MAIN GERMAN SECOND LINE CAPTURED BY THE BRITISH.

LONDON, Aug. 6. The main German second line system on a front of 2,000 yards north of Pozieres, on the Somme front has been captured by the British it was officially announced by the War Office on Saturday afternoon. Including this during the last two days the British pushed forward their line north and west of Pozieres some 400 to 600 yards, over a front of about 3,000 yards. Troops from Australia, Kent, Surrey and Sussex participated in the operation and consolidated the position won, despite the shell fire, which was especially heavy north of the Pozieres-Bapaume road. In the fighting along the Somme front in Northern France, last night, the British made additional slight advance in the high wood, according to an official announcement this afternoon. The Germans actively shelled various portions of the front during the night.

BOMBED BY SUBMARINE.

LONDON, Aug. 6. Constantinople and the suburbs of Karstland Peshik, recently were bombed by a submarine from the Sea of Marmora, according to Constantinople advices.

ATTACKED BY TURKS.

LONDON, Aug. 6. British positions near Romani, east of Port Said, are being attacked by 1,400 (14,000) Turks, according to an official statement issued to-day by the War Office. The Turks are attacking along a front of seven to eight miles, the statement says, and have so far been repulsed.

The strong Turkish force which attacked the British at Romani, 22 miles east of the Suez Canal on Aug. 4, were defeated and put to flight by a counter attack, says an official statement, issued to-day. The Turks, adds the statement, are being vigorously pursued by the British, who have taken more than 2,500 prisoners including some Germans.

FRENCH OFFICIAL.

PARIS, Aug. 5. All German attacks on French positions last night were repulsed, says a French official statement issued this afternoon, the Germans sustaining heavy losses. A bombardment of the most violent character took place over the entire sector of Thiaumont and Fleury. The battle lasted from 9 o'clock last night until this morning, the Germans making unsuccessful efforts to drive the French from Thiaumont Wood after a spirited engagement. In the village of Fleury

Incandescent Gas Lighting.

Possibly, the feature of incandescent gas lighting most frequently noted by casual observers is the great ease with which tasks, ordinarily arduous under artificial light may be performed under the Weisbach gas mantle. The light has a peculiarly "soft" quality, difficult to describe, but which is readily recognized by those who have had experience with the gas mantle lamp.

In its general effect upon bodily health and comfort, the use of incandescent gas lighting is decidedly favorable. The currents of air set up by the burning gas improves ventilation, tending to expel the air vitiated by respiration and draw in fresh air to replace it. Harmful or dangerous disease germs are instantly destroyed in the flame. The extent to which this effect takes place may be verified by placing a gas lamp close to a ceiling without any provision for interfering with the up-rushing air currents. The charred particles which collect immediately above the lamp are the remains of dust particles which before passing through the flames were laden with germs and microbes. Actual experiments have shown that the burning of gas lamps in rooms previously containing bacteria, resulted in absolute sterilization of the air. Contrary to the popular notion the temperature of rooms lighted by incandescent gas lamps is seldom markedly greater than under incandescent electric light, even under unfavorable conditions of ventilation, while in rooms provided with the ventilating facilities required by the demands of hygiene, the temperature in gas-lighted rooms is frequently lower.

THE SITUATION IS WITHOUT APPRECIABLE CHANGE.

On the right bank of the Meuse the enemy made no attempt on the sector of Thiaumont. We have organized our position conquered immediately west of the road from Thiaumont and Fleury, and in the village, the entire southern part of which we hold, after a violent bombardment which lasted the entire day. The Germans launched two powerful attacks in Vaux-Le Chapitre Wood.

Belgium communication—Our batteries of all calibre successfully shelled to-day German works in the region of Dixmude. The enemy replied feebly.

TURNING POINT NOW REACHED.

PARIS, Aug. 6. At French headquarters, Joffre, in an interview with an Associated Press correspondent, says that the turning point in the war is now reached, and that the Germans' collapse is now a certainty.

FURTHER FRENCH GAINS.

PARIS, Aug. 6. Further gains of ground by French local operations, northwest of the Thiaumont work on the Verdun front, are announced by the War Office this afternoon. A German counter attack in this sector was repulsed. Progress for the French southwest of Estrees and on the Somme front as a result of small engagements, is also announced.

FIGHTING NEAR BRODY FIERCE.

PETROGRAD, Aug. 6. An official to-day reads: Battles along the Sereth south of Brody, are developing in our favor. Our troops, after consolidating their positions on the right bank of the river have captured two more villages by assault and part of a wood situated southeast of one of them on a height situated between the two villages especially fierce fighting occurred. It was necessary to drive the enemy out of nearly every stretch. The enemy made nine counter attacks from the neighboring woods. All of these were repulsed. The enemy suffered heavy losses. Over 1,200 were taken prisoners. Fresh prisoners continue to arrive. The situation in the Caucasus is unchanged.

