POETRY.

Growing Brighter.

The world is growing brighter as it rolls

White daisies blossom whiter—blue violets strew the ground.

And we're thankful that we're living,

since no blessing heaven deems,

While the heart's divine thanksgiving drifts in glory to the skies!

The world is growing brighter as it rolls

and rolls around.

There's not a heart but's lighter and gives out a happier sound.

And we're thankful that we're living,

since to live is perfect bliss,

And 'twill be a bright hereafter if it's half as bright as this!

SELECT STORY.

A Life for a Love.

BY L. T. MEADE.

CHAPTER XXIII.—Continued.

Gerald wondered vaguely what had put his sweet-tempered Valentine out.

He stirred the fire, and then stood with his back to it. She looked up at him his face was very grave, very calm.

Her own Gerald—he had a nice face.

Surely there was nothing bad behind that face. Why was he silent? Why didn't he begin to tell his story? Well she would—she would—help him a little.

She cleared her throat, she essayed twice to find her voice. When it came out at last it was small and timidous.

Was it—was it business kept you from coming with me to-night, Gerry?

"Business? Yes, my darling, certainly."

Her heart went down with a great bound. But she would give him another chance.

"Was it—was it business connected with the office?"

"You speak in quite a queer voice,

Valentine. In a measure it was business connected with the office—in a measure it was not. What is it, Valentine? What is it, my dear?"

She had risen from her seat, put her arms round his neck, and laid her soft young head on his shoulder.

"Tell me the business, Gerry. Tell your own Val."

He kissed her many times.

"It doesn't concern you, my dear wife," he said. "I would tell you gladly, were I not betraying a trust.

I had some painful work to do to-night,

Valentine. Yes, business, certainly.

I cannot tell it, dear. Yes, what was that you said?"

For she had murmured "Hypocrite!"

under her breath. Very low she had said it, too faintly for him to catch the word. But he felt her loving arms relax. He saw her face grow grave and cold, something seemed to go out of her eyes which had rendered them most lovely. It was the wounded soul going back into solitude, and hiding its grief and shame in an impenetrable of her being.

Would Gerald ever see the soul, the soul of love, in his wife's eyes again?

CHAPTER XXIV.

A few days after the events related in the last chapter Mr. Paget asked his son-in-law to have a few minutes' private conversation with him. Once more the young man found himself in that inner room at the rich merchant's office which represented more or less a torture-chamber to him. Once more

Valentine's astounded girlish innocent eyes looked out of Richmond's beautiful picture of her.

Wyndham hated this room, he almost hated that picture; it had surrounded itself with terrible memories.

He turned his head away from it now as he obeyed Mr. Paget's summons.

"It's this, Gerald," said his father-

-in-law. "When a thing has to be done the sooner the better. I mean nobody dares to make a long operation of the drawing of a tooth for instance!"

"An insufficient metaphor," interrupted Wyndham roughly. "Say, rather, the plucking out of a right eye, or the cutting off a right hand. As you say, these operations had better be got quickly over."

"I think so—I honestly think so.

It would convenience me if you sailed in the Esperance on the 25th of March for Sydney. There is a bona fide reason for your going. I want you to sample—"

"Hush," interrupted Wyndham.

"The technicalities and the gloss and all that kind of hounding can come later.

You want me to sail on the 25th of March. That is the main point.

When last you spoke of it, I begged of you as a boon to give me an extension of grace, say until May or June. It was understood by us, although there was no sealed bond to the matter, that my wife and I should spend a year together before this—this temporary parting took place. I asked you at one time to shorten my season of grace but a few weeks ago I asked you to extend it."

"Precisely, Wyndham, and I told you I would grant your wish, if possible. I asked you to announce to your own relatives that you would probably have to go away in March, for a time; but I said I would do my utmost to defer the evil hour. I am sorry to say that I cannot do so. I have had news from India which obliges me to hasten matters. Such a good opportunity as the business which takes you out in the Esperance will probably not occur again. It would be madness not to avail ourselves of it. Do not you think so? My dear fellow, do take a chair."

