STRICT REGULATIONS FOR ROAD SUPERINTENDENTS

All Repairs to Highways Must Be Finished Not Later Than August 1

Hon. Mr. LaBillois at Restigouche Gathering Tells Officials That Every Man Must Be Given a Chance to Work That Wants To; That Politics Must Not Be Considered, and No Public Funds Must Be Spent on Private Roadways.

(Special to The Telegraph.) Campbellton, N. B., June 20.—A meeting of the highway superintendents for Restigouche county numbering thirteen, was held here today in the Temperance Hall. Hon. C. H. LaBillois and Wm. Currie, M. P., were present, and the meeting was presided over by Ebenezer McMillan. The chief commissioner fully outlined the duties of the road officials about as follows: All repairs on roads must be done prior to the first day of August. Everybody must be offered an opportunity to work on the roads. There should be no politics shown in the administration of the road law. All culverts must be made level with roadway. Strict attention must be paid to skirting and drainage. All waterways must be cleared. All roads must be crowned so as to lead the surface water into the gutter.

FIELDING TWENTY-FIVE YEARS IN POLITICS

Ottawa Friends Cable Congratulations on His Anniversary

Slight Increase in Canada's Grain Acreage Over Last Year; Crop Growing Well, But It is Two Weeks Late.

(Special to The Telegraph.) Ottawa, June 20.—This, the 26th day of June, is the 25th anniversary of Hon. W. S. Fielding's entrance to public life. For a quarter of a century, first in the legislature of his native province, and afterwards in the larger sphere of dominion politics, his valuable services have been continuous. His Ottawa friends have not been unmindful of this fact and consequently have been cableing him congratulations and wishing him many returns of the day.

Frank C. Fowler, secretary of the Grain Dealers' Association, has written the trade and commerce department giving a statement of average winter crop in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta for the present season as compared with 1906. It is as follows:

This gives about the same area and wheat, about 12 per cent increase in oats, 10 per cent in barley and 12 per cent in flax.

Of the 1906 crop there were 55,230,000 bushels of wheat inspected to date; 11,800,000 bushels in store at country points; 92,000 in transit; 1,142,000 shipped by G. N. R. and 300,000 marketed. Winnipeg making 59,000,000 bushels. There are in farmers' hands 5,300,000; for country mills, 8,000,000 and for seed 9,000,000, making a grand total of 92,332,000 bushels. There are oats in farmers' hands, 2,600,000 bushels and barley 160,000.

FOREST FIRES RAGING IN NORTH ONTARIO

Province Has Lost Over $1,000,000 Worth of Timber--Engineers on C. P. R. Can Only See a Few Feet Ahead--North of Peel River Practically the Whole Country is in Flames--Many Lives Feared Lost.

(Special to The Telegraph.) Toronto, June 20.—That over $1,000,000 worth of timber belonging to the province has been destroyed, that dozens of properties have been entirely cleaned out and in all probability some lives have been lost, is the story of forest fires in the north, told by R. R. Gamble, M. P. Mr. Gamble arrived in the city this morning from Latchford. He was on his way to his lot in James township when he met his men driven out by smoke and danger. Mr. Gamble is elated over a valuable find which he has made on his location in James township. It has turned out far beyond his expectations and he will make a tidy profit for himself and friends interested.

Judge Landry Dismisses Crown's Demurrer to Defendant's Pleas

Dr. Pugsley Moves That Full Bench Consider Questions of Law Raised or, if That is Refused, He Will Apply for a Commission to Take Evidence of Montreal Man Who is Out of the Country--Sharp Argument Whether a Man's Private Character is of Public Interest.

