Hot Air Heating!

For many years we have been giving this branch of our business a great deal of thought and attention, making it a specialty. We therefore invite anyone who may think of installing a furnace to inspect and compare our line which includes the Enterprise "Leader" in various sizes for wood and coal.

A large number of "Leader" furnaces have been placed all over the country and we have many references from those using them, expressing their satisfaction.

An illustrated circular containing full particulars will be mailed to those who may not be able to make a personal investigation. Estimates promptly and cheerfully furnished.

ORANGE HALL AT WELSFORD STRUCK BY LIGHTNING WHILE DANCE WAS IN PROGRESS.

PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENTS SHOULD ADOPT FORESTRY POLICY

In the Speech From the Throne Earl Grey Dwells on the Continued Prosperity of Canada—The Invitation to the King.

OTTAWA, July 13.—Parliament was prorogued at noon today. Earl Grey dismissed the members with the following:—

SPEECH FROM THE THRONE.

Speech From the Throne No. 1.—

Honorable Gentlemen of the Senate:

Honorable Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

In relieving you from further attendance in parliament, I desire to thank you for the care and assiduity exhibited in the discharge of your laborious and exacting duties.

Your invitation to His Majesty, the King, to visit this part of his dominions was only forwarded to Buckingham Palace. That it would be a source of great rejoicing in Canada if His Majesty should favorably entertain the invitation is confirmed by many similar addresses adopted in all the provinces, cities and towns, all expressing the hope that His Majesty may honor us with another visit.

It is very gratifying to note that Canada continues to enjoy a prosperity rarely equalled in the history of the nation. The volume of exports and imports during the year just closed exceeds that of any previous record. The revenue also shows a remarkable increase. The receipts on account of the consolidated fund having doubled in the last ten years. The large number of private bills that have received your approval, having for their object the incorporation of railway and other industrial enterprises, affords additional evidence of the general prosperity prevailing over the Dominion. The stream of immigrants seeking homes in the western provinces continues to flow in increasing volume, and owing to the favorable conditions now existing in Alberta and Saskatchewan their vacant lands are being rapidly taken up.

Several acts of great public utility have been added to the laws in the session now drawing to a close.

Among the number I am glad to note an act for the better observance of the Lord's Day.

An act to secure the better marking of fruit.

An act requiring that certain articles containing a proportion of gold and silver when offered for sale should be honestly marked.

An act relating to immigrants and immigration, which, among other provisions, will enable the authorities to deport undesirable persons.

It is earnestly to be hoped that your example in passing the act setting apart large areas for forest reserves will be followed by those provincial legislatures having jurisdiction over their public domain; and that a system of reforestation may be adopted in all parts of the Dominion, thereby preserving the uniform flow of our rivers and of our valuable water powers.

In view of the many important acts passed, and of the numerous amendments made to existing laws during the session, it has been found expedient to stay the issue of the volume of the revised statutes in order that the recent legislation may be embodied.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons: I thank you in His Majesty's name for the supplies you have so liberally voted.

Hon. gentlemen of the senate: Gentlemen of the house of commons: A copy of the session regarding commercial relations between Japan and Canada has now been received. The treaty has been duly ratified and exchanged, thereby giving Canada material advantages in our trade with Japan.

I now express the hope that on your return to your several homes you will find evidence that the coming year will be a bountiful one, assuring a number of years of prosperity throughout the Dominion.

Ludlow Nase of Nerepis Instantly Killed, a Young Lady Badly Burned and Scores of Others Rendered Unconscious.

A Panic Followed, Lights Were Put Out, and Hundreds of Pleasure Seekers Were Badly Frightened—Buildings in the City and Elsewhere Struck During Last Night's Storm.

The members of the Welsford Lodge, No. 111 and other lodges with a number of their friends were celebrating the 12th of July at Welsford last evening. The hall was struck by lightning. Ludlow Nase, of Nerepis, was instantly killed, a young woman was badly burned and over a hundred were rendered unconscious by the shock. It is considered miraculous that many others were not killed. The hall was badly damaged.

The celebration was in charge of the Welsford Lodge and was joined in by Sunbury Lodge, No. 145; Star of the Boyne, No. 36; Nerepis Hermit, No. 4; Clones, No. 99; No Surrender, No. 18; of Gagetown; Star of the East, No. 85; Metcalfe Lodge, No. 101; Oldville, and visitors from No. 112 Lodge and from St. John.

A procession was formed by the local lodges at half-past ten in the forenoon and marched to the station to meet the visitors. Reforming and headed by the pipers, the Orangemen marched back to their new hall. Dinner was served at the station and the pipers, the Orangemen and the reformers were present.

The whole company then moved to the picnic grounds, where various games were carried out. Speeches were made by P. C. M. S. L. Dupuis, P. C. M. W. O. Patterson, and P. G. M. Douglas MacArthur. The picnic was continued during the whole afternoon and about six o'clock the company adjourned to the Welsford Lodge.

Music was furnished by the pipers and violin and every person was having a good time.

The storm which had passed over during the day seemed to be coming back, but the dancers paid no attention to the rumblings of the thunder, and never thought for a moment that they were in any danger.

At a quarter past twelve this morning a blinding crash was felt, and the dancers paid no attention to the rumblings of the thunder, and never thought for a moment that they were in any danger.

The building had been struck in the front. The lightning struck the top of the flag pole, followed this down and tore its way through the front wall of the building. It entered the hall, ran along one wall and struck the stove, sending pieces of the iron flying all through the room. It went through the floor, followed the joists and came in another place, making almost a complete wreck of the building.

The visitors were at the time engaged in dancing a polka quadrille, but Ludlow Nase, who was about to leave for home, was sitting in the ante-room, waiting for his sister.

A young lady, whose name was not learned, who was dancing at the time was struck by the lightning and was very badly burned about the hips and legs. Fifteen or twenty others, who were near the stove at the time were rendered unconscious, but with the exception of the young woman, no one was seriously hurt.

A panic ensued and an uproar for fully half an hour, women screaming and men running to and fro, trying to revive those who had been injured.

After a time lights were procured and it was found that Mr. Nase had been killed. Dr. Arnold was hurriedly summoned and upon examination expressed the opinion that the young woman would recover, although her injuries were very severe and she will be confined to her home for months.

On examination of the body of Mr. Nase the only mark found was a small purple spot over the heart. Within a few minutes, however, his entire body became black. Word was sent to his home and his body was brought down this morning on the suburban train to Nerepis, where his parents live.

Mr. Nase, who was thirty years of age, was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. David Nase, of Nerepis.

