VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

ANSWERS MR. TITE.

To the Editor of The Advertiser: We have just read the article by Mr. Tite in the issue of June 19th, in which he claims to have sent to the attorney-general, and reading of the letter will show that it is a very badly worded and untrue statement. The recent strike at the C. P. R. has been settled, and the railway is now running as usual.

The Builders' Exchange has already refused to consider the matter. The men are at present receiving 55 cents an hour and want 70 cents. FLOWER SUNDAYS MARKED BY THREE SPECIAL SERVICES

Canaries and Hanging Baskets in First Methodist—Music Is Feature.

Multitudes of white daisies, woven in green and white columns and canopies, great baskets of many colored peonies, feathered songsters and special music from a children's choir, and an augmented choir, interpreted the spirit of Flower Day in three beautiful services at the First Methodist Church on Sunday. The day was celebrated by special services throughout Methodism. It was truly a day of worship, the spirit of which could not be revealed by words alone, but which every one of the thousands of flowers endeavored to breathe in their sweet perfume. The birds, six happy canaries, suspended in cages at the balcony, seemed to have found the secret of things, and almost bursted their little throats in thrilling out their message, a message of thanksgiving for that which was alive and beautiful.

Their tiny voices, now thrilling low and then bursting into a triumphant key, mingled with the sweet notes of the great organ, the cello and violin, lifted the hearts of the audience until they too were caught in the spell of the beautiful.

Anthems by the choir, soprano solos by Miss McMillen, a duet by Miss McMillen and Miss L. Layman, and a baritone solo, created music in the evening service that will long be remembered by those who heard it. The choir, consisting of the organ, played by Mr. Jordan, the cello by Grant Milligan, and the violin by Grant Milligan, playing the "O Minus" provided a treat of rare beauty.

MILLION-DOLLAR CITY HALL PLAN DROPPED BY WINDSOR COUNCIL

WINDSOR, June 20.—Plans for the erection of a new city hall and police headquarters under consideration for some time, have been definitely dropped and will be submitted to the city council Monday night by the market and property committee with the recommendation that the plan be adopted immediately, and a date for a vote by the people. Original plans for a million-dollar structure, which would have cost $1,000,000, have been replaced by new, freight sheds and yards by the C. P. R., that company has now requested permission of the city to build its freight sheds directly against the roadway, in return for which they have offered to pave the street for several blocks. The plan in its amended form, will come before the council Monday night.

HOLD-UP REPORTED TO HAVE OCCURRED ON ASYLUM ROAD

One Man Pulls Revolver While Two Steal Tire. It Is Alleged.

Report was current late Sunday night of a daring hold-up on the Asylum road, just north of the C. P. R. tracks, as a result of which, it is said, a Londoner who has been attending the University of Michigan during the past year, had a new tire stolen from the back of his car. According to the story related last night, the young man and a lady friend, who is said to reside in the northeast part of the city, went out for an auto ride. At the place where the hold-up was said to have occurred they stopped for a short time. While the car was standing another car drove up beside it and inquired of the driver if they were having trouble with their lights. The young man then got out to see what was wrong, and was confronted by three men. Two of whom were busy removing the spare tire. The third man pulled a revolver alleged to have been a large caliber, probably a .45. He then held back the parties in both cars until his accomplices had taken the tire, which had been purchased by the victim of the affair just a few days before, and hurried down the tracks with it, then he fled in the same direction.

VAANDALS AT WORK IN CIVIC FLOWER BEDS

Watchmen Not on Duty All Time— Citizens Asked To Tell Police.

Further evidences of vandalism in the city parks are complained of by the parks department. If the flower thieves would only steal the plants from beds which are not laid out in any particular pattern, it would not be quite so bad, but their predatory propensities peculiarly manifest in taking plants out of the beds, which the parks employees find mutilated in the morning, and often are unable to restore, spare plants of the particular variety and color stolen not being on hand.

ATTEMPT TO SMUGGLE LIQUOR LEADS TO PERJURY AND ASSAULT ON OFFICER

Detroit Man Sent to Jail for Ten Years for Assault.

WINDSOR, June 20.—Following the commitment of Guy Mullen, 109 Lawton avenue, to a term of ten years in Leavenworth Penitentiary for striking down an immigration officer at the Joseph Campus ferry dock, Judge Tuttle of the federal court at Detroit, has issued warrants for the arrest of Ora Mullen, brother of the convicted man, and his wife, Leona, and Sidney Irwin, attorney, on charges of perjury, while Mrs. Mullen, residing on Moy avenue, Windsor, is charged with aiding and abetting.

LIQUOR WAS CAUSE.

The assault on the officer, Alfred Mullen, was planned by the defendant, who was in the car in which the Mullen party was crossing the river last December from Windsor to Detroit. The car was stopped by the immigration officer, who then later admitted was purchased from a man named Mullen, who was charged with perjury.

Worst Case of Perjury.

Guy Mullen, who committed the assault, was arrested by the police and taken to the police station. The defense attempted to prove that Ora Mullen, brother of the prisoner, was responsible and agreed to come forward and take the stand and swear to the same story in the hope of securing Guy Mullen's release. In the meantime Ora Mullen, the brother, had made good his escape and could not be found. Judge Tuttle, in sentencing Black, who had taken blame for the liquor, said the case was the worst example of perjury

Feeling At Dublin Is Tense— Strike May Cause Outbreak.

