Pan-Germans Angered Over State- ment That Czernin's Speech Had Been Submitted to President Wilson but One Editor Says Berlin Favored Idea of Dis- cussion With America

London, Jan. 28.—Reports of disturbances in Germany again are current in Holland and severe outbreaks are said to have occurred in the Rheinisch industrial districts. Troops with machine guns have been summoned to Mulheim on the Rhine opposite Cologne, but there are no details.

Food Riot at Prague

Zurich, Jan. 28.—Three thousand persons took part in a riot in a suburb of Prague on Friday against reduction of the flour rations, says a Vienna despatch. Shop windows were smashed and the mob had begun to plunder the streets when the police intervened. The rioters were dispersed with difficulty.

London, Jan. 28.—Nothing has so angered the pan-Germans, according to reports in special despatches from Holland, as a statement attributed to Count Czernin that his speech on peace previously had been communicated to President Wilson. The statement, it is said, was greeted with loud cheers by an outbreak of rage and contumacy by the pan-Germans whose fury it brought to a climax.

The idea of any exchange of opinions between Austria and America is criticized by the people, and according to Count Reventlow, can be regarded only as "endangering Germany's life interests."

TROUBLE WITH ESSENCES AND SOME MEDICINES

Chief Inspector Wilson Says He Is Ready To Take Drastic Meas- ures To Curb Evil

Rev. W. D. Wilson, chief liquor inspector for New Brunswick, expects to leave here for outside points some time today. Speaking to a Times reporter this morning he said that the inspectors throughout the province were having more than ordinary trouble with essences and medicines containing a high percentage of alcohol as a preservative.

Wherever the liquor regulations were more than ordinarily strict, these inspectors had trouble with the essences and medicines which were taken only as a means to intoxication.

"An officer 'phoned me this morning," he said, "and said that he wished something could be done about it. On Saturday night he had seen a crowd of soldiers in a store coasting the proprietor to sell them some lemon extract. In my opinion something must be done immediately if the enactment of the liquor law is to keep the province dry."

"On my trip through the country recently," I found exactly the same conditions prevalent. I am prepared to go to drastic lengths to stop the growth of the evil and necessary will propose legislation on the point."

On Saturday Inspector Wilson said he found, going through to Madawaska county, a large shipment most of which was not properly addressed. He commiserated ten bottles on the train and took them with him as confiscated goods. They will be placed in the Smythe street depot here.

Mayor Thinks Last Year Marked The Limit

HOW IT WILL BE DONE

Suggestions That Part Of Patriotic Fund Should Be Held Over On Bonds Issued—Sum of $26,465 Less For Interest Account

The assessment rate prospects, which have been somewhat gloomy lately, brightened considerably at a meeting of the common council committee today. A pleasant surprise was sprung when Mayor Hayes announced that the assessment for interest and sinking fund would be $26,465 less than last year, this being due to the fact that the sinking fund has been earning a higher rate of interest.

When the matter of assessing for $150,000 for the present year was brought up, the suggestion was made that part of this might be held over and assessed for next year. It was also suggested that bonds might be issued for part of the amount and finally that the whole amount might be cared for by issuing ten year bonds, as authorized in the act.

The mayor expressed the opinion that the total assessment for civic purposes, apart from the increase in school estimates, which are beyond the control of the council, would not be so great as last year. He also felt that provision should be made in some way for at least $26,465 to cover the deficit in 1918, and under expended balance account. In part of the patriotic fund amount, so that the assessment and tax rate should be no higher than that of last year.

The council will assess for $18,286 to cover the deficit in 1918, and under expended balance account. In part of the patriotic fund amount, so that the assessment and tax rate should be no higher than that of last year.

Mayor Hayes moved that the amount to be assessed for 1918 be reduced by $6,280.74, the amount of the water surplus. Commissioner Fisher seconded.

Commissioner Wigmore protested against being deprived of his unexpended balance, especially as $27,000 for hydrants and sewers for 1918 already had been ordered charged to water revenue to reduce the 1918 assessment.

Commissioner McLellan said that he was afraid the assessment rate for 1918 would be $2.50, exclusive of the patriotic assessment. Last year the assessment for general purposes was $2.18 and for patriotic purposes 80 cents.

Commissioner Wigmore said that he needed the full amount of his revenue for work which he considered absolutely necessary.

"There is no doubt but that the assessment will be a large one this year," said the mayor, "and the larger it is the more difficulty there is in collecting it. The chamberlain tells me that a larger number of citizens filed statements this year to secure reductions in their estimates and we had to wipe out $18,000 debt appeals last year."

The motion was carried.
Commissioner Wigmore said that the only way he could meet the situation would be by doing away with the ten per cent cash discount on the water rate bills.

A cheering feature of the meeting was the interest estimate for 1918, presented by the mayor. This showed a reduction of $26,465 as compared with last year. This was due to the fact that interest earnings have been so much larger that the sinking fund had increased so rapidly that it was ahead of the legal requirements. The total to be assessed for this year is $26,465, as compared with (Continued on page 2, sixth column)

WOULD GIVE TO ALLIES BILLIONS SHE HAS LOANED

Former Secretary of Treasury in American Cabinet Says America Should Do So

New York, Jan. 28.—Charles E. Fairchild, secretary of the treasury in President Cleveland's cabinet, told a Baptist congregation here last night that "a purely business proposition" the United States should give to England, France, Italy and Russia the billions of dollars loaned to them in the war.

"I have felt all along that England, France, Italy and Russia have been fighting our battles for us all this time," Mr. Fairchild said, "for I have always thought it was the final clash for freedom of autonomy, and that it was aimed as much at the United States as any of the Entente countries of Europe. For that reason I believe the United States should give to England, France, Italy and Russia the billions of dollars loaned to them in the war."

"We can beat the Germans and go through their lines, I am confident, any time we make the attempt," he asserted. SAYS GERMANY FORCED AUSTRIA INTO THE WAR

Maximilian Harden Makes Out- spoken Statements

MIGHT HAVE HAD PEACE

London, Jan. 28.—Maximilian Harden devotes thirteen closely printed pages in the latest issue of the Die Zukunft to reproducing the real texts of the recent speeches of President Wilson and Premier Lloyd George. He says that thoughtful and conscientious men should read the speeches quietly and without prejudice and be criticized in an astonishing outspoken fashion. Germany's attitude toward Austria in the conduct of the Russian negotiations.

