned the professorship of surgery and clinical surgery of the University of Toronto Medical Faculty and as member of the staff of the General, St. Michael's and the Sick Children's hospitals, has for many years been an outstanding figure in the medical profession.

When the middle-aged men of today were boys, Dr. Cameron was known as Toronto's leading surgeon. He was in his career, after a course in both London and Edinburgh, made a specialty of that branch of the medical profession.

Dr. Cameron has the manner of the old school, or rather of the English school. He prefers to be called Mr. Cameron, as surgeons are called in England, rather than Dr. Cameron, and while other professors on the staff of the Toronto Medical school have long since discarded the cap and gown during the delivering of lectures to classes, he has never departed from the traditional custom.

Dr. Cameron is a man of high cultural attainments as well as a skillful surgeon, and if there is one feature of his career as a professor which transcends all others it is the persistence with which he has striven to stimulate the students that come under his influence to aim at the possession of similar qualities of mind. In other words, his aim was to make the members of the medical profession cultured gentlemen as well as competent surgeons.

THE Half of Eight NOW, Tommy Smith," said the school teacher one morning "what is the half of eight?" "Which way, teacher?" asked the youngster cautiously. "Which way?" replied the astonished lady. "What do you mean?" "Well, on top of sideways, teacher?" said Tommy. "What difference does that make?" "What difference does that make?" the lady explained, with a pitying air, "half of the top of eight is eight, but half of it sideways is three."

THE boy stood on the burning deck Whence all but he had fled. "Oh, yes, 1911 and 1917 were different years, and it wouldn't be prudent to write the full story of either. You know dear old Andy Broder, of course? Well, Andy was Minister of Agriculture in my first Cabinet for

Former Member of Reichstag a French Presidential Elector

AN odd feature of the recent French Presidential election was the fact that Deputy Abbe Wetterle, who voted for M. Millerand, was, during the war, a member of the German Reichstag from one of the Alsatian districts. Upon the restoration of Alsace to France, Abbe Wetterle was elected to the French Chamber of Deputies. The photo shows, left to right: Minister of Labor LaFarge, Abbe Wetterle and Minister of Transportation Jourdain, talking things over during the voting at Versailles.

While, however, the patient was being put under an anesthetic, the relatives of the latter approached Dr. Cameron and asked if he was sure an operation was necessary. After hesitating a moment he candidly declared that he did not think it was necessary. The operation did not take place and the patient ultimately recovered.

Dr. Cameron has several degrees, including those of the University of Edinburgh, the University of London, and the University of Toronto. He has been president of the Canadian Medical Association, the University of Toronto Alumni Association, and of the Toronto Branch of the British Medical Association, and a councillor of the Toronto Academy of Medicine.

Being the eldest son of the late Chief Justice Sir Matthew Crooke Cameron, who was an outstanding figure in the political life of Canada, one might have thought that Dr. Cameron might have been tempted to take a dip into active politics himself. As a matter of fact he was once a member of the Conservative nomination for one of Toronto's constituencies in the House of Commons.

WHY GEN. CURRIE WENT TO M'GILL

In the First Place His Appointment Was Favored by Sir Auckland Geddes.

EVER since the appointment of General Sir Arthur Currie to the post of president of McGill University a great many people have wondered just why and how he came to be appointed. Joseph Lister, in Maclean's Magazine, says that after Sir Auckland Geddes, who was first appointed, had become British Ambassador at Washington he was asked by a representative of the McGill Board of Governors if he didn't think the war had produced someone for McGill. He mentioned General Currie Geddes thought it over for a moment. "That's the man for McGill," he said, and it is to be remembered that Geddes knew the university and its peculiar needs. "Yes," he said, "the more I think of it, the more confident I am that he is the right man."

General Currie, himself, has little to say with reference to his appointment. "I cannot say that I have thought of any policy in regard to the principal of McGill," he stated, in answer to an enquiry. "I mean I spend some time in studying the history of the university, and not only that but what it has stood for, and still stands for, not only in Montreal or in Canada, but in the Empire. Of course I know something of McGill, many of the boys over in France came from there, being in France passing a lot of the boys coming from the front line. I happened to stop beside a peculiar muddy and dishevelled private. He wasn't clean and he was evidently tired, but he was cheerful. "Well, how're things going?" I asked him. "Fine, sir, fine," he replied. "Then came the non-sensical question, 'What were you doing before you came out here?' " "Well, sir," he replied, "I'm glad to be a lecturer at McGill University."

He had evidently seen through my little ruse, and acted accordingly. It served me right.

One bitterly cold day the winter before last (he says) I was walking hurriedly down the almost deserted Bois de Boulogne, the collar of my overcoat turned up about my ears, my head bent down against the stinging blast. I wanted to know the time, but I was unwilling to unbutton my overcoat in order to get at my watch. If only I saw a man of well-dressed appearance coming along. I perceived that as was buttoned up just as I was. Nevertheless, such is the selfishness of human nature, when he arrived opposite to me I touched my hat politely and said: "Sir, do you know what time it is?" The stranger paused, removed his right glove, unbuttoned his coat from top to bottom, unbuttoned his undercoat, and finally pulled out his watch, while the cold wind beat against his face. Holding up the timepiece he scrutinized it an instant, and said: "Yes! Then he passed on without another word."

little indication of a growth of a national spirit. "I took my position with the Canadian Army in Canada, thinking that I could bring into use some of the things I had learned overseas. But I found out that I was hedged around by limitations, set by people who saw all military organization a growing menace. With the circumscribed conditions prevailing it took little persuasion to make me leave the military life, though I have learned to love it. But it seemed to me that perhaps in McGill there might be a real opportunity for me to work out some of my ideas that would help to develop a more sane and wholesome ideal of nationhood. I might get a vision of citizenship, where I might be in a measure instrumental in turning out good citizens with an appreciation of what good citizenship means."

"I do not believe that a university is merely a factory for turning out doctors and lawyers, and engineers and teachers. I want to see it a great seat of learning where students could not only come to get their certificates, but where they could get a vision of citizenship, where they could learn to better serve their fellow-men, where they can develop high character, good morals, and sound heads as well as intellects. It is only the milestones on the road to a better type of citizenship."

NEW ELECTRIC SYSTEM FOR ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH

City Electrician's Report for October—Wiring of the Nurses' Home Started.

On the order of the city electrician a complete re-wiring of St. Andrew's church will be commenced immediately. It was reported on inspection that the wiring, which had been installed some years ago, was not in safe condition and the approved system was ordered to replace it. The wiring in connection with the new nurses' home was commenced yesterday.

