Leonard Never To Fight Tendler

Champion's Manager Gibson Offers No Other Reason Than Hatred for Glassman.

It is expected to achieve championship heights through the medium of battling Benny Leonard, the hope can be dispelled.

"Leonard never will fight Tendler as long as I am Leonard's manager," says Billy Gibson.

"I will never give Tendler or Phil Glassman any chance to make money through taking on Benny Leonard."

"Leonard and Tendler each posted a $5,000 forfeit for appearance in their match scheduled for Philadelphia last summer."

"I might have, after a time, forgiven Glassman for grabbing that $5,000 if he hadn't pulled another stunt on me in much the same way the other night."

"I feel that Leonard can take Tendler in almost any round that he names. Tendler is greatly overrated, anyway."

"But Benny and I are perfectly satisfied to sacrifice whatever profits we may make from such a match rather than go on and let Tendler make a nickel."

THAT ROSS REPORT.

The only thing wrong with the Ross report was that it did not please the ring who are trying to foist municipal ownership of power and light on this city.

It is just as well that the Progressive party, "that dilapidated annex of the Liberal party" decided to abandon its claim to be recognized as the official opposition in Parliament.

It is altogether fair play to these men to accuse them of wanting to serve ulterior or particular interests because they are not prepared to rush blindly into acceptance of the Commission's offer until it is quite satisfactorily demonstrated that it will prove to be all that is promised for it.

THE OFFICIAL OPPOSITION.

It is just as well that the Progressive party, "that dilapidated annex of the Liberal party" decided to abandon its claim to be recognized as the official opposition in Parliament.

Under the caption "Ontario Over-shoots the Mark," a New York contemporary has this to say about the Chippawa-Queenston Hydro development.

"This week water was let into the canal of the largest hydro-electric development in Canada, the Chippawa-Queenston station of the Hydro-Electric Power Company of Ontario.

In making choice of the Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux for the office of Speaker of the House of Commons, the selection has fallen upon a gentleman who possesses perhaps more fully than any other member, the confidence of the House as a whole.

The impression seems to be abroad that the cost of light and power to consumers at the present time is 15 cents per k.w.h. This is altogether wrong; the average cost is but 8.54 cents.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

The Chippawa Plan. (Toronto Saturday Night.) The sentiment of sound business men in Ontario is unquestionably behind Premier Drury in respect to Hydro-Radials and the Chippawa development plan of Sir Adam Beck.

As yet the Chippawa development financial problem as it is, with a net work of electric lines, cutting the business from under the feet of the steam road, thus making an already difficult position still more difficult.

In the year 1915 when the project was launched, the Chippawa development was a mock thing to cost $10,000,000 for one hundred thousand horse-power. By 1918 the project had grown to a development of 275,000 horse power, at a cost of $25,000,000.

There is good reason to believe that later on Ontario will be paying more for electrical power and light than has been the case for some years back.

THE LAUGH LINE

Q.—What is the difference between a young maid and a very old maid? A.—One is happy and carefree, the other is cappy and hairless.

Some Capacity. A southern colored woman calls her little boy "Prescription."

What an odd name, a visitor said to her. "Why in the world do you call him that?" "Ah calls him that," was the reply, "because Ah has such hard work gettin' him filled."

Scotch Logic. Village Doctor (to the old elder who is paying a call): "But surely, Saunders, you'll have a drop of something before you go?"

He Helped The Wrong Way. A green brakeman was making his first trip up the Sierra. The train was going up a very steep grade, and with unusual difficulty the engineer succeeded in reaching the top.

The Wrong Question. A negro was brought before a Justice of the Peace. He was suspected of stealing. There were no witnesses and appearances were against him.

Nothing makes the time pass like an advertisement.

THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND OF PEOPLE'S MONEY TIED UP IN GOVERNMENT LIQUORS

Mr. Peck, of Albert, Continues the Expose of Government Maladministration Before Legislative Assembly—Gov't Openly Defies Provincial Statutes.

Fredericton, March 8.—John Peck, M.L.A., for Albert in the Legislative Assembly, today, continued the expose of the Government's maladministration of public affairs and set forth its total disregard of the people's rights in its wanton campaign of extravagance.