Herr Harden virtually accuses Germany of forcing Austria-Hungary into the war, and says that peace might have been obtained the first week at Brest-Litovsk if the Germans had not posed as conquerors and had not demanded territory.

Referring to President Wilson's speech, Harden says: "Belief is still firm that peace is possible and that the cleavage between the two fighting groups no longer is so wide that it can be filled only by new heaps of corpses. It will, however, widen into an unbridgeable gulf if the people again refuse to acknowledge a changed world. He pleads for the sanctity of the treaties, a reduction of armaments, the right to self-determination of nations and favors a reconsideration of the question of Alsace-Lorraine."

One night he returned to find three dead Indians in his cabin. A fourth had barely lived to get outside. They had drunk the poison, believing it to be a brand of whiskey.

EXEMPTION CASES IN MONTREAL TRIBUNALS

(Montreal Herald.) The congested state of the exemption tribunals was commented upon this morning by Mr. Justice Marchand at the opening of court in Room 38, where he presided. Forty cases were to have been heard before him today and there is a list of fifty cases to be decided upon January 31st.

The registrar who has set these cases of exemption in so large numbers for certain days had no idea of the situation which was being done. There are forty exemptions placed on the list for today. Now it doesn't matter how long it takes to finish hearing the evidence. I will sit here until the last word is spoken in every case. It is absolutely necessary. Only the judges who sit know the very great responsibility resting upon them. It is a great responsibility to have to decide whether a man shall or shall not go to the war. And the judge needs all the time he can get. There must be no mistakes made.

Again, as to the medical examinations by the military authorities, who take the certificates of specialists as well as the military doctors, provided, however, the specialists are endorsed by a second one. This will be allowed whether the military says yes or no.

The various tribunals for today were presided over by His Lordship Mr. Justice Pannetton, who has heard twenty cases. Mr. Justice Lane, twenty; Mr. Justice Coderre, twenty-two; Mr. Justice Archer, ten; Mr. Justice Marchand, twenty; Mr. Justice Teller, twelve cases.

Before Mr. Justice Coderre an exemption was granted to Paul Charon, pattern maker, employed at the Dominion Bridge Company. It was brought to the attention of the court that the applicant was one of only 177 men on the Island of Montreal who could be classified as journeymen pattern makers in apprenticeship of from four to seven years and is required and the skilled worker is always learning. Charon was engaged on patterns for shell making machines, marine engines, locomotives and rolling stock.

"The demand is very great for the pattern maker and we could increase to about thirty per cent today if we could only get the men. The national need of this man is very great," declared T. Smith, who appeared for the Dominion Bridge Company. It was further shown that the Union of Pattern Makers passed resolutions in 1914 and 1915, Gordon, the registrar, to do all in his power to maintain the present body of skilled artisans, and to keep the pattern makers in the city. His exemption was granted.

Donald McDonald, constable in the employ of the C. P. R., asked for exemption on the grounds of family support. His father is sixty-four and a farmer at Glengarry, Ont. His mother is living and he has one brother at the front. Two other brothers are in the draft and their exemptions were disallowed at Edmonton, Alberta. His aunt lives with his people.

"I have nothing to do with your aunt, as the law does not make any provision for this relationship, but in the case of two brothers being called I will read one of them his exemption. I have read the other judges referring the fifth son after four had been called to the colors, but as far as I am concerned when two sons are called one of them will be excused."

The applicant then mentioned that he had one brother at the front and two who were in the present draft. "If that is the case you can prove your contention you may be sure that I will not send you to the war. Two brothers are at present in Montreal, although called in the draft at Edmonton. They will be brought to court on Monday."

Egan, United States minister to Denmark, here last night. The northern European neutrals, Dr. Egan declared, are in dire straits. Food is so scarce in Denmark that the famous Danish wolf brand is being slaughtered for food.

Dr. Egan warned the people of this country that every citizen who listens to such an inexorable call from the east remains the foundation stone of a general peace.

T. Wolf, editor of the Berlin Tageblatt, writes that Count Czerin's suggestion is a joint discussion of peace terms by America and Austria undoubtedly was made in agreement with the Berlin government.

DON'T AGREE WITH VON HERTLING. Amsterdam, Jan. 27.—According to reports printed in German newspapers concerning the resignation of the Russian minister to the Reichstag, Secretary of the Interior Waltraud, referring to a head advocating a general strike, expressed the strong hope that the German workers would not listen to such an inexorable call from irresponsible quarters.

"If our enemies should succeed in smothering our home front," Herr Waltraud is quoted as saying, "all their rapacious schemes would revive, and the war would be prolonged indefinitely."

Herr Ledebour, Independent Socialist, replying to the speech of Dr. Von Kuehnemann, the German foreign secretary, complained that a backward step had been taken, and that the government adhered "simply to the views of the militarists. He said he considered the speech of Count Czerin, the Austro-Hungarian minister, as a direct refutation of the words of Count von Hertling, because Count Czerin regarded the resignation of the Russian minister to the Reichstag, Secretary of the Interior Waltraud, as a joint discussion of peace terms by America and Austria undoubtedly was made in agreement with the Berlin government.

MORE OUTBREAKS IN KAISER'S LAND

(Continued from page 1) Allusions in pan-German newspapers that Count Von Hertling, secretary of the treasury, is one of the four men responsible for Germany's position, is said to concern a financial memorandum he is said to have submitted to the emperor.

One report of the incident declares that he warned the emperor that the financial situation of Germany was such that a further development of offensive operations was inadvisable.

It is reported from Holland that the pan-German newspaper, Krone Zeitung, of Berlin, has been suspended for publishing a violent article under the heading "Austria must be abandoned."

London, Jan. 27.—The bulk of the press opinion thus far received from Germany supports Count Von Hertling in his declaration of war aims, but some dissatisfaction is expressed that he was not more precise. Other newspapers note the difference between the statements of the imperial German chancellor and Count Czerin, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, in regard to negotiations with Russia.

