Great Crowds See "Grumpy"—Imperial

The Imperial was packed all day yesterday with people who were perfectly delighted with the superb Paramount production of Cyril Maude's stage masterpiece "Grumpy." Theodore Roberts could not possibly have been excelled as the crotchety, yet kindly, old grandfather who unraveled the baffling diamond mystery. May McAvoy and Conrad Nagel, also Cason Ferguson were the other sterling players in principal roles. "Grumpy" is truly an exceptional picture and will be concluded tonight. The Rossley Kiddies made another big hit yesterday. They continue until Saturday night. They play Moncton and Halifax later.

FIRE ALARM AS GUIDE TO FANS

Request Made to Commissioner—Moncton and St. Peters to Play Tonight.

It has been suggested to Commissioner Thornton that one stroke of the fire alarm bell, repeated twice or thrice on evenings when the weather is doubtful and on which it has been decided to play games in the Two I League, would be a convenience to the many fans who have difficulty in ascertaining whether or not the games are to be played.

Asked about the matter today, the commissioner said that he had considered the suggestion very carefully, but had decided that the arrangement would be difficult to make. He pointed out that the alarm system was an intricate one and he did not feel that it would be wise to alter it for the purpose of a game. He pointed out that in case of accident, it might cause mistakes that might result in loss of life or property.

DELOME CASE MAY GO ON FOR A FORTNIGHT

Montreal, July 5.—(Canadian Press) The trial of Rev. Father Delorme on the charge of having murdered his brother, shows little sign of coming to an end. It is now two weeks since it commenced on June 20, and even the witnesses for the prosecution have not yet all been heard. In all probability the trial will not be concluded for another fortnight.

On Jan. 7, 1922, at 8.30 in the morning, about the time the body of Raoul Delorme was being carried to the morgue, Father Delorme drove up to a Dorchester street garage and ordered the two chains on the rear wheels of his automobile to be repaired and re-adjusted with cross chains, according to the evidence of Rene Pilon, a garage employe who testified at the trial yesterday afternoon.

Twelve cross-chains or cross-links which the Abbé brought himself, were placed on the chains, five for each Pilon said. In some places the cross-links were missing, in the other places only worn.

In cross-examination the witness said that he had often carried out repair work for Father Delorme and that he usually called to have it done in the early morning.

Other evidence to the effect that red stains in the snow near the place where the victim was found, supposed to be blood stains, were actually of animal origin, thus disposing of one aspect of the case. Detective Brodeur testified that he went over the route between 100 St. Hubert street, the residence of the priest, at the date of the murder, to the place where the body of the victim was found, and returned, completing the round trip in fifty-nine minutes.

Match Makers of Europe Find Fewer Ambitious Mothers Traveling.

Berlin, June 18.—(A. P., by mail)—International match-makers, the men and women who used to do a thriving business marrying off titles and high social position to wealthy plebeians, have been hard hit by the war and the resultant financial distress. Marriage among humbler folks all over Europe has increased under the distress, but not so with the leaders of fashion.

June, the month of weddings, has not produced the large number of society weddings which always characterized the month in pre-war days. This is especially noticeable in central Europe. Respectable churches, hotels, cafes, dressmaking shops, jewelry-shops and flower-shops do not show the increased under the distress, but not so with the leaders of fashion.

Foreign tourists are not visiting central Europe in large numbers, and the residents of central Europe are not traveling abroad. The romances which used to begin on ocean trips are fewer and fewer. American and English women with comfortable fortunes are not wandering about as they did in old times. Travel is not so inviting as it used to be, and families from the lands of good exchange apparently have little desire to expose their daughters to the sort of tragedies which have grown out of many international marriages.

But the professional matchmakers are having a harder time. The decline in travel and upset political conditions have passed away and the matchmakers are having a harder time. ### SUITOR BETRAYS FATHER OF GIRL

Valdosta, Ga., July 5.—After ten years of freedom, during which he lived under an assumed name and became a substantial citizen of Florida, a man named George Scott, who had been a convict in Georgia after serving seven months of a life sentence for murder, is now in prison again as the result of being a young man of his past life, he said.

He betrayed by the suitor, Hall is philosophical about the matter. "I would rather spend twenty years on the 'gang'," he said, "than to have had my daughter marry a man who betrayed me."

He also reported payments for June amounting to $201,280.91. The report of the committee of the whole was adopted. It recommended that the application of George Scott to install a gasoline tank and pump on his premises, 55 Elm street, be completed by Capt. A. J. Mulcahy and James McKinney be re-appointed port wardens. LINCOLN STATUE CAST IN 1905 IS TO BE UNVEILED
Chicago, July 4.—(Associated Press)—Illinois will soon again pay honor to Abraham Lincoln through the erection of a statue of the emancipator, cast almost twenty years ago by Augustus St. Gaudens, who died soon after the work was completed.

Strange as it may seem, Chicagoans have never had an opportunity of seeing the statue, although it has been in this city almost continuously since it was cast.

While the nation honored Lincoln last year with the erection of the Lincoln Memorial at Washington, and there is a monument with a sarcophagus effect now over the final resting place of the martyred President at Springfield, the St. Gaudens statue will be the first of Lincoln to be erected in his home state.

This statue, completed in 1905, has been stored in a shelter house in Jackson Park here, awaiting final action by the South Park Commissioners as to its location. They have about come to the conclusion to place it in Grant Park, on the Lake front.

The casting of the statue was made possible through a bequest of the late John Crezer, who made many such bequests looking toward the beautification of the city and perpetuation of the memory of the state's famous sons. He gave $100,000 for the casting and upkeep of the statue.

The statue has been on exhibition once in New York and again in San Francisco, but each time was returned to Chicago boxed and has never been exhibited here. It shows Lincoln in a sitting position and is said to be one of the sculptor's best works.

BANDITS PAY WITH Lives For Crime
Mexico City, June 18.—(A. P. by mail)—Summary vengeance has been exacted by the Government for the attack on the Interoceanic Railway passenger train June 8 between Amosoc and Senecot, near Puebla, in which two lives were lost. Five Indians, two of them residents of Amosoc, have been shot after summary court-martials and twelve others, whose names were given by those executed as members of the band of robbers, are being hurried through the mountains by numerous detachments of federal troops.

