Avalanches Have Seldom Worked Such Dire Disaster as During Past Spring

Geneva, June 25.—The climbing season in the higher Alps has commenced. The hotels and inns have reopened their doors, and with one or two exceptions the mountain railways are now running with heaped-up snow.

But while the means of reaching the great Alpine peaks are ready, the weather—that terribly capricious master of the ambitious Alpinist—has decreed that many of the highest summits must for the present be unattainable.

The first ascent of Mont Blanc this year was a remarkable feat of Alpine climbing, and was made by Herr Hugo Mylius of Frankfurt, on Feb. 25.

Herr Mylius was attended by three guides, and the ascent, as well as almost the entire party, was made on skis. The conditions were immense, a strong, cold wind was blowing, and at times the temperature fell to forty degrees below zero (Fahrenheit).

The winter in the Alps was most severe, and the snow very heavy. The result that an early and particularly heavy spring has caused a perfect rearrangement of Alpine geography.

On the east avalanches have been frequent, and the snow has been piled up in many places changed the whole face of a once familiar mountain side.

Avalanches, indeed, have worked such dire disaster in the Alpine districts as during the past spring. The loss of life from these disasters has been far above all previous records.

On the west, the Rhone glaciers have been buried alive, while several entire hands have been broken in the middle of the night by the alarm of an approaching avalanche.

On the north, the glaciers have been buried alive, while several entire hands have been broken in the middle of the night by the alarm of an approaching avalanche.

On the south, the glaciers have been buried alive, while several entire hands have been broken in the middle of the night by the alarm of an approaching avalanche.

On the east, the glaciers have been buried alive, while several entire hands have been broken in the middle of the night by the alarm of an approaching avalanche.

RAILWAY AND AERIAL RAILWAY PROVISIONAL RULE

Important Feature Added to Bill to Amend the Federal Railway Act

Ottawa, June 25.—(Special.)—Hon. Charles A. Fitzpatrick has added an important feature to his bill to amend the railway act. This is a provision to the effect that electric railways and steam railways operating under provincial charters shall be subject to the authority of the provinces in the matter of their operation.

The clause has been added in obedience to the influence of the Sunday observance people, for whom the amendment is regarded as a distinct triumph.

The railway commission were in session on Saturday from 10 o'clock until two, when they adjourned. R. C. Steele of the board of trade voiced a complaint as to the overcharge on clover and grain seeds in and out of Toronto as compared with other points.

The application of the G. T. R. to run a switch into the Seagram distillery at Waterloo was objected to by the Preston and Berlin Electric Railway. Chairman Blair dismissed the application, saying that no railway company was justified in entering on a public highway until it had complied with the law.

The application of the C. P. R. for a siding to cross Keele-street was strenuously opposed by the council of Toronto. The council of Toronto is of the opinion that the application was based on the necessity for another switch into the Seagram distillery.

Major Chisholm said the great traffic of the Seagram distillery has been a major portion of the town had always been friendly to the C. P. R., but the crossing would be a great improvement to the district.

Superintendent Timmerman said his application had only a local application, while the traffic at the point was important to the whole country. There was an immediate traffic at the point, and it was necessary to have a portion of this to the north of Toronto.

The C. P. R. was glad to see the application of the G. T. R. for a switch, as the stock yards could never amount to much with but one road in connection with the G. T. R. trunk line.

WOMEN'S HIGH COURT

Miss Hofer, Millionaire Swiss, May Be Wife of Elijah's 'Un-kissed' Son.

New York, June 25.—Elijah Hill, who appeared on the passenger list of the Lucania as John Alexander Dowie, the Elkhart, Ind., man, and her un-kissed son, A. J. Gladstone Dowie, a bodyguard arrived in this city yesterday from England, accompanied by a "million dollar convert." The convert's name is Miss Ruth Hofer, a beautiful Swiss. She is a blonde and in appearance anything but a Zionist.

His Hofer was kept to the fore by "Elijah," who, when he was asked how he had ever induced her to adopt his beliefs, said that converts were worth $1,000,000, that man is claimed the young woman possesses.

