FERGUS, HADRY STONE UP, WON THE STEEPLECHASE

Copper, the Favorite, Fell, Injuring Himself Badly—Bat Masterson Made a New Record.

New York, May 16.—Bat Masterson, winner of the second race at Belmont Park today, made a new track record for 4 1/2 furlongs by covering the distance in 52 4/5. Convolv, who was played down from even money to a 3 to 5 favorite, finished half a length behind Bat Masterson in a drive. McCarter, second choice, won the Bouquet selling stakes by a short head from Clara Russell, with the favorite, Bemay, three lengths farther back. Copper, the odds-on favorite in the steeplechase, fell at the first jump, injuring himself badly. He will probably have to be destroyed.

KING'S PLATE QUOTATIONS TWO DAYS BEFORE RACE

Only two horses have been seriously backed in the winter books to win the King's Plate, viz., Courtmartial and Wicklight. Stable money is on both to the limit, and the only way the Toronto Turf Club can beat the race is for Seagram or some outsider to win. The Dymond candidate has been backed from 4 to 1 down to 7 to 5, while Wicklight is now at 4 to 1, regardless of yesterday's trial, and as good as 12 to 1 was laid about him early in the spring of last year. A portion of the public is down on the Seagram stable, whose price has extended to four. Hillhurst, Capercallie and the Hendrie stable all have had some support, but are now only long shots. Billberry, the Dufferin Park candidate, has been backed at 50 to 1 to the extent of $20, and $200.

MANNERS WON STEEPLECHASE

Louisville, May 16.—First race—Dr. McClure, 94 (Korner), 5 to 1; 1; Tinker, 95 (C. Morris), 5 to 1; 2; Minnehaha, 87 (Cregar), 25 to 1; 3; Time 1:44 2/5. Spondrith, Helen, Tinker, Matoban, Magis, Gold Bell, Galmada, Pof Pless, Finlay, ran.

FISH AND GAME IN BROOKVILLE

Brookville, May 16.—(Special).—Prospects are bright for the establishment in Brookville of a fish and game society. The Ontario Fish and Game Society, the claims of the society were presented to a number of leading citizens by Oliver Ashby, a member of the Toronto branch, and he was so highly pleased with the interest displayed that he has agreed to act as an assistant in the organization of a Brookville branch.

TORONTO STILL LOSING THIS TIME BY PINK PLAY

Newark Won by 7 to 2—Baltimore Here To-Day—Jersey City Beat Buffalo.

One would have thought it was last year's team that played Newark yesterday and that Sorel was playing second base. However, the programs said different. Toronto made seven errors, four of them being wild throws. McCarthy let five men walk and had trouble most every innings with the support he received. Carrick pitched good ball for Newark and received good support.

NEWARK HERE TO-DAY

Newark made it two out of three by beating Toronto yesterday 7-2 in a game that was marked by a series of errors. McCarthy was on the rubber and struck out eight. He was a trifle wild and allowed five bases on balls. The hitting was not good, the team making seven errors. This was partly due to the sticky condition of the grounds, which were soft, owing to the heavy rain last night.

THE INTERASSOCIATION LEAGUE

The outlook for the senior Interassociation Baseball League this season is very promising. The teams entered in the league have enrolled some of the best senior players in the city, and the baseball field on the Victoria grounds will this year should be of the best. The Alerts, last year's champions, are, if anything, stronger this season and about many a strong bid for the gold medals. The Sherbournes have started in at a great clip, and they will surely be in the competition with in the final this fall. The Centrals, under Mr. Stewart Riggs' efficient management, will surely be in the competition with in the final this fall. NEWSPAPER TYPE HUMOR.

Called From the Scrapbook of an Old-Time Writer.

An old New York newspaper man, now turned farmer, says The New York Sun, kept a scrapbook, in which, for years, he pasted hundreds of the typographical and other errors that always annoy but sometimes amuse newspaper writers.

A daily newspaper up the Hudson reported the speech of a Fourth of July orator, who had something to say about the "Flat of the Almighty." It got into the paper "the flat of the Almighty."

The Winnipeg Times on the death of a Reverend gentleman, meant to say "the death of a prelate," but printed "the death of a prelate." For this the editor apologized.

A Chicago daily found a little boy, who, according to the report, was "very dead, indeed. The reporter wrote: 'The boy was quite dead. No efforts could resuscitate him.'"

This is quite as good as the "bull" filled from a fountain in the Paris Figaro, which says: "The fountain of the fountain gave any sign of life, not even when her brother-in-law put his hand to heart and she said: 'The fountain is dead.'"

A steady and venerable evening journal solemnly informed its readers in a complimentary notice of the absence of "its stories are not of a nature to destroy the morals of the youngest child."

This is what the "Catholon" called "an inadvertence." By an inadvertence, our recent notice of Dr. Macaulay's new book contained the paragraph with the heading in circus placards: "How unwell is it."

The editor of a Pennsylvania country weekly began a leader with a remark that "Mr. Thomas, in his address at Johnson, merely let our people know how unwell he is fit to cope with John Allen on the stump. He will only prove a political morsel for Allen to chew on."

The rival newspaper printed the paragraph with the heading in circus placards: "How unwell is it."

They seek in vain for power who fear it. Power may be but a synonym for sloth. The cannot reach earth who does not touch heaven. The pulpit make parables in the news.

The man who never will be busy when he is only buzzing. The man who never will be busy when he is always wasting his life. The man who never will be busy when he is always wasting his life.

Heavenly musings cannot be leaved with the rent from rooking temptations. The man who never will be busy when he is only buzzing. The man who never will be busy when he is always wasting his life.

THIS BOOK HARVESTS GOLD ONLY ONE TIME IN A YEAR

French Publisher Who Took Advantage of Newly-Famed Personages Comes to Grief.

London.—English publishers, who are always complaining of hard times, must have read with envy of the profits realized by a French confrere of theirs, M. Adolph Boudesque, whose case was reported from Paris recently.

For altho Boudesque published only one book, and only one copy of that every year, the proceeds from it were over 100,000 francs, or $20,000, annually, which must be a record.

Boudesque has appealed against this sentence, however, for he declares he is a reputable citizen, and that he merely took a pardonable advantage of the well-known fondness of the public for being gullible.

According to the evidence given at his trial, M. Boudesque kept a sharp eye out for announcements to the effect that So and So had received the Cross of the Legion of Honor, the Academic Palm or the Order of Agriculture.

However, his little game worked, for most of the persons to whom he wrote, in the flush of their joy at being decorated, sent the thirty francs demanded, and he had put their names upon it over $20,000 last year.

It was in a New York newspaper report of a political meeting that the word "about" was so ludicrously but only to their names the blunder famous.

The old-time reporter, with the howl for copy ringing in his ears, sometimes perpetrated remarkable English. A young Chicago newspaper writer of a man who had been on the job for some time, was found reclining on the bed, while his legs extended over the floor and towards the corner of the "room."

FOR THE SAN JOSE SCALE.

New Kerosene-Lime Mixture Not Equal to Sulphur Washes.

One of the new insecticide combinations for treatment for San Jose scale consists of a mixture of kerosene in water produced by the use of lime in very fine particles.

But tests made at the Delaware Experiment Station during 1905 indicate that the lower strengths of the "K-L" mixture are not efficient against scale.