Photographs of the five dead robbers, taken while they were falling under the bullets of the firing squad at the edge of the graves dug for them, have been distributed throughout the Malintzi mountain region as a warning against further similar outrages.

The fact that the Amosoc holdup was the first to mar the record of the Obregon administration for months prompted the Government to take extreme steps.

GREAT EXPECTATIONS

Hon. Mr. Ferguson, the new Premier of Ontario, has been the recipient of perfrivd congratulations from Conservative sources of every kind, and Hon. Mr. Meighen, who joined in the acclamations expressed confidence that Mr. Ferguson would bring credit to himself and his party and give Ontario prosperity and happiness such as it never has known.

It regards Mr. Ferguson as facing a future crowded with difficulties, and while it sees some good cabinet material in sight it warns him against men of a certain type who will be pressing for recognition and whose claims it will be difficult for Mr. Ferguson to reject. Yet, while it has been one of his most severe critics, The Citizen says Mr. Ferguson should be given every opportunity and encouragement to make good, since he is at the helm by the will of the people.

A strong warning to the Liberals and Progressives against dividing their forces in either Ontario or Canada is issued by The Citizen. It thinks the Ontario contest should be a lesson as to what follows when two parties with policies much alike assist upon fighting each other. It adds: "That which has happened in Ontario can be enacted in Canada."

A TROUBLESOME QUESTION. The troublesome Tangier question is being considered by Spanish, French and British experts at the Foreign Office in London in the hope that some solution of the problem will be found. It is a full international conference will be summoned to settle the future of the Tangier zone.

Stroad, a veterinary surgeon, of South Molton Street, W., said: "I have known dogs pine for days at the loss of a good friend, but they had met and case where one dog had been shot. Dogs and horses have refused food for days when grief-stricken, but their memory is short-lived and they get over it in time."

GIRL RIDES ROSE IN MAN'S ATTIRE

Chicago, July 5.—Her inability to roll and smoke a cigarette in approved masculine fashion and the fact that her pockets bulged with a large roll of money, led the police to penetrate the disguise of Nellie Munnagh of Toledo, O., who said she "rode the road" from the Ohio city disguised as a man. Miss Munnagh, claiming to be the daughter of Arthur Munnagh, attached to the federal prohibition office in Toledo, said she had donned masculine attire and left Toledo on Tuesday to St. James, Minn., to visit her sister.

Just a few days left before Chautauqua opens. The eleven towns already heard from on the circuit this year report the program as the best ever given. There are twenty events in all, giving a splendid variety and range. The lectures are of a very high order. Hon. P. Whitwell Wilson, has been a member of the British Commons since he was thirty years old, is a most popular lecturer and much in demand. Miss Ada Ward is known as one of England's foremost women speakers. She is an excellent cartoonist and from a time entertained the soldiers in France. Her lecture is full of quaint remarks and amusing surprises. Mr. Harry McKen brings a thoughtful and extremely interesting address on "Your Community" in Revolutionary days. Mildred Leo Clemens, cousin of Mark Twain, gives an illustrated lecture on "Happy Hawaii." She has specially written her own company of players and singers from Hawaii. The whole evening will be a delight. The Chautauqua superintendent, Mr. Reeves, also delivers two lectures.

A glance over the entertainment features of the program reveals a very enjoyable time for all. The first evening Ralph Bingham, spoken of as America's foremost humorist, will please everybody. The Dunbar Choral choir and the three concert pianos will be a joy to all music lovers, and Miss Helen Waggoner, as reader and entertainer is an expressionist of rare talent. There will also be two plays this season. The Junior Pageant is full of live interest from beginning to end and is a most enjoyable play. The play "Sultan" will perform under the direction of Miss Lindsay. For the second day of Chautauqua there is to be a kite flying contest for all. Be sure you get in on this.

GOVERNOR AT WOODSTOCK

Baron Byng of Vimy, Governor-General of Canada, had a busy time in Woodstock yesterday. He arrived there at 8:30 and was taken to the Court House, where an address was delivered by Mayor Brown. The procession from the station was participated in by the Mayor and Town Council, a large number of returned men under command of Lieut-Col. J. J. Bull, the Woodstock Corset Band and a large concourse of citizens. Lord Byng replied and held a reception before going to the golf links, where he played a round. Little Helen Bull, whose father was killed at Vimy, presented a beautiful bouquet to Lady Byng. Lord Byng, at his own request, spent a half hour at the G. W. V. A. rooms chatting with old comrades. The party left there at 1:30 today for McAdam.

CROSSES LAKE ERIE IN CANOE

Cleveland, July 5.—A new record in paddling a canoe was established here, when Texas Jack Sullivan arrived at the Cleveland Yacht Club, after paddling across Lake Erie, in the six-mile trip in four minutes less than twenty-four hours. As far as Sullivan is concerned, it was no feat at all. He is the only white man who ever paddled across the lake in a canoe alone. Records have been made here where Indians have made the trip, but so far as known none of them ever traveled unaccompanied. Sullivan departed in an 18-foot open canoe from Rondeau, Canada, opposite here. The canoe was commanded by Vice Commodore Ralph W. Walton of the Cleveland Yacht Club, under whose auspices the trip was made. At no time, it is said, did the yacht come closer than fifty feet to the shore.

DOES LAVA ACT LIKE THIS?

Several of the despatches from Sicily have stated that the lava thrown out by Mount Etna does not behave as liquids of any kind, no matter what their kind or viscosity, are expected to behave. It runs down hill in the orthodox way, but it is also said to run up hill in a way so unorthodox that it is incomprehensible, at least from this distance, and therefore incredible. In one of the special cablesgrams to the Times, printed Saturday morning, these statements were made in regard to the lava: "It is now almost black in color. Vibrating with the fierce heat, it looks as if titanic wagon-loads of soft asphalt had been dumped. The surface roughly follows the contour of the ground. The lava has not filled up the valleys, but slips down one side of a hill and up another." As those are the assertions of an eye-witness who also is a trained observer, it would be rash to deny their accuracy, and yet how can the lava be subject to all the laws that govern substances not solid, and seemingly the only way for it to pass a valley that lies in the course of its flow from the upper heights would be for it first to fill up the valley. Volcanoes have many mysteries, but this one, it stands, is the most puzzling of them all.