He died some three years ago but his wife died a short time their marriage. He is survived by his parents and three sisters, two of whom live in the United States, one of them being a nurse in Boston. Mr. Nase was very well known and most popular. He was a farmer by occupation and his place was frequently visited by St. John people.

The wounds received by the young woman were dressed in the hall by Dr. Arnold and early this morning she was removed to her home, within a few miles of the hall.

Most of the people who were stunned by the shock recovered after a few minutes, but in some cases the action of the lightning was most marked. One man, by the name of McDonald, who had been rendered unconscious, on coming to his senses made a dash for the door and in spite of the pouring rain ran the only way down the road and had not been seen up to nine o'clock this morning.

Further particulars received from Welsford this morning convey the information that several persons were seated in the ante-room with Mr. Nase at the time he was killed and they were all stunned, but no one was badly injured.

The storm had passed over Welsford from the westward during the day and came back seemingly from the direction of St. John. It was one of the worst thunder storms ever experienced in the district, and the rain fell in torrents.

THE STORM AT HAMPTON.

HAMPTON, N. B., July 13.—Last night's thunder storm was one of the most severe electric disturbances experienced here in many years. It began about 9 o'clock but was unimportant until shortly before midnight when it became very violent, the lightning being extremely vivid and almost continuous. FOUND HIS MOTHER DEAD.
Mrs. Duffy Came to Canada Five Years
Ago and Worked for Money to Pay Her
Only Son's Passage Over.

MONTREAL, July 11.—Patrick Duffy, an Irish youth of fourteen years, arrived in Montreal a few days ago, hoping to join his mother, who had preceded him to this country. The two mother and son, were the only living members of their family, and so the mother decided to come to Canada and prepare the way. That was five years ago, when her boy was but nine years old. Not until recently was it possible for Patrick to leave his native land, but at last the whereabouts came. The lad arrived here, buoyant and full of hope, but his mother was not at the place to which he had been directed. Then began a search. Traces led to the city morgue, and there the boy found the features that he knew so well awaiting identification. The woman had died suddenly while at work

STEAMER CERVONA
STILL HARD AND FAST

QUEBEC, July 12.—News received from South Point, Anticosti, is to the effect that the vessel is still in the same position. There was a slight leak in No. 3 tank, but otherwise the ship was perfectly tight. The Canadian Government Steamer Cervona, left Sydney for Montreal, on the 11th inst., and was delayed by some fog on the way down the coast, but due there today. The steamer Lord Strathcona, from Quebec, was delayed by some fog on the way down the coast, but due there today. THE MOVING PICTURES

The San Francisco pictures shown at the Opera House last evening convey a far more real impression of the great western disaster than can be had by pages of description. It must have been a most difficult matter to secure any views at all, and while Miles Bros. claim to have done this, they have done a complete view of the city in flames, yet a number of pictures of the conflagration are presented which are exceptionally good. In addition there are very fine views of the ruined streets, and spectators are able to secure a good idea of what the city looked like a week or two after the earthquake. The scenes of crumbling buildings, the camps in the different parks, and the curious effects of the

NEXT WEEK'S ATTRACTION.

"Hermann, the Great" who appears at the Opera House next week has the reputation for being a persistent originator and his performance this season adds to that reputation many new laurels. An entirely new and startling programme of magic is offered for the amusement of the local theatregoers. Hermann made an extended trip to Europe this past summer and while there secured many new and sensational feats of magic, which combined with a number which are original with him and built under directions, gives him a programme surpassed by none and superior to any ever presented on any stage. "Hermann the Great" brings the entire company to St. John with all his magnificent scenery and effects.

JEROME TAKES ACTION IN THE THAW MURDER CASE.

Warrants for Witnesses Now Being Issued.

NEW YORK, July 12.—District Attorney Jerome returned to New York today from his summer home in Lakeville, Conn., and plunged into the Harry Thaw murder case. With Assistant District Attorney Garvan he spent several hours up town and it is said the two prosecutors had interviews with important witnesses. Neither Mr. Jerome nor his assistant would discuss their conference when they returned to the criminal courts building but it was rumored that important developments soon are expected.
It was reported that it is the intention of District Attorney Jerome to put Harry Thaw on trial the first Monday in October for the murder of Stanford White. Whether the trial will take place in the court of general sessions or whether it will be transferred to the criminal branch of the supreme court has not been decided.
Mr. Jerome will personally conduct the prosecution, assisted by Mr. Garvan. If the trial is held in part I of general sessions, it will be before Judge Otto A. Trosky.
It is known that some of the prosecution's warrants, among them Miss May Mackenzie, are already under subpoena to attend part I of general sessions October 1. The subpoenas are all made out in the case of "The People of the State of New York against Harry K. Thaw."
It is expected that a special panel of Jurors will be summoned to court for the October terms and that it will take probably a week before the jury box will be filled.

Lung Rest
Your lungs have all they can do. They work night and day, and are faithful to the end. Then use them well. If they are rasping and tearing themselves by hard coughing, come to their relief. CONDITIONS IN ENGLAND.

The scene of interesting developments in the canned meat and allied industries is being transferred from America to England and a report recently made of conditions found there is about as cheerful reading as Upton Sinclair's book. A careful inspection has been made and the report shows that the British public have good reason to first clean their own houses before demanding reforms in America. When the statements concerning Chicago were made, and when the excitement was at its height, a writer in one of the leading London dailies suggested that if an investigation were made at home, the people would find that they had very little room to criticize. He made the alarming declaration that only a few days before, one of the largest manufacturers of marmalade had completed a contract with the management of certain theatres for all the sweepings from the gallery, the orange peel which was secured to be made into marmalade. He also asserted that in the manufacture of certain articles there were used foreign substances which would ruin the sale of these commodities if the public knew the truth. These stories like The Jungle were received as gross exaggerations, for the conservative Britisher had been living in the delusion that there could be no fault found with the manufacture of food products at home. The report which has just been presented shows how different the actual conditions are and how urgently reforms are needed. It has been simply a case of the British citizen failing to see the boys in his own eye. The probably become aware of the true state of affairs before now and will energetically take the necessary action towards the bettering of conditions. In certain lines of goods the export to America is very large and a failure to prove that cleanliness is observed in the manufacture would result in the loss of the greater part of the American trade.
According to the report, dirty factories and revolting methods are the rule. Jam factories, bakeries and sausage makers are all censured as being equally filthy and the description of one fits most of the others.
The report on a typical jam factory is as follows: "The boiling room lay between the yard and the stable and the horses reached the latter through the boiling room. The sanitary accommodation was hardly separated from the rooms where the fresh fruit and covered jam were kept and the factory inspector found jam pots being washed in 'liquid like dark soup, which smelled abominably.' The manager informed the inspector that the water was changed 'about once a week.' When fished out of these evil smelling tanks the pots were allowed to stand until dry, when they were considered to be ready to receive fresh instalments of preserves.
Inspectors of bakeries found that it was a frequent custom to bathe the children in them after the close of work on Saturdays. 'The sausage factories,' says the report, 'are insanitary, dilapidated, badly lit and often infested by rats.'"

