RAINBOW IN TRIM FOR AWAY WORK

Cruiser for Canada Completes Refitting and Tests Million and Half of Dollars Required for Church in British Columbia in Next Fifteen Years—Canadian Land Values Have Rapidly Shot Up—The Hague Argument

London, June 24.—The cruiser Rainbow, of the Canadian navy, has completed refitting and carried out satisfactory gun and steam trials at Portsmouth. At the inaugural meeting of the British Columbia Church and Society, today, the Bishop of Stoney said the sum required was $2,500,000, which spread over fifteen years, would make the church secure. At a meeting of the Canada Company, today, it was stated that the price of land sold showed an advance of 26 3/4 per cent. over the 1894 valuation. Mr. J. Bryan sailed for Canada today on the S. S. Royal George. At Henley boisterous weather with rain prevailed this morning, but the Winnipeg crew had their usual spin. They did not attempt a racing pace but covered the distance in a little more than eight minutes. The Canadian Associated Press is informed that of the Molson's Bank issue, 24 per cent. has been subscribed by the public, including the firm underwriting. In the commons today the postmaster-general said that imperial penny postage would be increased to 4,000,000 if the penny post were extended to European countries. The Hague, June 24.—Continuing his argument for the United States in the Newfoundland fisheries matter today, Ex-Senator Turner said that Britain had admitted the French right to fish on the Newfoundland banks, and that this was analogous to American rights and was in the nature of "servitude." The sea where the French exercised their right was not merely territorial waters of Newfoundland, but part of the high sea. Sir Charles Fitzpatrick asked if the right to fish was a "servitude" as understood in Roman law. Mr. Turner replied that the analogy between "servitudes" in civil law, and international law should not be strained to excess. Mr. Lammach observed that "servitude" in civil law should meet the requirements of the estate, not those of the proprietors of the estate. Mr. Turner replied that international servitude was constituted for the benefit of a territory which belonged to a sovereign. He quoted a number of writers to show that international servitude implied entire liberty for the state which received it in the exercise of its right. Professor Von Holtzendorf considered, said Mr. Turner, fishing rights in territorial waters ought to be considered as "servitude" when the duration of the right was not limited. In the case of fishing rights Newfoundland was not subjected to British or colonial legislation. Referring to Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, Mr. Turner said that several writers had especially quoted the American fishing right as an example of international "servitude." He would read from these passages in the course of his argument.

VANDERBILT PUTS UP MONEY TO HELP AVIATORS ALONG

New York, June 23.—William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., has entered the field of aviation, though not as yet an owner of an aeroplane, but with several associates he has offered to provide a suitable field for flying near the Long Island Motor Park. Although the plans are as yet unsettled, he made his appearance at the present aviation course near Mineola and, after consultation with Clifford Harmon and Captain T. S. Baldwin, an informal statement was given out. It is planned to fence in part of the land adjoining the grand stand of the Motor Parkway, so that that stand or another will be available. Mr. Vanderbilt and his associates, whose identity was not disclosed, are willing to put $200,000 into the plan. With the enclosure erected in and proper arrangements made for the spectators an admission fee will be charged. One-half of the gate receipts will go to the aviators who perform and the rest will be paid to the men who build the field until the $200,000 has been collected. All the proceeds then will go to the aviators, who at present are not receiving anything. Mr. Vanderbilt says that there is no extremely heavy expense. This proposal has been put to the men at present engaged in flying near Mineola, and it remains with them whether or not they will accept it, and it is now a matter of debate among them just what arrangements they would have to make.

THEY LIKE DEPUTY ON THE ISLAND

Mr. Campbell Made Fine Impression on Tour of Government Road—Some Things Asked For

Charlottetown, P. E. I., June 24.—(Special.)—A. W. Campbell, deputy minister of railways and other members of the railway board, completed their tour of the island railway last night and will leave today for Pictou, thence going over the I. C. R. to Montreal. The board members will reach Ottawa on July 1, and confer with Hon. Mr. Graham before the latter's departure for the west. Last night the board heard business men of Charlottetown unanimously demand improvement in the local train service, particularly respecting the time table from Summerside to Charlottetown. The meeting was held under auspices of the board of trade, and was large and representative. Chairman Campbell heard the case sympathetically, promising improvement. A delegate at Summerside on the previous day asked for reduction in the transportation rate, and local improvements. This was the first visit of the deputy minister to the island, and he made a most favorable impression by his courteous manner and fine personality.

