

HON. MR. GRAHAM ON RADIAL BILL.

Question of Jurisdiction to be Considered.

Protect Municipalities From Provinces.

Lennox's Amendment is Voted Down.

Ottawa, Feb. 11.—(Special).—This was the seventh day for the Hamilton Radial Railway bill before the Railway Committee.

Mr. Macdonnell, Toronto, at the opening of the proceedings to-day said that he was glad to see the Minister of Railways present, and he hoped to hear from him something which would remove the deadlock over the bill.

The result of the conference with the provincial authorities might be communicated by the Minister. He hoped that something would be reached between the Dominion and the Provincial Governments to solve the difficulty of jurisdiction.

Mr. Lennox said that his amendment to the preamble should be forced, no matter what the announcement was.

W. F. Maclean said the committee was entitled to the opinion of the law officers of the Crown on the preamble.

Mr. Graham said that whatever jurisdiction the bill came under the committee could rely upon it that the municipalities would be protected. The only question between the Provincial and Dominion authorities was as to how would it be best to do this. He could only make an explanation, as no definite arrangement had been reached, but in the first place he wanted to deny that any discourtesy was shown by him to the Province, as was stated in some Conservative newspapers. He showed that the committee had adjourned on a moment's notice at the request of the Province.

Again the committee meeting was postponed to permit of a conference being held between the Dominion and the Province. At that conference the question of right was not the one which was considered. The Dominion could not encroach upon the Provinces, and the Provinces would not encroach upon the Dominion, so that if it were a question of right the matter could be left to the courts, where it would be tried under the British North America Act. The question was as to what was the better thing to do on behalf of the people of the municipalities. The first interest should be the interest of the people, as much as the Dominion did. They were responsible to the people.

W. F. Maclean—They had their rights and powers under the B. N. A. Act.

Mr. Graham—Do not talk of power, because if we approach it in that way it cannot be settled by us. No solution can be reached. Certain propositions were made at the conference with the provinces. It would not be right for him to give the opinion of the provinces on the subject. For his own part he held that the Dominion power could not be taken as the dividing line. The functions that the road performed would have to be considered.

Neither the Dominion nor the Province had yet laid their hands upon a line of demarcation. When an arrangement was reached, if any one could be reached, it would be applied to all the provinces. He knew both sides of the question, having studied the provincial as well as the Dominion position and the interests of the municipalities as well. No man in the room was more desirous of protecting the provinces than he was. He would also put a clause in protecting the rights of the municipalities against the province. The provinces had more opportunities of encroaching upon the rights of the municipalities.

WILL REQUIRE $195,500 FOR SCHOOL PURPOSES.

Board of Education Finance Committee Cuts Down Its Original Estimates.

The Board of Education will try and struggle along with $186,500 this year, although the Trustees admit that it will be pretty close sailing, with the prospects of an overdraft at the end of the year. The Finance Committee of the Board thrashed the matter out yesterday afternoon, when Mayor Stewart appeared and urged the necessity of keeping the figures down, if the tax rate was not to be increased and the city was to pay off last year's overdraft. He suggested $195,500 as the appropriation. The Trustees whittled the estimates down from $201,000 to within $1,000 of the Mayor's figure, and agreed that this was as far as they could go. It is an increase of about $19,000 over the appropriation last year. Secretary Foster says there are several small accounts which can scarcely be handled with the amount provided. He promises, however, that an heroic effort will be made to keep within the appropriation. The estimates in detail follow:

Table with columns for Expenditure, Public Schools, and Receipts, Colleague Institute. Total expenditure: $47,747.64. Total receipts: $180,498.69.

A FLIM-FLAMMER Worked the Change Racket on J. H. Whittington.

J. H. Whittington, 330 James street north, had a customer yesterday at his store whom he would like to meet again. The customer, a gentlemanly looking fellow, walked into the place and asked for 5 cents worth of candy. The candy was put up, and the stranger tendered a $2 bill in payment. The stranger picked up the $2 bill and 95 cents in change which had been put on the counter, explaining that he had the right change, and there was no necessity to change the bill. He walked out and the grocer is wondering where his dollar is.

BRYAN IN TORONTO.

Talks U. S. Politics and Speaks at Canadian Club.

Toronto, Ont., Feb. 11.—William Jennings Bryan arrived in Toronto this morning by the 9:15 G. T. R. train from Montreal. He was met at the Union Station by Mr. John Turnbull, the President of the Canadian Club, and Mr. J. A. Macdonald, of the Globe, and conducted to the National Club, of which institution Mr. Bryan is a guest during his stay here. After breakfast Mr. Bryan was interviewed. "It is too early to speak yet of the chances of nomination of the different candidates, and too early to figure upon the platform, Congress being still in session. Its action may mean a good deal," said he, in reply to questions, "but at this time it seems probable that three great economic questions will divide attention. There are the trust question, the tariff question and the question of railroad regulation."

"There is a larger issue, however," he continued, "which is embodied in all these, viz., whether the Government shall be conducted by the people in their own interest and for the protection of their own rights, or in the interests of predatory wealth, which desires to use its machinery as a private asset in business."

Mr. Bryan addressed the Canadian Club at their luncheon at 1 p. m.

A LABEL CASE.

Local Lithographic Firm Suing Collingwood Concern.

Judge Snider held court this morning for the purpose of disposing of remanents. There were seven cases, and of these that of Siebert vs. Baint was dismissed, and Metcalf vs. the Crown Ganister Co. was left over. The only case taken up this morning was the one between the Lithographic Co. vs. Telfer Bros. Limited, Collingwood, for the recovery of $129.73 on an account. Mr. E. S. Ambrose for the plaintiff, and Mr. George Lynch-Staunton, K. C., for the defendant. According to the statement of claim, the defendants contracted to buy several thousand lithographed labels. The defendants claim that the plaintiffs did not do the work as contracted, and that the labels were not suitable for the purposes they were intended for. The plaintiff's paper was inferior and that the ink was not right on the paper. The case was still on at press time.

BENNETT TICKETS.

Only the Special Sort Benefit the Hospital Scheme.

Miss Jeannette Lewis feels encouraged to see the large crowds that are flocking nightly to Bennett's. She takes it as an indication that public sympathy is with her. Unfortunately, however, she thinks the public still have a wrong idea of the financial arrangements. She reminds the public that a ticket bought at the Bennett Theatre does not benefit the hospital fund. It is only on tickets sold by the special tickets which she has had printed—that she gets a percentage. She asks the people to buy their tickets from any of the list of stores already published or at the terminal check room, where she is every night. She will have an electric sign erected there in a day or two, directing purchasers to the office.

FIRE RANGERS.

Tenderfeet Who Required Guides to Go With Them.

Toronto, Feb. 11.—(Special).—Applications from young men wishing to be appointed fire rangers have already commenced to pour in, and almost every member of the Legislature has from ten to twelve applications. Last year the rangers were mostly college students, and in many cases guides had to be sent with them lest they get lost in the wood. No appointments will be made till May.

BROKE HER LEG.

Dorothy Hammond, a seven-year-old girl, whose home is on Wentworth street north, below the Stock Yards, was run over by a coal sleigh yesterday afternoon while trying to get on the runner for a ride, and one of her legs was broken in two places. She was removed to the City Hospital, where the injury was attended to. She is as well as could be expected to-day.

GOING TO GENOA.

Marseilles, Feb. 11.—Senhor Franco, ex-Premier of Portugal, and his family, who arrived here last night, left by train for Genoa at 7:22 this morning. Two detectives accompanied the party.

B. B. B. Briar Pipes.

This stamp on a pipe is an absolute guarantee of material and workmanship. They are made in England and sold in this city at peace's pipe store, the headquarters, 107 King street east.

DICKENS FELLOWSHIP.

It is apparent that the local branch of the Dickens Fellowship will be a success. The officers are in receipt of many enquiries about membership, etc. The secretary is Miss Tudor, 11 Herkimer street, city, telephone 1598.

SAFETY DEPOSIT BOXES.

COASTING IS DANGEROUS.

Twenty-Seven Pittsburghers Receive Injuries, Two So Seriously That They May Die.

Warning to Boys and Girls to be Careful.

Pittsburgh, Feb. 11.—Twenty-seven persons were injured, two probably fatally, in coasting accidents in greater Pittsburgh during the past 24 hours—21 of them in one accident on the north side, and five in another accident in the same section.

Twenty-seven boys and several girls started for Brighton road down the Marshall street hill on a four-board sled about 150 feet long last night. The weight of the crowd and the grade of the hill carried the sled at an uncontrollable speed. For over 300 feet it dashed, and when George Becker, the guide, tried to drop the chain it refused to work.

There is a curve at the foot of the hill. Here the sled took a sudden turn, crashing into a telegraph pole.

Ten of those who occupied the front part of the sled were hurled clear to the street car tracks 50 feet away. Two were injured so seriously that they may die. Others sustained broken limbs, cuts and other minor hurts.

THE MAN IN OVERALLS.

Does Adam Beck want to regulate the price of Cataract power, so that it cannot undersell the other kind?

1908 will be talked of in the sweet by and by as the year of the great snow storms.

Is the smallpox quarantine a really and truly one?

Up in London the Real Estate Association is talking of raising house rents. How is it down here?

There is always the danger of the City Hall employees going out in a body on a strike if the Mayor insists on no increases. Not only that, they may put him on the black list.

The Herald man likes nothing better than to shovel snow off the sidewalk. That's his recreation. But then you should see his double-barrelled, steam-winding, automatic, rotary action, hydro-electric, pearl-handled snow shovel.

The local opinion muddle is costing the hotel men and the Saltfleet people a mint of money.

Have you called at the Times yet with your prescription for Miss Lewis' hospital?

There is not much satisfaction in cleaning the snow off your own sidewalk and then having to wade through the snow on your neighbor's sidewalk.

How about the proposed art gallery, gentlemen? That's another fund the citizens are expected to finance. Nothing doing?

Our beach correspondent writes that the people over there are so busy with their quilting bees, spelling matches and singing school that they never think of the cold. Besides, they nearly all wear gum boots.

If it pays Ottawa to keep the sidewalks clear of ice and snow, it should pay Hamilton.

I suppose we will have a big military day at the formal opening of the drill hall.

Should John Patterson and the other railway promoters hurry up with the roads there would be few idle men around.

Ald. Howard now knows how it feels to be thrown down by his own organ. Sent in:

The Third Person (Singular). His Worship—What we want you to tell us is the exact words used by the prisoner when he spoke to you.

Witness—He said, your worship, that he stole the pig.

His Worship—No, no; he would not have used the third person.

Witness—But, your worship, there was no third person.

His Worship—Then he must have said, "I stole the pig."

Witness—Begorra, an' maybe you did, your worship; but he did not split on you!

Of course, this is not intended to be personal.

FREE SOUP.

Commencing on Thursday of this week the Salvation Army will serve a free mid-day meal of soup and bread or baked beans and bread and a cup of tea every day from 11 to 1 o'clock to all men who are out of work and in need, at the Citadel, Rebecca street. The officers would be pleased to receive subscriptions to enable them to carry on the work. Not one cent will go to the army funds or to any of the people who assist in preparing and serving, every dollar being devoted to the purchase of supplies and the direct work of charity.

IMMIGRANTS FOR B. C.

Toronto, Feb. 11.—(Special).—Seven hundred immigrants brought from the old country will be sent to British Columbia this month by the Salvation Army. Up to this morning over nine hundred applications for help had been received by the army from farmers, but owing to the fact that newly arrived immigrants refuse to go to work on farms the applications have not been filled.

THEATER CASE.

Two Arbitrators to Have a Conference This Afternoon.

Mr. Wm. Bell, K. C., and Mr. J. G. Donoghue, Toronto, representing the Hamilton Street Railway Co., and the Street Railwaymen's Union, respectively, are to have a conference this afternoon in regard to the appointment of the third arbitrator in the Theater arbitration. It is considered likely that either a Hamilton or Toronto lawyer will be appointed. Prof. Short, of Queen's University, Kingston, was suggested, but it is not thought that he will act. He has given up a good deal of time to labor disputes in the past six months and it is not thought he will act if agreed upon.

WANTS THE RADIAL.

Ask Passage of Bill—Other St. Kitt's News.