(Special to The Telegraph.) Fredericton, N. B., June 20.—As a result of the proceedings today in the trial of the King vs. James H. Crockett, manager of the Gleason, the chances of the case going to a jury at the present session are regarded as remote. It is generally believed here that there will be an adjournment tomorrow until September, at the earliest, to enable the points raised by the demurrer submitted today by the crown and dissolved by the judge to be argued before the full bench and to give time for the crown to obtain the evidence by a commission of a man named O'Brien, believed to have been one of the porters at St. Lawrence Hall, Montreal, in March, 1906, and now out of the country. After hearing arguments of counsel on both sides, the judge in giving his decision disallowed the demurrer on the ground that in his plea the defendant used language which technically covered the two elements in issue, the truth of the article and the character of the defendant. He did not feel free, he said, to decide that the article was not for the benefit of the public provided it could be proven to be true and the reasons given were, he believed, sufficient to have the plea sustained. Dr. Pugsley, for the crown, argued strongly in favor of reserving the matter for a decision for the full bench. This was met by strenuous opposition from Mr. Hasen for the defence on the ground that it was the intention of the crown to apply for a commission. Before the court rose his honor said his inclination was to grant the question of law to the full bench and he would give his final decision after hearing affidavits in support of a commission tomorrow morning.

Dr. Pugsley's Contention. On the court resuming after recess Dr. Pugsley contended that the life of a public man was intolerable, he said, if the press of the country were permitted to circulate the facts from the ground of a public man in that case would either be a license to the press to make general statements that would lead to the house of commons. It might even be arranged by one desirous of ruining a public man's character to have the facts published in a general way. According to the argument of the other side this alone would justify a newspaper in making charges. A member of the public in that case would either have to stand the odium or go into court and vindicate his character and others might be dragged in to have their character cleared. A license of this kind had never been claimed before and it would do vast injury to the public interest. It would be intolerable. Parliament had declared that a libel had not only that the defamatory statement must be true but it must be for the public benefit and his learned friend from the cursory examination he had made of the authorities admitted that this point was a question for the court to decide. He (the speaker) also submitted that it was for the court to decide if it was in the public interest. The onus of proof was on the defence to show that the facts were for the public good and benefit, assuming the facts to be true and therefore if there was any doubt the court could decide.

Crown Has No Remedy. If his honor should decide against the demurrer he submitted the crown would have no remedy, as there could be no reserve case, whereas if the demurrer was sustained and the defendant convicted he was important to bear in mind that when legislation bearing on the matter was passed it was laid down and since supported by Dr. Pugsley. He (the speaker) also submitted that a newspaper could go into the private life of an individual. He did not think he was taking a divorce view from that expressed by Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The latter had promised an enquiry if any man had had the courage, manliness and integrity to stand up to a man instead of vile insinuations of a general character. "If your honor," continued Dr. Pugsley, "should decide this plea is valid you will be going further than any judge in the British empire has ever gone. You would overturn every principle laid down. It would be contrary to the statute that the facts must be set forth."

Wants Specific Charges. Dr. Pugsley pointed out that the Gleason's article had started by an innuendo that St. Lawrence Hall was only one of the hotels from which Mr. Emerson had been ejected with women of ill-repute. There was no allegation in the article of an improper conduct on the part of Mr. Emerson with the women referred to, although the Gleason's article said by innuendo. It was no hardship to the defendant to call upon him to state what other hotels Mr. Emerson had been ejected from with women of ill-repute. He should also be called upon to show in what way the women mentioned were women of ill-repute. If the defendant didn't know in writing what he was guilty of a most outrageous slander. It is bad enough to slander the character of a man who was able to take care of himself, but it was more reprehensible to do so by making the names of women who were not able to defend themselves and would hesitate perhaps about going into court to clear their character. The Gleason's article had spoken of women who were not able to defend themselves and would hesitate perhaps about going into court to clear their character. MORE CONFIRMATION OF ORCHARD'S STORY

Evidence of Telegraph Officials That Money Was Sent Him as Said

Witness Swears That Haywood Said Steunenberg Was a Tyrant and Ought to Be Killed--Inflammatory Articles of Miners' Official Organ Admitted--State Announces Its Close Today, and Defence Will Move for the Prisoner's Acquittal.