The Berlin Vossische Zeitung, according to an Amsterdam dispatch to the Associated Press, for example, says that Count Czerin's offer to the various Russian states of no annexations or indemnities shows that he considers the "dismemberment of Russia has been accomplished, whereas we had always believed that Austria-Hungary, like Germany, was negotiating with the Russians as a whole, or with the separate of the people." The absence of any reference to this situation by Count Von Hertling is a mistake, because the question as to how we stand regarding peace in the east remains the foundation stone of a general peace.

T. Wolf, editor of the Berlin Tageblatt, writes that Count Czerin's suggestion is a joint discussion of peace terms by America and Austria undoubtedly was made in agreement with the Berlin government.

Amsterdam, Jan. 27.—At a festive held today in Berlin in celebration of the birthdays of Frederick the Great, born in January 24, 1712, and Emperor William, (born January 27, 1859) privy councillor, William Walther, a member of the Prussian Academy of Sciences, said he regretted "there is no academic expression strong enough to stigmatize President Wilson's presumption and untruthfulness."

A wireless dispatch from Brest-Litovsk quotes a declaration of the representatives workmen's and peasants government of Ukraine as saying: "The general secretary of the Central Executive Committee of the whole Ukrainian people."

ON THE BATTLEFRONTS. London, Jan. 28.—Both the German artillery and German riding parties were active last night along the Franco-Belgian front at numerous points, according to today's war office announcement. It reads: "Yesterday evening the enemy rained an advanced post northeast of Lannemarek. Three of our men are missing. Southeast of Leveguier a strong reconnoitering party was dispersed by rifle fire during the night.

"The hostile artillery was active last night at different points southwest of Cambrai and also north of Lens and in the Passchendaele sector."

Paris, Jan. 28.—Raids were carried out successfully by the French last night on the Champagne front and in the sector north of St. Mihiel.

The mayor, referring to the request for a grant for $120,000 for the patriotic fund, said that Toronto was giving a million, which they were spreading over two years and with the understanding that this would be the last contribution.

The feeling seemed to be growing very strong that the government must take care of the fund in the future. His Worship thought the city would be justified in spreading the $450,000 over two or even three years.

Three liver, Quebec, in connection with the Victoria mill be transferred to the new corporation, which embraces all the Fraser companies previously existing. This will be complied with.

It is possible that the city council will make a compromise to the provincial government soon concerning the allotment of the amounts to be raised by assessment for the Canadian Patriotic Fund. It is contended that the amount assigned to Fredericton by the Murray government for 1917 and adopted by the present administration for the ensuing year is excessive and that Moncton has been given an allotment much smaller than it should be on a basis of valuation.

WANT VACANT LAND TAXED

Suggestions Made to Ontario
Government by a Deputation

Best System is Sought—Sir
William Hearst Says Remedy Will be Applied to Unjust Taxation

(Toronto Globe.)
A special provincial tax on unimproved land and municipal taxation of land at a higher rate than buildings were advocated by a deputation from the Single Tax Association, the Tax Reform League and the United Farmers of Ontario, which waited on Sir William Hearst and other members of the provincial cabinet yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Hector Prenter headed the deputation. She said the present system of taxation in many ways was prejudicial to the interests of the home, and that it was not in the best interests of the nation that such a system should be allowed to continue. If they added a veranda to their homes or a coat of paint they were penalized for doing it. Women everywhere were realizing that this was an injustice. The problem of dealing with the returned soldier would be much simpler if Ontario had tax reform.

A. B. Farmer, B. A., who was a Liberal candidate in West Toronto at the provincial elections, said there were 2,700 acres of idle land in Toronto, according to the assessment commissioner, and the deputation wanted to make two suggestions, namely (1) A special provincial tax on unimproved land, whether in cities or towns, or outside, and (2) Each municipality should have the privilege of taxing land municipally at a higher rate than buildings.

L. H. Blackford, representing the United Farmers of Ontario, with a membership of 13,000, endorsed "the principle of what has been said here this afternoon."
A. C. Thompson also spoke briefly, backing up Mr. Farmer.

West Reports Fallure.

Sir Wm. Hearst, in reply, said the government had only one ideal before it, and that was to find the very best system that was possible. The question of taxation in all its bearings was one of the first matters that he took up when he became prime minister. "We have had men studying the question, particularly in the west, and reporting to us," he said. Former advocates of the system in the west now said it was a failure. It might be all right for boom days, but would not produce the necessary revenues in days of depression, and days such as they were passing through now. They must try and get legislation that would as nearly as possible meet all conditions, whether in boom days or days of depression. The suggestion of a provincial tax on unimproved land was somewhat newer than the other one, and was not the lack of land that had been the trouble in connection with the food shortage. The government was making a study of all the questions raised and the remedy would be applied. It might be that taxation laws would be more or less shifting, owing to taxes being imposed by the dominion government, and for other reasons.

GERMANY THREATENS ON SEA AND LAND

Madrid, Jan. 27.—After pillaging the Spanish steamer Giralda yesterday, a German submarine sank the vessel, which was of 4,400 tons. The crew was saved.

U. S. Has Warning.

Washington, Jan. 27.—Warning that the Germans are preparing for a great submarine offensive against the American lines of communication with France, in connection with the impending Teutonic drive against the west front is given by Secretary Baker in his weekly military review, made public tonight by the war department.

Recently there has been a marked decrease in the number of allied merchant ships sunk by submarines. The explanation of this is found in the withdrawal of submarines in preparation for the coming thrust on land and sea. The review says:

"As the time draws near, when once again the enemy will endeavor to strike a decisive blow in the west, it must be emphasized that he will not be content with mere military operations on a large scale.

"During the past fortnight enemy submarines have been recalled to home ports to be refitted, and the most powerful submarine offensive hitherto undertaken may be expected to be launched against our lines of communication with France, to interrupt the steady flow of men and munitions for our own armies and food supplies for the Allies."

Andania Torpedoed.

Belfast, Jan. 27.—The Cunard line steamship Andania was torpedoed, but not sunk, off the Ulster coast this morning, says the Irish Daily Telegraph. The newspaper adds it is believed that no deaths resulted from the explosion. "The Andania is a vessel of 18,400 tons. She was built at Greenock, Scotland, in 1910, and since then has made many trips between British and American ports.

