

45TH YEAR NO. 19408

THE ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, FRIDAY, JULY 17, 1908—TEN PAGES.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

PLAINTIFF ASKED FOR $38,000 WAS GIVEN SUM OF $2,140

History of the Famous Saunby Case Against the City.

OFFICIALS ARE JUBILANT TODAY

Matter of Costs Has Not as Yet
Been Determined—City's
All Paid to Date.

There is jubilation in the city hall today, and especially in the water-works department.

Chairman Jones of the water commission, and Commissioner Darch are especially pleased with the award of Mr. Justice Finkle, as announced in last evening's Advertiser in regard to the famous Saunby case.

It turns out that the exact sum awarded the plaintiff, Saunby, is $2,140, and there is no mention of costs.

It may be that Mr. Saunby will have to pay his share of them.

Plaintiff Asked $38,000.

The importance of the award is shown when it is stated that some time ago, when the commission attempted to settle the case, Messrs. Ivey & Dromgole, the plaintiff's solicitors, asked the city to give them the enormous sum of $38,000.

Of course, this was declared to be out of the question. The city offered $3,000 as a compromise, and when it was refused, decided to allow matters to take their course.

That City Solicitor Meredith was wise in his decision to fight the claim to the last ditch, is shown by the award.

The plaintiff receives but about a twentieth part of the sum asked.

The Costs.

A gentleman in close touch with the famous suit stated to the Advertiser today that the story that the action has cost the city $70,000 to date is all bosh.

The total costs to date have been very heavy, but thus far the city has not paid out over $10,000. And all the costs in the case with the exception of the costs of the reference to Justice Finkle, have been paid.

History of the Case.

The action dates back to August, 1897.

At that time the plaintiff, Saunby, who owned and conducted a mill on the North Branch of the Thames just south of Blackfriars bridge, notified the city that the placing of splashboards on the dam was backing the water of the river into his mill race, with the result that his power was rendered abortive.

After some correspondence, a writ was served on the commissioners.

Statement of Claim.

In the statement of claim, Mr. Saunby asked that the city of London, its servants and employees, be prevented from continuing the damaging of the plaintiff's property, and that the dam, as well as the splashboards, be forthwith removed.

This meant a great deal to the city, because it costs $25 a day to pump by steam, whereas this sum could be saved by putting splashboards on the dam, so as to raise the water in the river to a height sufficient to run the pumps.

The Legal Opinion.

Consequently, the city referred the matter to its solicitor, Mr. T. G. Meredith, and he consulted with Mr. A. B. Aylesworth, now Hon. Mr. Aylesworth, minister of justice of Canada.

After going into the case thoroughly, both agreed that Mr. Saunby had no claim, basing their opinion on the London waterworks act of 1878, which gave very wide powers to the city in the matter of securing water, lands, etc., necessary for the city's supply.

The Time Limit.

By this act it was provided that the city could do practically as it liked in such matters, and if any man was damaged he could assess his damages, but in his claims inside of six months.

AERIAL TORPEDO DEADLIEST YET

Invention of Swedish Officer
Bought by Krupps for German Army and Navy.

London, July 17.—Col. Unge, of the Swedish artillery, who was formerly connected with the firm of Nobel, has been for some time trying to dispose of the patent right to an aerial torpedo invented by him for which remarkable claims were made.

After a test, the British war office declined to buy the rights on the ground that it did not think the torpedo would be of especial advantage in warfare. Now, according to the British correspondent of the Standard, the Krupps have bought all the rights outside of Sweden, and the torpedo, "one of the deadliest instruments of destruction yet invented," will be introduced in the German army and navy, which will "thereby possess the most effective equipment of any army or navy in the world except the Swedish."

Among other assertions it is stated that the torpedo can be fired without noise and that it causes no recoil. The machine from which it is fired can be placed in position much more rapidly than field artillery. It is directed by a turbine with remarkable accuracy. It is especially adapted for being thrown into a fort or on deck of a battleship, either of which it will destroy completely.

DECORATING FOR OLD BOYS

Board of Works Would Brighten Up
City Hall and Victoria Park.

The board of works held a short meeting last night. It was recommended that the city council spend the sum of $150 for the purpose of decorating the city hall and Victoria Park for the Old Boys' reunion.

The board will meet Engineer Moore tomorrow morning for the purpose of awarding the contract for the culvert at the West Cove on the Pipe Line, in which both the city council and the water commission is interested.

Several local improvement petitions were dealt with.

Mr. Pope Improved.

City Treasurer Pope is reported to be somewhat improved today.

Acting Mayor.

Ald. Armstrong was acting mayor today. Yesterday he was in Guelph, where he attended the meeting of the Western Ontario Niagara Power Union.

A WARNING TO THE BOYS.

Mrs. T. Leah, whose boy was drowned in the Thames, sends the following plea to the boys to be published in The Advertiser:

"My Dear Boys,—I felt I could not let this opportunity pass without asking you, from the depths of a sorrowing heart, to keep away from the river. There may be many parents in the city who have but one boy, so I ask you, dear boys, that when you feel inclined to go to the river, remember it may be the last time, and like my dear boy, you may never see home again, but leave a sorrowing and lonely mother and father."

Mrs. T. LEAH,
1047 Dundas street.

MISS PROCTOR MAY RECOVER FROM THE EFFECTS OF BURNS

Is an Idaho School Teacher and Was Visiting Her Brother in South London—Spent a Good Night and Is Slightly Improved Today.

The condition of Miss Etta L. Proctor, who was burned while on a visit to her brother, Mr. L. Proctor, of Weston street, was slightly improved this morning, the young lady having passed a very quiet night at Victoria Hospital.

It is impossible to say for several days whether or not she will recover, as, owing to the seriousness of the burns, complications may arise.

Miss Proctor is principal of Bellevue High School, Idaho.

Yesterday she was about to iron one of her dresses, and had placed the charcoal iron on the table to light it.

When she struck the match it broke, and the burning head fell on the floor without the young lady noticing where it had fallen.

She proceeded to get another match, and had just returned, when she found that her dress was in a blaze.

The dress was of a flimsy gauze material, and when Miss Nellie Barlow, who was in a front room, ran out she found Miss Proctor in a sheet of flame.

Miss Barlow called to some men who were repairing the waterworks in the street, and they came at once.

Before they arrived, Miss Proctor had thrown herself on Miss Barlow in a dazed condition, and but for the fact that the latter had on a very heavy dress that young lady would have been badly burned.

As it was, she escaped with only burns on her hands.

Miss Proctor was carried into a bedroom, where she was wrapped in blankets, and water was poured over her.

Dr. Drake was hurriedly summoned, and the girl had been terribly burned.

She was taken at once to Victoria Hospital, where everything possible was done to relieve the intense pain she was suffering.

Miss Proctor's limbs and body were terribly burned, and her hair was burned off.

Miss Proctor, who was so badly burned yesterday, was resting easily at Victoria Hospital this afternoon, and her condition showed a little improvement.

THE WATER MEETING TONIGHT

The attention of citizens is called to the meeting called by Mayor Stevely for the city hall tonight to discuss the water question. There has been much difference of opinion in the past on this most important matter, and the members of the board of trade at their meeting held last Friday night deemed it prudent to call the mayor to call a special meeting. His worship has done so, and some of the best known men in London will be present.

Sir John Carling has already stated his views on the matter, but tonight he will be again on hand, and will give a sound talk to the people of London. He will also discuss the commission which built the present waterworks, and he knows whereof he speaks.

Mr. John McClary, the well known manufacturer of London comes out for a separate high-pressure system, and expresses his views in another column of The Advertiser.

Every citizen of London is invited to be present, and hear the question discussed.

Commons Passes Elections Bill Tory Debaters Sharply Reprimanded

The Speaker Obligated to Call
Dr. Sproule to Order.

Ottawa, July 16.—The election bill was read a third time and passed in the House of Commons today, but not before several members of the Opposition had carried out their usual practice of making assertions reflecting upon members to the right of the speaker, and had been compelled to withdraw them.

Dr. Sproule was one of the offenders, and it was with every evidence of reluctance that he bowed to the ruling and withdrew a statement regarding Mr. Commee, which had demanded, should he be re-elected. During this incident the speaker had to assert his authority with more vigor than perhaps on any other occasion during the session, and his words were uttered in sharp, commanding tones. Hon. A. B. Aylesworth's address during the discussion was strong and effective, particularly in showing up the inconsistencies of the Opposition's attitude on the measure. Many of the members to the left of the speaker later in the day expressed opposition to the railway subsidies, though one blamed the Government for not providing for a line from Ottawa to Brockville, and another approved of the bond guarantees. Sir Wilfrid Laurier's explanation of the Government's idea on the matter was illuminating and satisfactory. A measure repealing the section of the railway act under which railway employees are subject to double liability for railway accidents was read a third time and passed tonight, leaving them subject only to liability under the criminal code. The bill which will enable the Canadian Patriotic Fund Association to make special grant in cases such as that of Trooper Mulloy also carried. That soldier's name was specifically mentioned by Sir Frederick Borden in moving the adoption of the measure.

After passing the bill amending the Manitoba grain act and the inspection and sale of grain act bill the House of Commons adjourned this morning at 2:30.

