THE ALAKE WOULD'NT EAT. Alake of Abekuta was visiting on at last mail advices from the country, and having some trouble with the students. The London account says: Alake drove to Marischal College where the students were very strident. When the Alake took at in the carriage to drive away them jumped on the back of the and placed his straw hat on the seat of the carriage. The Alake refused to get out, and although it was explained to him that it was a mark of honor, he did not appear to be convinced, and at the request of the Lord Provost, whether driven to luncheon, he declined any food. In the afternoon a trip in a trolley, and de-

OLD BANDIT DIES GAME. Tragio End of Famous Western "Bad Man." Kid Cuddy, Rival of Wild Bill and Jesse James Passes in His Checks.

NEW YORK, July 11.—Kid Cuddy, one of the last of the Western "bad men" is dead. For cool, unflinching outlaws he takes his place with "Wild Bill," "Apache Kid," the Youngers and the James boys. True to tradition he died fighting and wounded. Cornered by a posse, he said calmly to the companion who sought to rescue him: "I'm all in," and turning his pistol to his head sent a bullet through his brain.

Palma Trophy Returned. But English Rifle Association declares it Never Said the Yankees Won It Unfairly.

NEW YORK, July 11.—The Palma International trophy has been received by the British National Rifle Association from the National Rifle Association of the United States, and is now in the custody of Officials of the English Association at Bisley Camp, says a London despatch to the World. The council of that association is expected to decide how it shall ultimately be disposed of.

JAPS CAPTURE EIGHT GUNS. LONDON, July 11.—Special despatches to the Daily Telegraph from the Daily Mail from Tokyo assert that the Japanese captured eight guns during the fighting around Fort Arthur and that they recognized from a balloon.

NORTH END SHOCKED. Capt. George W. Peck, With Wife and Daughter Drowned off the Florida Coast. Seldom has the north end section of this city been so painfully shocked as it was yesterday, when news was received of the effect that Capt. George W. Peck, his wife and daughter, three former residents of that community, had been drowned on Saturday off the coast of Florida.

JEALOUSY, MURDER, SUICIDE. MONTREAL, Que., July 11.—Dominion liner Vancouver in port practically undamaged. The Vancouver grounded in Lake St. Peter near Sorel Saturday, July 10. Tugs failed to release her. A dredge was working at her stern, which was imbedded in seven feet of mud on Saturday afternoon, when the S. S. Bavarian, outward bound, ran close to the Vancouver and the heavy wash from her enabled the tugs to release her. She reached here Sunday morning.

THREE DAYS BATTLE ENDS IN JAP VICTORY. Kai Chau Captured After Desperate Resistance—Russians Driven Slowly Back With Great Loss.

TOKYO, July 11, 12 noon.—After three days severe fighting characterized by the desperate attacks of the Japanese and the stubborn resistance of the Russians, General Goto's army occupied Kai Chau (Kai Chau) last Friday driving the Russians northward in the direction of Hal Cheng. The Russians had strong fortifications in the hills situated in a semi-circle south of Kai Ping. Their forces consisted of over thirty thousand men.

NEW CHANG, July 6 (delayed in transmission).—Incoming ships report that eight Japanese torpedo boat destroyers are sweeping the Gulf of Ling Tiao in order to search for neutral ships which may be carrying on a more thorough manner.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 10.—While the Baltic fleet on its way to the far east is not likely to be able to get out of French ports, it is understood that the contractors will send coal from these ports to meet the fleet beyond the straits.

FOND FAREWELL. A young man who was in the woods in the rear of Rockwood park yesterday reports a very interesting discovery. Hanging on a tree he saw the uniform of one of the jail prisoners. He knew the uniform from the letters "G. P." on it. To the uniform was pinned a scrap of paper with the following farewell message: "Good-bye, Paddy."

Charles Garnett has been proudly exhibiting to his friends today a splendid trout, weighing seven pounds, which he took at Treadwell's Lake Saturday night.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. George Pike, of 110 Winter street, sympathize deeply with them in the loss of their little daughter, Edna Elizabeth, who died this morning, aged six months.