START ON EIGHT WEEKS HOLIDAYS

Pleasant Exercises at Closing of City Schools Today

High School, St. Vincent's and Others Thronged With Visitors—Happy Addresses are Heard and Bright Programmes by the Pupils Enjoyed—Alumnae Society Gatherings Tonight

School is over and vacation days have arrived. Today books were taken home and the scholars will be able to amuse themselves for the next eight weeks in any way they wish. For many, it is the end of their school experience and they will now start out in the stern realities of the business world. The larger number, however, will return to their studies with renewed vigor at the end of the holiday period, on Monday, August 29. In nearly all the school buildings this morning there were closing exercises of an interesting nature. High School, as usual, was crowded to the doors with the parents and friends of the children and a very fine programme was carried out. The class motto "Nulla Dies Sine Linea" (No a day without a line), was fixed above the platform in addition to the graduating class R. B. Emerson and T. H. Bollock of the school board, Mayor Frink, Dr. H. S. Bridges, superintendent of schools, Rev. H. A. Cady and Rev. J. H. A. Anderson. The selections by the High School or other under the direction of W. C. Bowen, were greatly enjoyed and the essays given by the scholars and the scene from "Father," were also very pleasing and evoked generous applause. Miss Inusa Ogilvy, the valedictorian, in the course of her address, pointed out the lack of certain departments in the school, such as music, drawing and an up-to-date laboratory. She referred to the pleasure it would be to the class to look back on their school days and spoke of the trouble they had given the teachers, who had been very patient with them. She touched also on the helpful influence of the teachers and of the noble future vocations of the graduates. There was a cheering word for the boys who had been unsuccessful in winning the interscholastic sports and the boys expressed their regret that they would at least win the baseball championship. Dr. Bridges then presented the diploma to the graduating class and spoke of the excellent progress of the pupils and of the high order of the declaration delivered by Miss Mollie Lingley. He complimented the students on their healthful appearance and their hard studies. He said the class motto was an excellent one, as it teaches industry. This class has had a most interesting and instructive programme. The motto also taught modesty of the student of today. Rev. Mr. Cady, in addressing the class, referred to the Champlain statue to be unveiled tonight. He said some people might think the outstretched arm was pointing to the west, but he thought it pointed to the future. He told an interesting story of his experience in the Yukon, how when Earl Grey had been leaving there he was given a send-off by the members of the Arctic Club, which motto was "Push on," the cry with which the northmen used to urge on their teams of dogs. He thought this would be an excellent motto for the scholars through life. He urged them to have a grand ideal. It was better to hitch their wagon to a star than to a lamp post. He dealt with three things that indicated genius, aspiration, inspiration and perspiration. The future of the land rested much in what they did and said. In closing he recited Henry Newhall's poem, "Play the Game." Principal Myles, referring to the valedictorian's remark on the need of an up-to-date laboratory, said he had been informed by the chairman of the school board that an appropriation arranged for it would be forthcoming this year. He also alluded to the need of an additional teacher who could take charge of the class when he had to go to the laboratory with the pupils in that work. He complimented the scholars for their good work during the year and then presented the honor certificates to those entitled to them. Mayor Frink delivered a witty and inspiring address. He spoke of the school work just ending and of the genuine hard work just beginning. He alluded to the fact that he had seen in one of the newspapers the announcement that a former college