GERMANY HERES OF REVOLUTION

Frederick To Press To Have Troops There

Three Organizations at Work and Will Likely Send Delegation to Ottawa—Government House Transferred to Dominion.

(Special to Times.)
Frederick, March 13.—The city council has appointed Ald. Wilkinson, Ald. Campbell and Ald. Neill to take up the matter of urging upon the militia department the desirability of stationing some unit of the permanent forces of Canada in Frederick. The committee will confer with the board of trade and the York Commercial Club, which also are interested in the matter. Harry A. Smith, Lt.-Col. W. J. Osborne, M. P., and Mr. P. H. McLeod, M. P., it is understood that on the removal of the D. S. C. R. from this city, the old government house property in Woodstock Road will be available as barracks. Lieut.-Governor Pugsley last week signed the deed transferring the property to the Dominion. The Queen street barracks are vacant. It is the intention to suggest that the Queen street barracks be not used for troops but be put to some other use. March 29th has been set for the bye-election in King's ward. W. J. Glen, manager of the Victoria mill for Fraser & Co., Ltd., has been asked by some friends to offer but declined. D. W. Oles has also declined.

The Department of Health has been informed of a large and indefinite number of cases of influenza in the parishes of Botsford and Shelburne, Westmorland county. Seven cases of the same disease also were reported from Almirick, Northumberland county, and a reduction of all mild type. Several days ago it was believed the peak of the influenza outbreak in New Brunswick had been reached. The report of cases in the places named does not indicate that there has been any recurrence of a general epidemic. Alderman Thomas S. Wilkinson has been elected deputy mayor.

DOCK WORKERS IN NEW YORK STRIKE

Longshoremen, Checkers and Others Go Out

If All Quit, Say Shipping Men, Coastwise Business Will Be Tied Up—The Demands That the Men Make.

New York, March 13.—A strike of local longshoremen, checkers and dock workers to enforce demands for an increase in wages and adjustment of the strike call. Steamship owners said, however, that if the full membership walked out, coastwise shipping would be nearly tied up.

The longshoremen are now paid sixty-five cents an hour for a fast night hour day with $1 an hour for overtime. The checkers want an increase from $21 a week to $28.50, and a reduction of four hours a week. The dock workers want a 25 per cent increase in wages over their present scale of $83 a week.

Steamship owners declared they were unable to meet the demands because they were bound by the award of the national adjustment commission which was to remain in effect until September 30, 1920.

CAPTAIN'S WIFE HAS NO WORD OF THE T. W. H. WHITE

The Times on Friday was in communication with Mrs. Clark, wife of Captain Olie Clark who resides in St. Andrews, N. B., and she said that she had not received a letter from her husband, who was in command of the schooner T. W. H. White, since early in December. His vessel was bound from Perth Amboy to St. John with coal for R. P. & W. F. Starr, and has not been heard from since December. Some local shipping men still believe the vessel is frozen in at some port on the coast, whence it is difficult to get out news.

THE WEATHER

Up to noon today eight-tenths of an inch of rain fell in the city since yesterday, causing a rapid disappearance of the snow. The temperature yesterday was 42, while today at noon it was 38. The signal for heavy gales has been displayed since yesterday at noon. A warning to shipping to take caution was issued by D. I. Hutchinson of the Meteorological Bureau today, the advice being owing to a disturbance over the Gulf of St. Lawrence and another over the middle Atlantic seaboard. Heavy gales attended by rain were likely, the gales shifting northwesterly on Sunday, St. John's Nfld., and much milder weather. Fog is reported along the coast from Yarmouth to Halifax.

REACTIONARY FORCES, BACKED BY MILITARY POWER, CONTROL

Speculation as to Whether This Aims at Restoration of the Monarchy—Neither Hindenburg nor Ludendorff Takes Any Part Thus Far—U-Boat Advocate Prominent in it—Revolutionary Troops at Berlin.

Berlin, March 13.—The overthrow of the Ebert government was announced in a proclamation issued at ten o'clock this morning after revolting troops from the suburbs had entered Berlin and occupied the Wilhelmstrasse. Up to that hour the movement had proved a peaceful one, no disorders developing.

The proclamation declared that the entire authority of the state had passed into the hands of General Provincial Director Kapp as imperial chancellor and premier of Prussia.

The proclamation, issued over the signature of Imperial Chancellor Kapp, says that the mandate of the national assembly to create a constitution and conclude peace has expired, and it declares the national assembly dissolved.

Berlin, March 13.—The German government has discovered a revolutionary plot organized by a reactionary clique, which also has been endeavoring to corrupt the troops. The public security forces and the Reichswehr have been ordered to barracks in readiness for emergency.

Die Freiheit declares that Gen. von Luttwitz, commander of the first Reichswehr group, is implicated in the plot.

London, March 13.—A proclamation issued in Berlin this morning at ten o'clock stating the German government had ceased to exist, according to a Reuters dispatch from the German capital received here.

The revolting troops entered Berlin this morning and occupied Wilhelmstrasse, the dispatch declares. No acts of violence were reported in the suburbs.

Paris, March 13.—(Havas)—A military proclamation has been issued at Berlin proclaiming a new council, according to advices received here.

In Hands of Director.

Paris, March 13.—(Havas)—Berlin dispatches state that a proclamation issued in Berlin today declares that the government of the empire has ceased to exist and that the power has passed into the hands of Gen. Director von Kapp, who becomes chancellor, and Gen. Director von Lüttwitz, who becomes commander-in-chief of the military forces.

The proclamation declares the national assembly dissolved and that a new government is being formed. The dispatches add that the socialist parties have declared a general strike.

NEWSPAPERS IN NEW YORK

New York, March 13.—Cables received early this morning before the announcement of the Ebert government's resignation indicate that the plot to overthrow the government was foreseen and attempted from the start.

Before being taken to the district attorney's office, Mrs. Wayne said she was ready and willing to tell anything she knew about Jack Dempsey's alleged efforts to evade the draft.

WEATHER REPORT

Issued by authority of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, R. F. Stupart, director of meteorological service.

Gulf and North Shore—Strong winds and gales, fair and cold.

Berlin, March 13.—The government has issued an emphatic protest to the peace conference and to the inter-allied commission for the plebiscite territories in upper Silesia, west Prussia and east Prussia against a series of decrees issued by the commission, which German military contingents will interfere largely with the judicial organization and procedure in the districts concerned. It also is contended that the decrees contravene the stipulations of the peace treaty.

London, March 13.—The troops concentrated at Doberitz, which advanced on Berlin, include the 1st and 2nd Grenadier and Lowenfelden rifle brigades. As early as five o'clock this morning, advices say, they had reached the Triergarten railway station.

COMMERCE INQUIRY RE THE GROCERS

(Canadian Press.) Hamilton, March 13.—The investigation by the board of commerce into the alleged wholesale grocers' combine was concluded yesterday afternoon so far as this city is concerned, and was adjourned until March 22, when the board will sit in Toronto.

A feature of yesterday's inquiry was the grilling of A. S. Porter, Hamilton manager of the Canadian General Electric Company, on whose information the investigation into the wholesale grocers' association was ordered. Mr. Porter was put through a severe cross-examination and he said that he had acted hastily in notifying the government of the alleged combine.

J. Lewis Duncan, a Toronto member of the board, questioned Porter about his hasty action, and intimated that it had embarrassed the board of commerce, which might be occupied three weeks in the investigation. Chairman O'Connor did not take the matter so seriously. He remarked: "The inquiry has served a very useful purpose no matter what it has accomplished."

McLaughlin's Bread Makes Better Husbands When he gets up with a sort of grouch and growls over his chops and toast at breakfast, give him a surprise. Serve McLaughlin's Bread, carefully toasted to a golden brown. It's wonderful. No matter what he says about the coffee, the breakfast is a success if you have McLaughlin's Bread, toasted. —Not every bread toasts well. McLaughlin's Bread is better for every purpose. Served toasted, at breakfast, it makes happy husbands. At all grocers. E. J. McLaughlin SYDNEY—CORNER ORANGE

CHURCH SOCIAL

The Christian Endeavor of Coburg Street Christian church held a social on Friday evening in the church parlors. William J. Hawkins presided and there was a good attendance. Among those present was Miss Sarah Appleman, who has been an invalid for some time and who was driven to the function by friends. An excellent programme was enjoyed. Songs were sung by the assembly, a duet was well rendered by Miss Lila Hoyt and Mrs. F. M. Appleman, and Miss Appleman gave a piano solo entitled "Song of the Alps," which was greatly enjoyed. Rev. F. J. M. Appleman was called for an address and he was heard with keen interest. Refreshments were served.

Required for Health and Beauty

It is surprising that it is necessary to repeat again and again that the health and beauty of the skin require that the blood shall be pure. If the arteries of the skin receive impure blood, pimples and blotches appear, and the individual suffers from humors. Powders and other external applications are sometimes used for these affections, but will never have the desired effect while the causes of impure blood remain.

The in distaste are very clear that Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most successful medicine for purifying the blood, removing pimples and blotches, and giving health and beauty to the skin. It gives tone to all the organs and builds up the whole system. Insist on having Hood's Sarsaparilla when you ask for it. "Don't take anything else."