THE PROPOSED CITY HALL.
St. John needs a new city hall. The building which is now in use is by no means creditable, nor is there sufficient accommodation in it for the various departments. But the question which is to be considered is whether the city can afford new offices. Where is the money to come from? The city debt is five million dollars, debentures are not eagerly sought, interest charges are fairly high, and money is scarce. It would seem rather an unwise policy for the aldermen to decide on the erection of a new building while the finances are in such a condition and while there is such a pressing need for other improvements. Yet if the members of the council seriously consider the project in the same way as they would be considered in whether the city can afford new offices, they will be disappointed, badly lit and often infested by rats."

GO BY BALLOON.
Gent—My son, if you swear like that, you'll never go to heaven.
Kid—Oh, I dunno! By the time I die they'll have airships.

EVERYONE DOES IT.
LIVES there a man with soul so dead,
Who never to himself hath said—
Cuss those Musketeers?

HIS OBJECTION.
"Why won't you marry Matilda?"
"Because she's a woman with a past."
"Why I never heard anything against her. What's your objection to her past?"
"There's too much of it."

NO NEED TO FEAR.
"I say, boy," remarked a would-be fisherman, "are there any fish in this stream?"
"Yes."
"Will they bite?"
"None of them ever bit me, mister; but you don't need to go into the water to fish if you're afraid of 'em."

AN UNDERHANDED TRICK.
Creditor—So you want an extension of two weeks? What would happen if you were to die before the time elapsed?
Debtor—Sir, I am too much of a gentleman to do that!

SELF PROTECTION.
"Yes, my dear, while we were alone he had the impudence to kiss me."
"I suppose you told him what you thought of him?"
"Indeed I did every time he did it."

British manufacturers have taken an important step in sending to Canada an agent who will report upon the best means of establishing commercial agents in this country. It is evident that the value of the Canadian market is impressing itself upon home producers, and also that in these days of keen competition old time methods of business are not all that are required.

In the face of such a storm as that of last night, doesn't a man feel small?

Parliament has given and parliament has taken away, and an Upper Canadian paper suggests that the ex-ministers may now rise up and say, "Blessed be the name of parliament."

The Star offers a splendid opportunity to all persons to secure season tickets for the exhibition. Full particulars appear elsewhere in this paper.

LOVE'S TRAMWAY.
Love is a rapid transit line.
Much like the modern trolley—
Gold bounded, and, in short, a fine investment for your Folly.

Its car are crowded, wet or fair;
Men, maid and widows hurry
To get aboard and pay their share
Of dividends in Worry.

From Sweetheart Square the line goes down
To Nuptial Park (suburban),
Connecting thence to Haremtown
For wearers of the turban.

A branch extends to Quarrelville,
To serve the heavy spenders;
And cars to Alimony
Go loaded to the senders.

Crowds get aboard at Rival Row,
But no one gives his seat up,
And those who sit no interest show
Except to draw their feet up.

At Fickle Street there's quite a stir—
Some take a new direction,
Obtaining there a free transfer
To Avenue Rejection.

For those with hearts already caged
The common public scolding,
The special parlor car "Engaged"
Is run till early morning.

Dan Cupid is the motorway,
And the conductor Hymen
Shouts in a voice stentorian,
"Step lively, please!" to shy men.

The power plant is at the Mint,
And when the current ceases
It's most amazing how that hint
The patronage decreases.

When there's an accident, it starts
The lawyers on their mettle,
With claims for fractured hopes and hearts.

And some one has to settle.
No threat of bankruptcy assails
A road financed as this is—
Men pay their fares in fairy tales
And make pay theirs in kisses.

For women folk, however, there
Are two quite separate classes:
The lovely maid alone pay fare—
The others ride on passes.

CHANCES WERE SLIM.
At a recent dinner which was attended by a number of clergymen, President Buchanan of the University of Vermont told the following of Bishop Hall, of the Episcopal diocese of Vermont, in response to some good natured chaff about the liberal views of the Congregational Church, and the ease with which almost anybody could join it.

He said he had heard of a negro who had many times applied for membership in St. Paul's church, but had not been able to satisfy the bishop that his state of mind entitled him to admission. The negro had been advised to pray that his spiritual condition might improve. After doing so he made a new application. The bishop said to him: "Well, Erasmus, have you prayed as I told you to?"

"Yes, indeed, sir; I done prayed an' I done tole de Lawd I want to join St. Paul's Church, an' de Lawd he say to me."

"Good luck, Rastus! I been tryin' to join dat Chu'ch fo' twenty years Mass'et."

SENSATION DEVELOPED IN HARTJE DIVORCE CASE

The Wife Says She Never Wrote the Letters Upon Which the Action is Based—Handwriting Experts Support Her.

PITTSBURG, July 12.—Mary Scott Hartje, who is contesting a suit for divorce brought by her husband, Augustus Hartje, the millionaire manufacturer, was the starting witness when the case was taken up today, after a week's adjournment during which counsel for both sides with handwriting experts examined the letters that Mrs. Hartje is alleged to have written and which figure prominently in the case. Mrs. Hartje threw the counsel for her husband into some what of a disconcerted attitude when she flatly contradicted her testimony of last week and denied that she ever wrote the letters which the handwriting experts for her husband argued that she wrote the famous forty letters alleged to have been written by her to "Tom" Madine.

The sensation thus produced was further heightened when David N. Carvalho, the handwriting expert was called to the stand and declared on the stand that the torn and mutilated exhibit No. 35, on which the case is based, was a "forged and mutilated document."

He said he had noticed 3 distinct handwritings in the exhibit. When the case was resumed at 2 o'clock, Carvalho went on the stand and reiterated his testimony, adding that the cardboard letter was "fabricated" and was not in the handwriting of anyone whose penmanship had been exhibited in the case.