There was a report that Miss Hofer was the wife of the un-kissed son. On the passenger list appears the name "Mrs. Gladstone Dowie." The ship's people say no "Mrs. Gladstone Dowie" appears on the board of trade voyage away across the ocean, and her absence was commented upon. No one in the party is known to Miss Hofer as "Mrs. Gladstone Dowie" was the book made at Liverpool, and the passenger list at Liverpool, and the un-kissed son had been arranged to take place on the other side, but that it was not to be.

When the un-kissed son was asked whether he was married he became red in the face and in the manner of his side and shouted: "Mind your own business. Go and ask the ship's people." "Who is Mrs. Gladstone Dowie?" "Go away, go away."

It is true, isn't it, that you and Miss Hofer were to have been married in England if you had not been forced to flee?

The un-kissed son and Miss Hofer had been left on the pier by his parents. Elijah Hill had failed to make the customary declaration of intent, and he would do it for him. He declared nine trunks, eight bags, and two parcels and a trunk of wearing apparel.

"If ever I see you again," he said, "I will drop you down the gang plank like a stone." "If ever I see you again," he said, "I will drop you down the gang plank like a stone."

The players turned and saw Dowie. When he felt all eyes were toward him such a glare of anger as to make the lost to God, you stinkpots! Stop playing cards this instant; throw those vile cards away from you. I warn you now, before it is too late.

Passengers Make Complaint. A committee of passengers waited on the Lucania at Liverpool, and the Lucania and asked if they were to be tolerated and Dowie was put to bed for the night with a sleeping pill. The Lucania sailed from Liverpool on Saturday night, and the un-kissed son and Miss Hofer were to do a thing he suggested it would be best for him to do it.

What are you going to do about your devotion? Are you going to pay up on July 12?

Dowie threw up his little arms and waved them in the air. "Here you are to crucify me again," he yelled. "You stinkpots, stinkpots!"

At this moment Dowie spied some friendly faces on the pier. He jumped up and ran to them. "Hello, boys," he said, "and about thirty-five voices shouted back greetings.

PASTORS SAID FAREWELL

Agnes and Elm-street Methodist Churches to Have New Leaders.

Rev. Geo. W. Dewey of Agnes-street Methodist Church preached his farewell sermon, preparatory to leaving for Devonport, N. S. W., on Sunday night. He took as his text, John 16: 20, "Hereafter I will not talk much with you."

He expressed his sorrow at going away from a congregation where he has been treated with so much kindness. The members of the church had become convinced that his departure was for the best, and they expressed their sympathy for him in his church work and more particularly in his work of salvation.

At the close of his sermon Mr. Dewey delivered a prayer, and then he sang a hymn. He then said that he would not talk much with you, but that he would be with you in spirit.

ANOTHER DISASTER FOR RUSSIA. If the appearance of the Russian fleet outside the harbor of Port Arthur was the prelude to a desperate struggle for the open sea, the natural inference is that it was prompted by the imminence of the fall of the fortress under whose guns it has hitherto found protection.

BOYS AS DETECTIVES. Some of the judges have been condemning severely the practice of sending little boys to buy cigars in order to obtain information as to the whereabouts of a boy to smoke cigars. It is worse for a boy to practice deception and tempt a man to commit an offence against the law.

NOT A RACE QUESTION. An English correspondent of The World sends an extract from a London journal, probably The Saturday Review, declaring that the dismissal of Lord Dundonald is sure to arouse racial feelings.