Practical Pointers Concerning Wireless in All Its Branches. The All-Important Electrons. To receive with a vacuum tube, the filament must be heated by passing an electric current through it. When a metallic substance is heated in a vacuum, it shoots out from its surface millions of extremely minute particles which are called electrons. These electrons are small negative charges of electricity, the smallest known subdivision of matter, and upon them the whole action of the tube depends. The filament is there for the sole purpose of shooting these electrons out into the space in the bulb where they can be made use of.

For Proper Reception.

The modern radio receiving system must perform in a satisfactory manner under all conditions, and the efficiency with which it accomplishes them determines the relative value as compared to any other set on the same basis. First, the signals must be intercepted; second, the receiving system must be tuned to the same wave length as the transmitting station; third, the radio frequency signals, inaudible in themselves, must be detected so that they may be made available; fourth, the signal must be amplified so as to have sufficient volume to be heard without difficulty.

For the Notebook.

A weak but clear signal is much better than a loud distorted one. Except for the intercepting clouds, the fading of signals is still a mystery. When using radio frequency amplification, it is best to use a potentiometer. Do not run a lead-in from the front of the house to the rear; the building absorbs energy. Instead of soldering wires together in the set, solder them to a metal strip. It makes a better job.

FIND SEVENTEEN KEYS IN WOMAN'S STOMACH

London, June 30.—(By Mail).—A case of the "human stomach" variety is described in this week's "British Medical Journal" by Dr. A. G. Broad, of the Ayr County Hospital. It is unique both for the number of articles found and the strange preference shown for iron keys. The following were removed from the woman's stomach: Seventeen iron keys, the longest being three and three-quarters inches in length; two coins, one with a ring and one without; a ring; a button, one engineer's split pin, one small sharpener. The patient was twenty-seven years of age and had several operations, and at no time did she give any hint as to the source of the keys. The most amazing part of the story is that she made an uninterrupted recovery.

WHO IS BOSS OF HOME? WISE JUDGE WON'T SAY

Who is the legal boss of the home? That's what Judge Walwick of High Court London, is asked whether he would say. He appeared yesterday before Judge Rosenwasser in Yonkers City Court to decide whether the divorce between Walwick or Mrs. Walwick should be in their household. Walwick told the court that his wife would not let him discipline any of their seven children when they were naughty. But Judge Rosenwasser, who is a lawyer, said that he would not let him discipline any of their seven children when they were naughty. MOTHER WILL NOT BELIEVE MISSING SOLDIER SON DEAD
Travels From Australia to England, Following Mysterious Newspaper Cues.

London, June 15.—(By Mail).—Convinced that her son, Sergeant Robert McCorty, reported missing during the war, is alive, Mrs. E. McCorty, of Sydney, Australia, has come to London to try this side to trace the sender of three mysterious packets of English newspapers posted to her during 1922 bearing the postmark "Aston Manor, Birmingham," says "The London Daily Mail." Each paper was a month old when posted, and the packets arrived at intervals of a month. Five newspapers were unmarked, and a search failed to find a reason for their dispatch. The last packet, however, contained a newspaper with a marked paragraph headed "Four Years Dead," and referred to the alleged finding of a man in India who had been reported missing.

Mrs. McCorty, who has returned to England after fifty years in Australia, refuses to believe that the newspapers were sent by a sympathiser who may have read her appeals for news in the Australian press.

A good many people are doubtful that it has, since the French are accustomed to the more comfortable headgear and are reluctant to abandon the prevailing style. The purveyors of dress for men are inclined to think that the top hat, like the stiff collar, never will be popular again. They say, however, the tide still will be obligatory for certain social events.

Bristol Orphan Who Went as a Boy to Cardiff, Describes His Start and His Long Career With Only Boss He Had.

London, June 7.—(By Mail)—Fifty-eight and a half years in the same office. It is a sturdy record, surely, and it is held by Thomas Perry, of 83 Beda Road, Canton, Cardiff, who is retiring from the employ of Messrs. Collett, Whitefield & Co., Cardiff, says "The Cardiff Times."

"I found Mr. Perry, 'Cardiff Times' interviewer writes, to be a smart old gentleman, well in pace with the times in spite of his seventy-five years. His step is elastic, and his eyes are bright; he had a cherry smile for me and a merry word. Very interesting was the tale he told me. Imagine in far off 1862, a frightened apprentice-to-be landing at Cardiff.

Chemical Impurity In Air Does Not Cause "Stiffness"

Free Movement of Atmosphere Called Real Preventive Against Accumulation of Various Germs.

London, May 30.—(By Mail)—"The old idea about ventilation was that the presence of oxygen and the absence of carbon dioxide were all that mattered," says a physician in "The London Daily Mail."

"Recent investigations, however, have shown that chemical impurity has nothing to do with stiffness and that air is not necessarily injurious because it has an unpleasant odor.

"It is the absence of movement that makes the air of a badly ventilated room dangerous. Free movement of the air prevents the accumulation of the ubiquitous germs of disease and hinders their spread from infected individuals to others. When ventilation is inefficient such organisms can be transmitted to a distance of two or three feet by such simple acts as sneezing, coughing, laughing or even speaking.

"Foul air, of course, often contains smoke and dust, both of which are intensely irritating to the delicate lining of the lungs and respiratory passages. But probably more harmful still is their effect of shutting out the sunlight, which is becoming more and more recognized as vital to health. Its virtue probably consists in the absorption of the ultra-violet rays by the blood.

"The importance of the body heat in connection with ventilation is not sufficiently recognized. 'Most people know that through the consumption of food and muscular exercise our bodies are constantly producing heat, while the sweat-glands are just as constantly losing heat and moisture by evaporation. The healthy nervous system has a miraculous way of keeping the temperature normal by striking an exact balance between income and expenditure of heat."

"What is not so generally known is that the respiratory passages also 'sweat' a great deal of moisture and heat being got rid of in this way. 'When the air is hot and dry the natural adaptations of the body can increase the amount of moisture present, just as they can raise the temperature when it is cold. But in the moist, hot atmosphere that one finds in so many rooms neither the sweat-glands nor the lungs can act properly."

