POLITICS IN NEWFOUNDLAND

The jobs in Newfoundland are having some fun with the politicians. The premier, Sir Edward Davis, is making a tour of the island, and is doing it on foot. It is suggested that Sir Robert Bond should do the like in the Twillingate district, and that the two leaders make it a Marathon race. The only trouble, says a St. John's joker, is that the two leaders in Newfoundland who are sufficiently unbiassed in politics to act as umpire and give a fair decision.

A JUST CAUSE

Sir Wilfrid Laurier is right. The cause of justice will win in this campaign. The party of disunion, which in Quebec puts its face against race, and in the other provinces seeks to inflame the people against friendly nations which must be our neighbors for all time, cannot expect to win a way to power by the votes of the Canadian people.

MORE DECEPTION

Does the St. John Standard assume that John people are a set of ignorant fools? It would seem so. The Standard tries to make them believe that reciprocity will take them to the United States in the winter port, because all the grain Canada will go to the United States instead of to Europe.

WRONG DEPARTMENT

"I want a pair of shoes that will be plenty large enough," she said, as the clerk looked into her and one to find the number.

IN FAIRVILLE

Two matters referred to in the speeches at Fairville last evening are of special importance to the people who are engaged in the lumber industry near the mouth of the river. One is the repeal of the Pike law, which so seriously affects American mill owners here, and which would be set right by reciprocity.

AMERICAN FARMERS COME TO THE CANADIAN WEST

American farmers come to the Canadian west to get free land on which to raise wheat. Carleton County, N. B., farmers go to Maine to purchase land at a high price, because with it they get a larger free market.

THE STANDARD SAYS, IN LARGE TYPE

"The United States would preserve its own home market and slaughter ours with its surplus products." If the Standard can tell how this could be done it is withholding a most valuable secret.

IF ANY OF THE WORKING MEN OF ST. JOHN have the same game tried upon them as is being played in Hamilton by the Conservative workers, namely assertions that the reciprocity agreement will admit freely the products of United States factories, let them tell their informants that they are stating that which is absolutely false.

THE PORTLAND, MAINE, ARGUMENT

The Portland, Maine, Argus says that the protected interests of the United States are said to have contributed $5,000,000 to the anti-reciprocity campaign fund in Canada, and adds that "the Laurier government is fighting the protected interests of Canada and the United States combined."

WHAT A PITY MR. SIFTON IS NOT IN the west trying to save the unhappy farmers of the present and future in that great agricultural region. Why does he come down where lumber and fish want a large free market, and where farmers can look across the border and see for themselves what a larger market means for those who have it.

IN HIS EDITORIAL BULLETIN MACLEAN'S

Magazine for September says: "One month from the date of issue of this magazine, Sir Wilfrid Laurier shall have been sentenced to defeat or to new glories. This is a feature in the present political campaign which is being overlooked—the fate of a personality. Reciprocity is all very well; Canada, young, strong, ambitious and wealthy, will survive it anyway, whether reciprocity be carried or rejected; whether it is a wrong move for the nation or a right one. But if Laurier is defeated the whole British Empire will feel the shock. For Laurier is, and must be, either Liberal or Conservative, a factor in the making or unmaking of the Empire. If he falls, as the Conservative party hopes and expects, the ends of the English-speaking earth will pause to look and wonder."

A Story of Sir Donald Mann

Isaac F. Marcovson, in Munsey's, tells a number of good stories about Sir Donald Mann who with Sir William Mackenzie built and owned the Great Northern railway of Canada. They were both Scotchmen, and in a measure soldiers of fortune. Speaking of Mann, Marcovson says: "He went to China, expecting to pick up a valuable railroad concession, but the exact case of the orient was not to his liking. He yearned for his chief, green land of Canada. Besides, as he himself puts it, 'you can build a railroad quicker in America than you can sign a contract for one over there.'"

His Asiatic experience was picturesque in at least one incident. The story goes that he unintentionally offended a person of rank, and received a challenge for a duel. He accepted the challenge, and being the challenged person, had the choice of weapons.

"Tell the gentleman," he said, "that I select the broad-sax."

"He knew the use of this instrument better than any other. It is needless to say that the duel did not come off."

THE REAL BOURASSA; THE ALLY OF THE CONSERVATIVES

(Toronto Globe.)