HYDRO POWER RECORD FOR CITY OF LONDON

"Juice" Successfully Distributed in Economic Way—Rates Lowered Each Year.

Reports of the hydro-electric commission of Ontario on the operation of the Niagara power plant for 1915, just published, show that the city of London has achieved a record for successful and economical distribution of power, not equaled by the record of any other municipality in the Niagara power zone.

Starting in 1912 with power distributed at $28, the provincial hydro rates have shown reductions in succeeding years, as follows: $24 in 1913, $23 in 1914, $22 in 1915, $21 in 1916, and $19 in 1917. Local rates have steadily been reduced to the consumers, but with good management, despite the cheaper prices, the London hydro-electric department has rolled up a credit or surplus of $106,334.74 in the hands of the Ontario hydro-electric commission.

Continuously improved local conditions have made this possible. Starting in 1912 with power distributed at $28, the provincial hydro rates have shown reductions in succeeding years, as follows: $24 in 1913, $23 in 1914, $22 in 1915, $21 in 1916, and $19 in 1917. Local rates have steadily been reduced to the consumers, but with good management, despite the cheaper prices, the London hydro-electric department has rolled up a credit or surplus of $106,334.74 in the hands of the Ontario hydro-electric commission.

Previous to the advent of hydro-electric power operation in London, electrical power-users were charged a kilowatt hour rate of 2 cents, plus a meter rental of 25 cents. Under hydro operation the average net cost to domestic consumers has dropped from 4.2 cents per kilowatt hour in 1912 to 2.4 cents in 1915, and to 1.9 cents at the same time, in the eight years of operation. As a result, the cost of the local plant has been paid for.

Total reserves and surpluses accrued by the London hydro-electric department by the report to be considerably in excess of three-quarters of a million.

The balance sheet shows a total plant value of $1,247,591.51; inventories and accounts receivable, $241,257.40; sinking fund deposit, $173,109.79; and a credit balance in the Ontario hydro-electric commission of $106,334.74, making total assets of $1,868,293.44.

The total liabilities, after deducting the sinking fund accumulated to retire the debentures, amount to $357,511.08, leaving a gross surplus of $1,510,782.36, which $260,467.66 has been set aside as reserve for the renewal of the plant.

The following table shows the balance sheet up to the end of November, 1915:

Chinamen Pay Fines in Police Court Today.

The local police court resembled a miniature Chinese settlement this morning, when eighteen Chinamen appeared as a result of a visit to the Clarence street headquarters early on Sunday morning by a police squad in command of Sgt. William McCulloch.

The counsel table was adorned with Chinese paraphernalia, including gambling and opium-smoking outfits, which were collected as evidence in the raid. L. W. Toy pleaded guilty to a charge of having been in possession of, and contributed $25 and costs, while Harry Sing and Ong Yee were assessed a similar amount for the privilege of smoking this drug, to which they pleaded guilty.

THE WAGE QUESTION

After many months of waiting, the increase in wages the employees of the G. T. R. through their different organizations have been struggling for, has taken tangible form. This evening the employees will meet to vote on the schedule agreed upon by the board of conciliation. It is considered doubtful that the schedule will be adopted, because it is reported to have been turned down in both Hamilton and Toronto.

NEW TIMETABLE.
The railway announcing the many changes in the summer schedule will be issued locally some time this week, according to the local officials.

DAD'S A JOKER.
Speaking of week-end trips, Dad Perkins, the veteran of the Canadian Express Company in this city, saw one of the porters for over a year and a half on Sunday. As the men take turns in caring for the horses on Sunday, their pay will be in the neighborhood of $100 a month, it is expected.

WHO EATS IT ALL?
Up to 100 tons of cream are shipped from this city daily by the express companies to the many points throughout Western Ontario. The number often reaches 250. Figured at ten gallons to a tub, it brings the total to over 2,000 gallons a day.

DAME FORTUNE SMILES.
Dame Fortune for once has shown that she has a kind heart hidden beneath a usually austere exterior, in the opinion of the chambermaids employed by the three carriage companies under contract to haul freight for the three hotels in this city. After a week-end hopeless fight by the men to secure an increase in wages, raising them from $75 to $80 a month, they have been told by the board that they expected by the board of conciliation which investigated their case two weeks ago.

APPEAL TO COUNCIL TO STOP SERVICE
CHARGE OF GAS CO.

T. and L. Representatives To Appear Before City Fathers.

Action by the city council to prevent the City Gas Company making a service charge of 85 cents a month, which John D. McKillop, committee member for the trades and labor council tonight, will move forward this morning, and will not send representatives unless they go on their own initiative.

The recommendation of No. 1 committee of the council, that a committee be appointed to go into the matter of the gas company before the council, if it is adopted, the members of the committee will be named and will go on an investigation immediately, as what can be done.

Ald. C. E. German, who was a member of the former committee which interviewed the company regarding the charge, will be on hand for St. Mary at 6 o'clock in the evening.

MINISTERIAL ALLIANCE
ELECTS 1920 OFFICERS

Police Do Not Handle Wayward Boys and Girls in Free Way, Is Claim Made.

Rev. W. L. Armitage was elected president of the Ministerial Alliance meeting held in the Y. M. C. A. this morning. Rev. M. Kelly was elected vice-president; A. J. Agnew, receiving secretary; Rev. F. Hirst, corresponding secretary.