Mr. Peck is noted as a financier, probably one of the wealthiest in the province, and it is not easy for the Government to conceal from him by pretty words and "fictitious" figures the real situation. Discrepancies in Government figures were shown to the members, and inferences, not pleasing to the Government drawn.

The Liquor Act, and the manner in which it is handled, came in for no little criticism.

Mr. Peck on the order of the day being called, resumed the debate on the address. He congratulated the mover and second, and thought they had done well in their attempt to justify the extravagance of the Government. He also congratulated the leader of the opposition in his maiden effort and on the able way in which he had disclosed the financial condition of the Province. The party press had endeavored to belittle the Hon. Leader, and the Government had put up its ablest member in an attempt to destroy it, but in both cases they had failed.

The Hon. Minister of Lands and Mines was both interesting and instructive; his thoughts seemed to hinge on the opposition side of the House, and at times he spoke of need of economy, and when later he took up other questions and spoke of need of economy the Hon. Minister of Public Works had looked up in astonishment. The Hon. Minister had spoken of keeping down the expenditure, and to that the Hon. Minister of Public Works had said "No," evidently not being in accord with that policy. He (Peck) had then cast his net, and displayed no more ability than shown in the conduct of the public business, every farmer in the province would be bonded within five years.

He did not propose to discuss all the subjects which had been touched upon by other speakers, but he would say a word in regard to the question of prohibition. He did not know what the Government's intentions were with regard to the future, but he would deal with matters as they existed today. They had a liquor commission in the city of Fredericton and he had looked upon as a sort of financial elephant. Perhaps it was not advisable for him to say much about it as the Government was now seeking to unload it upon the City of St. John. If they were to do that he would say that it was the best thing that could happen in the interests of the Province. The interest charge on the outlay was costing the Province $300, a day, and if the Government could not sell it the best thing they could do would be to give it away.

In regard to the Public Health Act he and his colleagues had warned the Minister that it was not popular in the country districts, and that the people felt they were not receiving value for the money. Personally, he was not opposed to the Act, but he did object to the way in which it was administered. He regretted that the Hon. Minister of Public Works had made such a large over-expenditure in his department. The Hon. Minister of Lands and Mines in discussing the matter had placed the blame on forest fires, but they should be responsible for only $144,000, while the deficit of half a million.

He noticed a paragraph in His Honor's speech had stated that the current revenue for the year had exceeded the estimate. The actual revenue was $2,108,179, which was $209,425 more than the estimate. The Government had expended $3,612,400, or $97,132 more than was estimated. The Speech from the Throne should have stated the matter in that way, and the people then would have understood its meaning. The Government took office at a favorable time, when the revenues were large, and had called themselves a "business Government." He would be pleased had the Government carried on the public business in a business-like way. They had been in office five years and today were raising revenue by the liquor business in violation of their own Act. The Health Act was unpopular and the judges were now busily engaged in issuing orders for payment against the municipalities. The Government came into office as a business administration, but had developed into a spendthrift Government. He wanted the people to know that he was opposed to the raising of revenue by either the sale of liquor or direct taxation. He felt that if the administration were to practice real economy they would have no difficulty in making ends meet.

FORGES COMBINE IN PANAMA ISSUE

Fight in Congress to Turn Over Business to Private Interests.

Washington, March 8.—Backed by the support of influential governmental agencies, foreign shipping interests are lining up their Washington lobbies, preparatory to reviving legislation, under the administration's ship subsidy scheme, to put the Panama Steamship Company out of business as an active competitor in the Caribbean Sea trade.

Geo. E. Edmonds (R.), Representative from Pennsylvania, sponsor of the original bill under which the Shipping Board was to be given supervision of all freight rates established by the Panama Steamship Company, is expected to lead the fight in the House to turn over all Panama business to private interests. A decision to scrap the Government fleet, plying the route to the Canal Zone, in the opinion of opponents of the plan, would crown with complete success this "insidious foreign-controlled propaganda," which J. J. Morrow, Governor of Panama, charges has been participated in by some American lines and to some extent by the United States Shipping Board.