St. Catharines, Ont., Feb. 11.—(Special).—The City Council last night received his duties Thomas O'Neill, for nearly forty years street superintendent in this city. The work will hereafter be done by the city engineer.

The license fee for Hippodromes was increased from $10 to $50, and it was decided to close the city park for baseball and other such games, and in lieu thereof to give a portion of the old fair grounds for a play ground. The Mayor and Council took strong ground as favoring the passage of the Hamilton Radial bill as amended, and strongly worded telegrams were sent to Ottawa this morning expressing the city's wishes in the matter.

MISSING STEAMER.

The Eagle Point Arrives After a Long Voyage.

New York, Feb. 11.—The British steamer Eagle Point, which has been 30 days en route from London to Philadelphia, was sighted yesterday 270 miles southeast of Sandy Hook by the steamer Vandalia, which arrived to-day. The Eagle Point was last spoken on Jan. 23, when her captain reported that the steamer's shaft was broken.

Insurance rates on the vessel have been increased, and some alarm for her safety has prevailed among shipping men.

TALKED TOO MUCH.

But Husband Gets Year in Central For Beating Wife.

Walkerville, Ont., Feb. 11.—Convicted of wife beating on the evidence of his own children, a boy of 10 years and a girl of 11, who told the story of a brutal assault in the most matter-of-fact way, Michael Lennon was sentenced to spend a year in Central Prison, Toronto. Lennon pleaded for a light sentence, claiming the cause of the whole trouble was his wife's fondness for talking. He said he did not take to drink until after he was married.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Reading, Pa., Feb. 11.—Charles Cyrene, a journeyman baker, was burned to death here early to-day in a fire which destroyed the bakery of William H. Behrles. He slept in the building, and his charred remains were found in the ruins.

SUNDAY PAPER CASE WENT AGAINST BIRK.

Fine of $40 Imposed by Magistrate.

Case Will be Appealed, Counsel Says.

Men Who Broke Up a Dance Fined.

The celebrated case of Louis Birk, charged with selling newspapers on Sunday, January 12, was on the slate this morning, and after a hard fought battle, Magistrate Jelfs ruled Louis for $40. An application for a stayed case was not allowed and P. Halford Ardagh, counsel for the defendant, gave notice of appeal. Mr. Ardagh, partner of E. A. DuVernet, of Toronto, pleaded not guilty on behalf of Birk. Crown Attorney Washington prosecuted. Constables Brauer and Duncan, two new men, who were doing plain clothes duty on the date of the offence, swore that they had caught Birk selling Chicago Tribunes. They said they caught him at different times. Mr. Ardagh said it was not his intention to probe deeply into the case and that he would not call the defendant. He submitted that a case had not been made out. His contention was that never before had there been a conviction registered under the old act or the new one in a case such as this and that to prove a case the Crown would have to prove that Birk was an importer of papers and that he imported them to sell on Sundays. He spoke at some length on this point, but Crown Attorney Washington held that the only thing he had to prove was the sale of one paper. He proved that and the case was before His Worship. The Magistrate in reply stated that he upheld the Crown Attorney. Mr. Ardagh then asked for a stayed case in the event of a conviction, as the case had never before been a conviction of this sort. The Magistrate refused the request for a stayed case on peculiar grounds. He stated that it was a funny thing if they had to run to the General Sessions every time he registered a conviction and that besides that, in reserving a case the court detracted from its dignity. He said that Birk was a persistent violator of the Lord's Day Act and that he had to run to the General Sessions every time he registered a conviction and imposed the maximum fine, $40. Mr. Ardagh gave notice that appeal would be made immediately.

W. Norden, and John Clifford, Blake street, were each fined $2 for being drunk.

Arthur, Fred and William Salisbury, and George Fisher, all of this city, were fined $20 each and costs this morning for creating a disturbance on the street in Winona, where they had made a rough house out of a dance that was in progress on Saturday night in the public hall. Frank Swazey and Frank Tobin were also charged with this offence, but County Constable Springfield withdrew the charge against them. Of the other four, Arthur Salisbury pleaded guilty and the other three pleaded not guilty. They were defended by M. J. O'Reilly, K. C. The evidence showed that they had invited themselves to the dance, and, after being there a short time, started in to make a mess of things. Chairs were thrown and people were pushed down stairs when they tried to retrace their steps. The Magistrate is down on this kind of rowdiness and he imposed the heavy fines above mentioned on the quartette, with a strict warning to take care when they appear.

—Mrs. Collier, 140 King William street, has moved to 31 Arthur avenue south.

WRITS ISSUED.

Caledonia Milling Company Suing the Grand Trunk.

Lewis & Arrol, barristers, have issued a writ against the Grand Trunk Railway, on behalf of the Caledonia Milling Company. Some months ago the company's mills, opposite the G. T. R. station at Caledonia, were burned. The fire is said to have been caused by sparks from an engine on the company's railway. The loss was very heavy. The company alleges negligence.

Acting for Kent Whipple, Lazier & Lazier have issued a writ against Asa L. Burke for an account of the profits of the National Chambers. The plaintiff and defendant went into partnership for the letting of the chambers, and now that the partnership has dissolved, Mr. Whipple wants to know how the accounts stand. Both parties were to receive half of the profits.

BURNED IN HOUSE WHERE SHE LIVED ALL ALONE.

Mrs. Jaggard, Aged 75, Died This Morning as Result of Her Injuries.

PAUL VANE'S WIFE

What was there under heaven that drew any wife so near to her husband's heart as the holy bond of motherhood. Could Paul Vane turn aside from his holy tie? Could he deny wife and child for the sake of a luring siren's wiles? Every honest heart in that room throbbed an indignant denial. It seemed that if Vivian humbled her pride and went to her husband—the man who had once been so honest and earnest and true, who—her child in her arms, forgiving his sin—asking only that he should repeat, she could not fail, she must conquer.

She went to Miss Point's side; she knelt down beside her, a slim, lovely shape in her dark-blue traveling gown, with the tangle of gold curls falling down her back like sunshine, her exquisite face, now so ethereally wan and pale, lifted beseechingly.

"You will take me across the sea to my husband?" she pleaded. "I shall never know rest or peace until I have triumphed over my enemy—until I have taken Paul from her and made her as desolate as I am now!" her blue eyes flashing.

Aunt Sarah wiped away some quick tears that were shining on her lashes, and, leaning forward, kissed the pure white brow.

"Yes, Vivian, I will take you to your husband," she said, tenderly. "I think perhaps you are right about it. Surely Paul Vane can not be such a fiend as to deny you both? But my dear, you must be patient and wait a few weeks until you are stronger, before we sail."

"How can I wait, Aunt Sarah? I am strong enough now."

"Humph! very strong indeed! Only a few days out of the world where you have been ill for almost two months. No! I cannot think of your going until April. You must get rested and regain your old beauty before you measure lances again with that cruel woman. Don't know the men? They are ill for beauty, and you have got to dazzle Paul Vane's eyes before you move his heart," said wise Aunt Sarah.

So it was settled that Vivian should follow her husband, with the little child from she hoped so much, but a few weeks must elapse first—weeks in which Vivian was to gain strength for the journey, and to try to win back some of the lost color and brightness that had been dear to Paul Vane's heart in the old days ere Lorraine's wicked plot had parted them forever.

"So Willie Benners still comes to see you, Beryl?" Aunt Sarah observed, quizzically, when the gentlemen were gone.

Beryl, sitting on a low ottoman and looking with tender, dreamy eyes into the bright, leaping flames of the open coal-fire, started and blushed, betraying mainly where her thoughts had been.

"Yes; he is here every day," she answered, wishing desperately that her cheeks would get cool under the laughing eyes of her aunt and the sad ones of Mrs. Vane as both sat opposite. But she added, in a moment, with pretended carelessness: "He lives very near—quite a neighbor, in fact—and he and I are so fond of each other."

"He and Beryl are so fond of each other, you mean?" laughed the spinster. "Never mind blushing so, my pet. I don't blame you for liking handsome, talented Willie. I am fond of him myself, and if I were a girl again I might fall in love myself with the dear boy's laughing black eyes. Vivian likes him, too, and well she may. For if he had not gone out that stormy night and rescued her, she would have frozen to death in the snow."

"Yes, he will always be a hero in my eyes, for he saved my life," said Vivian, gently, watching with tender eyes Beryl's happy smile at their praises of her lover.

"Oh, how sweet is love! How sweet, and yet how bitter!" thought the girl, who owned wife, mournfully. Some sad words from the poet laureate flitted through her mind:

Sweet is true love though given in vain, in vain,
And sweet is death that puts an end to pain.

I know not which is sweeter—no, not I!
"Aunt Sarah, I must show you Willie's latest poem. It is called 'A Rainy Day,' said Beryl. She flitted into the library with her light, quick step, and came back with a weekly paper in her hand.

"Read it aloud, my dear," said Aunt Sarah, who was at heart quite as romantic as her young niece. She adored poetry, and thought it charming that Beryl should have a poet for a lover.

How sweet and fair and young the girl looked, sitting before the fire-light in the beautiful room with the fire-light shining on her dimpled face and golden hair. She wore a soft white cashmere dress delicately embroidered in white and blue violets. A soft blue sash held the round waist, and blue ribbons fastened the loose plaits of shining hair. Some bright rings of fluffily gold waved over the innocent white brow, beneath which the large blue eyes shone with a dreamy light. It was just such a lovely, serious face as a poet could not help loving, and her voice was full of unconscious tenderness as she read her lover's verses to the appreciative listeners:

"All day long on my window pane
Drearly patters the cold March rain;
No cheering rays through the dark clouds shine,
Yet sunlight is flooding this heart of mine;
For from the beautiful land far away,
She has sent me a letter to-day!

"Dear little letter, more precious to me
Than all of the gold that lies under the sea,
Who will may laugh at me for being so weak,
While tears not of grief trickle over my cheek,
How can he seem so happy? they say,
Happy! Why not? I've a letter to-day!

"Here let the treasure lie close to my heart,
Until it seems of my being a part,
And read and reread till another shall come
Flashed with the light of her far southern home.

Let it rain on now as hard as it may,
Why should I care? I've a letter to-day!

Beryl's voice ceased, but the conscious color on her cheek was so bright that she would not look up, and it grew warmer still as Aunt Sarah said:

"It is very pretty, my dear, and I don't blame you for blushing. Of course Willie wrote it about one of your letters—the ones that were to him every week last winter while you were down in Virginia."

"Oh-h, Aunt Sarah!" the girl cried, reproachfully; and even Vivian, sad as she was, smiled as she said:

"Never mind, my darling, the siege can only last a few weeks. Then we shall be upon the ocean, secure from all interruptions." Willie said, consolingly.

Colonel Fairlie, whose home, too, was in Philadelphia, was a daily visitor at the Green street home. A "spirit in his feet" drew him daily there that he might gaze on the beautiful, sad face that haunted his thoughts sleeping or waking. It made him very happy when he saw that the lovely face always brightened for him as it did for no other; that her voice had in it a tone of trusting friendship. Those hours of peril in the floating air-ship alone together had formed a strong tie between them that strengthened day by day as Vivian came to know the old soldier better and better.

The wedding day dawned at last, and under the blue of the April sky the young poet and his bride were wedded. It was a grand affair, and the loving wish of many true friends followed them as they bid farewell to their old life to enter on the bright future that stretched before their united hearts.

"God bless you both," Colonel Fairlie said, as he wrung their hands on the steamer's deck. He had gone to New York to see them off. Then he returned to Vivian, whose pale, lovely face was wet with tears. "I shall pray for your success, dear friend," he said, brokenly.

SHOT HIS SON.

SHOCKING AFFAIR AT ORIEL VILLAGE, NEAR WOODSTOCK.

Alfred Holdsworth, Attar a Quarral With His Son Wounds Quarral Man in Arm—Turns Weapon on Himself.

Woodstock, Feb. 10.—Weeks of domestic difficulties culminated this morning at the residence of Alfred Holdsworth, of the village of Oriel, nine miles from here, when the father, aged 60 years, after shooting his son through the arm, made a determined attempt at suicide, which will probably result in his death. Holdsworth is a laborer, and for some time has been drinking heavily and quarrelling violently with the other members of his family. This morning after a quarrel with his son, aged 25, he drove the latter out of doors. The son, held the door on his father.