A Shooting Scrape in Westminster

A dispute over the ownership of a horse led into a little shooting scrape in Westminster Township on Wednesday night or early Thursday morning, but fortunately no one was injured. The marksman was Mr. Harry Reason, a Westminster Township farmer. The names of the targets—there were at least two of them—have not yet been revealed. It appears that two brothers, residing in or near London, recently became engaged in an altercation as to the ownership of a horse, which each claimed as his own. Finally, as the story goes, one of the brothers succeeded in spitting the animal away one night, and took it to Mr. Reason for safe keeping. Mr. Reason agreed to take charge of the horse until the man who brought it there should call for it. A day or so later the other brother, learning that the horse was in Mr. Reason's charge, made his way to Westminster and demanded the horse.

Matters rested easy for a day or so, but on Wednesday night, as it is alleged, the brother who had claimed the horse, Reason's place, in company with a friend, paid the farm another visit, this time between midnight and morning, in a rig rented from Hueston's livery stable.

Hearing a pampus in the barn, Mr. Reason, who is a light sleeper, took occasion to ask from his bedroom window what time it was, and receiving no answer he proceeded to get busy with his shotgun. A moment after he had fired Mr. Reason perceived two dark figures running down the road toward London. Investigation also showed that the runners had left behind them the rig which they had rented. Later this was returned to the livery, but just how or by whom does not appear.

Enquiry at the court house elicited the fact that no information of any kind had been laid as yet, and that the county constabulary knew little or nothing about the matter.

THE MANILA DISASTER.

Manila, July 17.—The number of lives lost through the foundering of the pleasure launch San Gabriel while on its way from Manila to Corregidor, is still uncertain. Sixty-one passengers and members of the crew were rescued, and it is generally estimated that the number of passengers and crew was 90. As far as known, no Americans were among the victims.

MISS ETTA L. PROCTOR.
And her little niece, Lillia, daughter of Mr. Leonard Proctor, brother of the injured girl. Miss Proctor was terribly burned yesterday while on a visit at her brother's home on Weston street.

ST. SWITHIN IS IN WIGGINS' CLASS

As a Wether Prophet, Not Skilled in Canadian Weather.

St. Swithin's Day prophecy has petered out.

According to the ancient belief, if it was dry on July 15, St. Swithin's Day, it would remain dry for 40 days.

Wednesday the weather was as dry as an Indian Lister in London, and yet within two days the city runs into a streak of weather similar to what may be expected one day in the week during the Western Fair.

St. Swithin may have known all about weather in his day and clime, but he is in Professor Wiggins' class in Canada, or, at least, his weather prophecies are now on a par with "Wiggins' Wigwag."

The prophecy is "busted."

TARANTULA CAPTURED AMONG BANANAS

The Vicious "Varmint" Is as Big as a Silver Dollar—On Show.

This morning, while examining a bunch of bananas, Mr. George Cambridge, of Rectory and Grey streets, discovered a young tarantula. He procured a glass case, and now has the spider on exhibition. It is about the size of a silver dollar, and is very active.

A few days ago a full-grown tarantula was found on a bunch in Richmond grocery. It measured about four inches in diameter. The clerk did some speedy vivisection.

The crack band of the Twenty-ninth Regiment, Berlin, arrived in this city this afternoon at 2 o'clock, and marched to the Armories, headed by Drum Major Cockburn, of the Seventh Regiment of London.

The Berlin Band is one of the finest in the Dominion, and it made a big hit with the people, despite the fact that rain was falling heavily, and the men were handicapped.

The musicians appear very well trained, and the band will make a fitting accompanist for the composite regiment, which mobilizes in London today.

Terrific Quake in South America

Tacna, Chile, July 17. — A terrific earthquake occurred yesterday in the Provinces of Tacna and Arica, in Chile, the southern part of Peru and Bolivia. Considerable destruction of property, but no loss of life is reported. The cable between Arica and Lima has been broken, and the telegraph lines to Bolivia damaged.

The Labor Party and Its Candidate

A meeting of the London Labor party was held in the Musicians' Hall last night, at which it was decided to form a number of committees to unite the districts of the city in a closer organization. It is understood that the Labor party will nominate a candidate for the Dominion elections, out before doing so they wish to bring about a thorough organization of the various Labor men in the city.

The Labor party wish it understood that all workers are interested in this work, and not only the union men, and feel if their idea is carried out that a strong independent party will be formed.

Big Honor in Store for 7th Regiment

Sir John Carling honorary colonel of the Seventh Regiment, who is in Ottawa at the present time, yesterday wired the officers that the London regiment will act as guard of honor to the Prince of Wales on one of the days of next week.

It is understood that each of the city regiments will act as a royal bodyguard on different days.

Among the officers of the Seventh, it is considered very probable that the Seventh will be made a royal fusilier regiment as a result of acting as the royal bodyguard at the special request of the prince.

The Prince of Wales is honorary colonel of the Seventh Royal Fusiliers of London, England.

Col. Reid has received a letter from General Fox, of the Seventy-Fourth Regiment in Buffalo, stating that he regrets that none of his officers will be able to be present at the celebration, but hoping that the Seventh will have a splendid trip and enjoy themselves.

Capt. McCrimmon left last night for Quebec, via the C. P. R. with the second advance party of eighteen men. The party will complete all arrangements for the camp of the Seventh.

The final parade will be held to Tecumseh Park tonight, when the regiment will be put through all the maneuvers that will be expected to perform at Quebec.

Towns Are Menaced By Forest Fires

St. John, N. B., July 16.—As a result of forest fires which are now making rapid progress and cannot be controlled the villages of Back Bay, L'Etang, Letete and Mascene are completely cut off from St. George. The fire has been raging fiercely for the past 48 hours with no possibility of its diminishing. Communication can only be had with the villages from St. Georges by driving around 40 miles. Telephone and telegraph lines are down and the residents are waiting and praying for rain that is expected to bring relief. The entire neighborhood have turned out en masse to fight the flames, but despite their utmost efforts the fires are making rapid progress and are ultimately result in total destruction of the villages. The men are resorting to cutting down large strips of timber and digging canals and ditches in their efforts to check the onward sweep of the flames. The dying down of the winds for a short time did not seem to visibly check the fire.

A WIN FOR LABOR

Sheet Metal Workers Granted New Trial by Privy Council.

Toronto, July 16.—The firm of Lee & O'Donohue this morning received a cable from Mr. J. G. O'Donohue, who is at present in London, stating that the privy council had granted the appeal of Jose, et al., and the International Union of Sheet Metal Workers against the judgment of the court here for $7,500 in favor of the Metallic Roofing Company. This action, which was commenced in 1902, is of great interest to trades unionists. The member of local union No. 30, left the works of the company because it would not sign an agreement with the union. The company brought an action for $20,000 damages against the officers of the union, and also the international body as an organization. They also asked for a perpetual injunction against "picketing" and interfering with their business. Mr. Justice MacMahon and a special jury gave the company judgment for $7,500 and granted the injunction. The divisional court upheld the judgment. The court of appeal upheld the part referring to the amount of damages, but found no picketing, and consequently struck the injunction out as regarded the union. The privy council now grants the appeal and orders a new trial on the ground of misdirection at the trial, so that the whole matter will either have to be gone into again ab initio or dropped. The case was argued by Sir Rufus Isaacs, K.C., and Mr. J. G. O'Donohue.

CAUGHT IN THE SHAFTING.

Rochester, July 17.—Caught by both arms in the rapidly-revolving wheels of the line shafting in the Lawless Paper Company's mill in Penfield, Spence Bushnell, 37 years old, was instantly killed yesterday afternoon. Bushnell had worked in the mill since he was a lad of 9 years of age. He noticed a leak in one of the pipes near some line shafting and was shifting the cloth bag into the leak when it was caught around the nearby shaft. Before he could let go his arms were drawn into the wheels and his head was jerked violently against the machinery. His head was crushed and the force of the revolving wheels took off the right arm at the elbow and mangled the other arm.

Quebec, July 17.—Lord Roberts, the Duke of Norfolk and Lord Loyal arrived here tonight on the Empress of Ireland.

The United States warship New Hampshire passed Rimouski tonight, en route for Quebec. The first regular presentation of the pageants will be given on Tuesday, July 21, another on Friday, July 24, to be followed by a state presentation on Saturday, July 25, when His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, the vice-president of the United States and the representatives of France and other nations, the descendants of Wolfe and Montcalm, and other distinguished personages, will officially attend. The pageants will also be given on the Monday, Wednesday and Friday of the following week, the other days being taken up with military and naval manoeuvres, displays of fireworks and other interesting events. Quebec's past glories, as reproduced by the pageants, will make a series of brilliant spectacles that will last long in the memory of those who witness them.

PLAINTIFF ASKED FOR $38,000

and the city would have to pay him what he asked.

As Mr. Saunby had not entered his claim within the time specified, it was argued that it was outlaid. There was another act of a general nature, however, which expressed the opinion that existing water powers should not be interfered with, but the opinion of Messrs. Aylesworth and Meredith was that this did not conflict with the London Waterworks act.

The Case in the Courts.

The case was first tried at London, and the plaintiff won, the sum of $500. The only offer ever made was that of $28,000.

It was said today that either side may appeal from the decision of Judge Finkle, but as yet there has been no talk of appeal. Mr. Ivey stated to The Advertiser that he would have nothing to say for some days.

The Question of Damages.

