RETURNED.—Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Chadwick and family returned to Guelph on Thursday evening, after an absence of four months in Ireland. They were met at the station by a number of friends, who gave them a cordial welcome.

THE GALT ROBBERY.—John Doyle and John McDonald, arrested for robbing Mr.
McClurey at the Galt Hotel, on Tuesday night or Wednesday morning last, and remained until Monday, were brought up and again remanded till further evidence can be provided.

ESCAPE FROM GAOL.—A daring and successful attempt was made on Saturday night, by a prisoner named John Parcell, to break out of the County Jail at St.
Catharines. He was held on the charge of murdering Terence Neelham in April last. He is 5 feet 11 inches in height, sallow complexion, dark hair, slender build, and droops his head when walking.
A reward of $200 is offered for his capture.

POLICE COURT.

(Before the Police Magistrate.)

Nov. 17.

Samuel Maher was brought up on a charge of taking Charlotte Jane Hower out of the possession of her father, John Hower, the girl being only 14 years of age.

John Hower, sen., deposed to knowing the prisoner. He has been boarding at his hotel for the past few weeks. He left the house on Saturday night without his knowledge. Missed my daughter, Charlotte Jane Hower, that night.
Made enquiries and tried to find her, and having missed him also, had suspicion that they had gone away together.

Sent two of my sons to Galt, one to Berlin and another to Fergus and Elora to search for them. The two who went to Galt succeeded in finding them there on Sunday morning. I also went to Galt myself on the Sunday afternoon. I found my daughter there, in Mr. Stephens' hotel. Prisoner was not there, as by this time he had been arrested. I brought my daughter home. My daughter is 14 years of age. To the best of my knowledge there had been no previous intimacy between the two. He never asked my consent to take her away or to marry her.

Charlotte Jane Hower testified—I am the daughter of John Hower. Know the prisoner. He does not board at my father's hotel now. He left on Saturday.
I went to the train alone. Went into the train with prisoner. It had been previously arranged that we should go.
I told him I was going, and asked him to accompany me. Prisoner asked me on the 3rd inst. if I would go away and get married, to which I consented. He did not speak to him about it from that time until last Saturday. We were in the sitting room at Queen's Hotel first. We left there and went to another hotel where we remained together during the night. Prisoner had been paying attention to me at my father's house ever since he came there.
He asked me to marry him on the 3rd inst. I did not tell my father or mother about it. Am under the care of my father.

To Chief Kelly.—Prisoner gave me money to pay my fare. He passed himself off as a man named Lee, and said he was from Toledo.

Maher pleaded not guilty. His Worship in summing up the evidence said that there were strong proofs of an improper intimacy, and even were there not, the fact of his having taken the girl out of the possession of her father, while still an infant in the eyes of the law, was of itself deserving of severe punishment. He committed Maher to stand his trial either at the next Assizes; or if he should prefer, at the Judge's Court.

Thomas Wilkinson was charged by Chief Kelly, with stealing a horse, buggy, and a set of single harness, on Sunday morning.

Geo. Wilson testified to having missed his horse on Sunday morning. He had traced him to Hamilton's tavern on the Brook road, where he found the horse and buggy in the shed, and on going into the house he found Wilkinson sitting there. It would seem, judging from the conversation as related by Wilson, that Wilkinson is not a together very sanguinely accountable for his own actions.

He was, however, committed for trial.
The judgment in the case of Lazier vs. Hefferman Bros. was given by His Worship this morning. Lazier was fined $10 and $3 45 costs, which he paid under protest.

Opening of the T. G. & B. Railway to Teeswater.

The formal opening of the extension of the Toronto Grey & Bruce Railway from Teeswater to Teeswater, took place on Monday. The Directors of the road left Toronto on the morning, and at every point the party was augmented by the Reeves and other officials of the various townships, until at last there was a very large company. The road, which was built by T. & J. Robinson, contractors, is unusually good. A large number of inhabitants of Teeswater and surrounding villages were present to welcome the visitors. In the evening a meeting was held at the Town Hall, Mr.
G. McKibbin, Reeve, in the chair.
Speeches were delivered by the Reeve, Mr. John Gordon, President of the road, Mr. Dickey, and others. The proceedings were of a most enthusiastic character. This will complete the system of this railway, except a small portion near Toronto.

The 5:40 train going south on Monday morning ran over and killed three horses the property of Mr. W. A. Healey, of Walkerton.