RUSSIANS CAPTURE SIX VILLAGES.

PETROGRAD, Aug. 6. Russian attacks along the Sereth and Graberka Rivers south of Brody in Northern Galicia, have broken the Teutonic resistance and resulted in the capture by the Russians of six villages and the entire ridge along which they are located, according to a War Office announcement to-day. More than 3,000 prisoners were taken.

WHAT BERLIN SAYS.

BERLIN, Aug. 6. The Russians have been driven from the position to which they were still clinging near Zareze on the Stokhod in Southern Volhynia, according to to-day's army headquarters statement. German troops in the Carpathians are continuing successful operation on the west bank of the river Sereth near Zaloco. Northwest of that place has been captured by the Russians, the statement adds.

SERBIANS SUCCESS.

PARIS, Aug. 6. The Serbians have won another success in their operations along the Macedonian front, according to a Havas despatch from Salonika, to-day, taking the village of Remly near Brocha, which had been occupied by the Bulgarians. German reports that the Bulgarians delivered successful attacks against the Serbians south of Mornastir are unfounded, the despatch declares.

ITALIAN OFFICIAL.

ROME, Aug. 6. Austrian lines on Montefalcone Ridge, have been penetrated by the Italians.

THE NATIONS INFLEXIBLE DETERMINATION.

LONDON, Aug. 5. At yesterday's meeting Premier Asquith received a tremendous reception when he moved the resolution expressing the inflexible determination of the people of London to continue the war to a successful end. Referring to Germany's costly mistake, and her delusion in supposing that Britain would never join France and Russia in arms, the Premier said that never in the tangled and bungled web of German diplomacy had there been an error so crude, or a conception so disastrously fatal to its authors. Proceeding to review the two years, the Premier said the war breathed a new spirit into the British nation, while there was nothing more remarkable during the past year than the success with which the Entente Allies had developed a common policy and a unified plan, which had resulted in the present successful vigorous offensive on three fronts of the theatre of war. Our Navy, the Premier continued, with ever-tightening grip is throttling the life of Germany. Never in history has there been such demonstrative proof of the supreme importance of the command of the sea. The enemy is everywhere on the defensive. In no theatre has he attempted to regain the initiative. There are signs of material weakening and exhaustion. That is all the more reason why the Allies should co-operate in maintaining the struggle with increasing tenacity, and unrelaxing will. The recrudescence of deliberate and calculated barbarity on the part of Germany indicates the sense of desperation. The record of the latest atrocities are as black as ever beamed the annals of the German army, nor can we forget the great infantry directed against ourselves in the judicial murder of Capt. Fryatt, which has stirred the indignation and outraged the conscience of the whole world. The Premier was greeted with an outburst of applause when he repeated the statement he had made in the Commons, that the Entente Allies were considering how to deal with German atrocities. He concluded by stating that all the Allied army staffs are agreed that the prospects for an allied victory have never been so bright, and that the final result of their victory would lie in a great partnership of nations, and the joint pursuit of a freer, fuller life for countless millions, who, by efforts and sacrifices, generation after generation have maintained progress and enriched the inheritance of humanity.

Bonar Law, Minister of State for the Colonies, characterized the war as the most wicked the world has ever seen. He declared that despite the advantages which years of preparation had given, "The toils were closed around them." The Minister said, "it is useless to talk about the latest atrocities; we must do something, as the wild beast is at large. There is no good appealing to the civilized world about it. There is only one thing to be done and we can do it. Shoot it." Bonar Law read messages from General Louis Botha, Premier of South Africa, and Lieut-General Smuts, Commander of the South African forces, urging the continuance of the war with determination. The resolution moved by the Premier, was carried by acclamation.

MARKHAM, M.P., DEAD.

LONDON, Aug. 6. Sir Arthur Basil Markham, M.P. for Mansfield Division of Nottinghamshire, died on Saturday.

WILL ARRIVE IN OCTOBER.

OTTAWA, Aug. 6. The Duke of Devonshire, Canada's new Governor-General, will arrive in Ottawa in the early part of October. Connaught will leave shortly before and the incoming and outgoing Governor-Generals will cross each other at sea according to custom.

FAILURE OF SHACKLETON.

LONDON, Aug. 6. Shackleton has again failed to cross the main body of the Antarctic expedition left on Elephant Island, says the Daily Chronicle, and has returned to the Falkland Islands. Sir Ernest recognizes that it is useless to attempt to force a passage with light ships, and he is waiting for the steamer Discovery to come from England.