At the Delaware station tests were made in five orchards, on cherries, plums, peaches and apples, and applications were made in fall, winter and summer.

The effect of the 10 per cent. and 20 per cent. mixtures on scale was not satisfactory, as young scales on trees treated with these mixtures were not checked.

PURELY SCIENTIFIC. Arctic Explorer is Not Getting Into International Difficulties.

London (Eng.) Post: In October last there appeared in the columns of The Morning Post an account of an interview with Mr. Einar Mikkelson, a young Danish explorer.

During the six months, however, the scope of Mr. Mikkelson's program has expanded considerably.

What has impressed me most during my whole long trip abroad," said Bishop Potter, answering a question.

From the Catholic Standard and Times. Ah, the May was grand this month! Sure! how could I feel forlorn in such a land when tree and flower tossed their kisses to the breeze?

So I mocked the feathered choir To my busy heart's desire, And I gloried in the comradeship that made their joy my own.

Where, upon the white-thorn swaying, He was minstrel of the Maying, In my days of love an laughter that the years have laid at rest.

Here again his notes were ringing! But I'd lost the heart for singing! Ah, the song I could not answer was the one I loved the best.

DR. MACKEY FOR INDIA TOURING FOREIGN FIELDS

Will Act as Assembly Delegate to Indian and Chinese Conferences - Missionaries Appointed.

In considering the estimated expenditure for 1906, the Presbyterian foreign mission committee, which concluded its business late last night, found that although last year's deficit of nearly $20,000 had to be provided for, the expansion of work called for a total expenditure of about $175,000.

The result of work in all places had been encouraging. From every field came reports of large opportunity for aggressive work, which can only be taken advantage of by increasing the staff of missionaries. The committee carefully considered the whole matter and made appointments of Miss Clara Hue and K. G. Mackay to Central India (this field asked for six); Miss Thomson, Miss McGill and Rev. A. Thompson to Honan, China; Dr. J. D. McDonald to Macao; Rev. J. D. Smith to field to be later named; and Miss Eadie recommended to the executive committee for future appointment.

Dr. R. E. Mackay, grand secretary, was appointed to visit the various foreign fields and the assembly will be asked to name him as its delegate to the assembly of the Presbyterian Church in India, which meets at Indore in December. Dr. Mackay will also represent the committee at the centennial conference, in memory of Robert Morrison, first missionary to China, which is to be held at Shanghai, April, 1907. He will probably leave in September and be away about a year.

Much discussion ensued regarding Indian work in the Dominion. The committee regretted the lukewarmness of the Dominion government in dealing with the joint appeals of the Presbyterians, Methodists and Anglicans regarding a reformation of the present industrial and boarding school system, which is said to be deplorable and quite to the peculiar needs of helpless Indians.

OFFERS APARTIAL AMNESTY

phrases and dialects which the members from the Baltic provinces and Poles sometimes found difficult to understand. The leadership in parliament is being rapidly assumed by the Tver group of members, whose ability has thus far stood out in relief. The contingent from the Volga provinces is showing the greatest radicalism. None of the members from the Caucasus or Siberia has spoken up to the present but it is noticeable that they applaud the most radical utterances. Although the Mussulmans took their place on the right the majority are acting with the Constitutional Democrats and the Poles. "Land and Freedom."

From the very outset to-day words far beyond moderation were used and in favor of moderation were few and far between. A social revolutionary from Saratoff, declared that the reply to the speech from the throne was too weak. To cries of "land and freedom," he announced that the people who had sent him to parliament did not want land without liberty. The peasants were so revolutionary that "only a spark was required to kindle a fire," he said, and anarchy and destruction were certain if their demands were not satisfied immediately.

Zablottny, of Podolia Province, a lawyer elected by the peasants, spoke passionately in favor of the abolition of the death penalty, saying that the country already had too many categories.

Vengeance Must Cease. Prof. Kusmin-Karaviev, formerly of the Academy of Military Law, who is the Tver delegation, also addressed the assembly. He declared that the "bloody vengeance of the government, which has resulted in six hundred executions since December, must cease."

The most sensational speech delivered before the recess was that of Mikhailchenko, a workman of Ekaterinoye, who said he spoke for the proletarians everywhere. He had nothing to lose except his chains and which proposed to fight to the bitter end for freedom and against the system which seeks to protect those who fatten upon people's money.

Continuing, Mikhailchenko said: "I represent a group of only fourteen workmen, but we meet our superiors in the cities, and we have no fear. We stand for social democracy, justice to the laboring man and liberty for all without distinction of race or religion."

The speaker then made a long speech in which he attacked the government and its policy. He said that the government was a "committee of eighteen to twenty men, who have no right to speak from the throne. The committee was given entire freedom of action; and no instructions of any kind."

In spite of all prevailing craving for reform, the house after the evening recess finished the general discussion of the address and took up for deliberation the separate planks of the document, adopting the first four before adjournment.

These are the question of universal suffrage, reform of the bureaucracy and provincial administration, stoppage of repressions, and the all-important question of ministerial responsibility. On this last point the radicals scored their first triumph, forcing the inclusion in the paragraph of a complete responsibility for ministerial responsibility by the insertion of the word "all" before the word "ministers."

Radical appeals for declaration of war against the government and a secret direct ballot were shown under overwhelming, one by one, and the speaker, who did not want our women to vote; we prefer that they should stay at home and manage the household.

Prof. Kasimir Karaviev made the most sensational remark of the evening by openly hinting that Emperor Nicholas might meet the fate of Louis XVII if he rejected the principal of ministerial responsibility.

PUBLIC MONEY WASTED

people of that district did not vote in the riding of Gaspé. He admitted that he had induced the Laurier government to build several wharves, but they were badly needed.

Mr. Monk (Jacques Charrier) said this Grand Valley wharf was so inconveniently situated that it did not serve as a shelter for fishermen, and indeed no one used it except Americans who were exploiting in the timber limits that had formerly belonged to Mr. Lovell (Stanford).

Mr. Monk suggested that henceforth public improvements should follow the broad general lines of national improvement laid down by the transportation commission. At least one-half of the estimates for rivers and harbors and public buildings were entirely unnecessary. Many were burdensome to the taxpayers.

Mr. Hyman, minister of public works, said that the report of the national transportation commission prescribed very extensive improvements. At least one hundred million dollars would be required to carry out its recommendations. However, the government was doing its best. Extensive improvements were being inaugurated at Port Arthur, Midland, Port Colborne, Montreal, Quebec, St. John and Halifax.

It would be impossible to limit all improvements or public works to some great scheme of national improvement. All governments made local improvements. In Quebec and the Maritime Provinces, these naturally run to the building of breakwaters, wharves, etc. As to the wharf at St. Joseph, that had been a disappointment.

At the Grand Valley wharf, he thought, had been sufficiently defended by Mr. Lemieux.

The Disraeli affair troubled the minister not a little. He referred to alleged sonnets taken at Lake Aylmer. But when members pointed out that Lake Aylmer was several miles distant, he insisted that this was an "arm of the lake."

This brought to his feet Mr. Morin (Dorchester). "It is a meadow," he protested. "My cousin raised two tons of hay on it."

This raised a general laugh, and Mr. Eymann promised to call on the engineers.

