The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

D.B. Weldon Library
University of Western Ontario

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol  $\rightarrow$  (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol  $\nabla$  (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

D.B. Weldon Library
University of Western Ontario

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaît sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole  $\rightarrow$  signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole  $\nabla$  signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

DIGEST OF CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS OF HURON COLLEGE

Numbers refer to paragraphs of Indenture.

3. The objects for which the institution is established are:—

Firstly, to provide instruction for candidates for Holy Orders in the United Church of England and Ireland, so as to fit them for the work of the ministry; Secondly, to provide instruction in the higher branches of education, such as usually appertains to a Collegiate course, for such students or pupils as may be desirous of entering the Institution; Thirdly, to combine with these primary objects such kindred efforts, including a preparatory Collegiate School, and hereafter may be found desirable and expedient; Fourthly, and generally to perform such acts, matters and things as are incidental or otherwise conducive to the attainment of the before mentioned objects, or any of them.

4. The teaching and government of the said Institution shall always be strictly Protestant and Evangelical, in conformity with the doctrines of the United Church of England and Ireland, as expressed in the thirty-nine articles as now by law established, interpreted according to the plain and natural meaning thereof.

5. The government of the Institution shall be vested in the Council, consisting of not less than five, nor more than sixteen members, exclusive of the Bishop of the Diocese of Huron for the time being, and the Principal of the College for the time being, each of whom shall be a member of the College Council, ex-officio.

17. The Council shall have the entire management of all the general affairs and concerns of the Institution, including the appointment of the Principal, Lecturers, Professors and Tutors, and including also the appointment of the Treasurer, Secretary and Solicitor, for the time being, of the Institution, and also of all inferior officers and servants (excepting those mentioned in the twenty-ninth clause of these presents) in connection with the business concerns thereof, the regulation and payment out of the funds of the Institution of such salaries and wages as may be necessary, and may remove at pleasure any such officials other than the Principal and the Divinity Professor; and for the better guidance of the Council in its management and superintendence over the business affairs and concerns of the Institution, it shall be lawful for the Council to make whatever Rules and By-laws it shall think proper, provided the same shall not be inconsistent with, or repugnant to, any special provision in or the true intent and spirit of these presents and at any time by rule or by-law duly made to alter or repeal all or any of the rules and by-laws which shall be made, but no rule or by-law shall be considered as duly made unless the same shall have been read, approved of and confirmed at two successive and distinct meetings of the Council, held at intervals of at least seven days between each meeting.

METHOD OF ELECTION OF THE COUNCIL, WHICH SHALL BE ONE-HALF CLERGY AND ONE-HALF LAITY. Bill G, Edward VII, 1906.

The following clause provides for the continuance of the body originally formed by Dr. Penckle.

1. "The present members of the Council shall continue in office and when, by death or otherwise, their number shall have been reduced below eight, (exclusive of the Bishop and the Principal, also of the Synod members) then and in such case and so often as the same shall happen the remaining members of the Council (other than the Synod members) shall, as soon as convenient, at a meeting to be holden separately for that purpose, (of which notice shall be given in such manner as shall be provided by by-laws) elect one or more fit and proper person or persons to be a member or members of the Council, in addition to the remaining members thereof, in the place and stead of those who have ceased to be such members, having regard in such election to the provision hereinbefore contained as to the relative proportion of clergy and laity in the said Council, to the end that, by means of such election the number of sixteen members of the Council may be completed, inclusive of the Synod members, but exclusive of the Bishop of the Diocese and the Principal of the College.

From and after the period at which the Council shall have reduced in manner aforesaid to the number of sixteen, the said Council shall consist of not less than five or more than sixteen members, exclusive of the Bishop and Principal. The remainder of the Council (other than co-opted members and the Bishop and the Principal) shall be elected by the said Council Synod at its annual meeting."

The clause providing for the election of Synod members is as follows:—

"The Synod members shall consist of four clergymen and four laymen who shall be members of the said Synod at the time of their election.

"The date of the termination of the official year, on which the periods of office of the Synod members shall respectively terminate shall be the first day of June; retiring members shall be eligible for re-election."

For the purpose of filling vacancies in the numbers of the Synod members, the Synod shall, at its annual meeting, in each successive year subsequent to the first election of the Synod members, elect two new members of the Council, in the place and stead of the two Synod members whose term of office has expired by lapse of time, one of such members being a clergyman and one a layman, and both being members of the Synod at the time of their election, and such two new members shall respectively hold office for the term of four years. The said Synod shall at the same time fill all such vacancies as shall have occurred in the numbers of the Synod members by death, resignation or otherwise than by lapse of time, by the election of the necessary numbers of additional new members, who shall be members of the Synod at the time of their election. Such additional members shall be elected respectively for terms of office equivalent to the unexpired terms of the respective members whose places they are elected to fill; and in such elections regard shall be had to the provision hereinbefore contained as to the relative proportion of clergy and laity in the said Council.