SWEDISH STEAMER SUNK.

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 6. The Swedish steamer Commerce, loaded with 260 standards of batteries consigned to England, was sunk yesterday off Solderhamn by a German submarine.

ENEMY PLANE DESTROYED.

BERLIN, Aug. 6. (Official.) An enemy battle plane was destroyed off the Flanders coast on Saturday.

LLOYD'S ANNOUNCEMENT.

LONDON, Aug. 6. Lloyd announces the sinking of the following vessels: Greek steamer Tricoupiis, 2,387 gross tons; Cephalonia; British steamer Tottenham, formerly Harwood, 3,006 gross tons; London; British steamer Pavonian, formerly Alenavick, 3,095 gross tons; Newcastle; Italian steamer Siena, 4,533 gross tons; Genoa. The Tottenham and Pavonian were unharmed.

STREET CAR STRIKE.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6. Strikes were in effect to-day on virtually every surface car line in the boroughs of Manhattan, Queens and Bronx, involving 6,600 conductors and motormen, and affecting 2,300,000 persons who daily use these lines.

WOOD RETAINS TITLE.

BOSTON, Aug. 6. Ablics Wood, Canadian Champion long-distance runner, defeated Kolemmain in the five mile international championship.

WIMBORNE RE-APPOINTED.

LONDON, Aug. 6. Baron Wimborne has been re-appointed Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

Strength Declines As Age Advances Follow This Suggestion.

So many women grow old before their time, perhaps your wife or sister. A little while ago, buoyant, full of vigor and actively—she enjoyed life and imparted pleasure to the whole family, but now in a few short years she has faded and lost color and strength. She is just ready to develop some disease that will further weaken and debilitate. You remember how it began failure of appetite, tired in the morning, found housework burdensome, always nervous and a little irritable. It's a shame to let her go down hill further when you can build her up so quickly with Ferronze. The change this nourishing tonic makes in a weak woman is surprising. It gives great zest for food, increases appetite and digestion enormously. The blood gets richer and stronger and adds new life to every organ in the body. A rebuilding process works through the entire system. The first week will show an improvement, and a month or two will fatten up the thinnest, most run-down woman you can think of. Take Ferronze for lost color, for nervousness, for weakness—use it when run-down and feeling poorly—it will do you more lasting good, keep you in better health than anything else. Just as good for men and children, too, because Ferronze is harmless and safe, 50c. per box or six for $2.50, at all dealers, or direct by mail from the Catarhozone Co., Kingston, Ont.

Fifty-seven Bodies Were Found in Cutting

The Victims Had Fled Thither in Hopes of Escaping the Terrible Fire in Northern Ontario.

Cochrane, Ont., Aug. 1.—An estimated death loss of between 250 and 300 and property loss estimated at between two and three million dollars, is the toll of what is considered the most devastating forest fire in Canada's history, which swept over a large section of Northern Ontario on Saturday.

Hundreds of people are homeless and dozens of families are broken up. The first through train to Cochrane arrived here yesterday afternoon with doctors, nurses, attendants, food and clothing for the suffering and homeless. The town has been cut off from communication by wire since Saturday and the first assistance was brought with the relief train which left North Bay on Sunday morning and got through as far as Matheson last night.

In Munro and Beattie townships there are many prospectors unaccounted for. At Nushka only three survived. Fifty-seven bodies were found in a railway cut, where the victims fled in the hope of saving their lives. The bodies were taken to Matheson and buried temporarily.

RUSSIANS TAKE MANY PRISONERS

PETROGRAD, To-day.
According to late reports, the total prisoners captured on August 4th and 5th amounted to 104 officers, including a Regimental Commander, and over 5,500 men, while prisoners are continuing to come in. We took also numerous machine guns and bomb throwers.

JOFFRE OPTIMISTIC.

HEADQUARTERS OF GENERAL STAFF IN FRANCE.
General Joffre, to-day, received an Associated Press correspondent here for upwards of an hour, and talked freely and fully on many interesting current phases of the war. He expressed the view that the turning point of the great conflict had now been successfully reached and passed and that with united action the Entente Allies' efforts assured victory to the Allied armies.

ROYAL MESSAGES TO THE KING.

LONDON, To-day.
Answers to the telegrams which he sent to the heads of the various Allied nations on the second anniversary of Britain's entry into war, have been received by King George. A message from Emperor Nicholas of Russia, dated at General Headquarters, said: "I am equally determined that we in Russia shall make good the sacrifices which my brave troops and people have given to the just cause which will bring the reward we seek, and that peace for which we fight shall be secured by complete victory over our enemies." From the Emperor of Japan: "After all the trials of a great defensive battle the indomitable armies of the Allies are now pressing forward steadily and successfully on all fronts. I beg Your Majesty to believe that I am entirely in accord with you in the strong determination to carry on the struggle until our common cause for right and freedom shall be fully attained. A message from King Peter of Serbia, said he had received with satisfaction the fresh testimony of intrepidity and determination to bring about the triumph of a noble cause.

