

POLLING IN U. S. ELECTIONS TODAY

Wilson a Big Favorite for President Among Betting Men

Roosevelt Forces Confident of Beating Taft—Bull Moosers Hope to Capture Illinois and California—Final Appeals by Presidential Candidates in Home Districts—Democrats Sanguine of Controlling the Next Senate.

New York, Nov. 4.—The most vigorous presidential fight of recent years came to an end tonight with the leading candidates for the nation's chief office continuing their personal appeals to voters almost to the last moment.

President Taft, speaking from his train in Ohio, on his trip to Cincinnati, Colonel Roosevelt addressing voters at Long Island points close to Oyster Bay and Governor Wilson addressing meetings at Paterson and Passaic, gave to the conclusion of the campaign a touch of personal activity that emphasized the interest in tomorrow's balloting.

More than the presidency is at stake in the elections tomorrow. The Republican forces have concentrated their efforts in doubtful states to prevent an overturn of local organizations, or a capture of the legislatures in states heretofore safely Republican.

The Democrats have made an organized appeal on a number of states to control the legislatures, so that the majority in the United States senate may be swung to the Democratic column.

Democrats Expect to Control Senate.

Against Republican predictions that the senate will remain Republican, the Democratic national leaders today claim enough votes to give them the senate, and to greatly swell their majority in the house of representatives, which they captured in 1910.

Four American campaigns have run through a longer period of heated controversy. The fight for the presidency to terminate at the ballot boxes tomorrow, was under way early in February, and has scarcely lagged since that time. Out of the eight men who were active candidates for presidential nominations early in the summer, three candidates, representing three parties, whose relative strength is still a matter of conjecture, remain to solicit the voters' support tomorrow.

Hot Fight in Ohio.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 4.—President Taft spent the last day of his election campaign in a leisurely trip across his home state, addressing crowds in more than a dozen cities and tonight reached his home city, where tomorrow he will cast his ballot. The Democratic ticket ended their long campaign in the state with a final rally in Toledo, the Republicans and Progressives having finished their efforts Saturday night.

Big Vote Expected in Indiana.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 4.—Preparations for the election in Indiana have been completed and according to the party managers here, providing the weather is at all propitious, the largest vote ever cast in the state will be polled. The returns from the larger cities are expected to be coming in early, because in most of these counties voting machines have been installed.

Wilson a Big Favorite.

New York, Nov. 4.—A curb broker had $100,000 to wager on Wilson at 5 to 1 yesterday. No money appeared to cover the small bet.

A bet was made of $1,000 to $2,000 that Roosevelt would carry eight states.

A curb broker offered $1,000 to $800 that Roosevelt would get more popular votes than Taft.

At Schuylkill $5,000 has been bet that Hedra beats Straus and $5,000 even that

POWERS REFUSE TO HELP TURKEY

Decline to Intervene at This Stage and War Must Continue

Ottoman Troops May Make Last Stand at Fortifications Outside Constantinople—Have Lost Most of Their Artillery and Their Hopes of Beating Back the Victorious Bulgarians Are Considered Slim.

London, Nov. 4.—The prospect that a considerable portion of the defeated Turkish army will be able to reform behind the lines of Tebatzja, the last fortification before Constantinople, is not altogether excluded, but whether the Turks will be able to maintain any serious resistance to the Bulgarian advance is a question which permits of doubt.

In the struggle with the allies, the Turks lost more than half their artillery. In fact the Servians alone claim to have captured no less than 300 guns. They certainly initiate against any prolonged stand at Tebatzja.

In a circular note to the Turkish ambassadors abroad the government maintains that although embarrassing, the position is not desperate, and declares that when the allies had completed their mobilization, Turkey had barely begun here. The note insists that Turkey is still able to maintain prolonged warfare.

Up to the present hour there is no sign that anything has come off the Port's efforts in the power of the allies. No reply has been received from the allies and there is little doubt that when they are received they will embody a demand to consider the idea of proposing an armistice.

Apparently Bulgaria is in no mood to negotiate peace at the present time, although fighting is still proceeding on the Thracian-Serbia line and correspondents are sending reports of Bulgarian and Turkish successes in that neighborhood according to which side they draw inspiration from.

The official announcement from Constantinople that the Turkish army is retreating to Tebatzja is a line of fact not to be doubted, and it is evident that this fighting is merely an extensive rear guard action to buy time for the evacuation of the Turkish army.

The fall of Adrianople is expected daily. The occupation of the Balkan railway between Salonika and Bulgaria, is a first step of a chain of events which will lead to the Turkish army which have been fighting the great battles in the east from the scattered forces in the heart of the country and to the west.

It is considered not unlikely that the fear of serious outbreaks in Constantinople may influence the powers to use diplomatic pressure to bring about peace at the earliest moment.

War Must Continue.

London, Nov. 4.—Those powers thus far consulted have responded to Turkey's appeal for their mediation in the war by declaring that they could make only a request for peace and could not force the Balkan nations with a request for an armistice.