COMMERCIAL TRAVELERS' ASSOCIATION. Editor World: As the recognized organ of the traveling agents of Canada perhaps you will be good enough to allow the writer a space in your columns, calling the attention of the members of the Commercial Travelers' Life Insurance Association to the proposed alterations in its constitution by Messrs. THE STRENUOUS LANGUAGE. Gov. Black's speech at the nomination of Roosevelt was a fine specimen of speech-making in any language. He said, "sears with high and rapid wind, and whoever brings it down must shoot with accuracy and speed. Only the man with steady eye and nerve and the courage to pull the trigger brings the largest opportunity to the ground. He does not always listen while all the eyes speak, but every day at night he beholds some record which, if not complete, has been at least pursued with conscience and intrepid resolution. He is no slender flower swaying in the wind, but that heroic fibre which is best hurtured by the mountains and the snow." The rapid transformation of President Roosevelt from a dead shot with a rifle to a mountain flower need not surprise anybody, for the strenuous life is full of lightning changes. The president is a profound student of history and likewise the greatest maker of history in the world, the mikado not barred. "With the instincts of the scholar's pursuits by those superlatives which fit him to the last degree for those great world currents now rushing past with larger volume and more portentous aspect than for many years before. The fate of nations is still undecided by their wars. You may talk of orderly tribunals and learned referees; you may sing in your schools the gentle praises of the quiet life; you may strike from your books the last note of every martial anthem, and yet out in the smoke and thunder will always be the tramp of horses and the silent, rigid, upturned face.

"AN ECHO OF PASSION." The contest for the election of a bishop of Nova Scotia recalls in some ways the memorable battle fought in Toronto in 1897, resulting in the election of Bishop Sweetman. But the contrast is perhaps more striking than the resemblance. In those days the quarrel between high and low church was bitter, and divided congregations as well as synods, while Trinity and Wycliffe stood out as the educational representatives of the two "schools of thought," as they were called. The federation of Trinity with the university with which Wycliffe is affiliated is one of the evidences of the healing of the breach. The Rev. Street Macklem and the Rev. H. J. Cody, who are now leading in the Nova Scotia contest, are regarded as admirably typifying the old division, but both are highly esteemed by churchmen of all shades of thought. It is remarkable how some formidable difficulties disappear when you cease to talk about them.

OWEN SOUND ADVERTISER: Andrew Carnegie, the Scotch-American philanthropist, has offered to donate $17,500 for a free library building. Mr. Carnegie has been in the library business for some years now and has worked out a number of successful schemes. An ex-member of the board of aldermen from Burlington, Vt., is in town this week. Burlington had $80,000 worth of books and had used the old court-house for a library. It served that purpose remarkably well and the cost of maintenance was $2,400 a year. One day the suggestion was made that Mr. Carnegie be asked to build a new library. The multi-millionaire, like Barkley, the politician, was "willing," but he stipulated that Burlington should spend 10 per cent. of its city budget on the purchase and maintenance. Burlington accepted, got the library and now realize that they are face to face, forever and forever, if the city exists they are obliged to lay out this large sum of money. But here is the interesting part of it. Burlington would have to pay for the building for fifty thousand dollars and with borrowing powers at 3 1/2 per cent. had had to pay for the building and the cost of maintenance for the next ten years. The building would have cost $25,000. Deducting rentals and other outlays the $50,000 would have paid everything. At the end of 20 years Burlington would have a $50,000 library and the maintenance would have been paid over by Mr. Carnegie is generous, but asks too much.

ONE LONDON VIEW. How the British Capital Sizes Up Dundonald Situation. London, June 15.—There is widespread interest here in the dispute between Lord Dundonald and the Canadian government. All the newspapers are commenting upon it, and it is the subject of discussion among military men, in the clubs, and, in fact, wherever men meet. There is none who does not admit that Lord Dundonald's bluntness of exposure was indiscreet. It is thought he should have made his views in a quieter way, and also have seen that the least of the opposition in the Canadian house of commons was made acquainted with the facts, so that the policy-makers have had the much-needed exposure which he took upon himself to make in a less judicious manner.