NEWS OF THE SOLDIERS LOCAL NEWS

Attached to the local Depot battalion gave splendid exhibition of their accomplishments in this line on the gymnasium floor of the Y. M. C. A. Saturday night. The men "warred on" in excellent style and it was indeed a pleasure to see them working. Physical training is now becoming an outstanding necessity in the Canadian army and greater importance has of late been attached to this valued line of training.

The men were again out on church parade yesterday and, despite the dull, drizzling weather, they marched along in true military style and with demeanor that bespoke the training by men schooled in military activities. There were about 700 in line, the Catholic members of the battalion, despite street conditions, made a fine showing, and the marked improvement weekly in the men is most remarkable.

HALF OF TURKISH ARMY DESERTED

Washington, Jan. 28.—One hundred and sixty thousand Turkish troops—more than fifty per cent of General Falkenhayn's reorganized Turkish army—deserted during the recent journey from Constantinople to Palestine, official dispatches today stated. General Falkenhayn, appointed by the Kaiser to reorganize the crumbling Moslems after General Allenby's victorious July Land campaign, after three days' inquiry returned to Constantinople and his entire plan for rehabilitation of the Sultan's forces has been abandoned, the reports declare.

THE WAR SITUATION.

The fact that the British have taken over a little more of the line south of St. Quentin does not support Col. Repington's assertion that there are not enough men to hold the former British lines. It is true that the French have been hard pressed to provide enough men for their very long portion of the line, and any degree of relief will be welcome; but the fact that Haig has the men to spare is reassuring, at a time when the enemy is said to have in contemplation a great new drive by land and sea.

The situation in Germany and Austria grows daily more interesting. The latter is prepared to offer more satisfactory peace terms than the former, and the relations between the two are less cordial than when they were confident of complete victory over the Allies.

Today's despatches bring a word of cheer from Lord Dunmore, who arrived in New York and told interviewers that the British, French and Americans would be able to halt any attempted German drive in the west, and that the Allies could go through the German lines whenever they chose, but had not sufficient man-power yet to follow it up effectively.

It is significant that three speakers in the German Reichstag sharply criticized the Chancellor's speech, and cited the friendly references of the Austrian foreign minister to President Wilson's proposals as an example Germany might follow.

It must not be forgotten, however, that the food situation in Britain grows more serious, and Canada must come to the rescue.

As the war draws toward a close, which ought to come this year, the question of social reconstruction attracts more and more attention.

The pan-Germans are said to be furious over the speech of Count Czernin of Austria and one newspaper is said to have gone so far as to say that Austria must be abandoned.

In a recent address before the Montreal Women's Club, Ven. Archbishop Paterson Smyth declared that there would be a new time and a new Canada after the war.

In Russia there is fighting between the Bolsheviks and Ukrainians, and there has also been a clash between Roumanians and Russians.

"What assassins!" exclaimed the Frenchman. "Would I were that I were safe back in France!"

SEVEN HOUR DAY DURING WAR, TO CONSERVE FUEL

Suggestion by Samuel Gompers as Alternative for Closing Down Plants Entirely on Certain Days

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 28.—A universal seven-hour day during the period of the war, instead of present spasmodic suspensions of industries by the fuel administration to conserve coal and relieve railroad congestion, was suggested today by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, in a speech to the convention of United Mine Workers.

He prefaced his declaration for a seven-hour day with a defence of those in high governmental station who have made mistakes. They are promptly held, he said, by the patriotic purpose to win the war and to think that the great transition from peace to war could be made without mistakes was asking the impossible.

Mr. Gompers said there can be no neutrality in this war. "You have got to be either for democracy or democracy," he declared. Labor must make victory sure for democracy, but sounded the warning that labor would not surrender the standards of life except to save the republic, that no sacrifice should be made solely for the pockets of the rich with large profits.

It was here that he defended men in high places, the chief of the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, he said, he heard the names of many men suggested to him as chief of the states, the wage government positions, but not one of the men named, he added, has ever done a public service or expressed a word of sympathy for the workers.

The miners' convention today again took up the question of changing the contract of negotiating wage contracts with the bituminous coal operators, delegates from Iowa, Illinois, Ohio and Western Pennsylvania demanding that they be presented in the interim—wage agreement made in the middle western state forms the basis for the new contracts in other soft coal districts are made.

When the convention adjourned yesterday, the leaders of the union had in their possession a resolution which they intended to refer to a special committee.

Gen. Boreovic Chosen to Succeed Archduke Eugene—Is Defensive Fighter.

There is a considerable effect on the campaign. Boreovic's command on the mountain front, and the field marshal's position, he has represented the extreme element opposed to the Austro-Hungarian offensive, and took the offensive only when German reinforcements compelled an advance.

CLOTHIERS DISCUSS ETHICS OF UNIFORMS

New York, Jan. 28.—Opposition to waste and extravagance in dress, but equally strong objection to "false economy," were voiced in resolutions adopted here today by the National Association of Clothiers. Hoarding of money by the public may ruin the clothing business, it was asserted. Raising of more sheep to produce more wool was advocated.

The ethics of army uniforms also was discussed. Some of the speakers declared it was unbecomingly rich men's sons to wear expensive uniforms when their officers, just as brave and patriotic, could not afford to buy clothing of as good quality. Standardization of fabric and tailoring, with a price fixed by the

War Menus
How to Save Wheat, Beef and Bacon for the men at the front. Issued from the Office of the Food Controller for Canada.

MENU FOR TUESDAY.
Breakfast: Hominy Grits, Pear Jam, Tea or Coffee, Bran Bread.
Dinner: Boiled Haddock, Potatoes, Canned Tomatoes, Chocolate Blancmange.
Supper: Corn and Potato Loaf, War Bread, Blueberry Jam, Tea.

The recipes for Corn and Potato Loaf and Boiled Haddock, mentioned above, are as follows:

Boiled Haddock:
Wash and scale thoroughly, wipe the inside, and fasten the tail in the mouth with a skewer. Put 2 oz. salt into ½ gal. water, and when it dissolves, put in the fish. Bring the water to a boil, remove the scum, then simmer gently (about ½ hour), for there is no probability at present of a drop in price. It is sufficiently cooked or it will be hard and tasteless. Garnish with parsley, and serve with melted butter.