Since President Harding recommended that the Government retain its control of the transport service to Panama, Shipping Board interests have been secretly at work lining up sentiment in Congress, under the proposed subsidy, in favor of substituting privately-owned ships for those of the Panama Company. Special legislation would be required to accomplish this, and provision in the pending bill is made for the undertaking.

In his address to Congress, President Harding paved the way for such action by recommending the "discontinuation, so far as practicable, of separate transport service of the Army and Navy."

This is but one valid reason for liquidating the Panama line, its supporters claim, and that is the policy of Government operation. The Government cannot claim that it is a financial burden, they contend, because during the period of governmental supervision it has never received one cent of appropriation from Congress.

Private shipping interests, however, are bringing unusual pressure to bear on Congress to scrap the line, which for 15 years has been the only influence in keeping down excessive freight rates to the Canal Zone. If these steamships are removed, the Panama Canal Commission claims, rates will certainly rise, the cost of service will surely be greater to the Government than now, and within a year the entire West Indian and South American trade with the United States will be controlled by steamship lines of foreign registry.

Back of the movement to put the Panama Steamship Company out of competition are the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company, a British concern; the Royal Dutch Line; the United Fruit Company and certain Caribbean steamships operating under Norwegian registry. It is understood that some of the members of the special Congressional Commission that visited the Canal Zone recently are preparing to join the movement and would turn the Panama Line over eventually to its private competitors.

Hydro-Electric

Now they had the hydro-electric scheme, which he looked upon as a sort of financial elephant. Perhaps it was not advisable for him to say much about it as the Government was now seeking to unload it upon the City of St. John. If they were to do that he would say that it was the best thing that could happen in the interests of the Province. NINE OF GRACE AND RUBY CREW BEFORE COURT

Stand Trial on Conspiracy to Smuggle Liquors Into United States.

Boston, March 6.—Nine of the men who manned the British schooner Grace and Ruby and the motor boat Wilkin II, before those vessels were seized last month at Sumner, were sent last in Federal Court today on charges of conspiring to import liquor.

Harry Ross, of this city, first mate of the schooner, and brother to Captain J. Wylie Ross, of Yarmouth, N. S., testified that the Wilkin II was loaded from the Grace and Ruby outside the three mile limit in Massachusetts Bay. It was the only liquor to be taken off the vessel after she left Nassau, he said. The motor boat was seized at Salem on Feb. 21, when she grounded, and the schooner was caught outside this port a day later by the coast guard cutter Tampa, which had to fire a solid shot to stop her.

There are certain kinds of questionnaires that are veritable inquisitionnaires for the unprepared.

Early Morning Storm Severe

Wind Reached Velocity of from Thirty to Forty Miles Accompanied by Heavy Rain.

It was the general consensus of opinion yesterday, that the backbone of winter had been broken by the rain and wind storm of the early morning. The almost complete disappearance of snow, and the great increase made into the ice about the city, coupled with the clear, blue sky and bright sun shining overhead, lent authority to the idea.

The maximum velocity of the gale which was predicted for Tuesday but only arrived late Tuesday night and continued during the early hours Wednesday morning, attained a maximum velocity of forty miles, but during the greater part of its visit varied from between thirty and thirty-five miles per hour. It was accompanied by heavy rain squalls whose total precipitation amounted to three-quarters of an inch.

Many citizens seized the opportunity yesterday of attacking the dirt encrusted ice on the pavements in front of their places of business or residences, and as a result the old pavement is once more in the public eye.

LATE ARRESTS. Bruce Lovely was arrested last evening for supplying liquor to William Harty, who was arrested for drunkenness by the police. John Nickerson was arrested for being drunk and begging money on the street. One common drunk was also arrested.

SPECIAL SERVICES The special services at the Main Street Baptist church, last evening, were largely attended. The soldier preacher, Rev. Arthur K. Herman, delivered a very impressive address on "The Coming of Christ." In his address, he spoke of what would happen when the Lord would come the second time, and his illustrations and forceful arguments made a deep impression on his hearers. The singing of the gospel hymns was bright and hearty, and the large congregation went away feeling much pleased with the earnest sermon.

LATE ARRESTS. Bruce Lovely was arrested last evening for supplying liquor to William Harty, who was arrested for drunkenness by the police. John Nickerson was arrested for being drunk and begging money on the street. One common drunk was also arrested.