mate of his had been knighted. He had given this young man a hard run for the gold medal at school and he was laughingly said he believed that he was as good a man as he was yet. He urged them to strive for the highest positions in the life they were about to enter. Dr. Bridges then presented certificates to the ten graduates from Grade XII and complimented them on the excellence of their work. Rev. J. H. A. Anderson, addressing these pupils, said they were only beginning life. This was the second time they had graduated. He dwelt on the need of having high ideals and living up to them. In closing he wished them every success. The proceedings closed with the singing of God Save the King. The averages of the honor pupils, 75 per cent or upwards, are: Mollie Lingley, Inusa Ogilvy, 86.10; Walter Brown, 82.80; Mary Carter, 82.31; Beaulac Marcus, 81.81; Mary Ross, 78.03; Otha Bender, 77.90; Hazel Myles, 77.85; Gladys Fowler, 75.84. St. Vincent's In St. Vincent's school, Cliff street, this morning the attendance at the closing exercises was very large, and all thoroughly enjoyed the programme. Sister Frances, principal of the school, presided. Among those present were Revs. W. F. Chapman, V. G. A. J. Duke, S. S. B. Wm. Duke, A. W. Meahan, and M. O'Brien; M. D. Coll and Mrs. James Devere of the board of school trustees. During the term just closed, St. Vincent's school numbered eighty pupils, of whom the following composed the graduating class:—Mary Bridges, Beatrice Gosnell, Mary Muriel Catherine Corkey, Mary Agnes Gertrude Dolan, Mary Lavonia Kilborn, Helen Madeline Ryan, Mary Gretchen Turner, Frances Reed, Mary Margaret Nugent, Mary Edna Keefe, Agatha Mona Kelly. These young ladies received their diplomas from Supt. H. S. Bridges, who congratulated them on the excellent showing they had made. A chorus by several of the girls was then sung, and heartily applauded. Miss R. McIntyre, acted as accompanist. In the role of the class prophet, Miss Marie G. Dolan mapped out the futures of her companions in the class in an interesting and entertaining manner. A pleasing feature of the closing was "The Parade of the Muses," with the following characters: Iris F. Reed Thalia M. Corkery Cleo M. Nugent Melpomene F. Reed Euterpe M. Kilborn Terpsichore Helen Ryan Polyhymnia R. McIntyre Erato A. Kelly Calliope G. Turner Urania B. Gosnell Juno E. Keefe Fame M. Dolan Minerva A. Ransay. The valedictory was delivered by Miss Gosnell, in a manner which showed her to be an essayist of distinction. The valedictory was nicely composed, and well delivered. In the absence of His Lordship Bishop Casey, Very Rev. W. F. Chapman presented to Miss M. V. Caples, of the class of '10, the Erasmus gold medal. He congratulated her upon having won it, and said he hoped that she would acquit herself in the outside world in the same creditable manner she had in her studies. Rev. A. J. Duke, rector of St. Peter's, delivered a short address to the graduates, in which he prayed that God would bless them as they were entering the new field, where, he hoped, they would be as successful as they had been in school. He was proud, he said, of the fact that three of the foremost graduates were young ladies from the North End. The exercises were brought to a close with the singing of the National anthem. In White's restaurant this evening, the members of the graduating class of St. Vincent's will be entertained by the alumnae at a dinner and reception. The president of the alumnae, Miss E. T. Reed, will occupy the chair. An interesting programme of toasts, speeches and musical and literary numbers will be given by Misses Florence and Katherine O'Neill, Helen Harrington, Kathleen O'Malley, Agnes Scully and Mrs. James McMurray. St. Vincent's orchestra will provide music. Albert School, Carleton The closing exercises of the Albert school this morning were witnessed by a large number of visitors. The pupils of the primary department presented a very pleasing programme commencing at 10 o'clock, while those of the advanced department assembled at 11 o'clock. The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion. (Continued on page 3, fifth column.)