In his report for October, the city electrician reported that 115 permits had been issued, 175 inspections made and the work on 109 permits completed.

NO CHANGE TODAY RE LICENSES

Inspector Wilson Expected Here Tonight—Report of Prescriptions Not Filled.

The liquor license situation in the province is still very much in the air today and according to reports current this morning both the wholesale vendors whose licenses expired the end of last month, and with one possible exception, all the retail vendors have closed the lid down tight and are not taking any chances.

Premier Foster, when asked if he would like to say anything on the matter this morning, replied that there was very little he could say. The whole question was in the hands of Rev. W. D. Wilson, the chief inspector, who is expected home from Nova Scotia on the late train tonight. He said that the licenses were issued by the government on recommendation of the chief inspector, but so far no recommendations have been received.

A local citizen, whose wife is dangerously ill obtained a prescription for stimulant from one of the St. John doctors yesterday and was unable to get it filled. On reference to the office of the chief inspector here he was informed that nothing could be done as Mr. Wilson was out of town. Another man with a sick child in his family reported himself in the same situation. One of the men in question said that he would hold the chief inspector responsible.

AGAINST LUXURY TAX

Board of Trade Council Protest With Suggestion of Substitute.

At a meeting of the council of the board of trade last night it was decided to forward letters to the minister of finance, Sir Henry Drayton, and the minister of customs and inland revenue, R. W. Wignome, protesting against the continuance of the luxury tax and the consequent trouble and expense incurred by its operation and the reduction in the revenue because of its unpopularity. It has been suggested that a simple form of sales tax be substituted to be paid by the manufacturer or producer, with an extra tax on actual luxuries.

INDIVIDUALITY IN BED ROOMS MADE POSSIBLE BY SIMMON'S BEDS

Who does not want a distinctive Bedroom?
 There is a tendency in modern furnishing to make the sleeping chamber the most "individual" room in the house; an object easy of attainment when selections are made from such a stock as ours—in which beauty, originality and utility are so admirably combined.

The bedroom furniture we are now featuring express in their highest degree, quality of material and worthy workmanship. These are the principles upon which beauty of design and companionship in its association depend.

With this as a foundation, an adherence to a home furnishing scheme or ideal—wrought by refined taste and dependable judgment—will create an environment—harmonious and uplifting—and the inspiration of its beauty and charm will bear intimately upon the lives of those who live in it.

"Better furnished homes mean greater happiness."

The bride was becomingly attired in a navy blue traveling suit with hat to match and carried a prayer book. Mrs. Howard Gould attended the bride while Albert Wells supported the groom. Many beautiful presents were received, including cut glass and silver.

GEO. T. G. BLEWETT DIED THIS MORNING

Many friends will regret to hear of the death of George T. G. Blewett, of 10 High street, who died this morning at half past six o'clock in the general public hospital after an illness of about four months. He was sixty-six years of age and was for many years marine engineer. For the two years previous to his illness he was employed with McAvity & Sons. He is survived by his wife and two sons, William of Montreal and Edward of Vancouver. Arrangements for the funeral will be made on the arrival of William Blewett from Montreal tomorrow.

Mr. Blewett had been during his whole lifetime greatly interested in the work of the Temple of Honor and in the cause of temperance generally, paying particular attention to the work of the juniors. The amount of grain passing down the Lachine Canal in October showed a decrease of 2,461,192 bushels as compared with October 1919. The total last month was 2,182,700 bushels.

PRINCE ARTHUR ON BRITISH RULE

Quotes Professor Cramb in Farewell Speech as He Leaves for South Africa.

London, Nov. 2.—(By Mail, Canadian Associated Press)—Speaking at a farewell dinner on the eve of his leaving England as governor general of South Africa, Prince Arthur of Connaught said:

"It is not for me to say whether the idea of imperial unity is to be carried out along the lines of common interests as proposed by those who advocate trade preference, or whether by common duties and responsibilities as proposed by others. This question is fraught with tremendous difficulties, but the years 1914-1918 have at all events shown that the empire can present a solid front when its integrity and existence are threatened, and such an awful catastrophe were to occur again, I am convinced that South Africa would show the same indomitable spirit as in the past."

"I was asked to describe the general aim of the British rule during the last century; I should be inclined to give the answer in the words of Professor Cramb: 'To give all men within its bounds the high tolerance of religion which is the basis of our civilization; to spread that love of free institutions, and that pursuit of an even higher justice and a larger freedom which righteously we associate with the temper of our race, wherever it is dominant; and secure that this is the conception of empire and of England which prevails through the changing fortunes of parties and of men; that we are not content with the ideal but we are guided step through all the phases of our national life, and who can say that it has been a failure?'"

"The great secret of our imperial unity, of course, retain its own individuality but we are all heirs to the same traditions and responsibilities."

SALE OF SILK FROCKS AND PARTY DRESSES FOR GIRLS 2 TO 13 YEARS.

Dresses for practical wear are in poplins, taffetas, pongees, satins and crepe-de-chines. The styles are all smart and girlish—the sort that may be worn for almost every occasion.

Prices of these frocks have been greatly lowered. For further information see advertisement.

SPECULATION AS TO FRED MITCHELL, ONCE OF ST. JOHN

(Fredericton Gleaner) Despatches from Chicago some days ago indicated that Fred Mitchell, who as Fred Yapp was a pitcher for the St. John Alerts, was about to be dropped as manager of the Chicago National League. Now comes the word that Johnny Evers has been appointed manager of the Cubs, thus succeeding Mitchell.

Burt Whitman, sporting editor of the Boston Herald, says that Boston fans have been annoyed by Mitchell's case, and that the pitcher living near Boston and adds:

"Fred is popular here. He was valuable with the old Braves of 1914 and 1915, and was the star of the team. He won a pennant his second year at Chicago, and has had two lean years. But he has had a tough group of players to handle and Johnny of Troy will have a tough time with those same tough boys."

"Mitchell ought not to have any trouble landing on his feet in a good place. There has been talk that Fred will come to the Braves. Don't think so. Fred Stallings eventually all set to return to the team. His cotton interests have fallen flat in mid-Georgia and he needs the money which is forthcoming from a big league managerial berth. Probably he will stand for a cut. You could not expect him to get a top salary, such as his long contract calls for, when the team is not drawing well or making good money."