Mr. John Boyd of Montreal has come up to Ontario to give a certificate of character to Mr. Henry Bourassa and the Nationalist movement. Mr. Boyd has been known heretofore as a Conservative newspaper writer and the author of some very good verse. He has become a great admirer of Mr. Bourassa, and in an interview in the Toronto 'World' says that "it has served the purpose of a number of Liberal organs to represent Mr. Bourassa and Mr. Monk as trying to form a party based on racial and religious prejudice. Mr. Bourassa has, however, solemnly declared that his object is not to isolate his compatriots from the rest of the Dominion, but simply to have them consider and solve public questions from the point of view of Canadian interests and the upbuilding of the Dominion. Mr. Monk, too, has emphatically declared on all occasions that the movement does not appeal to race and religion, but to Canadian patriotism throughout the Dominion."

Let us take that as Mr. Boyd's certificate to the chief of the Nationalists in re-velation of the association that he and Mr. Bourassa have formed. There is no need to go far afield to prove that Mr. Bourassa is not the patriot Mr. Boyd implies. He is a French-Canadian nationalist with a distinct goal in view—the separation of Canada from the Empire and the refusal, until that separation shall take place of any effective help toward the defence of the Empire. He is especially anxious that the most prominent members of which have gone even farther, and opened up the possibility of a French-Canadian party in the Dominion. They not only propose to sever the Imperial tie, but they propose also to follow that up by breaking in pieces the Canadian confederation.

And now for the proof. Mr. Bourassa quarrelled with Sir Wilfrid in 1890 over the question of sending Canadian volunteers to fight for the Empire in South Africa. In a speech delivered in Montreal on October 20, 1907, the Nationalist leader said:

"What I should wish is that between the old English frigate about to sink and the American steamer, preparing to pick up its wreckage we should manoeuvre our bark with prudence and firmness, so that it will not be swallowed up in the vortex of the one or be carried away in the wake of the other. Let us not sever the chain too soon, but let us not sever its links too closely."

I am not referring to the situation which the Nationalist ideal would impose on us. If the partisans of such ideas should gain the upper hand, then I would say: "Forward! Let us be independent without hesitation."

Here we are told that the British Empire, the English frigate, is about to sink. That is strange language in war time for a friend of Britain. By his own admission, Mr. Bourassa is a separatist, and he is a separatist in the relations of the French-Canadian and the British Empire he said: "Independence is in our eyes the natural crowning of our destinies."

Mr. Armand Lavergne, Mr. Bourassa's first lieutenant, was quoted in an article published in 'Le Nationaliste' on July 16, 1908. Mr. Lavergne said:

"When we are sufficiently numerous and strong the Franco-American race will also win its right independent and unmitigated status in the world, the glorious and sublime role played in Europe by France."

On August 12, 1905, there appeared in 'La Verite', then edited by Mr. Omer Héroux, who now edits 'Le Devoir', Mr. Bourassa's own article in which he stated that "we believe the constitution of an autonomous French State is our logical destiny."

Will the loyal Conservatives of Ontario, who are asked to take Mr. Boyd's kindly view of Mr. Bourassa, and to join with them as close political allies, read Armand Lavergne's statements, and set up a French State, and then say that they are not separatists?

"When we shall be sufficiently numerous and strong the Franco-American race will also win its right independent and unmitigated status in the world, the glorious and sublime role played in Europe by France."

Is there any doubt at all that Bourassa leads a crew that is but waiting a new vessel to set sail? Is it not a good ship Canada after "the old English frigate" sinks, and set up a French State, and then say that they are not separatists?

In the name of Imperial unity the Conservative leaders call upon their followers to march to the polls with Bourassa and Monk and Lavergne and Héroux and vote to destroy Laurier, who is hated by the Nationalists because he insists that Canada shall do her share by land and sea in the defence of Canada as an integral portion of the British Empire. Was there ever in the history of Canada so notorious, so open and shameless a violation of political hypocrisy? The loyal people of Ontario cannot thus be hoodwinked.

Particular care has been taken this year in arranging the best dog classes for dogs of all breeds. The green and novice classes have been arranged especially for the dogs that have never won a prize, and no former winner can compete in these classes. The limit and open classes are open to the best dog of each breed, and these prizes will be placed on exhibition before the show opens. Special attention is called to the fact that first prize dogs in winners classes at former shows have now one or two points to their credit, and should be again shown in the limit and open classes, as another winning will bring them nearer to the coveted honor. Entries close Sept. 19, and none can be received after that date. For entry blanks, etc., apply to J. V. McLaughlin, secretary, 11, McCullough St., British street; LeB. Wilson, German street; John LeChequer, German street; D. Colgan, 75 Prince William street.