"Thank you, I prefer to stand.

This day—what is this day?" He raised his eyes; they rested on the office calendar. "This day is the 24th of February. A spring-like day, isn't it? Wonderful for the time of year.

I have, then, one month and one day to live. Are these Valentine's violets?

I will help myself to a few. Let me say good-morning, sir."

He bowed courteously—no one could be more courteous than Gerald Wyndham—and left the room.

His astonished father-in-law almost gasped when he found himself alone.

"Upon my word," he said to himself,

"there's something about that fellow

that's positively

THE ACADIAN

WOLFVILLE, N. S., MAY 24, 1895.

School Commissioners Meeting.

The Board of School Commissioners met on Tuesday, 21st inst., in the Court House, Kentville, at 10.15 a.m.

Commissioners L. DeV. Chipman, J. W. Caldwell, C. J. West, S. S. Strong, James Hiltz, Rev. A. S. Tuttle, N. H. Patterson, J. L. Franklin, C. H. Vaughan, Henry Shaw, Dr. A. DeW. Bana, and E. S. Crawley were present.

L. DeV. Chipman was elected chairman. The Inspector's report dealt with the progress and general condition of the schools. One hundred and twenty-two schools were reported. One hundred and twenty-eight teachers were employed.

The progress was reported good. The subjects of Calisthenics, Music and Health were receiving more attention than in the past. This was a gain to the schools.

The chief changes of the school law were referred to and their import given. By vote of the Board the name of West Cornwallis Mt. Section, was changed to Woodlawn, to correspond to the name of the post office, and that section put on the Poor list for next year.

Voted also to drop Backland from the Poor section list. The list for last year, as thus amended, was adopted for the following year.

Resolved, That Fifty Dollars, from the School Land Fund of Cornwallis, be placed at the disposal of the Inspector, to supplement the ordinary grants in sustaining the school for the colored children in Pine Woods.

Rev. A. S. Tuttle, A. S. McDonald, A. S. Eaton and C. W. Roscoe were appointed a committee to prepare a scheme for the division of the funds of the School Lands of Cornwallis, and report at the next annual meeting of the Board.

There is on hand, at this date, about $650. This by law is controlled by the Commissioners and must be given for the benefit of the schools of Cornwallis.

A petition signed by Charles Palsifer and eleven others, from Lockhartville Mountain, asking for the formation of a new section was presented. As this was concurred in by the trustees of Lockhartville—the only section affected by the Board granted the prayer of the petition with the proviso that the bounds all be defined by the aforesaid trustees and the petitioners, and be approved by the Inspector of Schools.

L. DeV. Chipman, W. E. Roscoe and S. S. Strong were appointed a committee under Section 9, to discharge the duties imposed on them by sections 13 and 50 of the School law.

A. A. A. Field Day. According to custom the members of the Acadia Amateur Athletic Association together with numerous spectators assembled on the college campus on Thursday 10th inst., to enjoy an afternoon of field sports.

The weather was not the best, for besides the low temperature a strong wind was blowing which interfered with the running and other events. The association thought it advisable to introduce handicaps this year, but judging from the comparative success, they were failures, for there was less competition than in former years.

Notwithstanding this two records were broken, viz: high kick and putting shot. In fact, Hall's high kick was the feature of the day. Mr R. E. Griffin announced the different events and results, Prof. Haley acted as starter and Messrs E. W. Sawyer and J. F. Herbin took their usual places as judges. The following is a list of the events with results:

THROWING BASE BALL.—1st, McLeod, '96 (scratch) 86 yds. 8m., 2d, Babbitt, Acad. (4 yds) 72 yds. 11 in.

RUNNING HIGH JUMP.—1st, Bishop, '97 (scratch) 4 ft. 11 in., 2d, Hall, '96 (scratch) 4 ft. 9 in.

PUTTING SHOT.—1st, Cullen, '96 (scratch) 35 ft. 2 in., 2d, Morse, '97 (3 ft.) 29 ft. 4 1/2 in.