By a decision of the referees named to go into the matter of damages, and which has never been, it is understood, disputed by either side, it is laid down that not until such time as the splashboards are placed to a height of 3 feet 10 inches over the crest of the dam, will the water back up so as to affect the plaintiff's mill race.

The city has been keeping the boards at a height of 3 feet 3 inches, and it is claimed that this is all that is necessary to run the pumps.

Thus, according to statements made to The Advertiser, the dam is to remain where it is, and so long as the splashboards are not higher than 3 feet 10 inches, the plaintiff cannot claim he is being damaged.

How It Is Done.

In his decision Mr. Justice Finkle is guided by the instructions of the privy council, which laid down the view that Mr. Saunby was entitled to costs for a period of six years before the entering of the action, or back until 1891, as well as for every year since that time.

In his award, the judge sets out so much damages for each year, until the final sum of $2,140 is reached.

Historic Quebec—Ancient and Modern, and Its Accommodation.

An announcement of no small importance to those contemplating a trip to historic Quebec to witness the Tercentenary celebrations, has just been made by the passenger department of the Grand Trunk Railway System, to the effect that they are officially advised by the directors of the Tented City Company, Quebec, that there will be plenty of accommodation for visitors provided in Tented City and elsewhere. This, together with the liberal excursion fares that are offered by the Grand Trunk Railway System, and the comfort and dispatch which passengers using that line are assured of, will no doubt be the means of enabling all, even those of limited means, of enjoying one of the best educational and pleasant outings that has heretofore been provided for them.

For information regarding fares, train service, etc., inquire from any ticket office of the Grand Trunk System.

No $500 Offer.

IRON ORE IS FOUND CLOSE TO MONTREAL

Montreal, July 16.—That rich iron deposits have been discovered within 100 miles of Montreal was the statement made by a prominent C. P. R. official this morning. He refused to give the exact location of the discovery, but said he was going to look over the ground himself. He declared that the deposits were practicable and workable, and said they would mean the opening of an immense iron and steel industry here.

A JOINT CONFERENCE.

Chicago, July 17.—The national committee appointed through the instrumentality of the Illinois Manufacturers' Association to take care of the shippers' interest in the proposed advance in freight rates is about to ask the railroads for a joint conference.

upon the subject. President Upham, who is at the head of the associations' committee, stated that the shippers represented by that body did not want to be understood as being in battle array against general advance which eastern roads purpose putting into effect Oct. 1. "We have not yet put our armor on," declared Mr. Upham, "but we are in the position of the man from Missouri, and we must be shown. We do, however, most emphatically protest against an advance in freight rates without any consultation with the shippers."

Direct to Quebec City.

The Canadian Pacific is the only through line with a terminus in Quebec City, affording passengers a welcome freedom from transfers and delays. For the great Tercentenary celebration a single fare rate is in effect for the round trip, tickets going July 18 to 25 inclusive. Call C. P. R. ticket office or station for particulars.

LONDON, FRIDAY, JULY 17, 1908.

GREAT CROP PROSPECTS.

With the beginning of harvest only a few weeks off, the prospects for an abundant yield throughout Canada, particularly in the three western provinces, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, are of the brightest. The traffic manager of the Canadian Northern Railway, Mr. George H. Shaw, recently went through the producing area of the provinces named, and estimates that there are 6,000,000 acres under crop. Present indications promise a yield of 120,000,000 bushels of wheat, of which all except what is needed for seed and milling purposes—probably 15,000,000 bushels—will be available for export. This estimate is based on the supposition that the yield will not be more than 20 bushels to the acre, which is below the Manitoba average for some years past.

This means much for the country. At an average price of 60 cents per bushel 120,000,000 bushels will bring $72,000,000 in cash into the Dominion, to be spent, to a large extent, in liquidating past expenses. Part of it, of course, will go to the railways for hauling the grain to the seaboard, while country merchants will get a goodly share in payment of old accounts. Western merchants are said to have found it necessary, owing to the stringency of money, to let their stocks run pretty low, but with the influx of cash, which the coming crop will bring, a substantial revival of business activity may be looked for in the fall. Men who have been in the West this summer declare they never saw the business outlook so good.

The older provinces will, of course, reap considerable benefit from a bumper western crop. The manufacturer and wholesale merchant of Ontario will be called on to supply many of the farmers' needs, and added impulse will be given the big trade revival which all agree is surely coming.

WILFUL MISREPRESENTATION.

One of the latest of the Opposition attacks during the session now nearing its close was that of Mr. Borden on the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. In making it the Opposition leader took an unfair advantage of the Minister of Railways, for it was at the Opposition's request that Hon. Mr. Graham deferred a statement which he had proposed to make on the subject. This enabled Mr. Borden to spring his alleged sensation, and his newspaper organs to spread it broadcast.

The substance of Mr. Borden's charge was that the road was to cost $250,000,000. He declared that the cost of the portion from Moncton to Winnipeg, with interest, would be $24,403,219, but he omitted to state that after seven years the Grand Trunk Pacific would pay the interest, and, therefore, it could not become a public debt. He added the cost of the Quebec bridge, $14,422,238, well knowing that the bridge is not and never was part of the Transcontinental scheme. Then the Opposition leader's estimate of the cost of terminals was ridiculous; besides, he could not but have known that that, too, is a G. T. P. liability. So, too, the interest on the mountain section and on the Government guarantee. By means of such misrepresentations Mr. Borden added to the cost of the road at least $100,000,000.

In replying to the Opposition leader, Hon. Mr. Graham pointed out a few facts which should not be lost sight of, namely, that the country will own the line it builds, 1,800 miles; that it can be sold at any time for what it cost; that the only burden on the Government is the interest on the Moncton-Winnipeg branch during the first seven years, $26,124,676, and that with a surplus like that of last year it can be wiped out in a year and a half.

Mr. Graham is convinced that the country will never be called upon to pay one cent because of having guaranteed the bonds of the mountain section of the G. T. P. The road will make money and the company will make the interest on the bonds the Government has guaranteed to the extent of $58,000,000. Adding $11,304,309 as interest without recourse on the mountain section to the $26,853,676 interest on the eastern section and terminals, gives a grand total of $38,163,976 as interest chargeable to the country for the line from Moncton to the Pacific. Were the country to borrow that amount at 3 per cent, it would cost for the great benefits to be received in transportation the sum of $1,144,919 per year for seven years and no more.

The increase in the cost over the original estimate, when it was sanctioned by Parliament, has been due, first, to the increase in the cost of raw material and labor, and, secondly, to the improvement of the standard of the road over that contemplated in the original estimates. This is supported by letters from the engineers.

Mr. Borden subsequently admitted that he was out in some of his statements, but his misrepresentations go on record just the same. This is not the first time Conservative hostility to this great national undertaking has been manifested. They have condemned it as an engineering impossibility and described it as an election kite; but, in spite of all prophecies of failure, construction of the National Transcontinental Railway has made wonderful progress. The whole of the eastern section, which the Opposition have declared would never be built, is under way; construction work is progressing satisfactorily east and west; the rails have already been laid into the city of Moncton, and it is confidently expected that within a few weeks a considerable portion of the western section will be in operation and employed in carrying out the wheat crop.

BRITISH SOUTH AFRICA.

That Great Britain has by the policy she has pursued in South Africa since the close of the war strengthened her position in the world as a civilizing power cannot for a moment be doubted. As a result of that policy, the Transvaal has for over a year enjoyed responsible government under a ministry presided over by the man who, six years ago, was commander-in-chief of the Boer forces. The wily Gen. De Wet is a member of the Orange River cabinet, while for the first time in its history Cape Colony is ruled by the Bond, backed by a large majority in the Legislature. All this under the one flag.

At times since these sister colonies were granted self-government there has been danger of a railway and customs war, and it has been only by compromise and the exercise of the greatest self-restraint on all sides that it has been possible to avoid such conflicts. Of late, however, a strong movement has sprung up in the colonies in favor of confederation, and a convention of delegates from each of the colonies named, together with Natal, will discuss the project.

According to the Johannesburg correspondent of the London Times, the conditions in South Africa point to a union much closer than that of the Australian colonies, or even that of the Canadian Dominion. Many advocate a complete unification, making South Africa a unitary state, with a single parliament, merely sub-divided into local government areas, while others favor the retention of the existing colonial divisions in a modified way, apart altogether from the question of local sentiment.

The question which it is thought will prove most difficult of settlement in negotiations for union is that of the franchise, and it is likely to remain so until there is universal admission of the principle of equal voting power and automatic distribution, on which, alone a new country like British South Africa can build a satisfactory political system.

Nevertheless the Times correspondent is convinced that today union is not merely a question of practical politics, but the question which is bound to dominate all others till its solution has been attained. The prevailing commercial depression is thought to have something to do with the growth of the confederation movement, many believing that the removal of arbitrary political lines will aid the development and economic stability of the various colonies.

THE DEAD HAND IN LITERATURE.