ULTRA LOYAL CANDIDATE; BUT ONLY IN THE USE OF WORDS

Hartland Observer:—"Very strange it is that B. Frank Smith should send to Hout on, Me., U. S. a letter in which he and his auto-American car—to carry him around, passing his American chauffeur American car, his American lumber, do not of course, disturb the ultra-loyal subject; but you farmers, more farmers must not have a chance to the same freedom—no open markets for you. You must not vote for reciprocity or the Yankees will come and get you."

SPECIAL GAME WARDENS

The New Brunswick Forest, Fish and Game Protective Association has secured the appointment of two special game wardens, one for the whole province of New Brunswick, and the other for the counties of St. John, Kings, Queens, Simsbury, York and Charlotte. The association is prepared to act on any report of the violation of the New Brunswick forest, fish and game laws, whether made by its members or others who are interested in the better enforcement of these laws. All information should be sent to the secretary of the association, Wilbur W. Gerow, 102 Prince William street, and will be treated as confidential.

CANADA'S LUMBER CUT

The total lumber cut of the Dominion of Canada for 1910 has just been compiled by the Forestry Branch. Reports were received from 2783 firms operating saw mills, which is nearly 700 more than reported last year. Thus the 1910 report is a better estimate of the actual lumber production than ever before.

Nearly five billion feet of lumber was cut during 1910 throughout the nine provinces of Canada, which represents a total value to the country of $7,500,000. This is about $150,000 more than the value of the 1909 lumber cut.

Ontario, as in former years, holds the premier position as a lumber province. Its forests are made up of diversified species, which enabled it to produce one-third of the lumber for the Dominion. British Columbia, however, will soon take Ontario's place, from production made on the 1910 report. In 1909 the western province produced a trifle more than half as much lumber as was cut in Ontario, while for last year the amounts returned from the two provinces were practically the same.

Although one-quarter more lumber was cut in Quebec in 1910 than in the year previous, the increase was not sufficient to maintain it in second place of importance, which position was usurped by British Columbia. The remaining provinces—New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Saskatchewan, Alberta, Manitoba and Prince Edward Island—ranked in the order of importance given, but together supply only one-sixth of the amount for Canada.

SOMETHING FOR THE WIFE

During the last few years there has been a constant cry from the housewives that the cost of living has been going up. Every housekeeper knows that for one reason or another the expense of maintaining a table has seemed to steadily increase. General prosperity has led to some extravagance, and, as a philosopher of the day put it, "It is the cost of high living rather than the high cost of living." At the same time, it would be easy to name dozens of daily necessities that are more expensive in Canada today than they were ten years ago. Trade combinations and agreements have had not a little to do with this.

One of the features of the reciprocity agreement now before the country is the reduction of duty on a number of staple articles of food. The reduction is not large in Montreal, but the protest that has come from the manufacturers of some of the items in this country shows that they expect to have to make a cut in price, and perhaps lose a little of the large profit they have been able to exact under the present tariff. Some of the items affected and the tariff reduction made by the reciprocity agreement with the United States are as follows:

Articles	Present Duty	Duty under Reciprocity
Cheese, lb.	30c	Free
Sweet potatoes, bush	30c	Free
Salmon, preserved, lb.	30c	Free
Oysters, in bulk, gallon	10c	Free
Lobsters, fresh, lb.	25c	Free
Meats, fresh or refrigerated, lb.	2c	1 1/2c
Bacon and hams, lb.	2c	1 1/2c
Beef, salted, in barrel, lb.	2c	1 1/2c
Pork, salted in brine, lb.	2c	1 1/2c
Meats, other, salted, lb.	2c	1 1/2c
Canned meats and canned poultry	2 1/2c	1 1/2c
Lard and compounds thereof	1 1/2c	1 1/2c
Tomatoes and other vegetables in cans	1 1/2c	1 1/2c
Outmeal and rolled oats, per 100 lb.	60c	30c
Prepared cereals and foods	25c	17 1/2c
Macaroni and vermicelli, lb.	1 1/2c	1c
Biscuits, wafers and cakes, sweetened	1 1/2c	1c
Pickles, sauces and condiments	2 1/2c	1 1/2c
Sardines, 3 1/2 oz. boxes	6c	3c
Condensed milk, lb.	20c	15c
Biscuits, without sweetening	20c	15c
Fruits, in air-tight tin, lb.	2 1/2c	1 1/2c

Every housekeeper knows the burden of an added few cents per pound when the tariff is raised. If reciprocity is adopted the relief given will in no small degree compensate for the climbing prices of the last few years.

Under reciprocity the consumer as well as the producer will get a square deal.

