The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:
Ontario Institute for Studies in Education,
R.W.B. Jackson Library

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shell contain the symbol → (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ▽ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Ontario Institute for Studies in Education,
R.W.B. Jackson Library

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filming.

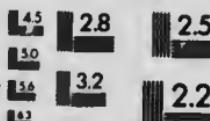

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier pied et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second pied, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole → signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ▽ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

HINTS TO PUPILS.

LETTER WRITING.

1. Materials.—Pen, ink, paper, envelopes, and blotting-paper.

(a) Pen—Choose a pen adapted to your hand; have a favorite.

(b) Ink—Use only good black or blue-black ink. Avoid writing with a pencil.

(c) Paper—Ruled or unruled. The preferable color is white; the size may be either note-paper or letter-paper.

(d) Envelopes—These should correspond in color with the paper used and should be oblong for business letters and either square or oblong for social letters.

(e) Blotting-Paper—Never commence writing without a piece of blotting-paper at hand.

2. Parts of a Letter.—Heading, address, salutation, body, complimentary closing, signature, and superscription.

3. Heading.—The heading comprises the location of the writer and the date of writing. It should be placed in the upper right-hand corner, about one or two inches from the top; when the letter is brief the heading should be dropped still lower, so that the space above the heading and below the signature may be about the same. Place the location and date on one line if short, otherwise on two lines, the date beneath the location and a little to the right.

The different styles of dates that may be used are:—Jan. 10, 1901; 10th Jan., 1901; and 10/1/01. Only are used the order is: day of the month, month, year. Notice that "st", "nd", "rd", or "th" is used when the day of the month precedes the name of the month.

4. Address.—Write this on the left-hand side, commencing at the margin, the name on the first line below the heading, and the place of residence on the next line, a little to the right. Never use both Mr. and Esq., Dr. and M.D., etc.; some use Esq. with and preceding M.D., B.A., M.A., etc. In social letters the address is often written at the end, instead of at the beginning.

Instructions to Pupil.—Copy the complimentary closings and signatures, engraved below, three times each. Then write each of the following twice:—Faithfully yours, (Miss) Fannie Hill; Your sincere friend, Frank Hawkins.

Model, Copy, and Exercise.—NOTE OF INVITATION AND REPLY.

Observation.—Formal invitations are usually written or printed on note paper. They require neither address nor signature—why? Between intimate friends invitations may take the form of a letter.

Nov. 12, 1901.

F. Thurlow, M.D.
Guelph, Ont.

Dear Frank.—

In your last letter you ask how we like Manitoba. We have now been here a year and are well pleased with the country; of course there are blizzards and some very cold weather, but the cold is steadier and the air drier than in Ontario, so that one does not mind it so much.

We have bought another farm, smaller and much better than the other. It is close to the Red River, and having a boat I often row into the city.

With best wishes, I am,

Sincerely yours,

O. J. Mather.

Instructions to Pupil.—Copy the Model on page 6, paying particular attention to punctuation, relative position of the parts, and paragraphing. Be careful (1) to join together all the letters of each word; (2) not to join the last letter of one word with the first letter of another word; (3) to leave sufficient space between words; and (4) not to divide a word at the end of a line otherwise than into its proper syllables. Thus if the word "farmer" is divided it must be written farm-er, and not far-mer.

Observation.—Notice the margin on the left, and that the name of the person addressed and the salutation commence at this margin. When the leading thought changes, a new paragraph is commenced, and at the same distance from the margin as previous paragraphs.

Exercise.—SOCIAL LETTER.

Instructions to Pupil.—Write the following letter, adding another paragraph of your own composition, also suitable complimentary closing and signature; take the Model on page 6 as a guide in the structure:

Esquimalt, B.C., Aug. 8, 1901. Miss Anna Wyld, Chatham, N.B. My dear Cousin,—Your welcome letter was received last week, and we were all much pleased to learn that my uncle and you are to visit us next month. The trip is a long one, and so you must not think of returning before Christmas. I shall expect a treat in listening to your description of the natural scenery along the route.

Model, Copy, and Exercise.—SUPERSCRIPTIONS OF ENVELOPES.