[Rudyard Kipling, at the Royal Literary Fund Dinner.]
If you go no farther than the Book of Job (laughter)—you will find that letters, like the art of printing, were born perfect. (Hear, hear.) Some professions, law and medicine, for example, are still in a state of evolution, inasmuch as no expert in them seems to be quite sure that he can win a case or cure a cold. (Laughter.) On the other hand, the calling of letters carries with it the disabilities from which these professions are free. When an eminent lawyer or physician has escaped your attention that a writer often does not begin to live till he has been dead for some time. In certain notorious cases the longer he has been dead the more alive he is, and the more acute is his competition against the living. (Laughter.) I do not ask you to imagine the feelings of a barrister exposed to the competition of all the dead lord chancellors that have ever sat on the woolsack, each delivering judgments on any conceivable case at sixpence per judgment, paper bound. (Laughter.) I only ask you to allow that what lawyers call "the dead hand"—in this case with a pen in its—lies heavy on the calling of letters. (Laughter and hear, hear.)

MEAT VS. MATRIMONY.

[Philadelphia Record.]
There is a symbiotic relation between the matrimonial market and the meat market. When meat is cheap marriages increase; when beef goes up the bonds of matrimony are at a discount. The reason is obvious. But the closeness of the relations between meat quotations and the number of marriages has not been noticed. Last year in June there were 1,336 marriage licenses issued in this city; in the corresponding month this year the number was 1,036. A year ago steaks cost 25 cents a pound; last month it reached 29 cents. Beef prices rose 16 per cent; weddings diminished 16 per cent.

THE ROSS RIFLE.

"Ross Rifle Shoots Well—Men Using It Get Second Place at Bisley." These, astonishing to say, are headlines in the Toronto Mail and Empire, and the matter following tells that another man using the Ross rifle for the first time scored 94 out of a possible 100. The Ross rifle is its own defense against the Opposition slanders.

[Harper's Weekly.]
It was during a very tedious ride on a western railway, and the passengers, tired, dirty and thirsty, all berated the company with the exception of one single man. His fellow passengers commented on this, and asked him why he did not denounce the company, too. "It would be hardly fair," he replied, "as I am travelling on a free pass; but, if they don't do better pretty soon, blame me if I don't go out and buy a ticket and join you."

THE MASTER BUILDER.

[Susie M. Best in St. Louis Times-Democrat.]
What are your pyramids, Egypt? Jerusalem, what are your mosques? And rearing your Parthenon, Athens, was only the lightest of tasks. Oh, London, your bridges and towers, your palaces and your docks, are matters of palatial moment. The baby is building with blocks!
Oh, China, your wall is a fragment! Oh, India, shame on your Taj! Oh, Tibet, your vast plateau—Is only a fleeting mirage! Columbia, all your skyscrapers, your subways, an architect mocks: For here, on the floor of the playroom, The baby is building with blocks.
Oh, Solomon, wisest of sages, Who cares for that temple of yours? Oh, Ephesus, great was Diana, But what of her glory endures? Oh, Babylon, gone are your gardens, Oh, Druids, your dolmens and rocks Arouse in us only derision—The baby is building with blocks.

Hill St. Methodists Picnic at Port Memorial Church Also Holds Outing

Sunday School Scholars and Others Enjoy Day at the Lakeside.

The members of the Hill Street Methodist Church Sunday school held their annual outing to Port Stanley yesterday, the affair proving to be one of the biggest in the history of the school.

About 250 members attended, they being accompanied by the pastor of the church, Rev. A. G. Harris. They were preceded by a small advance guard which got things in readiness for the main body of picknickers at 9:45 a.m.

There was but one accident and it was not very serious. While climbing the hill, little Sammy Nichols cut his bare foot on a piece of broken bottle. He was carried to the office of Dr. Mothersill, where the injury was dressed.

A picked baseball team of the Hill Street Church walloped a team from the Memorial picknickers, the score being 11 to 7. The Hill Streeters claim that they could have trimmed them far worse had it not been for the umpire.

The sports committee which prepared such an excellent programme, was composed of the following: Mrs. H. Winnett, Mr. Morrow and Mr. Parker.

HEARST AGAINST LABOR

Refuses Gompers' Request to Indorse the Injunction Platform.

New York, July 16.—A cablegram has been received from W. R. Hearst in reply to a message transmitted to Mr. Hearst from Samuel Gompers, stating that in view of the Democrats' stand for labor, it would be an "act of greatest patriotism for the Independence party to indorse the Democratic platform," and urging him not to run a third ticket, as it would elect Mr. Taft. Mr. Hearst's cablegram follows:

Paris, July 13.—"Tell Mr. Gompers that I am not authorized to speak for the membership of the Independence League, but according to my personal standards, a purer patriotism consists in laboring to establish a new party, which will be consistently devoted to the interests of the citizenship and particularly to the advantage and advancement of the producing classes. I do not think the past of patriotism lies in supporting a discredited and decadent old party, which has neither conscientious convictions nor honest intentions, or indorsing chameleon candidates who change the color of their political opinions with every varying hue of opportunity."

"I do not think the best benefit of laboring men lies in supporting that old party because of a soap of false promise, when the performance of that party while in power did more to injure labor than all the injunctions ever issued before or since. I have lost faith in the empty professions of an unregenerate democracy. I have lost confidence in the ability, in the sincerity, and even in the integrity of its leaders. I do not consider it patriotism to pretend to support that which, as a citizen, I distrust and detest, and I earnestly hope the Independence party will give us an opportunity to vote for candidates that are both able and honest, and for a declaration of principles that is sound and sincere."

HEROIC MEASURES

Sailor Rescues Intoxicated Woman by Smashing Her Face.

Montreal, July 16.—A sailor by the name of James McMananey on board the S.S. Niagara, of the Elder-Dempster Line, saved the life of a woman yesterday morning, who had fallen off the wharf. She was walking along and fell into an intoxicated condition and was lying on the ground. McMananey jumped in after her and brought her to the edge. As soon as she was safe the woman started to scream and call for help, saying that her rescuer was trying to murder her. Then she grasped the sailor's hair and commenced to pull it out in handfuls.

This caused McMananey to release his hold on the woman, and she fell back into the water again, pulling her rescuer with her by the hair. Then started a battle under the water, for when the woman came up a few seconds afterwards it was seen that her nose was bleeding badly. By this time a boat had been sent out from the shore and the parties rescued.

When McMananey was seen afterwards he was suffering from a sore head where the woman had pulled at his hair. When asked if he had struck the woman he replied that he had, as this was the only way in which he could save her. She had a death grip on him.

DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT.

The Arncliffe Puzzle

By GORDON HOLMES, Author "A Mysterious Disappearance."

Ten minutes more, and Lester saw Edith approaching. For an instant he forgot all about Hobson and the letterbox. He had a wild idea of sauntering out and meeting her accidentally. And, of course, he could offer her his escort back to the Hall, and—

Edith stopped at the postoffice and dropped something into the box. Lester pulled himself together with a jerk. He had never thought of Hobson's curious trap being possibly directed against Edith. Now the situation took a new significance; and the delightful possibility of a stroll with the lady of his heart was relinquished at once. Edith, her correspondence posted, retraced her steps, stopping a moment to speak to a pretty, curly-headed mite at one of the cottage gates. Then the mother, a bloated slattern, came out, and Lester in a white heat of fury, saw her snatch the key away.

The coarse gibe accompanying the action was inaudible, but Edith's shrinking, as though from a blow, the haughty pose of her head as she walked on, told the whole story. That a villager should dare to be rude to the woman who owned the manor of Arncliffe was an amazing thing. What deadly venom was it that some one was instilling into the public mind? And what object was served thereby?

This incident did not tend to improve matters for Hobson. Lester was already burning to avenge Edith's wrongs, and it boded ill for anyone who might offer the least whipping-block.

In the management of his own business, the detective acted judiciously. He allowed another ten minutes to elapse before sauntering over to the postoffice with an ostentatious letter in his hand. This he dropped into the box, and then again developed that remarkable interest in the commonplace contents of the shop window. But Lester saw his hands busy near the slot again. Ultimately Hobson sauntered off, and Lester, jamming on a hasty hat, followed, his jaw set grimly.

Inspector Hobson made his way toward the outskirts of the village, evidently in search of solitude. Slowly as he was walking, he moderated his pace at the sound of Lester's decided footsteps. The detective's quick ear noted that there was not the slouching step of a peasant in hobbles—nor even the step of a man in a hurry. It was the step of a man with a purpose, and whether that purpose was connected with himself or not, the detective saw that his best policy was an assumption of indifference.

So, when Lester was near, he looked round as a man naturally would, hearing so resolute a pursuit at his heels. "Ah, Dr. Lester," he said, with a smile in which friendliness and respect were judiciously blended, "why have you not your fishing-tackle with you on this fine day?"

"I may yet make a cast or two," answered Lester, quietly. "At present I want to have a little chat with you." "Lucky I thought of strolling into the village, sir," was Hobson's reply, delivered in apparent sincerity. "I hadn't much to do, and, to a man like me, stuck in London nearly all the year, it is a real pleasure to rove amongst the buttercups and daisies for a time."

"It is very gratifying that an official who is brought so much in contact with the seamy side of life should retain a taste for such things." Lester's tone was dry, and the detective had some misgivings as to whether his companion was to put it colloquially, "getting at him." Under the circumstances, he thought it wiser to change the subject.

"Have you learnt anything fresh, sir?" he inquired. "Things have come a bit of a standstill, and I should be glad to break a little new ground." "As a matter of fact," replied Lester, "that is the very reason I wanted to consult you. I have made a very important discovery, indeed."

"I am glad to hear it, sir. May I ask what the news is? It's a good thing we are alone here. We can chat without the fear of prying ears." "I quite agree with you," said Lester. "It is an excellent thing that we are alone. But you will, perhaps, be disappointed to hear that my discovery has nothing to do with the death of Lord Arncliffe."