LONDON MAILS FOR NEW ZEALAND TO GO BY WAY OF CANADA

The time of transit between London and Auckland by way of Vancouver will be about thirty-three days.

Knockout Blow For Borden By Guthrie

Ottawa, Aug. 30—A statement made by Hugh Guthrie, ex-M.P., at a joint Conservative and Liberal meeting held at Eggleston, Montreal county, today, and attended by 4,000 people, puts a severe crimp in Mr. Borden's argument that Canada should not enter into any arrangement for free trade with the United States, but should wait for the realization of the Chamberlain scheme of preferential trade. Mr. Guthrie said:

"During my recent visit to England as a member of the parliamentary commission contingent, I was told by Lord Hugh Cecil, one of the leaders of the Unionist party, that he would oppose any taxation of food, and that if it were proposed it would divide the Unionist party in two."

Mr. Guthrie further showed the futility of Mr. Borden's plea along this line, by declaring: "Supposing for a moment that the tariff reformers of England were able to secure the consent of the people of Britain to the taxation of their food, what would they ask of us in return? Why, a reduction of the duties upon British manufactures. Then you would see the Conservative party and the manufacturers hold up their hands in holy horror and repeat their words of 1897: 'So much the worse for British connection.'"

CANADIAN MANUFACTURER SAYS LIBERALS WILL WIN

The New York Sun of August 20 contained an interesting and pertinent interview with William W. Borden, vice-president of the Canadian Car & Foundry Co., Montreal, and vice-president of the Canadian Steel Foundries, which latter company is now erecting a large plant in Montreal, costing upwards of $1,250,000. Mr. Borden is also interested very largely in real estate in Montreal, and his attitude is therefore all the more significant, as, if he thought reciprocity would be injurious to the business with which he is associated, it would be the first to oppose it. The article from the New York Sun follows:

"There has been a good deal of talk not to say fiery talk about reciprocity both sides in Canada," said Mr. Borden yesterday, "but the Liberal party will be returned to power, though Canadian manufacturers, the great majority of them, least, are dead against it."

"The talk of annexation is mere political bluff. The majority of reasoning Canadians feel there is no cause for alarm in that direction. This sort of talk is not in the rural districts, and perhaps indirectly, the French habitant is perhaps an ignorant sort of chap and easily influenced by anything sensational, and is scared by the threat of Canada being gobbled up by the United States."

"I have studied the problem carefully and I fail to see where our own business can in any way be affected by reciprocity. I can see that business may be disturbed by an agitation over the abolition of a tariff, but Canada has never been as prosperous as it is today."

A shoe-shine boy, travelling on one of the ferries the other night, got as a customer a big soldier, who was blessed with pretty big understandings. The boy gave a look at the foot placed on his box, and shaking his head doubtfully, called across to his chum, "Lend us a hand, Bill! I've got an army contract out!"

Good tea is the result of care and experience in blending—must be the combination of fine flavor, smooth strength and richness. Because all these elements are so generously included in Red Rose Tea well means the term "good tea."

STARK MEETING MEANS GREAT LIBERAL VICTORY

GREAT RECEPTION IS GIVEN PUGSLEY AND LOWELL

Hall Crowded to Doors, Though the Notice of Meeting Was But Short—Important Announcement re St. John River Storage Dams—Enthusiasm Runs High

The overwhelming majority which St. John city and county will roll up at the coming election for Mr. James Lowell, the Liberal candidate, was indicated by the enthusiasm for the loyalty and the confidence in the standard bearer of the party shown last night at the meeting in the Temperance hall, Fairville. The meeting opened the campaign in the county and if it can be taken as a criterion there is no doubt as to the result when the votes will be counted on Sept. 21.

Although the meeting had been arranged on short notice and had scarcely been advertised, the hall was crowded to the limit of its capacity with electors, who showed in no uncertain manner their anxiety to do honor to the Liberal leader. Long before the hour for the speeches to commence every chair in the hall was taken, and the crowd of ladies and gentlemen were filling all the available standing room.

The arrival of Hon. Wm. Pugsley and Mr. James Lowell was the signal for an outburst of enthusiastic cheering that was tremendous as a gathering of that size. For the past four years Dr. Pugsley has represented the county at Ottawa, and during that period the electors have found steadily increasing reasons why he is deserving of their support. Mr. Lowell has spent his whole life in the neighborhood and seemed to know personally every man and woman in the building. The reception that was accorded to the speakers clearly showed that it is an exception to the spirit of the Liberal rule that a prophet does not without honor come in his country. It is among those who know him best that Mr. Lowell can count on the heartiest support, and as he is known personally to almost every person in the city and county, the result of his election is simply a question of the size of his majority.

