FRENCH MAKE FURTHER PROGRESS NORTH OF THE AISNE
BRITISH ADVANCE SOUTH OF BAPAUME AND NEAR ARRAS
FURTHER ADVANCES AGAINST THE TURKS IN TWO PLACES

BRITISH TAKE GROUND CLOSE TO TWO TOWNS
Additional Gains Made on Road Between Arras and St. Quentin.

London, April 22.—The British troops fighting in France have made additional gains between Arras and St. Quentin and also southeast of Loos, in the latter district taking prisoners, according to the official communication issued tonight. The communication says: "Our troops made further progress west of the Havrincourt Wood and five miles to the south of the village of Tramecourt. The gains were made by a sharp fighting which occurred throughout the day southeast of Loos, and captured several prisoners. "There was considerable activity in the air yesterday, and much fighting, in which four German machines were brought down and six Arlons down out of control. In addition, a hostile machine was brought down by our anti-aircraft guns. Four of our aircraft were shot down by German machine-guns. "Counter-attack Reported. "A German counter-attack against the British holding the village of Gonnelieu, was repulsed, and many German dead were left in front of the British positions, according to the official report on Saturday night. Further advances are recorded west of Gonnelieu, and southwest of Loos. "The text of the statement reads: "Today the enemy made an unsuccessful attempt to recover the village of Gonnelieu, captured last night. His attacking troops, caught by our artillery fire, were driven back, leaving many dead in front of our position. "We gained ground during the day by local fighting along the north bank of the Scarpe, eastward of Fampoux and advanced our lines in the north-west of Lens. In this latter area two other German counter-attacks were successfully beaten off. "During the night a small party of the enemy raided one of our crater posts south of Ypres, a few of our men are missing. "Improved weather enabled our airplanes to carry out useful work yesterday. One hostile machine was brought down by our machines have not returned."

FAMILY QUARREL OVER WAR ENDS THREE LIVES

Funkers, N. Y., April 22.—After a quarrel about the war with his mother-in-law, a native of Germany, and his wife, the Rev. Robert F. Berry, pastor of the Presbyterian church in East Yonkers, early today shot and killed both women, wounded his sister-in-law and then committed suicide. He left a note containing only two words— "Peace, Russians."

WAR SUMMARY
THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

ALTHOUGH fought in what is described as the lull before battle, the many actions of the past several days on the British front in France have had a considerable influence already on the situation. By capturing Gonnelieu village and hanging on there yesterday against counter-attacks and by advancing to the outskirts of Tramecourt village, the British have already driven a salient or spearhead into the Hindenburg line as a jumping-off place for a future attack to turn the enemy in St. Quentin and Cambrai. The front of this salient passes thru or by the Villages of Havrincourt, Tramecourt, Villers-Guislain and Epehy, about ten miles or so east of Bapaume and Peronne. Northwest of this salient, before Arras, the British have also just improved their positions near the German line between Lens and Cambrai, where it joins the Von Hindenburg line. They did this by advancing down the Scarpe River a little distance east of Fampoux village. "The British operations about Lens and Loos have also considerable significance and importance, for by improving their positions northwest of Lens and also southwest of Loos, the British are getting in shape for an attack against the section of the original German line held hanging in the air by the success of the Canadians at Vimy ridge. By driving the enemy eastward on the Douai plain, the British caused his new lines to form a sharp angle opposite Loos. An attack against this angle would give equally important results to an attack on the front between Lens and Cambrai. "In the past two days the French have chiefly concentrated the efforts of the infantry in pushing forward on the plateau north of the Aisne and north of Sancy and Jouy Villages. They report the making of considerable progress in this area. In the region of the Hurtebise farm, where the French have reached and cut the important road of Chemin des Dames, violent fighting with hand grenades is proceeding. The French have thrust

AUSTRIANS MAKE RAID ON ITALIAN POSITION
Landsrum Detachments Capture Seventy-Six Prisoners and Machine Guns.

London, April 22.—An official statement issued from an Austrian headquarters last night says: "On the Italian front, detachments penetrated Italian positions in the Drezzen region and captured an officer, 75 men and two machine guns. "On the eastern front there have been lively artillery and mine throwing engagements at numerous places."

VIOLENT GUNFIRING ON PARTS OF ARRAS FRONT
Germans Report Infantry Fighting as Proceeding Near Loos.

Berlin, via London, April 22.—The German official communication issued this evening says: "There have been violent artillery duels on some parts of the Arras front. Infantry fighting is proceeding near Loos. "In Champagne, comparative quiet prevails. Only northeast of Soissons has there been lively fighting."

RUSSIANS REPEL Foe IN SEVERAL ATTACKS
Germans Drive Back Ally's Advanced Outposts on Rumanian Front.

Petrograd, via London, April 22.—The official statement issued from the Russian headquarters Sunday reads: "On the western (Russian) front in the direction of Vladimir-Volynsk in the region of Czornov, an enemy company supported by artillery took the offensive and was repulsed. In the region of Zbornov, the enemy endeavored to advance on our trenches, but we checked all his efforts with our fire. "South of Brzesany, the enemy blew a mine and an explosion occurred in front of the Russian lines. In the region there were the usual firing and reconnaissances. "On the Rumanian front, in the direction of Keerzi and Vasankol, the enemy drove back our advanced outposts."

FIGHT MANY BATTLES ON FRONT OF AISNE
Germans Report Extremely Violent Artillery Duel With British.

Berlin, April 22, via London.—On the Aisne-Champagne battlefield, says the official statement issued today by the German war department, there were battles last night near Brayes and Burtilles farms, on the Rhemes-Nous plateau road north of Proennes and on the western bank of the River Sappes, all of which ended with heavy French losses. On the British front, in the Arras-Lens region, the statement says, the artillery duel "increased to the most extreme violence." "German aviators shot down near Nisport an enemy aeroplane, which fell blazing into the sea."

FRENCH FORCES PUSH FORWARD NORTH OF JOUY
Enemy Violently Bombards Rheims, Especially Cathedral Quarter.