The latter, angered at this, grabbed a double-barrelled shotgun from the wall and shot through the door. He found the son screaming as the charge entered the arm, and, probably thinking he had killed the young man, he turned the gun on himself and discharged the contents of the other barrel in his face. His nose was completely shot away, and his entire face was terribly cut and shattered by the violence of the discharge.

The man has a chance for life, but it is thought he will die. The son was not badly hurt. A doctor was called from the city and attended the man. Holdsworth was terribly cut and shattered by the violence of the discharge.

FOLLOWING UP OPPOSITION LEAD.

HON. FRANK COCHRANE FAVORS MINERALS FOR THE SETTLERS.

Bill, Now Favored by Government is Practically Along Same Lines of Resolution of Mr. C. N. Smith at Last Session—Liberal Opposition Was Much Surprised.

Toronto, Feb. 11.—Much to the surprise of the small quota of Liberal members in the Legislature yesterday, Hon. Frank Cochrane, Minister of Lands and Mines, introduced a bill to confer on bona fide settlers the rights to minerals on lands for which they have received patents. This action is practically along the same line favored by the Opposition last session. In fact, Premier Whitney, on April 18 last, described as "blatantly" a portion of a resolution introduced by Mr. C. N. Smith (Sault Ste. Marie) with regard to the rights of settlers in minerals and timber. This resolution was to the effect that bona fide settlers should get with their patents not only the lands, but all timber and minerals. It further advised the framing of restrictions to prevent the taking up in this way of land unfit for agriculture. The resolution also proposed equitable arrangements with licensees where lands fit for agricultural or mineral development were under timber license. In view of the fact that Mr. Smith's resolution was defeated by 52 to 21, it was no wonder that the Opposition should be surprised at the bill now being introduced by Hon. Cochrane. It was stated in the Liberal lobbies that reference would be made to this seemingly inconsistent attitude on behalf of the Government during the next few days, and a rather warm debate may be expected.

As soon as the routine proceedings were finished the Minister of Lands, Forests and Mines introduced his bill to amend the public lands act, the object of which is to confer on bona fide settlers rights to minerals which may be found on the lands for which they have received patents. Mr. Cochrane intimated that today he would introduce another bill to amend the free grants and homesteads act along the same lines. Timber rights will be practically dealt with in the same manner as minerals, but it will be a matter for regulation, and no special legislation will be introduced dealing with it. The public lands bill, as introduced and accorded its first reading, provides that "when, to the satisfaction of the Minister, on the report of an officer appointed to inspect the land, Crown lands in any township not reserved for settlement or not valuable for their mines, ores or minerals, but are agricultural lands, suitable for cultivation and settlement, the Minister may, by the ## authority of an order in Council, open the lands for sale to settlers, and they shall be entitled to the minerals which may be found thereon."

In all townships already open for sale the Minister may at the request of any purchaser of land under the act, or any person claiming under him, cause such land to be examined by a specially appointed officer. If it is reported that the lands are not valuable for their minerals, but are agricultural lands, and that the claimant is not only in residence, but has made substantial improvements, the Minister may declare him to be entitled to the minerals if the land has not been staked, leased or recorded under the mines act. The bill is a retroactive measure.

Dr. Forbes Godfrey, the new member for West York, is out with a resolution regarding tuberculosis, which will be presented to the House shortly. The resolution is to the effect that a commission of three persons should be appointed to investigate conditions in the Province and report as to the advisability of establishing a Provincial sanitarium.

It is probable that Hon. Col. McLeod will introduce to-day a bill to amend the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board act. The principal features of the bill have already been outlined in the press. Chief amongst the provisions, however, will be a clause under which the board will be empowered to take action in the municipalities and roadworks occurring between the various railway companies.

The debate on the throne will be resumed this afternoon by Hon. Richard Harcourt.

MR. BASTEDO'S POSITION.

To Conduct Negotiations With the Provinces re Fisheries.

Ottawa, Feb. 10.—Mr. S. T. Bastedo, formerly Commissioner of Fisheries of Ontario, has been appointed by the Federal Government to act as a special commissioner to conduct negotiations with the various Provinces looking to a permanent adjustment of the respective Provincial and Federal jurisdictions in regard to the control of the fisheries.

The Judicial Committee of the Privy Council having decided that the Provinces possess their original property rights in the fisheries, which they possess prior to confederation, there has arisen a conflict of jurisdiction, chiefly as regards the administration of the in-shore fisheries on the sea coast, and as to the international waters in the Province of Ontario and Quebec.

So far there has been no actual clash of interests, but the Federal Government, believing that a full and frank conference with the Provinces may result in a modus vivendi, has decided to appoint a commissioner to negotiate with

DOG SAVED HIS LIFE.

C. W. Mattis Helpless in Snow When Animal Brought Succor.

St. Thomas, Feb. 10.—Lance Corporal Mattis, an eight-year-old lad, was saved from freezing to death Saturday night by a farmer's collie dog. Young Mattis is employed in a livery stable, and undertook to drive a traveller about eight miles into the country. He was poorly clad for such a cold drive, as it was between 13 and 20 below zero. On his return trip his hands became so numb he lost control of the horse, and fell out of the cutter. He started up a lane toward the light of a farm house, but collapsed and fell in the snow from the weight of his heavy coat. He is not known, but he would undoubtedly have frozen to death had not the barking of the farmer's dog attracted attention. The animal led the farmer right to the spot. The boy may lose his hands and feet.

TORN IN ROOM AT HOTEL.

Toronto Woman, on a Visit to New York, Suffers Painful Injury.

New York, Feb. 10.—Mrs. Annie Egele, of Toronto, Ont., who is visiting her married daughter here, was painfully burned about the shoulder during a fainting spell in her room at the Victoria Hotel to-day.

A maid was passing her apartment when she heard a scream. She informed the manager, and Thomas Keyes, the hotel electrician, climbed through the window from a fire escape. He found Mrs. Egele unconscious on the floor. Her feet rested on the edge of the bed. She was taken to the New York Hospital, where it is said she will recover.

KINGSTON ELECTION.

Kingston, Feb. 10.—In the ward vacancy left by the election of Dr. Ross to the mayoralty two candidates were nominated to-day—H. F. Hoag, Conservative, and Dr. Aykroyd, Liberal.

Two indictments for grand larceny were returned against C. W. Morse by a grand jury at New York.

The new Atlantic passenger rates which went into effect yesterday are nearly double those of a week ago.

THE HAMILTON TIMES

TUESDAY, FEB. 11, 1908.

HELP OR HINDRANCE.

The contention of some of the opponents of the Radial Railway being allowed to sell power along its line is expressed in a statement of our contemporary, the Herald, that "there is a franchise value in the privilege for which the company is not required to pay any thing."

CLIMBING DOWN.

Forced to face the actual facts, Mr. Ames, chief of the timber limit scandal-mongers, seeks to escape from the consequences of his misstatements, upon which all the Tory organs, sensations were based, by saying he was mis-reported, and the situation made five or six times worse than he actually stated.

SOCIALISTIC ERRORS.

The activity of British Socialists at the present moment makes particularly timely Mr. John Beattie Crozier's readable article in the current Fortnightly Review, "A Challenge to Socialism."

forts of the scientists, inventors, men of organizing capacity and of financial and business ability. It is somewhat peculiar then, that Marx made no allowance for this class. He professed to seek to close the yawning gap between the ordinary code of social justice and the strict ideal economic code which he professed. And yet he boldly claimed that the whole of the surplus produced belonged "to the workers alone," a doctrine which Mr. Crozier points out "he advanced with an ingenuity and dexterity that proved that if he was not a really great thinker, he was at least an exceedingly wide-awake and shifty one."

Mr. Crozier thus points out what he calls the "hocus-pocus" by which Marx deceived himself and played off on his followers with much display of economic philosophy:

What he did in his work on Capital was this, and it may be put in a nutshell; indeed, the reader will already have anticipated it for himself without any prompting. He cunningly substituted everywhere the work of the artisans and laborers attending on the machines, for the work of the machines themselves, as if the two were identical. In fact, he presumed, that as the machines are but dead wood and iron, and cannot themselves be paid in any way for what they do, and the inventor is not found standing beside them all day long, drafting off his share into his own private warehouse, the workmen who attend them can step into his place and claim the united product as their own—as if, like Coriolanus, they "alone did it."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Who will be the first to ask for a franchise for the mountain trolley line? An abundant ice crop means lower prices in perishable goods next summer. Now, if Dr. Roberts could quarantine a few more aldermen, they never would be missed.

administration boasting a desire to foster technical education and manual training, the aid it gives to Hamilton is pitifully small—after robbing us of the Normal College, too. The burden placed on the city by the manual training establishment is $3,200, even if it does not exceed that amount.

Get our your Persian and Armenian geographies, so that you may be able to follow the movements of the Russo-Turco armies should hostilities break out.

It is said that there are 90,000 union workmen out of employment in New York, out of a total membership of 285,000. That, added to the usual out-of-work element, will make the charity problem in New York acute.

Even so strong a Conservative organ as the Montreal Star is disgusted with the peanut politics of Borden and Foster, and thus refers to their speeches on the Japanese question:

"We begin to ask that the men who seek to supplant the present Government should prove that they also appreciate their responsibility, and are capable of seeing beyond the interests of their party the larger fields which open to statesmen."

The Ottawa Horticultural Society, the Citizen says, will during the coming season encourage the beautifying of residential grounds. A street will be selected in which the grounds in connection with residences are suitable for decorative floral effects, and the society will give a demonstration of what can be done by providing the necessary shrubs, and have a practical gardener superintend their planting and growth until they are successfully established.

The Mayor says he has no desire to squeeze the Board of Education. That is quite considerate, seeing that the Board of Education is not to be controlled by the Mayor or the Council. But he is right in urging the trustees to be frugal. But we need not expect that increases in their demands will cease, while we are one teacher short in the Collegiate Institute of the former staff, and the Inspector says we should have three more. Many people think that some expense has been in judiciously incurred by the Board, but a teaching staff such as meets the approval of the Department must be maintained, and ample school accommodation must be provided.

A British M. P. has a bill to lengthen the British day, which he calls the Daylight Saving Bill. He proposes to set all timepieces eighty minutes ahead during the summer months, so that work would be begun that much earlier in the morning. He has many arguments, on grounds of health and economy, in favor of utilizing the daylight hours, but we fear that he will find custom and prejudice hard to combat by reason. Has he in mind how the change in the calendar rounds mobs to shout: "Give us back our eleven days!" Sancho Panza said: "God bless the man who first invented sleep," and this M. P. may find it very hard to invoke such a general blessing on the man who would make the public rise an hour and twenty minutes earlier.

Mr. Foy's proposed Election Act, in its general effect, is to make the Provincial law correspond with that of the Dominion. The Dominion ballot is adopted; the written voters' lists are abolished; tendered ballots will no longer be received. Many provisions of the Dominion Act are incorporated. Indians not on a reserve are to be enfranchised, even when they participate in Government grants. Provision is made for recounts being granted, no matter how much the apparent majority may be. The hiring of vehicles to carry voters to the poll is forbidden, and in case of a tie, a returning officer will be compelled to give the casting vote. A voter claiming to have been persecuted may deposit a ballot, marked for identification. In no other case can a ballot be identified.

OUR EXCHANGES

Fiddlesticks. (Belleville Intelligencer.) Somebody in Hamilton wants the Board of Education to introduce orchestras in the schools, and the papers are poking fun at the idea. The Canadian Press at present has about enough to contend with putting up for fiddle strings. Unclean Parents. (Windsor Record.) The trained nurse of Hamilton schools want free baths for unclean pupils. She should rather recommend that the unclean parents be summoned to do the bathing. The Brutal. (Chicago Tribune.) "Papa, what's the use of saying 'good-by' when you're talking over the telephone?" "No use, I suppose, Tommy, except that it means that the conversation has closed. I never use it except when I'm talking to your mother." Environment. (Chicago Tribune.) "Madame, your husband does not seem to have any granic trouble," said the physician. "Land sakes, no!" exclaimed Mrs. Pneu-rich. "Not in this neighborhood. But the folks that live next door to us have a granic phobose that worries him nearly to death."