Dr. Marshall D. Ewell, the Chicago handwriting expert, followed Carvalho on the stand and corroborated him. Both said the letters they had examined were in the same handwriting as the Wagner letter. Court adjourned for the day with D. Ewell on the stand. Both Carvalho and Ewell will be called to the stand again tomorrow.

BAPTISTS DECLARE IN FAVOR OF PROVINCIAL PROHIBITION

At the Baptist Association meeting yesterday afternoon the following were appointed on the Home Mission Board Committee:

For District No. 1, L. A. Fenwick; No. 2, B. G. Freeman; No. 3, D. M. Simpson; No. 4, Rev. Geo. Foster; No. 5, C. T. Dykeman; No. 6, Rev. A. Perry; No. 7, W. H. Perry; No. 8, LeB. Goddard; No. 9, A. E. Wall; No. 10, John Norton, and five others, viz, Judge Emmerson, Rev. B. Smith, Rev. A. J. Prosser, C. W. Weyman, and Rev. D. Long.

The advisory committee is composed of Rev. Dr. McLeod, Rev. Dr. McIntyre, Rev. D. Long, Rev. D. Hutchinson and C. T. Phillips.

The temperance committee consists of Rev. E. J. Grant, Rev. M. Addison, and C. W. Weyman.

The Sunday school committee is composed of T. S. Simms, J. J. Wallace, John E. Sillip, John Brancombe and Rev. W. C. Gardner.

The report of the financial committee was then read by F. W. Emmerson and adopted.

Rev. Colter White of the Western Mission Field then spoke briefly, after which two young men, Mr. Tedford and Mr. Copeland, were ordained into the ministry.

The treasurer's report showed the receipts to be $1,143.39 and expenditure $1,012.49.

A resolution moved by Rev. E. J. Grant favoring a provincial prohibition law was unanimously passed.

In the evening two short addresses were delivered, one on education and one on missions.

Principal DeWolfe of Acadia Seminary was the first speaker. After pointing out the necessity of a good education to the young people of this generation he concluded by referring to Acadia Seminary as a place for training the young women not only to acquire scholastic attainments, but to enable them to make homes happy.

Dr. Jones, of Acadia, the next speaker, complimented the New Brunswick students who had attended Acadia. For 5 years out of 8 they had carried away the highest honors, and he predicted the leaders this year would be from New Brunswick. Dr. Jones pointed out some of the advantages of our smaller colleges over the larger ones found in the States.

Rev. Colter White of the Western Mission Field then spoke briefly, after which two young men, Mr. Tedford and Mr. Copeland, were ordained into the ministry.

ORANGE HALL AT WELSFORD STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

A VERY SEVERE STORM.

Last night's electric storm was one of the worst that has visited this part of the province for a number of years, and has been attended in many places by disastrous results. The storm apparently started some forty or fifty miles up river, and after sweeping down the river and making itself severely felt throughout the city, turned northward. It started here about 10:30 p. m. with heavy rain followed by lightning and thunder. About eleven o'clock a clap of thunder came which many who were unfortunate enough to be on the street at the time, say surpassed anything they have ever heard, and sounded like the bursting of thousands of cannons in the heavens.

STREET CARS HUNG UP.
About this time a number of street cars were hung up in different parts of the city, and the passengers at shivering in darkness within waiting for the storm to abate, when they might venture in the homeward direction on foot. One car full of passengers was hung up on City Road for a considerable time. In vain the motorman tried to operate the car first from one end and then the other, but the electric current was too strong and the passengers were kept in constant shivers of fright both from without and within. Electric sparks like small lightning flashes drove the passengers from one end of the car to the other, and they finally decided to face the storm outside.

TELEGRAPH LINES OUT OF BUSINESS.

During the storm telegraphic communication with many points was disturbed. All telephone connection with the West End and in the city was broken, the fuses being burned out. Several large shade trees throughout the city were laid low. The steamer Huron docked before the storm arose, and the Captain Austin which docked about 9:30 this morning was apparently out of the storm's reach at the time it occurred.

HAD A NARROW ESCAPE.

During the progress of the storm a tenement house on City Road was struck by lightning and two of the occupants narrowly escaped death. There are four families, including about thirty people in the house. The bolt entered the house through the corner of a bedroom occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Kelly on the top flat. The bed room was a small room, and the lightning bolt, which was called down by the pillows, and some bed clothes caught fire. Only about two minutes previous to this Mr. Kelly had gone from his room into an adjoining one to attend to one of the children who was restless. He was standing in the doorway when the lightning bolt struck his wife to come in and put the bedside lamp. Thus it was but a hair-breadth escape from what would have been a certain death, and the family are disposed to regard it as a providential interposition. Hearing the awful crash, Mr. Kelly seized the burning clothes and threw them out of the window. The lightning passed from Mr. Kelly's room into an adjoining one, then down to a bedroom below, where it struck a stove pipe hole in the wall and left the paper badly scorched on one side of the room. From here the lightning bolt passed into an adjoining room occupied by Mrs. Hogan, where considerable damage was done. Mrs. Hogan, who was standing in the centre of the room was stunned and knocked down. Fortunately, one man present that he was struck flat in the face with the lightning, but as he was unable to show in proof even that his eyebrows had been scorched his statement could not be credited. The lightning bolt from box 148 brought the North End fire department, but the fire, which was slight, had been extinguished before their arrival. The house in question is owned by the Redeptionist Trust of St. Peter's church. The Western Union wires between St. John and Halifax are down, and it is understood that a number of the poles have been struck by lightning. The line will probably be in operation again today.

OTHER HOUSES STRUCK.

While William Stone, of Strait Street, was at his work as a watchmaker in Portland Rolling Mills, his house was struck by lightning and his wife and baby had a narrow escape from death or injury. The bolt struck the chimney, tore away a part of it, knocked over the stove pipe, tore a hole in the wall, ripped the oil cloth on the floor, bored a hole through the floor and found its way to earth below the house. Mrs. Stone and her baby were in an adjoining room, but fortunately were unharmed.

The house of Mr. Roberts, Welsford, was hit by lightning last night. The news was brought to the city by a railway man. A couple of holes were made in the roof, and a bedroom suite was destroyed. No one was hurt, but there were people in every room except the one that was struck. The lightning did not ignite the building.

RAINFALL HALF AN INCH.

The total rainfall during last night's storm, according to the meteorological department, was about one half inch. The heaviest fall was between 10:35 and 11:15. From 10:35 till 11:05 nearly one quarter of an inch of rain fell. This was one of the heaviest showers that has taken place here for some time. At the rate the rain fell during these ten minutes it would mean about 26 inches in a day. The last heavy shower was over at 11:05 and after that the rain was very light.