It was claimed that the police did not handle the wayward girls and boys properly, and that the Ministerial Alliance would undertake the proposition and try to tidy up the matter.

CITY COUNCIL
No Strenuous Session Looked For Tonight.

City councillors are not looking forward to a very strenuous session this evening. The street railway has been furnished most of the problems for some months, and the temporary settlement has been arranged between the city and the street railway.

A deputation of the trades and labor council will likely be present to urge the immediate raising of an increase in street railway fares as a means of effecting a permanent settlement.

ROTARIANS LISTEN TO ADDRESS ON LIFE INSURANCE

C. E. German Explains System To Large Gathering At Noon Luncheon.

Life insurance, its necessity to human life, and its mysterious workings, were the subjects explained by C. E. German, district representative of the Mutual Life, at a noon-day luncheon of the Rotarians held at the Rotary Club, 1111 Jarvis street, today. The members of the club also indulged in several amusing remarks.

Mr. German, to illustrate his talk, used a chart on which the table of mortality was explained by the speaker. He began his talk by telling why life insurance was a necessity. It was based on two great principles, the value of human life and its uncertainty. He asserted that the life of the world was adding to the wealth of the world and had a certain financial value. There were some lives, however, which were not worth anything. He estimated the value of a man's life who at the age of 35 years was making an income of $10,000 a year, could expect to live 31 years more, as $310,000, less 5 per cent. The fact that the value of life was no longer valuable, and no one knew when it was to come, made it a thing worth insuring.

He estimated the value of a man's life who at the age of 35 years was making an income of $10,000 a year, could expect to live 31 years more, as $310,000, less 5 per cent. The fact that the value of life was no longer valuable, and no one knew when it was to come, made it a thing worth insuring.

Mr. German, to illustrate his talk, used a chart on which the table of mortality was explained by the speaker. He began his talk by telling why life insurance was a necessity. It was based on two great principles, the value of human life and its uncertainty. He asserted that the life of the world was adding to the wealth of the world and had a certain financial value. There were some lives, however, which were not worth anything. SHUT-DOWN ON CHIPPEWA WORK SURPRISES MEN

Trades Federation Sees Only An Effort To Stampede Workers.

CONFERENCE STANDS

Hydro Commission and Employees Will Meet As Was Arranged.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., June 20.—The decision of the Hydro-Electric Power Commission to shut down the canal development work here came as a great surprise to the trades federation. They do not believe that it is a permanent shut-down, but rather an attempt to stampede the men into going back to work tomorrow when the time set in the ultimatum of the commission expires. This is the opinion of Mr. J. E. McSwiney, president of the federation, as expressed today. President McSwiney points out that while notices have been posted on the work notifying the men in the camps to vacate Monday night, it is a well-known fact that the men are not leaving their positions back if they return tomorrow. There has been no change made in the arrangements for a conference between a committee, representing the federation and the commission, scheduled for Tuesday in Toronto. That arrangement still stands. The federation hopes that some basis of settlement can be reached at that meeting.

THE DREAD PYORRHEA BEGINS WITH BLEEDING GUMS

Pyorrhea, infecting germs cause many ills. Medical science has proven this. Diseased conditions, which not long ago doctors were unable to trace to a cause, are now known often to be the result of Pyorrhea germs that breed in pockets about the teeth. Rheumatism, anaemia, nervous disorders and other diseases have been traced in many cases to this Pyorrhea infection. Don't let Pyorrhea work its wicked will on your body. Visit your dentist frequently for tooth and gum inspection. And watch your gums yourself. Pyorrhea, which afflicts four out of five people over forty, begins with tender and bleeding gums; then the gums recede, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of poisons generated at their base. Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhea—or check its progress, if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums hard and healthy—the teeth white and clean. Start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has set in, use Forhan's according to directions and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment. 25c and 60c tubes in Canada and U.S. If your druggist cannot supply you, send price to us direct and we will mail tube postpaid.

Germany Must Reduce Army

PARIS, June 20.—The council of ambassadors, at a meeting today under the chairmanship of Jules Cambon, reached decisions concerning the disarmament of Germany, which are in conformity with those found by the inter-allied military committee. The conclusions of the council will be communicated to the heads of the governments now assembling at Boulogne.

One decision reached by the council was that the German army must be reduced to a maximum of 100,000 men by July 10, as provided for in the Treaty of Versailles.

Premier Millerand, according to Marcel Hutin, in the Echo de Paris, hopes to induce Premier Lloyd George to accept the payment of 12,000,000,000 francs gold debt of France to England when Germany pays France in reparation. It is believed, adds M. Hutin, that if Great Britain accepts such an arrangement for her debt the United States will accept from France for the latter's debt of 12,000,000,000 gold francs, maturing in the United States in October, a similar method of payments to be made as France collects from Germany.

ent, said today that the work will not be stopped. However, all the smaller tools are being gathered in, and everything at all perishable is being put in safe storage as quickly as possible. Mr. Angel hopes the Chippewa end of the work will be kept going if there is no interference by the federation. Dredges and shovels will be kept going there, he stated. It is authoritatively stated there is little danger of a stoppage of power. Enough men will remain to keep the power plants going until men from other parts of the province who are familiar with the work can be brought here. Large numbers of skilled men and laborers have been leaving the district, and every outgoing train yesterday and today was crowded with them. The majority of them are going to Montreal.