It was an inspiring meeting, and it can be taken as a fair indication of the reception that will be given to the candidates in every section of the two constituencies.

Dr. Macfarland presided at the meeting and in addition to the speeches by the candidates, W. J. Mahoney addressed the meeting and gave a rattling good campaign speech.

Mr. Lowell was in excellent form and delivered a vigorous address in which he pointed out the "stark" conditions of the electors, and discussed in an interesting manner the issues of the campaign.

Dr. Pugsley was at his best and it was a matter for regret that there was no larger hall available in which to hold the meeting. He made his speech with the same vigor and energy as he has shown in the past, and his address was one of the most practical and important of the evening. He pointed out the features of the proposed development which are soon to be put into effect. The reciprocity agreement and the navy policy of the government were also dealt with in an illuminating manner by Dr. Pugsley.

In introducing the first speaker, the chairman said that the great success of the meeting was absorbing the attention of the people of Canada as no other thing had ever been placed before them for their decision, and said they were glad to have the platform gentlemen would be able to tell them the truth about this important trade agreement.

W. J. Mahoney expressed his pleasure at being present on the same platform with the candidate who would be the next member from the city and county (Liberal), and the Liberal leader of New Brunswick, who would be the next representative of St. John city. (More cheers.)

Taking up the subject of reciprocity Mr. Mahoney showed how both parties had favored this policy and that one of the great arguments in favor of confederation had been that by presenting a united front Canada would be able to force the United States to restore the reciprocity agreement. Since then both parties had failed of this until in response to President Taft's advance Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his government had arranged the present agreement. (Cheers.) Before the historic policy of reciprocity many of their newspapers and their leaders had expressed their approval of the proposed arrangement.

"Now," he continued, "they say that reciprocity will lead to annexation. Our trade with the United States already amounts to $400,000,000 a year and has placed us in any danger of annexation? It has not; we Liberals are Canadians first, last and all the time and we are as loyal as any Conservative could be. (Cries of "more loyal.") "That is true and we had the evidence of it at the time of the South African war."

Mr. Mahoney told very effectively a story of a school inspector's visit to a rural school. To point out a lesson in patriotism, the inspector turned to the big Union Jack that hung at one end of the room, and asked if anyone could tell him what it was for, and a small boy promptly answered, "Yes, sir, to hide the dirt on the wall."

"That," said Mr. Mahoney, "is the way the Conservatives are trying to do in this election, to hide the untruths and to do honor to the Liberal leader. As an illustration of the fact that all manufacturers are not opposed to reciprocity, Mr. Mahoney told of a conversation he had with the representative of a group of large furniture factories who had declared their opposition to the measure. He said that the Liberal leader had been very successful in making the farmers more prosperous and enabling them to buy so much more of their goods."

THE FISHERMAN A FACTOR

on a larger and more important scale in St. John's vicinity when the goods are entered free in the States by the reciprocity pact.

Referred to by Mr. Pugsley at the front of the platform he was again greeted with a spontaneous outburst of hearty cheers, and so prolonged was the display of enthusiasm that it was some time before he could make himself heard.

The minister of public works expressed his gratification at the large attendance, and said that he was sorry that the hall was not twice as large so that they could have accommodated a larger proportion of those who had gathered for the meeting.

Referring to the fact that he was no longer a candidate in the county, Dr. Pugsley said: "When it was suggested by the county and the city that I should leave the county and contest the seat in the city, I was unwilling to do so. I have always entertained the warmest feelings towards my friends in the county, who have given me such hearty support in the past, and who have stood by me so loyally. But Dr. Daniel was considered a strong candidate in the city and I agreed to contest that seat as I am always glad to be where the fight is the hottest. (Cheers.) I am sorry to say, however, that Dr. Daniel ran away from me." (Laughter.) "When he decided to seek refuge in the county he was not aware that he would have as his opponent my friend, Mr. Lowell, who is a stronger candidate than I would have been, and who will carry the seat with one of the greatest majorities that has ever been taken out of the county. And why not? Who has ever served the people of this constituency more faithfully and who has done more for St. John county?" (Great applause.)

"When I served in the provincial legislature with Mr. Lowell there was no man in the house who was regarded as more honest or more honorable. What he said he meant, and what he did not approve of he did not hesitate to condemn. Throughout his career he has always had the interests of the people who elected him at heart, and as the chairman well said, he has faithfully served the interests of the laboring men of this county."