Mr. Hutchinson of the Meteorological Department, states that this has been a year of very heavy thunderstorms all over the continent. St. John has, therefore, been fortunate so far, as last evening's was the first electric storm of any consequence this season.

BRYAN EXPLAINS HIS PRESENT POSITION

He Succeeds in Keeping Himself Before the American Public—His Views on the Silver Question.

LONDON, July 12.—William J. Bryan having had the opportunity of reading American newspapers, consented today to discuss some of the questions which have been raised since he has again become prominent as a Presidential possibility. He said: "I notice that I am now described by some as a conservative and in order that there may be no misunderstanding on that subject, permit me to say that in one sense I always have been a conservative. The Democratic policies are conservative in that they embody old principles again applied to new conditions. There was nothing new in principle in either of the platforms on which I stood. We are accused of taking property when in fact the Democratic party is the defender of property because it endeavors to draw the line between honest accumulation by honest methods on the one side and predatory wealth and immoral methods on the other. It is to the interest of every honest man that dishonesty should be exposed and punished; otherwise the deserving are apt to suffer for the undeserving. If, however, by the word conservative they mean that I have changed my position on any public question or moderated my opposition to corporate aggrandizement, they have a surprise waiting for them. I am more radical than I was in 1896 and have nothing to withdraw on economical questions which have been under discussion. The only question we discussed in 1896 upon which there has been any apparent change is the silver question and there has not been a change in the advocates of bimetallism in its conditions. We contended for more money and urged the free coinage of silver as the only means then in sight of securing it. The increased production of gold has brought in part the benefit we expected to secure from the restoration of silver. The per capita volume of money in the United States is almost fifty percent greater than it was in 1896 and the benefits brought by this increase have not only vindicated the soundness of the money, but have proved the benefits of the larger amount of money. No advocate of the gold standard can claim the same principles we applied to the money question and seek to secure the greatest good to the greatest number. The doctrine of equal rights for all and special privileges for none. On a money question we will not act with us who were against us on the money question for, notwithstanding the question, millions did not understand and were frightened into opposition. We cannot expect of anyone who is interested in taking advantage of the people either through trusts or through any other means. The newspapers have been trying to create friction between what they call 'old friends' and 'new friends' in politics. Those are friends who are working toward a common end, and each campaign brings to some extent a new alignment. In 1896 the party lost many of its friends, and was reunited by a great many who had been Republicans up to that time and were welcomed then, in 1900 some came back who were against us in 1896, and we did not but the door against them. I have no idea that the party will require tickets of admission in the coming campaign. The parties are so anxious to secure recruits that past differences are not emphasized if there is sincere regard for the present issues. I don't know that we can find a better plan than the Bible plan, which admits the vineyard and to share the reward with those who began earlier. I think this is the only way to place in the religion provided the recruit comes to work and not to interfere with the other laborers. But of course when an overseer has to be selected experience cannot be left out of consideration. The worker who came late would, if honest, be too modest to assume an attitude of superiority over those who had toiled during the earlier hours. While the question is one of purpose a man who recognizes the dangers that threaten our country and is anxious to avert them will not find it hard to establish friendly relations with those who saw the dangers at an earlier date.

If the differences between the sincere and the pretended friends of reform cannot be discovered before they will become apparent when the platform is written, for, if present indications count for anything that platform is likely to be so plain that no one can mistake it and so strong that no enemy of Democratic principles will be drawn to the party."

Mr. Bryan added that he would discuss the trust, tariff, R. R. and labor questions, imperialism and other issues at length when he reached America.

Point Wolfe, Albert County, to spend a month with her parents. Mrs. James E. Halstead, of Boston, is visiting Mrs. B. B. Brittain, West End.

St. T. H. Green and two children, of Fall River, accompanied by Miss Elliot, of Boston, are visiting Mrs. W. J. McColgan, and will leave today for Harcourt to spend the summer.

Mrs. Robert Inglis, of Toronto, accompanied by her son, is visiting her sister, Miss Young, 182 Princess St.

TREASURY SURPLUS $26,187,150

WASHINGTON, July 12.—A surplus of $26,187,150 is shown by the statement issued by the treasury department on the government's fiscal transactions during the year ended June 30. The receipts in that period aggregated $384,531,714, being $51,430,835 more than in the prior twelve months and the expenditures were $358,344,564, or $1,216,033 increase over those for the year 1904-5, when there was a deficit of $23,877,752.

The increase is almost entirely in customs receipts, which reached a total of $200,657,413, or $48,596,885 in excess of those for the prior year, and internal revenue payments, with an aggregate of $238,068,897, show an increase of $3,899,667, while the receipts from miscellaneous sources fell short $2,705,687. The expenditures for the army, navy, Indians, pensions, interest under the head of civil and miscellaneous all show comparative decreases, which, however, are more than offset by the increase in public works, which included the Panama canal disbursements.

MACKENZIE AND MANN BUSY.

There seems to be no limit to the schemes to draw Canadian capital to the south. Mackenzie & Mann are the principals in a company just incorporated at Ottawa to be known as the "Port of Paro Docks Company, Limited." The capital stock is $1,750,000.

CANADIAN FAILURES.

Failures in the Dominion of Canada during the first six months of 1906 were 622 in number, with assets of $2,465,235 and liabilities of $5,214,975. This is little change from the 627 failures in the corresponding months last year, but a considerable increase in liabilities as compared with the $4,535,945 in 1905. Manufacturing failures were 153 in number and $2,001,000 in liabilities as compared with 146 failures and $1,418,760. Trading failures were 469 in number, with assets of $2,170,234 and liabilities of $3,213,975. Of these, 168 failures were in the mercantile class, with assets of $3,035,333. Other commercial failures, including brokerage, were 301 in number, with assets of $1,134,902 and liabilities of $2,178,642. In the mercantile class, the largest failure was that of J. J. McLaughlin, a Montreal merchant, with assets of $1,134,902 and liabilities of $2,178,642. In the mercantile class, the largest failure was that of J. J. McLaughlin, a Montreal merchant, with assets of $1,134,902 and liabilities of $2,178,642.

GOLD PRODUCTION.

The gold fountain is running faster than ever. Last year's gold production is computed at $331,000,000, in increase of $34,500,000 over 1904. The world's gold production for a series of years is given as follows:

Year	Production ($)
1896	240,000,000
1897	247,000,000
1898	254,000,000
1899	261,000,000
1900	268,000,000
1901	275,000,000

SHOWED A GAIN OF $28,000,000.