RAID ON PACKING CO.'S WAREHOUSE FOLLOWED BY QUICK ARRESTS

Ingersoll Police Do Good Work—Are Holding Two Suspects.

INGERSOLL, June 20.—(Special.)—The local police were quick to pick up the trail today following the raid on the warehouse of the Ingersoll Packing Company, last Saturday night, or early on Sunday of a large quantity of bacon and a number of hams. The officers are now holding two local men as suspects and hope soon to round up a third man believed to be implicated in the thefts. Directly he saw the meat trucks arrive at the warehouse, the officers followed them and recovered this afternoon by Chief of Police Holmes.

Gave Himself Away. The stolen property was found cached alongside the 42 T. R. truck west of the town. Not far away from the cache one of the arrested suspects was seen sitting. Directly he saw the chief of police the man jumped up and began to run, but a shot fired by the chief over the man's head quickly brought him to a halt and he was taken in charge. A Long Chase. A few hours later, another suspect on catching sight of Officers Holmes and Mann, also beat a hasty retreat, and before he was captured led his pursuers into North Oxford for three miles. The officers along tenaciously to the trail of the fugitive, who finally realizing that all his efforts to evade the clutches of the law were vain, stopped and was arrested without further trouble. The thieves made their entry to the warehouse of the packing company by removing a window. They will appear before the magistrate in police court tomorrow.

Street Car Situation Calm

TORONTO, June 20.—Nothing has developed in the street railway situation in the last two days, and probably nothing will develop until Tuesday, when the directors of the Toronto Railway Company are to meet to consider their reply to the men's ultimatum of an increase in pay of 20 per cent from the present maximum of 55 cents an hour. The regular meeting of the Street Railwaymen's Union was called off this afternoon, as there was nothing to communicate to the men, and the committee handling the matter of the threatened strike was anxious for a rest.

DOG MUZZLING ORDER MADE AT WOODSTOCK

Mayor's Action Follows Two Cases of Rabies in City.

WOODSTOCK, June 18.—An order has been issued by the mayor prohibiting dogs from running at large, except when on leash. The order was issued following two cases of rabies. One of the afflicted dogs strayed as far as Guelph, where it bit two children and a number of animals. Recently the board of education placed a number of the teachers on the reserve list, when renewing their contracts and published the names of the teachers, an act which caused much resentment in the ranks of the Local Council of Women and the Federation of Women Teachers. The two bodies protested strongly by resolution against the publicity, which, they claimed, had reflected upon said teachers, and the dignity of the teaching profession. They ask that the board make reparation by making it known through the press that the teachers have since received their contracts.

ELGIN COUNTY COUNCIL INCENSED BY DILATORY METHODS OF GOVERNMENT

ST. THOMAS, June 20.—The delay of the Government in building the proposed swing bridge at Port Stanley, has stirred the county council to a point, where the department will be importuned to proceed with the work at once, or else give the reason why. The offer made to the Government, by the county council, to contribute $20,000 towards the work of construction still holds good, with the reservation that the Government was to assume the proprietorship of the bridge on or before the first of August next. The Government, however, fights shy of that responsibility and Reeve Cornell of Port Stanley was directed to go to Ottawa at his own convenience and have it out with the department. The Government agreed last fall to make the proposed change in the present structure, but did not name a date. The building of a swing bridge and enlarging the harbor to the north, mean much to the navigation facilities at Port Stanley.

RUPTURE KILLS 7,000 ANNUALLY

Seven thousand persons each year are laid away—the burial certificate being marked "Rupture." Why? Because the unfortunate ones had neglected themselves or had been merely taking care of the sign (swelling) of the affliction and paying no attention to the cause. What are you doing? Are you neglecting yourself by wearing a truss, appliance or whatever name you choose to call it? At best, the truss is only a makeshift—a false support against a collapsing wall—and cannot be expected to act as more than a mere mechanical support. The binding pressure retards blood circulation, thus robbing the weakened muscles of that which they need most—nourishment. But science has found a way, and every truss in the land is fitted to make a PILEX. The PILEX method is unquestionably the most scientific, logical and successful self-treatment for ruptures the world has ever known. PILEX PAD when adhering closely to the body cannot possibly slip or shift out of place, therefore, cannot chafe or pinch, as trusses do, and is absolutely painless. To be used whilst you work and whilst you sleep. No straps, buttons or aprons attached. Learn how to close the hernial opening as nature intended—the rupture CANNOT come down. Send your name today to PILEX CO. Box 415, St. Louis, Mo., for FREE literature and the information necessary.

YOUTH AND THE UNIVERSITY.

This is the time of the year when all over the country thousands of young men and women are finishing up their schooling and facing in so many cases the difficult task of deciding what their future shall be. We have not yet perfected the machinery that would bring to these young people the most expert advice that could be secured in guiding them into the lines for which they are best fitted. Apart from a little vocational guidance work done by the Y. M. C. A. for boys, the element of chance enters all too largely into the decisions that young people must make. Happy is the youth that at this stage has a friend to whom he can go for counsel and receive the advice that will help determine his right course.