OUR VISITORS. It is to be remarked that members of the Canadian parliament should know their Canada, and yet it must be confessed there is not enough of that general knowledge which personal visits and personal observation alone can impart.

It is to be remarked that members of the Canadian parliament should know their Canada, and yet it must be confessed there is not enough of that general knowledge which personal visits and personal observation alone can impart. St. John today extends a genuine welcome to the gentlemen from Ottawa.

Our visitors may fairly be reminded that during the war, before the United States entered the struggle, the port of St. John was of inestimable benefit to Canada and the cause of the Allies.

It is obviously a national duty to equip this port for the business of national railways and national steamships. The taking over of the Grand Trunk Pacific and Grand Trunk and the establishment of a merchant marine have completely changed the relationship of St. John to the rest of the country.

There is one local consideration which may be noted, and which ought to appeal to the men of the west, who are so proud of the development of their own province of Canada. It is that New Brunswick as one of the original members of the confederation bore her share uncomplainingly in the task of opening up the west, enlarging the boundaries of the Dominion, and making the great west of today a Canadian possibility.

The Commercial Club has taken the next logical step. It has secured the services of a permanent secretary to give his whole attention to the promotion of the objects determined upon by the club, under the direction of its executive. This will ensure continuity of action, vigorously carried on, in the interests of the city of St. John.

ADVENTURING. I must take the trail again out across the dusty plain. Or through the fragrant meadows where the daily path lies, I must rise and hasten on, and hasten on, and hasten on, and hasten on.

(Halifax Chronicle)

Premier Murray leaves this morning for Boston en route to the south. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Murray, Hugh Murray and Dr. Horace Hainsworth of North Sydney.

When we realize that next summer Mr. Murray will have completed twenty-four years as prime minister of Nova Scotia—a record in the history of British government—it is not to be wondered at that he should feel the need of a vacation, especially after such a severe winter, which has been trying to even the most vigorous and stoutest constitutions.

Mothers-in-Law and Laundrymen

Both mothers-in-law and laundrymen are sometimes the butt of the newspaper humorist. In real life, however, who ever saw a mother-in-law who wasn't helpful and sympathetic and lovable?

In the modern, up-to-date laundry, machinery does not ever touch clothes. Chemicals and artificial "whiteners" are not used. Pure soap and pure hot water are the only cleansing agents. And the "rub-a-dub-dub" of the private laundress, with its wear-and-tear of clothes, is eliminated. Is there any joke in that?

It is just common-sense, and the modern laundry-way is the safe, sensible way for cleansing garments properly.

A departure from the regular wet-wash laundry methods is our special feature of trying the clothes before returning, if desired.

An English Custom Becoming Quite Common in Canada

Every country has its national customs and habits.

For instance, England has the custom of serving afternoon tea.

English homes, stores, offices, factories, work shops, hotels and tea rooms serve afternoon tea. It is part of the national life of England.

Our soldiers poked fun at it, but were not long in acquiring the habit.

And they are not giving it up now that they are back home.

They are influencing a more general adoption of afternoon tea in Canada.

To-day this English custom is quite common in Canadian homes.

It is spreading. New tea rooms are opening all over Canada. Hotels are making a specialty of afternoon tea. The habit is invading offices, stores and work shops.

A few minutes rest in the afternoon with a cup of good tea is a wonderful reviver, giving new zest to the busy business man, stenographer, clerk and worker.

Afternoon tea is a good business proposition.

Easily and quickly made. Very inexpensive.

DEBY GOODS FIRMS CHANGE IN BUSINESS

C. J. Bassen Buys Out One Store—Disposes of Another—Other Changes.

Among the business changes definitely announced to take place in May 1 is the most interesting in the transfer recently decided on, by which J. Bassen, formerly manager of C. J. Bassen's Fairville dry goods store, will take over the business under his own name. After six years at that stand, the new proprietor is certainly qualified to handle the affairs efficiently and uphold the established reputation of Fairville's greatest retail store.

Yukon Territory Has Linked Itself With Great North American Sahara.

Dawson, Y. T., March 12—The proposed union of the "dry" forces in the recent plebiscite means that the vast Yukon Territory, extending from the Arctic Ocean to British Columbia, comprising an area equal to that of Ontario—has linked itself to the great North American Sahara—trying to dry the continent from Mexico to the North Pole. The Yukon voted against the sale of liquor of any kind for beverage purposes. Women had a vote in this plebiscite, as well as for legislative assembly, and the dry vote, it is declared, was largely to their efforts. One woman prohibitionist, Mrs. G. Shary, traveled 100 miles to cast her vote.

ASK $50 WEEKLY FOR NURSING INFLUENZA.

Calgary, Alta., March 12—Discussion is rife here over the action of the Graduate Nurses' Association in raising the weekly charge for the nursing of "flu" cases to $50. The nurses justify their action by the heavy duties which devolved upon them, while families often being stricken at the same time. Mrs. C. R. Edwards, convener of the public health committee of the Local Council of Women, strongly protests, saying that if the resolution is effect it will be cheaper to die than to call in trained assistance. She argues that the humanitarian side of the question is the first thing that should be considered.

Looking for Flax Straw.

Inquiries are now being made in an effort to find where such straw can be secured in order to secure the market which this request opens to western Canada.

EXPLODING EXPLOITING OF "OLDEST MAN"

Supposed to Be 131 Years Old — Doctor Says He Is Not a Hundred.

(Toronto Mail and Empire.)

Some time ago an account was given in this column of John Shell of Kentucky, who was said to be 131 years old. He was put forward as the oldest man in the world, and on this assumption thousands of people paid their dimes for the privilege of looking at him in side shows and shaking his pulsed hand. Now arises Dr. I. L. Nascher, after an investigation into the facts, to declare that Shell is only 97, and that the contention that he is a centenarian was put forward by a little group of three or four men, who have exploited him and made a small fortune as a result. Dr. Nascher invaded Kentucky for the sole purpose of examining Shell, for it is not often a doctor has an opportunity of inspecting a centenarian. Whether he expected to find fraud is not said, but Dr. Nascher's article in the Sun and New York Herald gives the impression that he was not astonished at what he found. In the first place he notes that Shell lives in one of the most inaccessible places in the habitable United States. A journey of twenty miles, partly on a razor-backed mule, occupied a day. There was another stage of twenty miles of which sixteen only were covered in a day. It is impossible to reach the Shell homestead, he says, without a guide, and as a rule the Kentuckians do not welcome visitors. He believes that advantage has been taken by those who exploited Shell of the fact that it requires much time and no little determination to reach the old man.

Says He is 131.

He carefully examined Shell, who is undoubtedly the oldest man he ever met, but saw nothing that might not be found in a man of more than ninety and less than a hundred. He says he is not only old but he is illiterate and mentally defective, and his own statement about his age or about anything else is not to be relied upon. He declared he is suffering from a garrulous form of senile dementia, with hallucinations and delusions, but the magic figure "131" has been so thoroughly drilled into him that he never makes a mistake on this vital point. No doubt if he lives another couple of years he will continue to insist that he is one hundred and thirty-one. Dr. Nascher tested him on many other points and found his statements contradictory. He didn't remember how long he was married and could not make feeble guesses at the ages of his children, but he had no doubt whatever that he was 131 years old. And if you didn't believe him the first time he would tell you again.

The Mysterious Receipt.

The chief support of the claim that John Shell is as old as he says is an alleged receipt dated 1820 in payment of a tax, and nobody would be liable for this tax who was not of voting age. Where is this receipt? Dr. Nascher could not find it. None of those whom he interviewed had ever seen it, although one of the three or four men who exploited the aged man claimed to have seen a receipt dated 1820. This definite statement made by the subject himself was when he was a witness in a law suit in 1911, when he said that he "thought he was born in the same year as Lincoln," which was 1809. That would make him 111, or twenty years younger than the advertisements claimed for him. His statements about his age somewhat recall the story of the old negro who had been carefully coached as a witness by a rather unscrupulous lawyer. Upon his testimony depended the issue. His statements were most punctilious, and all efforts to discredit him on the grounds of uncertain memory failed until just as he was preparing

SPANKING MACHINE DOES DUTY NOBLY

Treatment Effective With Boys and Girls Alike — Police Are Operators.

Spanking, administered by a "spanking machine" has made Bridgeton a town of well-behaved boys and won fame for the mayor, Arthur C. Whitaker, who originated the "machine," and who directs its operation. "Spare the rod and spoil the child" is no mere proverb at the local city hall, no mere motto of the Bridgeton correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer. More than 100 boys and a few girls have gone through the "spanking machine" in the seven years that Mr. Whitaker has been mayor, so busy in the city hall and in the municipal stage, he says. Only one boy out of that number ever came back for "more." Subject to Mention.