Boise, Idaho, June 20.—Unless 9 o'clock should bring unforeseen delay in securing a few final pieces of evidence, the state will tomorrow close its case against Wm. D. Haywood, whom it charges with the murder of Frank Steunenberg. This announcement was made this afternoon by Senator Borah, of the prosecution, and when Clarence Darrow, of the defense, took up the discussion he made it very clear that directly the state closed he and his associates would move the court for an instruction directing a verdict of acquittal. It is now anticipated that the state will close by noon, that the afternoon session will be devoted to argument of the expected motion of the defense and if the court rules adversely on the motion, the opening statement in behalf of Haywood will be made by Mr. Darrow Saturday.

The prosecution succeeded today in again showing a direct connection between the store of George Pettibone in Denver and Harry Orchard at work on the Brady case in San Francisco, and promised to make the connection with Pettibone personally by handwriting experts who will be called tomorrow. Original records of the Pacific Postal Telegraph Company were produced, showing that in September and October, 1904, remittances of $97.50 and $48 respectively, were made, the first by "J. Wolff" and the second by "P. Bone" from 1725 Stout street in Denver—the address of Pettibone's store to "H. Green" in care of Peter L. Huff, at 211 Taylor street, San Francisco.

Haywood Called Steunenberg a Tyrant. The state also showed that Haywood declared that Steunenberg was a tyrant who should be exterminated. Judge Wood admitted many of the strongly worded articles of the Miners Magazine in which Frank Steunenberg was bitterly denounced. These were admitted as showing the animus of the defense officials against Steunenberg and showing animus against Justices Goddard and Gabbert of the supreme court of Colorado, whom Harry Orchard swore he tried many times to kill. The state introduced in evidence the decisions of the judges on the Colorado eight-hour law and the habeas corpus applications of Charles H. Moyer.

To practically every piece of evidence offered during the day the defense first offered objection, then made a motion to strike out, and lastly took an exception. To all evidence connected with the general conspiracy alleged by the state, the objections of the defense included the propositions that the acts shown were not tending on the defendant and that they were not connected with the Steunenberg murder and there was frequent objection to the evidence offered to corroborate the testimony of Harry Orchard, an alleged accomplice in the manner provided by the statute.

Important Evidence Found. It was stated tonight that the prosecution had received a telegram from Denver showing that the date of the draft for $100 sent by Wm. D. Haywood to Jack Simpkins was December 21, 1906. Orchard testified that when Simpkins left Caldwell after the first attempt on the life of Frank Steunenberg he asked him to get $100 for him. The unsigned letter which Orchard got at Caldwell after his arrest and which he said was written by George Pettibone, was produced by the state, the objections of the defense included the proposition that "that" had been sent to "Jack" on December 21, 1905, and that he should have received it. The state produced the drafts sent by Haywood to Simpkins and among them was one for $100 sent on some date in the 20's of December, 1905, but the particular day could not be made out because the second figure had been cut out by the perforator.

Defectives were detailed to trace further the $100 draft and the telegram from Denver today states that the bank records show that December 21 was the date of issue. The testimony is of such importance that the state may delay closing its case until it can produce it, or it may close with the reservation that it be permitted to make later proof. Inflammatory Articles. Senator Borah also read from the issue of the magazine of February 1900, an editorial entitled "Another Outrage," and dealing with the alleged circulation of a petition by Governor Steunenberg for a continuance of the federal troops in the mining districts of Idaho. The editorial declared that Steunenberg was being well paid for prosecuting the miners union, denounced him as a Hessian and as an "unscrupulous person never known to speak the truth."

The next exhibit was an extract from the federalist of the time, delivered on miners' day at Butte (Mont.), in 1900. Borah referred to Governor Steunenberg as the "hiring of the 'oil trust'." Another article read from the magazine included a resolution adopted by the eastern federation of miners and signed by Haywood and others, denouncing Governor Steunenberg for requiring all persons seeking work in the 'Coar d'Alenes' to be affiliated with any union. The resolution also condemned the "unjust and inhuman administration of Steunenberg." His lordship stated that if the present talk of union was brought about it would be a union in name only. The bishop said that the Church of England would never surrender the episcopate.