Turning to the record of the present candidate of the opposition in the county, Dr. Pugsley said that he understood that at a public meeting, Dr. Daniel had laid claim to the credit for the erection of the splendid new post office building in Fairville. He said that he had heartily approved of it, but said Dr. Pugsley, "he

LIBERAL QUIETAIN SPEAKS TO 10,000 IN HALIFAX

Monster Demonstration for Sir Wilfrid Shows That Capital City of Nova Scotia Will Send Two Liberals to Ottawa—Province Likely to Defeat Every Conservative

Halifax, Aug. 30.—Ten thousand people jammed into the Arena, rink tonight to honor Sir Wilfrid Laurier and to give him a striking assurance that the city of Halifax will return two of his supporters to the next parliament.

Attentive and sympathetic, the large audience, many of them standing, followed closely the several speakers, and were earnestly impressed with the weight of argument presented in favor of the reciprocity pact.

Dr. E. Blackadar and Hon. A. K. MacLean, the Liberal leaders, were given a magnificent reception and clearly have a strong following and every prospect for a victory over the opposition leader and his followers in Halifax.

Supported by Hon. W. S. Fielding, Sir F. W. Borden, Hon. G. H. Murray, premier of Nova Scotia, the Liberal candidate, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Liberal chief minister, held tonight the most successful political meeting that has ever been held in Halifax. Over the platform hung a framed picture of the honored guest, draped with the Canadian flag and surrounded by the motto "Reciprocity and Prosperity." Various other mottoes were scattered about the walls of the immense building with welcoming signs and flags.

As the band played the air which heralded the entrance of the chief minister, 10,000 people in the rink rose simultaneously to their feet and cheered with all their strength for Laurier, a demonstration unrivaled by the unparalleled meeting in the city of St. John, two nights before. After the general cheering had subsided some one in the audience called for three cheers for Sir Wilfrid. These were given with a will and a vigor, and similar expressions in honor of Hon. W. S. Fielding followed.

Mr. J. B. Douglas, chairman of the Liberal executive, presided, and introduced Dr. E. Blackadar, one of the Liberal candidates in Halifax.

Dr. Blackadar, who in delivery, expression and choice of English, is an orator of a high order, paid eloquent tribute to Sir Wilfrid and to Hon. W. S. Fielding, which was received with great interest by the audience. He said Sir Wilfrid, like the Roman emperor, had turned his nation from brick to marble in a short period of fifteen years. Canada should be proud that she had given to the Empire the greatest imperial figure of the generation.

Sir Wilfrid was the next speaker, and he was again given a tumultuous welcome. He gratefully acknowledged the greeting, attributing the enthusiasm which had manifested itself throughout the evening to approval of the policy of the government, of which he was the leader.

He spoke of seeing the monument to Joseph Howe in the city, and reminded the audience that the greatest effort of his industry of orators was in aid of the preliminary work in the city of Detroit in 1867. When Sir Wilfrid mentioned the name of Laurier, many of the audience followed immediately by three hearty cheers for Laurier, many of the audience cheering to their feet in their enthusiasm.

When order was restored, Sir Wilfrid effectively silenced those striving for the applause.

Laurier sees Borden's Finish.

"I am not surprised or displeased at this applause for Mr. Borden," said the premier. "I know that this is his political battle and his last opportunity for the applause of the public."

The little game was organized so that the news might carry to Montreal and Toronto that Borden's name was cheered with applause. So there was applause, but there was much stronger cheering for MacLean and Blackadar, the two men who

MARKET OVERLOOKED

"I remember only two years ago," said the speaker, "when people were compelled to sell potatoes at sixty cents a barrel, and I bought them myself at that price for feed for the horses." The market had been overlooked.

Of especial importance to the parish was the lumber industry, and Mr. Lowell explained the effect of the Pilo law which had recently been repealed. This was a serious matter, as it meant that the large American mills located here would now have to pay into the United States treasury for duty $50,000 annually. This might mean that these large mills would find it more profitable to remove to the state of Maine as the profits of a good mill were not more than $20,000 annually. The distribution in wages by Sisson, Cutler & Co. alone was $100,000 a year, and their removal from St. John would result in a serious loss to the working men. Reciprocity would correct the evil resulting from the repeal of the Pilo law, as all sawn lumber from this province would be admitted to the United States free of duty. (Applause.) "Therefore this was a matter that might well be considered, more particularly as the lumbering industry was the principal industry of this province. Dealing with the main argument used against reciprocity, that it would make us display our reliance on the United States as we did Great Britain, but was there any one who could doubt as to our loyalty? (Cries of "No.") It was idle then to say that the increasing trade with our neighbors would make us any more disloyal.