"No, sir?" the query was put a little uneasily.

"No, Mr. Hobson. What I have found out is a very ingenious method of robbing his majesty's mails."

Hobson saw instantly that his manipulation of the letterbox had not passed unnoticed. Nevertheless, he determined not to lose the fruits of his industry without a struggle. "Indeed, sir," he said coolly, "I am afraid that won't help our case along very much. Still, the postal authorities are always very glad to hear about any new dodge of that sort."

"Oh, I do not think there will be any necessity to approach the postoffice over this matter. Just hand me over Miss Holt's letter, and as I wish that lady to spend an annoyance as far as possible, we will say no more about it."

"Miss Holt's letter?" exclaimed the other, assuming an expression of wonder. "I don't—"

"Don't waste your fingers on me, man. If you please," said Lester, sharply. "I watched the whole business from my window, from the time you fixed up your contrivance in the mailbox to your vent back and fetched lady to spend an annoyance as far as possible, we will say no more about it."

Hobson, finding himself cornered, tried bluster. "Look here," he began in the pompous tone of the policeman, "you must not interfere with me in the execution of my duty! I have authority for all I do, and it is a serious matter to attempt to defraud the ends of justice."

"Don't talk nonsense," said Lester, contemptuously. "You have no authority to rob letterboxes. You know as well as I do that it is an offence which might send you to penal servitude. However, I am not going to argue the point with you. Give me that letter, please!"

The detective tried another tack. "It's all very well, sir, for you to accuse me of taking letters from the box, but I am not to be bluffed by you or anyone else. You may accuse me, your accusation will take a lot of proving."

Lester laughed at a laugh that had in it a quality which caused his companion to eye him alertly. In the course of a long experience of hard men he had never heard that kind of laugh without somebody receiving bodily injury in the near future.

"It will not take any proving," said Lester, curtly. "I am a bigger man than you, Hobson, and a younger man, and a stronger man. If you do not give me that letter this instant I shall remove it from your coat by the use of as much force as may be necessary."

Inspector Hobson looked up and down the road with a glance of bitter annoyance. It was a white ribbon of sunlight emptiness. There was no mistaking that the young doctor meant each word he said, and though the detective was brave enough in the discharge of his duty, he saw himself at a disadvantage in every respect. Physically he was no match for Lester, and in any case, he knew very well that his tampering with the mails was indefensible. Scotland Yard is not too scrupulous in its methods of obtaining information, but an officer who is discovered in any sharp practice finds himself in the same unfortunate position as the secret-service agent who is caught with the plans of a fortification in his pocket. He is disowned with virtuous pity by the country which employed him. The detective therefore surrendered at discretion and handed over Edith's letter with as good a grace as possible.

"Here you are, sir," he said. "You must have your own way because I am in the wrong; but let me tell you, you are making a very great mistake. If the young lady is innocent, it can't do her any harm—"

"No harm," interrupted Lester, indignantly. "To have her private correspondence tampered with?" "Bless you, sir!" was the cheerfully brazen answer. "If it is just harmless correspondence, I should not remember a word of it five minutes after I had read it. I have enough to keep in mind without bothering myself with other people's private affairs. But one thing is certain. There is a man in this case. And when we get hold of that man we shall be on the right track."

The year 1907 surpassed all previous years in the output of cars and locomotives.

UPSET IN A SQUALL

Young Man and Woman Drowned and Their Sister Rescued.

Halifax, July 16.—While sailing on Bedford Basin late this afternoon Una Roy, aged seventeen, and William Muir, aged sixteen, were drowned, and Margaret Muir, aged twelve, a sister of the last named victim, was rescued, after being half an hour in the water. When the party left Bedford at four o'clock the weather was fine and the water calm but suddenly a terrible thunderstorm set in, and before the party could make the shore a heavy squall swept down from the north, and capsized the boat. The three occupants were hurled into the water about a quarter of a mile from the shore. As the craft began to fill and settle down in the water, Muir seized the two boys, passing one to his little sister and the other to Miss Roy. The latter, however, soon sank, and Muir, exhausted from his efforts to keep the two girls afloat, also went down. Little Margaret, however, clung to the raft, and her screams for help attracted the attention of a man named Wilkes, who was on the shore, and, procuring a boat, he rescued the little girl.

The victims are members of prominent Halifax families, summing at Bedford. Miss Roy is a daughter of Mr. J. E. Roy, and William Muir a son of Mr. Andrew Muir.

A FLEET OF AIRSHIPS

United States Government's Unique Plan for Coast Defence.

New York, July 16.—A dispatch to the Herald from Washington says: According to plans being discussed by the Signal Corps office and the Board of Ordnance of the army one million dollars will be asked of the next Congress for fleets of dirigible airships similar to that of Count Zeppelin for coast defence. Rapid progress in aeronautics among foreign nations makes it imperative, they believe, that the United States should begin plans for aerial fleets. Should Congress make this appropriation and some signal officers urge the necessity of asking Congress for an appropriation of $10,000,000 in order to keep up with foreign countries in military aeronautics, stations in the Atlantic will probably be established at Boston, New York, some point on the New Jersey coast, Norfolk, Charleston and Mobile. On the Pacific coast stations will be established at Bremerton, San Francisco and San Diego. Men will be trained in a special aeronautic branch of the Signal Corps in the handling of the airships and explosives to be dropped overboard on land forces or the enemy's battle-ships and war craft.

Prompt Action Necessary—Now!

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

The public meeting to be called on Friday to consider the city water supply I trust will result in some prompt action. There has been a great difference of opinion as to the merits of the different methods recommended. There need be no difference of opinion as to the alarming condition our city is in for lack of anything approaching an adequate fire protection. Providence has been kind to us for a long time.

I repeat we are in an alarming position, our city is liable to be burned down—all the leading fire insurance companies are liable to cancel every insurance policy, practically without notice. The managers of these companies are able men. If they take action it will be untied, they are organized for this purpose. Why should this not be anticipated or, at least, feared? We have it on the authority of Mr. Moore, waterworks engineer, that there is no supply of water for fire protection—it requires the full capacity of the pipes for day consumption. The pressure largely disappears in the middle of the day.

Should "the unexpected" (if you choose to call it so) happen, and the insurance protection be withdrawn, what would be the result? The capital of our merchants and manufacturers is largely in their stocks, unprotected from loss by fire; the bank loans on the strength of these assets; unprotected by insurance, the merchants' credit is gone—his commercial standing likely to be wrecked. The real estate owner could not borrow on his buildings.

What is the relief from this alarming condition? The duplicate high-pressure system recommended at an estimated cost of $250,000 for fire protection for railroads, factories, etc., taking the water from below the Forks, clearing clear of litigation and complications with the mills.

I think this system should be conceived to be the most practical and the most economical. It looks, aside from the fire protection which it would be looked on as overshadowing all other interests) that the city would derive a revenue from the earnings of this plant to make it practically self-sustaining. The revenue from the railroads should almost be enough to pay the interest on the outlay. There should be a comparatively large revenue from present water hoists, and numerous others which would be introduced, aside from the large consumption by factories, street watering, etc.

With this relief there would be plenty of water for domestic purposes for many years to come, gradually introducing metres under this system, there would be ample water for a population of more than 100,000. The next generation may be wiser than we are; plenty of water may be found under the city. A population of two or three times the present would be more competent to undertake a larger outlay than we are. We may leave this to the next or future generation. What we want is prompt action—we want it now. Yours respectfully,

JOHN MCCLARY.

Another View of the Case.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

Dear Sir,—To the ordinary taxpayer it is somewhat surprising how studiously the water commissioners avoid the cheapest and best proposition yet made to supply the city with water. I refer to the Titus scheme. Mr. Titus offered to supply the city with 1,500,000 gallons of water per day for the sum of $40,000 per year for a term of five years. According to Mr. W. E. Saunders, this quantity of water will produce a revenue of $20,000 a year, or nearly enough to pay Mr. Titus for the

The Prohibitionists in Convention Score President Roosevelt's Daughter.

Columbus, Ohio, July 16.—For president, Eugene W. Chafin, of Chicago; for vice-president, Aaron S. Watkins, of Ada, Ohio.

This ticket was nominated today by the prohibitionists' national convention, and both nominations were made unanimously. The full endorsement of the convention was not, however, given to Mr. Chafin until after three ballots had been taken.

On the first two ballots Mr. Chafin did not show a great amount of strength, receiving but 195 out of 1,083 votes on the first, 376 out of 1,087 on the second ballot. His nomination was assured, however, when the roll call began for the third ballot. His own state, which had voted largely for Daniel R. Sheehan, and the New York delegation, which voted for A. L. Manier, followed by those of Indiana and Wisconsin, came over to Mr. Chafin, and on the third ballot he received a total of 636 votes.

It was then decided to take Mr. Palmer, the vice-presidential nominee, and he was named by acclamation. He declined to accept the office.

Professor Watkins was then made the unanimous choice of the convention. Both the presidential and vice-presidential nominees are candidates for governors in their respective states on the prohibition ticket.

Eugene W. Chafin, who leads the prohibition party this year, is an attorney. He is a native of Waukegan County, Wisconsin.