BRILLIANT WORK BY AUSTRALIANS.

WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN FRANCE.
Under a merciless concentration of shell fire the Australians are holding on to their gains to-day, after their advance last night on a front of two miles. The Germans have already delivered three powerful counter attacks to retake the lost ground, all failed. In one of the counter attacks the Germans came forward holding up their hands and surrendered. Behind them the British placed the curtains of shell fire through which it was impossible for them to retreat, while the Australians machine guns and rifles mowed them down hopelessly to continue the charge. Their last previous attack having been by the right flank the British renewed the offensive by the left flank after a week of bombing and sapping. Here the task fell on the Australians, who added another victory to their brilliant record in taking Pozieres. In grueling heat under a blazing sun, they had been working in continued shell fire, digging their new trenches opening beyond Pozieres and facing the German front line trenches on the left of the break the British already had made in their previous attack. This was one of the remaining important positions on the high ground which had been so bitterly contested. The Germans were surprised and even the British staff somewhat surprised when it was found that the first reports that the Australians had taken every road front which they had attacked were correct, and some six hundred prisoners were started back. With this additional front, the British now hold five miles of the former German second line. The Australians are to-day in sight of Martinpuich and Courcellette. Beyond is Thiepval on the summit of a hill where the British attack of July 1st met its heaviest losses, and was repulsed. Now this whole section could be put under an enfilading fire of the British guns.

PROGRESS AT POZIERES.

LONDON, To-day.
An official last night from General Headquarters reads: "The enemy made two attacks early this morning against the ground which we had gained northwest of Pozieres. In one attack, by the use of liquid fire, he temporarily pushed us back along one of the trenches we had captured, but later we recovered all but some forty yards of the ground thus lost. In the other attack the enemy was repulsed with loss, and the afternoon we made some progress along the trenches east of Pozieres in the direction of Martinpuich. South of Elou we ratted the enemy trenches causing many casualties. Improved weather has enabled useful work by our artillery which in connection with the aeroplanes destroyed several gun emplacements.

FRENCH TAKE PRISONERS.

PARIS, To-day.
According to an official communication the number of prisoners taken by the French in the week of July 30th to Aug. 5th, for the most part in the Meuse region, exceeded 2,500.

BRITISH STEAMER MISSING.

The British steamer Mount Coniston, 3,165 tons, was last reported at Swansea on July 7th, according to a Lloyds' despatch.

GERMAN SUBS BUST.

COPENHAGEN, To-day.
The Norwegian newspaper Tidens Tegn, Christiania, states the steamer Aaro, a British vessel of 2,603 tons, was torpedoed by a German submarine. The owners of the steamer Aaro stated to-day she left Hull a week ago. Their Norwegian agents report that two of her lifeboats with provisions and lifebuoys, were found drifting outside Tunghes headland, near Stavanger, Norway. None of her crew have come to the agents.

JUSTIFIABLE INDIGNATION.

LONDON, To-day.
One of the biggest demonstrations by working men that has occurred during the war, took place at Trafalgar Square to-day. The great gathering demanded reprisals for the execution of Captain Fryatt, of the British steamer Brussels by the Germans in Belgium. Speakers urged the impounding of all German property and the hanging of Emperor William, Admiral Von Tirpitz and Governor-General Von Bissing, of Belgium, as "Common Malefactors" before the conclusion of peace.

NOON.

TURK PRISONERS AT CAIRO.

CAIRO, To-day.
Sixteen hundred Turkish prisoners have arrived here. They are part of the army which attacked the British positions at Rottam and which was defeated with heavy losses, a total of 2,500 prisoners being taken.

GERMANS REPULSED AT VERDUN.

PARIS, To-day.
Repulse of German attacks at Thiaumont and in the Vaux and Chapelet Woods in the Verdun sector is announced in an official statement.

BRILLIANT CAVALRY ACTION.

LONDON, To-day.
A description of how the Turks were drawn into a trap at Roman by the British cavalry is given in a Cairo despatch. The despatch says the cavalry was sent out to entice the enemy who had shown a disposition to assume the offensive. British horsemen fought an admirable rear guard action, says the despatch, drawing the Turks until their flank was turned by a mounted division. A whole brigade was compelled to surrender. Among the prisoners were 70 Germans, including 36 officers. A complete battery of German guns was also taken.

