HOPE OF PEACE IS MARRED BY THREE THINGS

Six Americans Believed to Have Been Murdered by the Mexicans.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—While Huerta's mediating mission steamed north from Vera Cruz to-day, and the American delegates began plans of organization for the Niagara Falls conference, these three important phases in the Mexican situation stood out demanding urgent attention: The fate of John R. Silliman, United States vice consul at Saltillo, reported held by Huerta's soldiers. Disposition of five South American arrested for sniping operations at Vera Cruz. Settlement of the "occupation" of Lobos Island, which drew a protest from Huerta's foreign minister.

Silliman's case was among the first of the developments that were to be submitted to President Wilson when he returned to-day from New York, where yesterday he paid tribute for the nation to the bluejackets who fell at Vera Cruz. Secretary Bryan was emphatic in announcing, after a conference with the South American envoys, the Government's determination to have Silliman released.

The Lobos Island incident was taken up by Secretary of the Navy Daniels soon after his return from the memorial ceremonies. He had before him this report from Admiral Mayo at Tampico: "Lobos Island has not been occupied. The Dixie and some destroyers anchored there and other vessels have coaled there from a collier. The keepers of Lobos Island light deserted it, and the Dixie is now maintaining it for the benefit of navigation. I understand the destroyers have had occasional swimming parties ashore."

General belief was expressed that this explanation would amply answer Huerta's protest, that the United States, by seizing the islands, had violated the armistice and would make it plain that the Dixie's commander acted only to insure protection to shipping by maintenance of the Lobos light.

Disposition of the cases of the South Americans arrested at Vera Cruz had been halted pending word from the ministers of their respective countries. When it became known that General Funston proposed to try the men before a military court martial, the Brazilian minister in Mexico City appealed for them. Secretary of War Garrison decided to postpone action on that, pointing out that properly it should have been made of states of which the prisoners are citizens.

While the three new phases featured the day's developments in the diplomatic drama, word anxiously was awaited of the fighting at Tampico where rebels and federals were in a death grapple for territory in which millions of British and American dollars are invested. General Zaragoza, commanding at Tampico, reported to Huerta early to-day that the constitutionalists had been defeated Saturday with heavy losses. It was believed that there had been heavy fighting since then, and that the Federal reports were not necessarily conclusive.

The rebels were planning to renew their campaign in the north, and Carranza's agents asserted the constitutionalist chief expected to conquer the Federal garrison at Saltillo and establish his capital there, pending the final campaign against Mexico City.

WEATHERMAN ADMITS THE WEATHER IS BAD

And for the Present He Sees No Encouraging Sign of Rising Temperature.

"Yes, I admit it is nothing to boast about," said the weatherman, "but tonight when remonstrated with on the question of yesterday's temperature, his sorrowful tone seemed to indicate he would really do better if he could, but the matter appears to be out of his jurisdiction."

He explained that a spell of unsettled weather existed in the Mississippi valley, while in the Dakotas and Montana there is a pronounced low temperature extending over into Northern Ontario. On the other hand, the people in Washington had a balmy air of 88 degrees, and New York 78 degrees yesterday, while in Brantford the maximum was 52.

"When may we expect something better?" was asked, but the weatherman threw up his hands and gave it up.

Secretary of State Bryan insisted upon the immediate release of Silliman.

Bill To Remove Brantford Reserve Is Reported On In The House of Commons

Grand River Indians Are Claimed to Have Received Land as Allies of Crown, But Premier Borden Says This Makes No Difference in Regard to Proposed Removal.

OTTAWA, May 12.—The House went into committee of the whole yesterday upon Hon. Mr. Roche's bill to amend the Indian Act. Mr. Oliver moved to strike out section 6 of the bill which authorizes the removal of Indians from any reservation without their consent, when such reserve "adjoins or is situated wholly or partly within an incorporated town, or city, or in the immediate neighborhood thereof, or which contains more land than is necessary for the use of the band, or which is so situated as to materially retard the natural development of the surrounding country."

Hon. Chas. Marcil said the phraseology was so broad that every Indian band in the country could be dispossessed of their reserves at the behest of some speculator. Hon. Frank Oliver complained of the purchase of the Kitsilano reserve by the Government of British Columbia. He claimed that this valuable land in Vancouver had been taken from the Indians at an inadequate price, and the Dominion Government had done nothing towards righting the wrong.

Several of the British Columbia members challenged the correctness of Mr. Oliver's statement, and the prime minister explained that the rights of the Indians were being carefully looked after by the Dominion Government.

The Oliver motion was then defeated, and the bill was reported.

WITNESSES IN BECKER CASE ARE ON STAND

Line of Defence Will be Pretty Much the Same as Last Time.

NEW YORK, May 12.—"Bold Jack" Rose, star witness of the first trial of Charles Becker, for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, appeared in that role again to-day. As hairless as ever, but a trifle stouter than when he appeared before, he took the stand shortly before noon and calmly told of the part he played in the events leading up to the gambler's death. Substantially it was the same story that he told at the first trial. He spoke in a low tone, but with evident calmness, and at times gazed directly at the defendant.

Briefly Rose recited how Becker and Rosenthal had entered into partnership in a gambling establishment; how they quarrelled; how exposure for Becker as a police lieutenant was imminent, and how his death was plotted.

NEW YORK, May 12.—When the trial of Charles Becker for the murder of Herman Rosenthal was resumed to-day District Attorney Whitman called Dr. Dennis Taylor to the witness stand as the last of several witnesses to establish the death of Rosenthal. Dr. Taylor at the time of the murder was an ambulance surgeon and his testimony was necessary because it was he who pronounced the gambler dead. Following Dr. Taylor, the district attorney was prepared to call his two star witnesses, "Jack" Rose and Willie Shapiro, the chauffeur of the car in which the gambler was said to have escaped from the scene of the murder.

The cross-examination of some of the witnesses for the prosecution by Martin T. Manton, seemed to show the line the defence will follow. It was evident that Becker's new counsel intends to run close to the old defence.

William Cheevers Develops the Faculty of Running Into Numerous Accidents.

LONDON, May 12.—While attempting to cross Horton street, near Burwell street, about 12 o'clock last night, William Cheevers, from Brantford, slipped from the wet curbing and, falling to the road, fractured his right leg.