Instructions to Pupil.—Copy each Model once. Then write on the lower part of the page the following Superscriptions:—
P. K. Lumbers, B A., Box 253, Yarmouth, N.S.; Messrs. J. L. Cox & Co., 270 Harbord St., Toronto, Ont.

Observation.—The name and title, in the Supercription on the envelope and in the Address of the letter, should be the same. Criticise—Mr. A. McIntyre, Esq., and Dr. F. Thorlow, M.D. See Article 4 on cover.

The margin on the left should be about a half inch on note paper, and nearly an inch on letter paper (3 in. by 5 in.).

Salutation.—This should be written on the second line of the address, and should commence at the margin. Sir, Dear Sir, Dear Madam, My dear Sir, Dear Mr. Kennedy, Reverend and dear Sir, Dear George, Gentlemen, Ladies, etc., according to intimacy. Never use Gents for Gentlemen, Dr. for Dear, nor Dear for dear in My dear Friend, etc.

7. Body.—Commence the body on the next line below the salutation and about an inch from the margin. Begin a new paragraph when the subject changes, and at the same distance from the margin as the first. Some prefer to place the salutation at the beginning of the first paragraph of the body, when the address is placed at commencement.

8. Complimentary Closing.—This may be written on the first or second line below the body, and as follows:—Yours truly, Truly yours, Very truly yours, Yours respectfully, Yours faithfully, Sincerely yours, Your friend, etc. Commence with a capital the first word only.

9. Signature.—Write this and the heading very legibly, as they are the source from which your correspondent is enabled to direct a letter to you in reply. The complimentary closing is so placed that the signature, when written on the next line below and a little to the right, may not finish too close to the right-hand edge of the paper. It is not considered good taste to attach Mr., Esq., or any title to your writing your signature. Except when writing to familiar acquaintances, a married lady prefixes an unmarried lady Miss, to her signature; otherwise it might be in doubt how to address the reply. Mrs. and Miss are placed in brackets, not being an essential part of the signature, thus:

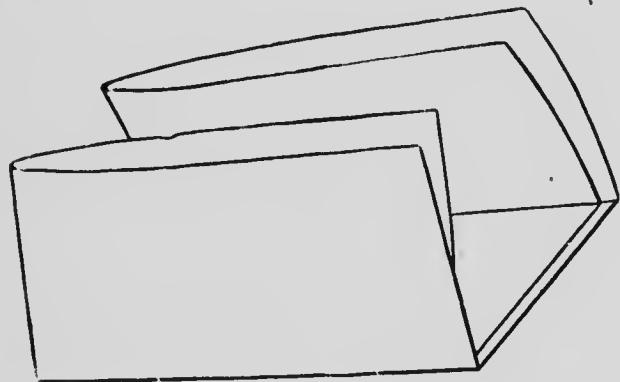

(Mrs.) J. L. Hunter.

(Miss) Mary Hunter.

10. Postscripts.—Avoid using them. They are used to add some forgotten item to a letter after the signature has been attached. Commence the paragraph with P.S., and at the close place your initials.

11. Superscript! a.—See that the envelope is right edge up—the flap edge. Write the name and title about midway between the top and bottom, and well over to the left; then the post office box, or street and number; next the city, or town, or post office, and the province or state. Each succeeding line should commence a little farther to the right than the preceding one, the last not ending too close to the right-hand edge. The name and title on the envelope should be consistent with those in the address.

12. Stamp.—Place the stamp right side up, on the upper right-hand corner, with its edges parallel to the edges of the envelope. Always enclose a stamp when asking for information unless from a regular correspondent; and do not stick it down by one corner—put it in loose.

13. Folding.—Make the first fold in note paper from the bottom, the width being a little less than that of the envelope; then fold down from the top. Insert the letter as it lies before you, the last fold being entered first and so as to touch the front of the envelope. Letter paper requires to be folded once, from bottom to top or far enough from the top to suit the length of the envelope; it may then be treated in the same manner as note paper.

BILLS AND INVOICES.

14. A Bill is a detailed statement of goods sold or of services rendered. The statement is called an Invoice when given by a wholesaler to a retailer.