Some very uncomplimentary things about Mrs. Alice Roosevelt-Longworth, daughter of the President, were said last night at a meeting of the Kentucky delegation to the convention, after which the delegation laid on the table a resolution to endorse the action of three members of the delegation in inviting Mrs. Longworth to attend the national convention as the guest of the Kentucky delegation.

In the course of a spirited debate, it was charged that Mrs. Longworth has been known to use the cigarette, and that she has attended the Kentucky horse races. It was declared that she is not the type of woman that should be invited to a prohibition convention.

Mrs. Frances E. Beauchamp, of Lexington, Ky., the only woman member of the national committee, said that Mrs. Longworth does not stand for the best in womanhood and those things which Kentucky women especially hold dear.

The self-appointed committee which invited Mrs. Longworth was composed of H. W. Davis, of Louisville; Col. T. P. Demaree, of Wilmore, and H. S. D. Wright, of Louisville, and it was Mr. Demaree who moved that the invitation be made that Mrs. Longworth should attend the convention as the guest of the Kentucky delegation. Others speaking of the motion declared the remarks about Mrs. Longworth were an affront to the president. Some declared that if Mrs. Longworth is not as good a woman as she ought to be she should be invited in the hope of reforming her.

The invitation now stands, as the result of the delegation's action, merely as the invitation of the three delegates named, and if Mrs. Longworth attends the convention she will be the guest of the three members who energetically defended her.

MISSIONS CONFERENCE

Missionaries, Foreign and Home, Address the St. Thomas School.

St. Thomas, July 16.—The last day's session but one was held on Wednesday at Alma College, and proved not only a day of interest and inspiration but also a day of great service. The Rev. J. J. McCormick, B. A., of Malien, conducted the devotional exercises, and the "Life Talk" was given by Rev. Mr. Hollinrake.

At the close of this address Miss Munro gave a very unique address on "Mission Work in Our Own Country," dealing especially with the work among the foreign people, who are coming to us in such vast numbers. People of every nation almost literally, The Bible is being opened today in more different languages in Winnipeg than any other city in the world, except Johannesburg. It is asked for in 76 different languages in our "Gateway to the West." Miss Munro told in a very interesting way of the opening up of mission work by the Woman's Missionary Society among the Gallatians in the Northwest.

Dr. Barber followed with his second address on missionary work among our colleges. He read extracts from several presidents of our colleges giving much valuable information about the missionary societies, study classes and the number of volunteers and missionaries from our colleges. He also told of the important work they are doing.

Rev. W. W. Prudden followed with another of his bright addresses on "The Land of the Rising Sun." He told in graphic pictures of how he faced his work in Japan, and gave us an idea of the things a missionary in Japan has to do.

The afternoon was, as usual, given over to recreation and a lively tennis tournament was played out.

At 7 o'clock Dr. Elliott, of Winnipeg, gave another of his most helpful Bible readings.

The platform meeting at 8 o'clock was opened by a duet in the native language by Rev. and Mrs. Byers, of India. After which Mr. Byers gave an inspiring address on the work in India, giving an account of the great revival that swept over that country a few years ago.

The closing meeting of the school will be held this (Thursday) evening, when Dr. Elliott will give the closing address on "Life's Ideals."

The afternoon was, as usual, given over to recreation and a lively tennis tournament was played out.

At 7 o'clock Dr. Elliott, of Winnipeg, gave another of his most helpful Bible readings.

The platform meeting at 8 o'clock was opened by a duet in the native language by Rev. and Mrs. Byers, of India. After which Mr. Byers gave an inspiring address on the work in India, giving an account of the great revival that swept over that country a few years ago.

The closing meeting of the school will be held this (Thursday) evening, when Dr. Elliott will give the closing address on "Life's Ideals."

At the close of this address Miss Munro gave a very unique address on "Mission Work in Our Own Country," dealing especially with the work among the foreign people, who are coming to us in such vast numbers. People of every nation almost literally, The Bible is being opened today in more different languages in Winnipeg than any other city in the world, except Johannesburg. It is asked for in 76 different languages in our "Gateway to the West." Miss Munro told in a very interesting way of the opening up of mission work by the Woman's Missionary Society among the Gallatians in the Northwest.

Dr. Barber followed with his second address on missionary work among our colleges. He read extracts from several presidents of our colleges giving much valuable information about the missionary societies, study classes and the number of volunteers and missionaries from our colleges. He also told of the important work they are doing.

Rev. W. W. Prudden followed with another of his bright addresses on "The Land of the Rising Sun." He told in graphic pictures of how he faced his work in Japan, and gave us an idea of the things a missionary in Japan has to do.

BIG FIGHTS ON LABOR DAY

New York, July 17.—Judging by the way the different managers of fight clubs all over the country are hustling to arrange a show for Labor Day, it is expected that there will be more important battles pulled off on that day than on any holiday in many years. So far two championship fights have been billed. Albe Attoll and Owen Moran will battle for the featherweight title at Colma, Cal., while Battling Nelson and Joe Gans will engage in a finish contest for the lightweight championship and a $30,000 purse at Ely, Nev. Besides these two great fights there will be others brought off at Milwaukee, Philadelphia, Boston, Denver, Baltimore, Salt Lake City, Ogden, Utah, and at the local fight clubs.

On City Diamonds

A baseball game that promises to be a battle royale is set down for Perrin's picnic to Port Stanley tomorrow when the Candymakers meet the Shippers for a box of choice cigars. The game will be called either at 11 a.m. or 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

The rivals for the rag weeds will line up as follows:
Shippers—Seltzer, 3b; Woods, c; Gill, ss; Summers, p; Chantler, l.f.; Taylor, 1b; Beech, c; McNell, 2b; Knott, r.f.
Candymakers—Campbell, c; Clarke, p; Saunders, 1b; Gregory, 2b; Murray, s.s.; Henderson, 3b; McCormick, l.f.; Crow, c.f.; Campbell, r.f.

THE TALENT WAS HARD HIT

Wilkes, Hot Favorite in 2:15 Race, Goes Lame and Withdraws.

Yesterday was the red letter day of the London races—as far as attendance went. The races were not quite as good as on the previous days, and some of the driving was, to say the least, most peculiar looking. As a result Jack Rombough was assessed $10 and Driver Barrett half that amount, while King Bryson, after coming in first in the fourth heat of the 2:20 trot, was set back two places for bad driving on the back stretch.

This was a hard blow to the talent who had got down heavy on the strength of a change in drivers on King Bryson.

The running race also had a very peculiar look, the best horse, Gold Bars, apparently not being allowed to run in the first heat, which was won by Anyway, an even money shot. In the second and third heats Gold Bars won as he pleased.

But three of the four races down on the card were finished, the 2:17 pace going over until today, after four heats had been run off.

J. B. Wilkes was a red hot favorite for the 2:15 pace, but after taking the first two heats in neat fashion, went lame and was withdrawn.

A Dark Horse.

Milham, a Michigan entry, proved the dark horse in the 2:20 trot, in which Ella Nevada and King Bryson opened favorites at 2 to 5 and 3 to 5. Milham was pocketed in the first heat, but after that came in strong at the finish each time, and won the last three heats.

Reuben was a favorite all the way in the 2:17 pace, the first two heats of which went to Otto K., and the last two to Reuben in drives. The fourth heat of this race was started in order to get them away before 7 o'clock, the hour set for closing races on the Canadian circuit. Judge saved the word the first time away, despite the fact that but two of the five starters were up, the other three being several lengths behind. It was a very bad start, but under the circumstances was no doubt excusable.

Ends Today.

Today is the last day of the meeting, the events besides the final heat of the 2:17 pace, include the free-for-all, the 2:22 pace and a 1/4 mile repeat.

The entries for the free-for-all are, perhaps, the best of any similar event ever run off in London, and the day's events should prove the best of the four days' racing.

The books yesterday made a big haul, especially in the running race in which there were no long shots, and no place money offered until just before the horses went to the post in the second heat.

Benefit Game for the Professionals

Three thirty p. m. is the hour set for tomorrow's benefit baseball game at Tecumseh Park, and unless everybody goes broke at the races there should be a nice crowd on hand to give the ballplayers a send-off. Bird and Keenan leave in a couple of days for Copper Cliff where they finish the season along with Maxey and Cy Parkins, who write that they are taking well up in that district, and that they will be in town, and if it is possible for them to win, Jimmy will find the way.

Tom Longboat Hurt While Training

London, July 16.—A wire was received here today from Tom Flanagan that Longboat had while training, collided with a butcher's cart, and had so injured himself that all training had been abandoned for the present.

BINGHAM ADMITS BETTING GOES ON

Appears Before Grand Jury to Tell About the Alleged Laxity of Police.

New York, July 17.—Complying with a request made by acting District Attorney Elder, of Brooklyn, Police Commissioner Baker, in charge of the Brooklyn police, and Sheriff Hobbey, of Kings County, appeared before the Kings County grand jury today to testify about the charge that the police have been negligent in enforcing the anti-betting law at the race tracks.

District Attorney Elder said emphatically that subpoenas had not been issued to compel the presence of the men.

Refused Invitations.
John G. Cavanagh, master of the betting rings, and Chris Fitzgerald, president of the Brighton Beach Racing Association, also received "invitations," but they failed to heed them.