Paris, April 22.—The official communication issued by the war office tonight reads: "Between the Somme and the Oise very active artillery fighting took place during the course of the day south of St. Quentin and north of Urvillers. Between Soissons and Rheims the artillery actions were intermittent in various sectors. Enemy violence bombarded Rheims, especially in the quarter in which the cathedral is located. "In Champagne the day was marked by a series of enemy attacks on the heights which we hold in the Massif of Moronvilliers. A violent attack against Mont-Haut was entirely beaten after a spirited engagement. Our machine gun fire and counter-attacks inflicted sanguinary losses on the enemy. "Last night our aviation reported about 5 o'clock this afternoon northwest of Mont-Haut was caught by our fire and dispersed. Several German planes were brought down. Another attempt against a height further to the east was likewise repulsed. "On April 21 three German aeroplanes were shot down near St. Quentin. "Belgian communication: 'Artillery actions occurred, particularly near St. Quentin, where there was also, violently bombarded by the enemy. "Eastern theatre: East of the Cerna a Bulgarian reconnaissance was repulsed. Artillery actions occurred in the Italian sector at Tarvena Stone and between the lakes."

TURKEY HAS BROKEN OFF ALL RELATIONS WITH U.S.
Holland, Spain and Sweden Will Protect Interests of the Allied Powers at Constantinople.

London, April 22.—The Turkish Government on Friday evening officially informed the American Embassy that diplomatic relations with the United States had been broken off, according to a Berlin despatch forwarded by Reuters' correspondent at Amsterdam. "An Amsterdam despatch says: 'A Constantinople telegram sent via Berlin states that owing to the severance of diplomatic relations between Turkey and the United States, which heretofore had protected enemy nations, Holland, Spain and Sweden will protect American and Serbian interests, while Spain will look after Italian, Rumanian and Montenegrin interests, and Sweden will protect American and Serbian nationals."

BERLIN'S LATEST PRETEXT EXPOSED.

London, April 22.—A German wireless message on April 20, says a statement given out by the British and Belgian official press bureau, "accuses the French and British Governments of employing vessels for attacks on submarines under the use of distinctive markings carried on the Belgian relief ships. The allegation is entirely untrue, and evidently is intended as a pretext for torpedoing Belgian relief ships at sight and thus further reducing the mercantile tonnage of the world."

BRITISH ARTILLERY OVERWHELMS Foe
Four Million Rounds of Ammunition Fired Into the German Ranks.

London, April 22.—The military situation at the present moment is distinctly encouraging to the allies, declared Earl Curzon, member of the war council, in an address at Derby Saturday. "The government leader in the house of lords said that he did not wish his hearers to go away with the idea that the end had come just yet, but there was no doubt that the operations during the past fortnight on French soil constituted a very considerable military victory. "These operations, he said, had shown wonderful superiority of British artillery which had fired 4,000,000 rounds of ammunition into the ranks of the Germans. Earl Curzon said that in his opinion the military power of Germany was not sufficiently broken to induce her to accept any terms which the allies might consider desirable. "Referring to the operations in the east, Earl Curzon said: 'Keep your eyes on Mesopotamia.'"

BRITISH STEAMER IS SUNK IN COLLISION
Dunley Chine Meets Disaster Off Sandy Hook, But No Lives Are Lost.

New York, April 22.—The British steamship Dunley Chine, bound in ballast from a Canadian to an American port, was sunk in collision about 12:30 o'clock this morning by one of the coast-guard vessels in order to prevent the ship from striking the shore of Sandy Hook. The Dunley Chine, which was carrying a cargo of coal, was struck by the Harlem, her bows bent and making water, returned to port today with the captain and all the 28 men of the crew of the Dunley Chine. "The Harlem, which sailed yesterday afternoon, was heavily loaded. She struck the Dunley Chine amidships, cutting her almost in two. The Harlem was so badly damaged that she was forced to lighten her cargo and go into drydock for repairs."

TWO HOSPITAL SHIPS SUNK
GERMANS LOST WITH BRITISH

Donegal and Lanfranc, Latter With Many German Wounded Aboard, Sunk Without Warning and Seventy-Five Lives Are Lost—Prussians Show Cowardice While Britons Face Death Heroically. LONDON, April 22.—The British hospital ships Donegal and Lanfranc, with many wounded aboard, were torpedoed without warning. They were sunk on April 17. Of those on board the Donegal, 29 wounded men and 12 of the crew are missing. The Lanfranc carried 65 German wounded as well as British. Of those aboard 18 British and 16 Germans are believed to have perished. The total loss of life is thus estimated at 75, of whom 69 were British and 16 Germans. "The story of the sinking of the hospital ship Lanfranc will rank with the undying histories of the Birkenhead and Tyndareus, according to a British officer. The British soldiers stood at attention while the ship was slowly sinking beneath them. Their conduct was in marked contrast to that of the Prussian guardsmen aboard, who, in the moment of disaster, rushed for lifeboats. "The Lanfranc was attacked by a submarine about 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening," said the officer. "The crash shook the liner violently, the explosion first to the bow. Meanwhile, the ship was being shelled from all directions. Within a few minutes the engines stopped and the vessel seemed to be sinking rapidly. But to our surprise she steadied herself and after a while remained motionless. We had aboard 65 British and many British wounded, including some serious cases. "The moment the torpedo struck the Prussians made a mad dash for the lifeboats. When they were ordered to stand their guns, many showed cowardice by dropping on their knees and imploring pity. "British Soldiers' Heroism. "The stretcher cases were lowered first to the boats. Meanwhile, the greater cases were being looked after. The crew and staff remained at their posts until the last man was taken off. Some donned their garb and threw them to those in the lifeboats. They stayed on the ship with each other to reach another boat containing some gravely wounded. "I shall never forget the behavior of our own men. They tried to stand at attention, crippled as they were, while the greater cases were being looked after. The crew and staff remained at their posts until the last man was taken off. Some donned their garb and threw them to those in the lifeboats. They stayed on the ship with each other to reach another boat containing some gravely wounded. "The channel of the Eschquet, Andrew Bonar Law announced on April 19 in the house of commons that there had recently been further losses of British hospital ships, which would be published soon. Today the secretary of the admiralty issued the following statement: "On the evening of April 17 the steamships Donegal and Lanfranc, while transporting wounded to British ports, were torpedoed without warning. The Donegal carried slightly wounded cases as well as 16 of the crew, all of whom are presumed to have been drowned. "The Lanfranc, in addition to 24 wounded British officers and men, carried 167 wounded German prisoners, a medical personnel of 52 and a crew of 123. Of these the following are missing: 18 British officers, 11 other British wounded, one Royal Marine, one member of the crew, five wounded German officers and 10 wounded Germans of other ranks. "One hundred and fifty-two wounded German prisoners were rescued by British patrol vessels at the imminent risk of being themselves torpedoed. "Owing to the German practice of sinking hospital ships at sight and to the fact that such vessels render themselves more conspicuous targets for German submarines, it has become no longer possible to distinguish our hospital ships in civilized warfare. One of these two ships therefore, carrying wounded, was not in any way outwardly distinguished as a hospital ship. The distinctive markings of the other had not yet been removed. Both were provided with an escort for protection. "The illegal and inhuman submarine warfare which Germany has waged since time immemorial against some of our ships flying the Red Cross flag and otherwise acting in complete conformity with the requirements of the Hague convention. This cumulative savagery has brought the world face to face with a situation that is without parallel in the history of mankind. The British Government in coming to the aid of these ships, is not only acting in accordance with the most basic of international law, but is also acting in accordance with the most basic of human rights. "The British Government in coming to the aid of these ships, is not only acting in accordance with the most basic of international law, but is also acting in accordance with the most basic of human rights. "The British Government in coming to the aid of these ships, is not only acting in accordance with the most basic of international law, but is also acting in accordance with the most basic of human rights."