One question that every young man and woman who thinks of quitting school now should ask personally is this: Have I the education that will carry me ten years from now. The start-off in any line of work is usually easy. It is really a continuation of education because someone instructs and supervises the task that is set from day to day. The sad part of it is that so many a youth can never get beyond that point of doing what someone else orders, because of limitations that did not appear at the outset, but that became all too apparent later. The real test comes five, ten or fifteen years after work begins. The test is too hard for a majority. And this applies not alone to young people entering trade and business, but the professions as well. It is no longer enough that a man should be merely a graduate of a scientific school, a dentist, a doctor, an architect. Hundreds of men in professions in Canada today have reached their limit years before that should have occurred simply because they were uneducated save in their own narrow line. That is why the arts course of a university, taken either along with or preceding the strictly professional training, is today considered necessary for the man who would go to the top. Young men entering medicine today are advised to take arts work as well if it is at all possible, and it is not hard to foresee the day when this will be a prerequisite to entering upon the study of medicine and other lines of work as well.

Young men and women in London are highly privileged in that they have in their own city the facilities for securing this liberal education that can make for their future happiness and future usefulness. The boys and girls who are leaving the collegiate institute this year might well stop to ask themselves whether it would not be a profitable investment for all the years ahead to secure that training of mind which comes from university work and which every year becomes more and more a requisite to leadership.

POLITICAL PROPHECY.

Readers of Hearst papers will doubtless be tickled by sensational news of the prophecy regarding the presidency in Mexico. According to it there were to be three Franciscos in high place, and then an old man with a beard who would be president and die a violent death. This has been fulfilled, Carranza being the old miscreant with a beard. His violent end was rather easy to guess in Mexico. It is their "natural death."

But the second part of the "prophecy" will be of most interest to Hearst and his scum. After Carranza's violent remove Mexico "would lose independence." The fulfilled part of a prophecy is always the bait to recommend the part yet hanging in the stars. To Hearst's mind, eager for intervention, the murder of long-whiskered Carranza is "a happy prologue to the swelling act of the imperial theme."

Such a prophecy may be compared to the "predictions of Merlin," which English propagandists faked up to trouble Scotland in the reign of Henry VIII. These forgeries pointed to the young Rince Edward as the sovereign who should reunite the island of Great Britain under one sway. After Edward VI.'s premature death without any change in the states of Scotland, the Scotch laughed last in making the prophecies apply to their own Prince James, who did succeed Elizabeth and unite the island.

VATICAN'S CONCILIATORY POLICY.

A series of events recently have brought religion to the forefront in European politics.

The canonization of Joan of Arc marked the end of a conflict which for more than thirty years had embittered relations between France and the Vatican. France's exile of the Jesuits and other orders, arrest and expulsion of the Vatican's envoy, and seizure of church property appears to have been forgiven and a new era of friendly relations has begun.

Differences between Spain and Italy have been put on the way towards adjustment by the Vatican's decision that it will no longer object to rulers and others who call on it to pay similar visits to the King of Italy. The King of Spain, who has long refused to go to the Vatican because of this rule, will now make his call. The Italian king, who long has been compelled to hold the Catholics at a distance because of the attitude of the pope, is now able to give them a larger voice in his Government and rely on them as against the Bolsheviks and the anarchists who are trying to turn him out.

In Austria, Hungary and Southern Germany the Catholics are working in co-operation with the French toward the formation of a federation of Danube states to take the place of the old Austrian Empire.

Poland and Czecho-Slovakia, which had come almost to war over the Tschén coal fields, have been prevailed upon to let France and the Catholic king of the Belgians arbitrate their differences instead of relying on the council of the League of Nations.

Finally the pope has shown a lively interest in the troubles of Ireland, and the London Government has taken the remarkable step of sending Mr. Balfour to Rome to make clear to the Vatican what is the cabinet's attitude in regard to the Irish.

LYNCH LAW IN THE NORTH.

With somewhat alarming frequency the fearful evil of the lynch law is making its appearance in the Northern States of the republic. Three negroes, charged with an offence against a young woman, were lynched almost within the shadow of the police station at Duluth last week, and the memory of similar happenings at Chicago, St. Louis and even in Washington itself has not yet passed. All of these outrages are probably connected more or less with the migration of colored folks from the South that began during the war and that is still in full swing as a result of the demand for labor in the Northern cities and particularly in certain industries. Race usually enters into a lynching in the United States, and it would appear to have been the chief influence at Duluth, as it was at Chicago and in Washington last summer.

THE LURE OF THE MARKET.

To the hot, impatient city folk who were forced to walk down town on a recent Saturday, the market place was a beautiful refreshing sight—a little bit of heaven, or at least a bit of cool, green country brought in by wheel to gladden the eye of the less fortunate ones cooped up in the stuffy city. To begin with, there were flowers in abundance, the great splashes of color spilling from cart and wagon. There were red geraniums, all dignified and prim like gallant little soldiers on guard, and beside them great crimson oriental poppies—dream flowers, their great silken petals sleepily opening, as if they had been rudely awakened too soon from their drowsy slumbers. Baby-headed pantries, like loving little thoughts all velvety soft, peeped shyly out, while great slender jars embraced stately carnations. Cuddled down here and there were ferns, their long fronds curling gracefully out to touch the other flowers. Somehow they carried one away from the heat and racket to cool, hidden paths, green bordered and mossy, where unseen springs trickled, and where nothing other than the notes of a bird disturbed the green solitude. The brown-cheeked lad behind the flower stall had little difficulty disposing of his beautiful wares.