On leaving the jury room at the end of an hour, Commissioner Bingham gave an interview, in which he frankly admitted that betting goes on at the race tracks, but that the police would not make arrests unless bets were recorded. He explained that the police are guided in their action by the advice of the corporation counsel, and the decision of Justice Bishoff, and that so long as oral wagers are made and not recorded, no arrests will be made.

No Crime to Bet.
"It is no crime for me to say, 'I bet you $10 on such and such a horse,' and then hand you the money," said the commissioner. "Unless you record the bet, no crime has been committed," he added.

Wm. Dubois, chief of the clubhouse commissioners, was arrested at Brighton Beach track today. This is the most important arrest made so far in the anti-betting campaign. It is alleged he accepted a bet from Frank Taylor, the man who trains Dubois' horses. Dubois is the bondsman for nearly all of the bookmakers who are under indictment.

Be a Great Runner.
I trained Billy Sherring, the greatest runner in the world. My price for information is 50 cents.

The home for many years of the poet Cowper at Olney, Bucks, has just undergone a thorough renovation, conducted on reverent lines, at the request of the trustees in whom it is vested as a museum.

Representative Frank Orren Lowden, of Illinois, was admitted to the bar when only 26 years old, and for some time was a professor at the Northwestern University and president of the Law Club of Chicago.

Subscription List.
If the cup goes west, and Tecumseh stay on top in the N. L. U. series a subscription list will be started in Toronto, and the Islanders will try to raise about $1,000 to start them on the cup hunt. The trip last year cost $2,350.

Charlie doesn't prophesy yet—not until after next Saturday.
"The game with Cape looks to be the hardest before us now. Last year we beat them at Ottawa, and they came back at us on our own grounds and walloped us," he said.

FOOTBALL.
Tavistock, July 16.—In the final game for the junior championship of the Western Football Association, Tavistock defeated Owen Sound by three goals to one. The game was a brilliant exhibition and was not won until the whistle blew for full time.

Tavistock scored the first goal on a brilliant piece of combination, the whole forward line playing the ball, Walcker, centre, scoring by a hard shot. Owen Sound soon evened up matters by a beautiful shot from left wing. In a few minutes, Tavistock again scored, Kaufman taking a pass from the right wing and scoring a very neat goal.

QUOTTING, BOXING, FOOTBALL, GOLF, CRICKET

Australia, was second, and Schoff, of Austria, third. Taylor's time was 5 minutes and 36 1/5 seconds.

In the Clay Bird Shooting Association's handicap yesterday, Beatty, of the Canadian team, scored 29 out of a possible 30. For the Dewar shield, the Ending Club made 45 out of a possible 60; Parker, of Toronto, made 44, Ewing scoring 9 out of a possible 10.

In the gymnastic competition Keith, of Canada, was 59th, with 170 points, and Elliott, of Canada, 80th with 132 1/2 points. Braglia was first with 317 points. Ninety-six competitors were mentioned.

London, July 16.—The United Kingdom and the United States are running a neck-and-neck race for supremacy at the Olympiad. The United Kingdom started today with four first places to America's two, but the latter picked up in the earlier events and won all three prizes in discus throwing and first and third prizes in the weight throwing. Horgan, of the United Kingdom, took second place in the last event.

This evening the score of the two countries, but England got another lead when Taylor made his sensational win in the 400 metre swimming contest, beating Jeunepeire, the Australian crack, by a handsome margin. Schoff, of Austria, of whom great things had been expected, was third in this event.

The rain of the morning continued throughout the afternoon and everybody was drenched. The inclement weather kept away spectators and the attendance was meagre.

HORSE BIG CHIEF SELLS FOR $12,000

New York, July 16.—Tom Williams, the San Francisco turf man, owns Big Chief now. He bought the good, consistent colt from the Newcastle stable for $12,000, with a view to selling down the coast this winter. The stakes out there this year will be bigger than ever, the idea of the associations being to attract the big stables from the east.

It is possible that in Big Chief Williams sees the next winner of the Bruns Handicap, which, by the way, according to present plans, will be worth $20,000, instead of $10,000, as heretofore.

Big Chief's record up to date this season has been good. He has started just thirteen times up to Saturday last, has won seven times, been second three times, third once, and out of the money only twice.

Andrews Qualified.
In the second heat of the 100 kilometres cycle race the following men qualified: Meredith, Bartlett, Pett and Cadenny, of the United Kingdom; Westerberg, of Sweden; Leprize, of France; Andrews, of Canada; Godelberg, of Belgium. J. C. Weitz, of the New York A. C., fell when he had 89 laps to go. He collided with Meredith and Noon, of England. Noon was severely shaken, and Weitz had to retire, but Meredith remounted, and finally came in first.

The eighth heat of the 1,000 metre cycling race was won by C. G. Cameron, Irish-American A. C. Cameron's time in the 1,000 metres cycle was 1 minute 22 1/2 seconds, the best time made so far. He qualified for the second round.

The first heat of the ten-mile walk was won by Webb, with Carter second. Spence, of England, and E. E. Lerner fourth. All three represented the United Kingdom. Time, 1 hour, 20 minutes and 18 1/5 seconds. Carter, United Kingdom, second, and Spence, of Canada, third; Goulding, of Canada, unplaced.

In the second heat of the ten-mile walk G. E. Lerner, Harrison and Palmer, of England, and Kerr, Australia, all qualified for the final. The time of the winner was 1 hour, 18 minutes and 19 seconds.

London, July 16.—The final in the putting the weight contest was won by Ralph Rose, Olympic Club, of San Francisco; Horgan, United Kingdom, was second; J. C. Garrels, Chicago, A. A., was third.

Rose's distance was 46 feet 4 1/4 inches. This does not equal the Olympic record for this event, 48 feet 7 inches, made by Rose in St. Louis in 1904.

In the final of the 400 metres swimming race, United Kingdom won. Beaurepaire, and only the three best in all sections qualified for the final.

Sections 7 and 8 were grouped, with representatives of the United Kingdom, Norway, Germany, Greece, Finland, United States and Sweden competing. Sheridan, American, won, covering 133 feet 1 1/4 inches. In the final of the discus, throw Sheridan, the Australian crack, and Griffitt 132 feet 4 1/2 inches.

In the putting the weight contest, sections 1 and 2 were grouped. W. W. Coe, Jun. Boston Athletic Association, was first, with 42 feet 10 1/2 inches. Skull, of Finland, was second, with 41 feet 3 1/2 inches, and Lee J. Talbot, Irish-American A. C., was third, with 38 feet 2 inches.

Sections 3 and 4 in putting the weight also were grouped. J. C. Garrels, Chicago A. A., was first

PRODUCE MARKET.

Toronto, July 17.—Stocks of old Ontario wheat have been pretty well cleaned up, both in dealers and in farmers' hands. The domestic demand is practically dead, and whatever wheat is offered has to go to export. Millers are as rule loaded up with high-priced Manitoba wheat, and so do not feel like buying any more. They have large stocks of flour on hand, which they have difficulty in disposing of. During the winter they grained up a great deal of wheat, chiefly for the sake of the bran and shorts, which brought them nearly as high a price as the wheat, and now they still have the flour on their hands. Stocks of old barley are also very low, as a great deal has been sent out of the country. Local dealers' quotations are:

Wheat—Ontario No. 2 white, red or mixed, 12c to 13c; Manitoba No. 1 northern, 11 1/2c; No. 2 northern, 11c; No. 3 northern, 10 1/2c.

HAD THE MONEY BUT WOULDN'T PAY

St. Marys Man in a Mix-Up With Conductor and Lands in Court.

William Rolston, a contractor from St. Marys, was fined $10 and costs amounting to 50 cents by Magistrate Love this morning on a charge of trespassing on the G. T. R. Mr. Rolston, it seems, was out enjoying himself yesterday and got prettily drunk. He boarded the train at St. Marys for London, and when Conductor Richardson wanted his ticket, he refused to produce it. It was discovered that he had none, and the conductor asked him to pay his fare. Rolston hauled out a pad of bills, and said he had the money, but he wasn't going to pay any fare. He also hauled out his coat and wanted to play the conductor on the spot. When the train arrived in London Rolston was promptly arrested. In court this morning he pleaded guilty. The Grand Trunk report that they have had a lot of trouble of this kind lately, and Magistrate Love decided to make an example of Rolston. Six bicycle riders were fined $1 each for riding on the sidewalk.

POTTERSBURO PICNIC

Outing of Methodists at Springbank Was Most Enjoyable.

The Sunday school and congregation of the newly-organized Methodist Church of Pottersburg turned out in full force to their first annual picnic at Springbank yesterday. A special car carried the merry party to the river park shortly after noon, where they took full possession.

The first event of the afternoon was the baseball match between chosen sides. After a close contest, in which some rare exhibitions of the favorite game were seen, the score stood 30 to 21, in favor of the winning team.

After the company did justice to the abundance of good things which the ladies provided, a programme of sports was run off, in which the winners were:

Little tot's race (girls)—1 Ella Larson, 2 Irene Hazlewood, 3 Ethel DeLaney.

Little boys' race—1 Tommy Lang, 2 Hughie McCallum, 3 Charlie Hazlewood.

Girls' race—1 Emma Thompson, 2 Grace Lashbrook, 3 Lottie Thornton.

Boys' race—1 Harold Rutledge, 2 Tommy Lashbrook and Charlie Duffin.

Young ladies' race—1 Miss Hicks, 2 Miss Rankin.