War Conference Records View on Motion of Sir Robert Borden.

Canadian Associated Press Cable. London, April 22.—The war conference, on motion of Premier Borden, recorded by Premier Massey of New Zealand, recorded the view that the resolution of the imperial conference, passed April 1907, should be modified to permit India being fully represented at all future imperial conferences, and that the necessary steps be taken to secure the assent of the respective governments in order that the next imperial conference may be summoned and constituted accordingly. It was further explained that the constitution of the imperial conference was fixed by the conference itself and can only be altered by the consent of all governments concerned. The present conference being summoned exceptionally and for a special purpose did not feel competent to alter the constitution of ordinary conferences.

Head of British Commission Gives Message on Arrival at Halifax.

Washington, April 22.—Arthur J. Balfour, Great Britain's foreign secretary, and the British high commissioner, sent to confer with American officials, arrived safely at 3 o'clock this afternoon. They were welcomed at the union station by Secretary Lansing and the British ambassador. "By a Staff Reporter. Halifax, April 22.—Right Hon. Arthur J. Balfour issued a message to the Canadian people and he expressed the hope that Canada would send a representative to the conference at Washington. Balfour left on Saturday so that he would arrive at the American capital at the same time as the British foreign secretary. Mr. Balfour's message is as follows: "I am glad that owing to the changes of war a diplomatic mission from Great Britain to the United States should first set foot upon American soil in Canada, and that it should fall to me, a Scot by birth, as so many thousands of your fellow citizens, to bear witness to the heroism and the patient sacrifice of your sons and your daughters. TO PAY FOR ATTACKS UPON HOSPITAL SHIPS
German Wounded Being Carried With British, Admiralty Announces.

London, April 22.—The British admiralty announces that if Germany persists in authorizing submarines to attack British hospital ships the lives of German wounded must pay the penalty. Berlin has been notified that a number of ships have been removed from the hospital list, their distinctive marks removed, as in the case of the Lanfranc, and that German and British wounded will be carried together on them. "This expedient has been resorted to because of the enemy's flagrant disregard of markings on such ships, and because such markings render the ships more readily seen by submarine commanders. "Referring to the operations in the east, Earl Curzon said: 'Keep your eyes on Mesopotamia.'"

EDWARD H. ROBINS BACK IN TORONTO

Popular Actor Has Been Training With New York Giants.

BENEFIT FOR HEROES

Stock Players Anxious to Do Something for Returned Soldiers.

Edward H. Robins, accompanied by the members of the Robins Players Company, which begins its third summer season of stock at the Royal Alexandra Theatre commencing next Monday evening, arrived in Toronto yesterday and is registered at the King Edward Hotel. The star of the New York actor has just returned from a six weeks' jaunt with the New York Giants on their training trip through Texas and Florida.

Am glad to get back here particularly at this time, because of the close affiliation of Canada and the United States. Nothing has pleased me so much as when President Wilson severed diplomatic relations with the Kaiser and when was declared on Germany. I was in Canada when the war began and I can remember seeing the flower of Toronto leave for across the seas to do their bit in the battle for right against the arrogance of the central powers.

I saw this great country prepare for the successful prosecution of the war. I have watched the Canadian military authorities growing more and more efficient. In New York and throughout the States they are doing what Canada did in this same way with the same purpose and determination, and with the added advantage of possessing the information for proper handling of the human problem gained thru Canada's experience.

Last week in New York City I marched in the "Wake up, America" parade, which took place on the 10th of a given point. In that parade composed of all classes of men and women I saw the Stars and Stripes side by side with the flag of Canada, and enormous emblems were carried by Canadians in the section comprising the British Relief Association. This parade has hurried me to Canada and I never saw so many flags in my life, even the Chinese flag being carried by a Chinese parade, which took place on the 10th of a given point. In that parade composed of all classes of men and women I saw the Stars and Stripes side by side with the flag of Canada, and enormous emblems were carried by Canadians in the section comprising the British Relief Association.

WAR SUMMARY THE DAYS' EVENTS REVIEWED

their way forward a considerable distance. Owing to the importance of this road, which will permit them to debouch on the Craonne Plateau, they are meeting with rather stiff resistance from the Germans. Another sector where the fight is proceeding with great fury is on the Meuse in the Moronvillers. The French here have succeeded in capturing some of the heights, holding the first to fall, and their further advance threatens to cut off the German armies before Verdun from the German armies before Rheims.