Beck's Judgment. (Toronto Globe.) Mr. Beck has evidently more judgment than some of his journalistic backers. He sees no reason why competition with the Hydro-Electric energy should be forbidden.

Billboards and Nature. (Toronto Star.) Billboards may disfigure nature, as the Hamilton Times says, but they don't remove nature as other institutions might do. Nature often has to hide behind the billboards to avoid more active aggressors.

Chinese Troops for the Frontier. HASTENING ORGANIZATION OF HER WELL DRILLED FORCE. China Trying to Undermine Great Britain in Tibet—The Latter Unable to Occupy the Cumi Valley—Conflicting With Anglo-Russian Convention.

Peking, Feb. 11.—Border complications and the success of the rebels on the French border, due it is believed to foreign assistance, have induced the Chinese Government to hasten the organization of her modern drilled troops at all frontier points. The Government proposes to send Chinese troops to Mongolia for the purpose of developing the plans looking to the organization of defenses for frontier districts. A modern drilled skeleton brigade is now on its way to Tibet for the purpose of organizing a Tibetan division.

The fact that the Indo-Tibet trade convention of the Cumi Valley by the British troops. This delay tends to bring Great Britain into conflict with the Anglo-Russian convention, which regulates the respective interests of these two powers in Tibet, Afghanistan and Persia, and which China is using for the purpose of reducing Great Britain's rights, in dealing direct with the Tibetans, to a minimum.

China has admitted the Thibetian text into the convention upon written assurances that this text is for the purpose of elucidation, and now is striving to secure an exact definition of Great Britain's relations with Thibet.

The throne has authorized uniform punishment for Manchurian and Chinese offenders.

DEATH OF MRS. CADE

Husband Was Formerly Minister of Hamilton Church. The death occurred yesterday morning of Mary A. Edmond, the beloved wife of the Rev. Robert Cade, D. D., at her residence, 103 Cowan avenue, Toronto, in the 70th year of her age. Mrs. Cade was born in Yorkville on April 22, 1837, being daughter of the late Mr. John Edmond, merchant, and two street boys in the best of spirits, she entertained her many friends on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of her marriage. She leaves one son, Mr. Robt. Cade, of the Ebr. Bain Co., and four daughters, one of whom is the wife of Mr. William Brown, of the Massey-Harris Co., and the other three are unmarried. The funeral will take place on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

THE UNEMPLOYED.

To the Editor of the Times: Sir,—Writing as one, who feels the seriousness of the situation, I desire to call the attention of our good citizens to the state and condition of the unemployed within the city limits. There are families, within the shadow of our homes, who are without food, fuel and proper winter garments. To cite a few cases: An English family was found on a street morning with the last loaf of bread and scuttles of coal in the home. A man appealed to a householder for a meal not having had food for a day and a half. A woman walked with infant in arms from Crown Point to James street seeking a day's washing, leaving at home, a little son with empty stomach to attend the bedside of a sick father. I could instance dozens of cases, more critical and appalling, but think these will suffice to illustrate a condition existing, demanding immediate attention and the united effort on the part of the Council, clergy, benevolent societies and charitable disposed citizens to cope with the human need and wants of those, who, I shall put it in the true light, are on the verge of starvation and freezing to death. Toronto, St. Catharines, Montreal and other cities are successfully grappling with this grave problem of relieving their deserving poor. Why not Hamilton show some initiative and hold a mass meeting of citizens and become organized. An impending crisis is at hand and something must be done or else the Council will have to bear the responsibility. The purpose of my letter is this, in my humble opinion let the Mayor, clergy and benevolent societies meet and discuss the advisability of renting a vacant uptown store for distribution purposes. Then appeal to the warmth and goodwill of our charitable citizens, who have been so admirably in the relief work, to send clothing, food, money and coal orders to this centralized distribution depot. I can assure a so-called "General Relief Scheme" with faith and confidence, the many a family will spare themselves a portion of bread, groceries, milk clothes, fuel and other foods and happily send in their allotments daily for a month or more. May my suggestion, as it were, fall in good ground and anchor itself for reflection and meditation in the minds of the good citizens of the "Ambitious City." Act now and relieve the thousand pangs of hunger and pains of cold. Ask in help of Providence, James L. Jolley.

GOOD FOR MINERS.

DUNDAS BOY IN A HIGH PLACE. DR SPENCER, F.G.S., WAS STUDENT IN VALLEY CITY.

James Heslop Buys Land at Port Nelson—Copetown and Ancaster Leaguers' Visit.

Dundas, Feb. 11.—One of the many Dundas boys who have attained world-wide celebrity seems to be heard little of in his native town in these later days. That one is Dr. Winthrop (Joseph) Spencer, F. G. S., who occupies today a leading position among the geologists of the world.

James Heslop, for many years a resident on the Governor's road, sold his farm there last fall, and moved into the residence formerly occupied by Mrs. Bickford in Dundas, has purchased a little garden farm below Port Nelson from Robert Logan, and will move on in the near future.

Wm. Burton and L. S. Call, well known citizens, who have been sick for some time past, are not improving, rather the reverse.

Mrs. Andrew Vallens is laid up with an attack of the grip. The Epworth League of the Methodist Church was visited last evening by leaguers from Copetown, Ancaster and Rock Chapel. They had a jolly good time. There were speeches, singing, music, readings, as well given, and much appreciated. Limericks also figured prominently in the programme, and an abundance of tempting refreshments did not by any means mar the enjoyment of the occasion. Mayor Moss was in the chair.

FREESTONE LODGE. Hamilton Oddfellows at Beamsville Last Night.

District Deputy Grand Master C. H. Mann, accompanied by his installing board, composed of G. O. Luke, F. R. Martin, P. D. G. M. J. Ogilvie, E. R. Drinkwater and A. W. Leaney, left for the purpose of installing the officers of Freestone Lodge, L. O. O. F. The above board also assisted the officers of Freestone to confer initiation on seventeen candidates, both ceremonies being performed in an excellent manner. A banquet was tendered the visitors and the new members at the Robinson House. The usual toast list was indulged in, representatives being present from Empire Lodge, St. Catharines, and Catarauqua Lodge, Kingston. The principal speakers of the evening were Bros. H. Sinclair, Past Master of Grimsby; C. E. Riggins, magistrate, and R. H. Montgomery, newly installed Noble Grand; J. Kennedy, retiring Noble Grand; Gaymon, Somerville, of Kingston; Ryckman, of St. Catharines; Davies, editor of the Express, and Bros. Luke, Leaney, Drinkwater, Ogilvie and Martin, the closing speech being made by the District Deputy, Bro. Mann expects to return to Freestone Lodge next month to initiate in the neighborhood of twenty-five new candidates. It is expected that Freestone Lodge, in company with Grimsby, will pay a fraternal visit to this city for the purpose of receiving some of the higher degrees. The pleasant evening broke up at 2.45 a. m. The installing board, returning this morning by the 8.10 car.

TO HAVE IT READY FOR THURSDAY NEXT.

Street Railway Company's Proposition Will be Submitted to Board of Works.

Council to Hold Caucus Over Board of Control and the Estimates.

The Street Railway Company has proposed to submit to the city by Thursday the proposition stating the conditions on which it will fix up its roadbed and cars, thus heading off the move...

The subject came up when Ald. Dickson, under the head of new business, inquired what the Board of Works was doing about local improvement for road work.

Chairman Sweeney replied that he thought it would make very little difference, as far as the amount of the appropriation to his committee was concerned, whether local improvement was dealt with before the estimates were struck.

Colonel Gibson had been busy at Ottawa with the Radio bill and was unable to take the matter up before this.

Another illustration of Tolly machine methods was furnished when Ald. Sweeney moved that R. L. Craig be appointed veterinary for the Police Department in place of Dr. Groves, who was recommended by the Markets Committee.

Aldermen Lewis and Howard were the only absentees. The oil by-law, making new regulations regarding the storage of oil, was passed.

LATE MR. QUINN

Was Freight Agent at Hamilton For Some Years.

Mr. Robert Quinn, who died on Sunday in Detroit, at the age of 65 years, was for 37 years an active worker in railroad circles.

The late Mr. Quinn, who was a native of Dublin, started his railroad experience under the old Northern Railroad under the late Mr. Cumberland.

After the absorption of that road by the G. T. R. he was appointed general freight agent for that division. When the late Sir Joseph Hickson was leaving the G. T. R. he selected Mr. Quinn to go to England as European representative of the G. T. R. Mr. Quinn remained in England till the appointment of Mr. C. M. Hays. He then returned to Canada, and was appointed to the freight agency at Hamilton, and was afterwards transferred to Detroit in the last freight department.

For ten years he stayed here, and at the end of that time left for South Africa, another in the Western Bank at Vancouver, and another who is on the stage.

Two daughters and Mrs. Quinn, who is a sister of Messrs. A. M. and Harry Orpen and of Mrs. Gladstone, of Toronto, are in Detroit.

HAS 28 PATIENTS

And Progress Has Been Satisfactory at the San.

The monthly meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Hamilton Health Association was held at the Spectator building yesterday, when the monthly routine of hearing reports and passing the accounts was satisfactorily disposed of.

During January the city nurse had 24 on her list, and 28 patients were in residence on the mountain—from Hamilton 25, from Dundas 1, from Barton township 1, and from outside the county 1.

Of the 28 patients, 13 have been free, and the others paying in sums from $1 to $8 per week.

A system of telephones is to be installed, connecting the doctor's shack and other outlying buildings with each other. Mrs. Sanford has kindly offered to defray the expenses of this work.

In spite of the severe winter weather, everything has been very comfortable at the Sanitarium, and the progress among the patients is steadily good.

WESLEY CRUSADE DAY.

Yesterday was Crusade Day for the Women's Missionary Society of Wesley Church. The meeting was held in the church parlour. Nearly one hundred ladies were present.

Mrs. Cole, Mrs. Waugh and Mrs. Cole kindly furnished music and refreshments, and the social half hour for becoming acquainted with the strangers was improved and enjoyed. Many new names were added to the membership.

Accompanists, Mr. R. Symmers, Misses Fraser and Stabæk. Mr. R. S. Wallace in a short speech thanked those who had helped to make the anniversary so successful.

After singing "God Save the King," Mr. MacLachlan pronounced the benediction and brought to a close one of the most successful services ever held in this church.

WILL RESIGN FIRST.

Toronto Commissioners Will Not Cut Down Licenses.

Toronto, Feb. 11.—The rumor that the city license commissioners will resign, rather than carry out the decision of the City Council to reduce by thirty-four the number of liquor licenses within the municipal area of Toronto, has caused intense excitement among local Conservatives, and already the patronage committees of two of the wards have met and have begun the preparations of a list of suitable men for the new position.

The commissioners have told Mr. Hanna that unless action is taken to prevent the reduction being carried out they will resign, and it is said on very good authority that the Cabinet will certainly not do anything to thwart the will of a majority of the City Council.

There was a rumor that the leading Tories of the city had decided that no one would accept the position of license commissioner, and that in this way the hands of the Government would be forced, but when the patronage committee met it was found that a number of strong temperance Tories were ready to take office and to carry out the reduction.

PARED HIS CORNS.

U. S. Supreme Court Justice Dies in Consequence.

New York, Feb. 11.—Justice George B. Abbott, of the King's County Superior Court, died to-day from blood poisoning at his home, 96 Joralemon street, Brooklyn. His death followed the amputation of a toe, which had reached a dangerous condition, after treatment for a corn. Immediately after the operation blood poisoning set in, and despite the efforts of several physicians Justice Abbott failed to rally.

Justice Abbott had been suffering from diabetes for seven or eight years. Two weeks ago he complained of a corn, and was induced to visit a chiropodist, who removed it. Several days later Justice Abbott again complained, and the family physician was called in. It was decided that blood poisoning had taken hold, probably due to a deep incision. To save the justice's foot it was decided to amputate the toe. At the time the doctor did not anticipate any fatal consequences.

After the operation, however, Justice Abbott became aggravated. His wife, son and daughter were with him at 9.30 o'clock, when he died.

TREATMENT OF CRIMINALS

Discussed at Regular Meeting of Canadian Club.

Reform of the Prisoner Should be the Object.

Problem of Prison Labor and the Prisoners' Families.

The regular debate of the Canadian Club was held last evening in the Conservatory of Music, and was well attended. The subject for the evening was the "Modern Treatment of the Criminal and Methods Employed."