FOR PUBLIC OWNERSHIP. Galt Report: Things in the field of public utilities are shaping the right way. Mr. Borden's declaration in favor of public ownership of the greatest of all national properties has received the backs of politicians and civic rulers. This convention was merely taking the lead hereabouts, as the conservative voters regarded the plan as rather radical. But a lot of education on the public utility question has been obtained by the public in the past few weeks. The Conservative party has been swung into line behind the movement, while the people generally look on with interest at the trend of things. What does Waterloo County Council think? The following resolutions were passed at its meeting this week shows how it stands:

HELEN KELLER BREAKS DOWN. Boston, June 26.—Miss Helen Keller, the gifted deaf dumb and blind student at Radcliffe College, has broken down and is reported to be on the verge of a nervous prostration. The management of the band has been fortunate enough to engage A. C. Greig of Ingersoll to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. McCarty.

TWO KILLED BY LIGHTNING. Boston, June 25.—An electrical storm which has seldom been equaled in intensity passed over Eastern and Central Massachusetts last night, and several buildings were struck by lightning. Charles W. Canney of Ipswich was instantly killed by a bolt of lightning. A C. Greig of Ingersoll and his wife and the four-year-old daughter of W. K. Barrows was struck and instantly killed.

SAVING A LIFE. London, June 26.—The Salvation Army conducted a very successful demonstration in Albert Hall, where Gen. Booth received the greetings of delegates from the various nations. The most interesting feature of the evening was the presentation of a new and beautiful medley of costumes with Kentucky mountaineers, Mexican harem girls, and singers and men and women dressed in American fashions.

FIRE RECORD. Bad Fire at Orland. Brighton, June 25.—A fire believed to be of incendiary origin occurred about 12 o'clock last night at Orland, eight miles north from here, destroying Pearson's general store and a residence. Tockbery's agricultural implement stock, Wm. Wade's warehouse, and a number of outbuildings.

Miss Jennie Birrell Becomes Unconscious Ten Minutes After Taking It and Dies. Hamilton, June 25.—(Special.)—Miss Jennie Birrell, second daughter of A. D. Birrell, chairman of the fire and water committee, took a headache powder this afternoon about 3 o'clock and went to bed. Her mother visited her room about ten minutes afterwards and found her unconscious. She summoned the neighbors and four or five doctors, but it was all in vain: Miss Birrell died in about 30 minutes without regaining consciousness. Coroner Griffin was called and decided that an inquest was not necessary.

DISAPPOINTED DR. EATON. Cleveland, Ohio, June 26.—John D. Rockefeller, the Standard Oil man, who is leaving for Europe, has been disappointed in his plans to visit the city of Cleveland. He had intended to visit the city on Thursday and missed the annual picnic of the Euclid-avenue Baptist Sunday School, which was held at Euclid Park, Vermilion, Mr. Rockefeller is superintendent of the Sunday School and has always attended the picnic. He promised the pastor, Dr. Charles A. Eaton, that he would be at the Union Depot to catch the special train for Vermilion. The special train left at 10:15 minutes, but Rockefeller did not show up and it finally left without him. Mr. Rockefeller explained that he had overstepped his bounds.

CLEANLINESS IS A FAD. Great Precaution Taken in Brewing of "East Kent" Ale and Stout. Cleanliness is carried to extremes by the brewers of "East Kent" ale and stout. But the results simply justify the name. Every bottle is bright and sparkling. There is not a particle of sediment and more wholesome than any other beverage on the market. Physicians freely recommend "East Kent." They know that both the ale and stout are brewed in the most perfect manner. There are comparative few households in Toronto that do not have a bottle of "East Kent" on the shelves. The sole agent is T. H. George, 709 Yonge-street.

FRUIT CROP LIGHT. H. B. Cowan, provincial superintendent of horticultural societies, is compiling a report showing that the crop of agriculture, the plum crop will be very light and in some sections the trees have been so badly injured by frosts that they are being taken out. Apples promise to be a good crop, although the tender varieties have suffered severely by the frosts. Peaches will be a very light crop. In Essex, Ontario, the fruit crop is reported to be practically no yield at all, while in Welland and Lincoln Counties the crop will be very much reduced.