Figures have been compiled showing the total Canadian clearings for six months. All cities showed $13,237,468 for that period, against $10,500,000 last year, an increase of 18.6 per cent. The returns from the Calgary and Edmonton clearing houses have not been included, because the comparisons would be incomplete, those institutions not being open a year ago. The six months' clearings in detail:

A FAMILIAR NAME ON BANK BILLS.

The familiar name of J. M. Courtney has appeared on every Dominion of Canada bank bill since 1878. Thousands have, no doubt, wondered how Mr. Courtney ever had time to do so many bills and how his writing hand ever stood the strain. As a matter of fact, Mr. Courtney, who has just resigned the position of Deputy Minister of Finance, has not signed a single note with his own hand since 1896. His well-known signature on the Dominion $1's and $2's is lithographed. Mr. Courtney was appointed Deputy Minister of Finance in 1878. Since that time of his management, the bank notes issued have amounted to $154,553,453, and the redemptions to $110,812,309. He first entered the department in 1869 as an accountant.

LAWSON'S TALENTED CLERK.

T. W. Lawson is apparently away from the scene of strife, but the good work goes on just the same. Yesterday Edward McSweeney, Lawson's secretary, sent out this cold blast: "Boston—Owing to Mr. Lawson's absence I feel it necessary to notify the market following because of the development of existing market conditions. Amalgamated Copper will be broken sharply; 85 next week."

GREAT STRAIN ON BANK OF ENGLAND.

Of all the great financial institutions in the world the one that demands the closest and most watchful study at the present moment is the Bank of England. Not because of its power or its magnitude or the importance of its management. Not that it cherishes any vaulting ambition or is like to plunge into a policy of reckless ventures. The Bank of England is the most prudent and least adventurous of financial organizations. It is conservative to the core, and never has a speculative idea on its head.

SAN FRANCISCO NOW A JUNK MINE.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 9.—Now that the insurance companies are allowing the ruin-heaped area of San Francisco to be cleared for building purposes, the junk dealers and speculators in scrap metal, who have come here from many quarters of the globe, are making interesting estimates on the aggregate wealth of the city in junk. These prices of junk are like to be a fair reflection of the debris and declare that its total value in scrap, if we put back in the category with the debris of the city, is about $20,000,000. The debris of the city certainly presents magnificent opportunities in junk. Dealers in scrap metal throughout the city certainly are aware of the Pacific coast, arriving here while the ruins were still smoldering, and are now making their money out of the debris. The moment the insurance companies raise the embargo, to purchase many million dollars' worth of junk that is piled upon four square miles in unsightly heaps. These junkmen have been estimating for six months the value of the scrap metal of San Francisco, while builders and dealers in second-hand material have been figuring on the number of brick in the ruins and their worth; so that gradually a comprehensive estimate has been made of the value of the debris. This estimate, which is considered conservative by the dealers, is the figure above given—$20,000,000. It was only by collecting a mass of data from all of the larger dealers in scrap metal who have permanently located here that this figure was obtained. It involves individual estimates of the junk contained in more than 17,000 lots on which buildings were destroyed.

It is safe to say that the world never offered for sale so much junk within a brief interval of time, and San Francisco now has more scrap metal on its devastated area than was dug from the ruins of all the cities of the world that have suffered from great conflagrations. In giving an approximate estimate of $20,000,000 only the value of the junk as it now lies on the lot is figured. The junk dealers who purchase this marketable debris expect to make a profit of about 20 per cent., or $4,000,000. Carrying this profit, the value of the junk exclusive of land value, are worth about $24,000,000.

INVESTMENT SITUATION.

New York Journal of Commerce: Prevailing conditions in the money and securities markets find an explanation in the record-breaking issue of new bonds and stocks the past six months. The figures, covering an aggregate of $227,706,214 divided into $22,272,000 bonds and $205,434,214 stocks. Bond dealers are still despondent over the outlook for business, there being little change in hitherto prevailing conditions. Insurance companies and savings banks which in preceding years have been heavy buyers are determined to hold their own.

HAD PLANNED WITH WIDOW TO MURDER HER BROTHER.

Esther Mitchell Tells How She Prepared to Shoot Her Brother, Who Had Murdered Holy Roller Prophet Greffield.

SEATTLE, Wn., July 13.—Esther Mitchell who shot and killed her brother George Mitchell in the Union Station yesterday made public a statement last night in which she describes the murder as deliberately planned. George Mitchell has recently been acquitted of the murder of Franz Edmund Greffield, a "Holy Roller" prophet on the plea of insanity. He claimed that Greffield had wronged his sister Esther who was a "Holy Roller." Esther later planned her brother's death. In her statement she cried: "Mrs. Greffield and I talked over the matter of killing George. The one that had the best chance was to do it. Mrs. Greffield bought the gun. This afternoon I thought I would have a better chance to do it than Mrs. Greffield, as my brother wanted to see me, and Mrs. Greffield gave me the gun. We agreed that it must be done as soon as possible. My brother Fred was up to my room today and said that Perry and George were going to Portland this evening. I went to the depot and saw Perry get his ticket. At last I saw George and I shook hands with him. He and Perry were walking in front of Fred and I was walking behind. That was the chance I wanted and I shot him. My brother Fred grabbed me and I sat down on his lap and put my arms about his neck. I sat there and the officer came. I intended to follow him to Portland if I did not get a chance at him here."

"I am not sorry I did the shooting; I am glad of it." Mrs. Crawford, the widow of the dead prophet, was arrested last night and admitted having entered into a compact with Esther to kill the slayer of her husband.

THEATRES ARE NOT PUBLIC PLACES

NEW YORK, July 12.—That the manager and proprietor of a theatre has a right to say who shall enter his place of amusement and who shall not, his playhouse being a private and not a public place, is the gist of a decision handed down today in the appellate division of the supreme court. The decision dismisses the complaint of James E. Metcalf, the dramatic critic, against Charles Burnham, a member of the Theatre Managers' Association, for excluding Metcalf from Burnham's theatre. Metcalf charged that Burnham and other theatrical managers had entered into a conspiracy to prevent him from exercising his lawful calling.

SHOT THE PROPHET, WAS KILLED HIMSELF

George Mitchell Murdered by His Sister in Seattle.

He Had Killed a Holy Roller Prophet and His Sister, Who Was a Disciple of the Victim, Took Revenge.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 12.—George Mitchell, a youth who recently shot and killed Franz Edmund Creffield, a "Holy Roller Prophet" and was acquitted on the charge of murder, on a plea of insanity today was shot and killed by his sister, Esther, in the Seattle Union station.