To the more practical housewife, the crisp green things offered attraction. Such huge piles of crimson radishes nestling in amongst the pale green of lettuce brought the discovery of a healthy appetite, while down in the cool cellar of the markethouse, fresh churned grass butter piled high in market baskets, at a price, well, go easy children, don't spread it on too thick.

On the shady side of the building ladders ranging from eight to twelve years proudly displayed their puppies and rabbits. Five rolly-polly colts slept and played. One little fellow despite the amount of petting he received, refused to waken from his beauty sleep. Cuddling little bunnies nosed in green clover.

And, of course, the pigeons must be mentioned, the trusting winged friends who make the market place their home. They seem absolutely fearless of their human admirers and venture so close it would be almost possible to touch them. They are well assured of meals, for the foraging is good. They are part and parcel of the market itself, and never venture far from its kindly shelter and their human friends, as with the flash of silver wing they circle above the old market, and look down on the good-natured competition, as the farmer trades the result of field and garden for dollars and cents.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Irish question seems to be unanswerable.

Looks as if being an M. P. P. was a rather severe test of a man's liking for easy wealth.

Senator Harding's record is almost blameless—and colorless—enough to qualify him for being a vice-president.

Twenty-five new batteries and additional machine gun units looks as if the Government was expecting a revolution rather than an election.

Fifteen millions of militia estimates in the present financial condition of the country is an outrage on the people who will have to pay the bills.

Surely President Wilson will not forget that as good men as Grant and Roosevelt were dashed to earth when they aspired to third terms in the presidency.

Hamilton has had another terrible affair, but this time there is no mystery attached. It was Mr. Wetzel and his band of scalping Tecumsehans who did the dreadful deed.

The late Government in Ontario must have had its tongue in its cheek when it protested its remarkable purity of administration. Apparently it was in the hands of a group of unprincipled timber wolves.

Members of the House of Commons will still send out tons of boost for themselves at the public expense. The postal regulations may be amended in every clause save that one which provides for the franking privilege.

A bandit at Toronto assumed Salvation Army uniform in order to commit crime. Unconsciously he paid a high tribute to the world's opinion of the men and women who wear the blue uniform of the Blood and Fire army.

Even the Unionist press is compelled to admit the strength of the rumors that have long been current with regard to the dissensions in the cabinet at Ottawa over the succession to the premiership when Sir Robert Borden retires. The friends of Hon. Arthur Meighen have not let their efforts relax and they hope that before this session is out they will have their pet installed in the leader's chair at the capital.

TWO PEOPLE INJURED

Accident Happened Near Silk Mills, Leith, Saturday Night.

OWEN SOUND, June 20.—Two people were injured in a motor accident at Leith silk mills, north of Owen Sound, Saturday evening, when an auto driven by J. M. Perdure of Massey turned upside down at the foot of a steep hill. Mr. Perdure had his collarbone broken, and Miss Mary Perdure, his daughter, was seriously hurt, but the extent of her injuries have not yet been ascertained. The car was a shooting at Leith, was called and had the patients removed to their home at Massey. The car was badly wrecked.

EDMUNDSTON, N. B., June 19.—Three men, all said to be known as boundary run runners, are under arrest here, and Mrs. Joseph Gorneau, aged 50 years, of St. Milaire, Madawaska County, is hovering between life and death with a bullet in her head, as the result of a shooting at Leith, which was a sequel to a seizure of a carload of liquor at St. Milaire, a small settlement on the transcontinental division of the Canadian National Railway, eight miles from here.

CONVENTION CLOSES

Co-operative Movement To Fight Profiteering and High Prices.

MONTREAL, June 20.—(Canadian Press).—With an outburst that was outstanding for bitterness of feeling and strong hatred against the League of Nations, principally because it was believed to be of British design and for British benefit, the convention of the American Federation of Labor closed at 7 p.m. Saturday by placing itself on record as endorsing the League of Nations by an overwhelming majority. It seemed at times that the motion to endorse might be defeated. The League was bitterly opposed by Irish sympathizers, who demanded the rejection of the covenant because it denied the right of self-determination to the Irish people, and guaranteed the territorial integrity of Great Britain, they were supporting the progressive wing of the federation.

President Gompers broke his gavel in refusing to maintain order, and was himself called to "time" for overstepping the speech limit. The eloquence of Vice-President William Green swung the meeting around, and in the end the endorsement by the convention of the League of Nations was made almost unanimous.

A policy of "hands off" as regards Mexico was unanimously adopted by the convention.

DRURY DECLARES FARMERS CANNOT CONTROL ONTARIO

Premier Says Class Government Not in Interests of the People.

DUNDAS, Ont., June 20.—The work accomplished by the Government of Ontario at the recent session was reviewed by Premier E. C. Drury on Saturday afternoon before a large assemblage of farmers of this district at a picnic held under the auspices of the Wentworth U. F. O. The premier said he thought the first session of the new legislature had been a successful one.

"It is essential for the public good that the Government should not be a class government," the premier said, "farmers as a class," he added, "could not command the province of Ontario, nor could farmers and labor together, if their powers were used selfishly. The Government should be for the benefit of the people, and to curb the thief, whether he steals a dollar, a timber limit, or robs a hundred thousand people."