100 YARD DASH.—1st, Moffat, '96 (1 yd.) 15 sec., 2d, Dimock, '96 (scratch). HOP, STAY AND JUMP.—1st, McLeod, '96 (scratch) 41 ft. 2 in., 2d, Richardson, Acad. (3 ft.) 37 ft. 3 in.

220 YARD DASH.—1st, Dimock, '96 (scratch) 28 sec., 2d, Parsons, '96 (scratch). STAIRS RACE.—1st, McLeod, '96 (1 in.) 10 ft. 4 in., 2d, Parry, '96 (scratch) 9 ft. 11 in.

School Law.

By direction of the Council of Public Instruction a revised Manual of Educational Statutes and Regulations has been published and sent free to the Secretary of Trustees in each section in the Province.

That some of the changes may be made known generally, and as soon as possible, I wish to call attention to them through the medium of your paper.

1. Section 5 (7) provides, in case there should not be a quorum of School Commissioners at any meeting, duly called, the Council of Public Instruction shall, upon the recommendation of the Inspector, perform the duties of such board at the said meeting.

2. Section 29 as revised reads: "Trustees shall have power to suspend or dismiss from their employ any teacher for gross neglect of duty or immorality, and they shall immediately forward a written statement of the facts to the Inspector for the district, and they shall also forward a statement of their proceedings to the Superintendent; and the pay of any such teacher shall thereupon cease, unless otherwise ordered by the Council of Public Instruction, upon appeal of the teacher; but he or she shall be paid ratably up to the time of his or her dismissal or suspension."

3. Section 35 is new. "The Secretary of Trustees may resign, with the consent, in writing, of the Trustees and Inspector."

4. The law now requires the Secretary of Trustees to make up the School accounts relating to the Section at least three days before the Annual Meeting, and forward them to the auditors; whose duty it shall be to examine them and report thereon in writing to said Annual Meeting.

5. By the amended law in regard to attendance, it becomes the duty of the chairman of the Annual Meeting, in every Section, to call upon the qualified voters present to vote ye or nay on the following resolution:

Resolved, "That the provisions of sections 76 to 83, inclusive, of chapter 1, of the Statutes of 1895, shall be made operative in this school Section."

The adoption of this puts the Trustees in a position to require the attendance at School of every child in the Section, between the ages of seven and twelve years, for one hundred and twenty days, during the year.

Falling attend, as required, or giving unsatisfactory reasons for non-attendance, the Trustees shall impose a fine of two dollars upon the parents or guardians of children who do not attend, at all, and pro rata for those who lose a portion of the one hundred and twenty days.

6. The mayor of every incorporated town is required to submit the following resolution to the town council before the first day of July next:

Resolved, "That the provisions of Section 84 of chapter 1 of the Acts of 1895 shall be made operative in this town or school section."

If adopted, the council can require all children in the town or school section between six and sixteen, to attend school, one hundred and twenty days in the year, or give good reasons for their failure to do so.

Every parent or guardian failing to comply with this regulation, after its adoption, shall be liable to a fine of not less than one dollar, nor more than twenty dollars, for the first offence, and for every subsequent offence, to a fine of one dollar for every day the law is not complied with, but shall not be fined more than sixty dollars in any one year.

Every board of Trustees and town School Commissioners is required to report that such vote has been taken, as required by law, and the result of the vote.

7. Section 33, relating to the bond required of the Secretary of Trustees, makes it the duty of the Trustees to lodge such bond with the Inspector of Schools, instead of with the Clerk of Municipality as heretofore.

COLIN W. ROSCOE, Inspector of Schools. I. O. G. T. on the Advance. B. D. Rogers, P. G. C. T., of Stellarton, held public temperance meetings at East Halls Harbor, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings last, 15th and 16th inst., and on the latter evening organized Dawn of Light Lodge, with 24 charter members and the following officers:

C. T.—Mr. Geo. Bentley. V. T.—Albert Rogers. Chap.—Mrs. Asaph Balsor. Secy.—Harry Therp. A. S.—Geo. Steele. Treas.—Susie Neville. Mar.—Mrs W. West. D. M.—Asaph Balsor. S. J. T.—A. H. Baker. Guard.—Wallace Simpson. Sentinel.—Whitney West. P. C. T.—George Bell. L. D.—Borden Steele.