Some of the governments have pointed out that a request for an armistice would offend the Balkan victors. Other governments take the position that they cannot be bound by the terms of an armistice for the moment.

The war must therefore continue and the Turkish army which the Porte has been able to maintain in the Balkans, keep on with their unequal struggle against the victorious invaders.

It is hoped and believed still that a powerful proposal for a formal armistice which they can offer their good offices.

The terms of peace themselves are a matter of dispute for belligerents to settle. Bulgaria having again affirmed that no armistice would be considered unless it was by her or her allies who settled the political as well as the military aspect of the campaign before the war was undertaken.

The negotiations which were taking place upon the preliminaries for an offer of mediation. The suggestion made by France to which both Russia and England subscribed, met with nothing but criticism in Austria and she, of course, was backed by Germany and Italy, the other two members of the Triple Alliance. It is suggested, however, that Austria misunderstood the proposal in regard to "disinterestedness," which was not as believed in Austria, directed against the idea of economic arrangements between Austria and the Balkan league. Still Austria's attitude has caused much uneasiness and reports that she is mobilizing continue to circulate all over Europe.

In the meantime the war is going on and what was left of the Turkish army after the defeat at Lule Burgas, is rushing for supposed safety behind the line of fortifications with the Bulgarians left trying to cut them off. It is suggested in some quarters that Hazim Pasha, the Turkish commander-in-chief, has received reinforcements and is making a last desperate stand to cover the retreat of his shattered forces.

Turks Explaining Their Defeat.

Constantinople, No. 4 (6 p. m.)—None of the powers has yet replied to the Porte's request for mediation.

The belief is held here that King Ferdinand will not be sorry to accept European intervention as it is considered that after its tremendous sacrifices, the Bulgarian army must be near exhaustion.

Abdul Lath Pasha, commander of the Turkish eastern army, is still at Tebatzja, and at noon today a Turkish detachment destroyed an important railway bridge at Tebatzja.

It now becomes clear that the deficient commissariat was largely responsible for the Turkish reverses. The Turkish plans aimed at enjoining the Bulgarian forces by an advance on the right wing. The Bulgarian general concentrated his efforts on an attack against the Turkish center in Serbia, and the left wing along the railway.

The Turkish right wing meeting with much success, but the commissariat made down completely, owing partly to bad weather which made the roads difficult and prevented landing operations at the Turkish base, Moudros.

As a consequence Mahmud Mukhtar Pasha, commanding the right, was compelled to sacrifice the advantage gained relative to the troops were without food the whole day.

All preparations have been completed for the retreat to proceed to the Turkish base, Moudros, accompanied by Ghasi Ahmed Mukhtar Pasha, the Grand Vizier, but up to the present they have not started.

It is asserted that the king himself was detected by Nazim Pasha's spies at the ports and only realized the true situation when an English cruiser brought the latest news, which was conveyed to the port by the British ambassador. The king then asked the powers to intervene.

The difficulty in maintaining order is increasing daily. It is said that a mob went to the war office at Stambul and asked for weapons with which to attack the Christians, and this was the reason why Kiamil Pasha asked the ambassadors to have warships at hand.

Turkey's Proposal.

Paris, Nov. 4.—The French attitude in regard to the Turkish appeal for mediation is shared by England and Russia. Turkey's proposals were as follows:

First—that the powers offer and, if need be, enforce an armistice on the belligerents.

Second—that the powers profit by the armistice to make the belligerents make known their peace terms and, if necessary, harmonize the conflicting terms of the belligerents.

In refusing to act, Premier Poincaré declared that France was unable to accept the suggestion about an armistice without furnishing to the Balkan allies guarantees relative to the conditions of peace. An armistice, he said, would check the advance of the allies at the height of their victories and give the Turks time to reorganize and strengthen their armies.

Germany to Try Her Hand.

Berlin, Nov. 4.—The German ambassador presented to the foreign office this afternoon a communication from his government asking the powers good offices to bring about an armistice. Germany immediately put itself into communication with the other five powers with a view to carrying out the request.

Adrianople Out Off.

Sofia, Nov. 4.—Bulgarian troops have now occupied Bnk on the Salonika-Constantinople railroad, and this, with the possession of Nevrokop, finally cuts communications between the Turkish army in Macedonia and the Turkish garrison of Adrianople.

The Turkish troops on Saturday attacked the Bulgarians, but the Bulgarians repulsed the attack, putting the Turks to flight and capturing five of their officers and 1,800 men in addition to a quick-firing battery.

The spoil captured by the Bulgarian troops at Lule Burgas included depots of clothing, arms and stores, fifteen camels, a scablight, and telegraphic instruments. Prisoners taken by the Bulgarians say that a Russian officer named Von Teik, who held the rank of Colonel in the Turkish army, was killed by his own men after the disastrous defeat at Lule Burgas. The prisoners say they went into action in a famished condition. The men had only one biscuit or half a loaf of bread for three or four days and many of them deserted to the Bulgarians.

France Declines to Intervene.

Paris, Nov. 4.—The French government has refused the Turkish government's appeal for it to take the initiative in bringing about an intervention of the great powers to stop hostilities and impose an armistice on the Balkan States.