A railway which runs laterally a short distance behind this front of the Champagne front in danger of falling into French hands and of causing the big inconvenience to the enemy, even to the eventual forcing of a retreat to preserve the liaison of his forces in this region. Under this peril the Germans have been compelled to accept battle with the French, and the French artillery fire is sweeping them from the earth.

The significant feature of the Franco-British operations of the past two weeks has been the capture of 330 guns with the 33,000 prisoners; that is, the high proportion of guns to prisoners taken. It figures out at one gun per 100 prisoners, or about twice the ratio of armament. An enemy division comprises about 100 guns when at full strength, or one man per 200 men. The allied capture of the guns, therefore, has made correspondingly larger captures of armament than of personnel. As guns stand some distance back from the front, their abandonment in such large number by the enemy proves the extremely rapid manner of the allies' advance, so that it did not give time for the removal of the bulk of the enemy's pieces to safety and, incidentally, it also provokes the feeble resistance of the enemy to the assaults as compared with previous fighting.

Stewart Lyon telegraphs from the Canadian front that the German shells and high explosives have shown great deterioration in quality, and that their heavy gas bombs, the noise as before, do not give the same efficient results as they formerly gave. Tens of thousands of men are busily engaged behind the British front in the moving forward of the big guns and the bringing up of ammunition for the next big action.

In their operations in France during the past two weeks the British fired four million shells, according to Lord Curzon. In a speech he said that the operations of the past 14 days constituted a considerable military victory. He advised his audience to watch Mesopotamia. Evidently highly important and interesting developments are impending in that theatre of the war.

Latest news from Mesopotamia shows that General Sir Stanley Maude is attacking the Turks at the Istabulat position on the right bank of the Tigris River. The force he previously destroyed occupied the left bank of this river on the line of the Shatt-el-Ahmed. The British captured and consolidated part of the front line of the Istabulat position and they also advanced a mile against the flank of this position. They took 230 prisoners. In this region a battle is proceeding.

The British army in Palestine has established contact with the Turkish main line before Gaza and a battle for the possession of this point is imminent if it has not already been joined. This Turkish position extends from the sea coast near Sheikh Ahmed, thru Alimantar, to the east of the town, and thence southeasterly to Ahabariya. In last Thursday's fighting, which established contact with this line, the British made about 200 prisoners.

It was a great deal more than blind luck which delivered two and probably three German torpedo boat destroyers over to destruction on Friday night from two British patrol boats. The German boats, in one of those rapid dashes towards the English coast for which the German navy makes up for its general hiding behind Heligoland and in the Kiel Canal, had reached cannon range of the coast near Dover when, after throwing a few shells into an open field, their commanders had a brilliant idea. That was to attack some shipping apparently in harbor. The two British patrol boats had come up by this time and they waded into the German vessels. These, instead of waiting to fight, turned tail and made for Zebrugge, but the patrol boats refused to let go until they had destroyed two and probably three of the enemy's boats, taking more than 100 prisoners to prove their victory. The enemy, seeing that the British have the prisoners, admits the loss of two boats.

To the sport-loving readers of your paper it might be of interest to speak of my training trip with the New York Giants. As the guest of Manager McGraw, that was there in the greatest baseball general in the game, past or present, and I dare say future, I spent six and a half weeks in Texas at Marlin Springs. Reduced eighteen pounds and discovered muscles I never knew existed. Just try strenuous exercise for a couple of days and discover in how many places you can ache at once. And what a fine bunch of men—all real fellows. Played ball with them every day. Saw the regrettable Cobb and Herzog incident, in which the Georgian pulled the dirtiest trick ever known in baseball. McGraw had a good wish for the success of the Toronto team and paid a high compliment to LaJoie. I would like to make a little prophecy as to the outcome of the big league games. New York Giants to win the pennant, with Boston second, and the Yankees to win the American League pennant, with Detroit second. I don't see any team can beat the Giants for the world's championship. Here's hoping the Toronto team wins the International League pennant, and routing for them at the opening game. James P. Bewry, my partner, came with me. He is a strong Philadelphian, but he'll be with me. Regarding the Robins Players, just say we are here to do our best with the most attractive company we have ever had and we'll guarantee to be anyone of which I'll guarantee to be of higher plane of attractiveness. The first benefit we want to give is for the soldiers from the front. When do you want it?

THE TORONTO WORLD

TORONTO FIREMEN BADLY UNDERPAID Receive Lowest Wages of Any American City of Same Size.

HOURS ARE LONG Home for Meals Only for Six Days of Every Week.

Toronto's firefighters are the poorest paid and work the longest and most exacting hours of any fire department in any city of the same size and population in America. Members of the Toronto fire brigade have protested for years that the scale of pay now being given is too low and also inadequate. They claim that the cost of living has advanced three times as fast as the pay and that they get one Sunday off in every five. Their arguments have received considerable support. In some circles, but the following inadequate tests are deserving of early consideration and amendments.

Most of the American cities employ the two platoon system, with 12 hours on duty and 12 hours off. This gives the men a chance to be at home a greater number of their hours of duty. In Toronto, while the Toronto fireman, except on his day off, is only home at mealtimes, being compelled to live in the fire hall every night, six days a week of the 24 hours. As compared with this, eight American cities of approximately the same size or population, besides giving the men a better salary, hours to their fire fighters, in almost every case and grade pay better salaries. The minimum wage for a Toronto fireman is $300 a year, which is equalled only by one other city on the list, namely, ... However, the maximum reaches $1,200 a year, and the grade increases are better than those given to Toronto's men, while Toronto's population is only 92,323 as compared with the same population as Toronto it might be noted that Pittsburgh, Los Angeles and Seattle start their firemen at $864, and when one becomes a captain he is paid $1,500, as compared with Toronto's salary of $1,300.

YORK COUNTY and Suburbs BODY FOUND IN STREAM NEAR MIMICO ASYLUM Marks on Body and Face Would Seem to Indicate Foul Play.