Suggests Comparison.

In closing he asked his hearers to compare the eighteen years of Conservative administration with the present Liberal administration. So far as this part was concerned there had been expenditures of $400,000,000 by the Minister of Public Works alone, of about $2,000,000, "Just

RINGING CHEERS FOR FRIEND OF LABORING MEN

James Lowell, who was introduced by the chairman as the friend of the laboring man, was received with a storm of applause and cheers which lasted for at least two minutes. If ever there was a doubt as to what kind of a vote Fairville will give Mr. Lowell, it must have been dispelled last night. As he made his way to the platform there was wild cheering.

Dr. Pugsley said that he understood that at a public meeting, Dr. Daniel had laid claim to the credit for the erection of the splendid new post office building in Fairville. He said that he had heartily approved of it, but said Dr. Pugsley, "he fifteen years ago was $111,022,513. Last year it had increased to over $404,000,000. Are Canadians less loyal because their trade with that country increased almost four-fold in fifteen years?

Canada's total trade with all countries last year was valued at $769,094,389. More than half of it, or $404,137,040 was in trade with the United States. Does that fact lessen our loyalty to the Empire?

LET US REMEMBER SIR JOHN MACDONALD

"In order to condemn on principle any treaty of reciprocity, one must first contend that Sir John Macdonald was neither a Conservative nor a protectionist, that he was an enemy of the Empire and of the Canadian confederation, and bring true Conservatives and the people at large to accept that contention."—From "The Reciprocity Agreement," by Henri Bourassa.

Taking up another subject of great importance to the people of this district, Dr. Pugsley said: "You all know of the attempts that have been made to divert the logs from the upper reaches of the St. John river from the mills at St. John to the mills at Van Buren in the state of Maine. You may also remember the time when I as attorney-general of the province, prevented them from blocking the river at Van Buren and so accomplishing this purpose. I may say that it was Mr. Pugsley who looked after the interests of the American companies. (Hear, hear.) "You know," Dr. Pugsley continued, "that we have a joint commission, ap-

WELLS VICTOR OVER KNOCKOUT BROWN IN TEN

In Stiff Battle in New York, Britisher Gives American Whirlwind a Decided Setback—The Battle by Rounds

Madison Square Garden, N. Y., Aug. 30.—Matt Wells, the English lightweight champion, added to his list of triumphs by outboxing and outfighting "Knockout" Brown, the New York lightweight, in a ten round bout before the largest crowd that probably ever witnessed a pugilistic contest in New York city, tonight.

Wells' cool and calculating defense led the American sorely puzzled and he repelled Brown's attack from every angle. Brown could not solve the Englishman's left jab which played about the American's face with lightning rapidity, and kept him from doing any damage at in-fighting.

Wells was the first to climb through the ropes and was given a cordial reception. He was equipped by nine seconds, including his manager, George MacDonald. The Englishman was trained fine and looked to be in the pink of condition. Brown soon followed Wells into the ring, and went at once toward Wells' corner where his shadow hands with his opponent.

Brown was smiling and confident. It was announced that both men had weighed in under 133 pounds. There was some betting at 100 to 75 on Wells.

Both men came into the ring with hands bandaged and Referee White stripped some of the bandages from Wells hands. Brown was forced to remove some of the bandages from his hands also. The men boxed straight Queensbury rules.

The Rounds.—They came to a clinch and both held for several seconds. Wells landed a stiff right to the jaw and blocked a return. The Englishman forced the fighting, jabbing Brown with his left. Both were wild and there were few blows struck. Brown missed a right hook but a minute later caught Wells with a left to the wind. Wells had the slight advantage of the round.

Round 2.—They roughed it in the clinches. Wells trying a kidney punch. Brown hooked a hard right to the jaw which wobbled the Englishman. They swapped lefts to face and went to repeated clinches. Wells hooked a right to the ear and there was more rough work. Wells walloped Brown twice on the jaw, sent him reeling back to the ropes. The Englishman followed this with two fierce lefts to the face. Brown got to the wind and Wells countered with a left to nose. It was Wells' round.

Round 3.—Brown bored in and they roughed it to the centre of the ring. Wells ducked a wild left swing but missed a counter to the jaw. Brown was wild in his attack, and could not seem to land cleanly. Wells put two lefts to the nose and Brown countered on the stomach. Wells hit Brown twice on the nose, but took a left to wind in return. Wells ducked into a terrific left swing, and Brown followed his advantage with a left to chest. At the bell Brown got a right to the ribs. Brown was bleeding at the nose. The round was even.