Mr. Borden said that the minister had made no defence. He could not and would not say that a single steamer had ever touched at Disraeli since the village of Disraeli was destroyed by the minister, the improvement as described was virtually a bridge.

Hon. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Morin (Dorchester) closed the debate. Upon division, Mr. Borden's amendment was lost; yeas 48, nays 100.

Budget Speech Tuesday. Hon. Mr. Borden's budget finances, announced that the budget will be brought down on Tuesday next.

The private bill to incorporate the Women's Franchise Association was withdrawn to-day.

In reply to a question by Mr. Bennett (East Simcoe), it was stated by the postmaster-general that J. M. Walton, who had been appointed to the position of postmaster at Aurora, had been examined and approved by a commission, consisting of Col. W. D. Otter, Col. J. M. Gibson, Col. Sam Hughes, M.P., W. P. Anderson and Mr. Major-General Levesque.

Mr. Broder, minister of marine and fisheries, in reply to Mr. Northrup (East Hastings), admitted that during the past ten months there had been a decrease in the number of fish.

In addition, there is still nearly $25,000 due for supplies. Mr. Northrup asked the minister to consider Mr. Oliver's bill respecting placer mining in the Yukon Territory. The act seeks to encourage prospecting, and to protect the miner in his rights. It will pass.

"HERETIC" NOT REGARDED AS BRAND OF OBLOUQUY

People, Says Bishop Burgess, Believe and Pray and Reject Agnostic Theories.

Garden City, L.L. May 16.—"No obloquy attaches itself in these days to the term 'heretic,'" said the Right Rev. Frederick Burgess, D.D., when he, as bishop, opened the 40th convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Long Island.

Discussing the church's authority on matters of faith in the light of recent ecumenical councils, he spoke of doubts of the miraculous resurrection and conception of Jesus, and said: "Let the church once decide that such views have their place in her sanctuary and her power is gone. She sinks down into an ethical society, which, however, will commend the respect of no one. No self-respecting young man will be attracted to her ministry. Young men are not cowards. They are ready to take the venture of faith. But they will not take a vow to teach the heresies of the church which they believe that the opposite is Biblical truth. They will not consent to use, in reciting the creed, words beyond their belief, which the traditional Jesuit would be ashamed to do."

"No obloquy attaches itself in these days to the term 'heretic,'" Huxley, Emerson, Carlyle, Leitch, Froese, Emerson, honored names. But history will not honor the man who put strain on the church's authority and say the liturgy with constant apologies for the medieval superstition.

"The moment scholarship tries to touch the person of Christ and to settle in regard to the vital place which he occupies in the world, it will find its mistake. The people will have none of it. CANADIAN PAROLE SYSTEM.

No problem in sociology presents greater difficulties and complications than the treatment of convicted criminals. Not only do these unfortunate differ infinitely among themselves, but other considerations enter into evidence which afford endless scope for difference in point of view.

No organization has done better work in the reclamation of the criminal classes than the Salvation Army. By patient continuance in well-doing its patients gradually won their way to recognition as discharging valuable public service which should properly be done by the government itself.

Mr. Archibald, who, as one of the staff of the Salvation Army, had been assigned specially to the Prison Gate movement. His first report as a government official, covering the period from May 1, 1905, to the close of the fiscal year on June 30, 1905, has now been issued and contains a valuable summary of the results of the parole system.

Since its adoption in 1890, out of 1082 paroles granted, 657, or about 61 per cent, have completed their sentences, under license, without violation of the conditions imposed, while 225, or 30 per cent, additional have so far respected the conditions of their licenses, which are still operative. Only 24, or a little over 2 per cent, have forfeited their licenses, and the remaining 7 per cent, is accounted for by those who were recommended for non-compliance with the conditions, but without any new charge of criminality.

Mr. Archibald's report is distinguished by moderation and modesty. It shows the problem with which he has to deal and keeps steadily in focus the goal of the criminal himself. The keynote of his endeavor is that "the fundamental principle of the parole law is reconstruction; everything else connected with its operation is subsidiary matter. Society will always cry 'Punish the evil doer.' The parole system answers 'Let us first help him for citizenship.'" questions which may arise will settle themselves. In this he is confirmed by the record of work accomplished under the United States system, whose best results have been surpassed by those attending Canadian methods. Altogether the first report of the Dominion Parole Officer is not only highly satisfactory, but furnishes the strongest possible argument for the contention "that the needs of the unfortunate and erring of our fair Dominion are being met in a most practical and helpful way."

DANGER IN FOREIGN FIELDS.

Curses, like chickens, come home to roost. Extravagance in management comes home in loss of business. Thousands of British policyholders in the New York Mutual Life are withdrawing from that company, accepting the surrender values of their policies, and reinsuring in a British company at the same premiums plus the greater surrender values; for which they will receive advantages greater than were promised by the Mutual Life.

From many points of view this is unfortunate. A great Policyholders' Association has been formed, and is working to secure control of the Mutual Life. By the policyholders the penalty of extravagant management will have to be paid. The British business, which has been built up at a great cost to the American policyholders, will practically all be lost. The lesson will be salutary for those "imperial" minded insurance chiefs who, not content with great flourishing in their own countries, longed, like Alexander, for other worlds to conquer.

Of course there is no fear of the solvency of the Mutual Life, or any established leading company in Canada. Thinking merely of the face value of policies deferred and leaving dividends out of reckoning, there is no reason why companies on British soil are most economically managed, and the policyholder in as certain as it is possible to be in an uncertain age that his money will be handled with discretion, ability and economy so long as he has need of insurance.

The Britishers' action must cause some anxiety to Canadian companies, which have been buying foreign business at the expense of the home policyholders—the Canada Life, for instance. The expenses of this company are great in proportion to the premium income than those of the Mutual Life. Its surplus is in every respect very much smaller than that of the Mutual Life. It has available a quite contemptible proportion of the sums it has received for profits. As was shown in The World some months ago, the surrender values of Canada Life policies are very much lower than that of the great tri-umvirate of New York corporations. Any British company offering to take over British policyholders in the Canada Life would not be able to offer such good terms as have been offered to those insured in the Mutual Life.

The threatened development might have been avoided if the companies had been candid from the beginning. The World repeatedly urged Canadian companies to confess the errors of their ways; and to mend their methods without the necessary humiliating exposures in the witness box. If it were known in Britain that the Canadian companies would presently be governed by similar laws to those which have been enacted to safeguard policyholders in the United States, any potential disposition to desert Canadian companies would be prevented. As it is the Canadian companies are bound to be anxious about the future of their foreign fields. They cannot expect to escape the penalty of extravagance.

INEXPEDIENT HERESY TRIALS.

It will be interesting to see what the religious papers have to say about the condemnation of Dr. Crapsey, the first Episcopal clergyman in the United States to be condemned for heresy since 1891. Whatever Dr. Crapsey's place may be, it is not in any church which is bound by the Apostles' creed, the Nicene creed, or any creed formulated by theologians of the sixteenth or seventeenth centuries. There is no logical reply to the argument that if a minister does not truly believe the creed which he avowed when he was ordained, he should retire to a position of more freedom and less responsibility. But some allowance should be made for the transitional state of accepted doctrines in all the churches, and for those who cling to an anomalous position in the hope that liberalizing heaven will gradually work miracles from the inside.