While walking along the sidewalk, opposite the second entrance to Mimico, about 6.30 on Sunday morning, on her way from New Toronto, a young woman passing and noticed the body of a man lying in the little stream which passes thru the Asylum grounds, at a point where the culvert crosses under the Erie Shore road. She immediately notified County Constable Frank Daniels, who at once removed the body and acquainted the coroner, James Craig, with the facts. The latter arriving on the ground within a few minutes. When found, the body which later was identified as that of James Craig, a foreman, employed at Brown's Rolling Mills in New Toronto, lying on the edge of the stream with only the face in the water. An examination disclosed a number of marks on the body and face and Dr. Forbes Godfrey ordered its removal to St. George's undertaking parlors on Queen st., where an inquest will open at 11 o'clock this afternoon. It was ascertained that the man was employed in rolling mills for two months, coming from Waterbury, Conn., U.S.A., where the members of his family reside. It was unremarked and boarded at the company's boarding house in New Toronto.

SCARBORO MAN WOUNDED. A telegram received by H. A. Seeding Makes Good Start With Land in Good Shape. Saturday was a big day for the farmers, practically the first real seeding was made all thru the counties of York, Ontario, Peel and Halton, thousands of acres being sown with winter wheat. Agreeing that the land was in fine shape, except in the low and un-drained places. With bright sunshine and drying winds, fully 75 per cent of the land in the counties named will be sown by Saturday night, the wide spread sowing and drills in use on many farms covering about 100,000 acres in a day. So far there is apparently no great shortage of men, and farmers report the work going along all right, the almost any farmer can make use of an extra man if at all adaptable.

MUNICIPALITY HUNS TORPEDO HOSPITAL SHIPS TAKE 12 GERMANS

Despite the warnings conveyed to Germany that her barbarous attacks on hospital ships would result in such action on the part of Great Britain as she might deem necessary, the German Government published, thru a wireless message on April 16, an abusive protest, which categorically contended any "retaliation" for this reprisal. Nothing could afford a better illustration of the German mentality and reasoning.

"On the other hand, the spirit in which the allies exacted retribution is shown by the purely military character of the measures adopted. The women who carried out the attack were exposed to, and in fact incurred, precisely the same dangers from the town defenses as they would have in the course of an ordinary action. It is plain, however that any retaliatory measures open to a government upholding the principles of humanity and justice would not prove a deterrent to Germany in the future. Such reprisals could only be punitive in effect, and it was necessary to reconsider the entire status of hospital ships in the light of the attitude taken by the German Government.

BUDGET STATEMENT FOR CITY COUNCIL

Finance Commissioner Today Lays His Annual Report Before Aldermen. ECONOMY NECESSARY Revenue From Assessments Has Shown Little Increase in War Years.

In the budget statement as finally amended, which will be submitted to the meeting of the city council this afternoon, Thomas Bradshaw, commissioner of finance, brings to the attention of the council many important matters that are worthy of the attention of the citizens who have to meet the city's expenditures by the payment of taxes.

Thru the exemption from the business tax, granted by the legislature, to brewers, distillers and hotelkeepers, the assessment for 1917 has been reduced to the extent of $2,222,697. While the assessments have been more than doubled since 1910, for the past three years assessed values have been almost stationary. This condition, says the finance commissioner, is an added reason why the city must resort to a more judicious use of its public capital expenditure.

The following table gives the proportion of the 2 1/2-mil rate for 1916 compared with the estimated 2 1/2-mil rate for this year, required for debt charges, general administration, etc.: Proportion required for: 1917, 1916.

Debt charges	6.52	4.88
Schools	2.19	6.04
General administration	5.29	6.04
Administration of justice	2.185
Water, fire purposes	1.82	1.12
Patriotic purposes	.08	1.12
Provincial war tax	1.1
Hospital and charitable work	.86
Public library	.25	.25
	25.50	22.50

If the policy adopted by the council is adhered to, the commissioner believes the tax rate should not be increased in the near future, but a reasonable reduction may be looked for thru the additional revenue that should be obtained thru the abolition, water works system, civic car lines, registry office, Exhibition park and other sources that are at present being considered. All these sources of increased revenue, with the commissioner assured, are being carefully investigated, with confidence that benefit will accrue.

To obtain this reduction it is imperative that the work involving capital expenditures are undertaken and that the war expenditures are not greater than anticipated.

During 1916 the debentures sold by the city amounted to $12,386,914, the price realized being such that the average rate to the city of 5.03 per cent. Two public offerings were made and the businesslike manner in which the debentures were sold, the most favorably commented upon.

Mr. Bradshaw warns the council that the prolonged continuance of the war is moving as it does the keen demand for capital resources. It more difficult to find a satisfactory market for all municipal securities and it cannot be expected that the city will be able to float its debentures on such favorable terms as it did last year. The existing funded debt of the city up to the end of last year amounted to $97,730,920.83, which is an increase of $11,554,396.60 during the year.

The debt has been incurred for the following purposes: Water works, $14,486,546.74; School and Libraries, $18,049,995.74; Civic Car Lines, $2,032,737.00; Civic Abattoir, $15,698,000.00; Improvements, $14,957,116.00; City's Share, Local Improvements, $7,444,844.51; Toronto Hydro-electric, $7,388,000.00; General, $3,987,174.84; Total, $97,730,920.83. The new debts to be created in the present year amount to less than $9,549,972 and are summarized by the finance commissioner as follows:

- (1) For balances and overdrafts carried over a number of years in connection with completed works, and to complete works commenced some time ago $2,791,500.
- (2) For local improvements (completed in 1916, now completed) $3,354,372.49.
- (3) For patriotic purposes war $2,500,000.
- (4) For water works purposes—estimated to be absolutely essential $499,000.
- (5) For institution for feeble-minded $157,500.
- (6) For Rosedale Park Grounds decided to city at one-third of present value $47,700. Total $9,549,972.49.

Painters Are Now Striking Want Their Wages Raised

Today the members of the Toronto Union of Painters, Decorators and Paperhangers go on strike in an effort to secure 45 cents per hour and better conditions of labor. Their business agent, in a statement to the press, said that the employers have for the past few years ignored the demands of the men by refusing to discuss the representatives of the workers. The men claim that the present scale of wages is not commensurate with the high cost of living, and are confident of victory.