This Lodge meets on Tuesdays, starts well and will no doubt do a good work in the community. Mr Rogers has gone to Hants county where he will hold and address temperance meetings for the next three weeks, organizing and visiting Lodges throughout Hants District. He has organized 56 Lodges since July last, a number of which have over 100 members each at the present, and nearly all of them are doing good work. He will attend the International Supreme Lodge which meets at Boston on June 26th and the Grand Lodge of Nova Scotia, on July 9th, at Yarmouth.

It is far from our intention or desire to criticize any section of the Wolfville Council. They most certainly know their own business far better than anyone else, and are doubtless working for the best interests of the people whom they represent when they decide that it would not be advisable to connect themselves with the county in this effort.—W. Eaton Chronicle.

Get Together. The merchants of every town will find it advantageous to "get together" occasionally, and discuss the local business situation, for very often they will discover how some things that are working against them can be remedied.

If all the business men of the town are interested so much the better. We often drift into a net, and become prejudiced and opinionated. Circulation among our neighbors will often show our own mistakes and we will become more charitable in our estimate of others.

The business men of every community have the power to do much for their localities if they will drop rivalries long enough to do it. Men are like nations—when they come together they soon discover that the "other fellow" is not so bad as they had pictured him; that is, generally speaking this is the case. The business men of the city work together along these lines, why shouldn't the business men of the country. We know of some towns where co-operation of this character is bringing good results. Isn't there sufficient in the argument to attract business men in towns where this co-operation has never been tried? It is a good thing to look the ground over occasionally.—Commercial Bulletin and Northwest Trade.

To Dye Or Not to Dye

That is the question; whether it is better to wear that faded, shabby dress and endure the scornful looks of all your well-dressed neighbors, or to purchase a package of Diamond Dyes and restore its freshness in another color—making a new dress for ten cents.

This New and Novel Garment is Bound to be the UNIVERSAL SHIRT.

YOU ASK WHY?

- 1st—Because the front wont break or push up. 2nd—The braces passing under the front don't drag or break it. 3rd—Perspiration cannot touch the front. 4th—The collar button at the back of the collar band being covered prevents the irritation and galling of the neck, which the old style of shirt does. 5th—The attachment at back to keep the tie in place. 6th—Solid comfort in wearing it.

Local and Provincial.

Queen's Birthday.

The trout caught by the town councillor in the "Gaspean river" last week was a whopper.

It gladdens the heart of the average newspaper publisher to have subscriptions and renewals come along promptly, says an exchange. So it does.

The Orchardist is very much worried with the fear that Wolfville citizens will not be allowed to compete at the Exhibition which Warden Roscoe says in the same issue will not take place next autumn at Kentville.

Rev. Dr. Boggs will on Monday evening, 27th inst., deliver an address in the vestry of the Baptist church. His subject will be: "The Uniqueness of Christianity among the Religions of the World." No collection. All are invited.

The approach of the anniversary hub-bub is now being felt throughout the length and breadth of the land. Wood-piles are being whitewashed and quantities of "balloon sleeves" are in the course of construction. Already nearly all the available accommodation has been engaged by prospective visitors.

There will be a meeting of the Wolfville Town Improvement Society in Harris' Hall next Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock, for the purpose of completing organization, electing by-laws, the election of officers, etc. A full attendance of the members and all interested is urged. We bespeak for the society the support of all our citizens.

The work on the Royal Hotel addition is being pushed forward as rapidly as possible and Mr. Beckwith expects to have it completed about the last of June. This will give thirteen more sleeping rooms. The dining room will be extended and improved, and the whole when finished, will give much greater facilities for the accommodation of summer visitors.

Chocolate Creams 15c. lb. at the Evangeline Kandy Kitchen, next to Book Store.