Corn-and-Potato Loaf:
2 cupsful of canned corn
1 quart of potatoes
2 tablespoonfuls butter
2 teaspoonfuls salt
Dash of pepper
1 egg
1 teaspoon grated onion

To the hot mashed potatoes add the corn, the dripping and the seasoning. Beat the egg until light, keeping one teaspoonful to brush over the top of the loaf. Mix together very lightly. Grease well a baking dish, put in the mixture, smooth the top, and brush with egg. Place in a moderate oven and bake for thirty minutes or until nice and brown. Serve with cream sauce.

NO REDUCTION IN PRICE OF FLOUR

Toronto, Jan. 28.—The layman will never notice the difference between old flour and that which the food controller intends to introduce, is the verdict of the millers. The bread and pastry made from flour will be just as nourishing, just as palatable, and, incidentally, just as expensive, for there is no probability at present of a drop in price. It would be necessary for flour to drop $1.75 per barrel to effect a one-cent reduction in bread. There is only a slight possibility of a reduction of about fifty cents on the barrel, and as a cent is our smallest unit this would not reduce the price of bread.

Although they know nothing definite as yet, the millers hold that the price of new flour will be just as high as the old grain are mixed with the wheat. This will not be the case in Canada, for the flour will still be a pure wheat product.

The regulation will affect the layman very little. It is not practically a measure for saving, but one to standardize quality and price. In England other grains are mixed with the wheat. This will not be the case in Canada, for the flour will still be a pure wheat product.

"But don't make such a noise!" said the dame admonishingly. "Do they ever take you when you cry like that?"

"Sometimes they do, an'—an' sometimes they don't," howled the boy. "But it ain't no trouble to yell!"

BERLIN WORRIED BY WOMEN'S DEMAND FOR THE SUFFRAGE

Amsterdam, Jan. 28.—(By mail)—The question of woman suffrage is beginning to agitate Germany, despite the government's forcible insistence that this and kindred questions must not be made the subject of agitation until after the war.

Three formidable national organizations are now openly campaigning in Germany on behalf of woman suffrage—the women's department of the social democratic party, the German Imperium union for women's suffrage, and the German women's suffrage society. These organizations have just issued a united manifesto, which is regarded as the opening gun in a determined campaign. In this manifesto they say: "Up to the present Germany stands in the lowest rank of nations as regards women's rights. In most civilized lands women have already been given a large share in public affairs. German women have been granted nothing except within the narrowest limits. In New Zealand, Australia and most American states, and even before the war in Finland and Norway, they had been given political rights, today England, Sweden, Russia and many other countries give them full or limited franchise. The war has brought a full victory to the women of England, Canada, Russia and Denmark, and large concessions are within sight in France, Holland and Hungary."

"Among us Germans, not only the national but even the communal franchise is denied, or even share in the industrial and commercial courts. In the demand for the democratization of German public life, our legislators do not seem to even admit the existence of women—the question is limited to the extension of the share of citizens of the male sex in administrative and legislative affairs.

"But during the war the co-operation of the women in public life has unquestionably grown from year to year until today the number of women engaged in various callings in Germany exceeds the number of men. The work they are doing includes all spheres of male activity; without them it would no longer be possible to support the economic life of the people. Women have done their full share in the work of the community. Does not this performance of duty involve the right to share in the building up and extension of the social order?"

"The women protest against this lack of political rights, in virtue both of their work for the community and of their work as human beings. They demand political equality with men. They demand the direct, equal and secret franchise for all legislative bodies, full equality in the communes and in legal representation of their interests. This first joint pronouncement on women's demands will be followed by others until the victory of our cause is won."

CHILDREN HATE PILLS, CALOMEL AND CASTOR OIL

If Cross, Feverish, Constipated Give "California Syrup of Figs"

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, Calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach; and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

TRINITY SLEIGH DRIVE

As there was no Sunday school picnic last year on account of not being able to procure any trains the children of Trinity Sunday school were given a sleigh drive on Saturday afternoon instead. About 125 of the children were present and four large sleighs were needed to carry them. They set out from the Sunday school at 2.30 o'clock and drove as far as Torriben returning to the Sunday school at about 5 o'clock, where a hot bean supper was waiting for them. After supper games were played for a short time.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them; if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and scums and forms gas; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eructations of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach ailments is a revelation to those who try it.

The High Coat of Curiosity, A thin haired customer went into a barber shop to have his hair trimmed. Having sat down in a chair, he glanced at the looking glass in front, and saw reflected therein the attendant, who, to his surprise, was wearing rubber gloves. This fact caused the gentleman to become curious, so he said to the barber, "Why do you wear rubber gloves when cutting hair, my man?" "For the purpose," replied the attendant, "of keeping our celebrated hair restorer from causing hair to grow on my hands." He sold a bottle.

Food Administration In States Has Been Successful

Profiteering Has Been Checked and Sky-High Prices Prohibited

That the United States food administration has secured results during the last eight months is conclusively proved by a resume of the work accomplished. Food conservation has been criticized by a few persons who have not even taken the time to learn facts.

War with Germany was declared by the United States on April 6, 1917. President Wilson appointed Herbert Hoover United States food administrator May 11, 1917, and he was subsequently appointed federal food administrator in each state.

Much was accomplished, but the public got the erroneous idea, before the food law became active and while Mr. Hoover was working with the food people on a voluntary basis, that Mr. Hoover's object was a radical lowering of wholesale and retail prices.

This was not, could not have been and is not today true. All prices naturally and inevitably have a tendency to higher levels in war time. What the food administration always has had in mind and will continue to have in mind is the regulation of the world's food supply so that America and her associates in the war will be properly fed as a nation.

What the food administration has done with regard to prices is to insure fair prices on basic food commodities to retailers, based in actual cost of production, preparation and distribution.

The administration has accomplished by eliminating inflated prices due to market speculation in these basic commodities, by arbitrarily stopping waste and hoarding through its system of licensing manufacturers, distributors and all retailers doing more than $100,000 worth of business a year.

Control of prices of retailers doing less than $100,000 worth of business a year can be secured indirectly by the publication of actual wholesale prices and reasonable retail prices so that consumers will be advised as to prices they should pay for food commodities and by exercising the power over licensed wholesalers to shut off supplies from retailers who charge unfair prices.