Cheevers, it is believed, is the same man who was hurt by an auto at Hamilton some time ago, and over whose hospital bill at Hamilton there is a dispute between the two cities which may end in the courts. If Cheevers is the same man, there may be another bill from the London hospital.

MAKE TROUBLE

Edmonton Police Have to Break Up Demonstration on Market Square.

EDMONTON, Alberta, May 12.—The unemployed, headed by the organizers of the I.W.W., are again becoming a troublesome element to the police. On Monday they held a demonstration on the market square, where two thousand people gathered and sang the Marseillaise and other revolutionary songs. To-day another big parade is being arranged, and delegations will wait upon the civic and provincial governments demanding that they be given work. Employment agencies for various railways say there is very little work offering at the present time, but a number of men will be required in the course of a few weeks.

LONDON STRIKE IN THE BUILDING TRADES SERIOUS

Despatches Today From Old Land Tell of Conditions in Metropolis.

MONTREAL, May 12.—A special despatch from Chicago says: That at the present moment there are some twelve thousand persons in Cook county, which includes the City of Chicago, who are contemplating suicide, and that he can within a reasonable degree of accuracy determine the number of Chicagoans who will meet with violent deaths within the next twelve months, was the statement made to-day by Coroner Hoffman.

The report gives a record of 10,992 deaths in Chicago, of which Coroner Hoffman asserts "nearly one-half could have been avoided by a comprehensive crusade of education on the lines of public safety."

In addition to a study of such conditions for several years, Hoffman seems to have made a study of Herbert Spencer's Law of Momentum and applied it to his figures. By his process the coroner believes himself able to foretell, as does a weather forecaster approximately how many will be murdered this year and also the number that will be shot, stabbed, poisoned and beaten to death.

"We know," the report adds, "that in 1914, approximately 1,000 persons in Cook County will attempt suicide."

The London masters have now laid the case before the National Master Builders' Federation, who have decided that the London employers should accept a conference upon the terms that "in the event of the operative refusing to accept the terms provided within recommendation of the national conciliation board within ten days from such a conference a general lockout shall be declared."

This threat to resort to a national lockout, which would affect 500,000 men is regarded as an ultimatum. The London men's union will meet immediately to consider the situation. Their action will certainly be governed by provincial reports as the Londoners are largely dependent upon the funds of the provincial branches which would not be available in the event of a national dispute.

NOT YET MADE

Appointment of an Electrical Inspector Still Hangs Fire.

The appointment of a Brantford electrical inspector still hangs fire. Some days ago Ald. Ryerson, chairman of the fire and light committee wrote Chief Inspector Strickland of the department at Toronto, stating that he believed the committee had agreed upon a local man, and he asked if an appointment were made would it be approved at Toronto.

Thus far, Mr. Strickland has not condescended to answer Ald. Ryerson's letter. The result will be that the city will make no appointment, and that the work will be continued by the inspector of the underwriters.

DE LEON IS DEAD

NEW YORK, May 12.—Daniel De Leon, the Socialist Labor party candidate for governor of New York, 1902, active in the national movement and editor of the Daily People since 1900, died of heart failure in a hospital here last night, aged 61 years.

Thousands Are Thinking Seriously About Suicide In Cook's County Chicago

Remarkable Statement of Coroner Hoffman, Who Says Ten Thousand 1914 Will Attempt to Take Their Own Lives—Works Out Theory in Figures.

That of these 583 will succeed and that there are about 12,000 people contemplating suicide all the time, a percentage of whom, with constant accretion, will form the suicide rolls of the coming year. About 150 people will commit suicide by poison, of whom ninety will use carbolic acid, fifteen corrosive sublimate, seven cyanide of potassium, six arsenic, etc.

We know, too, that with the present population and until our social and economic education shall undergo a vital change each year approximately 140 will commit suicide by shooting, 120 by asphyxiation, 60 by hanging, 24 by stabbing, 20 by drowning and 14 by jumping out of windows.

COUNTERFEIT MONEY

EDMONTON, May 12.—The mounted police have in custody a man named L. Pettico, whom they arrested near Clyde, after numerous complaints that spurious coins and counterfeit currency had been passed in the Clyde district. The police confiscated a large quantity of dies and moulds, alleged to have been used for the purpose of manufacturing coins and bills. A complete outfit for engraving bills in possession of the police, is being held as evidence against the prisoner.

MAD MILITANT SLASHES PICTURE OF WELLINGTON

LONDON, May 12.—A militant suffragette armed with a hatchet today seriously damaged a portrait of the Duke of Wellington in the Royal Academy.

The woman, who was standing looking at the painting, suddenly drew the hatchet from her muff and slashed canvas three times before the bystanders could intervene. An attendant promptly seized her and took her to the police station, where she said her name was Mary Ansell.

The portrait of the Duke of Wellington was by the late Sir Hubert Van Herkimer, who died March 31, this year. It was considered one of his finest later works.

SUFFRAGETTES MAR PERFORMANCE FOR ROYALTY

King and Queen of Denmark Witnessed an Unusual Demonstration.

LONDON, May 12.—A number of Suffragettes interrupted the State performance at the Royal Opera, Covent Garden, last night, which was given in honor of King Christian and Queen Alexandra of Denmark. The Royal Opera House was practically a palace for the night. Royalty was there in great numbers, as well as the most prominent members of the nobility and the foreign diplomats.

The Suffragettes were seated in the balcony above the Royal box. During a brief interval in the performance one of the women leaped over the balcony and shouted: "King George, women are being tortured in your dominion!" Two men in the audience promptly seized the woman and dragged her away. Another militant took her place and began to scatter leaflets. Two or three of these dropped to the edge of the Royal box, but a majority of them fell in the orchestra stalls, which were occupied principally by court personages in State attendance.

The audience was very indignant at the action of the women. The members of the Royal party glanced up as the shower of leaflets began to fall, but soon resumed their talking with each other and paid no further attention to the woman who was throwing the leaflets down. She was soon seized and she and her companion were hustled out of the house. They struggled and screamed while they were being ejected and it required some rough treatment to get them out. When they arrived at the exit to the street their clothing and hair were in a dishevelled condition. They were not arrested but put into a taxicab and hurried away. The disturbance in the theatre lasted about three minutes.