The Honorable Edward Blake on Pub- lic Affairs.

From the London (Hops) Canadian News.

Mr. Blake is one of the public men of the Dominion the expression of whose opinions influences all thinking citizens, and even compels professional politicians who differ from him to depart for the time from mere party considerations in order to examine certain questions on grounds which are of national importance. The case of the Cabinet of so able a debater and so honest a thinker is a gain to the nation. It is in another sense a gain to the Administration. For a man of Mr. Blake's powers when not in office becomes not only a leader of the people but also an exponent of their will. He is in the New World, under vastly altered conditions, what the aristocratic proprietor is in the Old, who combines in his own person a passion for the welfare of the State a share in the ruling of which is one of his aims. One notable difference, however, between an English earl who is given to politics, and a gentleman of public spirit in Canada, is that the first thinks of promoting the good of the people by the magnifying of his own order; the other animates the people to look after their own affairs as members of promoting their own well-being.
There need be little difference between them except that one great and essential difference which marks the superiority of the man whose influence only springs from possessions which he did not win for himself, and the man who is the son of his own works, whose influence comes from the possession, not of acres and a name handed down to him, but of a community which grows the more that it is given away, and the dispensing of a good which increases the faster and the more that it is communicated to others. It is true that there is more room and scope for originality in the new country than in the old one, but not on that account do we esteem it the less when it is embodied in action, but, on the contrary, we hail it as a triumph of faithfulness, and do it honour as the outcome of a true and honest life under circumstances of difficulty and trial. The interest which attaches to the public deliverances of a man like Mr. Blake is twofold, for unconsciously they mark the progress which the people whom he addresses have made in political science, and the direction which they are inclined to take in pushing their conquests.

Father Geordemann, who eloped from Philadelphia with the young lady organist of his church, writes to a Baltimore paper to say that he has married the lady, and denying all the accusations of dishonesty. Nevertheless Mr. Geor-demann has been arrested at Baltimore.

It is proposed to raise a subscription, in aid of Lepine, among French Canadians.

Mr. J. D. Fawcett of Drayton, was recently injured, but not seriously, by the fall of a scaffold upon which he was working.

I. O. of G. T. Anniversary.

The 6th anniversary of the I. O. G. T. of this town, was celebrated in their hall last night, by a tea social, and was a decided success in every respect. An excellent tea was served by the ladies of the Temple from six to eight o'clock, and the orderly manner in which this part of the programme was carried out, besides the many good things provided, reflect great credit on the part of sisters. After the inner man had been fully satisfied and the tables removed, Mr. Moulton took the chair and called upon the Rev. Mr.
Middleton to open the meeting by prayer, after which the Chairman addressed the meeting.

Mr. Moulton was pleased to see that so many had responded to this call, and also pleased to see so many of the ministers of the town on the platform. He had been inclined to think that there was something wrong in the temperance movement when our ministers kept aloof and did not countenance them, but any misgivings that he might have entertained on that point were dispelled by their presence there to-night. He then referred to the flourishing condition of the Order, with which they were connected, in Canada. In 1873 there were 623 lodges comprising a membership of 33,918, and since that time there has been 218 new lodges created, which would give at least an additional thousand to their number. If the cause was prospering here, it was more so in England. In Birmingham in 1868 the first lodge was constructed with only 18 members, and at the present date they have got 3,743 lodges, and 21,656 members.

Mr. Sole was the next speaker. He realized a considerable degree of pleasure in seeing so many present to celebrate their sixth anniversary, and also to be able to count four ministers on the platform—Rev. Messrs. Manchoe, I. E.
Howard, Middleton, and Howie. He had only a few words to say to-night, and that was in connection with the organization of the present Temple. About six years ago a few friends were taking tea and having a social chat in his house, and among the many other subjects brought under notice was that of temperance, and the chances of carrying on a successful

Centre Riding Election.

MR. JAMES ROSS NOMINATED. The adjourned meeting of the Centre Wellington Reform Association was held at Fergus on Monday, and was well attended, there being representatives present from every Municipality in the Riding. Mr. Alex. Dyce, the President, occupied the chair, and Mr. J. Craig again acted as Secretary. Mr. Dyce informed the meeting what the deputations appointed on the Monday previous had done, and the result of their interview with Mr. Guthrie who, for satisfactory reasons given, was compelled to decline the nomination. It would now be for the meeting to nominate another gentleman in his place, and in order to obtain a free and full expression of opinion, he proposed that some of those present from each Municipality should state their views, and who, in their judgment, was the best and strongest candidate. This was done, and one and all agreed that Mr. Jas. Ross, their old and respected representative, was the best and most popular candidate, and would receive the largest measure of support all over the Riding. Accordingly, on motion of Mr. Patullo, of Orangeville, seconded by Dr. Middleton, of Elora, Mr. Ross received the unanimous nomination.