Have Been Growing. The public services have been growing year by year, said the premier, and the Government had added to those already existing. The Government should be of public health despite the fact that there were many who declared that it would be economy to reduce the services.

"We must see to it that the proper revenue is collected and that those already existing should be maintained."

Had Not Lacked Courage. The premier claimed that the Government had not lacked in courage. "It may be that we have rushed in where the old parties feared to tread," he said. "The temperance measure would go to the people free and untrammelled, not as a government measure, but as a private bill."

Premier Drury expressed the opinion that although the Ontario Government had done good service, its powers were limited, and there were matters of great moment to the farmers which could only be dealt with by the Dominion Parliament.

"So, I say, keep your powder dry," he advised. "Be ready for the next Dominion election when it comes."

Hon. F. C. McGee, minister of public works, also addressed the gathering and outlined the progress made in the plans for the provincial stadium.

W. A. Cockshutt, M.L.A., and Mrs. Laws, secretary of the United Farm Women of Ontario, spoke.

Perdure of Massey turned upside down at the foot of a steep hill. Mr. Perdure had his collarbone broken, and Miss Mary Perdure, his daughter, was seriously hurt, but the extent of her injuries have not yet been ascertained. Your Finances

The Man who Saves

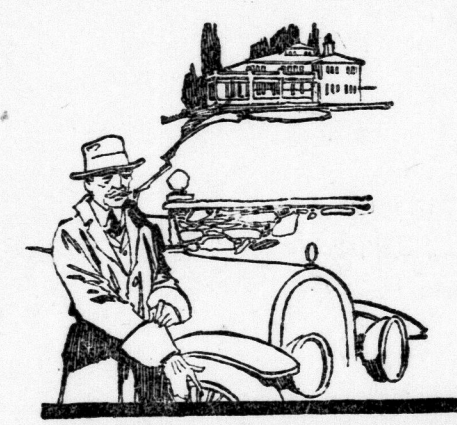

At age 19 his bills exceed his income.

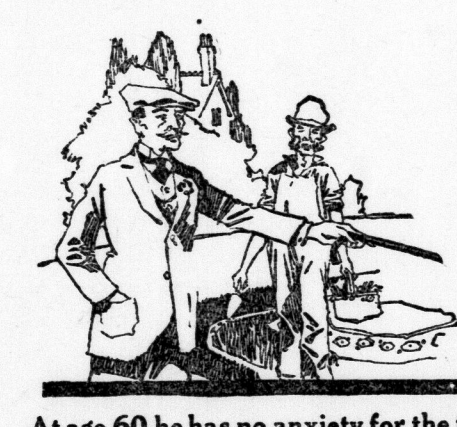

At age 21 his Canada Life Policy creates a gap between income and expenditure.

At age 35 his "bills" include a "premium due" which checks extravagance.

At age 50 he can "afford" anything in reason.

At age 60 he has no anxiety for the future, and leisure for his many interests.

A man who sets aside only $200 each six months and allows it to compound at 5½% interest will have at the end of thirty years a total fund of—

Thirty Thousand Dollars

You know many people who could set aside $200 each six months. But—

Many a man who has had time to accumulate this moderate fortune, is still "drudging along" without it. For this reason:

Very few men will systematically "put by" a certain definite sum, and leave it untouched for any reasonable length of time. Human nature is seldom built that way.

The Canada Life Plan

Our insurance policies will provide any sum you name, to be delivered to you in cash at any age you desire, or to your Beneficiary should you die in the meantime.

You can thus anticipate the years, capitalize your present health and earning power, and make certain of many years' progress now.

The Endowment at 65

issued by the Canada Life will solve the problem of your Future.

It is a Certainty

The full amount of your Policy will be paid in any case, whether you live or die. Other investments may depreciate in value or fail. The Endowment is a certainty. The guarantee will take care of your home, or your business, or your personal interests, as nothing else can.

Profits Will Hasten Maturity

A special clause in this Policy provides that if the profits be allowed to remain at your credit each year instead of being withdrawn, the face of the Policy will be payable to you some years before you reach age 65.

Whatever your circumstances may be later on in life, you will welcome this fund of a few thousand dollars. You may need it then.

REPORT OF CROPS IN WEST OPTIMISTIC

TORONTO, June 19.—The detailed crop report for the areas served by the National Railways line in the west for the week ending June 12 received at the offices of the company here today is a uniformly optimistic document. Seeding may be said to be practically completed in all grains, and the crops are making a rapid growth. The agents report plenty of moisture generally, and with the exception of the few who remark about high winds there is nothing in the report to dampen the bright expectations now held of a big crop in the prairie provinces this season.

SCENE OF BIG RALLY
OF LONDON GUIDES

BADGES PRESENTED

Tea Served On the Green To Many Visitors Saturday Afternoon.

The beautiful stretch of green overlooking the river at the Western University was the scene of the first Girl Guide rally ever held in the city on Saturday afternoon. Since the Girl Guides Association was organized here only a little over a year ago by the local commissioner, Mrs. F. P. Betts, it was indeed an achievement to gather 200 guides in uniform and have them present such a delightful program as that given on the green Saturday afternoon. The fact, too, that several patrols of guides from as far away as Waterloo attended the rally, was itself an indication that London is becoming a centre of guide interest.