MASSACHUSETTS TOWNS SUFFER HEAVY RAINS

Cellars Flooded, Light, Power and Trolley Services Interrupted—Traffic Suspended.

Springfield, Mass., March 7.—Towns and cities throughout Western Massachusetts suffered severely as a result of the heavy rain fall tonight. Streets and roads were impassable in many places, cellars were flooded, and light, power and trolley service were interrupted. In Great Barrington the Green River overflowed its banks and the selection between the road to North and North Egremont closed. Row boats were used in streets by residents along the river in South Deerfield, where the water raised rapidly.

Mud and sand foot accumulating at the base of a bluff three miles north of Holyoke, forced a suspension of traffic on the Connecticut River division of the Boston & Maine at 9 o'clock tonight.

FUNERALS. The funeral of Joseph Cobbert, killed Monday morning in an accident at Long Wharf, will take place this afternoon at 2:30 from O'Neil's undertaking rooms.

Improvement in Basic Industrials Stimulates Market

Higher Prices Foremost Factor in New York's Steady Firm Trade.

New York, March 8.—Improvement in the basic industrials, as evidenced chiefly by the increased production of steel and iron at higher prices, was the foremost factor in today's steady firm trade.

Although interior banks were reported to have drawn against their local reserves, call money in the open market fell from 4 1/2 to 4 per cent, the latter rate applying to most private negotiations throughout the session.

Unsettled political conditions were given as the chief reason for the sharp reaction in leading foreign exchanges during the morning, despite prospects of a Czecho-Slovakian loan in London.

Stock Transactions Reached Greater Volume in Trade

Fair Strength Shown on Montreal Market, With Gains Predominating Over Losses

Montreal, March 8.—Trading today on the local stock exchange, while somewhat greater in volume than yesterday, showed fair strength, gains considerably outnumbering losses though neither, with one exception, were of large proportions.

The great majority of other gains, with the exception of a point advance in British Empire Steel, 2nd preferred, to 21, were fractional.

Although the largest loss of the day was in Spanish common, which sagged 2 1/2 points to 67, most of the papers were firm and all, except Canadian Rubber, showed gains.

Trade in bonds was not quite so large in volume as yesterday but was featured by a gain of 4 3/4 points in Canadian Rubber and an advance of 60 in war loan 1937.

SLOW BUT STEADY PROGRESS SEEN IN BUSINESS CONDITIONS

Washington, March 8.—A comprehensive survey covering business conditions during the past two weeks shows, according to the Department of Commerce, in nearly every industry a slow and steady improvement and returning confidence.

Increase in the price of farm products is having a far-reaching effect upon industry in general, the Department announced today, "current reports indicate that the trade of all mail-order houses and other distributors, largely dependent upon rural patronage, is already feeling this improvement. Distributors continue to purchase cautiously and in small quantities, but in many lines these purchases are being made at more frequent intervals."

In going into specific industries, the Department of Commerce points out that both cotton and silk consumption increased in January over the previous month, although consumption of wool has declined slightly.

Gold Discovered On Tributary Of Taxis River

St. John Man Before Mines and Land Depts. to Secure Lease Rights.

Special to The Standard. Fredericton, N. B., March 8.—Gold has been discovered in New Brunswick on one of the tributaries of the Taxis River which flows into the southwest Miramichi, according to Harry McLaughlin, of St. John, trapper and hunter, who has spent many years hunting and trapped along the various tributaries of the Miramichi.

These two bodies are determined to prevent construction in Germany, now or in the future, of airships capable of being used for military purposes whether for Genoa nor foreign use, and to enforce the complete destruction of all German planes which have large dirigibles on the built. They regard any airship big enough to carry a cargo of bombs from the German frontier as far as London or Paris as a potential military airship and have fixed the maximum size of airship to be built at barely one-third of the four million cubic feet proposed for the New York-Chicago flyers.

The prohibition applies to the construction of planes as well as complete dirigibles. Even the American Government, with all its gall, was unable to obtain the consent of the Council of Ambassadors to order a dirigible of this size as the replacement airship to which it was entitled under the Spaan R. Com. 87.