ARGENTINA ENTERS LISTS AS A FRUIT GROWING NATION

London, June 7.—(By Mail)—Outside Argentina very little has been heard of the remarkable strides made in the fruit-growing trade, writes the Argentine correspondent of "The London Daily Telegraph." Now is this to be greatly wondered at, since so far practically no fruit has been exported from that country to Europe or the United States. But a start has been made on the Pacific coast, and fresh grapes are being sent to the United States from Chile. It is not generally known that Argentina, too, has made ventures of this kind, and will soon be shipping quantities of her fine fruit to other parts of the world.

The oranges and the fig flourish exceedingly in a fertile land than can boast of almost every variety of fruit. It is in the northern territories that the former is principally grown. Downstream, from the province of Corrientes, come the barges and steamers bearing their golden burden. In addition to the edible fruit, however, it must be pointed out that there exist large numbers of trees whose product is distasteful to the palate, and their haunting color is no criterion as to edibility. Whole groves of this deceptive fruit may be seen here and there on the edge of clearings in the northern forests, where, originally planted by the Jesuits, they have reverted to a wild condition. Tempted by the seeming generosity of nature's hospitality, the passerby is oftentimes tempted to pluck and quench his thirst with a brilliant fruit, and, having been so entrapped, it is a commendable kindness if he keeps his feelings to himself.

Fig trees grow in exuberance throughout the republic, and this fruit is very fine in quality, many of these groves attaining to gigantic proportions. The same may be said of the guinea, and the laden groves of this glowing fruit afford a most entrancing spectacle.

But if Argentina possesses a national fruit it may be said to be the peach, for this fruit flourishes abundantly throughout the country. One of its chief nurseries is to be found in those great stretches on the banks of the Parana. Here countless leagues of peach orchards flourish exceedingly, and motor launches and other boats ply to and fro, laden beneath masses of the yellow and crimson fruit. The Argentine takes justifiable pride in his peach production, and scarcely an estancia, or even a rancho throughout the country is without a grove of peach trees. The clingstone variety, being very hard in texture, is suitable rather for canning than any other purpose. The freestone variety is of quite excellent quality, however, and it is highly probably that course of time more attention will be given to the finer species. The fruit plantations of the Rio Negro territory attain the important area of nearly 7,000 hectares, and in these districts the apple flourishes, some of the specimens of this particular fruit being of magnificent appearance and very fine quality. In the northwest of Rio Negro lies the small inland district of Neuquen, and while from the agricultural point of view this territory has only been opened up quite recently as a fruit-growing centre it is rapidly attaining to very considerable importance, being chiefly notable, as in the case of Rio Negro, for the apples it produces. But perhaps the province of Buenos Ayres comes easily first, with its 345,000 hectares planted with fruit, among which the peach predominates. Mendoza, important for its wine industry, is extremely productive as regards fruit-farming in general, more particularly the western section of the province. An estate in Mendoza is a most pleasant sight, with its vines trained in their long pergola tunnels, in between which rise the trees and shrubs of the peaches, figs, nectarines, and all the rest of the glowing produce.

Then add two quarts of boiling water, and when the froth subsides, you will have a clean amber-colored liquid. Add this liquid to the wash tub, until you get the big lasting Rinso suds. Go Get Your Test

Then watch its effect on film. See prettier teeth. If you don't know this new way of teeth cleaning, go accept this offer. Make this delightful test. Learn how much this method means to you and yours. Millions now employ it. You see the results in glistening teeth wherever you look today. All the world over it is bringing to people a new conception of what clean teeth mean. Go compare this new way with the old and watch the changes which come in a week. You must fight film. Brushing teeth does not protect them if you leave a film. Film is the teeth' great enemy—the cause of most tooth troubles. And very few escaped those troubles under former brushing methods. Film is that viscous coat you feel. It clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays. No ordinary tooth paste effectively combats it. Food stains, etc., discolor film. Then it forms dingy coats. Tartar is based on film. That is why teeth lose luster. Film also holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed by millions in film. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. And that is alarmingly common. Easy, effective ways. Dental science has now found ways to combat that film. One acts to cure film, one to remove it, and without any harmful scouring. Able authorities proved these methods by many careful tests. Then a new-type tooth paste was perfected to apply these methods daily. That tooth paste is called Peppodent. Its use has spread the world over, largely by dental advice. Careful people of some 50 nations are employing it today. Other unique effects. Dental research also found two other things essential because of deficiencies often found in modern diet. So Peppodent multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva. That is there to neutralize mouth acids, the cause of tooth decay. It multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva. That is there to digest starch deposits which may otherwise ferment and form acids.

STONEWORK BASE OF SHRINE FOUND

Was Demolished by Cromwell's Commissioners in Winchester Cathedral.

Winchester, June 17.—(By Mail)—What appears to be some portions of the stonework base of St. Swithun's Shrine, demolished at the Dissolution in 1534, has recently been discovered in Winchester Cathedral by J. D. Le Couneur, architect, of the shrine (the latter a present Wykehamist).

MILK CASE IN POLICE COURT

Charged by the Board of Health with four offences in connection with the sale of milk, Allen E. Belyea of Little River appeared in the police court yesterday for a hearing. Some evidence in the case was postponed to Friday afternoon at the request of the prosecution. E. P. Bagley appeared for the defence and Dr. J. Roy Campbell, K. C. for the Board of Health. There were four charges: namely, offering for sale milk not scientifically pasteurized; handling milk in a dirty vessel; pasteurizing plants wilfully bringing milk into St. John other than sealed cans; being keeper of a dairy or vehicle without obtaining a written permit from the Board of Health for the sale of the milk. Evidence was given by Dr. Howard Burns, secretary of the Board of Health; Mrs. Beatrice Neilson, J. P. F. Health Inspector; Dr. Howard Burns; Mrs. Irene Myers, matron of the Home for Incubables; and Robert Boyer, chief engineer at the Pacific Dairy.