The huge number of people draped with flags by the Sir George Ross Chapter, L. O. D. E., was used as a platform from which Mrs. F. P. Betts, in the striking navy uniform of the commissioner, took the salute as the guides marched past for review. This was followed by the enrolling of several new guides in the St. George's, Knox and St. Paul's companies. Miss Helen d'Avignon, the staff captain, who was the executive head of the rally, administering the guide oath.

Presentations of Badges.
Another important feature of the program was the presentation of badges by Mrs. Betts, who made reference to the fact that the rally was being held on the identical spot on which Governor Simcoe in the early days knelt down and asked God's blessing to make the district fruitful and prosperous.

Second-class badges were awarded Mrs. Walter Brown, Mrs. Clarence Foreman, Miss Gladstone, Miss McLeod, Gladys Morrison, Elva Just, Marion Hart and Marjorie Jones; laundry badges to Mrs. Foreman, Miss Gladstone, Gladys Morrison and Elva Just.

The program included some very fine dances and drills, one of the prettiest of which was the "Dutch Dance" by members of the first Dutch dance company, all in Dutch blue costumes. The number was the flower drill by the girls of the St. Andrew's Church, all in white, with garlands of flowers. The "Wee Widdies" of the Crown Memorial Church, with their large daisy wreaths, also formed a pretty picture as they drilled upon the green.

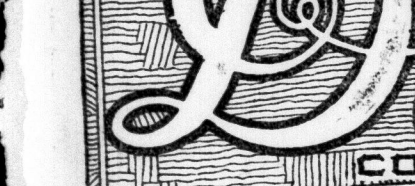

Signalling.
Some very fine work was done by the St. Paul's Company, who gave an exhibition in signalling the Guide motto, "Be Prepared," in Morse code, and completed their number by giving an interesting folk dance. Another exhibition of signalling, which was very fine, was given by the Salvation Army, who signalled by semaphore the following message: "The Girl Guides are here to help you."

The trouping of the colors by the Waterloo guides was another very fine piece of work, as were the fine first aid bandaging by the Y. W. C. A. guides, their rush upon the field to tie the wounds of prostrate members of their own patrols causing considerable amusement. A pretty flag drill was the contribution of the St. George's Company, while the Knox Memorial Company staged an interesting baseball game. But the funniest number of all was the "topsy-turvy" drill by the Knox Church Guides, who appeared with false faces upon the backs of their heads. A woman's oration, under the direction of Mrs. Grant Harris, afforded delightful music during the afternoon.

On the veranda and out under the trees tea tables had been arranged, each centre with huge bunches of delphiniums in the dark and light blue colors of the guides. Mrs. C. R. Somerville and Mrs. H. E. Westland were in charge of the tea. Mrs. Ronald Harris poured from the end of the large table on the veranda, assisted by several guides. Ice cream cones were rapidly dispensed from a table under the trees by Mrs. Fred Harper, who was in charge. While Miss Louise Carling sat at the receipt of customers at the gate. The guides made a pretty sight, marching back and forth over the lawn in their white middie and navy skirts with here and there a captain in pure white sailor uniform and wearing badges of office.

WORTLEY ROAD M. C.
At the regular meeting of the Wortley
Road Mothers' Club held on Wednesday last week, arrangements were made for the holding of the annual picnic to Springbank on July 2. A very fine local solo by Mrs. Wm. Cook added to the enjoyment.

CHESLEY AVENUE M. C.
A very delightful social evening was spent at the Chesley Avenue school, when the Mothers' Club of the school entertained. An excellent program was followed by the serving of refreshments.

What is so rare as a day in June?
Then, if ever, come perfect days.
—James Russell Lowell

I thought I would drop into your cozy corner for a few minutes. I read your page nearly every day, and certainly enjoy it, too, so am coming for a little help.

1. When is a girl of age, and can she leave home after she is one, whether her parents want her or not?

2. Cynthia, as I have never been at a wedding, I am sure you will be glad to tell me what does the bride and groom do during the ceremony? Please give me as much advice as possible, as I know nothing about it whatever.

3. Miss Grey, could you please find room on your page to print the words of the songs "Oh, Helen," and "Annie Laurie."

Thanking you in anticipation, I remain,
Ans.—1. Yes. Consult your minister as to form of ceremony and what is expected of bride and groom, how is too limited to print all old favorites, but if these are sent in for you I shall gladly forward an address, repeating request in case of someone supplying you with these poems. It is advisable to head up your letter with your name and address, so that I can return your letter. Surely you did not mean it.

Success in growing either gooseberries or currants depends in a large measure on the pruning. There are two systems of pruning, the tree and the bush form. In this country, however, it is best to prune to the bush form. If left to itself, the bush soon becomes a mass of shoots, none producing good fruit. The best fruit is produced on canes from two or four years old, and by leaving one or two of the stronger young shoots on each year, the cane's growth cut back, usually severely, leaving from six to eight depending on the strength of the bush, which is considered sufficient for a commercial plantation.

Renewal of Canes.
The canes should be renewed every three years, that is, pruning should be so done that there will be no canes of over three years of age. When the plants are weak it is advisable to head back the canes in order to produce good, marketable fruit.

When the plants are set the tops should be cut back slightly and the bush balanced up as much as possible.
Each cane should be cut back a little each year and the season's growth cut back, usually severely,
leaving from six to eight depending
on the strength of the bush, which is considered sufficient for a commercial plantation.