TARIFF COMMISSION AT BOARD OF TRADE ROOMS

The secretary of the board of trade received a wire from Ottawa this morning advising him that the tariff commission would gladly accept the use of the board rooms for their meeting with the St. John business people on next Tuesday, Nov. 3, and further stating that the hearing would open at 10 a.m.

PLAN MILLION DOLLAR HOTEL FOR ST. JOHN'S, N.F.L.D.

Toronto, Nov. 2.—St. John's, Newfoundland, is to have a 200 room hotel, to cost $1,000,000 to be operated by the United Hotels Company, the capital to be invested in it to be local. Arrangements were made at a conference yesterday when Hon. Sidney Blatchford, high sheriff of Newfoundland; H. H. Stafford, wholesale druggist, St. John's, and George H. O'Neill, general manager of the King Edward Hotel, Toronto, discussed the plans.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 2.—Eleven Chinese, members of the crew of the British steamer Elmleaf, were wounded early today when guards resorted to pistol fire to quell a mutiny aboard the vessel.

GOOD THINGS COMING MAKES THE PRINCE CHIEF CHARACTER IN "JUST SUPPOSE"

New York Critics Praise New Production based on Recent Royal Visit.

New York, Nov. 2.—(Canadian Press)—The tour of the Prince of Wales through Canada and the United States last year furnished inspiration to A. E. Thomas for a comedy entitled "Just Suppose" which opened at the Henry Miller Theatre here last night. Though the prince of the play is called George there can be no doubt that an attempt has been made to portray in his leading character the very agreeable and irritating character of the royal visitor to this country.

The story of the play deals with a romance between the prince and a Virginia girl, Linda Lee Stafford, whom he meets on a motor car lark on the southern shore of the Potomac. The prince, who is fictitious, is obliged to make a brief stay in the girl's home because of a slight illness, with the result that he falls in love with the southern belle. The prince also loves the prince but decides that she would honor him more should he go back to fulfill the duty he owes his country rather than renounce his royal title for her sake.

The part of the prince is played by Geoffrey Kerr, a young English actor, who last night made his debut in the United States. One critic wrote that he succeeded in giving "an exceedingly fine impersonation of a paragon of honor, finery and sweetness, and fun-loving companion withal." There are several other English actors in the cast. The New York critics are practically unanimous in praising the play.

REFINERY SOON TO START AGAIN?

A St. John despatch published in one of the Montreal papers states that the management of the Atlantic Sugary Refinery here had decided on an aggressive policy regarding the manufacture and export of refined sugar and that it was understood that the refinery would commence operations within a week or ten days on full time.

Asked if any notification to this effect had been received from the refinery company, Mr. J. B. Macdonald, manager of the local refinery said this afternoon that not a word had been received regarding resumption of operations and that the manager, Mr. Seldenstick, was still in Montreal and it was not likely that there would be any announcement until his return to the city.

HOLLAND IS IN HOT WATER ONCE AGAIN

Demand From Belgium for Extradition of de Vreeze, a Political Refugee.

The Hague, Oct. 15.—(Associated Press Correspondence)—Holland, which refused to surrender the former German Emperor to the Allies for trial, has another knotty problem in a demand from the Belgian government for the extradition of Professor de Vreeze, formerly librarian of Ghent university, a political refugee and now librarian at Rotterdam. Professor de Vreeze is one of the Flemish separatist movement, during the German occupation of their country, sought with German aid, to separate Flanders, the Dutch-speaking part of Belgium, from the French-speaking part. Many of them, when the armistice showed Germany beaten, fled to Holland. In their absence, they were convicted of treason and some of them are under sentence of death. Professor de Vreeze is accused as a leading "activist" in the Flemish separatist movement. Considering this a political offense and therefore not extraditable, the Dutch government would not give him up.

Now, at a time when relations between Holland and Belgium are strained because of commercial treaty complications and the renewed efforts of Belgian-Flemish activists toward the separatist movement, Belgium has demanded the extradition of de Vreeze, this time on grounds, which, if proved, Holland might consider, while it would not consider a political offense.

HER CASE SEEMED HOPELESS

"I owe my life to 'Fruit-a-tives.' This medicine relieved me when I had given up hope of ever being well.
I was a terrible sufferer from Dyspepsia—had suffered for years; and nothing I took did me any good. I read about 'Fruit-a-tives' and tried them. After taking a few boxes, of this wonderful medicine made from fruit juices, I am now entirely well."

Professor de Vreeze used for fuel at his house in Ghent some government property, such as old boxes, old books and some coal which were on the premises of the library at Ghent.
It is hinted in Holland that this is only a subterfuge to get the professor across the frontier.

MOVEMENT TO PROMOTE THRIFT

Organization in Boston to Protect Investors—School and Home Enconomics.

Boston, Nov. 1.—An organization to promote thrift and to protect savings has been incorporated here as an outgrowth of the war-time conservation campaigns and the recent Bond, high finance fiasco. It will be known as the Association for the Promotion and Protection of Savings and will combine with the encouragement of an investment in an educational programme to combat quick-rick schemes.

The educational department will be divided into school and home economic sections. The former covering education in thrift in colleges, public, private, parochial, normal and vocational schools and the latter working with women's organizations, fraternal bodies, the army and navy, the churches and professions. The business department will be divided into industrial and commercial, agriculture and banking sections. The industrial and commercial section will work with labor unions, associated industries, the wholesale and retail trades, Americanization committee and the Y. M. C. A. industrial secretaries. The agricultural section will be concerned with the granges and farm bureaus and the banking section will have its work with the savings, national trust company and co-operative banks, insurance, and

AMERICAN POLITICS AT ITS VERY WORST

Wooster College Professor Claims Presidential Candidate Has Negro Ancestry.

Wooster, Ohio, Nov. 1.—The board of trustees of Wooster College, by unanimous vote requested and secured the immediate resignation of Professor William Babcock Chancellor, teacher of political science at the institution. The motion states that "it is the sense of the board of trustees that the exigencies of the hour demand the resignation of Professor Harding, attributed to Professor Chancellor, makes his retention as professor in the college impossible."

The circular propaganda bore the following: "The Dutch propaganda apparently had been in progress for some time before the Republican leaders here became aware of its existence. It has been most assiduously conducted here in Ohio, in Indiana, in the border states and even in some of the states south of the Mason and Dixie line, where the Republicans had been making a campaign. Echoes of the crusade have been heard from Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee and Georgia and even as far south as Alabama. Some of the circulars of the underground propaganda bore the following: 'Authority, Professor William E. Chancellor, Wooster University, Wooster, Ohio.'