The reply of the French foreign office points out that for France to take the course suggested would be contrary to international law and would make her appear as siding against the Balkan States. France can only, it was added, consider in accord with all the great powers a request for mediation.

Turks Flee from Impregnable Position.

Ukrap, Nov. 4.—The advance of the Servians toward Monastir and Salonika is progressing successfully. The defeat of the Turks at Kumanovo was so complete that the pursuing Servians found the Turkish troops had abandoned the absolutely impregnable positions of Katchanik Pass and Guechepoly, which it was expected would be the scene of desperate resistance on account of the natural defenses.

MILLIONAIRE'S TRIP TO BONNY RIVER UP IN DIVORCE SUIT

George Man Tells of Thomas G. Plant and Girl's Visit to Camp—Mrs. Plant Gets Marital Knot Dissolved on the Evidence in Boston Court.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 29.—The news that Caroline G. Plant, society leader, had secured a divorce from Thomas G. Plant, millionaire shoe manufacturer, took a secondary interest today to the question of what financial settlement was exacted in the case. Mrs. Plant did not alimony, yet she had originally attached her husband's property for $1,500,000.

The interesting witness was John C. McInerney, a hotelier, on whose register the fall of 1909 Mr. Plant had dealings with. Mrs. Plant told the court that she had seen at the lake she was at the time. McInerney testified that Plant said: "If you happen to see Mr. Sullivan's dog, tell him my name about my being here, because my wife and I don't get along very well, and she did not want to stay at the Carlton House in St. John's."

Plant case was the one referred to in a St. George dispatch on Oct. 25, it was announced that a detective visited that place.

FURTHER WARNING AS TO THE GO-PREACHERS

At the regular quarterly meeting of the Miramichi Presbytery, held in St. James' hall, Newcastle, on March 13, 1912, at which there was a full attendance of members, after a full discussion of the origin and work of the so-called "go-preachers" to which many of the members of Presbytery contributed from personal knowledge, the following resolution was unanimously passed, and a committee was appointed to prepare a leaflet for circulation through the congregations of the Presbytery:

WEATHER COOL, BUT FALL HAS BEEN PLEASANT SO FAR

The colder weather yesterday reminded many citizens that winter is rapidly approaching. Although the cold season is not greatly dreaded by St. John people, still the high cost of coal this year gives the householders anything but a comfortable feeling for the future, and it is generally hoped that the real winter weather will be withheld for some time yet.

CIVILIZATION'S DARK STAIN

(Toronto Globe). It is still the custom in certain quarters to question the reality of white slavery and to assert that there are relatively few women of loose life who are not perfectly free agents. The truth is that in a vast number of cases behind the painted woman stands some brute of a man who is living in luxury upon the proceeds of the woman's infamous calling. The following story, taken from a report of a white slave case in yesterday's police court, shows how real the white slave traffic is in Toronto, and how completely after they are "broken in" the victims are at the mercy of their masters.

"It was a pitiable sight Plainclothesmen Marjary and Koester encountered at Jim Rocco's place on Centre avenue. There was blood on the floor, and three unfortunate women cowered in the corner. One told how she had received a black eye from Rocco because he wasn't satisfied with the wages of an which she earned for him. She had only brought seven men into the house in two days. Another girl, she declared, had for inaudition been bound to her bed with a sheet, while a third was thrown out of a window. He's not satisfied to have a girl working for him. He gets us there and knocks us about. Rocco's proclivities will be under the curb of the central prison for the next six months."

"We subscribe money by the millions throughout Christendom to raise the heathen up out of his spiritual darkness. It would probably be difficult in any heathen land today—even in Japan, where woman's position is far from satisfactory—to match this story of Jim Rocco's bawdy in Centre avenue, in the heart of Toronto the Good. The Massey Hall meeting on Friday to begin a campaign against lewd vice does not come a day too soon from Rocco because he wasn't satisfied with the wages of an which she earned for him. ALBERT COUNTY HAS A FAMOUS BOY HUNTER

Fifteen-year-old Charlie Richardson, of Memel, Killed a Bear With Two Shots from His Mauser Rifle.

Hopewell Hill, Nov. 3.—A crowd of men from St. John arrived yesterday to put a light in the new tower at Grindstone Island light station.

Charlie Richardson, of Memel, 15 years old, if he keeps on, is likely to develop into a mighty hunter. For years Charlie has been shooting moose and deer, to say nothing of smaller game. Last night he bagged a good sized bear. The bear had been several bears in the woods, while he was hunting, and about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, about two miles from home, a bear suddenly faced him. Though alone and armed with what is known as a single shot Mauser, the youngster's nerve did not fail him, and he fired at the animal, only, however, wounding him. The bear struck a little distance away and stood up against a tree, when the boy put in a second cartridge and fired again, bruising the animal in his tracks.

The city revisors have completed the voters' lists for 1913 with a net result of an increase of 119 names over the total for the present year. In the list by wards, here given, it will be seen that the non-residents do not appear separately in the 1913 list.