WALSH IS INDICTED IN BANK CASE

Many Counts Against Him in Connection With Looting of Cambridge Institution—Coleman Starts 15 Year Term

Cambridge, Mass., June 24.—Martin J. Walsh, has been indicted by the federal grand jury, on a charge of aiding and abetting George W. Coleman in the misappropriation of funds from the National city bank of Cambridge. Coleman is indicted as principal in each count. There are 31 counts in an indictment relating to offences committed before Jan. 1, and 5 counts in an indictment covering offences that happened since Jan. 1, when the criminal code went into effect, making the offence a felony instead of a misdemeanor, as under the old law. Coleman, the self-confessed embezzler, of $300,000 from the bank was taken to the Franklin County Jail at Greenfield, where as a federal prisoner he is to serve a sentence of fifteen years. Murderer of Wife Is Taking Matters Coolly—Legal Battle Seems in the Air New York, June 24.—Apparently unconcerned over his desperate plight, Porter Charlton, the young bank clerk, who confessed murderer of his wife, the Lake Como murder victim, spent a comparatively restful night in his cell in the Hoboken jail, and calmly awaited his arrangements. Obedient to the advice of his attorney, R. Floyd Clark, he has stopped talking about himself and his affairs and it was only to his anxious father, Judge Paul Charlton, of Washington, who, with careful lines on his face, was early on the scene, and his legal advisers, that Charlton had anything to say. His comfort during the night was materially increased by the kindness of the jail officials, who, when the boy expressed a desire to take a bath, permitted Charlton to indulge in an unattended luxury for prisoners. It was understood before the assignment today that when Charlton was brought into court an adjournment for twenty-four hours at least would be asked to enable a better preparation to be made for Charlton's defense. It was understood that former state senator William D. Edwards had been retained in Charlton's defense, while on the other side, were found Italian officials who were expected to ask Charlton's extradition to Italy. Here from Washington to appear in the case was the Marquis Di Montigliari, charge D'Affaires of the Italian Embassy, who had with him the Italian Vice Consul in New York, Gustav Di Rosa. It was expected that opposition to Charlton's extradition would largely hinge on the young man's physical and mental condition. A tuberculosis boy, whose actions point to an unsound mind, was the way the premier was characterized by his father. Proof of such a state of affairs, was thought in some quarters, might influence the Italian Government to forego an extradition demand. An early application for the examination of Charlton by alienists is indicated. Police Surgeon Wm. J. Arlitz, of Hoboken, made an examination of Charlton this morning and said: "I see signs of insanity, but I do not care to discuss it any further. I have been engaged by Judge Charlton to act as one of the alienists of the defense." When one of the police officers handed Charlton a newspaper which printed his picture this morning the officer remarked: "You're in a pretty tight place boy," Charlton remarked: "Oh, it might be worse. I am not worrying." The case was today adjourned until next Tuesday at 10 o'clock.

CARS TEAR DOWN GRADE; 37 KILLED

Break From Engine and Run Away, Leaping Track at Terrific Speed—Some Save Lives By Jumping

Mexico City, June 24.—Thirty-seven persons were killed and as many others injured yesterday in the wreck of a troop train on the Manzanillo Line of the National Railways in the State of Colima. Four cars of the train broke loose from the locomotive and dashed down a steep grade, jumping the track at a terrific speed. There were about 150 men in the four cars. Many jumped. The dead include a number of soldiers, five officers and members of their families. Engineer Watson, an American and Conductor Martinez, a Mexican, were arrested pending investigation. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR WILL ACCEPT THE AWARD Ottawa, June 24.—(Special.)—The Canadian Pacific Railway this morning notified the department of labor that it was willing to accept the finding of the board of conciliation though it regarded the rates of wages recommended as excessive. It is regarded here as most unusual that while the award was signed by the representative of the men on the board, they decided not to accept it, and it is now accepted by the company through its representatives on the board declined to sign the award. ROYAL STEERSMAN IN KIEL REGATTA Kiel, June 24.—Emperor William will be at the wheel when his yacht Meteor again tries conclusions with the schooner Westward, owned by Alexander S. JEFFRIES LOOKS WELL TO FLANAGAN

Johnson Man Predicts a Long Draw Out Battle—There's Strain at Reno

Reno, Nev., June 24.—The question as to what effect the sharp change in altitude will have on Jack Johnson is being given much thought by Flanagan. He says he will advise against heavy road work. Boxing, he thinks, will constitute Johnson's main work hereafter. Flanagan says he has been keeping an eye on Jeffries and says he is much impressed with Jeffries' appearance and expects to see him at the Jeffries-Johnson fight. At Moana Springs Jeffries is taking life easy. Not in many years has Reno sheltered so cosmopolitan a gathering as now nightly through its cafes and places of chance. Jeffries and Johnson are in the tents in Sacramento have been sought by merchants of Reno to house visiting gamblers. It is impossible to get accommodations in Reno, reservations having been made in all the hotels and lodging houses. New York, June 24.—State Senator "Big Tim" Sullivan, stakeholder of the Jeffries-Johnson fight, says that there is no basis for the stories that the championship fight is "fixed." "I'm holding $75,000 of fight money," he said, "and $30,000 more is to be placed in my hands twenty-four hours before the fight."