Until recently the nature of the "spanking machine" has been very much of a mystery. Mayor Whitaker and his police would not tell what it was and those who went through it considered it too "sore" a subject to mention after-ward. The spanking are all administered privately in a back room at the city hall and Mayor Whitaker makes the names of the boys who are spanked. "The 'spanking machine' avers in no wise of the old whipping post. It is not an implement of torture but for benevolent punishment of the boys. Mayor Whitaker, who has a red-blooded boy of his own, said the mayor, "and when we spank them we try to make them see that it is for their own good. When I went into office seven years ago I decided that no Bridgeton boy should be railroaded through the county jail or reformatory for some petty offense if I could help it. So when the boys were brought before me for petty crimes and offenses, I conceived the idea of the 'spanking machine' as offering the best solution for their cases. No youthful offender is ever spanked without the full consent of his or her parents. The 'machine' is 'cranked up' to fit the fragility of the crime.

Police Do Spanking.

"When a boy commits some offense that gets him into the hands of the police, he is brought before me and if the offense warrants it, I sentence him to the 'spanking machine.' I have nothing to do with the administering of the spanking. The police do that. After going through the machine, the boy is brought back to my office. He usually has tears in his eyes and is in a humble spirit. I talk to him and show him where he has done wrong and the effect of it. I invite the boys to come back and tell me how they are getting along and to seek my advice in any of their troubles. At times I find as high as a dozen boys waiting here at any one time to be spanked. I have had boys from all over the county—everyone of them a boy that I had previously sentenced to be spanked."

"The oldest fellow we ever put through the machine was twenty-three years old. He had committed an offense that would have sent him to jail and he chose the whipping himself rather than be put behind the bars. He had it laid on pretty hard. He was so ashamed of what he had done and of the spanking he got that he left town the next day and we have never heard about him since."

Mayor Whitaker has used the "spanking machine" exclusively for juvenile offenders, with this single exception, but he believes that if properly geared up it would be quite effective for wife beaters. Girls Spanked, Too.

"Yes, we spank girls, too, sometimes," admitted the mayor, "but I don't spank as many of them as we do boys." Some of the Bridgeton fathers have hung up the old willow or hick switch in the woodshed since they heard of the "spanking machine" and when Johnny gets too obstreperous around home they send him around to the city hall with a note to the mayor or the police commissioner to perform that duty that "hurts more than it does you, my son."

"Parents who have seen how effective the 'spanking machine' is, occasionally ask me to spank their boys for them," said Mayor Whitaker. "If the boy has been really bad and has gotten beyond the control of his parents we usually try to accommodate them."

The fact that it is known that there is a "spanking machine" at the city hall has quite a moral effect upon the young generation of the city. "I've had fathers come and ask me what kind of a machine it is," said

Infant Feeding All that is needed to prepare Carnation Milk for the infant's use is proper dilution with pure water. Always use Sterilized Condensed Milk. Ask your doctor.

Children Like Their Cereals More — Eat More — With This Wholesome Milk

Eager to get out in the air—to play outside—the kiddies are often too impatient to eat a hearty breakfast.

Low-cost, nourishing food—like porridge and other cereals, should be made appetizing for them by using rich, creamy milk. Try them with Carnation Milk.

Serve it as rich as they like it. Part of the water has been evaporated from the milk, giving Carnation a creamy richness. For tea or coffee it is just right. Some also use it as it is for cereals. But for the children's cereal, add water to Carnation Milk.

An equal part of water reduces Carnation to a natural "whole" milk. Even more water can be added for the children's drink.

POLICE COURT.
In the police court this morning, a case against Robert E. Wilson, charged with non-support, was resumed. He was allowed by the court to make arrangements for support of his wife.

The case against Thomas Petrie and George Drew, on suspicion of breaking and entering into the store of Sydney Isaacs in Mill street, several weeks ago, was resumed. On account of the illness of Mr. Isaacs, who recently went south for his health, the prosecution closed the case and Petrie was committed for trial, while Drew was ordered to take his trial but not on commitment.

Robert Lovely was charged with sending threatening letters to Robert E. Jones, saying he would get even with him. Mr. Jones asked that the accused be compelled to get sureties to keep the peace.

The accused pleaded guilty, but said he blamed the complainant, with advising his wife to leave home and on account of this he sent the letters. He is a native of Perth, and a stranger here, so until proper sureties are obtained he must remain in jail.

One man charged with drunkenness pleaded guilty and was remanded, while another was arrested in the Union station yesterday morning but was too drunk to appear in court until this morning. N. B. Policeman Ross, who made the arrest, told of the incident, and the accused was remanded.

A SAMPLE BRICK.
The Standard this morning says: "The course adopted by the leader of the opposition so took the government aback that despite the fact that the house had still two hours to sit, Premier Foster moved the adjournment so that he might consult his colleagues as to how they were to get out of the mess."

"That the leading organ of the opposition should feature this falsehood after the premier had courteously deferred the debate on the address to suit the convenience of the leader of the opposition is characteristic of the opposition idea of fairness."

The house adjourned early yesterday as is the invariable rule early in the session, in order that members might catch the train home for the week-end. The Standard knew this, and deliberately misrepresented the case.

HOPES AND AIMS OF FOUNDERS OF THE DOMINION

Sir John Macdonald, Before Confederation, Saw Future Greatness of St. John and Halifax.

It will interest today's visitors from the west to know what was in the mind of Sir John Macdonald in relation to national ports when he was urging these provinces to unite with old Canada and form the Dominion of Canada. Speaking in Halifax before Confederation, he expressed his views regarding that port, and the same views were expressed regarding Winnipeg, Toronto and St. John the Atlantic terminus of the Canadian Pacific and a terminus of two great lines of government railway, the words of Sir John Macdonald have special significance.

He said in Halifax: "We recognize, however, the fact that peace may not always exist, and that we must have some other means of outlet if we do not wish to be cut off from the ocean for some months in the year. We wish to see greater security—to know that we can have assistance readily in the hour of danger. In the case of a union, this railway would be a national work, and Canada will cheerfully contribute to the utmost extent in order to make that important link without which no political connection can be complete. What will be the consequence to this city, provinces as it is, from that connection? Montreal is at this moment competing with New York for the trade of the great west. Build the road and Halifax will soon become one of the great emporiums of the world. All the great resources of the west will come over the immense railways of Canada to the bosom of your harbor. But there are even greater advantages for us all in view. We will become a great nation, and God forbid that it should be one separate from the united kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland." (Cheers.)

Secretary's Report.

The report of A. E. France, provincial secretary, told of six new branches formed during the year, making the total twenty-two for the province. The new branches organized were at Milltown, Perth, McAdam, Campbellton, Centreville and Hampton. The report recommended appointment of a committee to select points in the province where it would be desirable to have branches formed, and pointed out the need of a provincial organizer.

During the year a committee composed of Comrade Kinneer, Allingham and France had interviewed the premier as to a cash grant to the provincial command. The answer was not satisfactory according to the report, and will be brought before the convention.

The secretary recommended the appointment of a committee to look into the policy of the Farm Settlement Board in the province. It said: "Apparently the settlers are not going on crown lands but on worked farms. This policy will not tend to increase our production nor cultivated areas, but rather to cause an increase in land values by the demand for ready-made farms."

The report spoke of more than 400 questionnaires sent to widows of soldiers in the province, and their being used as evidence at the hearing of the parliamentary committee. The report was laid on the table for discussion.

The financial report, audited and found correct, showed total receipts of $1,644.05 and expenditures of $1,205.86.

MODERN TEACHING LARGELY TO BLAME

Tends to Continue War Spirit, Mlle. Clement Tells Canadian Club—Must Change System.

(Montreal Gazette.) So interesting proved the address given by Mlle. Clement at the luncheon yesterday at the Windsor Hotel by Mlle. Clement, of Paris, on "How Can Education Enforce Peace and Support the League of Nations?" that at the conclusion of her address Mlle. Clement was heartily cheered by the audience. Her thesis was that in the past education had been all wrong and that the emphasis on war and national hatreds, and that to prevent the recurrence of such a world catastrophe as the nations are now trying to recover from, it is necessary to begin with the children, and inculcate into the minds of the young the gospel of peace and forbearance. She at times made references to the manner in which early training had been taken advantage of by the Germans, since for many generations school children's minds had been poisoned by teachings of hate against France and other nations, and Mlle. Clement quoted some of the songs and other stuff taught the German children, full of the most bloodthirsty ideas toward the French.

It was Ladies' Day at the Canadian Club, a number of the executive of the Women's Canadian Club having seen at the head table. G. C. McDonald presided, and expressed the pleasure the Canadian Club had at hearing one of the daughters of France, which had suffered so greatly during the war, and borne itself so nobly. He also announced that there would be six more regular meetings during the present season, and that the speaker next Monday would be chairman E. R. Decary, of the Administrative Commission, who would speak on "Municipal Affairs."