The performance was a gorgeous affair. As it was a State performance all the details were in the hands of the Lord Chamberlain and his staff of officials. All of the boxes in the centre and stretching well over the curve on either side of the horseshoe had been commandeered for the Royalties and their suites, and for the special guests of King George and Queen Mary, in addition to the King and Queen of Denmark. On either side of the Royal box two other boxes of exceptional accommodation were reserved for members of the Diplomatic Corps and their ladies and members of the Cabinet and their wives and families. Each of these boxes seated fifty persons.

Rows of stalls were reserved for court personages, such as the Earl Marshal, the Master of the Horse, the Mistress of the Robes and numerous ladies-in-waiting, equestrians, lords, grooms, and ushers-in-waiting. Except in the gallery, everybody was in court or levee dress.

Queen Mother Alexandra had the seat of honor. On either side of her sat King George and Queen Mary and King Christian and Queen Alexandra. All the members of the Royal family were present except the Prince Louise, whose husband, the Duke of Argyll, died a short time ago. All the ambassadors were present with their families, as well as a crowd of titled and eminent persons.

There was a great display of gorgeous uniforms and the women were covered with jewels. The performance consisted of parts of the operas "La Tosca," "La Boheme" and "Aida." The singers included Mme. Melba, Emmy Destinn, Kirkby-Lunn and Scotti.

VERY SUDDEN DEATH

A great number of friends of Mrs. J. A. Wolfe of Tacoma, Wash., will be surprised to hear of her sudden death this morning from apoplexy. She will be remembered as a daughter of the late John Brown, and leaves, besides her mother, who is at present in Regina in poor health, two brothers and one sister, Wm. E. Brown of Tacoma; Mrs. J. L. Secord, of Regina; and Chas. H. Brown of Brantford. The mother, who had been staying with her daughter in Tacoma, left a short time ago to visit her daughter in Regina. Mr. Chas. H. Brown is the only one of the family left in Brantford. Mr. J. A. Wolfe, who is an old Brantford boy, expected to return this summer with his wife for the Old Boys reunion.

PETER SCHRAM WAS CARRIED FROM HIS HOUSE

Fire Yesterday When Residence Was Destroyed—Other Paris News.

PARIS, May 12.—A bad fire took place yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mr. Peter Schram, River St. on the banks of the Grand River. The fire was caused through a defective chimney and had made considerable headway before being noticed. It was sometime before the general alarm would ring, and this caused a great deal of trouble. On the way up the wheel came off one of the hose reels and then it was impossible for the hydrant to work properly, so the firemen were laboring under difficulties. By this time, the fire had spread to the residence of Mr. Henry Clark, and the firemen had to give their attention there to save his house, and the neighboring houses around, on account of the strong east wind. The Schram residence was burned down, but the neighbors around saved some of the furniture. Mr. Albert McKay deserves great credit for the way he worked in trying to save things. Mr. Schram had been in bed sick for some weeks and it was with great difficulty he was carried out of the house.

Last night, Rev. Mr. Purton gave an illustrated lecture entitled the "Yellowstone Park" to the members of St. James A. Y. P. A. Some one hundred views being shown.

WITNESSES IN BECKER CASE (Continued from Page 1) fence at the first trial and try to show that the murder of Rosenthal was the result of a gambler's feud without the guiding hand of the defendant. The interference was drawn that the blame for the actual shooting, as before, would be placed on "Bridgie" Webber and Harry Vallon, instead of the four gunmen who have already been executed for welding the revolvers. Shapiro followed Dr. Taylor on the stand. He said he knew Bald Jack Rose and Bridgie Webber. He told of receiving a call at his stand in front of the Cafe Boulevard late at night on July 15. He then went to Tom Sharkey's saloon where he picked up Rose, Harry Vallon and Sam Schepes. "We went to Forty-second street and Broadway, then to Bridgie Webber's poker rooms at Forty-second street and Sixth avenue," said the witness. "Rose ordered me to drive to 14th street and Seventh Avenue. There we picked up another man and returned to Webber's poker rooms, where the occupants of the car got out. Fifteen minutes later Gago Frank, Gyp the Blood, Whitey Lewis and Lefty Louie came out and I was ordered to go to the Metropole Hotel."

Military Notes Once again the regiment of the 38th Dufferin Rifles took place for drill last night at the Armories when the total turnout mustered nearly four hundred strong. They looked a smart lot of fellows too, and while en masse, Colonel Howard took the opportunity of saying a few words with regard to the annual inspection which takes place next Monday. He asked especially for a strong assembly, and also for a good smart appearance. Special care should be taken in the dress uniform upholding its dignity, as one of the best in the Dominion. A company again headed the list with 58 strong. E Company and H company did for second, with totals of 38 while D made a close third with 37 present. The Bugle and Brass bands came along handsomely with 67 to the good. Altogether it was a pretty good turnout. Eight new recruits joined the ranks and the statistics of the entire drill are as follows: A company 58 officers and men; E company 30; H company 38; F company 38; G company 40; I company 40; J company 40; K company 40; L company 40; M company 40; N company 40; O company 40; P company 40; Q company 40; R company 40; S company 40; T company 40; U company 40; V company 40; W company 40; X company 40; Y company 40; Z company 40.

With the City Police The chief constables office lost its air of solemn severity this morning when Isabella McCummin, with her imagination, enlivened things up somewhat. She charged James and Vina Turner with breaking windows at her house on Alfred street, and they denied the charge, exclaiming that all they had said or done had been interpreted by their prosecutor. Some interest in the case was revealed, if all that was said could be relied upon. Mrs. McCummin said that they in the next house had some queer goings on, and she knew that more than once rigs had come to their door at one and two o'clock in the early morning loaded with things of doubtful origin. She characterized the Turners as a thorough bad lot. For his part, the boy, who was colored, said it was well known that the old woman had gone round visiting houses for years in that district, and she had taken things from all of them. "Why did my mother throw you out of our house?" he asked. She never threw me out, returned the widow, and she denied that she had ever been dishonest. "Ask the policeman, he knows," she would say, and then she would resort to a personal appeal to "Mr." Livingston. Commenting on the case, the Magistrate said the great difficulty was the imagination of complainant. Her brother-in-law had given evidence for her, but his testimony did not bear materially on any point. He thought, however, that there might be some grounds for her complaint, and warning James and Vina, he allowed them to go. Mrs. McCummin wanted payment for the windows, but she did not get it, and was ushered out saying something complimentary about justice. Mr. and Mrs. James Usher wish to announce that the wedding of their daughter, Hilda, to Mr. Alfred Sedze, will take place on Saturday, May 16th, at St. Jude's church at 2.30 o'clock.