Mr. W. M. McClelland, the president, occupied the chair and called upon Mr. Allan Studholme, M. P., to open the discussion. Mr. Studholme said that the labor party had been discussing the problem of prison reform for the past 25 years, and was of the opinion that "prison labor should not be in competition with free labor."

He referred to the report of the Special Committee appointed to look into the matter of prison reform, and read recommendations to the effect that the Central Prison should be abolished, and that the prisoners should be placed on a large farm not far from Toronto. It had been further suggested that the prisoners' food should be raised on articles for their own consumption, and at the same time manufacture such articles as were needed for other public institutions throughout the province. As for the parole system, Mr. Studholme stated that the "instructor of it, as it is given the criminal a chance, the popular idea seems to be to put these criminals at some outdoor work or teach them a trade, but the principal idea of the parole system was to reform men. In many cases it was the wives and children of the criminals who suffered more than the criminal himself, and he thought that a system should be devised so that the earnings of criminals should be paid over to the wives and children for their support.

William Barrett could not for the life of him understand how it was that any Government had the cheek to sell the labor of prisoners, worth at least between $2 and $3 a day for 35 and 40 cents. He considered that it was time to raise the question from 19th century ideas. In regard to the license system, he thought that that should be placed more in the control of the Government than at present.

H. J. Halford said that while the man in the jail might not be punished enough for the sin he had committed, there was certainly a fact that the wives and children of these men suffered, and he thought that some adequate protection should be given them. He approved of the idea of reformation as outlined by Mr. Archibald, as he was of the opinion that when a man did wrong he was generally sorry for what he had done, and if he was given a chance, would try and lead a better life.

Linus Woolverton, of Grimsby, said that the parole system certainly commended itself to him. He thought that the cat o' nine tails was the strongest argument in regard to the parole system. He believed that the criminal should be allowed to understand that something was being done for him, and that the public should consider that a man at least and treat him as such. He believed that the parole system should be put at work on a large scale. If the criminal was given the right bent there was no doubt in his mind he could be turned out a man in every sense of the word.

Mr. McClelland, in closing the discussion said that he considered that the society at large was responsible for the condition that exists at present, and he thought that the Government should be held responsible for the betterment of conditions. Environment, home training and lack of education were responsible for the criminal. He contended that a system of education, a discipline such as is in vogue in the public schools, should be applied to the criminals. The labor should make the jail a self-sustaining institution. He also thought the earnings of the criminals should be paid to the support of the wives and families, or be laid aside so that when they were let out they would not have to go bare into the world.

EVENING WITH POE.

Century Literary Society Had an Enjoyable One.

Century Literary Society held its regular meeting last evening. It was an evening with Edgar Allan Poe, and was an evening with Miss Willis reciting "The Raven," "The Bells," and that beautiful picture poem, "Eleonora," with piano accompaniment by Miss Willis. Miss Clara Salisbury read "Annabel Lee," in her usual pleasing manner. Miss Nellie Marshall added to the evening's pleasure by playing a piano solo. The society is fortunate in securing Prof. McLachlin, of Victoria College, Toronto, to give an illustrated lecture on Egypt, past and present, next Monday evening. The public is cordially invited.

Ottawa will tax the salaries of civil servants this year, which will make a difference of $20,000 in the city revenue.

Fat Defeating Extraordinary

MARGARET KNOLLY.

SLENDER Margaret Knolly now, if you please, is now more fascinating than ever, astonished all her friends on Broadway the other day by presenting to their admiring gaze a sweet and willowy form in place of the plump, not to say fat, outlines with which she gaily sailed away to new triumphs and foreign shores last January.

After a good deal of diplomatic cross-examination from interested fat acquaintances, the secret was cautiously whispered to a few dear friends, with the result that everybody knows it now. It was not exercise, not fasting, nor sea air, nor worry about her new ventures that had brought about this wonderful "wifely change" in the charming Margaret; no, none of these; nothing but a simple mixture which all druggists are familiar with, and which simply at small cost, to wit: One-half ounce Marmola, 3/4 ounce-Fluid Extract Casarea Aromatic, and 3/4 ounce-Syrup Simplex. "Grown folks need a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime," explained the Marmola. "It is simply wonderful. It takes off the fat quickly, as much as a pound a day, and keeps it off. You can eat what you like, too. In that respect it is unlike anything of the kind ever heard of, and, besides, it has another special feature—it is entirely harmless and will cause no wrinkles. I think it is about as essential a toilet article for the woman who is fat and wants to get thinner as face powder. In order to get the best results, however, you should buy the Marmola in the original package and mix it with the other two ingredients after you get home.

LARGER LICENSE FEES. Council Will Ask Legislature to Increase Them.

Toronto, Feb. 11.—It is recommended that the Ontario Legislature be applied to at its present session to increase the liquor license fees. This recommendation of the Board of Control was adopted by the City Council yesterday, after an ineffectual attempt had been made to defer it. Ald. Church moved in amendment as follows: "It is recommended that the Ontario Legislature be applied to at its present session to take over the whole license system and regulation thereof, including fees, and to increase the liquor license fees on a graduated scale." The amendment was voted down by 16 to 5.

TO EXPEDITE THE WORK

Between Winnipeg and Lake Superior Junction.

Montreal, Feb. 10.—Mr. E. W. Morse, Vice-President and General Manager of the G. T. P., left to-day for Ottawa to confer with the members of the National Transcontinental Railway Commission with regard to the section of the line between Winnipeg and Lake Superior Junction. The Lake Superior branch line from Thunder Bay up to the junction, which is being constructed by Messrs. Foley Bros. & Co., will, it is expected, be built much earlier than was anticipated some time ago, and considerably earlier than the firm of contractors who are building the 275 miles of line which is being constructed by Messrs. Foley Bros. & Co. will, it is expected, be built much earlier than was anticipated some time ago, and considerably earlier than the firm of contractors who are building the 275 miles of line which is being constructed by Messrs. Foley Bros. & Co.

Should the G. T. P. management succeed in this they would be able to have the whole line from Edmonton to Port Arthur ready for the movement of next year's harvest. Altogether this would mean that nearly 2,000 miles would be finished in little more than a year's time. There seems to be no reason now to doubt that the prairie sections will be ready for the movement of next season's crop from Edmonton to Thunder Bay.

DUEL LASTS FIVE BOUTS.

An Italian General Badly Wounded in Fourth.

Rome, Feb. 10.—A sensation has been caused among military officers and members of society by learning that a fierce duel was fought yesterday near Reggio di Calabria, by the well-known General Bompiani and Baron Vincenzo Negri. General Bompiani was gravely wounded. The weapons used were swords and the conditions were very severe.

There were five bouts. During the fourth Baron Negri wounded his adversary, Gen. Bompiani, for the fifth, but his strength failed him and he fell senseless. The doctors found he had received a very long and deep wound. They doubt that he will recover. Baron Negri received a few scratches. The cause of the quarrel is not explained. It was at first arranged that the duel would be fought with pistols, in the neighborhood of Rome, but Baron Negri's mother, learning of it, secured the aid of influential men to prevent the meeting, and the police kept a sharp lookout. It was then arranged to fight near Reggio di Calabria. General Bompiani is highly esteemed by military officers.

BREAD AND WATER.

Shackers Had Scanty Diet Until Relief Came.

Toronto, Feb. 11.—An increase of a little more than $1,000 in the cash total of the Shacktown relief fund for one day shows that the situation in the outskirts of Toronto is understood and appreciated by readers of The Globe. The need for children's clothing of all kinds continues urgent, however, and the committee is anxious to secure further supplies of that kind.

Some remarkable courses of diet have figured in the experience of the needy in Shacktown. Families have been found to be living on the proverbial "dry bread and water," others have only potatoes, and some subsisted on beans, or plain liver. In one case already mentioned in The Globe a widow and her child lived for days on bread and lard. More recently a case was discovered where a family of six subsisted on pancakes made of flour and water, and last Saturday night a call came to the relief workers in Davenport Mission which, on investigation, brought to light a family living on cornmeal mixed with cold water. This meal absorbed the last of the family's provisions, and the members of the household had "down no other food for several days. In the absence of fuel for a fire this "stuff of life" had been eaten raw.

HOW IT WAS FIXED.

Startling Disclosure Made at Toronto Parks Investigation.

Toronto, Feb. 11.—Absolute manipulation of accounts at the office of the city Park Commissioner was shown yesterday in the evidence presented at the parks inquiry. With the result of letting the firm of Stone & Wellington have a practical monopoly of the business of supplying nursery stock to the department of Mr. John Chambers, the former Park Commissioner, gave instructions to have accounts for large sums split up into amounts of less than $200, so that tenders would not have to be called for, and thus comply with the provisions of the city by-laws regarding tenders for supplies for civic departments.

BERLIN BANKER SKIPS.

He Leaves Unsecured Liabilities of $750,000.

Berlin, Feb. 10.—Siegmond Friedberg, a banker, has absconded, leaving unsecured liabilities of $750,000. Small depositors spent the day outside the bank, vainly hoping to recover their savings. He secured a large clientele among small traders and artisans through the Investors' Review, a newspaper owned by him. These people are likely to lose the money they had in Friedberg's hands. A warrant has been issued for his arrest.

HAMILTON MAN BADLY FROZEN.

Peter Fitzgerald's Awful Experience in the North.

Is Now in Toronto Hospital, in Bad Way.

Trapped in Blinding Storm at 40 Below Zero.

Peter Fitzgerald, aged 26 years, and who was employed with the Fowler Canadian Company in this city several years ago, is in Toronto General Hospital with both feet frozen, and finger tips, ears and nose nipped with the frost.

The doctors at the hospital do not know yet whether they can save his right foot or not. The left foot, though badly frozen, is safe, and it is possible that the young man will suffer only the loss of the toe on the right foot.

In November last he secured employment on the Algoma Central, but the closing in of winter stopped the construction work and he was forced to quit a few days before Christmas.

To-night and to-morrow night in Association Hall will be presented one of the best programmes of its sort ever seen in Hamilton. The Miami Indian Territory, songs of Jim. Tish, speaking of the Floyd's says: 'Constitution Hall was well filled last evening to witness the fourth entertainment in the size course, and if continuous applause and hearty laughter are any criterion the performance of magic and nimble reading by the Floyds was a success.

At 8 o'clock Tuesday morning he left Huntsville to tramp the twenty miles to the Ontario. The weather then and for the ensuing days ranged anywhere from 20 to 40 degrees below zero.

Gradually the frost got in his deadly work. As the young man battled the way through snowdrifts six feet deep in places he felt the cold numbing his members.

How long he remained there he does not know. In time his energy revived, and with almost superhuman efforts he extricated himself from the drift and battled on.

BRYANT RESIGNED.

Faithful Clerk of Barton Succeeded by His Son.

The council of the Township of Barton met in the Township Hall at 1.30 p. m. yesterday.

At the request of a large number of ratepayers on Poplar avenue, the council passed a resolution to have the poplar trees trimmed and cut to a uniform height, so as to render them less dangerous, the wood to be given to the poor.

Mr. Harry Bryant handed in his resignation as clerk of the township. It was known that he intended to do so for some time past, and deputations waited upon him to endeavor to induce him not to take this step, but without avail.

Deputy Reeve Hills and Councillor Hunt moved the following resolution: That this council desires to place on record its high appreciation of the faithful, conscientious and valuable services rendered to the township by Mr. Harry Bryant, who has acted as clerk for the past eighteen years.

BUFFALO ITALIAN CHARGED WITH MURDERING COMPANION.

Quarrelled With Him Because Jealous of His Attentions to His Wife.

Buffalo, Feb. 11.—In a jealous frenzy, Samuel Santangelo, of 127 Canal street, is alleged to have shot down his fellow countryman, Angelo Rea, 38 years old, who lived at Peacock and Evans streets, last night. Rea died a few minutes later.

The shooting occurred in Evans street near Canal street. The men were walking along Canal street conversing in their native tongue and they were apparently in the best of spirits. They had been good friends for a long time.

Just after they had made the turn into Evans street Santangelo is alleged to have drawn a revolver and fired four shots at his friend.

They were returning from a dance at the time of the occurrence, and it is said that some words that were passed at the dance between them had uncovered an old score.