Propos a correspondent whose reputation entitles him to the profoundest respect writes to The World: "This is a time of general dissolution. You see the signs of it everywhere. A clergyman cannot express his belief in the most certain conclusions of theology without, in effect, denying the fall, and with it, the incarnation and atonement. Of the impolicy of heresy trials from the ecclesiastical there can be no doubt. However, the world in general will soon have to face these questions if it is only on the social ground, for unquestionably religion with the belief in a hereafter has done much to reconcile the masses to the present inequalities of the human lot. Disbelief and socialism go pretty much hand in hand."

In truth, heresy trials are impolitic. But professors of hard and fast creeds have nothing to do with policy. They must hew to the line; or find some other spiritual occupation. So soon as a man begins to rehearse the articles of his belief, and finds in one of them an anathema upon all who differ from him, he must meet the possibilities of heresy trials with all their untoward consequences. Possibly the facing of this repellent alternative would do more than anything else to expedite the era in which even the most cocksure theologians will realize that there is no monopoly in truth, and that when truth makes men free it endows them with that saving grace which recognizes that spiritual strength may come from spiritual food as diverse as the things with which we sustain our physical might.

CONTROLLER COADY.

It is hard to know whether to be gladdened or saddened by the letters which Mayor Coatsworth and Treasurer Coady laid before the city council yesterday, the effect of which is to take out of practical consideration an actual increase of $1500 to the salary last received by the mayor of Toronto, and a prospective increase of $1500 in the treasurer's salary. The mayor's letter would never have been written if he had obtained his colleagues' views before he received the first cheque for his mayoral services. The Coady letter should not have been written at all. It is a pattern of futility; a piece of gratuitous assumption; a weakness; a blunder; an offence against public servants in general.

Mr. Coady says he has "control of the financial transactions" of the city council. In the name of decency what is the board of control? Could anything more fully justify the criticism that the treasurer in this business controlled the mayor? It does not seem to occur to Mr. Coady to leave the responsibility for the recommendation concerning himself where it belongs. When the board of control passed his raise he should have sat still, no matter what storm arose. To do anything else is to indicate that he regards the board of control as of secondary influence. No letter was ever written by a public official which more obviously says "I am IT."

Mr. Coady has been a valuable servant of the city. In the role of master he has become ridiculous. He has irresistibly invited a query as to whether his competence to write such a monumental indiscretion can ever fitly reside in a $5000 man—let alone a $6500 man who has "control of the financial transactions" of the City of Toronto.

A CRY FROM FERNIE.

In private letters as well as in open communications for publication, The World has been importuned to come to the aid of the citizens of Fernie, B.C., in their fight against the Crown's Nest Pass Electric Light and Power Company, a subsidiary company of the Crown's Nest Pass Coal Company.

At first sight it is not easy to discover how a newspaper can be of assistance to a body of men fighting for what they believe to be fair treatment, 2000 miles away. But there is a sentence in one letter which is worthy of attention in Toronto: "We think if these men were hit in their own city it would bring them to time." The trouble in Fernie is one phase of the public ownership question. A community is at the mercy of a private company for the water it uses. It feels helpless against what it calls extortion. Generally speaking, every municipality must fight its own battles of this kind. Distant newspapers can only take notice of what is going on, in so far as it may illustrate and enforce their arguments for the adoption of a general principle. But in the Fernie case the element of civic self-respect comes into play. "We think if these men"—a less complimentary word than "men"—is used in the letter—"we think if these men were hit in their own city it would bring them to time." Which, being interpreted, means that the citizens of Fernie, B.C., feel themselves to be the undeserved victims of Toronto exploiters, and of what they are apparently coming to regard as Toronto methods.

Not long ago a business man reported to The World his difficulty in doing a certain class of financial business with people in the country. He was frequently met with the answer, "We cannot trust you Toronto people, you are so d—d crooked." It is humiliating to have to hear this kind of story, and to feel compelled to record the incident which is preferred against highly-placed Toronto men by this little mining town away up in the Rocky Mountains.

Here is the story, told in the words of one writer: "Dear Sir,—Fernie had during the past two years been visited by some very destructive fires, the one in May, 1904, almost entirely wiping out the town. At all of these fires there was no water, although the Crown's Nest Pass Electric Light and Power Company had had their plant installed for some years. On account of defective pipes and hydrants not a pound of pressure was on, and when the water was turned on,—well—it is unnecessary for me to tell you what happened. Not a pound of pressure. Last year, after the third big fire, a number of our citizens got together and asked the council to put through a debenture bylaw to put in a system of our own, which bylaw passed by a substantial majority. The company, thru G. G. S. Lindsey, thereupon commenced proceedings to quash the bylaw on some technical grounds, which they succeeded in doing.

The company then made a proposition that if the city would give them a franchise for ten years, they would give us a good pressure, would not charge more than what they were then doing (which was higher rate than any incorporated town in British Columbia was paying), and would sell out to the city at the end of ten years at a price to be arrived at by arbitration. They would not, however, agree to stay out of the water business at the end of that period if the city took over the plant. Their proposition was naturally voted down.

Upon Mr. Lindsey's return to Fernie this spring, he gave out that he would make the people suffer for this. Sure enough, up went the water rates on May 1. I am enclosing those water rates, and also a copy of The Fernie Ledger, and you had better judge for yourself how we are being treated.

The ordinary consumer is now being made to pay from $40 to $60 per year for his family, with say only one tap, pays $2.50 per month, or $30 per year. The city is also compelled to pay $10 per hour or fraction thereof, in case of fire, or even in the case of the fire boys using a hydrant for a fire practice, $10 per hour, or fraction thereof.

Fernie, which has a population of about 2500 or 3000, is paying higher for its water than any town of its size in the United States, and higher than America. The men who are trying to coerce the people of Fernie into giving them a franchise are the same men who are trying to coerce the G.T.P. The Lord help the people in the towns along that line when these men commence to get their work in.

IRISH GO BRAGH.

"An Irish Ireland" is the end for which Dr. Douglas Hyde is prosecuting an oratorical pilgrimage on this continent. More power to his speech. Good luck to his appearance at Massey Hall to-night.

What an element of tragedy is back of such an aspiration! What would you think if some Teuton should traverse the world with "a German Germany" for a watchword to bring his country together? Irish nationality seems to be unlike anything in the heavens above or the earth beneath.

It is the standing conundrum, the accusing element in the wondrous hegemony of the British empire. It should give a hesitancy to every imperial thinker when he begins a paean of glorification of the history of British free government. Whatever the cause, whoever be blameworthy, Ireland is an anomaly where she ought to be a happy complement. She is a nation alternately hoping and despairing—the one Christian country with only half the population she carried a century ago.

Dr. Hyde comes in the guise of an ardent revivalist. He is head of the Gaelic League, which is one of the fruits of that most honorable sentiment which has been steadily gaining strength for several years—the recognition of the fact that Irishmen are Irish, and that it is vain to suppose that they can become English. Just as soon as the attempt to make bad Englishmen out of good Irishmen ceases, better times will come to a country which has been chronically afflicted by the sadness which is always associated with the gift of superabundant humor. The Gaelic League is an engine of restoration of the best sides of the Hibernian virility. That is sympathetic welcome in any city.

Wealthy Southerner Takes His Life in Chicago Bank in Sweet- heart's Presence.