Carter Troop Addressed the Students of the Collegiate Institute on Monday Mr. J. Carter Troop gave an excellent address to the students of the Collegiate Institute yesterday afternoon, when he took as his subject "Shakespearean Characters," and dealt principally with Macbeth. He gave a philosophical analysis of the condition of things in the time that the tragedy of Macbeth was written. He told of the superstitions and vague ideas which were common, owing to the prevalence of witchcraft and sorcery. The Elizabethan period, with its glamor and romance, and the days of chivalry and armadas—all these conditions were ably portrayed in Shakespeare's works. Macbeth was a drama of tragedy and pathos and was an analytical study of the weakness and strength of human nature. The speaker was cordially thanked for the thoughts conveyed by his excellent address which will do much to forward the study of literature at the school.

Mr. Kemp said he was glad to know Mr. Lemieux agreed with him. He represented only himself, and the government had no knowledge of his presence or what he was going to say.

VERY WELL PUT.
The following is from "Industrial Canada":

"More important than the tariff changes which it makes, is the clear definition of policy contained in the budget of the Hon. W. T. White, Minister of Finance. The old flag of 'reasonable protection,' under which the national ship has weathered storm and stress since 1878, is still flying nailed to the masthead, and will stay there. Confidence is restored. So long as this policy is in effect, manufacturers can secure capital, develop their industries, give opportunity to workmen, sustain the home market and swell Canada's trade."
"After Mr. White's speech the country gave a sigh of relief. On this continent during the last few years, the tendency has been to lower protective tariffs. The United States reduced its tariff from an average ad valorem rate of about 41 per cent. on all dutiable goods to the Canadian rate of about 26 per cent."
"But, in spite of the fact that, for the first time the average of the tariffs of the respective countries are about equal, and also that, even with equal tariffs the United States, as the stronger and older nation, has still an immense commercial advantage over us, there were people in Canada who advocated reducing our tariff in generous recognition of the self-interested act of the United States. No sooner was our ancient handicap against Canadian shipment into the United States reduced than they wanted another put on."

FARMERS BANK VICTIMS.
In the Dominion House yesterday a first reading was given of the bill introduced by Hon. Mr. White to reimburse the depositors in the defunct Farmers Bank.

In moving the resolution Hon. Mr. White stated that the Government founded its proposals on the report made by Sir William R. Meredith, in regard to the failure of the bank. That report, he submitted, established that the certificate of the treasury board, without which the bank could not have opened its doors, had been obtained by "false and fraudulent representation." The report of the commissioner made it clear that the treasury board had been guilty of negligence in not investigating the charges of irregularities in connection with the deposit of $250,000 of fully paid-up stock.

An enquiry would have shown that General Manager Travers had perjured himself, and the bank would never have opened its doors, at least with Mr. Travers as manager. In either case the bank would not have failed.
Mr. White read a statement of the liabilities and assets of the Farmers Bank on May 1 last. This showed total liabilities of $1,550,849 and total assets of $385,364. Among the assets was included the option price of the Keeley Mine for $150,000. It was expected that this option would be taken up within a short time. The statement, commented the Minister, made it clear that there would be no money for the depositors, and in addition there would be fairly heavy expenses of liquidation.

Hon. Mr. Lemieux asked why depositors who had lost by the failure of the Banque Ville Marie, and the Banque St. Jean should not receive similar treatment.
To this Hon. Mr. White replied that all bank suspensions had tragic consequences, which unfortunately had to be suffered, but the difference in the case of the Farmers Bank was that the treasury board at the time of the Laurier Government was negligent in allowing the institution to be launched.

THE BRITISH AND MEXICO.
Sir Edward Grey maintains his attitude of friendly reserve toward the United States in regard to Mexico, and in doing so undoubtedly reflects the sentiment of the great body of intelligent Englishmen, remarks the New York Times. There is no question that the people as well as the government of Great Britain believe that our government is animated by worthy motives in its course toward Mexico and is doing its best to preserve peace and to secure the ultimate establishment of law and order in that distracted land. They have no wish to hamper the efforts of our government, and they will not do so unless there shall arise some unfortunate situation involving the rights of British subjects to a degree not yet realized.
At the same time there is to be noted in the British press quite without reference to party the expression of the feeling—in some cases, of a deliberate and reasoned opinion—that

Conservative Association of the South Riding of Brant

A meeting of the Conservatives of the South Riding of Brant will be held at Conservative headquarters, corner of Dalhousie and King Streets, in the City of Brantford, in the County of Brant, on Thursday, May 21st, 1914, at 8 p.m., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the Provincial Legislature of the Province of Ontario.

the only possible final outcome of the situation is the active intervention of the United States, the occupation of Mexico, and its reorganization on the lines of order and safety. Generally this is regarded as the logical conclusion from the wish of our government to be left alone in dealing with Mexico. Our assumption of the right is held as carrying with it the duty of dealing with Mexico and of doing so in a way that will adequately provide for the protection of the rights and interests of other countries. Our government has not acknowledged the correctness of this assumption, and there is no sign that it will do so in the near future. But the fact that this view prevails in a friendly country of the importance of England is one that cannot wholly be ignored. We have no doubt that it is the mind of the president and his advisers.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Spring refuses to do just that.

An investigation has shown the paradoxical situation that Toronto's sinking funds are in good shape.

Windsor City Council elected a successor to the recently deceased medical health officer before he was buried. In death.

Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster leader against Home Rule, is about to marry the daughter of a Home Ruler. Wonder which will be that in the new relationship?

How closely the members of the British royal family are interwoven by marriage is shown in the case of Prince Alexander of Teck. As a brother of Queen Mary he is, of course, the King's brother-in-law, but he is second cousin, once removed, to his Majesty, who himself stands in that relation to his own consort. Princess Alexander is not only Queen Mary's sister-in-law, but she is also her second cousin once removed, and she is the King's first cousin as well as his sister-in-law by marriage. The King has already created his wife's eldest brother, the Duke of Teck, a "Highness," instead of a "Serene Highness," which is the courtesy title borne by the other members of the Teck family. And it is probable that the same favor will be shown to Prince Alexander. Moreover, it is likely that he will be made a peer of the realm—probably a Duke, as the number of Dukes at present is below its normal strength. Princess Alexander is, of course, a "Royal Highness."