In Rash On Face And Limbs. Cuticura Heals.

"I had been troubled with eczema on my face which took the form of a rash. Later it broke out on my limbs and they itched very much, causing me to scratch them until they were bleeding. The rash would often keep me awake at night. I tried some remedies, which failed, and then thought I would try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. It was not long till the rash began to disappear, and I used three cakes of Soap and four boxes of Ointment, which healed me." (Signed) W. H. Myers, Paris, Ont., Sept. 12, 1919.

The Ideal Laxative for Children

Mothers, give the little ones Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin for constipation. Acts mildly and gently. Formula on the package.

THE alert mother, ever anxious to find something better for her children's health, will interest herself in learning what is best to give them when they are constipated, have a headache, cold or fever, are bilious or dyspeptic. It stands to reason that the remedy that might be suitable for you, at your age, might be too drastic for a child.

By all means do what you can to regulate the diet, giving preference to the light, easily digested foods. But when diet fails you will have to help Nature with medicine. It would then be well for you to avoid the harsher cathartics and physics, castor oil, calomel and such, even if disguised in tablets or pills, for they weaken the child and make it irritable.

A better plan is to give half a teaspoonful of Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin, which is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin. It acts mildly and gently and does not gripe or weaken. It has the unusual merit of being safe for the tiniest baby yet equally effective for grownups. The formula is plainly on the package, and a sixty-cent bottle is sufficient to last an average family many months.

There is nothing better or safer than Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin for stomach, liver and bowel troubles, and as it contains no narcotics or mercurials, mothers can feel safe in giving it to any member of the family needing a constipation medicine. It is syrupy and delightfully pleasant to take. It must meet the taste of the majority, for last year over eight million bottles were bought in drug stores, the largest sale of the kind in the world.

Buy a sixty-cent bottle today with the understanding that if for any reason it does not do exactly as claimed your money will be refunded. Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin has been on sale in drug stores for thirty years so you would not be experimenting with anything new.

Try It FREE

There are heads of families who will want to approve to their own satisfaction that my Laxative Syrup Pepsin is as effective in constipation, as mild and gentle in action, as pleasant-tasting and safe, as I claim. Let such write me for a sample. It will be sent postpaid. Simply say, "Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 10 Front St., Bridgeport, Ont.: Send a free trial bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin to—" and give your name and address. I will see that the rest is attended to promptly.

Learn what clean teeth mean

See the results of the new way of teeth cleaning. They are quick and decisive. You will know at once that they mean a lifetime of cleaner, safer teeth.

Millions of people employ it. And the astonishing teeth seen everywhere show what it means. See what it means to you.

A film combatant
Most tooth troubles are now traced to film—to that viscous coat you feel. Film clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays.
The ordinary tooth paste does not end film. So the film remains—much of it—and may do a ceaseless damage. Nearly all people suffer from it, more or less.
It is the film-coat that discolors, not the teeth. Film is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.
Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. So, despite the tooth brush, all these troubles have been constantly increasing.

New methods now
Dental science, after years of searching, has found new ways to fight film. All have been proved by many clinical tests. They are so efficient that leading dentists everywhere advise them.

These methods are combined now in a dentifrice called Pepsodent. It has brought a new era in teeth cleaning. This is the tooth paste we urge you to try.

Watch the new effects
The use of Pepsodent at once reveals many new effects.
One ingredient is pepsin. One multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva, to digest starch deposits that cling. One multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva, to neutralize mouth acids.
Two factors directly attack the film. One of them keeps the teeth so highly polished that film cannot easily cling.
Pepsodent is the new-day tooth paste, complying with all modern requirements. It does what new dentifrices were done. You should learn its benefits at once.
Send the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. Watch the teeth whiten as the film-coat disappears.
Every one in your family needs Pepsodent daily, and a week will prove this to you. Cut out the coupon now.

POISON CATTLE BY WHOLESALE

Harry Smith was before Police Magistrate Comben, Monday, charged with poisoning ten head of cattle belonging to Charles Inman. Three of the animals are dead and it is expected that the others will also die. A short horn bull, valued at $300, was the first to succumb to the poison, which was found to be arsenic of lead. It had been scattered in a pasture, just over the line fence that divided the lands of Smith and Inman. The ground had traces of the poison which indicated that it had been scattered for a distance of twenty-five feet and almost entirely licked up by the cattle. During the examination it developed that on a previous occasion Inman had lost ten sheep by poisoning, and Smith was accused of the crime, and owing to certain conditions, Inman settled the matter. Smith was arrested by Sheriff Foster and is apparently unconcerned about the affair, and although in a position to do he says he does not require the services of a lawyer, and does not propose to employ one. He was sent up for trial.

All the parties being in River de Chute, and the families are highly respected.

MISSION CHURCH Y. P. S.
The Young People's Society of the Mission Church of St. John Baptist gave a delightful Halloween supper and entertainment last evening in the school room, which was tastefully decorated for the occasion. More than half a hundred members were present. The programme included: vocal solo by Fred Gill; piano solo, by Miss Stevens; duet, by Rev. Father H. E. Bennett and Miss McBeath; dance, by Miss Gregory; duet, by the Misses Lingley and Schindler; vocal trio, by Fred Gill, Miss McBeath, and Percy Logan. The supper followed the entertainment and the remainder of the evening was devoted to games and music, the party breaking up at 11:30.

A delightful Halloween dance was held last evening in the Carleton Masonic hall under the auspices of the Carleton Union Lodge. There were about sixty guests present. The hall was appropriately and tastefully decorated, giving a distinctly Halloween effect. The committee who planned the arrangements for the evening were N. P. MacLeod, J. F. Brittain, P. F. Brown, J. W. Myles and W. L. Stewart.

Too Weak to Do Anything

The ordinary every-day life of most women is a ceaseless treadmill of work. How much harder the tasks become when some derangement peculiar to her sex makes every movement painful, and keeps the nervous system all unstrung until life seems hardly worth living. Every woman in this condition should profit by the experience of these two women whose letters follow.

Read the Experience of These Two Women
Reading, Pa.—"I had organic inflammation, pains in the side and back which were so sharp that they pulled me to my knees, and I could not walk. I had an operation and still I failed, and in the eight years I suffered I had four doctors and none helped me. My mother-in-law advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was then in bed, and after the first bottle I could be out of bed, then I took Vegetable Compound Tablets and Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine and also used the Sanative Wash. I still take the medicine and am able now to do my own housework. My friends say, 'My! but you look well—what do you do? Who is your doctor?' And there is only one answer, 'Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine which I daily recommend.'"—Mrs. Wm. Strain, 560 Douglas Street, Reading, Pa.