Young men's race—1 Mr. Sherring, 2 Mr. Dorman.

Married ladies' race—1 Mrs. DeLaney, 2 Mrs. Kraul, Time, 14 seconds.

Married men's race—1 Mr. Hazlewood, 2 Mr. Lashbrook, Time, 20 minutes.

Obstacle race—1 Miss Rankin and Mr. Dorman, 2 Mrs. DeLaney and Mr. Lashbrook.

Fast ladies' race—1 Mrs. White, 2 Mrs. Hazlewood, 3 Mrs. Revely.

If this new cause is as successful in all its work as in its first picnic it has a bright future in store.

A COMBINED PICNIC

Outing of Congregational Boys' Guild and Mission Bands.

A score of bright-faced, happy-hearted boys and girls spent a delightful afternoon at Metchos Mills yesterday. They were members of the Boys' Guild and Senior Mission Band of the First Congregational Church and were accompanied by the pastor of the church, Rev. D. S. Hamilton, and Miss Edith Tappan, one of the superintendents of the mission band. Mr. F. W. Robins joined the company later and aided in entertaining the young people.

Games of various kinds, but chiefly baseball, furnished the chief amusement, and many of the girls revealed great skill at the bat, not to mention the expert playing of the boys.

Much-relished refreshments were served, and all returned home delighted with the outing, and inquiring when the next combined picnic would be held.

The boys have been holding a series of outings to various points in the vicinity of the city, but this was the first time they invited their sisters to accompany them, and the experiment was quite a success. Master Bert Trossen, of Winnipeg, was a guest of the Boys' Guild.

BACK TO SIMPLE LIFE FOR MRS. HETTY GREEN

World's Richest Woman Found "So-ciety" Much Too Expensive.

New York, July 17.—The world says Mrs. Hetty Green was found yesterday in a boarding-house at No. 673 Madison avenue, living with her daughter Sylvia and her pet dog Dewey, in two very ordinary rooms. Her newly-made friends in fashionable circles thought that she would go to Newport for the summer after her surprising debut in the Hotel Plaza, and that she has returned to a life almost as simple as that in the red brick Hoboken flat, where she lived last spring. But the woman financier is sorely disgusted with high society as she experienced it at the Hotel Plaza, and she has returned to a life almost as simple as that in the red brick Hoboken flat, where she lived last spring. ESTEEMED PASTOR'S SILVER JUBILEE

Rev. D. P. McMenamin Honored by His Appreciative Parishioners.

On Sunday, the 12th inst., the appreciative parishioners of Biddulph, celebrated the silver jubilee of their worthy pastor, Rev. Fr. McMenamin. At 10:30 o'clock the church was crowded to its capacity, and with the joyful peal of the organ the happy jubilarian assisted by J. T. Brennan and W. S. Benn, and the sanctuary choir, proceeded to the main altar, which was richly decorated with brilliant lights and sweetly-scented flowers, to offer up the sacrifice of the mass.

During the mass, which was rendered appropriate music, solos being sung by Miss Lena and Mr. T. Morlin, Miss M. J. Martin, Mr. A. Crumlin, Miss A. and Mr. J. Dewan, and Miss Christina Brennan. A very touching and instructive sermon was preached by the reverend pastor himself, who took for his text, "Thou art a priest forever, according to the order of Melchisedek." At the introduction of his sermon he briefly outlined the principal events of his priestly career during the past 25 years, after which he discoursed in eloquent terms upon the great dignity of the priesthood.

At the end of mass, Mr. Z. McElhargy, assisted by Mr. Ed. McLaughlin and Mr. A. Lamphie, on behalf of the parish, read a kindly-worded address, accompanied by the presentation of a well-filled purse. The address was read on behalf of the parish by Zachariah McElhargy, Anthony Lamphie, Edward McLaughlin and James J. Duvan.

Immediately afterward Dr. T. D. Orme, Mr. J. Fox and Mr. J. J. Hodgins, on behalf of the members of the Protestant Union, presented Father McMenamin with a beautifully mounted sterling silver service, accompanied by a fitting address, which was signed on behalf of the donors by G. A. Stanley, J. E. Schmidt, H. A. McEwen, T. D. Orme, M. D., John Fox, J. J. Hodgins and C. Haskett.

Rev. D. P. McMenamin, in reply to both addresses, heartily thanked his own parishioners and his Protestant friends for the honor and kindness conferred on him, hoping that their friendly relations would ever exist, and that he was happy to be living in a community that upheld the golden rule of the Divine Master, "Ye love one another, as I have loved you."

On the following day several priests of the diocese of London, among whom were Rev. Father T. Brennan, Rev. P. Corcoran, Rev. T. West, Rev. J. Noyes, Rev. D. McEwen and Rev. J. Hanlon, assembled at the residence of Father D. P. McMenamin to offer him their sincerest congratulations. After a sumptuous dinner, Rev. Father Hanlon, on behalf of his brother priests, presented him with a beautiful golden chalice, and an ad-

THE POWER UNION MEETS AT GUELPH

Condemns Hamilton for Proposing to Sign a Cataract Contract.

Guelph, July 16.—The situation regarding Niagara power at Hamilton and the attitude of the council of that city towards the power proposition is responsible for a meeting of the Western Municipalities Power Union being held here today, at which many of the municipalities in the union are represented. On the Hamilton situation the gathering might as well be termed a question meeting. The representatives present are all very much opposed to the line of action being taken by the council of that city regarding Niagara power. The chairman of the union, in summing up the situation, stated that Hamilton had been using the other municipalities and the union all as a lever to get a god contract from the Cataract Company, and that the union would do something to prevent Hamilton from coming in later and getting power at the figures now proposed after the other places had paid the most of the cost.

EXCITING MOMENTS. AT OLD QUEBEC

During a Pageant Rehearsal a Bull Got Loose and Horse Ran Away.

Quebec, July 16.—The city is now wearing a decidedly festive appearance in anticipation of the approaching festival and the various preparations are fast nearing completion. The many arches throughout the city are being given their finishing touches, while the civic authorities have a great army of men employed in making even the narrow streets as tidy and neat-looking as possible.

Field Marshal Lord Roberts is expected in the city this evening, being a passenger on board the Empress of Ireland which is due in port at seven o'clock. His presence will unquestionably add very materially to the coming festivities. It is expected that the two French warships, Leon Gambetta and Admiral Aubin, which are to represent the French Republic during the celebration will arrive in port on Friday morning next.

Pageant Bull Broke Away.

His excellency Earl Grey attended the rehearsal of the pageants on the Plains of Abraham last evening, when the Henry IV. and St. Lussan scenes were put through very effectively. During the performance there were two incidents which caused momentary excitement, but fortunately were attended by no mishap. The bull which had been yoked to the ox-cart became unmanageable and crashed through the railings, but was recaptured and reharneled in a manner to insure his not repeating such a performance. Shortly afterwards the courtiers in France were imperilled by a runaway horse which dashed about, but was fortunately overtaken without having caused further damage than wrecking the caleche to which he was attached. Tonight there will be the first dress rehearsal of the pageants and no doubt the gorgeous costumes will add much to the scenic effect. The "Great White City" will, it is expected, be in a position to accommodate guests in the morning and will most likely be in full swing by Sunday or Monday.

dress expressive of their deep esteem and best wishes.

One happy feature of the occasion with the presence of the parents of Rev. Father McMenamin, who came from Montreal to assist at their son's jubilee.

In the evening St. Patrick's choir met at the pastor's residence, and presented him with a beautiful address and silver set, in testimony of their kindly wishes and congratulations, to which Father McMenamin replied with feelings of pride and gratitude.

Among the many presents received were conspicuous a rich stole from the Sacred Heart Convent, London; a beautiful lace alb, from Mount St. Joseph's convent, London; an Irish lace surplice, from friends in Ireland; besides several costly pieces of silverware from friends in Montreal, Detroit and Cleveland. The event in every way proved to be a very happy feast and one to be long remembered.

THE HARTRIDGE MYSTERY

Missing Wealthy Lawyer's Wife Spent the Winter at Pittsburgh.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 17.—That Mrs. Clifford W. Hartridge, who disappeared from her New York home last fall, was in Pittsburgh from Oct. 4 until her death Monday, became known last night. During all of that time she lived in seclusion and surrounded by an air of mystery, but provided with all the comforts and conveniences which money could bring in a hotel.

Mrs. Hartridge stopped at the Hotel Griswold, where she was known as Mrs. Jessie Rogers.

The woman had but little baggage when she arrived, but through purchases made for her by maids at the hotel, by whom she was greatly beloved, she soon secured a liberal wardrobe of house gowns, but did not add anything to her outfit of street-gowns.

She left the hotel during the nine months she was a guest there three times, visiting stores to make some small purchases. She was in ill-health when she came here, Dr. E. J. Truett treated her until about July 4, when he left the city for a vacation. Dr. Z. T. Miller, a prominent physician, was then called, and insisted that she be taken to a hospital. A message was sent to Mrs. Hartridge's mother at Canton, N. Y., and the latter came and personally attended her daughter to the end.

Mrs. Hartridge was plentifully supplied with money, the remittances amounting, it is said, to about $1500 a month. The hotel bills averaged $400 a month, and these and all other bills were promptly paid, while all who attended the woman were liberally rewarded. Secrecy was the one thing imposed upon all.