In the probate court this morning, accounts in the estate of the late Charles Lawton were passed. Dr. A. O. Earle, K. C., and W. A. Ewing appeared for interested parties.

Salesmen passing Waterbury & Ringling's store, King street, Saturday morning, were pleased to see the half holiday closing card on their window. This firm had signed the agreement to close if any other store on King street would do so.

Charles Mayall, who for some years past has been connected with the Victoria Hotel, has purchased the Dominion House on the Westmoreland road, formerly conducted by Joseph Kane. The property was purchased at auction, the price paid being $1,500.

Hgn. R. J. Ritchie left on the Quebec express this morning for Bathurst, where he will join J. J. McGuffigan and a party who will spend about a week fishing in the country. During his honor's absence, Acting Magistrate Geo. Henderson will preside over affairs at the police court.

Special meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary and board of management of the Seaman's Mission Society, will be held this Monday evening, July 11th, at 8 o'clock, in the hall of the Seaman's Mission, to present to hear secretary and treasurer's report and other important business.

The death took place on Friday at the General Public Hospital of Sanford Wheelery, age 13 years. He was taken to his mother's home, Pond street, where the doctor took on being sent away afternoon at 4 o'clock. The service was conducted by the Rev. W. O. Raymond. Interment was made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

J. Willard Smith received a telegram this morning from Sackville from the captain of the schooner Wanola, announcing the arrival of the schooner at the mouth of the river and stating that yesterday the Wanola lost both anchors and cables and the schooner was in danger of being wrecked. The schooner was carrying a cargo of coal and car wheels.

David Gilchrist, of Central Norton, died Friday under very painful circumstances. He was a native of Scotland and had been in the city for some time. He was a member of the Orange Lodge and was a very popular man. He was buried in the cemetery at 10 o'clock.

The Victoria, after leaving the excursionists at Gagetown will go to Fredericton and will call at Gagetown on the way down, leaving with excursionists at 6 p. m.

At Gagetown there will be an Orange Lodge picnic on Saturday. The picnic will be a grand affair, with a parade, speech making, and the graves of several brethren will be decorated. The members of the Orange Lodge will be present in large numbers.

A monster egg. The Victoria, the jovial proprietor of the popular Loyalist Hotel, at Loch Lomond brought to the Star office this morning the local record breaker in the way of eggs. It was the work of black and red English game hen and was laid yesterday. It weighs six ounces, is four and a quarter inches in length and seven inches in circumference. Internal examination to ascertain the number of yolks it contains will be made as soon as the staff can settle whether it will taste best boiled or poached or scrambled or fried or hashed brown.

MISSION CHURCH PICNIC. The Mission church picnic on Wednesday at Westfield affords a fine opportunity for any person wishing to give themselves a convenient holiday in a day in the country.

The trains leave at convenient hours and the fare is much below the regular rates. Members of the congregation having supplies for the picnic are requested to send them to the S. S. House on Tuesday afternoon or evening.

PLEASANT OUTING. The Avenue Success Club, of the Douglas Avenue Baptist church, held a very pleasant excursion outing on Saturday. The club drove as far as the Kennebec falls, returning in the evening.

The Douglas Avenue Baptist church Sunday school holds its annual picnic on Saturday at Westfield. The picnic leaves at 9.30 a. m. and returns at 7 p. m.

SUDDEN DEATH.

John McLaughlan Died Suddenly This Morning—Well Known West End Lady Dead.

The death occurred shortly after midnight of John McLaughlan, eldest son of the late Charles McLaughlan, who for years conducted a ship chandlery business in this city. Deceased, who was 22 years of age, was unmarried and was well known about the city.

For years he acted as head bookkeeper for the firm of Charles McLaughlan & Son, but after their retirement from business led a quiet life. For some time past he had not enjoyed the best of health, but his death came as a severe shock to his relatives as a great surprise to all who knew him.