McMurdo's Store News

It may be used with confidence for all purposes for which such preparations may be employed. It is useful in the household, in the stable, on the farm, in the sick room. ## Shipwrecked Crew Arrived.

By Saturday night's train Capt. Wilson and crew of the s.s. Samuel Blandford, which was lost in St. Mary's Bay, reached town. The particulars in hand of the wreck corroborates the story, though brief, already told. The ship was coming from New York to St. John's with cargo of coal and on Thursday night last, between ten and eleven o'clock, during a thick fog, the vessel struck the rocks near St. Mary's. So foggy was it that the bow of the ship was not discernible from the bridge. She was going slowly when she struck. At first she only grazed the rocks, but when she started to settle aground amidstships the stowhold became flooded. The engineers and firemen were forced to make a hurried exit and run to the deck owing to the water making such rapid headway. The ship then began to leak badly all along the bottom. It was useless to stay operating the pumps as it was impossible to cope with the influx of water. Ere long Capt. Wilson and crew had to take to the boats, after saving most of their belongings, and row for the land, a good distance away. The Sam Blandford began to settle by the head and was gradually sinking when the crew left, and could not have remained afloat many hours longer. After the crews had been twelve hours in the lifeboats, hungry and fatigued, they reached Salmonier Friday afternoon last and remained there till the following afternoon, when they joined the train for St. John's.

Household Notes.

Dusters and floor mops should be washed often.
Vegetables are best bought fresh, as they are wanted.
Every cellar should be whitewashed at least once a year.
All fruits selected for canning should be strictly fresh.
Cantaloupes are far more inviting served with ice in them.
Paper should not be used in a larder—it is too absorbent.
"When in doubt, take a bath." is a good rule for hot weather.
A wooden plate scraper is very useful when washing dishes.
Baby's warm-water rompers should have pockets in them.
Lime juice in the lemonade is a pleasant change on a hot day.

Soon German Front Must Give Way

LONDON, July 31.—Though both sides are resting along the Somme front to-day after the repulse of the terrific German counter-attacks, last night London is happy and content and expectant.
While the Russians advance on Lemberg is measured in miles and that of the British on Bapaume only in yards the experts here believe that there will soon be big developments. Just as the lumberman's blows increase steadily in power as the wedge cuts more and more slowly into the log, so must the Anglo-French attacks increase in violence as it drives into the heart of the enemy's defenses.
The German official statement which denies that the British or French have gained a foot of ground in the big assault of Saturday, which it describes as taken as merely one more proof of the high value which the general staff sets on the positions and the feeling that the German people must not know that the line is cracking.

While the Infantry has been quiet the aero war has gone on with undiminished vigor.

British and French machines raided German depots and railway stations and factories in squadrons while the German flyers were busy on the defensive. The British dropped seven tons of bombs and blew up one track and one ammunition depot as well as destroying several enemy aëros. Three of their own are missing. The French report a successful raid near Thienville and the destruction of railway stations. The Germans report having driven back a French raid headed for Mulheim and Paden and the destruction of three French planes.
The terrific heat and dust into which the mud of the last two weeks has been transformed almost overnight have added to the torments of the men in the Somme battle.

are approaching the moment when the German front must give way.

At the expense of other sections the Germans have concentrated large forces along the Somme front launching attack after attack in the sector north of the Somme held by the French. The British are busy improving the positions gained yesterday preparatory to fresh efforts. Both British and French have more than held their own to-day exacting a heavy toll of lives. The British have even gained a little ground near Bazentin Le Petit.
The German official statement which denies that the British or French have gained a foot of ground in the big assault of Saturday, which it describes as taken as merely one more proof of the high value which the general staff sets on the positions and the feeling that the German people must not know that the line is cracking.

The War Week by Week.

By OSSEVER.

Last week was memorable as marking the close of the second and the opening of the third year of war. Naturally, we read many reviews of the past and prognostications of the future. The latter concern us most and we note, amid wide differences of opinion in detail, a general agreement among the best writers on two facts: they say that it will be some time yet, possibly a year, or more, before Germany and Austria are completely beaten, but that the passing of the initiative so entirely to the Allies makes that eventual defeat inevitable. German opinion, so far as we know it, is necessarily guarded. Their chief reliance, beyond doubt, is in the holding up of all attempts to crush in their line, leading to the recognition by our Allies of Germany's inviolability and their willingness, in the end, to treat for peace.

The military situation was marked last week by few outstanding events, but it shows definite and logical progress. The offensive has not been interrupted on any front, but both sides seem to be taking a short "breather," which we may be sure is only a prelude to the most violent activity. Each week brings a crisis nearer. On the West front, in particular, the pace cannot be maintained for long at such a height—something must crack.