Shifting Blame for War. Mlle. Clement in opening said that since the peace all the nations were trying to shift the responsibility for the war onto someone else. Most people have an idea who precipitated the conflict, but she argued that many others were guilty, if not by sins of commission, then by sins of omission. One of the chief sins of omission was the failure of teaching children the horrors of war and bringing them up with a settled idea toward permanent peace. On the contrary, children were taught history which dealt chiefly with war heroes, campaigns and the glories of victories, while even in their toys the little ones were given drums and trumpets, and she wondered that now they had not been supplied with poison gas toys. Therefore, she considered that modern education was to a large extent responsible for the continuation of the war spirit. Even the games played by the young were along the same line, with two sides opposing each other in sporting combat—fortunately in most countries with the ideals of chivalrous fair play. Mlle. Clement, while not deprecating fair sport, urged that more attention be given choral singing and other more intellectual and artistic forms of amusement. War had taught only destruction, she said, and anyone who visited devastated France would realize the remarkable perfection to which that art had been carried.

All this should start with the text books in the schools, because the first lessons were the most enduring, and

"My baby had a very bad case of eczema. It started in small pimples and spread on her arms and face and limbs, as far as her hips. The skin was sore and red, and the itching was so bad that she wanted to scratch all the time. She was cross and fretful and could not sleep day or night.

"Then I used Cuticura, and when I had used four cakes of Soap and four boxes of Ointment she was cured. (Signed) Mrs. George Hiesler, R. F. D. 2, Box 44, Coopers Mills, Me., May 6, 1919. the present lessons all tend toward war. She considered that the future text books should be arranged so as to inculcate in the minds of the young ideals of peace and good will, and repulsion to the horrors of war, especially modern war. As an instance of the failure of modern text books, she stated that many French wounded soldiers, who were very anxious to visit the compound where captured Germans were kept, saying they had been at the front, fought and been wounded, but had never yet seen a German.

No Racism in France. Mlle. Clement quoted from French text books to show the absence of racism, and that the French people were

SKIMMED MILK AIRPLANE GLUE

Resists Weather Conditions to Which Machines Are Subjected.

Aeroplane construction will be much helped by the new water-resisting glue made from casein taken from skimmed milk. The result of important chemical researches by S. Butterman, of the Forest Products Laboratories, which the United States Department of Agriculture maintains at Madison, Wis., undertaken at the instance of the army and navy, are now made public. They will prove helpful in the general progress of the art in aircraft construction, in the opinion of experts.

Although the Forest Products Laboratory has nothing to do with dairies, it did much valuable work in getting spruce for aeroplanes during the war, and it was therefore asked to work out a good formula for putting the parts of the flying machine together. Mr. Butterman describes the technical details for his fellow members of the American Chemical Society, in a publication of that organization, the Journal of Industrial and Engineering Chemistry.

The severe weather conditions to which aeroplanes are subjected and the impracticability of covering all the glued joints with water glass or other water-proof coatings, caused the most exacting requirements to be made for water-resisting glues. The new glues are commercially available for other purposes as well, and with the aid of the formula now placed at the disposal of manufacturers may be employed by glue factories which serve all industries.

Casein, the principal protein of milk and the basis of cheese, is combined in its natural state with lime, from which it is freed by precipitation. It has differed somewhat in quality, and the efforts of the government are being about a standardization which will be very helpful in carrying out formula for the glue-making. The skimmed milk does as well, for the making of casein if not better than whole milk. Hence the product can be obtained cheaply, and the casein which does not go into cheesemaking can be used for glue.

As casein is not dissolved in water, it must be made into a mullage or paste by putting it into a solution of some caustic alkali. When the mixture dries in it is insoluble in rain and hence its value when it is used on materials exposed to damp and stormy weather.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY. The ice crop is said to be the most valuable of all the crops harvested in the state, an acre of it in Kalamazoo being worth $3,000. We don't care to start any cut-throat competition, but there's half an acre on our sidewalk which some one can have for $1,000 if he will cut it and haul it away himself.—Detroit News.

ANTI-BRITISH ACTION IN EGYPT REPORTED

A despatch from Cairo states that fifty-two members of the Egyptian legislative assembly recently adopted a resolution proclaiming the independence of Egypt and the Sudan, and protesting against the suspension of the assembly and denouncing the British protectorate.

It is reported that the British government has received a communication from the Egyptian assembly, in which they expressed their indignation at the suspension of the assembly and their determination to continue their struggle for independence.

The British government has replied to the communication, stating that it is unable to accept the demands of the Egyptian assembly, and that it will continue to maintain the protectorate over Egypt and the Sudan.

The Egyptian assembly has announced that it will continue to meet in secret, and that it will continue to work for the independence of Egypt and the Sudan.

The British government has stated that it will continue to support the Egyptian people in their struggle for independence, and that it will continue to maintain the protectorate over Egypt and the Sudan.

Doctors Stand Amazed at Power of Bon-Opto to Make Weak Eyes Strong—According to Dr. Lewis

Guaranteed to Strengthen Eyesight 50% In One Week's Time in Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home

Philadelphia, Pa. Victims of eye strain and other eye weaknesses, and those who wear glasses, will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope and help for them. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored by this remarkable prescription and many who once wore glasses say they have thrown them away. One man says, after using it: "I was almost blind, could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without my glasses and my eyes do not hurt any more. At night they would pain dreadfully. Now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with my eyes without glasses, but after using this prescription for 10 days everything seemed clear. I can read even fine print without glasses." Another who used it says: "I was bothered with eye strain caused by overworked, tired eyes which induced severe headaches. I have worn glasses several years both for distance and work, and without them I could not read my own name on an envelope or the type writing on the machine before me. I can do both now and have discarded my long distance glasses altogether. I can count the fluttering leaves on the trees across the street now, which for several years have looked like a dim green haze to me. I cannot express my joy at what it has done for me. It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reason-

WHAT ORGANIZED LABOR THINKS OF PROHIBITION

Labor-leaders know the views of the workers as well as politicians know the wishes of their constituents, possibly better, for organized labor makes its wants known in no uncertain manner. Consequently, when The Literary Digest wished to learn for its readers the attitude of the workman regarding prohibition, inasmuch as we could not ask the individual union worker because there are about four million of him, we asked their duly elected officials.

In this week's number of THE LITERARY DIGEST—March 13th—a summary of the very interesting replies is published. Approximately thirty per cent. of the 526 replies of labor-leaders inform us that a poll was taken on the question at the regular meeting. Replies came from every State in the Union, and they reflect a considerable sweep of opinion.

"Why don't you 'sick' the prohibitionists on the profiteers?" "No man has a right to dictate to another what he shall eat or drink, except the doctor;" "There have been more deaths and murders in the period since prohibition went into effect than there were in the same period last year;" are a few of the many replies against prohibition. "Money which formerly bought whiskey is now buying happiness for the workingman's family;" "Men have more of the good things in life since the dry law went into effect;" "Since prohibition is in force, the workers are capable of clearer thinking and do more of it," are typical expressions from the many leaders who favor prohibition.

If you would learn from first hand sources the real opinion of the workman upon the subject of prohibition, you will do well to read the LITERARY DIGEST this week. Other interesting news-features in this week's "Digest" are:

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

Look years younger! Use the old-time Sage Tea and Sulphur and nobody will know.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a bottle of "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied. Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriously dark and beautiful. This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound tonight and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days. This preparation is a toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

London Interest Keen In Washington Action

Awkward Situation Over Adriatic Question—Bolshevism in England—Matter of Buying German Goods—The Subject of America and Whiskey—News of London.

(From Our Own Correspondent.) London, Feb. 12.—News from America is being watched just now with the most dramatic interest. There is a feeling that the same impetuous decisions on the part of Mr. Lansing's dismissal may have dictated the president's note to the Allies on the Adriatic settlement. Probably few general readers of the newspapers are acquainted with the facts of this question. But what has happened, that Italy, strongly disapproving of the terms drafted as between herself and the Jugos-Slavs by France, America and Britain in consultation, the settlement was revised by France and ourselves. This revised version has now been turned down by America through the president. The situation is very awkward and causing further irritation between the powers who are, in their cordial agreement and loyal co-operation, the only hope of the league. The difficulty is to determine how far the charges made against the presidential state of affairs in America are partisan and how far justified.

Lord Phillimore.
I hear that Lord Phillimore will probably accept the post of British legal representative on the League of Nations Council. With possibly the exception of Lord Birkhead, who is understood to have had the first refusal of the post, but is too much occupied with his judicial work to accept it, Lord Phillimore is the greatest living authority on international law, and was president of the International Law Association from 1905 to 1908, and has written several standard books on the subject. He is a great High Churchman, and as president of the English Church Union, was recently responsible for the much-discussed letter to the Bishop of Durham, protesting against the invitation to Dr. Jowett to preach in the Cathedral. Called to the bar in 1868, he had a brilliant career both as a lawyer and parliamentarian, being created Baron in 1916, and going to the House of Lords as a law lord.

The Bohemian Element.
One finds a distinct disposition to laugh at any suggestion of real Bolshevism in this country. But the Labor party knows better than to adopt this easy attitude. The nebulous doctrines of Leninism have spread curiously in lized. Bankers declare that we ought to be selling our own manufactures to America, where the exchange is in favor of the importer, and buying from Germany where the opposite is the case, instead of buying heavily from America, as we are now doing. A motor car dealer who has an office near Piccadilly Circus, tells me that if he could obtain the necessary permits from the board of trade, he could buy cars from Germany, in spite of the high cost of everything there, and sell them in England much cheaper than the present prevalent prices. British manufacturers are naturally anxious that their goods should be no governmental sanction of German "dumping" but in the case of cars the British manufacturer cannot hope to fill the present enormous demand for them, and the only person who would be prejudiced would be the American importer, every one of whose cars sold in this country adds some £10 to the depreciation of our currency.