The administration also has sought to aid the distribution of all available supplies of food, while shipping to our European associates as much as we could spare of wheat, meat, fats and sugar to make up their drastic shortages.

The problems of the food administration in 1918 promise to be equally if not more important than in 1917 unless, perchance, the war should end immediately, as now seems improbable in view of the recent results abroad. A stimulated production is absolutely essential in any year, but there can be no greatly stimulated production unless prices are maintained at a popular level, to make an increase in production possible. Low prices in America will not win the war; increased food production in America will.

The first problem of the food administration, therefore, is to encourage intelligent production next year so that the food requirements of the Allies' armies and nations and those of our own people may be met. It would now seem safe to prophesy that the food law promise of further reduction in the prices of foodstuffs, but this should never be emphasized as the important aim of the food administration.

Within the short time the food administration has been in actual operation under authority of law, speculative profits have been entirely or nearly eliminated in many lines of food. The accomplishments of the administration, when measured by contemporaneous eras, from the most remarkable page in the commercial history of any nation during the war, are the real accomplishments and benefits of the food administration to the people might well be judged by the fact that it has not happened that which has. Both speculation in the exchanges and on the curb and actual profiteering have been stopped or are being stopped on the staple commodities which go to sustain life. War has always heretofore, in all nations and with all peoples, meant unbridled speculation in foods.

For the first time in history an attempt is being made to curb the greed of speculators during a time of national peril. It should be borne in mind that the most extraordinary food demands ever made upon our people are to be met, if we play our part in the destiny of nations with a more nearly depleted larder than has ever been ours in our national history.

The only era in our national history that might be used as a measurement as to what could be expected at the present time were it not for food control is that of the Civil War. Now, after three years of drain, there is a known worldwide shortage in food, whereas, at a matter of comparison during the Civil War there was no actual shortage of foodstuffs and yet prices not only went up very rapidly but continued ascending in the latter stages, after the war had ended. The cost of high prices in any commodity was not reached in that era prior to 1861, and then on but few. Some things ceased advancing at the close of the war in 1865, and some commenced to decline only in 1867, 1868 and 1869.

While the general basis of prices at the commencement of the present era was considerably higher than at the commencement of the Civil War era, the percentage of increase so far has been and promises to continue, far more heavily indeed. Many commodities in which there was then no real national shortage, at least a world-wide shortage, increased several hundred per cent over the basic pre-war prices. These increases were almost if not entirely due to speculation rather than to any natural laws of commerce. It was partially to prevent a repetition of this disastrous example that the United States food administration was created.

On the 4th day of April congress declared that a state of war existed with Germany. On the 17th day of May following, less than a month and a half later, President Wilson appointed Herbert Hoover United States food administrator. When appointed he found that he had no power conferred upon him by law, but was directed by the president that he should accomplish whatever he considered expedient on a voluntary agreement, and this was the programme he followed until Aug. 10, when the United States food administration was established by law. Prices already high, ascended very rapidly between April 6 and May 17. Since that time, however, the law of food control, and the elimination of speculation, prices have been stabilized and on an average now show a slight decline, with promise of more healthy decline in the future.

Wheat is another illustration of what might have happened. Between April 6, when a condition of war was recognized, and May 17, when Mr. Hoover was appointed food administrator by the president, the price of wheat rose from $1.80 per bushel in February to $2.40 per bushel in May 17. Flour that sold for $2.15 in February was selling for $2.75 May 17. The wheat producers received but little or no benefit from this rapid increase in price. In truth this was largely a speculative increase made at a time when there was only a rather slight shortage in the public mind, and the wheat demands to be made this year upon the United States. Perhaps nothing more remarkable ever been recorded in commercial history than the spirit of acceptance on the part of the grain exchange people of the world when the food administrator without actual powers in May called their representatives together in Washington to instruct them that all speculation in wheat, must cease.

GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP OF STEAMSHIP SERVICES SUCCESS IN AUSTRALIA

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 28.—That government ownership and operation of steamship services has proven a great success in Australia is indicated in a report received here from D. H. Ross, Canadian trade commissioner at Melbourne. He says that the fleet of foreign carrying steamers purchased in June, 1916, by the commonwealth government, has done so well that it is now estimated the net earnings have paid off the original outlay of approximately $10,000,000.

CIVIL WAR CONDITIONS

The only era in our national history that might be used as a measurement as to what could be expected at the present time were it not for food control is that of the Civil War. Now, after three years of drain, there is a known worldwide shortage in food, whereas, at a matter of comparison during the Civil War there was no actual shortage of foodstuffs and yet prices not only went up very rapidly but continued ascending in the latter stages, after the war had ended.

THE HUMAN RESOURCES.

The Ottawa government would do well to follow the example of the Lloyd George government and add a minister of public health to its members. Canada has created machinery to help in the conservation of its material resources. It has lagged behind so far as federal action is concerned, in regard to the conservation of human resources.

SHARP CRITICISM OF THE STREET CAR SERVICE IN HALIFAX

There is very sharp criticism in Halifax of the street car service in that city. One correspondent of the Herald writes: "The desperate condition of the street car service in Halifax needs no elucidation, making every allowance for the emergency created by the disaster of December 6. No excuse or reason exists for the total demoralization of the system taken over by the city council."

BILL DONOVAN MAY GO BACK TO TIGERS

Jennings Wants ex Manager Of Yanks to Coach Heavers
Well, they have dug up another job for "Smiling Bill" Donovan, erstwhile manager of the Yankees. How, according to reports, he is to go back to his old team and assist Hugh Jennings, the Chicago Tribune, is going to try to come back. Jack is only forty-four, weighs only 220 pounds, and has been out of the game only since 1913. Otherwise he's as good as the days when he bent 'em over for the St. Louis Browns and the Yankees.

FACE COVERED WITH PIMPLES ASHAMED TO GO OUT

Many an otherwise beautiful and attractive face is sadly marred by unsightly pimples, blotches, flesh worms and various other skin diseases. Their presence is a source of embarrassment to those afflicted as well as pain and regret to their friends. Many a cheek and brow cast in the mould of beauty have been sadly defaced, their attractiveness lost and their possessor rendered unhappy for years. Why, then, consent to rest under this cloud of embarrassment?