Round 4.—Wells held in the clinches. Wells gave Brown a terrible right to the mouth which caused Brown's mouth to bleed a stream. The Britisher came back with another hard right to the jaw but Brown backed away from further danger. Brown put a right hook to the shoulder and then they sparred for a time. The American swung his left to the wind and Wells hooked right and left to the jaw, causing Brown to retreat. Brown repeated quickly, and the bell found them fighting in the centre of the ring. It was clearly Wells' round.

CRIPPLE FROM RHEUMATISM

NOW IN PERFECT HEALTH THANKS TO "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

"Vancouver, B. C., Feb. 1st, 1910. I am well acquainted with a man, known to thousands in Vancouver, Victoria and New Westminster, who for nearly a year was practically a cripple from Rheumatism. He was so troubled with the disease that it was difficult to even turn in bed. His heart appeared so weak that he could hardly walk up stairs.

"Last June, I received a sample of 'Fruit-a-tives'. He used them and dates his recovery from that time. Today there is no man in Vancouver enjoying better health.

AMUSEMENTS IN ST. JOHN; WHAT THE PLAYHOUSES OFFER

NICKEL.—Madame Furlong-Schmidt at Nickel Theatre, continues to delight the large audience who congregates daily. Yesterday afternoon she was presented with an exquisite bouquet from some Montreal friends who had unexpectedly visited the city and the night previous some floral greetings were handed her over the footlights from St. John friends.

THE LYRIC.—To have attained only the height of twenty-eight inches, and weigh but thirty pounds at the age of thirty-four years, does not seem like rapid physical development, but life is more than arithmetic and Chiquita, the wonderful little doll lady who will open an engagement this afternoon at the Lyric is more than height and weight. She is a self-possessed, dignified little lady who, it is announced, appeared before Queen Victoria at Osborne House.

THE OPERA HOUSE.—Another large audience witnessed Margaret Mayo's comedy success "Baby Mine" last night at the Opera House, and once more a highly pleased concourse of people left the theatre after the performance. The play was thoroughly productive of wholesome laughter, and the complications arising in the lives of a young married couple through the jealousy of a suspicious husband provided fun in abundance for all present. Tonight will be the last chance to see this remarkable laugh-producer.

MORNING LOCALS.—An interesting address was delivered in Brookville last night by Rev. H. E. Thomas on the Founding of the Nation. Rev. J. J. Pinkerton acted as chairman. A large audience greatly appreciated the address.

A very successful garden party was held on the grounds of the Silver Falls Methodist church yesterday afternoon. A programme of sports was carried out and a very enjoyable afternoon spent. A break down of the engine of the Boston Express, yesterday afternoon, caused a delay of two hours. An engine from Fredericton brought the train into the city.

The C. P. R. have plans prepared for the car ferry for the St. John Digby route. The plans call for boats 200 feet long, with beam of 68 feet and draft of 18 feet. They will carry thirty cars. The ferry terminal will, it is said, be on the Dunn property, north of the west end ferry boats.

The best way to build up the Empire is to build up Canada. Larger free markets for Canadian products will bring that result.

GREAT AGRICULTURAL COUNTIES STRONGLY FOR RECIPROcity. That F. B. Carvell and reciprocity will have a great majority in Carleton county is the feeling in that constituency. An enthusiastic meeting was held last night at Richmond Corner, when a large audience listened to able addresses by Mr. Carvell and G. W. Uphan, M.P.P. Chas. Comb, a well known Conservative lawyer of Woodstock, has come out openly in favor of the agreement.

A STRIKING RECIPROcity ARGUMENT

Farmer, Trying to Sell Potatoes Here Yesterday, Furnishes Conspicuous Example of Reciprocity to Talk About

A striking example of the favor of farmers in the three counties for reciprocity was given yesterday afternoon in a grocery store in Indian town. Between 6 and 7 o'clock a farmer loaded the premises of a well-known grocery firm in Main street, near the foot of Indian town, and when the first of Indian town potatoes were sold, it was found that they were well stocked and did not need any more at present.

"I've been selling potatoes for 20 years," said the farmer, "and I've never sold so many as I have today. I've been trying to sell them for a long time, but I've never been able to get them sold so well as I have today. I've been trying to sell them for a long time, but I've never been able to get them sold so well as I have today. I've been trying to sell them for a long time, but I've never been able to get them sold so well as I have today."