SARAH BERNHARDT'S CONDITION HOPELESS

New York, April 22.—Sarah Bernhardt, after rallying from the effects of the operation she underwent last week, apparently has suffered a relapse, and is again in a critical condition, according to a somewhat cryptic bulletin issued tonight by her physicians.

"Mrs. Bernhardt was more seriously ill last night and most of today," the bulletin said. "This evening she rallies. There is no temperature."

In response to a question as he was leaving the hospital, one of the four doctors said: "The case is hopeless."

An earlier bulletin had described the patient's condition as "stationary."

Summer Quarters for Furs

Cold Storage Vaults, Where the Temperature of Winter is Maintained Through July and August.

THE MUFF AND THE STOLE are feeling utterly out of sorts. This muggy weather does not agree with them, and they are beset with anxiety over the future. They are eager to know their fate, whether they are to be transported to the pleasant regions of cold storage or consigned to an airless tomb on the storeroom shelf, where pelts dry and fur loses lustre.

Only you, dear wearer, can settle the momentous matter. And, needless to point out, the proper disposal of the muff and the stole is your own affair. Suitable summer quarters are indispensable to the appearance and durability of your furs—of your afternoon set of chinchilla, your coat of Hudson seal, your evening wrap with the ermine collar, and your everyday muff and stole of pointed fox.

The advantages of our cold storage vaults are well known. The dry, cold air preserves the pelt and the lustre of the fur, preventing the evaporating of the natural oil of the skin, which is so often the unfortunate cause when muff or jacket is stored away in some hot cupboard.

Everything before entering the storeroom is thoroughly beaten and combed, ridding the garment of all possible dust or injurious matter. Each is hung on a separate hanger, the delicate white pieces being placed in covers.

The charges are 3 per cent. of the value of article stored.

The Fur Storage Office is on the Third Floor, in the Yonge St. Section.

THOUSANDS HONOR CANADA'S BRAVEST

Service of Commemoration and Thanksgiving Held in St. Paul's.

ST. JULIEN ANNIVERSARY

Rev. Canon Dixon Tells of "Eternal Glory" Won in Famous Battle.

St. Paul's Church has seen many military services during the past three years, at which Toronto from its position as lieutenant-governor of the province, the mayor and city council, down to the humblest citizens, have been well represented.

Yesterday's service was different from those of the past. While fathers and mothers stood in reverence, the centre of the church was not filled with bright alert youths full of joy of vigorous manhood that only comes from strenuous training.

God was today unfolding his purposes, said the canon, and the war should be a text book of greater value than any in the high schools or universities. Speaking of the war he held it to be man-made and what man he could stop.

The ultimate and righteous peace was on its way, assured the speaker, and this would be followed by a golden age, greater than any previous one. He believed the retarded men would live to see yet greater things in the time to come and stated that he would give all he possessed to have been with them, and after conveying to them the regrets of the bishop of Toronto at his inability to be present he closed his address by thanking them for the attention they had given his remarks.

While the congregation that filled every available space stood, "The Dead March in Saul" was played on the organ, and the band in the gallery rose with a deeper meaning than ever before from the ranks of these men to have looked death in the face and have seen their comrades fall on either hand. Lieut.-Col. the Ven. Archbishop Cody conducted the service, in which prayers for the men at the front and on behalf of the departed were blended with thanksgiving for the victories won.

Major the Rev. Canon Dixon delivered a short soldierly address, recalling the favors bestowed by God and the valor displayed by the men. The Bible, he said, was full of instances of God's intervention in aid of his people, so also was history, including that of the greatest of wars. He called upon those present to mark the work of the hand of God on our behalf and asked if we had had no choice favors from Him. There was, he said, every reason for great thanksgiving. "Love can do much, but greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends," said the canon, in speaking of the valor of those grand boys who undertook to do what was never done before.

Display Great Courage. The modern soldier would take risks that no soldier in Alexander's army would have taken. The canon displayed compelled the expression, "Thou hast made man little lower than the angels."

God was today unfolding his purposes, said the canon, and the war should be a text book of greater value than any in the high schools or universities. Speaking of the war he held it to be man-made and what man he could stop.

Things To Worry About

WILL THEY LAST THE SUMMER?

sounded "The Last Post." Then, led by the band, the national anthem was sung. After the benediction many of the bereaved women dropped into the seats to shed a few quiet tears, before following the veterans into the sunshine of a peaceful Toronto Sunday.

MEWBURN INTENDS TO STAY ON JOB

Denies That He Has Any Intention of Resigning His Position.

Major-General S. C. Mewburn, who is in charge of the C.D.F. organization, denied that he had resigned or had any intention of doing so, on Saturday, when he visited Exhibition camp to confer with Major-General W. A. Leslie and Lieut.-Col. G. C. Osborne. Mewburn was not prepared to state the strength of the C.D.F. at the present time, nor did he make any statement as to what would be done to secure troops if the C.D.F. failed, but suggested that he might be able to throw some light on the matter in about two weeks.

General Mewburn stated that the C.D.F. idea had helped to build up the military regiment. About a thousand relatives and friends of the members of the 220th York County Battalion visited Exhibition Park Camp on Sunday afternoon to participate in the farewell reception given by the unit from 2 to 4 o'clock, in the transportation building. A musical program was rendered by the brass band of the battalion. During the afternoon the members of the unit accepted three presentations. Mrs. B. H. Brown, wife of the commander of the battalion, presented each man with two pairs of socks. These were a gift from the women's auxiliary of the 220th. The proceeds from the battalion canteen fund were distributed to the members of the unit, each man receiving a five-cent bill. In the absence of Lieut.-Col. G. H. Williams, senior chaplain of this military district, Capt. H. R. Pickup, battalion chaplain, presented each member with a pocket testament and a prayer book.

On Sunday morning the 220th paraded to Chalmers Presbyterian Church, Rev. J. W. Woodside conducting the service. A number of the battalion members pastored of the communion. It was administered by Capt. H. R. Pickup, regimental chaplain. Over 400 recruits were dealt with at the Toronto mobilization centre depot during the week just ended. One hundred and sixty of these were accepted. The preceding week the accepted recruits totaled 165 out of 587 men offered.