The crown counsel submitted a demurrer to the defendant's plea and the attention of the court all morning. After closing several authorities in support of his argument, Mr. White said he did not deny the right of the press to criticize the acts of public men, but that they should be confined to the public life of the people themselves and not to the private life of a private citizen as well as in the case of a member of parliament or minister of the crown.

the St. Lawrence Hall. There was some doubt as to what was meant by the woman of ill repute. It might mean a woman who was an inmate of a house of prostitution or it might mean a woman—Dr. Pugsley—"Who plays bridge."

Mr. White also pointed out that the plea did not set forth that Mr. Emerson had been associating with women of ill repute, neither were there any facts set forth to show wherein the publication was for the public good.

It was clearly established that in the case of a private citizen it could not be shown that a defamatory article was for the public benefit. He would admit that in public life it should have more than very highest character and the general life of the people themselves and not to the private life of a private citizen as well as in the case of a member of parliament or minister of the crown.

Mr. Hazen replied that he would give his final decision as to the commission and with regard to reference to the full bench after he had seen the affidavits in the morning. Mr. Hazen then adjourned.

THE MORNING OF LIFE

Make your happy by making it strong. Help it to pass to middle age the vigor or that commands respect. Hard study at school and rapid growth, weakens the system, and so it is necessary to develop a strong constitution early—one that prepares you to enter manhood and womanhood equipped for work. Girls especially need to build up vigor for the strain and wear and tear of life.

One man was injured as a result of this explosion. The second explosion, which resulted in the death of seven men, and the injury of another, occurred about 5 o'clock and resulted from the ignition of the deadly fumes which accumulated after the first explosion.

ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE
CONVOCATION THURSDAY

Degrees Conferred—List of Prize Winners—Louis Slattery of St.
John the English Valedictorian.

College Bridge, June 20—(Special)— The closing exercises at St. Joseph's College were continued this morning in Lefebvre Hall. There was a very large attendance and the programme which was thoroughly enjoyed was as follows:

Overture—"Marche Gauloise"—Band
French Valedictory... Louis Slattery Polka... Band
Conferring of Degrees and Distribution of Premia... Band
March, "En Route"—Band
Closing Remarks... The Rev. President Finals... Band

The English valedictory was delivered by Louis Slattery of St. John and was of very creditable effort. It was as follows:
"It was the post-prime of the south who once beautifully...
"And the smile is scarcely lifted Ere the anguish tear is shed."

How adequately these lines portray our feelings on this occasion. This hour towards which we have looked with of young manhood's ambition now admits of a feeling of sorrow. For the first time the significance of our farewell to college is revealed in upon with pathos. What a wealth of meaning the word graduation contains, and what treasures of a lifetime's aim and bearing. We are no longer students, we are on the threshold of an after day: a career is before each one of us; willing or not we must now agree to assume the burden of manhood and prove that our apprenticeship was not mispent.

In this glad season when the sighs of summer shed a balm as of Gleed on Nature's beauty, when again the green fields smile in peace and the birds of God bless in song the works of their Maker, must we with heavy hearts speak our best parting word to the college days? trials and triumphs. But at this moment we see through the shadow of the departed years, the face of our who have gone before us. We see them as graduates and as we note with pride their success of today in their fields of varied usefulness, our hearts are replenished with noble instincts and resolves to follow in their footsteps and bring lustre to the brow of our Alma Mater.

Although years may have passed since we first left the sanctuary of our heart-loved homes and entered upon student life, yet the feelings and impressions of the days we have spent here can never be forgotten.

We had thought the grief for home and dearth incommensurable, but we had just parted. But before we had lived just days of our college life the dawn of future success encouraged us and urged us on.
Each new face that shone the beams of welcome; loving friends made our work a pleasure and a blessing.

Our places were assigned us, our tasks allotted, and soon we entered the classrooms. The fruitful hours spent within their hallowed walls sufficiently compensate us for the hours we have spent in the difficulties we have encountered on our path to knowledge.

In these same classes we met those who were to be our companions in our co-workers in study, yes, our dearest friends. Here was to be formed the bond of friendship which was to be cemented during all our years of study and continued through life, to be interrupted in death, perhaps, but to be resumed, we trust, in the life hereafter, where friends gather never to part.