We are glad to see improvements being made in many of the properties in town. In some instances dilapidated fences have been removed, and in others new fences have been erected. Grounds are being improved and buildings newly painted. Well-kept grounds are a credit to any town, and the resident who expends money and time in this direction is a public benefactor.

The telephone and electric light poles, throughout the town present a very untidy appearance. The town council should see that they are not used for posting advertising matter upon. The ragged remains of those now on should be removed and the poles repainted. This is required in other towns and the same course should be pursued here. Let us have this done before the summer visitors arrive.

We have received a neat little volume entitled "A Heart Broken Coronar, and Other Wonders." The authors are Mr. A. M. Belding, formerly associate editor of the Dominion Illustrated, now of the St. John Star, and Mr. Harry A. Woodworth, of the St. John Record. It contains about eighty pages of humorous prose and verse and is an interesting addition to provincial literature. The book may be had by sending 15 cents to A. M. Belding, box 24, St. John, N. B., and we would advise our readers to procure it.

Presentation to Dr. Jones.

A very pleasant episode took place on Sunday, the 19th inst., in Professor Jones' class-room in connection with the Sunday school. The Professor's remarks were suddenly but pleasantly terminated by the presentation of a large and well-executed portrait of himself—the work of the cunning hand of Miss Melinda Higgins. The presentation was accompanied by the following address:

To our Teacher, Dr. R. V. Jones:

We, the scholars of your Sabbath school class, desiring in some way to show our appreciation of your faithful and zealous services in the Master's behalf as well as in ours, hereby present you with this small token of our regard and esteem.

You have been for some years our esteemed teacher and you have imparted to us from the rich treasury of God's word many valuable truths and important principles.

Although we cannot express through this gift the esteem and love which we have for you, yet it will tend, we trust, to encourage and sustain you along your way. Our earnest prayer is that you may still continue with us, and that we may each be blessed of God through your instrumentality.

May the Master still continue to graciously aid you and make you the means in His hands of giving many more, as you have given us, an insight into His word. And may you at last receive from the Master the welcome: "Well done."

The gift was a surprise to Dr. Jones. He expressed his feelings in a few off-hand words. He spoke of his appreciation of the gift and of the kindly feeling and spirit that prompted its bestowal; of the deep and tender emotions necessarily awakened by such thoughtfulness on the part of the class; of his increasing interest in Bible study and the necessity of enlisting an interest in it in others; of the enlarging desire all over Christendom to know more about the Word of God; of the need of regarding the Scriptures as a true revelation from God; and the importance of studying the Scriptures in an earnest, intelligent, thorough, and systematic way.

May the cordial relations which exist between Professor Jones and his class grow and strengthen with the year, and may the number of those that desire to know the Holy Scriptures which are able to make us unto salvation be greatly multiplied.

Mr. Wallace has been pastor of the Blue Street Baptist church, in Toronto, for the past year or so, and the senate have had ample opportunity of measuring his ability. His appointment to the chancellorship at McMaster will be learned with pleasure by his many friends in this county.

"For God and Home and Native Land"

Conducted by the Ladies of the W. O. T. U.

President—Mrs R. V. Jones, Vice-President—Mrs Thomas Harris...

Next meeting in Temperance Hall Thursday, June 6th, at 3.30 P. M.

Gospel Temperance meetings, conducted by members of the W. O. T. U., are held every Sunday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock, in the vestry of the Methodist church.

Temperance Notes

From the Halifax Herald we clip the following:

There was a large attendance at a meeting held this forenoon at one of the parlors of the Commercial Hotel...

Mr. Flint, M. P., who has given notice of a prohibition resolution in the house, addressed the meeting.

Mr. J. J. McLaren spoke as an outsider. The temperance people outside the house would regret extremely if the present parliament was dissolved without having straightened out the house on immediate prohibition.

A good deal of discussion followed, mostly as to whether Mr. Flint's motion should be supported or changed to some other, preferably one in favor of a plebiscite of the people.

The National Temperance Advocate gives no uncertain sound with reference to the Gothenburg system.