FIGURES THAT TELL STORIES

OUR BUTTER OPPORTUNITY GREAT BRITAIN imports 496,383,390 lbs. of butter valued at $27,425,067 in 1909. Owing to their advantageous location, the countries nearest to the British Isles captured the bulk of the trade as shown. Denmark alone supplied 43 per cent. of the butter imported to England, or 176,402,700 lbs. Russia, with 60,171,200 lbs. comes second, and France, Sweden, Holland, and Germany follow in this order. When the element of distance is considered, the Australasian colonies are no inconsiderable factors in this trade, supplying 16 per cent. of the total quantity. New Zealand alone furnished 27,858,100 lbs. against Holland's 14,856,700 lbs. Canada's exports of butter to Great Britain in 1907 were 5,470,550 lbs., and rose to 6,388,100 lbs. in 1908, but owing to the drought of the past two seasons, and to the decrease in the number of milk cows, as well as to our increasing home consumption, our exports of butter fell off last year. The United States suffered more severely than Canada did, her exports of butter to Great Britain falling from 4,423,200 lbs. in 1908 to 613,900 lbs. in 1909.

MARINE NEWS.

Steamer Tregate is expected here tomorrow to take a cargo of potatoes to Havana.

The thirty-ton packet boat E. M. Haines, Captain Haines, has entered the bay-carrying trade. She made her first trip into port Wednesday, doing the sixty miles from Freeport, N. S., in eight hours, under the power of her auxiliary gasoline engine.

(Montreal Gazette.)

The new Donaldson liner Saturnia, which has been built for the Montreal trade, arrived in port yesterday, after what Captain Fraser described as a splendid passage. Her officers are delighted with her, and indeed there is some cause for their enthusiasm. Built much on the lines of the Cassandra, the Saturnia is somewhat larger, having two feet more beam and a tonnage of nearly 500 tons more than the older boat. While she has been designed to carry only two classes of passengers, saloon and steerage, there is little left to be desired in the way in which she is fitted up. Her cabins are large and airy, the dining saloon, while not so ornate as some of the vessels which come to the port on board of, is still comfortably furnished and quite large enough to accommodate all her passengers without crowding. There is a charming music room on the upper deck, which appears to have been the chosen resort of many during the first voyage of the ship, and for the convenience of the male travellers, a luxurious smoking room, in fact perhaps the most comfortable of the public rooms on the ship, has been provided. For those of moderate means, who cannot afford to travel by one of the crack liners, such a boat as the Saturnia should prove a boon, and the fact that on this trip she brought out over five hundred passengers shows that there is plenty of room for such vessels.

I could not afford to so strongly endorse Rezell's Hair Tonic and continue to sell it as I do, if it did not do all I claim it will. I should not wish to carry on away, and Rezell's Hair Tonic not give entire satisfaction to the users, they would lose faith in my statements, and in consequence my business prestige would suffer.

I assure you that my hair is beginning to grow again, and if you have any scalp trouble, or if you have any hair trouble, take Rezell's Hair Tonic promptly and you will find that it will promptly eradicate dandruff, stimulate hair growth and prevent premature baldness.

Canadian News Notes

Winnipeg, June 23.—(Special)—Premier Roblin was renominated for Carman (Man). Hon. Robert Rogers accepted the nomination for Manitoba. Hon. Mr. Armstrong for Portage La Prairie.

Toronto, June 23.—(Special)—Laratt's speech in the House of Commons today, says Cornell University will only get a share of the estate, there being several legacies to pay first.

Moncton, June 23.—(Special)—The advertising committee of the greater Moncton club has drawn up an elaborate programme for the proposed "Merchants' Week" in August to be submitted to a special meeting tomorrow night. The programme, beginning Monday morning and ending Saturday night, includes trade union and auto parade, trip to the oil wells, base ball, air-ship flights, band concerts, horse races, masquerade dance, fire works, athletic sports, etc.

THE JUNE BRIDES.

There are brides in other months, of course, but the number doesn't compare with June. This is because, as statistics show, more matrimonial engagements are entered into in March than any other month. Then the dear girl is given three months to get ready in.

By marrying in June, you can buy a spring hat at 50 per cent. off. You can go on a bridal tour without taking furs and foot-warmers along. Only a dollar a dozen for roses instead of a dollar apiece. You save $11 right in the beginning.

If you are going to live on your father-in-law, you will find him better-natured in June. His gas bills have commenced to decline, while he can still wear his winter hat.

June is the month of sentiment, and the only one in the 12 when the hearts of a pawnbroker expand toward customers, if you are to pass your honeymoon in the country you will find the most tender and poetic onions and radishes in June. Don't delay a good thing. You may be sorry to see it go.

The reason given for so many proposals in March is the high winds. A fellow blows in and the words blow out before he knows it, and then he has got to tie the June mark or go through with a breach-of-promise suit.