Gainesville, Tex.—"For three years I suffered untold agony each month with pains in my side. I found only temporary relief in doctor's medicine or anything else I took until my husband and I saw an advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I mentioned it to a neighbor and she told me she had taken it with good results, and advised me to try it. I was then in bed part of the time, and my doctor said I would have to be operated on, but we decided to try the Vegetable Compound, and I also used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I am a dressmaker and am now able to go about my work, and do my housework besides. You are welcome to use this letter as a testimonial as I am always glad to speak a word for your medicine."—Mrs. W. M. STEPHENS, 202 Harvey St., Gainesville, Texas.

AT THE PALACE

New Programme Delights
Large Number of Patrons of North End Theatre.

All the world loves a lover, and all the screen fans are sure to love "The Girl in the Rain" which made its first local showing at the Palace Theatre last night. This photoplay contains as pretty a love story as was ever told, combined with a full measure of thrills, surprises and other ingredients.

And furthermore "The Girl in the Rain" introduces a new star in the tiny person of Anne Cornwall, heretofore seen in featured roles, but who has blossomed forth a real screen luminary in this delightful story of rural Virginia by Varick Varady. In the role of the innocent sister of a suspected bond thief, whose own wonderful romance threatens to be shattered by the shadow of guilt which hovers over the other member of her family, she gives a charming portrayal of a young girl torn between two emotions.

An electric storm and cloudburst play an important part in "The Girl in the Rain," for it is when Judith is rescued from the flood by Boone Pendleton, of the Virginia Pendletons that her life's path takes a new turn, and later it is Boone's influence which sets her brother on the right path and leaves clear her road to a happy future.

Romance and adventure are happily combined in "The Girl in the Rain," and some beautiful photography adds to the success of the feature. The river and boat scenes are particularly effective, while the thunderstorm is highly realistic.

The eighth episode of "The Great Radium Mystery" was also shown and proved to be a most exciting chapter. The same program will be presented at both shows tonight.

WORKMEN AGREE TO WAGE CUT

(Canadian Despatch.)
Montreal, Nov. 1.—Last week Joseph Daoust, president of Dnoet, Lefevre & Company, shoe manufacturers of this city, met his workmen and members of the Boot and Shoe Workers' Union and discussed the general situation as regards the trade and later met the union at their headquarters. His proposal was that owing to slackness in the trade he should close his company's plant entirely or that the men accept a reduction of five per cent in wages and the plant to operate for thirty hours weekly.

Today the men notified Mr. Daoust that it had been decided to accept the second proposition.

The factory will, accordingly, run on a basis of a five per cent wage cut and a thirty hour a week schedule until Jan. 1, next.

SHOT HIS WIFE AND HIMSELF

(Canadian Despatch.)
Windsor, Ont., Nov. 1.—Wilbert Fredericks, thirty-two years of age, accused by motives which are yet obscured in mystery, fired four thirty-calibre revolver bullets into the body of his wife last night at the family residence. Then, re-loading the weapon, placed it in his mouth, and sent a bullet crashing into his brain. Mrs. Fredericks lies in the Hotel Dieu and is not expected to live.

Speed Boat Races.

New York, Nov. 2.—Dates for the 1921 International motor boat race for the Harmsworth trophy, emblematic of the speed boat championship of the world, were announced last night by the racing commission of the American Power Boat Association. The cup, won last August off the Isle of Wight by the Miss America, owned by G. A. Wood of Detroit will be defended on September 8, 9 and 10, probably in the vicinity of New York. Challenges are expected from Great Britain and France. The gold cup races and the one mile event for the United States' speed boat title will be decided at Detroit August 26, 29 and 30. The annual Canadian motor boat races at Toronto will be held on September 8, 9 and 10.

CANADA'S WHEAT GOING INTO THE UNITED STATES
(Canadian Despatch.)
Washington, Nov. 1.—Imports of Canadian wheat and flour during the first fifteen days of October were greater than in any corresponding period in the last seven years, the federal trade commission says in a report today to President Wilson. The report was based on an investigation ordered by President Wilson after he had been asked by the Chicago Board of Trade to place an embargo on wheat imports from Canada. The commission found that 4,490,000 bushels of Canadian wheat and 65,946 barrels of Canadian flour were shipped into the United States during the first fifteen days of last month. This was more than three times as large as the shipments in any other October, according to the report.

ELEVEN NEGROES ARE ARRESTED
Supposed to be Connected With the Burning of Cotton Gins, Dwelling Houses and Churches in Alabama.
(Canadian Despatch.)
Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 1.—Eleven negroes, were in jail here today in connection with the burning of cotton gins, dwelling houses and churches by unidentified persons and supposedly night riders. Officials, however, expressed the belief that the destruction had been directed by white men. Operations were started in this county by the supposed night raiders Saturday night and up to noon today had resulted in the death of two negroes and the burning of four negro churches, two gin houses, one store, eight dwellings, several tons of cotton seed and ten bales of cotton.

ST. JOHN MEN ARE EXONERATED IN CHISHOLM CASE

Truro, N. S., Nov. 1.—That the late George Chisholm, of Oxford, who was found dead in an automobile at Londonderry on the morning of Oct. 22, died as the result of hemorrhage of the brain which was not caused by any external violence was in substance the verdict of a coroner's jury at its concluding session at Londonderry today. The verdict also stated that the jury had found no evidence to implicate William and Robert Williamson, of St. John, the two young men who motored with Chisholm from Oxford to Londonderry the day previous to his being found dead. The jury's verdict was very popular in the court room the spectators applauding. No witnesses were called at the hearing today the only matter to come before the jury was the report of A. G. Nichols, of Halifax, provincial pathologist. There had been, he reported a hemorrhage of the brain amounting to three drams of blood sufficient to cause death. The hemorrhage had not been caused by external violence. William and Robert Williamson were immediately given their freedom. J. MacMillan Treeman, who was here in the interest of Messrs. Williamson, returned to his home in St. John yesterday.