Within these same rooms our kind professors played an important part in preparing us for our destined work. We owe a debt of gratitude to them for the wisdom they have imparted to us. We promise to profit by their teaching and to be the most acceptable return they desire. When our work has been done and a feeling of loneliness had crept into our souls, these self-same fatherly guides were ever ready to help us in our duty, to counsel us in our pleas and when threatened with the blight of discontent their cheering words of comfort spurred us on. And with the vision of this day ever before our eyes we strive to learn the lessons which will serve us in after life, we strive to acquire our mind, our soul and our body.
Although each year seemed to us an age, still, when we stop to consider, we realize that notwithstanding our toil and struggle, we are but at the beginning of our life's real work.

We longed for this day. It has come.
Are we ready to take the meaning step?
To prepare for this step was our preparation to college. We have learned the first lesson perhaps, but it remains for us to evolve theory into practical issue. If we have been accustomed to us during our years of educational growth and development, we need not fear too strongly the future outcome. Man is a free being, liberty is the greatest gift God has made us; but man must know how to employ this rarest of treasures. Liberty is not given to us, it is a gift of God, it is not very muddy current, but that we may choose the clearest waters, guide our bark through life's long stream and anchor safely on the shores of success. This good use of liberty is attained only through discipline.
At times we may chafe under what may seem a yoke and all our state bondage, but with the example of hundreds of failures wrought through want of self-control, we should bow under the spurring rod of discipline and bless our willingness to do so. Shakespeare wrote:

"Had dotting Priam checked his son's desire Troy had been bright with fame and not with fire."

Nothing in life can be eternal. In every river there is a bend; in every mountain chain there is a break. Even life itself has its ups and downs, its triumphs and its failures. Today we graduate from our period of our student life we have had the same object in view, the acquisition of a Christian education, the development of our physical, intellectual, and moral faculties. The crown which we longed for is common with the degree with which our Alma Mater today sanctions our earnest labor. But we shall no longer work by side. Our paths diverge. We are to enter upon our varied careers. Some will be called to prominent careers. Some will be called to the quiet life of the industrialist, some to the life of the noblest calling. Others will be chosen to defend the innocent, to avenge injustice, to uphold civil authority and to guard in-volute the charter of the state. Side by side with the minister of the soul, others will, no doubt, be found ministering to the ills of the body. Yet, no matter in what profession we may labor we are all working through different channels towards the same ultimate end which is the possession of a happier life and the enjoyment of the Beatific Vision.

But before we go our various ways let us pledge our loyalty to the college that has reared us. She expects each one of us to do our duty. We promise to cherish the ideals she has set for us and to prove ourselves worthy of our Alma Mater.

Farewell then, classmates, may God's blessing smile upon us through life and help us in death.
And you, fellow students, who will fill our places, profit by the years which remain to you. The world of today is a world of change. There is a demand for men of learning and of high character.
The educational institutions of the world send forth hundreds of graduates. But what is needed most is men of Christian learning.
The century is characteristic of agnosticism.
Everywhere it seems forgotten that there is a nobler life to be attained. With the young college men and women, the privilege of a Christian training; seize the propitious moment while it is yet there.

To you who have been our companions on the campus and in the class-rooms we say farewell. Be true to the college which claims you. In your undertakings we wish you success as Godspeed.
"The wisdom of our forefathers," says Leo XIII, "and the very foundations of the state are ruined by the destructive error of those who would have children brought up without religious education." But it is such institutions as our Alma Mater that stand for the noblest, the most enduring ideal.

Years may roll by; we may be blessed with a long career in our respective stations; yet never shall we grow forgetful of the lessons of life that we have learned here. Faith is the watchword we shall wear as a seal upon our hearts. May we be seen where we once stood, but Alma Mater:

"With thee were the dreams of my young manhood's love Fond thoughts of my reason were who have gone before us.
In my last humble prayer to the Spirit

Thy name shall be mingled with mine.
Oh! best of the noblest and friends who shall live
The days of thy glory to see;
But the next dearest blessing that Heaven can give Is the pride of belonging to thee."