All Conservatives invited. Only those will be entitled to vote who are duly elected delegates.

The Poet Philosopher

THE BYSTANDER.

I stand by my window alone, and look at the people go by, pursuing the shimmering haze, which is so elusive and shy. Pursuing the beckoning plunk, and no one can make them believe that roubles and kopecks are junk, vain baubles got up to deceive. Their faces are haggard and sad, from weariness often they reel, pursuing the succulent scud, pursuing the wandering wheel. And many are there in the throng who have all the money they need, and still they go racing along, inspired by the demon of greed. "To put some more bucks in the chest," they sigh as they toil, "would be grand," the beauty and blessing of rest is something they don't understand. We struggle and strain all our years, and wear out our bodies and brains, and when we are stretched on our biers, what profit we then by our pains? The lawyers come down with a whoop, and rake in our bundle of script, and plaster a lien on the coop before our poor orphans can yip. I stand at my window again, and see the poor folks as they trail, pursuing the yammering yen, pursuing the conquering kale; and sorrow is filling my breast, regret that the people won't know the infinite blessing of rest, that solace for heartache and woe.

WALT MASON.
Hon. W. T. White, Finance Minister, introduced the government resolution to recoup the depositors in the Farmers Bank, which was carried.

"TIZ" FOR SORE, TIRED FEET—AH!

"TIZ" is grand for aching, swollen, sweaty, calloused feet or corns.

"Pull, Johnny, Pull!"
Ah! what relief. No more tired feet; no more burning feet; no more swollen, bad smelling, sweaty feet. No more soreness in corns, callouses, bunions.

No matter what ails your feet, or what under the sun you've tried without getting relief, just use "TIZ." "TIZ" is the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up the feet. "TIZ" cures your foot trouble so you'll never limp or draw up your face in pain. Your shoes won't seem tight and your feet will never, never hurt or get sore and swollen. Think of it, no more foot misery, no more agony from corns, callouses or bunions.
Get a 25 cent box at any drug store or department store and get instant relief. Wear smaller shoes. Just once try "TIZ." Get a whole year's comfort for only 25 cents. Think of it.

Birthdays of Note

TUESDAY, MAY TWELFTH

The Hon. Sir William Glenholme Falconbridge, chief justice of the King's Bench Division of the Supreme Court of Judicature of Ontario, was born sixty-eight years ago to-day at Drummondville, Ont. He is a jurist of eminent ability and a scholar of repute, being particularly well up in the classics. Apropos both of his kindly disposition and his literary accomplishments a good story is told by a young Toronto woman journalist. This young lady was sent in an emergency to report a case then being heard by Sir Glenholme at Osogode Hall. She did her best to take in the argument but soon became so entirely bewildered that she could not make head nor tail of the business. When the court adjourned she bravely accosted the chief justice and explained her difficulty. Sir Glenholme then and there sat down and wrote out a popular explanation of the case which he handed to the reporter. It was duly printed in the afternoon edition and the supposed author was highly complimented by the editor on her achievement. She had to admit, however, that the report had been penned by the judge himself.

Also born today—

Shall Wholesale Murder Continue in Mexico?

A THRILLING STORY OF REVOLUTION AND WAR

By FREDERICK STARR, of the University of Chicago

MEXICO AND THE UNITED STATES: Tells not only what is known of the earliest inhabitants of the country, but it also gives a careful, most absorbing account of the course of government, and the conditions and modes of life of the people since the invasion and conquest of the Spaniards. It traces the development of railroads, commerce and progress, and the vital part which foreign capitalists and adventurers have played. It portrays the cruel rule of the Spanish viceroys, the terrors of slavery and peonage, and the oppression of the working people. It describes the winning of freedom in Mexico, the Texan revolution, the war with the United States, the French invasion, the empire of Maximilian, the rise of Diaz and the development of the peculiar complicated conditions that have resulted in the present situation.

It is in the revelation of Mexico's intolerable political and economic conditions that the book possesses one of its chief values. The story of the evils which exist in Mexico has never been adequately told. All previous attempts have been suppressed by powerful influences. Now, however, in this volume is given a complete description of the conditions which exist—a description which will arouse a nation and compel reformation.

To be fully informed on this very vital question one must read this book. Over 400 large octavo pages. Fine super paper. Over 100 great photographs, maps and portraits. Artistically bound in fine book cloth. $3.50 EDITION

A SAD ACCIDENT.
 MONTREAL, May 12.—Leaving behind him a trail of his blood, Joseph L. Walker, of 145 St. Urban street, ran from his home to the General Hospital yesterday with the unconscious and bleeding form of his six year old son, Louis, in his arms. The little fellow had been struck by an automobile while crossing the street in front of his home. He was so badly injured that he died almost as soon as his father turned him over to the physicians at the General Hospital.

GETTING READY FOR EARLY FIGHT

The question of an election still hangs in the balance, but the Conservative members of the Legislature are apparently proceeding on the conviction that it will come in a few weeks, and arrangements are now being made for numerous conventions.

The Speaker, Hon. W. H. Hoyle, will be renominated by the North Ontario Conservatives on May 29, the riding convention having been called for that date at Cannington. The West York Conservatives will hold their convention on June 6th. Dr. Forbes Godfrey, the sitting member, is certain of renomination. A dozen or more others have been practically settled upon.

The action of the members in going ahead and calling their conventions without waiting for an election announcement may have some influence in impelling the Government to have the fight brought on at once. But to do so the writs must be issued this week.

Sir James Whitney put in a busy day in his office, and resumed his daily practice of receiving the newspapermen. The Prime Minister, when questioned about the expected election, stated that the Government did not have to go to the people for nearly two years, but intimated that an election would likely be held much sooner. He was unable to say when the election would be held.

HAPPY TIME AT ALEXANDRA

Anniversary Concert Last Night Proved a Pleasing Affair.

Under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of Alexandra, there was held last night in the church, a most successful and high class concert which was thoroughly enjoyed by the large number present. Mr. Harold Jarvis and Miss Lyons captivated the hearts of their audience in a program of refinement and merit.