On the Somme, while there is little progress to record, the fighting has been of the greatest importance and favourable to us. Pozieres is definitely in the hands of the British, but there are some outlying heights which must yet be taken before the position has its full value. But the most important fighting has been going on in the French sector, between Comblès and Clerf. The former is in a sense the key to the whole offensive, for its possession gives control of the Bapaume-Peronne railroad. At one point, known as Monac Farm, the French have actually gained a small section of the third and last German line and seem to be holding it against furious and repeated counter-attacks. We may look for continued and violent fighting all along this area, for the French and British will shortly make a most determined effort to capture and hold the vital third line of German trenches. They have done prodigies already in taking the first two lines in so many places. The latest message tells of the capture of a large extent of the German second line north of Pozieres, which will greatly strengthen the British position there.

We were reminded of Verdun once more by the announcement that the French had retaken Fleury and had resisted the capture of the French trenches of the Germans to wrest it from them. Nothing could be more significant, for if the Crown Prince's army has been sufficiently depleted here to allow the French definitely to assume the offensive, the victory of the latter will be patent to all the world. We shall soon see if this is indeed so. Another point worthy of notice is the carrying out of raids by the Canadians and others at other points of the line, quite considerable in themselves and useful reminders to the Germans of the danger of removing men to the Somme front. We should not be surprised if these mingr activities were forerunners of an offensive at some point other than the Somme, even in the near future and despite the colossal nature of that enterprise and the effort it represents. The Eastern drama grows in interest. Since the capture of Brody we have heard little definite from this theatre, but there can be no doubt of the development of events. The Russians are across the Stokhod and have evidently approached Kovel very closely. At the same time they are nearing Vladimir Volynski from the south, and Lemberg from Brody and the south east. The Russian thrust along this line of capital importance thus takes shape from these four direct directions. Von Bothmer has been badly beaten either by overwhelming forces or clever strategy, and his retirement seems to partake of the nature of a race to Lemberg with the forces that threaten to envelop him. Petrograd is quite confident that the fall both of Kovel and Lemberg cannot long be delayed, and the retirement of the Germans to the Cholm-Brest Lovak line. If this takes place, a crisis in the fortunes of Austria will have been reached. A theory held by many is that Germany will sacrifice and abandon Galicia, so that by holding the natural line of the Carpathians with fewer men, she may be enabled to transfer more to the sorely-pressed West front. This may be true, for Germany will likely enough soon be faced with the necessity of a choice between several evils; but it is unlikely Galicia will be lightly abandoned. Moreover, the Carpathians would be, though a difficult, not an insuperable obstacle to the Russians, and on the other side lies Hungary, the most vulnerable place in the defence of the Central powers.

We may now look for renewed activity about Stanislaw and the gradual closing of the jaws of the pincers upon Lemberg. Nothing has occurred to indicate the exact plans of the Grand Duke in Turkey, but there is little doubt that they will take the form of a systematic advance from Trebizond and Erzurum upon Sivas, the next point of importance on the road westward. In the Balkans the attack of the Serbians upon the Bulgarians has led to nothing further, but it had its significance. Possibly the general election set down to take place shortly in Greece may have some effect upon the situation here. If, as seems certain, Venizelos is returned to power, there will be no danger in the rear to the Salonika garrison, and we may see things begin to happen. In Italy great progress has been made. The clearing of the Trentino is absolutely essential as a preliminary to an Italian offensive in the Isonzo region, and the clearing is proceeding with gratifying certainty. The Austrians have been pushed back over more than half the distance of their advance in the recent offensive. "What the Italians are re-established in the important passes here and free to divert their forces to the prosecution of the attack upon Gorizia and Trieste, Austria will be distracted by another and most dangerous invasion such has merely been held in abeyance and will come with killing effect at a critical time.

The plainer the semarier is still the rule for motor coats.
BOWLING SHIPS.

Rev. Dr. Cowperthwaite Delivers Pathetic Discourse

AT GOWER STREET CHURCH, I. C. M.

For over a quarter of a century Rev. Dr. Cowperthwaite has labored in our midst, and mostly in the city, and during that long period he was participant in the various sorrows and vicissitudes of the people. When fire swept our city he was with us; when the Bank Crash crushed us he ministered to us; and now with a terrible war raging through out the Empire he is still a messenger of hope and a minister of comfort. This was touchingly manifested yesterday morning at Gower Street Church, when the venerable Dr. preached, and made feeling reference to the war and its results. Taking as his text the words of the Prophet as quoted by the Evangelist Matthew: "In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they were not." The preacher at once touched the hearts of his congregation and ere he finished his discourse copious tears had trickled down the cheeks of many present, and what added to the pathos of the moment was the presence of the volunteer lads sitting in the centre of the church. The nation's heart is now sorrowful, like Rachel of old the people are mourning, and it is not easy to comfort them. The loved boys have gone to the trenches and many of them have paid the supreme price and have fallen in the fight. The preacher knew these lads, he had ministered to them, he knew the homes from which they had gone, and knew the weeping of the mothers, and the anguish of the fathers.