Department officials, however, are rather sceptical respecting the story told by McLaughlin, the soil tests, which have been made by their foresters in the vicinity of the Taxis, having disclosed nothing like gold bearing quartz. The Taxis River flows entirely in York County, Barra Hill in the sands and bed rock of the stream. McLaughlin arrived in the city today from Newcastle whence he had come from the woods. He has been in the district covered by his claims all winter. He made his lucky find last autumn, and his trip back again to the headwaters of the Taxis was to discover its possible value and extent. He plans on working his claims this summer in true miner's style.

Winnipeg Market Inactive With Business Light

Wheat Prices, May, Showed Decline of Two Cents — Closed Stronger.

Winnipeg, March 8.—With an easier tendency dominant throughout the session, the wheat market, today, was not active and the volume of business was light. A decline of about 2 cents for May, reflecting weakness in cables, was recorded early this session. Later the market received a little support and prices reacted, the spread between high and low for the season being 3-3 1/2. There was very little pressure and futures closed 1-3 to 3-4 cents higher.

The strength here Monday was undoubtedly reflecting the Greek order that had been placed and which is understood to be about 1,600,000 bushels. Most of the order, which will be shipped during the first week of April, is already at seaboard, but a small quantity will be taken from Port William to round out the shipment.

The cash market was also inclined to be drabby and premiums, on the top grades, were about half lower. Offerings were fair, there being considerable re-selling, but very little farmers' wheat was coming out. Prices on the coarse grain markets were working with narrow limits, being influenced largely by the fluctuations in wheat. Only a moderate volume of trade is reported in cash and futures and spreads were unchanged.

Closing Quotations. Wheat—May 1.40 1/2; July 1.34 3/4 bid.

Wheat Market Took Upward Price Trend On Chicago Board

Impetus Given by Reports from Kansas and Oklahoma Fields.

Chicago, March 8.—High winds drying up moisture too fast in Kansas and Oklahoma turned prices upward today in the wheat market here. Government figures on farm reserve stocks of grain, corn in particular, were generally regarded as bullish, were generally regarded as a good buyer of raw sugar in Cuba and refined in this market, led to renewed buying in raw sugar futures and prices at midday showed advances of 1 to 3 points. There was no change in refined sugar with the granulated listed at 5.10 to 5.20. There was a good demand for both domestic and export accounts. Refined futures were without transactions.

Later the market received a little support and prices reacted, the spread between high and low for the season being 3-3 1/2. There was very little pressure and futures closed 1-3 to 3-4 cents higher.

The strength here Monday was undoubtedly reflecting the Greek order that had been placed and which is understood to be about 1,600,000 bushels. Most of the order, which will be shipped during the first week of April, is already at seaboard, but a small quantity will be taken from Port William to round out the shipment.

The cash market was also inclined to be drabby and premiums, on the top grades, were about half lower. Offerings were fair, there being considerable re-selling, but very little farmers' wheat was coming out. Prices on the coarse grain markets were working with narrow limits, being influenced largely by the fluctuations in wheat. Only a moderate volume of trade is reported in cash and futures and spreads were unchanged.

Closing Quotations. Wheat—May 1.40 1/2; July 1.34 3/4 bid.

Barley—May 64 5/8 bid; July 64 7/8 bid. Flax—May 2.40 1/2 bid; July 2.39 bid.

Raw Sugar Market Enjoyed Firmness

Renewed Buying in Raw Futures Caused by Strength of Spot Market.

New York, March 8.—The raw sugar market was firm with prices quoted nominal at 2 3/8 for Cuban, cost and freight, equal to 3 7/8 for centrifugal with holders asking 1 1/2 more, while April shipment was quoted at 2 1/4 cents cost and freight, equal to 3 1/8.

The continued strength in the spot market and reports that Europe was a good buyer of raw sugar in Cuba and refined in this market, led to renewed buying in raw sugar futures and prices at midday showed advances of 1 to 3 points. There was no change in refined sugar with the granulated listed at 5.10 to 5.20. There was a good demand for both domestic and export accounts. Refined futures were without transactions.

Quotations. Wheat—May 1.41 7/8; July 1.30 1/4. Corn—May 84; July 66 5/8.

Oats—May 49 1/2; July 43. Pork—May 20.70. Lard—May 11.65; July 11.67. Ribs—May 10.97; July 10.67.