The New Silver.
The new shillings, sixpences and other silver coins which are to be issued are likely to be in a great demand by collectors, for they will probably be withdrawn after a short experience. For a generation and more the mint authorities have made a large profit on the silver coinage; although the sovereign always contained 12 worth of gold. Now the amount of silver in the shilling contains 1s. 4d. worth of silver, and obviously the government cannot go on putting an amount of silver into circulation which will only one-half silver and contain 1d. worth of that metal. The question is what is the best alloy which will be cheap enough to employ. It must not cost more than five-pence a shilling and, of course, the rise in silver has been accompanied by an appreciation in the price of other metals. The recent purchase of nickel is, no doubt, for experimental purposes. By reducing the amount of silver in the shilling the government can not only avoid fresh loss on coinage, but by calling in the old coins and melting them down, can get two shillings out of one.

American Whiskey.
The complications of a "dry" America are only just beginning to make themselves apparent. There are several problems to be considered. The arrival of the Comar Marcellins, with every bottle and barrel aboard bone dry, instanced one danger. Because Americans are lately "dry" on high democratic principle, is that any reason why they should, from sheer suppressed thirst, drink the ale of drinks in those countries, or under those flags where it is still permitted? It has always been regulated on an international basis. Ought not Americans to be refused drinks in the interests of other nationalities a little perhaps, but mainly in their own interests? We ought to encourage American whiskey high resolves, and not to "pretend." But another and more serious question

German Cars.
In banking circles there is a very definite opinion that the prejudice against buying goods of German manufacture will have to be overcome. The international exchange is to be stabilized.

Round the World.
Theatrical managers who before the war tried to engage casts for plays visiting the colonies always complained that they could not get the young talent they wanted. Now things are changed, and just at present when several companies are sailing for India, Australia and elsewhere, many ex-officers who acquired a taste for travel at the expense of the war office during the war see in these tours a profitable means of seeing the world and in one company which sails for India in April, and is about to begin rehearsals of a recent masterpiece by a lady playwright, two ex-officers are to play the lead. One served in the flying corps and the other in the Militia, and the other commanded a company in the Bedfordshire regiment. I also hear that a company is going to visit Australia playing "The Lilac Domino," and that, although arrangements are by no means complete, but comparatively inexpensive, the only drawback perhaps a slightly supercilious regard for the theatres who hold our money suspect. And at one table, reading his evening paper and sipping coffee, and the one talked of artistic celebrity of the moment in London—Jacob Epstein. Everybody is talking of seeing him, and nobody notices him, which is the charm of the real Sob.

Ex-Soldiers on the Stage.
Lyn Harding, who is now playing at the Lyric Theatre and is an enthusiastic member of the Actors' Association, endorses the complaint of young actors who are anxious to return to the stage after service in the army, but find the fact that they have served tells against them in obtaining parts. He told me that managers are afraid of engaging the ex-soldier, even if he has had previous experience, as they hold the opinion that every man who has served overseas is suffering in some degree from nerves, and may prove unreliable if entrusted with an arduous part. To some extent this is doubtless true, as no one who has spent three years in Palestine or the East is physically the same man as before the war, but one would expect that theatrical managers, who carried a reputation during the war for generosity by organizing charitable performances, would show a little latitude in dealing with men for whom they themselves did so much. This, however, is not the case. The man applying for parts is actually being advised not to mention their war service when being interviewed with a view to an engagement.

Maggie Makes Trouble.
The telegraphic contraction for May-August delivery is the word "Maggie" and is generally used in commercial transactions when making or accepting an offer by wire. A well-known city man who inadvertently placed in his pocket and took home with him two purely business telegrams found some difficulty in convincing his wife that his truthful explanation was not an ingenious fabrication. The wires referred to a deal in linseed oil which had been subsequently dealt with by telegraph. The first ran, "What can you offer me Maggie?" and the second "Can meet you Maggie?" Unfortunately on the date of the letter the husband had been unexpectedly detained late in town and his wife connected the fact with the wording of the wire and was not to be convinced easily. Finally the unfortunate man had to call in a hilarious friend to vouch for the use of the word "Maggie" and in the manner of such little episodes the story is traveling in the city.

DEEP-SEA DIAMONDS.
In a few years' time we may be able to obtain thousands of perfect diamonds from the sea-bed. Experiments are now being made with a view to ascertaining whether these deep-sea diamonds really exist in quantities large enough to be obtained commercially. If that proves to be so, then the diamond trade will be revolutionized, and instead of paying $20 a carat for an impure brilliant, we shall be able to obtain an otherwise priceless diamond for about twenty-eight shillings. Diamonds are now being mined extensively in Damara-land, South Africa, and it has been proved beyond all doubt

New Standards of Value
$1365 GRAY-DORT
F.O.B. CHATHAM WARTAX EXTRA

Gray-Dort has brought peace-time standards of value to the motor car business. Greater value than the light car has heretofore offered. $1365 brings you a car comparable with those costing several hundred dollars more.

LOOK FOR THESE THINGS IN THE CAR YOU BUY

The Gray-Dort motor is big enough for its job—not stunted—3 1/2" bore and 5 1/2" stroke—with big water jackets and a big honeycomb radiator. The crankshaft is bulky—many pounds heavier than other builders of light cars think necessary. The pistons are extra-light and three-ringed. Special design prevents valve-wrapping. High-carbon steel gives toughness to moving parts.

The carburetor is a Carter-improved this year. Westinghouse starting and lighting. Connecticut ignition (newly improved).

The whole chassis parallels the motor in quality. Heavy frame of channel steel. Husky rear axle. Chatham-built. Long springs, cantilever in the rear, and built here under our inspection. The big brakes now have Thermoid lining. A new steering gear, 50% larger and stronger than the light car standard.

The Gray-Dort is as pleasing to the artist and to the driver as it is to the mechanic.

The smooth lines of the body are restful after so much of the extreme in present-day cars. The Gray-Dort finish, development of 80 years' coach-building, will win your instant and lasting approval. Add the smartness of French-pleated upholstery, and a new top, tailored in our own shops.

AND YET THE PRICE IS $1365, (PLUS WAR TAX)

You know that such a car as the Gray-Dort is in heavy demand at $1365. We have doubled our production this year. But there is likely to be a shortage. See the Gray-Dort dealer now.

PRICES

The Gray-Dort 5-passenger car, finished in Gray-Dort green and black and with standard equipment is $1365 f.o.b. Chatham. War tax extra.

The roomy 2-passenger roadster is the same price.

THE GRAY-DORT SPECIAL

For the man who wishes something a little extra in his car, we have built the Gray-Dort Special. Maroon body, with brown raynet top. Flat glass rear window. Cissy curtains. Rookin tap water. Motometer. Tilting steering wheel. Real leather upholstery. Mahogany instrument board. Just the touches which lift this car above the ordinary. $150 extra on the standard.

AND THE ACE

The Gray-Dort Ace—the most beautiful light car of to-day. Sapper green body with handsome California top to match.

Trouble Lamp and bull-eye flashlight. Electric cigar lighter. Rear-vision mirror. Flat glass wing-cigar lighter. Over, grooved-tread tires. This is the de luxe car for the man who does not wish to pile up a tremendous operating cost. $225 extra on the standard.

HON. J. A. MURRAY
MOVES AMENDMENT

Heard in Criticism of Speech
From Throne—House Adjourned.

Fredericton, March 12.—Hon. J. A. Murray leader of the opposition, was heard in criticism of the speech from the throne today. Owing to the members having to catch the evening train or their homes, adjournment was moved early by Premier Foster. The house will sit again Tuesday afternoon. After extending his congratulations to the mover and second of the reply, Mr. Murray referred to the Carleton place, appointments to the office of the River Glade sanitarium, in administration of the agricultural department and the completion of the alley railway. The only matter was introduced in the latter part of his speech when the opposition leader moved an amendment to the reply, urging an increase in the stumpage rates of timber cut on crown lands from 3.50 per thousand feet, to seven dollars, giving as reasons the higher value of amber and the higher rates paid to owners of private lands.

The amendment was received with evident interest on the part of the members and visitors and was the subject of considerable discussion after the issue arose. It was pointed out that Mr. Murray, in comparing the stumpage rates paid to the government and to private owners, had not taken into consideration the additional charges which are of crown lands must pay. These charges include the mileage of ground of eight dollars a square mile, the bonus paid for the twenty-year lease, ranging from twenty dollars to $100, and averaging about seventy-five dollars a square mile; and also the annual fire tax of $2.20 a square mile, which figures are paid on all lands leased whether they are being cut over or not. Mr. Murray, in moving the amendment, stated that after the word "identical" in the proposed amendment to the speech of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor the following words should be added:

"But we regret that your honor's speech does not contain any information if the intention of the government is to overcome the serious deficit in the ordinary current accounts of the province, amounting for the fiscal year ended 31st October last to $877,686.22, by taking steps to increase the territorial revenue proportionately to the increase in the rate of stumpage which in the opinion of this House should be advanced from the present rates of $3.00 and $3.50 per thousand feet to $7.00 per thousand feet."