Great as was the work of our soldier lads, and glorious as was their fidelity, and righteous as is the cause for which they had died, there is felt the sorrow of their loss within the heart, and the chief answer to the best words of comfort offered them was the tears of the parents. They still wonder why it is. Even the glory of the sacrifice cannot heal the wound. Rachel still mourns; nor will she be comforted. But amid all this sorrow there is still the consolation of Christian faith, and there is comfort for all who mourn. "Let not your hearts be troubled" was spoken by the Divine Master to His apostles, and the same lesson applies still, for beyond the tumult of war, and above the things of time and sense, there exists the higher and future life of Eternity. Modern preachers do not speak of Heaven as much as did the preachers of the past; but we should hear a little more about it, and derive comfort and inspiration from all its mysterious experiences are past, there then remaineth a rest for the people of God; as the poet Longfellow so beautifully has expressed it:

"Life is real, life is earnest,
And the grave is not its goal;
Dust to dust, and ash to ashes,
Was not spoken of the soul."

Note.—We understand that the sermon will be published in full in Wednesday's Daily News.
SABLE L. ARRIVES.—The S. S. Sable I. reached port this morning from Charlottetown and Sydney, bringing a cargo of produce to A. Harvey & Co. The ship brought 41 passengers, including the Rossley party of 22 who were playing in the vaudeville business around the Nova Scotian coast.

Returning Soldiers Met At Station By Thousands of Citizens -- Experiences of "Ours" In France and Gallipoli.

At 4 p.m. Saturday the cross-country express pulled into the railway station, having on board Lieut. Knight, Snow, Edgar Smith, Dulcy and Thompson, who have been transferred to assist in training the recruits. Sergt. Major Paver, Q. M. S. Oke, Sergeants Edwards and Noonan, Corporals Mals and Stonlake, Lance-Corporals Hussey and Crossman, most of whom are invalided; Privates Gladney (D. C. M.), Harris, Evans, Tompkinson, Bowring, Bradbury and Hollett, wounded Gallipoli heroes; and Penney, Jesso, Bursay, O'Dea, Kent and Stockley, who are returning unfit for active service. For two hours previous to the train's arrival thousands of people assembled at the station. Included in the number were the Lord Bishop of Newfoundland, His Lordship Bishop Power of St. George's, Very Rev. Fr. Renouf, Rev. Fr. Wilson, Rev. H. Phillips, Rev. W. E. Cracknell, Rev. C. Moulton, Rev. T. B. Darby, Rev. H. Koyle, Sir Jos. Outerbridge, Chairman of the Standing Committee of the Patriotic Association; Hon. J. R. Bennett, Acting Premier; Hon. M. P. Cashin, Hon. J. D. Ryan, Hon. J. C. Crosbie, Hon. J. P. Bennett, the young hero being cheered to the echo. The boys were then placed in motor cars and driven to Government House. Our D. C. M. was given the place of honor and sat between the Acting Premier and Sir Joseph Outerbridge. His Excellency Lieut.-Col. Davidson inspected the men and in short address thanked the returned soldiers for the valuable service they had rendered the Empire, making reference to the Gallipoli campaign and the important July 1st. The "Ladies' Patriotic Association" treated the boys to cigarettes and candy, after which they were allowed to return to their homes.

Lieut. Knight, 2nd Lieut. J. Snow, Smith, Thompson, Dulcy and Edgar are all Gallipoli heroes, some of whom have been severely wounded but recovered and are home for the purpose stated above.
Lieuts. Knight, Snow and Thompson were in the big drive on July 1st, parables of which were published in this paper shortly after Lieuts.

Knights and Snow were in the front line when the order came to charge, but escaped with very slight injuries. Lieut. Thompson, who was salvage officer, got in some good work. About four hours after the drive the reserves went into the trenches, and fearing a counter attack Capt. Donnelly and his men who volunteered to bring in the wounded were not allowed to go out. However the next day Dr. Frew, a Scotchman in charge of the R. A. M. C., got his men at work and brought in a large number of wounded and dead, the ambulance men going right up to the German lines in performing their duty, for which they were highly praised by the commanding officer, Brigadier General Cayley. Six days after the famous charge the men were removed to Angle Belmore and afterwards to their rest stations. Shortly after the officers mentioned were sent to England, where they joined the s. s. Corinthian and, in company with the other soldiers, arrived at Quebec, and on Saturday reached St. John's.