Nurses Obect to Shorter Vacation

Four Threaten to Resign From Hospital Staff and Matter is Brought to Attention of Commissioners. At a meeting yesterday of the Board of Commissioners of the General Public Hospital unofficial notice was received that four of the head nurses would resign on July 20 because of the action of the commissioners in cutting down their vacations from three weeks to two weeks. R. H. Gale, superintendent, said he had been told that such was the case by Miss Murdoch, superintendent of nurses, before the left on her vacation, which expires on July 20. M. E. Agar was in the chair at the meeting, and other commissioners present were W. E. Emerson, Dr. G. H. Crawford and Dr. E. J. Ryan. Dr. J. H. Allingham appeared on behalf of the nurses and proposed that the resignation be refused. He stated that the resignation of the four nurses would be a serious loss to the hospital and that the commissioners should be urged that if possible, further discussion was postponed until Friday evening. The superintendent reported that it would be necessary to extend the dietitian's quarters because of the additional room required in giving the insular treatment for diabetes. The financial report showed receipts for the month amounting to $17,236.40 with expenses of $14,932.26. A balance in the bank on June 30 amounted to $19,091.30. The report of Miss Murdoch, as superintendent of nurses, showed that there had been little sickness during the month. She recommended that three graduate nurses, Miss G. Maxon, Miss Margaret Hayes and Miss L. Hayes, be granted the regular bonus of $100. The recommendation was ordered carried out. The meeting then adjourned until Friday night.

Magistrate Resigns; Geo. A. Henderson To Succeed Him

A despatch from Fredericton last evening contained the information that the resignation of Hon. Geo. A. Henderson, clerk of the St. John and Judge of the St. John City Court, had been accepted at a meeting of the Provincial Government and had been accepted to take effect on July 15. George A. Henderson, clerk of the court, has been appointed to succeed him. Judge Henderson has held office for many years. He was admitted to the New Brunswick Bar in 1866 and received his appointment as clerk of the court in 1870. He has since that time represented the city and county in the House of Assembly as a Liberal. He went into the Blair cabinet in 1912 as solicitor general and was elected by acclamation. While holding that office he established an enviable reputation as Crown prosecutor. Judge Ritchie is prominent as a member of many societies. He is a member of the St. Joseph's, the Irish Friendly Dramatic Club, Irish Literary Society, C. M. B. A., and the Knights of Columbus. He was named by the Bishop of St. John as a director of the Victorian Order of Nurses and of the governing board of the Boys' Industrial Home. He is a past president of the Father Mathew's Society and the Catholic and Abolitionist Union of New Brunswick, vice-

FORMER EMPEROR RELUCTANT TO PAY DUTCH TAXES

Amsterdam, June 18.—(A. P. by Mail)—William Holzeuoller is quarrelling with the Dutch over the payment of taxes. He is now engaged in a dispute with the municipal authorities of Doorn over the question of local assessments. The former German Emperor refuses to pay, contending that the municipality is not entitled to its demand because he came to Holland under compulsion. The Doorn city fathers maintain that he came there voluntarily, and have decided to enforce the law with restrictive effect. The municipal council of Amerongen, where the former Emperor resided the first year of his exile, has not been slow in following up the decision of the Doorn council, and proposes to submit its claim for arrears in taxes.

KING BORIS DRIVES TRAIN

Widin, Bulgaria, July 1.—(By The Associated Press)—King Boris today made his first public appearance since the fall of the Stamboulysky Government when he attended the opening of the Sofia-Widin Railroad. The monarch rode the first passenger locomotive over the entire distance of 160 miles, passing villages where peasants thronged the stations to cheer him. The King declined a bodyguard despite the advice of some of his fiercest advisers to do so. He was accompanied by a small party of officials and a few friends.

EVERYTHING I ATE TURNED SOUR

Mrs. J. H. Wright Finds Two Bottles But is Now on High-Road to Recovery. The helping hand of Dreco has again been extended, this time to Mrs. J. H. Wright, of 183 Prince Street, St. John, N. B., who credits this wonderful medicine with her recovery from the debilitating effects of a badly run down system. "I was troubled greatly with my stomach and acute indigestion," Mrs. Wright, "and everything I ate would turn sour. I also suffered from liver trouble and biliousness and was in such a terribly run-down condition that life was a burden. Things were going from bad to worse until I heard of Dreco. Now, thanks to this wonderful medicine, I am much better and intend to keep on taking it until my health is completely restored. My husband is also taking Dreco and finds it benefits him more than any medicine he ever tried. There is no need for anyone to endorse the agencies of a badly functioning system. Dreco, the natural herb remedy, goes right to the root of all stomach, kidney, liver and intestinal disorders. Dreco is being specially introduced in St. John by Ross Drug Co., 100 King Street. It is also sold by Moore's Drug Store, 105 Prince Edward Street, and F. W. Murray, 357 Main Street. It is also sold in Fairville by T. H. Wilson, in West St. John by Watson R. Determined Effort to Discover Cause and Cure is Launched.

Work to be Co-ordinated—Appeal by Famous Physicians and Others Asks for Funds with Which to Conduct Campaign.

Cancer, the dread scourge that is responsible for more deaths of persons over 80 years of age than any other disease, is to be fought with all the research forces of the British Empire.

The British Empire Cancer Campaign, which includes such men as Sir Napier Burnett, Lord Dawson, Lieut. Col. F. E. Fremantle, Dr. John B. Farmer, Colonel Sir C. Gordon-Watson, Dr. R. A. Gibson, Sir Arthur Stanley, Sir William Wilcox and others, is stated that in 1920 there were nearly 48,000 deaths in Great Britain of persons over 80 years of age suffering with cancer, and that in 1921 there were 48,228, or one in every seven deaths from all causes.

"We are still ignorant of both the causation and cure of cancer," the appeal reads. "Many other diseases have yielded their secrets to patient investigation, and there is no reason to suppose that the problem of cancer will not eventually be solved."

"Yet thousands of suffering men and women, and those who suffer with them, are asking how long they must wait, and if there is nothing that can be done to hasten a discovery which will bring relief to those whose outlook is today so hopeless."

The answer to this question is clear. The first step toward finding the cure of cancer is to discover its cause. To find that cause no effort must be spared. Every possible line of research must be diligently explored. More men must be set free to devote themselves wholly to research, and their work must not be hampered or prevented by want of money.