Belmore, Ont., March 12. (Special.)—
"I can assure you that Dodd's Kidney Pills helped my aching back as no
others ever did or ever will do."
It is Mrs. Robert Baird, a well known and highly respected resident here, who makes this statement. She is an enthusiastic believer in Dodd's Kidney Pills as a remedy for weak and run down
women.
"I was both weak and run down all last summer," she states further. "And
before my baby was born I used Dodd's Kidney Pills. They helped me in every way. I also had my little boy take them and they benefited him greatly."
"Women who are weak and run down
should look first to their kidneys. No woman can be strong and healthy if her kidneys are not doing their full work. Straining the impurities out of the blood. Weak kidneys are the cause of nine-tenths of woman's ills. Ask your

make strong healthy kidneys."

EDUCATION SUPERINTENDENT'S
ANNUAL REPORT

The annual report of the chief superintendent for education in New Brunswick has been tabled at Fredericton in the legislature and says that the year
was the most discouraging in the history of the province. The influenza epidemic and smallpox played havoc with
the records.
There were 1,839 schools in operation
during the first term, a decrease of 89
over the previous term; the number of teachers instructing was 2,075, a decrease of 77, and the number of pupils 62,224,
a decrease of 2,808. Apparently there was a total registration of pupils during the year of 71,029.
There are tables showing the different enrollment figures from 1896 to 1919. In 1898 there were 60,154 pupils in the June term; in 1919 there were only 64,029.
The banner year in the intervening period was 1916, when 66,548 pupils were enrolled.
The question of teachers' salaries is dealt with at considerable length in different portions of the report. It is interesting to note that there has been considerable increase, in spite of the low average at the present time, over the amounts paid ten years ago. In 1909, Grammar school teachers then only averaged a little more than $1,000 and they are averaging only more than $1,200.
Superior school teachers ten years ago
averaged $695, today they average $901. First-class male teachers have nearly doubled their salaries in ten years.
In 1909 they received an average of $841
and in 1919 $1,200.49. Second-class male teachers were not quite so fortunate, only increasing from $522 to $596, while
third-class male teachers went from $292
a year in 1909, to $705 in 1919,
and second-class female teachers from $388 to $427, while third-class female teachers went from $218 to $382.
There are some very interesting tables
in connection with the normal school attendance and the examinations and the list of successful applicants for license
and for entrance examination.
Total Expenditures.
The whole amount spent in connection with the public schools as reflected from the various amounts voted at the annual school meetings, the county funds and
the provincial grants, as well as reported in this report, is $1,620,258.54. Of this amount the sum raised by the people, as voted at annual meetings, was $1,184,997.
and the balance of $435,261.54, the proportion of the report of the school
inspectors there are also important reports from the principal of the normal school and from the superintendents of the schools of St. John, Moncton and Fredericton, as well as a report from the superintendent of the school book department showing the present cost of the school books supplied by the government
in comparison with their selling price.
Taking a list of the readers, scribblers,
copy books and drawing books, etc., the combined cost of them is $261,132 as compared with the former cost of $291,120,
but the selling price, less the discount,
is only $74, so the province is losing
nearly one-half of what the books cost them. The superintendent reports that the cost is ninety per cent more than they receive.
Among the recommendations of the chief superintendent is that the salaries of the school inspectors should be increased; that there be a change in the compulsory attendance law and he expresses the hope that no teacher's salary
shall be less than $600 a year.

Ottawa, March 12.—The executive of the National Council of Women last night

clothing and luxuries made both in Canada and the United States. The following resolution was passed:—

TEACHERS' MEETING.

A. C. Gorman of the department of agriculture of New Brunswick addressed
the teachers' association at its regular meeting in the Natural History rooms,
last night on the subject of Nature
Study in the Schools. Mr. Gorman's address was listened with much interest and enjoyment. It was followed by considerable discussion and in reply to questions Mr. Gorman explained
various aspects of the teaching of nature
study. In the absence of W. L. Mc-Diarmid, the president, Frank Owens
was in the chair and there was a fairly large attendance of members. The schedule of salaries asked for, was received from the school board and was held over for further discussion at a later date.

ANNUAL RESCUER LEAGUE.

The annual meeting of the Animal Rescue League was held yesterday afternoon at the La Tour Apartments, with Mrs. Charles Topley in the chair. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the treasurer, Mrs. Gray. After commending the work of the league, it was decided to hold a rummage sale each member should be held responsible for collecting in some manner $5.00, and it was suggested that the getting of new members would be a very acceptable way of making up this amount.

EXTERMINATION
OF MOOSE FEARED

One More Open Season Will Deplete Maine Woods, Bel-
liefs of Commissioner Parsons.

(By Peter P. Carney in N. Y. Evening Post.)
Maine last fall had its first open season on moose in five years and it is the opinion of Willis E. Parsons, commissioner of inland fisheries and game, that another open season will just about exterminate all the moose in the Maine
woods. Says Mr. Parsons:
"The moose were increasing and were appearing in large numbers in Washington county and some other big game counties, but they had not been hunted for four years and had become quite tame, appearing often in the settlements,
and have fallen easy prey to the hunter
who had them hunted for weeks before
the opening of the season.
The next legislature may deem it wise
to put another continuous close time on moose, if they are to be preserved."
"One more open season, which will be had before the next legislature assembles,
it is believed, will practically exterminate
them. Our lakes and streams, when depleted, can be restocked, but when this monarch of the Maine woods disappears
it is gone forever."
What Mr. Parsons says is right. After a four-year closed season the moose are tame, and the longer the close season
lasts, the easier it is to kill them. Moose, like deer where they are protected for any length of time, become used to seeing hunters and do not fear them. Then comes an open season and they walk
right up to be killed.
This doesn't seem right. It seems as if there should be a close season long enough to get a goodly number of moose in the Maine woods. It is just as the commissioner says—the lakes and streams can be restocked, but a dead
moose cannot be brought back to life.
There can be no pleasure in exterminating moose. Every true sportsman will
and should do his best to protect them,
and see that laws are provided for their protection. It is to be hoped that the kill of moose will not be so severe next season.
Deer hunters had a glorious season.
Eighty-four thousand three hundred and thirteen deer were killed in 1924,
and 4,877 licenses to non-residents were granted—which we might add is a highly creditable record. For instance, Ad Bangor, 1,865 deer and 88 bear were shipped up to November 20, while the number of deer shot by the state was 1,497
and that of the bears 107.
The bear killed in Maine totaled 146.
Maine is one of the best hunting and trapping states in the country, and the trappers think it is a pretty good statement. Six hundred and forty-two bear licenses were granted in 1919.

SENTENCED TO
SIX MONTHS
IN YORK JAIL

Fredericton, March 12.—In the police court this morning Magistrate Limerick imposed sentence of six months in York county jail upon the C.N.R. employe charged with theft of whiskey from a freight car at Napadogan. Dorcas, who defended the charge of theft preferred
against him, was sent up for trial at a higher court.
"The case of McGowan, another man
against whom a like charge was made,
was heard. He was not tried before on account of the illness of his wife. He was allowed to go for a week on account of his wife's sickness and will reappear
at the end of that time for sentence."

to a British force. A descendant of the commander of the United States force at the battle has been commissioned to go to England to bring back the flag.

COMPENSATION
BOARD'S FIRST
ANNUAL REPORT

The first annual report of the Workmen's Compensation Board, which was laid on the table in the legislature
yesterday, gives full particulars regarding the working of the act since the board
was organized and makes some suggestions for the future.

The report which is signed by John
A. Sinclair, chairman, and James Sugrue,
vice-chairman, and James Sugrue,
commissioner, says in part:
"The first assessment, which was accordingly done, the first assessment being made payable on December 26, A. D. 1918. At the close of the year, we have 2,115 payrolls submitted for assessment, with an estimated total payroll of $21,200,000, which we believe will be materially increased when
the final adjustment is made.
Of necessity, owing to the lack of data
as regards the Province of New Brunswick, the board was governed largely by the rate for the year 1919 by the experiences of other provinces where 'workmen's compensation
acts' have been in force. As time goes on,
from the statistics gathered by this board,
a true and correct rate will be arrived
at. As a matter of fact, some of the rates adopted have seemingly (from a year's experience) appeared to be excessive, but will naturally adjust themselves and the employer of labor will be given protection at all times in mind
of the fact that the rate should be borne in this connection that all moneys received, after the administrative expenses
are deducted, including interest earned,
is credited to the funds of that class to which it belongs."
It is the hope of the board that legislation will be introduced, providing for
"medical aid and hospital care,
in the event of the disability of the injured
workmen."
It had been feared that malingering
would follow on the part of the workmen, but figures had shown this not to be the case. The malingering problem
now has its employees within the scope of the act.
The provincial government had made a grant of $200,000 to the credit of the charge against the "accident fund" out of which had been taken the cost of organization in 1918 when there was no income.
Table 1 shows that 2,746 accidents
were reported. There were 47 deaths, 118 cases of partial disability and 1,268
cases of permanent disability. Of the total cases reported 61 were minor accidents.
During 1919, 1,609 claims were finally disposed of including 21 deaths, 160
cases of permanent disability and 1,489
cases of temporary disability.
Most of the cases originated in St.
John. The Workmen's Compensation Board
being next with 128, Northumberland
next with 105 and York next with 104.
The Workmen's Compensation Board receipts and expenditures to December 31, 1919, shows the following totals:
Assessments received$27,854.27

BOLD AND CLEVER
CYCLONE BURGLARS

Ransacked Office Building
and Read Unopened Mail at Leisure.