Chicago, May 15.—The climax in the love story of Alvah T. Portlock oc- curred in the Northern Trust Com- pany Bank yesterday when the young man drew a revolver and shot him- self while standing a few feet away from the woman he loved.

The bullet struck within an inch of his heart and as he fell to the floor mortally wounded he called to his wife. He then was carried into a private office of the bank.

It was during the busiest banking hour of the day that the tragedy oc- curred and several men and women were standing near the man when he drew the revolver and fired. Several minutes before order was restored and persons in the bank realized what had hap- pened.

PORT OF ST. JOHN GROWING

Annual Report Shows All Around Gains in Trading. St. John, N.B., May 16.—The growing importance of the City of St. John as a port of shipment on the Atlantic and the increased keenness of its competi- tion with Portland and other United States cities were never more clearly shown than in the statement for the last winter's business, just issued. This statement shows that for the season of 1905-6, which includes the months of December, January, February and March, and part of November and April, there were 113 sailings, as com- pared with 101 for last season. The total import tonnage was 76,919, as compared with 49,991 last season, but it is in the exports that the great in- crease has been noted.

EFFICIENCY OF BRITISH NAVY

Forty Large Warships Practically Removed From List Since 1902. London, May 16.—The rapidity with which Great Britain is removing from the navy all except her efficient war- ships, was shown by a statement pre- sented to parliament to-day. No fewer than 40 battleships and cruisers have practically been removed from the list since 1902. The exact figures are eight battleships, 10 armored cruisers and three protected cruisers removed from the fighting effective, while three bat- tleships and 16 protected cruisers were retained, placing them on the list of ships of the smallest fighting value. In the same period the construction of 13 new battleships, 10 armored cruisers and four protected cruisers was begun.

The Wornout Nerves, The Tired Brain, The Wasted Strength.

What a multitude of women there are who feel that these words exactly suit their case. From early morning until late at night they have been on the go, year in and year out, attending to the daily household duties, looking after the wants of her children and spending the rest of her time attending to social and church work. It is any wonder then that sooner or later there comes a general collapse? The action of the heart becomes weak and palpitating, the nerves become unstrung, the brain feels in a whirl half the time and the usual force of vitality is lacking.

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

They are the women's friend in every sense of the word. They will strengthen the weak heart, tone up the shaky, starved nerves, make the brain clear, and restore the lost vitality. Mrs. George Lohans, Stanley Section, N.S., writes: "I was greatly troubled with weak and dizzy spells and was so run down I could not attend to my household duties. I bought two boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and after taking them I found that my trouble had all passed away. I am now strong and healthy again."

SLIGHTLY USED

PIANO

On which amounts varying from $25.00 TO $100.00

HAVE ALREADY BEEN PAID.

Will you pay the balance and make the Piano yours?

Most of these pianos have been rented to trustworthy people for from six months to two or three years, and on them we have received as hire amounts varying from $25 to $100.

Just now many such instruments are being returned, and the summer rental season having hardly commenced, our warehouses are overcrowded. We therefore propose to allow present purchasers the advantage of every dollar paid by someone else. Will you accept such a payment on a piano practically new? If so, come to-day for first choice. Tomorrow may mean third, fourth or even last choice.

Every piano is fully guaranteed for five years, with five years' option of exchange.

GOURLAY, WINTER & LEEMING

188 Yonge St., Toronto. Hamilton, 66 King St. W.

FOR GENERAL ADVANTAGE.

Two Railways Within Province Incorporated by Dominion.

Ottawa, May 16.—At the railway committee to-day Mr. Zimmerman's bill to incorporate the Hamilton, Waterloo and Guelph Railway was discussed. Mr. Dewar, K.C., opposed the charter, on the ground that it was going over the same line as the proposed Hamilton and Guelph road.

Mr. Zimmerman said that there was no chance of Mr. Dewar's road being built. He (Zimmerman) had no other interest in the road, he was representing the interests of the Dominion. If the charter were granted, the money was ready to go on with the construction of the road.

R. G. Code, Ottawa, who represented the Ontario government, said that the report that the Ontario government had withdrawn its opposition was not correct. The bill was one which Ontario should handle.

Mr. Emmerson did not agree with Mr. Code. A road that crossed a government canal and two railways declared to be for the general advantage of Canada, was a work for the general advantage of Canada. It would be subject to the railway commission.

On the clause for the issue of securities, Mr. Zimmerman said that it would cost $30,000 to get out of Hamilton and about $100,000 a mile for some distance beyond.

The bill respecting the Niagara Question and St. Catharines Railway Mr. Emmerson took the same view as he did in regard to the other. The bill asked for an extension of time. It was for 22 miles of electric railway. Mr. Martin, Wellington, did not think the Dominion should interfere in such small roads.

In reply, it was said the company had spent $12,000 on the road already, and it now held a Dominion charter, and a clause was put in protecting municipalities, etc., they can also construct railways ten miles in length to connect their roads.

At the private bills committee to-day a bill granting incorporation to the fur trading company, Revillon Brothers, was adopted. The capital of the company is placed at $5,400,000. Somewhat extensive powers were granted to the company. In addition to running steamboats, etc., they can also construct railways ten miles in length to connect their roads.

REBEL LEADER CAPTURED.

Man Who Has Cost Germany Much Money is a Prisoner.

Berlin, May 16.—The German consul-general at Cape Town to-day cabled the German colonial office that the Cape police had captured Morengo, the leader of the rebellion in German Southwest Africa, and several of his warriors in British territory, and had taken them to Uppington, Cape Colony.

The native rebellion in German Southwest Africa up to March of this year has cost the German government $150,000,000.

Morengo is characterized as a man of great intelligence and well educated.

OPERATION ON DAVITT.

Under Knife for Second Time for Blood Poisoning.

Dublin, May 16.—Professor Sir Thornley Stoker, president of the Royal College of Surgeons, Ireland, today performed a second operation on Michael Davitt, formerly of Hazelwood, who has been suffering from blood poisoning for some time past.

Mr. Davitt is very weak, and it is feared that a third operation may be immediately necessary.

NO FOREIGN PREACHERS IN NOTRE DAME'S PULPIT

Eloquent French Preachers Offend Canadian Bishops and Fiat Has Gone Forth.

Montreal, May 16.—(Special)—It is not at all probable that the eloquent voice of Father Pleissis, or that of any other foreign ecclesiastic will ever again be heard from the time-honored pulpit of Notre Dame. In other words it is understood that a fiat has gone forth to the effect that the custom of bringing reverend gentlemen from abroad to preach the Lenten sermons in Notre Dame is to be discontinued.

Almost since the day the able superior of St. Sulpice made Father Carroll, the ecclesiastical emissary of Washington, be gone, as they had decided to stand by king and empire, preachers from the other side of the water have been yearly occupying the pulpit of Notre Dame. A fiat seemed to go well for a time, but something happened a few years ago which came like a bolt from the blue, and which made prelate and priest aware that although these great pulpit orators from abroad might preach eloquent sermons, many things they were scarcely in touch with the leaders of the Catholic Church in Canada, as well as with the healthy traditions of the French-Canadian branch of the great Family of Latins.