Yesterday Mr. McLaughlan attended the funeral of the late James Malcolm, and returning from the cemetery took a car up town. About 8.30 o'clock he complained of feeling unwell and gradually sank till he passed away shortly after midnight. Mr. McLaughlan had a severe illness about a year ago, and for some time received treatment at the hospital.

Deceased leaves one brother, Charles McLaughlan, Lloyd's agent, at this time Thomas Coram, at the residence of Mrs. G. R. Smith, Mrs. Dr. Burleigh and Mrs. Charles Watterson.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon from 62 Wentworth street.

The death occurred yesterday of Mrs. Elizabeth Coram, widow of the late Thomas Coram, at the residence of Mrs. G. R. Smith, City Line, West. The deceased lady was a descendant of the Scotch Highlanders who settled on the St. John river over a century ago. Her husband was well known in the city, having been land agent for the city for some years and later connected with the western extension of the railway line from St. John. Mrs. Coram is survived by one sister, Mrs. P. Glimmer, at present residing in this city.

The funeral takes place on Wednesday.

Escaped G. P. Recaptured—Canadian Sailor in Trouble—Fined for Fishing in Lily Lake.

Thomas Fleming, a man of 40 years of age, escaped from the Rockwood Park jail gang on Sept. 15th last, and succeeded in leaving the city in the police till Saturday. During the afternoon Sgt. Baxter had occasion to go through the Old Burial ground and there at Fleming as big as life and looking supremely happy. The sergeant invited Fleming to accompany him across the street to the central station and Fleming went. In the police court this morning he was remanded, which probably means that after he has served the remainder of his term he will be brought before the court on the charge of escaping from lawful custody.

James Sweeney belongs to Ireland and is an able seaman on the Dominion fishery cruiser Curlew, or to be more correct he was an able seaman on the Curlew, but is now boarding at the big stone hotel on King street, and tomorrow will be promoted to a position on the Rock Candy mine gang. Sweeney undertook to run the Curlew yesterday afternoon and is in 30 days.

Robert S. Ward, a dry goods clerk, went fishing at Lily Lake on July 10th, and was fined $20 for violating the park regulations. Ward was warned not to repeat the offense.

J. D. DRISCOLL FINED $200. Another Violator of the Liquor Law Pays the Penalty—May Be More Cases.

The last of the liquor cases, the result of the Howe crusade, was settled in the police court at noon on Saturday. The case in question was three charges against J. D. Driscoll, proprietor of the Hotel Edward, one was for violating the law on Sunday, June 28, and the other two for selling after hours on the nights of June 4th and 11th. Mr. Driscoll was represented by E. S. Ritchie, and on the three cases a fine of $200 was imposed. This would mean $100 for the Sunday case and $50 each for the other two cases.

While there has been considerable talk and lots of rumors to the effect that there are many other charges to be laid, as yet the authorities have not been notified and they do not believe that there are any more just at present. Mr. Howe has stated publicly that he is not yet through with the liquor violators, so those that do not conform with the law had better look out.

Mr. Howe takes strong objection to the fact that saloons are allowed to have back doors. The law says that they should only have one door, and he is going to see that this law is carried out or know the reason why.

MINISTERS' MEETINGS. The Methodist ministers met this morning at the usual time and place. Those present were C. W. Hamilton in the chair, Dr. Sprague, Dr. Wilson, C. Combs, H. D. Marr, J. A. Clark, G. M. Young, S. Howard, secretary pro tem.

The reports from the churches for two Sundays were received. It was decided that the chairmanship of the preacher's meeting for the ensuing year should be held in the regular order of the churches, beginning with Queen square. The election of secretary was deferred until next regular meeting.

FORCE OF HABIT.

Three well known townsmen, whose wobbling gait seemed to indicate an undue imbibition of the ardent, were held up Saturday night on the east side ferry boats and requested to maintain a little more steadiness in their walking before boarding the ferry. They indignantly resented the imputation that they were intoxicated. What might have ended in a nasty altercation was patched up with the explanation that the townsmen thought they were walking along North Rodney slip in the direction of the West side boats. Moral:—Alcohol is not the only cause of unsteady walking.