At the time of the shooting there were hundreds of persons on the streets in the vicinity, and it is considered miraculous that no one else was killed.

Patrolman Doherty heard the shooting and dashed down the street to the scene, barely escaping one of the bullets. He caught the man who is charged with doing the shooting, and ordered an ambulance for the other man.

One of the bullets that was fired nearly took away a part of the patrolman's ear. Another bullet whizzed past the ear of Joseph Sings, who lives in the terrace.

The wedding that Rea had attended was at 19 Evans street. There, it is said, words were exchanged between him and Santangelo. Little was thought of this trouble by the Italians, who were gaily celebrating the wedding, and when the two left the house together there was no thought that a clash would occur on the street.

The trouble between Rea and Santangelo is of long standing. Santangelo, who is married, believed that Rea was in love with his wife, as the story goes. Rea was single and rather attractive. He used to sell fish at the home of Santangelo, it is said, where he worked as an acquaintance with Santangelo's wife.

KELSEY'S REMOVAL.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 11.—Governor Hughes to-day renewed to the Senate his recommendation of last year that Otis Kelsey, of Genesee, be removed from the office of State Superintendent of Instruction on the ground of incompetency.

Last year the Senate refused by a vote of 27 to 24 to remove Superintendent Kelsey. On motion of Senator Raines the message without comment was unanimously ordered printed and "for the present to lie on the table."

SEVEN MEET DEATH IN FIRE.

Mother and Six Children Burned at New Liskeard.

Housed in an Upper Room of Their Dwelling.

Father Seriously Burned in Attempting a Rescue.

New Liskeard, Ont., Feb. 10.—The following fuller particulars are given of the awful holocaust here: Cut off from all avenues of escape by a sudden burst of flame which converted the upper floor of their home into a roaring furnace in a few minutes, Mrs. Lawrence Haacke and her six children, ranging from a newly-born baby to a girl of eleven, were burned to death about eleven o'clock yesterday morning, while the frantic father and husband made ineffectual attempts to go to their rescue. The fire started from a heated stove pipe near the stair leading to the upper floor, and spread with such rapidity that access to the room where the doomed family were was a rescue were such impossible.

The dead are: Nettie Christiania Haacke, the mother, aged 36. Vera Margaret Haacke, aged 11 years. Mahel Irene, aged 9 years. George Frederick Lawrence, aged 5 years. Clarence Henry, aged 5 years. Anna Evelyn, aged 2 years. The sixth child was newly born.

How Tragedy Occurred.

According to Mr. Haacke's account, he dozed himself at about 10:30, and leaving his family awake, the clock stairs to light the wood fires. He started the front room stove first and left it burning to attend to that in the kitchen. To give warmth to those upstairs he closed the door leading to the kitchen. Not a sound did he hear as he sat by the kitchen fire and in a few minutes he arose to look after the other stove. As he opened the door he was met by a cloud of smoke. His first thought was for his children. He rushed to the stairway, but he met with a burst of flame that choked him, stung his hair and burned his face. He cast about for some covering, but realized the hopelessness of the attempt.

An Attempt to Rescue.

There was one window in the upstairs, and Haacke ran outside for a ladder. He called to his brother-in-law, John Fritz, who lived next door, and the two men threw a ladder against the window. The moment the glass was broken the flames roared through the opening as from the crater of a volcano. In less than five minutes afterwards the downstairs floor alone remained.

Removing the Bodies.

When the firemen arrived the work of finding the charred bodies of the victims commenced. The body of the baby girl, two years old, was the first to be recovered, and it was laid on a blanket nearby. The body was very slightly scorched, due to the fact that it was wrapped in blankets when the fire was raging. Then was found the body of the next youngest, a boy 5 years old. It was charred almost beyond recognition.

Mother and Babe Found.

The mother and newly-born babe were the next recovered. The mother's limbs were all burned off. Then came the bodies of a boy and girl, aged 6 and 9 years. The last one recovered was that of the eldest of the family, a girl 11 years old. The seven bodies were all recovered an hour after the first alarm of the fire had sounded.

Burned Like Tinder.

The rapidity of the fire is explained by the fact that the house was shored, in lieu of plaster, by heavy white building paper. It was a storey-and-a-half structure, built entirely of wood, and as dry as tinder. The stove pipe ran through the floor beside a narrow wood stairway, but it was protected from the flooring by a hollow tin drum used regularly for such purposes. The pipe itself was new. At the same time the stove had a powerful draught, and the heat no doubt ignited the paper. The fire must therefore have made its first appearance beside the staircase.

The family was bottled up in a close room. It is probable the mother fainted and that the children were suffocated before they realized the situation.

The charred remains were taken to a undertaker's establishment and were forwarded to Toronto on the evening train for interment in the Necropolis.

Another Account.

New Liskeard, Feb. 10.—The mother and six children burned to death and the father badly scorched in a vain effort to save his family from the flames of their burning home is the saddest of the tragedies of New Ontario. About 2:50 yesterday morning Lawrence Haacke, who lives on the north side of the Amie, Evelyn was a woman, and was some more firewood, and scarcely had he entered the outdoors when he heard his wife scream. When he rushed back he found the kitchen and the one stair on fire, which he found it impossible to climb. He tried to reach the one upstairs room, where all the family were. They got a ladder, and, breaking the upstairs window they were met by a fierce flame. Haacke tried to get in spite of the flame, but he was beaten back, badly burned.

The silence which soon followed the vain effort of Haacke told its own pitiful tale, and the neighbors who had by this time gathered around knew that the mother and the six little ones had all perished in the flames. The sad work of recovering the charred remains was at once begun with the assistance of the fire brigade. The body of Annie Evelyn was soon found, and was not very much burned. Clarence Henry's body was next reached, but it was very much charred. The mother and a newly-born babe were next found, the mother's lower limbs being nearly burned off. The other bodies were all found almost immediately after, and the seven were got out within one hour of the alarm being given.

A DRESSY MODE.

Nos. 206-208—This charming model represents the newest and best of the season's styles. The waist will appeal at once to the woman who is in search of something novel and attractive. The front laps in a double breasted style; it is cut in scalloped outline, the closing being affected by three large buttons. An odd and pleasing feature is the introduction of straps of the material arranged at each front. In addition to being very ornamental, they afford a convenient place for small pocket that could easily be inserted underneath. The sleeves allow of being full length or in a modish three-quarter style, which is preferred by many for dressy wear. The skirt is a graceful five-gored model. The top is tucked to deep yoke depth, except in front which is left plain in panel effect. The circular flounce adds becoming flare to the lower edge which may be in medium sweep or round length. The design would be excellent for broadcloth, voile, taffeta and satin cloth. For 36 bust measure, 3 1/4 yards of 36-inch material will be required but measure.

Ladies' Blouse, No. 206—Sizes, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches for the blouse and 10 1/2 for the skirt.

Ladies' five-gored skirt, in medium sweep or round length, and with or without the three circular flounce. Nos. 208. Sizes for 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32 inches waist measure.

This illustration calls for two separate patterns for a waist and a skirt, which will be mailed to any address on the receipt of 10 cents for each in silver or stamps.

FED PINS TO BABY.

NURSE GIRL'S RUSE TO GET FEW NIGHTS OFF.

Gave the Child Needles, Pins, Matches and Other Things to Make Him Sick—Then His Parents Did the Nursing.

New York, Feb. 10.—Aurelia Lightbourne, a fourteen-year-old colored nurse girl, who is a prisoner in the Nassau County Jail at Mineola, L. I., charged with assault in the second degree, yesterday made a full confession to Assistant District Attorney Goles concerning her reasons for making two-year-old Robert Purdy, her charge, swallow pins, needles, matches and other materials to make the child ill.

"I have been working for Mr. W. A. Purdy, at Rockville Centre," she said. "I had his son Robert in charge. A few nights ago Robert began to cry at night and I had to get up to attend to him. I got tired of this thing. I needed sleep, so I hit on the plan to give him the needles and pins and the other things. That kind of stuff made him sick, and Mrs. Purdy had to take care of him."

"It wasn't only because the baby made me lose sleep that I gave him the pins and needles. I'd come to like dances and parties, and 'socials,' and got acquainted with a lot of white folks who liked me. I wanted to go to their affairs, but because Robert needed attention I couldn't get off nights. So by making the boy sick, and making Mrs. Purdy nurse him, I managed to get away many nights."

"The Purdys never would have known I guess, just what was the matter with Robert if a minister hadn't come to Rockville Centre to start a religious revival and get money enough to build a Baptist Church for colored people. The minister converted me, and my conscience bothered me so much that I just had to go to Mr. Purdy and confess that I'd almost killed Robert just to get a few nights off. Mr. Purdy had me arrested."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE.

To the Editor of the Times: Sir.—According to a report in The Times of Feb. 3, Rev. J. K. Easton, of First Congregational Church, has paid some attention to Christian Science in a recent sermon, and, inasmuch as he is reported to have declared that the healing in Christian Science is accomplished by suggestion, my remarks call for reply, in the interest not only of Christian Science, but of the general public who desire to be correctly informed.

Criticism by suggestion, as Mr. Easton will doubtless admit, implies the use of the mortal or carnal mind to effect the cure, and yet we have it on the best authority that this "carnal mind is enmity against God." Moreover, while cures may sometimes seem to be effected by this method, it is within the knowledge of every observant person that this method is susceptible of grave abuse. How, then, can such an agency be the channel through which God, or good, sends healing to mankind? Christian Science recognizes but the one Mind—God, the divine One, the divine Mind is neither mortal nor carnal, and it does not suggest, but knows, for it is omniscient.

Mr. Easton also appears to have confused Christian Science with new thought and faith cure, whereas it is no way allied to either. To this one, divine Mind there is no new thought, for it is the sole intelligence of the universe, which always was and is, "the same yesterday, and to-day, and forever." New thought admittedly employs suggestion, recognizes many minds, and asserts the influence of one mind over another, while Christian Science does none of these things.

Neither is Christian Science to be confused with faith cure, because it is not new mentalistic, on the testimony of many persons, that they have gone to it without faith and yet have been healed. If it is faith on the part of the practitioner that accomplishes the result, why do not the same successful results follow the prayers of Christian ministers of every denomination, since God is "no respecter of persons?"

The fact is that healing in Christian Science involves more than mere faith in God. It involves and includes a demonstrable understanding of the ever-operative principle of Love, as available and as powerful to save to-day as ever it was.

To quote from a recent article by Willard S. Mattox, in the Philadelphia "North American": "Do the exponents and defenders of this healing class seriously contend that Jesus was a hypnotist, and that he healed by mental suggestion or hypnotic treatment? If he did not so heal, and if they are loth to claim that he did, how can it be said that a modern system which employs such methods in any way like 'Jesus Christ's sort of Christianity'?"

The Christian Scientist shrinks from associating hypnotism and mesmerism with his own career. He said, "My Father worketh hitherto, and I work," and he declared, "I can of mine own self do nothing. There is no mental suggestion or hypnotic treatment indicated by these words. The same perfect Mind or intelligent power which Jesus understood and invoked is available to-day, and has been made practical through Christian Science."

Thanking you in advance for the privilege of space in your columns for reply, I am, yours very truly, C. R. Munn.

AN ARBITRATION TREATY. Signed by Representatives of France and U. S.

Washington, Feb. 10.—United States Secretary of State Root and Ambassador Jusserand to-day signed a treaty providing for the arbitration of any issue that may arise between France and the United States.

The treaty will have to be submitted to the United States Senate and to the French Executive before it can become effective. Meanwhile its provisions are withheld from publication. It is understood, however, that the treaty is drawn in accordance with the recommendation of the late Hague Conference, which, finding it impossible to draft a general arbitration treaty that could receive the assent and support of all of the great powers, adopted a resolution recommending that the various signatory powers unable to make special arrangements between themselves for the settlement of disputes by arbitration.

The present convention is believed to be in terms similar to one prepared by Secretary Olney and Lord Pauncefote looking to the arbitration of possible disputes between America and Great Britain, which convention failed of approval by the United States Senate.

A convention providing for the change of postal matter between the United States and France also was signed to-day at the State Department by Secretary Root and Ambassador Jusserand.