"Much research work is being carried on, and considerable advances have been made in the technique of opera-

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

The British steamer Hilarus, 4,206 tons, bound from Montreal to South American ports via New York, went aground yesterday morning at Auld's Cove, opposite Port Hastings, in the Strait of Canso. She is reported to be in no immediate danger.

FAMOUS BIBLE GOES TO ITALY. London, June 19.—(A. P., by mail).—The famous Bible of the Borso d'Este, valued at $200,000 and belonging at one time to the late Emperor Karl of Austria, has been purchased by a rich Milan manufacturer, who outdid an American banker for it.

The Bible is illuminated by artists of the 16th century and is regarded by antiquarians as the finest specimen of its kind in existence. During his stay in Switzerland Karl, being short of money, sold the rare book to a London antiquary, who in turn disposed of it to its present owner in Italy.

Crawford, of Cooksville, Ont., who specializes in the production of strawberries, has succeeded in producing a titanic specimen which he calls "Crawford's Excelsior." tions designed to remove the disease in the early stages or retard its progress in more advanced cases. All this is due to those who have done and are doing the same work, but a vast amount still remains to be done.

"Impressed by the need for immediate action, we have joined together to found a movement which will co-ordinate and support a research on cancer throughout the British Empire.

"This new concerted movement will be called the British Empire Cancer Campaign. It will be governed and directed by an Executive Council, the members of which will act as Chairmen of small working committees, each dealing with a separate aspect of the cancer problem.

"Medicine, surgery, human pathology, chemistry, physics, radiology, animal and plant pathology, hygiene and vital statistics will be represented by committees whose work will be co-ordinated by the Executive Council, acting, in fact, as a central clearing-house.

"The council is anxious to make it clear from the outset that it has no wish to interfere with the work already being carried out. Individuals and institutions now working on the cancer problem will be helped and encouraged, and, where practicable, financially assisted.

The British Red Cross Society has placed its organization and machinery at the disposal of the council of the campaign, and a generous donor has already given a sum sufficient to cover the preliminary expenses of this appeal.

"All future contributions will, therefore, be expended in encouraging, assisting, organizing and administering systematic research and treatment on a scale that has hitherto been impossible. To do this a large sum of money will be needed, and we appeal with confidence to the British public in the United Kingdom and in the Dominions and Colonies overseas.

"During the war we had ample evidence of the capacity of this empire for united and intensive effort, and in no field was it more effectively shown than in the relief of suffering and the prevention of disease. Is it too much to hope that the same spirit will animate our people when they are called upon to wage war against an enemy that is in their very midst?"

RISK LIVES TO SAVE LIVERPOOL FROM GIANT BLAST

Shilling Fund Started for Prevention of Explosion of 120 Tons of Picric Acid on Railway Cars.

LONDON, June 8.—(By Mail).—A shilling fund has been opened at Liverpool on behalf of four men who on Wednesday averted a terrible disaster at the risk of their own lives, announced The London Daily News.

These men prevented the explosion of 120 tons of picric acid, loaded in railway wagons, across which a crane had fallen. Up to the present two have received 25 and the other two 23 from the Mersey Docks and Harbour Board.

Professor Herdman, of Liverpool University, said yesterday that if the whole of the 120 tons of acid had exploded it would have been sufficient to blow up all Liverpool.

Thomas Pennington, of Walton, the driver of the crane which broke a wheel axle—stated yesterday that he only just managed to escape death by crawling out from under the engine.

"I had just crept back to my engine to shut off steam," he added, "when Joe Gloss came running to me and told me the wagons were full of explosives. The top of the crane cab was resting on the roof of the wagon and the danger lay in the heat from the chimney of the crane, which was terrific. When the crane tipped the furnace door did not open, and no fire fell under the engine."

"While I was again getting into the cab, which was a ticklish job because of the steam, Gloss and others were getting buckets, and I had put a dinner in and stopped the heat from rising through the chimney."

"I raked out my furnace between the rails next to those the wagons are now on, and hid under the wagons. As I did this the others doused the flames with water."

No reply has yet been received by the Mersey Docks and Harbour Board from the War Office in answer to the board's strong protest against further shipments of this explosive from Liverpool.

New Headquarters For Ironmongers

Foundation Stone of Hall is Laid on Site With History.

LONDON, June 19.—(By mail).—The foundation-stone of the new hall which is to be erected by the Worshipful Company of Ironmongers in Shaftesbury-place, Aldersgate street, E. C. was laid on June 18th.

The first hall of the Ironmongers' Company, in Fenchurch street, was purchased in 1457, rebuilt in 1587, escaped the Great Fire of 1666, and was again rebuilt in 1726. It was destroyed by German aircraft on July 7, 1917, and the site was afterwards sold. In 1922 the company purchased a site in Shaftesbury place, Aldersgate, for the erection of a new hall. Nicholas Leat, who was Master of the Ironmongers' Company in 1616, 1628 and 1627, was chiefly responsible for the work of filling up the moor which existed to the north of the City Hall, and in all probability, extended in the form of a ditch across the site. A portion of this ditch has been discovered on the site, so that it may be assumed that the new hall will be erected on ground literally laid down by one of the former Masters of the Company.

Shaftesbury-place formed part of the site of a fine house built by Inigo Jones in 1624 for John Tufton, Earl of Thanet, and was formerly called Thanet House. After the death of John Tufton, in 1664, the first Earl of Shaftesbury entered into possession of the house, and from that date it was known as Shaftesbury House. In 1679, when Shaftesbury was head of the Ministry, John Locke took up his residence there, and it remained Locke's home during Shaftesbury's lifetime. The Duke of Monmouth is believed to have been concealed there on one occasion at least during Shaftesbury's occupancy.

The house reverted to the Thanet family in 1708, in 1720 it became an inn. From 1750 to 1771 it was the London Lying-in Hospital, and on this institution being removed elsewhere it became the first general dispensary to be established in London.

The dispensary was removed in 1850 to Bartholomew Close, and the ground storey was converted into shops. In 1882 the house was demolished to make way for the block of shops, workshops, and offices which now occupy the frontage to Aldersgate.