It is Burdock Blood Bitters. This remedy will drive out all the impurities from the blood and leave the complexion clear and bright. Mrs. Katherine Henry, Port Sydney, Ont., writes: "Two years ago my face was so covered with pimples I was ashamed to go out at all. I tried several remedies, but they were of no use. At last a friend advised me to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I got a bottle, and by the time it was used I could see a difference. I then got two more, and when I had used them the pimples were completely gone. I can highly recommend B. B. B."

SUFFERED WITH NERVES

COULD NOT KEEP QUIET

Diseases of the nervous system are very common. All the organs of the body may be bound while the nerve centers may be affected. Many women become run down and nervous after household duties, never mind, and sooner or later find themselves their nerves shattered, and their heart action weakened.

A Jarring Note Saturday Night Not to Credit Of Local People Who Participated
Opera House patrons were out in force on Saturday and all four performances were well attended. That the various vaudeville acts were enjoyed by the audience is shown by the hearty reception tendered the participants and from the many favorable comments passed. The programme itself was of the high standard, and the variety of people who had vaudeville, for it is diversified and has novel features which add to its attractiveness.

SUIT SALE

We have taken stock of our Ready-to-Wear Suits and find a number of single suits and some lines that have proved slow sellers. They are worsted and tweeds in two and three-button sacks and pinch-backs.

They have been marked down to prices that should be attractive and effect the desired clearance.

In a word, suits regularly priced $15 to $30 have been reduced to $10, $15 and $17.50. To purchase several in anticipation of future needs would be a profitable investment.

Gilmour's 68 King St.

For twenty-one years he has been an officer in the imperial army, he wears a row of ribbons on his breast, but, like all big men, is extremely modest as to his honors. When asked by the Star what decorations the ribbons represented, with the blush of a school boy, Col. Hunter replied, "Oh, just the D. S. O. and a few other little things."

Col. Hunter, who had been attached to the right flank of the army for a number of years, was in Afghanistan when the war broke out, and for some months took part in the fighting on the northwest border. His experiences since then have been extremely varied. He has fought in the Balkans, he was chief of staff and commander of a brigade in Mesopotamia, where he was commander of the right flank of the army which is now under General Marshall, and also for a time was with Indian Expeditionary Force D, on the Russian front in the Caucasus, when our armies formed part of those of the Grand Duke Nicholas.

Col. Hunter was in the Komolof staff, which he stated was not a revolution, as reported in the papers here, but a revolution in the sense in which the word is used in the Russian language, and he was in Moscow and Petrograd during the heat of the revolution, but of his experiences there he is extremely reticent.

On his way home he had to face some interesting problems in transportation. After going 2,000 miles on the Trans-Siberian railway, he rode 600 or 700 miles on horseback through Persia, covering the remaining 500 miles to the city by motor car.

Conditions in Russia are intensely interesting, and are of the utmost importance. He was in the city in an interview with the Star. "Russia, if properly handled, will be a strong force for the world. Certainly there is only one universal feeling in the country, and that is a detestation of Germany. There is a feeling of sympathy for the Allies, and in power now—but not for long. No one party, no matter how strong it be, helps Russia at the present time, unaided."

"We ought to be very, very sympathetic with Russia. From the point of view of casualties she has suffered more than all the other allies combined."

In respect to his military position Col. Hunter would not speak much concerning conditions in Russia, but he related one picturesque incident.

"I remember one very impressive sight witnessed in Moscow last September. Against the background of the lurid red of the evening sky stood the Kremlin with its magnificent gold domes surmounted by the golden imperial eagles, emblem of the Russian empire."

Masned in the 'Red Place,' so named because of the terrible slaughter suffered there during the rule of an earlier Czar before the Revolution, were some 7,000 people, the typical Russian mob—soldiers, workmen, and women. They waved in the air a couple of thousand red revolutionary banners, bearing the inscription: 'Down with everything!'

With all this display scarcely a sound was heard. The huge mass was practically silent. The feeling was at white heat—too intense for shouting. To the six Italian men present it was an exceedingly momentous sight, and we were perhaps to form some idea of the conditions of Paris, in the days of the French revolution. Yes, while being impressive, this scene was far from being terrible—to us. Just a few words of description. Down with everything! We were up for our car, and we drove freely through the crowd. In spite of the lights on some of the banners, the movement it was known that we were British, we were everywhere greeted with cheers.

"We stopped to speak with one enthusiastic revolutionist who carried a banner bearing in Russian the inscription, 'Brotherhood, friendship, and love to the Russian republic with Nicholas!' When I asked him how he reconciled these two ideas, the amazingly simple solution was given. 'Oh, now that we have a republic, the next thing to do is to find a good Czar to rule it.'"

Shipbuilding in British Columbia

If history can be rolled upon it is just one hundred and thirty-one years since the first ship was built on the Pacific Coast of Canada.

The incentives for these gigantic efforts in British Columbia shipbuilding have been the demand for ocean tonnage created by the German submarines.

There is a bright prospect before the shipbuilders of British Columbia. It is possible that the yards there will be making ships for the Australian Government in the near future.

(1) A shipbuilding yard in British Columbia. (2) The Timber Dock. (3) Ships in course of construction at New Westminster.

The great ships of the Canadian Pacific Ocean Service, now plying between Vancouver, Victoria and countries of the East, when they have lived their allotted time and done their appointed work, may be replaced by other liners, just as magnificent, that will be built in the shipyards of the Canadian Pacific Coast.

SMASHING OF THE RECORDS IN MANY LINES OF SPORT

New York, Jan. 26.—The remarkable advance made in track and field athletics by American performers in recent years is strikingly demonstrated by the latest charts of the Amateur Athletic Union. With the exception of two or three events, the records show that almost every standard contest has repeatedly been bettered during the period since the early eighties when the A. A. U. was organized.

DOCTOR SAYS VINOL IS THE BEST TONIC

Honest Opinion Doctor Gave His Patient. Bedford, Ohio.—"I was in a pitiful condition, weak, nervous and run down so I could not do my housework. I had doctored for years and tried everything under the sun. A friend told me about Vinol. I asked my doctor about it, and he replied, 'It certainly is the best medicine that can be had today. I couldn't give you any better.' I took it, and today I am as well and strong as any woman could wish to be."