With the crowded house, and the anticipation of an entertaining evening ahead, the Rev. Mr. McClintock in some happy sentences declared the program open.

A reading rendered doubly pleasing by reason of the cultured and expressive delivery of Miss Mary Lyon, entitled "The man in the shadow," was listened to with rapt attention and understanding. This lady has a gift rarely bestowed and often-times unwisely assumed; and without a doubt has by intuition and training developed a fascinating public manner. Her encore, "Written by other smiles," was a charming piano dialogue that quite touched a new chord of sentiment and delight.

"Where'er you walk," by the star gentleman, Mr. Harold Jarvis, was a rendering to which the rich baritone voice gave a full and easy interpretation—every note was round, full and splendidly appealing in its manly strength.

The deeper vibrant notes of the MacGregor's Gathering was his encore, and into it he put all the strength and verve that coupled with the physical proportions of the singer, quite filled the part of the chief who thus flung his defiance at the oncoming usurpers of the clans' rights.

Miss Lyons, in "Making a Mason" caused a ripple of merriment throughout by her apt mimicry and personations of the various human emotions inspired in contemplation of such an ordeal, from the viewpoint of the "eternal feminine."

"Rose of my heart," was next, and Mr. H. Jarvis seemed if anything to eclipse his previous efforts; there are few who can please repeatedly, but he is one of the elect in this respect, the audience gave him a hearty round of applause at its conclusion.

Other selections, "When you come to the end of a perfect day," Mr. H. Jarvis, and a varied repertoire of short piano readings and laugh raisers were put through by Miss Lyon, the whole maintaining a high class and refined taste in their choosing, that is wholly delightful, when the ever banal vulgarity of present day tendencies is contrasted.

"A little Japanese Maiden," a rather pretty and sentimental solo, was sung by Mr. Jarvis, and as previously, seemed to further delight the large audience.

A delightful skit on the women's suffrage movement, filled with feminine logic, and the rare genius of feminine humor, was treated in an entertaining way, Miss Lyons has a most adaptable range of expressions at her command, one could listen to her, and forget how time is flying.

Undoubtedly it was a night of well spent enjoyment, and to conclude, on the request of Mr. Jarvis, the audience rose and closed the evening in singing the National Anthem.

"ALL ABOARD" FARCE COMEDY

Three Acts of Real Mirth in St. Mary's School Room Last Evening.

Before a large crowd which filled the basement of St. Mary's church last evening the Lawn Tennis Club of that church presented a three act roaring farce comedy entitled "All Aboard."

To say the least, it was clever. In fact it was exceptionally clever and of various parts brought out a lot of extraordinary ability. It was a laugh from start to finish and everyone in the audience thoroughly enjoyed it judging from the repeated outbursts of laughter and applause.

The plot of the play centres around a young couple who plan to elope. Harry Swift (Vincent McIntyre), and Winnifred Brown (Miss Marian Waterhouse), Heinnie Pimplebacker (Frank Convery), a young emigrant drifts into the station and is mistaken for Harry in disguise by Winnifred. Then the fun begins. Poor Heinnie "gets it in the neck" and two families of Browns became mixed one family being white, while the other is colored. The situation became more ludicrous as the plot advanced.

The scenes for the first and last acts are laid in the station at Lonsdaleville and the Station Agent (Gregory Kew), is nearly driven frantic by the number of Browns who come to the ticket office. He tries to trace their relationship but fails sadly and decides to check the job and go back to the farm.

Boy Knight Notes

The Boy Knights held a splendid church parade on Sunday, the turnout of boys being a record one. They made a fine appearance in their neat blue uniforms with service hats and puttees. Half Company Leader Rogers took command of the parade. The armories were well filled with parents and friends at the bright and interesting service that was held there. Miss Goodson and Mr. Rogers sang solos during the service. Mr. John Hawke and Mr. H. Rogers read the lessons, while the commanding officer conducted the service. He gave a fine address from the 34th and 35th verses of the 10th chapter of Acts, "Then Peter opened his mouth and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons. But in every nation he that feareth him and worketh with righteousness is accepted with him."

The good order that was kept and the attention given to the speaker was most marked, and many practical lessons were taught that will be of benefit in the lives of the young men.

Mr. James Hawkes made a brief address at the close of the service. He stated that the Boy Knights was a strong and live organization, having double the strength that they had a year ago, marked progress having been made along all lines. It was not a spasmodic movement, but one in which the work was carried on the year round.

HER LITTLE SON WAS DYING

Gave Him "Fruit-a-lives" And Saved His Life.

CAMPBELLVILLE, ONT., May 5th, 1914. "Our little boy, Lawrence, was sorely affected with Chronic Indigestion, and the doctor did not think he would recover. He started with a sore mouth and it developed into this other trouble. Everything he ate just passed right through the system without change. He cried incessantly and life was a misery to him. My husband had been using "Fruit-a-lives" for Indigestion, getting much benefit from them, and I thought what did him good, might help our boy. We tried "Fruit-a-lives" giving Lawrence 1/2 a tablet at a dose, and the result was marvellous. Today, he is the picture of health, and he is perfectly well."

CURLEY'S CASE

Indian Charged With Bigamy With Brantford Girl in Hamilton.

(Hamilton Spectator) "Dr. Robert Curley, the Indian herb specialist, appeared to-day and was committed for trial. He is charged with bigamy. His alleged wife mounted the stand and told how she had married Curley in 1898. Then came seventeen-year-old Emily Parsons. She said that she knew Curley was married before, but had been led to believe that as Curley was an Indian, the "law could not touch him."

"You did not think that you would be marrying this man into prison, then?" asked the magistrate. "No, I certainly did not," smiled golden-haired Emily through her tears.

The girl continued to tell how the Indian had courted her for months. The Rev. F. W. Pittsot then produced the records of the marriage with the Parsons girl, dated April 27 last. Curley had signed himself a "bachelor."

C. W. Bell, acting for the prisoner, reserved the latter's evidence for the higher court. When told by the Parsons girl that she knew Curley had been married before, the magistrate said, "That lends a less serious aspect to the case."

The two women had never met before. They made each other's acquaintance in court this morning, greeting each other very affably.

Music and Drama

At the Colonial.