The new hall is designed in the Tudor manner. The strong rooms for archives and plate, the wine cellar, and the heating chambers will be in the basement. On the ground floor are planned the offices of the clerk and his staff, the Court Chamber, and the luncheon room. There will be a Fountain Court, with cloisters, in the sunniest corner of the site. An electric passenger lift and the grand staircase will lead to the reception room and the banquet hall on the first floor. The latter will be seven feet long by thirty-two feet wide and about thirty feet high, and will have a minstrel's gallery at the south end. The great kitchen, together with the head's quarters, will be on the second floor, and above the banquet hall will be the Great Gallery (so named from the company's inventory of 1583), containing the members' changing rooms. Parting in English oak will surround the principal rooms and corridors. The armorial bearings of the past Masters and other associated with the Company will be emblazoned in the windows and on the panelling. The architect for the new building is Mr. Sydney Tatchell, F. R. I. B. A. (the surveyor to the Ironmongers' Company), under whose supervision the work will be carried out by Messrs. Holland & Hannen & Cubitts, Limited.

How Nuxated Iron Helped Put Me In Such Superb Condition As To Enable Me To Whip Tom Gibbons And Retain the World's Championship. JACK DEMPSEY "TIGER OF THE RING" Tells A Secret Of His Training Advises People Who Are in a Weak, Run-down Condition To Use Nuxated Iron To Increase Their Strength, Vigor and Vitality. Today, recognized as the physical superior of any living man, the superman of the age, Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion of the world, explains below the part Nuxated Iron played in helping to prepare him for the three supreme tests of his career. First he used Nuxated Iron as a part of his training to increase his strength and endurance in his decisive victory over the mighty Willard who had never before been knocked from his feet. In this battle Dempsey displayed a dynamic overwhelming strength and power never before known in the history of the ring; and then again in his phenomenal victory over Carpenter he displayed that same indomitable force and nerve never before seen in any human being. Now once more in his smashing victory over Gibbons, he demonstrates the great advantage possessed by an athlete whose blood is rich in iron. The fact that Dempsey took Nuxated Iron as part of his training for the three supreme tests of his career, and the high regard in which he holds Nuxated Iron as a master strength and blood builder. In an statement made at his headquarters after the fight Jack Dempsey said: "I have used Nuxated Iron for four years ago in preparing for my big fight with Joe Willard I took Nuxated Iron, and after I had taken it for a short while I was positive I could stand harder during with less fatigue than before; and I firmly believe that Nuxated Iron had added power behind my punch and helped me to whip Joe Willard and thereby win the world's championship at Toledo. After that time whenever I felt run-down I used Nuxated Iron to help build up my physical condition; and when I started to train for the international championship bout against Carpenter I found the regular use of Nuxated Iron, feeling positive that it would give me that great strength, endurance and power that is of greatest importance in contests of this kind; other things being equal, victory always goes to the strongest man. In this I was not mistaken as Nuxated Iron again was the front at the time I most needed it and I am sure that it played an important part in getting me into such fine physical condition as to enable me to whip such a quick and agile man as Carpenter. Before the fight I had heard so much of Carpenter's cut skill and the ease with which he had felled all the noted heavyweights of the world; I felt I might have a battle royal on my side; but I found him even easier for me as Willard and I fished him as fresh after

Dempsey Holds Title After 15 Stormy Rounds. Jack Dempsey retained his title of heavyweight champion of the world by defeating Tommy Gibbons in a fifteen round battle staged at Shelby, Mont., yesterday. The result of the bout was a surprise as few sporting authorities conceded Gibbons a chance to stay with Dempsey the full fifteen rounds. The champion had the better of the going for twelve out of the fifteen rounds and towards the end Gibbons was forced to use all his ring craft to stave off defeat. In the opening round Gibbons opened an old cut over the champion's eye, but this was the only damage sustained by the champion. Gibbons had to take considerable punishment about the body. Neither the champion or the challenger were off their feet, but once Gibbons nearly fell through the ropes and was help back by the champion. A majority of the newspaper experts at the ringside gave Gibbons a shade in the fifth, eleventh and thirteenth rounds, but the remaining twelve were all Dempsey's. When the going ended hostilities referee Dougherty immediately awarded the bout to the champion. At the beginning of the fight there were only 8,000 in the arena, but the sale price was reduced to $10 and soon 25,000 were in the enclosure. In the first preliminary MacDonald knocked out Syles in the second round of a scheduled eight round bout. The second preliminary was held up for some time as $8,000 necessary to pay the boxers and referee was not on hand. The trouble was settled when Kears offered to pay Bud Gorman and Harry Drake. Gorman was not about. Gibbons did not get a cent for fighting the champion. ### EMPLOYMENT BUREAU MATTER BEFORE COUNCIL

Premier Says No Increase Without Consulting the City.

More Voted in Connection With Trifits Case Expenses—New Roof for City Hall—Asphalt Tenders.

An announcement that the appointments to the local branches of the Employment Service of Canada would be in the hands of the Provincial Government and that nothing would be done to increase the staff or expenses of the local office was contained in a letter read at an adjourned meeting of the Common Council this morning. The Mayor petitioned and all the other commissioners were present.

I. S. Brown, general manager of the C. N. R., Moncton, was acknowledged receipt of proposed plans regarding development at Reed's Point and saying that the matter would be given attention.

The Employment Office. Premier Veniot's letter regarding the employment office was read and it was decided to refer it to the committee of the whole for consideration. The letter was addressed to the Mayor and was as follows:—

"I am in receipt of yours of the 22nd inst. with reference to the continuation of the employment bureau in your city, and I note that you desire that I would let you know what can be said to assure the city that it would be given sufficient control to prevent expenses of staff from increasing. I reply I beg to say that while under the agreement to be entered into by the federal authorities and the Provincial Government, the appointments to this office will be in the hands of the Provincial Government. Nothing will be done to increase the staff or expenses connected with such an office without consulting the city authorities. I can assure you that my aim would be to make the expenses as small as possible, consistent with the proper carrying on of the work. I hope this will be satisfactory and that you and your council will be able to give me a definite reply to my attitude in the matter at an early date."

"Yours truly,
"P. J. VENIOT."