New York, March 12.—A gang of burglars, whom the police say have been the most clever and boldest that have come to light in some time, entered the loft building at No. 225 West 86th street during the night, blew two safes, getting $125 in money and $2,000
in stamps, and ransacked every office in the building, which is of five stories.
The thieves, in the opinion of the police,
had secreted themselves overnight in the building, which closes at five o'clock.
The first place broken into and robbed
was the office of the American Education Press, on the second floor. Two finger prints, from one side the thieves got $125 in cash. From the other they got $2,000 worth of stamps.
The thieves then went to the third floor, where they found no safes to crack, they ransacked every desk in the office. It looked as if a cyclone had gone through the premises.
The Acolian Music Company, on the fourth floor, was next entered. Trunks
of demobilization were reported there,
although nothing of value was obtained.
In trying to enter the office of the Acolian Music Company, the thieves were connected with a burglar alarm, and they desisted after a few futile attempts to force the door.
The police found a quantity of unopened mail that had been carried downstairs from the Acolian Music Company office to the second floor,
where the thieves read it at leisure.

HAMPTON W. A.

In the church of the Messiah, Hampton, N. B., on Thursday, the annual meeting of the W. A. was held and reports submitted showing much good work done. Rev. C. G. Lawrence officiated at the devotional exercises.
The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. C. Gordon Lawrence; first vice-president, Mrs. M. H.
Parlee; second vice-president, Mrs. Bowman Fisher; secretary, Miss Turnbull;
treasurer, Mrs. H. Hill; Dorcas secretary, Mrs. Walter Fairweather; assistant, Mrs.
James Ross; leaflet secretary, Mrs. A.
M. Davis; C. D. secretary, Mrs. S. H.
Carroll; mile box secretary, Mrs.
Williamson.
Delegates to the provincial annual meeting, which is to be held in St. John,
were Mrs. Lawrence and Mrs. Wilkinson; substitutes, Mrs. Walter Fairweather and Miss Turnbull.

SUPREME COURT CHAMBERS.

The case of Goodwin vs. Guthrie came before Mr. Justice Chandler in Chambers yesterday on an application
by the defendant to have the affidavit
to hold to bail and the arrest set aside.
The defendant, a returned soldier,
having been arrested on a specially endorsed writ of capias, the principal grounds of the application were: First,
that there is no authority under the Judicial Act to specially endorse a writ
of capias; second, that the affidavit did not show that the debt claimed by the plaintiff was due and payable in any sum; and third, that the writ was issued for a sum in excess of the sum authorized by the Act.
His honor set aside the affidavit and
the arrest on the second ground but rested the writ on the first and third grounds. He refused to set aside the writ
for specially endorsing a writ of capias,
going so does not render the writ void.
Costs to be paid to defendant in any event. William M. Ryan represented the plaintiff and H. W. Robertson the defendant.

PEARY'S WILL

Washington, March 12.—The will of Rear-Admiral Robert E. Peary, U. S.
N., retired, filed for probate, directs that all medals, trophies and books, and Eagle Island, near South Harpawall, Me.,
be given to his sixteen-year-old son, Robert E. Peary. The island, which the will asserts was purchased by the discoverer of the North Pole, with money earned while a High School student, is to remain permanently in the Peary family.
Mrs. Peary by terms of the will receives for herself and division among
the children the residue of the estate,
including securities estimated in value
at $800,000, and a group of islands in Cascos Bay, Me.
Duplicates.
"These colored twins are just like each
other."
"This one is a carbon copy of the other."

GEERS TO SEND
HEIR REAPER TO
NEW YORK SALE

Memphis, March 10.—There was quite a surprise among local horsemen and trainers located at Billings Park track
when Y. R. Neill, secretary of the veteran trainer, "Pop" Geers, announced that he had consigned his famous trotting star, Heir Reaper (2:04 1/4) to the March sale at Madison Square Garden,
New York. For several seasons past
the horse had been in the stable of Mr.
Geers, and through his many trips down
the Grand Circuit has figured in many sensational speed battles.
In 1918 he gained a win of 2:05 1/4,
winning several thousand dollars, and last year, while not so successful in money winning, showed much better than his win of 2:04 1/4, which he made over the sandy track at Kalamazoo,
and thus gained the honor as the world's fastest twelve-year-old trotter. In a start against St. Frisco and Mabel Trask at Hartford in 1918 he was timed in 2:02 3/4.
Heir Reaper had always been a favorite with "Pop" Geers as one of the nicest trotters to drive and also one always ready to do his best without arguing, a quality which makes him specifically suitable for matinee and road driving, as well as one of the few prospective
candidates for the free-for-all and 2:05
classes. After two starts at Lexington
last fall, the horse left there in charge of trainer Roy Miller, with instructions
to prepare him for another campaign, so
the news of his sale caused some surprise.
Heir Reaper is by Early Reaper,
whose get have been unusually successful in Europe, and it is very likely that this one will also go abroad, as aside
from his speed, he is in perfect condition and just the kind of an individual
to appeal to foreign buyers.

GETTING THE ATMOSPHERE
(Toronto Globe.)

Somebody wants the Ontario Tories
to see the "light." In the room at the Parliament buildings which has been allocated to the Conservative members there are two pictures. One is of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the other of Rt. Hon. William Ewart Gladstone.
The pictures now hang on the walls of the room where the Tories discuss their business. It is hoped by the Liberals that the pictures of two of the world's greatest Liberals will rebrooding effect on their Tory comrades, and that the latter will get proper inspiration from the painted likenesses
of their great opponents.
Rumor, however, has it that the pictures will be removed. The Liberamembers will want the pictures in their rooms, and somebody will find a likeness of Sir John A. somewhere that will bring good Tory atmosphere to the remnants of his party in Ontario.

Fairville As a Mecca for Sports
The Royals of Former Years—The Origin of the Firemen's Park and Honors Won by Firemen—An Appeal for the New Grounds.

The recent discussions over securing a recreation field in Fairville for athletic purposes brings to mind the fact that the old team of Royals used to stage baseball games that were real games for all lively centre for various sports, and suggests that with suitable ground for training, Fairville boys might again take their place as second to none in amateur outdoor games.

Years ago before the new public schools were built, many a hard fought baseball game was played on the "Big Field," so-called, where there was ample space for all sorts of play, and which was the focal recreation field for Fairville end of the parish at least. In those days there were no houses in the neighborhood, the field was splendidly located where the boys could easily get at it, and it is a great pity the trustees and councillors of those former times were not able to realize the developments that were to come, and secure that section as a public playground, in which case the youth of these days would be well provided with a central spot for athletic purposes, recognized now as equally essential with any other form of today's educational requirements. Here, and also at Skinner's Flat, the old team of Royals used to stage baseball games that were real games for all lively centre for various sports, and suggests that with suitable ground for training, Fairville boys might again take their place as second to none in amateur outdoor games.

It's a pretty strong claim to say a cigar is the best on the Continent.

not feel too old to again don a uniform and re-enter the game. But not only on the baseball field has the record of the Fairville boys been one of achievement, for in rowing they also made an enviable place for themselves. George Dalton participated in harbor races only a few years ago, and with his brother, the late captain Jack Dalton, James Morris and George (Barney) Morris, all Lancaster men, formed a four-oared crew that won many laurels in competition against the best of their times.

The two Waring boys, John (Non) and Harry Waring of Milford, are said to have been very fast runners, and while no record of their events are available many old time sports remember well their feats. Back in 1901 or thereabouts the Fairville firemen distinguished themselves in the firemen's sports, then so popular, which were held all over the country. After a trip to Charlottetown, P. E. I., where first the locals realized they were as good as any, they secured a lease of what is now generally known as Firemen's Park, and after much labor and expense, some $1,000 having been expended to put the place in shape, the men trained for their sports. Perhaps their most notable triumph was at Sussex in 1908, when the Fairville ladder team won the twenty-five yards race carrying a ladder which was mounted by one of their number in shorter time than has ever been accomplished in the maritime provinces. For this the team won a handsome cup, still in possession of one of the members. This particular team was composed of William Golding, Charles Waring, Arthur Long, Alvin Schofield, William Bradley and William Hayes. In their day the Fairville firemen were considered worthy competitors against the best.