Manager Symons of the Colonial theatre presents for the first part of this week four very clever acts, which delighted large houses, both yesterday afternoon and evening. The Barlones present a novelty gymnastic act on a revolving ladder, which is very clever and received well merited applause. Happy Riley presents a black face comedy act, which is exceedingly clever. He pulled off some new and up-to-date jokes which brought the house down.

Johnny Dundee in a novelty singing acrobatic dancing act is very clever. He does a number of quick changes which were very cleverly executed.

Charles DeFur and the dainty girls present the feature act of a high class singing, talking and dancing act. The bill is completed by four reels of excellent pictures.

At the Brant. Whitney's Operatic Dolls, a big feature act in itself is the headline at the Brant this week. The five human mannikins present a very clever and pleasing entertainment of song, which was greatly appreciated by the crowds at yesterday's performances.

Conlin and Ward, the autoactors of comedy present a very clever and highly amusing performance. Their comedy is very clever and both men are excellent singers. Billie Burton presents a clever violin and saxophone act, which is very clever. She possesses great musical ability, a fact which is readily seen in her playing.

Scott and Anetta present an athletic act which is very clever. The gentleman features a strong act in which he lifts the lady from a reclining position on the floor to her feet with one arm.

DR. RIBDELL GUILTY ON SERIOUS CHARGE

He Is Veterinary Surgeon and Performed Illegal Operation on Wife Against Her Will.

WOODSTOCK, May 12.—Dr. Roy Riddell, a Norwich veterinary surgeon, charged with having performed a criminal operation on his wife some time ago, was found guilty by Acting Judge Wallace. Sentence was deferred for a few days. Very keen interest was taken here in the case yesterday when Riddell went into the dock at the County Judge's Criminal Court, at which Acting Judge James G. Wallace presided. Fully half the male population of South Norwich, in which Riddell resided, were present in the court room. There were about a dozen witnesses for the defence, and some five for the crown, among whom there some medical men.

At the initial investigation some time ago Riddell was sent up for trial, his election being made by the court room. Bail was accepted, and ever since accused has been under heavy bonds to appear when called. T. C. Robinette, K. C., of Toronto, appeared in his behalf.

Riddell is about thirty-five years of age, while Mrs. Riddell is an extremely pretty young woman, about twenty-eight, well-dressed, with an air of good breeding, and a daughter of a prominent family of farmers near Otterville. She faced the severe ordeal of examination by the Crown Prosecutor, R. N. Ball, without flinching, and when asked if she desired to testify against her husband said "yes," also she wanted to tell all she knew concerning the charge against him. She was on the stand more than an hour, during which time she unfolded a sorrowful tale.

In cross-examination she maintained she had absolutely nothing to do with the act of which her husband was accused, but that she was the helpless victim of her husband's alleged illegal professional skill, and that her own people had not interfered in domestic matters between her husband and herself. She swore her husband said he would compel her to submit to an operation and that he did compel her against protests. Riddell went into the box and strenuously denied that he had performed the operation, and said his wife had told him that she would never be able to survive the childbirth. After hearing the evidence of other witnesses, Acting Judge Wallace found Riddell guilty on the charge, but deferred sentence for a few days.

She Found Herself Face to Face With Nikolas Rokoff.

When he will laugh at you for your fears and take immediate steps to put that precious brother of yours in prison, where he belongs.

"I only wish that I dared," she said, "but I am afraid of the German."

As Tarzan was leaving her a short time later he wondered a little at the clinging pressure of her hand at parting and the firm insistence with which she exacted a promise from him that he would call again on the morrow.

After hearing the details of the room after Tarzan's departure she found herself face to face with Nikolas Rokoff.

"How long have you been here?" she cried, shrinking away from him.

"Since before your lover came," he answered, "but once and he dropped you say such a thing to me—your sister."

"Well, my dear Olga, if he is not your lover accept my apologies, but it is no fault of yours that he is not."

"The woman put her hands to her ears."

"I will not listen. You are wicked to say such things as that. No matter what you may threaten me with, you know that I am a good woman. After tonight you will not dare to annoy me, for I shall tell Raoul all. He will understand, and then, M. Nikolas, beware!"

"You shall tell him nothing," said Rokoff. "I have this affair now, and with the help of one of my servants whom I may trust it will lack nothing in the telling when the time comes that the details of the sworn evidence shall be poured into your husband's ears. The other affair served its purpose well. We now have something tangible to work on, Olga. A real affair—and you a trusted wife. Shame, Olga!" And the brute laughed.

So the countess told her count nothing, and matters were worse than they had been. From a vague fear her mind was transferred to a very tangible one. It may be, too, that conscience helped to enlarge it out of all proportions.

CHAPTER V.

A Plot Against a Woman.
FOR a month Tarzan was a regular and very welcome devotee at the shrine of the beautiful Countess de Coude. Often he met other members of the select little coterie that dropped in for tea of an afternoon. More often Olga found herself the centre of his attention than Tarzan alone. She grew to speculate much upon the strange force which seemed to attract her toward the gray eyed stranger. She did not wish to love him, nor did she wish his love. He was honorable and chivalrous. She was not afraid of him. That she could trust him she had felt instinctively from the first.

From a distance Rokoff had watched this growing intimacy with malicious glee. Ever since he had learned that Tarzan knew that he was a Russian spy there had been added to his hatred for the one man a great fear that he would expose him. He was but waiting now until the moment was propitious for a master stroke.

Tarzan was nearer to contentment than he had been since the peace and tranquility of his jungle had been broken in upon by the advent of the marooned Porter party.

Sometimes D'Arnot accompanied him on his visits to the De Coude home, for he had long known both Olga and the count. Occasionally De Coude dropped in, but the dutiful husband had been in an official position and the never ending demands of politics kept him from home usually until late at night. Rokoff spied upon Tarzan almost constantly, waiting for the time that

THE RETURN OF TARZAN

Tarzan laughed. "You are still but a little girl. The story that you have told me cannot reflect in any way upon your reputation, and were you not a little girl at heart you would know it. Go to your husband tonight and tell him the whole story just as you have told it to me. Unless I am much mistaken he should call at the De Coude palace at night, but in this he was doomed to disappointment."

For days they watched the papers as well as the movements of De Coude and Tarzan. At length they were rewarded. A morning paper made brief mention of a smoker that was to be given on the following evening by the German ambassador. De Coude's name was among those of the invited guests. If he attended this meant that he would be absent from his home until after midnight.