Trifits Case Expenses. The matter of unpaid bills in connection with the Trifits murder case was brought up by Commissioner Thornton. He said that the controller questioned that the bills came under the order-in-council authorizing $2,000. The Provincial Government agreeing to pay one half the cost. The total cost of the investigation was $2,000.15. The government had forwarded a check for half—or $1,000.75. The controller was of the opinion that the total cost should not have exceeded $2,000. On motion of Commissioner Thornton the amount was increased by $808.42. Mr. Thornton said that the local police were still working on the case.

Governor Cox's Visit. Regarding the proposed visit of Governor Cox to the City Commissioner Thornton referred to poor appearance of the street near the three lamps.

Commissioner Frink said that this portion would be included in the work done in paving Britain street. He said some temporary repairs could be made at once, however. He was under the impression that so great would be the crowd there to welcome the Governor, he would hardly get a view of the street. He hoped that a large crowd would be out to greet him.

On motion of Commissioner Bullock it was decided to grant half pay for three days to Ellsworth McBeath of ferry department, who was absent on account of illness from June 2 to June 4.

A letter from Walter Pedersen, offering the city the "longest and largest flag pole in the city" for $100, was referred to Commissioner Frink. Mr. Pedersen said he understood the city wanted a new pole for Haymarket square.

On motion of Commissioner Frink, it was decided to grant a contract for 225 tons of asphalt to the Carrite Co. at $24.88 a ton. The only other bid was from the Imperial Oil Co., at $26.50 a ton.

Commissioner Thornton was authorized to call for tenders for repairs to the roof of City Hall which was reported to be leaking in several places. He presented the recommendation of the city engineer that a new roof be installed and the metal work be renewed.

The course will last from July 4 to August 4. Miss Sarah Barnett, supervisor of women's work for New Brunswick, is supervisor of the school which is being conducted by the department of vocational education of New Brunswick. Teachers are Miss Millicent Coss, of Framingham who teaches dressmaking and costume; Miss M. Henleigh Brown of Sonerville, who teaches millinery; and Miss Rheta Inch of Hampton, who teaches textile work. At the conclusion of the course pupils will be judged as to the practical work throughout the course in addition to which there will be some written examinations.

GOVERNOR'S VISIT. With reference to membership, she said there are seven circles with a total membership of 237. Twenty-one new members were received since the last convention, and fifteen were lost, four by death. The total amount of money raised was $1,929.59. Mrs. Lively then reported for the credential committee. She said that there were forty-seven entitled to vote and forty had registered. A report from the Doorkeepers Circle was also presented.

She extended a hearty welcome to Miss Brown, maintaining that her presence would add much stability and strength to the meeting. She spoke of attending the convention of the Women's Institute and of hearing addresses on education, child welfare and other aims and objects. She pointed out that the slogan of the King's Daughters was heart, home, church and the world, and explained that they stood first and foremost for cultivation of spiritual life. She emphasized that if as King's Daughters the members were not better wives, daughters and sisters in the home, they were not good King's Daughters. She said that all should be loyal to the church and said that in many places the circles are in connection with the church. She told of the work being done and the amount of money raised for the education of women in the Orient; also the wonderful work being accomplished in hospitals. She also pointed out the simplicity of the constitution. With reference to membership, she said there are seven circles with a total membership of 237. Twenty-one new members were received since the last convention, and fifteen were lost, four by death. The total amount of money raised was $1,929.59. Mrs. Lively then reported for the credential committee. She said that there were forty-seven entitled to vote and forty had registered. A report from the Doorkeepers Circle was also presented.

SUPERANNUATION MATTER NEXT

Procedure Relative to Retiring Allowance for Magistrate—W. W. Dalton Applies for Post as Clerk.

It is expected that an annual superannuation allowance of $2,500 will be paid Magistrate Ritchie, following his retirement on July 13, announcement of which was received last evening. In an interview this morning, Commissioner Thornton said that so far the City Council had received no official word that the magistrate's resignation had been accepted, but as soon as this came to hand, the matter would be brought before Council.

New Picture of Hon. R. J. Ritchie. He recalled that he was authorized to interview Hon. Mr. Ritchie and say to him that the city was willing to pay him $2,500 superannuation allowance yearly when his resignation was accepted. The magistrate had asked for $3,000. Later the Council passed a resolution expressing its readiness to pay the $2,500 amount when the magistrate had resigned. It is anticipated that another resolution, authorizing the controller to pay the amount will be necessary before the superannuation management goes into effect.

Police Clerk Vacancy. Magistrate Ritchie, this morning made no direct reference to his retirement. In the course of some remarks to a prisoner he said "I will be leaving here soon." It is understood that there are several aspirants to the position Mr. Henderson will vacate and two names are mentioned prominently. An appointment will be made soon by the Common Council.

W. Wilson Dalton, deputy police court clerk, applied to the City Council today for the position of clerk to succeed Mr. Henderson. Mr. Dalton referred to the fact that the law did not require that the clerk should be a barrister and that he had filled the position of deputy clerk for nine years. The matter was ordered to lie on the table until the question of appointment was before the Council. Several other names are heard in connection with the position.

HAS SERVED UNDER FIVE SHERIFFS. Samuel L. Clifford 41 Years Turnkey at the St. John Jail. On June 26, 1923, a week ago last Tuesday, Samuel L. Clifford celebrated his forty-first anniversary as turnkey of the St. John Jail. Entering the service in 1882 under the then Sheriff Harding, Mr. Clifford for a time was the only turnkey. There are now three. He was alone at the time when Hughes, a colored man, was hanged for murder on May 9, 1883, but soon after that the staff was supplemented. Five sheriffs have held office during Mr. Clifford's term as turnkey—Messrs. Harding, Sturdee, Ritchie, deForest and Wilson. Speaking to The Times today, Mr. Clifford said that there had been many changes in the last forty-one years. A new wing had been added to the jail and there had been many other improvements. Before the new wing was built he had seen as many as eighty-four persons in jail at one time, with five and six in a cell. Last year there had been 948 persons confined in jail on various charges. Debtors to the number of 157 had been in.

Mr. Clifford is still very active and carries out the duties of his office in a manner highly satisfactory to everyone. A courteous and kindly gentleman, he enjoys the respect of a large circle of friends and well-wishers, who join in extending congratulations to him on the completion of so many years of honorable service.