THE LARGEST SANITARIUM IN THE WORLD IS THE one situated at Batavia, Michigan. The buildings are covering several acres of ground. Men and women with overtaxed brains and shattered nerves repair from all parts of the world to this wonderful institution. Scores leave daily to return to their vocations whole in mind and body. Electricity, water, light, and in fact, all of nature's curative agencies are by means of the most modern appliances utilized to help build up broken down constitutions and made to minister to human comfort. A special attention is given to diet, food, called Life Chips, is served daily on account of its strengthening qualities and because it is very easy to digest. This food proved itself so potent as a cefor chronic indigestion and became so popular as a substitute for porridge that it has been placed for sale with the grocers of United States and Canada, and is now to be had in almost every grocery store—the price to the consumer being 10c a package. So that the purchase of Life Chips is like bringing a little of the sanitarium into one's home. The medical men in charge of the institution have little faith in the use of drugs.

PLAYED MILKMAID. Houston, Texas, June 26.—Miss Fena Rutherford, who has been summoned at Seabrook on the Bay with friends, assumed the role of milkmaid this morning and attempted to milk the cow. The beast, however, was enraged at her efforts and attacked her. She was tossed several feet in the air, and when she fell she was struck another sharp blow, but was beaten off by a farm hand. The young woman was taken to the hospital in a critical condition.

BEECHAM'S PILLS cure disease by removing the cause of it. In the treatment of those disorders which involve any failure of the nervous force, BEECHAM'S PILLS have, during nearly sixty years, built up AN UNASSAILABLE REPUTATION. Nothing renews the power of the digestive organs like BEECHAM'S PILLS. They cleanse the Blood of long-standing impurities, brace up the Nervous System to a high point of vigor, and effectually chase away every symptom of weariness and depression.

A rear-end trolley collision at King and Church-streets at 9:30 last night scared several passengers and gave the fire department a run. Parliament car No. 41 failed to respond when Motor-man Roth, White, pulled the brakes and crashed into a car ahead. The shock disturbed the electrical apparatus in the controller box and caused a fire.

NO CURE, NO PAY. I want to talk to men who have pains and aches, who feel run down physically, who realize that the old "fire" and energy which was so evident in youth is absent now; men who can't stand the amount of exertion they could years ago. I want you—if that means you—to come to me, and if I say that I can cure you I don't ask you to pay me until I DO so. That is fair, surely. You take no chances, as I know what I can do and I'll run the risk.

First Dress Parade by 91st Highlanders—City Foresters Attend Service.

Hamilton, June 26.—Charlie Adams, who lives at 211 North Bay-street, was taken to the City Hospital Saturday evening with thirteen cuts. Among them were several severe scalp wounds.

Ross Wallace, Jackson-street, is accused of doing the cutting. He was placed in jail for a few days last week, and when he got home he alleged Adams in the house, so it is alleged.

Another case of diphtheria has broken out in the affected district at the corner of West-avenue and King-street.

The coroner's jury met at Green Cross, Monday night and viewed the remains of Wilson Roy, the four-year-old son of Wilson Roy, Kinross-avenue.

The 91st Highlanders wore their full special dress uniforms for the first time when they attended the funeral of St. Paul's Church, James-street, from the drill hall to the church.

The city lodges celebrated the thirty-third anniversary of the Independent Order of Foresters this afternoon by attending a special service in the drill hall.

CONGREGATIONALISTS BUSY CLEARING CHURCH DEBTS

Northern Will Raise $10,000 Itself and Donate $1000 to General Fund.

A special effort is being made by the Congregational Churches in Canada to pay off the debts upon their places of worship. The church in England is taking a prominent part, its authorities having offered to contribute ten per cent. on any amount raised by the church in Canada.

Rev. W. T. Gunn of Embro is chairman of the committee and will be in town to-day, when a meeting will be held. It is expected that by the end of 1905 the churches in Canada will be financially clear.

The Western Church has a debt of $20,000, which $3000 has been subscribed and $2000 paid in, in addition to $1000 received from G. B. Burland of Montreal. A similar sum is expected to be subscribed here.

The Northern Church, of which Rev. T. B. Hyde is pastor, proposes to raise the entire amount of its debt of $10,000 among its own members. This has been done in the past.