Esther Mitchell joined the "Holy Rollers" sect at Corvallis, Oregon, and was one of the most ardent of Creffield's followers. When her brother pursued the leader of the "Holy Rollers" to Seattle and shot him in the street, he pleaded in justification that Creffield had deluded and wronged his sister. George Mitchell was acquitted of the charge of murder on Tuesday, and nearly all of the following day he spent in searching for Esther in Seattle lodging houses. She refused to be comforted after the death of Creffield.

Esther Mitchell, when found, finally agreed to see her three brothers off to their homes in Oregon. The Mitchell brothers, George, Perry and Fred, were sitting with Esther on a bench in the station waiting room, apparently on the best of terms. When the Oregon train arrived George Mitchell arose and started for the door. His sister stepped to his side, and pointing a revolver at his head fired a fatal shot before any one else in the room realized what was happening.

Miss Mitchell was arrested shortly after her brother fell dead by her hands. She refused to have anything to do with the brother since he shot Creffield to avenge Creffield's treatment of Miss Mitchell. Today was the first brother and sister had been seen together and were apparently on good terms.

Esther Mitchell and Mrs. Creffield, widow of the "Holy Roller" preacher, today announced their intention of making Seattle their home. The three brothers were going to Oregon to work.

After the shooting Perry and Fred Mitchell were arrested as witnesses. They were found together on a bench in the station sobbing on each other's shoulders.

GREEN GOODS MEN CAUGHT

NEW YORK, July 12.—On information supplied by the postal authorities from Italy, Charles Sherwood, thirty-five years old and Michael Ryan, 60 years old, who are alleged to be experts at the "green goods game," were arrested today in a hotel at Fishkill landing, N. Y.

Sherwood, fighting to escape, was beaten severely by the detectives and though Ryan jumped out of a second story window he failed to get away.

MEXICAN VILLAGE WAS WIPED OUT BY CLOUDBURST

Seven Persons Killed and Many Others Injured—Property Loss is Large.

EL PASO, Tex., July 12.—A cloudburst and landslide on July 10 at Ocampo, (Jesus Maria) Chihuahua, Mexico, almost completely destroyed the city and killed seven or more persons. Many others were injured and it is estimated that the loss of property was about $100,000. The American residents are alleviating the suffering of the wounded and are recovering the bodies of the dead as rapidly as possible. The offices and homes of the W. C. Greene gold and silver Co. at Ocampo were swept away but all its American employees escaped. The company's loss is estimated at $5,000 Mexican money.

The Watterson Company, the only other concern owing extensive interests in the camp, suffered a loss of about $15,000, its reduction works and offices being destroyed.

MEDICAL HYPNOSIS.

(London Mail.)

Remarkable instances of the use of hypnosis in ordinary medical practice by Douglas Bryan, M. D., of Leicester, are described by him in "The Medical Times and Hospital Gazette." The success attained leads him to believe that hypnosis and hypnotic suggestion, so little recognized by the greater number of medical men, are a thoroughly legitimate and valuable therapeutic adjunct.

In each case, of course, the patient consented to be hypnotized. One instance was that of an operation performed on a woman, aged 30, for an abscess of the breast while she was in the hypnotic sleep. On being awakened she asserted that she had felt no pain, and remembered nothing of the operation. Healing was effected quite normally in about a week.

A case of extreme interest was that of a married woman, aged 34, who proved an excellent subject for the hypnotic suggestion, and was brought safely through the ordeal of confinement while in a deep hypnotic sleep. Once after about a quarter of an hour, the patient aroused, but Mr. Bryan, again induced sleep easily, and now took the precaution which he had before neglected, of suggesting at intervals that she should keep asleep and feel no pain.

She so remained for a considerable time and was not awakened by the medical man until 20 minutes after the child's birth. She felt quite comfortable, and said she felt quite comfortable, and remembered nothing subsequent to the induction of sleep except the circumstances that happened during her momentary awakening. The cataplectic condition was most useful, Mr. Bryan records, and facilitated his duties.

A man about 40 was brought to him for treatment by hypnotic suggestion for dipomania. He was just getting over a three days' drinking debauch, and was in an exceedingly nervous and trembling condition. His pulse was beating at the rate of 120 a minute. He complained of excessive discomfort about the cardiac region and palpitation.

"I told him he would soon feel better and succeeded in getting him into a light sleep. I made suggestions regarding the cardiac discomforts, etc., and that the pulse should become slower. He roused of his own accord in about one and a half minutes, waking with a start. I immediately took the pulse again and found it beating 88 to the minute. All feelings of discomfort had disappeared and did not return, his astonishment at the result being most marked.

ST. JOHN STAR, FRIDAY, JULY 13, 1906

A CUSTOMER'S REASONABLE WISH IS THIS STORE'S PLEASURE.

Three Special Prices In Gingham Underskirts.

45c for a fine gingham undershirt, nicely made from plain and striped ginghams, wide flounce on the bottom with dust ruffle. The material in this skirt could not be bought for this money.

59c a little better quality of gingham. Come in blues, fawns, pink, etc. in plain and fancy stripes. The skirt is good and full, and made in good style.

At 85c a splendid firm gingham in dainty assorted stripes. These skirts are made extra wide. Deep flounce with three dust ruffles on the bottom, which serve to keep the outside skirt well distended.

A Few Sample Silk Undershirts. These are just about one-third less than the regular prices, on account of being samples. Colors are red, blue, green, brown and black. The prices start at $3.50 and from that up to $6.95. The regular prices would be from $4.50 to $9.50.

A late despatch to the Star from Westport throws some light on the story of the young woman being burned, but states that Miss Jennie Colquhoun was badly hurt and that this may be what started the other story.

Rev. J. F. Floyd has returned from a visit to Charlottetown where he attended the annual convention of the Christian Churches on the Island, and preached the principal sermon for the convention on Sunday morning. He preached in Zion Presbyterian Church in the morning.

St. Paul's congregation will hold their annual Sunday school picnic at Westfield Beach tomorrow. Besides the usual sports there will be a basketball game between the St. Paul's and Mission teams, followed by a number of races, etc. between the two teams. Refreshments will be served at all times. Trains leave at 9.15 a. m. and 1.10 p. m.

The steamer Calvin Austin arrived here about 9.30 this morning from Boston. She carried 365 passengers, of whom 120 had local tickets, while the rest were booked for I. C. R. points. The passengers of the Calvin Austin knew nothing of the storm experienced here until their arrival in port. They came in contact with neither rain nor thunder, and report a very pleasant trip.