Five new members were enrolled at the November meeting of the Junior Natural History Society held last night in the Natural History rooms in Union street with Miss May Jarvis, the president, in the chair. The new members were Miss Jean Sewell, Miss Mona Sewell, Miss Rita Collins, Miss Annie Shaw and Miss Bessie Gregg. The final arrangements were made for holding a tea and sale this week as a means of raising funds.

AMENDMENT OF BRITISH NORTH AMERICA ACT

(Canadian Despatch.)
Ottawa, Nov. 1.—Tomorrow afternoon, Sir George Foster, Minister of Trade and Commerce and Hon. C. J. Doherty, Minister of Justice as Canadian delegates to the assembly of the League of Nations, leave Ottawa for Geneva. They will be met in London by Hon. N. W. Rowell, former president of the Privy Council, who will be the third delegate to the League. Apart from the business of the assembly, the Canadian delegates will, while in London, have important negotiations in hand. Primary among these are:
(1)—Amendment of the British North American Act.
(2)—Delimitation of the Canadian- Newfoundland boundary in Labrador.
(3)—Naturalization of aliens.
The amendment to the British North America Act concerns the question of giving to Dominion legislation the same force of extra-territoriality as is now the case with legislation passed by the parliament of the United Kingdom. The amendment sought does not imply that the dominion parliament is to be empowered to pass laws which would have force outside the boundaries of Canada. It implies that Canadians committing offences against Canadian law, while they are outside Canada, may be punished on their return. Airmen and seamen are cases in point.

FINE GRANULATED SUGAR PRICE IN NEW YORK CUT

Arbuckle Brothers Make Reduction of half a Cent, to New Season Record.

New York, Nov. 2.—Arbuckle Brothers, yesterday, announced a further reduction of half a cent a pound in the price of fine granulated sugar to the basis of 10.50 cents, making a new low record for the season. The decline was brought about by a further reduction in raw sugar.

SUGAR REFINERS IN BETTER SHAPE

Prospect of Dumping of Cheap American Sugars Not So Dangerous Now.

Montreal—The present week has seen a distinct improvement in the situation of the sugar refiners, although it is, of course, uncertain whether this will be permanent. Reports from New York, however, show a stiffening in the market there, with an advance in raws. It is believed that the situation in Cuba will soon be well in hand, and this will prevent the hanging over the market of several hundred tons of raws that might be offered otherwise at still lower prices. By their action this week in dropping the price of refined to seventeen cents net the Canadian manufacturers feel that they have practically met the danger of heavy importations of United States sugar, as there is little margin now for the importer even at the lowest quoted prices in New York. Moreover there is little sugar to be picked up there at the bottom quotations, for most of the refiners are holding the jobbers to the price at which with contracts for October and November delivery were made, although they have extended credits to them of six months or more, to enable them to meet payments more readily. This means that all this sugar can be offered at low prices only through a heavy loss on the part of the jobbers. Under these conditions so far little sugar has come into the Canadian market from across the border.

HARDWARE PRICES.

(Hardware and Metal, Oct. 30.) Prices of hardware commodities are ruling firmly this week with the exception of products of cotton, such as sash cord, cotton cordage, twines, etc., which show a further decline as the result of lower raw cotton prices. New quotations for screen doors and window screens and refrigerators for next season show some advances. Polish mops repair links and new extras on tinning wire show increases. The metal markets with the exception of lead and copper hold firm, but reports from Pittsburgh indicate a general dullness with cancellations in steel and pig iron. Country business is fair but would be improved by a spell of cooler weather.

JOE PAGE ON THE RECENT SCANDALS IN BIG BASEBALL

Views of Writer Who Knows Situation Well.

Some Happenings of Recent Years Told of—A Description of the working of Proposed Lasker Plan.

By Joe Page Now that the world series of 1920 has come to an end, the baseball fans throughout the country are not only closely watching the outcome of the world series scandal of 1919 but more closely following the possible causes that could have led up to it and other crooked deals before that time.

From what has happened in the last several years in the major leagues, there can hardly be any doubt in the baseball public's mind that the methods and actions of the two leaders of the National and American leagues, John Hayler and Ban Johnston have been, to say the least, apparently very lax and incompetent.

On the other hand either one or both of them may have seen a thousand and on things that were detrimental to the best interests of the game and might have done their level best to overcome same. Again—in either one of these situations were either one or both controlled in their actions by one or more of the club owners of the two leagues?

These, along with other questions on what are agitating the minds of close followers of the game at the present moment, while waiting the final outcome of the actions of the law in the matter of what the writer has seen in print or has been told by various baseball celebrities throughout the country from time to time, would make some very interesting reading, if not cause a few fireworks to explode and at this time, if it were all true, would probably be the cause of quite a panic in some parts of the sporting world. However, the source of much of this information is unsubstantiated and at the time some of it was given to me several years ago I can truthfully say I absolutely did not credit the stories; although what has happened lately has convinced me that much of what had been heard, had all the earmarks of truth.

It is not for me to say anything for or against the major league presidents, managers, players or the gambling element. But how much of the present crooked baseball conditions exist through the laxity of the league heads, or the inability of the club managers to manage their own affairs?

Some Instances. Take the following instances which have appeared in print at some time or other regarding the National League. When Mr. Grant, the present head of the Boston Braves, bought out the controlling or entire interest of the Boston club from Houghton and Co., it was openly asserted and in the public print that Mr. Grant was in part, or the major part, financed by the New York National league clubs. If memory serves me right, Mr. Grant had lately come back from Europe and was equally sympathetic that New York was interested financially in the Boston Nationals. This happened several years ago. Mr. Grant is still at the head of the Boston Braves.

During this time there have been several player-deals between these clubs one of the most notable being the transferring of pitcher Artie Neff and other the former being a star southpaw at the time. This and other deals smacked of syndicate baseball in connection with these two clubs. Like deals apparently took place between other clubs of this league before and after this one.

If this was syndicate baseball, it was against the National League by-laws. Why didn't Mr. Heydler stop these sales or refute the allegations? Later we have the Chase case which there is no necessity to go into, further than to say that when dismissed from the Cincinnati team after being charged with crookedness by the then manager, Christ Mathewson, he was signed up by the New York club. Newspaper articles stated that there was nothing proven against Chase therefore he had a right to play with the latter club. It seems from the newspaper comments that there was only one person according to Heydler, to charge Chase with wrong doing and, Chase doing the same, it was against one, and consequently the Scotch verdict of not proven saved Chase.