Mgr. Rostier, a speaker of great renown in France, came to Montreal and preached a sermon which was not only well received, but before he had uttered a word from the pulpit, he gave an interview, which to say the least, was deeply resented by every bishop in the country. The great orator, who was a republican priest of an advanced order, intimated that the education laws of the French government were all right and, to use his own words: "Were only displeasing to a few Jesuits."

Protests came from St. Sulpice by the score, and Mgr. Bruchesi declined to preside at Mgr. Rostier's parting lecture at the Monument National. The French pulpit orator was permitted, however, to quietly leave the city and never more return.

A few excused the republican ecclesiastic by the supposition that the interview in question had failed to rightly interpret the true sentiments of the Roman Catholic Archbishop of Montreal, are quite in accord as to the men who were the cause of the rupture to preach special sermons in the Church of Notre Dame. The place that knew these eloquent French preachers shall know them no longer.

WOMAN'S WORLD

Etiquet.

There is always a proper thing to do and a proper way to do it, and upon the knowing and doing what is correct depends much of the comfort and pleasure of daily life. No one can afford to ignore the so-called minor courtesies of life, for while they are deemed "minor" they are in reality very important in making things go smoothly in promoting harmony and thus adding to the enjoyment and success of life.

Man is a social being. It is human nature to desire companionship, to wish for more than the intimate intercourse with one's fellow-beings. But to make this intercourse agreeable, and make one's company bearable, there must be a harmony and politeness. True politeness is the basis of all gentlemanly and refinement. It is the basis of the many little social usages and customs which have become conventional, but which, one might say, are the hall-marks of good breeding.

Agreeable friction, a common basis of harmony and politeness. True politeness is the basis of all gentlemanly and refinement. It is the basis of the many little social usages and customs which have become conventional, but which, one might say, are the hall-marks of good breeding.

Such rules will appear in short articles in this department, and the editor will always be pleased to take as clearly as possible any questions upon the subject desired.

The Lady Sybil Grey was the winner last week of a handsome cup, offered as a prize in a golf match at Ottawa, by Mrs. E. C. Grant. Lady Sybil is very popular at all outdoor sports and excels in many. She is a skilful fisherman, delights in skiing, skating and tennis and is an enthusiastic photographer.

There are also short courses in cookery and in domestic art as sewing, millinery, embroidery, etc., and evening classes also in the above subjects. When these are the special courses think of the value of the regular two years' course for girls who have passed the entrance examination. They take up high school subjects, omitting such as Latin and Greek, and some of the higher mathematics, and other similar organizations, while only last week she organized a chapter of the Daughters of the Empire, the first to be founded in Ottawa.

An Ideal Duster.

Have you ever tried using a wet chamois for dusting? If not, do so, it makes an ideal duster. Take a fairly large piece, you can buy it for a quarter of a dollar or less, wring it tightly out of cold water and it is dropped raising. It is cup chopped walnuts. Mix well and drop the batter one teaspoonful at a time at intervals on buttered tins. Bake in a quick oven.

CLASS IN PRACTICAL HOUSEKEEPING.

Young Girls Taught Marketing, Housekeeping, Sewing and Problems in House Economics. To serve a luncheon to twelve persons at a cost of fifteen cents per person, or to serve a more formal luncheon to four persons at a cost of twenty-five cents. Either of these alternatives constitutes the practical examination which concludes the housekeeping course in the domestic science department of the Technical High School. The student plans the luncheon, unassisted, with due regard to the nutritive qualities of the food selected, she chooses her own cook and assists her in the preparation as she would were she in her own home, and she is allowed two waitresses. The result is a revelation to many when the cost is considered. One of the students served her examination luncheon to 12 persons at the school yesterday. Here is the menu:

- Tomato Soup—Croustons. Beef Leaf Lettuce Bouletoles Baking Powder Biscuits. Salted Almonds Radishes Banana Salad With Boiled Dressing. Prune Whip With Soft Custard. Swedish Shrubbed Coffee.

The cost of the materials used was as follows: Tomatoes 15c, beef 25c, pork 7c, potatoes 5c, almonds 10c, banana 10c, lettuce 7c, radishes 7c, prunes 10c, coffee 10c, cream 5c, bread 3c, milk 10c, eggs 10c, butter 20c, parsley 2c, radish 7c, raisins 3c, flour 2c, baking powder and seasoning 5c, total $17.17, or 14c per person.

This practical housekeeping course is one of the special courses, and covers four months. It includes the following subjects: Cookery, serving, laundering, home nursing, household economics, hygiene, marketing, sewing and bookkeeping. In the talks on household economics the students are taught how to sweep and dust, the distribution of income, the cost of food, and the practical expenditure of the household funds. The value of such training for girls can be readily understood. This special course has already become popular, particularly among girls who expect soon to have a home of their own, and do not wish to meet its problems unprepared. One day today no had kept house for seven years took the course, and is now an enthusiast, and has persuaded a number of her friends to take the course also. The ordinary housekeeper who keeps a maid and probably pays the highest wage for such training for maid before they entered service, would be invaluable.

In addition to this housekeeping course there is a special preliminary course for nurses, which girls apply for entrance to the Grace and General Hospital Training Schools must take. It also lasts four months, and includes anatomy, physiology, chemistry, hygiene, bacteriology, obstetrics, cooking, household economics and English.

There are also short courses in cookery and in domestic art as sewing, millinery, embroidery, etc., and evening classes also in the above subjects. When these are the special courses think of the value of the regular two years' course for girls who have passed the entrance examination. They take up high school subjects, omitting such as Latin and Greek, and some of the higher mathematics, and other similar organizations, while only last week she organized a chapter of the Daughters of the Empire, the first to be founded in Ottawa.

Special Sale of Carriage Horses.

On the whole, the special sale of horses, carriages and harness, belonging to P. Maher, at the Repository yesterday, was a success. In some instances the prices expected were not reached, but in others the figures forthcoming were all that could have been anticipated. The principal feature of the disposal of the prize-winning pair of black horses, first at the recent horse show, to Mr. James Worts, for $900. A. N. Boyd, Owen Sound, was a generous purchaser, buying, among others, a chestnut mare for $165, a brown mare for $170, and the Hackney stallion, Cerrington, for $300. Messrs. Crow and Murray made several purchases, as did Mr. Joseph Russell, Dr. J. R. O'Neill, Cobourg; S. Price & Son, who took an excellent pair of greys; T. B. Featherston, Hornby; P. W. Cooch, city; R. A. Wilson, Hamilton; W. J. O'Leary, Peterboro; Dr. J. R. O'Neill, Cobourg; W. Brownridge, Brantford; W. N. Scott, Milton, and others.

Race Riot.

Albany, N.Y., May 16.—A race riot between Italians and negroes broke out in the brick yards at Coeymans. One negro has been brought to the Albany Hospital with a bullet in his side. The riot grew out of the importation of southern negroes to take the place of striking Italians.

Queen Quality FAME BEHIND every fact lies a reason. When there are a multitude of shoes for women trying to be sold and one shoe far surpasses all others in volume of sales, there is a reason for it. This one shoe is "Queen Quality." Its fame is world-wide. Its sales double those of any other woman's shoe. This can't be alone because of price, as one pair will prove. We show one of the popular Gibson Ties. As a Paris made glove fits the hand, so does this Tie fit the foot. Priced at Three Seventy-five. Other styles of Oxfords at Three-fifty, Three Seventy-five and Four-fifty. THE ROBERT SIMPSON COMPANY LIMITED

Ottawa, May 16.—The public accounts committee this morning called Mr. Preston, and then decided to postpone his examination until that of George T. Merwin had been concluded. Mr. Merwin is the agent who sold about $20,000 worth of goods to the government, largely to the department of marine and fisheries, and who refused to disclose the prices at which he bought these goods.