Homestead Regulations

ANY even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the Northwest Provinces, excepting and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any person the sole head of a family, or male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section, of 160 acres, more or less.

Application for homestead entry must be made in person by the applicant at a Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-agency. Entry by proxy may, however, be made at an Agency on certain conditions. The father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of an intending homesteader.

An application for entry or cancellation made personally at any Sub-agent's office may be wired to the Agent by the Sub-agent, at the expense of the applicant, and if the land applied for is vacant on receipt of the telegram such application is to have priority and the land will be held until the party ceases papers to complete the transaction are received by mail.

In case of pre-emption or fraud the applicant will forfeit all priority of claim if entry has been granted it will be automatically cancelled. An application for cancellation must be made in person. The applicant must be eligible for homestead entry, and only one application for cancellation will be received from an individual applicant. Joint ownership is not allowed.

Where an entry is cancelled subsequent to the date of cancellation proceedings, the applicant for cancellation will be entitled to prior right of entry. Applicant for cancellation must state in what particular the homesteader is in default.

A homesteader whose entry is not the subject of cancellation proceedings, may, subject to the approval of Deputy Minister, relinquish it in favour of father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister if eligible, but to no one else, and in such case a declaration of assignment must be filed.

DUTIES.—A settler is required to perform the duties under one of the following plans: (1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years.

(2) A homesteader may, if he so desires, perform the required residence duties by farming on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of the homestead, and on a parcel of land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of the homestead, and on a parcel of land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of the homestead, and on a parcel of land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of the homestead.

Before making application for the land the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, of his intention to do so.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTHWEST MINING REGULATIONS.

COAL.—Coal mining rights may be leased for a period of twenty years, but not more than nine miles in a direct line, exclusive of road allowances crossed in the measurement.

QUARTZ.—A person eighteen years of age or over, having discovered mineral in place, may locate a claim 1,000 x 1,000 feet. The fee for recording a claim is $5.

A least $100 must be expended on the claim each year of paid to the mining recorder in lieu of taxes. When $200 has been expended or paid, the locator may, upon having a survey made, and upon complying with other requirements, purchase the land at $1 per acre.

The present provision for the payment of a royalty of 2 1/2 per cent. on the value of the mineral produced is generally not the best method of securing the interests of the State.

An applicant may obtain two leases in order to sell or for a term of years for a term of twenty years, renewable at the discretion of the Minister of the Interior.

The leases shall have a drainage in operation within one season from the date of the lease for each five miles. Rental $10 per annum for each mile of river lease. Royalty at the rate of 2 1/2 per cent. collected on the output after it exceeds $10,000.

THOUSANDS FOR PHILANTHROPY

The Bulk of Scottish Lady's Money Left for Charity. Toronto, Feb. 11.—The will of the late Miss Margaret May Howe, of Edinburgh, Scotland, for probate, of which application has been made to the Surrogate Court by Mr. John Stark, of this city, disposes of an estate of $205,299, the most of which is left to charities, relatives and needy friends. More than $20,000 worth of the estate is in mortgages on Toronto property. To seven charitable institutions in the old country, she left $18,000 each. To the Quakers' Orphan Home, Glasgow, for emigration purposes, to Dr. Barnardo's Home, for the same, and to E. W. Bullinger, York Mansions, for the "Lodge work," she left $5,000 each. To four city missionaries $2,500, and to another $1,000. The rest is bequeathed to nurses, friends and relatives.

DAYLIGHT BILL FUTILE.

Astronomer-General Thinks of the Men Who Go Early to Work. London, Feb. 10.—Sir William Henry Matheron, the astronomer royal, declines as futile the Daylight Saving Bill prepared by William Pearce, M. P., details of which were cabled yesterday. He says it is hard to imagine what difficulties it will not raise. It would bring into ordinary affairs the inconvenience of time changing as it is done aboard ship. It is simply legislation for late risers, and does not take into account the mass of workers, who already begin work at 6 o'clock in the morning. Late risers would only alter the hour of beginning business from 9 to 10.20. No Act of Parliament will ever make people leave their beds earlier. The whole thing, Sir William declares, is retrograde.

ANTI-CIGARETTE LAW.

First Reading of Bill Passes British Commons. London, Feb. 10.—If a bill which passed its first reading in the House of Commons this afternoon becomes a law, it will have a hard time in inducing their appetites. The act is a Government measure which under the age of sixteen, provides penalties for anyone less than sixteen years old caught smoking in the streets or on any other public place, and makes the sale of cigarettes to persons under sixteen years a punishable offence. Among other interesting features the bill establishes juvenile courts throughout the country and calls for special places of detention for children instead of sending them to the ordinary prisons. It proposes furthermore that the imprisonment of children be entirely abolished.

MURDER CHARGE AGAINST WOMAN WILL NOW BE DROPPED.

Toronto, Feb. 11.—The trial of Mrs. Annie Turner for performing an illegal operation on a young woman named Rose Winters, who died in Toronto in September last, has been sent over to the March Sessions. The case came before the sittings of the senior criminal judge, which concluded last Friday, and as the jury trial there disagreed, the Crown arranged to send the case to the Sessions. One result of this course to the prisoner is that the murder charge against her cannot be pressed in the Sessions, and the Crown action indicates their intention to drop that charge. Some men spend most of their lives apologizing for having been born.

TIGERS WON AT ST. CATHARINES.

Hamilton Hockey Team Victorious by Score of 11 to 7.

Canadian Amateur Athletic Associations Have a Working Agreement for the Olympic Games—Grimsby Girls Won at Welland.

Bitter it was for the St. Catharines hockey team to lose here last Friday night, but far more bitter was the loss they sustained on their own ice last night, the Tigers from this city doing them up by a score of 11 to 7. The game could not be called good hockey; it was more of a shinny match than anything else. Towards the end the game got rough, and the St. Catharines team attempted to put a stopper to some of the swiftest players of the locals. But they soon discovered that they were not up against parlor players, and ceased that kind of business.

A few fans went down from Hamilton on the special car attached to the express at 5 o'clock, and fever still went down on the accommodation, but the crowd at St. Catharines packed the rink. Both teams played six of the players who played on Friday. St. Catharines had Carroll playing at cover instead of Brooker, while the Tigers had Wally Marshall playing point in place of Morrison. The teams were both out for blood, and for fast play, the game could not have been better. But Herb Clark, of Varsity, was a little too lax, and tripping and slashing was overlooked all the time except in flagrant cases, when the men were penalized. For the locals McKean and Harrison on the wings played a fine game and McKean's left side shots and Harrison's aggressiveness were important factors in the game. Motherwell, centre, was at his best, and Morden and Marshall played good games. Morden was hard put to several times, and the puck came at him as fast as he could get rid of it, but he managed in most cases to prevent a score. When some of the Tigers were with the penalty timer the St. Catharines team wakened up and scored a few goals, but Morden and Marshall were a hard combination to beat. The player who showed the best form however was Morrison. In the second half he set to work, and scored three goals in as many minutes with little assistance, and he had to make some grand rushes to get them. For the home team, their famous right wing man, Geo. Collins, did his usual lion's share of the work, and Carroll and Myles showed up well, the former being the new man. May played his best goal, and it was no little feat, but he had a hard aggression and while he let a lot of rather dirty play go by, both sides got about the same advantage from this.

The St. Catharines rink is a good one, and the ice was in good condition. The weather was warm and a lot of steam arising from the pipes made the game hard to watch, but otherwise everything passed off smoothly. The crowd lived up to their reputation, and hissed the referee every time he gave a decision in favor of St. Catharines. The teams lined up as follows: St. Catharines. Hamilton Tigers. Goal. Morden. Point. Marshall. Cover Point. Marshall. Finlay. Rover. Morin. Carroll. Centre. Southam. Myles. Right Wing. Motherwell. Collins. Left Wing. Harrison. Rooney. McKean. Officials. Referee—Herb Clark. Varsity. Goal Judges—Jack Cameron, St. Kitts, H. W. Morden, Hamilton. Timers—W. J. Wells, St. Kitts; W. Western, St. Kitts; and Ralph Ripley, Hamilton.

The scoring was done as follows: First half—Hamilton—Motherwell, 8 minutes. St. Catharines—Collins, 1 minute. Hamilton—Southam, 5 minutes. St. Catharines—Carroll, 1 minute. Hamilton—Motherwell, 3 minutes. St. Catharines—Collins, 4 minutes. Hamilton—Morin, 2 minutes. Hamilton—Morin, 1 minute. Hamilton—Morin, 1 minute. Hamilton—Motherwell, 1 minute. Second Half—Hamilton—McKean, 7 minutes. Hamilton—Carroll, 3 minutes. St. Catharines—Myles, 2 minutes. Hamilton—McKean, 1 minute. Hamilton—Harrison, 2 minutes. St. Catharines—Myles, 10 minutes. Total score—Hamilton 11, St. Catharines 7.

Previous game—Hamilton 11, St. Catharines 2. Total for two games—Hamilton 22, St. Catharines 9. Hamilton therefore beats St. Catharines in their home-and-home games by 13 goals, as goals in both games counted. The game started amidst wild enthusiasm and shouts for both. It was not long before officials were being called on both sides. After facing the rubber near the centre, Motherwell got it and made a brilliant run and passed to Southam, who was pushed and passed back to him. Motherwell ran close into goal and planted the puck for one goal. Not a second later Southam was ruled off for slugging. One minute later the St. Catharines team scored a goal. Collins making a grand rush down the right side, all by himself. He tried a shot from away out, when the defence were not prepared for it, and scored.

It took Southam five minutes after this to engineer the puck for a shot, which was returned to him; before May could get back into goal he had slammed me it back and scored another point. St. Catharines were not going to submit tamely to this, and evened the score again a short minute later. Carroll, their new man, broke away at centre, and, carrying the puck down against the boards, which he could play to perfection, he scored again. He was ruled off for tripping a second later. Motherwell came to the fore again a second or so later, and after slicing the puck he saw room for a shot, and made one which landed past May and into the net. The score stood at 3-2 for a little time, while the locals were endeavoring to stop the home team from evening it up. Collins, however, got in one of his long shots for a point. Morin then showed that condition he was in, and it was the pink of condition. Skating out of a mix-up with the puck, he beat every one down the ice and scored a goal with hardly any opposition.

While putting the puck into play he again came to the fore and rushed down the ice. Another goal was scored inside of a minute. It was hardly a minute later that in exactly the same way he scored another, and the score then stood 6-3, in favor of the Tigers. Motherwell succeeded in notching another also in one minute's time, taking the puck himself, after facing it, and covering a lot of ice, and scoring. The half-time bell then rang, with the score 7-3 in favor of the yellow and black boys from Hamilton.

Shortly before the half-time Carroll beat his skat and while he was off getting another Southam gave up his place, as he had rather a bad foot, his sore one starting to show the strains of the strenuous work. The rest did him good, and both he and Carroll were ready for the next half. The half was not old when Motherwell became rather aggressive, and he was ruled off. For some time the Tigers worked their way down on their opponents' goal, and when the half was seven minutes old St. McKean got away with the puck and scored a goal. Three minutes later Rooney evened this up by a magnificent run he made with Collins, and the two got away with some neat forward passes.

Morin came along just then, and in a few seconds managed to score a goal by a long shot from centre, after he had carried the puck a considerable distance. It was in about a minute less time that Myles scored a goal, and McKean evened it up by taking a long shot from left. Motherwell was going rather slowly, and May missed a wild slug he made at it, with the result that it slowly travelled about two inches inside the net and rested there.

After facing it off Myles suddenly sat down in a heap, nursing his legs, across which he had received a nasty clip from Motherwell, who was not noticed by the referee, however. Harrison was game, and gave the fellows nearly twice his size the boards as one would eat a dinner. He soon made another score. Carroll and Harrison got into an altercation which came to blows, and wily little Charley gave Carroll all he was looking for in about two seconds. Marshall got into the mix-up in some manner, and when the referee arrived on the scene he was put off with the two battlers, which was a man short forward and back. Myles made a good run a second after this, and as Audley Morden was waiting for a chance to keep the puck away till the full complement of players arrived, Myles ran right on to Morden's side, and was laid out for some time after the fall. He hardly got on his feet again when he had made a goal for his team. This brought the score 11-6.