Mr. Ross, who was present, said he had no desire, and until to-day, had no thought of re-entering public life. He had, however, all his life, done what he could to advance the interests of the Liberal party, and he felt he could not disregard the unanimous and warm expression of feeling he had just heard from leading Reformers from all parts of the Riding. He had some matters of a private and personal nature to arrange before he could give a definite answer, and he asked that the meeting adjourn for a couple of hours. This was done, and on re-assembling, Mr. Ross accepted the nomination, the announcement being received with enthusiastic cheers. Arrangements were then made for holding meetings, and for commencing a vigorous canvass in all parts of the Riding.

We congratulate the Reformers on the choice they have made. No man stands higher than Mr. Ross does in the estimation, not only of his own party, but even of Conservatives, who respect him for his sterling honesty, his high sense of duty, his intelligence, worth and integrity, and his strictly consistent public character. He deserves every encouragement and support from the Reformers, not only in the Riding, but throughout the County, for his disinterestedness in coming forward at the call of his party, to enter on a keen contest, in which his opponent has the advantage of being early in the field. The friends of Mr. Ross must, under the circumstances, enter on the work all the more actively and earnestly, and continue their efforts till the close of the election. Dr. Orton has, for weeks past, been busy canvassing, and we may be sure that he and his friends will not slacken in their work now that an opponent has been brought out. Mr. Ross enters on his canvass with every prospect of success. He stands higher to-day in the estimation of the electors of the Riding than he did at any former period. His record is untarnished, and as regards bribery and corruption, his hands are clean. Such practices cannot be indulged in at this election by the Conservatives, as they were opposed to at the previous one, and with the ballot there will, we hope, be a free, uninfluenced expression of opinion by the electors. Besides, the revision and purification which the voters' lists have undergone this year, will be greatly in favor of the Reform candidate. With all these advantages, and with the aid of hosts of friends, who will lend all their energies to the work, we have every hope that Mr. Ross will redeem the Riding. Let his supporters be animated with the same enthusiasm and determination which were manifested at the meeting on Monday, and our old standard bearer in the Centre Riding will be elected by a larger majority than he ever had in previous contests.

Before the meeting separated, arrangements were made for a series of meetings throughout the Riding, the particulars of which we will give to-morrow.

Ontario Legislature.

Toronto, Nov. 16. Mr. Crooks moved, "That this House will in future appoint the Committee of Supply and Ways and Means at the commencement of every session so soon as the address be agreed to in answer to His Honor's speech." Carried. Mr. Crooks gave notice that on Wednesday next he would move the House into Committee of Supply. The Speaker read a message from the Lieut. Governor transmitting estimates of certain sums required for the service of the Province for the year ending 31st December, 1875, and of certain sums required to complete the service for the year 1874, referred to Committee of Supply. A Committee was appointed to strike standing Committees.

Mr. Mowat introduced a Bill respecting the boundary between Ontario and Quebec. Mr. Mowat, in introducing a Bill to amend the Act respecting the Municipal Loan Fund debts, and certain payments municipalities, explained that the principal object of the Bill, as indicated by the Lieutenant Governor's speech, was to enlarge the class of objects to which the unexpended money going to the various municipalities might be applied. Under the original Act the money had to be applied to works of a permanent character, or to the liquidation of debts incurred for such works. There were, however, various purposes to which some municipalities preferred to apply the money. Some desired to invest it in the creation of a fund, the interest of which should go to the support of schools. Various municipalities said they had all the roads and bridges they wanted, and did not know to what useful permanent improvement they could apply the money. The Government had not thought it desirable to have a hasty amendment to an Act which had been conceived with such great care, but as this feeling had been manifested last session and before, and he believed still existed, they had no objection now to give the municipalities liberty to apply the money in that way. There was another class of cases within the spirit of the Act, but not in the mind of the House when it was passed. He referred to the debts incurred by courts, for which the ratepayers of various municipalities were liable. In these cases the municipalities were anxious that the money should be funded in order to relieve them from the annual charge for the county debt. He thought the House would agree that it was desirable that the money should continue to be applied to works of a permanent nature. In regard to the first-class, the Government proposed that the investment should be made in the same way as the law provided in the case of other school moneys which the municipalities had now a right to invest, and they proposed to follow the analogy with respect to anticipatory appropriations, which municipalities proposed to apply to county debts.