Howard Powders Face; Wife's Reply

MRS. GEORGE F. BRONSON HOWARD

New York, June 18—Mrs. George F.
Bronson Howard returned from Europe today to obtain a divorce from her husband, a novelist and magazine writer, on the ground that he used all her face powder, and allowed himself to be called a cad, a coward and a liar without offering to fight. Mrs. Howard, who was Miss Rose Stinner, of Norfolk (Va.), and called "the most beautiful girl in Virginia," was married to the novelist February 27 last in the Little Church Around the Corner.

Mrs. Howard was a passenger on the Etruria this morning, arriving two days after her husband. As soon as she had read an interview given out by Howard on his arrival she carefully arranged her grievances against her husband, and in her apartments, at No. 70 West Forty-sixth street, she spent most of yesterday afternoon expounding them.

"The very idea of Mr. Howard saying I spent money extravagantly!" said Mrs.
Howard. "Why, I sat in my apartments in a common little hotel in England every morning, and I was a friend of a friend made me account for the last penny he gave me, and that wasn't much!"

"Every night my husband would spend a long time beautifying himself. He used three kinds of hair tonic, had his face massaged, carefully powdered his face and brushed his hair. One day a friend of mine asked him if he did not want some of her rouge and 'that made him angry.'"

"I had a very good reason for that," she said. "I was afraid of my husband's reaction if I did not. He would have killed me."

GRADUATION EXERCISES

College Bridge, N. B., June 19—St.
Joseph's College graduation exercises took place last night and today. In the afternoon the college campus was the scene of a game of base ball, the contestants being the Mohawks of Moncton and the college team. The score was 14 to 5 in favor of the college boys.

At 6 o'clock the college dining hall was the scene of much gaiety. The students and invited guests did ample justice to the excellent dinner supplied. The alumni assembled immediately after supper for their annual meeting. Owing to the unavoidable absence of Judge Landry, the president, in Fredericton, only routine business was transacted and the meeting adjourned to meet again in the early fall.

The annual baccalaureate address was delivered in Lefebvre Hall to a large and appreciative audience by Maurice Porter.
John Manning allowed a thorough mastery of his subject—The Temporal Power of the Pope.

Alexander Plafie recited with good effect a poem written for the occasion by Rev. P. E. Bourgeois, C. S. C.
Rev. Henry Cormier, who was to have delivered the alumni oration was unavoidably detained.

The college band entertained during the exercises with several well chosen selections. After the exercises in the hall the president entertained the invited guests at luncheon. Among those in the hall were Rev. P. J. Manning, Fort Fairfield (Me.); Rev. L. J. Ouellette, Notre Dame; Rev.
Henry McGill, Carleton Place (Ont.); B. F. Manning and Miss Irene Manning, Providence (R. I.); Mr. and Mrs. J. Slattery, Chas.
Owens, St. John; Hon. A. D. Richard, Dorchester.

This morning at 10 o'clock graduation exercises, conferring of degrees and distribution of premiums will take place.

NETHERWOOD SCHOOL CLOSING; WINNERS OF
PRIZES AND HONORS

Rothsay, N. B., June 18—(Special)—The closing of Netherwood School for Girls took place this afternoon in the church school room of St. Paul's. There was a large and fashionable audience present, many of them being parents of the girls in attendance. The rector of the parish, Rev. A. W. Daniel presided and Rev. E. B. Hooper, of St. Paul's, St.
John was also present.

Rev. Mr. Daniel presented the prizes and certificates to the girls and Rev. Mr.
Hooper made an address, which was exceedingly appropriate to the occasion.
There was also a piano solo by Miss Marian Casswell, and the valedictory address was delivered by Miss Jean Ketchum.
She spoke very enthusiastically of the loyalty of the members of this year's graduating class to the school, and announced that they would start an "Old Girls' Society" which she hoped would grow in strength and numbers and exist

The Light That Most Nearly Resembles Sunlight

There's no artificial light used that can begin to compare with that given out by acetylene

Acetylene more nearly resembles sunlight than any other known commercial illuminant

Therefore, the nearer any artificial light can be made to resemble sunlight, the more nearly perfect it must be

Sunlight is the standard by which we judge the true tone of colors

Any artificial light, which shows up colors differently from what they appear under sunlight, is unnatural