For a second the loop hung snake-like in the air, above the convict's head. Then it fell about him, splashed the curled sand, and was pulled up taut, embracing Barger's waist.

"Host it up under your arms!" called Van. "Try to move your legs when I pull!"

He wasted no time in attempting to haul the convict out himself. He led his pony quickly to the edge, took two half-bitten bits of the rope about the girth of the saddle, then shouted once more to his man.

"Ready, Barger. Try to kick your feet!"

To the horse he said: "Now, Suvy, a strong, steady pull." And taking the pony's bit in hand he urged him slowly forward.

It was wonderful, the comprehension in the broncho's mind. But the pull was an awful thing. The rope came taut—and began to be strained, and Suvy was sweating as he labored. Out on the end of it, bitten by the loop, that slipped ever tighter about him, the human figure was bent very sharply, between the two contending forces.

He let out one yell, for the pain about his chest—made no further sound. The broncho strained upon it. Barger, the rawhide rope was like a fiddle-string. It seemed absurd that an anchor so small, so limber, in the sand, could hold so hard against the horse. Van urged a greater strain. He knew that the rope would hold. His grave could have been more helplessly inert—more stretched out of all living semblance to a man.

Like an old, half-buried pile, reluctant to hedge from its bed in sand and silt, the human form was slowly dragged from the place. No corpse, rudely snatched from its grave, more helplessly inert—more stretched out of all living semblance to a man.

Dandruff Causes Falling Hair and Baldness

Dandruff is the forerunner of baldness. Take care of your hair while you have hair to take care of. Kill the dandruff germs now before the dandruff germs kill your hair.

There is no doubt about it. Doctor Sabouraud proved it when he detected the dandruff germ. It is a tiny, round, pear-shaped germ, and it is the cause of dandruff. It is used extensively by ladies of repute because it keeps the scalp absolutely clean and gives a bewitching lustre to the hair. Price 50 cents at leading druggists everywhere. Get with Auburn hair on every package. Made in Canada by Gironx Mfg. Co., Fort Erie, Ont., Mail orders filled, all charges prepaid.

Paris leads the world in knowledge of diseases of the hair and remedies for the same. And Parisian Saps can now be obtained at leading druggists all over Canada. It is the one great remedy that kills the dandruff germs.

Stories From New Brunswick (Toronto Globe)

A certain local character in a New Brunswick village whose statements were often more emphatic than truthful was once a witness in a petty trial involving the ownership of an auger, and positively identified it as the property of one of the parties to the suit. "Do you swear that you know this auger?" asked the attorney for the other side. "Yes, sir." "How long have you known it?" continued the cross-examiner. "I have known that auger," said the witness in an impressive tone, "ever since it was a gimlet."

In New Brunswick and other Canadian provinces when a wife deserts her husband he frequently publishes a notice like this in the local papers:— "Whereas my wife has left my bed and board without just cause, etc., I will be responsible for no bills of her contracting etc."

Daily Hints For the Cook

RHUBARB WINE. It must be made when the rhubarb is quite ripe. Into 1 gallon of boiling rain water cut 8 pounds of rhubarb in thin slices, put into a tub and cover closely with a thick cloth or blanket. Stir twice daily for a week, then strain through a cloth and add 4 pounds of preserving loaf sugar, the juice of 2 lemons and rind of 1. To refine it take an ounce of singeing and dissolve it in a pint of the liquor in a china lined saucepan. When quite cold add it to the rest of the wine and cork it. When the fermentation is over bung it down.

COTTAGE PUDDING WITH STRAWBERRY SAUCE. Two eggs, one cup sugar, one cup sweet milk, scant 1/2 cup melted butter, two cups flour sifted with 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon soda, one teaspoon cream of tartar, 1/2 teaspoon lemon extract. Serve hot with strawberry or chocolate sauce. Strawberry sauce—Mash strawberries with powdered sugar and let stand one hour or more till there is considerable juice. Pour over pudding when served. Hot chocolate sauce—One-half cup grated chocolate, one cup sugar, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla, one cup hot water. Cook till thick as heavy cream. Pour over cake when served.