The bill was read a first time. Mr. Mowat introduced a Bill respecting apprentices and minors. Mr. Mowat introduced a Bill to provide for the further limitation of actions and suits in relation to real estate.

Mr. Mowat then referred in feeling terms to the death of the late Mr. Craig, of Glengarry, lately a member of that House, and out of respect to his memory moved an adjournment, which on motion of Mr. Lander was carried.

NOTICES OF MOTIONS. Mr. Clarke (Wellington)—On Wednesday next—Bill intituled "An Act to provide for taking votes by ballot at municipal elections in the Province of Ontario." Mr. McGowan—On Thursday next—Address for a return of all reports and papers under the control of the Government connected with the School of Agriculture and Model Farm, including all correspondence between the Public Works Department, or any member of the Administration, and the officers or servants employed in the said Institution, together with all reports of any of said officers in relation to the same, and the reports and correspondence between the Government and any person or persons appointed to inquire into the working of said institution.

Fergus Correspondence. The Y. M. C. A. meetings held last week were very successful and are to be continued for three evenings this week. Much regret is felt at Mr. Guthrie's declining to run, but it is hoped that some good Reformer will be brought out to oppose Dr. Orton.

A meeting is called for Tuesday next, by the Revo for the purpose of subscribing to the Fergus Manufacturing Company. If this undertaking prove successful it will add much to the prosperity of this place.

The Sewing Machine Factory will shortly be re-opened, and a Joint Stock Company has been formed with Messrs. Argo, Michie, Jas. and Andrew Wilson, as Directors. Capital subscribed is $21,000 and $9,000 more is wanted which is expected will be easily obtained.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Wesleyan Church intend holding a social on Friday evening, and their annual tea-meeting on Christmas evening, the proceeds of which go to building a new parsonage.

The Y. M. C. A. are preparing to hold their annual tea-meeting on the 17th of December next.

Water is becoming scarce in the wells in this part of the country, and it is hoped that rain will fall before winter sets in. Fergus, Nov. 17th, 1874.

BIRTHS.

Lyon—in Guelph, on the 15th inst., the wife of Mr. J. W. Lyon, of a son.

Our friends will bear in mind—Parties purchasing goods always wish to buy them at the cheapest rate. Now the nearer you can get to the Manufacturer, the cheaper are the goods. Mr. Horsman, the popular Hardware merchant of this town, last summer visited the manufacturing districts of Europe, and purchased very largely from the manufacturers there. He has also made special arrangements with manufacturers in the United States and Canada to have their goods at the lowest Cash prices. In consequence of the extraordinary bargains Mr. Horsman offers, his sales this season are largely increased; in fact, there has been a perfect rush at his mammoth establishment during the last two months. Remember, by purchasing Hardware from John Horsman the profits of the wholesale dealer, or middleman, are saved to the customers. Stoves and Tinware have been added this season, and on account of the very low prices at which these goods are offered by Mr. Horsman this branch of the business has exceeded his most sanguine expectations.

ADMISSION EXAMINATION. The examination (Candidates for admission to the High School) is to be held on the 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, and 31st of DECEMBER, beginning at 10 o'clock forenoon. Candidates are required to give notice by the first of that month, to the Sec. R. FORTAN, Guelph, that they may be furnished with the prescribed form of application. Gue 10, 6th Nov., 1874. 43-3W

FARMERS' DIARIES. — If our farmers knew how little trouble it is to keep a diary, and with what satisfaction they would look over it in a few years, we feel sure they would, many of them, be induced to begin one. A simple record of the weather and the operations of the farm, the writing of which would not occupy two minutes a day, will, in after years, be not only a source of pleasure, but also of great practical benefit; by reference back to the record of former years, one can see how late he planted certain crops, and at what time they matured, also items of interest to the family prices, &c. At Day's Bookstore will be found a large stock of Diaries and Farm Account Books. Day will sell you a large foolscap Diary for 35 cents, and Pocket Diaries from 15 cents upwards. Begin now, and it will pay you well for the few minutes' lost in entering your day's work.