Holt at 22. President Ban Johnson of the American League announced the decision of his league Saturday night, declaring that the limit was undesirable when many clubs face heavy losses of players through enlistment or draft.

Means Added Expense. Ban Johnson's announcement of the abolition of the player limit in the American League will change the plans of many clubs which had intended to spend next season.

For those who stand the financial strain, it may be a good thing, for it will give them plenty of opportunity to experiment with an unlimited amount of untried talent in the big leagues, but whether it will not help to make the strong clubs stronger and the weak clubs weaker, comparatively, remains to be seen.

Several clubs had intended to go to their training camps with unusually small squads. Connie Mack, who appears to be worse off than any other manager in the league, intended, it is said, to take only 22 players to Florida this spring, and had planned big cuts.

Some clubs have been hard hit through the draft and enlistments, and the American League believes it would be unwise to force these up with a limit, for no matter how many men they took to the training camps, they could not hope to determine definitely the value of their prospects before May 1, when the player limit in both leagues goes into effect. They will be in luck if they can do so without making mistakes, by July 1.

LONG TRIPS, IS PLAN OF GLUSS

Committee of Major Leagues To Draft Schedule, Eliminating Extended Jumps

Pittsburgh, Penn., Jan. 25-Elimination of long trips by the baseball clubs of the National and American Leagues a patriotic measure to relieve the financial strain in as far as possible was agreed on by the schedule drafting committee of the two leagues in session here, it is decided, and it is not likely that any playing in cities where Sunday baseball is prohibited, will be permitted to make the long trip to western cities where Sunday games are allowed for a single game as in the past. The members of the committee for the National League are John Heydler, secretary-treasurer of the league, and Barney Dreyfuss, president of the Pittsburgh club. The American league is represented by Ben Johnson, league president, and William Harridge, league secretary.

GROVER ALEXANDER POOR SPORTSMAN?

So Cincinnati Writer Thinks Regarding Demand Made by A. ex. Grover Cleveland Alexander is superior to most other pitchers in many respects, but not in sportsmanship, so judge from his demand for a part of the purchase money paid for him by Chicago to Philadelphia, writes Jack Rydler in the Cincinnati Enquirer. He says he has no right to any portion of this sum, nor has any player under similar circumstances. The writer continues: "Alexander points to the fact that he won many games for the Phillies and always did his best while a member of the Quaker team. This is quite true, but he was paid a good salary for doing just that little thing, and he would have been an ingrate if he had not done his best. His skill made possible the sale by the Philadelphia Club, but he was paid a large salary just because he possessed that skill. "Any deal made for the services of a player is a transaction only between the clubs involved. So long as the purchasing club agrees to assume the salary of the player the latter has no kick coming and no claim for additional remuneration. Alexander has declared that he is glad to go to the Cubs. Then why should he be paid an extra sum for doing what he wants to do? "The trouble is that many ball clubs in the past have temporized with star players in a situation like this in order to avoid trouble. This was a mistake. Any attempt of a high salaried player to hold up a club for part of the purchase money at this time must be considered as the grossest kind of bad sportsmanship. Alexander's contract, which has been assumed by the Cubs calls for $12,500 a year, a pretty tidy amount in these days of baseball uncertainty."

The city council will meet to decide upon the matter. The case has developed in the residence of an I. C. R. conductor over the north crossing, his son-in-law being the affected person. The house and family have been quarantined.

THE BISHOP OF FREDERICTON TO FRANCE SOON

He and Rev. Dr. Neil on Ten Day Visit

THE LIFE OF OUR SOLDIERS

Presbyterian Moderator Speaks Of Temptations in London And Of Fine Way Men Are Meeting Them—Drunken Soldier A Rare Thing

London, Jan. 28.—(Canadian Associated Press)—Dr. John Neil, Toronto, moderator of the Presbyterian church, and the Bishop of Fredericton will go to France next week for ten days and will return to Canada soon afterwards.

Rev. Dr. Neil has returned to London after a few days of restoration at Basinstoke. He made some convincing observations regarding impressions he has formed after studying the life of the Canadian soldiers in England.

"I have been in camps where some 15,000 or 16,000 men are living and have seen in many hospitals and seen much of the life of the Canadians in London," said Dr. Neil. "It would be inadvisable to minimize the temptations to which the men are subjected, but this, I am afraid, is inevitable in a condition where huge numbers of strange men are assembled in or near big cities. One thing that has relieved me very much in England is the small amount of drunkenness, not only amongst the soldiers, but also the civilians. I have rarely seen a drunken soldier."

"Further, I can say, testimony is general that Canadian soldiers are standing well against the temptations; no body of soldiers now under arms are standing against temptations better. There is a sense of me that the many wild rumors undoubtedly prevalent throughout Canada concerning conditions prevailing in France are without justification. Heaps of good influence is brought to bear on our men, the chaplains' work is considerably improved and the influence of the commanding officers is in all their favor of speaking straight. Above all, perhaps, and left behind for a time, is the most potent factor in keeping men straight. People at home should not be unduly alarmed by reports which often undeniably are exaggerated."

QUICK WORK IN LIQUOR CASE; THREE ARRESTS ARE MADE

Zachariah Adams was before Magistrate Ritchie in this morning's police court on a charge of being drunk and also of having liquor in his possession in Guelton yesterday. He pleaded guilty and was remanded until the inspectors could bring to court the man who sold the liquor.

About 11 o'clock information was in the possession of Inspector Crawford and Barrett, and at 12 o'clock two more men were in custody in connection with the case—Louis Mullin and Michael Harris, a rapid piece of work. It came out in evidence that Adams had gone to Fairville on Saturday night and handed $10 to Mullin; the money then went to Harris and three bottles of gin were produced. The three men were remanded under possible fine of $200 each.

NATIONALS TAKE THREE

The Nationals took three points from the Beavers in a City League game on Black's alleys on Saturday evening. Considerable interest was centered in the game as the Beavers were tied for first place with the Ramblers and were playing their last game of the season. The loss of the three points gives the Ramblers a good chance to clinch the series, unless the Cubs can defeat them in their coming contest.