Winnipeg, March 8.—With an easier tendency dominant throughout the session, the wheat market, today, was not active and the volume of business was light. A decline of about 2 cents for May, reflecting weakness in cables, was recorded early this session. Later the market received a little support and prices reacted, the spread between high and low for the season being 3-3 1/2. There was very little pressure and futures closed 1-3 to 3-4 cents higher.

Interesting Facts About Sea Fish

Haddock to Many One of Most Delectable Fish

From various traditions we learn that the European fishermen were lured to the great fishing banks of the western Atlantic a century before Columbus discovered America.

The haddock is a quiet fish, with very little life in it when taken from the bottom. To catch haddock the fisherman employs a hand-line equipped with two or three hoops baited with herring, squid, or capelin, or sometimes clams, etc., with a lead sinker to weigh the line down.

During the months of April, May, June and the last months of the year the haddock is very abundant off our Atlantic coast and it is then that the largest catches are made.

Reported Dead, Turns Up Alive And Well

Moncton Man Supposed to Have Been Killed in Toronto Calls at City Hall. It was good news which Charles MacLaren of Moncton, received yesterday morning, when Commissioner Bullock, acting mayor, telephoned to Mayor Edgett of that city, that Frank Wallace MacLaren, supposed to have been killed in a railway accident in Toronto, son of the Moncton citizen, was alive and well, having reached St. John on Tuesday from Montreal.

SPANIEL CAUSED CELLAR FLOOD

Blocked Drain Up With Coal Filling the Basement With Water. The cocker spaniel pup of a West Side resident made his home look like Noah's Ark for a while during the recent rain storm. The dog was placed down cellar for the night, and got into the coal bin where, in the plausible pursuit of a possible rat, it dug a deep hole in the black diamonds, throwing the same back into a nestle into the cellar drain, and succeeded in blocking it up completely. The drain which had been successfully drawing off all the surface water from the street outside, ceased to function, and when the householders awoke in the morning he found a much delighted spaniel sporting about in its native element, retrieving fanciful ducks in place of the rats of the night before, in the form of divers bottles of home brew, brooms, kindling wood, and what not, which were floating about in the small lake into which the cellar had become transformed.

FOUND WALLET AND SUM OF MONEY

The citizens of that wondrous Oriental city in which a purse of gold could be thrown on the street and lie there unmolested so great was the honesty of the citizens, that they would take nothing that was not theirs, had no premiums on honesty as compared to one citizen of this city at least—Joseph Flemming, of 33 North street. Yesterday Mr. Flemming found a leather wallet on the street containing a sum of money, and a check for a considerable amount. He immediately advised the detective department of his find and turned the wallet and its contents over to them.

County W. C. T. U. Quarterly Meeting

Reports Received from Four Local Unions—Splendid Address by Rev. H. B. Clarke. The quarterly meeting of the county W. C. T. U. was held yesterday afternoon in Union Hall, North End, the county president, Mrs. George W. Colwell, in the chair. The devotional exercises were led by Rev. H. B. Clarke, who gave a most helpful exposition of the 13th chapter of Romans. Prayer was offered by Mr. Clarke and several of the sisters.

Rev. Mr. Clarke gave a splendid address to the gathering. He gave some of his experiences at the front, and dwelt on the part women played in the war, their heroic sacrifices, and the great benefit which the soldiers had derived from their associations with the noble army women in the hospitals. At one time, he himself had not seen a woman for eleven months, and it was a great joy to him to meet a motherly Scotch woman serving as a nurse in a hospital. Women was gradually taking her proper place in affairs national and domestic, and exerting a larger influence on the public life of the country for which all should be thankful.

Scout Leaders Training Course

The Opening in Trinity School Hall Last Evening Proved Interesting and Instructive. The scout leaders' training course for the St. John district opened last evening in Trinity church Sunday school hall, and proved highly interesting and instructive. Twenty-five were present at the opening, which was the first of a series of six sessions on the leadership of boys. These meetings are to be held every Wednesday evening until April 12, and those in charge of the course are making their slogan "Bring a Man To Bring a Man" in an endeavor to bring to the movement men who will make good scoutmasters and assistants. The meeting was opened by Rev. H. B. Clarke, president of the St. John district council of boy scouts, who outlined the nature and objects of the course.