Mr. Preston accordingly retired into the society of two trunks and a travel bag, all crammed with papers, and Mr. Merwin took the stand. Hon. George E. Foster told the government members plainly that to assist the silence of Merwin was to burk the enquiry.

A long discussion followed. Merwin had not brought his quotations; they had been destroyed, and he refused to give his memory. The two ministers present, Messrs. Priding and Brodeur, refused to compel the witness to "disclose his private business." The minister of finance said that there were various ways of proving the cost of the goods.

Mr. Northrup appealed against ruling of the chair, and the committee on party division sustained the ruling by a majority of nine. Mr. Northrup moved that the ruling and vote be reported to the house. The motion was lost. The particular bone of contention in the committee was a $975 boiler which George Taylor professed to be able to get for $500.

The acting chairman of the committee, Victor Geoffrion, a Quebec Liberal, refused to compel the witness to answer. Mr. Northrup announced that he was a registered shareholder in the International Gas Appliance Company of Toronto, whose manly he had sold to the government. He swore that he made no profit on these manly as agent.

Mr. Southworth Adheres to Statements as to Church Army. Government Director of Immigration Southworth is not disposed to modify his charges of mismanagement by the Church Army in dealing with immigrants brought out thru its agency, despite cablegrams received from officers of the organization.

He repeats that immigrants frequently apply at the government distribution offices, saying they are Church Army people, and can't understand why they are not received in Canada by its agents, as they have been led to expect on leaving home.

Mr. Southworth also charges that the government department is not always apprised by the Church Army of the dates upon which its contingents are due to sail, as had been understood would be done.

Pool Specialties Signaled Out for Advances—Less Activity in Canadian Securities.

World Office, Wednesday Evening, May 16. Trading in Canadian stocks subsided in the Toronto market to-day, but a fairly firm tone was preserved throughout the day.

It was an off day as far as specialties were concerned, the supporting interests showing a disposition to allow breathing time for an increase in outside interest.

Floor traders were rather non-committal in their operations, and they were inclined to short the market and did so, but covered on small reactions.

Conservative houses are not favoring purchases of Mackay, except at a good decline, and as a rule are not imbued with the idea that there is any groundwork for any further general advance in prices.

Call loan rates are quoted easier, but there is no disposition of ability on the part of loaning institutions to extend market loans to any material extent.

The usual grist of tips are circulating, but traders are demanding something more substantial than gossip to draw them into long commitments.

Minor rallies occurred during the morning and afternoon, but were not sustained, and the market was made in this department.

At the close the market was dull, brokers being practically clear of orders at the present level.

Ellis & Stoppard, McKinnon Building, reported the close of the Lake Superior stock, 19 1/2 to 20, bonds, 52 to 53.

SITUATION IN MANCHURIA.

Disastrous Attitude of Japanese Toward Russian Troops.

Tokio, May 16.—The premier, Marquis Saionji has returned from his trip of inspection in Manchuria.

It is expected that his report will suggest a solution of the deadlock between the military and civil authorities over the best means of settling the Manchurian difficulties.

The Japanese and Russians in Manchuria are closely watching each other's movements.

The Japanese apparently will not evacuate that territory before they are assured that the Russians will leave it in accordance with the stipulations of the Portsmouth treaty.

JURY OUT FOR THREE HOURS

Judge's Charge Questioned Innocence—Heavy Punishment for Attempted Rape.

Samuel Barror—attempted rape—guilty—3 years Kingston Penitentiary. Charles de Marco—murder—not guilty—discharged.

After considering the evidence for nearly three hours, the jury, decided Charles de Marco was not guilty of killing Charles Hoban on Sept. 4 last.

De Marco was defended by T. C. Robinette, K. C. At a previous trial he was found guilty.

Justice Anglin, in summing up to the jury, said: "This case has now reached that stage where your responsibility commences. You are to take the law as I lay it down, but it is not necessary for you to accept my summary of the case, unless it agrees with your recollections of the evidence. If the evidence shows guilt it is your sworn duty to say so. If otherwise it is your duty to say not guilty."

De Marco shortly after the crime seemed to think he would be charged with the stabbing. Why? De Marco claimed he walked away; witnesses saw him from the scene. Why did De Marco keep out of the way of the police? He was not in his own lodging, and not wander around to find a place to sleep, if he were an innocent man.

The case is one that imposes a serious duty on your jurors. If the evidence convinces you of his guilt, you must not hesitate to bring in a verdict to that effect. If the impression should go abroad that justice sympathizes, allowed the guilty to go free, it would be a lamentable state of affairs.

A Long Term. Samuel Barror, convicted of attempted rape on a married woman, was sent to the penitentiary for five years.

In passing sentence Justice Anglin said: "The defence you offered, the jury did not believe. You know in your own conscience whether you are guilty or not. I have no reason to believe you did not know in your own conscience that you were guilty of a most diabolical crime known in Canada. It is your good fortune you did not get a longer term."

Paralytic in Ambulance Is Sentenced for Vagrancy. William Edwards, a paralytic, who, after three years in the House of Providence, exhausted his means, and his sisters in charge, because of his abusive tongue, was taken to the city hall yesterday in the ambulance. Col. Denton was sent to the penitentiary for a sentence of three months in jail for vagrancy.

Spotless Service. Service over the Lake Shore Railway may well be called spotless service. Throughout this entire system, there is a noteworthy lack of dirt and dirt. Dogs in South Parkdale. Many of the residents in South Parkdale, who take pride in keeping their front lawns in good order, are much annoyed by the stray dogs of the neighborhood, who roam will over the lawns and flower beds, and even on the verandahs of the houses. Many of these dogs are without tags, and it is about time the dog-catchers put in an appearance in this part of the city.

ABSURD, RETORTS TO ROOSEVELT'S STATEMENT

President's Attempted Explanation, Senator Says, is Ingenious, But Not Ingenious.

Washington, May 16.—While the debate on the rate bill was in progress in the senate to-day, Mr. Tillman took the floor to make a statement on behalf of ex-Senator Chandler in reference to the president's emphatic denial of the statements attributed to Mr. Chandler by the South Carolina senator.

Mr. Tillman read the portion of Mr. Chandler's memoranda of his conferences with the president, which has before been given to the public, prefacing it with a brief statement of his own, saying that on Saturday the senate had been startled and mortified to hear the utterances of an ex-member denounced on behalf of the president as "a deliberate and unqualified falsehood."

Mr. Chandler had declared most positively in a written statement that the president sent for him for the purpose of getting into communication with Senator Bailey and myself, and he has produced the letter of Mr. Loeb.

"I now declare most emphatically that no human being have I ever given authority or expressed a wish to have any conference with President Roosevelt with regard to the bill now under consideration. On the contrary I have developed the opinion long ago that the president was in the habit of consulting with me on the subject of the colonies could vote large sums of money without having a voice in its control. When that was attained they would give as freely as any."

