hibitors of Fredericton express them selves dissatisfied with the award: Mr. EDITOR: In your issue of the 6th inst. you spoke of the trials of a lady in search of a sewing machine, and suggest ed the idea of a grand contest of sewing machines, and inquired what agent was plucky enough to try it. Had I been at home I would not have hesitated then to have thrown down the gauntlet, but being engaged in a similar trial at the Provincial Exhibition, at which Raymond's Improved Singer was awarded the highest prize over all competitors, I did not see the article referred to till to-day. I claim that Raymond's Improved Singer is the best Family Sewing Machine in the Market, durability, simplicity and con-struction, adaptation to all varieties of work, convenience and price, being con-sidered, and I will with it publicly com-pete with one or all the machines in the market, at such time and place as may afterward be decided on, to prove my claim.
