(Special to the Tribune.) New Brunswick Affairs to be Settled by a Parliamentary Commission Cabinet Changes-Wm. Elder for Collector of St. John. OTTAWA, Feb. 11.

The Government have positively decided to relieve themselves of responsibility on New Brunswick's Better Terms claims by making them the subject of enquiry by a Parliamentary Commission during the coming session. The Commissioner will consist of members from every Province, and the Fredericton Government will be allowed either to appoint some of the members or to appear before the commission by counsel. Should the Commission report favorably on the claim before the session is too far advanced for legislation to be had, the Cabinet will bring down a bill in accordance with the recommendations, but if the report is adverse to the Better Terms claims the Government will decline to take any action whatever. There is little doubt but Tilley will shortly become Finance Minister. It is not known whether Gibbs will take the portfolio of Minister of Customs or not, but it is pretty certain that he will go the Cabinet.

Wm. Elder, of the Telegraph, will be appointed Collector of St. John during the session or immediately at its close Willis, of the News, and other applicants MARSTERS will be propitiated with pap and promise -Willis getting the printing that Elder has been having.