On the night of the banquet Paulvitch waited at the embassy before the residence of the ambassador, where he could scan the face of each guest that arrived. He had not long to wait before De Coude descended from his car and passed him. That was enough. Paulvitch hastened back to his quarters, where Rokoff awaited him. There they waited until after 11, when Paulvitch took down the receiver of their telephone. He called the number of the apartments of Lieutenant D'Arnot. "M. Tarzan?"

"Ah, yes, monsieur, this is Francois—in the service of the Countess de Coude. Possibly monsieur does not know the name of the Countess de Coude. He has a message, an urgent message from the countess. She asks that you hasten to her at once—she is in trouble, monsieur."

Paulvitch hung up the receiver and turned to grin at Rokoff.

"It will take him thirty minutes to get there. If you reach the German ambassador's residence before he does, he will arrive at his home in about forty-five minutes. It all depends upon whether the fool will remain fifteen minutes after he finds that a trick has been played upon him, but unless I am mistaken Olga will be loath to let him go in so short a time as that. Here is the note for De Coude. Hasten!"

Paulvitch lost no time in reaching the German ambassador's. At the door he handed the note to a footman. "This is for the Count de Coude. It is very urgent. You must see that it is placed in his hands at once and he dropped a piece of silver into the willing hand of the servant. Then he returned to his quarters.

A moment later De Coude was apologizing to his host as he tore open the envelope. What he read left his face white and his hand trembling.

M. le Comte de Coude—One who wishes to save the honor of your name takes this means to warn you that the sanctity of your home is this minute in jeopardy. A certain man who for months has been a constant visitor there during your absence is now with your wife. If you go at once to your countess' bedroom you will find them together. A FRIEND.

Twenty minutes after Paulvitch had called Tarzan, Rokoff obtained a connection with Olga's private line. Her maid answered the telephone, which was in the countess' boudoir.

Beware of Ointments For CATARRH THAT CONTAIN MERCURY

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces, such articles should never be used except on prescription from a reputable physician, as the damage they will do is incalculable. Beware of cheap imitations. Halls' Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. It is the only safe remedy for Catarrh. ARE MATCHED

Brantford sport followers will have another chance to see a boxing bout in this city on May 25th. English Tommy Ryan, welterweight champion of Kent, England, will make his appearance against Roy (Kit) Carson of Calgary, Alberta. Both men have a good reputation. Ryan held Sammy Baker of Rochester to a draw at the Queensbury A. C., in Buffalo recently. Carson has had considerable experience in the ring out West, and it is claimed he can hold his own with the best of them at his weight. Carson will arrive here about the 16th of this month and will complete his training in this city. Besides this "go" three good preliminary bouts will be staged, the contestants to be announced later. Final arrangements will be made in a few days as to the place of the fight. The seats will be advanced a little in price owing to the great expense in bringing the fighters here.

Toronto managed to squeeze a run over in the tenth on Baltimore and beat their star southpaw Ruth, 2-1. Ritter for the Leafs, allowed only four hits.

MAYOR MARTIN

Is Having a Lively Time—He is Strongly Guarded by Detectives.

MONTREAL, May 12.—Detectives were this morning guarding Mayor Martin's house as a result of the labor situation which has to-day reached an acute stage. Rumors have been heard of threats of violence on the part of the foreign element, who declare that civic officials have held out promises of labor to them which have not been realized.

The Mayor is particularly blamed for it is just two weeks ago since he informed a gathering on the Champ de Mars that in a few days there would be work for all. This morning a growing crowd of out-of-workers again took possession of the parade grounds, including between three and four thousand men.

From all sides were heard murmurs of discontent and there were rumors afloat that the unemployed intended to gather in even greater numbers this afternoon if nothing is done to appease them and take the city hall by storm.

Not Much Seeding Done. Although it is already late in the seeding season, there are several farmers in the district who have not touched their land on account of the inclement weather. Police Complimented. His Worship Mayor Spence called at the Police Department on Saturday evening in company with Ald. Robinson after the reception to H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught and complimented the Chief Constable and officers of the Brantford Police Force on the manner in which they carried out their part of the program. His Worship also conveyed the appreciation of His Royal Highness as to the police arrangements. In view of the strenuous day's work His Worship the Mayor had, his thoughtfulness is very much appreciated by the members of the force.

Double-Header On Tomorrow

The Weather Man was supreme umpire in the Class B Shower Bath League to-day in Brantford, consequently the pastime between Toronto and Brantford at Agricultural Park was postponed for two consecutive days. The result means that two games will be played to-morrow behind the dyke, the first game commencing at 2.15. These two games will, of course, be subject to the pleasure of the Weather Man, but there are hopes the flood will abate.

ASQUITH SAYS AN AMENDMENT WILL BE MADE

To Home Rule Bill—Promise Delivered in the House Today.

(By Special Wire to The Courier) LONDON, May 12.—Premier Asquith in the House of Commons today pledged the government to introduce an amendment bill to the home rule for Ireland measure in the hope of it being passed by agreement between parties. If this offer is accepted he said both the original home rule bill and the amending bill will become law practically simultaneous. This, he contended, was the only proper way of carrying out any agreed settlement which might be reached. The prime minister added that obviously in order to take advantage of the provisions of the parliament act no change could be made in the home rule for Ireland bill while it was in the committee stage and therefore any debate during that stage would be pure waste of time.

The parliament act provides that if the public bill be passed by the House of Commons in three consecutive sessions and be rejected or unacceptably amended by the House of Lords in each of these sessions, it may become law by receiving the Royal assent, provided that two years have elapsed between the second reading in the first of the three sessions and the final reading in the third session. In announcing that the third reading of the home rule bill on its third passage through the House of Commons would be taken before Whitehall, the premier said: "If, as I hope—and more than hope I trust—we may bring diverse ideas together with a common object and with concerted discussion, not perhaps on the floor of the House, at least ultimately on the floor of the House—we can arrive at a settlement I am sure as a matter of procedure that that settlement must take the form of a supplementary bill."

"I have said I will never close the door on the possibility of any settlement. I am going a step further now than I have ever done before when I say on behalf of the government that while I shall ask the house of commons to give the Irish home rule bill its third reading before Whitehall, the government will make itself responsible for introducing amending proposals to that bill in the hope that a settlement by agreement may be arrived at in regard to matters immediately outstanding."