Combatant units last week again claimed a good proportion of the recruits enrolled. Ninety-three of the 160 men signed up joined Toronto combatant units. Of the 88, the infantry secured 67, the artillery 25, and the cavalry nine.

On Saturday 26 men came forward for enlistment. Five of them were accepted and created each member with a pocket testament and a prayer book. The Toronto mobilization centre depot during the week just ended. One hundred and sixty of these were accepted. The preceding week the accepted recruits totaled 165 out of 587 men offered.

POLICE MAKE RAID

When the police raided the alleged disorderly house of Joe Dinko, 47 Cooper avenue, yesterday, they found among the inmates Mike Wikovitch and Tony Wokovitch, of the same address, making merry with several bottles of medicated wine. A subsequent analysis of the liquid showed that it contained a large quantity of wood alcohol, and as a result, the two men were arrested on a charge of violating the Ontario Temperance Act, and lodged in Keele street police station.

Trade a Casing for a Tube?

Of course you wouldn't. The difference in price is too great. Yet many motorists risk a costly casing by not selecting their tubes with care. For a poor tube, by causing under-inflation, may easily ruin a casing.

Poor tubes allow air to seep through imperceptibly, inconspicuously. To overcome this, Goodyear invented the lamination process. Goodyear Tubes are all made the right way—built up, layer on layer, of pure, tissue-thin rubber, each layer thin enough to be properly inspected for sand or other foreign material. The valve-patch is vulcanized into the tube, not stuck on. The whole is made as near to permanent air tightness as is possible with an elastic material.

So for the good of your casings we urge you to buy Goodyear Tubes. They will add greatly to your tire mileage. And as tubes they will give you unusually long and satisfactory service.

MONDAY MORNING, APRIL 23

St. Julien's Day

Breads like the battle of St. Julien, the second battle of Ypres, as it is known in some of the records, have given Canada an indelible name in history.

It was the first occasion of a gas attack, and the Canadians had to bear the full brunt of that poisonous tide which swept away their French supports on their left, so that their line on the flank was "in the air."

Progress in City Affairs

After three years of work the bureau of municipal research is gradually making an impression upon Toronto.

The recent address of Dr. Horace Brittain at the annual meeting of the bureau of municipal research is doing its best to counteract the heedless and unthinking yielding of the voters to the demands of clamorous abuse.

A policy of wiping out deficits in all revenue-producing departments has been urged by the bureau from the start.

princes. We might well say that in the conjunction of the British Empire and the United States in the defence of human rights in the present war "righteousness and peace have kissed each other."

A splendid recognition of the growth of liberty in Great Britain and her offshoots was voiced by The New York Tribune last Thursday in celebrating the great anniversary of April 23, 1776, when the embattled farmers at Concord "fired the shot heard round the world."

Those who fought at Concord and Lexington," said The Tribune, "loved liberty more than they loved any king. They cared more for the just Government that had come down to them from the past than they did for any government that betrayed them. Those who have come to America in recent decades seem to have preserved an allegiance to its sovereignty at a cost of loyalty to this country."

"Let us not be deluded. Let us not be misled as to the foundations of our country. The liberty, the democracy, the justice, which are the bases of our national structure, are English and not derived from those ideas and their ideal which on either side of the Atlantic have been the dominant influence of the English-speaking peoples."

Proceeding to regret the delay which preceded the recognition of these true principles of government and national life, The Tribune declared: "At last we are at war with Germany. At last we, too, have taken arms to fight a tyranny a thousand-fold more odious than that which crushed the first rally of the Minute Men at Lexington; a tyranny to which is joined a brutality otherwise unknown in any so-called civilized people."

Germany has been unfortunate in her leaders and the policies and philosophies she adopted. Instead of observing and absorbing and assimilating the evolutionary principles of liberty which nearly every other race on earth had welcomed the German leaders set themselves deliberately to reject and exclude these evolutionary forces and to set the German nation on the retrograde track of absolutism and autocracy. There is no room for autocracy and liberty in the world together. One must increase and the other must decrease. The world has chosen for liberty and autocracy and all its evil brood must go.

Incredibly and unintelligibly blind as the German leaders have been, there is still hope that in the German people, when they come to see the truth, there is a little of the leaven of liberty still left among them which will work and spread till it leavens the whole lump. Nation after nation has signified its resolve to have neither part nor lot with the foul fiendliness of German methods. There is no crime and no madness of crime of which Germany in the last three years has not been guilty. Swindled like Cain among the nations, the mask of God upon her brow, she must dwell as an outcast until the day of deliverance from her evil spirit. In her madness she has mistaken evil for good, and thought that other nations might think as she thought. It is unbelievable to many and particularly in the United States, that such evil-mindedness could exist. The Germans mistook this incredulity for acquiescence and persisted in their devilish course. But the sun has to come, and Washington and Lincoln have not been deceived. The reunion of the English-speaking races in such a cause justifies the hope of a reign of peace to come over all the earth—a new earth in which will dwell justice.

Democratic Gold Mining

Editor World: There is no doubt that in northern Ontario, Canada, has one of the finest mineral districts within the British Empire and yet the opportunity has not been seized to exploit it as practically none. In that country there are a large number of small veins containing gold. These prospects are not big enough for a company to work, yet could quite easily be profitably worked by one or two men.

In "Canada's Future," by E. A. Victor, there is an article by Arthur A. Cole, on the Porcupine district, in which he states: "It was fortunate that the best discoveries soon passed into strong financial hands so that in the troublous days that followed before actual production could begin sufficient capital was available to continue development without interruption." Such statements as that don't do much towards boosting Canada as a democratic country. It practically means that there are very few opportunities for the prospector with a little capital and that if he ever finds

STOP EFFORT TO DRAW FARM LABOR FROM U. S.

Thousands of Laborers Have Already Been Attracted to Canada.