2. No person shall be elected or appointed or shall remain a member of the Council who shall not be a strictly Protestant and Evangelical member of the Church of England in Canada, holding the doctrines and principles expressed in the thirty-nine articles as now by law established, interpreted according to the plain and natural meaning thereof.

3. Nor shall any member of the Council be allowed to act as such until he shall have assented and subscribed to the constitution declared by the first above mentioned indenture, and in the event of his neglect or refusal to so assent and subscribe, his nomination, election and appointment as such member shall thenceforth become null and void.

THE PEACHE CHAIR—Historical Note

The Rev. Alfred Peache, on the 4th May, 1863, gave Five Thousand Pounds, the revenue from which was to pay the salary of the Principal of Huron College who should be the Professor of Divinity in the said College. The gift was conditional on the right of appointment to the said office being in the hands of Mr. Peache and his co-trustees who have, since about the year 1900, been the Colonial and Continental Church Society. The indenture is part of the act of the incorporation of the College.

The deed of endowment of the Peache Chair is amended by the new Act but only in so far as the new Act specifies.

“The said Society shall within one month from the receipt of such notification, approve of one of the names so forwarded, and appoint such nominee to the said Peache Chair, or reject such names and shall forthwith notify the Council of such their approval or rejection.

“Upon receiving notice of the rejection of the said nominees the Council shall in like manner, within one month from the receipt of such notice, at a special meeting to be holden for that purpose, select the names of the three or more other fit persons, as defined by the said indenture, to fill the said Peache Chair and shall forthwith thereafter forward such names, with appropriate testimonials and information relating thereto, to the said Society.

“The said Society shall thereupon, within one month from the receipt of such last mentioned notification, either approve of one of the names so forwarded, and appoint such nominee to the said Peache Chair, or reject such names, and shall forthwith notify the Council of such their approval or rejection.

“In case of the rejection of such names similar procednre to that hereinbefore defined shall be adopted until the appointment to the said Peache Chair shall have been made by the said Society.”

18. The Council shall cause the Trust Funds of the Institution, including all moneys from time to time not required to satisfy immediate claims, to be laid out and invested either in Government or municipal debentures, or in bank stock or in real securities in Canada, and the Council shall cause proper books of account to be kept that shall exhibit a true statement of the property, effects, income and expenditure of the Institution. See also Statutes of Canada, 26 Victoria, Chapter XXXI, 1863.

19. In the event of any gift or gifts being made to the Institution for professorships, lectureships, scholarships, exhibitions, prizes, or otherwise for its general purposes, or to trustees upon trust for all or any of the said objects, such endowments or gifts, if accepted, shall be appropriated according to the directions and conditions of the donor thereof, and, subject to such directions and conditions, it shall be lawful for the Council from time to time to make such rules and regulations as shall seem meet in relation to any such endowment or gift.

21. The Council may, out of the funds of the Institution, grant scholarships, bursaries, prizes and rewards to the students and pupils who shall distinguish themselves at their examinations, and may confer such certificates of honor and proficiency as they may think fit.

10. Any member of the Council may vacate his office by sending in his resignation in writing.

11. The members of the Council shall meet together at some place in or near the said City of London once or oftener in every three months and at such other times as they shall be duly convened by the President for the time being, ten days' notice of such convened meeting being given.

12. No business shall be transacted at any meeting of the Council unless five members be present.

13. All questions at the meeting of the Council shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present, but in case of an equality of votes, the maxim "presumitur pro negante" shall prevail.

14. The Chairman at meetings of the Council shall be entitled to vote on all questions, but he and each member of the Council shall only have one vote respectively.

15. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Council, and in his absence some one of the members present shall be elected Chairman, and the member so elected must preside.

16. In other respects, the Council shall be regulated, and its business conducted and decided upon according to the Rules and Orders to be by the Council from time to time adopted.

25. The Principal and Divinity Professor for the time being shall be removable from his office by the Council for misconduct or any cause which to the Council shall seem reasonable and proper, but not until after such removal shall have been decided upon by two successive meetings of the Council, specially summoned for the purpose, with an interval of at least one month between each meeting.

The Principal, with the concurrence of the Council, may adopt a curriculum of study, to be pursued in the said College and in the Preparatory or Collegiate School, which may be established in connection with the said College, and may, from time to time, make such regulations touching such course of study as may be thought proper.