The Carleton fishermen who were to take part in the races in Halifax harbor today were unable to get off on last evening's train. A wire was sent by the Beavers asking if they could be admitted into the finals on Saturday should they get there in time. As the wires between here and Halifax were down today no answer has been received, but it is doubtful if the Carleton crew will take any part in the races.

With the muggy weather cleared up completely and in view of tomorrow being half holiday with its big outing and yachting events, the shopping throng should be an enormously large one tonight, particularly at M. Ladies' $5 and 50c. White Linen for 25c. Children's Dresses and Hosiery at a price that will clear the stock out in a few days. See their ad. on page nine in tonight's issue.

BUY JARVIS BUILDING TO EXTEND CITY HALL

This is the Suggestion Which is Now Being Considered by Some Aldermen.

This afternoon promises to be a very busy one at city hall, as the safety board will meet and discuss the question of whether a new city hall should be built, or the present one remodelled or whether anything at all shall be done at present.

This morning's papers stated that a number of the aldermen were in favor of building, while Alderman Vanwart strongly favored adding two stories to the top of the present building. However, the majority of the aldermen, neither of these suggestions seemed practical, as to build would cost too much and to add two more stories to the present city hall would hardly be satisfactory. What does seem to be a favorable suggestion this morning was not to either build a new building or to extend the present one upwards, but to extend it either down Prince William street or up Princess street to the present city hall building or the Barnhill building. A number of the aldermen are of the opinion that if either of these places could be procured at a reasonable price this would be the proper thing to do, and then it would be necessary to do anything more at present than to tear down the partitions between the buildings and make a few small changes.

It is considered that the Jarvis building would be much preferable to the Barnhill, as its floors are on the same level as the floors of the city hall, while the floors in the Barnhill building are higher, and this would be inconvenient. It is proposed that if the Jarvis building is purchased the present committee rooms should be taken to where the chamberlain's office now is, and that the chamberlain's office be removed across the hall to are. These rooms with additional space adjoining them in the Jarvis building would give offices for the chamberlain.

Some of the aldermen claim that if one of these buildings cannot be purchased at a reasonable price there should be no radical changes made in the present city hall and that only a readjustment of the different offices should be made. For instance the bookkeeper in the Chamberlain's office might be removed up stairs and share the city engineer's office. Then the janitor has rooms on the top floor and these could be made available for offices as it is not necessary that there should be a resident janitor.

A meeting of the finance and accounts committee has been called by the chairman, J. B. M. Baxter, for this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. At this meeting a delegation from the women's council will be heard in reference to appointing a matron for the jail. J. B. M. Baxter was seen by the Star this morning in reference to the interview with the mayor in yesterday's Times in which the mayor was reported as saying that Ald. Baxter had at the special meeting of the council suggested that the mayor should go to Ottawa and consult with the government regarding certain privileges to be granted the Canadian Pacific Railway at Sand Point, and then when it came up at the regular meeting Mr. Baxter opposed his going to Ottawa. Mr. Baxter said what he did say at the special meeting was that if the privileges which are to be given to the C. P. R. affect the harbor frontage, then it would be better that the mayor should proceed to Ottawa, as this would avoid complications. But as the matter is still in the air, the opinion that these proposed extensions of the C. P. R. do not affect the harbor frontage in any way therefore he can see no reason for sending any one to Ottawa. He said that he felt the mayor misinterpreted his intentions as he never for a moment had any antagonism towards him.

YACHT CLUB CRUISE STARTS TOMORROW

About Twenty Five Boats Will Go—Members Sail to Fredericton.

The R. K. Y. C. yachtsmen and friends are hustling in preparation for the annual cruise on the river which commences on Saturday afternoon next. The yachts about 25 in number, including sail, steam and gasoline, will start at 2.30 o'clock and after the usual stops at the Cedars, John O. Vanwart's and Gagetown, will go to Fredericton. After the stops in Fredericton and the other should spend some very "happy days."

Irving Todd's yacht Acushla II, from St. Stephen is to leave last night for Yarmouth will join the local yachts on the cruise.

This season's cruise promises to be the most enjoyable of all and with good weather Commodore Robert Thomson and the others should spend some very "happy days."

THE FIGHT IN RHEA'S SALOON WAS QUITE A SERIOUS AFFAIR

To Mr. Henderson—Witness said Goodwin was under the influence of liquor when he came in the bar. It is against the rules of the house to sell to a man who is staggering. After witness had clinched with Goodwin he was pushed away and Rhea got into a clinch. When Sergeant Campbell came in first Rhea did not see him, but the second time the officer came in he was requested to eject Goodwin. He could not say that the Greens were under the influence of liquor. They had a little trouble and were separated. They had a few drinks afterwards. Then came the Goodwin fight. After Goodwin was ejected the Greens remained in the bar until closing time.

To Mr. Armstrong witness said that it is the rule of the bar not to sell to a person under the influence. The case against the two boys Wolfe and Connell was resumed in the police court this morning. E. S. Ritchie appeared for Connell and H. A. McKinnon for Wolfe.

J. S. Osborne, a survivor of W. M. Mackay, said he went to Thompson's slip and saw some lumber there and that ten pieces of deals were marked with a cross which showed that they belonged to Mr. Mackay and had been marked by him as unmerchantable lumber.

To Mr. McKinnon—There were about 25 pieces of deals marked, and the next morning he noticed that there were a number of deals gone. The deals had been piled on the end of the saw.

To Mr. Ritchie—These marked deals are sent back to the mill to show why they had been rejected. The deals rejected were worn and were shipped by J. K. Pinder, of the upper St. John.

The case was adjourned until tomorrow morning at nine o'clock.

There were no less than 47 men and women before Magistrate Ritchie this morning having been reported by the Board of Health inspectors for not having their premises clean. There were many excuses offered. Some had complied with the request of the officials and others promised to. All were given until next Monday week to have matters righted to the satisfaction of the Board of Health and if not they will be fined.

A woman informed the court that it was impossible for her to have her premises made clean. She was told she would have to do so before Monday week or be fined. She wished to argue with the magistrate and had to be escorted out of court and could be heard talking as she left the room.

Arthur Reid was given in charge of the police last evening by Capt. David Tufts for refusing duty on board the schooner James Bayshore. He decided to return to work and went on board with the captain this morning.

The chief commissioner of public works has awarded the contract for rebuilding Armstrong's bridge, Kings county, to Thomas Porter and George Anderson of York county.