The Gothenburg scheme or State control is not a step toward prohibition, but a long step away from it.

For every dollar of direct taxes taken off by the profits from the sale of the drink, it takes at least ten dollars to repair damages made by the drink itself.

The Norwegian scheme is a step backward. We are teaching the children in our public schools that alcohol is a poison, and this system would take the money made from the sale of alcohol to pay the salary of the teachers.

We are told that the profits go to the public pocket, but where do they come from? The public profit comes out of the private pocket, and homes are devastated, women and children beggared, police and criminal expenses very largely increased.

The Ontario Liquor Law now in operation provides that no saloon shall be located within three hundred feet of a church.

The Union Signal says: The Massachusetts legislative committee on liquor law, as expected, brought in a unanimous report against the Norwegian system of regulation.

The farther away a man gets from his baby the more he prides its good behavior.

The merchant who advertises is always referred to as one of our prominent citizens.

An exchange says it is very economical to fall in love with a girl who thinks theatres are wicked.

Charoek Vermifuge kills worms every time.

She—"So you wouldn't take me to be 20. What would you take me for?" He—"For better or worse."

Attorney (addressing witness)—"Now, sir, would you like to swear?" Witness—"Yes, I would."

I heard you were drugged and robbed. I don't know. I was drugged, but I haven't received the bill yet.

MINARD'S HONEY BALSM is a sure cure.

"Oh for a thousand tongues to do the subject justice," exclaimed the little boy who fell into the sugar barrel.

Watts—By the way, who was the patron saint of fishermen? Poits—Dunno. It isn't Ananias, is it?

Tommy—"Pop, what is a popular song?" "Tommy" father—"One that everybody gets sick and tired of hearing."

MINARD'S HONEY BALSM is purely vegetable.

"Do you prefer charges against this man?" asked the magistrate. "Sure, yer honor," answered McSwat, "I prefer damages."

Japanese workmen wear, both on their caps and on their backs, an inscription stating their business and the name of their employers.

Mr. D.—"If you get my coat done by Saturday I shall be forever indebted to you." Tailor—"If that is the case it won't be done."

"Love is tapping at my door," Wrote the poet, well content. Said the wife, tapping once more; "That's the landlord for the rent."

MINARD'S HONEY BALSM, once tried, always used.

Franchmen take the nearest heels; Scotchmen take the largest, but they cannot compete with Lebeugula, whose size is 12 inches long and 8 inches wide.

"Jinkins, I believe you have some of the elements of a success about you." "Not a dollar, old man. Honor bright. You'd be welcome to it if I had."

Boy on the Fence—My paw only has to work six hours, and he earns $4 a day.

New Boy—Huh! My paw don't have to work at all. He does the street cleaning.

"Did you ever surrender yourself to the police?" asked Flinging Mike to the police. "No, sir," replied Meandering Mike, "I'm a firm believer in the principle that the officer should seek the man; not the man the officer."

Life, when it is real, is not evanescent; it is not slight, does not vanish away. Every noble life leaves the fibre of it interwoven for ever in the work of the world; by so much ennobles the strength of the human race has gained.

If you do not know how good a remedy Garfield Tea really is for constipation and sick headache, send a postal card to D. Demore & Co., 271 Queen Street, West, Toronto.

"Do you allow drunken men on the train?" asked a clergyman at the city hall elevated station.

"Sometimes," replied the gateman, "when they're not too drunk. Just take one of the poor souls in the middle of the car and you'll be all right."

Miss Grace—Court—"Doesn't Mrs. Monroe-Place believe in the co-education of the sexes?"

Mrs. Pierpont Columbia—"Co-education? I should say not! Why she believes that a girl ought to be reared as carefully that when she sees a man she will ask, 'What is that mamma?'"

A gentleman who was travelling through one of the most insalubrious districts of India found an Irishman living in a state of extreme prostration. "I don't see how you can live in a place," said the traveller, "where people die so thick and fast!" "Tell me the place, sor," said the man, "where people never die—all me the place, and I'll go there myself to end me days!"