CONTROLLERS CATCH COUNCIL CIVIC SALARY INCREASES 60

With a Few Exceptions, Including Treasurer Coady—Estimates Endorsed and Only $9600 Added—Salaries the Main Question.

The city council has placed upon record its endorsement of the board of control in the matter of the estimates which came up for consideration yesterday afternoon at the special meeting.

After a fight it was decided that the salary increases shall date from the beginning of the year. The net result of the council taking over the estimates is simply an addition of $9600 to the total controllable expenditure.

The Mayor's Message. Gentlemen of the council—A misunderstanding has arisen as to the amount of salary payable to the mayor of this city.

Mr. Coady's Epistle. Mr. Coady set forth his case in the following terms: May 15, 1906.

Dear Sir,—As the council will meet to-morrow to deal with the estimates, I desire that I be not considered as an applicant for an increase of salary at the present time, although I have had but one raise in 18 years.

The board of control kindly recommended an increase, and I may say that I do not think the figure they named by any means too high a salary.

This is my first experience of voting other people's money, said Ald. Adams, who supported the May 1 idea.

Ald. Dunn made the statement that the board of education was not responsible to the electorate, and he knew of no body more reckless in expenditure than the school board.

It was decided that the salaries would be from the beginning of the year. The vote was: For salary increases to start May 1—Ald. Graham, Dunn, McMillan, McMurrich, Adams, Keeler, Hay, Chisholm and Harrison.

For salary increase to antedate to Jan. 1—Ald. Vaughan, Church, Stewart, Noble, Oliver, McBride, Fleming, Controller Ward, Hubbard, Jones, Shaw and the mayor.

Ald. McMurrich moved that the salary of the corporation counsel be reduced $500 per annum, but the motion failed.

There was no rude hurry in disposing of the general estimates, but some excuses were asked.

The Charity Grants. When the charity grants came up Ald. Noble thought the House of Providence, Home for Incurables and other institutions should be recognized as charities, but should be regulated.

"If I had my way I would not give one dollar to any sectarian institution no matter how right their method is," said Dr. Noble, who gave some most interesting details of the deserving girls who are the Victorian Order of Nurses, and he moved that $300 be granted to that body.

He deprecated the idea of pauperizing the people by sending them to these institutions when a body of nurses are willing to help along at less than what it costs them.

They will take 5c, 25c or a dollar, and the sick man or woman who can get their aid is lucky," said the alderman, who got them a $300 grant.

A Bit of a Roast. "Here's the Sisters of the Good Shepherd, we will put them in with the Holy Beneficial Society, let's combine these things," he argued.

"No, no," said Ald. McBride. "There's no charity in the Willard Home for Girls, formerly the W.C.T.U. shelter for women," said Ald. Noble.

"It's just a boarding house, charging the exorbitant rates of from $3.50 to $5 a week, and a girl can't go in unless she can dress well. It's a commercial enterprise and if we are going to make a grant as a charity, let it be a charity and let us do what we want to do and let our grant go to a charity. Let us help somebody who needs help and not the people who don't."

It included in an extra grant to the Victorian Order of Nurses, and Ald. Noble sat down satisfied.

Commissioner of Industries. There was a decidedly interesting discussion of the matter of a commissioner of industry and public utility, Ald. Hay, who is a pretty progressive alderman, cut out cheapness if we are going to do anything at all.

Instead of $5000 he asked that $10,000 be inserted in the estimates.

Controller Jones supported it, but it was knocked down by council on Ald. Oliver's explanation that it was only for half of the year that $5000 was granted. Ald. Oliver agreed that the department should be supported.

Money on a basis of $10,000 a year. Controller Jones again supported him. Then nobody else had anything to say about it.

Fires at Exhibition. "There was never a building there that didn't burn," said Ald. Sheppard in advocating a fire company in the exhibition district. Further action will be taken.

"A very good request is mine," said Ald. Chisholm. "I want $35 for a sidewalk at Hanlan's Point."

"Carried," said John Shaw in a hurry moment as the clock was approaching 7.

With the whole consent of council the estimates were adopted, and the tax rate will be 13-1/2 mills.

After the meeting the council dined at McConkey's, and Controller Shaw thanked the mayor and council for the kindly manner in which the estimates had been considered.

TO AID FACTORY DISTRICT. Brantford Deputation Again Urges Plea for Railway Switch.

Another deputation from Brantford waited on Hon. Mr. Pyne yesterday, to press the request upon the government for a right of way across the grounds of the Institute for the Blind.

There were about 25 in the delegation, Mayor Waterous, Ald. Sanderson, and Mr. S. Brewster being chief spokesmen.

The application is one of a number of years' standing, the municipality having agreed to provide a right of way for the Grand Trunk to lay a switch into Homedale, a suburb of Brantford.

It is claimed that the only means of doing so is by having a switch about half a mile long across the grounds of the government institution. Homedale is claimed to be advantageously situated for factory sites.

The deputation were shown plans for three different routes across the grounds, and left with the assurance from Hon. Mr. Pyne that careful consideration would be given.

CURB CHRISTIAN SCIENCE TO PROTECT CREDULOUS

Matter is Brought Up in British House of Commons—Result of Trial Awaited.

London, May 16.—In the house of commons to-day John Brownlee-Lone-dale, Conservative, middle Armagh, Ireland, demanded that legislative and other measures be taken to prevent the Christian Scientists from carrying on their practices, with the view of preventing danger to the lives of credulous people.

Home Secretary Gladstone replied that the law touching the practice of medicine will probably be further elucidated by the trial for manslaughter of Dr. Adcock, the healer, accused of having caused the death of Major N. Chichester, who died under his treatment.

Until the trial is concluded, Mr. Gladstone added, he could not express his opinion on the subject. Q.O.R. SPLIT IN TWO.

The militia department has decided to paint all guns of a greenish drab color, and carriages, vehicles and stores, which heretofore were painted khaki.

ROBERT GEORGE DEAD. A Well-Known Builder Passes Away After a Few Days' Illness.

Robert George, 102 Bond-street, who fractured his leg by a fall from a ladder ten days ago, died last night. He was one of the city's pioneers, and had lived in Toronto for fifty years, coming from Pickering, where he had engaged in farming.

He is survived by two sons, P. F. and J. A., the latter of The Globe, together with two daughters at home. The funeral will take place at 3 o'clock this afternoon at Mt. Pleasant Cemetery.

Additions to Museum. Some interesting ethnological specimens are expected to arrive shortly for the provincial museum, the senders are the superintendents of the Australian Museum at Sydney, and the exhibits will include bows and arrows, boomerangs, shields, etc.

The Grim Reaper. Brockville, May 16.—(Special.)—Brockville lost two old residents to-day, Mrs. Edward Smith, 81, and Rev. Wm. Likeman, a well-known local Methodist preacher, in his 92nd year. He had lived here over 30 years.

MOTHER AND CHILD. Let the mother take Scott's Emulsion for the two; it never fails to benefit them both. One can eat for two, but nourishing two is a different thing.

It calls for a degree of internal strength that the average woman lacks. People of luxury are not very strong by habit; overworked people are weak in some functions from exhaustion or their surroundings.

Scott's Emulsion can be depended upon to overcome such conditions. It is a wonderful food for a mother and child.