HELENA GRAHAM, THE BRIDE'S SACRIFICE.

CHAPTER III. Morally and physically, Herbert Clinton was brave; but this midnight visit from an apparently supernatural being might have chilled the blood of the most undaunted. Sleep now was out of the question; therefore, seating himself by the window, he prepared to wait for the approach of morning. The moon was already sinking behind the western horizon, bathing the placid river in its soft beams. The morning star shone bright and serene in the cloudless blue sky, and gazing on the calm beauty without, the young man's pulse ceased its feverish throbbings, and he began striving to account for this ghostly visit by natural means.

But he strove in vain. The door was firmly locked, and there could be no secret passage through those strong oak walls. Then he arose, and carefully searched every crevice in the room that could by any possibility be made a hiding place of. Still in vain. The room contained no living thing but himself. Morning was now growing red in the east, and exhausted with watching, he threw himself on the bed, and fell into a deep, dreamless sleep, from which he did not awake till the sun was high in the heavens.

He sprang hastily out of bed, and proceeded to dress himself. And now a new difficulty arose. He felt he would be questioned about the supernatural visitors of the haunted chamber, and he was at a loss how to answer. If he related the event of the night, he dreaded the ridicule of the unbelieving Captain Graham, who would assuredly laugh at him for being conquered in spite of his boasting; and to be laughed at in the presence of Helena was not to be endured. If, on the other hand, he did not tell, he would be obliged to continue the occupant of the haunted chamber while he remained on the island—a thing he had not the slightest wish to do. His toilet was finished before he could come to any conclusion, and, still debating the case, he descended the stairs, and entered the sitting-room they had occupied the night before.

CHAPTER IV. And when the midnight hour is come, A sound is heard in yonder hall— It rises hoarsely through the sky, And vibrates o'er the mouldering wall. In a former chapter we left Mrs. Ben in rather an appalling condition.

Accustomed to the quiet, unexciting life of the lonely sea-girt island, the events of the night had momentarily terrified her, albeit her nerves were none of the weakest. The mysterious revelation of the dying man; his tale of night, and storm, and crime; the wild, ghostly face at the window; and, lastly, his sudden death, were quite enough to thrill for an instant with terror even a stronger heart than that of the solitary old widow.

For some moments Mrs. Ben sat still, gazing alternately on the window and on the ghastly face of the dead man before her, with a chill feeling of horror creeping over her. The sudden striking of the clock, as it chimed the hour of eleven, aroused her at last from her trance of terror. It was a sound of life, and it reassured her. Rising, she gathered courage to approach the window cautiously, and looked out. Nothing was to be seen but the bright moonlight, bathing rock and river in its silvery light. Beyond, she could see the huge black pile of Graham's Castle, casting its long, gloomy shadow over the ground. Lights were still twinkling in the windows—a sight as unusual as it was pleasant—and with renewed confidence at this sign of life, Mrs. Ben went to arouse Fritz, to assist her to watch beside the dead.

This she only effected after considerable difficulty. At length, however, she managed to get him dressed and down stairs. No sooner was he in the room than, after looking sleepily at the body for a few minutes, he took possession of Mrs. Ben's arm-chair, while the old lady bustled about, laying out the corpse as best she could under the circumstances. Fritz was soon once more fast asleep. Then, when all was done she could do, Mrs. Ben laid down on the hard wooden sofa, or "settee," as she called it, and in spite of the presence of death, followed her worthy nephew to the land of dreams.

Morning was far advanced before either awoke. Mrs. Ben's first care was to send Fritz up to the lodge, to inform his inmates of the death of her guest, and desire Captain Graham's immediate presence.

As soon as breakfast was over the young captain hastened to the cottage, while Helena and Clinton went out for a stroll around the island.

Mrs. Ben had the singular story told her the night before, and resolved to reveal it to Captain Graham, and learn his opinion about it.

Accordingly, when he entered, Mrs. Ben, having taken the precaution of turning Fritz out of doors, related the story in substance as it had been told to her. Captain Graham listened in astonishment and incredulity.

THE ANCIENT EGYPTIANS learned the art of preserving the bodies for many generations, but all the world has not been able to discover an infallible preventative that will stop the hair from falling off. Pearline is without doubt the safest dressing, and is also the most delightful preparation to use, ever made.