Private William Gladney, D.C.M., as is well known to all, is a Gallipoli hero, having that honour bestowed upon him for valuable service rendered on the battlefield. It happened that the Turks were making things hot for our boys with their concealed guns. Gladney volunteered to hunt them out; so crawling on his hands and knees he undertook what appeared to be the impossible. In front of the Turkish trenches were six pickets in dugouts, a short distance in advance of the others, who would be relieved every hour. One by one our hero picked off his men and getting into the advance line of the enemy's trenches he drew a rough sketch of the position of the various guns, and crawling back to his own trenches he handed the information to the officer in command. A second attempt was made, this time in company with another officer, but had to be abandoned as in the meantime the Turks got wise. Private Gladney, though born in Canada, has lived the greater part of his life at Portugal Cove with his aunt, the late Miss Bridget Gladney, who passed to the great beyond about five weeks ago. He was educated at St. Bon's College, and enlisted at the beginning of the war. At 10 p.m. Saturday the young D. C. M. arrived at the old home in the historic and patriotic Portugal Cove, where hundreds of old men, women and children, for there are very few young men left in the place, turned out to welcome their hero home. Owing to the recent death of his late aunt, and of the deaths of Private Goss and Greely, in the action July 1st, the big demonstration which was to take place was cancelled. Over 35 per cent. of the male population of this little village of 1,000 people have answered the call of Empire, in several cases the sole supporters of widowed mothers, and two to four members of each family are represented in the Army or Navy, mostly in the latter.

C. L. B. in Camp.
Yesterday the C. L. B. in camp at Topsail were visited by a large number of people from the city. Included in the number were His Excellency the Governor and Lady Davidson, Sir Edgar Bowring, Mr. J. S. Munn, Major Montgomerie, Captain Abraham, Lieut.-Col. Sir Joseph Outerbridge and Lady Outerbridge, His Honor Mayor Gosling, Mrs. Gosling, Lieut. Gosling of the Canadian A. S. C.
This year the Bell Island and Heart's Content Companies are in attendance and are enjoying themselves with the rest of the boys.
On Sunday the Brigade attended Divine Service at the C. of E. Church in the morning and again in the afternoon at the grounds. The morning service the preacher was the Rev. Canon Netten, who spoke encouraging words to the lads and was listened to with earnest attention by every boy. At evening service Rev. Canon Smith addressed the lads in their mess tent taking as his subject the Prophet Daniel: "Be faithful," and in his remarks he made special reference to the heroic conduct of the older members of the Brigade now in the Newfoundland Regiment, and those who had been promoted to the Battalion Beyond the Veil. The Brigade band was in attendance and furnished excellent music during the day.
The Matatua.
Last evening Captain Brennan, representing the Dry Dock Company at Halifax, went to Peter's River. St. Mary's, to examine the S. S. Matatua which has been lying on the rocks there the past ten days. The ship is in the same position as when she first went aground. Nearly all her lumber cargo is saved. An effort will be made to refloat the ship as soon as possible with the aid of the Canadian tugs which are still at the scene of the wreck.
Infantile Paralysis Makes New Record.
New York, Aug. 1.—The death record in infantile paralysis epidemic reached a new high water mark Saturday. Forty-four victims were claimed at the grounds. An increase of eleven over yesterday's figures.
New cases reported totalled 161 cases and it became apparent that a change in temperature makes no difference in the progress of the disease. The number of new cases today has been exceeded only twice since the beginning of the epidemic. The Board of Health weekly bulletin gave the grand total of new cases as 2,588 and deaths, 793.

The EASTERN TRUST COMPANY
WE GO ON FOREVER.

Just two reasons why the Eastern Trust Company can administer an Estate better than a personal executor or administrator.

- 1.—It has nearly twenty-four years' experience, and its existence is perpetual, neither does it cost any more to employ the Company than an individual. The Company affords the Estate absolute security. It has a paid-up capital of $1,000,000.00 and a reserve of $250,000.00. The Estates held in trust to December 31st, 1915, amount to $15,036,833.85.
- 2.—In the event of the death of a personal executor or administrator, your Estate must look around for a substitute. The new administrator is unfamiliar with the business and confusion is often the result. The death of any officer of this Company does not break the continuity of the policy of administration.

While the Company administers over Fifteen Million Dollars worth of Estates, it also does a very large business in executing Trusts of all kinds and acting as Financial Agents of all descriptions. We can give fullest satisfaction in the collection of rents, interests, mortgages, dividends, etc.