The game was nearly finished now, and it was a forlorn hope that the St. Kitts boys would win. Myles seemed to stay awake however, and soon scored again, bringing the score up to that crash shot—11-7.

TOMMY BURNS WON IN FOUR ROUNDS.

Canadian Boxer Knocked Out Jack Palmer in England Last Night.

London, Feb. 11.—Tommy Burns, the Canadian heavyweight pugilist, last night knocked out Jack Palmer, of Newcastle, the English champion, in the fourth round of what was scheduled to be a 20-round contest for the heavyweight championship. Some 2,000 persons saw the fight, which took place at Wonderland, a big music hall, on the east side, but it was a one-sided affair from the sound of the first gong until the middle of the fourth round, when Palmer, on his knees, was finally counted out.

The referee might have given a decision in the first minute of the contest, as Palmer was a beaten man from the moment he entered the ring. Burns climbed under the rings smilingly, and showing his customary confidence, while Palmer displayed great nervousness. Without any preliminary sparring Burns went after him, and the first round had hardly begun before the Englishman was on his knees. He took the count twice, and during the rest of the round was busily engaged in covering himself. This was repeated in each of the other rounds, Palmer being hopelessly outclassed, and apparently without ability either to deliver a felling blow, or to defend himself. In the final round he was sent to the floor several times, and at last was barely able to drag himself to his knees, where he remained with his elbows on the floor until after the count of ten had been tolled off. Burns, who had been backed by a syndicate, headed by Richard Croker, the former Tammany leader, to fight Burns in Dublin on St. Patrick's Day, was a spectator at the ringside to-night. His only comment was: "Palmer fights like an old woman, while Burns is a master of the art, and, besides, was in splendid condition." The fight was for $2,500 a side, and 75 per cent. of the gate receipts. The odds were 6 to 4 on Burns, but there was very little betting. There were no takers for bets offered by Palmer that he would stay six rounds.

ENGLISH PRESS OPINIONS. London, Feb. 10.—The Burns-Palmer fight was farcical. It closed with an acrimonious bout of hooding. For the best part of four rounds, Palmer, with his back curved like a railway arch, held his gloves tightly pressed to his cheeks, while Burns endeavored to find an unprotected piece of his face to hit. Under the circumstances the press criticism is sarcastic. The Mail says: "As far as could be seen the amount of punishment Burns inflicted would possibly make a baby cry. Palmer can claim to have received a terrific knock out. Nobody saw it, nobody heard it. If Burns is judged by this display he is the humane boxer the world has ever produced." The Express declares that a more pitiful exhibition was never seen, and adds: "Burns laughingly asked the Englishman on one occasion, 'Do you reverse?'"

Local Y. M. C. A. Won From Toronto Centrals. The local Y.M.C.A. basketball team had no difficulty in running away from the Toronto Central five last evening in the Alexandra rink, the score at full time being 64 to 24. It was clearly Hamilton all the way through, and the way the boys played was a joy to their ardent supporters. Their combination work was nearly perfect, and their shooting was excellent. Every man on the team played for all he was worth, and the spectators were treated to some of the swiftest combination work that has been seen in this vicinity for some time. The game was a better one to look at than the one with Buffalo Central Y.M.C.A., as the Toronto boys were game to the last. They did not let up for one moment. Their great difficulty seemed to be in locating the basket. They worked up a good combination at times, but it was mostly a two man affair, and as they were checked closely all the time they did not get much chance to work it. Jardine, the speedy forward who was with the Chicago five the time they won the world's championship, was not much in evidence, principally owing to the fact that he was well looked after by McKean. "Mac" played a strong game all the time, and once in a while not a basket just dropped at the basket and the ball would drop in Smith, the other speedy forward of the "champs" gave a splendid account of himself, and was responsible for many of Gray's shots. He got the ball every time on his combination, and his passing was sure and steady. While not shooting as many as Gray, he was always prominent. Arnold, at centre, played his usual steady game, and also figured in most of the combination. "Fred" is anywhere near him, and he is a tower of strength to the team in tight places

H. got the ball away at centre nearly every time, and had his man covered to a shadow. "Cap" Chadwick was there all the time, too, and there is very little that they can show the veteran. He handled the team splendidly, showing a good deal of foresight in the signals. "Chad" was not adverse to shooting a few baskets either, and he had his man chasing him all around the floor. For the Toronto boys, it must be said that they are good players, individually, but they lack the important point in basketball—that of combination work. Had they developed this part of the game, they would have given Hamilton a harder tussle. Another good word that can be said in their favor, is that they never say a word while playing. They have no time to "chew the rag." This feature in itself won them the commendation of the large crowd present. The work of the officials, Guy Long and J. Crocker, Toronto, was entirely satisfactory to both the teams and the spectators. They handled the game impartially and penalized what little roughness there was. The lineup of the teams was: Hamilton—Forward..... Jardine Gray..... Forward..... Snith..... Centre..... Powell Arnold..... Defence..... Harding Chadwick..... Defence..... Henderson McKean..... Defence..... Salter Guy Long and J. Crocker, referees. Don Cameron, time-keeper, and Bert McKay, scorer. During the intermission there was a potato walking race, which was won by Fred Evans, and a human croquet match, which was won by Harry Fraser.

TO-NIGHT'S GAMES. There will be two games of basketball at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium to-night. The teams will be as follows: First game—Tigers—W. Davis, F. Davis, C. Garvey, Ed. Buscombe, K. Green, G. Turnbull, Swastiks—R. Gordon, Peace, Tassie, Wilson, Burton, Collins. Second game—Britannia—Johnson, Jackman, Kauffman, McFarlane, Thomas, Athaves. Alexandras—S. Fraser, H. Fraser, P. Webber.

BERLIN MAN'S SUICIDE. Shot Himself With Pistol While Wife Was at Church. Berlin, Ont., Feb. 10.—While temporarily mentally unhinged Ed. Musserman, a young man of Berlin, shot himself with a revolver on Sunday while his wife was at church. He was of an eccentric nature, and had several times threatened to do away with himself. He leaves a family of two children. Coroner Lackner decided no inquest was necessary. TEN THOUSAND GONE. Walter Craig Missing With Western Trust's Funds. London, Ont., Feb. 10.—In regard to the case of Walter Craig, who until a week ago was in the employ of the London & Western Trusts Co., Manager John S. Moore makes the following statement: "Craig is apparently a defaulter. The whole shortage is embodied in one transaction on the 1st of February, 1908. The London & Western Trusts Co. has security for the full amount and will not lose one cent." The actual amount involved is not made public, but there are rumors that it is as much as $10,000. Craig, who left the city hurriedly, was well known in local sporting circles and was a prominent football player. His family, who live in South London, are highly respectable people.

COMMENTS AND GOSSIP

The Tigers won at St. Catharines last night and Tommy Burns was victorious in England. That ought to make the local sports feel good for 48 hours. It looks as if Tommy Burns had the Palmer situation sized up pretty well three weeks ago, when he wrote to a Hamilton man that he had "nothing to gain but money by fighting Palmer."

Canada didn't win the Palma trophy, but a Canadian carried off the Palmer scalp. The Hamilton hockey team will leave for Collingwood to-morrow on the regular train leaving here at 11.30. They will play the first game of the round to-morrow night, and will leave for home could get back into goal he had slammed no special train, but a reduced rate has been secured for fans who wish to go. Ice skating isn't what it used to be on this continent. A few years ago the land was filled with men who were recognized as the greatest speed merchants in the world on the blades of steel, but to-day, barring a few here and at Montreal, the crop is thin. We have no more Johnny Johnsons, Donoghues, Nilsons, and Carlsons. Joe Donoghue was in his day without a peer on the ice. While following the sport he was recognized as the greatest skater the world ever saw. Donoghue's greatest feat was his 100-mile performance at Stamford, Conn., Jan. 26, 1893, when he skated 100 miles for fun. His time was 7 hrs. 11 min.

Will Study Engineering. Berlin, Feb. 10.—When the Crown Prince finishes his civil service studies he will undergo a course of theoretical training at the famous technical college at Charlottenburg, after which he will be apprenticed to an engineering firm to get a practical acquaintance with machinery. Little Boy Scalded. Woodstock, Feb. 10.—The two-year-old son of David M. Ross, of this city, was very badly scalded yesterday. The child was playing in the kitchen while the mother prepared dinner. She lifted a pot of soup from the stove, when it upset, and the contents fell on the baby. It will recover.

UNHOLZ, THE BOER BOXER IS QUITE A LINGUIST. Rudolph Unholz, who is credited with having outpointed Battling Nelson in their recent ten-round bout at Los Angeles, is said to be able to talk eight or ten different languages. That is certainly going some and ought to insure him a job as head waiter in any of the prominent Broadway restaurants in which English is seldom heard spoken in these degenerate days. But then, Rudolph may not want to be a waiter, since he has earned a reputation as a prizefighter. He perhaps considers himself good enough now to get the money with the wallop, and will let the dealing from the arm game run for less ambitious persons. If Rudolph will remain in this country long enough to acquire a modicum of English and a little of the sort of talk in general use among the fighters and some of their managers here on Manhattan Island he will certainly be a most useful member of the pugilistic fraternity.

Squabble Over Plumbing Inspector Matter.

City's Relief Work Is Still Well In Hand.

The move last night by which some of the aldermen got the Council to name a special committee to consider the appointment of a plumbing inspector has stirred up a lively little squabble.

The sudden activity displayed by the promoters of the Guelph Junction Railway about a week ago and the statement that the building of the road would be proceeded with at once appears to have been a false alarm.

Relief Officer McMenemy declared most emphatically again today when questioned about cases of suffering in the city, that there was no need of a public appeal for charity.

Mr. McMenemy admits that the demands on charity this year are the heaviest in probably ten years, but he says the situation by no means beyond control.

In view of the action of the city solicitor in Ottawa advising the Assessment Commissioner there in making the assessments this year to assess civil servants for income, it is probable that similar action will be taken here.

Heretofore they have been exempt from the provisions of the Imperial Privy Council affirmed the right of municipalities in Australia to impose such a tax, and the New Brunswick Supreme Court has just followed that ruling and decided in favor of the City of St. John in a case arising out of the taxation of a Dominion official.

Chairman Sweeney, of the Board of Works, thinks he has a solution of the trouble over the snow cleaning problem and he will ask his committee to deal with it at the next meeting.

The Board of Health at its next meeting will discuss the advisability of building a smallpox hospital, with the $5,000 voted by the Council last night, or waiting until a larger amount can be secured.

The Ottawa Journal, which had a man here recently investigating the attractions of Hamilton as a manufacturing centre, has a two-page "boost" for this city. It is done with a view of stirring up the Ottawa authorities.

City Clerk Kent declared to-day that there was no foundation for the story that the insurance carriers by the city on the different municipal buildings was not equally divided. He says he presents a statement each year showing how the insurance is distributed.

The Markets, Police and Jail Committee will make its annual inspection of the markets, police stations, weigh scales and the jail to-morrow.

The House of Refuge Committee will meet on Thursday, instead of Tuesday, to strike the estimates.

At the meeting of the committee this morning it was decided to ask his lordship the bishop to consent to act as Honorary President.

Another meeting of the committee will be held at 5 o'clock on Monday afternoon in the Board of Trade rooms, when invitations will be sent out and a committee of delegates from each parish appointed to attend the mass meeting on Tuesday evening.

Arranging For Annual Exhibition For Next Month.

A regular meeting of the Hamilton Camera Club was held last night in the new club rooms, King street west.

The club's trophies will be competed for in Section 1, for the best two prints in landscape, marine, genre and architecture, or interiors, open to all members of club.

Section 2, open to all members, three classes: Class 1, landscape, marine or genre; class 2, portraits, interiors or flowers; class 3, enlargements.

Section 3, open only to members who have not gained a prize at previous exhibitions of Camera Club, 6 prints, any subject.

Section 4, open to all amateur photographers, not members of the Hamilton Camera Club, 6 prints, any subject.

The indications are that this exhibition will be the best yet held. It was decided that all persons joining the club from this date will receive a membership card dated from June 1, entitling them to all privileges of the club till June, 1903.

This and the club year ends June 1, and this bonus of four months will no doubt bring in many new members. Demonstrations have been arranged for February as follows: Monday, 17th, artistic mounting; Monday, 24th, toning of developing papers.