Washington, April 22.—Efforts to attract labor from the United States to Canadian farms under promise of high wages and exemptions from military service and other inducements by means of advertisements inserted in newspapers in this country, have been ordered discontinued.

Sir George Foster, acting prime minister of Canada, Saturday, telephoned Senator Kellogg of Minnesota to this effect, in response to a message from the senator calling attention to the fact that thousands of laborers have gone to Canada as a result of the propaganda conducted in this country with the consent of the Dominion Government.

Sir George's telegram follows: "Your telegram of yesterday received. The advertisements referred to by you have been withdrawn and instructions given for labor canvase."

BRANTFORD MARKETS FLUCTUATE

Special to The Toronto World. Brantford, April 22.—Wheat took a jump here Saturday to $2.25, but an unexpected drop was recorded in live hogs, which had been selling at $14.75, which dropped to $16. Local packers state that they expect further lowering within a short time. Butcher is very firm at 45 for dairy and 47 for creamery, while eggs are still 85 cents. Potatoes have jumped to $3.50 again. Meats are firm. Seeding operations are in full swing throughout the county. The winter wheat prospects are not very bright.

anything good, the only thing for him to do is to sell his prospect for a few thousand dollars to the financier or capitalist. They as a rule develop the prospect and float it as a company, the financier being the sellers. With government assistance the middle man could be done away with, the prospector could develop his own property, and when the time came to float his company, the prospector alone would be the seller, or vendor.

It is not always the capitalist who develops a new country. In Rhodesia, South Africa, the prospector and miner (called "the small men" out there) produce about half the gold output of that colony. Of course, the men who received help from the chartered company and the benefits by their 2-stamp and 5-stamp mills. This northern Ontario is just the country for "the small man," and it would be a pity if the gold output of Ontario within a couple of years, besides attracting a larger number of settlers, miners, prospectors and workers of all classes to northern Ontario.

Canada's opportunity is the experience gained by other colonies in developing their gold-bearing districts. Colorado.

BALFOUR PAYS HIGH TRIBUTE

Canada would spare nothing of what in peace time men hold dear. I know that heroism and sacrifice are not confined within the limits of the battlefield. Sir Robert Borden has had a story to tell in Great Britain of effort, prodigally offered to the British imperial cause in every township from ocean to ocean of the prudent council of your province and their service in matters of administration and finance; of the contrivance of your men of business; of the munition work that your men and women have performed. Finally, but not least, I would not have forgotten in the empire the service of Canada to the work of the Red Cross. You have combined to the utmost limit of your powers, energy and mercy in your prosecution of the war. In times of reconstruction such as these men form the only foundation upon which empires can be built that have any service to offer to mankind. I have been sent upon a mission to your most important states and to your mission as well as ours and I trust that a representative of Canada will join me in Washington.

I think a young man who is not brave enough to heed his country's call in time of trouble is hardly brave enough to make an adequate home in these days of soaring prices and increased cost of living."

Woodstock Soldiers and Citizens Observe National Memorial Day

Special to The Toronto World.

Woodstock, April 22.—Under the auspices of the local branch of the Great War Veterans' Association national memorial day was observed here at a special union service in Knox Church at which most of the local ministers assisted actively. Every seat in the church was occupied. The returned soldiers and the members of the Fenian raid paraded together, and the city council attended in a body. Fifty-two names of veterans who have fallen in the present war were read. Perhaps the most impressive part of the whole service was the playing of the Dead March in Soul by the organist at the conclusion. A memorial service for three members of the congregation was held in College Avenue Methodist Church in the morning. This service the returned soldiers also attended, and the address was delivered by Rev. Capt. MacCallum, recently appointed special recruiting officer for this district.

Prominent Citizen Dies After a Long and Useful Life.

FENIAN RAID VETERAN

Had Served His Country at the Battle of Ridgeway.

Robert Lorne Patterson, one of Toronto's prominent citizens, died on Saturday, in his seventy-second year, after two months illness, at his home, "Fernwood," Todmorden.

As a boy he came to Canada with his parents from Manor, Hamilton, Ireland, and settled at Niagara-on-the-Lake. Later he moved to Toronto and served for many years in the press room of The Globe.

He then branched out in the business world and became the Canadian representative of Miller and Richards, type-founders of Edinburgh, and was connected with them up to his retirement ten years ago. His son, J. H. L. Patterson, then succeeded him and another son, H. K. Patterson, became manager at Winnipeg.

Mr. Patterson was also connected with financial institutions, being vice-president of the Manufacturers' Life Insurance Co., and director of the Dominion Guarantee and Accident Insurance Company. He was a veteran of the Fenian Raid in 1866 and received a medal for his service at Ridgeway. In private life he was an enthusiastic bowler and donated the silver cup for bowling competition among the Toronto newspapers. He was a member of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club, Granite Bowling Club and National Club. He was also interested in art and was a member of the Canadian Art Club.

He is survived by one sister, Miss M. A. Patterson, Toronto, and five children, J. H. L. Patterson; H. K. Patterson; Sgt. Robert D. Patterson of the 38th Railway Construction Battalion in France; Mrs. Thomas Moore, Hamilton; and Mrs. F. A. Ritchie, Toronto.

RAID HURT TRADE SAYS KING EDWARD MANGER

Not Intended to Close Hotel, But Loss of More Help Will Raise Big Problem.

"The soldiers' raid on the King Edward Hotel has almost completely demoralized our business," was the statement made by W. C. Bailey, the manager, when interviewed by a reporter for The World Saturday.

"It is purely and simply a help question, and as soon as we get the correct help we can open the dining rooms within 24 hours," he said.

He regarded the talk of closing the entire hotel as silly, but he emphasized the fact that if any more help was lost a serious problem would arise. He told how he had advertised for one week in every Toronto paper in Ottawa, Hamilton, Montreal, and Alexandria ten rooms, which catered to 1,000 guests daily.

"If the authorities would give us the proper protection and let us obtain the necessary help we could open the closed rooms," he added.

G. Ross Bremner, superintendent of the hotel, and a returned soldier himself, stated that it was impossible to replace the men they lost thru the raid. He had applied for returned soldiers, but none would undertake kitchen work.