Colors can be matched, and their true shades defined, quite as well under acetylene as under sunlight

More than this, plants grow almost as well under the influence of acetylene as they do under sunlight

No other known commercial illuminant can make these claims

There are different grades of acetylene - depends upon the quality of the carbide used Calcium Carbide is the best

FATHER IN ST. JOHN SEARCHING FOR HIM

For More Than a Week Lad Had Been Missing, and Father Had Searched Far and Near - Body Found on Bottom of Creek by Howard Gough

Gagetown, June 19-(Special)-A thrill of horror ran through the community when, about 7 o'clock tonight, the body of little Ira Belyea, the seven year old son of Almer Belyea, was found in Gagetown creek

The father of the dead boy started for St. John today in hopes of finding him there, and after the recovery of the body a telephone message was sent to the city. He will be here on tomorrow's boat

The boy was found by Howard Gough in the bottom of the creek opposite Gough's house and was found with his appearance as if he had been drowned

It is supposed he may have fallen into the water, which is fairly deep, and struck his head against a stone rendering him unconscious

Great sympathy is felt for the bereaved father who is a widower, his wife having some years ago. Ira was one of twins who were the youngest of the family

EDWARD P. LEONARD DEAD

Former Superintendent of Fire Alarm Passed Away on Anniversary of St. John Fire.

The death of Edward P. Leonard, late superintendent of the fire alarm and telegraph system took place Thursday morning at 8 o'clock, after a lingering illness.

Mr. Leonard suffered a stroke of paralysis about ten months ago, and though he never fully recovered, he returned to his work. About five weeks ago he was compelled to take to his bed and gradually became weaker. During the past two or three weeks he hovered between life and death.

Mr. Leonard's death will be a distinct loss to the fire department and the community. He was a good citizen and a faithful member of the fire-fighting forces of the city. He was probably the oldest fireman in the city in active service, having spent 32 years of his life in the department. He served under the late John Kane, chief of the Portland fire department before the union, back in 1875, and worked in the big fire of '77, just thirty years yesterday.

He was appointed superintendent of the fire alarm system six years ago, on the retirement of John E. Wilson, and was largely instrumental in the introduction of the present efficient fire alarm system.

He had always taken the keenest interest in all matters connected with the fire department and has compiled what is probably the most complete collection of fire alarm statistics in the city.

Mr. Leonard was a member of New Brunswick, No. 1 Knights of Pythias, having joined the order soon after it was established here. He was also a member of the International Association of Fire Alarm Engineers.

When the steam yacht Dream was first brought here by Howard D. Troop, Mr. Leonard served as engineer of the craft for about two years.

Mr. Leonard was fifty-six years of age. He was a son of the late Captain Charles Leonard and Harriet Beavin Leonard, and was descended from the late Geo. Leonard, who came to St. John with one of the first parties of Loyalists from the state of New York at the time of the American revolution. He spent some of his younger days in Nova Scotia but had been living here since he was about 20 years of age.

He is survived by his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Edie Reid, of Winnipeg, and one son, Harry M., of the firm of Ross & Leonard, real estate agents, Sackatoon. Both are at present in the city.

The funeral will take place Saturday afternoon at two o'clock, when the three local lodges of Knights of Pythias will attend.

The bereaved family have the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

NEWFOUNDLAND HEARS REPORT THAT COLONY HAS BEEN SACRIFICED

Americans and British Agree on New Compact to Nullify Island's Laws.

(Associated Press.) St. John's, Nfld., June 20.—The members of the colonial cabinet decline to discuss the apparent failure of the premier, Sir Robert Bond, to gain desired concessions in the negotiations on the American fisheries question at London.

The report that a new compact governing the herring fishery at Bay of Islands had been arranged by the British and American governments providing that American vessels shall be immune from legal processes for violation of the colonial regulations, or in other words, that Newfoundland employed on Gloucester schooners cannot be served with papers, lacks confirmation. The fishing in official circles is that if the report is correct the colony will not be as well off as under the existing treaty of 1903.

Intense interest in the situation prevails throughout the colony.