LUNCHEON MENUS FOR A HOT DAY 1—Cream of green corn soup, rolled fried bread, cold sliced boiled meat, rolls, pear toast, iced coffee. 2—Meat roll, olive sandwiches, fruit, floating island in glass cups, peach cake. 3—Escalloped vegetables, potato sliced thin, baking powder biscuits, peach cake. 4—Pressed chicken, bread and butter sandwiches, cottage cheese, baked pears served with plain cream, sponge cake, Russian tea. 5—Creamed boiled eggs on toast, bread, sliced tomatoes, peach whip on lady fingers, iced tea. 6—Left-over lamb reheated and sliced, sweet green peppers and tomatoes, crisped raised rolls (re-heated), iced grape juice.

BLUEBERRY CAKE. Two eggs, 1 cup sugar, 1/4 cup melted butter, 2 cups flour, sifted, with 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon soda, 1 teaspoon cream of tartar, 1 1/2 cups blueberries.

Recital Enjoyed The organ recital given in the Queen Square Methodist church last night by Miss F. Eliza Hawker, assisted by Miss Lennie Leaby, of Amherst, and Miss Reta Brennan, of this city, was very largely attended. These young ladies are members of this year's Mount Allison graduating class, and their excellent work last night was warmly applauded. Miss Brennan played several pleasing selections on the organ, and Miss Leaby's violin selections were also well received. Miss Brennan has a singularly flexible voice which is correspondingly sweet and clear, and all of her solos were well rendered. They will assist the choir of the Queen Square Methodist church at the evening service on Sunday.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

THERE is one weakness that it seems to me if I were training a child, I should try to help him to grow up without—and that is the weakness of inaccurate statement. The famous Dr. Johnson is reported to have said: "If the child says he looked out of this window when he looked out of that—whip him." I certainly should not advise any such strenuous measures as that, but I do think it is a good thing to make a decided effort to teach a child the habit of accurate and exact statement.

Teach him not to be specific unless he can be accurate; not to say "I walked four miles," or "I came home at five o'clock," unless it was exactly four miles or five o'clock. Teach him if he is only speaking broadly to say "about," or "somewhere near," or any word or expression that denotes approximately. And, above all things, try to keep him from acquiring that painfully prevalent, sloped habit of exaggeration. The famous boy who told his father he had seen "about a hundred cats scrapping down in our cellar," and then admitted, after a few searching questions, that after all, he was only sure of "our cat and another one," has altogether too many prototypes not only in boy life, but also among grown-ups. How many people's statements you take with a grain of salt!

TRADE WITH OUR NEW SISTER

(Hardware and Metal, Toronto). Now that the British colonies in South Africa have formed a confederation similar to that consummated by the British Colonies in North America forty-three years ago, it is not too much to hope that between these two "Dominions beyond the Seas," a trade and commerce of important and lasting proportions may develop. There is no sound reason why such should not be. They are buyers of that which we are sellers of and vice versa. Lack of enterprise is the only thing that can prevent it. The nucleus of a great trade has already been laid and particularly that pertaining to our exports to South Africa, we selling last year $1,679,738 worth of merchandise and in return buying from them $801,190 worth. Our chief article of export to South Africa is wheat flour, of which we send approximately a million dollars' worth. Agricultural implements, iron, steel and metals came in for $15,787; paper $125,646; wood and manufactures of $115,886; automobiles and other vehicles, $32,659; fruits $22,683; cotton and manufactures of $9,802; leather and manufactures of $4,567; condensed milk, $12,715; provisions, $54,924. Sugar makes up the largest part of our imports from South Africa, the quantity received last year being 31,817,292 lbs., valued at $829,292, which, by the way was the first sugar we imported from that part of the British Empire since 1906. Without sugar our imports are small indeed. In 1907 and 1908, during which we imported no sugar from South Africa, the total amount of our imports was $28,222 and $32,193 respectively. Next to sugar our chief article of import from South Africa is wool, of which we bring in a little over $20,000 worth. Hides and skins and breadstuffs come next at $8,080 and $7,109 respectively. Three years ago Canada subsidized to the amount of $160,000 annually a line of steamers between Canada and South Africa. The service is monthly and sails from St. John and Halifax in the winter and from Montreal in the summer. So far the subsidy cannot be said to have any appreciable effect on the total volume of trade between the two countries. But subsidies alone will not develop trade. They only provide the transportation. The development of trade depends upon the ability and enterprise of the business men engaged in it. There are indications that these factors are at work.