Around about the time the Philadelphia Cubs' scandal was brought up, the National league head was according to the press, purported to have said that there were three who charged Chase with crooked work. If these statements are true, was Heydler aware in the first instance of any syndicate baseball? In the second instance aware of the crooked work on the part of Chase? Granted he was, in the first place were his hands tied by the club owners? If you say "yes," he was a figure head. If you say "no," he would possibly say, both instances were smoothed over for the best interest of the game. What's more, he was taking it from the viewpoint of those most closely identified with the game, doing what he considered right and proper at the time.

The Carl Mays Case. Taking up the American League and its share in bringing about the present conditions, take the newspaper comments and what do we find among their columns, starting from the Mays case. Mays, quitting the Boston Red Sox, refused to recognize his signed contract any further. Result, after trying to smooth matters over, Harry Frazee, the owner, puts Mays on the market. New York Yankees, Chicago White Sox and Cleveland Reds were all heavy bidders for Mays' services. After being under club suspension for ten days or more, the bidding started and at the end of another ten days or so, Ruppert Huston & Co. secured the Mays contract and the latter is told to report to New York, which he did several days later. President Johnston started what almost caused the disruption of the American League by indefinitely suspending Mays for the breaking of his contract with Boston almost a month previously. The owners of the Yankees got out an injunction preventing the suspension by Johnston and the interfering with Mays playing. Why all this fuss and deadly enmity between Johnston, Chicago-Boston and New York?

Newspaper and street talk say, President Johnston was a $50,000 or more stockholder in the Cleveland Club and instead of immediately ordering the indefinite suspension of Mays when the latter quit the Boston club, that he advised the Cleveland management to try to purchase the contract of Mays, which so it was said, was done, but as stated New York beat them to it. Johnston then they allege to cripple New York for the betterment of Cleveland's chances to win the pennant ordered a suspension which should have been done within twenty-four hours after Mays quit the Boston club. Otherwise, according to part of the press and public, he should not have interfered with the New York club in the playing of Mays. Weeks after the break by the latter had been committed.

The baseball reading public are not new to this story, and practically all know what a turmoil was created at the meetings of the American League last winter. When the season opened this year everything looked as if matters had been straightened out and that the warring factions had come together. Such was not the case. Taking again from the newspaper files we find that where the Chicago National League Club, in August, through its president, William Weck, set the machinery in motion that was to uncover the crookedness of the last year or two, it was the means of furnishing the torch which was to start the fires in the American League again, with Cleveland, New York and Chicago in the order named coming into the stretch, where a blanket would cover them all.

Strange things began to happen. The grand jury which was investigating the crooked baseball deals was advised to go right ahead and clear up matters as soon as possible. Right on top of this, the White Sox were beaten three straight by Boston. Someone (who?) evidently asked to have the grand jury lay up until after the world series was ended, which evidently was done. The White Sox then turn round and beat the Yankees three straight games which puts them less than two games behind Cleveland for the lead, with the White Sox going to Cleveland for the next three games. The press is quoted as saying, the grand jury have been asked immediately to resume the world series scandal irrespective of the world series games about to take place. Who gave this order? And why?

Winning the first game in Cleveland, Chicago, by winning the next one, Chicago, by winning the next one, Chicago, about the former for the lead. The press is again quoted saying Ban Johnston makes the statement that the White Sox did not win the pennant from Cleveland for fear of the gamblers, or words to that effect. Result, Chicago loses that game, but wins the next from Cleveland. The press have been busy meanwhile and the White Sox as a playing machine are a thing of the past, eight of them as it were being banished from the team's playing strength overnight.

Following the trail of circumstances as given by various papers in different forms, it certainly looks strange. Did any connected with baseball in a high capacity tell the jury when to quit and when to start? Did anyone do these things and others mentioned, to embarrass the playing of the White Sox at these critical moments? And if so, did they have a knowledge of the crookedness that had been going on? If so how long had they been going on it? And more to the point, why didn't they come out with it when they first learned of the crookedness?

These are the things that are agitating the baseball loving public mind, the public who make it possible for the magnates to give them good, clean, honest baseball by the money they hand to them through the turnstiles. If the owners of the clubs are clean in this present unsavory matter, it is up to them as the real stewards of the game to see that the public now and in future get a square deal. The presidents of both leagues, the paid commissaries of the owners, should also be brought face to face with facts and without making any further insinuations, come boldly out and save the game no matter whom it hurts, even though it be themselves, financially, for no other reason than, that the game itself is great, far greater than its rulers or owners.

One other thing to bear in mind is the Lasker plan of governing the baseball game. The press again is quoted as saying that the National League as a body adopted the plan after which a joint meeting was held on last Monday in which only three of the American League owners were present. They agreed fully to the proposed Lasker plan, and have called another meeting for November 8.

The five delegates, known as the Johnston faction are now in the minority. The public will see whether or not they will take up with this new plan, which while it saves to each league its president to handle the league's own business, would create a new commission that would forestall any crookedness or connivance of any kind with either club owners or officials either inside or outside of the game.

The Plan. What is the Lasker plan? My understanding is, that it is to be a commission of three men, of which one, the chairman, is to receive a salary of $25,000, his two associates to have a remuneration of $10,000 each. The man to be selected for the situation to be of the highest standing and integrity and with no financial interest or affiliation of any kind with any baseball club, league, owners, magnates or officials of any organized baseball interests.

If possible it was the intention of the National League owners who unanimously approved the scheme, along with Chicago, New York and Boston of the American League to have men of the club ex-president, William Taff, Judge Landis, William McAdoo, General Pershing and Wood. Their powers would embrace about everything necessary for the proper and clean handling of the game and render any and all decisions in matters that might arise between one or more major and minor leagues, without in any way interfering with the affairs of the presidents of the major or minor leagues in the carrying on of the business within their own leagues.

There are many scores of baseball men and writers of the game, who will say off hand that the scheme is a good one. But it takes men who have been in the game all their life and have the practical experience to carry the Lasker plan out successfully. Quite so, and I agree that baseball men of experience and undoubted integrity could be had.

On the other hand, remember every head of their respective leagues with their club owners will be handling their own affairs within their own league, and the only questions that the proposed Lasker commission would be called upon to handle and decide would be questions of differences between one or more leagues and the welfare of the game as a whole, for which they would be answerable. The president of either major or minor league would be held answerable for the workings of his own league and any failures or crookedness either by the club owner or the executive head of the individual league, would be quickly called to account by the Lasker plan of commission. As a consequence the greatest game of all national games of the American continent, baseball, would come back stronger and better than ever.