The features of the evening's exercises were the address by the Rev. Canon Armstrong, on "The Need of the Scoutmaster and His Place in Scouting." The speaker, in a forceful and eloquent manner, dwelt on the need for good men as scoutmasters, and their usefulness in moulding the lives of the boys under their charge. He emphasized the fact that the scout movement is the main-spring and pivot of all scout organizations, and to their efforts must be accredited most of the success of the scout movement.

The speaker then went on to deal with the qualifications every scoutmaster should possess, and to their efforts on this phase of the subject by several interesting illustrations. He suggested that scoutmasters should impress on the fathers of the boys under their care the great amount of good that could be accomplished by the fathers' attendance at the scout meetings. The objects of the scout movement, the speaker said, would be greatly furthered in this way through the parents' co-operation and interest. Another point, which the speaker emphasized, was the advisability of an effort being made by scoutmasters to pick out and encourage boys, showing a leaning towards or having any mechanical, scientific or other form of occupation, with a view to developing and encouraging the idea of a vocational training.

At the close of the address, a short period was devoted to instructional exercises, embracing the leader-foot tests for scouts. The latter part of the evening was devoted to a social hour, during which delicious refreshments were served.

BUILDERS HELD REGULAR MEETING

The regular meeting of the St. John branch of the Canadian Building and Construction Industry was held, last evening, in the Board of Trade rooms, with the president, R. E. Fitzgerald, in the chair. Reports of different committees were received and adopted, and the report was read of the fourth annual conference of the Canadian association, held in Hamilton, from Jan. 17 to Jan. 20 last. The local association, in the chair, reported of different committees, passed a resolution favoring the ownership of hydro-electricity. It was announced at last night's meeting that reports of building operations for the coming spring were very favorable.

The Associated Charities Met

Secretary Reports Activities of Month and Told of Several Very Pathetic Cases. The monthly meeting of the Associated Charities Board was held yesterday afternoon at the Bible rooms, German street. J. Hunter White in the chair. The secretary, Miss Grace Robertson, reported on the activities of the month and told of several very pathetic cases which had come under her notice. In several instances she had found the families without either food or fuel, and in these cases she had given immediate relief, later reporting them to the churches to which the families belonged, who had then taken care of them. In this connection she stated that she had found the churches and other organizations very sympathetic this winter. She also told of finding some families where the mother, with the help of children who should have been at school, was making a heroic effort to keep her family together.

The treasurer, William Young, reported that there was about $275 in the treasury, which was somewhat less than at the same time last year. The statistical report of the secretary was as follows: Application received... 158 Requests for employment... 25 Employment found for... 17 Recommended... 24 Records given... 18 Seeking relief... 23 Relief found for... 30 Visits made... 93 Cases investigated... 16 Clothing given... 7 Transportation given... 3

The members of the board commented on the vast amount of work which the secretary had accomplished during the month and expressed the opinion that while a great deal of destitution still existed, the city had come through the winter very well, and those in need had been looked after fairly well. Those present were: J. Hunter White, chairman; Mrs. G. F. Smith, Mrs. R. D. Christie, Miss Poyson, William Young and A. M. Belding.

Serious Charges In Police Court

James Murphy Liable to Heavy Fine or Imprisonment—Evidence in Theft Case. Argument of counsel was completed in the police court yesterday afternoon, in the case of Walter Bell, charged with obstructing liquor inspectors in the discharge of their duties. Judgment was reserved until this afternoon. Donald Mullin, K. C. and E. S. Ritchie appeared in the interests of the defendant, and W. M. Ryan for the prosecution.

Mr. Mullin asked that the case be dismissed on the ground that there was no legal information in the case, and that there was no legal offence set out in the alleged information. He also contended that, under sec. 153 of the Act, it was necessary to set out in the information that the inspectors had demanded entrance, and had been prevented from entering on the premises, whereas this was not the case. Mr. Ryan contended that the information in the case was sufficiently clear and correctly drawn up, and that the accused had pleaded to the facts set out in the information. He cited sec. 116 of the Act in support of the method of setting out the facts in relation to the charge.