The last few years saw the organization of a tennis club, but the matter of suitable grounds has always been the bugbear, and last summer even the enthusiasts of the game found it hard to work themselves up to the point of fixing up a temporary place to play. With the war the natural sporting element of the place once again began to look forward to the days when the tennis courts were held on Manuagushish road for want of a better ground.

Only a few of the many names identified with Fairville sport have been introduced into this short article, but enough has been mentioned to give an idea of the sport as far as its few advantages would permit. The recreation grounds now being planned for the city will allow for tennis, running track, baseball, as well as room for the children to play, and also to have a skating rink on the spot in the winter, and in taking this forward step in the development of the citizens feel they are going a long way in a very practical fashion in solving the boy problem of the day.

WILDE WINS OVER MASON

British Fly-Weight Champion Successfully Defends Title in Battle in Toledo.

Toledo, O., March 12—Jimmy Wilde, of England, recognized fly-weight boxing champion of the world, today decisively outpointed Frankie Mason of Port Wayne (Ind.), the American claimant to the title.

Mason started to bleed from the mouth early in the battle, but he wore a suit of confidence, while Wilde from the time he entered the ring seemed set and determined. After the fight Referee Smith declared never in his life had he seen a young fellow, or one placed who was so willing to carry or mix matters as Wilde. Smith was of the opinion that the fight was a very even match, but declared that under the rules of the commission he was not at liberty to announce the winner.

Round 1—Wilde landed first blow, a light right to head and two more jabs to head. Mason landed right to jaw. Wilde landed left upper cut. Mason grabbed to Mason's stomach. Mason grabbed twice. Wilde hooked to body.

Round 6—Wilde landed left. Wilde tried to force the fighting. Mason showed great foot-work. Wilde jabbed left to jaw. Mason tapped Wilde three light lefts. Mason missed hard right. Wilde scored a hard right to head and stiff jab to stomach.

Round 13—They shook hands. Wilde sent Mason back with left to head and landed right to Mason's chin. In a clinch Mason held. Wilde landed two rights to head, forcing Mason backward. Mason landed two lefts and then clinched. Mason countered with right to face. Wilde landed left to chin. Mason clinching. The going sounded as they exchanged light blows in mid-ring.

The letting up before the fighting was ten minutes in Wilde's favor. Both boys weighed in this afternoon under the stipulated 108 pounds. Only Young of Beaver Falls, Pa., knocked out Young Jarvis of Toledo, middleweight, in the second round in the certain raise.

New "Babe" Ruth. Jacksonville, Fla., March 11—The latest spring find in the camp of the Yankees is a "new Babe Ruth." The phenom is Bobbie Meusel, the lad from the Pacific coast. He indulged in his first workout yesterday.

Meusel has it on Ruth both in size and speed—if he keeps up his first day's record. He is over six feet tall and weighs more than 200 pounds. His attitude at the bat recalls that of Hans Wagner, but his punch is stiffer. Even Ruth appeared amazed when the big boy clouted them to all parts of the lot. It was on third base that Meusel shone in defensive play. He was sure as gun-

Gold Challenge Medal. New York, March 11—The Professional Golfers' Association of Great Britain, through its secretary, Roland Perris, has offered a gold challenge medal to be competed for in a tournament to be held in the United States under the auspices of the American Association of Golfers. The offer is made in appreciation for the benevolent acts of the American Professional Association during the war. It is proposed to have the medal in competition until won twice consecutively or three times in all, when it will become the personal property of the winner.

BLOSSOMS OUT IN MAJOR LEAGUE STYLE
All International League Clubs Will Go South—Season Opens April 21.
(New York Times)
The International League blossomed out in major league style at its annual meeting at the Imperial Hotel yesterday and announced that all clubs would go south on training trips just like the big organization. The league looks for a big season and adopted a 16-game schedule, to open April 21. The opening games are: Akron at Jersey City, Toronto at Reading, Buffalo at Buffalo, more, Rochester at Syracuse. Opening games will be held in Akron, Toronto, Buffalo and Rochester on May 2. The league boosted the waiver price from $500 to $1,000 and although the unwritten agreement with the majors was discussed no action was taken. There is a strong feeling in the international against the restoration of the major league draft. While the relations this season will not be formal as under the old national agreement, it is believed that the minors will do more business this year with the majors than last season. Some of the clubs will not hesitate to make optional agreements with major league bodies. The international decided against raising admission this season, although the matter was talked over for some time. The salary limit has already been boosted from $10,000 to $12,000. The training season plans of the league include a trip by Toronto to Columbus, Ga., under Manager Hugh Duffy, Buffalo, under Manager George Wilts, will train at Raleigh, N. C. The new Akron club under Manager Dick Holtz will train at Hot Springs; Syracuse, under Manager Tony Cummings, will train at Tarboro, N. C.; and Bill Donovan will take the Jersey City club to Lakewood to train. Baltimore, under Manager Jack Dunn and Rochester, under Manager Arthur Irwin, will both train at Goldboro, N. C. John Hummel is the manager of Reading and he is the only leader who has not yet picked his training camp.
Only a few trades were made at the meeting. Akron sold first baseman McLeary to the Cardinals and got an infielder, Lee Hoobs, in the bargain. Billy Purcell, the third baseman, was sold by Toronto to Akron. Pitcher Hal Justin was awarded to Reading.

RODDIE McDONALD MAY MEET CHAMPION
May Have a Chance at the Middleweight Title Before Brousseau.
(Halifax Chronicle)
Rumor has it that Roddie McDonald, the Glace Bay boy, will soon make a trip across the border where he will be taken under the wing of a trainer well known in local boxing circles. The idea is to give the big blonde a trial in some of the bouts about the Hub and if he makes as good a showing as he did here during the last year he will be given a special course of stiff training and sent in against Mike O'Dowd. This is certainly a wonderful chance for the man from the mining districts and if it materializes he will have more than a chance for a bare come-back. The promise carries with it the assurance that McDonald accepts the offer he will have a chance at the middleweight title before Brousseau. It seems that some of the backers of the man from up above have got themselves in bad with O'Dowd and his manager by writing letters to the papers in the Hub asking the champion to meet Brousseau after he had challenged him. The reply to this letter was of course that a champion challenges no one. He receives challenges and does not send them forth. Our wish is that this rumor is perfectly accurate, and that Roddie will obtain the chance that it seems to hold forth.

LOCAL NEWS

EASE AND SAFETY IN FLYING CRAFT
Aerial Limousines Luxurious-ly Equipped—Sleeping Quarters and Vanity Cases.
Milady will fly—that is if the aerial limousines, coupes and cabin cruisers at the Aeronautical Exposition at the Army-First Regiment Armory are any indication. There are smiling suits, vanity cases, cigarette lighters, and what nots enough in these lavishly upholstered flying limousines to make them very much in vogue among modern women.
It is perhaps a healthy sign when the manufacturers spend so much energy on the luxurious refinements of flying as they have in models on exhibit at this show, says the New York Evening Post. It would indicate that to their minds at least the holder and more courageous of manufacturers have come through with a determination to make the game pay its own way. Their government contracts have on the whole been thoroughly unproductive, and they have devoted their time to the development of passenger and freight carrying craft.
There is the L. W. F. freighter, 105 feet long from wing tip to wing tip, with its two long slim brown fuselages adapted to the carrying of mails or freight. Between the two fuselages is a tailless nacelle, with room for sleeping quarters for the crew. It would be something of an exaggeration to speak of it as a Pullman, yet it would be possible to rig up a bed for a pilot or shifts on a long flight. It is a thoroughly efficient machine, carrying as much as 5000 or 6000 pounds of freight on short flights when not fully loaded with gasoline.
It is capable of a speed of 110 miles an hour, and it is perhaps the outstanding feature of the show. While it is smaller in actual wing span than the NC-4 seaplane, it still gives the impression of being a superbly large machine. It has a low landing speed, which makes its use on small landing fields possible. It is hard to see why this machine could not be put into commercial operation with success, and its designers are undoubtedly in praise of its possibilities.
Nestled under its two broad wings are two of the little "butterfly" model monoplanes, each painted a brilliant blue. They are thoroughly airworthy, appearing little craft, with a business-like cockpit and easily-handled controls. They are aerial "butterflies" that attract the curious crowds who enjoy the chance to slip inside their cabins and see how very much like limousines they really are. The fact is that they are extremely well-appointed, and are unusually comfortable. One of the drawbacks of flying, from the point of view of the casual passenger who wants to take a trip, is the necessity for helmets, goggles, and other cumbersome impediments to shield a person from the wind and cold. In these enclosed cabins, there is no need for special equipment, and the persistent roar of the motor is muffled.
The exhibition last year was naturally a war exhibition, and the transition to a commercial basis had hardly been attempted. It was natural that there should have been a number of war models, and it is equally natural that this year there should be none but commercial machines on the floor.
Silent Tragedy.

Sweeping his long hair back with an impressive gesture the visitor faced the proprietor of the film studio. "I would like to secure a place in your moving picture company," he said.
"You are an actor?" asked the film man.
"Yes."
"Had any experience acting without audiences?"
A flicker of sadness shone in the visitor's eyes as he replied:
"Acting without audiences is what brought me here!"