THE FLAMBERG ROBBERIES ARRESTED.—Our readers will remember that in July last the store of Mr. Ches. Durrant, in Flamberg village, was robbed of a considerable amount of dry goods. The goods were taken to Hamilton in a wagon and placed in a rag establishment in that city, for the night, and in the morning were haled up as if they were rags, and sent to Caledonia by train, shipped to the address of J. W. Cannon, at Caledonia, by Jas. Walker, both fictitious names. After laying at the station for some time they were removed to a place in the town and then were peddled about the country by two persons named Seddons and Lamson. Some of the samples were afterwards found at a farmer's house in the Indian settlement, and have been identified by Mr. Durrant. Timb developed the particulars of the affair, and chief constable McDonough of Dundas, with the co-operation of the Hamilton police authorities, succeeded in making the arrest of the five parties implicated. Samuel Caldwell, Jeremiah Sands, Joseph Gummere, Joseph Seal, and Edward Lamson are the ones now in custody. Lamson had already been arrested on another charge of attempted burglary in Saranac, and is now serving out his sentence in the Central Prison. He has been identified by constable McDonough, who went to Toronto on Friday afternoon. On Friday afternoon the prisoners were brought up and an examination of the case took place before the Magistrate, when Gummere was admitted to bail.

SLATE ROOFING PAINT!

AGENTS WANTED IN EVERY TOWN.

A Roof may be covered with a very cheap shingle, and by application of this slat may be made to last from 20 to 25 years. Old roofs can be patched and coated, looking much better and lasting longer than new shingles without the slat, for ONE THIRD THE COST OF RE-SHINGLING. The expense of slating new shingles is only about the cost of simply laying them.

The Paint is Fire-Proof against Sparks or Flying Embers, as may be easily tested by anyone, and appears from the fact that insurance companies make nearly the Same Tariff as for Slated Roofs. For Tin and Iron it has no equal, as it expands by heat, contracts by cold, and NEVER CRACKS NOR SCALES. For Fences it is particularly adapted, as it will not corrode in the most exposed places. Roofs covered with Tar Sheathing Felt can be made water-tight at a small expense. The Slate Paint is EXTREMELY CHEAP!

Two gallons will cover over 100 square feet of shingle roof, or over 400 of tin or iron. No Tar is used in this composition, therefore, it does not effect the water from the roof, if turned off from the easterly before the first few rains. On Decayed Shingles it fills up the holes and pores, hardens them, and gives a new, substantial roof that will last for years. Curled or Warped Shingles it brings to their place and keeps them there. It fills up all holes in tin or felt roofs, and STOPS THE LEAKS. The color of the slate when first applied is dark purple, changing in about a month to a light uniform slate colour, and is, to all intents and purposes, SLATE. The Paint has a very Heavy Body, but is easily put on, and, although a slow dryer, rain will not affect it in the least one hour after applying.

ROOFS EXAMINED. ESTIMATES GIVEN.

And when required will be Thoroughly Repaired.

IT HAS BEEN WELL SAID THAT there is great waste of time and energy by those who do not take proper care of their hair. The hair is the crown of man's amelioration, and always addressing themselves to the head to the neglect of the stomach. It is an elementary law governing the human system, that the Brain and the Stomach are two and where one cannot afford to be at liberty for any length of time, without neglecting the other. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, is the only medicine that will cure the hair, and restore it to its natural color and growth. It is the only medicine that will cure the hair, and restore it to its natural color and growth. It is the only medicine that will cure the hair, and restore it to its natural color and growth.

Specific Medicine

Before Taking. After Taking.

Cures all Nervous Diseases, such as Tremors, Debility, Prostration, etc., which, in many cases, are produced by over indulgence in the use of tobacco and alcoholic spirits; but the Specific Medicine is more especially recommended as an unfailing cure for Mental Weakness, Spasmodic, Hysteria, and all diseases that follow as a consequence of Self Abuse, or Loss of Memory, Universal Insanities, Pain in the Back, Dimness of Vision, Premature Old Age, and many other Diseases that lead to insanity or consumption, and a Premature Grave, all of which, as a rule, are first caused by deviating from the path of nature and over indulgence.

The Specific Medicine is the result of a life study and many years of experience in treating these special diseases. Full particulars in our pamphlet, which we desire to send free by mail to every one.

The Specific Medicine is sold by all Druggists at 25 cents per package, or six packages for $5, or will be sent by mail on receipt of the money, by addressing—