In conclusion I can only say, hats off to the heads of the National League and Messrs Comiskey, Ruppert, Huston and Frazee of the American League for sanctioning and approving the Lasker plan, which looks good enough not only to guard baseball against any further crookedness, but for all time baseball politics, which to my mind has been the root of all the evils of the game in the past.

INLAND REVENUE. Montreal, Nov. 1.—The inland revenue figures for the month of October for this city showed an increase of $1,371,950, the receipts being $4,160,256 against $2,788,296 for October, 1919. The customs revenue showed a slight drop, being $4,429,826, against $4,489,040.

MEXICO TO PAY. Washington, Nov. 1.—Great Britain has agreed to a settlement of the claim against Mexico growing out of the killing of Wm. S. Benton, a British subject, near Juarez on Feb. 17, 1914. Mexico is to pay $10,000 cash to Mrs. Benton and a pension of $2,500 a day as long as Mrs. Benton remains unmarried.

GOLD SOLD. London, Nov. 1.—The sale of 164,000 ounces of fine gold to the National City Bank of New York by the Gold Producers' Association at Melbourne, Australia, is reported in a Melbourne despatch to the Exchange Telegraph today. The price paid for the gold was 116 shillings, 8 pence per ounce, net, and the terms of the sale called for shipment of the metal in October, November and December, the despatch added.

ESPERANTO WINS SECOND RACE AND CUP

The Lunenburg schooner Delawana after showing her heels to the American schooner Esperanto for twenty-five miles lost the championship of the North Atlantic fishing fleets in the second race held yesterday off Halifax. As a result of the second victory the Esperanto carried off a silver trophy emblematic of the championship and $3,000 in currency. It was one of the most remarkable races ever witnessed in these parts and was a great test of seamanship and skill between the skippers as well as the boats. Captain Himmelman, of the Delawana, attributed his second defeat to overshooting the mark when he overtook about a mile farther than he should have in passing Shut-in-Island bell buoy. Marty Welch, commander of the winning ship, attributed his victory to wind favorable for sailing his craft. He paid a glowing tribute to the Canadian boat and her crew.

Summary Start—Esperanto, 9.01.04 Delawana 9.01.37. First mark—Delawana, 10.16.20; Esperanto, 10.20.21. Second mark—Delawana, 11.27.50; Esperanto, 11.32.42. CRITICISM OF THE FREDERICTON POLICE

The matter of better police protection for Fredericton was the subject of considerable discussion at last night's meeting of the city council in committee. This is in view of the fact that on Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights there had been a case of stabbing in the streets, robbery of a public institution, and disfiguring of a monument and public buildings. It was felt that the city was not getting the police protection to which it is entitled. Chief of Police Finley was criticized for spending too much time in the enforcement of the prohibition act and leaving the city without proper protection in order to enforce the act outside the city limits. It was decided to offer rewards for information leading to the arrest and conviction of those responsible for the acts of vandalism committed on Halloween and the night before. The relation of the police force to the prohibition act enforcement will be one of the matters discussed at the joint meeting of the city council and police commission.

ROD AND GUN.

Readers of Canada's national sports men's monthly Rod and Gun in Canada will look forward with interest to the November issue which contains among other interesting stories and articles "Where the Amber River Flows," story of the North country written by that premier sportsman, Robert Hodgson. "Lobstering in Nova Scotia is the title of Bonnydale Dale's instructive contribution to this issue. The annual tournament of the Nova Scoti Guides' Association is fully reported and illustrated in two articles. The sports men's departments, fishing, guns, conservation and kennel are up to their usual high standard. In addition to these interesting stories and departments, Bryan Williams, the noted big game hunter of British Columbia, gives an interesting account of a big game hunt in the mountains of the Pacific province. Rod and Gun in Canada is published monthly by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont.

Table with columns: NAME, CAPTAIN, OWNED BY, REPRESENTING. Includes entries for 'Delawana' and 'Esperanto'.

To the fishing industry speed means life; moments are precious. Daily, throughout the seasons, the fishing smacks have to race against each other to be FIRST INTO PORT. First into port means the best market for their fish, success and profits. To the speed with which the Gillette Safety Razor accomplishes its work is due a great deal of its popularity. When moments are precious in the early mornings the Gillette Safety Razor will shave you in perfect ease and comfort in three minutes. What the 'Delawana' and 'Esperanto' are to the Atlantic fishing industry—consistent performers—the Gillette Safety Razor is to the shaving world—'ALWAYS FIRST INTO PORT.'

And I owe it all to

(Aunt Mary's Story)

"So Jack is at it again, is he? Criticizes the 'cooking, growls at the climbing grocery bills?"

"Well, your old Aunt Mary will not see you two young things suffering, if she can prevent it. What's the good of my experience if YOU can't use it?"

"To begin with, I have practically eliminated expensive butter. I use MAZOLA almost exclusively in my kitchen, and I am doing away with lard as well.

"Butter is much too expensive nowadays, if you are clever enough to do without it, and Jack did marry a clever girl, didn't he?" And Aunt Mary smiled encouragingly.

"The first time I used MAZOLA," she confided, "it was merely as a substitute for olive oil, which is now in the millionaire class. You know Uncle Tom is very fussy about his salads. But he never missed the olive oil; in fact, he praised that particular dressing outrageously. Now he simply devours MAZOLA-made dressings—and the difference in cost is pin money, my dear!" She laughed and added: "Produce and Save is my kitchen motto since MAZOLA came home to me."

"In frying," here Aunt Mary grew quite enthusiastic, "it makes foods much more digestible, because MAZOLA stands a much higher temperature than lard or butter without smoking or burning. So foods crisp at once and are never greasy.

"For shortening, I find it even superior to butter. In fact, it's richer than butter, for it's all pure vegetable fat. Butter, you know, is fifteen per cent water.

"And for pastry, your Uncle Tom says that at last he can eat all the pie crust he wants without worrying.

For Frying, Shortening and Salads

"Just think of it, a perfect vegetable oil for frying, shortening and salads—all in the same convenient tin. "At first,"—Aunt Mary smiled reminiscently—"I found it strange to cook with oil, but after all every household rule is made by custom. Butter and lard have to be melted before they are used—MAZOLA is already melted—ready to use. "Oh! you'll notice the difference at once in your cooking, and Jack will see it at once in the bill."

Try a tin of MAZOLA to-day. Become acquainted with its economy, its wholesomeness, its convenience. M-A-Z-O-L-A—such an easy name to remember!