A man pleases himself when he can and a woman when she must. The members of the St. John High School team attended an informal dinner at White's restaurant, King street, last night. William Walsh, captain of the team, presided, and after dinner an interesting musical and literary programme was carried out. The affair broke up soon before midnight.

LITTLE GETS $16,500

The Colored Champion Puts Another $50 Into Police Court—Baseball, Athletic and General News For Sport Followers

San Francisco, June 23—Jack Johnson concluded his stay at the ocean beach today with a fifteen minute interview with an undertaker, Dan Jackson, of Chicago. No one at the training camp appreciated the sombre humor of the situation more than did Johnson. Jackson is a friend of Johnson's and is not here for business. He will be at the ringside.

The champion did not appear in the police court today to answer the charge of fast automobile driving, but allowed the case to go by default, and another $50 was added to the fine which Johnson is obliged to pay for court costs from New York to San Francisco.

One of the most important details of the champion's last day was his final agreement with George Little. Little accepted $16,500 for his past services as Johnson's manager.

Tommy Burns, Bill Lang, of Australia, and Bob Fitzsimmons arrived at Honolulu Tuesday en route to Reno to witness the Jeffries-Johnson fight on July 4. In discussing the coming fight, Fitzsimmons predicted "Johnson will turn white in the ring the first time that Jeffries lands on him."

Jim Smith gave Sallor Burke about the worst beating he has ever known in his somewhat varied career at the Fairmont A. C., New York, Tuesday. In fact, the sailor was given such an efficient whipping, and Smith's inability to hit harder saved Burke from an early knockout.

Smith began to waste into his opponent in the opening rounds with a volley of right and left uppercuts, which carried the tar off his feet. The sailor went to his knees in the second, connected with a right smash to the nose, and in the fourth, and was put down by a left hook in the fifth, when the bell saved him from a knockout.

After that it was a kind of hide and seek affair, but Burke got the best of the fight. Smith chased him around the ring, and each time he caught the sailor he was prevented from landing any efficient blows by Burke's clinching and holding and hugging.

At the end of the tenth round, however, Burke knew he had landed a sound beating.

It is said that the ten-round ring engagement between Abe Attell, world's featherweight champion, and Owen Moran, the British boxer, scheduled to be held tonight, before the Pacific Athletic Club of the Naud Junction Pavilion, Los Angeles, will positively take place. The event will be a boxing match with no flavor of the prize fight game, clinging to it. No other bout will be staged until after the Jeffries-Johnson battle of July 4 has been fought. Naud Junction will be reopened about the middle of July, and the monthly shows of the club will continue as in the past.

This is the fifth of the conclusion given by Attel at the office of the Pacific Athletic Club. Attel received the following telegram from Promoter Louis Bloch, of San Francisco:

"Want you and Moran to come to San Francisco and box twenty rounds on Saturday. The governor has declared that the meeting between you and Moran is a boxing match, and he has no objection to the proposition. He has also declared that the proposition, as it would mean that he would have to break his word with McCarty."

HERE FROM DEMERARA FOR TRADE

Representative of Large Firm of Wholesalers in Town

Mr. Webb Will Seek to Arrange to Handle Larger Quantity—Trade is Growing and There is a Good Market

Among the passengers arriving on the steamer Ocano this morning was Harris S. D. Webb, of Georgetown, Demerara, who is on a visit to Canada to look into the trade possibilities of the Dominion.

Trade between Demerara and this country has increased greatly in the last few years, and there is a good market in the Dominion for Canadian flour, cured fish, lumber, etc.

His firm recently built a large cold storage building in Georgetown and they hope to work up a trade in butter, eggs and meats. The building was erected only about a year ago, and thus far the trade in this direction has not been very great, but it is thought that with proper cold storage facilities on the steamer considerable business in this line of goods can be worked up.

The exports from Demerara consist mainly of sugar, rum and molasses. The former is shipped largely to Montreal direct, though it was only a few years ago that the bulk of the business was handled by New York. The rum and molasses are shipped to the United Kingdom.

The British commission inquiring into trade relations between the West Indies and Canada, is in Demerara recently and gathered information that is expected to result in improving the trade between the two countries.

Mr. Webb has never been in Canada before and he said he was surprised to find that St. John was such a large city. He had supposed it was quite a small place. It was refreshing, he said, to get into the cooler weather. In Demerara the thermometer seldom went below 80, and it reaches 130 degrees in midsummer. He will leave this evening for Halifax.
